SUPERIOR COURT TRIAL OF CIVIL CASES CONVENES

Fifteen Superior Courts to Be in Session in State This Week; Judge W. A. Devin to Preside Over Sessions Here

County Superior Court, for the trial of civil cases, convened here today with Judge W. A. Devin, presiding. The calendar consists of a large number of cases and every effort possible will be made to clear the docket.

Raleigh, Feb. 15.—(AP)—This week will be one devoted largely to the trial of civil cases, as far as the Superior courts of the state are concerned.

Of the 15 Superior courts opening in as many counties, today, nine of them are exclusively civil, and four are mixed, which means that the time of the courts will be shared between the criminal and civil dockets.

In addition to the 15 new courts which will begin today, five previously called will continue in session during the week and three of those will devote this week to the trial of civil cases also.

So that of the 20 courts which will be in session during the week, 12 will devote their entire attention to civil cases, while some of those cases will come up in four others.

Fourteen of the new court terms are regular ones; that in Wilson county is a special term, call for the trial of criminal cases. Emergency Judge C. C. Lyon, of Elizabethtown, was originally commissioned to hold this court, when it was called some weeks ago, but due to an exchange, Judge M. V. Barnhill, of Rocky Mount, will preside. The term is for two weeks.

Judges Thomas H. Calvert, of Raleigh, and Barnhill were already in exchange, which would have sent Judge Barnhill to Nash county and Judge Calvert to Franklin county. Due to the exchange between Judges Lyon and Barnhill, the former will hold the two weeks civil term in Nash. Judge Calvert will hold the two weeks civil term in Franklin county.

Judge A. M. Stack, of Monroe, will hold court in Union county due to an exchange with Judge Michael Schenck, who goes to McDowell. Both terms are for two weeks. Civil cases exclusively will be tried in Union, while the McDowell term is a mixed one.

The one week mixed term in Buncombe county will be held by Judge P. A. McElroy, of Marshall, due to the fact that he is in exchange with Judge W. F. Harding, of Charlotte, who would have presided in Buncombe, except for the exchange.

A new exchange, which begins today, is that of Judges T. B. Finley, of North Wilkesboro, and Thomas J. Shaw, of Greensboro. As a result of their being in exchange, Judge Finley goes to Alexander county and Judge Shaw to Davidson. The Alexander term is for one week, with a mixed docket. In Davidson, civil cases only will be tried. The latter term is for two weeks.

The only exclusively criminal term—with the exception of the special term in Wilson county—is that in Durham county. That term is for one week, with Judge R. A. Nunn, of New Bern, presiding. Judge Nunn has been in exchange with Judge W. A. Devin, of Oxford, but they go back to their own districts this week.

In Jackson county, a two weeks mixed term opens, with Judge John M. Oglesby, of Concord, presiding.

A one week civil term opens in Pitt. Judge W. A. Devin will preside.

Judges H. A. Grady, of Clinton, and W. M. Bond, of Edenton, who have been in exchange for some weeks, go back to their respective districts this week. Judge Grady will hold court in Beaufort county; Judge Bond goes to Lenoir. Both terms are civil, and each is for two weeks.

The court terms in Johnston and Columbus are both civil, and each term is for two weeks. Judge N. A. Sinclair, of Fayetteville, will hold the Johnston term, and Judge G. E. Midyette, of Jackson, will preside in Columbus. Courts previously opened which

COAL DIGGERS EAGERLY AWAIT A RATIFICATION

Everything In Readiness for a Resumption of Operations in the Anthracite Region

Scranton, Pa., Feb. 15.—(AP)—Axious to return to work after an illness of nearly six months the 158,000 hard coal diggers today eagerly awaited a ratification by their tri-district convention in Scranton, of the agreement reached in Philadelphia by officials of the United Mine Workers and Representatives of the operators.

The convention opens tomorrow and ratification is expected to come not later than Wednesday, officially ending the longest and most disastrous strike in the history of the anthracite region. 24 hours later anthracite will be moving toward the markets.

Everything is in readiness for a resumption of operations. Large forces were put to work cleaning up and repairing immediately after an agreement was reached Friday and today found most of the collieries in fairly good shape.

Peak production probably will not be reached before the end of the month. Many miners left the region during the suspension and will not be able to get back for a day or two.

Dr. Johnson's Dental Offices Destroyed Fire

The dental offices of Dr. B. McK. Johnson, one the fourth floor of the National Bank building were completely destroyed by fire of an unknown origin Saturday night at 11:30 o'clock. Adjoining offices also suffered damages from the fire, water and smoke.

Dr. Johnson's loss is approximately $8000, partially covered by insurance, while the loss to the building is estimated at $5000.

The hour of the fire and the quick response of the fire company probably saved the entire building from being consumed by the flames.

Dr. C. O'H. Laughinghouse's offices on the third floor directly under those of Dr. Johnson were badly damaged.

Washington, Feb. 15.—(AP)—A demand for abolition of the tariff commission was made to the House Appropriation Committee during its consideration of fiscal funds for that body, it was disclosed today in published records of the hearing.

The demand was made on behalf of the National Board of Farm Organizations, but under Secretary Charles R. Halman. He presented a resolution adopted by the Farm Organization charging the commission was guilty of unwarranted delay in arriving at decisions and

Page Urges An Appropriation Building Roads

Washington, Feb. 15.—(AP)—Federal appropriations of $80,000,000 annually for several years to aid states in building roads as provided in a pending bill was urged before the House Roads Committee today by Frank Page, Chairman of the North Carolina Highway Commission, and President of the American Association of State Highway Officials.

The appropriation made last year was $75,000,000. Mr. Page said that during the year 39 states had exceeded this quotas in providing funds to be added to the Federal allotment, but eight states had fallen below their pro-rata share.

Mr. Page said that mileage of hard surface roads had increased only one fourth as rapidly as the number of vehicles.

35 Killed in Traffic Accidents During Past Week

Dixie yielded up 35 more lives last week to the traffic demon, while 272 persons were more or less seriously injured. A survey made public today by the Associated Press showed. The survey included deaths and injuries by automobile, railway trains, trolley cars and motorcycles in eleven states of the South.

Louisiana, with six deaths, took the lead over Georgia and North Carolina, which reported five each. Mississippi escaped with no deaths for the week. North Carolina reported 35 injuries.

Thomas Peteet his wife and two daughters left San Diego, one of the most beautiful, well ordered American cities, and crossed the Mexican border to Tia Juana. The daughters of Thomas Peteet while in Tia Juana fell into bad hands. The father was partly responsible, taking them into a place feeling that he did not know, to drink beer. When they got back to San Diego, feeling that he and his wife were disgraced, Peteet killed the two girls, their mother, and himself.

By orders of Secretary Kellogg, the matter is investigated. Several men are arrested, somebody may face a Mexican firing squad. But that is no remedy.

Secretary Kellogg might interfere with the easy granting of passports to Tia Juana dives, from respectable United States Communities. Those that cross the border should be forbidden to come back the way they went, inside of three months. Or some other method could make it difficult for Americans — NOT MEXICANS MIND YOU — to maintain disorderly resorts, drinking, gambling, racing dives on the edge of United States territory, drawing overnight customers from the United States.

INCREASE IN TAX REDUCTION BILL APPEARS DOOMED

Chairman Greene Declares That Increase Threatens a Deficit in Federal Treasury

Washington, Feb. 15.—(AP)—Without a word of debate the House today formally disagreed to the Senate amendment to the tax bill. When Chairman Greene asked unanimous consent that the bill be sent to conference, Representative Sosnowski, Republican of Michigan, who has advocated total repeal of the automobile tax instead of merely a reduction from five to three per cent, as provided by the House, objected.

The Chairman then moved that the bill be sent to conference and it was immediately voted.

Washington, Feb. 15.—(AP)—The problem of revising the tax reduction bill so as to meet the approval of the House, Senate and Treasury, today confronted the straightening out of points of differences. As passed by the House the bill provides for reduction by $456,261,000 or more than $125,000,000 in excess of that voted by the House and about $100,000,000 more than Secretary Mellon believed the condition of the Treasury will permit this year.

A considerable portion of the increase in the reduction appears to be done by the attitude of House leaders, who would adhere to their own figures. Chairman Greene, of the Ways and Means Committee, heading the House conferees, has declared that any increase over the $33,000,000 reduction proposed by the House can only threaten a Treasury deficit by jeopardizing enactment of several pending bills calling for increased appropriations, including the public buildings bill. Mr. Greene declared also that while government activities estimated in the Senate bill would reduce taxes by $456,261,000 this calendar year, its actual reduction would amount to $600,000,000 annually when the bill goes fully into effect in later years.

The House conferees have also more or less support from the three Republican Representatives of the Senate, inasmuch as the Major increases in reduction voted by the Senate were made on the votes of Democrat insurgents. The taxes which seemed most likely to be restored to the bill probably would lower rates on those of automobile passenger cars, admissions and dues.

Among the conferees is Senator Simmons, of North Carolina.

GHOSTS AROUND DUBLIN CAUSE GREAT COMMOTION

Dublin, Feb. 15.—(INS)—The reported appearances of a ghostly apparition has caused a good deal of commotion in the vicinity of Dublin.

The apparition takes the form of a country woman, and inhabitants who have seen her state that she glides along silently and mysteriously.

Sometimes, when you hear that man has gone wrong it merely means that he has just been found out.—Fayetteville Observer.

PAY TRIBUTE TO MEMORY MEN WHO DIED ON MAINE

Great Britain and the United States Join Cuban Government in Paying Tribute to 266 Officers and Men

Havana, Cuba, Feb. 15.—(AP)—Great Britain and the United States will join with the Cuban Government today in paying tribute to the memory of the 266 officers and men who lost their lives in the explosion which sank the United States Battleship, Maine, in Havana Harbor, February 15, 1898. Great Britain and the United States are the nations which caused the flag to be lowered. British forces under Admiral Sir George Pocock, and the court of Albermarle, captured the fortress and city of Havana Aug. 14, 1762, and remained in possession until July 6, 1763. United States forces in 1898 occupied the entire island. The Americans retired on May 20, 1902, turning the government over to the Cuban Republic, headed by Thomas Estrada Palma, the new President.

Cardinal Mundelein, third of the Cardinals in America to discuss prohibition, says the people get what they want. If they don't want prohibition they can get rid of it by electing a new congress. He says truly that it is lawful for any citizen to object to any law, criticize it, work to have it changed—if he OBEYS the law.

The Catholic "Extension Magazine" under Cardinal Mundelein's control predicts repeal of the Volstead Act.

Cardinal Mundelein is the third American Prince of the Roman Catholic Church to express open opposition to prohibition. There is undoubtedly a well organized Catholic movement toward modification of the Volstead law. The Catholic Church works steadily, takes its time, knows how to get results, and is never in a hurry.

Chapman Loses Appeal for Writ Habeas Corpus

New York, Feb. 15.—(AP)—Gerald Chapman, convicted bandit and murderer, today lost his appeal to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for a writ of habeas corpus. The appeals court sustained the order of Federal Judge Thomas, of Connecticut. Chapman under sentence to hang on March 3, for the murder of a New Britain, Conn., policeman, sought by habeas corpus proceeding, to be returned to the Atlanta Penitentiary, from which he escaped after serving only a short period of his 25-year sentence for a million dollar mail robbery in New York City.

It is now expected that Chapman will carry his appeal to the United States Supreme Court. His counsel stated at the time the argument was made under the Appellate Court that if the decision was adverse he would make the attempt.

Supreme Court to Hear Appeal of Roy Matthews

Raleigh, Feb. 15.—(AP)—When the North Carolina Supreme Court begins its third week of the spring term on Tuesday, February 16, to hear appeals from the third and fourth judicial districts, one of the appeals, that is on the calendar to come before the high court is that of Roy Matthews, at this time the only white man on death row at State's Prison here.

Matthews has been convicted of the murder of D. J. McLeod, in Harnett county, and sentenced to die by electrocution.

This case will probably come up on Wednesday, since the court's calendar states that only appeals from the third district will come up on Tuesday, and that cases will be heard as docketed, beginning Wednesday. Matthews' appeal, which comes up from the fourth district, is the first on the calendar.

FROM SWADDLING CLOTHES TO TROUSERS

Outside the real of fancy there is nothing in modern science so amazing as the rapid development of radio. It has jumped overnight swaddling clothes into trousers and in four years has passed through the field of adventure to a public utility of importance, and a social force that permeates every part of our daily life.

Largely employed as a medium of entertainment in the beginning, it is now being used by the schools to educate, by the police in apprehension of criminals, for speedy location of missing people, weather reports, guidance of ships, etc.

It has enabled the President of the United States to address approximately all the people at one time. International relations have been brought closer, and at home it has done much to create a sense of national solidarity, even in the most remote settlements.

FIFTY YEARS OF TWO INVENTIONS

Thomas A. Edison's associates, celebrating his seventy-ninth birth, recall that two of the first inventive ideas upon which he worked were the typewriter and the telephone. They might also recall that it is just fifty years since Shole's typewriter and Bell's telephone really began their careers. Both were exhibited at the Centennial Exposition, and discerning men realized that each was a machine far more powerful than the giant Corliss engine which was the popular wonder of the fair. Sholes, a poor mechanic, of Milwaukee, had first set out to invent a device for numbering the pages of books; Bell, an even poorer teacher of deaf-mutes in Boston, had undertaken to invent a musical telegraph. Both had been led to more important objects. Their inventions were roughly finished before 1876, but it was the notice they attracted at the exposition which made their success and rapid improvement certain. The hour of Bells triumph in especial, dated from the time the Emperor Dom Pedro of Brazil, being hurried through the exhibits, picked up what careless men had considered merely a quaint toy.

A half-century ago the social need which gave birth to these inventions, was plain. The world was growing too crowded and transacting too much business to do all its writing by steel pens and all its talking at close range. Yet the place they fill in present-day society would have seemed almost incredible to the Centennial crowds.—New York World.

CABLE LETTER

Paris, Feb. 14. (AP)—If Cardinal Ratti, erudite Italian prelate, linguist, extraordinary scientist and book-lover, had only remained Monsignor Ratti instead of becoming Pope Pius IX, he might now be a member of the French Academy of Inscriptions and Belles-Lettres and as such belong to the Institute of France.

But while it was easy to elect President Wilson a member of the Academy of Moral and Political Sciences, and also to elect King Albert of Belgium to fill that statesman's place; while the Academy of Inscriptions had no trouble at all in electing King Victor Emmanuel of Italy, a noted coin collector, to membership, electing a pope is a different matter. There are delicate diplomatic problems to be considered, there are a number of pronounce danti-clerical members of the Academy, and an unanimous vote is required. As a result a movement to elect his Holiness, if not definitely abandoned, has at least been plighted.

The former Monsignor Ratti was proposed for membership in the learned gathering some time during the war. "Not well enough known," declared the boughty academicians. "Let us wait and see if he produces a magnum opus that will entitle him to sit with us." However, before the French litterati could get around to his case again, Cardinal Ratti had ascended to the throne of St. Peter, a somewhat higher distinction than that of occupying an academician's chair.

Berlin, Feb. 13.—(AP)—American motion pictures, although popular enough in this country to worry the German picture companies, did not prove to be the "best sellers" of the German film world during 1925. This is shown by replies to a questionnaire sent out to six hundred picture theatre proprietors.

The names of only three American productions appear in a list of the 21 most profitable pictures of last year. One in second place, another in fourth and another in eighth. All the others in the list are German made films.

The questionnaire revealed that the German public likes pictures of historical stories and also films with local settings.

Denouncing women's dress, modern dances of American or French origin and other "depraved" importations, 20,000 bare kneed, muscular members of the United States Leagues of Bavarian Highlanders, dressed in brilliant kilts with feathered tufts in the ceremonial hats, threaten to use force unless the Bavarian Diet passes a law prohibiting the "pollution of innocent Bavarian maidens by shameless and immoral foreigners" who visit the Highlands.

The league's resolution to the Diet declares that "any woman so brazen and depraved as to display herself in public in vulgar and fastidiously dressed costumes and to eliminate the prevailing scandal by means of sound thrashings."

A "respectable maiden" the resolution adds, "has her clothes well buttoned up to the neck instead of gadding about with nothing above and below. We have 20,000 muscular members ready to eradicate these disgusting customs and to eliminate the prevailing scandal by means of sound thrashings."

The "scandalous bathing of tourists of both sexes" in the mountain lakes also comes in for criticism. The resolution says that public bathing should be reserved for days preceding important Catholic holidays. But on other days those who have acquired the "silly bathing habit" are warned to confine it to their bath tubs.

Bloodless and knifeless surgical operations in which tissues are cut by an electric spark are said to have been performed successfully by Professor Albert Doderlein of the University of Munich.

PARIS TAILORS PERFECT A DUMMY OF LIFE FORM

Paris, Feb. 13.—(AP)—Tailors' dummies which move their lips, eyes and heads by means of electric motors hidden in their chests, is the Paris tailors' latest step to make his models lifelike.

The first radical movement to make shop-window dummies resemble human beings was the abolition of the "Adonis" type of male beauty. Everywhere in Paris now Adonis is outnumbered by the corpulent, the undersized, the plain-featured, the cross-eyed and the broken-nosed dummy.

The faces of these dummies are composed of a new material called "staf," a mixture of fibre and plaster, which is far less brittle than wax and permits of more natural coloring.

MINNEAPOLIS MILKMEN REACH HIGH STANDING IN MUSICALS NOW

Minneapolis, Feb. 13.—(AP)—The indispensable milkman, often heard but seldom seen, has been elevated to a high musical standing in Minneapolis through the activities of the male chorus of the rankin co-operative Creamery.

This concern, a protégé of local trade unions, has cultivated the voices necessarily stilled during the quiet milk delivery hours, until the chorus of 33 members has more offers for local engagements than it can fill.

Drilled by Olaf Halten, bass violin player with the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra, the singing milkmen attained unprecedented heights by appearing in concert at the same music hall retained by the symphony.

Los Angeles, Feb. 13.—(AP)—When members of the horseback riding clubs of this vicinity began casting about for a means of obtaining more bridle paths, the fire department came to their aid.

Nearby hills which have a heavy growth of brush are in the dry season a constant menace, causing many devastating fires wreaking havoc with water sheds. Believing that getting the 3,500 horsemen of Los Angeles out into the hazard zones would help lessen the danger of the city, through the presence of these unofficial lookouts, Fire Chief Ralph Scott has made many fire lanes available to the riders.

In return for the construction of the fire-break paths, the riding clubs have agreed to patrol them and be alert in reporting fires before they gain headway.

CROP PROFITS Depend Largely Upon the Fertilizer You Use

Many factors determine the profits you will make from your crops: soil, weather conditions, farming methods and fertilization are the chief ones.

The successful farmer knows that good and profitable crops, especially tobacco, depend more upon the fertilizer used than any other single element.

It is, therefore, very important to be careful in the buying of fertilizer to get the correct analysis and a reliable brand.

You Can't Go Wrong With Acme

Acme Fertilizers, made at Acme, N. C., have a wonderful record for producing quality crops and large yields. Acme has gone so far into the study of the requirements of farmers; has carried research and experimentation to such an extensive point; and has developed such fine formulae that Acme Fertilizers are standard with hundreds of farmers in the two Carolinas. These farmers realize that they can depend upon Acme for producing the greatest yield per acre.

Because Acme is an independent home company; because its officials are vitally interested in every customer; because Acme's dealings are fair and square, without red tape or alibis, the Acme customer gets a completely satisfactory service from this company and its dealers.

Try Acme This Season

Before placing your order for fertilizer this season, get in touch with the Acme dealer, or write us, and secure the complete data on what Acme should do for your crops. Once you start using Acme, it's fairly assured you will never switch to another brand.

the Los Angeles-to-Honolulu race, which promises to be the greatest trans-Pacific race ever staged.

From twelve to fifteen craft are expected to glide out of Los Angeles harbor June 12 to make the long water trek.

L. A. Norris, of San Francisco, won the San Francisco-Tahiti jaunt last season in eleven days and six hours' time and yachtsmen believe a new record will be established this year in the 2,180 mile cruise.

Already three yachts, all in Class C of craft of from forty to sixty feet over all—have been entered in the race. These vessels are the fifty-six-foot yawl, owned by Clem Stose, San Diego; the fifty-six-foot yawl, owned by Milton Hesselberger, Catalina Island; the forty-four-foot yawl, owned by John Harper, Vancouver, B. C.

Two San Francisco yachts, in addition to the Norris' Mariner, last year's winner, are expected to make the 1926 race. These are Dr. B. R. Parker's Idalia, which finished second in 1925, and John Piver's Eloise, also in entry in last year's contest.

The Enchantress, a 137-foot vessel, owned by Morgan Adams, Los Angeles, is another possibility, while the Poinsetta, owned by Paul Whittier, Los Angeles, may also be entered. The Poinsetta is extremely fast and would be a favorite to cop the honors in the long run over the Pacific.

James Dickson, Los Angeles, and W. W. Pedder, another Southern California yachtsman, practically decided to enter the Honolulu race. Dickson will sail his forty-one-foot schooner, Jubilo, probably the smallest entry, while Pedder will enter his famous schooner Diablo, winner of the Honolulu dash in 1923. Matt Walsh, of the California Yacht Club, Los Angeles, is planning to enter his Walgar and Otto G. Wilgey, Los Angeles, may put the yacht Katedna in the race. Additional entries are expected from San Diego and Santa Barbara.

TEN THOUSAND RADIO ROBBERS ANNOYING THE OSAKA BROADCASTING

Osaka, Feb. 13.—(AP)—In Japan "stealing the air" is now a misdemeanor and one that is causing much annoyance to the radio broadcasting companies. One company in Osaka has estimated there were 10,000 "radio robbers" stealing its program.

Every radio set in Japan is supposed to be listed with the government and the broadcasting companies are permitted to charge a small fee for their programs. This charge averages around two yen a month. That many thousands of radio users are escaping this fee is the belief of the authorities who have started a campaign to weed out the "robbers."
