DR. H. F. JONES IN STRONG SERMON UNPARDONABLESIN

Prof. E. L. Wolslagel Brings Splendid Message in Song; "No Man Careth for My Soul," Subject of Tonight's Sermon

Rev. H. Frederick Jones delivered the third sermon of the revival services in the Memorial Baptist Church last night, the subject being, "The Unpardonable Sin," taking his text from Mark 3:29; 2nd John 3:16.

Prof. E. L. Wolslagel, soloist and musical director, had charge of the song service and sang a solo, "Sin to Blame."

Dr. Jones will preach tonight on the subject, "No Man Careth for My Soul." He will bring a message that will be inspiring and uplifting.

Prof. Wolslagel, who has a national reputation as a musical director has arranged a splendid program which will be appropriate to the sermon.

The public is extended a cordial invitation to attend the services. The following are extracts from last night's sermon:

"We have come to the final conclusion that 'Unbelief' is the mother of all sins, and the greatest of all sins. I speak to you tonight for twenty minutes on 'The Unpardonable Sin.' Men are not interested very much in the sin of 'Unbelief' but they are interested in the sin we call the 'Unpardonable Sin.' I want you to think of the awful and fearful result of unbelief. We are all interested in the 'Unpardonable Sin,' for were we not interested in sin in some form, they would never become interested in their salvation. We know the Lord God admonishes us not to hate, but the Lord and even the angels too, hate sin. There is such a thing as a right hate. You hate sin and God hates sin as only God can hate. On Calvary there were three crosses, on one the Son of God hung between two thieves. In our Saviour, you also observe the hater of sin, and He represented all heaven.

"The man who has committed the unpardonable sin is just as cold, and just as indifferent to God as a demon in hell. This man is like a stone statue, you can't make an impression on him although you may try in every way, for he has committed the unpardonable sin. When you see one in your town who has been as cold and hard and indifferent and doesn't care for their salvation, they will smile in that indifferent way in your face when ever you speak to them about their salvation. Nothing you can do will touch the cords of their hearts. That is the condition of the man who has committed the 'Unpardonable Sin.'

"Jesus knew, when he said 'There is a sin unto death.' Some say when one attributes the works of God to the works of the devil, that he has committed the unpardonable sin. There is one thing brother, that you will never hear me do, and that is criticize a man who is trying to live a Christian life. I don't ever say that he is doing it for ulterior motives. God never made you or me a judge. That may be the unpardonable sin. And I know that it is committed every day. The unpardonable sin, may be committed by every single word that the sinner may take. A man can take any route that he wants from the treasure house of 'Unbelief.' You can decide which route you want to take. You may take the liquor route, the route of lying—just keep on lying and you will commit the unpardonable sin; you may try any route of unbelief that you want, but they will in the end lead to the unpardonable sin. You can commit the unpardonable sin by keeping committing the sin you are now committing. I don't know when one will commit it. There is however, some day, somewhere. I don't know when he will commit the unpardonable sin. How long have you been rejecting God? I am glad I can hate sin. The trouble with folks is there are too many folks now, who are on good terms with sin. Instead they should go out to kill sin. You cannot do it by staying on good terms with sin.

Varce County Jail Has Been Empty for Five Weeks

Henderson, N. C., Feb. 16.—(AP)—Empty at the January term of Superior court, the Vance county jail has remained empty ever since. For five weeks now, the jail has had no occupant, which makes a record not equalled in this county for many years.

So far there are no jail cases to be tried at the March term of court, which opens in this county on March 1, and indications are that there will be very few criminal cases to come up for trial at that time.

VIRTUALLY AGREE BUILDING PROGRAM NAVAL AIR SERVICE

Five Year Building Program to Cost $100,000,000 Virtually Agreed Upon by House Naval Committee

Washington, Feb. 16.—(AP)—The House Naval Committee has virtually agreed upon the five-year building program for the Naval air service to cost $100,000,000.

This amount is about two fifths of that recommended by Rear Admiral Moffet, Naval Air Chief, as necessary to provide an adequate air service for any emergency.

Final decision on the program is expected by the committee tomorrow and if adopted, a bill to authorize this expenditure probably will be introduced in the next day or so by Chairman Butler. In its present form the program would authorize an annual expenditure of $20,000,000 for five years. This would provide two dirigibles each three times the size of the wrecked Shenandoah, 1,000 new planes at the end of the five-year period, and an appropriation, the amount as yet undetermined, for the Navy to contract with the Air Craft Development Corporation for an all-metal dirigible.

Representative Vinson, of Georgia, ranking Democrat on the Committee, said today that members were practically united in their views and that a bill to carry out a building program already had been drafted. Admiral Moffet had urged approximately, $250,000,000 to be spent in five years, but the committee reduced this $150,000,000 by omitting a provision for the new airplane carrier and by reducing by 250 the number of new planes to be built.

Concern Making Bows, Arrows Makes Inquiries

Raleigh, Feb. 16.—(AP)—A concern manufacturing bows, arrows and other implements of archery, is considering locating in North Carolina, and has written the office of W. N. Everett, Secretary of State, with reference to incorporation in North Carolina, and particularly for information about North Carolina laws.

The letter particularly inquired whether or not there was any law in this state which would prohibit the killing of birds or game with a bow and arrow. In Louisiana, in which state the company is now located, the law requires that a bird and game be killed with a gun fired from the shoulder, the letter said.

So far as can be learned, no law prohibiting the use of bow and arrow in killing game exists in this state.

Two Good Birthdays.
4 Negroes, Where Are They?
Strike Ends, As Usual.
Onishi, Gun-Toter.
ARTHUR BRISBANE

Another Lincoln's birthday gone, the usual amount of nonsense and "hub-bub" talked, Lincoln fortunately couldn't hear it.

Lincoln is still alive and greater than ever. Real men, of whom there are few, continue to grow after death.

Average "great men," the McKinleys, Cleverlands, Roosevelts, get smaller as they fade in the distance, like narrowing tracks behind an express train.

To study Lincoln's character is like taking a voyage on the Pacific. The ocean surrounds you completely, always stretching out farther than your feeble eyes can reach. So with the character of a really great man.

Thomas A. Edison has celebrated his 70th birthday, one day ahead of Lincoln's birthday. Edison's name also will last. He puzzles and annoys those that are religious, pure and limited, by indorsing prohibition and evolution in the same breath.

Edison who has helped to give light to the people, in more ways than one, says the world is getting better, because it contains more honest, humane men.

What DOES happen to us after we leave this brief life?

What happened to John Canada, Isaman Jones, Cephus Johnson and Clinton Mason, four negroes executed electrically in Arkansas yesterday.

Did the four discover that Herbert Spencer was right, when, in bitter disillusioned old age he said, "Reason allows me to look forward to nothing but extinction."

Did those four colored men, who protested their innocence to the last, wake up in another world, with wings, or in a lower world in horrible, eternal torment?

If they are alive somewhere else, are they now white or black, or some new color, perhaps bright gold? Have they exchanged the old defective brains for better brains incapable of murder?

Can they remember the names that they took one after the other to the electric chair? Are they boy-cotted, up or down there? What does happen?

Secretary of Labor Davis announces the coal strike ending. The workers get about what was to be expected.

Intelligent leadership was on the other side. After losing millions a week in wages for months, many of them hungry and all worried, the men return to work with no increase in pay and a contract to keep on working for five years.

The mine owners have not worried. Their coal has stayed in the ground quite safe. They sold huge surplus supplies, including mountains of coal dust at high prices.

It is hard for working men to get the right leadership. They can't afford to pay, or won't pay, for it, what the owners will pay.

Great relief in Japan, for Seiji Onishi, first Japanese "gunman" is locked up.

Japanese criminals use daggers, everybody there has a horror of pistols. Onishi, gun-toter, robbed many, killed a few, but will not last long now.

Here we have our thousands of active highly efficient gunman. Worth only a few lines in the news. Japanese newspapers publish special extras for Onishi, the first Japanese crime extra.

They won't send Onishi flowers, or give him two or three different trials. He won't be locked in a prison with moving pictures, baseball games and other delights. He will soon be a dead Onishi. The Japanese are practical.

SUZANNE LENGLEN WINS IN CONTEST WITH HELEN WILLS

French Tennis Champion Defeats American Champion by the Score of 63 to 86

Cannes, France, Feb. 16.—(AP)—Suzanne Lenglen today defeated Helen Wills, the score being 63-86. The marvelous French woman showed in her first meeting with the American Tennis champion that she is unapproached in the game by any other player of her sex.

Miss Wills, however, played better tennis against the French player than has any player done since Mlle, being sick, defaulted to Mollie Mallory, at Forest Hill. The match as a whole failed to provide the high class quality of tennis that the spectators expected from two such champions. Both girls were extremely careful, taking absolutely no chances and remaining on the base lines throughout the two sets.

Mlle. Lenglen won through steadiness, making fewer errors than the American girl. Miss Wills at one time had the set point in reach when leading at five games to four in the second set, but failed to play a ball which was called good, by thousands of spectators had believed was outside.

This seemed to unnerve the American girl. Her game lacked the speed and enthusiasm to which she has accustomed the Riviera fans.

NEGRO CHILDREN BURNED TO DEATH NEAR WINTERVILLE

A telephone message from Winterville this afternoon told of the burning to death of two small negro children and injuries to a third that may prove fatal. Two of the children were the children of Charlie Daniel negro, and the third about six years old was the child of Jim Evans, negro.

According to the report the children were playing in a potato cellar a short distance from the house and evidently set fire to the straw. Two of the children were burned almost beyond recognition before aid reached the trio.

POSTPONES ACTION CREATION THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT

Senator Simmons Requests Postponement On Account Disagreement On Counties Compose New District

Washington, Feb. 16.—(AP)—The Senate today postponed action on a bill proposing creation of a third judicial district in North Carolina at the request of Senator Simmons, Democrat of North Carolina, who explained there was some disagreement on the proposed allocation of counties to the new district. A unanimous report of the Judiciary Committee on the bill was presented to the Senate by Senator Overman, Democrat of North Carolina, who asked immediate consideration of the bill. He explained that while North Carolina now has three Federal Judges in its two districts, one of them Judge James E. Boyd, was incapable of serving because of his age. Judge Boyd also would not resign, he added.

NEW YORK SKY SCRAPER VISITED BY FIRE TODAY

Firemen Wage Spectacular Fight Forty Stories Above Broadway in Equitable Building

New York, Feb. 16.—(AP)—Forty stories above Broadway today, firemen waged a spectacular fight against a fire in the $30,000,000 Equitable building, one of the largest structures in the world. Most of the damage, estimated at $60,000, was on the 30th and 35th floors, the offices of Dar S Guggenstern and the American Smelting and Refining Company.

The blaze originated in the basement of the skyscraper which is in the heart of the financial district and leaped the shaft containing steam pipes, and electric cables to the 11, 16, 24, 30, and 34th floors, skipping those that intervened.

Four men were trapped in a three-story super structure on the roof containing elevator machinery, and were found by firemen on a narrow ledge 13 stories above the street level and nearly 400 feet up. The only ladder available was a short one which was placed on the shoulders of the tallest fireman to reach the trapped men. More than 100 cleaning women were driven from the building carrying mops and pails. Firemen carried hose to the upper floors in the elevators, which operated continuously. One elevator stalled between the 28th and 29th floors with five firemen in it. They had to chop their way out. Five other firemen suffering from suffocation were attended by ambulance surgeons after the fire.

Premier Makes Vote On Bill Question of Confidence in His Government

Paris, Feb. 16.—(AP)—Premier Briand early this morning ended a day and night debate in the Chamber of Deputies on the Government Bill seeking the financial restoration of France. The Premier made the vote on the bill a question of confidence in his government and he was upheld 258 to 149.

With the fear of their constituents before their eyes the Deputies could not bring themselves to vote fresh taxation. As a consequence the financial bill is shorn of many of the measures intended to obtain funds for balancing the budget. It will now be sent to the Senate where the Government counts upon the upper Chamber to restore the provisions eliminated in the Chamber of Deputies and to add such other clauses as may be necessary to meet the Government's requirements.

Even if the Government charges were correct, there was no time committed, counsel held, because the Secretary of the Navy and not the Interior had exclusive right to make the leases. Fall was charged with accepting $100,000 bribe from the Doheny while he was head of the Interior Department to make over the leases to the Doheny oil interest.

THE HARD-SHELL HABIT

"To frequently," said the president of a large industrial establishment in a recent interview, "I have witnessed business men making wrong decisions that are based on antiquated facts..."

The habit does not confine itself to business firms. Too many people base their decisions on opinions formed and held long after the basis for their existence has become obsolete...

The company president's remedy for this weakness is simple. It consists merely in getting into touch with people. Once a month it is his custom to set out in his roadster for some nearby destination...

The way to keep out of the rut is to keep in touch with live men and women, to get their point of view, and to keep green the growing point of opinion.

States are cutting up through State laws a standard minimum term of 8 or 9 months. There are, however, still some States in which there is no such law and in which there are many poor, isolated districts which maintain school 6 or 7 months only...

Denver, Feb. 16.—(INS)—Arthur Schwartz, who spent a lifetime in toil and privations, accumulated a small fortune that worthy youths should have opportunity to better their lot in life through the advantage of education.

Schwartz, 60 years old, was found dead in his little drab room in a downtown hotel, surrounded by thousands of dollars in banknotes. At first it was believed the man had been a miser, hoarding his earnings from his occupation as a nightwatchman.

Later a will was discovered and disclosed, upon being probated, that Schwartz had voluntarily followed a sacrificial existence in order to save, dollar by dollar, so that his money might be of assistance to youths seeking a college training.

Schwartz will provided a fund of $4,000 "to further the career of worthy youths" at Denver University. The Denver Children's Hospital was given $1,000; $1,000 went to the Denver Visiting Nurses' Association; a sister of Schwartz, Sophie Schwartz, of Sedalia, Mo., was given $500, and a like amount was laid aside for a monument to Schwartz himself in a local cemetery.

Schwartz was for many years a nightwatchman in Denver's business district. He always wore shabby clothes and permitted himself no amusements.

New Way to Stop Night Coughing

Simple Method Brings Quick Relief

For almost instant relief from hacking, irritating, sleep-robbing night coughing there is a very simple treatment which, often with a single dose, stops all irritation and permits sound sleep the whole night through.

This treatment is based on the prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. You simply take one teaspoonful at bed-time and hold it in the throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it. The prescription has a double action. It not only soothes and heals soreness and irritation, but it quickly removes the phlegm and congestion which are the real cause of night coughing. People who have not slept well for nights are often surprised how quickly this simple method checks coughing and banishes the entire cough condition completely.

Dr. King's New Discovery is for coughs, chest colds, sore throat, hoarseness, bronchitis, spasmodic croup, etc. Fine for children as well as grown-ups—no harmful drugs. Economical, too, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. At all good druggists. Ask for

LIBRARY NEWS

Our Slogan: "Let the Library Serve Greenville!"

Library Hours—2 to 6 P. M. and 7 to 9:30 P. M.

Two more magazines were given to the library the past week. The Golden Book is being given for the year by Mrs. G. Gergel, and the Kiwanis Club has placed a year's subscription of the Kiwanis on our reading table.

"The Vanishing American" is first in popularity with "Keeper of the Bees" second, for the first time in three months. Then comes "A Bush That Burned" and "The Perennial Bachelor."

When Fanny Butcher, of the Chicago Tribune, asked DuBose Heyward, a Southern writer, what book he would rather have written than any other, he said "Master Skylark." He characterized Master Skylark as "one of those amazing masterpieces so simple, and yet of such beauty, as to seem ageless."

We promised the younger readers to review Master Skylark by John Bennett. We hope every person who hasn't read it will read it.

"Tomorrow was May-Day and the Lord Admiral's Players were in town. There was to be a May pole, a Morris dance, and a roasted calf, too. Peter Finch was to be Robin Hood and Nan Rogers Maid Marian, and Neava Kirtle, of Kendal Green, and, Oh, but the May pole would be high as the ridge of the guild's school roof, and hung with ribbons like a rainbow! Geoffrey Hall was to lead the dance and all the other boys and girls would be there. And where would he, Nick Aftwood be? Sousing hides in the tannery vats. Truly his father was a hard man!"

But Nick learned next morning that the Lord Admiral's Players in their rowdiness the night before committed offenses that barred their playing in Stratford. When Nick suggested to his play fellows that they go to the Inn and take a peep at the Players he was reminded of the birching they would get if they were late to school. Then they hooted at him when he said he'd run away before he'd stand the birching. That was the last straw. "To be birched at school, to work all May Day in the tannery vats, and be laughed at was too much." Nick walked swiftly away, never turning back. Hodge Dawson plucked up courage to start with Nick but soon a dispute arose. Nick's cousin-in-law, Will Shakespeare, which dispute ended in a fistful combat with Nick coming out conqueror and Hodge turning back toward Stratford. Just as Nick started forward, he was startled to see a stranger leap the hedge and come striding up the road. It was the Master Player, Garton Carew, on his way back to Coventry and so the two walked on together.

"At noontime, while resting with his back against an oak tree, Carew suddenly straightened up and listened eagerly while Nick mocked a wild bird, called with a mellow warbling trill, and then struck up the quaint old madrigal with the bird's song running through it. Carew leaped to his feet. "Well sung, Master Skylark!" And so Nick became Master Skylark and Garton Carew became his master for many months.

You read on and see what happened to Nick under Carew's mastership. The following are sign posts that show how interesting the story becomes.

"Thou art a stubborn little fool. I'll bend thy will to suit my way, or break it in the bending!"

"Nick hear the bolts shoot heavily. Something moved. He peered into the shadows and saw a ragged tapestry flapping fitfully and he heard an uncanny sound like the moaning of wind in a chimney. Le me out! he cried beating upon the door."

"Nick!—oh, Nick!" Cicely Carew was calling at the door. The rat scurried off to its hole in the wall.

"But oftimes Carew stayed all night at the Falcon Inn with Dick Jones, Tom Hearne, Humphrey Jeffs and other reckless roysterers."

"The Queen hath sent for us to come to court and play on Christmas day! Hurrah, for Queen Bess!"

"Nick went singing on alone, the Queen's fan dropped from her hand upon the floor. No one saw it or picked it up."

"Brag is a good dog, but Holdfast is better. A lad who loves his mother thus makes a man who loves his native land."

"Carew's face was bitter white as he said: 'A plague on the bedlam dice.' Nick shuddered."

You will be intensely interested in knowing what happened to Carew, to Cicely and Nick.

A DAMP ROMANCE!

"The American Venus," which Frank Tuttle directed with Esther Ralston, Ford Sterling, Lawrence Gray and "Miss America" (Fay Lanphier), gave Gray a chance to do his love-making in the swirl of a rush river. He and Esther Ralston journeyed to Ocala, Fla., for the filming of part of this picture.

On the banks of Silver Spring Run, in the heart of the Florida jungle, they enacted scenes, in which Gray put Miss Ralston through physical training scenes prior to her entry in a bathing beauty contest.

After the gymnastics Miss Ralston made a fancy dive into the river, and Gray in his enthusiasm, followed her, natty white sports clothes and all. But in spite of the handicap of shoes and other encumbrances, he outdistanced the swimmer, brought her to the rim of a pool and exacted his reward, a kiss. It's all part of the story which Townsend Martin wrote especially for the screen. —at White's Theatre today.

Walker Cup Golf Team Be Picked At Early Date

Edinburgh, Feb. 16.—(INS)—Goaded by criticism, the selectors of Britain's Walker Cup team have decided to take instant action in regard to their choice, instead of waiting until the last moment, as proposed.

The Championship Committee of St. Andrews have agreed to appoint a sub-committee of four to nominate the British team. The latter will consist of Bernard Darwin and Harold Hilton for England, and Robert Harris, the amateur champion, and W. K. Murray for Scotland.

Each member of the committee will select a list of twenty players. The eight carrying the majority of votes will be Britain's choice against the United States.

Harold Hilton says: "It is easy to select twenty, but hard to find eight. But we shall go on the lines of trying to find young players, if his is possible."

Although the selectors are confined to England and Scotland, there is nothing to prevent an Irish golfer being selected for the team.

Baroness Becomes Plain Mrs. Woods

Tampa, Fla., Feb. 16.—(INS)—Another notable has succumbed to the lure of Florida sunshine, and the promise of quick gold, in the person of Baroness de Beckendorff, celebrated American beauty, who won $15,000 from William K. Vanderbilt, Sr., in a poker game, and rejected a millionaire before she was 18.

The baroness has become plain Mrs. Woods, and is operating a profitable manufactory employing fifty persons, where cosmetics and beauty aids, which she claims to have learned the secrets of making from European nobility.

Born in Covington, Ky., the baroness went from boarding school to the stage. She was launched on her career by H. B. Harris, the producer. She wanted to see Paris, and unable then to obtain a theatrical engagement abroad, she signed as a governess and sailed with a New Jersey woman.

One the passage to Europe, she played poker with Col. John Jacob Astor and William K. Vanderbilt, Sr., and won $15,000 from the latter, which created a newspaper sensation of the day.

In Paris, she married the Russian nobleman, de Beckendorff, and soon left him, blazed an exotic path through the exclusive social life of various European capitals.

"I intended to remain in Tampa

AMERICAN CAR MAKES LONG DESERT TRIP FROM JERUSALEM TO CAIRO

Jerusalem, Feb. 16.—(INS)—The desert run from Jerusalem to Cairo has just been completed by E. Hugh Cook, the local distributor of an American car of a well-known make. He used an ordinary six-passenger automobile for the trans-desert run, which winds through rock gorges and passes a considerable part of wilderness both in Palestine and Egypt, which the children of Israel took forty years to traverse. Mr. Cook arrived at his destination with the machine running the whole way on its own power, creating a record for local motoring.

War Department Receives Many Applications Appropriation Bill Passed by House for Employment

Washington, Feb. 16.—(AP)—The War Department appropriations bill carrying $339,500,000 was passed today by the House.

As sent to the Senate the measure allots $15,256,000 to the army air service and authorizes the services to let contracts for $3,000,000 in addition. The direct appropriation is an increase of $345,000 above current funds. The army would be continued in its present strength of 118,583 men and 11,349 officers.

The bill also carries a lump sum appropriation of $50,000,000 for rivers and harbors work. All items were approved practically without change. An amendment was rejected 55 to 145 to provide $175,000 for traveling expenses of army officers detailed to work with the organized reserves.

The House also rejected 17 to 151 an amendment by Representative Brown, Republican of Wisconsin, designed to prevent the use of any substitute for butter in national hospitals for disabled volunteers.

The bill carries no appropriation for Muscle Shoals, Alabama. The committee report explains that the $2,000,000 carried in a deficiency bill passed several weeks ago by the House and now pending in the Senate would enable completion of all work authorized to date.

To Remove Stigma From Rebel Vets

Jacksonville, Fla., Feb. 16.—(INS)—A strenuous effort will be made in Congress this year to remove the stigma of desertion now hanging over 136 Confederate naval veterans, according to Admiral A. O. Wright, who has been working for years to have the faint removed.

The charges of desertion from the Union forces by the veterans came from slowness of the Federal Government in accepting their resignations although other resignations submitted at the same time in Civil War days were accepted, Admiral Wright declared.

More than 300 Union naval officers offered their resignations to join the Confederacy, and all but 136 were accepted. Records classify these men as deserters, but they were in the same class as the men whose resignations were accepted, Admiral Wright claimed.

Descendants of the 136 men are being refused admittance into patriotic societies although some of the dead soldiers' grandchildren fought in the World War for the United States.

The matter was first brought before Congress in 1917, Admiral Wright said, and five years ago the Senate passed a bill restoring honor to the veterans, but it was defeated in the House.

In 1924, both Houses approved removal of the stigma against the veterans in a rider to an appropriation bill, but in a last minute legislative rush, it was dropped when the two houses could not agree on other amendments.

Admiral Wright is now seeking support from all Southern States for a united stand when a separate bill to restore full honors to the veterans is introduced in Congress.

OAKLAND TAKES SLOGAN AS 'CITY WHERE PEOPLE WORK'

Oakland, Calif., Feb. 13.—(AP)—Five organizations of Oakland, tired of hearing their city referred to as "San Francisco's bedroom," have adopted an official slogan, "Industrial Capital of the West."

Pointing out that the city now has more than 1,000 factories turning out in excess of $400,000,000 of products yearly, dental is entered that Oakland is merely a place where San Franciscans stay when they are not working. Suggestions for a slogan were called for by radio and fans from British Columbia to Honolulu sent in offerings.

DREADFUL PAINS

Georgia Lady, Who Had Lost Too Much Weight, Was Advised to Take Cardui and Is Now Well.

Columbus, Ga.—Mrs. George S. Hunter, of this city, writes: "After I married, thirteen months ago, I suffered with dreadful pains in my sides during ... My side hurt so bad it nearly killed me. I had to go to bed and stay some times two weeks at a time. I could not work and I just dragged around the house."

"I got very thin—I went from 126 pounds down to less than 100. My mother had long been a user of Cardui and she knew what a good medicine it was for this trouble, so she told me to get some and take it. I sent to the store after it and before I had taken the first bottle I began to improve. "My side hurt less and I began to improve in health. ... The Cardui acted as a fine tonic and I do not feel like the same person. I am so much better, I am well now, I have gained ten pounds and am still gaining. My sides do not trouble me at all. "I wish every suffering woman near about Cardui." NC-199

Newest Instrument Helps XRay Heart

By HARRY BLOOMBARGH, INS Staff Correspondent.

Philadelphia, Feb. 16.—A delicate instrument has been invented by Charles N. Weyel, of the Moore School of Electrical Engineering, according to Dr. F. Maurice McPhedan, of the Phipps Institute, by which the heart and lungs may be X-rayed while they are at rest.

The necessity of such an instrument was first appreciated by Dr. McPhedan, who discovered that X-ray photographs taken to aid physicians in diagnosing and treating diseases of the chest frequently were minimized by the fact that the photograph was taken while the heart was in motion. The photographs intended to show the exact range of certain infections, especially tuberculosis, were often blurred and indistinct and made the picture practically useless.

With the new invention the X-ray film is exposed at exactly the desired phase for the heartcycle when a photograph of that organ or the lungs is being taken. The device is so delicate in mechanism that it will operate, says its inventor, with stability when the motion of the diaphragm is as much as one five-thousandth of an inch, which is far less than the minimum motion recorded by the diaphragm of the weakest infant.

GET AT THE CAUSE!

Many Greenville Folks Are Showing How to Avoid Needless Suffering

There's nothing more annoying than kidney weakness or inability to properly control the kidney secretions. Night and day alike, the sufferer is tormented and what with the burning and scalding, the attendant backache, headache and dizziness, life is indeed a burden. Doans Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys—have brought peace and comfort to many Greenville people by this resident's experience:

Mrs. J. J. Nobles, 110 Washington street, says: "I was bad off with my kidneys and back. This trouble had me feeling miserable all the time. When I was on my feet, my back pained so badly I couldn't lift anything or bend over without a sharp, shooting pain through my kidneys."

Specks floated before my eyes and my kidneys didn't act right, either. I used Doan's Pills from the Warren Drug Co., and two boxes relieved me."

Gossip of Staff Correspondents at World Centers of Population.

By H. K. REYNOLDS, INS Staff Correspondent, London, Feb. 16.—Premier Stanley Baldwin has invited the British workmen to turn his eyes away from Moscow and toward the United States of America. In America, he believes, lies the examples of industrial and economic efficiency which it would be well for Englishmen to emulate.

"I would urge employers and trade union leaders," said the Prime Minister, "to make a point of visiting the United States quickly and often just at present to study their methods, which are proving of such success in production, and to venture to think that no trade union leader could do better service to the cause he represents than by investigating closely what the methods are that enable the American workmen to enjoy a better standard of living than any working people in the world, to produce more, and at the same time to have so much higher wages."

"I think there is much more for us to learn on both sides from studying conditions in that country than by spending any amount of money studying conditions in Moscow."

Mr. James Sclopier, who has just celebrated his ninety-second birthday, believes that the young people of today are wasting their time and sacrificing their chances for success in the future.

"All they think about now," said Mr. James, "is sport and amusement. The girls are as bad as the boys. In dress and manners they have lost their feminine charm which they used to have."

The secret of his vitality, said Mr. James, is that he never has given up working.

T. C. Jackson, Jr., of Elizabeth, New Jersey, has purchased Agrest Hall near Manchester, a stone

An American restaurant is to be opened on the Strand by a man named Roy Achtenhagen. Among the promised delicacies are waffles, doughnuts, buckwheat cakes, pumpkin pie, maple syrup, ice cream sundaes, and hot dogs. It is to be a "help-yourself" eating house, and each guest, upon departing, is to be presented with a stick of chewing gum.

Ghosts are to be put under the microscope in London, $15,000 having been expended in the establishment of a National Laboratory of Psychological Research, equipped with instruments to facilitate the observation and examination of supernatural happenings. ## Salisbury's New High School Bldg Been Completed

Salisbury, N. C., Feb. 16.—(AP)—Salisbury's new high school building, costing approximately half a million dollars, which has been under construction for about a year, has been completed, and the high school students have moved to the new structure, and begun their work in the new location.

The building is said to be the last word in school architecture, combining beauty with practicality of design, and is completely equipped throughout. The building is located on a 10-acre tract of rolling land, on the Lincoln road, just off South Fulton street. The school has been named the "Boydton High School," in honor of A. H. Boydton, for many years chairman of the local school board.

Would Withhold Action Proposed Nickle Plate Merger

Washington, Feb. 16.—(AP)—The Interstate Commerce Commission would be directed to withhold action on the proposed nickle plate railroad consolidation under a resolution introduced today by Senator Wheeler, Democrat of Montana. Senator Wheeler said the matter should be held in abeyance pending disposition by Congress of legislation covering the subject of railroad consolidations. The commission recently completed hearings on the Nickle Plate proposals but there has been no indication as to when its decision will be announced.

OLD BIRCH'S CHOP HOUSE TO MAKE ROOM FOR BANK

London, Feb. 15.—(INS)—One of the oldest buildings in London,

Birch's Chop House in Cornhill, is to be demolished to make way for the extension of an adjoining banking house.

Business is still carried on at Birch's under the same methods which prevailed during the reign of William and Mary in 1690. It has been a favorite dining place for the bankers, merchants and underwriters whose offices were in Cornhill or nearby streets. Samuel Birch, the original proprietor, rose to be Lord Mayor of London.

London, Feb. 16.—(NS)—Unable to buy whiskey at $3 a quart, many persons in London have taken to drinking methylated spirits at 25 cents a quart.

Methylated spirits are very disagreeable to take, but are said to produce a quick and joyous state of intoxication.

Temperance organizations have recommended that poison be put in the spirits to make them undrinkable.

Morgan Blake, sports editor of the Atlanta Journal, is teacher of the class and the programs are broadcast over WSE.

BRITAIN PLANS TO TAX BETS ON HORSE RACES

London, Feb. 15.—(INS)—A tax on betting is emphatically foreshadowed in the forthcoming budget.

Three Treasury experts have just been studying the question in several European capitals and their opinion is that the tax is easily collectable and should prove remunerative, with $25,000,000 in the first year is their estimate of its yield.

The proposal is that the tax should be limited to bookmakers' credit accounts, and to bets actually made on race-courses. No attempt will be made to tax the enormous amount of ready-money betting that flourishes throughout Britain, because a number of the albat have objections to a course which, they fear, might seem to legalize gambling.

SOFT COAL BRINGS CHIMNEY SWEEPS' CRY

"Eweep! Sweeep!—is the cry becoming familiar in the residential parts of this city and also in towns in the hard coal region. The chimney sweep is again coming into his own, after years, on account of the use of soft coal in place of the anthracite variety, due to the hard coal strike.

Along the streets sooty individuals, with bundles of sweep and high-peaked hats, can be seen going from door to door asking "your chimney wants to be swept" to keep from causing a fire.
