SPLendid SERMON HEARD LAST NIGHT REVIVAL SERVICES

"The Calls Of God And The Answers Of Men," Subject Tonight's Sermon. Musical Programs Greatly Enjoyed.

"And I saw a great white throne, and Him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heavens fled away, and there was found no place for them."

"And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: And another book was opened which is the Book of Life; and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works." Rev. 20:11-12.

"We are writing a book, each day's deeds, being recorded on a page," declared Rev. H. Frederick Jones in last night's sermon at the Memorial Baptist church. We may be writing consciously or unconsciously but we are writing, and at the great judgment day when all things will be revealed, we must answer to Almighty God for our record as written in our books. Dr. Jones told how each person has a book, and the books will be opened and we will be judged out of the one book. "The Book of Life," which is the Bible. The speaker showed how when a person reaches the age of accountability, when they know right from wrong, they are given a book. At the top of each page is a quotation from the Book of all books, and that on the first page in every book is "Remember, now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them."

Some people live their lives in sin and a short while before their death they give their hearts to God. Their record has been written. It is blotted out, but they only carry to God a blank book. A young person gives his or her life to God and his or her record contains deeds worth while, and when the judgment finally comes he is rewarded.

Dr. Jones appealed to those who were living in sin, to give their hearts to God, and have all their past mistakes, all their sins blotted out. "When God forgives, God forgets," declared the speaker, "and He will forgive if only we come unto Him."

Prof. E. L. Wolslagel sang a solo "The Great Judgment Morning," which was sung with such grace and ease, that a picture could almost be seen of the final judgment.

Dr. Jones will preach tonight on the subject, "The Call of God, and the Answer of Men." Prof. Wolslagel will render a musical program which will be in keeping with the sermon. The public is cordially invited.

Cathcart Hearing Postponed Until Friday, Mar. 5

New York, Feb. 25.—(AP.)—There is now a possibility that the Countess of Cathcart will renew her acquaintance with Ellis Island before it is decided finally whether she will be given the freedom of the country or be sent back to England. Her attorney, A. G. Hayes, has arranged with Federal Attorney Buckner to postpone the hearing on her writ of habeas corpus until Friday of next week. As the Countess' ten day "shore leave" expires at 11 o'clock Wednesday night, she faces return to the jurisdiction of the immigration authority then. Determination to postpone the hearing came yesterday when the department of labor refused to grant a rehearing of her case. It was held that the case is now within the federal court because of the habeas corpus action.

It was also said that the department had granted to the Countess every concession possible when she was allowed today's liberty on her personal bond of $500.

WHIRLWIND OF ORATORY OVER PROHIBITION

Wets And Dries Urge Investigation Of Each Other As Discussion Continues In And Out Of Congress.

Washington, Feb. 25.—(AP.)—The whirlwind of oratory over prohibition continues in and out of congress with the wets and dries urging investigation of each other, and the house committee planning to inquire into prohibition generally.

As an added attraction two attacks upon and one defense of prohibition will go on the air tonight for radio listeners delivered by two senators and a representative. Senator Edwards, democrat, of New Jersey, and Senator Brookhart, representative, Iowa, will debate the question before the microphone at Station WRC, with the New Jersey member speaking for the wets. At another station, WMAL, Mrs. Mary T. Norton, democratic representative from New Jersey, and a wet, will discuss "Prohibition as I See It." Her talk will follow that of two nights ago by Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel of the Anti-Saloon league.

In the house wet and dry members are advocating respectively examination of the activities of the Anti-Saloon league and the association against the prohibition amendment.

Tornado Takes Toll Of Three Lives Today

Pine Bluff, Ark., Feb. 25.—(AP.)—Dispatch from Lake Village, Ark., today reported four persons killed in the storm which swept the southern part of Chicago county last night. Three of the dead are white persons killed when the storm struck the wheat plantation on Bouffé river, nine miles south of Lake Village. The other death was that of a negro killed at Jennie, Ark., five miles south of Lake Village.

The town of Lake Village escaped the force of the wind and no damage occurred in that town.

Menthis, Tenn., Feb. 25.—(AP.)—Three negroes killed and a score of persons injured, was the known toll today of the tornado which swept across the Mississippi river from Eastern Arkansas late last night after demolishing several buildings in the vicinity of Lake Village, wrecked about 25 buildings in the residential suburbs of Greenville, Miss., and played havoc with barns and tenant houses on several plantations in northern Mississippi.

RADIUM TO REPLACE ETHER AS ANAESTHETIC

Leningrad, Russia, Feb. 25.—(INS.)—Radiation of radium rays may replace ether and chloroform as anaesthetics if the experiments now being conducted by Professor Verogo in the physical laboratory of the Leningrad Radium Institute are successful.

Professor Verogo has found that radium radiations paralyze the sensory nerves, while leaving the motor nerves unaffected.

If he accomplishes his aims, radium anaesthesia may become a regular accompaniment to surgical operations. Radium anaesthesia would be applicable to many whose hearts are unable to stand the customary anaesthetics.

Professor Verogo's discovery is the fruit of previous research by his father, who was an eminent scientist. The elder Verogo discovered the paralyzing effect of varying electric currents on sensory nerves, and thereby was able to distinguish between sensory and motor nerves, which in their histological structure are indistinguishable.

TODAY

(Copyright, 1925)
Where The Asparagus Grows Plums, Peaches, Pears, Sheep See This Country. And You See Something. ARTHUR BRISBANE

Walnut Grove, Sacramento County, Calif., Feb. 23.—Come to this country, north of San Francisco, and you will admit that no Californian ever said enough about his state. No man could describe this state or all the things in it. There is too much for even a Californian mind to carry. Labels himself, with all his vocabulary could not do it justice.

Soon the days of real flying will be here. A trip from Boston to San Francisco will be as simple as a trip by electric car to the suburbs. To live in the United States and not know California will be to admit rank provincialism. Meanwhile you must read about it, and arrange to come as soon as you can to stay. You leave San Francisco taking the ferry to Oakland, cross San Francisco Bay, a miniature Mediterranean, into the valley at the bottom of the Bay. The waters of the Pacific pour through the Golden Gate as they pour through Gibraltar Straits. Those pillars of Hercules into the Mediterranean. Around this Mediterranean of the West there is growing up a new race, a new civilization, a new start for the human race that will make the old seem as small as the Mediterranean compares with the Pacific ocean.

In one corner of this great Bay you could drop and lose New York's harbor. On the other side of the Bay is a great city. All about, North, South, and East are the richest and most beautiful lands on earth and to the West the Pacific, western frontier of the white race.

Everybody has said you must see the Sacramento valley. Proud westerners tell you other marvelous valleys that you must see, valleys in Colorado, in Arizona and California, the Imperial valley the Napa valley Sonoma San Fernando Santa Clara many others not for getting the great San Joaquin valley with the world champion cattle and dairy regions and several thousand million barrels of oil underneath the soil.

For today it is the Sacramento valley seen from a motor with the top down guided by J. J. McCurry, Postmaster of Sacramento, Senator Charles Bills, J. F. Elliott, who runs a bank and grows pears, J. E. Crew, Frazer, E. C. Porter and others.

These gentlemen do not tell you that the Sacramento valley is the finest country in the world. They simply say that it is the only country in the world, others are passable imitations.

You run along perfect roads everywhere, of course in California. They don't talk roads they build them. You leave Oakland, a great city facing the Orient and a great future. Plunges in a country of most intense development.

First comes Solano county and you think you are in some English landscape multiplied in size by about one thousand. The sky ten times as high as any sky in Eden and farms ten times as big.

Beautiful high green hills covered with sheep and lambs. Thousands of them tottering behind their mothers, eat fresh green grass, enjoying the warm sunshine on this February day.

Through Fairfield and Suisun past one of the magnificent high schools that are the glory of this nation you enter the Sacramento valley and see what you came to see.

Reaches Bedside Granddaughter Via Airplane

Decatur, Ill., Feb. 25.—(AP.) Mrs. B. M. Halbert, 50 year old grandmother, arrived at the bedside of her grand daughter here today after the 24 hour trip from San Angelo, Texas, by air plane and train. She boarded an air plane at Fort Worth yesterday and flew northward until darkness, and rain forced a landing.

Smiles lighted the face of the of Betty Joe, five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bloodworth, who is ill with diphtheria, when she saw her grandmother.

SEN. JAMES A. REED

BISHOP O. G. MURRAY

EAMON DE VALERA

Representative William R. Green, Iowa, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, warns that big reduction in Revenue Bill will bring a tax increase before the year's end. Senator James A. Reed, Missouri, opens national drive against entrance of United States in World Court. Bishop Murray, presiding bishop of the Episcopal Church in America, is ill with pneumonia. A break is reported between the Irish Republican Army and Eamon De Valera.

MELLON DECLARES NEW TAX BILL TO BE SATISFACTORY

Washington, Feb. 25.—(AP.)—Although the new tax bill somewhat exceeds the reduction in revenue which the treasury believed safe, Secretary Mellon said today it was generally satisfactory to the administration. As the bill now stands, the secretary said, the government should have little serious difficulty in meeting its final needs. He explained, however, that any appropriations by congress not now contemplated would create a deficit in the treasury. The secretary believes the retroactive features of the estate tax will not cause embarrassment to the treasury. The 1927 fiscal year surplus will be small, if there is any, in the opinion of the treasury head, but he suggested that the revenue reduction will have little effect on the current fiscal year. Such surplus as is available for the current year is being applied to the reduction of the public debt and that policy will continue to the end of the fiscal year, June 30.

Under Secretary Winston predicted that the law would be productive of some increase in revenue. It has been proved, he said, that the lowering of the tax levy was conducive to business extension and the opening up of new sources of taxation. The under secretary said present indications were for revenues somewhat in excess of expenses for the fiscal year after the bill becomes effective. He added however that these calculations were predicated on the tension of the government estimates of expenditures for the fiscal year.

When people abuse you, suspect yourself. When they praise you, suspect them.—Mobile Register.

Burnett, in a pistol duel last November, was started, according to information received here. A special venire of 150 men appeared and it was predicted that it would be difficult to obtain a jury.

BELVOIR SCHOOL OBSERVES ARBOR DAY PROGRAM

Tree Planting Exercises, Athletic Demonstration And Delightful Luncheon Features Of The Day.

Belvoir school house was the scene of much interest and enthusiasm yesterday when the classes observed Arbor Day program preceded by a delightful luncheon for the guests present for the occasion. Among the guests were representatives of the Pitt county board of education, Greenville school board, county commissioners and a number of interested citizens.

The party left Greenville at 11 o'clock yesterday and inspected two of the smaller schools of the county before the arrival at the Belvoir consolidated school, which was a revelation to those who had not before visited the school. The large brick school building is of the newest type and is modern in every respect and the visitors found occasion to congratulate the officials and faculty of the school for its commodious quarters and the manner in which they were kept. Following an inspection of the building the visitors were invited into one of the class rooms where a delightful luncheon was served. After luncheon all gathered in the auditorium where an Arbor Day program was given by the students. From the smallest tot to the seniors each contributed his or her part to the success of the program in a manner that was most creditable to themselves and the faculty of the school. At the conclusion of the program the student body gave an athletic demonstration on the campus followed by tree planting exercises. In appropriate words Mr. R. G. Fitzgerald presented the school a tree for Mr. W. H. Woodard, chairman of the county board of education, who was absent on account of sickness. Miss Myrtle Brogden then presented a tree on behalf of Mrs. E. B. Ficklen who gave same as a memorial to her late husband, Prof. Robt. B. Cobb, principal of the school, they dedicated a tree to Dr. R. L. Carr, whose efforts in assisting in the landscaping of the campus of the school have made it a place of beauty.

Following the tree planting, Mr. D. J. Whichard, on behalf of the family of the late Prof. W. H. Ragsdale, tendered the school a flag as a memorial to Professor Ragsdale for a life spent in the interest of the school children of Pitt county.

Mr. John T. Thorne, of Farmville, announced that at a later date, he would add trees to those already planted on the campus. At the close of the exercises the visitors expressed delight at the interest of the citizens of the Belvoir community in their school and praised the work that is being carried on by the school.

The following is the faculty of the school: Prof. R. B. Cobb, and Misses Martha Ballard, Frances Taft, Benny Ursey, Rosalie Phelps, Mamie Waterfield, Margaret Holland, Sallie Waters, Mae Baldwin and Mary Edwards.

Credit Men Tace All Ills To Loans

Denver, Colo., Feb. 25.—(INS.)—Less borrowing of money for luxuries will lessen divorces, burglaries, embezzlement, suicide and other crime, is the belief of the loan group of the Denver Retail Credit Men's Association, who adopted a resolution at a recent meeting discouraging the making of loans whereby the borrower will use the money for the purchase of luxuries.

Charles M. Reed, general manager of the credit men's association, declared, in discussing the resolution, that every conceivable sort of human ill could be traced to the practice of borrowing money by persons whose incomes cannot support extravagant spending.

"Borrowing of money for unnecessary purchases by those persons whose incomes cannot stand the debt is one of the principal causes for divorce," Reed said. "Such borrowing has caused all sorts of trouble. Poverty and sickness have resulted from the practice; it has been the direct cause of burglaries, embezzlement, and it might be said that the practice has been the cause of a number of suicides, and even murders."

Reed declared that the fundamental purposes of loan companies should be to advance money in time of sickness, to aid the business man in his financial enterprises, and to generally supply capital where it is required for legitimate purposes.

"It is not the desire of loan companies to overburden the man or woman of small income with debt for luxuries," Reed continued, "and the resolution was adopted to discourage young people, especially young newly-married couples, from rushing into debt that later may result in disaster."

GREAT INTEREST MANIFESTED IN RAILROAD CHAIN

A. C. L. Railroad Given Control Of Three Railroad Systems In Southeast; Much Interest In Practical Absorption.

Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 25.—(AP.) Great interest was manifested today in the practical absorption of the Atlantic, Birmingham & Atlantic Railroad by the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, which was announced yesterday by Col. B. L. Bugg, receiver of the Atlanta, Birmingham & Atlantic. The railroad has been in the hands of a receiver since 1921. This gives the A. C. L. control of three railroad systems in the southeast, the third one being the Louisville and Nashville which was acquired several years ago but which was operating as a separate company.

Under the agreement effected between the A. C. L. and the A. B. & A., the former assumes all the obligations of the present receivership and a reorganization of the funds of the A. B. & A. is fully provided for. It adds 640 miles of track to the A. C. L. system which already extends through Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida and Alabama. The A. B. & A. extends from Birmingham and Atlanta through the heart of Georgia to Brunswick on the Atlantic Coast Line junction with the A. B. & A. being effected at Oysterman, Georgia.

The consolidation forms a main trunk line between the Louisville & Nashville in Alabama and the A. C. L. in Georgia, the only important junction heretofore being at Montgomery.

Opposes Creation National Dept. Of Education

The joint committee on the hearings on the Curtis bill for establishment of such a department was told by Dr. Machen that it would tend to make education uniform to a strong central control, contrary to the spirit of the American government.

BALKAN STATES TO SIGN NEW TREATY OF PEACE

Constantinople, Feb. 25.—(INS)—The Balkan states—Greece, Bulgaria, Roumania and Jugoslavia—encouraged by Great Britain and other powers, are moving in the direction of a treaty of amity and security.

The conclusion of a pact of this kind would, in the opinion of leading European diplomats, go a long way toward assuring peace in a quarter of the world which has been noted in recent years for international quarrel and general political unrest.

Financial considerations are expected to play an important part in negotiations which are now proceeding quietly, as all of the Balkan countries are in need of money and in return for favors of a financial nature they are to be given to understand that peace is now the European watchword and that they will be expected to observe it.

Jugo-Slavia has already made representations to Greece with a view to bringing the Balkan states into a conference, and it is understood here that a meeting of the

Reveal Long Hidden Romance Of Mystery Girl

By M. F. DACEY, Staff Correspondent. Being a "little rich girl" has its advantages, but living in the lap of luxury is hardly sufficient compensation for a lost identity and lack of that individual freedom desired by all young girls. This was the wistful explanation here by Mrs. Edith Muller, known as Edith Mildred Astor, of yearning for the arrival of her twenty-first birthday—June next—when the mystery of her identity will be solved.

"I am just living for one day," said—"that is the twenty-seventh of June. Then I will be 21 years old; I will know the truth of my identity; I will be free of my life—free to live my own life."

The story of Miss Astor's life, as revealed by herself, is partly authenticated by letters from J. J. Ready, Jr., vice-president of the Irving State Savings Bank of Chicago, has the honor of a romantic novel, and solving of her identity may bring to light a clandestine alliance involving the name of one of America's richest families.

The pretty Titian haired girl has traveled in all parts of the world, recently visited in Denver. She dreamily discussed her "homesome plight" with newspaper reporters, always displaying extreme vivacity when she referred to her approaching twenty-first birthday.

"Miss Astor," as she prefers to be called, said she was born in Paris, June 27, 1905. "My mother was a French actress," she said. "She died when I was five years old, and since that time I've had no real home. "My father I remember only vaguely, my only clear recollection being that he always wore an army officer's uniform. "Since early childhood I have known that my lawful name was Astor; but the full significance of this fact will not be known until certain documents are opened on my twenty-first birthday. "Life has given me luxury; travel in nearly every country on the globe; education in the finest private schools, and a musical training that includes the violin and harp." Miss Astor continued, "but I am dissatisfied because I am not free. With the mystery of my identity hanging over me I can't seem to be like other girls, although I have everything that money can buy."

Miss Astor said that when her mother died she was taken to New York by a Mr. and Mrs. D. de Drexel. In New York, she said, she was placed in the care of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wellington with whom she traveled extensively abroad, studying music. "In April, 1922," Miss Astor continued, "while I was attending a girls' academy in Chicago I met a Mr. Muller at a hotel dance. "He was from Butte, Mont., a western cattleman of the handsome dashing type, and after a whirlwind courtship we were married in August, 1922. "I was immediately cut off from the mysterious source which had supplied me with funds from my childhood, and realizing my mistake, Mr. Muller and I separated. As I was not yet 18 years old when we were married, my attorneys, Crowe and Kolb, of Chicago, are instituting annulment proceedings of this marriage. "Since my separation from Mr. Muller, I have been touring the United States by automobile. "Miss Astor would not divulge the actual source that was to clear up her identity mystery, other than to say the facts would be revealed upon the opening of certain documents on her majority birthday. She would not comment upon reports that these documents were in the custody of a committee, composed of J. J. Ready, Jr., Chicago banker and John P. Morgan, New York banker, and Vice-President Charles W. Dawes. "Neither would the "pretty poor little rich girl" confirm reports that the sum of $3,000,000 and title to lands in the state of Illinois and in South America would be turned over to her at the same time her birth secret is released.

FIRST NURSERY-HOSPITAL IN INDO-CHINA CHILDREN
Phnom - Penh, French Indo-China, Feb. 25.—(AP).—The first nursery hospital for children in this faraway country has been inaugurated under the patronage of King Sisowath and of Mme. Baudoin, wife of the French resident general. It will, in addition to fighting the infantile mortality, long rife in the protectorate, be used as a school of hygiene for the benefit of mothers.

Another puzzling thing is why it is so hard to find a policeman, unless you park in the wrong place, Fayetteville Observer.

Says His Prescription Has Powerful Influence Over Rheumatism
Mr. James H. Allen, of 26 Forbes St., Rochester, N. Y., suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work. He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body. With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system. He freely gave his discovery, which he called Allenru, to others who took it with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. He has therefore instructed Pitt Drug Co. and druggists everywhere to dispense Allenru with the understanding that if his prescription does not banish every sign and symptom of the disease he will gladly return your money without comment.

Hoosiers Claim State As Pivotal In Politics

Indianapolis, Feb. 24.—(AP)—Indiana's position as a pivotal state of national politics is acclaimed by Hoosier statisticians. The state has participated in twenty-eight general elections since its admission to the union in 1816. Twenty-three times, the candidates for whom it has voted has been successful. In two of the five instances which were exceptions, the candidate who had a plurality in Indiana had a plurality in the electoral college. With a lively faculty for slipping back and forth between the major parties, Indiana has "gone republican" fifteen times, democratic eleven times and whig twice in national elections. From 1872 to 1900 it was alternately democrat and republican in its vote for president. The Hoosier state cast its first presidential vote for Monroe, who was elected the year of its admission. It voted for Monroe again in 1820 and he was successful. In 1824 Andrew Jackson had a majority in Indiana, and a popular plurality in the nation, but John Quincy Adams won in the electoral college. Indiana's fortunes were with Jackson in the next two elections and he was successful. The state voted for its Tippecanoe hero, William Henry Harrison, in 1836 and VanBuren won but Indiana rode to victory with Harrison in 1840, and with Polk in 1844. The state voted for Cass, a democrat, when Taylor won in 1848. Thereafter for six elections Indiana was on the band wagon, with Pierce, Buchanan, Lincoln and Grant. The state gave Tilden a majority in 1876, when Hayes was elected despite a minority of the popular vote. Then for nine more elections Indiana was on the winning side, until 1916, when the state returned a majority for Hughes, and Wilson was elected. In 1920 and 1924 the republican candidate won easily in Indiana and the nation. Except for the 1884 campaign, when Thomas A. Hendricks, Indiana native and former Hoosier governor, vice-presidential candidate with Grover Cleveland, the fact of a vice-president's Indiana nativity or residence has not affected the result in the state, although Indiana is proud of its consistent production of vice-presidents.

Miss Teresa Aaronow, Bronx, N. Y., lost her life with eight other persons when a Winter resort hotel was destroyed by fire at Hurleyville, N. Y.

The oil is administered hypodermically and the injections are somewhat painful. The health authorities do not compel patients to submit to treatment, making it entirely a voluntary matter, but the greater part of the villagers take the treatment each week cheerfully and without protest.

PLANT SALMON EGGS IN HAWAIIAN WATERS

Honolulu, Feb. 24.—(INS)—Salmon eggs to the number of 15,000,000 have been received from the Pacific Northwest and will be planted in Waihiha river on the island of Kauai.

The introduction of trout into the Kauai streams during the last four or five years has been so successful that fish experts believe it will be comparatively simple to establish salmon here as well.

President's Pine Chair Splits Party

Salem, Mass., Feb. 24.—(INS)—If President Coolidge had refrained from making himself comfortable in a common, pine chair last summer this story would not have to be written. But the President did sit in the chair and the Republicans of Salem have accused the Republicans of Marblehead with annexing the chair.

This has caused somewhat of a sensation both in the Witch City and along the shores of Marblehead Neck.

In fact, the Essex County G. O. P. is "all steamed up" over the matter.

The Essex Republican Club has planned a dinner and the ones accused of taking and keeping the chair have not been invited.

Chaulfoogra Oil Is Latest Remedy

Honolulu, Feb. 24.—(INS)—Dr. F. E. Trotter, president of the territorial board of health, stated following his return from an inspection of the leper settlement at Kalapapa, Molokai, that the recently improved chaulfoogra oil treatment is showing good results and the number of patients presenting themselves for treatment is very gratifying.

Daily News Letter
Gossip of Staff Correspondents at World Centers of Population.

By CHARLES A. SMITH
International News Service Staff Correspondent.
London, Feb. 25.—Radio telephone talks between ship and shore by means of a new radio set which requires neither earth nor serial, have been successfully carried out in the English channel. The inventor of the new apparatus, D. B. S. Shannon, ensconced in a house on the island of Guernsey, Channel Islands, transmitted and received messages from the cross channel steamship Reindeer, over distances varying from ten to seventy miles. As a result of this test, it is claimed that communication between ship and a shore telephone exchange is now a proven possibility. Shannon claims that his new radio system is a direct reversal of previous principles. To increase wave length, the tuning control in his apparatus is decreased instead of increased. The apparatus is portable and works without the aid of either earth or aerial connections. Among other advantages, claimed are the following: Transmitting and receiving sets can be combined in one case if desired, no interference taking place between them being possible. Duplex radio telephony working is rendered possible: Use of the apparatus enables the ordinary shore or telephone exchange to be plugged in, with the result that conversation can be carried on between a telephone subscriber and a friend aboard ship. The tests were made on the remarkably small power of five to seven watts input, using dry batteries.

No fewer than 5,000,000 radio "pirates" are at present listening in to radio programs in England without paying license fees, and are cheating the radio authorities of a revenue of several hundred thousand dollars, according to J. D. Chisholm, an official of a company interested in a system whereby radio programs can be broadcast "secretly." Giving evidence before the commission now inquiring into the status of radio broadcasting here, Chisholm proposed that the only way to get rid of the wireless pirate was by a system of competitive broadcasting companies whose revenue would come from "secret" radio. By "secret" radio he said he meant broadcasting on two or three wave lengths alternately. Listeners' sets would be adjusted to receive any of these wave lengths, while those who had no license would get only a third of the program or less. That radio broadcasting is having a marked effect on the pronunciation of the younger generation was a statement made to a gathering of provincial school teachers here. It was stated that it was easy to tell those children who were in the habit of listening to radio broadcasts. One teacher declared that the next 25 years would see the gradual elimination of dialects in England, and that the dweller in the south of England would be almost indistinguishable from the northern. Great Britain is making a serious attempt to lead the world in the business of sending radio messages to ships at sea. In this connection the mammoth new radio station at Rugby is playing a large part. It is claimed here that the power of this station is so immense that a ship in any part of the world can be communicated with, and at a recent demonstration at Rugby communication was established with steamers in Australian and Japanese waters.

ATE TOO FAST
South Carolinian Took Black-Draught For Indigestion, and Says He Could Soon Eat Anything.
Ballentine, S. C.—Mr. W. B. Bounknight, of this place, gave the following account of his use of Theford's Black-Draught. "Just after I married I had indigestion. Working out, I got in the habit of eating fast, for which I soon paid by having a tight, bloated feeling after meals. This made me very uncomfortable. I would feel stupid and drowsy, didn't feel like working. I was told it was indigestion. Some one recommended Black-Draught and I took it after meals. I soon could eat anything any time. "I use it for colds and biliousness and it will knock out a cold and carry away the bile better and quicker than any liver medicine I have ever found." Eating too fast, too much, or faulty chewing of your food, often causes discomfort after meals. A pinch of Black-Draught, washed down with a swallow of water, will help to bring prompt relief. Bloating sensations, eructations, bad breath and other common symptoms of indigestion have disappeared after Black-Draught has been taken for several days. NC-164
