

PRISON GUARD FATALLY INJURED JUMP FROM AUTO

D. M. Freeman in Attempt to Capture Escaped Prisoner Jumps From Running Automobile; Family Is Destitute

Raleigh, May 6.—(AP)—D. M. Freeman, state prison guard at the prison road camp at Almond, in Swain county, was fatally injured Saturday when he jumped from a running automobile in an attempt to capture an escaped prisoner, who he saw near the road, state prison authorities here learned today.

The prisoner, George Perkins, serving a sentence from Bertie county of from one and one-half to two years for larceny, escaped Saturday. Freeman was one of the party searching for the prisoner. Seeing him in the nearby woods, Freeman would not wait for the automobile in which he was riding, to stop, but jumped out, hoping to get the negro before he got out of sight. The guard struck his head upon a rock and fractured his skull. He died Sunday. His sixth child was born the night of his injury. The widow, according to George Ross Poir, prison superintendent, with six children to care for, is destitute and Mr. Poir is making an appeal for aid for her.

MacKenzie Is Youngest U. S. Golf Defender

New York, May 6.—(AP)—Youth, generously represented this year on the American Walker Cup team which will defend the international trophy against Great Britain on the St. Andrews links of Scotland, June 2 and 3, finds as his chief standard bearer hard driving Brown University freshman of eighteen years in Roland MacKenzie.

A championship contender in 1924 and 1925, this rangy, six-foot, strapping from Washington, D. C., twice in the amateur title event has been the victim of first round defeat, which might be considered as casting him unfavorably in match roles. But records reveal that he went down each time after heroic struggles, carrying George Von Elm, finalist in 1924, to the 37th green, and extending young Dick Jones last year at Oakmont to win by 3 and 2.

MacKenzie had faced Von Elm at his best, for the California star later came through to the final against Bobby Jones through overwhelming victories against L. M. Watts, Eddie Driggs and Max Marston.

SPORTS WRITERS INVITED TO HOLD CONFERENCE

Chapel Hill, May 6.—The sports editors of North Carolina newspapers have been invited to hold a conference, here on May 14 and 15, the dates of the Southern Conference Track and Field Meet which is regarded here as one of the biggest athletic events ever staged in the state.

Tentative arrangements for the meeting of the sports writers have been made by the University News Bureau, and the suggestion is made that the writers take this occasion to organize a "North Carolina Sports Writers' Association."

All coaches and a number of other officials of North Carolina colleges are being invited to attend the track meet, and many have already promised to be on hand.

The sports writers, the coaches, the participants, and the officials of the meet will be guests of honor at a banquet to be given by the University Athletic Association on Friday night, May 14.

FOREST FIRE IS STILL RAGING

Hundreds of Men Have Been Fighting Frantically for 3 Days in Effort to Check Path of the Flames

Hickory, May 6.—(AP)—Fire is still raging furiously in the Grandfather Mountain and Linville Falls section where hundreds of men have been fighting frantically for three days in an effort to check the path of the flames which have swept down the sides of the mountain and are now near the Edgemont and Mortimer area.

Two troops of boy scouts have been sent to Edgemont from Hickory and others are being held in readiness to relieve the first troops which will be sent home tomorrow to rest.

Practically every able bodied man available in Lenoir has been commandeered for services and a call has been issued for more, according to reports received here this afternoon.

UNIVERSITY DEBATERS ON SOUTHERN TOUR

Chapel Hill, May 6.—The last intercollegiate debates of the present year for the University of North Carolina will take place this week when the University of South Carolina is debated in Columbia Tuesday night; Emory University in Atlanta Wednesday night; and Tulane University of Louisiana, in New Orleans Friday night.

The query in all three debates is "Resolved: That a National Department of Defense should be created in the President's Cabinet, with sub departments of Army, Navy, and Air. The affirmative team, Morris H. Mogleucus, of Camden, S. C., and Theodore B. Livingston, of Asheville, will meet the Gamecock negative. The Tar Heel negative represented by R. Hilliard Greenwood, of Asheville, and Malcolm M. Young, of Durham, will debate Emory and Tulane. Both teams will leave Chapel Hill Monday for Columbia, where the affirmative will debate South Carolina that night. The negative team will accompany the affirmative to Columbia, stopping there on the trip to Atlanta.

CITIES IN RUSSIA RENAMED AFTER SOVIET CELEBRITIES

Moscow, May 6.—(AP)—More than sixty cities and towns in Russia have been renamed by the Bolshevik authorities because the former names were identified in some way with the Czar, the Nobility or the church.

The commonest change is that of Petrograd (City of Peter the Great) which is now known as Leningrad (City of Lenin). Then there is Tsaritsin, the famous city on the Volga, which has been rechristened "Stangrad," in honor of Joseph Stalin, General Secretary of the Communist Party. These represent only two of the great number of changes made.

MUCH BUSINESS FACES METHODIST CONFAB TODAY

Yesterday's Session Taken Up With Address of Bishop Collins Denny; No Set Program for Today

Memphis, Tenn., May 6.—(AP)—The general conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South will constitute itself into a committee of the whole next Tuesday to begin consideration of a constitution for the church and to debate the report of the commission which has drafted a proposed constitution providing among other things for the limitation of the powers of the bishop to execute matters.

The proposed constitution would take out of the hands of the College of Bishops all jurisdiction of judicial questions and place such matters in the hands of a judicial commission to be elected by the general conference.

Decision by the conference to meet the committee of the whole next Tuesday morning and to make up the report of the commission named to submit a tentative draft of the constitution was reached at the forenoon session of the conference today after a determining effort on the floor of the conference led by Dr. J. S. French, of Bristol, Tenn., to have the report referred to an appointed committee.

The proposal for the conference to constitute itself into a committee of the whole was carried by an overwhelming vote.

Discussion of the proposed constitution is expected to develop one of the hardest fights of the conference.

The church up to this time has had no constitution.

Memphis, Tenn., May 6.—(AP)—The general conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South went into the second day's session here today with a mass of business pouring in from committees and general boards.

The first day of the conference was taken up entirely with the address of Bishop Collins Denny, of Richmond, Va., and the organization of committees. The committees met in the afternoon and elected secretaries and today began the consideration of the great volume of business which comes before them every four years.

With no set program for the day's business, no member of the conference knew what today might bring forth. The threatened fight over unification was expected to come up on the convention floor and was forecast by meetings of anti-unificationists before the conference convened yesterday. The anti-unificationists have appointed a "steering committee" to handle their side of the question when it comes before the conference.

The afternoon session will be taken up entirely with committee meetings.

Birmingham Laying Plans for United Confederate Vets

Birmingham, May 6.—(INS)—Birmingham is laying plans to make what probably will be the last reunion of the Confederate Veterans one that will live long in the memory of the fast diminishing line of grey.

As the ranks have become so depleted within the last year, and those still living have become so feeble that it will be impossible for some of them to don their old uniforms and glorify the "lost cause," only a limited number are expected to join the ranks here May 18 to 21.

While entertaining the vets will be no new function for Birmingham—the reunion was held here in 1916—it is expected that this final gathering will be more fitting than all of those which have gone before.

GERMAN TAX AND CUSTOMS RECEIPTS EXCEED ESTIMATE

The Boulder Dam. Five Good Workers. When Dictators Meet. If Cromwell Were Here. By ARTHUR BRISBANE

President Coolidge should be supported by Congress in his effort to make the great Boulder Canyon Dam of the Colorado a reality, without unnecessary delay.

The bill to carry out that magnificent wealth production enterprise has been called hitherto the "Swig-Johnson Bill," but while Senator Johnson continues to work earnestly for the bill, it is reported that Congressman Swig has suddenly lost interest, or gone to sleep. However, the "Swig" can easily be left out. The dam will be the work of President Coolidge, Secretary Work, Eiram Johnson and Herbert Hoover.

It is reported that Mr. Swig showed indifference concerning the meeting called by the President for a discussion at the White House with a delegation from the House Committee in charge of the bill. That Mr. Swig had actually been dragged into attending a meeting of such vital importance to his state, his constituents and the whole nation, is inconceivable. It will not add greatly to Mr. Swig's next electoral majority if he gets one.

California knows how earnestly Eiram Johnson has worked for years on the great enterprise, and the whole nation appreciates the attitude of the administration. The President will push the legislation and Mr. Work, his secretary of the Interior, has been admirably industrious and thorough in connection with a task that will necessarily be dictated by him.

He has devoted weeks of hard work, and has travelled thousands of miles, visiting the site of this dam at Boulder Canyon, talking with his able engineers and visiting also the agricultural and manufacturing regions in Arizona and California most deeply concerned in the great project.

That dam should be named for Calvin Coolidge. It will produce wealth enough to pay for the great war, and give back the money that Woodrow Wilson so generously handed to Europe. And visitors to the dam in years to come should read on the great concrete wall these names, COOLIDGE, WORK, JOHNSON AND HOOVER.

Unless you read all of Mustafa Kemal's defiance to Mussolini you missed a document that will delight every historian for a thousand years, and may be an official announcement of the next big war.

When dictator meets dictator, you expect fireworks, and Kemal does not disappoint you.

He knows everything that Mussolini knows and more, and the Turkish language is hardly big enough to tell how little he thinks of Mussolini and Italy generally. It is a delicious old time "come on and fight" message such as the modern world, of commerce and hypocrisy rarely enjoys. Mussolini has not deceived watchful Kemal. The latter knows that Italy has 250,000 soldiers and 200 airplanes, ready to swoop down on Turkey. They are conveniently located on the beautiful island of Rhodes, that Italy took from Turkey in the big peace settlement.

Kemal talks to Mussolini as the latter recently talked to Germany only more so. "Attack me," says Kemal to Mussolini, "and when the fight is over your only problem will be to find a burial place in Asia Minor for the bones of dead Italians."

Even that is not all. Mussolini is told that he is a vicious dictator trying to bring back permanently a king of tyranny long since discarded, whereas Kemal also a dictator is just taking care of Turkish Republic can be built up.

Such insults Mussolini might disregard but not this one. THE ITALIANS ARE BETTER ORATORS THAN FIGHTERS.

That insult by Kemal will never be wiped out, except in blood. If he followed his inclination, Mussolini would challenge Kemal to mortal combat with any weapon from a modern automatic to the net and trident of ancient Rome. What a spectacle that would be, what a crowd it would draw, probably staged in the Coliseum.

What Does He See?

The prophetic nature of this photograph, taken during the British strikes of last Summer, is causing considerable comment in England. J. H. Thomas, the man smoking a pipe and looking off into the distance, is the nation's greatest labor leader. The scene is the present strike headquarters atop the Grand Hotel at Scarborough. What does Thomas see in his mind's eye? Revolution? Bloodshed? Defeat? Civil War?

Knights Templar Enjoy Fish Fry at Edenhouse Ferry

Members of Bethlehem Community Knights Templar and their ladies were the guests yesterday at a delightful fish fry at Edenhouse given by Mr. John Bell of that place. Leaving this city about nine o'clock, the guests arrived at Edenhouse in time to witness the fishing activities and other attractions about the place before the call for dinner. Fish prepared in any desired manner was the principal dish of the menu and all enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent.

TWO-TO-ONE CHANCE DERBY DAY IS "FAIR AND WARMER"

Louisville, Ky., May 6.—(AP)—There is a two to one chance that Derby Day, May 15, will be "fair and warmer."

Weather bureau records beginning with 1875, the year of the first Kentucky Derby, show that on thirty four May 15th's the weather was clear, and on seven been it rained.

The heaviest rain on that date in any one of the last fifty-one years fell in 1923, when precipitation measured 1.31 inches. In neither 1923 nor 1924 did it rain but on Derby Day last year, May 16, the race was run in a driving rainstorm.

Spring weather with an average maximum of seventy-five degrees for Derby Day is shown by the record for the last fifteen years.

NEARLY A MILLION PERSONS VISITED THE TOMB OF HARDINGS

Marion, Ga., May 6.—(AP)—Nine hundred thousand persons have visited the tomb of the Hardings in Marion cemetery, said Lieut. Walter Lee Sherkey, who has commanded a detachment of troops stationed at the tomb since President Harding's body was placed there.

Cornerston of the Harding memorial will be laid May 30, and the structure completed in another year. The bodies of President Hardinand of Mrs. Harding will then be placed in the memorial. The building and its approaches will cost $600,000.

The detachment of regular army troops which numbers thirty-six, will maintain its vigil until the bodies of the Hardings are removed to the permanent tomb from the receiving vault.

Strike Situation Was Reviewed By Labor Party Today

The executive leader of the miners' union was expected to confer with the Parliamentary labor members later.

CANADA'S CENSUS PRAIRIE PROVINCES

Winnipeg, Man., May 6.—(AP)—More than 2,500 government census enumerators will leave Winnipeg on June 1 for a ten-day canvass to determine the population of the prairie provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, according to an announcement here.

The census will be taken under the provisions of a federal statute, which calls for a population count every five years in the three western provinces. The next Dominion-wide census will not be taken until 1931, under the decennial rule.

LITTLE OPERA HOUSE MOVEMENT GAINING

New York, May 6.—(INS)—The germ of a movement intended to inspire cities and towns throughout the country to establish "Little Opera Houses" calculated to furnish opportunities for vocal talent and increase America's taste for operatic music was begun this month with the opening of the first miniature opera theatre in Greenwich Village here by "The Opera Players."

PRIEST PREPARES MANUAL OF NAVAJO INDIAN'S GRAMMAR

Santa Fe, N. M., May 6.—(AP)—A manual of the Navajo Indian Grammar has been prepared by Father Bernard Haile, O. F. M., of the Cincinnati province of St. John the Baptist, and which has just been published.

The work contains 320 pages, and is the first comprehensive study that has been made of the language of the Navajo Indians, nomads of the desert of northern Arizona and New Mexico. They closely resemble in many ways the Mongolians of Asia, but whose language, the manual shows, is far more difficult than even the Chinese.

The value of the work also is of interest to students of ethnology and languages. Its sponsors believe that it may some day furnish the key to the suspected racial bond between the peoples of Asia and the aborigines of America.

To the layman the Navajo language presents little but an avalanche of consonants, digraphs, glottal and aspirated stops, nasalized vowels, and other difficulties.

SAYS THERE WILL BE NO COMPROMISE STRIKE SITUATION

Third Day Finds Both Government and the Labor Chiefs Determined to Fight to End

London, May 6.—(AP)—The grip of the general strike shows no signs of lessening. The third day finds both Government and Labor chiefs proclaiming their determination to fight to the end.

The administration's new mouth piece, the British Gazette, declares "there can be no compromise of any kind. Either the country will break the general strike or the general strike will break the country."

An official comique reiterated that there would be no negotiations until the men returned to work.

Trade Union officials denied all peace rumors, and announced tersely "the situation continues satisfactorily."

Meanwhile attempts of strike sympathizers to halt the voluntary transportation service give rise to further rioting, as before the worst of the disorder, were in Scotland, especially along the Clyde side, the center of labor radicalism.

The Government continued its efforts to assure the food supplies of the population and it became known that soldiers and sailors will be used in this section if necessary. The country's supplies of tinned and smoked meat, and wheat flour are sufficient for a month, while more wheat cargoes are expected.

Further movement of naval and military forces was reported, a cruiser arriving at Cardiff, the chief port in the South Wales coal mining district, and a battalion of Highlanders being sent to the Isle of White to an "unknown destination."

From the standpoint of the general business situation is said to be easier, inasmuch as there has been a large increase throughout the country in the transportation facilities manned by volunteers.

Peace Confab Breaks Today

Oujja, French Morocco, May 6.—(AP)—The peace conference between the Rifians and the Franco-Spanish delegates broke down today.

The Rifian delegates who returned from consulting Abd-El-Krim, their chief, told the conference they must maintain their previous attitude. Thereupon General Simon, chief delegate and chairman of the conference, declared the negotiations were at an end.

French military headquarters have been established at Taza and operations will begin as soon as the conditions along the present front permits.

Annual Senior Play Be Presented Monday, May 17

"Clarence," the senior play to be given Monday, May 17 in the E. C. T. C. auditorium, is expected to be the crowning achievement of the 1926 class. This play is one of the funniest and peppiest farces ever written by Booth Tarkington, America's foremost comedy writer.

Miss Mary Van Valkenberg, the director of the play and a graduate of Wesleyan College, having seen this play before, declares it to be a very delightful one and a typical high school play.

The cast is as follows: Billie Brown, as "Clarence," becomes transformed into the most unique and tactful of ex-service men with a mysterious past. Florence Overton, the governess, is a pretty young lady whose charms are irresistible. Mattie Vines Mayo takes the part of private secretary to Waddell Leggett, head of a large government business and a quarrelsome family. Blanche Clatko is the jealous wife and a lover of society. Calvin Gorman and Elba McGowan characterize the young son and daughter, whose love-affairs once serious become humorous. The shrew widower is portrayed by Dow Lassiter. The domestic servant a of the household are represented by Dorothy Ward and Brown Mayo.

Martyr to Fangs of X-ray Will Stay in Fight to Finish

Baltimore, May 5. (AP)—Dr. Frederick Henry Baetjer, professor of Roentgenology at Johns Hopkins Medical School, is back at his big game of tag with the venereal disease he is taming.

The "Last of the Old Guard" with the scars of the latest of more than three years' and ten amputations and skin grafting operations scarcely healed—is rounding out a quarter century of dealing with the dragon that lurks in Roentgen's ray. He plans to stay in the fight until the ray's searing, throats finally break down the defense of modern surgery.

Insidious X-ray burns slowly are eating his body away. They have taken seven of his fingers and one of his thumbs, and the glands from his right arm and shoulder. Seventy-two times he has been burned and as many times has Dr. Baetjer's medical colleagues succeeded in staying the attack. But each burn has left its mark.

Dr. Baetjer is staying a demon that has slain many of his early coworkers in Roentgenology. One of the last to die was Prof. J. Bergonié, an outstanding authority whose work had been contemporary with Dr. Baetjer's. Surgeons see a like fate awaiting the Johns Hopkins professor—but he goes on, displaying his contempt for the X-ray's death threat in writing whimsical rhymes and jingles.

In common with his associates, Dr. Baetjer engaged in Roentgenological research when knowledge of the ray and its potency was in its infancy. It was some time after the discovery of the X-ray that his effect on the human body began to be understood, and in those pioneer days neither the screens which today protect X-ray operators, nor the need for them, was known. While a patient undergoing treatment would be exposed to the ray for only a fraction of a second, the early day operators were subjected to the ray's full power for long periods. They suffered severely or pined with their lives for the knowledge that has contributed much to the present day safety of X-ray control.

Dr. Baetjer began his experiments in 1901, immediately after his graduation from Johns Hopkins Medical School. In a few months the ray had started a train of destructive burns. In its incipency, the Roentgen ray resembles sunburn. If exposure is repeated, as it was in the pioneer days, ulcers form and a shriveling of the exposed parts sets in. Physicians say that most of Dr. Baetjer's present sufferings are due to early infections.

By 1903 he had lost four fingers now only one finger and one thumb remain. In 1914 the glands at the junction of the right arm and shoulder were removed to save the arm from advancing infection. In the seventy-second operation, performed in March, skin was grafted in one more attempt to save the remainder of the hands.

Peggy Carrying Marriages Too Far, Says Her Uncle

Elizabeth City, May 5.—(INS)—"Two or three husbands may be alright, but enough's enough, and I'm afraid Peggy's carrying it too far."

Thus Wiley Upton, Camden County farmer, whimsically comments on the latest marital venture of his niece, christened Marguerite Upton, but known to the world as Peggy Hopkins Joyce, divorcee extraordinary and film star.

Peggy again came into the limelight recently with the announcement that on her return from Europe, where she will fill a movie contract, she would wed Stanford E. Cramstock, Florida real estate operator, who would become her fourth—or fifth—or sixth husband. She couldn't remember which.

According to her uncle, Peggy's story is not unlike that of the Ugly Duckling.

"She was the sorriest young 'un," Upton said. "She wouldn't eat, she was puny and sickly and it didn't look like she'd ever grow. She certainly wasn't a pretty little girl. But judging from her pictures, she must have improved a lot since she got older."

Peggy's father, Samuel Upton, a barber of Farmville, Va., is a native of this county, and was reared on a farm near Elizabeth City. Peggy herself lived in Camden county for a year when she was six or seven years old, while her father kept a combina-

Newspaper advertising is the best medium to reduce prices and increase output of industry, according to Sir Charles Higham, American-born English advertising expert, who sailed for home after a tour of the United States.

It was at this stage of Peggy's life that her uncle remembers her. The Uptons, Sam and Wiley, lived only a short distance apart and Peggy—or Marguerite—was a frequent visitor at her uncle's home.

Upton recalls that his niece married at an early age and later went on the stage. He hasn't seen her since she grew up, he says, and would hardly recognize her from her photographs.

Alaskan Railroad Has Crew Mostly Made Up Bankers

Anchorage, Alaska, May 5.—(AP)—Uncle Sam's Alaska railroad is one where the principal members of the passenger crew are bankers.

The regular passenger train between Seward and Curry has the president of the First National Bank of Anchorage as its conductor; a director in the same bank sits on the right side of the cab, while a heavy stockholder in the same institution is fireman. A lesser stockholder places the stop for passengers to alight from the coaches.

The bank to which these railroads are attached is controlled and financed almost exclusively by railroad employees, ranging from section men to high officials of the operating staff. Frank Knight, the president, is a veteran conductor, who came to Alaska with the building of their railroad, Charles Matheson, director and heavy stockholder, is an old time engineer. He also came north with the railroad.

There are more than 1,500 depositors in the bank which has a capital stock of $50,000 and approximately $600,000 in deposits.

YOUNG HAWAIIAN WITH HOUSE PAINT COPIES "BLUE BOY"

Hilo, Hawaii, May 5.—(AP)—When Officer "666" was to be presented by students of Hilo High School, the faculty found itself in need of a "Blue Boy" which could be stolen in the course of the pot.

Katsumi Tsuji, a senior, volunteered to supply the missing "prop." When he had finished, although he had used mostly house paint, Gainsborough's famous masterpiece had been reproduced so effectively that the faculty play committee termed it "almost perfect." Tsuji worked six weeks on his picture, a full size reproduction.

LIKENS MEN AND SPARROWS IN FAVOR OF YELLOW POSY

London, May 5.—(AP)—Men and sparrows both favor yellow flowers, it was declared by exhibitors at the Royal Horticultural Society's show. Members were discussing the revival of the "Button-hole" rosy habit, and it was agreed the favorite colors for men were scarlet, cerise and yellow.

Women were said to favor pale shades such as salmon pink, pale heliotrope and mauve. The business woman preferred dark colored flowers, the dressy woman pale tones, and the artistic woman a blend of two or three colors.

PAINS ALL OVER

Lady Says She Took Cardui and Never Saw Such Improvement—Was So Weak Couldn't Stand.

Weatherby, Miss.—Mrs. James M. Hall, of this place, writes that she was "getting weaker all the time" when Cardui, the woman's tonic, was first brought to her attention. After she had taken Cardui a while, she writes that she "never did see such an improvement."

"I suffered all the time and had pains all over," says Mrs. Hall. "I was so weak I could not stand. My skin was cold and flabby. I did not have any color. I had always been a very active woman—used to outdoor exercise, walking and going where I pleased, and to get down, not able to get myself a drink, was indeed a hardship."

"Nothing seemed to help me, till I began on Cardui. The first bottle seemed to strengthen me, and I sent for five more. By the time I had taken these, I was on my feet, going around, doing my work, gained in health and strength. I took two more bottles, and I am well and strong. Can work my garden. I haven't had any more sickness."

Sitting pretty and no mistake!

LIKE the chap in the song, I'm sitting on top of the world. And it's not a bad world when you look at it from all sides. I've hit some rough spots, but managed to keep my seat. I want to let it be known that the road has been a heap smoother since I discovered Prince Albert. Here is tobacco!

My old jimmy-pipe and Prince Albert and I go along just singin' a song from morning to midnight. Whenever I get to feeling low, I take out my pipe, tamp a load of good old P. A. into the muzzle and light up. Old Man Trouble takes French leave the minute that wonderful smoke starts up the stem.

Prince Albert is friendly in spirit and friendly in fact. It never bites my tongue or parches my throat. They tell me the Prince Albert process fixed that for me and millions like me. I only know that P. A. is cool and satisfying as spring-water on a hot afternoon and that it suits me to a T.

You're welcome to this leaf out of my book. If you're not smoking P. A., you're not getting full enjoyment out of your pipe. Just get yourself a tidy red tin of Prince Albert. Load up your old jimmy-pipe and light up. Nothing complicated about that, is there? Well, that's my formula. It always works for me.

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin tins, and small cigarette tins. Always with every bit of bite and punch removed by the Prince Albert process.

Committees were appointed to perfect plans for an informal gathering at the country club on May 18.

During the year "Arm Chair Travels" have proved engrossing diversion and interesting study. A visit to Mexico completed the itinerary. As an introduction to a sight-seeing trip to this southern neighbor, Mrs. Lella Higgs Humber told of the early history of Mexico and of the present national educational programme. The Indian was sympathetically discussed and his former glory as an empire builder was pointed out in a description of present archeological findings. These proved the claim that as early as 500 B. D. the Mayan Indians had a civilization which in many respects involved that of Europe, and which in some fields was superior. Today the Mexican is waking up to the glory of his heritage, and his government is encouraging his native arts and guiding his long neglected education—after nearly four centuries of slavery and ignorance the Leon is going to school.

Mrs. Herring delightfully treated some of the more interesting aspects of modern Mexico. The social life and customs of the people were portrayed in the light of some of their racial peculiarities, and of their time-honored institutions; among these were the famous bull fights and the shrine of Guadalupe. The grandeur of the magnificent cathedral in Mexico City and the stately palace of the former Indian emperor, Montezuma, proved veritable storehouses of art, and the fashionable promenade of the capitol a delight to the eye.

A general discussion of current events relative to Mexico supplied interesting side lights on the afternoon's programme. Following the exchange of books, a delicious and tempting salad course was served.

BARBARA LA MARR, CONWAY TEARLE IN FILM OF STAGE HIT

Phil Rosen, who has just completed the direction of Sawyer-Lubin's "The Heart of a Siren," is especially enthusiastic over the results achieved by Barbara La

Marr. Conway Tearle and the supporting cast in this production, which was adapted from Florence Reed's stage play, "Hall and Farewell."

Rosen, since his direction of "Abraham Lincoln," one of the big specials released by First National Pictures, was engaged by Arthur H. Sawyer to make this picture in an effort to secure the finest dramatic talent available for Miss La Marr.

"COME OUT OF THE KITCHEN" BE PRESENTED AT COLLEGE

The Senior-Normal class will present the comedy drama "Come Out of the Kitchen," on Tuesday evening, May 11, at 8:30 o'clock, in the college auditorium. "Come Out of the Kitchen" is a delightful play in three acts by A. E. Thomas. It had a long run in New York with Ruth Chatterton in the leading role. The setting is in a delightful colonial home in Virginia. It favors of southern romance and atmosphere. The comedy is of the most delightful spontaneous kind running through the entire play. Yet the dramatic scenes are many, its a play you will remember and chuckle over many a day.

We chase the cast true to type as is customary in New York. Each girl is suited by nature for her role, they have unusual conception of their parts, thus play them with great intelligence. The farce of each personality makes the character leave the stage and walk as in life.

The play is the best of its kind and needs no recommendation. It is a royalty play given by permission of Samuel French of New York City. Mrs. Gordon, our director, from Farmville, has had much experience as a dramatic teacher, having been three years in stock companies in the East, also with the chautauques. One year with the Coffey-Miller Players, who had an engagement at college two years ago. This promises to be the best comedy drama presented at the college. Come and bring your friends for an evening of real entertainment.

THE VALUE OF G. H. S. BAND TO GREENVILLE

What would an Armistice Day parade be without a band?
What would an Old Soldier's Day parade be without a band to bring memories back to the old Confederate fighters?

What would the presentation of a flag, or the unveiling of a monument be without the patriotic music that fits in with it?

School Band has been invaluable in supporting them with their services free of all charges. The various churches of the city have orchestras formed from members of the band. Who does not like to go to a church where there is no music.

For eight months this band has been training for a concert, and the time is drawing near, for on Tuesday evening, May 11, in the high school auditorium it will give a concert. A special orchestra will play popular numbers, and a very trained singer has been secured to sing a few selections. She highly pleased an audience a few miles from here, and it is assured that every Greenville hearer will be pleased.

Not every school in the country has a band, therefore Greenville should take great pride in supporting everything that the band puts on. Tickets are available from any member of the band.

REGISTER NOW
The registration books are now open and if you have not registered do so at once. The right to vote is not only the privilege of every citizen but is a sacred duty and failing to register in order that you may avail yourself of the opportunity to vote is failing to do your duty. The citizens of our county are responsible for the efficiency of our officers and the calibre of a county's officers is always an indication of the interest the citizens take in their government. If you have not already registered do so at once, and when the day to vote arrives, see to it that you get to the polls and cast your ballot for the best man for each of the offices.

SAFETY FIRST
It is to be hoped that candidates throughout the state seeking election to the Senate and House of Representatives this year will be asked by the voters for an expression as to their stand on legislation that would require the lighting of all vehicles traveling the public highways at night. If the highways are to be made safe for travel, such legislation must be enacted and the voters will do well to eliminate in the June primaries those candidates who do not favor such a safety measure.

THE TRIUMPH OF UNDERSTANDING
Some months ago there was held a Peace Conference of Nations at the little city of Locarno, in Switzerland, where unofficially the United States participated to reach an agreement that, before taking any steps to war over boundary or territorial disputes, international arbitration should be employed. More recently, the success of the Locarno Peace Conference was celebrated in a great religious festival, at the Cathedral of St. John, the Divine, in New York, at which officers marched up the central aisle carrying the flags of eight great nations. Accompanying these standard bearers, the diplomats of each nation appeared. There were the flags of Germany, France, Great Britain, Belgium, Poland, Italy, Czechoslovakia, and the American flag. It was probably the first time since the war that these flags have been carried together or that a German flag has been seen in an American church. Later on in the service, while the "Te Deum" was being sung, the standard bearers marched up to the high altar, and stood with the flags held aloft—the French and German intermingling.

It was fitting and proper to observe the event in the cathedral, because that conference was a triumph of the spirit of brotherliness and good will over the spirit of distrust and fear and hatred.
It marks the highest step yet reached in the bringing in of peace and fellowship among the nations, and greater far than its specific agreements, is the moral effect of that conference on Europe and upon the world.

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING

Brings World's Best Values To Your Very Door.
Newspaper advertising is of vital importance to every man or woman who spends money for the necessities or luxuries of life. By making a daily practice of reading the newspaper advertisement, you keep in close touch with the latest offerings and lowest prices.
Well advertised brands of merchandise are not only dependable in quality, but are also, as a rule, the most economical. Here is a very concrete case of why this is true:
Mr. Warren Wright, President of the Calumet Baking Powder Co., is the authority for the statement that they spend millions of dollars in newspaper advertising. This tremendous volume of advertising creates a gigantic demand for Calumet—a demand that is maintained by the unrivaled quality of Calumet.
As demand grows, manufacturing costs are reduced and the price of Calumet, to the user, is brought down to the low point of economy.
Calumet advertising, like all other advertising back of a meritorious product, goes on record in black and white as to the value of Calumet Baking Powder. It promises the housewife better bakings at lower baking costs and the Calumet Company must live up to their printed pledge, which of course, they do and have done for the past 37 years.
Newspaper advertising is localized advertising. Consequently, it benefits the dealer as well as the consumer, because it reaches buyers who can transact business with him. It moves the goods from his shelves. It keeps his stock fresh and clean. It enables him to sell the highest quality merchandise at the lowest possible prices.

Dixon Host at Banquet Honor of J. W. Drake

Asheville, May 6.—I have no fear that America will step back into a period of depression," declared J. Walter Drake, assistant secretary of the U. S. Department of Commerce, and chairman of the board of the Hupp Motor Car Corporation, at the banquet given in his honor at Kenilworth Inn Saturday night by Thomas Dixon, distinguished playwright, novelist and orator, and S. T. Henry, of Spruce Pine. John H. Cathey, mayor of Asheville, was toastmaster.
Mr. Drake and Frank Page were also the honor guests at a luncheon given by Messrs. Dixon and Page on Pompey's Knob, in Wilder, Saturday at two o'clock. Both occasions were attended by a large number of prominent people.
The assistant secretary of the Commerce Department, who is also one of the leading business men of the United States, emphasized the point that the splendid achievements in American life are the result of the co-operative spirit of American individualism and declared that "We have before us a great future of prosperity."
Mr. Drake said that he is much interested in Western North Carolina, which he declared to be a beautiful country. He states that its possibilities as a playground are wonderful.
The speaker also said that he is much impressed with what is being done in this state along material lines, and that he has been particularly struck with the grip of the people of this state have taken in raising themselves economically. What this state has done, he said, is an outstanding demonstration of what is being done in all the states, and results in higher standards, socially, politically and economically. These are the things, he declared, that are making America great. Mr. Drake laid particular stress upon the great benefits that come from pulling together.

Indian Chieftain Teaches the Sioux Legend Creation

Rapid City, S. D., May 6.—(AP)—An ancient Sioux legend of their creation is the most popular story in the repertoire of Chauncey Yellowrobe, son of a Rosebud Sioux chieftain and a teacher in the federal Indian school here.

"When the Great Spirit had created his wonderland here of mountains and prairies and streams and trees," Yellowrobe tells his students, "he ought to fashion a human, being worthy to enjoy its grandeur. He shaped the clay in his hands, but when he drew it forth it was pale and had not baked rapidly enough, and he threw it behind him."

"He moulded another form, and laid it in the hot ashes, but when he drew it out it was blackened and crisp. So he tossed it to one side. Then he modeled a new figure, even more carefully than before, packed the red coals around it, and when he lifted it from the fire it was red and sound and perfect."

"And he put it into the great wilderness of the west, and it multiplied its kind and was the tenant of the Great Spirit's own garden."

Disturbed Sleep

Caused From Bladder Weakness, Nature's Way of Telling You of "Danger Ahead."

No. 160.

J. H. Hanford, 7155 Yale Ave. Chicago, Ill., says: "For two years I have been troubled with gravel. Many times it would cause me to get up eight to twelve times, at night, and it was very painful. Lithiated Buchu cleaned me up in one week. I will be glad to tell or write my experience."

Lithiated Buchu is not a patent medicine as the formula is on the label. It cleanses the bladder as epsom salts do the bowels, driving out adnormal deposits, neutralizing excess acid, thereby relieving irritation which causes disturbed sleep. It is not a cheap medicine. The tablets cost 2 cents each at all drug stores, Keller Laboratory, Mechanicsburg, Ohio. Sold by Greenville Drug Co.

Key West Highway Biggest Road Feat

Key West, Fla., May 6.—(INS)—One of the greatest highway construction feats ever attempted, which when completed, will stand alone as the only boulevard of its unique nature in the world, is now under way to connect the city and island of Key West, the most southern municipality in America, with the Florida mainland.

Between the two terminals of this proposed highway lies 25 miles of ocean and low-lying bordered islets. There are narrow spaces between which the low islets almost fade from sight, and passes 30 feet in depth, through which the waters often rush in a seven or eight mile torrent at the greatest ebb and flow of the tides.

More than one hundred miles of roads and bridges have already been constructed. Contracts will shortly be let for construction of thirty-five miles of additional road and bridge work and then there will remain only the construction of the bridges across the large water gaps.

A franchise has been granted the C. P. A. Turner Engineering Company of Cleveland for the construction of toll bridges over the three large water gaps.

The Over-Sea Highway, as this unique boulevard will be known, does not require so direct a route as that necessitated by Key West's railroad, which now links Key West with the mainland. Its completion will make it possible to travel from any point in the United States to Key West in a motor car.

Daily News Letter

Gossip of Staff Correspondents at World Centers of Population.

Moscow, May 6.—(INS)—A new title of proletarian nobility has been proposed by the Soviet authorities. It is called "Heroes and Heroines of Labor."

The title is to be bestowed upon any man or woman who has worked for thirty-five years uninterruptedly. With the title will go the privilege to quit work on full pay. If the hero or heroine desires to be even more heroic and continue working after thirty-five years, the wages will be increased 50 per cent. News of the proposed title and pension system was received with enthusiasm by the public, but it is not probable that payments will go into effect at least until the present severe economic crisis is overcome.

Michail Pavlovitch Tomsky, chairman of the All-Russian Council of Trade Unions, member of the Political Bureau of the All-Union Communist Party, and one of the four or five most powerful Bolsheviks in Russia, has just returned to Moscow from Paris with a bad report upon the manners of Parisian chauffeurs. Tomsky came out of the railroad station in Paris and asked in French a taxi driver to take him to the Soviet embassy. To his surprise, the chauffeur responded in perfect Russian: "I drive nobody to that place." The chauffeur was a Russian emigre, one of the many thousands who took refuge abroad after the Bolshevik revolution. Tomsky reported that one third of the taxi drivers in Paris were Russians.

Americans plan to give Moscow its first steam laundry. The commission on immigration of the Council of Labor and Defense announces that it has received an application from the American cooperative society, Markel & Dixon, to allow it to establish a steam laundry here.

Leon Trotsky's campaign to improve the quality of Soviet Russian industrial products has become one of the most popular movements in the country. Trotsky has established a special room in the quarters of the Commissions Committee, where, as chief of the Committee, he has his main office, for the purpose of receiving complaints about poor quality goods.

Into this room pours a constant stream of visitors, bringing with them every imaginable variety of commodity. A great many bring boxes of Soviet matches, lacking heads. Some bring Soviet pencils which won't write. Others bring cans of Soviet fish, which hastily had quality with out the use of words. Shoes with paper soles, sleazy textiles, knives which will not take an edge, are heaped in piles which later are transformed in Trotsky's hands into ammunition against the directors of the factories responsible.

Trotsky at first found a good deal of opposition to his campaign. "I have been asked," he declared, "if it is worth while to pay so much attention to the quality of production when we are suffering from lack of quantity. This is a superstition resulting from our lack of culture. Any woman knows that quantity affects the quantity required. You have to use two or three times the quantity of poor tea in order to get the results of good tea."

SHARK STEAK NEW ITEM ON MENU OF FAR EAST RESTAURANTS
Capetown, May 6.—(AP)—Shark steak, like whale meat, which became popular on the Western Coast of the United States some years ago, has been placed on the South African market as a side issue of a scheme to gain cheap supplies of shark leather. The tail is considered the best cut for steaks.

Fins have long been eaten in China, the Archipelago, the Gold Coast, New Zealand and Japan. The chief drawback to shark meat is its oiliness, but dealers here say a process has been conceived to extract much of the oil without much expense.

NOTED LIST OF DRIVERS IN CONFEDERATE RACE
Charlotte, May 6.—(AP)—Leading drivers of the nation will compete here May 10 in the fourth renewal of the 250 mile Charlotte speedway race. Cash prizes of $25,000 await the winners.

The Confederate Memorial Day event will be the last for motors with large piston displacement. Tommy Milton, who was won twice at the local saucer, has entered three cars, but recently had named only two drivers. Peter De Paolo, 1925 champion, heads the list of entries. Among others who will start are Bennett Hill, Harry Hartz, Edward L. Otto, Cliff Woodbury, Bob McDonough, Fred Cmer, Leon Duray, Dr. William E. Stattue, Pete Kris, Dave Evans, Frank Elliott, Earle Devore, Norman Batten and Ralph Hepburn.

TODAY

(Continued from page 1) and show Kemal that an Italian dictator can fight. Italy has always had orators and fighters and the fighters carry the day as when Cicero and Caesar lived side by side, and Cicero lost his head. No Italian worries about insults flung by Kemal.

Now the question is, will the two dictators start another war while Europe looks on? And are you not glad that your Uncle Sam has no Turkish mandate on his shoulders. They planned to fit one on him you remember, with Woodrow Wilson's approval. Better a mandate for ten thousand wild cats, than for one Kemal Pasha.

England is back of Italy in the proposed attack on Turkey, says Kemal, and Greece also forgetting how Mussolini pulled her nose at Corfu, would join with Italy. "If you combined, cowardly, mean, and worthless nations should defeat Turkey, which you never will."

on April 15th, 1905, recorded in Book X-7, page 519, default having been made in the payment thereof, the undersigned will offer at public sale at the court house door in Greenville, N. C., about the hour of noon, on Monday, the 7th day of June, 1926, to the highest bidder for cash, the following described lands:

Lying and being in Pitt county, and known as a part of the H. W. Brown lands; beginning at a stake in the street and runs with said street to Canal Bridge, Giles Hardee's line; then with Hardee's line and canal to Great Swamp canal at corner of lot No. 2; then with lot No. 2 to the beginning, containing 35 acres, more or less. Also the following woodland; beginning at a stake in Elihu Birley's line, corner of lot No. 2, and runs with said lot N. to the all pines line; then with said line two poles to a stake; then S. to Elihu Birley's line; then with said line to the beginning, containing 10 acres, more or less, excepting the mill timber above 12 inches at the stump.

If the worst comes, it will be a bad thing for the King, the nobles and the capitalists, of course, infinitely worse than the working people. They, with MacDonald, had their chance to prove that they could run the British Empire better than the upper classes, but soon gave up the job. It does not sound polite, but the feet should be careful how they decide to do the work of the head, and a nation must see its way.

Some newspapers carry the line (Will there be a British Republic?) That is no the question. Britain has a republic now, absolute self government as the labor government provd. The question is will Britain lose her republican system, disguised as a monarchy, and get instead, something of the Russian sort, disguised as a republic. If that happens "God save the king," and Britas generally, to say nothing of the whole of Europe. With two fighting dictators east and west, and two ruling so-called "proletarian" governments ruling Russia and the British Empire, everybody will want to take out accident insurance, and wonder where they get it.

However, as Lloyd George says, the Britin are not a revolutionary people, they like their beer, football and cricket regularly. They will solve this problem, as they have solved harder problems since the days of Cromwell. If he were alive and in London, he would handle the strike. You remember his short and cruel message from Ireland, I shot every tenth man, the rest I set to the galleys, the monks I knocked on the head."

Says He Felt Drunk

Most of the Time
Brooklyn. Mr. Fred G. Marquart writes:—"I felt drunk most of the time. My head was dizzy. I couldn't think clearly. One day I dropped a coin and when I stooped to get it I got so dizzy I almost fell. I later found out that the cause of this condition was constipation. This was overcome by a short course of Carter's Little Liver Pills. My appetite has doubled, and my dizziness has entirely left me." Carter's Little Liver Pills move the bowels and relieve the system of its poisonous matter. Druggists, 25 & 75c red packages.

ONLY 2 MORE DAYS OF SENSATIONAL VALUES
It Is Impossible to Over-Emphasize the savings.

Always the favored furniture for summer, handwoven fiber, as Karpen built it, is now acclaimed for its all-year-round correctness. It offers just the right decorative note for restful, cheerful informality, with its blending tones and bright cretonnes. But more surprising still are the Karpen Week reduced prices. The positive savings you can make by choosing now are typical of the tremendous value-giving this week on all Karpen pieces and suites for living room, library, hall and sun-room.

The delightful variety will gladden every true home lover. There are beautiful suites in the manner of Queen Anne and Louis XV; formal and informal occasional chairs, day beds, davenport beds, and restful easy chairs. The coverings are rich, new fabrics; the carvings are craftsmanlike and lovely.

No matter what sort of decoration you favor for your home, there are beautiful pieces to suit your preference. And your purse will be the gainer, if you buy now, during this great sale. Remember, Saturday, May 8th, is positively the last day of this amazing under-pricing.
