A gold medal will be awarded the best all-round debater.

The dramatic club gives the annual commencement play on Thursday evening at eight o'clock. The play is "The Path Across the Hill," by Lillian Mortimer. The three classes of tickets will be on sale at Edwards' Pharmacy beginning with Tuesday, May 25.

The commencement program closes on Friday evening. Professor Albert M. Coates, of the Law School, of the University of North Carolina, will deliver the annual literary address. Mr. Coates is a young man who possesses splendid qualities as a speaker. His messages always take well with his audiences. He is familiar with present day problems of vital concern, and always speaks with interest and forcefulness upon subjects of importance to the people. Following his address, diplomas, certificates, medals and awards of distinction will be given to graduates and others. The presence of the public will be greatly appreciated.

Bryson Resigns from Superior Court Bench

Raleigh, May 20.—(AP)—Governor McLean today received and accepted the resignation of Judge T. D. Bryson, of Bryson City, from the Superior court bench, effective July 1. The executive had no announcement to make with reference to the successor. Judge Bryson did not state why he resigned, but it has been understood that he expects to devote himself largely to work for the proposed Smoky Mountain National Park. He announced some time ago that he would not be a candidate for re-election.

AUTHORIZES THE PAYMENT OF OLD STATE BONDS

$12,346 Purchase Price, to Come From Emergency and Contingent Fund

Raleigh, May 20.—(AP)—The Governor and Council of State today authorized payment from the emergency and contingent fund of $12,346 for old bonds of the state, which it had been believed were lost. The bonds were presented by Mrs. Cora Newman of New York.

Thirteen of the bonds are of the Western North Carolina Railroad and these were settled for on a basis of $892 for each thousand as decided by the legislature in 1904. The other three bonds presented were on the old Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherfordton Railroad, which were settled on the basis of 25c to the dollar.

There are said to be only six more of the Western North Carolina bonds in existence and they are believed to be lost. Those presented by Mrs. Newman are said to have been found in some old papers belonging to her father.

Reject Proposals for Settlement of the Miners' Strike

London, May 20.—(AP)—The National Conference of miner delegates today rejected the Government's proposal for the settlement of the miners' strike.

"Bunny" Austin, Is the New British Tennis Wonder

London, May 20.—(INS)—Lawn Tennis Britain believes that her long-delayed tennis star—successor to the Renshaws, the Dohertys and Anthony Wilding—has at last arrived, in the shape of Henry, Wilfred Austin, a 19-year-old boy, universally known as "Bunny."

Austin has beaten England's two leading tennis exponents, O. G. N. Turnbull and J. B. Gilbert, both established Davis Cup players, in a manner so decisive that no doubt remains that he is easily the best singles player in Britain. He has every stroke, a beautiful sense of strategy and tactics, and a smash at the net that has never been equalled.

As regards style, he is, in every way, reminiscent of Lacoste, curiously similar to the Frenchman in physique. He plays the same fast, untiring game, and never gives up for a second to give his opponent a breather.

The Austins are a tennis family. Miss Joan Austin, now Mrs. Randolph Lycett and wife of the Australian Davis player—was one of the great Austin-Coyler doubles combination, which created such a furore at Wimbledon two years ago. At that time the two midget players took on the giants and vanquished them. Today Mrs. Lycett is about the third best woman player in England.

Germany Wants Various Forms of Warfare Forbidden

Geneva, Switz., May 20.—(AP)—Concrete proposals to forbid the use of airplane and poison gas in warfare and to suppress heavy artillery and tanks, were put forward today by Germany at the session of the preparation disarmament commission. The proposals were presented by Count Von Bernstorff, former Ambassador to the United States.

Answering all allusions to Germany's industrial strength it would have to be taken into counts when Germany's neighbors were asked to disarm. Count Von Bernstorff declared, "I don't want to evoke memories of the past, but history has demonstrated the impossibility of transforming all industrial equipment into implements of war, primarily that our factories are so near the frontier that they can be destroyed at the very outset of a war."

NEWEST SOVIET FIGURES SHOW SMALL PERCENTAGE OF RUSSIANS ABROAD

Moscow, May 20.—(INS)—Recent statistics issued by the French Foreign Office reporting not more than 91,000 Russians resident in France, have provoked a new wave of speculation here as to the actual number of Russian emigres still living abroad.

Grand Duke Nikolai Nikolaevich, recognized by the majority of monarchists as the "Guardian of the Throne" of the Romanovs and heir presumptive, in a late number of the Paris organ of the emigres reckoned the total number of anti-Soviet Russians abroad at 3,000,000. Professor Milukov, one-time premier of Russia, says there are 2,000,000.

Soviet authorities laugh at these estimates. The French Foreign Office figures were welcomed here as confirmation of the Soviet that there are not more than 250,000 emigre Russians in Europe.

MacMillan, University of Chicago, and Prof. M. E. Hufford, Indiana University. All the scientists have given special study to the subject.

THREE MEMBERS OF INVESTIGATION COMMITTEE QUIT

Only Two Members of the Five Senatorial Campaign Investigation Committee Named Yesterday Left

Washington, May 20.—(AP)—Three of the five Senators named to the Senatorial campaign investigation committee yesterday, tendered their resignation from the committee today to Vice-President Dawes. They were Senators Reid, Democrat, of Deneen, of Illinois, Republicans; and Bayard, Democrat, of Delaware. The members left are Senators Reid, Democrat, of Missouri; and LaFollette, Republican, of Wisconsin.

Reed, of Pennsylvania, said he could not serve because he already is on the Senate Tariff Investigating Committee and also wants to go abroad this summer with the Battle Monuments Commission, of which he is a member. Senator Deneen is Secretary of the Republican Senatorial Committee and has been designated to have charge of that committee's Chicago office. Senator Bayard resigned because he is treasurer of the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee.

Norlina, N. C., May 20.—(AP)—Fire caused by defective wiring, last night destroyed two stores in the heart of the business district here. The damage was estimated early today at approximately $25,000, partially covered by insurance.

Two Stores Destroyed by Fire Caused by Defective Wiring

Granite Boulder Unveiled Today In Charlotte

Charlotte, May 20.—(AP)—A granite boulder marking the site of the home of Captain James Jacks, bearer of a copy of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence to Philadelphia was unveiled here today on the 151st anniversary of the signing of the document. The day, with the exception of this ceremony, was no different from others, except that the banks and a few offices were closed. Captain Jacks' message carried to the "Continental Congress" at Philadelphia, was dispatched by "pony express" on May 20, 1775.

GREENVILLE RANKS FIFTH IN STATE FRENCH CONTEST

Three High School Students Receive Honorable Mention in Contest Recently Held

Friends of the Greenville High School should be exceedingly proud of the standing which the Greenville students played in the State French contest held during the month of April.

The papers of the students were ranked in order of excellence. Miss Elizabeth Deal ranked fifth, Gilbert Mobley eighth, and Miss Jessie Baker twenty-third.

These students are all members of the present senior class and have had only two years of French under Miss Mary Glenn Lloyd. The students who took part in this contest numbered 1550. The record made by Greenville students was good due to the fact that the schools who excelled were those having three years of French in the largest cities of the state.

The News and Observer carried the following words:

"The examination was highly successful from the point of view of interest which the papers aroused and the information which the papers supplied. In the opinion of the examining committee the papers which received the highest grades represented very not-worthy achievement. The number of possible errors in the examination was almost countless, since every word and every letter presented an opportunity for mistake. The winning papers were almost without error. The test involved especially memory, concentration, and ability to pay very close attention to detail, although it gave evidence also of intelligence of a very superior grade."

Two Fertilizer Plants Wrecked by Fire Today

Baltimore, May 20.—(AP)—Fire wrecked two fertilizer plants and damaged other property at Canton, a suburb, today causing losses which may reach $1,500,000. The plants destroyed were those of the Griffin and Boyd Fertilizer Company, loss $600,000; and the Summer Fertilizer Co., loss $500,000.

The Shipping Station and Fire Station of the Baltimore Copper and Smelting Co., and the Central Chemical Company were damaged to the extent of $200,000.

Twelve dwellings, half a dozen railroad cars and as many sewers and transmission lines of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company and the Gas and Electric Company were damaged also.

ARMY'S "O.D." BLANKET APPROVED BY DEPARTMENT

Washington, May 20.—(INS)—The Army "issue O. D." blanket, which attached American soldiers during the World War, now has a final stamp of approval of the War Department. Tests conducted at Fort Benning, Ga., developed that while blankets containing more wool were warmer, they were too bulky for the infantry pack and also contained moisture too long. The board of investigators recommended no change be made in the Army blanket now in use.

AMERICAN HOME CHIEF WOMEN'S CLUB SUBJECT

Atlantic City, May 20.—(AP)—Members of the General Federation of Women's Clubs believe that the American home is the principal problem before them. Law enforcement, prohibition, child labor and social welfare issues, in many state and former national conventions, therefore, will bow to the supremacy of the home as the keynote topic before their forthcoming convention which convenes May 25. About this subject all other interests will revolve.

TODAY

(Copyright 1926) Thinking of Dinner. Dante's Muddy Stairs. Turks and Coyotes. No More Bathing Beauties. By ARTHUR BRISBANE

This is written on the Santa Fe, Eastbound, through New Mexico. Not much to interest a man whose high spots are the stock tickers, moving pictures, soda water fountain, or the man to whom applies Dr. Johnson's saying, "A man seldom thinks of anything more earnestly than of his dinner."

But the ranges on the right, as you go east, are endless, of un-used lands, rolling to the south dotted with evergreen trees that lack of water. To the left are flat lands feasting by a high wall of red rock and earth and above, the Mesa, waiting for water to develop its unlimited fertility.

Instead of thinking about his dinner, an eccentric man might find interest in the future day when tens of millions of human beings coming in airplanes, inhabit these high lands, so beautiful, with the finest climate on earth, health and freedom for population unlimited.

The wide valleys, rolling plains, and the great 14,550' peaks are lonely now. Between you and the high red wall are only three living creatures. An Indian woman, with bare head, walks in front, close behind her a thin white horse, on the horse a fat male Indian with heavy soubreco on his thick hair.

Asked why he, instead of his wife, wore the hat, he would say, "hot sun, bad for my head." Asked why he and not his wife rode the horse, he would explain that squaws walk and consider his answer sufficient.

That's why in this land the white man tells the Indian where he may live, what acres he may have. Children don't amount to much when the father does not respect their mother. And children that amount to so little must be the servants of others.

Fred Harvey's thoughtful steward, Pietro omarini, looks at the Indian family and, philosophically quotes Dante Salire Le Scale Pieno Di Fango. Per Poi Farne Le Altre, Senza Fango, which means that it is hard to climb the steps covered with mud, in order to reach those that are clean. "Senza Fango."

Indians and others that we call "inferior races" still on the lower muddy steps, will reach higher ground if diseases and vices of "superior" races do not kill them off. Meanwhile the white man should not boast too much about his part of the staircase, there is mud on it still.

News of the world pours into the rushing train, through excellent newspapers published everywhere along the line, the Albuquerque Morning Journal, one of the best. But in this wide land news from "civilization" seems not important.

You read that Mr. Morgenthau, once ambassador to Turkey, looking with horror upon Kemal Pasha, "most brutal murderer," says Christian America should have no dealings with Turks that have "murdered four million Christian Armenians." Kemal Pasha might reply, "well, anyhow, there are many Armenians left, about as many as there ever were. That's more than you Americans can say for your red Indians. You put them on lands that you consider worthless, and when oil is discovered there you kick the Indians out once more. Clean your staircase."

Here the coyotes do to the jack rabbits what Turks do to Armenians. It is "the nature of the beast," two legged and four legged. The misfortune of the jack rabbits is that they are jack rabbits, and of the Armenians that they are Armenians. A different kind of animal, two legged or four legged, wouldn't let himself be killed so easily.

DECLARES FRENCH SETTLEMENT FAIR TO BOTH COUNTRIES

Mellon Discusses the Debt Settlement as "Fair to Both American Taxpayers and French People"

Washington, May 20.—(AP)—The French debt settlement was described today by Secretary Mellon to the House Ways and Means committee as "fair, both to the American taxpayers and to the French people."

It represents France's capacity to pay, Mr. Mellon said, and he predicted that when France has concluded debt settlements with England as well as this country, it will be able to stabilize its currency which has declined considerably in recent weeks.

The appearance of the Secretary before the committee today marked the first step in legislative consideration of the French and Jugo-Slavian debt pacts which the administration hopes to have approved by Congress at this session. Mr. Mellon pointed out that the settlement provides for total payments by France over a period of 62 years of $6,847,674,102. The payments start at $30,000,000 and finally get to be $125,000,000 a year, which will be paid annually the last 35 years.

"To insist on too heavy payments in the early years," the Secretary said, "might well jeopardize the accomplishments of these reforms necessary to French economic and financial rehabilitation."

France at present is not able to set apart large sums to be transferred abroad as payments on account of her external debt. Despite great efforts she has not yet full repaired the losses in many power and property caused by the war. Her domestic debt has reached enormous proportions, her currency is inflated, and it is becoming increasingly difficult to raise by taxation sufficient funds to meet charges on her debt and to pay her ordinary Governmental expenditures.

The present value of the French payments on the 4 1-4 per cent basis is $2,008,122,624, or about 50 per cent of the debt funded, Mr. Mellon said, as compared with the Italian's settlement of 26 per cent. While the money loaned to France was obtained by the Treasury at 4 1-4 per cent the Government is now getting money at almost 3 per cent, he declared, and on this basis the French settlement virtually represents dollar for dollar in present value.

Humble Commoner Honored by Japan

Tokyo, May 20.—(INS)—For the first time in the history of Japan a commoner is president of the Privy Council.

There have been fifteen presidents of the Privy Council since the modern system of government was established in Japan and such distinguished statesmen as Prince Ito, Yamagata and Satouji have held the office. All of the fifteen have been members of the aristocracy and holders of titles.

Dr. Yuasuro Kuratomi, who became president of the Council upon the death of Baron Hozumi, however, is of humble ancestry and has lived humbly all his life. He is the oldest graduate of the oldest law school in modern Japan and has spent all his life in scholarly pursuits. Although he is a member of the House of Peers he has no title, but holds his membership by appointment from the Throne, an honor frequently extended to men who have achieved distinction in their special sphere. Except for his membership in the House of Peers, Dr. Kuratomi has never taken an active part in politics or held political office. He has been an official of the Imperial Household Department for years, however, and is regarded as a foremost authority on Imperial Household affairs.

Says 1926 Has Better Manners Than Last Year

London, May 20.—(INS)—Miss 1926 is way ahead of her mother in behavior, manners, and kindness, despite the assertions of many people to the contrary. In the opinion of Dame Millicent Fawcett, once in the forefront of the woman's suffrage campaign and now a strong defender of the modern young woman.

"Modern girls and modern boys too, are splendid," Dame Fawcett said in an interview with International News Service. "The young folks of 1926 are infinitely better behaved than their 19th century predecessors," she added.

"The world is so accustomed to 'crabbing' things in these days," she continued, "that I am afraid we sometimes overlook happenings in which we ought to take a real pride. One of them is undoubtedly the improvement in manners. They are better than ever they were."

"Everyday happenings on the street-cars, in the streets, and in the subway, where it is a common occurrence for young women to give up their places to elderly folks, show that modern day manners are an improvement of those of the good old days." Such incidents make one think that the young are being condemned too much by some people.

"It is true that they are more outspoken, but it is a good thing that they should be open and frank. More than anything else one is struck today by the helpfulness of men towards their wives. I think that the men who served in the World War learned to appreciate home comforts to which they returned, and their enticement on the woman in maintaining those comforts. A new tone has been developed, and I do think that democracy tends to good manners.

"Those countries which have spent millions of dollars on educational efforts are now getting reward, for I think that it is education in one form or another that has brought about the change in day and those of the 19th century."

CONGRESS WOULD INVESTIGATE ITSELF

Washington, May 20.—(AP)—Of the maze of legislative proposals before Congress, Representative Thomas, an Oklahoma Democrat, is author of one unlike all the rest. He wants to investigate Congress itself.

The Oklahoman feels that many remarks, none too complimentary directed at Congress by the press, individuals and the public should either be proved or disproved. He wants Congress to be given a clean bill of health or impeached itself.

"If the charges now being made are true, partially true, partially false or wholly false," he says, "it is time for Congress to take notice before it is too late. If there is nothing wrong; if the high officials, publicists and governmental critics are mistaken in their fears, the country should be assured."

Says He Felt Drunk
Most of the Time

Brooklyn, Mr. Fred G. Marquart writes:—"I felt drunk most of the time. My head was dizzy. I couldn't think clearly. One day I dropped a coin and when I stooped to get it I got so dizzy I almost fell. I later found out that the cause of this condition was constipation. This was overcome by a short course of Carter's Little Liver Pills. My appetite has doubled, and my dizziness has entirely left me." Carter's Little Liver Pills move the bowels and relieve the system of its poisonous matter. Druggists, 25 & 75c red packages.

PRINCE ALBERT has been such a revelation to men who thought that they were pipe-happy that three pipes are smoked today where one was smoked before. That's a fact, Men, just as sure as little bees buzz and polliwogs have tails.

And you don't need a degree from Oxford to figure out the reason: The Prince Albert process cuts out bite and parch positively and Prince Albert quality makes it the National Joy Smoke. That means you can cram this fine old favorite into the bowl of your jimmy-pipe and turn on all five tubes . . . go to it any way you please . . . slow or fast, morning to midnight!

Yes, sir! P. A. is the taste-teasingest, tongue-pleasingest tobacco that ever tumbled into a briar. Its smoke is the coolest that ever sifted into your system. Its fragrance keeps honeysuckle and your favorite rose fighting for second place.

Put it on your pad now: You've got a date this very day with the smoke-shop that hands out P. A. sunshine in tidy red tins. Decorate yourself with the degree of P. A., and get the highest degree of pleasure out of that old pipe.

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-mistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.

PRINCE ALBERT
—no other tobacco is like it!

ORANGE JUICE PRESCRIBED IN INFANT CASES

A survey recently made among Pacific Coast Dietitians shows that practically without exception orange juice is prescribed in all infant cases and that it is the outstanding item in all diet cases. Modern dietitians seem to agree that orange juice is nature's tonic.

Orange juice is a natural eliminator. If more people realized this there would be a tremendous reduction in the total of defective health. Orange juice, and the juice is absolutely all that oranges are eaten for, is more easily assimilated than the juice of any other fruit. It is highly nutritive and rich in the vitamins and fruit salts so vitally essential to good health.

It isn't necessary to sacrifice your daily glass of orange juice just because you're too busy to squeeze the fruit or because it's sometimes difficult to obtain. You can now get sweet California orange juice in glass jugs, ready for instant use, just as handy as the milk bottle. And when you've missed your breakfast glass, you'll find most fountains nowadays equipped to serve real orange juice just as good as the juice you prepare at home.

"FLATTERY" BOASTS REAL GREAT CAST

Funeral Services Conducted for Mrs. J. R. Owens

Fountain, May 20.—Mrs. Joe Robert Owens died last Tuesday morning following illness of only a few days. Mrs. Owens was operated on in Tarboro last week and did not recover from operation. She died at the Edgecombe County Hospital.

There was not a woman more loved in the community than Mrs. Owens. She was faithful in all her duties. She was active both in church and welfare work.

Mrs. Owens was the daughter of the late Henry Brown of Macesfield and is survived by her husband and two daughters, Misses Velma and Trilba Brown, of Fountain; three sisters: Mrs. S. L. Jefferson, Fountain; Mrs. J. L. D. Corbett, Mrs. George Bridgers, of Macesfield, and five brothers: Messrs. Edd Brown, Jr., of Ayden; Frank Brown, J. R., Hugh, and Clay Brown, of Macesfield.

The funeral was conducted from the home by Mr. Crisp, of Pinetops, assisted by Rev. Campbell, of Fountain. The eight active pallbearers were nephews of Mrs. Owens and fourteen flower girls were her nieces. The honorary pallbearers were: Messrs. Floyd Turnage, Herman Gardner, W. L. Goodwyn, Herman Owens, J. L. Eagles, and W. D. Gaynor.

The numerous floral designs expressed the friendship of the community.

SKINNY MEN GLAD

Doctors and good pharmacists know that Cod Liver Oil is full of vitamins that make flesh, create appetite, builds up the power to resist disease and puts good solid flesh on skinny men and women.

But it's horrible tasting stuff and every day fewer people are taking it, for doctors are prescribing and people are fast learning that they can get better results with McEoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets, which Denton Drug Co., and druggists all over the country are having a tremendous demand for.

One woman gained 10 pounds in 22 days and if any skinny man or woman can't put on 5 pounds in 30 days, your druggist is authorized to refund the purchase price.

Be sure and get McEoy's, the original and genuine Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—60 tablets—60 cents.

CURSE OR PROFANITY NOT SIOUX LANGUAGE

Aberdeen, S. D., May 20.—(AP)—Blasphemous and profane speech is impossible in the language of the Dakota Sioux Indians.

Reasons for the discrepancy, are lazy, even to D. E. Ashley, Episcopal missionary among the Sioux for fifty two years, and an authority on their life and language. He points to the tribe name, Dakota, which means "Friendly Peoples."

There is no word or expression in the Sioux tongue even to convey the damning of an enemy. A flick of the middle finger, resembling the snapping of an arrow and denoting scorn, is the ultimate in condemnatory gestures.

HAMMER THROW MARK LIKELY TO STAND

Brunswick, Me., May 20.—(AP)—One of the records which seems certain to withstand assaults at the fiftieth annual intercollegiate track and field championships at Harvard Stadium, May 23 and 29, believes John J. Magee, Bowdoin College coach, is the hammer throw of 181 feet, 6 1/2 inches which Fred D. Tootell, one of Magee's proteges, established in 1923.

"That mark," said Magee, made the year before he won the Olympic title, was ten feet farther than any other throw in the history of the association. It was more than 105 feet better than the original I. C. A. A. A. record for this event. Improvement in this event is more marked than in any other on the program."

Tells you there is danger ahead. A healthy bladder does not act at night.

J. H. Dorton, W. Graham, Va., says: "I had to get up seven or eight times at night for forty years. I thought it was my age. After taking Litho-ed Buchu a short time, I am alright. Litho-ed Buchu cleanses the bladder and Epsom Salts do the bowels. Thereby relieving irritation, driving out foreign matter and neutralizing excessive acids. THOMAS JEFFERSON MEMORIAL

A nation-wide campaign is being made to purchase Monticello, the home of Thomas Jefferson in Virginia, and its lovely estate of 650 acres, and to preserve them for all future generations.

This great leader is our country's early history—the author of the Declaration of Independence—should never be forgotten by a grateful people.

The world has only produced one Thomas Jefferson, and we should be ever proud that he is ours.

The local campaign closes on June 18th, and contributions should be deposited at the Greenville National Bank before that date.

Greenville will, we hope, respond generously to this appeal. It is a worth-while matter. Even the school children can contribute something—individually or as classes—and it would be a lesson in Patriotism our school teachers might well emphasize.

Every dollar counts, and as our district is asked to raise $5,000, YOUR gift is needed, however small.

Let us all pull together and put East Carolina "over the top" in this patriotic endeavor.

WORKERS AND PROSPERITY

Three different delegations of Britons have been making official visits to this country to study our prosperity. They would find why wages of labor are so much higher here than in England, and they want to know why the American workman gives heavier production than the British toiler.

At the very outset they were moved to vast surprise when they saw that most of our workmen—especially in the building trades—drive their own cars to their laborers every morning. In Europe the laboring classes are not supposed to own cars. The price is deemed prohibitive as measured against their scale of wages. In this country low-priced autos may be had on easy terms, and no family is poor to contemplate possession.

In American factories, labor-saving machinery is much in use. As a result the men who operate the machinery get big wages and the volume of production is large. In all industries individual efficiency is recognized. Better wages and advancement belong to the workers who stand out from the ruck.

At this time the workers of America are living better and drawing greater wages than in any other land on earth. At no time in history did the people of the Old World Experience such living conditions as are enjoyed by the ordinary toilers of America today.

Yet there are wild blades still to be found, who would change the substance of our prosperity for the shadow of Socialism!—Los Angeles Times.

New Collection of Czar's Notes Is Discovered

Leningrad, May 20.—(INS)—A new collection of notes written by the hand of the former Czar Nicholas II, has been found in the once secret archives here. They tell the story of a weak-willed sovereign with a good heart, who was even ready to play the generous benefactor to a favored few.

Written from 1896 to 1917, the notes answer one long series of pleas for money from members of art aristocracy—which had already reached the last stages of decadence.

An officer of the Guard made perhaps the boldest request when he wrote the Czar for 50,000 roubles so that he might pay his gambling debts. Nicholas replied by sending him half the sum.

A noblewoman with a defunct bank account, Baroness Krudner-Duesen, wrote a flowery appeal that touched the Czar—but not for much.

"Your Royal Majesty," she implored, "send me on my birthday wings that I might fly away from here, somewhere to a summer home. I feel the need of fresh air. I am thirsty for it and am completely deprived of it here. Our palace is surrounded with smoke-stacks. I can't breathe freely. Send me relief. I have no money for the journey or for a villa. Be kind to a poor, orphaned widow."

The Czar wrote across the back of the petition: "Send her 500 roubles." Which was small enough for a summer's vacation.

Sofia Eyrienova, another noblewoman, with a bankrupt estate, wrote:

As to the Father in Heaven come all who are in sorrow know me it is no sin to apply to His benevolence, so do I appeal to the Czar of the land.

"Notwithstanding all our faults and remembering all kindnesses he has shown to us formerly I permit myself to send a modest request for the kind relief of the sum of 25,000 roubles in order to save our inherited home."

The Czar made a memorandum across this saying: "You can give her 25,000 roubles out of my private fortune."

$60,000 the speedway company offers will go to the driver who hurls his little speedster across the tape first. To that amount will be added approximately $8,500 from tire, carguretor, electrical and other accessories companies.

If the winner of the event follows precedent and is in front a great portion of the time, he will win approximately $8,500 in prize money.

Nothing Else to Pay

All Closed Car Comforts — Masterful Performance — Low Cost

Note Well These Claims—They Are Supported by 800,000 Owners

Lasting pride of ownership comes from masterful performance, ease of operation and maintenance, from reliability and economy.

These qualities cannot be revealed by any other test than actual performance over long periods of time and in the hands of every type of user.

Hudson holds first advantage because of its patented Super-Six—the world's most famous motor. More than 800,000 have been built by Hudson under its exclusive principle. For 11 years it has been outstanding because of distinctive smoothness, wide flexibility, power, speed, and reliability.

Hudson is easy to steer. Its power range is so great that gear shifting is lessened, and the riding action is so well arranged that long hours at the wheel are not tiring.

Economy is found in low operating and maintenance cost.

These are the qualities that make genuine satisfaction. Upon such a chassis is mounted the Coach. It gives all closed car comforts. It is sturdy, beautiful in line, and complete in every practical detail. Its sale has exceeded that of any closed car priced above $1,000. That production has led to greater economy and much lower prices. It has permitted many improvements in chassis and body.

So today's Hudson Coach is not only the best ever built. It also is priced lower than ever before.

BRITAIN'S LONELY ISLAND SUFFERS OVER-POPULATION
London, May 20.—(AP)—Britain's loneliest possession, the island of Tristan da Cunha, is suffering from over-population.

There are 140 persons on the island, which is nearly double the population of twenty years ago, and the food supply has run short. The island is located in the middle of the Atlantic on a line between the Cape of Good Hope and Buenos Aires. It is only two miles long and adjoins two or three other smaller volcanic islands.

Most of the population consists of shipwrecked sailors and wives they have brought from St. Helena. Potatoes are the chief crop, but they were a failure this year.

The Value of Herbs!
Mary, the mother of George Washington, lived in Fredericksburg, Va., where her beautiful garden was her pride and pleasure. In one part of this garden she raised herbs and from them made a tonic medicine which she freely gave to all who asked for it. Mary Washington's tonic was a boon to many weak people—built them up, made them strong. To-day we have practically the same remedy in Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, made of herbs and skillfully prepared by competent chemists. Sold by druggists. If you need a tonic, try it!

Raleigh High School Wins in French Contest

Chapel Hill, May 20.—The Raleigh high school, with the paper submitted by Arthur Bridgers, has won first place in the first annual high school French contest for North Carolina high schools. It was announced by E. R. Rankin, who has acted as secretary of the French contest.

The best 25 papers, rated in order of excellence, were submitted by high school students, as follows:

Arthur Bridgers, Raleigh; Esther Metzenthin, Chapel Hill; Talitha Hittaff, Wilmington; Margaret Hanna, Asheville; Elizabeth Deal, Greenville; Ruth Gufford, Statesville; Emily Lee, Graham; Elbert Mobley, Greenville; Margaret Andrews, Wilmington; Kathleen Goodwyn, Raleigh; Mildred Weinstein, Lumberton; Cecil Taylor, Williamston; Lessie Brown Phillips, Winston-Salem; Mary Ballard, Lillington; Belle Ward Stowe, Charlotte; Herman Summers, Statesville; Merle Higgins, Asheville; Gladys Hicks, Rockingham; Burr Baughman, Henderson; Meta Stockard, Wilmington; Doris Lea Regan, East Durham; Nellie Haynes, Charlotte; Jessie Baker, Greenville; Lillian White, Rockingham; and Rosalyn Gardner, Reidsville.

The number of high schools which participated in the French contest on April 29th was 68. In these 68 high schools, a total of 1,412 students stood the standard examination, which had been prepared by the French Department of the University. Each school submitted its best three papers to the French Department of the University, the members of this department serving as an examining committee.

The French contest was sponsored jointly by the University Extension Division and the Department of French of the University of North Carolina. A trophy cup, signifying the State prize, will be awarded by the University Extension Division to the Raleigh high school.

Prof. H. R. Huse, chairman of the French contest committee, made the following statement today regarding the contest:

"The examination was highly successful from the point of view of the interest aroused and the information which the papers supplied. The best papers from each school were graded entirely upon the basis of the number of errors made. In the opinion of the examining committee, the papers which received the highest grades represented very noteworthy achievement. The number of possible errors in the examination was almost countless, since every word and every letter presented an opportunity for a mistake. The winning papers were almost without error."

MEMBER OF HARRIMAN FAMILY STRIVING FOR PICTURE FRAME

New York, May 20.—(AP)—Eight or ten hours of hard work six days a week, with bits of hard luck occasionally thrown in, is nothing unusual to Alvie Laidley, who in New York's Social Register is Mrs. John Harriman, daughter-in-law of Oliver Harriman, the banker.

She intends to become a movie star.

Out at Paramount's Long Island studio she is one of the first players to arrive each morning and one of the last to leave.

David Ward Griffith, who has given her small parts, noticed this and she has received much training from him as a result. In search of a young and beautiful woman for an important part in the picture he is now making, Griffith decided Miss Laidley was best qualified.

She played in all preliminary rehearsals, but when the "shooting" was ready to begin a bit of hard luck lost the role for her. Lya de Putti, the Hungarian actress, arrived in this country ready for work and was given the role.

But Miss Laidley kept on working. Griffith created a small part for her. In addition, she is familiar with all the features parts in the picture and the director uses her to advantage in rehearsals.

Since Miss de Putti does not understand English Griffith often has difficulty in directing. He calls in Miss Laidley and demonstrates through her.

Hand-Woven Sport Dress Be Gift to President's Wife

Boston, May 20.—(INS)—Mrs. Calvin Coolidge is going to have a new sport frock.

The usual thing about it is that it is the work of Boston women, made and designed by them.

The sport dress was hand-woven and made by the Mothers' Club of the North Bennett Street Industrial School in the North End. Two expert weavers, Mrs. Louise Guarino and Mrs. Maria DeMucci, wove the original patterns.

The mothers of the club saved two years to pay their expenses to Washington to present the frock to the President's wife.

The material for the frock is of softest white wool woven in a firm light cloth, with stripes of black for the border and collar and cuffs. It is made in straight, one-piece sport lines, with a "kick pleat" on each side of the skirt. The border of the stripes at the hem and the collar and cuffs in smaller stripes comprise the only trimming.

The material is called Copps Hill homespun after the old Copps Hill of the North End of Boston.

With the frock is a matching scarf of white, with a border of black and white stripes.

The dress was made to Mrs. Coolidge's measurements.

Daily News Letter

Gossip of Staff Correspondents at World Centers of Population.

Moscow, May 20.—(INS)—American farmers are so poor that they all have become Bolshevists and their only ambition is to sell their desert acres and come to the Soviet Union to live.

This is only one of many remarkable discoveries made by Feodor Feodorovich, hero of a new book by Morris Dollhoff, published for the benefit of the long-suffering Russian peasant by the Soviet firm "New Village."

One of a series of thousands of propaganda volumes intended to win the loyalty of the peasant to the Soviet regime, the book is written in words of one syllable.

It is called "The Adventures of Feodor," and only differs from Munchausen by the fact that its author intends it to be taken literally. A perusal of the volume is not only an instructive lesson in the quality and means of Soviet propaganda, but is an amusement seldom experienced.

Comrade Dollhoff takes his hero Feodor through numerous adventures, each of which proves the world-wide solidarity of the "workers and peasant masses," and reflects the immense superiority of the Soviet regime over that of any of its "bourgeois" rivals in the outer world.

Feodor's first exciting moment came when he and a group of peasant comrades with whom he was travelling, fell into the hands of cannibals in darkest Africa. The cannibals prepared to slay the Russians for breakfast. Feodor was in despair.

The pot was boiling, the victims were stripped, and the cook sharpened his knife.

At this juncture Feodor had an inspiration.

Attracting the attention of the cannibal chieftain, Feodor pointed to himself and his comrades, and cried "Proletarians, Proletarians!" The cannibal chief whooped with joy, embraced the captives, and ordered them released. "Comrades," cried the chief, "we thought you were bourgeois!" Thereupon, relates the author, the cannibals feasted their erst-while prisoners, and discussed with them the principles of Marxism.

From Africa, the imaginative author took his hero to the United States. There, he declared, "I found that all the tales about America being a rich country are fables. I saw nothing but deserts, sand, prairies without water, and without roads. The farmers were all extremely poor, and because they were poor, were all Bolshevists. They want to sell everything they have and come to the Soviet Union to live permanently."

Moscow's suffering from a suppressed desire. It wants to dance, and the Soviet won't let it.

The highly idealistic communists who govern the city declare that dancing is bourgeois, and hence abhorrent. Of course they mean fox-trotting, one-stepping, tangos, and other "modern" steps. They declare that they have no objection to "plastic" or "rhythmic" dancing. And one, Charleston, they have no opinion, never having heard of it. Only "bourgeois" would indulge in such an "indirect stimulation to immorality" as the modern dance, declare the straight-laced Moscow Sovietists. Communists, they argue, need put no bounds on their sexual life, and certainly need pay no attention to "bourgeois" ideals of morality, such as disapproval of intimate relations outside of marriage, but the modern dance,—that is an abomination.

The doctor says "racing is the fastest growing business in the country. Last year five hundred million dollars were thrown away on it." He underestimates the financial end. The bookmakers alone took in eight hundred millions.

Speaking of Louisville, where 75,000 gathered to see the Derby race, the indignant doctor said "that city tonight has more dissolute women, gamblers, bootleggers and criminals generally within its gates, than any one city in America, drawn there by the Derby." That is only some of the mud on the staircase of our civilization.

The bright sunshine out here in New Mexico, Arizona or California would soon dry that mud. You ought to see this whole country, and after seeing it you would worry less about bathing beauty shows or the race track betting ring or prize ring that gathers and spreads crime and disease.

Lady Says She Took Cardui and Never Saw Such Improvement—Was So Weak Couldn't Stand.

Weatherby, Miss.—Mrs. James M. Hall, of this place, writes that she was "getting weaker all the time" when Cardui, the woman's tonic, was first brought to her attention. After she had taken Cardui a while, she writes that she "never did see such an improvement."

"I suffered all the time and had pains all over," says Mrs. Hall. "I was so weak I could not stand. My skin was cold and flabby. I did not have any color. I had always been a very active woman—used to outdoor exercise, walking and going where I pleased, and to get down, not able to get myself a drink, was indeed a hardship.

"Nothing seemed to help me, till I began on Cardui. The first bottle seemed to strengthen me, and I sent for five more. By the time I had taken these, I was on my feet, going around, doing my work, gained in health and strength.

"I took two more bottles, and I am well and strong. Can work my garden. I haven't had any more sickness."
