HART ELECTED PRESIDENT OF HARDWARE MEN

Local Men Distinctly Honored at Session of Association in Raleigh

Greenville business men have received considerable recognition and honors this year at the annual meetings of various associations of this and other states, of which they are members, representing their respective lines.

The latest of these was on Thursday of this week in Raleigh when Mr. J. N. Hart was elected to the presidency of the North and South Carolina Hardware Association, succeeding J. D. Wilder, of Sumter, S. C. Mr. Hart was also chosen to represent the Association at the National Retail Hardware Association which convenes in Indianapolis on the 21st of this month for a four-day session.

Greenville was represented one hundred per cent at the Raleigh meeting, and the handsome prize offered each year to promote interest in attendance was won by Mr. C. H. Edwards.

The North and South Carolina Association is one of the strongest of the hardware brotherhood of the southland, and the annual sessions are always largely attended by men of both states, as well as by scores of representatives of various wholesale firms.

Because of an invitation extended by the Virginia dealers to meet during 1927 with that body in a tri-state convention, it has not yet been determined where the session of next year will be held.

Postoffice Clerk Is Charged With Theft

Asheville, June 12.—(AP)—Trapped by postoffice inspectors effort to solve mysterious thefts from the mail of special delivery letters in Asheville, Charles E. Manship, 21, a clerk in the postoffice here, was committed to jail today in default of $1,000 bond. Manship confessed, according to postal authorities, that he had stolen money from special delivery letters, over a period of two or three months. Marked currency which the inspectors had placed in two letters was found in Manship's possession and a third bill was found at a store where Manship is said to have had it cashed.

Manship, a bridegroom of two months, was given a hearing before United States Commissioner Gudgeon today. The specific charge against him is that he took $5.00 from a letter addressed to Miss Manna Smith, of Lockhart, S. C.

Cabarrus Bee Men Secure Good Yields

Concord, June 12.—(AP)—Beekeepers in Cabarrus county will secure good yields from their bees this spring, declares county agent R. D. Goodman. One farmer has already taken 50 pounds of honey from one hive.

The honey will sell for 30 cents per pound, the agent states, which he figures will net a return of $15 on a $10 investment—the original cost of both hive and bees. Such profits are being duplicated by other beekeepers in the county and many farmers are planning to enlarge their apiaries as rapidly as possible, according to Mr. Goodman.

Auto Races On At Altoona, Pa.

Altoona, Ga., June 12.—(AP)—A score or more of the country's speed demons of the board track were expected to cross the starting line today in the 250-mile automobile race at the Altoona speedway. Fourteen drivers in cars of various makes and designs so far have made the 118 miles an hour for a single lap necessary to qualify, while ten others were to attempt to qualify today. Weather indications were unfavorable with rain early today, but it was hoped the weather would clear before racing time this afternoon.

STATE TREASURY SHOWS BALANCE IN NEW REPORT

State Debt Showed to Be $136,565,600; Other Funds Are Represented

Raleigh, June 12.—(AP)—With but one month more to complete the first fiscal year of the McLean administration, the Treasury on May 31, showed a balance of $2,824,395.66. This was revealed today in the combined statement of the auditor and treasurer made public.

The statement showed the receipts for the month of May were $600,906.95, while the cash balance the first day of May was $3,034,106.41, making a total of $3,635,013.36. The disbursements for the month of May were $810,617.70, leaving a balance in the treasury of $2,824,395.66.

The balance at the highway fund and the other special funds of the state was listed as $9,132,347.99 on the last day of May. During the month the highway and special funds collected $3,404,898.60 and disbursed $4,508,556.48.

The cash on hand on May 31 including the general fund, all special funds, and warrants outstanding was listed as $12,607,200.96.

The State debt was shown to be $136,565,600. This was divided as follows: Current unfunded debt for road building, bridge building and school building, $12,800,000; general fund notes, $9,438,000; general fund bond, $34,328,000; highway bond, $69,999,600; special school building bond, $10,000,000.

Lutherans Get Appropriations

St. Louis, Mo., June 12.—(AP)—Included in the appropriations announced yesterday at the convention of the Missouri Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran church, was one for $95,000 for a new administration building at the Lutheran School at Conover, N. C.

Fire Destroys School Trucks Near Hickory

Hickory, June 12.—(AP)—Three county school buses and a garage valued at $6,500 were destroyed near here last night when fire started in the garage of the Mountain View School House about three miles south of Hickory. Local authorities trailed someone from the scene of the fire to Baker's Mountain where the bloodhounds had to be pulled off the scent because of the thick underbrush. No arrest had been made at noon today.

FOUR KILLED IN WRECK OF AUTOMOBILE

Yale students and lady friends meet instant death returning from dance.

Guilford, Conn., June 12.—(AP)—A speeding automobile which crashed into a big elm tree here early today brought death to four persons, two Yale students and their female companions. Mrs. Edwin R. Reeser, Geo. M. Kopperl, and William H. Cushman were instantly killed when the roadster was demolished in crashing against the tree. Miss Dorothy Kiernon was breathing when persons living nearby rushed to the aid of the four, but she died a few minutes later after being taken to a hospital.

The party was homeward bound after a dance about two o'clock, when the accident occurred. The automobile had been loaned to Kopperl by his room-mate at Yale.

The public little knows nor seldom appreciates the magnificent contribution which the hospital constantly makes to the cause of education, to the wonderful advancement of the medical profession in medical research, and more valuable than all to the conservation of the health of the community and to the prevention of the ills which afflict suffering humanity.

Wake Farmers Begin Dairying

Raleigh, June 11.—(AP)—Poor stands of both corn and tobacco are causing many Wake farmers to purchase dairy cows, poultry, and pigs to offset the prospective poor yields from these money crops. County Agent John C. Anderson said today. Sales of poultry and eggs on several farms have amounted to more than $500 this spring, and one farmer, who owns a flock of 100 White Leghorns, has received a weekly cash income of over $50 for the past three months, according to the agent.

ARMY NEEDS A FAR WIDER RANGE USEFULNESS, SAYS ASST. SECRETARY WAR

West Point, N. Y., June 12.—(INS)—The modern army demands a far wider range of usefulness of its officers than ever before. Assistant Secretary of War, Hanford MacNider, told the 1926 graduating class of the United States Military Academy here today.

Diplomas were presented by him to 152 cadets, who have survived the four-year grind at the academy. All of the pageantry that custom has decreed for the commencement exercises was displayed before a notable gathering.

HOSPITAL ASS'N. IN SESSION AT WRIGHTSVILLE

Dr. Bert Caldwell, of Tampa, Principal Speaker at Opening Session

Wrightsville Beach, June 11.—(AP)—The churches, the schools, and the hospitals are the three agencies which have contributed most to civilization's progress. Dr. Bert W. Caldwell, superintendent of the Gordon Keller Memorial Hospital at Tampa, Fla., told the Hospital Association of North Carolina in an address prepared for delivery here tonight.

Dr. Caldwell, speaking of "Why Hospitals Fail," was one of several speakers at the administrative session of the organization held tonight. The organization is holding its ninth annual session here.

"A hospital, if it is a good hospital, is operated with four distinctive objectives to attain," Dr. Caldwell declared. "First—to provide adequate professional care for the ill or injured. Second—to educate physicians, internes, nurses, dietitians and others for the preservation of the health of the community. Third—to encourage and to provide means for medical, surgical, and laboratory research; and fourth—to contribute to the prevention and control of disease. These functions the hospital must perform if it is to be of value to the community and to merit the support, moral and material, of the public which it serves.

"Throughout the centuries, churches, schools and hospitals have formed the trinity which has contributed most to civilization's progress. The community always takes a vital interest in its churches and its schools. Too frequently the community neglects the hospital. In times of trouble when disease invades or injury necessitates, the public appreciates the worth of good hospitals. It comes to our care as patients, depends upon the skill of our physicians and surgeons, is restored to its homes well and happy, and frequently forgets us. It pays for the professional care and attention which is purchasable, and seldom remembers the courtesy and friendly sympathy that has contributed so much to the patient's comfort and early restoration to health.

"The public little knows nor seldom appreciates the magnificent contribution which the hospital constantly makes to the cause of education, to the wonderful advancement of the medical profession in medical research, and more valuable than all to the conservation of the health of the community and to the prevention of the ills which afflict suffering humanity.

Payrole of Wyatt To Be Considered

Raleigh, June 12.—(AP)—Petition for the parole of Jesse Wyatt, former captain of detectives on the Raleigh police force now serving a term of from eight to eighteen months in state prison for manslaughter in connection with the death of Stephen S. Holt, of Smith field, was presented to Governor McLean today with the request that he act upon it before leaving tonight for Philadelphia.

At 2:30 o'clock this afternoon the governor had not had time to consider the petition which was presented to him, and he indicated he would not be able to see in person a delegation which desired to present the matter.

Where Religion Thrives.
Automobile Excitement.
Mr. Brookhart's Ideas.
A Petrified Brain.
By ARTHUR BRISBANE

Cardinal Chrost, first French Prince of the Roman Catholic Church ever to visit the United States, is on his way to the great eucharistic gathering in Chicago. He can assure his friends in Europe that religions prosper in a country where government and church are kept apart, not allowed to interfere with each other.

When he landed in New York the cardinal found a great State with a Roman Catholic for Governor, and that governor the most conspicuous Democratic presidential nomination in 1928, another at the head of the public school systems. As he drove to his hotel traffic was regulated and turned aside to clear the way, by Roman Catholic policemen, on foot and on motorcycles. A fair field and no favor is all that any religion needs.

Much excitement in the automobile world, with 22,000,000 cars running here and other millions being hatched each year.

Price cutting and new car building. John N. Willys says he has a surprise that will make the biggest eruption of Mount Vesuvius seem tame. Publishers interested in advertising should ask him about it. Other builders promise wonderful things.

The important thing is, get your car. The finest birds fly fast, the best fish swim in swift waters, oxygen makes the difference. Moving through the air rapidly in an automobile saves time and money. Lengthens life, builds better human beings. Get a car.

Mr. Brookhart, Senator from Iowa, thinks it would be wise to limit earnings of capital to 5 per cent, and put control of government "entirely in the hands of labor."

Ideas are one thing, carrying them out is another. Not long ago capital thought it would be a good idea to limit labor's earnings to one dollar a day. A president of the United States once complained at a public banquet that you couldn't hire a good workman for less than $109 a year and his board.

Labor is not limited to $1 a day, however. Capital wouldn't be limited to 5 per cent, and labor will not control government unless it has more brains than the governing class. If it had more brains than the governing class, it would be governing now.

Those that govern from big financiers to little politicians put in office by big financiers, were not born in power, they go there. These are sad facts.

A petrified human brain is found near Moscow, exciting scientists. This brain undoubtedly genuine, men might study ancient men, was discovered in perfect condition, with a fragment of another brain near it, both beside the tooth of a mammoth in a bed of white clay.

What did that brain think, as it looked at the mammoth and other great beasts, sharpened its little flints, hurled them through the air, and ran for its life?

It certainly was not much more superstitious than our average modern brain, of which you may truly quote Voltaire's words in his chapter on Mohammed: "It is always wise to tell the vulgar the things that are most unbelievable."

TRAFFIC RESUMED OVER TRESTLE AT CHICOD CREEK

Norfolk - Southern Train Passes Over Trestle 24 Hours Af- ter Wreck

Within 24 hours after the wreck of the eastbound Norfolk-Southern passenger train No. 4, at Chicod Creek, 14 miles east of Greenville, traffic was resumed over the burned trestle spanning the creek, and brought to an end the disruption of service along this branch of the line.

The first train passing over the bridge ran on regular schedule in the place of No. 4, which 24 hours previously had plunged through the burning trestle to the destruction in its wake. An atmosphere of pathos pervaded the engine and coaches of the new train as it passed slowly over the scene of the wreck. In the baggage car, the mangled body of Engineer J. R. Slade made its final trip over the road he had driven so many times. The body was carried to Norfolk where relatives and friends will pay their last tribute of love and esteem.

The great task of clearing away the wreckage and rebuilding the 150 foot span of bridge at Chicod Creek was accomplished in record-breaking time. Several crews were called into service from different parts of the division, and reached here almost before the trestle fire had been extinguished. They worked rapidly and tirelessly and by nightfall yesterday, railway men were satisfied that traffic would be resumed sooner than expected.

The bravery of the dead engineer and fireman has been a matter of discussion in all parts of the country. The way they remained at their posts of duty in the face of impending disaster has won the admiration of men and women in all walks of life. The deed has given them a place in the hall of fame of railroad men whose valor and uncompromising devotion to duty will live forever.

Scores Injured and Seven Thousand Dollars Represented in Property Loss

Chicago, June 12.—(AP)—Chicago and northern Illinois today were checking up the damage caused last night by a severe electrical storm with a known toll of three lives, the injury of a score of persons and several hundred dollars property damage.

Near Freeport and Rockford, Ill., three deaths were reported as the result of the storm and "louburst," which swelled the waters of the Pecatonica River and submerged the lowlands. The dead are Frank J. Kellums, William Cooney, and Ephraim Drivelless.

Kellums and Williams H. Wilsey, telephone linemen, were attempting to cross the river to repair fallen wires when the storm broke and the waters carried them down stream. Kellums was drowned and rescuers found Wilsey near death in midstream. His condition is serious. Cooney was run down and killed by a motor car as it crossed a street intersection during a blinding rain. Drivelless was killed by lightning which struck a barn in which he had taken refuge.

Suit Against Cole Expected To Begin Today

Raleigh, June 12.—(AP)—Suit of the Rev. A. L. Ormond, of Oxford, for $150,000 against W. B. Cole, of Rockingham, for the alleged wrongful killing of the plaintiff's son, W. W. Barnhill, presiding at Wake Superior Court, has under consideration the motion of plaintiff's counsel that a part of the answer of Cole to the suit be struck out.

Fast Yachts Start On 2200 Mile Race

Los Angeles Harbor, Cal., June 12.—(INS)—Binoculars of the yachting world were focused on Los Angeles harbor today when the crack of a five-inch-bore rifle aboard the U. S. C. New Mexico sent more than ten yachts on their way for Honolulu, 2,200 miles away.

Morgan Adams' schooner, Enchantress, and Don Lee's schooner, Invader, were favored to finish near the top. Nearly 300 craft, both sailing and power, formed an escort of honor for the racing yachts as they flashed out of the harbor. From the end of the breakwater, the boats will beat up the coast to Point Fermin, thus providing thousands an opportunity to see the boats from land. If any sailing weather is experienced, and there usually is plenty, the bigger they are the faster they go. That is one reason why the Enchantress and Invader are favored. The record at which all the yachts are shooting is 11 days and 11 hours to the Hawaiian Islands from Santa Barbara, Calif. time was made in 1925.

OUR SATURDAY NIGHT MEDITATION

"GOD BEHIND US"

Isaiah 52:12:—"And the God of Israel will be your reward."

The picture of the dangers besetting us from our Past, in our last week's "Meditation" was not a pleasant one.

First—there is forgiveness promised, and cleansing assured. This meets our Past. "If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

If I were to attempt to quote all the verses in the Bible assuring us of God's willingness to forgive us, I should more than fill the whole page of this paper. The old prophets, Isaiah, Micah, and Jeremiah are just as definite in their assurance of this, as the Apostles Peter, John and Paul.

Cleansing is given with forgiveness. No water from sea or skies can wash out the stain of sin. We cry, like Lady Macbeth, "Out!" damned spot! but it will not go out. No river, though accounted sacred as the Ganges, the Nile, or the Tiber, can blot out a single error. Nothing but "the blood of Jesus Christ, God's Son, cleanseth us from all sin."

Second—Power is also given us to live a right life now and hereafter. "But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His name."

and habits: but, "Trust ye in the Lord forever: for in the Lord Jehovah is everlasting strength," and all that strength is pledged for our protection.

"THE GOD OF ISRAEL."—The name speaks of a Covenanting God; and one of the clauses of His covenant made with man is: "I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more."

Where is God's back? That is a graveyard that we shall everlastingly setk in vain—a graveyard that will never know of a resurrection.

Fourth—In addition to all this, there will be a PUBLIC ACQUITTAL at the last Great Day.

"Who shall lay anything to the charge of God's elect? It is He that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us."

God has an answer to every assault of the Evil One upon us; and that answer is found in the completed sacrifice of His Son on Calvary's Cross. And, "if God be for us, who then can be against us?"

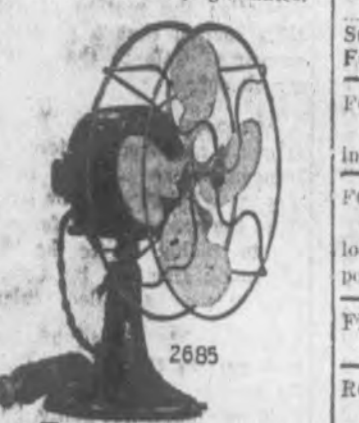

The Hebrew word translated "reward," means "to gather them up." An innumerable army has passed before — prophets, priests, kings, martyrs, and confessors of His name. We need not fear that we shall be lost in the crowd, or left behind because of our straggling weakness.

When we reach the Promised Land may you and yours be found, unbroken families, in the safe-keeping of our God.

Undergraduates Ask College Remove Band on Records

Oxford, June 12.—(INS) Undergraduates who are musically inclined have appealed to the University authorities to withdraw the ban on phonograph records. Under the regulations now in force, the playing of phonographs is prohibited on the Isis River during the May term and is banned from certain college at all times.

"We have now wish to express any opinion upon the playing of jazz records and the more blatant types of music," said the students' communication to the Vice-Chancellor, "but we feel we are subscribing to the body of real musical opinion when we suggested that the playing of good music, such as that of the London string quartet, or high-class music such as Bach fugues, Handel's Water Music, Mozart, Beethoven and Holst by students could nothing but enhance the beauty of the surrounding and the taste of the modern young man."

TERRIBLE PAIN

Alabama Lady Tells How She Obtained Relief by Taking Cardui. Feels Fine and Enjoys Life Now, She Says.

Talladega, Ala.—Mrs. Mary Hardy, 406 Henderson Avenue, this city, says that seven years ago she "got down sick" and was unable to attend to her household.

"I have never been so weak before or since," she says. "I had a terrible pain in my side—so sore in my side and the lower part of my body. "Across my back ached, and I was so nervous I couldn't stand up. I had just about given up when some one who came to see me began talking about Cardui. This caused me to get it. I took about two bottles before I saw much improvement. "After this, though, I picked up right away. I slept better at night. I was hungry, enjoyed my food, which I hadn't done for some time. "The pain and soreness gradually left my side. I regained my strength. I took about six bottles and left off for awhile, then took two or three more. . . I feel just fine, enjoy life and can work now, too."

Cardui is purely vegetable, and contains no harmful drugs. It has helped thousands of suffering women and should help you, too. NC-168

LADIES' CARD PARTY AT THE COUNTRY CLUB A SUCCESS

(Kinston Daily News)

One of the first of a series of social events sponsored by the Ladies of the Lenoir county committee of the Thomas Jefferson Memorial Foundation was given at the Kinston Country Club yesterday afternoon. Over one hundred guests were present at this event, a patriotic bridge tournament and the guests both from the city and out of town voted it one of the most successful affairs of its kind ever held in Kinston.

The club room was never more attractive with a pleasing arrangement of summer flowers and flags everywhere. At the entrance to the club two large American flags were placed. Great credit is due each and every member of the committee in charge, the invitation, entertainment, arrangement, decoration and refreshment, for their untiring efforts in making the affair such a brilliant success. Twenty-two tables were arranged in the spacious club rooms for bridge and prizes were awarded at each table at the conclusion of the games. Many were also present who did not play bridge.

Entering on the porch the guests were served delicious punch from daintily bedecked punch bowls. Those serving were

GOVERNMENT IS SUPERVISOR FOR ANNAPOLIS FILM

The first authentic, authorized photoplay depicting the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis is "The Midshipman," produced by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer under the supervision of the Navy Department, which is coming to White's Theatre Monday and Tuesday.

In order that "The Midshipman" based on Carey Wilson's story, might be a faithful representation of the American nautical college, Secretary Wilbur appointed Admiral Shoemaker, Rear Admiral Nelson, and members of their official retinue, to aid director Christy Chabane.

The choice of a suitable player for the leading role of Midshipman James Randall was left to the judgment of the navy officials and they finally picked Ramon Novarro from a large list of popular motion picture stars submitted to them.

"The Midshipman" was written by Carey Wilson, directed by Christy Chabane, scenarized by F. McGrew Willis and photographed by Oliver Marsh.

INCREASE VEGETABLE YIELD BY IRRIGATION

Raleigh, June 12.—The garden is a paying farm spot and it may be wise this year not to wait until the whims of Nature bestow a rain but to work out some way of irrigating the garden to increase vegetable production. The dry spring of this year and the dry summer of last year indicate that this farm practice might pay.

Gossip of Staff Correspondents at World Centers of Population.

Los Angeles, June 12.—(INS)—Frank Lockhart, the 23-year-old Los Angeles race driver, who dramatically graduated from an obscure substitute into one of the racing elite by winning the Indianapolis Memorial Day classic, deserted the triumph, according to his friends here.

Lockhart, it is said, broke into the racing game three years ago. He appeared as a contestant at Ascut, driving a mechanical contrivance, which he and his brother assembled on the family back porch. The ever, were changed into thunder-half-miles of spectators, how-our use when the determin- youth and his battered mashed across the finish place.

Lockhart's inherent racing genius and finesse attracted the attention of Bill Pickens, race promoter, and former associate of Barney Oldfield. Pickens and other drivers were generous in advice and encouragement.

When Lockhart went to Indianapolis he did not even hope to drive the race. His highest expectation was a chance to attract attention as a substitute for another driver.

Although the boy driver has a strong dirt-track following in Southern California, the Indianapolis classic was his first race of national importance. And, just to prove that truth occasionally is at least as strange as fiction, he won it.

The success of the Little Theatre movement in the spoken drama has inspired some members of the Hollywood intelligentsia to attempt a similar experiment with motion pictures.

Directors and stars alike have offered to donate their services. The experiment will afford actors to make the pictures they really make in pictures they really are interested in and not the pictures that will pile up a big profit. Cecil B. DeMille, Bert Lyell, Rupert Julian, Gareth Hughes, Irene Rich, J. Stuart Blackton, and many others are said to be the motivating spirits.

Sults Edwards and Louise Fazenda are recent additions to the cast of "The Red Mill," Marion Davies' latest starring vehicle, now being filmed.

Edwards and Miss Fazenda carry much of the comedy theme in the picture, in which Miss Davies plays the role of a quaint Dutch girl in a Holland inn.

Harry Lee Allsbrook failed to appear on a charge of being drunk and disorderly. The court decreed judgment absolute on bond.

CABLE LETTER

London, June 12.—(AP)—Cambridge University students are trying to get the ban raised on the phonograph, which for many years has been forbidden within university bounds and on the neighboring river.

Love-lorn couples throughout England are not happy unless they can have a phonograph in the bright sunny days when they drift along the shady streams. Cambridge students are no exception and they resent the prohibition on tinny music.

Hoary-headed professors of Sanskrit and Hebrew resented the invasion of phonographs nearly twenty years ago. They said it was against the classical spirit of Cambridge to have popular music ring through the ivy-clad courts and along the intimate little river about which the buildings are grouped. But students insist that records are no longer of the tinny character they would in years past and that University men are denied part of their musical education through the present ban.

Great Britain has two hobo dogs which make railway trips alone whenever the spirit governs them. The Battersea dogs home has made a report on the wanderings of these two animals which have been cared for by the home and returned to their owners at Cambridge and Hastings.

More than 34,000 dogs passed through the home in 1925 and 3,000 were either returned to owners or placed in new homes.

Dorothy Dickson, Kansas City actress, who has won much favor on the British stage, has an excellent role in a new mystery play, "The Gaunt Stranger." Although the play was launched during the general strike it has been a success from the first night and promises to have a long run.

Miss Clemence Dane, the author of a "Bill of Divorcement" and many other successful plays, says the vital difference between men and women is that "women instinctively hate war and men do not."

"And of all wars," declares Miss Dane, "the duel of sex is the craziest."

Paris, June 11.—(AP)—Sarah Bernhardt's statue, the first with which she has honored her illustrious daughter, was unveiled today in the presence of all literary and theatrical Paris. The monument shows the famous actress in one of her best celebrated roles, that of Phaedra in Racine's Tragedy.

The monument stands in the Place Malesherbes, a residential quarter, near the place where Bernhardt died. It is situated in a green square which already contains three statues of Dumas—General Alexandre Dumas, his son, the noted author and novelist, and the latter's son, famous as a dramatist and novelist.

How Marshal Pilsudski's seizure of power in Poland put an end to the flight of Captain Georges Pelletier Doisy from Paris to Tokio has been explained by the famous French aviator.

A torrential rain flooded the aviation ground at Warsaw. Doisy landed in the Polish capital and he was forced to search for another place from which he could again take the air with his machine. He found a suitable place near the field, but separated from by ground on which there had been heavy fighting between the Pilsudski and Anti-Pilsudski forces. Six officers were killed in this fighting.

Doisy moved his plane to this spot and started to take off. He did not notice in front of the machine a shell hole filled with mud. The machine plowed into this and turned over on its side, disabling it. Luckily the aircraft was moving only about six miles an hour so that the machine was not completely covered. It was so badly damaged, however, that Doisy returned to Paris.

The bill boards of the Comedie Francaise's temple and sanctuary of French dramatic art sometime shocked the high brow tastes of its patrons who prefer programs limited to the classics. The titles of three popular plays, belonging to modern repertoire, were the bill boards of House of Moliere during the week. The title of one of the posters was "What Do Youn (His Dream Of)?" The posters announcing the other two plays were "The Kiss" and "Big Boy."

Berlin, June 12.—(AP)—Former Crown Prince Frederick William and wife, apparently never will receive the gift of the famous silverservice for 135 persons which it was intended to present them on the 25th anniversary of their marriage.

The most skillful silversmiths in Germany worked eight years on the beautiful platter, fruit bowl's, knives, forks, spoons and other necessities to complete the cabinet. The silverware is valued at three million marks. Twenty years ago the various cities in Germany promised the then imperial couple the present on their silver anniversary. Now, with the date of that event only a few days past, the representatives of more than one hundred cities still are wrangling over the question whether the gift shall be made. Meantime the silverware is reposing in a vault in the Reichsbank. It is being suggested that the collection be given to Berlin Museum.
