FUNERAL SERVICES MRS W T LIPSCOMB 10:30 TOMORROW

Inability of Relatives to Reach City Today Causes Change in Funeral Arrangements

Funeral services for Mrs. W. T. Lipscomb will be conducted at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning in the Memorial Baptist church, of which she was a member, and interment will follow in Cherry Hill Cemetery. The service will be conducted by her pastor, Rev. H. Frederick Jones.

Funeral services had been planned for six o'clock this evening, but inability of relatives to reach this city today because of washouts, caused the postponement until tomorrow morning.

Mrs. Lipscomb, one of Greenville's best beloved women, died yesterday. She was in her 77th year and while she had been in declining health for some time the end came as a distinct shock to her friends and loved ones.

French Chamber Must Ratify Debt Funding Agreements

Paris, July 16.—(AP)—The Government will insist upon the ratification of both the Washington and London Funding Agreements before Parliament adjourns for its summer recess.

"Without these ratifications," he said, "there is no possible chance of obtaining credit for the stabilization of the franc."

Business Code for Women Be Formed At Convention

Des Moines, Ia., July 15.—(AP)—Formulation of a code of business principles for women which will help remove existing prejudices against the woman in business will be one of the major objects of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs at its eighth annual convention to be held here, this week.

The convention will be attended by 5,000 delegates representing 47,000 women in forty-seven states engaged in more than thirty vocations ranging from medicine, the arts and law to banking and undertaking. Under the leadership of Mrs. Olive Joy Wright, of Cleveland, Ohio, national president, they will discuss the problems, ethics and future of the business woman.

Members of the organization, officers said, have sometimes found a tradition among business men that women in business are unreliable, do not understand sportsmanship and fair play and do not pay their bills promptly. By establishing a code of business principles it is hoped to abolish this tradition by removing its cause, and to educate business men to regard their feminine co-workers as honest and dependable.

Another important subject to be discussed is a program of education. The Federation will seek the cooperation of school systems and leading business firms in every community to raise the educational standards for women and girls in business. The organization's goal is a high school education for every business girl.

CANNED HEAT HOOCH FILLS DENVER DAILS

Denver, Colo., July 15.—(INS)—Chief of Police Fred Reed, is organizing his forces for a determined drive to stamp out the canned heat traffic in Denver which has increased at an alarming rate within the last year, filling both city and county jails with addicts.

Ever since the government halted the sale of Jamaica ginger by drug stores, the sale of canned heat has increased alarmingly, Reed declares.

It is sold in cake form, and contains wood alcohol and gun cotton, and according to physicians, Reed said, canned heat addicts soon become blind from the effects of the wood alcohol, which likewise induces organic weakness and diseases which in themselves ultimately result in death.

Chief Reed intends to use the riot squad in combing the river bottoms and lower parts of the city each day and make it so hot for the canned heat fiends that the traffic will soon be stamped out.

Seldom do the addicts eat canned heat alone, Reed said. They usually stage parties in which cakes of canned heat bought at various drug stores are placed in a common pot and then eaten.

Only recently, Chief Reed said, a mere youth who had become an addict was picked up in the drag-net. His mother with tears streaming down her face, begged that her son be given a long term in jail to enable him to free himself of his terrible effect.

YOU CAN'T EVER TELL WHAT A WOMAN WILL DO

New Orleans, July 15.—(INS)—You never can tell what a woman will do.

Take Miss Alice Messina, 20, who calmly walked into a robber's trap the other day.

Police knew of a plot to rob her of a $500 payroll. When a bandit stopped her and the police who were also "shadowing" her, opened fire at the robber, Miss Messina stepped aside with the money and was a cool, composed observer. The bandits escaped.

Helen Wills and Noble. Things Not Said. Gamblers and Growers. France Is Sold. By ARTHUR BRISBANE

TWO INTERESTING arrivals from Europe yesterday.

Helen Wills, splendid type of the California girl, who made European tennis players respect America, and General Umberto Nobile, able Italian who planned the dirigible Norge, superintended its building, and then, as pilot, took the big airboat with Amundsen and his crew, over the North pole.

Our wish concerning General Nobile is that he stay and work in this country, which would be honored by his presence.

For Miss Wills we wish a husband worthy of her, if such a creature could possibly be found, a big family of children, including one genius that would ooze for American statesmanship what she has done for American tennis.

Tomorrow the Governor and Mrs. Smith visit President Coolidge at his Adirondack fishing camp. The things that the President and the Governor will NOT say on this occasion will be numerous and interesting.

That meeting, he said respectfully, might remind you of Scily Wertheim's favorite saying when out of temper: "For what I am thinking about you, you could have put me in jail."

The price of cotton goes up—good news for cotton GAMBLERS. Not much news for cotton GROWERS. The price goes up because much rain means harm to the growers' crop. The cotton gambler makes his money whether it rains or scorches.

Why men GROW cotton, when they might gamble in COTTON, would be hard to understand but for the fact that men enjoy producing something apart from profit. Agassiz was "too busy to make money."

There is no knowing what may happen to French francs, but there isn't the slightest doubt that France, financially, industrially and FUNDAMENTALLY is considerably more solid than the Rock of Gibraltar.

William Boyce Thompson, recently returned, says France is in good shape and the low value of the franc has enabled her to pay off the internal debts at less than twenty cents on the dollar, a great help.

Yesterday, the French celebrated the great day on which the crowd tore down the prison of the Bastille, beginning the revolution.

The French have gone through their troubles. France WON THE WAR. France will do whatever is necessary to keep her place as a leader among the nations of the world, and she will not go into Bankruptcy, or lose her head.

The Rev. Laura B. Gaylor, of Mount Pleasant, Iowa, tells the Universalist Sunday School Association that some Bible tales are out of date and horrible. That story about Elijah calling the birds to eat the child that had made fun of his baldness she could not bear.

Many things in the Bible shock you, but that is the fault of people whom the Bible describes truthfully.

That story about the angels that came down with important news, and the manner in which some of the natives would have received them, shocks any normal mind. But the duty of the Bible, like that of a newspaper, is to tell what happens.

Washington reports that W. G. McAdoo will not run for the Democratic nomination in 1928 "unless he is sure he can win." Washington doesn't know McAdoo. He is not a "sure thing" individual, and the best part for his would be the fight.

The Democratic Party is at least entitled to a fight for the nomination if it can't make a real fight for election. If McAdoo would withdraw there is no one in sight to make a fight against Governor Al Smith of New York, who, with Madden show that Congress appropriated $41,713,106 to enforce prohibition during the last session.

BONES OF 30 HUMANS FOUND UNDER STREETS BY ST. LOUIS EXCAVATORS

St. Louis, July 16.—(INS)—Skeletons of thirty humans, unearthed by sewer excavators who are working through a street in the west side of this city, are believed to be those of white men, women and children who died in a cholera epidemic here more than a century ago.

Dr. R. J. Terry, professor of anatomy at the Washington University School of Medicine, who examined the bones declared they were those of white persons.

The ground from which the skeletons were taken had never been used as a public burial ground, which led to the theory that they probably were the bodies of those who died during the cholera epidemic in 1812.

PHILIPPINES SEEK CUT LOOSE U. S.

Legislature Adopts Resolution Requesting "Immediate, Absolute and Complete Independence"

Manila, July 16.—(AP)—At the opening session of the Philippine Legislature today, both houses unanimously adopted a concurrent resolution in favor of "immediate, absolute and complete independence."

The resolution requests that Carmi Thompson, personal representative of President Coolidge, who is investigating conditions in the island, convey to the President "the constant and intense desire of the Filipinos for immediate, absolute and complete independence."

Thirteen More Georgia Banks Close Doors

Atlanta, Ga., July 16.—(AP)—14 additional banks have closed their doors in Georgia and one in Florida since yesterday. The closings brought the total number that has suspended operations this week to 23 in the two states.

The State Banking Department in making the announcement attributed the closings to the bankruptcy proceedings to the Banking Trust Company which served as fiscal agent for a string of 120 banks in the two states.

Doty Must Serve Eight Years for Deserting French

Berrut Syria, July 16.—(AP)—Bennette J. Doty, of Memphis, Tenn., was condemned by a court-martial at Damascus today to eight years imprisonment at hard labor for deserting from the French Foreign Legion, in which he enlisted under the name of Gilbert Clare.

An officer representing the Government as prosecutor demanded the death penalty, while the defense eloquently described the brave conduct of Doty prior to his defection.

DECLARES EFFORT BEING MADE BRING BACK OPEN SALOON

Committee Says Organized Reckless Effort Being Made to Discredit National Prohibition

Lake, Junaluska, July 16.—(AP)—"We are now confronted by a highly organized, subtle, determined and reckless effort to discredit national prohibition," the Social Service Committee of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, found in its report to the annual Social Service Conference which has just ended here. The report was made public today.

An endorsement of the 18th amendment, an appeal to churches to deliver all their force for prohibition, promotion of negro welfare sentiment and an expression of alarm over youthful delinquency were features of the report.

"The adoption of the 18th Amendment and the passage of the Volstead Act for the enforcement of constitutional prohibition of the sale and manufacture of intoxicating liquors, has registered the high water mark of a rising tide of temperance legislation," the report said.

"It was clear to those who best understood the situation, however, that there remained the equally difficult problem of law enforcement. We are now confronted by a highly organized, subtle, determined and reckless, effort to discredit national prohibition and under the guise of restoring to the people their alleged rightful use of light wines, beer and so-called nonintoxicant, to revive the evil of licensed intemperance and the train of vices that has always come with the open saloons."

"We do not give the least credence to the alleged reasons for the movement looking toward the weakening of the present temperance legislation. They are mere camouflage. The real motive is the restoration of the pre-prohibition orgy of drunkenness, vice, political corruption and economic waste, and are and always have been inseparable with the liquor traffic."

"Were there any need for further denial of the claim that national prohibition is a failure, these determined and costly efforts at repeal would be sufficient. The national prohibition legislation, despite its failure in the wet areas of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and a few other regions of large cities, has been a distinguished success."

"We call on moral and Christian people everywhere to register their convictions at the polls and to make sure that Senators and Representatives in Congress be chosen on the basis of the trustworthiness and maintaining and expanding the present enforcement laws."

Whitman New Head Bar Association

Denver, Colo., July 16.—(AP)—Former Governor Sam Whitman, of New York, was unanimously elected president of the American Bar Association succeeding Chester I. Long of Wichita, Kansas, at the closing session of the organization's convention here today.

Frederick A. Wadhams, of Albany, N. Y., was re-elected treasurer and William P. McCracken, Jr., of Chicago, was re-elected secretary. All elections were unanimous.

Atlanta, Ga., July 15.—(INS)—A fight to eliminate unscrupulous pension agents will be made at the annual encampment of the Spanish American War veterans at Des Moines, Iowa.

TRIAL BRINGS OUT TESTIMONY AS TO CRUEL TREATMENT

Cranford Case Brings Out Stories of Cruel Deaths in Stanley Prison Camp

Albermarle, July 16.—(AP)—Another story of a cruel death, alleged to have occurred in the prison camp of Stanley county, was testified to before the jury trying N. C. Cranford, former convict boss, in Superior court here today, on a charge of murder.

Carl Leake, negro, who served under Cranford, testified that he had beaten another negro, John Quincy, until he fell to the ground exhausted, and that Cranford had administered further punishment. Leake said Quincy died during the night and on the following day, he helped Cranford take the body to the woods and secretly bury it.

On cross-examination, Leake admitted he had offered to aid Cranford, whom he liked, and had gone to work for him after he had served his sentence. He said he later became angered at Cranford and went to the State's Attorney with his story.

Ack Leake, another negro who had served under Cranford five years ago, was next called to the stand. He removed his shoes and showed the jury scars on his ankles and marks on his back which he said the defendant had caused by ill treatment. The witness said that he had been sentenced to nine months but that Cranford released him at the end of six months because his ankle was in such condition that he was unable to work.

He told the jury that on one occasion Cranford had struck him such a blow in the face that he was unable to see for some time and that several negroes held him while the foreman, whipped him unmercifully.

Declares America Is Best Creditor That France Has

ALIENIST IS ON STAND AGAIN IN FREEMAN KILLING

Defense Attempts to Break Down Testimony of Alienist That Mrs. Freeman Unsound Mentally

Charlotte, July 16.—(AP)—The State recalled Dr. James K. HaJ, Richmond alienist, to the stand in the trial of Mrs. Nellie Freeman, razor slayer, for further examination. Frank R. McNinch, attorney for the prosecution, attempted to break down the testimony which the alienist offered yesterday to the effect that he believed Mrs. Freeman to be of unsound mentality.

At the opening of court this morning, the defendant appeared on the stand to identify three letters which she wrote to Freeman before they were married.

GEORGIA BANK SITUATION IS NOT ALARMING

Total Resources of Closed Banks Very Small Compared to Total Resources of Whole State

The total resources of the banks recently closed in Georgia are very small compared to the total resources of all the banks in the state of Georgia, according to authoritative reports received here today from some of the largest banking institutions in Georgia.

In response to request for information as to what part of the state banking power was represented by the closed institutions, one of Atlanta's strongest state banks replied:

"Replying your telegram percentage infinitesimal."

The situation in that state was described by another of Atlanta's strongest state banks in the following telegram:

"Telegram received. Failure of number of small country banks in Georgia confined entirely to one system affiliated with Bankers Trust Company with Florida connections and in no way due to economic conditions in Georgia. None of larger cities or banks affected. The chain of banks now in difficulties has been unprofitable for some time and we think when the situation clears state will be better off."

Director of Defunct Bank Takes Own Life

Atlanta, July 16.—(AP)—J. I. Smith, president of the Atlanta Real Estate Board, and a director of the Bankers Trust Company, for which a receivership was designated in Federal District Court here yesterday, shot himself at his home here early today.

Mr. Smith was dead when found. The body was found by a servant attracted by the shot. The door of Mr. Smith's room was locked and the servant broke it down with an axe. The entire load of a shotgun had entered his abdomen. Belief was expressed that he fired the shot with his toe. Several letters beside the body were turned over to the coroner who announced that an inquest would be held later in the day.

State Expenditures to Be Feature of Convention Program

Augusta, Me., July 16.—(AP)—Emphasis by President Coolidge during the past year relative to the state spending too much money, will give the subject of expenditures considerable importance at the 18th session of the Governor's conference to be held at Cheyenne, Wyoming, for three days beginning July 25, when the Chief Executive will be the guests of Governor Nellie T. Ross, of Wyoming.

The general program given out today by Governor Eliph G. Brewster, chairman of the conference, includes addresses by Governor Brewster on state's rights and state's obligations, while expunction of state activities, re-arrangement by or through administrative reorganization, financial reorganization of states, western reaction and proper distribution of government powers will be discussed by other governors. In addition the question of federal inheritance tax, prison made goods, and the land question in the federal government will be on the program for discussion.

"Another rum ship captured."
"Another bootlegger sentenced by the courts."
"Blind tiger gets good view of the court room."
These and various other headlines greet us with the coming of each day's paper.
They go to show us what the bootleggers and rum runners are doing. And, last, but not least, they go to show us what prohibition enforcement officials are doing to prevent the continued spread of the illicit whiskey traffic.

The situation is not the most favorable in the world.
It is remarkable that it has assumed the scope it has considering that this is supposed to be a "dry" country. It has been a dry country for many years. But it is dry in name only.
Some say conditions are as bad as they were when we had the open saloons and dispensaries. But that is not so. We would deny with our last breath that the situation is as terrible as it was in the old days when the very nation trembled in the coils of liquor crazed brains.

The government is spending huge sums of money annually to stop the illicit manufacture of whiskey. It will continue to expend money in this cause. But it cannot expect or hope to meet with desired success until the public realizes what a menace the whiskey evil is becoming.

No law, no part of a national constitution may be made effective without public support. The American public moulds its own destiny. It has done so for one hundred and fifty years. It has done so in a highly successful manner. But it is not doing it now.

The majority of our people are permitting themselves to float along with the crowd. They are giving little attention to the things which vitally affect their moral and spiritual life.
They are content to put their all in pleasure and business.

But the time has come when they must yield to necessity of the moment. And the necessity of the moment happen to be connected with the lives of those engaged in the manufacture and distribution of contraband beverages.

Something must be done.
It is not up to the officers to do it. They are doing all they can. It is a problem entirely in the hands of the people.

ROPE FILM STAR TO BACK OF WILD PONY

Bob Reeves, who is the handsome and stalwart star of "Cyclone Bob", the first of the series produced by Larry Wheeler for the Anchor Film Distributors, Inc., and directed by Alvin J. Neitz, has been living a life of excitement during the last few weeks.

One of these scenes of "Cyclone Bob" calls for him to be tied to a wild and bucking broncho and turned loose on the plains.

Bob first learned to ride wild horses and bucking bronchos on his ranch in Texas some year ago, but this was the first time he had ever been forced to remain at the mercy of the enraged animal!

He tackled the job bravely, and with his usual no-nonsense air, Alvin J. Neitz, the director, gave instructions to turn the broncho loose. Away went Bob! Helpless on the back of the raging animal. His breath was slowly being ing bounced and knocked out of him. Cameras were grinding and cowboy, were yelling at the top of their voices.

This is just one of the many thrills which make "Cyclone Bob" one of the fastest and greatest thrill Westerns ever made. It will be shown next Saturday at White's Theatre.

MISSOURI PRIMARY TO SETTLE WET DISPUTE

Kansas City, July 16.—(INS)—Earlier predictions that Missouri will be given an opportunity to express itself on the wet and dry issue in the August primaries have just begun to be a certainty.

The possibility that it might include more important issues than the dry law, or that it might be based on personalities, rather than principles has been indefinitely pigeonholed.

Senator George H. Williams, junior senator, candidate for reelection, earlier in the campaign carefully skirted the dry question, expressing himself as hoping that it would not be necessary to consider the matter at all in selecting the Republican candidate.

But the action of dry forces throughout the state demanding that he declare himself, and the repeated questioning of the anti-saloon league at last brought him to a denouncement of the league, on the grounds that it was attempting to align him with the wets.

Blodgett Priest, of St. Louis, declared himself a "wringing wet" and David M. Proctor as a dry, are both seeking the Republican nomination. Rep. Harry Hawes is the sole wet candidate for the Democratic nomination, and the two drys seeking the place, Judge Ewing Cockrell and Willis H. Meredith, have engaged in a bitter battle, each demanding that the other resign, so that the dry forces might unite their support. But neither was willing to do the withdrawing.

At any rate, political leaders are certain that the record of the August primaries will place Missouri definitely on record either as supporting the dry law, or as a unit to be counted on for wet support.
