FOUR CASES IN COUNTY COURT THIS MORNING

Calvin Haddock Gets Sixty Day Sentence On County Roads on Liquor Charge

Charged with being drunk and disorderly, Calvin Haddock, white man of Greenville, was sentenced to thirty days on the county roads by Judge W. A. Darden, in this morning's session of county court. The sentence will become effective at the expiration of a sixty-day sentence which was imposed by the court some time ago.

Herman Harris, white, charged with possessing whiskey for sale, was sentenced to six months on the roads. He appealed to Superior court under bond of $300.

The case against Aaron Frankel and Alice Williams, young white people of Greenville, arrested Saturday afternoon on a charge of prostitution, was transferred to the next term of Superior court.

Ed Bright, white man of this city, arrested several days ago, on charges of non-support, resisting an officer, and assault, failed to appear. Efforts to locate him so far have proved futile.

No proceedings were taken in the case against Clayton Cannon.

This was the last regular session of county court until August 17th. Judge Darden stated that farmers were busy in all sections of the county at present time, and that their activities would not be interrupted. Only jail cases will be heard during the interim.

NEWSOME HEADS N. C. HISTORICAL ASSOCIATIONS

Secretary of State Society Appointed Executive of American Association

Raleigh, July 27.—(AP)—Professor A. R. Newsome, secretary of the North Carolina Historical Commission, has been appointed executive secretary of the American Historical Association which is seeking to raise $1,000,000 to "promote American history and history in America."

The North Carolina committee will work with a National Endowment committee, headed by former Senator Albert J. Beveridge of Indiana, and with committees in other states. To assist with the work a New York committee has been organized under the chairmanship of Charles E. Hughes, former Secretary of State.

The American Historical Association, founded in 1884 by such men as Andrew D. White, Francis A. Walker, Justin Winsor, and Herbert B. Adams, has for its purpose the launching of a comprehensive program of historical research. One project, already under way is a survey of history teaching in schools. Through investigations it is expected that the committee will reveal facts from which a nation-wide plan for co-ordinating methods may be framed.

Officers of the association have been such historians as George Bancroft, Henry Adams, and Henry C. Lea. Men of affairs such as George F. Hoar and Alfred T. Mahan and Charles Francis Adams have likewise been officers.

The presidency of the association has been held by two Presidents of the United States—Theodore Roosevelt and Woodrow Wilson. Although most of the members are engaged in printing history, the roll includes leaders in business and public life.

TERRIFIC STORM SPENDS FURY ON FLORIDA COAST

Communication With Outside World Cut Off From Miami and Palm Beach

Atlanta, Ga., July 27.—(AP)—Miami and West Palm Beach, Florida, were cut off from wire communication with the outside world today due to the hurricane which swept up the east coast from the Caribbean Sea. A message from the oil tanker Charles M. Everett, off the east coast, intercepted at Tampa, said the barometer at Miami at eight o'clock this morning was 29.50 and steadily rising.

ITALIAN STEAMSHIP REPORTED SINKING

St. Augustine, July 27.—(AP)—The radio station at Anastasia Island, St. Augustine, at eight o'clock this morning, picked up an SOS signal from the Italian steamship Ansa's San Iorago to the effect that she was sinking somewhere off Jupiter. Another message reported the steamship Orzaba standing by.

HIGH WIND AND WAVES SWEEP LOWER COAST

Miami, July 27.—(AP)—High wind and waves of a tropical hurricane swept out of the Caribbean Sea last night and spent their fury on Florida's lower coast.

Several small steamships plying between Miami and the Bahamas were reported missing.

At Pompano, midway between Palm Beach and Miami, fishermen reported eight men were drowned when their bank sank in the Gulf stream.

At Palm Beach workers reinforced the new Breakers hotel, now under construction, with sand bags protected from the pounding sea.

Wreckage of trees and small boats was strewn along Ocean Boulevard, society's winter playground.

New York, July 27.—(AP)—A wind that attained a velocity of 80 miles at 8:45 A. M. this morning was sweeping over West Palm Beach and vicinity. No lives have been lost and no injuries have been reported.

It was believed that the center of the storm was still to come, although at noon the wind had slightly died in velocity.

Many roofs have blown from houses, trees have been uprooted and seas slashed by the fierce wind are rolling over the ocean boulevard.

LADY ASTOR COMING HOME FOR A REST

London, July 27.—(AP)—Lady Astor, American born peeress, and member of the House of Commons, started for the United States "for a good long rest." But when she started and on what ship, where she is to land, and how long she is to be away, her private secretary refused to say.

"Lady Astor desires complete quiet," the secretary said this morning. "If the American reporters find her when she lands the fault won't be mine."

AUSTRIAN BRONZE COINS NOT WORTH PICKING UP

Vienna, July 27.—(INS)—This is one of the few cities in the world where coins can be about the city streets without exciting the interest of even beggars.

One may count five or six 100-kronen pieces lying on the sidewalk or the road during the course of a few block walk and usually they will be lying in the same place if you return a few hours later. This is, of course, due to the fact that the tiny bronze 100-kronen piece is now worth only fourteen-tenths of a cent whereas once it would buy five dollars worth of anything.

Still it is a shock to the thrifty instinct of as stranger to see such contempt shown to the coin of any realm, though he soon learns that keeping his eyes on an object while passing along the streets is more profitable.

Body Torn Off Wrecked Bus, Ten Killed

This shows the wreckage of a motor bus, that, carrying forty-eight women and children, plunged off a grade near Sparkill, N. Y. The body was completely demolished. Ten were killed.

HEAD OF WHISKEY SYNDICATE DRAWS COURT SENTENCE

William Dwyer Given Maximum Penalty in Federal Court in New York

New York, July 27.—(AP)—William V. Dwyer, race track owner and head of an alleged $40,000,000 rum running syndicate, operating in many states, has been given the maximum penalty in Federal court.

E. C. Cohron, garage owner and "key off" man for this syndicate, was convicted with Dwyer while six others tried with them were acquitted.

Federal Judge Julian W. Mack, sentenced Dwyer to 10 years imprisonment and fined him $10,000 after his conviction last night. Cohron got two years and $5,000. They said they would appeal.

The court refused a plea of the defense for leniency and for delay in sentence saying, "There has been wholesale bribery and violation of the law and on the evidence there is not a shadow of the doubt of guilt."

The prisoners spent the night at home in the custody of marshals before being remanded to prison today.

NEW SHAH STARTS MODERNIZING PERSIA

Teheran, Persia, July 27.—(INS)—The modernization of Persia by the new ruler, Riza Shah Pahlavi, has started. The government has decided upon establishing an air force and already ten planes have been ordered from a leading Dutch company.

The new force is to be operated under the direction of Minister of War, who has already appointed as chief of the Air Force a Persian officer trained in France. The government has also sent sixty cadets to France to be trained as pilots and observers.

The government already possesses an aerodrome and a few obsolete planes. The old planes will be sold and new sheds built to accommodate the new fleet, which will be increased to fifty planes when the national exchange permits. At the present time there are only 34 members of the Persian army capable of handling planes.

BARLEYCORN FOLLOWER GIVES DRINK TOO MUCH

Knoxville, Tenn., July 27.—(INS)—"Do you fellows want a drink?" G. W. Sell, a man giving that name anyway, confronted two pedestrians waiting for a trolley car here the other day—Judge R. P. Williams and Patrolman Joe Borning.

Borning accepted and Sell drew a quart from his pocket, police reports said. Sell was immediately taken to jail, the liquor taken from him and he was required to post a $25 cash forfeit for his appearance in court.

"That's the price I pay for being sociable," growled Sell, as he left.

One Lion Or 100 Rats, They Hate Us 'Over There.' Dogs and Children. More Moral Turpitude. By ARTHUR BRISBANE

Mussolini's remedy for Europe's trouble is 'GET RID OF DEMOCRACY.'

Fascism ends class war, restores authority to the nation, taking it from quarrelling individuals—says Mussolini.

Voltaire, discussing democracy and monarchy, said it didn't make much difference to a poor man whether he was eaten by one lion or by one hundred rats.

Some day the poor may learn to govern themselves. But they are far from that now, and must go on experimenting as they have done for the last hundred thousand years and more.

Mussolini says 'conditions which have changed leave no justification for the immortal principles of the French revolution.'

That's a matter of opinion. The French Republic inherits the principles of the revolution. Napoleon first, temporary dictator, slaughtered millions of Frenchmen and ended a prisoner of the British. His worthless successor, Napoleon third, took charge and he and France were beaten to a frazzle by Bismarck.

And it was under the French Republic that the glory of France was restored, the greatest war in all history won. Alsace and Lorraine taken back from Germany. Principles of the French revolution will outlive by many centuries a theory that one man, no matter how able, can drive millions of others with the toe of his boot.

Because French crowds occasionally mob American and British tourists, Senator Reed of Pennsylvania advises Americans to boycott Paris. That would be foolish. To one class of Americans France offers education, to another bigger class, it offers excellent wines.

The French, in trouble and needing a scapegoat, will recover from their ill nature. Meanwhile they are friends of ours, we are in their debt, mentally, as they are in ours financially. It would be a pity to deprive French trade of the hundreds of millions that the Americans spend in France every year.

As for denunciation of Americans in Britain, they put old John Bull in the unpleasant attitude of a welcher at the race track, dashing across the field to escape his creditors, cursing them as he runs. John Bull, when he borrowed, meant to pay or did not mean to pay. If he meant to pay, let him pay. If he didn't mean to pay let him be an outspoken welcher, say so, and stop weeping.

A great empire with its money at par, having financed itself through the world's greatest war with the help of this nation, cuts a sorry figure when it whines and begs.

In our civil war, the most the British could do was to keep from siding against the north, and with slavery, because they were timid.

DEMAND CARTER TO STEP ASIDE IN SURVEY WORK

President of Federation Clubs Makes Demands of Welfare Head

Sylva, N. C., July 27.—(AP)—A demand that E. F. Carter, executive secretary of the State Child Welfare Commission, step out of the way and allow Mrs. J. H. Highsmith, to proceed with an survey of women in industry in North Carolina, is made by Mrs. E. L. McKee, of Sylva, who is president of the State Federation of Women's Clubs in a public statement issued today.

Governor McLean ten days ago called off the survey which he had ordered to be made by the Child Welfare Commission. The various women's organizations which had proposed the survey, and Mrs. Kate Burr Johnson, chairman of the Child Welfare Commission, had objected to Carter conducting the survey.

DRY LAW VIOLATORS SUFFERING

Syracuse, N. Y., July 27.—(INS)—Those arrested for taking the Volstead act humorously haven't a chance of beating the case in Federal court. If the official records of Federal Court for the Northern District of New York are to be accepted as the criterion.

The annual report of Oliver D. Burden, United States district attorney, shows that not one bootlegger managed to beat the case last year, and only one person, an accused drug peddler, was acquitted by a Federal jury.

The chances of acquittal in Federal court are 18 to 1, for that is the record in figures. Only 17 persons accused of violating various Federal statutes elected to stand trial by jury, and of these 16 were convicted.

According to the report, a total of $1,368,112 in fines was imposed by Federal Judge Frank Cooper, and of this amount $612,911.13 had been paid in June 30, at the end of the fiscal year. There are still more than $100,000 outstanding in fine money, which is being paid in installments.

However, a larger percentage of convicted bootleggers, who pleaded guilty, adopt the simple expedient of declaring themselves to be paupers, and then staying 30 days in jail and freeing themselves of all indebtedness to the government.

This practice is so common that the government collects only about one-third of the amount of fines imposed.

Gastonia Negro Held Today On Serious Charge

Gastonia, July 27.—(AP)—Hezekiah Floyd, a negro, was committed to jail here this morning in default of a $2,000 bond on charges of attempted attack on a seven year old white girl near Bessemer City early today.

COMMITTEE FINDS $300,000 EXCESS IN CHICAGO PROBE

Senate Committee Investigating Campaign Expenses Continues Activities

Chicago, July 27.—(AP)—Having uncovered expenditures in the recent Illinois senatorial primary in excess of $300,000 on the first day of the inquiry, the senate campaign funds committee called new witnesses today in its effort to follow the trail of money spent on behalf of the candidates of Colonel Frank L. Smith and Senator William McKinley.

These included H. E. Green, of Urbana, personal attorney to and campaign manager for Senator McKinley in his unsuccessful fight to win the Republican senatorial nomination, and J. W. Stites, of Champagne, who assisted Green in conducting the campaign.

Another effort also was made to elicit from Samuel Insull, Chicago public utility executive, where he contributed any funds to the Crowe-Barrett county committee which first supported McKinley and then switched to Smith, who is chairman of the Illinois Commerce Commission.

DECLARES CLUES SOLVE MYSTERY OF KIDNAPPING

Los Angeles District Attorney Says He Has New Facts Concerning Evangelist

San Francisco, July 27.—(AP)—Clues developed at Carmel and Monterey, south of here, are believed by Joe Ryan, Los Angeles District Attorney, to have solved the Aimee Semple McPherson kidnapping case.

Ryan, who has been at Carmel since Saturday, last night reported to District Attorney Asa Keyes that he was satisfied Mrs. McPherson arrived there the day after she disappeared at Ocean Park Beach, accompanied by Kenneth G. Ormiston, radio operator, and friends of the evangelist.

Ryan's investigation followed reports that a man and woman resembling the evangelist and radio operator arrived at Carmel May 19 and remained there for several days. Ryan declared he could produce four witnesses who identified photographs of Mrs. McPherson and Ormiston, as the couple who had been at Carmel.

Ormiston was interviewed by authorities a short time after the evangelist disappeared, but he dropped from sight after being questioned and was last reported in New York. A letter purported to have been written to Ormiston, was introduced before the grand jury which recently investigated the case but adjourned without issuing any indictment. The letter denied any knowledge of the crime.

The evangelist continues to deny the story of her abduction in Sermons at Angelus Temple maintaining she was held captive for nearly five weeks before she escaped.

Attorneys for Aimee Semple McPherson, today announced that they would not permit her finger print to be taken to compare with those in Carmel, California, where it is asserted she spent some time, after being supposedly drowned. They also said they would refuse to supply samples of her handwriting to compare with that found in the cottage.

Kenneth G. Ormiston, radio operator, at Mrs. McPherson's temple, was in Carmel about the same time, according to the Assistant Attorney General.

WILLIE STOKES KILLED WHEN CAR CRASHES INTO CART NEAR GALLOWAY'S

ROTARY CLUB IN BUSINESS MEET HERE LAST NIGHT

Club Hears Forceful Address by H. F. Jones, of Memorial Baptist Church

The regular business meeting of the Greenville Rotary club was held at the club building, on Rotary avenue, last night.

The usual luncheon and musical program was enjoyed, after which reports of the standing committees were heard.

One of the principal features of the session was an address by Rev. H. Frederick Jones, pastor of the Memorial Baptist church of Greenville. He spoke on the subject of "Fellowship." He showed how the world may be a better place to live by each man helping to bear the other man's burden. He enumerated the various kinds of fellowship, and declared that world peace would never become possible until men and women realize that they are bound together in the bonds of brotherhood.

In the absence of president Haywood Dail, the meeting was presided over by Curtis Perkins. The only guest of the evening was Joe Rasberry, of Farmville, who extended greetings of his club.

Dr. C. J. Ellen spoke on the subject, "Who and What I Am." It was a continuation of a series of sketches of autobiography.

J. B. Kittrell, chairman of the entertainment committee, reported that arrangements were about completed for the joint meeting of Ayden, Washington, Farmville and Greenville clubs to be held at Bayview in the near future. The date will be announced later.

THREE TOBACCO BARNS BURNED SINCE SUNDAY

According to reports reaching Greenville today, three tobacco barns have been destroyed by fire since Sunday.

Yesterday afternoon an barn on the H. L. Cannon farm, near Simpson, was destroyed. The tobacco was owned by W. C. Moore, a tenant, and was not insured.

About noon yesterday a barn went up in flames on the W. A. Hudson farm, near Hudson's Cross Roads. The barn and tobacco were not insured.

Allen Boyd, colored tenant, on a part of the Joe Tucker farm, lost a barn Sunday. This was insured.

So far, only four barns have been destroyed during the present curing season.

MRS. GRUNDY WAS REAL BRITISH STUDENT SHOWS

London, July 27.—(INS)—Mrs. Grundy, the supposedly mythical figure representative of prudery and all things "proper" is revealed by Ernest Law, of Hampton Court Palace, to have been a real person who lived some seventy years ago.

Writing to the Times, Law says that the original Mrs. Grundy was a housekeeper at Hampton Court Palace in the late forties of the nineteenth century. Her fame, he said, is perpetuated in one of them ystery chambers of the place, the door of which is rarely opened, and which is still known as "Mrs. Grundy's Gallery."

"Here she impounded any picture or sculpture she considered unfit for exhibition," Law said. She allowed no one admission, even high dignitaries, and the works of art, including Carlini's "Venus Recumbent" and a statue removed from Henry VIII's pond garden were not taken from the room until after Mrs. Grundy's death.

Two Others Also Injured When Star Car Driven by George McRoy Crashed Into Mule and Cart; Reckless Driving Given As Cause of Wreck

Willie Stokes, 23, was instantly killed last night about eight o'clock, when the Star touring car of which he was an occupant, crashed into a mule and cart a short distance from Galloway's Cross Roads. The death car, was driven by George McRoy, who was severely cut by the shattered windshield. Two other occupants, suffered minor injuries from flying glass.

According to information obtainable shortly after the accident occurred, the car in which the young men were riding, crashed into a mule and cart, driven by a small negro boy, residing on a nearby farm. The impact was so great that the windshield and top of the car were completely demolished.

Dr. Joseph Smith, of Greenville, made an examination of the dead man, about forty minutes after the accident occurred. His neck was found to have been broken. This injury alone resulted in almost instant death. While McRoy's injuries were of a serious nature, it is not expected they will prove fatal.

The negro boy, driving the mule, probably would have been killed or seriously injured, had he not jumped into a field on the side of the road. At the time he jumped, the mule, dashing for safety, passed directly in the path of the car.

The animal was badly cut and was bleeding profusely when medical aid reached the scene. It is believed a part of the demolished car struck Stokes' neck, inflicting the injuries which resulted in death.

Coroner S. G. Wilkerson conducted an investigation a short time after the wreck. The jury declared that Stokes came to his death in a car which was being recklessly driven.

STATE CONTINUES EXAMINATIONS IN CRANFORD CASE

Assistant Superintendent Under Convict Boss Admits Hitting Few Prisoners

Albemarle, July 27.—(AP)—Cross examination by the state today featured the morning session in the trial of Nevin C. Cranford, charged with the murder of two negro convicts, Arthur Pickler, who was assistant superintendent under Cranford in 1923 admitted hitting a "few" prisoners. He said he knocked one prisoner down with a brick because he was advancing on him with an axe.

W. L. Caudle was conducting the cross quiz.

Mr. Caudle asked the witness if Cranford had not whipped prisoners every day. Pickler answered that the foreman did not "whip every month."

He admitted, however, seeing Cranford whip two or three convicts "pretty hard." Mr. Caudle told the court he was trying to discredit the witness, who yesterday testified that Cranford treated his prisoners fairly and without cruelty.

MOBILE SIDETRACKS PAVING PROGRAM

Mobile, Ala., July 27.—(INS)—Sidetracking the forthcoming million dollar paving program, the city commission members wiped perspiration from their brows at the last meeting and discussed plans for a great public bathing beach for the Arlington docks.

IT COSTS MONEY TO ADVERTISE

It costs money to advertise.

Realizing this fact the business interests of various towns in Eastern North Carolina have raised sufficient money to carry on the advertising program of their tobacco markets.

Rocky Mount so far has led them all. The business men of that thriving railroad center raised $5,000 in cold cash and turned it over to the tobaccoists for use the coming season.

If other towns realize the need of advertising campaigns, Greenville also should. Last year was one of the greatest seasons in the history of this market.

And why was it a great season?

Simply because the market was advertised in a systematic way under the direction of an expert.

But, as we have said, it takes money to advertise extensively. And there is no way in the world of raising this money but through solicitation of business interests of the city.

Tobacco is the one great crop of this territory. Greenville, as the second largest market in the world, has its eyes set for the top of the column. To accomplish its purpose, we must have the money.

Success of the market is of as much interest to the bootblack as it is to the financier, the storekeeper, butcher and baker. All of us derive our livelihood from the golden harvest which begins to pour into the city during the month of September.

If we would continue to enjoy prosperity in keeping with that enjoyed by other towns and cities in this section of the country, it is imperative that we help the market advertise. There is only one way to do that. And that is to get together and accumulate as many "berries" as possible for the publicity of the market.

The tobaccoists themselves are doing everything possible to make the season one of the most successful in years. But they cannot do it all. They must have the co-operation and assistance of hundreds of citizens interested in development of the section.

Greenville has sixty to seventy-five million pounds as her goal for the present year. Let's see that she makes it.

STORK IS BUSY IN BRONX
PARK ZOO; ANIMALS WAIT TO GREET BABY GIRAFFE
New York, July 27.—(INS)—
The stork in the Bronx Park Zoo these days has been as busy as a baby carriage wheel on a rainy

Sunday morning.
Animalkind is all aflutter over the expected arrival of a baby giraffe. It was two years ago that the only birth of a giraffe in the annals of the zoo occurred and the infant lived only a few days.
The expected kid giraffe will have a number of playmates to highneck. There are five baby apudads, popularly known as Bar-barly sheep; a quartet of little Himalayan tahr, belonging to the goat family; two tiny mouflons resembling sheep three young European red deer, two Indian deer two American elk, and five zebra only several days old.
The baby zebra is a daughter of Pete and Queenie. The mother is reported to be doing well.

FAMOUS BARITONE TO APPEAR HERE

Edwin Swain, who will appear at the Teachers College on Thursday evening, July 29, is a baritone of wide reputation. Mr. Swain appeared at the Teachers College last summer, and with his fine resonant baritone, and his interpretations of mixed song groups, so delighted his hearers that he was recalled again and again to bow his acknowledgements.

The Philadelphia Evening Bulletin says: "Mr. Swain, who possesses an unusually beautiful baritone voice, has the added advantage of an ingratiating personality to enhance his artistic vocal qualifications. He sang very felicitously yesterday, in his rich mellow tones of excellent range and capable of a marked variety of expressions."

Says He Felt Drunk

Most of the Time Brooklyn. Mr. Fred G. Marquart writes:—"I felt drunk most of the time. My head was dizzy. I couldn't think clearly. One day I dropped a coin and when I stooped to get it I got so dizzy I almost fell. I later found out that the cause of this condition was constipation. This was overcome by a short course of Carter's Little Liver Pills. My appetite has doubled, and my dizziness has entirely left me." Carter's Little Liver Pills move the bowels and relieve the system of its poisonous matter. Druggists, 25 & 75c red packages.

JULY CLEARANCE SALE A Whirlwind Finish

It takes a good sale to run on its own momentum. Many start off with a flash but soon fall flat. Not so with this sale! here hasn't been "let up" since it started. No wonder; for women are the best advertisers in the world. If a sale is good they tell others about it. If it isn't, they keep quiet and stay away from the store. But a sale like this is bound to end up in a whirlwind finish for where else and at what other time of the year could you possibly get bargains like these?

In various cities parents are warned to keep their children away from dogs, especially during hot weather.

Why not compel owners to keep the dogs away from children? Yesterday's news told of many children attacked by dogs. One of the children was bitten twenty times. The law says that if the dog has never bitten anybody before, he was entitled to each one of those twenty "first" bites. Quite an allowance.

A dog entered a public playground in New York City and bit half a dozen of the children. Rabies is on the increase. And the authorities can only advise parents to keep their children away from dogs. Intelligent parents will see to it that dogs keep away from their children.

Royan Avann of Detroit, is ordered deported for moral turpitude, the same order, issued in the case of the Countess Cathcart, fell to the ground. She was a countess, attracted attention, deporting enthusiasts backed down.

The supreme court will decide about Royan Avann, and moral turpitude generally. Just what brand of moral turpitude is charged against the young lady of Detroit is not definitely stated. Something is said about two husbands. Certainly the learned justices will keep in mind two lines from John, chapter eight, verse seven: "He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her."

The pursuit of bootleggers by the government leaves something to be desired, but bootlegging in itself is well organized, in Chicago, for instance, bootleggers have headquarters close to the Cook County Jail. Prisoners order their drinks by whistling, one whistle for beer, two whistles for whiskey. Guards of the jail, making frequent trips, bring the beer or whiskey to prisoners in rubber containers, hidden under their coats. That is the system.

Even our little brown Filipino friends are planning to boycott United States goods. The Philippine supreme national council holds off the boycott for a while because it rather likes Colonel Thompson, sent by President Coolidge to investigate.

If the Filipinos succeed in carrying out their plan to be free from United States control, they will have a chance to try control by the Japanese, an intelligent nation, willing to colonize. The Japanese, by the way, wouldn't stand much boycott nonsense. Let the Filipinos ask the Koreans about that.

"ADS" IN THE REFLECTOR PAY

Your SHORE ACRES Guaranty

Bankers built Shore Acres, not real estate speculators. They built it to answer a demand—for the "Population Looking for a City to Live in"—those thousands who want to spend their summers at Wrightsville Beach but can't because the island is too small.

Factors Which Assure Enormous Growth

- 1. Cleanest beach on the Atlantic ocean. No oil or debris from ships. 2. Fast interurban car service to downtown Wilmington, nine miles away. 3. Connected to mainland by automobile boulevard causeway. 4. At the point picked by Roger Babson and by New York Times expert as the most perfect location in the United States for a year-round resort center. 5. Adjacent to every sport of sea, link and lawn—sailing, boat racing, yachting, deep sea and still water fishing, bathing, tennis, golf, hunting all around you. 6. Year-round home site at the ocean, near a large city by a beach famous throughout the south. 7. Improved streets, sidewalks, sewers, plazas at no additional cost to property holders; a "City Beautiful" Plan by Prof. Arthur Cowell. 8. Water, gas and electricity at your property line. 9. Proper building restrictions which guard against the blight of shacks. 10. Financial assistance in the building of your home.

A sense of safety and surety arises in doing business with men of the type which makes up the Shore Acres Board of Directors. The president of the company is A. E. Fitkin, of New York, whose famous chain of public utilities has an income of more than $20,000,000 a year. Associated with him are:

Thomas W. Davis, Fred W. Dick, F. A. Matthes, T. B. Willard, J. V. Grainger and E. Paul Young.

Shore Acres is the first development of a contemplated five-year program, and buying lots today is like buying in the middle of Atlantic City, when that famous resort was a sand dune.

Nothing has been left to chance in this development. The fundamental and absolute laws of economy will force values upward and upward year by year.

The time to buy is now, at the first cost—right now when the tide towards Shore Acres is forming rapidly.

Follow The Lead Of Financiers

Buy and build in Shore Acres as an investment in Happiness, which will pay real as well as intangible dividends.

Rear your boys and girls where nature is kindest, where everything exists to fill their lives and build their characters from day to day—where their mother will find the real joy of home which she so richly deserves.

Shore Acres lots and villa sites, priced at $2,000 to $4,000, offer a value without a parallel.

YOU OWE IT TO YOURSELF TO SEE SHORE ACRES

Be our guest on an inspection trip. Telephone your reservation at our expense. We want you to see how man has joined hands with nature to build this first unit—a self-contained city—of what we believe will be, as Roger Babson predicted, the "All-Year-Round resort center of the United States"
