SPAIN QUILTS THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Formal Resignation of Country From League Presented After Several Days' Delay

Geneva, Sept. 11.—(AP)—Spain today resigned from the League of Nations.

News that Spain definitely had decided to resign from the League, was first given in an Associated Press dispatch delayed over the Spanish border to Hendaye, France on Thursday last.

The delay in forwarding the resignation was explained in Geneva yesterday as being due to the Spaniards' desire not to embarrass the entry of Germany into the League.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK OCT. 3 TO 9

Governor McLean, in Proclamation, Urges Citizens Practice Fire Prevention

Raleigh, Sept. 11.—(AP)—Reminding the people of North Carolina that nearly seven million dollars worth of property and 293 human lives were lost in the state last year through fires, most of which were caused by carelessness, Governor McLean today issued a proclamation setting aside the week of October 3 to 9 as "Fire Prevention Week" in North Carolina.

The proclamation follows: A Proclamation by the Governor

"The State of North Carolina has for years led in efforts to reduce fire waste and its attendant loss of life and property. October 3rd to 9th, inclusive, has been designated as Fire Prevention Week throughout the United States, and I appeal to our citizenry to become actively interested in this great problem of conservatism.

"Carefully gathered statistics show that in 1925, $6,914,814.00 worth of property was destroyed by fire; that 293 human beings were burned to death in North Carolina, caused largely through carelessness. Compared with our national fire loss of 570 million dollars and 20,000 lives destroyed, this is low, but entirely too great for an intelligent citizenship such as ours. It is well known that carelessness and ignorance go hand in hand as the chief cause of the great National Fire Waste.

"I, therefore, urge that the week of October 3rd to 9th be set aside as 'Fire Prevention Week,' in accordance with Section 6080 of the Consolidated Statutes, which provide, that the Crimes Cost Money. Wealth in the Sea. Are You Resilient? We Have Stamped.

Louis Seibold says crime costs the United States ten thousand million dollars a year, three and a half billions that criminals steal, six and a half billions spent on police, insurance against theft, prisons, criminal courts, etc.

Justice Victor J. Dowling of New York, attributed our crime wave to the "wreckage of the war," which wrecks men physically and morally. Young men were told that killing somebody you never saw before across the ocean is a noble deed. A certain number, feeble minded, concluded that if it is all right to kill for Uncle Sam, it's all right to kill for their own pocketbooks. It will take some time to get over that.

Everything depends on your period, and your cause. Farmer Hobben, of Pennsylvania, fined $2, said it was unjust. He would never pay, killed a sheriff and his deputy sent to get him, and was shot to death afterward. His wife said, 'God would protect him.'

Thirteen hundred years ago, William Tell, Swiss farmer, thought he was unjustly treated by Gessler, the Austrian governor. Who according to legend, which isn't true, made everybody bow to his hat hung on a pole. Tell killed Gessler after shooting the apple from his boy's head, and he is the hero of Switzerland.

Mrs. Koppel lost a $3,000 diamond bracelet swimming in the ocean. Mr. Mayes, swimming teacher, dived and found it. The tyrant of Samos lost his valuable ring overboard. His cook found it in a fish's stomach. Every

"Faith Healer" Was Preparing to Wash Away Sins of 600 at $3 a Head

Charlotte, Sept. 11.—(AP)—The riot squad of the local police force was called out shortly before noon to control a crowd of several hundred negroes gathered at the city hall in connection with the case of the "High Reverend Bishop" Grace, Portuguese "faith healer."

More than 400 negroes were on the scene protesting against any action requiring the healer to halt plans for baptizing 600 negroes near here tomorrow.

A negro, Jack Anderson, one of the leaders of the crowd was arrested, when he persisted in assembling the negroes on the lawn before the city hall. Every available policeman was rushed to the municipal building to insure protection to property and pedestrians as the negroes were described as being in an angry mood.

Charlotte, Sept. 11.—(AP)—Riot officers called out to quell a threatened disturbance by negroes before the city hall had been successful at noon with the arrest of a few leaders and the dispersal of most of the crowd.

The gathering was the result of the request that the "Reverend Bishop" Grace, a Portuguese "faith healer," desist from his services and halt a baptism service tomorrow in which he alleged a plan to immerse 600 negroes at $3 a head.

YEGGMEN DRAW PRISON TERMS

Three Who Conspired to Rob Bank Sentenced By Judge Grady in Wilson

Wilson, Sept. 11.—(AP)—The jury in the case of George Bari, and George Spadori, of Baltimore yeggmen indicted with Pete Cobb, of Elm City, for conspiring to rob the Totsnot Banking Company, found Bari and Spadori guilty, Cobb having submitted to a verdict of guilty yesterday.

The board also adopted an order for the cutting down and removal of all dead trees, from the city park strips. The purchasing committee was instructed to look into the advisability of purchasing a new street sweeper and a new motorcycle. The City Clerk was instructed to allow one per cent of all 1926 taxes paid during the month of October.

NEW ORDINANCE PASSED THURSDAY BY CITY FATHERS

Hour Parking Law on Evans Street Effective Soon; Other Matters Receive Attention

Automobile parking for longer than an hour will not be permitted on Evans street between First and Second streets within the near future, as a result of action taken by the Board of Aldermen in a meeting held in the city hall Thursday night.

The matter of parking regulations in the tobacco district was also discussed by the board but no definite action will be taken until the next regular meeting, in order to give time for the street committee to work out a system that will be most advantageous.

The matter of a city incinerator for disposal of the garbage was discussed and a committee appointed to go over the matter thoroughly and report at the next meeting. The cemetery committee reported much progress in the development work being done at the new cemetery and amount not to exceed $2,000 was appropriated for extension of this program.

Another ordinance ordered drawn will prohibit promiscuous distribution of circulars or hand bills about the city streets, and the placing of same in automobiles on the streets. It was also indicated that when drawn, this ordinance will also apply to the throwing of such material upon the porches of residences making it necessary that same be placed inside the door or hand to persons on the premises.

DECLINES OFFER TO ORGANIZE NEW FREE WILL CHURCH

Rev. L. E. Ballard Offered Support for New Church Here If He So Desires

Rev. L. E. Ballard, who for three years has served as pastor of the local Free Will Baptist Church, refused this morning the offer of a wealthy friend to make it possible by a donation for him to remain in Greenville for the purpose of promoting a new Free Will Baptist organization here.

In refusing the offer Mr. Ballard has stated his faith in the present organization. There have been a good many misunderstandings regarding the attitude of my church toward the work of the Kingdom," he writes. "There is a faithful band of Christians in the Greenville Free Will Baptist Church who are just as earnest as I could ever be in desiring the church to be a clean church and an evangelistic force in the community. They may now be in the minority, but they have the

WORLD SERIES TO BEGIN ON OCT. 2ND

Opening Game This Season Will Be Played in City of American League Club

Pittsburgh, Sept. 11.—(AP)—The world series this year will open on October 2 in the city of the American League pennant winning club. It was decided here today by baseball commissioner K. M. Landis, and representatives of the leading team in the American and National Leagues.

The third, fourth and fifth games will be played in the city of the pennant winning National League club. In the event a sixth and seventh game are necessary, they will be played in the American League city.

BOMB HURLED AT CAR OF MUSSOLINI FAILS ACCOMPLISH MISSION

Would Be Assassin Taken Into Custody; News of Incident Withheld From the Populace

Rome, Sept. 11.—(AP)—Another attempt has been made on the life of Premier Mussolini, a bomb was hurled against the Premier's car. Mussolini escaped unhurt. The attack occurred a little after ten o'clock this morning while Mussolini's automobile was proceeding toward the palace.

A young man named Flete Covannini, a stone cutter, threw a bomb against the car. The bomb struck a side window of the car but fell to the earth before it exploded and the automobile proceeded. The explosion was terrific and four passersby were wounded. They were taken to a hospital.

The national directorate of the Fascist party, announcing that God has once again saved Mussolini for Italy, issued an appeal that there be no more reprisals. Covannini was immediately arrested by the police escorting the Premier's automobile. He said he had arrived in Rome today from abroad, and that he came to Italy through the Alps, being unable to travel by the usual route as he was without passports of identifying documents. The assassin is a native Italian, he told police, and was born in 1908. The authorities believe his journey to Italy was financed and directed by groups of self-exiled anti-fascists, notably at Lyons and Paris.

Governor measures to keep news of the attack secret to avoid disorders were taken immediately and were so successful that not one of the streets had the slightest idea late this morning that a third attempt had been made against the Premier within the space of a year.

In journalistic and political circles, where the news was known however, there were excited conversations and conferences. "I thank God his life has been saved," was the comment of the Pope when informed of the attempt on the life of the Premier.

The Pope expressed great horror at the act and his relief at the lack of success of the assassin.

As an opening number of Thursday evening's event the Greenville High School Band will furnish several selections on the streets, and at 7:30 the stores of the city who are members of the Merchants' Association will throw their doors open to the public.

20 CASES ELMA BOOZE MISSING

Government to Investigate Disappearance of Portion of Rum Ship's Cargo

Raleigh, Sept. 11.—(AP) Every effort will be made by the government to solve the mystery of the apparent disappearance of 20 cases of whiskey from the rum ship Elma, which was seized by the coast guard and which is now being held in Wilmington, pending trial of members of the crew in United States District Court, District Attorney Irwin B. Tucker, who was here today, stated.

When the whiskey was removed from the boat 20 more cases were counted than the government now has in its possession. Rumors that certain of the contraband had been peddled around Wilmington, had gained such circulation that they reached the ears of District Attorney Tucker. The liquor is now under seal and is being guarded by special watchmen.

OUR SATURDAY NIGHT MEDITATION

Psalms 139:17:—"How precious also are Thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them!"

God thinks.
God has thoughts, and they are infinite in number, compass and importance.

Some of His thoughts are expressed; many more remain unexpressed.

There are at least three ways of expressing thoughts. By action. Machines are concrete thoughts. Creation is God's thought expressed in the universe.

By speech. Language without thought is impossible. God spoke to Moses on Mt. Sinai. Christ is called "the Word" that was "with God, and the Word was God."

By writing. Books are printed thought. The Bible is largely composed of God's thoughts communicated by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit to its various writers.

David had only a part of this volume; yet of this fragment he exclaimed, "How precious also are Thy thoughts unto me, O God!" How much more should we marvel at "the sum of them!" What constitutes a precious thought? What makes thought precious?

1. THOUGHTS TO BE PRECIOUS MUST BE TRUE. The world is full of books—ideal, fanciful, beautiful, imaginative—but the great question is "are they true?"

The Bible as the volume of God's thoughts, has passed through the fire and crucible of criticism and has stood the test. "The word of the Lord abideth forever."

2. THOUGHTS TO BE PRECIOUS MUST BE GOOD. Not merely great thoughts, but elevating in their influence on those who receive them.

3. THOUGHTS TO BE PRECIOUS MUST BE RELATED TO MYSELF. They must affect me directly or indirectly, or I care little for them. In the Bible I learn what God thinks of me; the purpose of my being; the way in which I can make the best of life; the origin from which I sprang, and the future to which I hasten. In this Book of God's thoughts I find all I need, and more truth than I can appropriate and use. "How precious are thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them! If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand!"

Some of God's thoughts are expressed—many are unexpressed. We know but little after all. Scientific men, "thinking God's thoughts after Him," are constantly adding to their number and preciousness. We are slow in getting at these thoughts. There had been iodine in seaweed for countless ages, and the sun's rays had fallen on the waters from creation. Both were thoughts of God. Only in recent years man discovered that iodine and sunshine would produce, under proper conditions, photography. He scatters vapors of iodine on a plate of glass and holds it to the sun, and the picture is taken. Yet photography was in the mind of God when He made the seaweed and the sun.

So of all fresh discoveries of truth. The truth is as old as eternity, it is our capacity to perceive it which is slow and dull. "God has much more light to break from His holy word," said Robinson, the pastor of the Pilgrim Fathers.

The Bible says "Light is sown for the righteous."

Let us so live that we can receive all the truth God would have us know; then the words of the Psalmist will have a deeper meaning for us: "How precious also are Thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them!"

CABLE LETTER

London, Sept. 10.—(AP)—When is a man grown up? Not until he is 26 says the London General Omnibus Company which employs several thousand drivers and conductors in covering the London area with its network of speedy bus services. The company believes that youths normally develop their sense of responsibility to full pitch between the ages of 24 and 26 and it will not accept as drivers men who have not reached the latter age. "We do not say anything against the man of 24," says one of the chiefs of the selection staff. "We choose men of that age to fill vacancies as conductors. But we will not take them as drivers until they are 26."

American negro melodies have been introduced into the musical program of the old South Wark Cathedral, just across London Bridge on the South side of the Thames. Noon day recitals are given there for the benefit of the porters at the hops market and other workers from nearby establishments. The selections are from the "Negro Spirituals" or plantation hymns and are expected to prove a potent drawing card for lunch hour audiences in this busy district.

Ladies in waiting to Queen Mary no longer shiver miserably while on duty at Balmoral Castle in Scotland as they did in the days of Queen Victoria. The castle has been modernized, and the minister in attendance to the king needs no longer to use his bed as a writing table and his chimney as a smoking room.

The task of bringing the castle into line with modern ideas of comfort and sanitation, started in the King Edward reign, have just been completed. Though the interior furnishings are quite simple, the castle is homelike and this year for the first time is not the uncomfortable draught ridden home which Queen Victoria regarded with such affection.

Paris, Sept. 10.—(AP)—"The more sedate and refined models are the keener American buyers are to purchase them this year," says one of the leading dressmakers. The day of eccentricities better suited to the music halls is over, he added. There is a general agreement that the models being shown represent a high order of taste as they are free from exaggeration of any kind.

America, deprived the wines of France, is developing an appetite for French snails. Small exports to the United States have increased amazingly in the last three years. In the year 1925 the total shipped was a million pounds. Exporters say that tourists on automobile trips throughout the country have acquired the snail habit at the small country inns. Nuts of dauphny, the Dordogne and Anjou have also touched the American palate, and so great have been the recent exports, that local prices have risen to a high level.

France's first "big time" woman journalist, Mme. Jeanne Barmontier, is dead. She leaves a record of achievement envied by many male star reporters.

Mme. Barmontier, more than 30 years ago, assisted in founding "La Fronde," the first daily newspaper devoted to woman's affairs. Later she achieved fame as a reporter in the Dreyfus case when she discovered the hiding place of Major Eschvazy, who was accused jointly with Deryfuss and who took refuge in England. Her stories on the case attracted world wide attention.

French feminists give to Mme. Barmontier much credit for the amelioration of women's position in France during the last quarter century.

Berlin, Sept. 10.—(AP)—The fortieth anniversary of the invention of the German automobile, was fittingly celebrated by students of the Hanover Tech. They hauled out the original machine from the school museum, filled the tank with gas and drove 270 miles from Hanover to the home of Dr. Carl Benz, the inventor, in Landenburg. Dr. Benz is now 83 years old.

The trip was made without a single mishap. The car at times attained a speed of 21 miles an hour, with two passengers. Instead of the special joys which greeted Dr. Benz on his first ride in the same car, the student drivers received an ovation along the route. Tears were in the aged inventor's eyes and thousands of his townspeople cheered as the machine chugged up and stopped in front of his house.

Eleanor Patterson, young diva daughter of Joseph Medill Patterson, Chicago newspaper publisher, has been given the title of the "millionaire nun" in Germany.

Miss Patterson played the nun in "The Miracle," at the Salzburg festival plays. She arrived with two limousines, thirty four trunks, a retinue of servants and occupied a suite of eight rooms in a hotel. Lady Diana Manners played the maid on the "Miracle" at last year's festival.

$100,000,000 IN BUILDINGS STARTING IN PITTSBURGH

Pittsburgh, Sept. 10.—(INS)—Building projects to cost approximately $100,000,000 will be begun in Pittsburgh this fall, according to advance notices received by the Chamber of Commerce here.

Among the largest improvement projects being planned is that of the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie Railroad, which will spend $5,000,000 on improvements to its Pittsburgh terminals, officials announced. The railroad will rearrange and enlarge its public delivery yard and add to its facilities for handling mail and dairy products.

U. S. Tourists Spent $226,000,000 With French Last Year

Paris, Sept. 10.—(INS)—Figures just published by the French National Tourist Office, compiled in collaboration with the United States Department of Commerce, show that 220,000 Americans visited France during 1925 and spent $226,160,000, an average slightly over $1,000 each.

Figures for 1926 are not yet available but it is estimated that there were at least 50,000 more American visitors and that they spent correspondingly more money.

Four thousand four hundred of the Americans visiting France last year were millionaires, spending, it is estimated, an average of $5,000 each. Students, teachers and employed persons on vacations numbered 61,000 and spent $425 each. Merchants, industrialists and professional men made up the most important class of tourists, numbering 96,800 and spending $850 each. Thirty-nine thousand six hundred tourists were classed as wealthy and spent $1,760 each while 17,600 persons combined business with pleasure and spent $1,700 each.

English tourists were by far the most numerous in France, totalling 700,000 to 885,000 Spanish, 38,588 Dutch and 13,545 Swiss.

Welfare Officers Resort to Spanking Wayward Youths

Charlotte, Sept. 10.—(AP)—Wayward youths of this city are finding out that old fashioned whipped justice is still being dispensed despite widely published reports of the growing laxness of parental discipline.

But the welfare officer chastisement is provided only as a last resort. Parents are given the opportunity first, but if they don't avail themselves of the opportunity, recent sentences imposed in juvenile court provide for the spanking otherwise.

The latest case brought the shingle to six young rowdies who persisted in placing tabs in the path of unwary motorists. Three punctures in a very short time at the same spot directed the attention of the police to a sextet of grinning white boys and one beaming negro.

The six white boys were haled into court and convicted but the negro proved that he was only an onlooker and not guilty of placing the tabs. He was released, but the white youths were allotted their whippings.

CHOIR AT CHAPEL ROYAL RECORDED ON PHONOGRAPH

London, Sept. 10.—(INS)—With the approval of King George the singing of the choir of the Chapel Royal, St. James Palace, has been recorded by a phonograph company, the first records to be issued this month.

The records include one of the favorite hymns of Queen Mary—"O Love That Will Not Let Me Go."

Philadelphia Church Prizes Prayer Book, Over 150 Years Old

Philadelphia, Sept. 10.—(INS)—One of the first moves made by the determined parishioners of Old Christ Church, the historic edifice, in which the leaders of our nation worshipped prior to and after the Revolution, when the Declaration of Independence was signed was to strike from the prayer books the sentence pertaining to the Royal House of Great Britain. In this manner, "A Prayer for the King's Majesty" and "Prayer for the Royal Family" were eliminated from the service.

This same prayer book, containing hurriedly made pencil marks which struck out the offending sentences is still in possession of the historical church here.

The church museum contains an old Greek-Latin dictionary called a "Lexicon Manuale." It was printed in 1685 in Ludgate Hill, London, and near this book is a small volume labeled "Companion to the Altar" written by Thomas Comber D. D., and printed in 1685 in London.

The Christ Church was founded in 1695 under provision of the original charter of King Charles II to William Penn. It was in this church where the Colonial Governors had their state marked by the coat of arms bearing the monogram of William and Mary.

Many early Americans are buried in the church yard.

GERMANY TO INTRODUCE FLEXIBLE DOLLAR RATE

Berlin, Sept. 10.—(INS)—The first barrier erected to protect the German mark from fluctuations will fall, after all. The Reichsbank decided to introduce, shortly, the flexible dollar rate, so that the United States dollar will be subject to fluctuations here just as in other countries of the world.

As matter of fact, this measure will not materially change conditions on the money market because the American dollar is practically a standard currency in Europe. The demand for American dollars decreased considerably since the German mark has been stabilized. Only a limited number of exporting firms and certain banks take an interest in it.

AIRPLANES WILL BE USED SCATTER SEED OVER FIRE-DEVASTATED FORESTS

Washington, Sept. 10.—(INS)—Sowing tree seeds on fire-devastated forest reserves is the newest job to be found for the airplane.

Two army planes were used in the experiment in Hawaii with a remarkable saving of labor, but the first appearance of sprouts is awaited before officers call the attempt a complete success.

An area of four square miles has been laid waste by fire and the ground was so rough that Acting Governor Raymond C. Brown of Hawaii called upon the Air Corps for aid, according to the report made to the War Department.

World Coal Market Showing Great Decline

Washington, Sept. 10.—(INS)—The consumer's winter prayer, that coal may become a drug on the market, may some day be realized—if he lives long enough—according to a Department of Commerce announcement that the world coal markets have shown a sharp decline.

Increased consumption of fuel oil, hydro-electric development and increasing coal production in nations, which formerly were large importers of American coal, have caused a loss of trade to American coal exporters, the department stated. The same conditions apply both to Great Britain and Germany, which rank with the United States, as the leading coal exporting nations of the world.

If this situation continues, it was broadly intimated, American coal companies may have nothing else to do with their product except sell it to American consumers. If such a condition ever occurs, then prices undoubtedly will decline.

The United States meanwhile shows the smallest decline of the three coal-exporting leaders in the tonnage exported. The loss of coal trade by this country, the department announced, was a reduction from 21,000,000 long tons in 1913 to 19,000,000 long tons last year. The British loss was a drop from 78,000,000 tons in 1913 to 51,000,000 in 1925 while the German reduction was from 34,000,000 tons to 14,000,000 tons in the same period.

FAMOUS ANTIQUES

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 10.—(INS)—Attended only by a few glowing antique collectors assembled in a tall, beamed ceiling room, the famous old W. A. Wilson collection went under the hammer here, almost unheralded, and at prices that brought tears to the eyes of collectors not fortunate enough to have been aware of the sale.

Imitation gold chairs that once glittered bravely in the palace of the doge at Venice went under the hammer at prices that brought twenty-five cents on the dollar, estimated value.

Louis XIV chairs, collected by a painstaking effort by Wilson during his many trips through Europe went as low as $1250 each, and a portiere, woven in France in the early fourteenth century was knocked down at $100.

The Wilson "mansion," once one of the show places of Kansas City, was sold recently to E. P. White, a contractor, and his plans called for the razing of the building, which made necessary the sale of the collection, brought together during Wilson's lifetime, and valued at over $80,000. Somewhat under $20,000 was the gross result of the auction.

RALEIGH WANTS NEW PARKING LAW

Raleigh, Sept. 10.—(AP)—Twenty minutes is not sufficient time to allow a woman to buy a dress, or get a bob, Raleigh merchants declare, in petitioning the city commissioners to rescind the recently passed twenty-minute parking limit on the city's main business streets. They want a return to the old one-hour limit, which was abolished at the request of another set of business men last month. The commissioners have taken the matter in advisement. Meanwhile police officers are busy handing out traffic violation summons to shop pers who fail to accurately gauge the time they leave their cars parked.

THIN, NERVOUS

Virginia Lady Tells of Taking Cardui and Says She Has Since Recovered Perfect Health.

Lynchburg, Va.—"I have taken Cardui several times for a run-down condition and have found it perfectly splendid," says Mrs. Lee T. Marsh, 716 First Street, this city.

"About ten years ago," she explains, "I became so weak I could not go about. I looked like a skeleton and was dreadfully worried about myself. A friend suggested Cardui and I decided to try it."

"I kept up the medicine until I had taken six bottles. It regulated and built me up. I improved greatly. Last year we drove up here through the country from Florida. I was exposed to the weather and must have taken cold, for I became ill. I got run-down, lost flesh, could not sleep and had no appetite at all. I was so nervous that I did not know what to do."

"I thought of Cardui. I began to take it regularly and it was not long before I began to feel better. I took six bottles, one after another, and at the finish of the last one was perfectly well again. Since then I have continued gaining in weight and all winter have been in perfect health." A LETTER FROM MR. SCOTT

Sept. 10th, 1926

Claude Tunstall, Greenville, N. C.

Dear Sir:—Your two checks from the Provident Life and Accident Insurance Co., amounting to $225, received. They came in nice, as I have just returned from United States Veterans Hospital, Lake City, Fla. I trust I will receive the $150 now due me, before I leave for State Sanatorium for further treatment. Your Provident policy looks good to a sick man, as I may have to use it for some time yet. With best wishes, I am,

Yours truly,
Paul A. Scott,
Care City Tailoring Co.

Neighbor—"Why are you wearing so many coats on such a hot day?"

Pat—"Well, ye see, I'm going to paint my barn; and it says on the can, 'To obtain the best results put on at least three coats.'"

To obtain the best results from your insurance protection make sure of at least three things:

- (1) That the company back of your policy is well and widely known.
- (2) That the agency who writes your policy is experienced and dependable.
- (3) That your policy exactly fits your individual needs.

In other words put on your coat and call on this agency.

MARY PICKFORD'S GORGEOUS GOWNS

Eighteen dressmakers were kept busy for three months preparing the twelve gowns that Mary Pickford wears in "Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall," her latest, United Artists offering, at White's Theatre Monday and Tuesday.

The gown worn by Miss Pickford in the banquet scene was made of black and gold brocade with heavy metal lace sleeves adorned with 100 gross of seed pearls, totaling 14,400 pearls. It took five women two weeks to string the pearls that decorated the sleeves. The underskirt used with the gown was of gold metal cloth with patterns of roses made from pearls. The bottom fringe of the skirt was of gold embroidery, set with topaz from Czech Slovakia.

Each costume and gown worn by Miss Pickford's latest production is a Elizabethan period.

Allan Forrest supports Miss Pickford in the leading male role that of Sir John Manners. Others in the cast are Clare Eames, Anders Randolph, Marc McDermott, Estelle Taylor, Mms. Daumery, Malcolm Waite, Courtenay Foote, Lottie Pickford Forrest and Eric Mayne.

Tampa, Sept. 11.—(AP)—Two men are dead and a third wounded as the result of a liquor war which broke out in Ybor City last night. The victims are Manuel Hernandez and S. Conetto, both of whom were shot to death, and Rene Olvarria, who is suffering from a bullet wound in his left leg.

19 KINDS BEANS SAYS AGRICULTURE DEPT.

Washington, Sept. 11.—(AP)—To the average human a bean is a bean, but to the U. S. Department of Agriculture it is a widely diversified product that must be marketed under nineteen commercial classes, it was revealed today in an official bulletin stating that recommended standards for beans became effective September 1. The standards are essentially the same as the general standards previously in effect, but serve in some instances to clarify the classifications.

Military Experts to Make Soldiers Best Educated

Washington, Sept. 10.—(INS)—Uncle Sam's military experts have a new goal—to make the American soldier the best educated in the world.

From the highest officer to the lowest private school days have taken on a real meaning under the new scheme. The West Pointer who used to represent the last word in military preparation now grabs his sheepskin and starts for another Army School.

"Join the Army and Go To School" exclaims the veteran who boiled doughboy in derisive tones. But the highest officers in the Army take the matter more seriously.

The World War brought into play scientific forces on a scale never dreamed of by military experts, and many predict the next war will see the complete triumph of science over brute strength.

The Army War College housed in an imposing building overlooking the Potomac river, with a "campus" as trim as any to be found throughout the country, has opened its fall term with the same sort of exercises to be found in any other institution of learning.

Grizzled general officers are among the 76 to reach the college for a final determination of their ability to the general staff. They listen to lectures and they are called on to "recite."

Scores of other Army schools throughout the country and in the Philippines call the lesser officers, the non-coms and the privates. The War Department is now detailing to many state universities a limited number of officers, whose tuition is paid in order that they may develop their knowledge of some particular subject and become an expert in time of war.

Canada Expects Record Ballot On Sept. 14th

Ottawa, Canada, Sept. 11.—(INS)—Canada expects a vote that will shatter all previous records when the total figures of the balloting on September 14 are made known.

After one of the most spirited political battles in many a decade interest is at fever heat from one end of the dominion to the other.

Both party leaders, Premier Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen and William Lyon McKenzie King are confident of victory.

The eyes of all Canada are focused on western Canada and the French Canadian province of Quebec. Premier Meighen is counting on Ontario to bring him victory while former Prime Minister King looks to Quebec to put him over with the assistance of the western Canada progressive provinces.

The campaign has been waged around three big issues—the tariff, the constitution, and smuggling between Canada and the United States. Other minor issues have appeared most prominent of these being the immigration question and the trek of to defeat will be reorganized from native born Canadians to the cellar to garret United States.

From political chieftains of The men need no kick. The both the conservative and liberal women don't powder their faces parties, it has been announced for their own benefit.—Durham that whichever party goes down Sun.

Gossip of Staff Correspondents at World Centers of Population.

Moscow, Sept. 11.—(INS)—To strip the buttons and insignia of rank from the uniform of a delinquent officer has long been a popular method of disciplinary action in military circles. But to take off the uniform also and to turn the offender into the street with nothing on but his socks and shoes is a Soviet contribution to the science of chastisement.

Passerby in the vicinity of Novospasski House of Correction were astonished to see a naked man, violently ejected from the entrance to the prison run off down the street, shaking his fist at the door which banked behind him, and cursing loudly. Women ran as he approached, and by the time he had run two blocks a large crowd had collected, trailing in his wake.

Militiamen on duty at the street corners merely looked curiously after the nude apparition, but since Moscow has no bourgeois law against appearing in public naked, no one made a move to arrest him. On the contrary, the unclad creature ran of his own accord into the nearest militia station, and planting himself in front of the desk, declared that he had a complaint to make.

"I am Peter Zamiatin," he shouted, "and up until ten minutes ago I was second assistant warden in the Novospasski House of Correction. I reported for duty a little while ago and the head of the prison, a blackguard named Zgoriatch, had the nerve to say I was drunk. He canny me on the spot and took off my uniform. It's a hot day, and I was not wearing anything under my uniform. But just the same he kicked me into the street, and I was forced to run here after being nearly shamefully to death. I want to charge him with assault and misuse of authority."

The militia sergeant took the charge, but not before he found an old coat to help Zamiatin recover from his bashfulness. The trial is scheduled for the near future.

Peasants in Alexander county, in the Tark district, are pondering over the inscrutable ways of Soviet commissars, and wondering how they are going to move their crop this autumn. Last spring a new commissioner of agriculture, one Jacob Yakunin, was appointed to the district. He was ambitious to see the crop production in his district rise under his administration, and the first order he gave was for the peasants to plough and plant the roads.

Blindly following orders, the peasant bent to the task, and within a month every road in the district had been ploughed flat and planted to wheat. They thought perhaps the new commissioner, who could read and write, and hence knew everything, had some strange and hitherto unheard of method whereby he could get their grain to the market without roads.

All during the summer, commissioner Yakunin sent in glowing reports to his superiors, describing the greatly increased sown area, and predicting a bumper crop. The fields are now yellow and the wheat hangs heavy on the stalk, but Yakunin has taken a vacation. The peasants in his district are ready to elect him to solitary confinement for life.

German boy learns a poem about that. Er Stand Auf Seines Duches Zinnen, etc.

A good old saint in the ancient legend lost his crucifix overboard in a stormy sea. When he landed on the beach a crab came out of the water and handed the crucifix to him.

All interesting, but nothing compared to wealth that will be brought from the sea when submarines are perfected. One intelligent prospector is searching the bed of the ocean through glass in the bottom of a specially built submarine which recently travelled from Holland to San Francisco.

Where the ocean is now, dry land once was. Where dry land is, the ocean was. England's chalk cliffs were at the bottom of the sea once. Oil wells are operated below the water of the Pacific.

The old prospector went climbing over mountains on his little donkey. In future he'll explore the ocean's deep valley by submarine.

Wonderful is resiliency in man or material. If you bounce up after you are squeezed down nothing can keep you down. If you stay flat when you are squeezed that you don't go far. That's why our Jewish friends succeed. They possess resiliency.

Scientists are searching vainly for synthetic rubber. It's discovery would be worth billions to the world. Synthetic elasticity for the human mind and courage would be even more valuable.

By the way, if any young man can find a way to "reverse the vulcanizing process of rubber," as old iron is made good as new, that young man will realize the ambitions of millions, and get enough cash to make Paris and Palm Beach take notice.

Opening of the American Legion convention at Niagara Falls last night, Theodore Roosevelt said:

"Since the war we have slumped. A great wave of material prosperity has swept the country. Men and women are thinking simply in terms of dollars and cents, automobiles and creature comforts."

Although a Republican, with a capital R, Mr. Roosevelt attacks Republican money-spending at elections in Pennsylvania and elsewhere.

He would be the strongest vote getter the Republicans could nominate for governor in New York this fall. But the owners of the Republican party don't want him, as they didn't want his father. To get rid of the father and "shelve him" they made his Vice-President. You know what happened.

"The Democrats are overjoyed at Leupold's defeat in Wisconsin. It will make trouble for the Coolidge regime."

It may make more trouble for interests that control many Democrats in the Senate.

Blaine is a Democrat in the real sense of the word, although in the Republican party. He is an uncomfortable person, who thinks this country should be run by the one hundred and fifteen millions that live and work in it, not by the few that sign the big checks. Such a man will disturb Democrats as well as Republicans in the Senate.

The country is prosperous, there is lots of money, Wall Street was happy yesterday. Borrowers, to quote the street, "literally had money pushed at them."

faith that will someday win. If I had been denied a 'fair chance' these too have been denied a fair chance.

"I have never for one minute lost faith in what I am convinced is the true Free Will Baptist element in the church, and while I consider the cause of the denomination above the cause of any one organization composing the connection, I could never advocate a new church until I am convinced that the cause of my denomination is defeated in the present organization. I am not so convinced as yet. I know that truth will live, and some day I believe that the church I have served for three years will rise above the cause of its failures, and contribute to the spiritual advancement of the community. For this reason I decline offers of assistance for the promotion of a new church."

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK OCT. 3 TO 9

Governor of North Carolina shall each year in October, issue a proclamation urging the people to proper observance.

"During this week I also urge that fire drills be held in schools, state institutions, factories and stores, and that they be continued at regular intervals. "That schools, theatres, churches, public and private hospitals and institutions, factories, stores and hotels be inspected to see that every safeguard against fire is provided, and also that exit facilities are sufficient, in the event of fire;

"That local municipal authorities examine their fire ordinances and make them sufficient if they are lacking in any particular.

"To this end I urge our citizens to thoroughly cooperate with the insurance department, and that every Mayor issue a proclabeen presented to Supt. George Ross, Pou, who has it displayed in his office. It expresses hours of toil by fingers better trained in less artistic pursuits, but it is a creditable piece of work.

The burglar-artist presents a sunflower, growing in a graveyard. Each of the leaves on the stem represent a step toward crime. They start with drinking and late hours, progress through gambling, hours breaking, assaults, and on to a glowing yellow flower which the artist has labelled "Murder."

At the foot of the flower are three graves. One is occupied by a dope fiend, another by a burglar, and the last by a murderer.

The whole is labelled in large letters "The Transgressor's End."

Wilmington, Sept. 11.—(AP)—The condition of Reverend H. A. Humble, presiding Elder of the Wilmington District Methodist Episcopal Church, South, was reported this morning as a little weaker.

The minister has been ill for several months, but his condition became critical during the past week. Yesterday hope for his recovery was virtually abandoned but during the afternoon he rallied slightly.

County Schools Pennant Winners Health Education

Some of the school children in Pitt county scored high in health according to information received by Dr. C. L. Outland from Dr. L. B. McBrayer, Managing Director of the North Carolina Tuberculosis Association. The third and fourth grades in the Ayden schools and the third, fourth and fifth grades in the Stokes county school were national pennant winners.

These pennants are awarded by the National Tuberculosis Association of New York to school

"And now, therefore, I do issue this, my Proclamation, and do set aside and designate October 3rd to 9th, 1926, as "Fire Prevention Week," and do urge all our people to a proper observance of this week in obedience to the law of North Carolina.

"Done at our city of Raleigh, this 11th day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six, and in the one hundred and fifty-first year of our American Independence."

State Prisoners Very Versatile

Raleigh, Sept. 11.—(AP)—There appears to be no end to the versatility of the prisoners confined in Central prison here. Otto Wood, desperado de luxe, had dropped his shooting irons for the pen; Will Campbell, the mountain lover who slew his sweetheart in mad rage, is trading a confectionery counter; and a woman bandit is calmly stitching garments of striped canvas.

All this has been chronicled, but now comes an artist who devotes his talent to depicting in water colors how the sunflower of crime sprouts and grows. The artist is Joe Johnson, negro, who was sent up from Washington county in 1922 to serve a life term for burglary.

His finished production has

Legion at Philly On Columbus Day

Philadelphia, Sept. 11.—(ANS)—The delegates to the eighth annual convention of the American Legion in Philadelphia October 11-15 will be entertained as never before. There will be a mammoth parade and military circus, junior world's championship baseball series, band and vocal quartet contests, football and lacrosse games and the Sesqui-Centennial exhibition.

It is expected that 100,000 members of the Legion and their families will attend.

The principal event of the convention will be the annual parade, to be held Tuesday afternoon, October 12, Columbus Day, when 75,000 Legionnaires from 48 states and three foreign countries will march. Vice-President Charles G. Dawes and General John R. McQuigg, national commander, will review the marchers.

Vice-President Dawes, Admiral Coontz, Judge K. M. Landis and Major General LeJenne, commandant of the Marine Corps, have been announced as the principal speakers who have definitely accepted invitations to attend.

Eight thousand members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the American Legion, and 14,000 members of the 40 and 8 Society will conduct their separate conventions and entertainments during the same day.
