TOBACCO MARKET MAKES THE HIGHEST AVERAGE OF THE SEASON YESTERDAY

Friday's Average $28.77; Market Has Sold Close to Eighteen Million During Season

The Greenville Tobacco market broke all average records for the season yesterday when 847,372 pounds of tobacco were sold here at an average price of $28.77. This is the highest average that has been made here since the opening of the market and is believed to be the highest average made in the state on a sale of equal size.

During the week ended yesterday the market sold 4,152,878 pounds for $1,137.92 averaging $27.39 per hundred pounds. Total sales for the season are 17,987,934 pounds which brought $4,685,858.24 or an average of $26.05 per hundred pounds.

Total sales last season for the corresponding period were 13,277,982 which gives the present season a gain of approximately four million pounds over the former season. Sales last year for the corresponding week were 2,550,960 at an average of $22.54 per hundred.

Prices on the local market showed considerable strength during the last half of the week and reached the peak during yesterday. Warehousemen believe that the present high prices will continue when the market reopens next week and large sales are looked for. Growers are urged to grade their tobacco carefully in order that they may receive the highest possible price for same.

SPECIAL LAND JURY CONTINUE INQUIRY TODAY

Names of Lynchers of Two Negroes in South Carolina May Yet Be Revealed

Aiken, S. C. Oct. 9.—(AP)—A special grand jury took up again today its inquiry into the lynching here early yesterday of Clarence Demond and Bertha Lowman, negroes who were taken from the county jail by a masked mob and shot to death.

The lynching followed a direct verdict of not guilty for Demond Lowman on the charge of conspiracy to murder in connection with the slaying of Sheriff H. H. Howard in April 1925.

He had been re-arrested on a charge of assault with intent to kill and was being held in jail at the time of the lynching. The other two negroes were on trial for the sheriff's murder.

Sheriff N. Robinson yesterday told the Connor's jury that he arrived at the jail shortly after the delivery but was unable to recognize any of the masked men in the darkness. In a statement at Columbia late yesterday Governor McLeod deplored the affair and promised an immediate investigation.

Negro Hanged And Riddled With Bullets

Hopkinsville, Ky., Oct. 9.—(AP)—Word was received here today of the lynching of Herb Bell, a negro, by a mob last night which took him from the Dover, Tennessee jail. Bell was hanged to the limb of a tree and shot full of holes. He was on trial for slaying Rufus Joyner, 33, last Sunday night.

COMMITTEE IS TO INQUIRE INTO COTTON PRICES

President Coolidge Appoints Group to Investigate and Try to Relieve Situation

Washington, Oct. 9.—(AP)—A special committee of Government officials was appointed by President Coolidge today to investigate cotton market conditions and to see what can be done to relieve the situation caused by the slump in prices.

Washington, Oct. 9.—(AP)—A symposium of official views and proposed solution for the problem presented by a reported surplus production of cotton and the consequent decline in cotton prices was considered by the President before appointing his committee.

Belief that the federal reserve system is able to finance the present crop on whatever sound basis may be devised was expressed to the Chief Executive by Secretary Mellon, while Secretary Jardine added that the crop lends itself easily to credit as it is not injured by storage.

'Credit facilities through ordinary banking channels appeared to be adequate. Secretary Jardine said, "but we have in addition if needed the services and resources of the intermediate credit bank. It was for just such emergencies as the present ones that the banks were established. Those in charge of them have assured me that they are ready to do everything in the power. At present they are loaning money freely to the cotton cooperatives and they are prepared to extend credit also to other cotton farmers. If his additional source of credit is needed it may be drawn up by creating local financial credit associations with a minimum local capital of $10,000 on which $100,000 might be borrowed for periods ranging from six months to three years at a moderate rate of interest.'

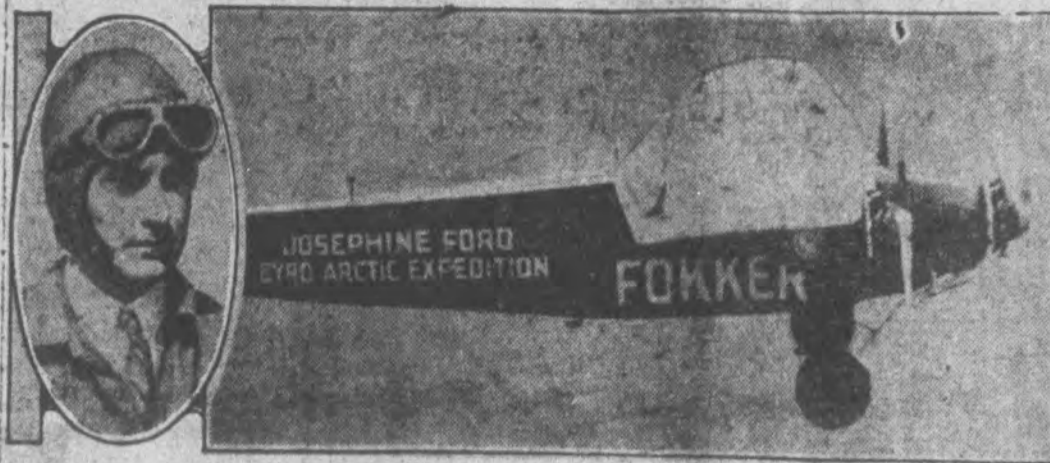

Senator Robinson of Arkansas in a White House conference sought Government intervention in the cotton situation in a way of funds in which to finance orderly marketing. He predicted that a movement would be made at the December session of Congress to modify or abolish the cotton crop reporting service of the agricultural department. Representative Black, Democrat of Texas, also criticized the department's forecast and expressed the opinion that the present crop had been greatly over-estimated by the department.

Secretary Jardine remarking that "it is to be the best interest of both producer and consumer to avoid wide fluctuations in cotton prices," declared that he did not share the view expressed by some that a large crop of cotton or a large carrying over from one season to the next is a misfortune.

VERDICT NOT YET REACHED IN BRIBE CASE

Trial Which Has Lasted for Five Weeks to Probably Close Today With Decision of Jury

New York Oct. 9.—(AP)—Decision as to whether Harry M. Daugherty and Thomas W. Miller, office holders under President Harding, conspired to defraud the Government of their best services, lay with a federal court jury today.

The trial which has lasted five weeks reached its final phase last night when Judge Mack charged the jury. The twelve men retiring to deliberate, but as midnight approached without a decision they were sent to a hotel under guard for the night to resume deliberations at 10:30 this morning. Before leaving the court the jurors called for documentary evidence to be delivered to them this morning. Attorneys said it would take several hours to read the documents.

Daugherty and Miller are charged with sharing in a $441,000 bribe to approve a $7,000,000 alien claim against the government in 1921.

Federal Attorney Buckner introduced 82 witnesses and the defendants introduced six. Nearly 300 documents were introduced into the evidence.

LOS ANGELES STAGE UNDER CITY POLICE

Los Angeles, Oct. 9 (INS)—An ordinance placing all theatres in the city under the control of the police commission and giving that body power to close a show at any time will be soon placed before the city council. The ordinance would virtually make the police commission a board of censorship, thus bringing about a condition similar to that of London, England, where censorship regulations have long been a pet antipathy of George Bernard Shaw.

The ordinance was considered when an exploring councilman gave a show on South Main Street where girls danced the "Texas Tommy" with "fox" clothes. The proprietors of the show, it was learned, had been healed in, court five times in one day, yet they merely paid a fine and went on with the show.

JUDGE DEVIN TO PASS SENTENCE DURING TODAY

Henry L. Stevens, Sr. and J. K. Powell Are Found Guilty On Forgery Charge in Duplin County Court

Kenansville, N. C. Oct 9.—(AP)—Sentence was to be passed today on Henry L. Stevens, Sr., and Junius K. Powell on their conviction on a charge of forgery.

After only three quarters of an hour deliberation last night a jury in Duplin Superior court found the defendants guilty of forging two notes on the town of Warsaw in the amount of $15,000 and $20,000 respectively. The verdict came as a climax to a trial which started early in the week.

Though the men were found guilty of forging on the two notes, other notes of a similar nature totalling more than a $100,000 were introduced into the evidence in the case.

Sentence was to have been pronounced at 11 o'clock this morning. At that hour the court was crowded with other matters and Judge Devin indicated he probably would reach the forgery case this afternoon.

The maximum penalty for the crime of which the two men have been convicted is ten years in state prison.

At three o'clock this afternoon no sentence had been passed on H. L. Stevens and J. K. Powell at Kenansville. Attorneys for both sides were in conference with the judge. Indications were that a sentence would be passed late this afternoon.

CORPSE RECEIVED IN RALEIGH BY PARCEL POST

Raleigh, Oct. 9.—(AP)—The second corpse to arrive in Raleigh by mail was received at the local post office last week. The body was that of a young woman who died in California in August and had been cremated, the ashes occupying only a small container. The body was delivered to a local hotel to be called for by the person to whom it was addressed.

The other time a cremated body arrived in Raleigh by mail was several years ago, when the remains of a former resident of the city were received from China.

ITALY IS AFTER TURKEY'S SCALP COMES REPORT

London Express Intimates That the Italians Are Preparing for War With Turkey

London, Oct. 9.—(AP)—The Daily Express in a front page article today intimates that Italy is preparing for war against Turkey.

The article declares that Premier Mussolini of Italy is planning with the co-operation of Greece to secure for Italy a zone of influence around Adalia in Asia Minor which was promised Italy in 1915 by a secret pact in London between Russia, France, Great Britain and Italy, and which the Bolsheviks made public in 1917.

Turkey according to the news paper is aware of the plan and maintains her corps permanent mobilized. Mussolini believes the method he has devised cannot possibly fail if put in operation.

Greece would attack Turkey through Thrace while the Italians attack in the south. Greece reward would be the reposition of Smyrna territory Rumania's neutrality was secured by a promise of support regarding Bess Arabia. Great international efforts are being made, the Daily Express declares, to persuade Mussolini to desist and it is urged in some quarters that the United States should be invited to exert her influence for peace.

While France is believed to be not entirely averse to the Italian aim if they can be obtained without war. The newspaper asserts Great Britain is on the side of peace and her efforts in conjunction with possible aid from America may limit Mussolini's plan to an unfulfilled threat.

ROTTERDAM BURGOMASTER PLEADS FOR COOPERATION AMONG WORLD NATIONS

Denver, Oct. 8.—(INS)—Systematic co-operation among the nations of the world, was the plea made in an address over the radio here by Alfred R. Zimmerman, former burgomaster of Rotterdam.

Zimmerman is making a tour of the United States. Zimmerman served at Vienna for three years as commissioner general of the League of Nations for Austria. He reorganized the finances of that country.

TODAY

(Copyright 1926) 7 Per Cent Too Little. Welcome, Queen. 2 Equals 68 Cents. Bambino's Big Bat. By ARTHUR BRISBANE

The Young Men's Christian Association, when it finishes hearing from union labor men throughout the country, will perhaps be less young and more christian.

It forbade a representative of union labor to speak in a Y. M. C. A. because it did not want controversy—so it said.

The sort of Christianity that will not hear the argument of working men, but listens on hand and knees to any kind of talk by a man with a hundred millions, has not much christianity about it.

There is a humorous aspect to the Young Men's Christian Association in certain places.

It has Jewish membership to seven per cent of the total membership. Rather poor mathematics, considering that the founder of Christianity was the son of a Jew—will set a good example to some His earthly parentage was concerned, one hundred per cent Jewish. Seven per cent seems a small allowance for her people.

Welcome to Queen Marie of Roumania. She will not bring any short dresses. Thank heaven she will get a good example to some of our foolish women who think there is something beautiful about offensively conspicuous knees, fat thin, blunt or sharp. There isn't.

Well, the Bambino's big bat did not do any wonderful work Thursday. In fact, it struck out at a critical point. But New York won and St. Louis is as sad as Carthage when the Romans had finished taking City's advice. (For the information of the vulgar, it may be said that the 'Bambino' is a baseball player called Babe Ruth.)

Dr. Irving Fischer, wise professor of Yale, tells you to remember that the dollar today is worth 68 cents, as compared with its value before the war, so 'you mustn't accept the dollar at its face value.' Many, however, are willing to accept it, if they can get it.

The same thing was said privately months ago by Clarence Dillon, who deals in dollars as others deal in hats, shoes and wheat. Money is the cheapest thing in the world today, and, therefore, as Weber and Fields used to say, so and get it.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. James A. Stillman whose son will marry Miss Lena Wilson, an eighteen-year-old Scotch-Canadian girl who works for a living. Some cocktail drinking parasites of our so called 'upper class' will think it a strange marriage. It is the sort of marriage that builds up coming generations, and that is the intention.

In one more way, Mussolini shows he thinks along the lines of Napoleon Bonaparte. When Napoleon reached the summit of power he made arrangements with the Vatican, re-establishing the Catholic Church in France with many ancient privileges taken from it by the revolution.

He said: "I need a spiritual general as well as a fighting army."

Il Popolo d'Italia, Mussolini's newspaper organ, says a conference should be arranged between the Italian government and the Vatican.

It probably will be arranged and that to the delight of millions of Catholics all over the world, may free the Pope from his self-imposed imprisonment within the Vatican walls, endured since Garibaldi and the unification of Italy ended the Pope's temporal power.

British moving picture men want their government to compel the British public to use 12-1-2 per cent of British made films, whether they like them or not. American pictures monopolize the European market.

It was said of Barium's white elephant that he would drink everything in the world, except English coffee. The reason was, that he didn't like it. Perhaps that is (Continued on page 6)

CARDINALS WIN TODAY'S GAME FORCING SERIES TO THE SEVENTH GAME

Cardinals Go On Batting Spree Winning Sixth Game of World's Series by Score of 10 to 2; Bell Hits Home Run With Two On Base

Yankee Stadium New York, Oct. 9.—(AP) The Saint Louis Cardinals defeated the New York Yankees 10 to two here today in the sixth game of the World Series tying the series at three games each and necessitating a seventh game here tomorrow.

A bright sun was shining as the game started but a still breeze swept the field and the stands were filled with people wearing overcoats.

(The play by play descriptive of the game written by Carl S. Brandenburg is as follows:

First Inning Cardinals—Holm up. Ball one, high and inside; strike called; foul strike two; foul. Holm sent a single into right field, when Shawkey tried to sneak over a fast strike. Southworth up. Strike one; ball one inside; ball two inside; foul strike two. Cardinals trying hit and run play. Southworth forced Holm, the play being Koenig to Lazari. Hornsby up. Ball one inside and high; foul strike one. Again the Cardinals tried the hit and run play, but Hornsby fouled the ball. Lazari went over and talked to Shawkey who continued to work very slowly. Ball two outside; strike two. Shawkey tried to pick Southworth off first and nearly got him. Ball three outside; Hornsby got a base on ball, the fourth pitched being a little wide. Bottomly fouled the ball. Hornsby stopped at third base. Bell up. The Yankee infield came in. Strike one, he swung at it; ball one out side; ball two outside; strike two he swung at it; foul. Hornsby and Bottomly scored on Bell's sharp hit to left. Lazari went over to talk to Shawkey whose curve seemed to have no terror for the Cardinals. Empire O'Day went out to the pitcher's box to talk to Shawkey. He was evidently cautioning him about stalling between pitches. Hafey up. Ball one high and inside; Hafey had to duck away from this one; Strike one he swung at it. He swung for his second strike. Hafey fanned swinging on a curve ball for a third strike. O'Farrell up. Ball one too high; foul strike one; for the third time the Cardinals were trying the hit and run play. Strike two called. This was a fast ball slower high; ball two inside. O'Farrell swung for his third strike. Three runs, three hits, no errors.

Yankees—After Alexander had warmed up Combs came to the plate swinging three bats. Combs up. Strike one called; this was a fast one over the inside corner; strike two was called. Combs went out on a grounder, the play being Alexander to Thevenow and Bottomly. Koenig up. Strike one was called; strike two called; Alexander was using a fast ball close to the batter. Ball one outside. Koenig struck out swinging at a fast inside curve. Ruth up. Ball one too low; ball two; strike one it was called. The Babe swung for his second strike. It was a low curve. Ruth went out to Bottomly unassisted. No runs no hits, no errors.

Second Inning Cardinals—When Ruth went out at first he was the twenty-fourth Yankee of the series to face Alexander and go out in order. Thevenow sent out a high fly to Combs Alexander was applauded by the crowd. Strike one, he swung at it; ball one inside; foul strike two; foul. Alexander fled out to Meusel. Holm up. He swung for his first strike; Holm threw his bat away swinging at one of Shawkey's curves. Holm fled out to Severeid. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Yankees—Meusel up. Meusel got a two bagger back of third; Thevenow being unable to gauge the ball. Gehrig up. Ball one outside. Thevenow threw out Gehrig at first. Meusel held second. Lazari up. Thevenow robbed Lazari of a hit and drew him out at first, Meusel going to third. This play prevented the Yankees from scoring. Dugan went out Bell to Bottomly. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Third Inning Cardinals—Southworth up. Strike one; Southworth sent out a hard liner to Combs who had to come in fast to make the catch. Hornsby up. Hornsby went out by the Koenig Gehrig route. Bottomly up. Gehrig stood still and took Bottomly's fly. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Yankees—Severeid up. Strike one, it was called; the ball cut the middle of the plate. Severeid singled over second base. Shawkey up. Thevenow let Shawkey's grounder go through him. Severeid halted at second. Thevenow gummed up what might have been a double play. Combs up. Strike one was called on the batter. Combs forced Severeid, the play being Alexander to Bell. Shawkey went to second. Koenig up. Ball one too high. Koenig sent up a high fly to Southworth. Shawkey still held second. Ruth up. (Continued on page 6)

LOCAL SYRIAN ACQUITTED BY FEDERAL COURT

Jury Yesterday Returned Verdict of Not Guilty in Fraud Case Against Jimmy Hatem

Jimmy Hatem, local Syrian, was yesterday acquitted of charges of using the mails to defraud by a jury in federal court in session in Wilson. Hatem was indicted by the government on six counts as a result of his failure in business in Rocky Mount. Witnesses from Chicago, Milwaukee, New York, Boston and several other cities testified in the case. Hatem's defense was that he went to Rocky Mount and opened a business under the name of the Fashion Specialty Shop. That he ordered goods in good faith and intended to pay for same. Shortly after he began business he was forced to close by an injunction secured by owners of another establishment by the name of the Fashion Shop, because of the similarity of the names. Upon closing his business Hatem returned to Greenville and before he could straighten out his affairs in Rocky Mount he was thrown into bankruptcy. As a result charges were preferred that Hatem had used the mails to secure credit with no intention of paying for ordered goods, thereby using the mails to defraud.

THREE NEGRO HOUSES DESTROYED EARLY THIS MORNING

A fire alarm was turned in this morning between four and five o'clock from the colored section of town, known as "The Baumer." The fire company quickly responded with both trucks, but being out of the town limits, they were unable to get water. When the firemen arrived on the scene, they found one house burned and the second burning. They tore down the third one to keep the fire from spreading. Only one house was occupied, and the occupants saved their belongings.

electric lighting system, F. C. Ellis, an electrical engineer, declared here at the first annual convention of physicians who advocate radiant therapy as a new system of curing the world's ills.

People's bodies run down just as radio or automobile storage batteries cease to function, as their electrolytes ionize or lose their electrons, in the opinion of Ellis.

Negative ionization takes place in the tiny batteries of the body, he said. It is not the precursor of disease, such a condition in the body is definitely associated with disease, Ellis declared. Health in the human system, it is claimed, depends on electron balance.

"Disease in modern terms is negative ionization," Ellis said. "Health is restored by a reversal of the disease process, by positive ionizations. This applies to humans, animals, plants, bacteria and stones. From rusting is a negative ionization as is the decay of stones and other things. This is not a theory but a fact and it bears on the proven electron theory of matter."

Ellis declared the makeup of every person is just as different as his face and that a individual diet or remedy through analysis of the radiant energies should be made in all cases.

ing extinction within 50 years.

That was the startling statement hurled in Chicago by F. L. Zaug, of New London, Wis., president of a plywood manufacturers' association.

Zaug declared that the disaster faced industry because of the lumber famine, he said was almost certain to come unless new methods were adopted by woodmen.

"Wood is the raw material for the largest group of industries in America next to agriculture," the Wisconsin man said. "Measure by value of output, one-third of our industries are dependent on wood as their raw material. Only a small part of these industries could maintain themselves on an imported wood supply."

"The United States is consuming more than 25,000,000,000 cubic feet of lumber and growing only about 6,000,000,000 cubic feet annually. The remaining stand of timber in this country is estimated at 746,000,000,000 cubic feet. A deficit of 19,000,000,000 cubic feet a year will exhaust the supply within 30 years."

Conservation is a matter of life or death in the lumber industry, Zaug said. No reforestation means that are practically possible could keep up with the present rate of consumption in this country, according to the Wisconsin manufacturer.

Plywood, by the way, is built up wood, made of a number of layers of wood glued together with the grains crossing.

FLYING DAYS OF BARLING BOMBER PROBABLY OVER

Dayton, Ohio, Oct. 8.—(AP)—A few years ago a little Englishman dreamed of an airship as vast as an ocean liner.

Three years ago his dream came true when the Barling Bomber, $100,000 sky craft, the biggest airplane ever built, flew at Wilbur Wright field. The dreamer was, Walter Barling, aviator.

TERRIBLE PAIN

Alabama Lady Tells How She Obtained Relief by Taking Cardui. Feels Fine and Enjoys Life Now, She Says.

Talledega, Ala.—Mrs. Mary Hardy, 406 Henderson Avenue, this city, says that seven years ago she "got down sick" and was unable to attend to her housework.

"I have never been so weak before or since," she says. "I had a terrible pain in my side—so sore in my side and the lower part of my body."

"Across my back ached, and I was so nervous I couldn't stand up. I had just about given up when some one who came to see me began talking about Cardui. This caused me to get it. I took about two bottles before I saw much improvement."

"After this, though, I picked up right away. I slept better at night, I was hungry, enjoyed my food, which I hadn't done for some time. The pain and soreness gradually left my side. I regained my strength. I took about six bottles and left off for awhile, then took two or three more. . . I feel just fine, enjoy life and can work now, too."

Cardui is purely vegetable and contains no harmful drugs. It has helped thousands of suffering women and should help you, too. NC-168

Today the Barling Bomber sits almost forgotten in its hangar at Fairfield Air Intermediate Depot. It probably will never fly again, an officer says. With only five flights, many of them short ones, to its credit, the Barling Bomber may spend the rest of its days on the ground. Not because it cannot fly, but because it is not necessary.

"The Barling Bomber was an experiment," said an official. "We found out from it what we want to find out, and now we're through."

AGENTS OF JEFFERSON STANDARD LIFE INS. CO. GIVE A BARBECUE

The officers and some of the policy holders and friends of the Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Co., were delightfully entertained at a barbecue given at Bay View, on Friday, October 8, given by the agents of the Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Company.

There was a large number present and the selection of Bay View met the hearty approval of all. The meeting was called to order by R. R. Perkins, state agency manager who made an interesting talk and highly praised the agency of Jefferson Standard for their efforts for the Company. Mr. Perkins then called on Mr. Julian Price, president of the company, and turned the meeting over to him. Mr. Price made an address which was highly approved by all present and after the speech of Mr. Price he called on a number of those speaking were: Hon. Lindsay C. Warren, Sumner Burgwyn, Clayton Moore, Julius Brown, E. G. Flanagan, Frank Kogler, State Highway Commissioner, and W. T. O'Donnell. Vice-president, also Doctor Turner medical director of the company was present and he was the chief fisherman of the party. In addition to the speeches and the dinner some of the party went fishing and reported a delightful time. The success of the meeting was largely due to the efforts of C. D. Edgeton, manager of the Rocky Mount agency and R. T. Cox, agent at Greenville.

Even more significant than the persistent spread of Oldsmobile popularity is the evident eagerness of Oldsmobile owners to voice their praise in no uncertain terms.

Attracted to Oldsmobile, perhaps by some one outstanding feature, they discover, as the months and miles roll by, an overflowing measure of all those qualities which contribute to enduring satisfaction.

Here is brilliant beauty, coupled with extraordinary riding comfort and handling ease. Here is sparkling performance, enhanced by thrifty operation. Here are stamina, endurance and the ability to absorb road punishment.

Why shouldn't they voice their satisfaction—those thousands and thousands of owners who made the year just past the greatest in Oldsmobile history? Oldsmobile gratifies their finer tastes, satisfies their every need. Their expectations are more than realized. Their judgement stands confirmed!

OUR SATURDAY NIGHT MEDITATION

"THE HOME AND THE SUNDAY SCHOOL"

Isiah 54:13:—"And all thy children shall be taught of the Lord; and great shall be the peace of thy children."

There are few words more full of poetry than the sweet word, "Home." It has been variously described as "a world of strife shut out—a world of love shut in;" or as, "The father's kingdom, the children's paradise the mother's world;" and again, "Home is the blossom of which Heaven is the fruit."

In some cases that is blessedly true still, but not in all cases; and in our beloved State, more than half of whose people are entirely free from religious affiliations, I fear the descriptions given apply to a small minority only.

For without the worship of God and the regnant love of the Lord Jesus no home can be called "the blossom of Heaven."

Home life has undergone a complete change since Mrs. Felicia Hemans wrote her poem on "The Homes of England."

"The free, fair homes of England! Long, long in hut and hall May heart of native proof be reared, to guard each hallowed wall; And green forever be the graves, and bright the flowery sod

Where first the child's glad spirit loves, it's country and its God.

Or take the picture drawn by Robert Burns of the Scotch home in "The Cotter's Saturday Night." How the children gathered "round the ingle forn a circle wide" after "the cheerful supper done." Then, "The sire turns o'er, wi' patriarchal grace, The big ha-Bible, once his father's pride--

"And 'Let us worship God' he says with solemn air.

"Then, kneeling down, to heaven's Eternal King, The saint, the father, and the husband prays." Such homes today are as rare as the eidelweiss on the Alpine snow. Our hurried life, with machine and factory mass-production, and with its whirling appeal of social gaieties and excitements, has upset the old-fashioned home.

We might swiftly describe home today, thus:—In the morning father hurries off to work or to his office; no time for the family altar. The children hurriedly prepare for school. The mother having deftly superintended the household needs, hastens to her club meeting or party; and when, at night, supper is over, there is hasty preparation of tomorrow's lessons, a hurried clean-up, father goes to lodge, and mother and the children off to the movies, or some other social entertainment.

Whether for better or for worse, the peaceful home-life of a generation ago has almost entirely disappeared and in the change, the religious education of the children has been far too much neglected.

Instead of the prophet's gracious promise, we might say, "Some of thy children shall be taught of the Lord, once a week, by an unknown teacher, and great shall be the unrest of the children."

This condition, and I do not think I have drawn it unfair, emphasizes the need of Sunday School influence in the Home; and all the more because religious instruction is prohibited in our public day schools.

One needs not go far to find lamentable ignorance of Bible facts and truths. It is said that two Wilmington lawyers in the course of heated argument referred to the Bible. One said to the other, "What do you know about the Bible? I bet you $10.00 that you can't even say the Lord's Prayer." "Bet you I can," was the reply. The bills were put up, and the challenged lawyer started:—

"Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray the Lord my soul to keep."

"Take your money," said the first speaker: "You win; I did not think you knew that much."

It may be only a story—and it might have been two lawyers nearer than Wilmington—but it illustrates the point of prevailing Bible ignorance. To a parent this question was put by a little boy: "Father, who were the Pharisees?" and the head of the family gave this illuminating reply: "Oh, they were the men who used to fast in public, and secretly devoured widows' houses."

No serious-minded parent, with a reasonable sense of the relative importance of time and eternity, will be content to let a child go to school for 30 or more hours a week to learn how to face the problems of this life, and only ONE HOUR on Sundays to prepare for the life to come.

We want our children to "be taught of the Lord." We want them to face the exigencies of life and the certainty of death with intelligent courage and faith.

Next Saturday we will endeavor to show how the Home can co-operate with the Sunday School in this great and important task; meanwhile go to Sunday School yourself tomorrow, and take your children with you.

Simple Control of Modern Radio Set Shows Progress

Chicago, Oct. 8.—(AP)—From multiplicity to simplicity and from one tube to a dozen, is the incongruous situation that has accompanied the development of the modern radio receiver.

The numerous controls thought necessary in an earlier day have given way largely to one tuning device, while the elaboration needed to produce this ease of operation has been moved to the unseen recesses back of the panel.

They, from five to eight or more tubes, with their increasing collection of electrical and mechanical apparatus, have sprung up to overshadow greatly the lonely tube of the recent past.

Formerly it was not unusual to see the radio owner attempting to use two hands where a dozen were needed to adjust the many controls.

Evolution of the receiver got under way with the popularity of the one tube set. They became so numerous that the manufacturer of tubes was hard pressed to supply the demand.

Search for greater volume brought the audio amplifier into prominence. It too bore a nest of controls. While the later amplifier models have shown no revolutionary change in circuit design, their physical controls have disappeared.

Search for greater distance getting ability and elimination of squeaks and howl, saw the development of the tuned radio frequency set, with four or five tubes and with three controls, the operation of which was comparatively simple because the reading on each dial was nearly the same.

About the same time the super-heterodyne sprang into popularity, the number of tubes ranging from five to ten or more. Its construction was an involved procedure, but it did have a contracting advantage. There were only two main operating adjustments, although the earlier models—and some of them still do—contained from one to four volume controls. The earlier types were all home constructed, and it has been only within the last year or so that this set has been produced by the manufacturer.

Development of the singly controlled receiver first was successfully accomplished by replacing the three dials of the five tube set with a mechanical device that terminated at the panel with a signal wave length adjuster. Success in this was followed by further elaboration behind the panel as the number of steps of tuned radio frequency gradually began to increase, until they have reached as high as five.

Some of the later models even attempt to disguise the fact that they are radio receivers, and on a small knob protrudes on the front, with a window close by to show the adjustment made. Other types have stopped at two controls.

Accomplishment of control simplification has seen great changes in the interior of the set. Addition of each step of radio frequency requires another tube, so that a set with five stages requires at least seven tubes. And more tubes means that accompanying apparatus must be incorporated.

What Picture Folks Do With Old Clothes

Hollywood, Cal., Oct. 9.—(AP)—What becomes of the screen players' old clothes?

The problem of "what shall I wear?" is an acute one with the movie star who has appeared in a series of gorgeous creations. To wear them again in a new picture is out of the question.

The same problem exists for the male star, but not quite to the same extent. His psychology is the same, however, whatever happens to be his role.

Irene Rich, who appears in many of Warner's society plays, owned in the height of fashion, has a list of people to whom she give their old clothes—such as is their state. Occasionally she keeps them, as there is no reason why screen clothes cannot be worn off the stage. Several extra girls receive most of her old clothes.

Many actresses have learned their thrift through necessity while climbing the ladder to fame.

Among them are Patsy Ruth Miller and Myrna Loy. Miss Miller "wears her things to death," while Miss Loy makes her robes over and over until she is even ashamed to throw them away, much less give them away. An for stockings, Miss Loy dyes her cast-offs and makes rag rugs out of them. Jane Winton gives her old clothes away and finds that many discarded silk pieces, make excellent polishing rags.

Louise Fazenda every once in a while take a lot of old gowns and dresses out of the closets and send them to several families in Los Angeles.

Many men do not like to get rid of an old hat, or an old suit of clothes, and screen stars are no exception. George Jessel wears his old clothes until they are fit only for the paper mill. Monte Blue keeps his old clothes to wear in character parts.

Syd Chaplin wears his old clothes while working or lounging around the house. Some he gives away to persons he has known for years, and whom his clothes happen to fit.

Says Lack Training Time Responsible Carolina's Defeat

Chapel Hill, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Lack of seasoned material and lack of time to master the new coaching system are mainly responsible for the University of North Carolina's showing on the gridiron to date.

Dr. Charles S. Mangum, former member of the faculty's athletic committee, told the student body at a big mass meeting held here last night in preparation for the South Carolina game Saturday.

The students poured into the spacious Memorial Hall until nearly every seat was occupied, and enthusiasm was at high pitch. Dr. Mangum was followed by Coach Bob Fetzer, director of athletics, who discussed student morals, declaring that at team with the proper spirit, particularly if that spirit were inspired by student support, could play better football than actually physically capable of playing.

Both speakers urged the need of time and patience for the team to develop. They were not disheartened over the situation. They foresaw a better day—maybe not right away, maybe not until November or the first of next season, but they had already seen signs of improvement that ought to con-this season, that they had been lost fairly and squarely, but he was aware that some alumni have had very little patience with the losing team and he thought the reasons for the present situation ought to be made clear.

He pointed out that, despite the fact that the largest squad in history reported for practice, yet there were only three candidates in the entire outfit who were considered regulars last year, and all three were in the line. There was not even one star in the backfield—only substitutes of last season and sophomores. It was a raw outfit, and it takes a good deal of time to develop real football players.

PARIS STYLE HINTS Paris, Oct. 8.—(INS)—Material this season are most important, for the variety would appear to be the key-note of up-to-date fashion.

Velvet, lame, panne and many embroidered and printed fabrics will all add to the glories of the new mode. In some respects Fashion has taken great strides this autumn, a fact that is most important in the pattern card.

The wool and velvet designs in particular, set a new standard of beauty of coloring and softness of texture combined with lightness. No smart Parisienne could wear the heavy serges, broadcloths and velvets of past generations any more than long hair and tight corsets. Most interesting of the variety of interwoven tufts, pleating and printing which are so beautifully produced by means of modern machinery that they all appear as if hand-done. There is a great inclination for gold and silver metal thread, interwoven in wool and silk. The velvet and satin known lame velvet and lame satin are both very beautiful materials for evening dresses and cloaks and a small neat design in gold or silver looks well woven into a black or grey crepe or any silk or wool material.

Gorman's Market Report Gorman's has 2nd sale Monday, 1st Tuesday, 2nd Wednesday, 1st Thursday and 2nd Friday. The sales have been large all this week. Gorman's sold for the week 820,908 pounds. Our Friday's sale was the best as to prices that we have had this season. We sold in this sale 220,208 pounds for $62,849.16, averaging $28.54 for the entire sale and we had lots of the mean black tips. Prices on all grades except the hard finished dark tips, have been much stronger since Wednesday when the head buyers of all the companies were in town and put their buyers on more grades and better limits on those they had been buying. We had lots of new customers this week and had many who saw our sale tells us we would get their next load. No one works harder with their judgment than we do. Send us your tobacco and you will be satisfied. We have no hired drummers. Our satisfied customers have made us the leaders. Below we give you a few sales made Thursday and Friday:

Canon Newson, Vicar of Newcastle-On-Tyne says 'Science can be reconciled to religious belief and actually helps it.' The Vicar says the old terrible thought that the world might, after all, be nothing but a vast machine with no room for God or soul, has died out. And now the scientific teaching of biology, which is the science of life, actually helps religion. That's excellent news. Whatever helps religion helps the world. As for science, it goes along and does very well, anyhow. It means simply investigating and reporting FACTS. And nothing on earth can interfere with a fact — except a more powerful fact. Dr. Pettit, astronomer on Mount Wilson, says the Ultra-Violet Rays of the sun will be more numerous in 1927 than ordinarily. Stay out in the sunlight, it cures diseases, increases the number of red corpuscles in the blood. But don't expose your bare head to brilliant sunlight. Wear a hat, preferably lined with black or dark green. If you take sun baths start with three minutes' exposure, then very gradually increase.
