EVERYTHING IS READY FOR OPENING OF PITT CO. FAIR TOMORROW

More Exhibits, Larger Midway, Fast Races, Balloon Ascension and Free Acts Will Feature Daily Programs

With every available space overflowing with agricultural and other exhibits and with a daily program surpassing anything ever before attempted here, the Pitt County Fair will formally get under way tomorrow with what has been termed the biggest and best fair ever held in Eastern North Carolina.

In order to take care of the apparently unlimited supply of exhibits, an additional agricultural building has already been erected and today it appeared necessary to make even more additions to take care of the products being brought in.

The midway this season, composed of the Via-Ken Amusement Company's shows, is the largest that has ever attempted to put up here and the space allotted for this part of the fair was also at a premium this morning when the erection of the numerous attractions got under way in earnest.

In addition to the exhibits and midway attractions each day's program will be featured by horse races and free attractions that will furnish entertainment and amusement for the thousands who will attend. Besides the free acts that will be staged every afternoon and evening before the grandstand there will be two balloon ascensions daily and a mammoth fireworks display each evening during the week.

Tomorrow, opening day, has been designated as "School Day" and all the school children of the county will be admitted to the grounds free of charge. With the school children in attendance it is expected that tomorrow's crowds will be the largest that has ever attended a fair here.

POWELL TO BEGIN SERVING SENTENCE DURING THE WEEK

Warsaw Banker Drew Five to Seven Years in Penitentiary On Charge of Forgery

Raleigh, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Junius K. Powell, of Warsaw, is expected to start his term of five to seven years imposed upon him Saturday at Kenansville, by Judge W. A. Devin. Powell was found guilty of forging in connection with the issuance of spurious notes of the town of Warsaw.

A report Saturday that Powell had appealed from the judgment of the court was erroneous. After being sentenced he entered a plea of nolo-contendere to 27 other counts against him in connection with the same matter and Judge Devin ordered the case closed without further action.

Powell was convicted along with Henry L. Stevens, Sr., of Warsaw. Stevens was granted until the January term of court to make good approximately $100,000 of the spurious notes. Prayer for judgment was continued until that time and decision on a motion to set aside the verdict also was reserved until January.

Now We'll Be Silly.
The Husband Ran Around.
Danger in Cotton.
A Queer Skylock.
By ARTHUR BRISBANE

Queen Marie, estimable lady, no more, no less important than any other woman of good common sense, approaching middle age, is coming. And this glorious democracy is planning to make a goose of herself in her honor.

Our warships will fire loud salutes of twenty-one guns, while the lady puts her fingers in her ears. There will be an elaborate reception at the White House. And the poor, tired, probably much bored remains of the unknown soldier will be "honored" as usual.

The queen, with a pleasant face and a charming daughter, will look around to see what can be done in the way of getting money for useful and benevolent purposes, and perhaps a son-in-law, if one can be found rich enough and sufficiently passable.

When she goes home takes off the Paris clothes and puts on a wrapper she will say to the King: "Interesting trip, but I am tired. They were rather silly."

Mr. and Mrs. Senese had an automobile. Mr. Senese, in the words of his wife, Lena, "ran around in it." This means that a lady not Mrs. Senese was in the car when the running around was done.

The wife set fire to the car, it no longer runs. The magistrate said, "She dismissed. If to set fire to the car. In more you run around wife has a right vigorous days she hit you on the head with a sharp stone, fastened to the end of a stick.

Cotton drops to a dangerously low price, bad news for cotton planters and the South, bad news for Wall Street, bad for the whole country and especially bad for certain distinguished politicians.

While Europe curses us earnestly, sincerely, Uncle Sam continues financing Europe's recovery. The United States is now lending money to Europe at the rate of $100,000,000 a month.

Europe says this country has all the gold and sits hoarding it like the dragon in the Rhineland. The Department of Commerce shows that we lent Europe $311,803,000 in July, August and September, $890,000,000 in the last nine months.

Since Europe had to deal with a "cold blooded skylock," she is lucky such a skylock as Uncle Sam, who tends to foreign enterprises, a great deal more than he tends to develop his own country. Germany, by the way, is the heaviest borrower in this market. Who would have guessed that when patriot profiteers were howling a while ago?

Another white elephant will come to the United States and Dr. Dittmars, who knows animals, says he might as well not come. He is an ill-tempered elephant, and because he was scored in Burma, his keeper, Dr. Saw Po Min, won't allow him to be punished.

That white elephant can sympathize with some children or rich men, also considered more or less sacred, and lacking discipline. A white elephant is really a sick elephant. You won't miss much if (Continued on page 6)

FOUR ARRESTED IN CONNECTION WITH SHOOTING

Black Mountain Young Man Close to Death As a Result of Yesterday's Affray

Asheville, Oct. 11.—(AP)—While Henry Melton, 23, of Black Mountain, hovers between life and death at a local hospital as the result of bullet wounds inflicted yesterday during a brawl on the Rainbow Gap highway, four persons including three women are under arrest today in connection with the affray.

Perry Melton, uncle of the wounded man, is being held in the Buncombe county jail, charged with the shooting. The women, Juanita Wheeler, May Wheeler, and Willie Lee Sutton, are charged with aiding and abetting in the operation of a public nuisance.

According to Chief of Police Power, of Black Mountain, the shooting followed an alleged drunken brawl at the Melton home in which nearly a score of persons were participants. The party, according to witnesses, got too rough for Perry Melton who returned to his home and returned shortly thereafter with a shot gun. As Henry Melton approached, a few minutes later, the uncle is said to have fired at close range inflicting an ugly wound.

Sheriff Mitchell is continuing his investigation today into the details surrounding the shooting which came as the climax of a series of violent events in the Melton family. The father, Rev. John Melton, several months ago, was active in a campaign against violators of the dry law. As a result of his activities his wife was called to the door of her home and fired upon by an unknown party and badly wounded. A short while ago Clarence Melton, 15 months old son, was struck and killed by an automobile while walking down the road here near his home with his mother. The driver of the automobile has never been apprehended.

M'LEAN DELIVERS FEATURE ADDRESS SESQUICENTENNIAL

Governor Tells of North Carolina's Part in the Struggle That Made America Free

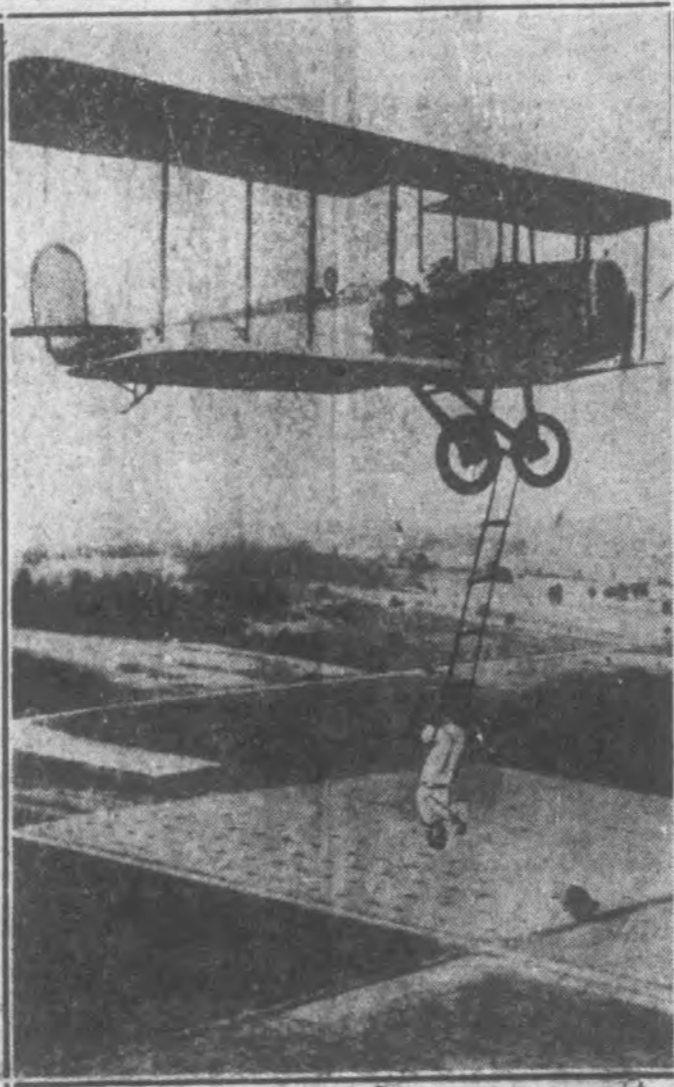

Philadelphia, Oct. 11.—(INS)—"Fighting for the Revolution before it began, North Carolina was one of the most potent factors in bringing it to a close."

With this summary of the Old North State's part in the war for Independence, Governor Angus W. McLean, of North Carolina, today reviewed briefly, step by step, the state's opposition to the British policy and her championship of the "American Cause."

Governor McLean was the principal speaker at the North Carolina Day exercises at the Sesqui-Centennial Exposition. Tonight he will deliver another address on North Carolina's part in the Revolution over Station WIP.

"For nearly three years prior to the consummation of the event the people of North Carolina had been preparing themselves by common thought and action for participation in that decisive epoch which had its beginning in the Declaration of Independence. (Continued on page 2)

MR. D. D. HASKETT WRIT ERROR MAY DIED HERE EARLY SUNDAY MORNING STAY EXECUTION RUSSEL SCOTT

Was One of City's Oldest Citizens; Funeral Services Conducted This Afternoon

D. D. Haskett died at seven o'clock Sunday morning, at the Pitt Community hospital, following an operation Saturday night. He was one of the oldest and best known citizens of Greenville. He was born in Beaufort county, January 27, 1846, and moved to Greenville about fifty years ago. He was twice married. The first time he married Miss Ada Smith of this county, and to that union was born one son, who died about two years ago. In 1885 he was married the second time to Miss Bessie Anderson, who with three daughters, Mrs. J. L. Ronley of Farmville, Mrs. J. K. Spivey and Miss Deanie Boone Haskett, of New York, survive him.

For years he was a faithful and active member of the Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church, faithfully serving as steward for a long period of time. The funeral was conducted from the late home on Twelfth street this afternoon at four o'clock by the pastor, Rev. L. B. Jones. Interment followed in the Cherry Hill Cemetery. A large number of sorrowing friends attended the funeral and the floral tribute was large and beautiful.

The active pallbearers were: W. S. Dail, B. S. Warren, Hill Horne, J. Key Brown, J. K. Young, Chas. O'H. Horne, W. J. Hardee and F. J. Forbes, and the honorary pallbearers were: T. R. Moore, D. S. Smith, R. Hyman, W. R. Jones, C. T. Munford, James Brown, W. D. Johnson, Wiley Brown, J. L. Little, F. C. Harding, L. C. Arthur, D. D. Overton, W. H. Norris, R. L. Humber, L. S. Hardee, D. C. Beach, A. C.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 11.—(AP)—A writ of error which may result in a stay of execution of Russell T. Scott, under sentence in Chicago to hang for murder next Friday, was issued by the clerk of the supreme court here today.

Should the court approve the issuance of the writ the sentence will be annulled and the case will come up for review of the insanity plea and by appeal from the lower court's verdict.

Scott, who previously was saved from the noose on an insanity plea, was found guilty of killing a Chicago drug clerk during a hold-up. Sent to the hospital for the criminal insane at Chester, he recently was found to be sane and was again sentenced to hang. His brother, Robert, is under life sentence for alleged participation in the crime.

Five Men Go On Trial for Slaying of Bootleg King

Raleigh, Oct. 11.—(INS)—Five men are expected to go on trial in Wake Superior court this week for the slaying of R. B. Dean, Barton Creek's alleged "run king deluxe."

The defendants of Deputy Sheriff W. J. Norwood and four citizens whom he deputized to aid him in capturing the youthful alleged runner. The deputized men were: Alton Mangum, W. E. Murray, Plummer Leonard and Dr. Smith. All are being held under $5,000 bond pending trial.

CARDINALS WON WORLD'S SERIES FROM YANKEES

St. Louis Took Series By Defeating New York Three to Two Score Yesterday

Cardinals Won (By Brian Bell)
New York, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Athletes whose vim and vitality gave the cow bells of St. Louis a chance to ring again when many Missourians feared they were to be forever mute, were bound for St. Louis today, each one figuring how much can be bought with $5,548.51. This sum represents the money to pay each member of the St. Louis Cardinals for winning the World's Series.

The New York Yankees are calculating the purchasing power of $3,417.75 and reflecting that difference in the size of the checks was determined by one $50,000 run. The Cardinals won the World's Series three to two.

A $50,000 strike out was engineered by the old master Alexander. Two plays and a hit by Thelenow also meant money and Yankee miseries were costly. Alexander had no place in the original cast for the seventh game. He started on the bench with the comforting thought of a well pitched victory Saturday and another the previous Sunday. Haines went into the box and until the seventh inning held the Yankees with his knuckle ball. Then in that frame with the bases full and the score three to two he was shocked to discover that he had practically knuckle-balled himself out of the game. He had rubbed all the skin off his fingers and his control was slipping.

The great veteran Alexander shuffled in from the bull pen to the box. He threw four times to Lazzeri. Three strikes and the championship was in St. Louis. After that Alexander turned back all Yankees but Ruth, who was walked when he refused to strike at three balls in the ninth inning.

Thelenow was no less efficient than Alexander. He drove in two runs and with two great fielding plays turned the Yankees back when less efficient work would have spilled the game.

WOOD EXPECTED BE TRIED THIS WEEK

Case Against Kinston Minister for Slaying Convict to Be Heard in Wake County Court

Raleigh, Oct. 11.—(INS)—Rev. George Wood, Kinston minister-deputy, charged with the slaying of J. B. Vickers, state convict, expected to go on trial here during the criminal term of Wake Superior court which convened today.

The Universalist minister is now under $5,000 bond, which was put up by citizens of Kinston and Lenoir county after the parson-deputy was arrested here early in September.

The Rev. Wood was arrested following Vickers' death in the state prison here. Vickers was fatally wounded by the minister-deputy while he was being brought back to the prison from Spartanburg. The minister-guard said that he shot Vickers when he attempted to escape.

The Wood case has tentatively been set for trial on Wednesday.

STATE CHEMIST REPORTS SAMPLES EXAMINED SHOW QUANTITY OF CRUDE OIL

NO VERDICT YET BEEN REACHED IN DAUGHERTY CASE

Jury That Has Had Conspiracy Case Since Friday Was Today Ordered Back to Deliberation

New York, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Having already set a record for length of a deadlock, a federal court jury today was ordered to continue consideration of the Daugherty-Miller conspiracy case by Federal Judge Mack.

Charges of duress and "vile" language in the jury room were made in open court yesterday by a dissenting juror who said that no verdict would be reached until the majority was given the physical assistance of the minority.

Other tribulations of the jury which took the case Friday night were illness of one juror and failure to comprehend the relation of the law to the evidence. Delay also was caused by the loss of two checks which the jurors asked to see. After a long search the checks were found in a waste paper basket in the court room. Federal Attorney Buckner said they were among the most important Government exhibits.

Yesterday Henry Van Ost speaking for the minority on the jury expressed the belief that further deliberation were hopeless.

"You have no idea, your honor," Van Ost said, "what is going on behind that locked jury room door. You can not hear the vile language or understand the duress that is being used. Sooner one or more of us will blow up and bow to the will of the majority and return a verdict based on duress. I ask you if such a verdict will be fair?"

The Judge answered, "No, such a verdict will not be fair, your verdict must be based on your honest belief. You must listen in your opinion. You must listen to the counsels of the others."

Seepage of Oil on the Westbrook Estate in Southern Part of This City Attracting Much Attention

The dream of oil in Eastern North Carolina will no doubt in the near future, develop into a reality and oil in commercial quantities will be produced here as the result of litigation that has been going on for several past few weeks on the estate of Mrs. Jack L. Westbrook, in this city. Specimens of the seepage from flowing wells on the place have been analyzed by the State Department of Agriculture and in a letter to Mrs. Westbrook, State Chemist W. M. Allen, stated that mineral oil, having the appearance of crude oil, as it would come from the ground, was found in the samples submitted by her and that he was very much impressed with the results of the examination. News of the find has created no little interest and persons here are eager to know just what the outcome will be.

In relating the story of her find to a representative of the paper, Mrs. Westbrook described it as more or less an accident and while there are a number of things that could have caused the seepage she is unable to say just what was the direct cause. She purchased the property from Dr. R. L. Carr of this city, early in the summer and since that time there has been much improvement and many changes have been made. Among the improvements were included the drilling of many overflow wells; the building of a sixty-five thousand gallon capacity concrete swimming pool; a general clearing up and draining of the lower part of the estate. The workmen, in attempting to drill one or two of the wells, encountered unpenetrable rock and were forced to give up these locations and place the wells on other parts of the property. During the course of clearing the property of stumps there was an accidental discharge of about thirty pounds of dynamite and whether this had anything to do with the beginning of the seepage is not known.

The presence of oil in the water was found when Mrs. Westbrook had the water analyzed to find out if it was suitable for drinking purposes. Soon the water from the dog kennels contained so much oil that the dogs could not drink it and since that time the other wells about the place have begun to flow a similar greasy substance. The presence of oil is very noticeable on the surface of the swimming pool and in the lakes about the place.

Most of the excitement, however, centers about a small bubbling spring from which there is an escape of gas which will ignite if a match is held close thereto. The theory has been expressed that evidently there is oil in great quantity beneath the earth at the spot which is responsible for the seepage that is now almost continuous.

When asked as to her future plans, Mrs. Westbrook stated that at present her attitude was one of "watchful waiting" pending the advice of experts on the best location for the sinking of the well. Relying on the result of the analysis made by the State Chemist and the encouragement she received on a visit to Raleigh last week she is confident that the oil is there waiting for an opening through which to make its way to the surface.

She has been informed that state representatives will be sent (Continued on page 5)

McLean Delivers Feature Address Sesqui-Centennial

"The distinctive geographic and economic conditions existing in Colonial North Carolina accentuated the individualistic, liberty-loving characteristics of the self-sustaining inhabitants and guaranteed their stubborn resistance to what they regarded as excessive government from any outside source.

As early as the year 1773, the Governor pointed out, North Carolina had observed in the difference between the Mother Country and the American Colonies portents which counseled united action in a common cause. "We thus find," the Chief Executive continued, "The General Assembly of 1773 appointing in November of that year a Committee of Correspondence. When the port of Boston was closed by the Crown in 1774, North Carolina shared fully in the general sentiment; and we find Parker Quince sailing from Wilmington with a ship of provisions, while New Bern and the Albemarle counties dispatched another vessel as a gift to the protesting Colonials."

The Governor told of numerous incidents reflecting the Old North State's resentment to British rule during the pre-Revolutionary days, including the organization of the Committees of Safety, the Eden Tea Party and others.

"Within four months after Lexington," the Governor said, "North Carolina's response had taken the form of declaring for united action with other colonies for independence of British rule, a military action resulting in the burning of Fort Johnson and the expulsion of the Crown Governor. "With equal promptitude the Colony accepted the logic of its action and in August proceeded through convention at Hillsboro to establish a government of the people to take over the authority of the established order if had everthrown. Nor did these patriots blink the fact that they were thereby inviting and accepting war...."

After describing the various movements in North Carolina that preceded the Revolution, the Governor went on to point out that when the struggle itself came, the State fought "valiantly to the end." "Let us remember," he said, that the actual fighting of the War for Independence was incidental as compared with the period of preparation for it. It was not necessarily a period in which men thought in terms of war, but in which the spirit of liberty itself was cultivated...."

"So it becomes us to make of this day a celebration for the purpose of calling to mind the sacrifices made and the victories won by our patriotic ancestors in the great struggle for independence, that the influence of the immortal principles of freedom and liberty given by them to the world in the immortal Declaration was so far-reaching that within a short period after they were proclaimed by the representatives of the weak and insignificant Colonies, they had overthrown nearly every throne on the Continent of Europe and had seen the need which made England herself free, and thus paved the way for the advent of that Great Commonwealth of Free Nations now known as the British Empire; and that within 150 years those same principles have been the means of wresting from autocratic control practically every nation in the world."

"It behooves us also to make of this day a day of dedication that we may dedicate ourselves anew to the great task of making America a nation where all the forces of the world may turn for refreshment and strength in the spiritual home of democracy where the average man may successfully wage his earnest struggle in defense of his inalienable rights—life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness."

Immediately after his address, North Carolina's Governor placed a wreath at the Pylon erected and dedicated to the North Carolina signers of the Declaration of Independence.

A legend on the wreath read: "The State of North Carolina; In grateful remembrance of the services of her delegates who signed the Declaration of Independence—Hewes, Hooper, and Penn."

The North Carolina Day exercises also included the singing of "Carolina," the presentation of a North Carolina flag by the North Carolina Women's Sesqui-Centennial Committee, as a memorial to be kept among the archives of the 13 original states at Philadelphia.

Following the Governor's address over Station WIP tonight, a banquet will be given in honor of the Governor and the North Carolina Sesqui-Centennial Committee, by Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brooks, of Greensboro.

HOT SPRINGS PLANS TO CELEBRATE ITS LEGENDS

Hot Springs, Ark., Oct. 9.—(AP)—The atmosphere of a day when Indian tribes the country over held the land of the hot waters sacred, believing that their Great Spirit presided therein, will be revived in a centennial celebration here in 1932, commemorating the 100th anniversary of the creation of Hot Springs National Park.

Authentic Spanish records now show that Hernando de Soto and his band of explorers visited the thermal pools in 1541. Legend also has it that the hot springs of Arkansas were the famed objective of Ponce de Leon, when in 1514 he sought the "Fountain of Youth."

The park was formed in 1832 by a special act of Congress. It contains 36 radio-active thermal springs.

The history of the springs will be unfolded in a huge pageant, as a feature of the celebration. A thousand persons will participate in the spectacle, sponsored by the local Chamber of Commerce.

CO-EDUCATION FINALLY PERMITTED IN FRANCE

Paris, Oct. 8 (AP) Coeducation, at least to a limited extent has at last been granted to the secondary schools of France. For years the question of mixed classes of boys and girls has agitated the French educational world, with the "antis" holding the whip hand.

Now, in certain boys' secondary schools, it is to be admitted to all classes, girls are to be admitted to all classes. If the system works out, it may be extended.

MRS. W. A. WOOLEN ENTERTAINS

Pretty Tea Complimentary to Brides-Elect

Mrs. W. A. Woolen entertained a large number of friends, Friday afternoon from four to six o'clock, at a pretty tea, complimentary to Miss Rosewood Flanagan, Miss Hannah Dixon and Miss Emily Moye, fall brides-elect. The lower floor of the Woolen home en suite was beautifully decorated to carry out the yellow and white color scheme. Yellow dahlias and gladioli were used in profusion. The lights were shaded with yellow and numerous yellow candles were used throughout the home.

As the guests arrived they were met at the front door and cordially welcomed by Mrs. K. B. Pace, Mrs. W. W. Lee and Mrs.

In silver candlesticks, here an ice course, salted nuts and mints carrying out the yellow and white color scheme was served by Misses Alice Lee Hooker, Louisa Hooker, Mary Harding, Mary Blanche Patrick, A. James, Hennie Long, Anna Long, Rose Hadley, and Willie Skinner.

OUR SATURDAY NIGHT MEDITATION

MAKE IT A SUCCESS

While the country people this year are taking more interest than ever before in the Pitt County Fair, and have brought in the greatest agricultural exhibit ever before put on at any fair in Eastern Carolina, this feature alone cannot make a fair unless crowds attend the fair to see these exhibits the efforts of the farmers who furnished them will have been in vain.

Naturally every citizen in our city is interested in what our county is doing and the Pitt County Fair this week is the place to see some of the products from every section.

Attend the fair, let the people who have furnished the exhibits know you are interested in them, and let the visitors from other cities and counties know from your presence that you are behind the Pitt County Fair.

COLUMBUS DAY AND PAN AMERICA

The 12th of October is the only date which has equal significance for all the Americas, and therefore it is peculiarly fitting that on this day we should pause to consider what we have in common with the other republics of the New World.

We are too prone to note the differences in language, customs and cultural manifestations, and forget those deep-seated aspirations and attitudes which are characteristic of the New World peoples.

calling of the first peace conference at The Hague. Since 1890, when the Pan American Union was established, there has been a succession of Pan American gatherings, dealing with almost every phase of life—from the broad questions of international law, science, economic and commercial relations, to those matters that touch the daily life of the people—the press, the school, the beneficent work of the Red Cross, and the protection of childhood.

The Latin American republics are making such astounding progress commercially and economically that from a material point of view it would be folly for the United States not to cultivate its natural friendship with them.

In honoring the memory of Columbus, then, we may well reflect on our common American heritage, our common American ideals and our common American destiny.

Old Saloons of Dawson Yield Forgotten Riches

Dawson, Yukon, Oct. 11.—(AP)—The roaring, swabbing days of Dawson's gold rush live only in the memories of the old timers, but the follies of the boom years, when thousands flocked here in quiet of buried riches are beginning to bear a golden harvest.

Gold dust was the camp's only medium of exchange in those days. It was plentiful and flowed freely and carelessly across the bars of dance halls and saloons. Some of the old palaces of merriment have been torn down for fuel by the dwindling contingent of prospectors who remain here.

CABLE LETTER

London, Oct. 9.—(AP)—Now that the cross word puzzle, which swept across England from America leaving a trail of thumbed copyists in its wake, has spent its force, England has turned to Peter-Piperisms for solace.

Peter piperisms are alliterative sentences containing at least 8 and not more than 12 words, each word of which begins with the same letter.

"Since short skirts still seem sleek, silk stockings shouldn't sag," is the contribution of one expert. Another hopes "may many more miners migrate, marry methodical maids, much money."

Other tongue twisters are: "Mr. Manager, money might make Maud marry my miserable Max—Max's mother;" "Stephen, shyly stroking Sylvia's shiding shingle, seemingly surmises smiling Sylvia's single, and Lily Likes like's licorice."

Lady Hoare, wife of Sir Samuel Hoare, secretary of state for air, will accompany her husband on an air flight from London to India late this year. The trip will be the first flight over the new Egypt-India route, planned by the Imperial Airways, Ltd.

Gossip is to have a recognized center in London. The new theatre is being transformed into an amusement center similar to the Potinierre in Paris. Both the stage and auditorium are to be altered to make the place more intimate, and the management will be altered each week so as to include gossip of London, England, and the whole world, in fact.

Bond Street's newest offerings in coats for women have bloused backs, which women of fashion are accepting as a welcome change from the wooden soldier type of back which has been in vogue.

Black is a favored color in the new coats which are offered in various soft materials trimmed with fur. Caracul is especially in vogue.

Paris, Oct. 9.—(AP)—Newly weds are up in arms against the recent edict limiting restaurant meals to two dishes, since a restaurant has been the essential part of most French celebrations at weddings. It generally consisted of ten, twelve and even fourteen courses. The governmental limit to two courses, has turned weddings banquets to comparatively lenten functions.

The feasting by the wedding party generally began immediately after the ceremonies at the city hall and church, about one o'clock. It continued uninterrupted until five when the party drove tain resorts, during September, the "great penitence" however, was on the surface only. Favored with July and August weather, September was one of the banner months of past holiday season. The pleasure resorts were completely filled up until its last day and the visitors were spending money with great liberality were not foreigners, but natives, as yet seemingly untouched by the shadow of the coming days of depression.

"Young men study for the priesthood," is one of the two signs displayed prominently at the doors of almost every church in the Savoie department.

Theater deals with women's fashions and reads: "Ye who enter here must be decently dressed."

The appeal to young men to become priests is followed by this explanation:

"The war has killed 4,618 priests and church scholars and emptied the seminaries where youths were studying to become priests. Ten thousand parishes are without priests and there is only one priest for every 1,661 souls in France and he is often a very old man."

The warning to women is not elucidated.

Berlin, October 9.—(AP)—An attempt to solve the housing shortage by curtailing Cupid's activities is being made in Waldenburg by Director Schade of the Municipal housing commission.

A warning which the commission is sending to all couples whose marriage intentions are posted in the city hall in accordance with the law reads:

"Don't get married. If you do, you will be forced to live with in-laws. You know what that means. There is no such thing as a 'home of your own.' The commission cannot promise you a place in which to live alone for 8 or 10 years."

The commission controls absolutely the allocation of living quarters, determining even the number of rooms each family is entitled to.

German reviewers and critics who long have sung the praises of Walter Whitman are unanimous in applauding the fact that "America at last has seen fit to memorialize its greatest poet with a statue in New York. Some of the writers go so far as to see in the creation of the monument the beginning of a general appreciation of the work of an American long admired in Germany."

A curious wedding custom is observed in the industrial city of Goerlitz about midway between Berlin and Breslau. On the day before the wedding ceremony, bride and groom walk to the cemetery and visit the graves of all departed relatives. The visit is regarded as an invitation to the deceased to be present in spirit at the wedding. It is considered that unless departed relatives are so invited, the marriage will be unhappy.

Labor Again After Shortening of Hours

Detroit, Oct. 9.—AP—The American Federation of Labor today voted unanimously to begin a nation wide campaign for the "progressive shortening of the hours of labor and the days per week." The action was recommended by the Executive committee.

The delegates strengthened the financial position of the federation by approving a constitutional amendment increasing the monthly per capita tax from 25 to 435 cents for each affiliated member and increasing the federations minimum per centage of local unions initiation fees from 75 cents to $1.00 each member.

10,000 CULINARY IDEAS PROMISED AT FOOD SHOW

Los Angeles, Oct. 9 (INS)—More than 10,000 discoveries in the culinary art of the household were promised today as part of the Third Annual Food and Household show which runs from October 25th to 30th in the Ambassador Hotel auditorium. Culinary technicians from 37 states will attend for the purpose of placing their experiences at the call of Southern California housewives.

There are 12,749 ways of cooking the lowly egg, officially in charge of the show revealed, and most of these will be demonstrated. The exposition will be virtually a recipe exchange for home kitchen workers.

MRS. ROSE IN SANFORD

Mrs. J. H. Rose is in Sanford, N. C., this week as a member of the faculty of the Standard Training School for Sunday School workers. She will return to Greenville Saturday.

JOHN ROBINSON'S CIRCUS IN THIS SECTION THIS WEEK

John Robinson's Circus, pioneer "white top" of the world is coming to Greenville, Friday, Oct. 15, and Washington, Saturday, Oct. 16, for afternoon and night performances and circus lovers of this vicinity are looking forward with great interest to the appearance in this community of this famous old show.

For the 1926 tour, the 103 in the history of the organization, John Robinson has arranged a program that is bubbling over with features and extraordinary attractions. From the Far East, Europe, South America and practically every country and climate, performers and animals have been imported. Now as always, John Robinson will give the best circus performance that money and brains can assemble.

Such noted trainers of the steel arena as Capt. Theodore Theo Schrage, Lone Carle, Bert Noyes, Margart Thompson, Carl Bruce, and Dewey Butler will send their jungle charges through remarkable routines. Another special attraction will be Carlor Carreon's contingent of Wild West Champions, including cowboys, cow girls and a tribe of Sioux Indians from the Pine Ridge reservations in South Dakota. Regular circus features and acts will also have prominent places on the lengthy program. The Rudy Rudynoff family of Equestrians from Austria; the Ben Mohamid Arabs from Arabia; the four Barron girls from England; Senozita Piedad Morales from Mexico; Reno McCree Troupe from Australia; Petite Tetu from Japan, and the Eddys from London are but a few of the noted acts. Crown alleys will have a contingent of fifty famous fun makers, boys who know the art of extracting chuckles and grins from young and old. Slivers, Johnson, Jack Harris, Ate Goldstein, George Harmon, the Simmons Twins, Jack Fenton, Joe O'Brien, and Joe Wilds are but a few of the famous "merry makers."

FAMOUS FRENCH RECIPES

Paris, Oct. 11.—(INS)—Grilled Tomatoes a l'Americaine, as they prepare them in France are quite delicious.

Take large firm tomatoes and cut into rather thick slices.

Grill on both sides over a hot fire. Five or six minutes will suffice if the fire is hot enough and thus they lose none of their juice.

During this time, put into a small casserole a small lump of butter for each slice of tomato, salt, pepper, pinch of sugar and a small spoonful of moistened mustard.

Put a little melted butter into the bottom of a very hot serving dish. Put in the tomatoes and cover with the rest of the butter-sauce. Serve very hot.

HAITI PEACEFUL, PUB. DEBT LOWER

San Francisco, Oct. 11.—(INS)—The little island of Haiti, once a hotbed of revolution, has been converted into a peaceful and prosperous republic under American direction, according to Dr. Elwood Mead, of Berkeley, Cal., commissioner of reclamation who has just returned from a visit there.

In the past year the public debt was reduced $2,500,000 and public income increased $2,500,000, Dr. Mead advised in a letter to the secretary of the interior.

High tribute to the officials who have been responsible for bringing about this condition was paid by Dr. Mead. Among these officials were President Louis Borno; W. W. Cumberland, financial adviser; Commander F. H. Cooke, U. S. N., public works; Dr. C. S. Butlers, sanitary engineer, and Knowles Byerson, bureau of agriculture technique.

The first task was to bring honesty and efficiency into the administration of the Haitian government, Dr. Mead said. The next step was to create conditions which would make healthful and orderly living possible.

Today Port Au Prince is as clean and sanitary as is Washington, D. C., Mead declared.

EVERY PIECE OF PLANE SALVAGED AT AIR POST

Dayton, O., Oct. 7 (AP)—One of the busiest and most important departments of the Army Air Service at McCook field here is the salvage department.

When an air plane becomes unsafe for flying or is damaged in an accident to an extent that makes it unsafe, it goes to the salvage department. Every part, every piece of material that holds the slightest promise of future service is taken from the ship, inspected and either used again or sold. The discarded ship is stripped of every thing that is valuable and only a husk remains.

SUICIDES INCREASE IN SOVIET UNION

Moscow, Oct. 11.—(INS)—Suicides in the Soviet Union have increased nearly 400 per cent since the revolution, according to statistics compiled and just published by the Central Statistical Bureau.

The official figures show that there are now nearly 400 suicides per million of population per year, whereas at the beginning of the century there were but 73 suicides per million and just before the revolution there were but 106 per million.

The suicide rate began mounting with the introduction of the New Economic Policy in 1921. In the years 1917 to 1921 there were only 68 suicides per million. This was the time when the whole population was fighting desperately for its life in civil war and famine.

MEMPHIS NEGRO TWICE BURIED

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 8.—INS—Pink Martin, negro corpse, was buried twice.

While being borne to the church for his last rites, the hearse collided with a big truck, filled with dirt, which overturned burying the hearse and corpse in the street.

Workmen with shovels soon dug out the corpse and the coffin was taken to the graveyard in a truck and the burial ceremony completed.

Gossip of Staff Correspondents at World Centers of Population.

Moscow, Oct. 11.—(INS)—Russians are rapidly acquiring a taste for western sports. They have learned the proper method of handling an umpire, or referee as the case may be. Before the Moscow provincial court has just been tried the case of two enthusiastic football fans who, in the moment of defeat, blamed it on the referee and beat him up so badly that he spent two weeks in a hospital.

The 'Russakabel' boys made the mistake of kicking one of his opponents in the ribs while the referee was looking. Referee Yousefovich put him out of the game. With the boys of Trotsky, the 'Kor' boys had no difficulty in carrying off the bacon. The score ended in their favor 3 to 1. But the crowd, which often numbers up to 10,000 at big Moscow games, and this instance was unusually large elected to continue the match on its own accord. Flocking on the field, the 'Russakabel' supporters surround-city and community and while I am certain that the oil is there, I do not want to see the people lose their heads and their money over the prospects of becoming rich over-night, so to speak, and let a lot of gamblers and slick tongued stock salesmen take their money from them. This will be the biggest thing that has ever happened at Greenville, and it is my plan to do everything possible to help make it such.

The letter from the State Department of Agriculture signed by W. M. Allen, State Chemist, follows:

"Mrs. Jack L. Westbrook, Greenville, N. C.

"Dear Mrs. Westbrook:

"We have examined the sample of water containing the oily matter left with us by you. "From the contents of the quart jar which was not quite full of the water, etc., was extracted about ten cubic centimeters of mineral oil, which we are sending to you. It has the appearance of crude oil as same would look coming from the ground. "We made no effort to refine or purify the oil. "I am much impressed with the results of the examination of the product, as well as with what you say about the source of same. "Very truly yours, "W. M. ALLEN, "State Chemist.

ed the lonely referee and gave him a bad fifteen minutes. After police made a flying wedge and rescued the unfortunate official he was carried off the field unconscious. Two of the chief agitators tried for assault, have just been sentenced to three months in prison.

More than 900 persons a day are now visiting the Moscow Pasteur Institute to be treated for incipient rabies caused by the bites of mad animals. The crowd of applicants is so much larger than the capacity of the institution that appeal has been made for more funds.

The present epidemic of hydrophobia among domestic animals, is blamed by experts on the extraordinary number of mad wolves which appeared this summer on the outskirts of Moscow and other large cities. Squads of hunters sent out by the government to exterminate the wolves report little success. Their dogs, ordinarily brave in the face of wolves show terror at the sight of mad wolves and refuse to fight. The few which fail to run fast enough are bitten by the mad wolves and thus transmit the infection to the whole dog population.

According to the General Statistical Bureau, the damage caused by wolves during the year just closing October 1 amounted to $25,000,000 throughout the Union. More than 1,000,000 head of domestic animals were killed by wolves during the year.

If wolves cost the peasants great loss, embezzlers cost the government still more. In the city of Leningrad alone, the Attorney General has just reported embezzlements for the last six months cost the municipality $2,000,000.

Five of them have been executed for the killing. And now a decree abolishes the laws that Anna opposed. No more polygamy, no more 'exploitation of women' or sale of infant girls in marriage, will be permitted. She won, after all.

Pittsburgh police will stop all Sunday sports today. No baseball, football golf, tennis, public or private. Councilman Malone of Pittsburgh wants sports encouraged with municipal playgrounds open Sunday, 'in the interest of public health and morals.' Now you cannot even ride horseback on Sunday in a Pittsburgh park.

The squirrels will continue to race up and down the trees, however, the sparrows will hop, and the lambs kick up their little hind legs. The Lord apparently thinks Sunday exercise is good for them, since He allows it.
