AMERICAN AND BRITISH SUBJECTS REPORTED TO BE FLEEING FROM CHINA

Sixty-five American Missionaries Arrive at Manila Aboard Destroyer

Peking, Jan. 21.—(AP)—The anti-foreign situation at Hankow has developed seriously since a telegram received today from unofficial foreign sources. One thousand American and British men are leaving, the telegram says. There is no official confirmation of the telegram from private sources of the evacuation of the American and British men who had remained at Hankow after sending their women and children to Shanghai and elsewhere for safety after riotous demonstrations by Chinese mobs December 3 and 4. American and British warships today lay in the river opposite Hankow ready to assist their fellow countrymen if necessary.

Washington, Jan. 21.—(AP)—The American destroyer Parrott has gone from Shanghai to Foochow where foreigners have been threatened and churches looted. Word of the arrival of the Parrott has not reached the Navy Department.

Manila, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Sixty-five American missionaries, refugees from Foochow, arrived here today aboard the U. S. Destroyer Pillsbury, with stories of anti-foreign demonstrations in Chinese cities that resulted in violence to American and British women.

The refugee party, made up of 31 women, 31 children and three men from the Methodist, Baptist and Congregational missions of Foochow. The majority are Methodists. Among them were Mrs. E. G. Price, wife of the American Consul at Foochow, and her four children. Mrs. Price said the outbreak started when the bodies of babies in a convent there, who had died of cholera, were carried out while a riot was in progress. Seeing the bodies and not knowing the cause of the deaths, the Chinese ran wild and the convent was stormed and looted.

Washington, Jan. 21.—(AP)—American Minister MacMurray, enroute home for conference with Secretary Kellogg, has been intercepted by cablegrams and ordered back to Peking as a result of the increasing seriousness of anti-foreign demonstrations and riots in China.

Shanghai, Jan. 21.—(AP)—A dispatch from Hankow says 27 American missionaries were leaving parts of the province for Hankow. Twenty-five other missionaries had arrived here yesterday.

The radicals were said to be insisting on continued violent measures against foreigners despite official attempts to obtain revision of China's present treaties through diplomatic channels.

Plans Being Made For Social Service Meet in Raleigh

Raleigh, Jan. 21.—(INS)—Plans are being whipped into shape here for the 15th annual conference of the North Carolina Social Service Conference February 9 to 10 inclusive. The conference will be preceded by the annual meeting of the North Carolina Association of County Superintendents of Public Welfare on Tuesday, February 8th.

One of the features of the conference, according to a tentative program announced here today, will be an address by Edward Hunt, assistant secretary of commerce. He is considered one of the foremost authorities on industrial conditions in the United States. Group discussions of welfare workers in various private and public welfare organizations will also be held.

REMOVE LOUD SPEAKERS FROM STREETS OF PARIS

Paris, Jan. 19.—(INS)—Little midnights will no longer spend a part of their lunch hour in front of the radio shops listening to the free concerts provided by the loud speakers which broadcast their music on every street corner of the shopping district. M. Berthier, Director of Circulation, has given orders to remove all the loud speakers in the streets declaring that traffic is only too difficult to direct as matters stand now, without people blocking up the sidewalks. Then, too, he remarks, the noise of the capital is certainly sufficient without this music.

REV. FRANK NORRIS TAKES THE STAND IN OWN DEFENSE

Pastor of Fort Worth Church Relates Story of Slaying of Lumberman

REV. FRANK NORRIS, pastor of the Baptist church in Fort Worth, Texas, Jan. 21.—(AP)—The Reverend Frank Norris took the witness stand today in his trial for the killing of Dexter E. Chisum, a wholesale lumberman, who was killed by Norris in the latter's office in Fort Worth last July 17. The pastor coughed as he took the stand. He said he was 49 years old, was born in Alabama and his parents moved to Texas in 1889. The pastor said he preached while attending the university at Waco, Texas, from which he was graduated and traced his ministry down to his pastorate at Fort Worth, where he had been pastor of the Baptist church for 18 years.

The defense drew from the witness the statement that he knew Mayor Meacham, of Fort Worth, but had never met and never knew Chisum prior to July 17, last. A controversy between Meacham and Norris in 1920 was touched upon briefly as was a conversation between the two in 1922. Then the state's suggestion in questions to relate the conversation was dropped.

Norris testified he was the editor of the Searchlight, his church paper. When he attempted to reply to a question as to whether he wrote an editorial in the Searchlight attacking Meacham as freemason of the grand jury in 1922, the state suggested that it had nothing to do with the case. The judge then called the lawyers to the bench for a conference.

Norris coughed frequently and his voice was weak making it difficult to hear his testimony.

Advance Theory Gallant Lover Murdered Couple

Birmingham, Ala., Jan. 21.—(AP)—The theory that a gallant lover shot down A. B. Moore, 40 Southern Railway Supervisor of Safety and Sanitation, and then fatally wounded Mrs. Thorn Thornton, 33, as she fled from the scene of her companion's death on a lonely road near Birmingham, was advanced by detectives today. Moore had been killed by a shotgun discharged directly in his face. Mrs. Thornton's body was 75 feet away. She had evidently tried to flee as the wound was in the back of her head.

2 COUNTRIES EXPECTED AT PAN-PACIFIC MEET

Washington, Jan. 19.—(AP)—Plans are going forward at the Interior Department for the Pan-Pacific Conference on Education, Rehabilitation, Reclamation and the week beginning April 11. The conference, authorized by Congress for the purpose of fostering friendly relations between the United States and the nations bordering on the Pacific or having territorial interests in the Pacific, is expected to be attended by some 25 countries. While it was intended primarily for the benefit of the Pacific countries, any nation desiring to participate may do so, and requests already have been received from Great Britain and India.

POLICE WEAR SPATS BUT METHODS ALIKE

Bucharest, Jan. 18.—(AP)—The "apat squadron" was the title given by the American correspondents who came to Roumania with the return of Queen Marie to the detectives assigned to shadowing the newspapermen from overseas. It seemed that the distinguishing feature of the plain clothes Roumanian policemen, instead of the traditional big feet in America or an umbrella as in France, consists of spats. Ninety one out of a hundred plain clothes men in Bucharest wear spats. Their methods, however, are not always as mild as their appearance, as one cameraman with blackened eyes attested.

COMMITTEE FLAYS ADMINISTRATION WOMAN GOVERNOR TRIAL OF NEGRO FOR MURDER GETS UNDER WAY TODAY

Describe Ferguson Policy as Indiscriminate, Disgraceful and Superliberal

Austin, Texas, Jan. 21.—(AP)—The terms disgraceful, indiscriminate and superliberal were applied to the pardoning policy of former Governor "Ma" Ferguson, a special legislative committee which is investigating the State Department reported today.

Governor Ferguson granted 3,575 clemencies in her term which expired Tuesday. The activities of her husband, James E. Ferguson, about the office of the Governor also were denounced in the report. "Not in the history of the state has there been such a disgraceful disregard for the proper and just punishment of criminals and the safeguard of the people and property of this state," the report said in regard to the pardons.

THINKS GREEKS PLAYED BASEBALL OVER 1300 YEARS AGO OR MORE

New Haven, Conn., Jan. 20.—(INS)—Athenian youths of the year who lived in the year 27 included in games not unlike those of American youths in the year 1927. In the opinion of Professor V. C. Bair, curator of classical archaeology at Yale University, Professor Bair bases his belief on his study of three bases, four statues recently found in a wall in Athens. One base is marked with reliefs representing a game of baseball with three players on a side, says Professor Bair. On another is seen a game similar to hockey. A third game would be considered without the law in these days. On a third are two youths, one holding a dog in leash, the other a cat. Lounging spectators eagerly watch the outcome. There were other discoveries made in Athens. Perhaps the most remarkable discovery of recent times, says the professor, is the bronze original by Phidias himself of a standing youthful figure found at Pompeii. The statue probably was purchased by an aristocratic enthusiast to adorn his house. Latter some plebeian Pompeian got possession of it and used it as a lamp shade.

SUIT AGAINST THE AMERICAN TOB. CO IN JURY'S HANDS

Damage Suit for $50,000 Brought by G. J. Trippe Went to Jury Before Noon Today

The Trippe damage suit against the American Tobacco Company for $50,000 was still in the hands of the jury this afternoon after nearly five hours deliberation. The case went to the jury shortly after ten o'clock this morning, but at three o'clock this afternoon no decision had been reached and there was no indication as to the standing of the jury. The case against the tobacco company was brought by G. J. Trippe as a result of personal injuries received when he was shot by the night watchman of the company several months ago. Trippe's injuries confined him to the hospital for some time and physicians testified at the trial that he had sustained permanent injury as a result of the wound. The hearing in the case was begun before Judge E. N. Cranmer Wednesday morning and consumed two and a half days of the week's sessions. Argument before the jury was begun late yesterday and concluded this morning. Following the judge's charge the jury retired with the case between ten and eleven o'clock.

FOUR CONVICTED ELECTION FRAUDS IN PENNSYLVANIA

Two Election Officers and Two Others Convicted for Making False Returns

Pittsburgh, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Two Pittsburgh election officers were convicted today of making fraudulent returns at the May primary. Two others were convicted of the same charge and all of the defendants, three women and one man were likewise acquitted of conspiracy to make false returns. The criminal prosecution followed a contest of the official count of votes cast for the Republican nomination for the State Legislature.

More Opinions Expected From Supreme Court

Raleigh, Jan. 21.—(INS)—One more batch of opinions is expected to be handed down by the North Carolina Supreme Court before it convenes for the spring term on the last day of January. The opinions are expected to be handed down on Wednesday, January 27, it was announced by Chief Justice Stacey today. An opinion in the Buncombe county flogging case, involving the constitutionality of the special laws allowing flogging of convicts in certain counties, probably will be handed down, it was learned.

COMMITTEES TO LAUNCH FIGHT FOR FIRE PREVENTION BILL

Raleigh, Jan. 21.—(INS)—Joint committees of the House and Senate on insurance are planning to launch another fight to get a fire prevention bill through the 1927 General Assembly, it was learned today. The committees have requested Insurance Commissioner Stacey Wade and State Fire Engineer Sherwood Brockwell to outline a "reasonable bill" and submit it to the committee next Wednesday.

MIDWESTERNERS MOST ARDENT MOVIE FANS

TODAY

A Few News Spots We Don't Know Kemal. Learn From Flatheads. Gary To Live Longer (By Arthur Brisbane)

Spots in the news that will interest you are these: It looks like arbitration in Mexico. Almost anything is better than war. Buying all the slaves at $1,000 each would have been cheaper than the Civil War.

The Senate is trying not to admit Senator Smith of Illinois to its exalted membership. But Senator Smith represents the people of Illinois, not the Senate of the United States, and the people of Illinois knew all about him when they voted.

Charles Chaplin, never very heavy, has lost 18 pounds since his latest worries began. The worst illness is mental illness. Chaplin, who has made millions happy and never made anybody unhappy, would seem to have a just complaint against fate.

Britain won't give up Chinese and other Asiatic markets without displaying some of that "bulldog pluck." More marines, more ships are sent to remind the Chinese that British factories need outlets.

The Senate rejects the Lusann Treaty, so this country remains cut off from official acquaintance with Turkey and that energetic dictator, Kemal Pasha. The treaty is rejected because it doesn't provide adequate protection for Christians, or any solution of the eternal Armenian question. The rejection of the treaty is largely a triumph for Christian missionaries.

The Missouri legislature considers a bill to prevent teaching any doctrine of evolution that might contradict "the first and second chapters of Genesis." A Fundamentalist clergyman whose son is entering the ministry, announces that he is watching him closely to make sure that no modernist ideas enter his brain.

That conscientious father might get an idea from the flathead Indians. They fasten a board against the baby's head when it is born, keep it there, and make sure that the head stays flat.

The Soviet government approves a new dance, a dignified "lancers," danced to a gallop tune. Still young Bolshevik practice the forbidden Charleston secretly. If you can't keep youth from picking up new dance steps, how will you keep it from picking up new philosophical ideas? You can't do it, LUCKILY.

Dr. D. G. Reid's estate amounts to "only" $5,000,000—pitifully small sum for one called "rich." His daughter will draw the income on his property until she is fifty years old, and then get the principal. Fifty is the age at which women, if ever, learn to keep what they have. With men, that age comes later.

Twenty was the average age at which men died in the year 1650. In 1850 the average age was forty. In 1875 it was forty-five, and now it is fifty-eight. The able Dr. Mayo supplies those figures. With the right kind of living, ten years can be added to present average, and we begin wise living at the right age. The famous Luigi Cornaro, however, given up to die after forty, lived wisely and passed 100.

American business men, Dr. Mayo says, "lack girth control." Too much fat means shorter life. The dangerous age for women is sixteen to eighteen. The dangerous age for men is from fifty to fifty-five. At that age he becomes foolish.

Little things are important in big things. Mr. Blume, president of the Western Electric Company tells you that telephoning across the Atlantic Ocean is made possible by a small object manufactured from rochet salts. And now the British manual for royal air force pilots orders them to chew gum as they come down from high altitudes. Chewing gum creates saliva, and that keeps the flier swallowing. The act of swallowing relieves pressure on the air drums. "Fearfully and wonderfully made," is correct.

MAJOR STEADMAN TO CELEBRATE HIS 86TH BIRTHDAY Major Charles M. Steadman, oldest member of the House of Representatives, will celebrate his 86th birthday on January 28. He fought under General Lee in the War Between the States.

STATEWIDE GAME LAW PRESENTED ASSEMBLY TODAY

Measure Would Regulate Hunting and Preservation of Wildlife in State

Raleigh, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Introduction of a statewide game law in the House formed the principal business of the General Assembly today. Representative Sutton, Lenoir county, presented the game bill. He also put in the House a bill amending the law creating the judicial conference. Other new bills were local.

Arguing for his "blue law" bills, the Reverend Oscar Haywood, made an impassioned plea for the country church. "We would make a paradise of Montgomery county on Sunday," he said. "Our people are looking with anguish on the passing of the country church and this bill is for their protection."

A bill to provide more effective prohibition law enforcement in Jackson, Swain and Transylvania counties was tabled for an amendment. A bill introduced by Younce, of Guilford, providing for repealing of an old law prohibiting cafes in certain districts of greater Greensboro remaining open on Sundays, was passed with out reference to committee and was sent to the Senate.

Three of the four new bills introduced in the Senate today were important statewide measures. One was the general pension bill offered by Senator Woodson, Rowan. The bill reduces the classifications from four to two for the soldiers and one for the widows. A statewide game bill providing for uniform regulations for hunting and the protection of wild game featured the House session. It was introduced by Representative Sutton, of Lenoir county.

It was modeled in part from statutes in other states and was very satisfactory in other states and with consideration of local conditions in North Carolina. The bill has received the approval of officers of the North Carolina Game and Fish League and of the Department of Conservation and Development. Acting under appointment and direction of the state game commission, the bill would authorize a state game warden at a salary not to exceed $5,000 a year.

The committee on roads reported favorably on bills to prohibit the use of smoke screens on vehicles; to build a bridge across the Virginia border; to require manufacturers of automobiles to adjust headlights according to the state laws. The road committee also reported several local bills favorably.

Miss McLean, Mecklenburg county, reported for the Education Committee, that it had considered favorably the bill that would prohibit the use of the name of a denominational college with a public dance. The Rev. Oscar Haywood, Montgomery county, asked that his marriage ban bill be recalled from the Judiciary Committee and referred to the Public Welfare Committee, but his request was voted down.

WOULD OPPOSE USE ARMY BY COOLIDGE BETWEEN SESSIONS

Want No Use of Armed Forces Against Mexico During Recess of Congress

Washington, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Under a resolution introduced today by Senator Frazier, Republican of North Dakota, the Senate would go on record as opposing the use by the president of armed forces against Mexico during the recess of Congress. The Robinson resolution suggesting arbitration in the oil disputes with Mexico was approved today by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee 13 to 3.

ASHEVILLE POSTAL RECEIPTS SHOWN BIG INCREASE Asheville, Jan. 21.—(INS)—Postal receipts for the Asheville postoffice totaled $355,775.97 in 1926, the largest in the local office's history. Twenty-six years ago the total was $36,515.00.

OUTSIDE WORKERS BLAZING WAY TO LEADING PRIZES

Pactolus, Leens, Falkland and Winterville Entrants Have Had Banner Week So Far

All in all the week so far has been a gala one for the workers entered in the Daily Reflector subscription contest. Entrants from neighboring towns for the most part, seem to be blazing the way to victory, and the leading prizes and commission checks total in all close to $3,000. Pactolus, Winterville, Leens and Falkland this year have strong representatives competing, while Greenville itself has one of the strongest array of ambitious workers ever entered in similar campaigns.

For the outside contestants the fireworks for this week were started by Mrs. Sugg Fleming, who entered at the very start of the race for the $1,535 Studebaker Sedan, Chevrolet Co. and the various cash prizes and commission checks. This good work was followed with something a little better from the strong entrant from Leens, Miss Martha Congleton, who is receiving help from the members of her immediate family.

Better than all others for the week, however, comes the report of Mrs. John Carroll of Winterville, who is making rapid progress toward one of the automobiles to be awarded at the close of February 12th. Mrs. Carroll has previously made better weekly reports than this last one, but this report in question has been an accounting for the work done during the first half of the week only. These workers mentioned as well as others will not doubt make another report before the week is out.

Another surprise and fine showing by an outside worker came yesterday from Miss Annie Mayo with her co-worker, and another friend, called at the campaign office and rendered her second best report of the entire campaign. Things certainly looked bright for the contestants from outside territory yesterday.

But while workers listed from territory outside of Greenville were having their innings yesterday, it is hoped an expected that the Greenville candidates were not asleep and that their reports to be made at the close of business tomorrow will testify to that. A splendid report has already been received from Mrs. A. E. Gorman, Jr., who has proved right along one of the strongest workers, while other reports have been checked in from Miss Irma Cox, Miss Louise Jones (subscription sent in by friend) and Mrs. J. B. Roberts.

SHABBY PARIS PEOPLE HAVE GOLD IN "SOCK"

Paris, Jan. 19.—(INS)—All who look poor are not needy in France. That many a shabby person has a sock filled with gold has been twice proved recently. At Orleans, an old woman of eighty years was found inanimate in her little house dying of cold and hunger. After she had been taken to the hospital, the police went to look over her things and found an old stocking filled with 18,000 gold francs and twice as many silver ones.

BUILDING PERMITS IN ASHEVILLE SET NEW HIGH RECORD

Asheville, Jan. 21.—(INS)—Building permits issued by the city of Asheville in 1926 totaled $9,299,546, the largest in the city's history, and an increase over 1925 of $3,276,536, it was learned here today. Charleston Lands Berth in Southeastern Ball League—Headline. More scandal, the Southeastern ball players are taking up the "Charleston" anon.

Ship Railway 117 Across Mexico to Biggest Vessels

New York, Jan. 20. (INS)—A "ship railway" across the entire span of the Isthmus of Tehuantepec, in the southernmost part of Mexico, with sufficient capacity for hauling the largest of the world's present-day seagoing vessels, now is the dream of European capitalists, according to plans revealed here today in an exclusive interview with International News Service.

The program calling for the construction of this latest and most novel feat of engineering on the Western Hemisphere, which for the past three years has occupied the attention of some of the Old World's most brilliant civil and mechanical engineering minds, hinges solely upon the final granting of a concession now under consideration by the Mexican Government to bring about its realization.

According to Messrs. Rudolf Wassermann and Heinrich Pasch, eminent German scientific engineers, at one time associated with the late Hugo Stinnes of Germany, and who now are in New York on route to Mexico City, the contemplated "ship railway" venture, when completed, will prove a keen competitor to the Panama Canal because toll charges will be less in proportion to those now being charged for passage through the Panamanian waterway.

"It is the contention of the scientific world," said Herr Wassermann, "that wherever a canal can be built to float a ship, a railroad can be constructed to carry one, and the present estimated cost to build the ship canal across the Isthmus will be between 150 and 175 million dollars.

The plans are finally agreed upon by the European capitalists and which will be submitted to the Mexican Government for its approval, call for an almost straight-away at level route lying between the town of Coahuaculco, at the mouth of the river, by the same name, on the Bay of Campeche, State of Veracruz, across the Isthmus a distance of about 117 miles, to the town of Huixtlan, State of Oaxaca, on the Pacific coast.

Herr Wassermann said that the route of the proposed ship railway calls for but one bend across the entire stretch of the Isthmus and this at a point known as Chivota, in the State of Oaxaca, where a minimum turn-table will be built to make the necessary bend in the direction of Huixtlan in order to take advantage of a broad and level canyon through the Sierra Madre.

Describing in detail the construction of the proposed ship railway, Herr Wassermann said "the right-of-way will be built up on 29 raised piers according to standard gauge while the specifications call for a grade of not more than 50 feet to the mile at each terminal. The trackage will submerge or descend into the water at these points thus enabling the ships to be lodged into a float-drydock or cradle for transportation across the Isthmus.

The wheeled cradle carriage or drydock, explained Herr Wassermann, will be built in sections or units, thus permitting easy adjustment of the keel blocks which can readily be arranged to accommodate the largest ships afloat.

The cradles can be driven by from six to 12 heavy locomotives (depending upon the ship's tonnage) each one of which will be equivalent in hauling power to six of the ordinary freight type.

Every known feature and angle has been given most careful study, even to the pressure of onslaught of an inch upon the cradle and double when ships of various capacities are en route from terminal to terminal," said Herr Wassermann.

Herr Pasch, who is a former artillery colonel of the Imperial German army, and who is credited with having had much to do with the perfection of the Big Bertha variety of cannon, told the International News Service that one of the ship loaded cradles can be transported across the Isthmus at the rate of 20 miles per hour, and that no vessel will be kept out of the water more than seven hours at the most. It has figured that it will take almost an hour to make the necessary bend on the turn-table at Chivota, where the road will dip off in the direction of the Pacific terminal at Huixtlan.

WASHINGTON STATE BANKS HAD NO 1926 FAILURES

Olympia, Wash., Jan. 20.—(INS)—The close of 1926 marked the ending of a distinctive period in which there were no failures of banks under State control, according to Harry C. Johnson, State supervisor of banking.

Since 1915 this record has only once been equalled—in 1920—another year in which no failures were recorded, Johnson declared.

During the past eleven years only 47 State banks have been taken over for liquidation by the banking department, 11 of which occurred during the adjustment of 1921.

Liquidation of these banks has been very fortunate as the ultimate loss to depositors has been comparatively small.

I feel sure that the closing statements of 1926 of all State banks will reflect the most satisfactory and stable condition that has existed in many years, and that very little banking difficulty could possibly be forecast for 1927.

Nursery Well Under Way

The Greenville Floral Co. wish to remind the public that their Nursery is located on the Kinston Highway on the land formerly owned by Simon Moye, also joins Harvey's Dairy. Several thousand small evergreens and shrubbery have already been lined out, and will continue to plant during the spring.

Every year nursery stock is shipped in by the score, brought in on trucks, etc., and we believe most of you would patronize a home nursery. We have shrubbery and evergreens large sizes in stock, and more shipments on the way.

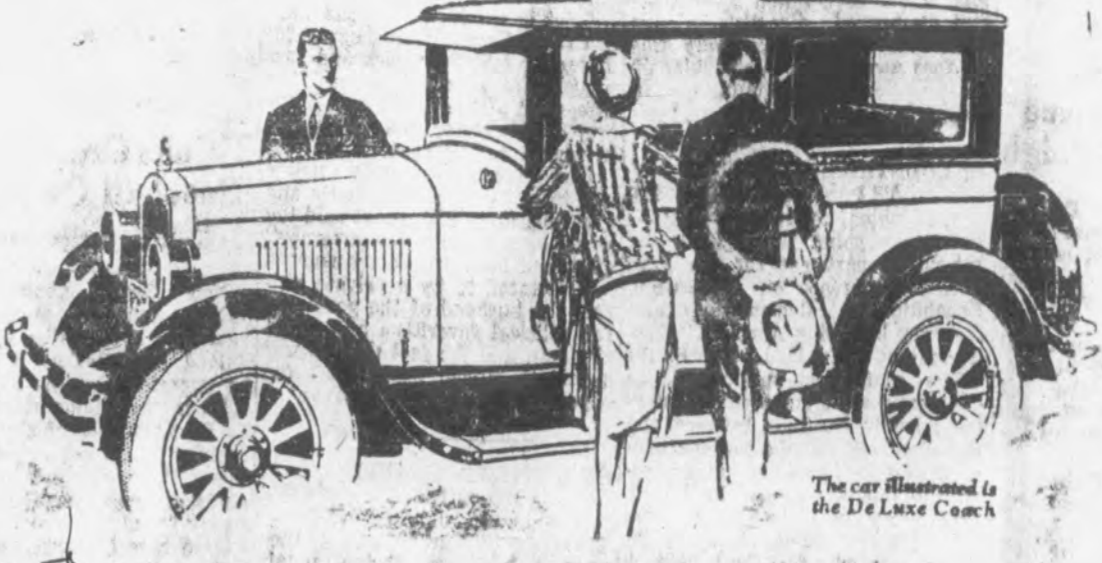

Mr. Padgett who has been with us for the past year has resigned. He has been very satisfactory and we regret his leaving.

Call us up if interested

INVITING DISASTER

The season has arrived when farmers are turning their attention to this year's crops and are formulating their plans for the coming season. As they begin the clearing and planting of their tobacco beds it is to be hoped that they will think seriously before they plan for an increased acreage in the tobacco crop for the coming season. With the low prices of cotton, the tobacco crop in this section has in truth been a life saver during the months just passed, but those in close touch with conditions throughout the world have issued warnings against a bumper crop of tobacco this year, as the same will be inviting disaster.

Less acreage and more attention will result in better grades and higher prices for the growers, it has been pointed out, and this is the wise course for the farmers of this section to follow this year. The farmer who devotes a portion of his lands and time to feed crops for man and beast this year, instead of depending entirely upon upon his money crops will be the farmer who will have the biggest balance in the bank at the end of another crop season.

Over production is the quickest way to lower the price on any product, and if this is the case with the next tobacco crop it will certainly mean disaster for the farmers of eastern North Carolina.

GET BEHIND IT

A second mass meeting of citizens to formulate plans for an advertising campaign for Greenville and Pitt county will be held in the court house tonight, and it is hoped that every progressive business man of the city and county will be on hand to hear the matter discussed. Initial steps toward the raising of a fund with which to advertise Greenville and Pitt county to the world were taken at a meeting held a few weeks ago, and committees appointed at that time are to make their reports tonight.

Greenville and Pitt county have numerous advantages to offer the homeseekers or the industries seeking new places to locate, and it is to place these many advantages before the eyes of the nation that the advertising fund is to be raised. Similar advertising campaigns by other cities and counties of the South have brought big returns in the way of new residents and new industries and what has been true in those cases will no doubt be the same here. If you are interested in the progress of your community, be on hand at tonight's meeting and get behind the movement for a Bigger and Better Greenville and Pitt County.

COMMISSIONERS' SALE

By virtue of an order made in the Superior Court of Pitt County in that Special Proceedings No. 2742 entitled Louisa Dixon, Administratrix, et al, against James R. May, Edenton Harris, et al, I shall sell to the highest bidder at the court house door, at noon, twelve o'clock, Monday, February 21st, 1927, the following described property, being known as the Mima May house and lot in the town of Greenville and known as the Jim Harris property, located north side of Bonner's Lane, and facing said lane 45 feet next to the colored Episcopal church, and adjoining the lots and lands of R. C. Flanagan and F. G. James and being the property whereon Louisa Dixon and her husband now reside in the said town, accurate description of which can be ascertained from Book page —, deed to Mima May, This January 21st, 1927.
 S. J. Everett, Commissioner
 21-11w-4wk.

The Senate attempted to make divorce possible last year, but the Dail absolutely refused to allow legislation to be introduced. Many private divorce bills which were being prepared at the time were all withdrawn. Free State women stand in a remarkable position under the Treaty. Lawyers declare that owing to the wording of the Treaty she does not take her husband's nationality on marriage. If this is so she can go to England and get a divorce. If it is not, having taken her husband's nationality, she cannot change back and cannot like him establish domicile anywhere else. No one has yet attempted to test the matter. Only one member of the Dail (Bryan Cooper) has ever divorced his wife, and that was during the English regime. One request for divorce was also brought before the Republican Court when they were functioning, but it was refused even a hearing.

Cleveland May Vote on Ending City Managers

Cleveland, Ohio, Jan. 20.—(INS) The city manager form of municipal administration may be abolished in Cleveland—the first major city in the country to adopt the system.

Petitions have been circulated seeking a referendum election which would amend the city charter and make the office an elective instead of appointive office. The election, if called, will be held within three months. The petitions are said to contain more than half the necessary signatures now.

Despite the enviable record made by W. R. Hopkins, who has held the position since its creation in 1924, at an annual salary of $23,000, a growing antipathy to the plan has been reported from many quarters.

This movement was eliminated at a recent mass-meeting led by Harry E. Davis, former governor of Ohio, now in business here. As a result of this session amendments to the charter were drawn up and the petitions for the election broadcast among citizens.

Why should a city council pick the city's administrative head any more than the legislature choose a governor or Congress elect the President of the United States? Proponents of the movement are asking in their campaign discussions.

The chief argument advanced by this group is that the public is just as well qualified to say who shall direct its affairs as is a group of politicians who would sacrifice efficiency for party loyalty.

Where a machine might gain control of the city's guiding reins,

—and the Worst is Yet to Come

the municipal manager would be kept on the job just so long as he acquitted himself to the satisfaction of the party in power, they declare. And by the same token, an efficient official might be dismissed summarily for treating of the wrong political toes and the public would have no say in the matter.

The amendments would supplant the present city manager, who is appointed for an indefinite period, by a mayor whose term would extend for two years. Paradoxically the name city manager would continue in use in order to preclude possible dozens of sections of the charter and causing an enormous printing expense.
