NORRIS MURDER TRIAL TO REACH JURY TOMORROW

Arguments in Case Against Texas Minister Got Under Way This Morning

Austin, Texas, Jan. 24.—(AP)—State and defense had closed testimony in the Norris murder trial at 9:50 this morning and the judge gave his charge to the jury shortly afterward. Arguments before the jury are to be limited to six hours to each side.

Fear of possibility of injury to Dr. J. Frank Norris caused his friends here today to ask the bailiff's permission to sit near him within the railing while the murder trial was drawing to a close. When court opened this morning a circle of close friends surrounded the Fort Worth pastor who is charged with the murder of Dexter E. Chipps, wealthy lumberman.

Fred Holland, former Fort Worth policeman, who testified in behalf of Norris, sat at Norris' right elbow with prominent members of his church, the First Baptist church of Fort Worth. Dr. Norris said he understood there was a large number of his Fort Worth supporters in the courtroom in anticipation of the close of the trial tomorrow or Wednesday. There was no one sitting near Norris except those known to be friendly to him.

After the judge's charge the state opened its argument with John Shelton, of Austin, special prosecutor, demanding the death penalty for the fundamentalist pastor.

"He has forfeited his right to life and liberty," attorney Shelton told the jury.

The arguments are expected to last until tomorrow afternoon.

The chief point in Judge James Hamilton's charge was on "apparent danger." He explained that the question of whether Norris was in apparent danger of life if viewed from the standpoint of how the circumstances appeared to the defendant. He declared that the defendant was not bound to retreat but under the law has a right to stand and defend himself if attacked.

There are four possible results of the trial: a verdict of murder carrying five years to death; manslaughter, carrying two to five years; not guilty, or a hung jury.

Prominent Mason Died at Home In Rocky Mount

Francis M. Holley, of Rocky Mount, a 33rd degree Mason of the Scottish Rite, and a prominent lecturer on Masonic subjects in North Carolina, died at his home in Rocky Mount on Saturday evening at 9:30 o'clock. He had been suffering from heart trouble for several months.

Mr. Holley is survived by his widow, his mother, who lives in New York State, and a son, who lives in West Virginia.

The funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon, 3:30 p. m., at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Rocky Mount, conducted by the Rev. James E. W. Cook, 32 degree K. C. C. H., assisted by the Rev. Dr. Craighill, rector of the church.

OKLAHOMA TO PASS CURB ON GUN TOTING

Oklahoma City, Okla., Jan. 24.—(INS)—Chicago's gang warfare with machine guns has taught Oklahoma a lesson.

A bill which seeks to insure Oklahomans against such violent feuds as the Windy City and southern Illinois have experienced in the last two years will soon be considered by the State legislature.

The bill will represent one of the most drastic measures ever attempted by any State to curb gun toting. It will provide that machine guns cannot be owned in Oklahoma except by the military service, by county officials or by police departments.

Going further, the bill prohibits the ownership of pistols unless the firearms are registered with the State Bureau of Criminal Investigation. R. C. Grohan, author of the measure, proposes a pistol license law similar to the Sullivan act of New York, except that he would go a bit further. He would provide that after owners have been licensed to carry guns, such licenses must be filed with the State Crime Bureau.

An attempt was made two years ago to get a copy of the Sullivan law through the Oklahoma legislature, but influences too powerful to overcome prevented enactment of the bill.

Flood Waters Drive Residents From Homes and Put Business at a Standstill. One Death Reported

Cincinnati, Ohio, Jan. 24.—(AP)—Residents of five States along nearly 500 miles of the Ohio River viewed with fear today the rise of the river which has driven hundreds of persons from the flooded lowlands. The crest of the flood moved steadily in a southwestern direction with damage to Ohio, Indiana, West Virginia and Kentucky territory.

The lower portion of a number of towns were under water, with many persons forced to the second story of their homes or to seek shelter on higher ground. Rail and auto traffic was hampered and water supplies were in danger and considerable damage had been done. At Pittsburgh several streets were flooded and factories in the suburbs were forced to suspend operations. At Marietta, Ohio, 700 houses were under four feet of water and business generally was suspended.

One death was reported at East Liverpool, Ohio where a boy was seen adrift in a canoe.

The crest of the flood of the Ohio was expected to reach its finale tonight at the 57-foot stage.

The government steamer, valued at $20,000 broke loose and struck a bridge and sank at Middleport, Ohio.

Admits Slaying Bigamous Wife

Mauston, Wis., Jan. 24.—(AP)—Will Coffey, Madison bond sales man, confessed today that he murdered Mrs. Hattie Hales Coffey, his bigamous second wife, and threw her body in the river at Dubuque, Iowa.

Coffey told Sheriff Wright that he hit the woman over the head with a baseball bat in a camp on the Mississippi River on October 11, before he threw her body into the river. The 48 year old Madison bond salesman who married Mrs. Hattie Hales Coffey last September, although he had a wife and three children in Madison, had the courage to admit his guilt after several hours of grilling.

JACK RABBIT HUNTERS MAKE TEN DOLLARS A DAY

Pierre, S. D., Jan. 24.—(INS)—Ten dollars a day can easily be made by jack rabbit hunters in the western part of the state, according to Louis Knowles, head of the state biological department. Through the efforts of the department, a market for rabbit fur has been established through a Denver firm which has been buying rabbit skins in Colorado and Wyoming for several years.

The company pays cash for all rabbit hides as there is a heavy demand for them by manufacturers of felt. Felt manufacturers have been purchasing millions of pounds of rabbit hides from Australia every year and have not attempted until lately to obtain hides in this country, according to Mr. Knowles.

BRITAIN IS SPENDING MILLIONS TO REPAIR N WESTMINSTER PALACE

London, Jan. 24.—(INS)—Nearly five and a half million dollars will have to be spent on the Palace of Westminster, better known as the Houses of Parliament during the next twelve to fifteen years to save it from destruction.

This is revealed in a Parliamentary memorandum here stating the serious nature of the building is in and setting forth the proposed methods by which it is hoped to prevent the pile from crumbling away.

ROME TO ABOLISH CABS CURB ON GUN TOTING

Rome, Jan. 24.—(INS)—The well-known horse-drawn cab, popularly called a Botiola and a favorite means of conveyance for tourists in Rome, will rarely be seen in Rome in a few months time.

New municipal chiefs have decided that traffic is impeded by the cab, and it has to go. Of two thousand licensed last year only a few hundred will be given new licenses.

EDUCATION COMM. REPORT IS READY FOR ASSEMBLY

General Assembly Begins Fourth Week With Much Work Ahead for Committees

Raleigh, Jan. 24.—(AP)—Under its banner slogan of making progress conservatively expressed by Speaker Fountain in its 1927 curtain raising three weeks ago, the North Carolina Legislature today quietly started on the second quarter of its 60 day biennial session.

The long heralded report from the State Educational Commission was completed today by printers who have been working on it day and night. Its contents, however, are being closely guarded prior to delivery to the General Assembly by Governor McLean, probably Wednesday.

All 344 bills introduced were still before the two houses of the assembly. Committee hearings held the floor for the week beginning the session and appropriations, revenues, finance, appropriations, education, Australian halting, roads insurance and business in general were on the various committee slates.

Morals and possibilities of an evolution discussion were not being stressed in any of the hotel lobbies and the capitol corridors. Legislators more or less privately considered these delicate questions quick to bring back one way or the other from constituents. Representative Pools, Hoke county had expressed willingness to offer his 1925 unsuccessful anti-evolution bill but withheld introduction with the explanation that friends had prevailed on him to draft a fully representative fundamentalist measure. His expression in interviews was virtually his only remarks on evolution publicly made from the legislative halls, although Miss Carrie McLean, only lady legislator, in an interview also expressed opposition to such a bill. She said she was very much interested in educational matters generally.

TURKISH WOMEN FAT BECAUSE THEY OVEREAT

Constantinople, Jan. 24.—(INS)—"We eat too much in Turkey," declared Mustafa Kemal recently in an address before the Association of Restaurant keepers in Constantinople. "That is why our women are so fat."

It appears that the young Turk want their wives to wear modern frocks, and in order to do this they must become much thinner.

Miss Sara Tugel of New York has been charged by the head of the government to teach the matres d'hotel in Turkey culinary art as it is known in America. No longer will the menus carry ten or twelve dishes. The regime of ham and eggs is about to begin in the Orient.

Brokers begin work at ten, stop at three, and there never can be more than 1,100 of them. That is something for labor unions to aim at, including a $200,000 value for membership in the union.

It must be remembered, however, that while the broker works from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m., he works from 3 p. m. to 10 a. m. Don't envy him.

What is the wealth of the United States? There is no guessing life insurance alone amounts to eighty thousand millions of dollars. It was increased by more than sixteen billions in 1926. If the working lives of those able, and sufficiently provident to insure themselves are worth eighty billions, what is the value of all the farms, oil wells and other wealth? The railroads of the United States will spend a billion dollars this year on additions to their trackage etc., which means new wealth created.

(By Arthur Brisbane)

S. W. Straus warns that building of apartment hotels and office buildings has been overdone. Mr. Stabler of the Metropolitan Life, said the same, a year earlier. Such warnings are necessary to restrain enthusiastic exuberance. But there is no reason for throwing over stocks or corporations dealing in building material. No need for builders to worry.

If you saw a keeper give his elephant enough hay for one meal you would say, "that elephant won't need any more hay for a week." Come back in an hour, and you'll find the elephant ready for more.

Like the elephant, this country has a gigantic capacity to absorb.

Suppose New York City, for instance, has built twenty thousand living apartments in the past year? One year hence there will be twenty thousand new "rich people" to fill them all. It is something like the talk about "the saturation" in the automobile business.

One old car is junked, two new cars are built. The danger is not much with the builder of a new apartment house or office building, as with the owner of the out of date. It may have to come down.

Britain moans because it can't compete with American moving pictures. Charlie Chaplin may comfort his native land by going back there to make pictures when his troubles end. They make you pay income tax there, but they don't let your angry wife impound tie up and remove from control all of your money. Chaplin would cheer the British by opening a studio somewhere on the Southern coast of England where it is warm in winter, no prohibition, Paris and Monte Carlo near by.

Governor Ritchie of Maryland, himself a candidate, widely discussed in connection with the Democratic presidential nomination, says Governor Smith, of New York, "is the outstanding Democrat in the United States."

On the other hand, Mr. Milton, editor of the Chattanooga News, says William G. McAdoe is the only man for Democrats to nominate. Mr. Milton says Governor Smith cannot be nominated because "the country is seventy per cent dry and no went can be elected to the presidency." Governor Smith's friends say, "wait and see."

Mr. Mellon is paying off the country's heavy war debt as part of the job he undertook when he became secretary of the treasury. He understands finance, and under his management the billions of public debt melt away. If Mr. Mellon continues at the present rate Uncle Sam won't owe a dollar twenty-five years hence.

Mr. Mellon tries also to protect the people in their earnings, widows, children and the old especially, but that is harder work. You cannot force people to be wise.

Treasury agents watch and prosecute sellers of fraudulent securities but in spite of all effort Mr. Mellon shows that five hundred millions a year are taken dishonestly from the public savings.

John D. Rockefeller still has the New York Stock Exchange seat that he bought in 1883, forty years ago. He never uses it, keeps it perhaps to remind him of old days and when he was making money for himself before he began spending his millions in Rockefeller foundations, institutes fighting disease—for other people.

That seat, which probably cost Mr. Rockefeller less than $50,000, he could sell now for $180,000. If he holds it a little longer it will be worth $200,000.

The 1,100 seats of the 1,100 stock exchange members are worth more than $200,000,000 now, which would surprise gentlemen that started the exchange long ago. Then $200,000 was a fortune, and a million something to be talked of in whispers. Now we move up to the billion.

Brokers begin work at ten, stop at three, and there never can be more than 1,100 of them. That is something for labor unions to aim at, including a $200,000 value for membership in the union.

It must be remembered, however, that while the broker works from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m., he works from 3 p. m. to 10 a. m. Don't envy him.

What is the wealth of the United States? There is no guessing life insurance alone amounts to eighty thousand millions of dollars. It was increased by more than sixteen billions in 1926. If the working lives of those able, and sufficiently provident to insure themselves are worth eighty billions, what is the value of all the farms, oil wells and other wealth? The railroads of the United States will spend a billion dollars this year on additions to their trackage etc., which means new wealth created.

In Separation Suit

EDWARD V. BROWNING

FRANCES BROWNING

Hearings in the suit of Edward V. Browning, wealthy realty operator, against Frances "Peaches" Browning, 16, for separation, were begun in Carmel, New York, court today.

CRIMINAL TERM SUPERIOR COURT STARTED TODAY

Judge Cranmer Flays Prohibition Violators in His Charge to Grand Jury

Persons who violate the prohibition laws are worse criminals than those who embezzle your money from the bank, because the latter gets only your money, while the former is tearing down the community physically and morally, declared Judge E. H. Cranmer in his charge to the grand jury at this morning's session of criminal court. Judge Cranmer stated that the heavy docket this week made it necessary that there should be more work and less talk in the court room, therefore his charge was brief but to the point.

In addition to stressing need of stricter enforcement of the prohibition laws Judge Cranmer also pointed out the gross violations throughout the state of the automobile laws and declared that these laws must be enforced if the life and property of the people of the state was to be preserved.

In this connection he pointed out the evil of the drunken driver and indicated that there would be no mercy from the bench for persons convicted in his court of such a charge.

Upon completion of the charge to the grand jury the court got into action of the calendar of approximately a hundred cases about eleven o'clock. Among the cases scheduled to be heard during the week are half a dozen murder cases that will attract much attention.

Despite the fact that a calendar for the week had been prepared in advance and only persons slated to go before the grand jury and those connected with cases slated for today, the court room was crowded to capacity and crowds loitered about the corridors when Judge Cranmer rapped for order.

Looks like the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Catsfish would do something about dumping consigned moonshine into the river.—Nashville Banner.

London, Jan. 24.—(INS)—The Trade Union Congress having failed to raise the necessary funds for acquiring and altering Easton Lodge, Essex. Lady Warwick has withdrawn her offer to adapt it to the purposes of a Labor University.

It was felt by the Trades Union Congress that the cost of the scheme was so great that in the present state of the union's finances adequate funds could not be guaranteed.

SEPARATION SUIT AGAINST PEACHES BROWNING STARTS

"Cinderella Daddy" Seeks Separation From Pretty Sixteen Year Old Wife

Carmel, N. Y., Jan. 20.—(AP)—With its winter population swelled by several hundred newspapermen this town's facilities were overtaxed today for the separation suit of Edward V. Browning, wealthy 52 years old realty operator, and his 16-year-old bride of ten months, Peaches Neenan Browning.

At the corner drug store the many angles of the romance of the "Cinderella Man" and his girl bride were thrashed out by the villagers. But even this excitement was deemed the 125 young women students at Drew Seminary. The principal forbade any of the young ladies to leave the seminary grounds during the trial.

Many persons who hoped to get into the courtroom are due for a disappointment. Despite all possible arrangements as to seating capacity the century-old building holds only 300. There was one dark cloud on the horizon today and that was indication that the trial here would be brief. Only that part of the case which relates to the accusation by Browning that "Peaches" left his home will be tried here. For this Browning seeks a legal separation.

ITALY MAKES NEW PLAN FOR OPEN AIR THEATRES

Rome, Jan. 24.—(INS)—Italy is to have two more open air theatres. One will be at Ostia, which has become the favorite resort for Ministers and the elite of Roman society on Sunday afternoons, and will be inaugurated with classical tragedies.

The other theatre is to be at the Villa Cellimontana on the Caelian and can seat some 4,000 spectators. The main entrance is on the Via San Sebastiano, between two great pine trees. The stage, backed by pines, flowering shrubs and laurels, is set in a formal garden, and will be illuminated by candelabra swung from loggias and by fountains—a theatre, in short, that Renaissance popes and humanists would have patronized. The construction will probably occupy eighteen months.

VIENNA BAKERIES CLOSE AS WOMEN SHUN PASTRY

Vienna, Jan. 24.—(INS)—Several bakeries in the vicinity of Vienna have been compelled to close down owing to the great reduction in the consumption of bread and pastry.

No fewer than 200,000 women and girls in the city are stated to have left off eating bread in order to keep slim; some have so starved themselves that they are seriously ill.

The new fashion is all the more remarkable because before the war a certain amount of plumpness in a woman was considered desirable.

JAZZ MUSIC ONLY IN INFANCY IN RUSSIA

London, Jan. 24.—(INS)—Jazz is in its infancy in Russia, and is likely to remain there, according to Albert Coates, conductor of the Marinsky Opera House, Leningrad, who is now on a visit to England.

Coates dispelled a popular fallacy that Russians get their opera free of charge. "They pay fairly highly," he said in an interview. "Generally they hate the sight of the movie. They concentrate on music."

BRITISH UNIONS UNABLE TO FINANCE UNIVERSITY IN EASTERN LODGE GIFT

London, Jan. 24.—(INS)—The Trade Union Congress having failed to raise the necessary funds for acquiring and altering Easton Lodge, Essex. Lady Warwick has withdrawn her offer to adapt it to the purposes of a Labor University.

It was felt by the Trades Union Congress that the cost of the scheme was so great that in the present state of the union's finances adequate funds could not be guaranteed.

English Troops and Japanese Destroyers Being Sent to Riot Regions to Protect Foreign Concessions

Shanghai, Jan. 24.—(AP)—The mailed fist, as exemplified in the armed forces of Great Britain and Japan, thrust itself into the foreground of the Chinese situation today. Both powers made unmistakable military moves today which however, were described as merely precautionary measures.

From Hong Kong the British dispatched three companies of troops to Shanghai while from a naval station four Japanese destroyers departed for unannounced parts in China.

In Hong Kong it was stated that the departure of soldiers marked the state of the movement of the British quota for the defense of Shanghai, in accordance with an agreement with the United States France and Spain. It was revealed for the first time that the powers had so completely considered the possibility of the foreign settlements being attacked that it had been decided how many men each power should have for the defense of the concessions.

In Canton young native girls joined with the agitators delivering Bolshevik speeches on the street corners while bands of soldiers paraded with anti-foreign banners.

Missionaries from the interior state that entire provinces will have to be evacuated by Christian church workers within two weeks. Anti-Christian demonstrations included the looting of churches, hospitals and private residences.

Cancer Specialist Praises the Press Fight on Disease

Baltimore, Md., Jan. 24.—(INS)—The newspapers part in the fight on disease was praised today by Dr. Joseph Cold Bloodgood, cancer specialist of Johns Hopkins Hospital.

Prejudice by physicians against having their opinion printed in the newspapers as a matter of professional ethics is mistaken, in the opinion of Dr. Bloodgood.

I turn to the press in the fight against cancer, and against all other diseases, said Dr. Bloodgood. "As a medical man I am not afraid of the press. I am perfectly willing to compete with the quack doctor for front-page space any day. The trouble is that too often honest medicine can't get on the front page."

In my work at Johns Hopkins I am in a position to see what the education of the public is doing. Due to the spreading of sound advice concerning the teeth, excessive use of tobacco and stimulants, seventy per cent of the possible cancerous patients who come to us arrive in time to save themselves from actual infection. In the days before newspapers were spreading health education less than three per cent came in time.

Bad teeth are the most common cause of breakdown. Let the press advise every man and woman over forty years of age to have their teeth examined and X-rayed at least twice a year. Mr. Bloodgood continued, as the press has in its own hands the medium to give the public information that will cut deeply into the nation's death rate.

Dr. Bloodgood returned to Baltimore Monday from Chicago, where he attended a conference of the cancer specialists of Illinois. He addressed the gatherings several times.

SCOTCH VOTES LEAVES DRY ISSUE UNCHANGED

Glasgow, Jan. 24.—(INS)—Completion of the polling in Scotland on the prohibition leaves the wets and dries in much the same position as before.

If the licensing justices consent—and this consent is unlikely in some districts the wets will have seventeen saloon licenses restored to them, but the dries have balanced the scales by extinguishing twenty-eight licenses through limitation being adopted in three new areas and further limitation in four others.

The polls indicate that temperance polling is not looked upon with favor by many sections of the population in Scotland. In Glasgow, for instance, the percentage of electors was around 40, while the highest poll recorded was about 68 per cent.

FIRST DECREASE IN VOTES GIVEN COMES SATURDAY

No Change Contemplated in Voting Schedule and No Extension of Closing Date

The most important week of the Reflector contest, in fact more important than the final week of the drive, opened up today and closes on Saturday night at eight. The temporary office for the conducting of the campaign will be open until the hour named in order to take care of the workers and their friends who are anxious to make every subscription count for its maximum number of votes before the first decrease goes into effect.

On Monday, January 31st, the Second Period of the contest for the Studebaker Sedan, Chevrolet Coach and the cash prizes of $200, $75, $50 and $40 opens. During this period votes given on subscriptions will count approximately one-fifth less than they will if turned in this week. The Second Period runs for one week while the Third and final period of the contest opens up on February 7th and closes on the 12th with the awarding of prizes.

In the announcement of the campaign some three weeks or more ago, mention was made of the possible extension of the drive for a week if excessive bad weather hindered the progress of the workers. It may be safely said at this time that there will be no extension of the closing date, and the close will come as announced on February 12th. Neither will there be any change in the voting schedule. Votes given on subscriptions will remain the same as announced.

The entry list will be closed after this week. Those who would like to enter their name and compete for one of the six prizes offered by the contest on all subscription money turned in, must send in their name to the Campaign Manager, The Reflector before Saturday night.

Extra votes to the number of 50,000 will be allowed this period on five three (37) year subscriptions to The Daily Reflector. These votes are in addition to those given on the schedule. A subscriber who has already given six months or more and who subscribes again for the difference to make a three-year subscription, will be given credit for those additional votes. The contestant getting the extra subscription to make a three-year will be given credit for the bonus in votes.

Second subscriptions will also count heavy in votes during this period. If a subscriber has already given six months to some one entered in the race and gives an additional six months, the difference between a six months subscription and a year will be what the second subscription is entitled to. It makes no difference who secured the first subscription, the second subscription will earn the additional votes.

Seventh Member Added to Death Row Penitentiary

PROF. WARD'S METEORITE COLLECTION IS NOW BEING OFFERED FOR SALE

Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 24.—(INS)—The most famous and rarest collection of meteorites in the world may be lost to Rochester if some one outside of the city purchases it. This unique exhibit, collected by Professor Henry A. Ward, celebrated naturalist and founder of the Ward Natural Science Establishment here, contains specimens which are valued at more than their weight in gold.

It was started in 1894, and Professor Ward traveled to Central America, Australia, Japan, Java, India, Persia, South Africa, South America and Siberia in the quest of his treasures.

One collection gathered by Professor Ward has gone to the Field Museum in Chicago and another to the Clarence S. Bennett Collection of Meteorites. Since the death of Mr. Ward more than a year ago, the present collection has been for sale.

AN UGLY SIGHT
 It is always said that first impressions are as a rule, lasting ones, and we are wondering what impression strangers who come to our city, over the highway north of the river must get of our town when they view the garbage dump just a short distance from this public highway. Not only do we find this fault with our own city, but other cities of this section likewise have their garbage dumps just outside the city and on one of the principal highways. It is to be hoped that our own city and other cities of this section will, from the standpoint of city pride, select a site for a garbage dump that will be hidden from view from the main highways, but if this is not done the state should pass a law prohibiting garbage dumps and incinerators being placed in view of the highways.

FARMERS TAKE HEED
 The warning issued Saturday in the form of resolutions, adopted by the North Carolina Warehouse Association, in which the dangers that will no doubt accompany a bumper tobacco crop this year were pointed out, should certainly be heeded by the tobacco growers if they would avoid disaster. The warning issued by the warehousemen is not idle supposition or a threat but is based on their knowledge of conditions of the tobacco industry throughout the world which indicate that an over-production of tobacco this year will mean to the same fate for tobacco prices that cotton prices have suffered this year.

THE FIGHT ON ILLITERACY
 "The United States, with nearly 5,000,000 who by their own confession, can neither read nor write, occupies the shameful position of tenth place in literacy among the nations of the world," stated an editorial in the Washington Post. It continued: "The bureau of education recognizes this challenge, and recently asked the General Federation of Women's Clubs to assist in listing the illiterates of the country to the end that they may be taught to read and write before the taking of the 1930 census."
 "The federation has worked out a plan whereby there will be chosen in each State one county typical of the entire State, the selection to be made with the assistance and sanction of local authorities. Each home in this county will be visited and listed by one of the club women, and the survey will be followed immediately by a vigorous campaign of education organized to reach every illiterate on the list."

The federation, a sponsor of measures that will add to the welfare of this country and more especially the youth, endorses and urges the passage by Congress of the Curtis-Reed Education Bill, which would establish a department of education with a secretary in the President's Cabinet. Such a department would greatly facilitate the campaign against illiteracy. It would be in a position to counsel the states and act as a guide for their efforts. Those notions which are above the United States in the literacy list have similar departments.

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

Cincinnati, O., Jan. 24—(INS)—Friends of James K. Gamble, local philanthropist who is known to multitudes as the Apostle of Sunshine decided that they would hand him a bouquet before the Reaper came. Instead of sending flowers afterward.

So the other night they held a huge testimonial dinner, and 300 of the kindly-hearted man's friends were there. And they thanked him for many public-spirited moves, and for his kindnesses to his fellowmen. Wealthy local manufacturers, contractors and a few tears as they told of their esteem for him. Then, when the last speech was finished, they swarmed over him, and shook his hand, and to give him the ordeal of a response, quickly disbanded.

A glass of real, old, pre-prohibition beer—beer with a sincere kick in it—taken every day will insure a long and happy life, according to Mrs. Lambert Gottmer, local citizen, who is now nearly 96 years of age. Drink a glass of real beer two, three or more—times a way, if you wish to be healthy and happy, she declared here during a reunion of her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Mrs. Gottmer, who came here from Germany 60 years ago, said the modern flapper is all right, but the prohibition law is all a terrible mistake.

Speaking of the prohibition law, another angle of that much discussed piece of legislation was discussed here. Just a lad of 16 was proven to be a hardened liquor runner; another youth of 18 was the original source of supply in other words, the bootlegger; and a man, bent with age and the chill of 62 winters, was proven to be the principal consumer.

All of the alleged customers of the two youthful liquor vendors were men, police said. The boys were placed on probation—the man's case dismissed.

Robert Wurster, who sells hot dogs and other meats as a means of livelihood here, has finally announced that he has completely thawed out after spending an exceedingly chilly hour in his icebox. Bandits forced him into the large icebox and then locked the door. Police found Wurster pacing to and fro in his wintry cell. "I thought I was half way between Nome and the North Pole," he declared later.

Just across the Ohio River from here the announcement that 36 $100's with a total added money value of $175,000, will feature the 1927 spring turf meetings at historic old Latonia and Churchill Downs is made.

The Latonia Derby will once again be a $25,000 race, while the Kentucky Derby will be a $50,000 added affair.

About 20 dismal looking households—some windowless—make up the homes of Cincinnati's colony of river nomads, those restless wanderers who are content to drift along downstream and stop wherever the current carries them.

Approximately 50 men, women and children—together with numerous dogs, cats, parrots and other pets constitute the population of the colony, now perched high and dry on the southern bank of the river, where quickly receding high waters left them last fall.

In the spring, when the river rises again, this colony will drift away, old rivermen say, and another will come in the fall. It has been that way for years and years, those who work along the reeking docks declare.

(Reported)

The president, Miss Marguerite Hall, read the scripture lesson and told us a story of what happened to a selfish G. A. girl, that taught the lesson that we shall not expect to receive good things from others if we do not do them ourselves.

After a song and a prayer by Miss Winborne, our new young peoples' leader, Miss Dorothy Kellam, of Raleigh, young peoples' leader for the state, made a most inspiring and helpful talk on the work of the G. A. Miss Kellam is very attractive and we enjoyed her so much. We want her to come again real soon.

We were so glad to have so many present. After the meeting Mrs. Gates served tea and sandwiches.

U. S. Tobacco Crop Over Billion Pounds

Washington, Jan. 24.—(INS)—The United States produced about 1,323,000,000 pounds of tobacco in 1926.

Although the production fell off compared to 1925, the yields were not reduced in all sections. In the about 54,000,000 pounds, as compared with the production of 620,352,000 pounds of the preceding year, while the Atlanta districts was a 12,880,700 pounds was 713,000 pounds ahead of 1925.

A Federal Reserve Board statement explained that the prices of bright leafed tobacco, which is grown principally in the Atlanta and Richmond districts, averaged higher in the marketing season and returns to growers were larger than in the previous year.

Prices for burley and dark tobacco, on the other hand, were considerably lower than in either 1925 or 1924, and returns to the producers were smaller than in recent years the report said.

Greater use of bright tobacco, mainly in the manufacture of cigarettes and a decline in the manufacture of tobacco products requiring dark tobacco in the last few years have been factors causing higher prices for bright tobacco and lower prices for dark.

The board pointed out that in the cigar leaf tobacco, principally in the Connecticut valley.

New England States production of cigar leaf tobacco, principally in the Connecticut valley, was materially cut in 1926. Prices on this variety averaged about twice as high as in 1925.

The changing character of the domestic tobacco demanded by the manufacturers is reflected in Bureau of Internal Revenue figures indicating that about 900,000,000, 000 cigarettes were produced in 1926. The increase over 1925 was about 12,000,000,000, 000 cigarettes.

Cigar production was expected to be about the same as in 1925 although the exact figures have not yet been issued at the Treasury. Snuff production fell off but that of smoking tobacco increased somewhat.

Byrd Plane to Stand In New Ford Museum

Detroit, Jan. 24.—(AP)—On a site in the village of Fordson, where he was born 63 years ago, Henry Ford will build a museum of industrial exhibits.

It will occupy a 40 acre area. Construction will begin this spring with a view to finishing the structure by late fall. An exhibit showing the progress of transportation will be assembled in the museum, and in this group will stand the plane "Josephine Ford," in which Comander Richard E. Byrd flew over the north pole in 1926.

Ox carts, the one-horse shay the first locomotive to travel from Detroit to Chicago, and other vehicles will constitute the panorama of transportation.

Many other lines of industry will be exemplified in the museum. Ancient and modern methods of brick making—an industry for which Fordson formerly was widely known—will be displayed, as will a collection of sawmills.

Paris Style Hints

Paris, Jan. 24.—(INS)—Casino gowns are the all-important ones at this season of the year.

They really mean those for afternoon as well as evening. Sometimes the Casino gown even means that worn in the morning which would be precisely the same as what is seen on the promenade. In the afternoon they may be more elegant, that is to say, out of the sports, classification and attain themes in lace and chiffon or satin and marocain. While for dinner-time, the frock may be in velvet, such as one that Chastal makes, with fitted hipline and crushed girdle and the wee yoke worked with alternate rows of black velvet and net.

In Souffle, for Casino wear comes from Yvel in yellowish-green chiffon with two flounces in the skirt, cut like petals and the bodice made on simple lines. More elaborate is a red velvet with a deep band of ostrich at the bottom of the skirt in degraded tones commencing dark and finishing with the color of the velvet. It is extended to the hips one on side where it is caught by a huge rhinestone buckle. The hipline is fitted and caught near the normal waistline by a crushed grille which finishes with velvet streamers that peer out of the ostrich at the side.

Drecol is making a delightful Casino gown in gorgeous black velvet with large roses in printed velvet applied across the hipline in slightly diagonal movement and splashed with rhinestones which look quite like morning dew. Black moire makes another charming Casino frock and pale crushed mulberry satin will be a popular one for evenings on the Riviera.

MARKETS

COTTON

New York, Jan. 24.—(AP)—Cotton futures opened barely steady today. January 13.23; March, 13.55; May 13.55; July 13.75; October 13.95.

New York, Jan. 24.—(AP)—The cotton market opened barely steady today at a decline of 9 to 12 points in response to easier Liverpool cables but rallied almost immediately. The report of the Census Bureau showing 16,609,517 bales ginned prior to January 16 was evidently no larger than expected and failed to create any selling pressure of consequence.

On the contrary it appeared to bring in coverings while there was a good trade demand also and by the end of the first hour prices were about 49 to 15 points net higher. March selling up to 13.58 and July to 13.98.

STOCKS

New York, Jan. 24.—(AP)—Heavy buying of railroad issues featured the opening of today's stock market which continued to disclose considerable irregularities. Initial gains of one to two points were recorded by Missouri Pacific, preferred, Western Maryland and Pittsburgh and West Virginia, and Remington Typewriter General Motors, Hudson and United States Steel, common, yielded fractionally.
