EIGHT SATURDAY NIGHT HOUR SET TO CLOSE CONTEST

Little Choice as to Probable Auto Winners as Entrants Start on Final Week

The last long mile of the Reflector subscription and prize contest is on. Today marks the opening of the sixth and final week of the subscription drive and the close is set for eight Saturday night without fail.

First and second prizes of a Studebaker Sedan and Chevrolet Coach, respectively, will be parked outside the newspaper office on the closing day of the contest for contestants and friends to examine.

As the end of the six weeks campaign draws near there is little to choose as to the probable automobile winners among the thirteen entrants.

Those who have led from time to time in the contest may emerge victorious Saturday night and ride away in a new automobile and ride away in a new automobile and ride away in a new automobile.

The list of contestants and their standing appears today and will be published daily during this final week.

Twelve of the thirteen contestants had a report last week which indicates all with the possible exception of one will report again this week with work.

Each and every one can only do so much but each can do their best.

STORES DAMAGED BY FIRE EARLY SATURDAY NIGHT

Misses Manning Stock a Total Loss While Abeyounis Stock Suffers Heavy Damage

Fire which broke out about ten o'clock Saturday night in the ready-to-wear and millinery establishment of Misses Manning and spread to the adjoining store occupied by B. G. Abeyounis, destroyed the Manning stock, and did considerable damage to the Abeyounis stock and the buildings in which the establishments were housed.

Fire, smoke and water damage to the Manning stock, which was reported to inventory between $12,000 and $14,000, made it a total loss.

The fire had but $5,000 insurance. Damage to the building of W. F. Evans, in which the Manning shop was located, was said to total about $2,000.

The fire is believed to have originated from a defective electric wire in the Evans building and quickly spread between the ceiling and roof.

THURSDAY WILL BE DOLLAR DAY IN GREENVILLE

Another "Dollar Day" for Greenville is at present paramount in the minds of the buying public, and has been since the first announcement a few days ago that the first of the sales for the year would be held Thursday of this week.

The merchants participating at this time have so arranged their stores and stocks as to make the "dollar day" effective in almost every department of their immense establishments. In their determination to please the buying public, many of the stores have sent representatives to northern markets to make purchases with which they expect to feature their offerings for the day.

It will not be a day for the disposal of old shop-worn goods, but every store will present absolutely new merchandise and the values to be offered will exceed those heretofore sold at these semi-annual occasions.

DEPOSITORS SHOW THEIR CONFIDENCE IN BETHEL BANK

Upon Being Notified They Could Get Their Money Less Than $25 Was Drawn Out

Bethel, Feb. 7.—That the people of Pitt County have confidence in their banking institutions has just been emphasized here when depositors of the Farmers and Merchants Bank which suspended operations a short time ago, did not rush in for their money when informed last week that all accounts had been transferred to the Bethel Banking and Trust Company and that depositors were at liberty to draw their money therefrom.

At the time of closing the Farmers and Merchants Bank had on deposit $61,000 and after the joint meeting of the stockholders of the two institutions, announced was made that on or after Feb. 1st, the depositors of the Farmers and Merchants Bank would be paid off, and much to the surprise of all the only account withdrawn was a deposit of less than $25.

This merger which transfers all deposits and other like interests to the Bethel Banking and Trust Co. makes that bank with its present deposits of $280,000 one of the strongest of the smaller banking institutions of the county. In addition to gaining the deposits of the other bank, the Trust company realized a growth of about $20,000 in its deposits during the month of January.

Three Killed and Two Wounded in Gun Fight Sunday

Roanoke, Va., Feb. 7.—(AP)—A gun fight between members of two families in an isolated section of mountain Patrick County resulted in death for three persons yesterday and wounds for two others. Franklin authorities have been informed. Fragmentary reports said the shooting climaxed a quarrel over the distilling of whiskey.

Sheriff S. D. Mayo has information that the dead were Maynard Cox, 16, and Dave Cox 20, brothers, and Turner Hall, 30. A Mr. and Mrs. Chaney were reported wounded. The sheriff and several deputies were called upon to restore quiet.

MERCHANTS BODY TO HOLD ANNUAL MEET NEXT WEEK

Eugene Newsome, Durham, Will Address Body at Banquet Next Tuesday Night

The annual meeting of the Greenville Merchants Association will be held on Tuesday evening of next week, February 15th, with a banquet in the basement of the Christian church. Mr. Eugene Newsome, of Durham, an outstanding business man of the state as well as ex-governor of Rotary, and Paul Leonard, state secretary of the state organization, have both accepted invitations to be guests of the merchants at their annual meet.

There are no two individuals of the state better acquainted with the affairs of the retail merchants than these two gentlemen, and they will present to the members of the local organization some facts as to proposed legislation which if enacted will affect not only the retailers, but every business interest will be forced to bear its portion of the burden.

Mr. Newsome has filled many engagements during January as guests of various associations of the state in their annual meet, and the local association is indeed fortunate in having him as their guests on this occasion.

The hour of meeting will be seven o'clock and president J. H. Blount will be in charge. The election of officers for the ensuing year will take place at this meeting.

THREE PROPOSALS FOR AMENDMENTS TO CONSTITUTION

Judicial Districts, Tax Rates and Constitutional Convention Before Assembly

Raleigh, Feb. 7.—(AP)—So far there are three proposals to amend the Constitution of North Carolina before the legislature, and the school year, especially the North Carolina Education Association, today were scheduled to ask the legislature to add another proposal for a change. This is the eight months school term proposed amendment.

The proposals at present before the legislature are:

1. The calling of a constitutional convention. 2. The creation of additional judicial districts with a superior court judge, without a solicitor. 3. Limiting of local tax rates to $2.50 per hundred and the segregation of intangible property for taxation.

Officers of the teachers' association today announced that they will ask the legislature to call an election by a majority of the educational commission.

The teachers' association has the backing of five members of the commission, and in addition to this the association claims that the recommendations of the majority are not supported by statements which they, themselves, make about educational conditions in the state, and are not backed by the facts they found in their printed report.

The more important of the amendments proposed, and already dropped into the legislative hopper, is the taxation limitation resolution.

Should this proposed amendment to the Constitution be adopted, it will revolutionize taxation systems and taxation methods in virtually every city, county and school district in the state, because in only a few instances are the tax rates as low as this proposed amendment would make mandatory.

The amendment proposed by Senator Kenneth Royal of Goldsboro, would not only limit the local tax on property that state, city and county districts could levy to $2.50 on the hundred, but specifies maximum amounts beyond which no local unit of government could go.

Under the bill the maximum that could be levied would be: For state purposes—5 cents. For city purposes—$1.25. For county purposes—$1.25. For district purposes—50 cents. The total maximum of $3.05, however, could not be levied, so that if a city found it necessary to have the maximum, the school district or the county one would have to take less.

The tax rates could exceed the maximum of $2.50 under the following conditions: 1. For debt service, payment of interest and principal on debts incurred prior to November 5, 1928.

2. For debt service on bonds taken care of by assessments against property for improvements made. 3. For bonds sold as a result of an election carried by the majority of the votes cast in the preceding gubernatorial election in the district in which the election is held, or a majority of all votes cast in general election if the bond election is held at the same time.

The provisions of the proposed amendment, of course, does not apply to the state, which could continue to sell its bonds without a vote of the people, or without reference to the people for any kind of endorsement whether by a majority of qualified voters in a special election or a majority of voters in a general election.

The latter provisions would break up the general practice of holding bond elections at special times, and vote only against the special registration for that particular election.

The other provision of the bill would provide for listing of stocks, bonds, cash in bank and other intangible property for taxation. The legislature would have the right to fix the rate which this type of property would pay. Proponents of the bill would expect the legislature to fix a lower rate for this than for general property.

BRITISH FAVOR AMERICAN PLAN NEUTRAL ZONE

Whether or Not Armed Forces Needed to Back Up Neutrality is Chief Question

London, Feb. 7.—(AP)—Today's cabinet session called to consider the Chinese crisis, was expected to approve the proposal of the American Secretary of State to the warring Chinese factions that the international settlement at Shanghai be excluded from the area of armed conflict so that American citizens and other foreigners may receive adequate protection.

It was stated in Downing Street that the British government heartily supports the American view as in coordination with the British policy which is to insure the safety of the foreigners in Shanghai.

The Kellogg proposal raised a sum of questions in the cabinet of which whether foreign military support would be needed to back up the declaration of a neutralized Shanghai.

There is strong opinion in Great Britain that the chief threat to Shanghai would be from the rabble of a defeated Chinese army or looting by a victorious army and that something more than a proclamation of neutrality is needed to deal with such danger. It is emphasized however that the British government fully sympathizes with the principle of the American suggestion.

The cabinet also was expected to act today on the all-important question of whether the British military and naval expedition now on the way to the Far East will be directed from Shanghai as requested by Eugene Chen, foreign minister of the Nationalist or Cantonese government.

Paris, Feb. 7. (AP)—French official circles expressed themselves as pleased with the American proposal for neutralization of the Shanghai zone.

They hope the plan will succeed but fear Shanghai will prove too tempting a bait for the contending Chinese war lords.

CLERGY DECLINES TO TAKE PART IN EVOLUTION FIGHT

Rocky Mount Ministerial Association Declines to Sign League petition

Rocky Mount, Feb. 7.—(AP)—The Rocky Mount Ministerial Association, in monthly session, today declined to take an action looking to endorsement of petitions sent out by the North Carolina Bible League with request that they be signed and forwarded to the state legislature in support of the anti-evolution bill the league is sponsoring.

About 20 churches of the city were represented at the meeting. The association spokesmen expressed belief the measure was not needed.

Raleigh, Feb. 7.—(AP)—No petition from the North Carolina Bible League has been presented to the legislature in behalf of any anti-evolution measure.

CHINESE FACTIONS PREPARING FOR DECISIVE BATTLE

Sun Chuan-fang Rushing Reserves to Front in Effort to Stop Nationals

Shanghai, Feb. 7.—(AP)—General Sun Chuan-fang, in his effort to halt the Nationalist drive on Shanghai, much coveted military prize, is rushing to the front what normally form his last reserves.

His own bodyguard division, 8,000 strong, passed Shanghai during the Chinese New Year holidays en route from Nanking to the battlefield.

On the heels of Nationalist reports claiming successes which have forced Sun's army back toward Hangchow, 100 miles southwest of here, Chinese newspapers have occupied Fuyang, 15 miles southwest of Hangchow.

Hangchow missionaries, in letters to Shanghai, state that the booming artillery in action has been audible there. The letters also describe a continuous movement of Sun Chuan-fang troops from the north toward the front.

Despite the adverse reports, Sun's headquarters here insist that their forces are successfully meeting the Nationalist onslaught. Many of the reports of Sun's reverse are patently propaganda, but the stringency of his censorship is aiding their circulation, as the northern general has given no indication of the reasons compelling him to rush reserves southward.

The Nationalists, in proclaiming their alleged victories, assert that their forces also have been strengthened along the Tsziening River battlefield, inland from Hankow, where conservative estimates placed the number engaged at 40,000 for each side.

Local members of the Kuomintang, the dominant political party of the Nationalist government, despite their present battle will be the most decisive of the campaign. They assert that if Hangchow falls their greatest difficulty—transportation—will be solved.

Sub Committee Is Completing Hearing Muscle Shoals Bid

Washington, Feb. 7.—(AP)—The House military sub-committee today neared completion of its consideration of bids for Muscle Shoals and hope to be able to report to the full committee within a few days. W. B. Bell, president of the American Cynamid Company, one of the bidders, again was before the sub-committee today.

Nashville, N. C., Feb. 7.—(AP)—One negro is dead and another is in jail here today as result of what officers branded as sale and imbibing of poisoned liquor over the week-end.

Henry Bryant, of Red Oak, was dead, while John Austin, of Battleboro, was held on a charge of manufacture and sale of liquor. A pint of the product was being analyzed preparatory to possibly a more serious charge.

Acting on a tip given by Bryant just before he died, officers raided Austin's home, confiscating a still of 25 gallons, and arrested him.

recently introduced, is set for Thursday afternoon before the education committee. Discussion on the measure has been at an ebb with little or no apparent interest manifest outspokenly by assemblymen.

FIVE CONTENDERS PENNANT HONORS NATIONAL LEAGUE

Mid-Winter Player Trade Cause Much Speculation as to Next Season's Out- come

New York, Feb. 5.—(AP)—The National League pennant today was flapping noisily before at least five outstanding contenders in the midst of mid-winter trade winds which have blown a million dollars worth of ball players back and forth across the baseball map. The entire complexion of the circuit has been radically altered since the Cardinals rose to the world series triumph behind the broad shoulders of Rogers Hornsby last October.

Rogers himself has been caught in the middle of a $500,000 player turnover, while two other clubs, Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, also have called on new helmsmen, six teams have shaken up the infield as they attempted to bolster a year ago and one club, the Brooklyn Robins, has prepared to enter the conflict with virtually a new team.

Observers here were inclined to the opinion that the champion Cardinals had lost nothing in player strength by accepting infielder Frankie Frisch and pitcher Jimmy Ring from the Giants in exchange ## and the Worst is Yet to Come

for Hornsby. But they pointed out that only time would tell whether the loss of Hornsby has affected the morale of the team. The Cardinals still are looked upon as a powerful contender.

How the team will fare under the direction of its new leader, Catcher Bob O'Farrell, is the chief speculation of the sports league. Critics looked for powerful opposition to the Cardinals this year from the Pirates, 1925 winners, whose challenge last season was weakened by internal strife. The Brooklyn aggregation is one of the few clubs that have not figured in outstanding player swaps this winter, but big stroke in placing Donie Bush at the tiller. The dash of this new leader, who replaces Bill McKee, is expected by baseball men to supply the necessary spark for a youthful squad of unquestioned power.

The Cubs, Reds and Giants look as the three other leading contenders, although the Chicago team still is as uncertain of its infield

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Cressonol, an emulsified crocote that is pleasant to take. Cressonol is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, crocote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Cressonol contains, in addition to crocote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the crocote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Cressonol is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

doubtful quantity.

The Phillies finding a new leader in Stuffy McInnis, have added a few new faces without seriously threatening rival hopes.

While the Braves, under Dave Bancroft, have been unable to make any strengthening trades with other major league clubs, they have an aggressive club and one young pitching corps.

The new Robin team will bank heavily on three recruits—Infielders Jimmy Patridge of Nashville and Bobby Barrett of Memphis, and outfielder Arnold Stutz of Los Angeles. Bobby has also added catching strength through the acquisition of Henline to handle the curves of an admittedly powerful corps of hurlers.

Richmond and Kinston May Lose Berth in Va. League

Raleigh, Feb. 7.—(AP)—By the end of this week the status of the Virginia and Piedmont leagues for the 1927 playing season will be an established fact.

Virginia league directors have given Roanoke and Lynchburg until Friday night to decide whether they want to come in this season and meanwhile have decided to tentatively admit Kinston in event the Virginia clubs do not want the Old Dominion circuit franchise.

This was the situation as expressed today by William G. Branham, of Durham, president of the Virginia, Piedmont and South Atlantic leagues. Wilson and Kinston, in this state, will not be in the Virginia league if Lynchburg and Roanoke come in.

Tomorrow the Piedmont league directors will decide whether that circuit is to contain six or eight cities.

Eleven Games For Tar Heel Teams During This Week

Raleigh, N. C., Feb. 7.—(AP)—Swinging into its mid-season stride the State collegiate basketball season gets under way properly this week with 11 contests scheduled for North Carolina quintets. One or more games are looked for each evening of the six-day period.

Saturday presents the heaviest card which includes the annual game in Raleigh between North Carolina State and the University outfit from Chapel Hill. On the same evening Lenoir-Rhyne will meet at Davidson to entertain the Wildcats; Duke University Blue Devils will pay homage to Virginia at Charlottesville; and Elon will meet High Point College at High Point.

Six of the 11 contests will be staged within the State. The others will make history in Virginia and Maryland. Both the Duke and North Carolina University teams take road trips into the North.

Athletic officials of Wake Forest and of North Carolina colleges have agreed to change the venue of the game between the two institutions at Raleigh. Instead of playing it at Wake Forest it will be staged in the city auditorium here Tuesday, February 15.

This week's games.

Monday—Carolina vs. Maryland at College Park
Tuesday—High Point vs. Lenoir-Rhyne at Hickory
Wednesday—Carolina vs. Navy at Annapolis
Thursday—Duke vs. V. M. I. at Lexington; Davidson vs. Guilford at Davidson
Friday—Lenoir-Rhyne vs. Guilford at Hickory
Saturday—Carolina vs. State at Raleigh; Lenoir-Rhyne vs. Davidson at Davidson; Duke vs. Virginia at Charlottesville; High Point vs. Elon at High Point.

Meet George Washington— at the North State Capitol

WE WONDER how many people know that at the entrance to the State Capitol in Raleigh stands one of the finest statues of George Washington in the country? It is the work of Jean Antoine Houdon, famous French sculptor.

In the State Museum is a replica of a statue of Washington by Canova, the world-famous Italian sculptor. The original was destroyed in the State Capitol fire in 1831. When the Marquis de Lafayette visited Raleigh in 1825 he stood at the base of the original statue and praised its workmanship and its resemblance to the original.

Visit Raleigh and see these statues of Washington—see the many other interesting places in the Capital City—learn more about your state. Think what a broadening influence such a visit will have on your children, the future citizens of the state.

Know your Capital City. Plan a family trip for the children; or make up a party of friends and neighbors for at least a day in Raleigh. By rail, motor-bus or automobile, it is close to you. Come—come often—a welcome awaits you always!

To know RALEIGH is to know more about North Carolina. Every citizen should see and know the Capital City.

ACCEPTS POSITION WITH DURHAM FIRM

N. R. Joyner, who for some time has been employed at the Griffin-Williams Shoe Store here, has accepted a position with the Durham Shoe Company, in Durham. He will leave this city tonight to take up his new duties.

LITERARY DEPARTMENT TO MEET TOMORROW

The Literary department of the Woman's Club will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 with Mrs. E. B. Allbrook.

Be sure to hear Mrs. Edgeworth Smith, formerly Miss Velma Rawls, of Greenville, at the Colonial Tea Thursday night.

BRIDGE AND ROOK TOURNAMENT GIVEN BY WOMAN'S CLUB

On Friday afternoon and evening the Woman's Club of Greenville held a bridge and rook tournament at W. H. Horne's Drug Store. The mezzanine floor was attractively decorated with red crepe paper, the lights were shaded, and hearts on the wall and on the tables, reminded one that the season of St. Valentine is at hand. The party was really given by Mr. Horne, who offered the use of the mezzanine to the club for that day, free of charge, with a further offer of one day each month, if they so desired.

The benefit was for the public library, which obligation to the club each month including building and loan toward the club and library building is $40. Mr. Horne has proved himself a real friend to the Woman's Club, and the members feel most grateful to him for his helpful interest in their efforts.

There were four tables playing in the afternoon, and ten at night. Refreshments were served each time. The prize winners in the afternoon were Mrs. F. R. Elmore high bridge, a box of candy; Mrs. R. G. Fitzgenaid, low bridge, a large Valentine; Mrs. T. A. Person, high rook, a box of Coty's powder; Mrs. J. N. Gorman, low rook, a large Valentine.

At night, the winners were Miss Hennie Long, high bridge, a filet bouclair pillow; Mrs. O. G. Gulley, high rook, a bottle of bath salts. Each player drew for a box of candy, the lucky winner being Mrs. C. A. Bowen.

All prizes were donated by friends of the club, some of them being merchants, and delicious home-made cakes were contributed by club members.

Twenty-five dollars was cleared and the club is pleased to announce to the world that we are now out of debt.

Miss Dafney Carraway, a reader of note, 10 years with the Red-nath Chautauqua, will be on the program at the Colonial Tea.

GREENVILLE AND NEW BERN TO PLAY WEDNESDAY NIGHT

The Greenville Red Devils will play the New Bern Red Terrors in Greenville Wednesday, Feb. 9, at 8 o'clock in Gorman's warehouse.

In a previous game New Bern defeated the Red Devils by the score of 21-25 in an unusually fast game.

Come out and see a real game.

KINSTON DEFEATED BY LOCALS

Furnishing a fitting climax for the week's sports activities the Greenville high school basket ball team defeated Kinston by a score of 30 to 20, on Friday night at Gorman's warehouse.

This was the second victory of this week for the locals, having defeated Rocky Mount on Tuesday by a good margin.

Kinston started the scoring early in the first quarter, but Greenville quickly followed, and from then until the end of the game, held a safe lead. At the end of the first half the score was 17 to 6, in favor of our boys.

Kinston came back in the second half with renewed vigor, but was unable to overcome our lead, as

Tax and Paving Notice

1926 Town Taxes are now past due and to avoid the distress method of collections I am asking the people to settle at once.

The land sales of previous years must be closed at once or deeds will be taken.

The final payments on paving contract No. 1 must be paid immediately.

Pre-Easter Services Will Be Conducted in Courthouse Here

The pre-Easter services to be held in this city during the week prior to Easter Sunday will be held in the court house instead of in the theatre, as formerly announced, according to action taken by the local Ministerial Association at its regular meeting held this morning. According to present plans union religious services will be held each day during the week conducted by the different ministers of the city. A committee consisting of J. H. Rose, J. G. Clark and W. W. Lee was appointed to arrange music for these services.

The ministers this morning also urged that the public of Greenville consider Wednesday evening as a regular church evening and that as far as possible, local clubs and organizations arrange their meetings and other affairs so as not to conflict with the regular mid-week prayer services in the various churches of the city. Where it is absolutely necessary for the various organizations to hold meetings on Wednesday evening they are urged to arrange them for such an hour as will not conflict with the church hour.

American Tourists Go East in Europe

Vienna, Feb. 7.—(NIS)—The trend of American tourists is eastward in Europe. The government reports of tourist traffic in Vienna for the last five years show that Americans are coming here in increasing numbers every year. In the year just ended two and a half times as many Americans came to Vienna as in 1925 when the number was 135,860.

More tourists of other countries, England and Germany foremost also came to Austria last year and the same is true of other Central European and Balkan countries which are all preparing for increased traffic next year when they hope to take away the patronage of Western Europe, now familiar ground to most tourists.

Beginning with a great festival in celebration of the centenary of the death of Beethoven, on March 26, Vienna will have an almost continuous run of attractions for tourists. A gigantic festival period is planned from July 5 to 19, the first to be held since the Republic was declared. This will be patterned after the famous festivals of Imperial times which did much to make the reputation of "new Vienna." Several congresses, sport meetings and art conferences will be held during the year.

Winston-Salem Paper Changes Hands Today

Winston-Salem, N. C., Feb. 7.—(AP)—The Twin City Sentinel announced this afternoon that its stock had been sold to the Winston-Salem Journal Company, owned by Mr. Gannett, president of the Winston-Salem Sentinel, Inc. Frank E. Gannett, president.

The terms require that the Sentinel shall be continued as a separate entity, not as a consolidation through the Journal and the Sentinel will be published under one ownership and from the same plant. The Evening Star, published by the Journal will be discontinued after today's issue.

The Sentinel was purchased last August from Rufus A. Shore and Henry R. Weir, by a company headed by Mr. Gannett, publisher of seven newspapers in New York State. W. M. Clemens was vice-president and Warren N. Ingalls of Elmira, New York, secretary-treasurer and business manager.

The Journal started an afternoon edition, The Evening Star, with a combination rate, to compete with the Sentinel, creating a situation which led neutral parties several weeks ago to invite the respective publishers into a buy or sell conference.

The result was that Mr. Moon agreed to buy the Sentinel at a price satisfactory to Mr. Gannett and other stockholders.

The final papers were signed last Saturday and before the end of the present week the Journal and Sentinel will be published from the same plant which has been remodeled and enlarged.

Police Arrest Bank Robbers

Clarion, Pa., Feb. 7.—(AP)—Two men who robbed the Clarion County National Bank of Knox were caught a short time later by police who had received information of the holdup plan. The prisoners' names were not given out.

The two and another man, supposed to have been an accomplice had looted about a restaurant across the street from the bank until Ray Wyle, a clerk, opened for business. As soon as the doors were thrown open they went to the home of George Berlin, the cashier threatened him with pistols and marched him to the bank.

Spring Days Are Fast Approaching

These bright days turn thoughts irresistibly to the new. New life, new thoughts, new clothes. Possibly a new coat, in one of the very delightful straight-line models, with or without fur.

Maybe one of the new suits—the smart and youthful models in blue, single or double breasted style with braid band edges. Or, possibly a tweed or fancy mixture is preferred.

Then, there are those fetching compose suits, with the short jacket and tailored or pleated skirts which seem to have first call whenever new clothes are thought of.

But they are all here. Everything new for Spring and all ready for your inspection and selection. When will you be in?

EDISON This week Thomas A. Edison celebrates his eighteenth birthday. The fame he enjoys is well deserved. Every one who uses an electric light watches a motion picture, listens to a phonograph, speaks over a telephone or rides over an electric railway is in part his debtor. His discoveries are at base of industries which employ millions of men and hundreds of million of capital. He is a central figure in an age of applied science. For decades his country has regarded him as one of its first citizens.

Mr. Edison emerged upon the American scene just after the Civil War. As a young telegraph operator he read the works of Michael Faraday and patented his first inventions. The country was just fully measuring its resources. The trans-continental railway was being built, the first oil millionaires were appearing, Carnegie and Frick were beginning their careers in steel and coke. The country was also just entering the new industrial era of standardized production. The war had left it a heritage of great clothing and shoe factories, of munitions factories that turned to farm implements, and of iron mills that turned to the new Bessemer process. It was just beginning to realize the potentialities of chemistry and technology. Pittsburgh and Midvale employed the first metallurgical chemists; William Sellers did the first creditable work with tool steel; the first chemical-dye factory opened. Electricity, a toy when Tyndall made his American tour in the early seventies, became an industrial power when news came from Austria of the first dynamo.

The time was ripe for the individualist, the pioneer, on the inventive frontier of industry. In especial it was ripe for a genius of such versatile industry as Mr. Edison. Not merely did he have in pre-eminent degree what psychologists call the "instinct of contrivance"—the same instinct which made great inventors of the barber Arkwright, the instrument maker Watt, the school teacher Eli Whitney and the artist Morse. He had a remarkable sense for the pressure of the new industrial age; for invention depends upon industrial and social demands. He had, too, an unusual ability to build upon the general technical and scientific advance. He brought to his opportunities the method and patience of a scientist. He used his first $40,000 to build a laboratory and shop. Though he once jokingly called himself 'pure practice' as contrasted with Dr. Steinmetz's "pure theory," nobody kept more thoroughly informed upon the progress of science and the "state of the art." Some of his inventions represent years of ceaseless, drudging experiment. To apply the electric light to general use he worked unremittingly upon dynamos, distributors, switches, feeders, fuses, meters and the other parts of a complete electric system. But he always remained an individualist.

The age which produced Edison is plainly drawing to a close. Industry is less and less willing to depend upon the accident of individual genius. Invention is becoming systematized and standardized. More and more it will be accomplished in large industrial laboratories or subsidized university laboratories by specialists of long intensive training, who know just what problems need solving and just what tools and methods to use. Our own country has already surpassed Germany in the establishment of such laboratories, and it is increasingly difficult for the outsider to compete with their experts. The genius will continue to appear, but he will be as rare as a comet. Men can look back upon Mr. Edison as perhaps the greatest American representative of the old era—and one of the real founders of the new—N. Y. World.

Pelee Island Oasis For Dry Americans

Cleveland, O., Feb. 7.—(INS)—Pelee Island is to be the new oasis where sportive Americans may congregate and indulge in as many drinks as they like, providing they leave the place with the liquor cached within themselves. The island, comprising 2,000 acres, lies a few miles out in Lake Erie, north of Sandusky, O., and belongs to the province of Ontario. Ontario has gone wet. Viola Tjujann will have a rival. A syndicate of promoters, some of whom are said to have been in the liquor business previously has obtained a concession to exploit the pretty island and their plans for entertaining Americans are most comprehensive. A fleet of fast boats, capable of making the trip from the mainland to Pelee Island in 30 minutes, has been chartered. Transportation is to be free—if you can figure it that way. A large hotel now is under construction by the syndicate and it is within this institution that the members of the promoting company hope to collect their chief revenues. Of course gambling is prohibited in Canada, but the small well advised police force of Pelee Island is not expected to become unusually inquisitive as to what transpires in the 'clubs' which will have their homes in the hotel. Special inducements are to be offered to week-end parties at the new resort. Boating, fishing and other athletic sports will be provided for—if demanded.

WIMBLEDON NOT AFFECTED BY ABSENCE OF SUZANNE

London, Feb. 7.—(INS)—The absence of Suzanne Lenglen from the Amateur Lawn Tennis Championships at Wimbledon next June is not expected to affect interest in the championships, according to officials. Men's contests will provide the main feature on the famous courts this year. "Big Bill" Tilden, Lacoste, Cochet, Borota and several other well known international players have announced their intention of competing. The authorities are preparing for a record application for seats.

Daily News Letter Gossip of Staff Correspondents at World Centers of Population. Los Angeles, Feb. 5.—(INS)—A 'love-knot' has nothing to do with the eternal triangle when it is mentioned in Hollywood. This merely the smartest new knitted material that is having a wide vogue among screen stars and players. According to Claire Windsor, dainty actress, knitted sweaters, skirts and even dresses are the smartest of sports wear. 'Love-knot is a new vogue,' says Miss Windsor. 'It is best carried out in silk, because it is the closest weave made. In compose themes it cannot be outdone. Red and white, green and blue, rose and beige are the three most attractive color combinations for spring sweaters and frocks. The slip over type of sweater is more effective than the tuxedo style. These are worn tucked into the skirts, at the natural waist line. Novelty belts in leather and silk are effective with such a sweater. For the first time in her meteoric screen career, Laura La Plante, blonde Universal star, is working without the usual screen 'makeup'. The picture is 'Beware of Widows', being directed by Wesley Ruggles, who was so confident that Laura's 'blonde loveliness' would transfer to the screen without any artificial aid that he instructed her to forego making up. Early rushes of the film show Laura's experiment was a complete success and it is considered doubtful whether she will ever again resort to grease paint. Two tone frocks are among Hollywood's latest fads. The stars of flandom are wearing one piece dresses in two tones and this has nothing to do with music, according to themselves. Carmel Myers brought the idea back with her from New York. She wears a novel sports dress of wool and silk material. The blouse and skirt are all in one piece but there are two colors used, beige and fenna. 'Frock coat, hat and shoes of all the same shade become monotonous,' says Miss Myers. 'When two colors blend well they are always more interesting than one. This fad is interesting for street as well as evening. The most startling evening gowns I've seen are those that boast bodices of cream, white or flesh with skirts of dark green, dark red or black. The slippers and hat worn with the two toned frock should match and should be of the predominating shade in the ensemble. Miniature film studios, complete in every detail, will be featured in the exhibits of the motion picture exhibition to be held in the Ambassador Auditorium March 7 to 12, it was announced by the arrangements committee here the other day. In these novel settings will be shown the 'tools of the trade,' and the scientific advancement made by films and manufacturers catering to the studio and film theatre. It will be the first time that the men behind the scenes have staged such an exposition in the West. Advancement in color photography, talking machines, amateur motion picture making, lighting effects and other phases that mark progress in the industry will be exhibited. Seventy-five per cent of the women screen stars and players in Hollywood have curly hair. This is not because fluffy haired women make the best actresses, but because, with very few exceptions, curly hair photographs better than straight. It gives the face a softer line. Lillian Gish has curly blonde hair. Norma Shearer has chestnut brown curling locks. Renee Adoree, Patricia Avery, Joan Crawford, Sally O'Neil, Gertrude Olmstead, Aulien Pringle, Dorothy Phillips, Marceline Day, Eleanor Boardman and Dorothy Sebastian are others who do not have to use the curling iron. Straight hair is usually the bane of the camera man's existence. In order to wear straight-hair a screen celebrity must either have a flawless camera face, or else be content to be eccentric rather than beautiful. Pauline Starke is one player who can wear straight hair successfully. The city of Cambridge, Mass., has given to the Maryland Assembly a gravel made from the Washington elm in Cambridge. Another Big Mule Auction Mules - 50 - Mules Greenville, N. C. Savages Stables Wednesday, February 9, 1:30 P. M. Mr. Farmer and Consumer of Mules: On the above I will sell at Public Auction another load of fresh shipped mules consisting of several matched pairs and single farm mules ranging in weight from 900 to 1250 pounds. Ages from 4 to 6 years. These mules are all in the best of condition, broke and ready for work. Mules will be ready for your inspection, Monday, February 7th. Come in and see them. I have been selling mules at auction at Greenville and nearby towns for the past 4 months, selling a great many, and anyone who has attended my sales knows that I sell a better kind of mule than has ever been sold at auction in this section, giving everyone a square deal and a real auction. No by bidding allowed. Every mule is put up and sold on its merits with no reserve. If you are not acquainted with me and the way I do business it will pay you to attend the sale and get acquainted, see how I conduct my sales. You are cordially invited to attend whether you buy or not. Mules sold under a guarantee to be as represented. Don't forget the date. HOWARD STANLEY OWNER AND AUCTIONEER

When You Buy Fertilizers What Do You Think About--- Quality or Price? DO YOU REALIZE THAT FERTILIZER, LIKE EVERYTHING ELSE, CAN BE MADE TO SELL CHEAP, AND THAT WHEN IT IS MADE CHEAP IT LOSES ITS QUALITY? WHAT IS A DOLLAR OR TWO IN THE PRICE OF FERTILIZER COMPARED TO FIFTY DOLLARS OR MORE IN RESULTS? THINK THE ABOVE QUESTIONS OVER SERIOUSLY AND THEN REMEMBER THAT Phillips' Veri-Best Fertilizers HAVE BEEN MANUFACTURED IN WASHINGTON SINCE 1915 WITH OUR FACTORY DOORS WIDE OPEN AND A STANDING INVITATION TO CALL AND INSPECT OUR MATERIALS, OUR METHODS OF MIXTURE AND OUR MIXED GOODS. THEREFORE, IF YOU ARE INTERESTED IN RESULTS, WHICH MEAN PROFITS, CALL AND LOOK OVER OUR FACTORY, AND THEN DECIDE IF A DOLLAR OR TWO SHALL BE YOUR CHOICE, OR CASH RESULTS WHEN YOU MARKET YOUR CROPS. # City Wide Dollar Day

The stores listed below are preparing for the greatest "Dollar Day" that Eastern North Carolina has ever known. Practically every department of every store joins in offering real values, the like of which has never before been seen in a one day special selling event of this kind. These semi-annual sales have brought people to Greenville from every section of this part of the State, and these shoppers have been made to realize that values such as these merchants offer on each "Dollar Day" are not to be found often. The stores are providing additional salespeople for the occasion, which assures immediate service. Come early and spend the day in the shopping district.

The income tax suit in Washington goes against the government, that will mean a saving of $9,000,000 to Henry Ford, who has nothing to do with the suit. And that won't make the slightest difference to Ford one way or the other. He wouldn't even have to sign the check, somebody would do that for him, and it would only like taking one apple out of a barrel.

Everything is comparative. If the income tax suit in Washington goes against the government, that will mean a saving of $9,000,000 to Henry Ford, who has nothing to do with the suit. And that won't make the slightest difference to Ford one way or the other. He wouldn't even have to sign the check, somebody would do that for him, and it would only like taking one apple out of a barrel.

"Marvelous to be so rich," the crowd will say. But the Japanese that Mr. Hubert saw at work setting one cent an hour, and to them a Ford employe is as rich as Ford is to the employe.

Germany has had enough war for the present, and isn't sending any expeditions to China. But, according to the Hamburger Volkzeitung, German manufacturers are shipping arms and ammunition to China by the shipload. The weapons are politely labeled "sport rifles" perhaps a fairly accurate description.

American business men die early because they don't perspire. They sit in their offices, then sit at home or at the theatre, making their kidneys do the work that should be done by hundreds of millions of pores in the skin. By and by they die.

A new office building for representatives in Congress will include ping-pong tables and Turkish baths, it is said. That should prolong the lives of Congressmen, if they use them.

In Britain Captain Campbell broke the world's automobile speed record, going 174 miles an hour. He drove a 500 horse-power engine; his car cost $40,000 and was worth it. How fast do you suppose men will travel in the air when engineering science and finance pay real attention to flying?

Market Report

GRAIN
Chicago, Feb. 7.—(AP)—Despite a decrease of 1,113,000 bushels the United States visible supply, wheat underwent a setback today. A decided bearish influence was the fact that Liverpool quotations had broken to the smallest premium yet over Chicago on the present crop. Liberal selling here was ascribed partly to hedging by the southwest. Wheat closed unsettled, 5-8 to 1 cent lower; corn 1-2 to 5-8 cent to 3-4 cent down; oats, 1-4 to 5-8 to 3-4 cent off and provisions varying from a shade decline to 10 cents advance.

STOCKS
New York, Feb. 7.—(AP)—Speculators for the advance continued in control of the price movement in today's stock market despite the uneasiness caused by the strained Wheeling and Lake Erie situation and sporadic bear attacks against a few specialties. Chief speculative interest in the railroad group shifted from the low priced carriers to the dividend payers while the industrial list was featured by a sharp run up of four points in Hudson motors. The closing was firm. Total sales approximated 2,000,000 shares.

SHORTS OFFER PREMIUM FOR WHEELING-LAKE ERIE
New York, Feb. 7.—(AP)—The mystery surrounding the recent sensational advance in Wheeling and Lake Erie stocks was solved today with the announcement by A. H. Harris, vice-president of the New York Central Railroad that his company had acquired 95,000 shares of the two stocks, part of the pre-

Manufacturer of Life!

Dr. Guy W. Clark (above) and Dr. Paul W. Sharp, of the University of California, announced that they had succeeded in developing dormant germs of life in the eggs of sea urchins by means of a substance known as oöcytin, extracted from blood. The feat was declared to be of far-reaching import.

and Ohio Utilities Commission approval.
Borrowers of the common stock who were recently caught 'short' in technical corner developing in that issue today were offering a premium of $3.50 a share a day for the loan of that stock to make delivery against short sales. Meanwhile the New York Stock Exchange called for additional information regarding current transactions, including aggregate long and short positions of firms and customers at 11 a. m. each day, and directors of the road today authorized conversion issuance of additional common into which the prior lien and preferred stocks could be converted, as provided for in the articles of incorporation subject to Interstate Commerce Commission
