REED CITES CASES OF FARMERS' SUFFERINGS AT HANDS OF SAPIRO

Says When Starving Tobacco Farmers Asked to Sell Crops He Held Them to Contracts

Detroit, March 18.—(AP)—Charging that Aaron Sapiro obtained more than $1,000,000 from cooperative organizations which he promoted, that he was unprofessional in the way he solicited business as a lawyer and in the advice he gave the organizations he formed, Senator James A. Reed of Missouri, in completing his opening statement in the million dollar libel suit against Henry Ford told the jury that he would show the articles alleged to be libelous were printed in good faith.

"We will ask you to find that Aaron Sapiro was an exploiter," he said. The Senator cut his plea short in order to catch a train for Washington.

William J. Cameron, editor of the Dearborn Independent, was placed on the stand this afternoon as the first witness in the million dollar libel suit.

Detroit, March 18.—(AP)—The thousands of dollars Aaron Sapiro was alleged to have obtained from the co-operative associations he organized were listed for the jury by Senator James A. Reed in the million dollar libel suit against Henry Ford.

The Senator, who is defending the automobile manufacturer against Sapiro, who claims his reputation was injured by stories printed in Ford's publication, the Dearborn Independent, was hurrying to complete his opening plea. He showed irritation at frequent interruption on the part of the plaintiff's attorney, William Gallagher, and insisted he was cutting the corners at every opportunity.

"Bearing in mind Sapiro's frequent declarations of no desire for large remuneration in organizing these cooperative associations among the farmers," said the Senator, "I want to tell you of some of the collections he made."

The largest amount obtained, according to Mr. Reed, was $142,000 from the Tri-State Tobacco Association, and the next largest figure was a total of $48,000 from the Burley Tobacco Association.

The Senator said Sapiro obtained $6,000 from the potato growers of Colorado, $30,000 from the dark tobacco growers of Kentucky and $17,500 from the main potato cooperatives. In Oregon he received $5,000 and from the Carolina peanut growers $5,000.

The defense attorney Gallagher read to the court a ruling made in the Michigan Supreme Court on what should be touched upon in an opening statement. Judge Fred M. Raymond said he had that decision in mind in his frequent warnings to both attorneys and he believed the guilt was equally divided in failure to comply with his requests.

Sapiro's work among the California prune and apricot growers, the Colorado and Idaho potato growers, tobacco planters in Kentucky and peanut growers in Carolina were taken up by the defense attorney.

"In spite of the fact that Sapiro represented himself as not being anxious for money," said the Senator, "he drew a salary of $75,000 a year from the California prune and apricot growers association after organizing them. The head of the field department got $12,000 and a stenographer who had been drawing $65 a month was put on the salary list at $6,000. Sapiro and his associates drew $80,000 for organizing and drawing up the articles of incorporation."

"In Kentucky when the members of the burley association, actually starving for lack of money, asked permission to sell their tobacco on the open market instead of handling it through the company, Sapiro insisted on holding them to their contracts."

CROWDS ATTEND REVIVAL SERVICES METHODIST CHURCH

Much Public Interest Being Manifest in Sermons of Rev. A. L. Stanford

A large congregation which filled the main auditorium and part of the Sunday School annex heard Rev. Mr. Stanford at Jarvis Memorial Church last night as he spoke on "Some Evidences of Soulship." There is but one way, the minister declared, that we may be children of God. Reformation is not sufficient. No man can reform into it—can grow into it—can be educated into it—can be born into it. Man is as unable to affect this marvelous change as an Ethiopian to change his color or a leopard his spots. The minister further declared that wherever this change from darkness to light has been wrought—we will know it. There are certain signs that seem to follow as the day of the world today, thought the minister, is not more preaching but a finer type of living. He further declared that if we are God's children the biggest thing to us is our heavenly Father's interest and His Church here on earth.

Much interest was manifested on the part of the people on last evening.

These services are your services—if you will make them so. Come and bring your friends. Do your part.

This morning Mr. Stanford preached from 4th chapter of Acts beginning with the 31st verse. He gave some characteristics of the early Apostolic Church as an example to us.

"God's ideal church," said the minister, "is indeed the world of earth, pride of heaven and the everlasting rebuke of hell."

The minister declared the early church to be a praying church and that the greatest power in all the world today is the power of prayer. What we need to do, said he, is to get down on our knees.

The early church, said the preacher, was a spirit-filled church—a courageous church, a united church, a liberal church and a soul-saving church.

What we need today is the old time power of the spirit, he said. This evening will the Young People's Night, Mrs. Stiedley will be the speaker.

TEN ARE KNOWN TO HAVE LOST LIVES AS RESULT OF CYCLONE

Half Dozen Communities in Southwest Arkansas Visited by Twisters Last Night

Little Rock, Ark., March 18.—(AP)—Ten persons are known to have been killed and nearly a score injured in a tornado which dipped into South Central Arkansas last night and took a toll of life and property damage in several small towns and farming settlements.

The brunt of the storm centered around Klondike, where five lives were snuffed out and one seriously injured in a single household.

Mrs. Edgar Smith, her two-year-old son, Clifford, Lennie Cash, 22, Matthew Yearby, Artis Cash, sisters and brother of Mrs. Smith, were dead at Klondike, and Inez Smith, 6, a daughter, was missing. Lloyd McAllister, 20, of Willis, and Olga Moody of Mountain View, were the others listed among the known dead.

Two were known to be injured at dellett, Pike County, and eight to ten injured at Mountain View. Destruction of a school house, where one was seriously injured, was reported from Mountain View. School children had gathered at the school to rehearse a play.

Communities in the vicinity of Benton reported casualties. The twister dipped near Alexander, where the State training school for girls is located and several of the buildings of the institution were blown down and two women hurt.

Two were seriously, probably fatally injured near Texarkana—a young newly married couple—whose farm was in the path of the tornado. Hall and rain accompanying the storm in that community broke window glass out and caused other property damage.

Train service was hampered to some extent. Near Hot Springs the crew on a passenger train were forced to get out in the storm and cut a fallen tree from the tracks.

SAY INSULL RULED WHEN THOMPSON MAYOR OF CHICAGO

Utilities Magnate Recently Cited for Contempt Charged With Buying Control City

Chicago, March 18.—(AP)—Samuel Insull, Chicago Public Utilities executive, recently cited to the Senate for contempt of its campaign funds investigation committee today was named indirectly by the Peoples-Dever-Ford-Mayor Committee as contributor of $100,000 to William Hale Thompson's 1915 campaign fund and as the man behind Thompson.

"As a matter of fact," said a statement by the committee, "William Hale Thompson never was the real mayor of Chicago. He called himself the mayor for eight years while the man behind Thompson ran the town. He wants to be called mayor again. Then who would run the town? Who is the man behind Thompson now?"

"Here are the facts: In 1925 Thompson solemnly promised to battle for the people against the public utilities."

"He didn't tell the people that he had contributed $100,000 to Thompson's campaign. Insull was then and is now the head of the gas company, the electric company and the elevated railways and the overlord of the street railroads."

"Thompson didn't tell the people that he won $117,500 of stock in Insull's Commonwealth Edison Company."

The statement was one of the most startling developments of a three-cornered campaign of Thompson, William E. Dever, the Democratic incumbent and Dr. John Dill Robertson, of the "Peoples Ownership, Small Crime Rings" party preliminary to the mayoralty election April 5.

The campaign has been vitriolic and Dever and Thompson have hurled short and ugly word sat each other.

Mr. Insull is abroad. Belgium has an officially recognized "School for Taxpayers" to teach contributors the law's intricacies.

New Iron—New Method. The St. Lawrence Shipway. Two Good Decisions. Mad Dogs—Mad Wolves.

(By Arthur Brisbane)

Swedish and Dutch companies will work iron mines in North Africa, containing marvelously pure iron and a low percentage of phosphorus.

Plenty of water power goes to waste in Africa, and electric power, according to a recent announcement, can now be carried 1,000 miles. If the Swedes and Dutchmen can connect their African iron mines with cheap electric power and manufacture it by the new electric process, they may cause those learned gentlemen, Gary, Farrell, Schwab and Grace to think hard and ask for a higher tariff.

However, American steel concerns are already buying iron in Brazil and many other places, and "sewing up" electric power. They will probably manage to keep ahead.

The common stock of the big steel company is declared by experts to have a book value of $219 a share and to be earning above 12 per cent net. That's the stock that the hasty Mr. Carnegie called "pure air, not even water, and one that will never be worth anything" when he refused to take a lot of it for nothing. You never can tell about values in the United States.

To a gathering of New England business men, Secretary Hoover gave a clear, convincing outline of the St. Lawrence shipway project.

A comparatively simple engineering plan, it will have greater importance than the construction of the Panama Canal, and the only difficulties in the way are political difficulties, the necessity of a working arrangement between Canada and the United States, territory of both nations being used in the canal work.

The building of the canal would create five million horsepower which would be fairly divided between Canada, New York State and New England, and in the long run, pay for the canal many times.

It would be an interesting comment on our home methods, and Senatorial dignity if Canada and the United States should manage to build the St. Lawrence shipway, opening the lakes to the ocean, while the United States still talks about developing its own Colorado river power.

In Canada, E. V. Sterry, an Englishman, is sentenced to sixty days in jail for blasphemy. "Scurrilous and opprobrious, indecent and libelous criticism of God, the Serpents and the Christian religion," was the charge against him. If he was guilty, the punishment is deserved. You have no more right to hurt the religious feelings of others than you have to hurt their bodies.

VIRGINIA FAMILY HAS UNITED STATES ALL ITS OWN

Winchester, Va., March 18.—(AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Utah Croson, of Frederick county, have a United States all their own.

Utah Croson married Miss Rhode Island Place more than 10 years ago and the county clerk who made out the license thinking the union of Utah and Rhode Island would be propitious, presented it with compliments and refused a fee.

Now Miss Tennessee is a member of the family. She has four brothers, Vermont, Georgia, Kansas and Montana, and three sisters, Minnesota, Maryland and Florida.

DISCUSS PLAN FOR ESTABLISHMENT OF NATIONAL PARK

Asheville, March 18.—(AP)—The North Carolina Commission went into conference in Asheville with Great Smoky Mountains, Inc. the holding company in park funds, and other park boosters, to determine best methods to speed up establishment of a national park in the Great Smokies.

Establishment of the park, Senator Mark Squires of Lenoir, the chairman of the commission, said is now merely a question of time but the biggest problem of the commission is how to cut down that time.

Actual acquisition of land for park purposes and collection of pledges toward establishment of the park that a purchasing agent may at least begin securing options will probably be the park commission's next steps, Senator Squires said.

The executive conference of the two park bodies was scheduled to start until late this afternoon. A luncheon was held at 1 o'clock at Battery Park hotel and the park commission were the guests of the Asheville Chamber of Commerce. The luncheon was a sort of celebration over the recent passage of a bill authorizing appropriation of $2,000,000 for park purposes.

GOV. WHITFIELD OF MISSISSIPPI DIED EARLY TODAY

End Came After Long Illness. Special Train Will Carry Body to Columbus Tomorrow

Jackson, Miss., March 18.—(AP)—Governor Henry L. Whitfield, of Mississippi, died at the executive mansion at 4:31 o'clock this morning. He succumbed to cancer of the bone which first attacked his left leg, causing an amputation on November 30. Several days ago, after having returned to his executive duties, he was again forced to his bed.

Miss Whitfield was with the Governor when he died. Unconscious for several hours before the end, he had not given a sign except at one time yesterday when in a moment of consciousness he smiled.

The body will lie in state in the Capitol until tomorrow morning, and then will be taken to Columbus, Miss., on a special train. Funeral services will be held there on the campus of the Mississippi State College for Women. Governor Whitfield was president of the college for several years.

Dr. W. H. Hewitt, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Jackson, will conduct the services. The Governor's staff will be pallbearers.

Although his physicians had announced that the Governor was beyond medical aid and that death was only a question of hours, the announcement that he was dead brought thousands of expressions of sincere sorrow from his friends throughout the State. Probably no Governor in the history of Mississippi was so well known to its citizens as Henry L. Whitfield.

The body today was removed to the State capital where it will lie in state until tomorrow.

The State capital buildings were closed and flags in all sections of the city were at half mast.

Jackson, Miss., March 18.—(AP)—At the death of Governor Henry L. Whitfield, Lieutenant-Governor Dennis Murthree, of Pittsburgh, automatically became Chief Executive of the State.

Governor Murthree who it is expected will be administered the oath of office in a few days, is 41 years old, a newspaper publisher and former state legislator. For the last two years he has been president of the State Senate. Governor Murthree is married and has four children.

GENERAL STRIKE IN SHANGHAI SET FOR TOMORROW

Strike Called for Tomorrow Noon Will Continue Until Cantonese Occupy Shanghai

Shanghai, March 18.—(AP)—The General Labor Union today issued a communique calling a general strike to begin tomorrow at noon and continue until the Nationalists (Cantonese) occupy Shanghai.

The communique calls on the workers to maintain order and avoid becoming involved in any mob action, and notifies the public that the strike is purely a political nature and intended to show sympathy with the Nationalist cause in the fight against the Northerners.

Detachments of Shanghai (Northern) troops have been ordered to the Shanghai-Nanking Railway to attempt to prevent the workers from leaving.

Shanghai, March 18.—(AP)—Both Nanking and Shanghai are seriously threatened by the Cantonese armies which are engaged in a large scale offensive against the Northerners to the Northwest of this city.

The violence and scope of the Southerners' thrust, together with defections from the Northern ranks indicate the early fall of Nanking and the possible isolation of Chang Tsung-Chang's Northern forces in Shanghai, in which event this great international port would become an easy prize for the Southerners.

Strongest pressure is being exerted in the directions of Changchow, Wushih and Soochow, all of which are on the railway between Shanghai and Nanking. The most successful of the Southerners include the capture of Wushih, a short distance south of Soochow, and Lishih, southeast of Nanking.

The Shantung forces are reported to be offering little serious resistance, which is considered as tending to confirm reports that Chang Tsung-Chang is trying to drive a bargain with Chang Kai-Shek, the Southern commander, under which the former would withdraw from the Yantze Valley.

The American missionaries in Nanking have begun preparations to carry out the suggestions of the American consul, John K. Davis, for early withdrawal of the aged and infirm as well as women and children from Nanking to Shanghai.

Small groups have been arriving here for the last week, and the total number of refugees is expected to reach 100 by the week-end. It is emphasized however, that general evacuation of the foreigners from Nanking has not yet been ordered.

Work on Warehouse Moving Along Fast

The work of rebuilding Forbes and Morton's warehouse here, that was partially wrecked when the weight of the recent snow crushed in the roof, is moving along at a rapid pace. A large number of workmen are on the job and the good weather is in their favor.

Construction work on the west wall will be completed today while work on other parts of the building indicate that it will be only a short time before the building will be completed.

Many new features and improvements will be included in the rebuilding and remodeling of the house.

Question Legality of Parole Granted to Dr. Fred Cook

Washington, March 18.—(AP)—Legality of the five year parole granted Dr. Frederick A. Cook, Arctic explorer and oil promoter, by Federal Judge James C. Wilson at Fort Worth, Texas, is expected to be tested in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals.

While Attorney-General Sargent and other officials of the Department of Justice have refused to comment on the probationary order, extended yesterday, it is regarded as certain that District Attorney Zweifel at Fort Worth, will be instructed to press for action on the appeal he has announced will be filed. This would throw the question into the higher federal court and possibly start legal proceedings that would be continued until the United States Supreme Court would be reached.

Dr. Cook, who still claims to be the original discoverer of the North Pole, is serving a 14 year sentence at Leavenworth prison for misuse of the mails for oil stock promotion.

Governor McLean declined to intercede last August.

SCOTT DECLARES WETS SEEK VICTORY BY BEER ROUTE

Anti-Saloon League Holds Biennial Convention in Raleigh Today

Raleigh, March 18.—(AP)—Times are very lax, Miss Belle Kearney, State Senator of Mississippi, tells her convention audience under auspices of the North Carolina Anti-Saloon League.

The crime wave prevalent, prohibition, and all other laws ignored, is bad enough, she says but "since the world war the ideals of America have sunk to unbelievable depths."

Calling attention to smoking and wearing, "affected by some women," she says "the way that women are dressing is the most pitiful thing I can conceive of."

Miss Kearney had for her formal address today "Doom or Dominion of Linnor," while Dr. Francis Scott McBride, Westerville, Ohio, Major Frank B. Ebbert, Los Angeles, and William E. (Pussyfoot) Johnson, "citizen of the world," also were on the program.

The wets are seeking to bring back the liquor traffic by detouring about the Constitution of the United States on a so-called "beer" route, Francis Scott McBride, general superintendent of the anti-saloon league of America, said today.

"They know that if they succeed in reaching the main highway again they will then be in full control, and as they did in former times, can then make liquor traffic just what they want it to be."

There are three outstanding features of "their comeback" program, he said, first, the sham battle refereed in wet centers and wet saloons, the raising of the alcoholic content of liquor to permit sale of beer and wine; third, to break down enforcement.

The battleship, he said, is that of public opinion. He told of the time when 23 gallons was the per capita consumption and one in every four drank, meaning a per capita for those who did drink of 88 gallons.

"The wet, when the people were voting the saloon out with the opportunities offered in referendum contests, opposed every privilege to vote on the question. No unit was satisfactory to them at that time. They stood against county option, local option, city option and statewide option everywhere. Ohio, Illinois and many of the other states were battle-ground in this struggle."

"Even in wet Chicago, where the wets recently took a referendum among themselves to find out if the wets were still 'wet,' and found as a result that there were 100,000 fewer wet votes recorded in the election of 1926 than were cast in a similar election of 1922, they opposed giving that city or the counties of the state or the state as a whole any chance to vote on the saloon question."

Dr. McBride said figures showing a survey of Harvard College which said "90 per cent of the students in the senior class drink; 35 per cent drink heavily; 45 per cent have one or two drunken spells a year; 15 per cent go irretrievably to the bad as a result of liquor."

The survey, however, he said, was under date of Sept. 10, 1911.

"In the last 30 months I have visited all the states of the Union but one; 41 of them a second time; more than 30 three or more times and I know that the heart of America and the life of America is back of our constitution and the laws necessary to make the constitution effective. The United States will never change by surrendering to outlawed liquor."

Parole Hearing For Thos. E. Cooper Set for Thursday

Raleigh, March 18.—(AP)—Governor McLean sets parole hearing for Thomas E. Cooper, former Wilmington banker, convicted of violation of the Federal banking laws, for next Thursday before his Pardon Commission.

Cooper's petition for a parole hearing was assented to late yesterday. The Wilmington man had been on eight years term at midnight Wednesday after returning from federal prison at Atlanta where he served two years and nine days of a sentence imposed in Federal court in February 1925.

Prior to the federal conviction, he had been convicted in state courts on charges based on failure of the Liberty Savings Bank and given eight years in the New Hanover county chain gang. From this sentence he appeals to the Governor.

IF CONVERSATION COUNTED CARDINALS WOULD AGAIN BE WORLD BASEBALL CHAMPIONS

(By Brian Bell.)

Avon Park, Fla., March 18.—(AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals are champions of the world and proud of it. If their vocal chords hold out there seems little likelihood that they will be outtalked in many games this season. In the spring preparation period the conversation about them has been tossed back and forth with an abandon second only to that with which the regular baseballs are thrown.

The champions seem supremely confident they will be able to repeat. The new manager, Bob O'Farrell, contented himself with modest satisfaction "at the prospects. "I think it is safe to expect our club to be among the leaders all the way," he said.

"The club has lost its manager and several base-men, found a manager in the ranks and brought a second baseman from another club. An experienced pitcher and catcher have been added and two new outfielders who can hit, and are seeking a chance to prove it.

Bob O'Farrell, promoted from catcher to manager and catcher, is popular with the players and is not dismayed at the difficult task of taking Rogers Hornsby's place. Frankie Frisch started at a rapid pace and thus far has kept it up with consistently sensational fielding around second base.

Tommy Thevenow, a shining light in the world series, has not reported to play shortstop and his place has been taken temporarily at least, by Davey Raymond Flowers, called "Jake" for short. Flowers who once had a stiff finger on his throwing hand, loosened the digit during the winter and has been doing well. Thevenow, however, is expected to report sooner or later and send Flowers to the bench to sit beside George Toporcer, the expected infield substitute. Lester Bell at third and Jim Bottomley at first are holdovers.

Fla. Rhea, the South Carolina plunger, is the other missing member of the team. With the exception of Rhea, last year's pitchers are on hand with a added veteran. Jimmy Ring, who has gained experience with Cincinnati, Philadelphia and New York. The other pitchers are Grover Alexander, Wil. He Snerdel, Arthur Reinhart, Jesse Haines, Vic Kee, Herman Bell and Ed Dyer.

Manager O'Farrell will do most of the catching but has Frank Snyder to relieve him when he takes a day off. The club has only two catchers signed but two young receivers, the property of Syracuse, St. Louis' baseball farm, are in camp fighting for the position of third catcher. The location of the third catcher on the St. Louis club is in the "bull pen" warming up relief pitchers. Either Frank Chambers, former University of Alabama player or Charlie Abbott, a Texan, will draw the assignment.

Two thirds of the outfield was decided before training began. Bitly Southworth is right and Taylor doubtful in center had no opposition. Left field is still uncertain. Ray Blades and "Chick" Hafey, who divided the place between them last year, when Blades was forced out by injuries, may do the same thing again with a possibility that neither will be able to start. Blades has a big leg, and Hafey has shins trouble, resulting in impaired vision for a time.

Danny Lark, who was infielder with Detroit and Boston in the American League and did some hitting for both, is back in the majors again as an outfielder, the transformation having taken place while he was with Syracuse, in the International League. Roscoe Holm, a utility infielder, with the club last year, is again available. Another good hitter who has made an early favorable impression, is Walter Toetiger, who played with Syracuse last year.

An addition during the winter who will not report in the fall is Bill McKenich, former Pittsburgh manager, who is now a St. Louis coach. Manager O'Farrell leans heavily on the man who has won a world championship team.

O'Farrell thinks the Cardinals are as strong if not stronger, than they were last season. He does not think the club has been weakened at second base and declares it is a valuable addition to the pitching staff. Ring is much heavier this spring than formerly, the pitcher having decided that he needed more weight to enable him to do his most effective work.

The players think they will repeat and do not care who knows it.

Earl Combs, outfielder, dropped his suit cases in the Yankees' hotel lobby yesterday.

The Yankees entertained the Cardinals at Sarasota. Two home runs in the final frame were necessary to enable St. Louis to win 3 to 0.

Brooklyn threw Columbus for an 8-2 loss at Clearwater.

PHILADELPHIA NATIONALS SHORT ON PITCHERS

Philadelphia, March 18.—(AP)—Scarcity of pitchers is hampering the Philadelphia Nationals. So handicapped are they in this respect that the Columbus American Association has been asked to cancel an exhibition game scheduled for Plant City on Monday.

There are eleven pitchers in the Phillies camp at Bradenton, Fla., four are on the sick or injured list and several others are not far enough advanced to work in a regular contest.

Yesterday the Athletics were defeated by the Boston Nationals 13 to 5 in a 7 inning contest at St. Petersburg after the first game had been forfeited to the Braves by Umpire Frank Wilson of the National League when Ty Cobb and Kid Gleason refused to leave the field when ordered by him to do so. NEW CHALLENGER FOR PAAVO NURMI

New York, March 18.—(AP)—For the first time since Paavo Nurmi crossed the Atlantic two years ago to scorch board tracks with his blazing speed, America today boasted a mile runner capable of defeating the finest of foreign opposition.

Lo Lloyd Hahn, sturdy Nebraskan, now representing the Boston A. A., went the honor of re-establishing American supremacy when he conquered Edwin Wide, Swedish master of Nurmi, at the Knights of Columbus games in Madison Square Garden last night. Hahn won by four yards in 4 minutes, 12 1-5 seconds.

The time was one fifth of a second slower than the world indoor mark held jointly by Nurmi and Joie Ray. The race teemed with thrills from start to finish.

As every available moment counts toward their efficiency, the public will please make traffic as little as possible on these days.

It would be greatly appreciated if parents would keep their children on the sidewalks on these days, both for the child's safety and for the convenience of the Band. A few days ago two children came very near being hurt when a truck approached. The children were busy following the Band, did not see the truck and except for being pulled aside by a member of the Band, would have probably been fatally hurt. Co-operation by everyone would help the Band very much and would be greatly appreciated.

Tag Day Will Be Held In The Near Future

Tag Day is virtually the only means of supporting athletics in Greenville high school. The proceeds of the next one will go to secure baseball games at home and to pay off debts incurred by the activity association in the past.

A great many people cannot see why it is that they should give as they can see no reason for so great an expense attached to high school athletics. First comes the coaches' pay, in Greenville high school one is paid to do nothing but coach the teams. Second, comes uniforms. These suits cost quite a great deal each year, as some new material has to be purchased from year to year. The third expense includes new balls and guarantees. The guarantees are used in securing home games with opponents in other towns. Composing the fourth expense are: traveling, eating and lodging while visiting some other town.

Having presented these facts it can be seen without difficulty why additional funds must be raised. Tag Day proceeds tend toward providing home games for those who cannot follow the team; therefore, the greater the proceeds of Tag Day, the more games and the smaller indebtedness of the student activity association.

NOW HELP! You like baseball, you are interested in anything that is sponsored by your Greenville high school. When you are called on to donate, do so freely. It is not a selfish cause. Some one who does not like athletics may hate to give and say that it is foolish to spend money on this cause, but these games promote physical development and promote a greater interest and friendship among the students of nearby schools. Greenville has the population that entitles it to be called a city and should stand behind events of this kind as cities do.

T. J. MANN HAS QUIETUS PUT ON THE AUCTION BILL

There was a bill introduced by Mr. Martin of Washington in which to tax the auction salesmen of the State of horses and mules to the extent of the profit almost. But when T. J. Mann of Lake Landing got a whiff of this he immediately made investigation and found that they were fixing to mess up his business in the horse and mule sales. He got in touch with W. H. Sawyer and Walter L. Spencer to represent him at this reading. The results was as follows: A bill to regulate auction sales of horses and mules was reported unfavorably by the House Committee on Agriculture after public hearing at which James Griffin representing the North Carolina Horse Dealers Association appeared for the measure. Walter L. Spencer and W. H. Sawyer opposed the bill representing T. J. Mann, of Lake Landing.

When you think that the Hynde County people is sleeping and let them pull anything on them you are only fooling yourself, for T. J. has already sold over five hundred horses and mules since that bill was defeated and expects to sell that many more by the first of the month. Ad.

The local chapter of United Daughters of the Confederacy is in charge of the work in this community and we are confident that the county will go over 100 per cent when called upon to place the names of its loved veterans in the Book of Memories, not that a book record is necessary for the present generation to love and revere these former heroes, but that the future generations may be able to read from this Book of Memories the names of these valiant sons of the South who went forth under Lee and Jackson.

WHAT SAY YOU?

What is the correct location for the new river bridge here, seems to be a popular topic of conversation now, but there seems to be some division of opinion as to whether or not the bridge should be placed at the foot of Evans street. The bridge is of vital importance to the future of Greenville and before it is built is the time to take into consideration the advantages or disadvantages of any certain location.

No doubt the State Highway Commission will give consideration to the decision of the local citizens in the matter but this expression of wishes must be in concrete and convincing form for presentation to the commission.

While it is our opinion that the proper place for the new bridge is at the foot of Evans street there are those who differ from us in opinions in the matter and in order to know just what the town wants, the citizens must express themselves. As a means of getting the correct sentiment of the citizens of the town on the proposition we suggest and urge that at some early date a mass meeting of the citizens be held in the court house for the purpose of discussing the matter and that requests in keeping with the sentiment of such mass meeting be presented to the State Highway Commission for its consideration. Every citizen no doubt has an opinion in the matter but the true sentiment cannot be learned if the citizens do not make their opinion known.

HONOR TO THE GREY

with other Southern States, with other Southern States is now preparing to honor its Wearers of the Grey thru the "Gold Star enrollment of its veterans." Under this plan the name of each living Confederate veteran will be placed in the Book of Memories to be kept in Memorial Hall at Stone Mountain. Opposite the name of each veteran will be placed a gold star and at the time of the enrollment the veteran will be sent a special medal engraved by the sculptor of the Memorial.

North Carolina has four thousand living veterans and only through the hearty cooperation and aid of the men and women of the state will it be possible to enroll the names of these veterans in the Book of Memories. All over the state organizations are busily engaged enlisting the interest of business men, fraternal societies and organizations to insure each county attaining 100 per cent enrollment of its veterans.

Gold Star enrollments are being subscribed at a cost of $5 each, the money to be used in the building of the Stone Mountain Memorial.

PRIAISE MAYOR'S WORK

The Parent-Teachers Association of the Evans Street School is loud in its praise for the prompt action on the part of Mayor J. C. Lanier; in providing safety measures on the street in front of the school. The dangers from speeding automobiles on streets adjacent to schools was called to the attention of Mayor Lanier by the Parent-Teachers organization and as a result warning signs, "School Zone, Go Slow" have been placed in the center of the street near the schools and in addition a traffic officer has been ordered on duty within the zone during the hours that the school children are going to and from school and during the recess hours. While the children are continually warned of the dangers that lurk within the traffic of the street, they will at time, forget the danger and run into the streets and several near serious accidents have occurred as a result. Those interested in the schools believe that the steps taken by the mayor to prevent fast driving through the school zones will to a great extent remove the dangers that heretofore have been a menace.

A GOOD SOURCE OF REVENUE

Farmers in the mountain section of North Carolina have purchased 123 pure bred cows since the first of the year. The example set by the western farmers could well be followed by farmers of this and other eastern counties.

One or several milch cows for every farm in Pitt county, with a central creamery for the disposal of the surplus above requirements for home use would create a steady year round income for the farmers. Money derived from this source would come in mighty handy for the farmers while they are tending their crops and are paying out instead of getting in money.

If Pitt county will furnish a sufficient supply of milk and cream there will be no trouble in getting interested parties to establish a creamery plant in this county. Such a proposition would be a good one for some of our live organizations to get behind.

Market Report

Cotton--Stocks--Grain

STOCK OPENING

New York, March 18.—(AP)—Stock prices displayed a firm tone at the opening of today's stock market. The establishment of several new high records by the high priced industrials yesterday had resulted in a fair sized accumulation of buying orders in recent favorites. DuPont and Chile Copper each opened about a point higher.

Foreign exchanges opened firm with demand sterling and Spanish pesetas at new high records of $4.85 1-2 and 17.50 cents respectively. French francs held steady just under 3.91 cents.

COTTON OPENING

New York, March 18.—(AP)—Cotton futures opened steady; March 13.63; May 13.73; July 13.91; October 14.10; December 14.25.

The cotton market opened steady today at a decline of 2 to 4 points, in response to relatively easy Liverpool market, but initial offerings were readily absorbed by trade buying or weak covering and the market held fairly steady.

Liverpool, March 18.—(AP)—Cotton spot moderate business; prices easier. American strict good middling 8.49; good middling 8.14; strict middling 7.79; middling 7.54; strict low middling 7.04; low middling 6.59; strict good ordinary 6.29; good ordinary 5.84; sales 7,000 bales, including 6,000 American. Receipts 28,000 American 19,600. Futures closed quiet but steady. March 7.21; May 7.33; July 7.46; October 7.55; December 7.69; January 7.62.

Liverpool to Observe Longer Hours
Liverpool, March 18.—(AP)—The cotton exchange here will remain open until 4:30 p. m., from April 11, when daylight saving begins in England, until April 24 when it becomes effective in the United States.

COTTON
New York, March 17.—(AP)—The cotton market was very quiet today with prices lower under a renewal of liquidation and some southern or local selling promoted by easier Liverpool cables. Reports of a falling off in spot demand and rumors of a slightly easier basis on low grades in the southwest. May was selling around 13.77 and October 14.14 in the mid-afternoon market or about 12 to 18 points net lower.

NEW YORK DAIRY
New York, March 17.—(AP)—Butter unsettled; receipts 10,390; creamery extras 92 score, 47.1-2; creamery firsts 88 to 91 score 45.3-4 to 47.1-4. Eggs steady; receipts 32,153. Fresh gathered, extra firsts 27 to 28. Cheese steady; receipts 125,741.

McGrath, Alaska, March 18.—(AP)—Airplane and dog team parties from five Alaska towns were mustered today for a start into the lower Kuskokwim River country in search of E. G. Young, missing aviator whose abandoned plane was found early Monday on the ice of Kuskokwim below Kaltag.

Believe Hundred Lost Their Lives Wrecked Vessel
Chungking, China, March 18.—(AP)—More than a hundred persons were believed to have been drowned last night by the wrecking of the motor vessel Chongshin in the Yangtze River near Luohow, Province of Szechwan. Most of the victims were soldiers.

STOCK MARKET

New York, March 17.—(AP)—Major speculative interest in today's market was again on the upside although occasional selling squalls set in motion by bear traders had a temporary unsettling effect. As in most recent sessions, the upward movement was led by the high priced industrials and railroads referred to as the "Blue Chips" by professional traders. Scattered commission house buying was only moderate in character.

The close was strong. Total sales approximated 1,900,000 shares.

G RAIN

Chicago, March 17.—(AP)—Increased selling which developed during the last hour today brought about a sharp break in wheat after a slight early advance. The late selling was due largely to failure of efforts to lift prices further because of talk of possible low temperatures in domestic wheat crop territory. Crop prospects remained favorable and actual new export business out to be relatively small.

Wheat closed weak 1 3-4 to 2 cents net lower; corn 1-2 to 1 1-8 down; oats 3-8 to 1-2 off; and provisions unchanged to a setback of 1 point.

BERNARD SHAW POSES AS GUNMAN

Declares He Dislikes Publicity But Any- way He Ponders Clippings

(By James P. Howe)
London, March 18.—(AP)—Bernard Shaw is often at his best in the morning. He was so good the other day just after breakfast as to threaten to shoot me.

The threat was made over the telephone. Mr. Shaw has a perfect telephone voice—there was no misunderstanding him.

Furthermore, if it ever comes to a show down, there were four other listeners who overheard the Nobel prize winner, in a very gruff tone, say these very words:

"If you dare do that, I will shoot you!"

The listeners who heard this remark were, Mrs. Shaw, Miss Blanche Patch, his long and trusted secretary, and the Shaw housekeeper and cook.

I had called up the author at his London apartment to ask if he would be interested in a great batch of clippings of an interview carried by The Associated Press and published extensively throughout the United States. The interview was granted November 19 last, and related to the Nobel prize.

Mr. Shaw said most emphatically that he was not in the least interested in clippings about himself, or anything else.

It was explained that there were caricatures and very old photographs and snappy headlines, in black ink and in red and green and pink, and he was sure to get a nudge out of the varied assortment.

"If I should see that scarp-book," growled the grizzled Fabian, "I would die at once."

There were further explanations to the effect that the book of clippings, had, most assuredly, not been conceived to cause any such clamor as that, but this remark went unheeded.

"I'll bring the book along," I ventured, "and put it on your desk—you may glance through it at your leisure."

It was at this point that the voice bristled a bit and made the threat which, if executed, would have brought me untold fame. But even as it is, I am perhaps, the first person who has been so menaced by this world-renowned literary figure.

Ten minutes after Mr. Shaw made his gesture as a gunman, I was standing at the iron gate with its prongs and wire nettings, which bars the stairway to his second floor apartment in Adelphi Terrace overlooking the Thames embankment.

Miss Patch, summoned by a maid, appeared.

"I'm the fellow Mr. Shaw threatened to shoot a few minutes ago," I said meekly.

"Oh yes," Miss Patch laughed. "I thought you would take the hint," and she opened the Yale-locked gate, which rattled and clanged behind us as we climbed to the forbidden den.

Mr. Shaw was not glad to see me. Not for the world would he look at the clippings. He hates publicity and newspapers, he said, and reporters—but he pored over the clippings for half an hour or so, and then he wrote:

"The contents of this scrapbook form a masterpiece of modern journalism. This testimonial is to be interpreted in the most unfavorable sense."

"Then with a flourish, he signed 'G. Bernard Shaw, London, 29th February, 1927,'" and the deed was done.

As I departed, scrapbook under arm, my host of the moment before remarked, softly, almost gently, "I'll get you yet!" and as I closed the door, I heard him chuckling heartily all to himself.

Daily News Letter

Gossip of Staff Correspondents at World Centers of Population.

New Haven, Conn. March 18.—(NS)—Division of Yale into colleges based on the dormitory system seems to be a possibility of the future. Younger graduates are agitating for the plan after a fashion, and as Yale pays due regard to the opinions of the younger generation possibilities are numerous. Wallace S. Pope, of Cincinnati, who graduated here in 1926, and is now in Cambridge University, England, wrote back to the Alumni Weekly at Yale saying:

"Cambridge is a university in which the principle of athletics for all is practiced. Yale talks about it, but nothing is seriously done."

"Professional coaches ought to be given up. There is no need of them."

Older graduates agree, and very truly, even if slowly, the idea is being circulated among those who have the welfare of the student body in charge.

Various individuals would have Yale's athletic competitions confined to intramural or inter-dormitory affairs with perhaps Harvard and Princeton meets. In various sports to put ginger into the season. Real friends of Yale would turn out just as strongly for competitions between Yale groups as for matches with other institutions, advocates of the new plan insist.

The increasing tendency of Yale to be like an English University is held accountable for the suggestion that Yale should imitate the English in its sport contests also. With English like buildings rising about Yale, with an English Inns-of-Court Union in the making Great Britain seems to many to have captured Yale very definitely.

The rise of the younger generation at Yale is indicated by the calling of Rev. Emore McNeil McKee, a local Episcopal minister, to be pastor of the Church of Christ in Yale College. While Mr. McKee has not yet accepted the call to head what is ostensibly a Congregational church, University officials put great stress on the fact that he has been invited to the pulpit.

Mr. McKee, graduating from Tufts School, received his first degree from Yale in 1919 and studied in Yale Divinity School becoming a member of divinity in another two years. Then he took work in the General Theological Seminary at New York and later at the University of Edinburgh, Scotland, going finally to Berkeley Divinity School at Middletown, Conn.

In his day Mr. McKee ran Yale Daily News, and went into Skull and Bones Society as well as into Beta Theta Pi.

After serving as a curate in a Waterbury, Conn., church, he came to New Haven two years ago to be pastor of historic St. Paul's Church, "Mother of Bishops," and to be a successor, in time, of Bishop Lines, of Newark, and Bishop Perry, of Rhode Island.

In announcing the call Yale said: "With the abolition of compulsory chapel it is now planned to develop a strong church in the heart of the University, to include members of the faculty and their families as well as students. The students heartily favored Mr. McKee's appointment." No more popular individual than Mr. McKee has appeared on many a day on Yale campus. And Yale's long dreamed of new chapel is expected to materialize presently.

Hockey is now included in Yale's list of major sports. It. F. Vaughn, of Newton Center, Mass., has been elected to lead the hockey team of 1928 as captain, while T. C. Fairmanworth of Memphis, Tenn., has been moved along as assistant manager of the team.

As the hockey season closes with indifferent success for the Varsity team, Yale finds great satisfaction in its swimming and indoor polo teams. The students who play the game from ponds were so good this year that Major A. V. Arnold, U. S. A., heads coach, saved four Yale teams in as many classes in the National indoor polo tournament.

Westfield N. J., will handle a mad dog scare by shooting all unmuzzled animals anywhere they may be found. That will hurt the feelings of those that love "man's best friend," the dog, but, in Westfield, three animals have died of rabies in a week, seven children have been bitten, and that, presumably, hurts the feelings of the parents.

In Russia, rabies spread by dogs among packs of wolves, is spreading so rapidly that the Pasteur Institute cannot treat one half the patients. Within a year, it is said 342,000 persons have developed hydrophobia.

Great Britain solves the problem by first wiping out hydrophobia at home, then allowing no dogs to come in without thorough quarantine.

This world will be better off, a safer place for human beings, and the animals will be happier when all life except human life, have vanished, from the elephant in the jungle, to the typhoid germs in drinking water.

The trouble is that many parents have children that they don't in the least understand, and many children of the modern day have parents in whose understanding they have small confidence.
