SITUATION IN CHINA IS STILL CRITICAL

CITY OF NANKING WILL BE BOMBARDED UNLESS FOREIGNERS PROTECTED

Washington, March 25.—(AP)—Preparation for a bombardment by American and British ships at Nanking has been postponed until tomorrow because of a partial evacuation of the city by foreigners, which has been effected.

Shanghai, March 25.—(AP)—Dispatches from Nanking late tonight indicated that the situation there was easier, with the remaining foreigners being evacuated. There had been no gunfire.

The decision to postpone the drastic action decided upon was reached by the American and British commanders when it was seen that concrete results had followed the announcement of their stand.

Rear Admiral H. M. Hough, the American commander, reported to the Navy Department that the Japanese in Nanking were completing their evacuation, that missing British marines were coming out of the city and that there was a fair possibility that 120 Americans who took refuge in Nanking would leave tonight.

The Admiral's report, dated at 5:50 p. m., Nanking time, said: "As a result of the strong stand taken today by the forces here, the foreigners are beginning to come out of the city."

The Japanese are completing their evacuation tonight. The British Consul General and the missing marines are now coming off to the H. M. S. Emerald. It is now considered a fair possibility that the 120 Americans who took refuge in Nanking University will be evacuating to the ships (the destroyers Preston and Non and the converted yacht Isabel) tonight.

"In view of this we are postponing further consideration of action to tomorrow."

Notice had been served on the Cantonese commanders at Nanking that salient military points would be shelled unless immediate guarantees of safety for foreign life were furnished. The bombardment was to have begun late this afternoon.

Nanking, nominally listed as an undefended city, could not be shelled under ordinary circumstances, but after the killing yesterday of Americans and other foreigners, the British and American commanders informed the Chinese officials that unless the situation was remedied, Nanking would be proclaimed a "military area," such a proclamation would open it to whatever military operations were necessary to protect foreign lives.

The American commander-in-chief reported he had received an "insolent" reply in response to the three demands made yesterday by the British and American naval authorities at Nanking. The reply was followed by the warning that military points would be fired on late this afternoon (Chinese time) unless the demands were complied with. Whether he has found it necessary to carry out the threat has not been reported to the Navy Department.

Admiral Williams at the time the report was forwarded, said he had been able to learn of the killing of only one American in Nanking. Dr. Williams of the Nanking University. One British sailor on the cruiser Emerald was killed by snipers firing from the shore.

Japanese naval craft at Nanking had landed a detachment of 50 men under cover of the guns of three destroyers. The situation along the Yangtze river was described by Admiral Williams as "tense."

Two hundred and fifty American missionaries had sailed from Hankow for Shanghai and other steamers are being held in readiness at Hankow to evacuate the remaining Americans, if necessary. A heavy movement of Chinese Nationalist forces across the river from Hankow was reported.

Another dispatch from Admiral Williams, sent at 4:43 p. m., today (Chinese time) said an attempt was under way to rescue foreigners in Nanking, participated in by American and British representatives and local Chinese authorities.

At 11 a. m. (Chinese time) Admiral Williams said attempts to establish communication with foreigners in Nanking had been unsuccessful. He reported that the entire staff of the Standard Oil Company of New York in Nanking was safe.

American refugees comprising 19 men and 87 women and 52 children had sailed from Nanking for Shanghai on the steamers Kungwo and Wenchow early today. The American destroyer William B. Preston, while escorting the refugee boat Kungwo from Nanking to a point below Kiangwan, was fired upon from Nanking points. The fire was returned by the destroyer's machine guns. Chinese forts above and below Chekiang also fired on the Preston and the destroyer again replied by turning loose its four inch battery. No casualties to the Preston's personnel resulted.

The situation at Chenkiang was described as serious. All Americans there have taken refuge at the Standard Oil Company's installation and British refugees have concentrated at the Asiatic Petroleum station.

Loading and firing were reported in progress throughout the concession area and Americans were preparing at 4:43 p. m. (Chinese time) today to leave on the steamers Weichow from Shanghai.

Admiral Williams said he had concurred in the opinion of the senior British naval authorities at Nanking that a determined shelling of the military points in that city, avoid as much as possible those sections occupied by civilian and non-combatants, would have a beneficial effect upon the situation.

Previous to having sent the ultimatum and having authorized Admiral Hough, in command of American forces at Nanking, to use his judgment in dealing with the situation, Admiral Williams had sent this message to his fellow officer at Nanking:

"American, British and Japanese commanders in chief agree that if possible, further drastic action should be avoided until General Chian Kai-Shek (Cantonese war lord) has been given an opportunity to fulfill his guarantee to provide adequate protection to all foreigners."

A report by Admiral Hough to Admiral Williams, forwarded to the Navy Department said the attempted negotiations with the Chinese authorities at Nanking had proved unsuccessful.

Admiral Hough had received indirect word from General Chiang Kai-Shek that the General hoped to take charge. Chiang promised that he would guarantee the safety of lives and property of all foreigners in Nanking.

The Admiral said the local Chinese commander at Nanking had been notified that: "First, we demand that a general division command rank, shall come on board prior to noon today and arrange for proper treatment of wounded foreigners who are ashore."

"Second, that if this demand is not complied with, Chiang's request can not be guaranteed and we shall take such action as may be deemed necessary. It may be deemed necessary to fire upon barracks on salient military points in order to obtain the release of Americans remaining alive on shore, approximately 155."

Washington, March 25.—(AP)—Brutal mistreatment of many Americans, including women, by Chinese soldiers in the Nationalist uniform at Nanking was officially reported to the Navy Department today by Admiral Williams, who forwarded a report made to him by Rear Admiral Hough at Nanking.

Shanghai, March 25.—(AP)—7:45 p. m.—Latest authoritative advices from Nanking are that 150 Americans are still ashore. Several are feared to be dead, although the authorities are unable to determine this fact.

Shanghai, March 25.—(AP)—3 p. m.—All Americans and Britishers in Chinkiang, which was captured by the Nationalists several days ago, have been evacuated on the steamer Kungwo or are congregated on the water front under the protection of destroyers. All Amer-

DR. J. E. WILLIAMS KILLED IN FIGHTING AT SHANGHAI CHINA

American Head of Nanking University Killed While Shelling Was in Progress

Shanghai, March 25.—(AP)—Dr. J. E. Williams, vice-president of Nanking University, is known to be among the dead from yesterday's shelling.

New Lexington, Ohio, March 25.—(AP)—His voice choked with emotion, Dave Williams, a coal miner, was reached by The Associated Press over the long distance telephone today at Shawnee, Ohio, and told of the death of his brother, Dr. John Elias Williams vice-president of the University at Nanking, China. Dave Williams, a grandfather and a typical Ohio coal miner, was at work in one of the lower levels of the mine where he is employed when called at Shawnee. Coming out of the shaft, he answered the telephone and when told his brother had been killed in the shelling of Nanking he could only sob "oh!"

Apparently with great effort, he composed himself. His first question was:

"How are the rest of the family?" He was told news dispatches today did not disclose whether or not the other Americans in Nanking were safe.

His voice breaking from time to time, Dave Williams told how his brother had left the little Ohio mining town of Shawnee more than 20 years ago to study for the mission field.

"He seemed to get along pretty well, and was promoted several times. His last post was vice-president of Nanking University."

Andrews Succeeds Knight Head of State Educators

Raleigh, March 25.—(AP)—The North Carolina Education Association, the North Carolina State Music Teachers' Association state and county school superintendents, all were meeting here today.

Election by secret ballot of a vice-president of the Education Association was an all-day order, from among nominees, Miss Queen Carson, of Asheville, teacher in Buncombe county school; Dr. George Howard, of Salisbury, head of the Rowan county schools; and Frank P. Hall of Gastonia, head of the Gaston county school.

T. Wingate Andrews, superintendent of the High Point schools was elected to the presidency to succeed Dr. Edward W. Knight, Chapel Hill, and Jule B. Warren, Raleigh, was re-elected secretary.

Blue Ridge Mill Destroyed by Fire

Cannolly Springs, N. C., March 25.—(AP)—The Blue Ridge Cotton Mill of this place, which has been operated intermittently for the past several weeks, was completely destroyed by fire of an unknown origin about 4 o'clock this morning. The loss has been estimated at $150,000.

There was one night watchman on duty and he told R. M. Spratt, of Hickory, general manager of the mill, that the blaze started near the place where the electrical wiring enters the building, according to Mr. Spratt.

For the past two weeks the mill has not been in operation. The amount of insurance has not been determined.

There is no fire fighting equipment in this place and it was learned today that no call was sent to the Hickory department, 12 miles west of here. The mill was on the south side of the Southern Railroad track and just a little west of the station. J. W. Abernethy of Newton is president of the company, which was organized in 1919.

Two hundred and fifty American women and children have been evacuated from Hankow. The British steamer Wenchow stopped at Chinkiang today to take American missionaries. Widespread looting of foreign houses is going on in Chinkiang.

As Shanghai Falls to Cantonese

Clashes with European soldiers, rioting, looting and slaughter marked the fall of Shanghai, principal port of China, into the hands of Cantonese troops. While the Cantonese troops were for the most part poorly clad and equipped, there were many of the type shown in the upper photograph. Men of all ages were in the ranks, including such boys as the young color bearer shown at the left. The lower photograph shows a barricade thrown up before a European concession to prevent camp followers from looting the district. Thousands of Americans and Europeans were ready for an open clash with the Cantonese if necessary. All were under the command of Admiral C. S. Williams (inset), United States Navy, who was ranking officer on the scene.

CITY CONTRACTOR AWARDED VERDICT IN CIVIL COURT

C. B. West Given $325 in Suit Against Owners of Fair Grounds

Following six hours of deliberation, a jury in yesterday's session of Pitt County Superior Court for the trial of civil cases, awarded C. B. West, local contractor, the sum of $325 in his suit against Smith, Dail and Price. The case was begun shortly after the noon hour Wednesday and did not go to the jury until yesterday afternoon.

The plaintiff contended that the defendants owed a balance on the erection of buildings at the fair grounds. A counter claim was immediately instituted by the defendants with the result that the plaintiff was awarded $850 and the defendants $325, leaving a balance of $325 in favor of the plaintiff.

Immediately following the disposition of this issue the court began hearing the case of Robert Ellis vs. C. E. Ellis, in which the plaintiff is suing to recover an excess extracted from a homestead exemption sold in 1925.

It is expected this case will be completed shortly after the noon hour today.

TWO INDICTMENTS IN BEER CONSPIRACY

Cleveland, March 25.—(AP)—Two indictments, naming an unnamed number of persons, were returned today by the Federal Grand Jury investigating the alleged conspiracy by which large quantities of Pennsylvania beer was imported into Ohio within the last two years.

Whiskey Still Is Captured in Stokes Section

Henry Gurganus, Carolina town ship constable, yesterday afternoon brought in a whiskey still captured in a raid in the Stokes community. The still was one of the steam variety now being widely used in the illicit traffic in this territory, and was capable of producing from five hundred to a thousand gallons of beverage at one time. Officers, it is understood, had been on the track of this particular still for several days, but were unable to perfect a capture while operators were on duty.

CAMERON ADMITS HE WROTE FORD'S PERSONAL COLUMN

Testifies That Ford Told Him to Retract if Wrong; If Not Stick to It

Detroit, March 25.—(AP)—Counsel for Aaron Spitzer in his $1,000,000 suit against Henry Ford and William J. Cameron, editor of the Dearborn Independent, admissions today that he wrote Mr. Ford's personal column in that publication and that he and the motor car manufacturer had discussed the international banking ring.

The plaintiffs' counsel seemed to be getting a little more leeway today in his interrogation of the witness, but when William Henry Gallagher sought to get too deeply into Cameron-Ford conferences the defense attorneys interposed objection after objection until finally they got in one, which as usual, caused the jury to be sent from the courtroom while they argued over the law governing the question. Gallagher once during the opening minutes of the session sought to discredit Cameron as his own witness and resort to cross-examination. Federal Judge Raymond held, however, that having called Cameron, Gallagher was faced with the law which made him keep the witness.

GOVERNOR McLEAN SPEAK SAT WILSON

Raleigh, N. C., March 25.—(AP)—Governor McLean arranged to leave late today for Wilson, N. C., to address a Chamber of Commerce gathering.

MRS. STIEDLEY SPEAKS ABOUT THE NEW BIRTH

Delivered Informative Message at Revival Services Here Last Night

On last evening, Mrs. Stiedley spoke in her usual interesting and instructive way on the subject of the new birth. She chose the story of Nicodemus, the pharisee who came to Jesus and was told that he must be born again. Nicodemus was a religious man, said the speaker. The New Birth is not reformation, she declared. We may put down all kinds of reforms, but that is not the New Birth. The church is the training camp where we are taught for the Lord Jesus Christ. Education is not the New Birth, she further declared. As defined by Mrs. Stiedley, the Holy Spirit is a creative act of men whereby we are made partakers of the life and nature of God. The natural man cannot understand and receive the things of God. Only the people who are prepared for God will ever enjoy God, said Mrs. Stiedley. Two words we may know we're God's children as given by the speaker were scriptural reasons, the first found in 1 John, 3rd chapter, part of the 14th verse and Romans, 8th chapter and verse 16. "We know that we have passed out of death into life because we love the brethren" and "The Spirit himself beareth witness with our spirit that we are children of God."

This afternoon, Mrs. Stiedley spoke to the young people of "The Tongue."

Tonight at 7:30, the theme will be "The Judgment." Come to this service. There will be a service tomorrow until the evening service at 7:30. At this time there will be a song and praise meeting. You want to be at this meeting.

NEW DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION IN SESSION TODAY

Raleigh, N. C., March 25.—(AP)—The newly created State Department of Conservation, a merger between the old department and the fisheries department, held preliminary meeting with Governor McLean today.

The fishing laws enacted by legislative session, go into effect April first.

TODAY

They May Come, Unmasked. Suppose The Big 3 Fight. China Makes Up. Mr. Astor Sees Europe. (By Arthur Brisbane)

England is building two gigantic dirigibles capable of going anywhere in the world. They will cross the Atlantic ocean easily. And Britain is "waiting for an invitation" to vend one of these big airships to the United States.

So far, so good; all very friendly. But a day may come when some country will have airplanes, dirigibles and submarines that carry airplanes below the water, all capable of crossing the ocean, and send them to the United States WITHOUT ANY INVITATION. It would be as well to be ready for that possibility.

Three of the big powers, France, Britain and Germany, have "calmed" the Balkans, you are told. Their massive influence has prevented the situation in Albania from becoming dangerous. This is due, they say, to the power of the League of Nations.

It works nicely in the case of little Albania and the Balkans. But suppose trouble comes among the big powers, France, Britain and Germany, who would "calm" them? That's a question that makes Uncle Sam glad to be out of the League.

General Pai-Tsung-Hsi, commander of the victorious Cantonese troops, issues a proclamation calling on China to start and carry on a "world revolution."

General Pai perhaps does not realize the size of his plan. There are many countries that had all the revolution they wanted between 1914 and 1918, and are willing to rest for awhile now.

But there is no doubt that China with the help of Russia is going to give bad headaches to many international business men.

CITY MERCHANTS TO PUT ON SALES OF COTTON GOODS

Movement in Keeping With Plan to Encourage Wearing of South's Great Staple

Several members of the Merchants Association of Greenville will observe "Cotton Week," by putting on special sales of cotton goods during the week the campaign is in progress, it was announced from the office of the secretary this morning.

This movement is in keeping with plans of the Woman's Club to encourage the wearing of cotton goods by children participating in the Pitt county commencement exercises here Monday.

"Cotton Week" will be generally observed throughout the South next week. It is believed the additional consumption of the staple during the campaign will have a tendency of improving economic conditions of the nation, and especially in those districts where production is the largest.

More than two thousand people will take part in the mammoth parade of the city schools on Monday. The majority will wear costumes made entirely of cotton goods, if plans of the Woman's Club are strictly observed. This will be one of the most spectacular features of the annual county school commencement exercises, and hundreds of people from all parts of the county will be in the city to view the pageant.

AMERICAN CONSUL REPORTS ACTIVITY IN NANKING, CHINA

John K. Davis Tells of Murder of Missionary and Attempt to Slay Others

Washington, March 25.—(AP)—Murder of one missionary and attempts to slay many others at Nanking was described in the report of American Consul John K. Davis, received today at the Navy Department.

The report, forwarded by Admiral Williams, American Asiatic fleet commander, told of the escape of Mr. Davis with "one officer, eleven sailors, nine civilian and two children."

The rescue of Mr. Davis was reported yesterday by Admiral Williams. "On March 24 about noon after both the Japanese and British consulates had been attacked and the consuls reported killed and after the known cold-blooded murder of one American missionary and the attempted murder of many others, all by Nationalist soldiers, the Chinese police informed me that we would be destroyed unless we could escape," Consul Davis said.

"Accordingly, our party of 20 officers, 11 sailors, nine civilians and two children escaped under constant fire across the country to the Society houses on Standard Oil Hill just above the city wall, which are visible from the river and where many Americans and British already were."

"Although repeatedly robbed and threatened by Nationalist soldiers, my vice consul (J. Hall Paxton of Danville, Va.) and the Society manager managed to keep them out of the house for two hours, but they finally broke in and seeing our numbers they retired and commenced firing at us in ever increasing numbers."

"The American and British naval vessels then dropped shells immediately around the house and we escaped over the wall. The American consulate was forced by Nationalist soldiers and is reported by the Chinese as thoroughly looted. It has not been ascertained whether or not the safe has been forced and the codes lost."

Cover Agent of "Drys" Resigns

Washington, March 25.—(AP)—A. Bruce Bilaski, famous under cover agent of the prohibition department, has resigned.

Making a trip here from New York for the purpose, Bilaski submitted his resignation today to Assistant Secretary Andrews, in charge of dry law enforcement. The date of his retirement has not been definitely determined.

Mr. Andrews said Bilaski was retiring for personal reasons and that his work had been exceedingly creditable.

Bilaski was attacked by several members of Congress during the last session for his enforcement methods and much of the opposition to the treasury's under cover prohibition enforcement work was centered about him.

He has been supported strongly by officials here, who said some of the biggest cases against prohibition violators had been developed by him.

LAFOLLETTE PLEASANT WITH RECEPTION ON VISIT TO THIS STATE

Fayetteville, N. C., March 25.—(AP)—U. S. Senator Robert M. LaFollette of Wisconsin today expressed himself as "delighted" with North Carolina hospitality.

"Probably nowhere had he found a more progressive, smoothly operating State, and he only wished, he added while guest of the Fayetteville Observer, his home folks on North could be with him in his "happy vacation in an ideal resting place."

Particularly he commented on Eastern Carolina's development program and he complimented papers of the State on "their clean, up-to-the-minute presentation of news."

Senator LaFollette was entertained at the country home of Charles R. Wilson, publisher of the Observer. He is spending some time at Pinehurst, "one of the most beautiful spots in America," he said.

FORMER DOCK HEAD COMMITS SUICIDE

New Orleans, March 25.—(AP)—James Farrell, 66, former superintendent of the Dock Board, ended his life here today by shooting himself through the head. Mr. Farrell had been sick for about six months, relatives said, attributing his act to temporary dementia.

Two Freshmen Managers of National League to Launch Campaign Against Old-Timers

Atlanta, Ga., March 25.—(AP)—Two freshmen managers in the National League are about to launch a campaign against a senior and post-graduate. A survey by an Associated Press correspondent of Southern baseball training camps New York, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh and St. Louis mentioned on every side in the same breath with pennants.

John McGraw will celebrate this year his 25th season as manager of the New York Giants. Jack Hendricks, manager of the Cincinnati Reds has hair grown white in baseball. Owen Bush, chief of the Pittsburgh Pirates, and Bob O'Farrell, leader of the world champion St. Louis Cardinals, have their spurs to win and will make desperate efforts to rack them on the first year.

A stock taking of prospects for the new baseball season suggests that if the early guesses are confirmed in their alignment of first division clubs, the Chicago Cubs will be the athletes to confuse the season.

The Cardinals in setting out to repeat are without the manager who brought them home in front, Rogers Hornsby having gone to captain the Giants. His place at second has been capably filled in the spring games by Frankie Frisch. The already strong St. Louis pitching staff has been strengthened by Jimmy Ring. An outfield problem may vex Manager O'Farrell as to the condition of Ray Blades and Chick Hafey seems doubtful.

The Giants, in addition to getting Horasby and his bat from the Cardinals, bolstered their pitching staff with Burleigh Grimes from Brooklyn and may get some good left-handed pitching from another former Brooklyn player, Frank Henry returning from the minors. Harper late of the Phillies, and Ronsh traded but not yet delivered from the Reds, will make a good outfield combination if perfected. The New York catching staff of last year has been passed away with Al Deromier, former American Leaguer, John Cummings and Sanford Hamby

Golfers Continue "Pegging" Away in Atlanta, Georgia

Atlanta, March 25.—(AP)—Re-buffed in their first attempt to equal par on the East Lake country club course, 150 golfers set out today for a second effort. Aided by cold weather, rain and hail the course stood off the army of experts bidding for honor and prize money in the first round of the southern open.

Bobby Jones, who cut his golfing teeth on the East Lake course could not bring it to terms yesterday and was forced to be content with 72, two strokes over par, and a stroke behind Emmet French, professional of Southern Pines, N. C., and Youngstown, Ohio.

The open champion of the U. S. and Great Britain was not permitted to occupy the runner-up position alone for his 72 was equaled by Gene Sarazen, another golfer who has looked down on the pack from the top of the heap and two Cleveland pros, Larry Noholtz and W. H. Livie.

With 18 holes out of the way, the battle today was one determining the survival of the fittest. The low 64 score, in play of yesterday, and today will continue through 36 holes tomorrow for the championship and cash rewards totalling $12,000. Sixty-eight contestants finished the first round with scores under 80 and two former open champions were not in the list, Walter Hagen taking 80 and Willie MacFarlane 81 for the 18.

Jess W. Sweetser, British amateur champion, remained in the running with 76 and Watts Gunn, fellow member with Sweetser of the Walker cup team, scored 77.

Scores of 73 and 74 were popular in the first round. Jim Thompson, Richmond, Va., Willie Klein and Johnny Farrell, New York, and Charles Manning, Shreveport, had 73, while John Golden and Joe Turnesa, New York, Jim Foulis, Chicago, Al Watrous, Grand Rapids and J. T. Connell, Short Hills, N. J., scored 74. There were seven scores of 75, 10 of 76, 12 of 77, 7 of 78 and four of 79.

The scores above 80 could not be counted out of the ultimate test and predictions were freely made that Hagen and others routed by the course and elements, would come back to scrap it out in the mean battle.

Two Freshmen Managers of National League to Launch Campaign Against Old-Timers

(By Brian Bell)

Atlanta, Ga., March 25.—(AP)—Two freshmen managers in the National League are about to launch a campaign against a senior and post-graduate. A survey by an Associated Press correspondent of Southern baseball training camps finds New York, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh and St. Louis mentioned on every side in the same breath with penance.

John McGraw will celebrate this year his 25th season as manager of the New York Giants. Jack Hendricks, manager of the Cincinnati Reds has hair grown white in baseball. Owen Bush, chief of the Pittsburgh Pirates, and Bob O'Farrell, leader of the world champion St. Louis Cardinals, have their spurs to it and will make desperate efforts to tack them on the first year.

A stock taking of prospects for the new baseball season suggests that if the early guesses are founded in their alignment of first division clubs, the Chicago Cubs will be the athletes to confuse the issue. The Boston Braves, Brooklyn Robins and Philadelphia, apparently have not shown the stuff of which champions are made.

The Cardinals in setting out to repeat are without the manager who brought them home in front, Rogers Hornsby having gone to captain the Giants. His place at second has been capably filled in the spring games by Frankie Frisch. The already strong St. Louis pitching staff has been strengthened by Jimmy Ring. An outfield problem may vex Manager O'Farrell as to the condition of Ray Blades and Chick Hafey seems doubtful.

The Giants, in addition to getting Hornsby and his bat from the Cardinals, bolstered their pitching staff with Burleigh Grimes from Brooklyn and may get some good left-handed pitching from another former Brooklyn player, Frank Henry returning from the minors. Harper late of the Phillies, and Ronsh traded but not yet delivered from the Reds, will make a good outfield combination if perfected. The New York catching staff of last year has been passed away with Al Devormer, former American Leaguer, John Cummings and Sanford Hamby

Golfers Continue "Pegging" Away in Atlanta, Georgia

Atlanta, March 25.—(AP)—Rebuffed in their first attempt to equal par on the East Lake country club course, 150 golfers set out today for a second effort. Aided by cold weather, rain and hail the course stood off the army of experts bidding for honor and prize money in the first round of the southern open.

Bobby Jones, who cut his golfing teeth on the East Lake course could not bring it to terms yesterday and was forced to be content with 72, two strokes over par, and a stroke behind Emmet French, professional of Southern Pines, N. C., and Youngstown, Ohio.

The open champion of the U. S. and Great Britain was not permitted to occupy the runner-up position alone for his 72 was equaled by Gene Sarazen, another golfer who has looked down on the pack from the top of the heap and two Cleveland pros, Lavy Nobholz and W. H. Livie.

With 18 holes out of the way, the battle today was as close as one determining the survival of the fittest. The low 64 score, in play of yesterday, and today will continue through 36 holes tomorrow for the championship and cash rewards totalling $12,000. Sixty-eight contestants finished the first round with scores under 80 and two former open champions were not in the list, Walter Hagen taking 80 and Willie MacFarlane 81 for the 18.

Jess W. Sweetser, British amateur champion, remained in the running with 76 and Watts Gunn, fellow member with Sweetser of the Walker cup team, scored 77.

Scores of 73 and 74 were popular in the first round. Jim Thompson, Richmond, Va., Willie Klein and Johnny Farrell, New York, and Charles Manning, Shreveport, had 73, while John Golden and Joe Turnesa, New York, Jim Foulis, Chicago, Al Watrous, Grand Rapids and J. T. Connell, Short Hills, N. J., scored 74. There were seven scores of 75, 10 of 76, 12 of 77, 7 of 78 and four of 79.

The scores above 80 could not be counted out of the ultimate test and predictions were freely made that Hagen and others routed by the course and elements, would come back to scrap it out in the mean battle.

VOTE FOR BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Now that an election for new city officers has been called, it is up to the citizens to devote their attention to securing for the coming year the best in the way of city administration that can be had.

Greenville has reached the stage in growth that the handling of public affairs is a business that should not be hampered by petty politics and what Greenville needs is a Board of Aldermen composed of business men.

While the Reflector has always refrained from boosting the candidacy of any individual and remained out of local politics except where issues of importance to the community are involved, since no candidates have yet announced themselves and we know not who is to make the race, we feel that in this appeal to the voters of Greenville we are attacking no one nor are we attempting to give an advantage to anyone who might announce his intentions of being a candidate for the position of City Alderman. We reiterate that the affairs of the city should be administered in a business-like manner and we urge the voters in the various wards of the city to see to it that business men are chosen in the coming election.

GET IT RIGHT

Years ago Greenville saw fit to honor one of its citizens by naming one of the chief thoroughfares for him, but in recent years the street has been called by so many different names that persons living and doing business on same do not know the real name of the street and even the street markers erected some time ago by the city, carry the name incorrectly.
The street to which we refer is Dickenson Avenue. At present the different names by which the street goes are,
Dickinson Avenue, Dickerson Avenue, Dixon Avenue, and in some few instances, correctly, Dickenson Avenue.

Dickenson Avenue, more than half a century ago, was named for the late Marshall Dickenson, of this city, who owned a large portion of the property through which the street now passes. He was instrumental in the laying out and development of that section of the city when Greenville was only a village, and it was for this reason that the street bore his name. If the acts of this former resident justified the naming of the street for him, surely his memory should now be kept sacred by calling the street by its proper name.

DICKENSON AVENUE is the street running southwest from Five Points to the city limits. Let's call it that.

CREAMERY WOULD PAY

Again we call attention to the possibilities for a creamery in Pitt county, provided the milk production in the county should be sufficient to meet the needs of the creamery plant. With a place in the county where milk could be disposed of in bulk daily for cash, a milk cow or two on every farm in the county would be indeed an income producer and the money derived from the sale of milk would certainly help the average farmer to supply some of his immediate needs.

Men who are experienced in the business of operating a creamery are now seeking a location in Eastern North Carolina. Why shouldn't this industry be located in Pitt county? Organized effort on the part of citizens of the county cannot the proposition over and the entire county will be better off for it.

MONDAY, THE DAY

Next Monday will be a big day for the schools of Greenville and Pitt county and also for the citizens of the county who must be interested in the children and their undertakings.

Beginning with a mammoth parade by the Greenville schools during the morning, the day's program will continue with the county-wide literary contests at the Teachers College and will be followed in the afternoon by the county school track meet at the fair grounds.

Every citizen of the town and county who can possibly do so, should be on hand to witness all these events. They will give you an insight into what the children are doing.

Holding Up The Quality

There is one point on which we can give all our customers an absolute guarantee.

The Quality of Phillips' Veri-Best Fertilizers this Year is as Good or Better as it ever has been.

As everyone knows, the cheapest article—regardless of what it may be —often proves to be the most expensive. It is QUALITY THAT IS THE IMPORTANT FACTOR!

This is especially true of fertilizer. If your fertilizer is not up to standard, it does not make any difference how cheaply you can buy it—it is expensive. GUARANTEED QUALITY.

You can depend upon the quality of PHILLIPS' VERI-BEST FERTI-ZERS. When you use them on your crops, you need not fear about the results, so far as proper fertilization is concerned.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON OPENING

New York, March 25—(AP)—Cotton futures opened steady, May 14.05; July 14.25; October 14.44; December 14.60; January 14.62.

The market opened steady at a decline of 4 to 6 points in response to relatively easy Liverpool cables, but showed net losses of about 10 to 17 points in early trading.

It was the last day of trading in current March contracts, and the circulation of notices estimated at about 3,200 bales appeared to cause liquidation. The relatively easy rolling of the spot month probably encouraged selling. Just below the 14 point level there seemed to be some trade demand for May which steadied the market and prices were a point or two up from the lowest at the end of the first hour, May selling at 14.00 and October at 14.39.

STOCK OPENING

New York, March 25—(AP)—The rally which started in yesterday's stock market was resumed at the opening today. Initial gains of a point or so were recorded by Marine preferred, Colorado Fuel and St. Louis Southwestern. United States Steel common, General Motors, and a number of other recent favorites improved fractionally on opening quotations but selling pressure still was apparent in scattered sections of the list. Philadelphia Company opened 2 1/2 points higher at 110, a new high record.

Foreign exchanges opened irregular, demand sterling ruling slightly higher around 4.58 11-32 and French francs easing slightly to around 3.90 cents. Spanish pesetas sold down nearly 10 points on profit taking.

LIVERPOOL COTTON

Liverpool, March 25—(AP)—Cotton spot in limited demand; prices easier; American strict good middling 8.66; good middling 8.31; strict middling 7.96; middling 7.71; strict low middling 7.21; low middling 6.75; strict good ordinary 6.46; good ordinary 6.01; sales 4,000 bales including 3,000 American. Futures closed quiet, March 7.36; May 7.46; July 7.59; October 7.68; December 7.78; January 7.89.

COTTON

New York, March 24—(AP)—The cotton market was quiet today, with the price movement irregular. A slight early advance on southern and local selling and after midday rallies the market eased on less favorable reports from Manchester. May sold off from 14.14 to 13.97 but trade buying at the decline steadied prices. May was selling around 14.01 and October 14.40 in the mid-afternoon market or about 6 to 8 points net lower.

Futures closed very steady, 2 to 5 points higher; spot steady, middling 14.30.

STOCK MARKET
New York, March 24—(AP)—Resumption of the upward movement of prices in today's stock market was accelerated by "melon cutting" and rumors of further favorable dividend distributions. With a number of weak speculative accounts eliminated in the recent reaction, thereby strengthening the market's technical position, operators for the rise started to bid up their favorites, receiving some aid from the covering operations of timid shorts.

The closing was strong. Total sales approximated 1,850,000 shares.

SUGAR
New York, March 24—(AP)—Raw sugar 4.68. Raw futures at midday 1 to 5 points lower. Refined unchanged to 10 points lower at 5.80 to 6.20 for fine granulated.

Gossip of Staff Correspondents at World Centers of Population.

Moscow, March 25.—From the throng of ragged waifs who populate Moscow's streets and squares, clinging, begging and fighting among themselves, fifteen have been chosen. Unlike their comrades of whom 100,000 are still "at liberty" and of whom 225,000 have been captured after hard work by bands of fifteen made their own trap, walked into it, were neatly caught, and today are fanning within the walls of a "Children's Home" simply because the thirteen-year-old vagabonds could not "carry their liquor."

It was after midnight when milkmen drove the "Pigeon Gang" led by Sergey Sergeyevich, aged thirteen and one-half years, from its refuge in the street-car halting station before the Iberian Gate. A freezing wind hurried their scurrying feet still faster over the cobblestones of Revolution Square.

Linked double, two street cars, the last of the night, caught up with them, Sergey gave a signal. All fifteen swarmed for the connecting rods. The traffic policeman, wrapped in a bearskin coat, his head sunk in a conical hood, was too busy keeping his nose warm to notice them. The half-inch of concealed moisture on the windows of the street-car kept them safe from the conductor. Like fleas they clung until far out in the Chamovniki district, the wind from the steps became unbearable and the gang dropped off. They buddled up around their leader. He had intended making for a certain power house near the end of the street car line, where fresh ashes from the furnace-room had often furnished a comfortable retreat. But the cold was too much for them. At 22 degrees below zero Fahrenheit it cut through their rags, found the holes in their worn-out boots and numbed their strength.

Nights like this help solve the problem of children's homelessness in Russia. Every drop in temperature below fifteen degrees of frost brings its crop of stiff young bodies frozen in death in courtyards, doorways and ditches.

But the "betman" of the Pigeon Gang, had yet to lose a member. Even the length of the street not a human being was in sight, but on the corner burned an oil lamp in a window, making a small clear circle on its frosty surface. Hetman Sergey investigated, peered through and saw stacks of dried fish, cans of caviar, hams, fruit—a delicatessen store.

Fifteen minutes later the gang was inside, admitted by virtue of Sergey's knowledge that a piece of railroad iron inserted through the loop of a padlock and twisted is an open sesame to most padlocked doors.

When morning came and with it the manager of the store, the "Pigeon Gang" was fast asleep, exhaling fumes of alcohol, in the midst of a litter that might have been caused by a cyclone. Mihaiam handed the "betman" and his followers off to the nearest "Children's Home."

Franc was fourteen cents.

Of Italy, Mr. Astor brings optimistic news. Trains are on time everywhere. It was not always so before Mussolini's time. Mussolini has produced progress in every direction. The Italian freight carrying system is three times as fast, Italy is the rising star in Europe. If Mr. Astor could have brought about five million good Italian workers back with him they would have been welcome.

The French Academy of Sciences, a most serious body, says that Margoulis, French engineer, has perfected the helicopter flying machine. Such a machine, enabling you to fly and rise directly from the ground, would give the inventor wealth unlimited and would be the best invention since the start of the Wright brothers. With a helicopter in good order you could start from the room of your apartment house or office building, go where you like, and land on any other roof or office building.

Russian enthusiasts trying to spread equality of the sexes in the east find that you cannot change the Asiatic mind overnight. On "Woman's Day" the Asiatic women, obeying Bolshevik orders, appeared without veils on their faces and nets on their hair. Three women were killed by Mohammedan zealots.

The 15 years old daughter of a Bolshevik official, Varina Khas was tied to a stake on the banks of a river, and stoned to death on orders of the Imam, a Mohammedan priest, who blessed the crowd as it threw stones and broke pieces of brick at the helpless girl.

No interference is as dangerous as interference with religious ideas.

At Markand, Russian police found that the wife of a rich native had been chained to a stake for five years because she had gone to bazaar with her face uncovered.

Mexicans make fantastic charges concerning Catholics opposed to the religious laws. They are accused of seizing Mexican soldiers, beating the soles of their feet, compelling them to walk over hot stones, then throwing them into the fire and burning them alive. The Catholics make charges equally grave against the government authorities.

Passengers on a Laredo train held up, looted and burned last Saturday, declare the train wreckers constantly shouted the returners' battlecry, "Long live Christ, the King," as they attacked the train.

General Mbb, formerly in the government of Canton, tells reporters that "China will be a true democracy," not a Soviet government.

Everybody hopes that China, exploited, despoiled and bullied by European nations, will succeed in self-government as a gigantic nation, not break into small pieces fighting each other.

But it is all guesswork. It is hard for a jellyfish to change in to a vertebrae over night.

A Letter From a Satisfied Owner---

Greenville, N. C.,
March 24, 1927.

Harper Motor Company,
Greenville, N. C.
Gentlemen:

I wish to take this method of expressing the satisfaction I have received from driving my Pontiac Coach purchased from you on May 20, 1926.

I have driven my car seventeen thousand nine hundred eighty-seven miles to date and have spent only two dollars ($2.00) for repairs on it. One dollar of which was for a fan belt and one for adjusting valves.

The last trip I made was to Durham and I averaged 24.3 miles per gallon. The oil consumption is very small using about a quart every five hundred miles. The Pontiac is by far the best car I have ever used.

With best wishes for your success with Oaklands and Pontiacs in Greenville and surrounding territory, I remain,

Yours very truly,
T. M. GORMAN, JR.
