England Decides To Send Reinforcements To China

ORDERS EVACUATION OF ALL AMERICANS IN VICINITY OF CANTON

Gunboat Asheville Sent to Tientsin at Request of American Minister MacMurray

Canton, April 2.—(AP)—Evacuation of all Americans in the vicinity of Canton and those in the native section of the city was ordered today by the U. S. Consul.

The Americans were ordered to proceed to Shamen, the foreign colony of the city, because of the growing seriousness of the anti-foreign situation. Extra precautions were taken in strengthening the barricades of the foreign colony, Americans participating in the work.

Michael Borodin, Russian advisor of the Kuomintang, or Cantonese party, is expected here soon in an attempt to stir Canton laborers into action.

Washington, April 2.—(AP)—At the request of Minister MacMurray at Peking, the gunboat Asheville was sent to Tientsin from Shanghai today. Admiral Williams, commanding the American naval forces in Chinese waters, reported to the Navy Department.

He gave no details of the situation at Tientsin.

London, April 2.—(AP)—The British government, it was officially announced today, has decided to send reinforcements to Shanghai, consisting of a brigade of infantry and auxiliary units.

London, April 2.—(AP)—Single handed action by Great Britain against the Cantonese in China for outrages against British subjects in Nanking and elsewhere today awaited replies from Washington and Tokyo governments on the question of joint action, judging by information obtainable in diplomatic and political circles in London.

A strong preference for joint action seemed to prevail among all the members of the Cabinet, and this position, it was stated, would not be abandoned unless cooperation should prove impossible of attainment.

Official circles were silent regarding the actual steps Great Britain would take if she should feel that she should act alone but opinion was general. A blockade of Cantonese ports and naval operations in the Yangtze were prominently discussed.

The Daily Mail, which yesterday intimated that the government had decided to back up an ultimatum to the Cantonese with force, said today:

"It is believed Great Britain has sufficient military and naval resources to enable her to determine just the amount of reprisal to make. But it may not be essential to use force, inasmuch as cutting off foreign financial aid and partial economic blockade would, it is expected, have a salutary effect."

Washington, April 2.—(AP)—Mobilization of additional units of United States marines for possible dispatch to China was being carried out today by the Washington government.

Orders for concentration of widely scattered detachments were sent out almost simultaneously with the issuance by Secretary Kellogg of a formal statement late yesterday that the U. S. proposed to use whatever means may be necessary to protect lives of Americans in that strife torn country.

Secretary Kellogg in his statement declared that the Washington government "is taking necessary steps to protect the lives and property of Americans in China" and declared that United States naval and marine forces have been supplied to the extent considered necessary by Admiral C. S. Williams.

He said that orders had not been issued from Washington for American evacuation of Shanghai and that only those Americans at points in China that could not be protected had been advised to (Continued on page six)

SUPERIOR COURT CONTINUES WORK THROUGH TODAY

Jury Fails to Return Verdict in $7,000 Damage Suit Against Hospital

The civil term of Pitt county Superior court, which has been in progress in this city the last two weeks, was continued through today in order to complete as many cases as possible. Despite efforts of court officials to complete the calendar, it will be necessary to continue a few of the cases until next term.

The jury in the $7,000 damage suit of Otis Brock against Pitt Community hospital last night returned a verdict in favor of the defendants. The case occupied attention of the court about a day and a half. The jury deliberated several hours.

Hearing was begun this morning in the case of Sunrell Motor Car Company vs. Redmond Johnson and others. The suit involves a small sum of money which, it is contended, the defendants failed to pay the plaintiffs on a car delivered from them. A claim of delivery taken out by the car people for repossession of the automobile resulted in the defendants carrying the matter to court.

Henry Ford is Slightly Better

Detroit, April 2.—(AP)—Henry Ford is making normal progress toward recovery from injuries he received last Sunday when the small coupe in which he was driving alone, was forced from the road and crashed into a tree. Unless there is a change for the worse in his condition, no more medical bulletins will be given out. This was the brief statement this morning of Dr. Roy D. McClure, chief surgeon of Henry Ford's own great hospital here, who has been attending the injured automobile king.

PREDICT LONG SUSPENSION OF COAL MINERS

Various Estimates of Shutdown Made by Prominent Officials

Bellair, Ohio, April 2.—(AP)—Five coal mine operating companies employing 300 men today signed separate agreements with union miners to pay the Jacksonville scale of wages in effect since 1917. Other companies are expected to sign later in the day.

Chicago, April 2.—(AP)—Various estimates of the duration of the coal mining shutdown in the central competitive field and adjacent territories were made today. Some operators were doubtful of a prompt settlement and predicted a suspension lasting at least three months. President John L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers, on the other hand, believed that the closing would not last long.

Mr. Lewis, who addressed a miners' gathering at Taylorville, Ills., yesterday, said he expected a conference would be arranged for within a short time, and that the Jacksonville scale of wages again would be adopted.

It was the expiration of the Jacksonville pact at midnight Thursday that opened the new mining controversy, operators maintaining they could not pay the wage scale and survive non-union competition, with the miners just as insistent that they could not accept a cut.

Anti-Blue Law Agitators Too Busy To Come to N. C.

Raleigh, N. C., April 2.—(AP)—Professional anti-blue law agitators are too busy in Maryland, Ohio, New York and Pennsylvania to descend on North Carolina now, according to Linn A. E. Gale, Washington, National Secretary of the National Association opposed to blue laws.

The association advertising widely last summer that it would start a test suit in Asheville in an effort to legalize Sunday baseball and later to open up movie houses on Sunday. Action was never taken.

Secretary Gale said efforts would be renewed this summer and that last summer's failure had not influenced the association's policy. He intimated that Virginia and South Carolina also were ahead of North Carolina in matters of "blue-law reform."

PRES. CALLES AIDS MAZATLAN HORROR

Nogales, Arizona.—According to reports reaching this city from the tough work on the harbor improvements at Mazatlan, Sinaloa, Mexico, recently stopped on account of lack of funds, will resume at an early date the Mexican government having made substantial appropriations for payments of back installments and raising funds for reinforcement of labor which will create a small sum of money which, it is contended, the defendants failed to pay the plaintiffs on a car delivered from them. A claim of delivery taken out by the car people for repossession of the automobile resulted in the defendants carrying the matter to court.

Col. Edward T. Smoot, prominent engineer who has the harbor dredging concession, the work will start by the middle of March the budget having been approved by President Calles.

The work, according to the report, will be confined to dredging of a channel necessary to handling of large ships demanding heavy draft so effect to be made at this time to erect causeways, improved breakwaters and lighters piers.

Incorporated in the harbor improvement budget a large sum is set aside for improvements at Yavaros, a Sonora seaport little known presently but expected to enter into the lists of important ports as it has access to the rich agriculture fields of the Yaqui River Valley.

MINOR EARTHQUAKE IN TANGO DISTRICT

TODAY

Good News of Henry Ford. Two Chinese Bosses. Useful Lady Astor. Perfect Venus Wanted. (By Arthur Brisbane)

Reassuring news concerning Henry Ford was received direct from his family, yesterday afternoon. There is said to be no doubt as to his ultimate recovery, although his injuries are serious.

There is no further confirmation of the supposition, widely circulated, that Mr. Ford's car was deliberately crowded from the road and down a steep embankment by occupants of another bigger car, seeking to injure Mr. Ford. Further information as to that may come from Mr. Ford, upon his complete recovery.

Those familiar with the scene of the accident, right off the high way from Detroit to Chicago, feel that Mr. Ford's escape is almost miraculous. A man in less perfect physical condition could not have escaped alive, at Mr. Ford's age.

The two big men in the Chinese revolution already disagree. One will not go where the other is, thinking it might not be safe. Two governments may be set up in China, dividing the territory between them. That will mean more fighting each great ruler will want to be the only one. This country, if wise, will get out of China, taking out missionaries and fighting men and watch the Chinese work out their own salvation or the reverse. What they decide to do, is not our business.

Britain should thank this country for producing, sending to London Lady Astor from Virginia, to say nothing of the great Astor fortune. First Lady Astor showed the British women the way to Parliament, now she helps to defeat an effort to legalize British race track gambling. She knows that betting on races enriches in Britain, as it does here, an utterly worthless tribe of race track touts, gamblers and horse owners.

WILKINS KILLED BY KIDNAPPERS

Mexico City, April 2.—(AP)—Edgar M. Wilkins, the American kidnaped near Guadalajara Sunday, was killed by his captors 24 hours later, it has been learned.

The slayers made no attempt to hide the evidence of their crime and the body was found, lying on El Coll Hill, near Santa Ana Acatlan. The discovery was made by an employe of the Chapal Electric Company, of which Wilkins was chief engineer.

Wilkins, a former resident of Savannah, Ga., was captured Sunday while motorcycling with his ten year old son near Guadalajara. The kidnapers, headed by Severiano Canales, demanded $20,000 ransom, and the son was sent to Guadalajara to obtain the money.

When news of the kidnaping reached Mexico City, the American embassy made urgent representation to the Mexican foreign office.

The kidnapers, hearing that Federal troops were seeking them and apparently convinced that the ransom would not be forthcoming, killed the captive.

They were overtaken by the federals at Cerro Chino, and several were killed. The majority, however, escaped.

Wilkins, who was 35, had been a resident of Mexico for years, his wife was a Mexican. He had been kidnaped twice before but was released unharmed.

DR. J. A. CAMPBELL ADDRESSES FIRST B. Y. P. U. SESSION

Immanuel Baptist Church Crowded to Capacity at Convention Opening

Dr. J. A. Campbell, president of Campbell's College, Boies Creek, N. C., delivered the principal address at the opening session of the regional B. Y. P. U. convention at the Immanuel Baptist Church in this city last night. Using as his subject, "The Obedient Life," the speaker impressed upon his audience the fact had obedience in the life of a child must start at home before its influence can be felt in the world of today.

Delegates to the convention began arriving yesterday shortly after the noon hour, and last night the church was packed almost to its capacity by visitors from many parts of the state. The session will continue until Sunday morning when the final address will be delivered by Dr. R. N. Simms, of Raleigh.

E. N. Gardner, of Thomasville, president of the North Carolina B. Y. P. U., presided over the session last night. Song services were led by the Rev. L. R. O'Brien, pastor of the local church, assisted by Miss Edna Smith at the piano. One of the most prominent parts of the musical program was a violin solo by Miss Jean Morton, of East Carolina Teachers College, and a Glee Club from the same institution.

The visitors were welcomed to the city by J. C. Lanier, Mayor of Greenville, and William S. Tyson, representing the Baptist churches of the city. J. J. Parker, Jr., of Murfreesboro, responded for the visitors.

Perry Morgan, of Raleigh, secretary of the State B. Y. P. U., sounded the keynote of the convention by a masterly address dealing with young people of the generation.

"There has been much criticism of the young man and young woman of today," said Mr. Morgan, "but, in my opinion, they are the best generation of youngsters that ever lived." He said many of them did things they wouldn't want to do; that they wouldn't do them if they were influenced the other way. They get accustomed to following the crowd, and the crowd goes any direction until it finds some definite objective. He compared the generation to the Niagara Falls, declaring that eventually the lives of our young people would be harnessed in behalf of the church, even as the mighty currents of the falls were being harnessed in the interest of commerce and industry.

In his address, "The Obedient Life," Dr. Campbell declared that the life of our young people was better and worse than it has ever been before. There is more good and more bad. Everyone seems to be forgetting the real for the unreal and illusory.

He read several clippings from newspapers showing the part which poverty and ignorance were playing in present day life. The trouble with us, he said, is disobedience and disregard for the laws as they affect us in our daily life. The cause is the home. Obedience to the laws of God and man must start in the home before it can become of any lasting influence to the world.

The home is broken down in government. Parents think too much of their children to spank them soundly when they need it. The children are perpetuating principles made extant by their parents, and they can't expect to be anything great when such conditions prevail.

He told the story of a man who sold his milk cow and bought a dog. That same man left my place owing me a guano bill. Some people invest everything in pleasure other to satisfy some hobby in life. But the real investment must deal with things eternal if life is to be of service to mankind.

LOCAL DEBATERS MAKE EVEN BREAK IN ANNUAL EVENT

Affirmative Team Wins From New Bern and Negative Losses at Washington

Debaters representing the Greenville High School made a fifty-fifty break in the annual triangular debate last night when they won over New Bern in the local high school auditorium, and lost to Washington at Washington. Considerable interest was manifested in the outcome of the contest, and fair attendance was reported in both towns.

The query this year was, "Resolved, Congress should enact the Curtis-Reed bill, providing for a Federal Department of Education, with a Secretary in the President's cabinet."

The affirmative side of the question was debated here and the negative at Washington. The affirmative team of the Greenville school was composed of Charles Wedbee and Ada Orton Moore, Edward Ferguson and Alline Moore composed the negative team.

The debate here was preceded by a musical program rendered by the light symphony orchestra of the high school. The program began promptly at 7:30.

FIRE DESTROYS HIGH POINT PLANT

MUCH PROPERTY DAMAGE REPORTED FROM TARBORO WINSTON-SALEM, DURHAM

PUBLIC WELFARE BOARD IN SESSION HERE WEDNESDAY

Superintendent Futrell Submitted Report of Conditions Throughout County

The Board of Public Welfare of Pitt County met in regular monthly session Wednesday afternoon at the Welfare office. Many matters concerning the work in the county was discussed and one Mothers Aid case passed before submitting same to the Board of County Commissioners.

Members of the Board present for the meeting, were Prof. H. E. Austin, Geo. W. Prescott of Ayden, and Miss "Rabitha" De Visconti of Farmville, the latter succeeding Mrs. Carl Turnage on the board.

K. T. Futrell, supt. of Public Welfare, submitted his report for January and February. The reports showed many neglected and dependent children had been reported during these months. Taking care of the dependent and neglected child in the county came in for considerable discussion. Information from Oxford Methodist Orphanage at Raleigh and other child caring institutions show that only about one-tenth of the urgent cases applying to them can be taken in the institutions. Over crowded conditions and cost of maintenance at the institutions prohibit taking any more children.

The cost of taking care of a child in the institutions of the state is $23.70 per month per child while the cost of keeping a child at home with its own mother is about $5.00 per month per child. The homes where immorality exist and where conditions are otherwise unfavorable and the mother is not found eligible for Mothers Aid, children from these homes should be admitted to institutions and the home broken up, according to the view of the board.

The board decided to meet the second Wednesday in each month. Mr. Futrell was asked to make a census of the dependent and neglected children in the county for the next meeting.

Texas Rangers Carry Law Into Boom District

Borger, Texas, April 2.—(AP)—Texas Rangers today brought law to this Panhandle oil boom district in general and to Stinnett, 15 miles west of here, in particular, when a mob was reported bent on securing three suspects held in connection with the slaying of two deputy sheriffs.

Borger, baptized in a wave of crime and series of violent deaths since the recent discovery of oil was ordered under Ranger rule last night following the shooting of Deputies Pat Keaton and A. L. Terry near Whittenton yesterday. The officers were killed before they could return the fire of occupants of an automobile they attempted to stop, in their search for five bandits who robbed a bank at Pampa, Texas, Thursday, of more than $25,000.

Shortly after the bodies of the deputies were found in the road near their car, Hugh Walker and Ed Bailey were arrested and placed in jail at Stinnett, county seat of Hutchinson County. "Whitey" Walker, brother of Hugh, also was arrested when he was identified as one of the bank bandits. All were found at their homes here. A pistol left by the slayers led to the arrest of Hugh Walker and Bailey.

Many Persons Experience Narrow Escapes When Wind Unroofed Buildings and Uprooted Trees

No injuries were reported in the storm, although numerous tales of miraculous escapes came in. Fifteen men had a narrow escape at the substation of the Southern Public Utilities Company at Winston-Salem when the roof and upper section of the building was knocked off with a loss estimated at $25,000. The family of F. P. Visconti of Durham, was unhurt when the roof over their heads was torn away, and the house shaken to its foundations.

Falling telephone wires and flying debris endangered life and limb throughout the storm, swept section as people broke for shelter. Business was paralyzed in Winston-Salem during the storm as electric current went off, and street cars were stalled in the street, while many merchants closed their doors while the darkness lasted.

Housewives cooking supper were forced to suspend and late meals resulted. Sideswipes of the high wind were reported at Wilmington, Greenville and Tarboro, as well as other sections of North Carolina, and towns in the Piedmont section visioned heavy lightning flashes and menacing clouds in early part of the evening, but escaped the high winds.

Tarboro, N. C., April 2.—(AP)—Considerable property damage but no personal injuries marked the storm that passed through Tarboro last night.

Daylight showed trees were blown down, plate glass windows in two of the main street stores were blown in, and several roofs blown in. The electric light system was put out of commission.

Durham, N. C., April 2.—(AP)—Durham citizens bent themselves today to re-roofing against April showers, as the result of a windstorm which swept a path through the West End residential section late yesterday.

Police were checking damage report by today but had made no report other than that they had found one seriously injured. The count venture no estimate of the damage other than to say probably it would be much less than originally reported.

The storm struck as the hour when housewives were preparing the evening meal, and left many of them with nothing more than the sky for a roof.

Eyewitnesses said the wind descended with a roar, like an incisive airplane attempting a landing, and would strike, soar again, touch another roof or chimney before swooping off in another playful gust. They said giant timbers were hurled through the air, but miraculously missed finding a human mark.

A trip through the storm swept region revealed that the damage, while appreciable, was most superficial. Lightly constructed residences, garages and chimneys fell before the blast, but more substantial structures mostly withstood the storm.

The path of the blow was narrow. Apparently it makes its first appearance on the northern end of (Continued on page six)

League Owners May Consider Questions in Stock Tangle

New York, April 2.—(AP)—President John A. Heydler of the National League, has taken steps to call a meeting of the league club owners to consider the stock tangle of Rogers Hornsby and his right to play with the New York Giants while owning an interest in the St. Louis Cardinals. The meeting will be held in Pittsburgh next week unless plans are changed.

John McGraw, manager of the Giants, has said he will use the former Cardinal pilot at second base from the start of the season even though the cloutier failed to dispose of 1,167 shares of stock he holds in the St. Louis club. Hornsby asks $105 a share and as yet no buyer has appeared. Heydler has ruled that Hornsby can not play with New York while owning part of a rival team. McGraw has threatened court action.

"If McGraw persists in his decision to start Hornsby and the latter still is a stockholder in the Cardinals, I can prevent Hornsby from playing by instructing my managers not to permit him to participate in games," said Heydler. "McGraw then could seek to restrain me through court action, but we do not wish to get into court with the case. I fully appreciate the viewpoint of Hornsby and of McGraw and the Giants at the same time, the National League is against anything that smacks of syndicate baseball, and will fight to maintain that stand."

Raleigh, N. C., April 2.—(AP)—Otto Wood, champion cross-country man of North Carolina, is chosen as new head coach of the North Carolina State College cross-country team in the April Fool edition of the Technician, weekly newspaper of the college.

State College expects to have a good cross-country team as soon as the new coach is allowed to leave his present residence under the care of the State of North Carolina. It is commented.

comfortably about the brow of Bobby Cruikshank for the past year, will remain undisturbed for another 12 months.

Cruikshank, diminutive veteran of the tees and greens, who hails from the Progress Club, New York, fought his way into the lead of the North and South tournament yesterday and won by two strokes over the formidable Walter Hagen, of Pasadena, Fla.

Beginning the final 18 holes of the 72-hole ordeal one stroke behind Hagen, the defending champion won the tournament and the $500 prize by shooting a 34 on the incoming nine holes which Hagen was able to negotiate only after 37 strokes.

Cruikshank's total score was 285.

Emmett French, professional of Southern Pines, and Youngstown, Ohio, with a 292, was tied for third place with Leo Diegel, White Plains, N. Y., and Tom Harmon, Yonkers, N. Y.

Cruikshank has had a successful winter, having won the Texas open, the south central open and the gold on Los Angeles open before his victory yesterday.

"pioneer of the industry's most widely accepted advancements, Oakland is pioneering again today"

Adhering to its purpose to produce a low-priced six, rivaling in beauty and mechanical quality the finest cars of the world—

Oakland has introduced many of the foremost automotive improvements in use today.

Oakland developed the widely imitated Harmonic Balancer and led the industry in the adoption of Duco finishes. Oakland led its field in offering Fisher bodies, 4-wheel brakes, air cleaner, oil filter and foot-controlled tilting-beam headlights.

And just as in the past it has been pioneer of the industry's most widely accepted advancements, Oakland is pioneering again today——by employing practices and processes of such extraordinary exactness that their use has previously been restricted to the manufacturers of extremely costly cars!

Go through the great Oakland factory and you will find instance after instance where super-precision, rigorous standards and extra measures are being employed to insure an extra measure of owner satisfaction. You will see piston pin bushings being diamond bored to limits of three ten-thousandths of an inch—connecting rods being matched both for weight and center of gravity—and many other operations, equally unusual in Oakland's price class.

And when you drive the Greater Oakland Six and thrill to its almost unbelievably smooth and spirited performance, you will understand why this rigorously controlled quality is paying such lavish dividends—to Oakland in the form of ever growing good will—to owners, in the form of everlasting satisfaction!

MAMMOTH STYLE REVUE AT CIRCUS

Twelve Living Professional Models to Take Part in Brilliant Display

One of the biggest style revues ever staged in this section of the state is one of the big features of the indoor circus, auto show and merchants' exposition which will be staged on the week of April 18 by the local post of the American Legion.

Too much stress cannot be laid on the fact that special decorations will be used for this feature. Special advertising matter has already been ordered to herald the coming of this big event and is now enroute.

Monday will start the real advertising campaign of the big show and arrangements have already been made to cover the dead walks, etc., around the country side for a radius of sixty miles.

Arrangements are now being made for the appearance here of twelve living professional models from New York City, who will display all of the latest summer creations for lady as well as advance numbers of what may be the coming creations for the early fall.

Nothing will be left undone to insure the style revue, Friday, night, April 22, one that will be the talk of this entire section.

OUR SATURDAY NIGHT MEDITATION

"LEAVING IT THERE"
 Psalm 62:1—"Leave it all quietly to God, my soul."
 (Dr. Moffet's translation.)

There are times in life when it is a comfort to have someone say to us, "Leave all that to me." Like a gentle wind it blows the clouds away. When one is contem plating foreign travel, or has arrangements to make about a marriage, or about a funeral service, to have some one, competent and expert, in whose strong hands we can leave everything is often an untold relief.

There is much in life that we must do ourselves. Of certain duties no one can relieve us. There are crosses each of us must carry and burdens nobody can take away. But how much more difficult life would in certain times of anxiety or strain were there not some one standing by to say, "Leave all that to me."

Now this command which the Psalmist gave his soul is one of the secrets of the spiritual life. No passing of ages has made it less imperative.

One thinks for instance of the ways of Providence which it is impossible to understand. For in every life, however dowered and happy, there are things impossible to understand. And often these are so very strange and bitter, and so difficult to reconcile with love, that the bravest heart is nigh to unbelief.

When prayers seem to go unanswered, when someone dear is taken away, when those who would not harm a living creature are bowed under intolerable pain, how hard it is to say that God is good, and saying it believe it, with that confidence which is pleasing in His sight.

We want to know. We want to understand. Sometimes like Job we expostulate with God. And so, expostulating, everything goes harder, till we are brought to the margins of despair.

How much wiser to "leave it all quietly to God." We are not here just to understand. Now we know in part and see in part. We are here to glorify God by trusting Him even when we do not understand.

One thinks again of all those intellectual problems which vex and perplex the human mind. There are times in life when these are very sore. Yet I venture to say that something must be wrong if these thoughts are permitted to rob the believer of his peace and joy. A great problem may be a great inspiration. But there are times when it is the highest part of wisdom not to beat ourselves on things too high for us, but to give our souls the counsel of the Psalmist: "Leave it all quietly to God." Some day we shall arrive and understand. We shall see His face and His name shall be in our FOREHEADS—it shall be written out in the region of the brain. Meantime we have a life to live, a heart to cultivate, a service to perform. To many of our questionings Jesus still answers: "What is that to thee? Follow thou me."

and the Worst is Yet to Come

Again, let us remember that deep counsel in the hours when we have done our best—aid failed. Every teacher knows the sense of failure, every mother with her growing family, every visitor to lonely homes, every preacher of the great Evangel. So little done, so little difference made, so little fruit for laborious toil, though the seed sown may have been steeped in prayer. Let us not be discouraged, but keep on doing, and leave results to Him.

"When obstacles and trials seem like prison walls to be, I do the little I can do, And leave the rest to Thee"

FARM NOTES

The profit with cows is measured by the quantity of milk produced and with hens by the number of eggs produced, but with hogs profit comes from gain in flesh, therefore, each day a hog fails to put on at least equal to cost of food that day, the feed is lost, consequently we are to make the most from feeding hogs we must see to it that they put on the maximum amount of gain each day from birth until ready for market, which in this case, will be from six to eight months of age.

Dr. W. W. Dawson and H. M. Taylor, of Grifton are feeding hogs for Richmond market to be shipped around the 20th of April. Dr. Dawson has fourteen hampshires on feeding test. These were weighed in and will be fed for six weeks with accurate cost record on feed and gain in weight. A check on weights at present indicates a gain per day of 2.5 pounds. Dr. Dawson produces his own feeds both for Richmond market and for the barbecue trade in summer and early fall.

You can't buy much hay with the profit on a bale of cotton.

Five hundred baby chicks bought now and properly fed and housed will increase the net income of any farmer in Pitt county next year. In addition the farmer will have some two hundred cockerels to sell this summer and if properly cared for the pullets will be producing eggs through November and December. Two hundred hens will add $500 net income to any farmer who will give just a little of his time.

A few good cows will give a weekly income from butterfat and at the same time provide the best of feed in the form of skim milk for the huddies and pigs. The hog, hen and cow is a fine combination. Think it over.

Are American School Children Taught the Truth About The World War?

EDITOR'S NOTE:—Are American school children being taught the truth about the World War? No, says Col. Thomas J. Dickson, Chaplain General of the Military Order of the World War, who has examined more than 100 present day school histories and has charged they are fired with inaccuracies and "historical absurdities." In this, the second of a series of articles written for I. N. S., Col. Dickson points out further examples of mistakes in these histories.

(By Lieut. Col. Thomas J. Dickson, Formerly of First Division A. E. F.)

Washington, April 2.—(INS)—Unless more than 100 of history textbooks being used daily in thousands of American schools are corrected, American school children are going to mature with a hodge-podge of inaccurate information about the greatest war America ever engaged in.

These histories are brimful of errors. I have examined more than 100 of them, and compared them with official military records. The results are amazing. Yesterday I told of one history teaching children that more than two million men fought in an area five by three miles. There are countless such absurdities to be found in these histories.

For example, take Wertenbaker's History of the American People. It states:

"Nine American divisions went forward, up the valley of the Meuse through the Bois de Cheppy, over the ruined town of Vauquois, up the Aire beneath the Heights of the Argonne."

It sounds all right. But try to apply that to the map. You will find that these nine American divisions—more than 250,000 soldiers—came from the direction of the enemy, swung to their right, passed through a small and unimportant wood, climbed over the top of Vauquois Mountain, marched up a small creek and stopped about where the Liberty and Keystone divisions from New York and Pennsylvania began the action which resulted in their capture of the Argonne Forest.

It's about as accurate as running a motion picture film backward.

To continue some more citations and errors from these present day histories:
HAWKINS:—"The fight at Belleau Wood was the first serious setback the Hun had suffered."
The First Battle of the Marne. Verdun and Cantigny were long before Belleau Wood.
McMASTER:—"The first shot by our men in France was in October 27, 1917."
The date should be October 23.
STEPHENSON:—"The Americans were sending over their men in dribbles. We played our part in a sterner retreating defense."
The Germans never had a chance to bury the dead of an American division.
TEX:—"Fully one-third of the Americans engaged in this (Meuse-Argonne) campaign were either killed or wounded."
The official records give 10 per cent as the figure.
HAWWORTH & GARNER:—"The enemy quailed before the counteroffensive of Foch on July 18."
The battle losses positively contradict this.
MACE:—"The Americans charged across the river (St. Mihiel) yelling like demons."
There is no river there.
HALLERCK:—"During the 47 days of the Meuse-Argonne battle there was one day of our American son-shine."
This is contradicted by excellent photographs made from airplanes. KENEDY & JOSEPH:—"The Marines captured Belleau Wood."

 Belleau Wood was taken by elements of the Second, Third and Yankee Divisions. Only two regiments of marines were included in these three entire divisions.
FITE:—"Americans of the First and Second Divisions, marines as well as regular infantrymen, in company with chosen French divisions in July turned the enemy back and saved Paris at Chateau-Thierry and Belleau Wood."
The First Division was never at Belleau Wood. The Second Division was never at Chateau-Thierry. Paris was not endangered in July.
CELESTE:—"This freed the allies from flank attack, opened up communications with Verdun."
Communications with Verdun were never closed.
STEPHENSON:—"The fighting ended at the old town of Sedan, where our army for the first time raised the American flag above a captured European City (Nov. 7, 1918.)"
Sedan was in a French sector and was taken by the French.
ROBBINS:—"Along the Meuse River to the North and West of St. Mihiel and Verdun is the Argonne Forest."
Contradicted by official map.
WEST:—"In September, American divisions were on a third part of the front."
War Department records show that on this date the Americans held 18 per cent of the front.
GREGORY & GUTTEAU:—"The Buckeye Division reached Hindenburg at the Armistice."
No one has been able to find the place on any map.
BASSETT:—"On the Western side of the Marne salient where the German line was thinly held, here on July 18, he (Foch) delivered a furious onslaught that sent the invaders reeling backward from four to eight miles."
This is contradicted by every official report, and by men who participated in the offensive near Soissons.

Market Report

Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON
New York, April 2.—(AP)—The cotton market opened steady today at a decline of 2 to 4 points under southern selling and commission house liquidation; prices easing off to 14.25 for July and 14.40 for October. Liverpool made a relatively steady showing, however, while there was some trade buying on the decline here. After the early offerings had been absorbed, prices steadied on covering, with trading quiet at the end of the first hour.

The amount of cotton on ship board awaiting clearance at the end of the week was estimated at 177,000 bales, against 72,000 last year.

Reports of more favorable weather conditions in the south were accompanied by a little of southern and local selling, but small offerings were absorbed on slight declines and the close was steady at net losses of 2 to 5 points. July contracts sold off from 14.28 to 14.23; and close at 14.24; compared with 14.25 at the close of the previous day.

Future closed steady; spot quiet; middling 14.35.

WEEKLY FINANCIAL REVIEW
New York, April 2.—(AP)—Curious cross currents of prices ran through this week's stock market. While U. S. Steel, common, General Motors, DuPont, National Lead and other seasonal dividend paying issues were being evaluated to record high prices, scores of others, particularly in the oil, baking, packing, textile and tobacco groups, were being forced to new low levels under the weight of heavy liquidation for both accounts.

From a stock market standpoint, one of the most important developments of the week was the Interstate Commerce Commission's decision that rate valuations should be based on 1914 costs instead of present replacement value as contended by the railroads.

DRY GOODS
New York, April 2.—(AP)—The demand for cotton goods in primary gray goods markets has been quiet. Prices have held steady as a rule. Some concessions have been made on a few constructions of print cloths for spot or nearby delivery. The wash fabrics business continued large, most of the new business coming from road men or in the mails. Printed wash fabrics are closely sold and overtime operations in mills and finishing plants continue very general in the effort to make the deliveries requested. Printed damies, voiles, percales, rayon mixtures and silk and cotton mixtures are the most active. Duck is barely steady with production high. General production in cotton goods is at a single shift capacity due to the volume of overtime operations and in sharp contrast with other textile divisions that are quieter than a year ago.

*Prices current in primary markets are as follows: print cloths 28 inch 64x65 5 1-4 cents; 64x60, 5 cents; 38 1-2 inch 64x64, 7 1-2 cents; brown sheetings, southern standards 11 cents; denim 2.20, 14 1-2 cents; twillings 8 ounce 18 cent to 19 1-2 cents; prints 8 cents; staple ginghams 9 cents; dress ginghams 12 1-2 to 16 1-2 cents.

COTTON SEED OIL
New York, April 2.—(AP)—Cotton seed oil closed firm; prime summer yield 8.90 to 9.30; prime crude 7.25 to 7.50; April 8.90; May 9.05; June 9.23; July 9.40; August 9.51; September 9.55; October 9.40; November 9.35; sales 2,300.

SUGAR
New York, April 2.—(AP)—Raw sugar was unchanged at 4.68 for spot Cuban duty paid. Refined was quiet and unchanged at 5.85 for fine granulated. Raw futures were unchanged to two points lower.

NEW YORK DAIRY

STOCK MARKET
New York, April 2.—(AP)—Speculative interest in today's stock market shifted to the rails, several of which touched new high levels. Industrials were subjected to heavy profit taking, although United States Steel, common, established another high record at 170 3-8 in the early trading. Business was in heavy volume for a 1-1/2 holiday session. The closing was irregular. Total sales approximated 1,000,000 shares.

GRAIN
Chicago, April 2.—(AP)—Reports of a crop damage from high winds and bugs in western Kansas tended to rally wheat today after initial declines. At first the market had been bearishly influenced by the fact that Liverpool quotations were almost altogether unresponsive to yesterday's advance here. Opening at 3-8 advance here, wheat later showed off to 1-8 up, wheat later showed slight general gains. Corn, oats and provisions were easy, corn starting unchanged to 3-8 low, and subsequently sagging.

Wheat closed firm at a shade to 1-8 advance; corn unchanged to 1-4 lower; oats 1-8 off to a shade up and provisions carrying from 15 cents decline to a rise of two cents.

Chicago, April 2.—(AP)—The prospect of a better export demand for United States wheat is coming to the front as a factor in shaping values. An outstanding feature is that differing from a year ago. Residents in the path of the storm said it brought a virtual reign of terror. They related how some persons, seeing the dark cloud approaching and hearing its ominous roar, ran to cover, while

American diplomatic and military representatives in China "are cooperating fully with other foreign representatives when faced with a joint problem such as protection of the lives and property of their nationals," he added.

The statement was prompted by criticism published among Americans at Shanghai charging lack of firmness in Washington in dealing with the situation and failure to cooperate with other western nations.

Resentment of constructions placed on official Washington announcements as circulated in Shanghai was reflected at the White House and it was intimated that hereafter President Coolidge's view might not be made available as freely as in recent weeks.

It also has been made known at the White House that the President does not expect the additional marine units to be sent to China unless requested by Admiral Williams, and that the movement is regarded as only a precautionary one.

Tennessee Lady Had So Little Strength She "Couldn't Get Around." Took Cardui With Benefit.

Gassaway, Tenn.—"I wasn't able to do any of my work, and it seemed like I had so little strength I just couldn't get around," says Mrs. Frank Murphy, who lives near here. "My mother knew of the good Cardui I could do, so she told me to take it. I sent and got a bottle, and seemed like all the time I grew stronger."

"I had been suffering with pains in my sides all the time, and Cardui helped this wonderfully. I needed a tonic for female trouble, and Cardui just fitted the need. I was awfully restless and could not sleep at night, but after taking two boxes of Cardui I could sleep like a top. I got along all right, and I know it was due to Cardui. I can certainly recommend it to women suffering from women's troubles."

"My present health is just fine." Thousands of women have written to tell how Cardui relieved them of pain and suffering, and helped them to improve in health and strength. Cardui is perfectly harmless, being an extract of mild-acting herbs, and contains no dangerous drugs or harmful ingredients. Sold everywhere. NC-174

WHY is it a man will count the cost so carefully, when he is paying out interest, and gives so little consideration to the real significance of interest coming to him? There is power in the compound interest earned in one of our savings accounts. Within a few short years, interest thus compounded far surpasses six per cent simple interest. If your money isn't drawing interest it is costing you money. Our new interest period begins April first, and ends April 5th. Now is the time to make a savings deposit.

Miss Pankhurst has lost interest in votes for women, "because voting women make the same mistakes that men make." They do, of course, being human, and some times influenced by men. Nobody expected that votes for women would bring on the millennium, ever night. But women voting have made men in office ask them selves "What do the women want? What do the children need?" That's the important thing about votes for women.

In old whiskey days as soon as women got the vote, district leaders in the great city sent out the order "Don't get the boys drunk around election time, or their wives and daughters will vote against you."
