RUSHING FLOOD WATERS THREATEN TO DESTROY CITY OF NEW ORLEANS

Governor asks Permission to Dynamite Levee in Effort to Save Large City.

Washington, April 26. (AP)—War Department officials were preparing today a telegram to Governor Simpson, of Louisiana, informing him that its army of engineers found no technical objections to his proposal to cut the levee on the Mississippi river at Poydras, 10 miles below New Orleans, to save that city from flooding, the Secretary of War would interpose no objection to the action of Governor Simpson plans to take.

The Governor's request included a pledge on the part of Louisiana and the city of New Orleans to undertake to compensate all persons who might suffer damage as a result of the break.

Memphis, Tenn., April 26.—(AP)—Having already wrought what officials describe as one of the worst calamities in the history of the country, the rushing flood waters of the Mississippi river and its tributaries now threaten the South's largest city, New Orleans.

So grave has the situation become that Governor Simpson of Louisiana has asked for official permission of the War Department to dynamite a levee to the south of the city in an effort to save it from a devastating flood that would "blow breaks in the dykes to the north.

Army engineers in the valley section have made no secret of their apprehensions for the safety of New Orleans. They have estimated that a break to the north would flood that city with a depth of many feet in some sections with a resultant loss of millions of dollars in property if not large loss of life.

Sweeping man and his work; scornfully before it, the mighty flood water of the Mississippi river and its tributaries rolled mercilessly on toward the sea today, inundating new territory in Mississippi, Arkansas and Louisiana, rendering additional thousands homeless and steadily increasing the toll of death and destruction.

Behind the advancing waters, swift forces of relief, marshalled by an entire nation, moved by every available means to give succor to thousands concentrated in refugee camps or marooned on high places to which they fled when the waters enveloped their homes.

With the known death list steadily climbing above the one hundred mark, and varying estimates of from 20 to 500 dead in the whole stricken area, every precaution was being taken to prevent additional casualties from disease, hunger and exposure.

While boats and aircraft scoured the flooded districts for marooned persons, other vessels and planes sped to concentration centers and stricken towns with food, clothing, medicines and assurances of continued relief.

Refugees fleeing from newly inundated towns and communities in the three states swelled the ranks of the homeless which already had been estimated at 150,000.

In southeastern Arkansas nearly a dozen small towns were receiving backwaters from old breaks in the Arkansas river, the inhabitants "were climbing to the levees or retreating to nearby towns which remained dry.

The southern Mississippi delta through which the waters from the St. Louis break in the main Mississippi levee must course before rejoining the parent stream near Vicksburg, was another scene of evacuation as the flood waters from the mighty river joined with the backwater of the Yazoo.

In northern Louisiana small tributaries of the Mississippi added their waters to the peril from the swollen flood of the winding Red river.

Sections of southern Louisiana, Delta, below New Orleans, received more water from the Diamond Cross levee.

Meanwhile, with urgent warnings issued on every hand, men labored to rear higher the main Mississippi levees from Vicksburg to New Orleans.

FLOOD RELIEF FUND

The local fund being raised for relief of the flood sufferers had reached $251.68 shortly after noon today and the first check for $200.00 was already enroute to the American Red Cross to be used in the relief work.

Donations to the fund are being received by W. H. Rogers, chairman of Pitt county chapter Red Cross; A. B. Ellington, secretary, and The Daily Reflector. Donations of any size gratefully received and acknowledged through the columns of the paper.

Forceful Sermon Features Revival At Christian Church

"The World's Greatest Need" was the subject of the sermon at the Christian church last night. The text was Hebrews 11:6—"But without faith it is impossible to please God: for he that cometh to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him."

The world's greatest need is covered in four words—have faith in God. The evangelist stated that he wanted faith spelling a new word—forsaking all I take Him. Early Christians left all to follow Jesus. Stephen was stoned for following Jesus, yet dying he prayed for his murderers. Paul left all to follow Jesus. He became the world's greatest missionary, was persecuted cast outside the gate, endured hardships, yet he followed his Lord. It meant death to follow Christ in the long ago.

We, today, are not called upon to endure such suffering, yet how little is our faith. Faith is made up of three things—belief, confidence and trust. A little girl's definition of faith was "Faith is taking God at His word, doing what He tells us to do, without asking any questions."

We need the child-like faith in our Father. He has never failed us and never will. He will lead us in green pastures and beside the still waters.

Rev. Harris closed his message with this illustration: Some college students in a botany class were out searching for flowers and rocks. Some one noticed a beautiful flower over a cliff. They knew not how to reach it. A little boy with them and they asked him if they would tie a rope around him and hold it, would he get over the cliff and get the blossom. He said he would if Papa would hold the rope. Such trust and faith he had in his father. We need just such faith in our heavenly Father. God will pull us to the haven of rest if we but trust and obey him.

Mrs. Proctor sweetly sang "I Am Praying For You." There were several additions, and baptism followed the service.

The subject for tonight is "Three Hundred White Roses." You who are staying away from these services are missing great messages that are being given to us each night by this servant of God. Come early and join in the song service.

present problem of relief forces had chief regard for the succor of refugees the great question is what will happen to the levees in the lower river when the crest arrives.

General Jadwin asserted that the great menace to New Orleans will be the joining of the Red river with the swollen Mississippi and that the full danger of the resultant flood can only be gauged when they meet.

GRAND JURY MAKES FEW CRITICISMS

Report to Criminal Court Provides Recommendations For Minor Changes

Recommendations for relief of congestion existing in the department of education and the department of welfare were contained in the report of the grand jury presented yesterday afternoon to Judge E. H. Cranmer, presiding over this term of Pitt county Superior Court.

The report also recommended that the health department discontinue use of the grand jury room for the treatment of venereal diseases, and that extra help be provided the register of deeds in order to enable him to dispose of an unusual accumulation of official documents.

The report commended existing conditions at the county home and the county convict camp. The detailed report follows: To the Honorable Court: The Grand Jury submits the following report: That all Bills and Presentments coming before us have been acted on and due returns thereon made to the court.

In the further discharge of our duties we have visited the several public offices and institutions of the county and make the following reports as to them, and add the recommendations relative to them. 1st. We recommend that clean, sanitary bed linen be provided for and kept on the beds in the Jury sleeping rooms; that two such sheets be provided and placed on each bed, and that they be changed after each night's usage. That door to this room be kept locked at all times, when not in actual use.

2nd. That plumbing in the jail be repaired. Defective plumbing has made it impossible to keep it in proper condition. And further, that the upper portion of the jail, which is not at this time in use be thoroughly ordered and so kept for use in any emergency calling for its use.

3rd. We have visited and inspected the offices of Sheriff Auditor, Register of Deeds, Clerk of Court, Board of Education, Treasurer and Board of Health. In (Continued on page six)

McLAUGHLIN TESTIFIES IN SNYDER CASE

Lieutenant Dorschell Says no Third Degree in First Examination.

New York, April 26.—(AP)—Geo V. McLaughlin, former New York City Police Commissioner, testified in the Snyder murder trial today. To a conversation he had with Mrs. Ruth Snyder as she lay in bed the day her husband was killed.

He said she told him of returning from a card party, or being seized by a man with a black moustache and of fainting. "Did she know her husband was dead at that time?" "Detectives told me she did not. I informed her of the fact. She shed a few tears and then continued to answer questions."

"You saw her later at a police station?" "Yes." "She still told the same story?" "Yes."

New York, April 26.—(AP)—When Henry Judd Gray confessed to the murder of Albert Snyder he was alert, untired in appearance and under no compulsion, polite lieutenant Charles Dorschell, who witnessed the confession, testified today.

The defense in the Snyder murder trial contends that the confessions of both Gray and Mrs. Ruth Snyder, widow of the victim, were obtained as the result of "mental third degree."

Gray took his arrest for the murder as a joke up to the time he was put on a train at Syracuse for New York, police lieutenant McDermott, of Syracuse, one of the officers who arrested him, testified. It was not until the party was well on the way to New York that he broke down and admitted the murder, the witness said.

Police lieutenant McDermott, one of the two officers who arrested Gray in Syracuse the day after the murder, under questioning by counsel for Gray, told details of the arrest.

Jury For Jackson Trial to be Chosen This Afternoon; Minor Cases Yesterday.

Only minor issues were given consideration by the criminal term of Pitt county Superior court yesterday. The five or six cases disposed of consisted mainly of charges of assault with deadly weapons and mediocre violations of the prohibition laws.

A special venire of fifty men will appear before the court this afternoon at two o'clock from which a jury will be drawn to hear the case of Amos C. Jackson, former sheriff of Pitt county, charged with embezzling over twenty thousand dollars from the county during his administration as sheriff. Hearing of the charge is expected to consume much time. Prosecuting witnesses are representatives of the insurance company with which the former sheriff was bonded.

Likey Alexander, colored, was yesterday sentenced to the roads for a period of two years on a charge of larceny. He was arrested in connection with the robbery of a store in Farmville some time ago.

L. H. Padgett, of Washington, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, received suspended judgment for two years. The case was the outgrowth of a wreck between a car driven by the defendant and a school truck. Padgett and his wife received minor injuries.

Prayer for judgment was continued for a period of two years in the case of Charlie Morgan, charged with assault with a deadly weapon. He was required to give bond of $300 and to appear before the court from time to time to answer for good behavior.

E. M. Rush and Prichard Phelps, charged with larceny, were sentenced to the county roads for 12 months, sentence not to become effective in case of good behavior for a period of two years. They were required to give bond of $200 each and to appear before the August and January terms of court to show good behavior.

Judgment was reserved in the case of Allgood Warren, charged with manufacturing whiskey. Sentence will be pronounced sometime later.

Judgment was suspended for a period of two years in the case of Josh Taylor, charged with breaking into a home. He was required to give bond of $100 and to appear before the court to answer to good behavior.

NON-STOP AIR FLIGHT ENDS IN DISASTER

Commander Noel Davis and Alternate Pilot Killed When Plain Falls in Va.

Newport News, Va., April 26.—(AP)—Commander Noel Davis, en-trant in the New York-Paris non-stop flight, and Lieutenant Stanton H. Wooster, alternate pilot for the trip, were killed early today when the giant plane, American Legion, fell near Messick, Va.

Word of the disaster, which occurred while the machine was out on a heavy load test preparatory to taking off in the long flight, was relayed to Langley Field by telephone. A squadron of planes left immediately for the scene.

Reports received at Langley Field said that the machine apparently developed engine trouble, became unmanageable and crashed several hundred feet to the ground. It was carrying a load of more than 13,000 pounds and once it started falling, there was no stopping it.

The accident occurred about 8:30 o'clock this morning. The machine fell near Messick, a fishing and farming settlement on Back River, a few miles inland from Chesapeake Bay. Telephone messages stated that the machine was badly smashed in the fall. Neither air had time to jump.

Commander Davis yesterday spoke with pride of the performance of the machine which he has been testing at Langley Field for the past few weeks. He said: "We are almost ready to get away now, but there is no hurry about the trip. We want to have everything in our favor and I think the May full moon will give us favorable weather."

"All the tests made with the machine have been perfect. I have never piloted a better plane. I and my companions and other officers at Langley Field have been particularly pleased with the manner in which the plane gets up when loaded."

"Some of us had feared that when the machine was loaded to capacity as she will be when we start on our long flight, a large field would be necessary for her to get up. The contrary has been proven. The machine rises in less space than is required for some smaller planes. It is the best mechanical bird I ever have seen and I believe we will make the flight to Paris with few difficulties."

The bodies of both officers were removed from the wreckage of the American Legion soon after the accident and were taken to the naval hospital at Portsmouth. Information that the plane crashed in about four feet of water and that both fliers were drowned.

Later officers at Langley Field were informed that Commander Davis was attempting a forced landing when the big craft became unmanageable.

Mrs. Davis has been visiting friends at Langley Field while her husband tested the American Legion.

New York, April 25.—(AP)—The death of Commander Noel Davis in Virginia today marked the second tragedy in the proposed New York to Paris non-stop flight. The first effort ended last fall when Captain Rene Ponek's giant plane was burned at Roosevelt Field a moment after he had taken off for Paris, causing the deaths of Charles W. Clavier, the radio operator, and Jacob Islamoff, the mechanic. The famous French ace himself escaped injury.

It was a coincidence that Commander Davis himself was an entrant for the flight last fall, but cancelled his plans.

Commander Davis had an unusual and brilliant record in the Navy. He was raised on the plains of Utah and in his early school days evinced a penchant for mathematics and the Navy.

He entered the Naval Academy and was graduated with high honors, notwithstanding his early educational handicaps.

He served as aide to Admiral Sims Strauss and when the United States declared war on Germany he went abroad as chief of staff to Admiral Strauss in charge of mine laying.

CANTONESE BATTERIES BOMBARD U. S. WARSHIP INFLECTING CASUALTIES

REGISTRATION FOR ELECTION ENDS APRIL 30

Shanghai, April 26.—(AP)—The heaviest casualties yet suffered by a United States warship in Chinese waters were inflicted when Cantonese Nationalist batteries bombarded the U. S. S. Penguin, an auxiliary vessel on the Yangtze river yesterday several of the Penguin's men were injured, one of them seriously.

The bombardment, apparently to liberate, came from the fort at Kanyin, 70 miles up the river. This was the forty seventh occasion on which American vessels—warships and others—have been fired upon by the Chinese since August 25 last year.

Shanghai, April 26.—(AP)—Miss Mary I. Craig, Philadelphia nurse recently kidnaped by bandits in Yun nan Province, has been released. American Consul General Gauss was advised from Yunnan Province, that Miss Craig was free and well.

Shanghai, April 26.—(AP)—Two thousand northern Chinese soldiers are reported to have been drowned when shells from the Cantonese batteries at Nanking sank their boats in the Yangtze river.

Shanghai, April 26.—(AP)—The Yangtze river is virtually an avenue of fire at the present time. One of the fiercest battles in months was fought last night between five warcrafts of the Cantonese (Southern Nationalist) at Nanking and the batteries at Pukow, across the river which is in the hands of the Northern forces.

The firing lasted hours but there was no decisive result. Three guns on the Yangtze, including the one at Pukow, were kept out.

Perking, April 26.—(AP)—The Japanese Government, it is understood, has sent new instructions to Mr. Yoshizawa, the Japanese minister here in connection with the Nanking incident.

Shanghai, April 26.—(AP)—The vernacular newspapers published an official Kuomintang (Cantonese political organization) manifesto to the world today stating that the British minister at Perking proposes to prepare for the occupation of Shanghai and Nanking in the event that the Chinese government should reject the demands made by the powers growing out of the Nanking disaster of March 24.

WOMAN WANTS TO TAKE LEPROSY TO LOUISIANA

Only Volunteer to Carry Leprosorium is Monroe Woman. Raleigh, N. C., April 26.—(AP)—One lone volunteer—and of the weaker sex at that—is the sum total of applications for the job of taking John Early, escaped leper, back to his Louisiana Leprosorium. The lady would be "just delighted" to go.

Dr. Charles O'H. Laughinghouse, state health officer today made the disclosure. He incidentally stated fully the status of the case.

A strong man probably will be recruited and force may have to be used, he said, for the leper living on his own land of a few acres on the Toe river near Burnsville in Yancey county. Early is in no need of a nurse, he added.

The state board of health, however has no responsibility in the matter besides reporting his location to Surgeon-General Pierce of the United States. Dr. Laughinghouse said, He has reported that no one is available as attendant, but suggested to Mrs. Lillian Tennant Harrington of More, N. C. that lone applicant she might apply to Federal authorities.

But the attendant should be "A strong man, unless it be that a lovely lady like yourself could lead him back from whence he came or anywhere else she might desire," he wrote her, in an incidental gesture, or meeting him and Mrs. Laughinghouse: Doctor I have always wanted to go with this party and perhaps stay there if they have nurses who are not Catholic nuns."

Dr. Laughinghouse replied, disclaiming the case status: "John Early the leper is a charge of the Federal Government. He has spent a number of years in the Leprosorium down in Louisiana. He slipped out not long ago and came back to North Carolina. He is at present living on his own land which consists of a few acres on the Toe river near Burnsville in Yancey county."

NINE KILLED IN BATTLE WITH REBELS

Federal Forces of Mexico Capture Band Charged With Burning Passenger Train. Mexico City, April 26.—(AP)—Federal forces sent in pursuit of the rebels which burned a train in a holdup last Tuesday overtook the rebels at El Quetzalero valley, in Jalisco, on Saturday and in a five hour battle sixty of the band, eight soldiers and an officer were killed.

A war officer announcement today said the rebels were commanded by the Catholic Priest Vega and Angulo.

The combat took place in a six mile area, and the rebels abandoned one hundred horses, and a large quantity of arms.

General Garza and Iscurre, in command of the Federal troops said that objects belonging to passengers on the Guadalajara train were found on the bodies of the rebels. One group of rebels fled toward San Francisco but was overtaken and dispersed.

The war office also received a report of an unsuccessful attempt to attack the Juarez-Mexico City train Sunday morning near the Salas station. Federal forces commanded by General Amantillas put the rebels to rout.

Woman, as Warden, Brings "Mother-Touch" to Prison

Mrs. G. A. Waters, in charge of the Granite Reformatory at Granite, Okla., is the only woman warden in the United States. She believes that her wards need mothering more than anything else, and is mingling affection with prison discipline.

GRANITE, Okla. (I-N Special)—The only warden of her sex in the United States has brought a woman's touch inside the walls of Granite Reformatory. The woman is Mrs. G. A. Waters, who succeeded her late husband in her present post. When she took over the reformatory she discovered that eighty-five per cent of her charges came from broken homes. In light of the fact that she saw her duty differently than most wardens see theirs. She turned what was then a "jail house" into what is now a "prison home." Kindness is mingled with discipline and the Golden Rule has replaced the iron hand. "But I do not let my sentiment interfere with my judgment," says Mrs. Waters. "I enforce a rigid discipline, but it is based on one theory. It is this: when the wrongdoer sees his fault and acknowledges the justice of the punishment, he is punished." Here is how Mrs. Waters brought about her "prison home" idea:

She organized athletic and dancing exhibitions. She organized a library for her "boys" and gave them greater freedom in reading. She organized quartets and an orchestra. Sunday afternoon "sings" were instituted. She bettered the recreational equipment. The ten acres within the prison now have a baseball diamond, a football field, volley ball and horse-shoe pitching courts. Her greatest achievement is less tangible. That is the indiffusion of her own personality into the prison system. She has a kind word for every boy she meets. She leans them in singing at church services. She keeps her evenings open so that her wards can bring their complaints to her. She receives them alone—without the usual guard. She talks to them as a friend, not as a jailer. Some have heard their first words of motherly counsel for years from her lips. One boy, as he was led away after a talk with her, asked his guard: "Say, when will she let me talk to her again?"

Over Her

A woman has caused the overthrow of the Japanese Cabinet. She's Madame Suzuki, head of Suzuki and Company, one of the largest companies in Japan. The Cabinet appealed to the Privy Council to authorize an advance of $100,000,000 to aid the company, now in difficulties. The Council refused and the Cabinet quit.

Mother-Love Sends Woman on Vain Trip Across Country to Win Tots She Loves

NEW YORK (I-N Special)—The hold little children have on mothers' heartstrings drew Mrs. Isabelle Keyes Burch all the way across the country—in vain.

Mother love won over pride in the woman, who left her husband, Lyndon Walker Burch, a grandson of the late Bishop Charles Sumner Burch, to elope with her father-in-law, the dashing Captain Arald Marson.

The couple were arrested in San Francisco on charges of violating the Mann act. Pending a hearing, they were released on bonds. Burch and his mother, Mrs. Marson, sued for divorce. Burch was awarded custody of the two children, Hadley and Marylip.

to an agreement that would let her have her boy and girl for part time. But the husband was firm. Mrs. Burch has left for San Francisco again, where the charges against her pend. She may marry Captain Marson after May 27, the date permitted under the divorce her husband obtained. Then she may renew her pleas to share the presence of her babies.

'Trustee for Fellow Men' Gives His Fortune Away

Because he considers that wealth can only be held in trust for fellow men, John Markle, retired coal millionaire, is devoting his to philanthropy. His foundation may rival that of Rockefeller and Carnegie.

By ELMER CLARK
International Illustrated News Staff Correspondent.

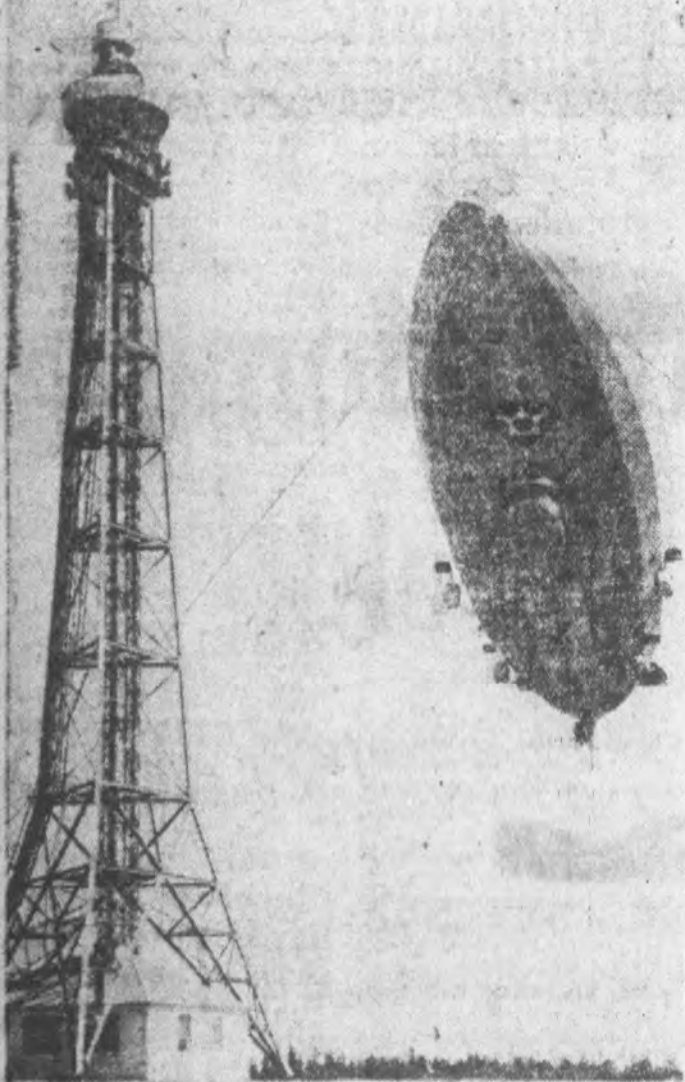

NEW YORK—"All you get out of life is a living, and that degree of living is evidenced by the condition of your mortal body. Every dollar you have in excess of the cost of living is evidence of your success in the commercial world, as much as your diploma is evidence that you have passed through college."

"With these funds in your possession, you become trustee for your fellow men and should so use these funds."

That is the philosophy of John Markle, retired coal operator, that has enabled him to build a great fortune and is causing him to disburse it again.

To carry on his philanthropies, he has created the John and Mary E. Markle Foundation which may rival the Carnegie and Rockefeller foundations in the scope of its work. This foundation will create medical centers, hospitals, charitable institutions and educational institutions; will finance studies of disease; will support libraries; and will give direct aid to destitute persons. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Markle, incorporators include J. Pierpont Morgan, Junius S. Morgan, Jr., Morgan J. O'Brien and Edward Prosser. Three million dollars will be placed in the foundation shortly, and eventually the entire Markle fortune, carrying on Markle's conception that he holds his wealth merely in trusteeship for mankind.

FAMED REFORMED LIFER HELD

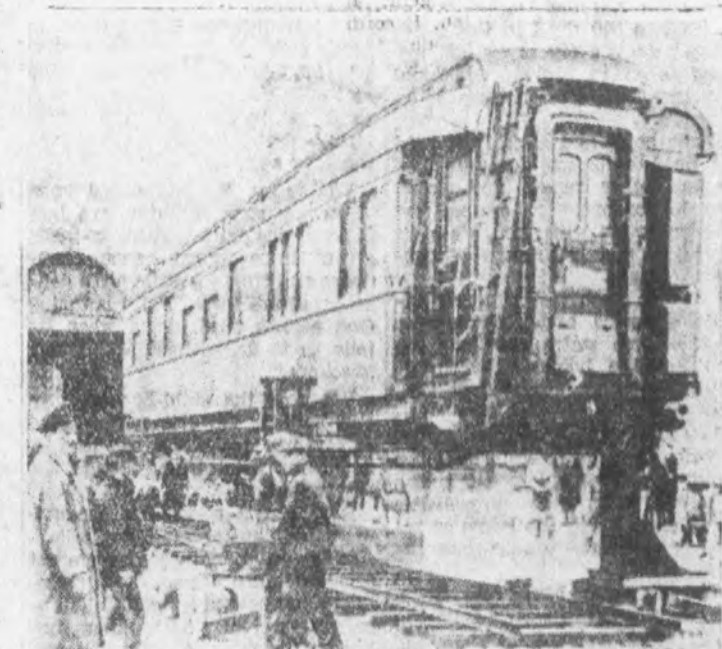

Louis Victor Eyttinge, famed ex-convict who "came back," is in trouble again. He blames it on the woman who saved him from a life in jail and who enabled him to become a wealthy advertising expert in New York. He was arrested in Kansas City, charged with issuing bad checks in Pittsburgh. He lays the trouble to a joint bank account with Mrs. Eyttinge, who wed him after a long-distance correspondence that began while he was a convict. Photo shows Eyttinge with his wife.

COACH BECOMES MEMORIAL

The railroad car in which the Armistice was signed is to be a permanent war memorial. It's shown being taken from Des Lavalles, Paris, where it's been since the close of the war, to the spot on which it stood when Marshall Foch signed the pact. A special building will house it.

HENRY JUDD GRAY: A Capsule Biography

Gray was born in Cortland, N. Y., in 1893. He had his first love affair at sixteen. He met Isabel Kalenebach, of Brooklyn, at a mountain resort. Five years later he married her. He became a corset salesman. The theory has been advanced that the drabness of this calling urged him to seek adventure—and he sought it in illicit relations with Mrs. Snyder, a similar victim of the luncheon—married life with a man eleven years older than herself. Police charge they stopped at hotels together as man and wife. Mrs. Snyder's husband carried, at her suggestion, $104,000 in insurance. Alive, he stood between her and Gray. On the night of March 19, this year, he was eluded and strangled to death. Gray and Mrs. Snyder confessed they planned and executed the crime, attempting to frame evidence to indicate Snyder was murdered by robbers.

RUTH BROWN SNYDER: A One-Minute Study

Mrs. Snyder, on trial in Long Island City, N. Y., was born to Josephine, a nurse, and William Brown, later Brown, a carpenter, on March 24, 1894. At fifteen she figured in her first blood-action affair of the heart when she engaged in a hair-pulling match with another girl over a male teacher. She quit school and became a phone operator at sixteen, but quit because of a case of "nerves." Became a stenographer in a

New York lithographing factory, where she met Albert Schneider, later Snyder, an artist. They wed in 1917. After the birth of her daughter, Lorraine, now nine, the Snyders moved to Queens Village, N. Y., where the wife fell in with a fast set. In 1924 she met Henry Judd Gray in a restaurant. An affair followed—and today the woman is on trial on charges of murdering her husband.

WILL PLACE CONFEDERATE SHELF IN PUBLIC LIBRARY

The George B. Singletary Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, gave to the high school library, several years ago, a Confederate shelf, which they have added to, at various times, until at present it consists of quite a number of valuable books, among which are Service Aloft, by Admiral Simms; Confederate Portraits, by Gamaliel Bradford; Women of the South in War Times, and The Life of Robert E. Lee.

The Chapter and also those in authority at the high school, agree that the shelf will serve a more useful purpose if placed in the public library, and this will be done in the near future. The Chapter wishes to make of this a creditable collection of books, which will be properly marked, and asks if there are any friends who wish to contribute books to the shelf to please notify the Chapter president Mrs. R. C. Deal.

All contributions will be greatly appreciated by the Chapter.

The funny jokes with local color, the vocal selections and twenty pieces orchestra including all instruments from a trying pian to a real organ, displayed a talent for comic acting of which our townsmen should feel proud.

The cooperation of several men of the Bethel Community, with the assistance of Mrs. C. M. Burton as Coach and Miss Flore Bell Morgan as pianist, enabled the P. T. A. to realize a goodly sum from this performance.

"BETTER HOMES WEEK" OBSERVED IN HIGH SCHOOL

The second year Home Economics students of the Greenville high school started "Better Homes Week" by making five minute talks on the following subjects: "How To Make Fifth Street More Beautiful"; "How I Could Improve My Bedroom"; "How I Could Improve My Backyard"; and "How My Home, in General, Could Be Made More Attractive."

The topics were assigned two weeks ago by Miss Eloise Riggs of the Teachers College, and the girls showed that they were interested in beautifying their homes, by having their talks well prepared.

On Wednesday the class will judge rooms which have been arranged in the various furniture stores by students from the Teachers College.

COTILLION CLUB GIVES BRILLIANT DANCE

Greenville society raided every second-hand shop and dime store, every attic and every old trunk yesterday. The result was a great success at the Country Club last evening, when the Cotillion Club gave a "Tacky" dance.

The costumes were a scream and a riot of color. Some boys were girls, and some girls, boys, mothers, grandmothers and possibly great-grandmother's wedding dress was in evidence. It was indeed a grand success.

The ladies' prize for the best costume went to Mrs. Lee Hahnah. She wore a vivid creation which must have been part of a gypsy costume, be-ribboned and festooned with lace and beads. With this she wore shoes which belonged to

ONE can't feel well when there is a retention of poisonous waste in the blood. This is called a toxic condition, and is apt to make one tired, dull and languid. Other symptoms are sometimes toxic backaches and headaches. That the kidneys are not functioning properly is often shown by scanty or burning passage of secretions. Many people have learned the value of Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, when the kidneys seem functionally inactive. Everywhere one finds enthusiastic Doan's users. Ask your neighbor!

The club house was most unusual in its decorations. There were profusions of straw brooms, palm leaf fans and peacock feathers, broken fruit jars and bottles held a few roses. The walls were liberally trimmed with pictures from popular magazines. The windows and doors were draped with scalloped newspapers, including the comic section. Kerosene lamps, and the lanterns which the owners of horse-drawn vehicles have refused for years to carry on the highway at night, shed their mellow glow on this brilliant scene.

William Tyson is not only a distinguished young lawyer, but he is beginning to enjoy quite a reputation as a successful potato grower. The first specimen of an Irish potato was brought to the Reflector office by Mr. Tyson yesterday afternoon. Mr. Tyson said he had ten acres of potatoes under cultivation on the outskirts of the city, and that others had planted a similar number of acres in the same locality.

HAVE YOU?

Donations for the Red Cross relief fund are being received. Have you made yours yet? Each hour the situation in the flood area grows steadily worse and the assistance of the entire nation is necessary if the people in the stricken territory are to be shielded from want and suffering. No matter what you can give, it will help. Others have already given. Have you?

FOUR MORE DAYS

Just four more days to register if you want to vote in the coming city election. All persons who have not voted in former city elections must register or persons who, since the last election, have moved from one ward to another, must register if they desire to vote for the officers in their ward. It is your duty to vote and your duty to see to it that you are eligible to vote. Time is short. See to it now that you are registered.

OFFICERS SHOULD BE ABOVE SUSPICION

We are quite sure that many folks in North Carolina would like to know the secret of a judge's legally acquiring the booze for his night-caps. The interested ones referred to would like to practice the system. But on our own part, we should like to know if it can be done in order not to judge such a judge harshly. Drinkers necessitate buyers; buyers necessitate sellers; sellers necessitate makers; makers are the potential murderers of officers, e.g., Bud Davis and his gang. Moreover, how is it possible even to keep the stuff in one's room legally? Of course, if there is no judge who takes his night-cap, we can expect no such information as that stated as desirable. But if a judge cannot give the information, maybe some attorney who finds it possible to be soggy in the court room, as he is also an officer of the court, and perhaps a wilom lawmaker, might give us the desired information. Now, we are not at all concerned at this time whether a judge or other officer of the court takes an occasional drink if he can do so without violating the law or aiding and abetting in its violation. But we do feel that a judicial officer and all other court officials should be above suspicion in the matter of the violation of all laws, and especially of that law whose violation is the mother of many crimes. — Chatham Record.

ACHED ALL OVER

Was Suffering Dreadfully, Just "Wasting Away." Took Cardui, and Says It Helped Her.

Arlington, Texas.—A resident of this town for many years, Mrs. J. H. Jackson, says: "I had suffered dreadfully with an aching all over my body. At times my head would give me so much trouble I could hardly stand it. I had been in bed for weeks and it looked like I was just wasting away. I took 9 bottles of Cardui and my strength began to slowly return. "Since that time I have used this medicine a good many times and it has always helped me. "At one time I took Cardui for several months regularly. I would be afflicted with sudden spells of dizziness when I could not stand on my feet. Everything would turn black before my eyes and I would feel as if I were going to faint. At times I would be quite nauseated. I turned at once to Cardui and took it till I was safely through."

Cardui is a mild, medicinal tonic, made from purely vegetable ingredients. It has been in use for over 50 years, and in that time thousands of women have written that Cardui helped them back to good health. Sold by all druggists. NC-182

HIGH POINT STILL LEADS IN PIEDMONT

Raleigh, N. C., April 26—(AP)—High Point furniture makers continued to hold their lead in the Piedmont league today with four wins and one loss. Winston-Salem follows with the same number of victories but two defeats trailed second.

Errors yesterday decided the Winston-Salem, Raleigh and High Point Salisbury contests. Manager Alie Watt's bobble of boss McMillan's easy roller in the eighth inning at Winston-Salem paved way for the Twins triumph, 4-3. Salisbury shortstop, Haines, crossed three taen-able High Point to win, 3-5 at Salis-bury.

At Durham, the Bulls hit the off-erings of Crumpler, Rocky Mount, for eight safeties and four sacri-fices to win 5-2 from the Bulls. Page, Durham Hurley, kept Rocky Mount seven hits scattered over 9 of his team attack with three hits out of four attempts.

The series continues today at Raleigh at Winston-Salem; High Point at Salisbury; and Rocky Mount at Durham.

PHILLIES ARE FORGING TO TOP POSITION

Having played sensational and consistent baseball the Phillies, whom the experts consigned to the second division at the start of the season, had a spike hold on second place in the National League today.

Stugging, backed by tight pitching and holding, enabled them to beat the Boston Braves, 12 to 4 yesterday and rise to the top next to the Pirates and Giants. With their easy roller in the eighth inning at that games scheduled for the home lot the Phillies have a chance for first. Already their 30-10 loss surprised rail birds who had not thought Stuffy McInnis had any kind of a claim at all. Sand was the big noise yesterday as in every game this season, leading his team's attack with four hits, while Pracek held the Braves to six.

Another striking thing about the standings today is the fact that the Yankees and the Cardinals head their respective leagues at this early season date in 1927, just where they stood at the end of play.

St. Louis rose to the rightful place of a world champion by defeating the Pirates who had been creching along in the lead. A rare duel of pitchers decided the game with Jess Haines of the Cardinals shading Ray Kremer of the Pirates. The only run of the game was Dought's homer in the sixth, which was enough to win for the Cardinals, 1 to 0.

When St. Louis' other major league representative, the Browns, finally dropped a game to the Cleveland Indians 3 to 1 yesterday, it was only their third defeat in eight games. Like the Phillies, the Browns were picked for the cellar, but they too hold a second place at this writing.

Just above them, the Yankees hold on first position weakened a little as they lost to the Senators, 5 to 4. Goose Goslin did the home run hitting this time, with a long one in the seventh that brought his team from behind to win. Babe Ruth fanned twice.

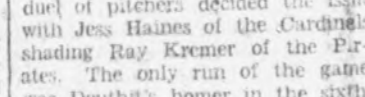

Seven runs in one inning brought victory to the Cincinnati Reds 11 to 9, over the Cubs who had been leading, 9 to 4, up to the eighth.

A pitcher who batted in the winning run was the hero of the White Sox victory over the Tigers, Alvin Karpis, Detroit.

Attire reliever, Red Faber, and checking a Detroit rally, George Connelly knocked a single in the tenth with McCurdy on second.

Cold winds froze out the scheduled go between the Athletics and Red Sox at Boston, while the Giants and Robins had a day off, to rest up for their first meeting of the season this afternoon.

HE'LL RUN, TITLE AND ALL

"Go it, your lordship!" This cry may resound across Franklin Field in the annual University of Pennsylvania relay games this year. For a genuine, first-water lord, Lord Burleigh, is a member of the Oxford team entered in the event. Recent matches in England show the lord to be in great shape for the 120 and 440-yard hurdles. Two pictures of him are shown above.

KINSTON WINS FROM WILSON

Raleigh, N. C., April 26—(AP)—Richmond and Wilson stood tied for first honors in the Virginia Loop today, each having seven games in the win and four in the lost column.

Both leaders lost their exhibition yesterday. Richmond, pitched 11 innings by Petersburg, lost 10 to 9. Petersburg bunched hits in the final act to get the winning run over the rubber. Kinston handed Wilson the low end of a 5-2 tally by scoring four units in the sixth. Portsmouth raked out a 2-0 win over Norfolk when Turner pitched baffling ball to keep the lovers six hits scattered.

The same teams meet again today in the same parks to continue the first of the week series.

Buick knows that the famous Buick Valve-in-Head Engine produces more power for its size than any other automobile engine on earth.

Buick has proved this fact decisively at the great Proving Ground of General Motors, on the "24-Hour Hill"—a mechanical device which faithfully duplicates the pull of any hill for any number of miles.

Test, not guess, is the basis for Buick design. Buick success is founded on this constant search for the new and better thing—on this accurate, beforehand knowledge of results.

GRAND JURY MAKES FEW CRITICISMS (Continued from Page One) our judgment the methods and systems in each are satisfactory. In our opinion the following conditions should have attention and improvements made:

4th. That Mr. James J. Edwards Justice of the Peace, Avden Township, has failed to make his official report as required. That the other thirty justices have made reports. We are informed that Mr. Edwards has no book and tries no cases.

5th. We, in a body, visited the county home and convict camp. At the county home we found conditions excellent, and Superintendent R. E. Corbett is highly commended for the service he is rendering the county. We further recommend that more rooms be provided at the county home.

6th. Mr. Francher, Superintendent of the convict road force, is doing excellent work, and we commend him for the services he is rendering the county. We appreciate the kind consideration the several officers of the court and county have given us in our efforts to discharge our duty.
