Prosperity Installments. Albert J. Beveridge. Fleeing the Flood. Thumb Twiddling Wives. (By Arthur Brisbane) Copyright 1927, by Star Co.

This is written on the Twentieth Century, ending a ten day trip from the Atlantic to the Pacific and back. Sixty times, on the six thousand mile journey you are asked about "business conditions."

Conditions are what they should be, in the world's richest country. Two factors cause needless worry. Supplies are purchased in smaller quantities, not because buyers distrust future conditions, but because deliveries, greatly improved by railroad and motor truck, make big orders, tying up capital, no longer necessary.

And installment buying, from automobiles and washing machines, to saxophones and real estate, so energetically pushed, of late, has persuaded many citizens to take on all the installments they can carry for the present. This may cause a let down in immediate buying, but means no lessening of prosperity.

Consider this New York Central train, running in three sections, without a single empty room. The trip from Chicago to New York costs twice the price of comfortable first class transportation to Europe, when this writer first crossed the ocean. There is plenty of prosperity. Too much, perhaps, it discourages thinking.

Albert J. Beveridge died yesterday, sixty-four years old, of heart disease. An automobile stops when the engine stops. A man, when his (Continued on Page Six.)

CHIANG SHEK ROUTES ARMY OF 5,000 MEN

Cantonese Commander Also Reported To Have Captured Troops at Wuhu.

Shanghai, April 29.—(AP)—General Chiang Kai-Shek, moderate Cantonese commander is reported in Chinese advices from Nanking, to have routed an entire army of 5,000 men under General Chen Chien. He is said to have disarmed all of Chen's troops and killed thirty of them, and also to have captured large bodies of troops at Wuhu, up the Yangtze from Nanking, and other towns.

These advices told of the cutting of the railway between Nanking and Kiukiang, it being explained that Chiang did this to prevent the escape of Chen's troops. Chiang's supporters here interpret the action as an important defeat for the radical section of the Cantonese and as the first step in Chiang's campaign to mete out punishment for the Nanking affair.

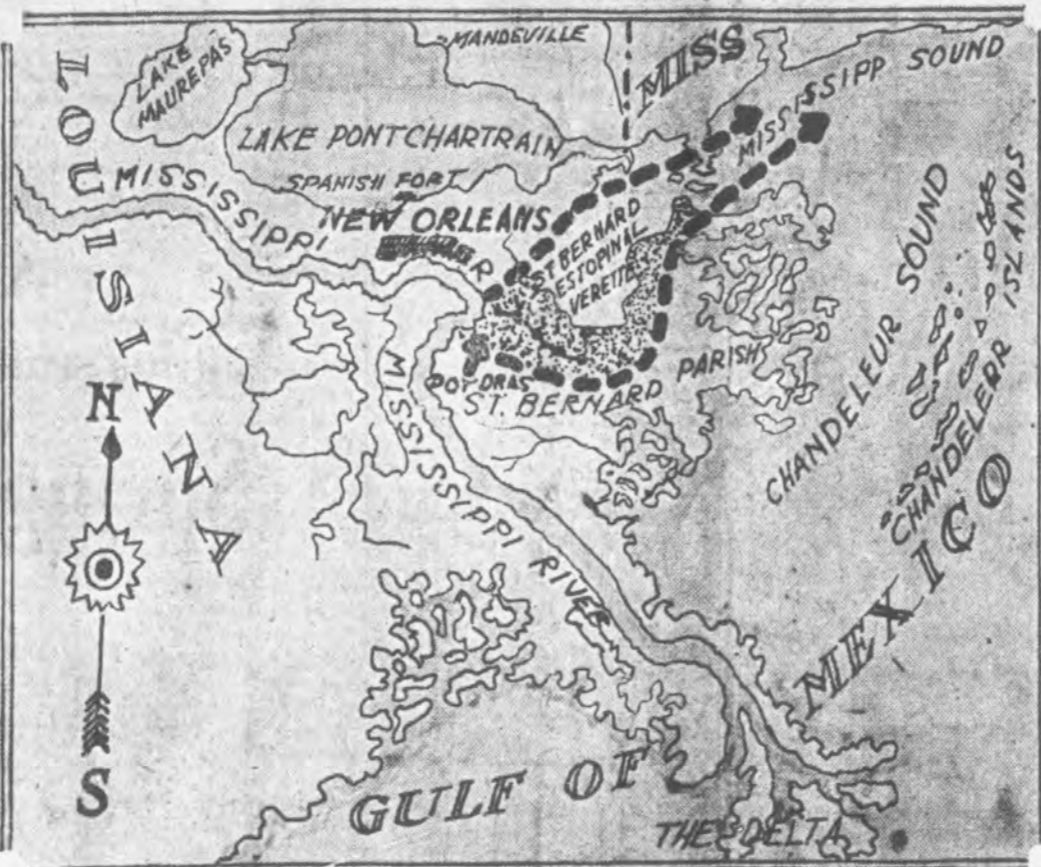

Chen was in command of the Cantonese forces at Nanking during the outrages which prompted the shelling by American and British warships anchored in the Yangtze. Before the arrival of Chiang at Nanking, Chen fled in the direction of Hankow with his troops, apparently feeling he would be safer in Hankow than in Nanking.

Shanghai, April 29.—(AP)—Chinese advices from Nanking say General Chiang Kai-Shek, moderate Nationalist leader, has decided formally to declare war against the Hankow Nationalists, and has ordered General Yang Sung to proceed against them with a punitive expedition of 80,000 men.

Peking, April 29.—(AP)—Four Chinese Communists, including one woman, captured in the recent raid by Chank Tso-Lin's agents on the Soviet embassy compound here, were sentenced by a special court today to 12 years imprisonment. Six others were given six years each.

The sentences followed the execution by strangling yesterday of twenty other Chinese, one of them a woman, arrested during the embassy compound raid.

CRUX OF THE FLOOD SITUATION

At Poydras (arrow) Miss., the Mississippi River levees were dynamited today, allowing the waters of the great river to flow over the land between the heavy dikes. While this flooding will ruin thousands of acres of land, the step was taken in an effort to lower the high water level at New Orleans and save the city from inundation. The 5,000 residents of the two parishes flooded by this dynamiting of the levee have been evacuated to New Orleans where they are being cared for by the city for which they sacrificed their homes and lands.

Rounoke Boy Continues To Fight For His Life

Rounoke, Va., April 29.—(AP)—Walter L. Boothe, young farmer of Haymaker Town, is growing weaker, said a report at noon today from the hospital where for 190 hours he has been kept alive through the efforts of his neighbors who have taken turns in pumping air into his collapsed lungs. Difficulty was encountered in administering artificial respiration and he complained frequently.

MANY PERSONS LEVEE GIVES ARE MAROONED AWAY TODAY IN FLOOD AREA

Little Rock, Ark., April 29.—(AP)—The plight of 700 to 1,000 persons who are still marooned in the flooded lowlands of Chicot County, Ark. was described as desperate today in a report to The Associated Press by Major J. C. Gillison of Lake Village.

They are clinging to small rafts and floating trees in water 20 to 30 feet deep packed like sardines in barn lofts and other places that have not been reached by the racing water," the Mayor said. "This number does not include 50 negroes I know to be huddled into barn lofts and other places on one plantation."

Thirty motorboats worked yesterday rescuing the inhabitants of the lowlands and today the labor was resumed. The refugees are brought first to Lake Village which is itself under several feet of water; later transfer is made to Eudora.

They get reports of drownings every little while but can't verify them. I believe there have been miraculously few, however," the Mayor asserted.

DR. BATTLE'S CONDITION REMAINS UNCHANGED

Raleigh, April 29.—(AP)—Condition of Dr. Westray Battle, Asheville, remained unchanged today. No letup of his severe paralytic stroke which afflicted the aged, prominent medical man last Saturday, was promised.

Jack Kenton Found Guilty of Murder Chapel Hill Man

Macon, Ga., April 29.—(AP)—Jack Kenton, alias Martin, of Toledo, Ohio, given life sentence when a Bibb county jury found his guilty last night of killing E. B. Hogan, Macon cotton broker, will not appeal for a new trial, his attorney announced today. The verdict carried with it a recommendation for mercy.

Bernard Shroyer, 23, of Boston, Mass., who was with Kenton when Hogan was shot and killed March 16, in his automobile on a road a few miles from Macon, went on trial today. Leo McIntosh, a third member of the trio charged with murdering Hogan, will be placed on trial as soon as the Shroyer trial is concluded.

On the stand Kenton claimed that the shooting of Hogan was accidental; that it was the purpose of the trio to rob him of cash and escape as they were tramping their way to points north after escaping from the Sopchoppy, Fla., chain gang camp.

Dismiss Charges Against Singer

West Palm Beach, Fla., April 29.—(AP)—Charges of obtaining $1,500,000 under false pretenses against Paris E. Singer, heir to the Singer Sewing Machine fortune and president of the Palm Beach Ocean Realty Company, were dismissed today at a preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace Fleming. The charges which were made by investors in property sold by the realty company last year, were not substantiated, it was held. The complainants alleged that fraud existed in the sale of the lots, in Palm Beach Ocean, a Palm Beach sub-division, because Singer had not completed improvements on the property.

MRS. SNYDER ON STAND IN OWN DEFENSE

Henry Judd Gray and Mrs. Snyder Turned Upon Each Other at Trial Today

New York, April 29.—(AP)—Mrs. Ruth Snyder broke into tears on the witness stand today while laying the blame for the murder of her husband on her lover, Henry Judd Gray. The defense was started today with the opening statement of counsel for Mrs. Snyder, widow of the victim, and co-defendant with Gray.

The opening was made by Edgar F. Hazelton, for Mrs. Snyder. He immediately announced that Mrs. Snyder would take the stand in her own defense. "First, we will show you," he said, "that the defendant Snyder married her husband when she was very young and after Snyder's first fiancée had died. He did not forget the first woman. He even named his boat for her, the 'Jessie Gerhardt.'"

"Only three months after the marriage he repulsed Ruth Snyder and said that if his first sweetheart had lived he would never have married this defendant. "Bickering started," but she remained faithful and bore that man a child to try to bring back love into that house. "But the father was not the incompatible par of the defendant and the child annoyed him. "Bickering grew worse and worse. He was a good provider but love was not in his heart. "Mrs. Snyder, however, though she may have gone out with men, morally was faithful until she met Henry Judd Gray, who found her a fit tool for his nefarious plans. Hazelton said Gray "showered attention such as she had never known" on Mrs. Snyder and she "inevitably gave way."

"They became as intimate," he said, "as any two beings can be. But this woman is not being tried for adultery. "It was Judd Gray who first mentioned insurance and advised Mrs. Snyder that her husband ought to be covered. Snyder had recently had two automobile accidents, Mrs. Snyder spoke to her husband and he said to get the insurance man. "There was no concealment. Snyder knew what he was going to do and instructed his wife to have the policies taken out. The premiums were paid from a joint account so there could have been no secret. "After the premiums had been paid they decided together that the financial burden was too great. She went to the insurance companies twice to see about cancellation and was advised that she could not withdraw her premiums for three years. "So the Snyders let it stand. And that is the proof that Mrs. Snyder never had a secret insurance motive to kill her husband."

Sharp Watch Kept Over Otto Wood

Raleigh, April 29.—(AP)—Superintendent Pou at State prison today reported that sharp watch was being kept over Otto Wood, three escaped and returned "death row" prisoner, following his attack of Emekerman, guard on the rock, recently.

The attack, reported today, was made during an afternoon recess period. Neither guard nor Wood was injured to any extent and the prisoner, under 20-year sentence in connection with the slaying of a Greensboro man, was returned to the death row immediately for solitary confinement.

During Wood's little fracas with the guard, he hurled curses at the State prison superintendent. He went after the guard with clenched fists with no opportunity to win in the struggle and was beaten back to his cage within hardly a minute to his time. Wood is kept in dead row to insure his remaining within the prison walls.

Hughes Favors Move to Abolish Certain Armament

Washington, April 29.—(AP)—International agreement to abolish "provocative" armament is favored by Charles Evans Hughes. The former Secretary of State in his address last night as president of the American Society of International Law said there should be binding compacts, clearly worded, among the leading powers against excesses in armaments and disregard of non-combatants. He challenged the theory that attack is the best method of defense. Such defense, he asserted, had all the elements of aggressive preparation.

Mrs. Ruth Snyder, co-defendant charged with the murder of her husband, Albert Snyder, took the stand today in her own defense. Mrs. Snyder and Henry Judd Gray, other defendant, each blames the other for the tragedy.

PAN-AMERICAN FLIERS BOUND FOR VIRGINIA

Newport News, Va., April 29.—(AP)—The four huge planes comprising the squadron of the Pan-American Good Will Fliers nearing the completion of their four months flight over Central and South America arrived at Langley Field at 1:30 o'clock.

To Stop Langley Field Head of Going Direct to Washington, D. C.

Wilmington, N. C., April 29.—(AP)—The Pan-American good will fliers finishing their long journey through-out South and Central America hopped off at 10:20 o'clock this morning for Langley Field, Va. Major H. A. Dargue, commanding the flight, announced just before taking to the air that he had received orders not to hop direct to Washington as he had planned, but to stop at Langley Field and reach Washington Monday afternoon.

The fliers had some trouble getting into the air this morning due to a southwest wind. The first plane got off from the Carolina shipyards, where they were moored overnight, at 10:05 A. M. and it was 10:20 before the fourth was in the air.

Major Dargue had planned to hop directly from Wilmington to Washington but at the last minute announced that he had received orders to stop at Langley Field. Monday's hop will be the last of the long tour that started from Kelly Field, Texas, December 21, 1926. The fliers have visited virtually every Central and South American country, on a goodwill tour designed to foster closer relations between the United States and Latin-American countries.

Five planes started the flight and four returned. One of those returning, however, was not the original plane that started, the Detroit and New York having burned near Buenos Aires when they collided in midair. Captain Clinton P. Woolsey and Lieut. John W. Benton were killed when the Detroit fell. Major Dargue and Lieutenant Ennis C. Whitehead, aboard the New York, landed safely in their parachutes and an extra plane shipped to Panama was obtained and christened the New York 2nd. The other planes returning today are the San Francisco, St. Louis and San Antonio.

BLIND SCHOOL HOLDS SWIMMING MEET

Great Spillway to Carry off Flood Waters Completed by State Engineers.

On the Mississippi Levee Near Violet, La., April 29.—(AP)—A great spillway to carry off the flood waters of the Mississippi rushing down toward New Orleans was created today by State engineers in the dynamiting of a section of the levee 12 miles below the Crescent City at 2:17-2 o'clock p. m., Central Standard time.

Governor Simpson, Major General Jadin, chief of army engineers, and other high officials watched the operations from a craft moving back and forth on the swabbing waters. Louisiana troops stood guard along the levee and roads to New Orleans, which were closed three hours before the blast set for the blast, high noon Standard Central time. Coast Guard cutters patrolled the river to keep craft away from the danger point created by the rush of the waters, once the opening had been made over a stretch of one thousand feet between St. Bernard and Plaquemine Parishes, most of which eventually will be flooded.

The spot selected for the break was directly in front of a now deserted small canning village and was one hundred yards south of the sharp bend in the river where the 1922 crevasse occurred. Dynamite was sunk at intervals over a stretch of levee one thousand feet. Engineers sank 725 pounds of explosives in three widely scattered rows with 48 holes to each row, with approximately five pounds to each hole.

Memphis, Tenn., April 29.—(AP)—Now levee breaks, imminent threats of other and the continuous inundation of more territory as the crest of the Mississippi River's greatest flood slowly carried its menace toward the Gulf, created further demands today upon the American Red Cross, already burdened with its greatest peace time relief necessity.

A wall of the Arkansas River between Pendleton and Medford, Ark. went out late yesterday, as did a dyke along the Yazoo River, 12 miles below Yazoo City, Miss. The Red Cross last night received a report that the Mississippi River levee at L'Argent, La., was seriously threatened and immediately began a concentration of boats at Natchez, Miss., opposite there.

In its struggle to rescue the ever increasing number of flood victims, the Red Cross has directed the greatest concentration of boats the lower Mississippi has known. This assemblage of rescue craft immediately north of New Orleans has been announced.

The 1,200 ton Tallapoosa, with an auxiliary fleet; the Shawnee and Pawnee, 600 tons each, with eight 75 foot patrol boats and fifteen 35 foot speed boats, capable of twenty miles an hour, in the river between New Orleans and Natchez. United States coast guard cutter Kankakee is acting as mother ship for a fleet of power boats in following the crest of the flood.

The arrival of several of the one hundred boats requested from the Navy by Henry Baker, Red Cross dictator of relief, was announced. The Red Cross already has under its care three hundred refugees at New Orleans, with the ultimate list of those removed from St. Bernard and Plaquemine parishes to be swollen to several thousand.

The concentration of refugees at England, Ark., was reported increasing tremendously and a Red Cross representative, Sophie Foot, was instructed to fly there at dawn today. Belmont, Miss., repeated its urgent call for steamboats and barges to remove destitute victims of the flood.

Senator Robinson, Arkansas, suggested in a formal statement last night that Congress might be convened, should available resources be inadequate for relief and rehabilitation.

H. L. Rimmel, Republican national committee man for Arkansas, asked President Coolidge to divert any funds in the Department of Agriculture towards the purchase of feed, food and seed for farmers. Nine new airplanes will be sent from Kelly Field, Texas, advices to Little Rock said last night.

ORATORICAL CONTEST AT STATE TONIGHT

Raleigh, April 29.—(AP)—The third annual State oratorical contest on the constitution will be held at State College tonight with the University of North Carolina, LeRoy-Rhyme Guilford, and State College entered, the winner to represent the State in the Southern region contest at Asheville, May 29.

GIANTS BAT THEIR WAY TO FIRST PLACE

(By The Associated Press.)
New York Giants bats again played the marching music for the National League parade today after a wild scramble for choice places in the line.

With a flurry of extra base blows that subdued the Braves 4 to 3, the Giants profited yesterday by an overwhelming defeat of the Pirates to clinch undisputed possession of first place. At the same time the Quakers and Cardinals moved up into second place while there was a general shake-up in the American League which affected no less than five teams.

The Giants plucked only seven safe blows from the pitching of Bob Smith, but four of them were for extra bases. One, a home-run by Eddie Boush, and another for a base by Eddie Farrell, figured in rallies which turned the tide in favor of the Gotham entry.

Pittsburgh went down hard in a clud of dust before a blast of 13 Chicago hits. A nine run rampage in the second inning blew up the contest, and the game finally ended 16 to 4.

The rebellious Phillies were scarcely less vigorous in their treatment of four Brooklyn pitchers, but it required a home run in the ninth by Russell Wrightstone to clinch the game. Wrightstone's round trip blow arrived while the bases were jammed to capacity and contributed into the high powered show of five run rally.

The only skirmish in the league unmarked by a parade of home runs from slabs to showers, produced a 3 to 1 victory by the Cardinals in a brilliant pitching by Phil Rhee. Carl Mays, opposing them on the mound, gave only five hits, but four of them went for extra bases.

Second, third, fourth, sixth and seventh places in the American League have new tenants today as the result of a general spring house-cleaning. A 11-ninning defeat of the Browns by the White Sox enabled the Athletics to swing into second position of the crest of another huge hitting wave. The Senators, caught under the billow, were dropped from third to fourth, while Detroit pushed the Indians off the sixth place shelf.

Six Washington hurlers ran to cover under the Athletics storm of hits, the Maroons wanting easily 15 to 7. It was the only pronounced slugging party of the day in the circuit, however, for pitching dominated the Cleveland-Detroit and St. Louis-Chicago battles, with the Sox clinching their game in the eleventh by 2 to 1 and the Tigers clinching a five-run seventh-inning rally to beat off the Indians 6 to 5.

RICHMOND IN FIRST PLACE

Raleigh, April 29.—(AP)—Richmond, having bettered Wilson in time about rough treatment of pitchers, strengthened her pinched position. Brandon's homer with the bases loaded gave Portsmouth victory over Kingston, and Elmore, just out of high school, pitched Petersburg to a win over Norfolk.

These were high spots in Virginia League circuit contests yesterday. The teams met again today on the same lot.

Wilson errored seven times and her pitcher, Jones, issued seven passes while Richmond outbit her guests to win, 16-9, with Kingston leading, 3-2, in the eighth. Portsmouth turned tables when Brandon's crash for four bases scored three runs ahead of his.

HIGHS DEFEAT SCOTLAND NECK

The local high school team was seventh straight game yesterday when they defeated Scotland Neck by the score of 10 to 5. Errors were plentiful on both sides but the Greenville team fielded fairly well in the pinches.

Turnage, pitching for Greenville was rather wild, but he settled down and pitched good ball in the pinches, limiting the Scotland Neck team to three hits.

The hitting of Hoste and Denton captured the offense of the local side, securing four hits in five trips on the plate while Denton's two base hit in the fourth inning won the game, scoring three men.

More Than Score Derby Entrants Are Outstanding

Louisville, Ky., April 29.—(AP)—More than a score of the 162 nominees for the fifty-third running of the Kentucky derby at Churchill Downs May 14 stand out as of derby calibre today. More good colts, fillies and geldings have come through the winter and early spring training in better condition than for some years. Open weather aided the trainers in conditioning their candidates and many of them are already racing or are ready to start.

The 1926 crop of two year olds, from which the derby nominees was selected, produced a number of crack juveniles. The Eastern-owned eligibles at present appear to have the edge on the Western contingent. Western turfmen, however, have heard that story before, then gone out and won in convincing fashion.

Rip Rap, Scapa Flow, Osmund, Kiev, Valorous Whiskery, Jopagan, Jock, War Eagle, Sweepster, Fair Star and a few others are the Eastern hopefuls in this year.

Rip Rap, H. W. Savage's chestnut son of Bromstick, out of Blue Sky, is highly fancied. He is being trained for the derby by Mac Hirsch, a veteran conditioner who has also the Saturo English brood of William Dupont, Jr., and Terry, Sam H. Harris' derby nominee.

Scapa Flow, son of Man O'War, regarded by many as the best two-year-old last year, is training well at Pimlico.

POINTERS IN TOP POSITION IN PIEDMONT

Raleigh, April 29.—(AP)—The week-end found a new series on tap in the Piedmont loop. Durham coming to Raleigh; Winston-Salem at Rocky Mount, and Salisbury at High Point. High Point continued her hold on top position with six wins out of eight starts.

Winston-Salem crept up on the leaders yesterday by handing them a 9-6 defeat in the furniture center. Both slugged hard with H. Smith leading the victories by securing four hits in as many attempts.

Durham mixed hits with blue errors to win at Rocky Mount 4-1, and even the series. Pace, Wilson County product, allowed the losers but four safeties, these being credited to O'Hara and Brunetti.

Raleigh's Caps, occupants of the center with only two victories in the week's play, let a ten inning affair pass by their apparently good hold when Salisbury went them a tally better. The game ended 6-5, the winners getting three scores in the deciding inning while the losers captured only two.

DUKE STILL HOLDS LEAD IN BIG FIVE RACE

Raleigh, April 29.—(AP)—Duke, after leading State the top count of a 11-10 ten inning encounter, today to win by her State trip. The Tar Heels, who with an earlier season game to their credit at the expense of the Wildcats, expected to win again.

Wake Forest suffered defeat at the hands of Georgetown, 5-1, at Washington, after winning six out of seven starts. The North Carolinians will return home to prepare for their next regularly scheduled contest, V. P. I. at Wake Forest next Thursday.

Davidson's victories over State put her in fourth place. State remaining in the big collar. Duke still holds the first position. Carolina and Wake Forest trail.

Carolina and State Meet on The Track Today

Raleigh, April 29.—(AP)—With McDowell, holder of the State high jump record and Gorham, hurdle star, missing from the lists on account of injuries sustained in practice, North Carolina State was at home today to the University of North Carolina track squad.

Carolina, undefeated in a dual meet in four years, was a favorite. State, with a perfect 1927 record against supposedly strong teams, was to put a hole in the Tar Heels' championship card.

PENNSYLVANIA TRACK CARNIVAL UNDER WAY

Philadelphia, April 29.—(AP)—One of the greatest armies of athletes ever gathered for a track meet was here today to test their skill in the 33rd annual relay carnival of the University of Pennsylvania.

The entry list of approximately 320 individuals representing most of the leading colleges and schools of this country, Cambridge University, England, and the Delta College Institute of Canada, was not only the largest in the history of the meet but also included an unusually large number of stars.

TUNNEY SAYS HAND SHAKING IS A MENACE

Says Exercise of Shaking Hands With Long Line too Strenuous.

New York, April 28.—(AP)—Gene Tunney, heavyweight champion of the world, is willing to do without glad hand of hero worship, he told Robert H. Davis, whose story to that effect is printed in the New York Sun today.

The champion regards handshaking as a menace to the health of public figures. Handshaking wrecks constitutions, it hastened the deaths of Harding and Roosevelt, and no President should participate in any demonstration that requires him to shake hands with a line of people, he thinks.

"No man can stand it," he said. "The act of extending your arm and taking a strange hand in your own, bestowing a grip and receiving another is the most exhausting thing in the world."

Tunney spoke to Davis while admirers pumped his hand and presented him for his autograph at the boxing writers' annual dinner.

"It would be a good deal worse if they did not shake hands with you at all," Davis suggested. "It would not," the champion answered emphatically. He went on to say that President Harding was weakened by public reception that President Harding was so weakened by public reception that he became easy prey to illness in Alaska after his trans-continent tour. And it weakened Roosevelt, Tunney said, even though the Colonel was "the nation's champion handshaker."

Roosevelt "always put a kick into his grip," the slugging philosopher, as Davis describes him, remarked. "As his hand tightened his mouth opened. He talked and smiled and as his animation increased his whole body became part of that handclasp."

"I was present at a gathering during the war where the Colonel was greeting a mixture of old friends and new friends, and perhaps a few enemies. I watched him carefully because as a physical specimen he was one of the best trained statesmen this country produced. I mean by that that he got more out of himself, pound for pound, in spite of the fact that he was frail in his youth, than any other man I know."

"When public receptions are all over," the champion asserted, "it's 'good night' in more ways than one. The President of the United States should decline to participate in any public demonstration that requires him to shake hands with a line of people."

But after the dinner ended two thousand strong-armed cordial admirers swarmed about Tunney in the Astor and shook the hand that shook Dempsey; shook it hard and long and again and again, then slapped him on the back.

"Good night, Gene. Take care of yourself!"

JACK DEMPSEY TO GET ALONG WITHOUT BOSS

New York, April 29.—(AP)—Jack Dempsey will hit the heavyweight comeback trail this summer without the guidance of a manager.

The former champion, accepting Tex Rickards terms for a test bout with Paulino Uzcudun here early in July, has informed the New York promoter he will boss his own campaign to regain the title. Andy Rickard thinks his judgment is good.

"Jack doesn't need a manager. He is a good business man himself," says Tex.

Gene Normile, business representative of the erstwhile titleholder confirmed Dempsey's announcement that he is now without managerial assistance. Normile also affirmed Trainer Gus Wilson's report of Dempsey's good condition, declaring "Jack never looked better in all his career."

Though Rickard refused to name a purse he will post for Dempsey's first match, reports came from Madison Square Garden that the dethroned king will receive approximately $250,000. Dempsey also has agreed to meet the winner of the Sharkey-Maloney fight, Rickard asserted.

The survivor of the latter match is slated to be Gene Tunney's opponent in the championship battle next September.

END OF THE CENTURY CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. WOOTEN

One of the most enjoyable of the End of the Century Club meetings was held at the home of Mrs. J. L. Wooten on Tuesday afternoon.

After the usual procedure of business affairs, the club elected Mesdames J. L. Wooten and E. T. Dickinson as delegates to the state federation of clubs to be held in Durham May 2 and 3.

The club was delighted to have present Mrs. Chas. Laughinghouse and to learn that she had reconsidered her decision to resign, and will remain an active member.

Miss Sallie Joyner Davis had charge of the program for the afternoon, and in her inimitable manner, gave most interesting sketches of some of the most historic of the towns of eastern Carolina—Bath, New Bern, Wilmington and Edenton.

Miss Davis expects to entertain the club in the near future by a tour to Edenton, and her vivid description of the many places of historic interest to be found there made the members most anxious to go under her guidance.

Mesdames Heber Coward and E. G. Phelan were guests of the afternoon, other than club members and helped to serve most delicious refreshments.

A general discussion regarding flowers and shrubs followed, making a most interesting and profitable afternoon for all who were present.

Greenville women are lovers of flowers, as is evidenced by almost every door-yard. Even at this early season, great varieties of flowers and shrubs are blooming.

MISS LELIA HIGGS TALKS TO THE WOMAN'S CLUB

(Reported)

On Thursday afternoon the Woman's Club held a special meeting at the Model school, inviting the women of Greenville to hear a talk on Interior Decorating, given by Miss Lelia Higgs.

The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. J. H. B. Moore who told of the observance of Better Homes Week throughout the United States and what was being done in Greenville to arouse more interest in, and to help improve our home life.

The Pitt County hymn was sung, words by Miss Geneva Exum, teacher in Winterville public schools after which Mrs. Knott Gray sweetly sang, "The Little Gray Home in the West."

Miss Higgs then gave many beautiful word pictures of ideal homes, ideally furnished, but making them practical and within the means of the average individual. America is a nation of home owners, but 90 per cent of the wage earners do not make above $1,800 per year, these homes must, therefore, be simple, but they need not be ugly. ### To Test Rights Of Magistrates To Try Cases

Raleigh, April 25.—(AP)—Attorneys and magistrates throughout the State are engaging in lively debate over the issue raised in Greenville recently in a case to determine if a magistrate has constitutional right to try criminal cases in which he is financially interested by reason of a fee. C. W. Roberts, vice-president of the Carolina Motor Club, said today.

The test case began when John L. Williams, of High Point, was fined $10 and costs for speeding. W. L. Henderson, attorney for the Carolina Motor Club, appeared for the defendant and when his request for dismissal was refused, he entered notice of appeal to Superior Court and this will be heard at the criminal term next month.

REVIVAL TO BEGIN HERE

Dr. R. G. McLees to Hold Evangelistic Campaign at Presbyterian Church.

Evangelistic services will begin in the Presbyterian Church, Sunday, May 1st, at the 11 o'clock hour and continue for at least ten days. Dr. R. G. McLees, the blind preacher-evangelist of Chatham, Va., will be the preacher, and we feel sure that the people of Greenville will be glad to have him back for another meeting. All remember with much pleasure and profit the meeting conducted by him here two years ago, and of the good work he did while in our town. He is a man who is in demand for these meetings all over the South, and his church always allows him to hold only six meetings a year. Wherever he goes, he is asked for a return engagement. He has recently held a meeting in Reidsville, N. C., and the news comments have been very flattering.

Dr. McLees has an unusual flow of fine English, is thoroughly Biblical in his preaching, and above all is a deeply consecrated Christian gentleman. There is nothing sensational in his preaching, and his appeals are few and to the point.

Dr. McLees will arrive on Monday evening and preach his first sermon on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, and at 8 p. m.; then every morning at 10, and every evening at 8, throughout the week. The pastor will preach the opening sermons of the meeting, and on Monday evening at 8.

Special music will be rendered by the choir, and all who will assist in the music are invited to help from the beginning.

It will pay to be present at the first service and not to miss any of them.

The Master Man Used as Subject At Christian Church

"The Master Man" was the subject of the great sermon that was brought to us by Rev. Harris at the Christian Church last night. "What is man, that thou art mindful of him?" or the son of man, that thou visitest him?"

God is mindful of us—so mindful that He sent prophet, priest, king and finally sent His only Son in the resurrection of Christ He sent hope, saying, "I am the Resurrection and the Life."

Man is not like the beasts in the field. God never intended that we should be like beasts. "In the beginning, God created man in His own image." Neither is man a machine.

Some people have an idea that the church is a place for women for children and for cripples, but God wants the best, the strongest He calls for the best, when we look at man we know there must be a divine thinker, divine maker—and that supreme being is God. God made man, dignified him and as the source is pure, so must the man be pure.

What price do you place upon your character, upon your soul and upon your children? We are all exactly alike, yet entirely different. It took a God to make man. If man came from God then he must be pure. Only the pure in heart shall see God.

Heart Testament is full of uremen. Abraham was a marvelous man, willing to sacrifice his son. David was a fearless man—dare to be a Daniel, stand firm, stand for something, if you stand alone. Joseph was a great man. It doesn't take much manhood to do as you please, curse, swear, etc. It takes manhood to stand for Christ. Peter and Paul were great men, but the peak of the mountain—the most colossal man of all ages is Christ—The Master Man. You can pick no flaws with Him. Come to the Master Man.

The evangelist closed his message with the following: He went to hear Gypsy Smith speak in Chicago. The streets near the Armory were filled with men and boys. When the doors were opened and they went in Gypsy Smith began singing "Where Is My Wandering Boy Tonight?" He then told of his father, who had been going over the country in wagons, for he was a gypsy. One day he came home with a little black boy. He called the children into the tent and told them to kneel down, he opened the Book, and said, "Children, I have the Book of love, of God, it is for the father, mother, and for you, for all, for whosoever will." The gypsy father prayed, "O Lord God, hear the cry of the gypsy, help be so to him that I may save by neighbors and children." Gypsy Smith asked the question, "Was that a weak thing for my father to do? Not when you think of the souls I have saved."

Come to the Master Man—Jesus. The subject for tonight is "Are the Young People in Greenville Safe?" Come everybody, and help make this the best service yet.

There will be no service Saturday.

CONTRIBUTE NOW

Over four thousand residents of the two parishes below New Orleans have given up their homes in order that the territory may be flooded to save New Orleans—two hundred thousand more persons including many women and children, are homeless and in want because of the floods. Several days ago the citizens of this county were asked for just $750 to aid in the relief of these flood sufferers. While some have responded readily to the call for aid and two thirds of the amount asked for has been raised, the need for the funds is urgent and others who can afford to do so, should contribute at once.

While the county was asked for only $750, this amount will not be near enough if the destructive floods continue for a few more days, and it is to be hoped that our people will not be satisfied just to reach the $750 goal. We are able to give a thousand or more to this cause as our sister cities and counties are doing and it is to be hoped that when the final check-up is made, that it will not be found that Pitt has lagged behind others in its contributions to this worthy cause.

The sooner and the more we contribute, the more good our money can do. Let's not put it off longer. Make your donation today.

"AMEN"

Under an editorial heading "A Ruthless Expression" the Washington Progress says:

"He was glancing over the front page of his newspaper and his eyes were focused on the lengthy account of the devastation caused by the floods in the Mississippi valley. He read the article carefully. It was filled with lurid details relative to the vast acreage that was inundated, the damage to property and livestock, the thousands that had been rendered homeless and the hundreds that had lost their lives.

"Finally, he finished reading, folded up his paper and, turning, remarked:

"Well, that ought to help the price of cotton considerably when we get ready to market this fall."

"That was all he said. In a way it was one of the most ruthless expressions imaginable. He was not interested in the suffering, the anguish and misery and the terrible condition of the flood victims. Not at all. The only thing that interested him was that the flood had damaged a considerable area of land, and that the price of cotton might be higher because of this fact.

"We don't have many people like that in Eastern North Carolina. Thank God for that."

To the last lines of the

Worst is Yet to Come

Progress editor's comment, we want to add our solemn "Amen." We, too, thank God that the such selfish citizens as described above, are few and far between in Eastern North Carolina.

WHAT WASHINGTON WAS SPARED

Another thing George Washington in his policy of fine aloofness from foreign messes did not have to worry about was American oil companies, sewing machine agents, tobacco representatives and missionaries all becoming, at critical moments, "nationals" to be protected at any cost. — Columbia State.

The stories of rockfish weighing from eighteen to twenty-five pounds being caught this season in Tar River, make us all want to take a little time off and try our luck.

Mae West, authoress of "Sex," after ten days in the workhouse, declares that she will now go to Chicago, where she will produce that and another play. Probably she thinks that the Windy City will stand for it, but as we see it there is no place in any city for the type of plays recently padlocked on Broadway.

NEW ORLEANS TAKING CARE OF REFUGEES

Efforts Being Made To Find Employment For Those Who Lost Jobs in Exodus.

New Orleans, April 20.—(AP)—Although cheerful quarters were provided in New Orleans for the families from St. Bernard and Plaquemines Parishes, the thoughts of the refugees today turned to the homes which they left, that the Crescent City might be made safe from the Mississippi River flood.

The folks in the exodus from the lower provinces affected by the decision to cut the Mississippi River levee at Bayou des Lattes were made comfortable in the army base in New Orleans. There is room for the children to play and accommodations for the pet dogs and pigeons. A staff of physicians and first aid nurses are on duty.

The boys and girls have the same teachers who taught them at home. These teachers have already started preparations to open school in the Jackson barracks in the room ordinarily used for a hospital. They began yesterday to hang scotch notices, alphabet charts, health posters, putting globes and maps on their desks and arranging for the children's seat in rows. About 450 children regularly attended the schools in the two parishes and they are expected to be on hand for the reopening of the approved school next Monday morning.

The refugees are living at the army supply base headquarters on the fifth and sixth floors of the International Exposition building. Beds have been set up and accommodations provided for four thousand persons. Their furniture has been stored, each piece tagged with the owner's name and address. Efforts are being made to find employment for men and women who lost their jobs when they came to New Orleans.

Do you keep your chickens, or do your chickens keep you? Purina feeds make the difference. Most men do not wake up to find themselves famous. Most of them dream they're famous, and then wake up.

Want an extra hundred dollars? Feed your pigs Pig Chow. The added weight of your hogs when sold will give you the hundred.

When other cows go on their annual fall milk shump, your cow will keep right on producing when they're fed Comchow. It makes more milk at less cost per pound.

heart stops, 100 men understanding a motor engine for one that knows his own heart. There is no re-sale price on a second hand heart, and heart disease is increasing, as consumption diminishes. Doctors can cure many diseases, but you must cure your own heart, once you have been warned.

Beveridge and David Graham Phillips were schoolmates in Indiana, and represented their state well, Phillips in literature, Beveridge in national politics. Both are gone. Is it "entirely illogical," as some say, to hope that they have met again, or is it, as others say, "A perfectly reasonable hope."

In old days peasants came trooping to the protection of castle walls when the enemy appeared. A similar mournful procession came to New Orleans yesterday, from St. Bernard and Plaquemines parishes to escape the high water. The levee will be broken down deliberately to save New Orleans from flood, sacrificing the two parishes.

Some in flight from their homes travel in wagons and ox carts, others, comfortably, in fine automobiles. Bootlegging is profitable in all regions.

Still others, trappers whose hunting grounds will be wiped out, and bootleggers whose secret stills will be ruined, have organized gun squads, threatening to shoot any official that dares dynamite the levee.

In the highest flood known in two hundred years that white men have occupied the delta, fear of the water drives out from the bayou country, dark skinned people described as speaking "a medley of languages—French, Spanish, Portuguese, Hungarian and Taglog." Those deliberately flooded, to save the big city will have compensation, of course.

A Young Woman's Christian Association committee says "the modern wife who works after marriage and continues to bring money into the home is the best type of young wife, better than the young wife who sits at home twiddling her thumbs."

Real wives can testify that there is little time at home for twiddling thumbs, especially after the first baby begins to twiddle its toes. Every young man ought to be able to support one woman, and proud to do it, while she takes care of the children. Working wives, respectable, and admirable, should not be necessary.

Charles E. Ruthenberg, known to a small circle in America as leader of Communists, was honored in Moscow last Tuesday, his ashes deposited in the Kremlin near the tomb of Lenin.

An American negro, Robert Minor, selected to speak for Americans in Moscow, said "We shake our fists in the faces of American capitalists," and explained that colored people could have their rights "only under the banner of the Communist revolution."

It is painful to discourage enthusiastic hope. But Russia, in due time, will again be capitalistic and ruled by the Bourgeoisie. Ability always rules, always gets rich, always takes advantage of the less intelligent, but it does gradually become more civilized, and that is the one hope.

FORMER SHERIFF RETAINS COMPOSURE UNDER SEVERE GRILLING BY PROSECUTION

"Did you have any personal money in county funds?" the prosecuting attorney continued.

"Yes." "Why didn't you demand it?" "It was attached along with the rest of my property."

"What did you do with $2,000 derived from the sale of a house and lot prior to your disappearance?"

"I deposited it with county funds."

Forty-four vouchers of Jackson's salary from the county were presented. Colonel Dunn asked the defendant to explain each, and to tell what had become of the money.

"What did you do with the money from this check?" was asked as each voucher was handed to the former sheriff.

The reply most of the time was that a part of the salary had been used in payment of office help, the remainder being deposited to the credit of the sheriff of Pitt county. Amount of the checks varied from $500 to $600.

"How did you pay your ordinary current expenses if all of this money was deposited to the credit of the county?" the prosecutor shot at the defendant.

"I had other sources from which I derived funds." "What other sources?" "From the capture of stills, constable fees, etc."

The prosecution attempted to show that one of the salary vouchers for $591.00 had been deposited to the credit of the county in one bank and drawn out by a check by the sheriff's bookkeeper on a check issued on another bank. Jackson firmly denied any knowledge of any such transaction. He also declined to admit the signature of the check to be that of the bookkeeper.

It was at this juncture in the cross examination that the witness asked to be excused for a moment. A few moments afterwards Judge

Special Session Congress Urged

Washington, April 29.—(AP)—A special session of Congress to meet the emergency created by the Mississippi river flood was urged on President Coolidge today in a telegram from Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the Democratic Senate leader.

The message was received just before the meeting of the cabinet which devoted considerable attention to the flood situation, but no decision on the request was announced.

Washington, April 29.—(AP)—Senator Curtis, the Republican leader, declared today that he did not believe the Mississippi flood situation would be benefited by an extra session of Congress as requested of President Coolidge by Senator Robinson, Democratic leader.

If an extra session were called, the Republican leader said, the flood emergency would have passed before Congress could convene and it would be better to pass permanent legislation at the regular session.

DIES IN CHAIR

Lincoln, Neb., April 29.—(AP)—Henry Bartlett died in the electric chair at Nebraska penitentiary at 6:33 o'clock this morning for the murder of Chief of Police Asa Ransom of Minden, in 1925. Bartlett continued what officials considered a pretense of insanity to the last.

Daily News Letter

Gossip of Staff Correspondents at World Centers of Population

Paris, April 27.—(INS)—The old Faubourg Saint Germain, formerly the most aristocratic quarter in Paris, has burst forth with electric signs.

France is becoming commercialized like all the other European countries and in a few more years many of the interesting landmarks will have entirely disappeared.

It seems a pity to spoil the beauty of these historic mansions along the Seine with advertisements of Deauville and other popular places. The effect is incognito. Surely the many princesses and titled heads would cry with dismay if they returned to view their residences blazing with light of the manifold electrical displays.

The Faubourg Saint Germain has been the last section of the city to fall in the hands of commerce. Known for its elegance and discreetness this street has always been pointed to with pride by the beauty-loving public. The houses are palatial and its situation on the banks of the Seine is ideal. Realizing the value of this, rich companies contrived to rent the roofs of these old houses for advertising purposes.

Touring fashion shows are becoming as popular on the continent as the touring opera troupe. The big dressmakers gather together their choicest models and travel through Italy, France and Germany displaying them. Society girls serve as mannequins and the event is strictly social.

Recently the collection of Paul Caret travelled to all the chic resorts in order to give the women who are unable to come to Paris personally, a summary of the present mode. Dresses were paraded through the halls of the royal palace at Munich, lent by the duchess of Bavaria for the occasion. Another chic showing was held in a charming villa at Cannes and proved very successful.

Other important couturiers are following the same idea which seems excellent for both business and social reasons.

The youngest polyglot in the world is Mlle. Winifried Tierney, of Lille, France.

This two year old baby girl speaks and understands four languages, French, German, English and modern Greek. The father is Irish and studied at Munich, Belfast and in London. It was in Munich that he met the young Swedish girl who became his wife. After the marriage the couple travelled to the Holy Land, their first child being born in the Orient Express. Winifried is the fourth.

As the family has journeyed and lived in all parts of the world it is not unnatural that the children speak many tongues fluently. Mr.

Tierney has been established at Lille for five years as head of the Berlitz school. His wife acts as an interpreter.

A group of audacious artists have planned an exhibit with imaginations free depicting their interpretation of what the masculine silhouette should be.

From the 25th of April in an art gallery these prominent painters will display entirely new designs for the costuming of man. Not a tailor is amongst them and their innovations are said to be startling.
