ANNUAL SPEEDWAY CLASSIC FURNISHES MANY THRILLS RECORD CROWD SPECTATORS

Series of Accidents Cause Great Excitement. De Paola Leading at 350 Miles In 500 Mile Race.

Speedway, Indianapolis, May 30. (AP)—After leading 297 miles at death defying speed, Frank Lockhart, daredevil driver from Los Angeles, was declared out of the 500 mile auto race today when he lost a right rear wheel while tearing around the course on his 298th mile.

Peter De Paola, winner of the 1925 race, a veteran who had replaced Bob McDonough, swept into the lead.

De Paola held the lead at the 300 mile mark. The time was 3:01:45, an average of 99.4 miles an hour. Lockhart won $10,000 in lap prizes before he left the track.

De Paola was still leading in McDonough's car at 350 miles. His time was 3:31:52, an average of 99.1 miles an hour. George Souders was second, less than a lap behind the leader.

FROM THE START With a record smashing crowd of 140,000 to 160,000 spectators cheering them on to new speed records, thirty-three drivers roared away at 10 o'clock today in the start of the 500-mile automobile race over the Indianapolis speedway.

Lockhart was leading at the end of the second lap with Duray three-quarters of a mile behind. Hartz was third.

Lockhart finished the first 50 miles in 28:03:32 for an average of 106.93 miles an hour. Duray was second with Charles "Dutch" Bauman third.

Lockhart was still leading at 150 miles, having stepped the distance in 1:28:72, an average of 104.49 miles an hour. Bauman was second. McDonough third.

Lockhart was slipping on the track at the tune of 103 miles an hour average, at 200 miles. His time was 1:55:39.22. This was six miles an hour faster speed than last year's race. Bauman was second. McDonough third.

Lockhart stopped at the pits one minute and 37 seconds at 200-1/2 miles to change rear tires and take on water and oil. Bauman, who had been trailing about a mile back, then stepped into the lead.

Lockhart was setting a death-defying pace to retain the leadership when the 250 miles mark was reached. His time was 2:27:21, an average of 101.79 miles an hour.

Bob McDonough of Los Angeles was second with Peter Kreis, a southern star third.

THREE TOWNS THREATENED BY THE FLOOD

Bayou Drosee Tete, Swelling Rapidly, Expected to Overflow Banks Any Time.

New Orleans, May 30.—(AP)—Slowly spreading the area of inundation on the Eastern side of the Atchafalaya River, water from the McCreas crevasse on that stream threatened three towns today as it rilled toward the Gulf of Mexico.

Gross Tete, Rosedale and Maringuin may be submerged by the swelling Bayou Grosse Tete, which rapidly filling with crevasse water, gave indications of piling from its banks to overflow a wide territory.

Meanwhile, the other flood on the other side of the Atchafalaya was reported falling at all points down to New Iberia where the stage was stationary. The Red Cross reported complete evacuation of New Iberia, whose inhabitants were thrown into fright when waters from Bayou Teche joined those from Spanish Lake to inundate the town.

To meet possible emergencies as the flood descends through the vicinity of Grosse Tete in Iberville Parish about 110 miles northwest of New Orleans, a rescue fleet has been assembled at Plaquemine which will be the base for relief operators, with the supply center at Baton Rouge.

There are 7,000 persons in Grosse Tete and vicinity. They are depending upon an old levee, hastily reinforced, to save them from the inundation.

More than half of the territory comprising the four parishes of Iberville, West Baton Rouge, Point Coupee and Assumption, has been overflowed by water from the McCreas break, but Meteorologist I. M. Cline of the New Orleans weather bureau declared that the flow of water from the crevasse has not been in proportion to the width of the opening and the head of water above it. He advanced the theory that the eddy which undermined the levee had thrown up a sand

FOUR AIRMEN LOSE LIVES IN PLANE CRASH

Giant Bombing Plane Wrecked Enroute From San Antonio To Langley Field.

Augusta, Ga., May 30.—(AP)—A mass of wilted flowers, draped with four American flags and fastened to a broken propeller, marks the spot where four army aviators lost their lives yesterday in the crash of a giant bombing plane.

Several hundred persons gathered to watch the departure of 11 planes en route from maneuvers at San Antonio to Langley Field, Va., paused in surprise when one of the four to take off careened suddenly at a height of 500 feet, banked sharply and dipped. Two hundred feet above ground it went into a nose dive, tore through electric wires and crashed in flames.

Before a man could get through the flames the plane's four occupants were burned beyond recognition. The dead, identified by their service tags, were:

Lieutenant Dan F. Voorhees, Onarga, Ill., pilot

Sergeant Clifford Glenn, Akron, Ohio.

Sergeant James Reid, Pittsburgh.

Corporal Melvin Andrews, Raleigh.

In command of Captain Charles E. Rust, the air squadron had been here since Friday, when the planes arrived from Montgomery, Ala. Permission for the visit was given by the War Department on the request of the city government and the aviators had been entertained by residents.

A supposition is that a motor of the destroyed plane went dead and that Lieutenant Voorhees tried to reverse his path and make a landing. The three planes that took off returned soon after the crash. Six others encountered storms over South Carolina and returned.

Nine of the ships, all of which are Martin bombers, planned to resume their flight today but Captain Rust decided to keep his plane and three others here until the bodies are sent to their homes.

Raleigh, May 30.—(AP)—Corporal Melvin Andrews, Jr., 24, of Raleigh, was one of four airmen killed Sunday near Augusta, Ga., when an army bombing plane went into a tail spin and crashed in flames. The body will be brought to Raleigh for burial.

The young local airman was serving the third year of a three year enlistment. He is survived by his father, Melvin Andrews, Sr., four brothers, Floyd and Wilson, of Princeton, W. Va.; Henry, Newport News, Va.; and Emmett, Raleigh and a sister, Mrs. Bruce Pacef Raleigh.

News dispatches concerning the fatal accident stated that one of the motors of the big plane seemed to "go dead" and that the plane then went into a tail spin, falling and striking the ground with great force, immediately bursting into flames.

Fire Department Disperses Crowd At Tampa Prison

Tampa, Fla., May 30.—(AP)—A call for the "water cure" apparently quieted a large crowd that milled around the Hillsborough County jail late last night, threatening violence to Benjamin F. Levine, confessed slayer of a family of five.

Police called on the fire department when the crowd, composed mostly of young men, became ungovernable but quiet was restored soon after Sheriff Hiers announced that Levine had been transported to another prison. Armed deputies mingled with the hangers-on during the five hours of tense waiting.

Levine, after viewing the bodies of Herman Merrell, 43, Mrs. Merrell, 38, and their three children, Ralph, Buddy and Mildred, confessed that he attacked them in their home early Friday. He said he mistook them for another family which had lived in the house and did not learn of his mistake until he read the papers.

Levine first said that Leonard Thompson, his companion on the night of the slaying, wielded a railroad spike maul that snuffed out two lives and fatally wounded three other members of the family. In his confession he assumed full responsibility.

MEMORIAL DAY

LINDBERGH IS REPORTED TO BE HOMESICK

Knights of the Air Appreciates Honors, But He is Eager For Home.

London, May 30.—(AP)—Captain Lindbergh is homesick—terribly homesick. He said so this morning. The knight of the air appreciates to the fullest extent the honors bestowed upon him here, in Brussels and in Paris but he is eager to return home at the earliest possible moment.

He made this clear while speaking to the reporters upon his return to the American embassy after an early morning trip to the Croydon air field to make sure his trans-Atlantic monoplane had weathered the storm of the rough and tumble welcome given it upon his arrival from Brussels yesterday.

Lindbergh will have a chat tomorrow with King George, and also the Prince of Wales. Wednesday he will be the guest of Lord Londsdale, famous sportsman, at the running of the derby. Every waking moment of his time is booked during his stay here, but if he had his own way he would take his Spirit of St. Louis and start right back to New York.

"I want to get home bad," he said, adding, "though of course I am not thinking actually of returning by air—please understand that fully."

The flier remarked that he could not say enough in praise of the honors of the recognition heaped upon him everywhere, but nevertheless the question of getting home was uppermost in his mind and would be until he began the return trip.

"There is nothing definite yet about the date of sailing, nor just how I shall go," he continued. "I am not a particularly good sailor, and everything considered, I would prefer to fly back in the good old bus that brought me over. However, I shall probably not fly the Atlantic again. It has been done and there is no advantage for me to attempt it repeat the performance."

Peeping into the future, he visualized a regular trans-Atlantic aerial service.

"It has wonderful commercial possibilities—there is no doubt about that," he said. "I came by the shortest route but the route of the future must be determined after scientific research. This is all."

N. Y. MATINEE CROWDS CAUGHT IN RIOT TODAY

New York, May 30.—(AP)—Matinee crowds in times square this afternoon were caught in a riot when 500 blackshirts members of the Fascist League of America, brandishing whips and clubs, attempted to capture three Italians who had assaulted one of their number.

Police reserves quelled the excited Fascists who had been marching in the Memorial Day parade. The pursued Italians escaped.

FIVE PERSONS DIE IN STORM

Wind and Rain Storm In East Tennessee And Virginia Does Heavy Damage.

Bristol, Va., May 30.—(AP)—Unestimated damage was done in southwest Virginia and East Tennessee last night by the heaviest wind and rainstorm this section has experienced in years. The death toll this morning was five persons three lives being lost by drowning at Gage City, Va., and two at Elizabethton, Tenn. Trains were unable to operate between Bristol and Appalachia, Va., on the Southern Railroad, eight earth slides and the derailment of an engine and four cars crippling the service. Telephone communication was down between Bristol and many of the points affected by the storm.

Unofficial reports from Carter County, Tenn., say the damage there will amount to $400,000.

Mrs. Andy Lewis, aged 25, and her infant child were drowned at Elizabethton, about 1:30 this morning, and Lewis was seriously hurt when their residence at Brake's Cliff was swept away.

Terrific winds and hailstones said to be as large as hen eggs, caused damage unofficially estimated at $400,000 in Carter County. Tennessee with trunks as large as telephone poles were uprooted by the gale, while the hail played havoc with what few crops and trees were left standing.

Tardy a window on the east side of Main Street in Elizabethton, the county seat, remained unbroken. A number of residences under construction were flattened or badly damaged.

TOLD OF PLOT FOR WRECKING NAVAL STATION

Government Continues Inquiry Into Negotiations of Communist Leaders.

Manila, May 30.—(AP)—Warned by discovery of a plot to destroy the naval ammunition dump at Cavite, six miles across the bay from here, Government agencies today continued an investigation of negotiations between communist leaders in China and native labor groups.

Although Rear Admiral Sumner E. W. Kittelle, commandant of the 16th Naval District, said he did not believe the plot could have been carried out, he declared recent disclosures of communist activities, particularly as shown by documents found in the Soviet embassy at Peking, were "astounding."

Admiral Kittelle said that naval authorities had been aware for some time that emissaries of the Soviet Government had attempted to spread their doctrines among the Filipinos, in an effort to weaken the sovereignty of the United States in the Islands. While he did not reveal the nature of the documents seized at Peking, he intimated some of them were related to communist activities in the Philippines.

Announcement that the government had been informed of communist negotiations followed a dispatch in the Manila Times saying that Shanghai communists had urged destruction of the Cavite dump in a communication to the Legionnaire Del Trabajo, the Philippine Labor Union. The plot was said to be based on the erroneous belief that such a plan would handicap movement of ammunition to American warships in Chinese waters.

Despite denial by officials of the Legionnaires that the order had any connection with the plot, members were kept under surveillance. Several of the 2,000 Filipinos employed at the Cavite Navy Yard were dismissed recently because they were alleged to be Legionnaires. Those retained were required to make a statement declaring they had severed affiliations with the organization and to give a pledge of loyalty to the United States.

How much have 15,000,000 Ford cars meant in happiness to this country—through freedom of movement? How many BILLION miles have they traveled?

TWENTY PERSONS KILLED BY CLOUDBURST LAST NIGHT IN PRESTONBURG, KY. SECTION

Several Persons Reported Drowned by Torrential Down Pour at Paintsville.

Paintsville, Ky., May 30.—(AP)—Three persons were drowned and considerable property was damaged by a cloudburst in Johnson County early today.

The dead are: Mrs. Agnes Bailey, 80, mother of Dr. T. E. Bailey; Mrs. Maude Bailey, 40, wife of the doctor; Willard B. Bailey, 11, a son.

They were drowned when Dr. Bailey's home was washed into Tom's Creek on the Mayo trail six miles from here.

Unconfirmed reports told of other deaths but insofar as could be determined here the "dead" were the only ones.

Ashland, Ky., May 30.—(AP)—Eastern Kentucky, in the vicinity of Morehead and East of Morehead, was hit by a hail and wind storm here last night, according to reports reaching here today.

Several industrial sidings leading to the day mines along the Lexington division of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad were reported damaged considerably by the swollen streams. There is delay of traffic, officials stated. One report said that between five and ten mining houses were washed out by a creek near Wayland. These reports made no mention of loss of life.

A dispatch received by the Western Union just before their wire went out said that during the height of the storm in Paintsville, the home of Ashland Adams was struck by lightning but no one was injured. Fire followed and the house was destroyed.

All telephone lines up the Big Sandy Valley were reported down.

Burglars Make $90,760 Haul in Great Neck, L. I.

New York, May 30.—(AP)—Two gentlemen burglars who obtained $90,760 in jewels and cash from the country home at Great Neck, L. I., of Miss L. Livermore, noted Wall Street trader, were hunted today throughout the exclusive Long Island colony and in the New York underworld.

The gems and cash were taken from Mr. and Mrs. Livermore and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Aronson, shortly before dawn yesterday morning.

Working with extreme politeness, the thieves returned their jewelry worth $9,000 on the tearful pleading of the women and ignored remaining valuables worth $50,000.

The robbers were unmasked. They were about 25 years old. Theories that the pair might have been amateur burglars in search of stock market memoranda compiled by Mr. Livermore, or society men in search of adventure were among possibilities under consideration.

Entering two bedrooms on the second floor by means of a ladder, the robbers completed their work in one hour and ten minutes and escaped into the breaking dawn without disturbing the two Livermore children; a third guest, Robert Galston, and a host of servants in the house.

The loot comprised a pearl necklace, worth $60,000, a sapphire and diamond ring valued at $17,500, a monogrammed gold watch, worth $1,000 and $60 in cash belonging to Mrs. Livermore; a pearl stickpin, valued at $2,000 and $200 in cash belonging to Mr. Aronson; a diamond ring valued at $10,000 belonging to Mrs. Aronson.

The rich, however, never know the joy of paying the last installment on something.

A Noble Gift to France. Ford No. 15,000,000. Looks Like "Cal and Al" Astor Calls Up Paris. (By Arthur Brisbane) Copyright 1927, by Star Co.

In addition to a very large sum, already given, to preserve the monuments of Versailles, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., now contributes 40,000,000 francs to complete work, immediately necessary, to preserve from destruction beautiful monuments in France that can never be duplicated.

Mr. Rockefeller calls his wife "a symbol of the deep and abiding friendship of my countrymen for yours," in a letter to Monsieur Jusserand.

This country, more even than France, owes thanks to Mr. Rockefeller for that intelligent, useful and generous gift of money to be put to noble use.

The monuments and memories of France have educated thousands of young Americans and will educate millions more. And Mr. Rockefeller's intelligence and wealth enable him to express American friendship for the French, most admirably.

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., is to be congratulated on the use that he makes of his money, his father on having a son able to carry out the father's plan to make wealth useful.

PITCHING IS FEATURE IN BIG LEAGUE

(By The Associated Press)

As the smoke of the latest big league baseball battles settled today seven pitchers were able to boast of the feat of surviving nine full innings of modern heavy hitting and coming out on the winning end.

Some of the hurlers with the guile and stamina to go the rout were old in experience and some were young comparative newcomers.

One winning member of the younger pitching generation was "Jumbo" Elliott, the ponderous portlander from Terre Haute, who made Pigmies of the New York Giants in winning for Brooklyn, 5 to 2, allowing but four safe hits.

The Philadelphia Athletics won their game with the Senators, 6 to 1 on the same kind of pitching by George Walburg, a big left hander with about six years experience. He too allowed only four safe blows.

For the Pittsburgh Pirates, leaders of the National League, Garman Hill started and finished against the Cubs and turned in an 8 to 5 victory and despite another homer by Hack Wilson. The Pirates lead is now more than one hundred points.

Pitching again played a big part in the work of the Chicago White Sox, whose fine showing in holding second place to the Yankees in the American league is as much of a sensation as the sport of the Pirates in the National. Ted Lyons 8 to 6 triumphed over the Detroit Tigers who numbered eight this year for the slim youngster who went to the White Sox four years ago from major university.

In a double header between the St. Louis and Cleveland Americans Miles Gaston of the Browns won the first, 7 to 4, and Emil Levens, of the Indians, the second 10 to 2, making the honors of the day just even between these two youths, promising members of the younger crop.

Carl Mays, the veteran, now with the Cincinnati Reds, found lots of Dynamite in the Cardinals bats this time and lost a 11 to 3 decision to Grover Alexander, the Ageless St. Louis pitching ace.

The New York Yankees needed two pitchers to stop the Boston Red Sox. Ruth gave way to Thomas early in the game and the Yankee bats began to swing as advertised, netting 7 runs in the eighth and winning the game 15 to 7. One of 3 homers in the game swelled Babe Ruth's total to 123, a mark which leads both leagues, while a beautiful catch by Flagstead, of the Sox, robbed Lou Gehrig of what might have been his 12th.

YOSKIE BALL TEAM TO PLAY TOMORROW

The baseball team of the local military unit will play Abshire here tomorrow afternoon at four o'clock. The game promises to be one of the best of the season, as the visitors are said to have a crack organization.

Sam Carson, who looks after the destiny of the local club, said they were ready to annex another scalp, and hope to be able to get it from Abshire.

Salary And Wage Commission Will Meet Wednesday

Raleigh, May 30.—(AP)—A meeting of the Salary and Wage Commission has been called to meet here Wednesday, June 6, it was announced today by Edwin B. Briggs, secretary of the commission. Approximately 100 applications for salary increases from 13 of the 25 State departments will be considered by the wage body.

Applications from all departments are on file save those from the State Highway Commission, which has not petitioned for any salary increases for almost a year.

But the Highway Commission may find that its lateness in filing applications may be harmful for the Salary and Wage Commission has a rule that no salary increase applications will be considered unless they are filed at least 30 days before the body meets.

Before the increases are granted, the secretary of the wage body investigates to see whether or not the increases are justified. This usually takes some time and thus the promulgation of the ruling several months ago, the secretary explained.

Of all the departments petitioning for salary increases for certain employees, the Revenue Department leads the field, it was said. From this department alone comes about 25 applications. It is expected that the Highway Commission's applications will double the totals.

PITT SCHOOLS INTERESTED IN THEIR GROUNDS

County-Wide Movement For Beautification Results in Improvement.

Considerable progress has been made in improvement and beautification of the grounds of various county schools, according to information made public this morning by the Department of Education. The department has been assisted to no little extent by Dr. R. L. Carr and Miss Bertha Lee Ferguson, home demonstration agent of Pitt County.

Probably the greatest improvement in the county-wide program was made by the schools at Belvoir, Falkland and Fountain. Winterville and Arthur also have made great progress in the planning of their grounds.

The Falkland Parent-Teacher Association, without any outside aid, sponsored an Arbor Day program and planted $1,000 worth of shrubs. The grounds today present an unusual attractive appearance, and are a monument to the industry of members of the progressive organization.

It is probable that the most decided improvement was made in Fountain because of the fact that they were late in getting started. They are now down at work in a business-like way and next year promises to see improvement everywhere will be proud of.

The Board of Education is doing everything possible to increase interest in the beautification of school grounds because such improvements will greatly accentuate the imposing buildings in the consolidated districts. Parent-Teacher organizations are rendering valuable assistance, and it is assured these activities will become more pronounced as the county-wide movement gains in momentum.

JOE HATEM WINS OUT IN CIVIL COURT

Local Syrian Awarded Judgment Against Receivers of Robersonville Bank.

Joe Hatem, local Syrian, recovered diamond valued at $300 from receivers of the Farmers Banking & Trust Company of Robersonville, in a suit completed in civil court here Saturday.

The case grew out of refusal of the bank receivers to return diamonds which Hatem had given as security on a loan of $200. They contended that he owed them other accounts that covered the amount of the security.

The second week of civil court opened this morning at 11 o'clock with prospects of a week as busy as that completed Saturday afternoon. Judge Cranmer beavies in dispatching business as rapidly as possible, and last week saw numbers of cases completed which had been pending for sometime.

The calendar for the present week has numbers of issues of interest locally, numbers of people from different parts of the county will be present despite intense activity now in progress in agricultural centers.

Parrent-Teachers Association Gives Books to School

The Parent-Teacher Association of West Greenville school has been active ever since its organization. Recently they planned to do something definite for the school, so a committee, Mrs. T. I. Moore, chairman, Mrs. S. J. Everette and Mrs. J. D. Wilson on last Thursday presented to the school a collection of books. These will be added to the grade libraries which are already in use. The children are delighted and love these new books. They have already expressed to the association their sincere thanks. With the books came a generous cash gift. This will be kept until the beginning of a new school year and then used for the type of books most needed.

Another group of the association members have planned to give the teachers and their friends a swimming party and camp supper at Public Landing on Wednesday, June 1.

—and the Worst is Yet to Come

It's a long lane that has no turning and now, after weeks of wreck and ruin, the Mississippi River is falling.

Altogether, Lindbergh appears to be the most satisfying idol the world has set up. He wears well because he has tact and good sense as well as modesty and dignity.

The Italian ace, Pinedo, safe after another misfortune, will of course be heard of again. The four-continent flier, who has covered 26,000 miles, crossed the southern Atlantic and nearly crossed the northern, is not going to be downed.

RUSSIA OUTLAWED

So far as Great Britain is concerned, Russia is now an isolated outlaw among the nations. There would appear to be ample justification for the break in the evidence submitted by Premier Baldwin to Parliament, showing that Russian officials have committed acts in violation of the fundamental rules of international law and comity. The seized documents prove "that the Russian Trade Delegation was at work upon the posting of Communist agitators in British ships," that "the Soviet Charge in London was obtaining advice and information from the Soviet Foreign Ministry for use in a British political campaign"; and that both this officer and the Russian Government "lied flatly with regard to Borodin's status and acts." England refuses intercourse with a Russia that persistently wages war in secret.

LINDBERGH REPORTED TO BE HOMESICK

ready under consideration in various quarters, I have no doubt." The Swedish journalists piled Lindbergh questions about the possibility of his visiting Sweden but he replied that he greatly regretted that circumstances prevented his visiting the land of his father. "I must go home," he emphasized.

According to his present plans he will fly to Paris probably on Thursday, but his program after that date is still unsettled.

A woman reporter asked him if it were possible for a woman to fly the Atlantic alone.

"Why not?" was his reply. He refused, however, to enter into further questions along this line.

He was seemingly annoyed when a reporter asked if he planned to have any clothes made while in London, remarking: "I am an airman and I am not trying to set any fashions. I haven't much time to think much about clothes."

Nevertheless, the airman wore a dapper gray suit of latest cut and a natty tie which appeared to have come from one of London's nastiest togery shops.

He was in splendid spirits after

A COUNTY HISTORY

The North Carolina Historical Commission has sent out an appeal to every County Board of Education in the state urging that a county historian be appointed in each county in order that future generations may know the real truth of the progress of the county in which they live. Pitt county, along with other counties of the east, is rich in historical facts that few of the grown-ups, to say nothing of the youngsters, know little about. The part that Pitt county has played in the growth and development of the state and nation should be preserved for the generations to come, but this cannot be done unless the true history of the county is compiled. It is to be hoped that

Daily News Letter

Paris.—(INS)—An actresses' bath in Evian water has caused as much discussion here, as a certain champagne bath party in America.

Alice Cocea, a well-known figure in the theatrical world, has started the Evian bath rage.

Mile Cocea was in the habit of bathing after her evening performance at the theatre, much to the annoyance of the concierge. Returning home late on evening she found the water cut off and unwilling to give up her nightly ablution for a grumbling janitor, Mile Cocea ordered all the Evian bottles brought up from the wine cellar and poured into the bath tub.

The actress claims that nothing is more refreshing than a bath of mineral waters, although the concierge has agreed to allow the water to run at all hours.

A chic circus is to be opened in Paris for the admirers of night life who have wearied of the supper clubs.

Monsieur Roger Ferree is planning a real, old-fashioned circus, with clowns and a sawdust ring. He has engaged a large hall which will seat five hundred people and this is now being converted into a regular circus.

Jaded Parisians will come and drink champagne and feel young again when they see dressed pigs and prancing horses. The spirit will be like that of days gone by and fashionable women will congregate here for the seats are arranged in rounds and their costumes can be easily seen and admired, declares Monsieur Ferree.

He hopes to have the smartest gatherings in the city including writers and the old aristocracy.

A young French girl who was shot by her sweetheart, not long ago, has completely forgiven his cave-man tactics and is planning to marry him very soon.

One night Charles Deville entered the room of Mile. Kerschmeyer and vowed that she would marry him at once or die. The girl laughed, whereupon Deville shot her, inflicting two serious wounds.

After several months in the hospital the girl was cured and repented for her former rebuffs to Deville.

When Deville appeared in the Correctional Tribunal on a murder charge Mile. Kerschmeyer pleaded for his acquittal. "He is not a bad fellow," she said, "and I shall marry him shortly."

The romance so curiously begun will not be interrupted for in sentencing Deville to four months in prison the Court gave him the benefit of the First Offender's Act, which means that he was immediately released.

A dispute has been caused by Parisians who were forced to pay five francs to visit the mosque built for Mohammedans, and noted here by the city.

The land was given to Allah's worshippers for religious purposes instead it has become a business proposition. Because of the uniqueness, the Mosque has become the principal sight-seeing stunt in Paris. Recently built, it is picturesque and follows the old world traditions. It adds a new touch to the many varied buildings to be seen here, with its cupped roof and shining white exterior.

The Muselmans have also a restaurant which has become popular overnight. All kinds of delicacies from the Far East can be procured in the quaintest of surroundings. Prices are high, another cause for French sarcasm.

The papers are scolding the mercenary Arabs who are charging for gifts given them by the city. They wanted a quiet corner where they could pray in pace, but they have made of their church and restaurant a typical tourist center.

CAL. COOLIDGE PAYS TRIBUTE TO WAR DEAD

President Delivers Memorial Day Address At Arlington National Cemetery.

Washington, May 30.—(AP)—Law observance was declared necessary by President Coolidge today for the maintenance of America's institutions and for the continuance of its influence in world affairs.

"We have made our place in the world through the Union and the Constitution. We have flourished as a people because of our success in establishing self-government."

"Unless we are an industrial, orderly nation we can neither minister to our own requirements, or be an effective influence for good in the world."

Recalling secession movements in the North as well as that of the South which were culminated by the Civil War, Mr. Coolidge took cognizance of "its heirs and successors who are often extremists."

"It is because of our belief in these principles that we wish to see all the world relieved from strife and conflict and brought under the humanizing influence of a reign of law."

"It is in accordance with this policy that we have sought to discontinue the old practice of competition in armaments and cast our influence on the side of reasonable limitations. We wish to discard the element of force and compulsion in international agreements and conduct and rely on reason and law."

"Our government has recently been attempting to proceed in accordance with these principles in its relations with China, Persia, Iraq, and Mexico, and in inviting Japan and Great Britain to participate in a three-power naval limitation conference."

"While the foreign relations of this more important, and constitute a field to which it will be necessary to give much more attention than is now realized, yet it is our domestic affairs that are most always assumed by us."

"Foreign people are certainly going to seek assistance only from those who have demonstrated their capacity to maintain their own affairs efficiently. If we desire to be an influence in order and law, tranquility and good will in the world, we must be determined to make sufficient sacrifices to live by these precepts at home."

ANNUAL SPEEDWAY CLASSIC FURNISHES THRILLS FOR RECORD CROWD SPECTATORS

The car driven by Jules Ellingboe of Memphis, smashed into the retaining wall on the north lurr of the track as Ellingboe was on his 16th mile. The machine was wrecked and Ellingboe was reported to have sustained broken ribs.

Dave Lewis also hit the north wall when his front axle broke. He escaped injury. Hartz scraped the wall turning into the stretch but pulled into the pits under his own power.

The management of the speedway immediately decided to award Batten with a trophy for his bravery in sticking with his blazing car until he brought it to a stop. Batten driving standing erect, drove with one hand and then the other until they were so badly blistered that he could no longer hang onto the wheel. Then he steered the machine with his left foot.

The veterans of the grind, Harry Hartz, Peter De Paolo, winner of the 1925 event, Bennett Hill and Leon Duray, were all declared out of the race before the first 100 miles were finished.

Hartz was forced to quit in the 5th lap because of engine trouble after his car had been slightly damaged in scraping the wall in the stretch turn.

De Paolo was forced out because his supercharger developed trouble in the 7th mile.

Outlining a route around the world of approximately 22,000 miles he said it was possible, in his opinion, to make such a flight in fifteen days.

Both were in the car with Parrish, who is said to have been driving, and all were Wendell men.

PITT HONORS THE MEMORY OF WAR DEAD

Graves of Former Service Men Decorated, Banks and Postoffice Closed.

The closing of city banks and the postoffice along with the display of flags in the fronts of business houses today marked local observance of National Memorial Day—a day when thousands of soldiers throughout the country will decorate the graves of those who made the supreme sacrifice during the world war.

Members of the Pitt county Post of the American Legion decorated Pitt County's war dead yesterday. A committee consisting of several members appointed at recent meeting, spent hours among the tombs marking the final resting place for those who gave their all that human life might be saved.

It was a fitting tribute to the memory of those who marched away so gallantly to the first note of the bugle over eight years ago, but members of the Legion paid the honor and did it with keen appreciation of the cost of the blood of Pitt County's young manhood. Every grave was marked by the surviving members, and if there was a single one missed it was because the Legion had been unable to locate it.

The postoffice did not remain closed all day as did the banks. City carriers made regular morning rounds. The general delivery window was open from 11:30 to 12:30 in order to make deliveries. Money orders and registry windows remained closed and rural carriers made no rounds.

Flags floated at the front of virtually every business house in the city today, and in their mute way spoke in eloquent terms of the spirit dominating the heart of those whose firesides were deprived of loved ones through a conflict in which all but one-twelfth of the entire world was engaged.

Other towns possibly observed the day in more eloquent and demonstrative terms, but the spirit of sacrifice and devotion emanating from the hearts of Greenville and Pitt county people made up for all that was lacking in other ways. They thought of those who paid the price of war with life's blood, and of those nameless thousands among them whose names never will be sung in praise and thanksgiving. Pitt county remembered them all realizing that it was the unknown who most of all made the world safe for humanity.

In Ring Again

Alvaro Obregon (above) former revolutionary leader and president of Mexico, is again a candidate for the office. He holds that it is necessary for him to seek an additional term to carry out policies begun in his administration and continued by the incumbent, Plutarco Calles. The latter is barred by law from succeeding himself.

ITALIAN AVIATOR REACHES HORTA, AZORES

Horta, Island of Fayal, Azores, May 30—(AP)—Commander Francesco De Pinedo, Italian aviator, arrived here this morning on the Italian steamer Supera, which had his seaplane, the Santa Maria 11, in tow.

over that bank it was my own fault and my own carelessness. I was driving in the middle of the road, with rain and snow falling, thinking about some papers I had got from my laboratory. Someone in the big string of traffic accidentally knocked against my left front wheel and threw me over the bank.

President Coolidge will start on June 13 his usual kind of vacation, telegraph and telephone wires at his elbow, secretaries and business following him wherever he goes. And President taking his job seriously, as President Coolidge does, can't attend to much else. He may think he is fishing, but he is always working.

The American Press Association, reaching thousands of country newspapers, reports that a poll of publishers gives first choice to Coolidge for the Republican nomination next year, and first Democratic choice to Governor Lowden, second Republican choice, and Senator Reed of Missouri, second Democratic choice. It looks like "Cal and Al." Country publishers know more about real public opinion than their self-satisfied brothers on big metropolitan newspapers.

Nobody realizes what progress this young century has made. Vincent Astor, of New York, called for Europe last night, after calling up his wife in Paris, by telephone, to ask just what Lindbergh said when she saw him at the American Embassy on the night of his arrival. Mrs. Astor, her voice crossing the 3,600 miles of ocean and land in a fraction of a second, said Lindbergh was a fine young man and not loquacious, the substance of his conversation was, "I am a tired man. Good night."

To be casually to fall your wife up by telephone with the ocean between you, and inquire about a man that has recently flown over that ocean is certainly one of those milestones of progress.

Benito Mussolini tells the world, "My successor is not yet born." He promises to continue governing for many years. Within a year Mussolini promises to do away with universal suffrage, entirely.

For a while one man, may do the thinking for forty millions, and do it well. Later the forty millions will resume thinking for themselves. Individuals vanish, Democracy does not.

News from Chinandega, Nicaragua, which may cause trouble temporarily, tells how General Babula, leader of Nicaraguan Liberals, and alleged bandit, was shot dead by Captain Richards of the United States Marines.

Cabula is said to have shot half a dozen natives on the outskirts of Chinandega, later entering the town, and starting "shooting it up." Captain Richards shot him down. On the whole, Nicaraguans will approve of eliminating such an indiscriminate shooter.

Across the Pacific—Next Great Air Spectacle!

The next great airflight will be the spanning of the Pacific. Expeditions are under way to fly from Vancouver, San Francisco and Los Angeles to Sydney, Australia, via Hawaii. Plans are also being made for flights to the Philippines and Japan. This recalls the efforts of the late Commander John Rodgers and a crew of four to fly from San Francisco to Honolulu. They were lost for more than a week before found drifting within a short distance of the goal. The inductor compass, used by Charles Lindbergh on his flight from New York to Paris, makes the Pacific flight more feasible.
