SAYS JAPAN IS READY TO REDUCE NAVY

Admiral Declares Nation is Willing to Cut to Minimum Defense Requirements.

Tokyo, June 2.—(AP)—Japan's acceptance of President Coolidge's invitation to the tri-partite conference on the limitation of naval armaments was inspired by a genuine love of peace and a sincere wish to co-operate constructively with the other powers, said Admiral Okada, minister of the navy, in an exclusive statement to The Associated Press today.

"If anybody thinks we simply jumped at this opportunity to limit armaments for financial reasons," he declared, "he has never learned to appreciate our true feelings. Our naval institution, actually far from being aggressive proportions, was never intended to extend beyond the measure justified by defense. Even without this armament parity, we never thought of building beyond this. So we are looking forward to the forthcoming conference as something in the way of a formal occasion to confirm this fundamental idea.

"We will reduce our navy to the minimum of defense requirements. What this minimum is must be gauged by Japan's peculiar geographical, economical and political circumstances. We are going to discuss this point frankly with the American and British delegates.

"So long as we keep a navy, we must maintain it efficiently. As we are dependent on foreign countries for food and raw materials we must see that an uninterrupted supply from overseas is maintained in time of war. Our auxiliary, like those of other countries, are designed for this mission. The U. S. can stand a blockade of a hostile fleet for a number of years without feeling the least pinch. I think Japan's auxiliary problem must be viewed only from this standpoint."

Admiral Okada stated that he desired to take the opportunity to shatter the "absurd notion" reported in recent dispatches from America, that Japan was not satisfied with the personnel of the American delegation to the conference.

U. S. MARINES ARE MOVED TO TROUBLE ZONE

Transport Henderson With Sixth Regiment Sent to Tientsin Territory.

Washington, June 2.—(AP)—Fear that an emergency might be caused by the collapse of the Northern Chinese army south of the Yellow River has led American naval authorities to order between four and five thousand marines to Tientsin where large numbers of Americans and other foreigners are concentrated.

Movement of the marines from Shanghai and the Philippines which has been in progress for several days has been reported to Washington and its logical development is expected to be the transfer of the American legion from Peking to Tientsin or the carrying out of the proposed strengthening of the Peking garrison by 2,000 additional troops.

The State Department has said that whatever disposition is made of the marines is up to Admiral Williams and Brigadier General Butler.

Serious trouble in the regions where the Northern army is in retreat is not expected since few Americans remain in North China.

Shanghai, June 2.—(AP)—The United States transport Henderson left here this morning for Tientsin with the sixth regiment of marines, 1,500 strong and the tenth artillery regiment, with a strength of 400 men. These forces are being taken to Tientsin in preparation for possible emergencies growing out of the collapse of the Northern Alliance armies south of the Yellow River.

Brigadier General Smedley D. Butler, in command of American marines in China, also left for Tientsin, aboard the cruiser Richmond, accompanied by his field staff.

The third regiment of United States Marines, now in the Philippines will come to Shanghai, it was announced here, to replace the sixth regiment.

Orders for the marines to embark for Tientsin were issued last night and were carried out in a few hours, so quietly that Shanghai generally was unaware of the move.

FOOD SUPPLIES ARE RUSHED TO FLOOD VICTIMS

Over Three Hundred People on Atchafalaya Without Food Two Days.

New Orleans, June 2.—(AP)—Supplies were being rushed today to between 300 and 400 people in the Woodside and Odenburg sections on the west bank of the Atchafalaya River in response to a report at Baton Rouge flood relief headquarters that they have been without food for two days. A boat was dispatched to the scene last night with food and enough feed and forage for 1,000 head of live stock. The section is approximately 140 miles northwest of New Orleans on the opposite side of the Mississippi.

Flood waters, falling more rapidly in the upper Atchafalaya basin today were rising at the mouth of the river at Morgan City. A navigator who fled over the city reported that only two blocks were above water. The water was dropping sharply at other places, however, and he reported that Breau Bridge and St. Martinsville were almost free of the flood and the New Iberia was rapidly emerging.

With the greatest part of the struggle to save lives over, a slow demobilization of relief forces was started. The New Orleans headquarters today that Lieutenant Colonel George R. Spalding, of the engineers corps, whose station is at Louisville, had been relieved and would return to his station. Colonel Spalding had been in charge of water transportation in the flood area. Major Malcolm Elliott will return from Baton Rouge to his office at New Orleans.

Colonel Spalding estimated that his rescue fleet of 850 boats, not including the hundreds of small row boats and skiffs had evacuated 100,000 refugees and moved between 30,000 and 40,000 tons of foodstuffs. The situation on the lower Mississippi was unchanged. The gaug at New Orleans showed a further drop.

Eighty per cent of all the vessels calling at Valdivostock are said to be British.

No confirmation could be had at the British Foreign office today.

JUNE BRIDES ALSO ABOUND IN OLD PITT

First Day of Month Saw Three Couples Enter The Field of Matrimonial Bliss.

While Charlotte, North Carolina, is trying to determine which of three brides was the first to go to the altar the first day of June, Greenville and Pitt county are trying to reason out why Dan Cupid, mythical god of love, should have confined his attention exclusively to members of the colored race. It doesn't make any difference to the brides as to which arrived at the altar first, but it is an amateur of grave concern to some old bachelors of the white race that Cupid should consider distinction and especially in the first day of June.

The Charlotte story claimed three brides the first day of the month. "It county didn't better the record yet she equaled it. Three applicants applied at the office of the registrar of deeds for license, one being married at the court house and the other two in the parts of the county in which they reside.

It happened that all of the applicants in this county were colored. It made no difference to J. C. Jaskins register of deeds. He is just as much pleased over the issuance of marriage licenses as an andy-loving child would be over a pound box of chocolates. And when those three members of the colored race put in their appearance the first day of the month there was more actual joy in the office of the register of deeds than any other office in the court house building.

One of the outstanding couples participating in the June marriages was that of Fielding Hunt 59 and Lila Peyton 36, both of Greenville township. It was not the first time Hunt had appeared at the altar. The father of thirty-one children, numbers of them grown to young manhood and womanhood, he had submitted the moulding of his destiny to the hands of a woman two times previously.

He said he believed in marriage. He believes every normal-minded man and woman of these days and time should marry, regardless of doubts and dogma, race, color or social distinction. And living up to his conviction, he courted Lila Peyton in time to go to the altar and make of her a real June bride.

Quite a number of court attaches and visitors watched the ceremony performed in the office of the registrar of deeds. It was an event of great moment to witness the marriage of the father of thirty-one children. Not that he may lay claim to the title of the champion father of the country, such as that claimed by Reuben Bland of Robersonville. But it was an important event in that it placed Greenville and Pitt county on the same exalted plain as that enjoyed by Charlotte and Mecklenburg county.

The other two couples married yesterday were: Arthur Cherry and Clara Teel, of Greenville. James Worthington and Emma Bony, of Ayden township.

Deputy Sheriff Shot by Negro

Salisbury, N. C., June 2.—(AP)—Deputy L. T. Yarborough was shot and seriously wounded by an unknown negro near Yadkin this morning.

Mr. Yarborough is in the Salisbury Hospital seriously wounded. Sheriff J. H. Kreider with a posse and bloodhounds is on the negro's trail and it is understood the negro is cornered near Yadkin.

The negro was suspected of a shooting here yesterday and Deputy Yarborough walked around the negro in an effort to identify him when he pulled a gun and began shooting. Reports from the hospital are to the effect that Deputy Yarborough's condition is feared to be very critical at least one bullet is said to have taken effect in the neck to a serious extent.

Jury Expected to Return Verdict This Afternoon in Case of Stocks vs. Harris

The case of G. T. Stocks v. Harris went to the jury shortly after the noon hour today, and a verdict is expected sometime this afternoon. The case has been in progress since Tuesday afternoon. It involves a controversy over the title of a piece of land. The plaintiff claims the land belongs to him by reason of old title in his possession. The defendant says the land rightfully belongs to him because of possession and has set up title to same.

This is the only case of its kind heard during the present term of court, although there have been numbers of others requiring as long a time to complete. Several other cases are expected to be completed before the end of week, and Judge Cranner is speeding up action as much as possible with this end in view.

Wilson, June 1.—Late this afternoon the Wilson-Greenville bus, attempting to avoid an accident with another car, swerved around the corner of Nash and Pender Streets, turned over and caught fire. TODAY

Ho! For the Black Hills. Well May the Bankers Sing. Today, 26 Horses Run. Good Ladies Rally. (By Arthur Brisbane) Copyright 1927, by Star Co.

It is officially decided that President Coolidge will spend his vacation in South Dakota's Black Hills. Excellent trout streams are in these hills, and twelve miles of the finest are set aside for the President's use. But other states within reach by automobile, should be more interesting to the President than the largest jumping trout. Trout are much alike, and they can't vote.

Yesterday Pennsylvania Railroad mailed dividend checks to stockholders all over the globe. Eighty years ago the Pennsylvania was a small corporation, worth $7,500,000. During the eighty years stockholders have received $831,000,000 in dividends, and the road is worth today two thousand five hundred millions. It pays in America, to get a good thing, build it, and take care of it.

Secretary Mellon issued United States bonds paying only 3 3/4 per cent interest. They can be exchanged for Liberty bonds coming due in the fall. Some Americans, especially bewildered bears, have their fingers pinched selling stocks short, wonder at the continued growing United States prosperity. Restricted immigration and increasing wages are the explanation.

On a Long Island truck farm yesterday you might have seen a dozen men and women on their hands and knees weeding carrots and beets. They were paid a minimum of $5 for eight hours work; more for extra work. Twenty-five years ago they could have been hired for $25 a month. Prices rise, but wages rise more rapidly. That makes prosperity.

Mrs. Timarsh of Union College, Schenectady, will lead New York State bankers, 1,800 of them, in song, at their annual convention. Bankers may well sing, as they contemplate Wall Street reports. Stocks, seeming to have the habit, went up again yesterday, 'steal' touching 176, highest price ever. Liverpool and New Orleans put up cotton prices. Various concerns to day will pay out $500,000,000 in interest and dividend payments.

Literally we have more money than we know what to do with. New York bankers are trying to lend fifty millions to Rumania. Germany has borrowed more than seven hundred millions in the United States and is "on top of the wave" in industry and finance. Beginning next year, however, Germany, under the Dawes plan, must pay out $255,000,000 every year. Later our bankers may be struggling to get back money lent as they are now struggling to lend it.

This is Derby Day, and it is no exaggeration to say that in Britain more than half the population will think of little else until twenty-six horses have finished their race and bettors know whether they have won or lost.

The Shah of Persia, asked to attend the Derby, said: "I know one (Continued on Page Six.)"

MAN IS KILLED ON WAY TO FIRE

Washington, June 2.—(AP)—Captain Charles A. Lindbergh is to set foot again on his native soil at noon on Saturday, June 11, debarking at the Washington yard from the cruiser Memphis, which is under orders to arrive here at that day and hour.

Hotel Building At Morehead City Destroyed by Flames at Early Hour Today.

New Bern, N. C., June 2.—(AP)—Fire early this morning destroyed the Woodland Hotel at Morehead City and resulted in the death of one man, who was run down and fatally injured while en route to the fire.

The fire was discovered about two thirty o'clock. It had gained such headway that many of the guests had to be rescued from windows by means of ladders. Only a part of the furniture was saved. The fire originated in the kitchen, and completely gutted the building. The building was owned by R. A. Cherry and the hotel operated under a lease to J. E. Woodland by Mrs. Sadie Byrd. J. Wheeler Wallace was the casualty, he was hit by an automobile, said to have been driven by City Manager George A. Lerman. Wallace sustained a fractured skull, fracture of a shoulder and hip, and other injuries, dying shortly after being taken to a hospital.

LINDBERGH POSTPONES PARIS TRIP

Unfavorable Weather Conditions Cause Delay of Flight Until Tomorrow.

Kenly, England, June 2.—(AP)—After waiting in vain for weather conditions to clear up, Capt. Lindbergh late this afternoon postponed his flight to Paris until tomorrow. He will spend the night at the officers' quarters here and hopes to get away at dawn.

A thick haze at the flying field, with reports of fog over the channel and rain at Paris caused the flier to make his decision.

Washington, June 2.—(AP)—The U. S. cruiser Memphis, which will bring Captain Charles A. Lindbergh home, expects to reach Washington at noon, Saturday, June 11, its commander advised officials here today.

London, June 2.—(AP)—Lindbergh was completing arrangements today for his return to the United States after two strenuous weeks as a public hero, there was no mistaking his eagerness to be home.

Now that he has met kings, presidents and scores of dignitaries and prominent personalities in France, Belgium and England, he is pleased with the prospect of being received by President Coolidge.

An idea of how anxious Lindbergh is for rest without having to be guided by a program, was had from his reply to a question: "What would you rather do this morning before hopping off for Paris?"

Without a moment's hesitation came the answer: "Nothing. I need some time to rest without any program, but still there are a few things in London I feel I must do."

He expressed his pleasure over the fact that his "the Spirit of St. Louis" would be on the way with him. The plane is to be placed aboard the United States warship when it calls at Southampton before proceeding to Cherbourg to pick up the aviator.

American residents in London, with British personages as their guests, paid tribute to Lindbergh at a banquet at the Savoy last night. It was another praise festival, in the course of which the modest youth blushed repeatedly at words of commendation not only by fellow countrymen, but by Sir Samuel Hoare, British air minister, and Winston Churchill, Chancellor of the Exchequer. He heard the air minister picture a voyage of future Pilgrim Fathers, with the possibility of the future Mayflower being an airplane or airship bearing the name Lindbergh. That name, Sir Samuel declared, will go down in history.

Captain Lindbergh, he said, arrived as a real aviator; he left as an old friend of England's people. Bidding goodbye to the British people, Lindbergh declared he was looking forward to another visit to the country, to be made at the first opportunity. He said he could not have been greeted with more enthusiasm than has been displayed since he landed at the Croydon air field Sunday.

Washington, June 2.—(AP)—This much of the return program was announced today by officials of the Army and Navy. Afterwards the committee on the reception of the flier organized and laid plans for perhaps the most elaborate reception ever tendered a private citizen in the national capital. Besides a huge fleet of Navy and Army planes the Memphis will be met at sea by either the dirigible Los Angeles or a smaller non-rigid airship of the naval forces. A squadron of twelve seaplanes will meet the cruiser 100 miles from the Virginia Capes late on Friday June 10th, and escort it to Chesapeake Bay.

OPTOMETRISTS HOLD CONVENTION DURHAM

Durham, June 2.—(AP)—More than 150 optometrists, representing the profession in all sections of the state, were expected to attend sessions of the twentieth annual convention opened yesterday with an attendance of 75. Lieutenant Governor J. Elmer Long was the main speaker at the convention banquet held last night.

BOXER DIES IN RING FROM A BROKEN NECK

Kansas City, Mo., June 2.—(AP)—Sammy Mandell, lightweight boxing champion, today was under $5,000 bond to appear at a coroner's inquest in connection with the death of Steve Adams, Chicago, who died in the ring here last night after being counted out in the second round of a scheduled ten round no decision fight with the titleholder.

A broken neck was announced by Dr. J. W. Hayward, county coroner, as the cause of death. Mandell was released on bond.

The boxers mixed freely from the opening bell and after sharp infighting in the second round Adams jumped back quickly from a clinch his head struck the top rope and he slid to the floor and Referee Walter Bates counted him out.

When the seconds and the referee found Adams unconscious they called for a physician. Dr. L. D. Marble, medical examiner for the State Boxing Commission, jumped into the ring and supervised administration of artificial respiration. Firemen brought a pulmotor, but after 15 minutes Adams was pronounced dead.

A Catholic priest administered the last rites of the Church to Adams before the body was removed from the ring. The boxer had made the sign of the cross before he came to the center of the ring in the first round.

Dr. Hayward said his examination revealed dislocation of the second and third vertebrae. It was understood testimony will be taken at the inquest today in an effort to decide whether Adams neck was broken in the fall or by a blow.

Mandell, known as a clever boxer rather than a hard puncher, was overcome by grief and declared he would rather have lost the title by way from Rock yKansas in Chicago last July than to have caused any harm to his opponent.

"I can't explain it," the champion said.

MEADOWS IN FIRST DEFEAT OF THE SEASON

(By The Associated Press)

Baseball warfare in the National league concentrated today on a western front while the teams of the American league mobilized for battle in the East.

One day ahead of the other clubs in resumption of inter-sectional warfare the Philadelphia nationals overcame the conflict with a victory for the east achieved at the expense of the Pirates 7 to 4 Pittsburgh yesterday.

Defeat of the league leading buccaners who have been bearing a charmed life, at the hands of their erratic rivals from Eastern Pennsylvania presaged the popping of plenty of fireworks before the present inter-sectional invasions come to an end.

Lee Meadows, bespectacled Pirate pitcher, who had won all seven of his previous games this year, was the victim of the Quakers' winning onslaught. One bad inning for Meadows gave the Phillies their seventh in the eighth and lost the game.

Arrayed against another Philadelphia team the leaders of the American league fared better. The Yankees took their fourth in five starts against the Athletics by 2 to 1 on a ninth inning single by Dugan.

Cleveland had a big day in pounding out a 14 to 1 decision over Detroit for an even break in their series. The hard hitting Tiger could make but three hits off young Hudlin.

A pitching exhibition almost as dazzling as Hudlins was produced by the massive Jim Elliott, of the Robins. Hurling his team to its fourth straight victory over the Braves by 6 to 2 the mountain mar from Terre Haute allowed but four hits.

The Boston Red Sox took their second in two days from the Senators, this time by six to one.

POINTERS LEAD BY HALF GAME

Raleigh, June 2.—(AP)—The margin by which first division clubs continue to hold their positions in the Piedmont League standings continues close as today found High Point atop by a mere half game lead over Raleigh, which was just the same measure ahead of Rocky Mount and Winston-Salem tied for third place.

Red Proctor, former Norfolk Tar player, donned a Raleigh uniform yesterday and turned back Salisbury 10 to 2; Sullivan bested Perry at Winston-Salem for a 3-1 Twin win over High Point, and Rocky Mount, after opening a strong drive in the final innings, nosed out Durham 9-2.

Asheville Players Are Suspended As Result of Uproar

Asheville, June 2.—(AP)—Roy Luebee, catcher and "Mule" Watson, pitcher, of the Asheville team have been indefinitely suspended by president William G. Bramham as a result of the uproar that occurred here in Tuesday's game between Asheville and Greenville.

In addition to being suspended they were fined $50 each by the head of the South Atlantic League, Dan W. Hill, President of the local club, is tonight engaged in ironing out the trouble but nothing definite was announced.

The whole row started in the fifth inning Tuesday when umpire Weir nodded a bit, Daniels doubled and Shirley came sliding in home on his stomach and Weir called him safe. The fans tore madly at the wire and Weir was forced to retreat behind other officials and Policemen for protection. Later in the evening he was accosted by a fan near his hotel and struck a sharp blow in the face. The fan submitted before a local magistrate and paid the cost.

Asheville baseball followers have been very much aroused by Weir's work, not that it was unfair so much to Asheville as that he allegedly made "bonehead" decisions on both sides.

Night Football To Make Debut Coming Season

Richmond, Va., June 2.—(AP)—Football games at night will make their debut in Virginia with the announcement today that the College of William and Mary will play all of its contests at Williamsburg at 8:30 at night under the glare of huge searchlights.

J. Wilder Tasker, coach of William and Mary, said today that he feels playing at night will do away with the trouble that is usually experienced on warm early season days, and that he believes it will bring better crowds. The new playing time will have its first tryout on September 24 when Catholic University plays the Indians, and again on October 8 in the contest with Lenoir-Rhyne.

FACTS about used car allowances

Most new car sales now involve the trading-in of a buyer's used car. More and more people are asking: "Why should my used car seem to have several values? ... Why should dealers in different makes of cars offer me allowances differing materially? ... Does the largest allowance offered mean the best deal for me?"

Here are basic facts:

- 1 Your used car has seemingly different values because competitive dealers are bidding to sell you a new car.
- 2 Your used car has only one fundamental basis of value: what the dealer who accepts it in trade can get for it in the used car market.
- 3 The largest trade-in allowance which is offered on your used car is not necessarily the best deal for you. Sometimes it is; but sometimes it is not.
- 4 An excessive allowance may mean that you are paying an excessive price for the new car in comparison with its real value.
- 5 Judge the merits of the new car in comparison with its price, including all delivery and finance charges. Then weigh any difference in allowance offered on your used car.

WHEN YOU are ready to trade-in your present car, remember that after all you are making a purchase and not a sale. You are buying a new car and simply applying your present car as a credit toward the purchase price of a new car.

They don't come any better

I DIDN'T know it, but Prince Albert was just the tobacco I had been looking for all the time. I hate to think of the time we lost getting together. But let that go. We're all set now—me and the pipe and P.A. We've been pals from the very first puff.

I had a hunch I was going to like P.A. the minute I got that breath of Nature's noblest gift to pipe-smokers. What a treat! It made me think of a hike through the woods, when the trees and the vines are in full leaf. I found the taste "as advertised" by the aroma.

Cool as a customs-inspector. Sweet as the thought you have nothing to hide. Mild as a milk-shake, yet with that full-bodied flavor that satisfies your smoke-taste right down to the ground. That's Prince Albert, Fellows. They don't come any better.

No matter how set you appear to be on a smoke-program, try P.A. I give you my word, no other tobacco that ever came down the pike ever brought so much downright satisfaction out of a pipe. "That fellow knew his groceries," you'll say, or words to that effect.

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and punch removed by the Prince Albert process.

On Wednesday morning Mrs. H. L. Hodges was hostess to the members of her bridge club and a few visitors, having as her honor guest Mrs. C. B. Barrus, of Clinton, house guest of Mrs. N. O. Warren. The attractive home, on Fourth street, was profusely decorated with larkspur, sweet peas, roses and other early summer flowers, and tables were placed for bridge and rook.

As the guests arrived they were served a refreshing drink.

The high score prizes were wedding cakes decorated with sweet peas and were awarded Mrs. J. H. Blount for rook and Mrs. E. S. Williams for bridge.

The table prizes were smaller cakes surmounted with brides and grooms, and fell to Mesdames P. R. Elmore, L. W. Gaylord, B. S. Warren, C. M. Warren, S. T. White, Misses Estelle Greene, Hennie Whichard and Kathleen Cousins. Miss Cousins was also presented flat silver. Has anybody in all history great military conquerors not excepted, aroused as much enthusiasm within a given time as young "Lucky" Lindbergh? Fortunately he seems to have the character and level head to carry him through it without harm.

Representatives of the Administration show a marked disinclination to mention, much less discuss, the tariff question now that Western Republican agriculturists are asking heated questions about it and European nations are frankly confessing their bewilderment over Washington's advice that they adopt freer trade while the Administration remains devoted to the highest tariff in our history. Is the tariff too sacred to talk about or too difficult to defend?

The former Kaiser and his colossal war machine thirty years in building are called to mind by Mussolini's demand that Italy be made capable of putting five million soldiers into the field at a moment's notice. We all know what the creation of the great German war machine led to, and we can be reasonably certain of what will be the result of Mussolini's plans if—unfortunately for the world—he should be able to carry them out. The ambitious Italian's capacity for mischief is rendered the more threatening by his bold, self-assured announcement of an unlimited extension of his tenure of power.

The criticism of President Coolidge for not calling Congress to deal with the Mississippi flood, some of it more or less veiled, some of it outspoken yet respectfully phrased, reaches about the limit of impatience and resentment in the latest bulletin of "The Peoples Legislative Service" at Washington, which declares that Mr. Coolidge's refusal is due to "cold-blooded, calculating cowardice," to the fear that a special session would "rip open his administration," and to his desire to keep intact the half billion treasury surplus which he is "planning to refund to corporations and estate owners." This explains, it is asserted, why "the calls of suffering and distress have never reached the ear or the heart of President Coolidge."

Great and noble gifts as well as the distribution of ten-cent pieces are associated with the Rockefeller name. Not the least of the former is the fund for the restoration of French monuments of art, including those of the Rheims cathedral, where "the glorious company of the apostles, the noble army of the martyrs, and the procession of prelates and potentates which have stood or walked in stone for centuries, looking down alike upon the consecration of kings and the adoration of peasants" have now resumed "their wonted places with the assistance of one of a different creed, but with a respect for the faith and an admiration for the fortitude of the people who built and maintained these noblest monuments in Christendom till the sacrilege of the enemy's guns shock and scarred them."

UNEASY SLEEP

"Nerves Were All to Pieces," Says Lady Who Tells How Cardui Helped Her When She Was Run-Down.

Hopkins, S. C.—Mrs. G. W. Arrants, of this place, says:

"I was suffering from spells of weakness. These would come on me suddenly and I would have to give up and go to bed. For several months I did not sleep well at night and got no rest from sleep. I was very nervous. I could not bear the least noise. The children worried me. My nerves were all to pieces."

"I had taken Cardui several times before, so I sent at once for some and began to take it again. At the end of a short time I felt much better, so I kept right on taking Cardui. When I would feel a nervous spell coming on, I took it more frequently for a few days."

"I can certainly say Cardui helped me wonderfully, for after a time the nervousness disappeared entirely. I could sleep at night and my general health was better. My appetite picked up and I enjoyed my meals, too."

"Thousands of other women have told of the benefit they have received from the use of Cardui. Keep it on hand, to take when needed. A medicine of long-established merit; mild, harmless."

surprised and amazed comment on the news that the principal of a school in a Northern town was threatened with dismissal because he walked home with a pretty teacher. From latest reports, however, the above is mild compared with the restrictions under which teachers in certain sections of North Carolina are employed.

According to an article recently written by Thomas

Minchan in the New York Nation, it seems that in return for $85 a month for seven and a half months' of the year the teacher has to promise to "take a vital interest in all phases of Sunday school work," to "abstain from dancing and other conduct unbecoming a teacher and a lady," to "sleep at least eight hours," to devote her "time, service and money without stint for the uplift and benefit of the community," "not to go out with young men" and "not to fall in love."

Of course she was also expected to teach that this has been a free country ever since it threw off the British yoke, but in doing so she must often have wondered whether her own shackles were not harder to live under than even the traditional tyranny of George III. Such high-handed requirements barely stop short of demanding rigid asceticism and permanent celibacy on the part of teachers—which would be ridiculous if not so tragically oppressive.

GRAIN

Chicago, June 2.—(AP)—After bulging 4 5/8 cents a bushel today corn reacted under immense profit-taking. New upturns in the corn market resulted from heavy rain over parts of the corn belt and reports suggesting a decrease of 2 to 5 per cent in corn acreage with only 50 per cent of planting completed in Illinois and Indiana. Corn closed unsettled 2 3/8 to 3 1/4 net higher; wheat 2 1/8 to 2 3/8 down; oats unchanged to 5-8 up and provisions showing 7 to 15 gain.

New York, June 2.—(AP)—Pre-quent flurries of selling for both accounts swept through today's stock market, giving it an irregular appearance. Operators for the rise however, continued to bid up special stocks, lifting several score of new peak prices. Buying and selling orders, most of them for small amounts spread over a broad list. At one time during the morning, the ticker tape was 22 minutes behind the market, but most of the delay had been made up by early afternoon.

The close was irregular. Total sales approximately $2,000,000 shares.

Champion In Best of Condition For Title Bout

New York, May 31.—(AP)—If vocal effort counts for anything Pete Latzo, world's welterweight champion will be cheered right on through to victory when he meets Joe Dundee of Baltimore at the Polo Grounds, June 3. The hard coal country in Pennsylvania is proud of the fact that Latzo, who comes from a family of fighters, was one of their number not long ago. The Seranton Slovak is one of the most popular champions Pennsylvania ever had and a large delegation will be here to watch him defend the title he won from Micky Walker last year.

Down close to his fighting weight of 147 pounds, Latzo has been training faithfully at Pompton Lake, N. J. for his coming fight. Up early in the morning for a grind on the road, Pete has devoted each afternoon to strenuous sparring sessions that, his handlers say, have put him in the best physical condition of his career.

Although only 24, Latzo has been in approximately 100 ring battles since he took up the game eight years ago. Walker checked Pete's first bid for the title in 1923. Frankie Schoell and Willie Harmon turned him back in 1924, and in 1925 Morrie Echallaffer and Bermondsey Billey Wells took decisions from him. Latzo reflects with no little satisfaction, however, that he has since squared accounts with each of these boxers.

Latzo has lost two contests this year, the first at Dallas to Clyde Hull and the other at Chicago to Joe Simochi. Hull floored the champion in the seventh round of their 10-round bout but was unable to carry the advantage further. In neither of these fights was Latzo's title at stake, as he was over weight.

Women's Golf Tournament In Final Stages

Greensboro, June 2.—(AP)—In the second round of the sixth annual tournament of the woman's Carolina golf association played here this morning Mrs. W. L. Pierce Charlotte, defeated Mrs. Frank Ford of Charleston, S. C. five up and four to play. Miss Edna Hirschinger of Charlotte defeated Miss Dean Van Lindingham of Charlotte one up. Mrs. Bernard Cone of Greensboro defeated Mrs. Willard of Charlotte, 2 up and 1 to go.

Dundee Confident Of Winning Title

New York June 1.—(AP)—Stopped short last year in his campaign for the welterweight championship, Joe Dundee is back again in the fight picture confident that he will beat Pete Latzo, the champion, when they clash June 3 at the Polo Grounds.

Eddie Roberts of Tacoma put a damper on Dundee's aspirations in San Francisco last December, scoring a knockout in the first round of their scheduled 10-round engagement. Dundee came back a month later, however, to win a savage fight from his conqueror at Madison Square Garden.

Should Dundee take the title from Latzo he will have accomplished something he failed to do in the lightweight division. In 1915 he was selected by the New York State Athletic commission as one of the contenders in an elimination series to determine the commission's successor to Benny Leonard's title. In his first fight of the tourney Dundee lost a decision to Charley O'Connell of Cleveland, although an ineffectual appeal was made from the decision by the Maryland Boxing commission.

Dundee is 25 years old. He was born at Baltimore and began his professional boxing career in 1921. A draw with Lew Tendler and victories over Sid Barbarian, Luis Vicentini, Jack Zivic and Willie Harmon stand his record of more than 60 contests.

The Hispanic Italian, one of the busiest punchers in the ranks, has developed his rushing, battering style in the same hand-box gymnasium where Joe Gans, famous negro lightweight, once trained.

The fractured ankle Dundee suffered in training last January has entirely healed. In the past month he scored convincing victories over Johnny Mendelssohn and Billy Draako, a German welterweight, in his final conditioning fights before the title shot.

Durham Player Sold To Yankees

Durham, June 2.—(AP)—Dusty Cook, 18-year-old left fielder of the Durham Club, has been sold to the New York Yankees, it has been unofficially learned.

President L. S. Booker, of the local club, refused to confirm or deny the report today. It is reported that the young outfielder, who broke into the professional game this spring, enriched the local club by $12,000 or more. He will not report to the Yankees until next spring. The price paid for Cook sets a new record for a Piedmont League player, the highest previous price having been $7,500 paid by the Philadelphia Athletics last season for Dave Barbee, Greensboro outfielder.

Tilden Favored To Defeat Cochet

St. Cloud, June 2.—(AP)—William Tilden was an 11 to 5 favorite today to defeat Henri Cochet, French star, in their semi-final match tomorrow afternoon in the international hard court tennis championship tournament.

There was any amount of Cochet money available at these odds, however, owing to the Frenchman's mastery victory over Otto Froitzheim, German veteran, Tuesday.

In the other semi-final of the men's singles, Cochet's countryman, Rene Lacoste, holder of the American title, meets P. D. Spence of South Africa.

THOMAS A. EDISON ANSWERS ANOTHER QUESTIONNAIRE

It's the Same With Oysters and the Rods of Corti!

Millions of people imagine that they cannot enjoy classical music and without thought turn to the latest jazz hits for consolation.

Ques. If a million people love jazz for every thousand that love classical music, doesn't that prove there is something wrong with classical music?

Ans. No. The jazz lovers get a strong, immediate sensation. The rhythmic stimulates them but the effect soon wears off.

Ques. Why does the average popular melody have so short a period of popularity?

Ans. I believe the mechanism of the inner ear may have something to do with it. The so-called "Rods of Corti" are located there—approximately 3,000 small stiff rods, massed together like the hairs on a brush.

Ques. Are you of the opinion, then, that people should give up so-called popular music, and listen to nothing but classical compositions?

Ans. By no means. Life is a complicated experience. One needs change from day to day and from hour to hour.

Ques. How would you advise the average person to acquire an appreciation for good music?

Ans. Few of us are born with a natural taste for the better class of music. Like oysters, olives, tomatoes and tobacco, it is an acquired taste.

Gossip of Staff Correspondents at World Centers of Population

London.—(INS)—That men are becoming better-looking and women less "waxy" seems to be the popular comment on this year's Royal Academy of Art.

On the whole critics bear out the opinion that Englishmen have become better looking during the past half century.

"There is more character in faces today," says Professor H. J. Fleure, the anthropologist of the University of Wales, and more development of bone and muscle in them.

The longest authenticated drive hit by a woman in a long driving competition has been made by Miss Molly Ramsden, competing in the open meeting of the Stokes Poges Club, at Slough.

When Archie Compston won this event last year his average for three drives was a few inches short of 263 yards.

But in these instances the shot were the best of a selected number and the general average of professional driving in competitions does not exceed 230 yards, which makes Miss Ramsden's feat all the more remarkable.

"Recorder of laughs," is the latest mysterious profession in London. In any London theatre nowadays, one sees one or two men making strange entries in a notebook as the play progresses.

Their duty is to make a detailed and exact list of every laugh and the very letter of the place where it occurs, as a guide to author and producer.

Edgar Wallace had the laughs tabulated in his recent play "Double Dan."

Laugh-recording is not as simple as it seems. The man has to have a very astute and well-trained ear, as well as a fine discrimination for distinguishing between the right and wrong sort of laugh.
