LEVINE PAYS BIG SUM FOR PLANE PILOT

Signs Contract to Pay Maurice Drouhin Sum $150,000 For Year's Work.

Paris, July 9.—(AP)—Maurice Drouhin's contract with Charles A. Levine, under which he is to pilot the trans-Atlantic plane Columbia back to America, runs for one year with compensation of $150,000 the newspaper L'Aurore says today.

Expressed in French money, this amount is 3,750,000 francs, which appears to be rather a stupendous sum to the French public. L'Aurore's story has tended to stimulate, rather than quiet the controversy raging over the proposed flight and the newspapers generally criticize both Drouhin and Levine.

L'Aurore, which characterizes the pilot's decision as "regrettable" prints a communication from Henry Farman, veteran air man, who commends both men. He says he thinks Levine might have chosen a pilot from the large number of efficient men only too willing to go. Without taking the man who has been training for his own trans-Atlantic flight.

There are still, however, a certain number of voices in support of Drouhin's decision to seize the opportunity which presented itself to get ahead of the German Ploiet Koennecke, who is reported to be straining every nerve to make a westward trans-Atlantic flight.

There is some division of opinion among French fliers and airplane experts as to whether Drouhin will succeed in flying the plane to New York and the newspaper intransigent quotes Chamberlin as doubting whether on a westward flight the machine could get farther than New Foundland, because of contrary winds which are certain to be encountered.

The Columbia was resting again on French soil today after a flight across the English Channel to Croysdon, England, and back, Charles A. Levine hopes to start his flight to New York within a fortnight.

Clarence D. Chamberlin, pilot in the journey from New York to Germany, flew the Columbia to England with Drouhin at his side. Levine was a passenger. At the Croysdon airfield Chamberlin and Levine parted company, and Drouhin piloted the plane back to Lebourget.

TO RUN FOR GOVERNOR ON WET TICKET

L. N. Johnson, Former Pender Senator, To Oppose Max Gardner in N. C. Race.

Wilmington, July 9.—(AP)—Outlining a platform avowedly wet, L. N. Johnson, former State Senator from Pender County, today announced that he will run for the Democrat nomination for Governor in the next campaign.

Mr. Johnson is the first candidate to definitely announce that he will run against O. Max Gardner who has been known as a candidate for some time.

A farmer and superintendent of the Hugh McRae farm developments in Pender County Mr. Johnson issued his announcement from Burgaw.

"I will be a candidate for Governor in the forthcoming gubernatorial conflict," said the statement.

"My platform is certainly wet. I provides that the national government buy all the surplus grains and fruits at a fair price to the producers; that good liquors and excellent wines be made by the said government from the said grains and fruits and that said liquors and wines be distributed by parcel post to bonafide householders at actual cost of production plus transportation charges.

"The outstanding beneficial direct results to follow the application of this platform are:

"1.—Farm relief will become a fact.

"2.—The bootleggers will be eliminated and as a natural consequence the bootleggers will become entirely extinct.

"A multitude of other results which will operate to the public advantage can not be detailed in the short space of this announcement."

Henry Ford has ordered his publication, The Dearborn Independent, to discontinue, permanently, all articles hostile to Jewish people, or critical of them. Some of these articles, reprinted in pamphlet form under the title of The International Jew, distributed in this and other countries, will be withdrawn from circulation, and henceforth "THE DEARBORN INDEPENDENT (MR. FORD'S OWN WORDS ARE NOW QUOTED) WILL BE CONDUCTED UNDER SUCH AUSPICES THAT ARTICLES REFLECTING UPON THE JEWS WILL NEVER AGAIN APPEAR IN ITS COLUMNS."

This article, published at Mr. Ford's request, notes a statement of which one copy signed by Mr. Ford is now in possession of Max Louis Marshall, the distinguished New York lawyer; another in possession of this writer.

It is important news to millions that Mr. Ford has forbidden the insertion hereafter in any publication controlled by him of any accusation, criticism or insinuation reflecting upon the Jewish people as a race or as individuals.

This writer and many others can testify that Mr. Ford has not been conscious of the harm done and injury caused to the feelings of many of the most useful, praiseworthy citizens in this country by articles that have been published, backed apparently by the great influence of Henry Ford's name. Without that name they would have amounted to nothing.

Mr. Ford has done more than merely order those in charge of his publications to discontinue articles painful and unjust to millions of good citizens. He deeply regrets these articles, prepared, of course by others for the Dearborn Independent, and has completely retracted, individually and collectively, statements for which those hurt and injured by them have thought him responsible. He says in his signed statement:

"To my great regret I have learned that Jews generally, and particularly those of this country, not only resent these publications as promoting anti-Semitism, but regard me as their enemy. Trusted friends with whom I have conferred recently have assured me in all sincerity that in their opinion the character of the charges and insinuations made against the Jews, both individually and collectively, contained in many of the articles which have been circulated periodically in the Dearborn Independent and have been reprinted in the pamphlets mentioned, justifies the righteous indignation entertained by Jews everywhere toward me because of the mental anguish occasioned by the unprovoked reflections made upon them.

"This has led me to direct my personal attention to this subject (Continued on page six)

School Teacher Found Guilty In Flogging Case

Toccoa, Ga., July 9.—(AP)—W. G. Acree, principal of the Stephens County High School was found guilty by a Stephens County jury today of assault and battery in connection with the flogging on June 12 of Mrs. Ansley Bowers.

Five men were indicted for the flogging, four of whom remain to be tried.

The jury had been out since late yesterday.

The schoolmaster was tried on a charge of assault with intent to murder.

Sentence was not passed. Judge I. H. Sutton said that "because there are other cases pending against this defendant I think it proper that the record should not be closed today."

Mrs. Bowers and her son Lloyd were taken from their home here by a masked and robed band of men who carried them into the country and flogged them. They told her they were whipping her because of "immorality and because you do not go to church."

Both the mother and son testified at the trial that they had recognized Acree among their assailants. Acree, however, claimed an alibi, saying he was at the farm of a neighbor doctoring a sick cow when the flogging took place. Five men testified in support of his alibi. Acree apparently was unmoved by the verdict.

Conviction on a charge of assault and battery carries a maximum penalty of fine of $1,000, six months in jail or one year on the chain-gang, or any two or all three of these.

FIRST PHOTOS OF BYRD'S NEAR TRAGIC ARRIVAL IN FRANCE

Photos rushed from France show how Commander R. E. Byrd's trans-Atlantic flight ended on the beach at Ver-Sur-Mer. The plane is shown as it was abandoned by the four fliers and as it appeared when pulled ashore a short time later.

BOARD MEETS AGAIN TODAY

Goes Over Complaints Registered by 21 Counties in Session Yesterday.

Raleigh, July 9.—(AP)—The State Board of Equalization met today to go over the complaints registered by 21 counties yesterday of the 90 receiving funds for school purposes this year out of the $3,126,000 equalization fund authorized by the 1927 legislature.

At conclusion of the hearing, the board decided to reserve any possible readjustment or revision of schedules of property valuations on which the fund distribution is based until its meeting at Morehead City July 21.

Contrasted to the series of verbal complaints of alleged too high property valuations in Bertie, Camden, Chatham, Caswell, Carteret, Craven, Dare, Granville, Greene, Halifax, Hertford, Johnson, Mitchell, McDowell, Moore, Orange, Pitt, Rockingham, Stanly, Vance and Wayne County, was the statement of Senator Rivers Johnson of Duplin to the effect that his county was well satisfied, that the State Board had had a hard trying task. Lieut. Governor Long, chairman of the Board, presiding, said only the dissatisfied counties were desired to be heard from and that was the last of the bouquets.

Many were the detailed pleas for lower property valuation in individual counties and hence for an accompanying greater equalization fund but finally the pleas took a turn for slices of the $100,000 emergency fund provided by the law in excess to the $3,126,000 equalization fund.

The board, A. McK. Graham of Sampson and B. B. Williams, Warren, dissenting, adopted a brief resolution of protest against a Moore county board of education resolution which had condemned the allocations made by the State board "as inequitable, unfair and unjust."

F. P. Spruill of Rocky Mount offered the board's resolution of resentment, defending the equalization work of L. M. Scotland, whose district includes Moore.

86, 654,900 Pounds Fish Caught In State In 1926

Raleigh, July 9.—(AP)—There were 86,654,900 pounds of fish caught in North Carolina in 1926, according to figures at the state department of conservation.

The fisheries of the state furnished employment for 9,308 persons of whom 6,246 were directly employed in fisheries operations and transportation of fish to landing points, 669 in the wholesale fishery trade and 2,393 in the canning, by-products and other fishery industries.

The investment in the fishing equipment and fishery industries amounted to $34,198,894, of which $1,244,653 were invested in fishing and transportation vessels and boats $523,286 in fishing gear, and $2,430,955 invested and cash capital used in the fishing trade and industries.

Settlement of Libel Suits Against Ford Seen Today

New York, July 9.—(AP)—Settlement of two libel suits for damages aggregating $1,200,000 against Henry Ford was seen as a possibility today following the motor manufacturer's promise to discontinue attacks on Jews in the Dearborn Independent.

Aaron Sapiro, Chicago attorney and plaintiff in a $1,000,000 suit against Ford, said negotiations for settlement of the suit were under way, while Louis Marshall, counsel for Herman Bernstein, New York author and editor and plaintiff in another suit said representatives of Ford had asked him "what could be done to put an end to these conditions."

The New York Herald Tribune, however, said it had learned on good authority that neither Mr. Bernstein nor Samuel Utermeyer, associated with Mr. Marshall as counsel in the suit was ready to draw the action. Mr. Bernstein at Sheffield, Mass., said "Henry Ford's statement speaks for itself. I have no comment to make at this time."

Amid the general acclaim by prominent Jews and others that greeted Ford's retraction there was some dissent, centering mainly on speculation by newspapers connected with the statement with possible presidential aspirations by Ford or business contingencies.

The Herald Tribune says Earl Davis of Detroit, formerly a socialist U. S. attorney-general, was in Washington several weeks ago seeking the advice of politicians, including a New York Jew who is a representative in congress, as to means of saving Mr. Ford from going on the witness stand in the Sapiro case.

The case had been declared a mistrial and Mr. Davis is said to have told the New York representative that Ford was perturbed over the prospect of the retrial next September, and that the manufacturer and his family were anxious to end the controversies which the articles had engendered.

The Herald Tribune says Mr. Davis was advised to consult some prominent member of New York Jewry.

On account of the negotiations that preceded the issuance of the Ford statement was given in a statement issued at Saranac Lake by Mr. Marshall through the Jewish Telegraph Agency.

Mr. Marshall said he had told

SEVEN DIE IN FIRE AT VANCOUVER, B. C.

Vancouver, B. C., July 9.—(AP)—Seven persons three of them children, are dead as the result of a fire which gutted the upper stories of the large Royal Alexandra apartment hotel here yesterday. A dozen were injured.

Davis Henderson, a painter, who was declared by police to have started the fire when he dropped lighted cigarettes into a can of highly inflammable paint remover in one of the apartments, is in jail on charge of manslaughter.

Most of the occupants of the hotel were visitors and all lost their clothing and personal effects. Many were being cared for in Vancouver Hotels today at the expense of the city.

Starting on the fourth floor of the seven story structure, the blaze rapidly spread trapping men, women and children, who struggled frantically through the smoke filled corridors to fire escapes and roof. Within a few minutes exit by the stairway was cut off.

The other speakers spoke in an interesting way, and expressed their appreciation of the enjoyable evening made possible by the host.

NOTED ACTOR PASSES AWAY

John Drew Dies in San Francisco Following Illness With Rheumatic Fever.

San Francisco, July 9.—(AP)—John Drew, noted American actor died here today after being confined to a hospital since May 31 with arthritis and rheumatic fever. He was 73 years old.

Mr. Drew arrived in San Francisco the latter part of May to play an engagement in "Trelawney of the Wells." Because of his physical condition, however, he was forced to cancel his appearance and was taken to a hospital.

His condition grew so serious that on June 4, John Barrymore, Drew's nephew, was called from Hollywood and he, with Drew's daughter, Mrs. Louis Devereaux, came to the noted actor's bedside.

Drew rallied several times but he invariably suffered relapses, each leaving the actor weaker.

On June 9, following a relapse the physician issued their first bulletin admitting that Drew's condition was "grave."

Through all this suffering Drew was cheerful, his mind keen and he showed great interest in the flood of telegrams from friends in all parts of the world. The vitality of the actor, and his unwillingness to admit that he was playing his last part on the stage of life was declared by those who attended him to be the only reason he survived so long.

A steady stream of friends passed through the hospital doors but none but the actor's daughter, her husband and nephew was allowed into the darkened sick room.

Man Given Up To Die Still Lives

Hammond, Ind., July 9.—(AP)—Paul Kosty was still cheating death in a hospital here today, the 14th, day since his head was pierced by a 26 foot red hot steel rod.

Kosty, 37, forman in the LaSalle Steel Company here, was brought into the hospital to die two weeks ago after he was struck by the steel rod while at work on his straightening bench in the steel plant.

The rod struck him in the neck on the left side, passed through his mouth and protruded 22 feet on the outside of his head.

Still conscious he shouted for help and with the assistance of fellow employees, pulled the remaining portion of the rod through his head. Kosty, who has been conscious ever since the accident, ate his first full meal yesterday. Propped up on his cot, the injured man consumed a bowl of tomato soup, a dish of mashed potatoes, string beans, apple pie, custard pudding and two glasses of milk.

A jagged hole in Kosty's neck more than an inch in diameter is rapidly healing. Surgeons removed two square inches of bone from his skull. X-ray examinations showed four definite skull fractures. A wife and three children are constantly by his bedside while he talks, eats, laughs and tries to allay their fears.

HUNDRED AND TEN PERSONS DROWNED IN SAXONY FLOOD

Dresden, Saxony, July 9.—(AP)—One hundred and ten persons are known to have been drowned in torrential floods of the Mueglitz and Gottleuba rivers, after a series of cloudbursts.

Telephone connections are broken, and it was impossible to ascertain the number of missing today.

Cloudbursts are reported in other sections of Germany.

The catastrophe overtook the population so suddenly that protective measures could not be taken.

Police officers, detachments of the Reichswehr and Technical emergency aid was hurried into the stricken area today.

It is expected that the flood will result in the greatest loss of life and the largest wreckage of property since the flood of 1897.

BYRD AND HIS PARTY LEAVE PARIS TODAY

Aviators Attach ed to Departure, But Large Crowd is Present.

Paris, July 9.—(AP)—Commander Byrd and the members of the crew of his trans-Atlantic monoplane America said farewell to Paris today leaving on the "Golden Arrow" express train for Calcutta just after noon. There were no formalities but a big crowd was on hand at the station to cheer the aviators.

The commander and his party arrived unostentatiously from their hotel and went directly to their seats in the train. Sheldon Whitehouse, the American charge d'affaires, was at the station to say farewell in the name of the embassy.

From Calcutta the aviators will motor to Dunkirk, where they will be made free citizens of the city and then to Le Touquet, where a banquet will be given in their honor.

They plan to arrive at Cherbourg Tuesday aboard the Leviathan that afternoon, it is learned they will occupy that suite on the liner used by Queen Marie of Rumania on her American trip last year.

Dunkirk, France, July 9.—(AP)—This port, where the American naval aviators had their flying station during the World War, today paid its most handsome respects to the peace-time aerial heroes, Commander Byrd and his companions.

Arriving from Paris with the men who accompanied him across the Atlantic in the monoplane America, Commander Byrd was made an honorary citizen of the city which was the point of departure and return for many of his friends and naval colleagues in the war.

For Lieut. Noville, Dunkirk was a familiar sight, he was stationed here a short time during the hostilities, before being sent to Italy.

Although a heavy rain was falling, the population of the city turned out in force to welcome the trans-Atlantic fliers.

Commander Byrd's three companions were given special medals by the city, and H. Adams Gibbons, representative of Rodman Wamsnaker, sponsor of the flight, was presented with a work of art.

The ceremonies were held in the City Hall, in what the French call "solemn session." Besides the fliers party which numbered more than a dozen, including attaches of the American embassy, fifty members of the American Chamber of Commerce in Paris, were present.

Brummitt May Be Elected As Dem. Chairman

Raleigh, July 9.—(AP)—Election of Attorney General D. G. Brummitt as chairman of the state democratic executive committee to succeed John G. Dawson, resigned, probably will be made at the called meeting of the committee here Tuesday night, July 19 in the House of Representatives chamber.

Chairman Dawson has sent out a call for the meeting.

REYNOLDS PURCHASES CO-OP TOBACCO SUPPLY

New York, July 9.—(AP)—R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company has bought 67,500,000 pounds of re-dried tobacco from the Burley Tobacco Growers Co-operative Association, consisting of 64,448 hogheads. This disposes of all the association re-dried tobacco except 6,000 hogheads of miscellaneous grades.

COLLAPSE OF NAVAL CONFAB NOW IMMINENT

Tension Steadily Increasing, as Delegates Fail to Settle Tonnage Issue.

Geneva, July 9.—(AP)—"No progress has been made," Admiral Viscount Saito of Japan told The Associated Press as he emerged at noon today from a meeting of the executive committee of the tripartite naval conference. The Japanese delegate appeared extremely downcast.

Geneva, July 9.—(AP)—Collapse of the naval reduction conference loomed today as a possibility for next week unless Great Britain consents to make a substantial reduction in the total tonnage of cruisers on which she now is insisting—something like 600,000 tons.

The tension has been steadily increasing, although the most optimistic have held to the belief that a solution of the cruiser problem would be found. When the Americans recently announced a disposition to go as high as 400,000 tons—100,000 more than their original proposals, W. C. Bridgeman, first lord of the British considered this an ultimatum.

At yesterday's meeting of the executive committee, Mr. Bridgeman who presided, insisted on the convocation of a plenary session Monday to have an opportunity of publicly presenting British position with regard to cruisers and of asking a few questions about the American position. He is reported to have referred to "lies" in the newspapers concerning the British attitude but quickly changed the word to "misrepresentations."

Mr. Bridgeman's broadside against the stand of the United States on this method of reducing the total tonnage of cruisers and his belief that United States was out after construction of an "aggressive" type of cruiser, failed to provoke a storm from the American delegation's headquarters. From Hugh S. Gibson, down, the American delegates refused to be drawn into comment on the barrage.

County Budget To Be Received Monday Morning

The Board of County Commissioners met in special session here yesterday to consider the budget system authorized for the various counties at the last session of legislature, and also to receive a settlement from Sheriff S. A. Whitehurst.

Acceptance of the budget was deferred until Monday morning. Final settlement with the sheriff will also be made at this time. One of the outstanding features in connection with Monday's session will be the hearing of complaints for equalization of taxes. The Board meets once a year for this purpose.

CUBS ARE NOW OVER A GAME IN THE LEAD

Chicago had a lead of one and a half games at the top of the National League today. A pitching battle reminiscent of baseball's earlier days marked the fight of the Cubs against the Pirates yesterday. Charlie Root, ace of the Cubs staff held the Pirates to one hit and beat them 1-0. It was the ninth straight victory for Chicago and Root's fifteenth of the season. Root had pitched hitless ball up to the eighth when with two out Goch singled into left field. Joe McCarthy's team collected eight hits off Lee Meadows but the bespectacled Pirate hurler clamped down four times with runners on third.

Larry Benton, Boston's contribution to the Giants' pitching staff completed his first full game for New York when he beat Brooklyn 6-2. Benton was touched for nine hits but he scattered them while the Giants were stopping Bill Daak's string of five straight wins.

Kent Greenfield, who went to Boston from the Giants in the Benton trade, pitched the Braves to a 3-2 victory over the world's champion St. Louis Cardinals. Jesse Haines failed to come through in the pinches. Baneroff, High and Gibson hitting when hits meant runs.

The Cincinnati Reds won their second straight from Philadelphia but they had to go 11 innings to get an 8-5 verdict. Hughey Critz's single with the bases loaded and two out turned the trick.

The Yankees opened their western invasion by breaking even in a doubleheader at Detroit, losing the first 8-11 and taking the other 10-8. Babe Ruth hit his 27th homer of the season and is only one behind his teammate, Lou Gehrig. Tony Lazzeri whacked out his 13th homer of the year with Gehrig on in the seventh inning of the first game. Ruth's circuit smash came in the ninth with two on.

The Boston Red Sox knocked Ray Schalk's Chicagoans out of third place by beating them 11-5. "Lefty" Grove allowed the Browns eight hits and beat them.

HOPE FOR BEAL

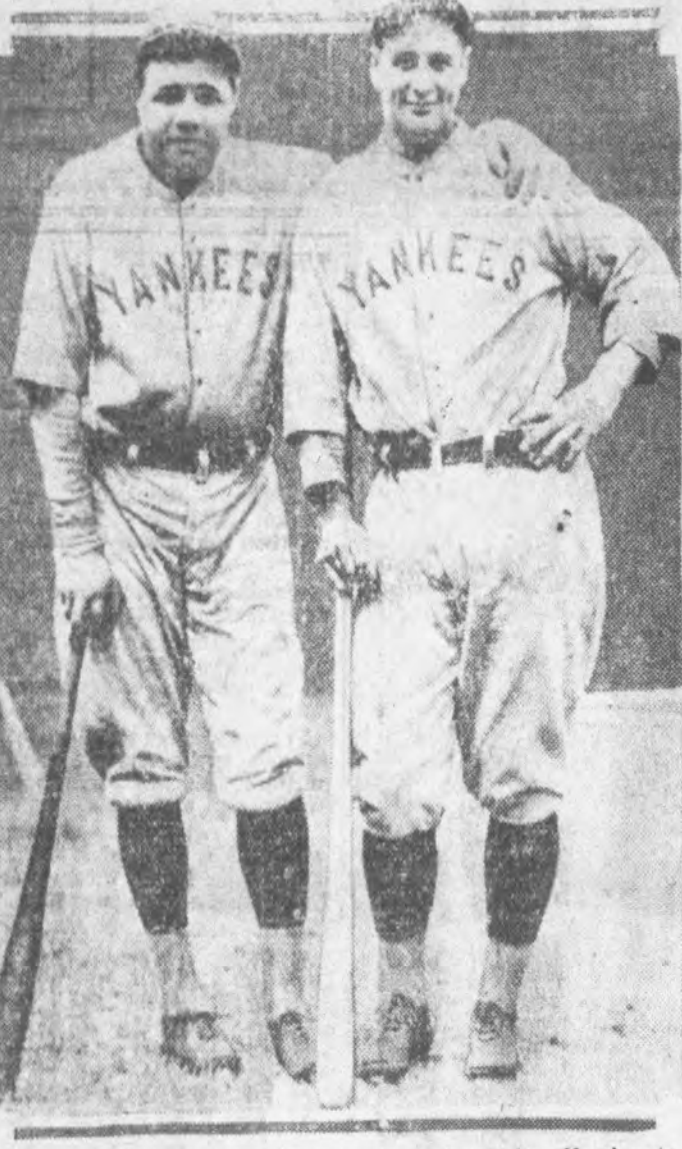

The following comment from a St. Paul, Minn., paper will be of interest to baseball fans here who are interested in the career of Greenville's former "Iron Man." Walter Beal has all the stuff of a great pitcher, but he needs somebody to do his serious thinking for him. There is no telling when he will burst into a devastating winning streak under proper handling and, considering the high intelligence of Alex Gaston, there is reason to hope he will do his bursting this season.

Beal has as bewildering a curve ball as any pitcher in baseball, but he has never used it in exactly the proper way. He has tried to get each batter "in the hole," as they say, by giving him his best curve on the first two or three pitches and has usually found himself in the hole instead, on account of his tendency to wildness.

A thinking catcher would invite Beal to use a little less stuff on his first pitches, hoping to get a strike or two across the plate and to get the batter in the hole before delivering the finishing punch with the cracking curve. If it went wild once or twice, then it wouldn't make so much difference and, if the batter happened to hit the easier pitches, the curve would still be at hand for use against the next one.

Beal's mistake has been a disinclination to keep his best stuff in reserve. He has wanted to strike out every batter on three pitched balls and consequently he has walked enough batters to keep him in trouble or has been forced to "come in with a cripple" in a last effort to avoid another base on balls.

HOME RUN RIVALS—FRIENDS

Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig, here shown in affectionate embrace, are still boon friends, despite their great battle for home run supremacy. "If I beat my record, it'll be because Lou bats after me," the Bambino allows. "A pitcher is crazy to pass me to get at Lou."

Bobby Jones Now Ready For Title Matches

St. Andrews, Scotland, July 9.—(AP)—Bobby Jones has played his last practice shot at St. Andrews before next week's championship tournament here in which he will defend his British open golf title. Last night a heavy rain fell and this morning the fairways and immense undulating putting greens were dotted with pools of water, so the Atlanta star decided to give his clubs a day of rest.

PIRATE CREW DOMINATE THE HITTING FIELD

Chicago, July 9.—(AP)—For four straight weeks now the Three Musketeers of the Pirate crew have dominated the hitters of the National League—the aged Joe Harris, the young Paul Waner and the newcomer, Clyde Barnhart, and this trio is still at the top today.

The batting figures of today, including Wednesday's games, show that these three alone of the top notch hitters of the National League have held their own against hot weather pitching.

While Hornsby and Hack Wilson of the Cubs, were marking time in their home run contest, Cy Williams of the Phillies, caught up with them and all three are tied at 15. Frisch aided to add to his stolen base string which totals 22, for the first week this season.

Their two bespectacled Pirate wirlers, Lee Meadows and Carmen Hill, top all the National League hitters, Meadows with a mark of 1 and 12, and Hill with a mark of 2 and 4.

Leading hitters of the National League: Harris, Pittsburgh, .395; Barnhart, Pittsburgh, .392; P. Waner, Pittsburgh, .388; Frisch, St. Louis, .368; Hornsby, New York, .363; Farrell, Boston, .361; Mueller, New York, .354; Harper, New York, .348; F. Scott, Chicago, .346; Traynor, Pittsburgh, .343.

The new home-run king, Lou Gehrig, has just finished his biggest week with the war club and lacks only one point today of being the major league's only 4000 batter. In the eight games over the holiday period Lou slammed 15 hits, including the four homers which made him two up on Babe Ruth.

The White Sox pitching team of Lyons and Thomas, which ruled the circuit for a time has been broken up. Thomas has been jinxed by inability to chalk up his 13th victory while Ted Lyons has gone on to his 14th and the league leadership.

George Sisler leads in base stealing with 14. Ty Cobb and Tavenner the Tigers, have eleven each.

Leading hitters of the American League: Gehrig, New York, .399; Simmons, Philadelphia, .387; Meusel, New York, .366; Fennett, St. Louis, .364; F. Miller, St. Louis, .362; Cobb, Philadelphia, .358; Williams, St. Louis, .353.

Dempsey Looks Like Champion One Day And Beginner Next

Saratoga Lake, N. Y., July 9.—(AP)—Jack Dempsey looks like a world champion in training one day and a preliminary boy the next. Yet that fluctuation is the reason for the supreme confidence in Jack's camp that the former titleholder will sweep through Jack Sharkey on the night of July 21 and Gene Tunney in September to regain the heavyweight crown.

Dempsey's physical condition has reached such a concert pitch that he must stop work one day in every three that remain before the battle with Sharkey. Dempsey will rest tomorrow and again next Tuesday, when he is scheduled to start the twenty-four mile swimming marathon on Lake George.

There is little question among the watchful critics that Dempsey today is in splendid physical condition and apparently ready. The job before Dempsey's handlers is to keep him there.

As a result Jack works in sparkling fashion for a day to lose it in order to safeguard against growing stale.

"Big Ben," Inspired By Tunney Goes After Heavyweight Title

Tampa, Fla.—(AP)—Gene Tunney, who has a liking for things literary, as well as pugilistic, appears to have inspired a young collegian to become the world's heavyweight champion. The would-be champion has a scholastic standing which won him membership in two honorary societies.

Benjamin Pound is his name. He grew up in the same Greenwich Village which now boasts of Tunney. Two years ago, when Gene was in Florida, Pound a student at Rollins College met him and then and there decided to follow a ring career.

"Big Ben" as Pound is best known, came to Florida the year before. As a football star and leader of the college boxing team he did not want to lose his amateur standing. He permitted Tampa promoters to match him with eight

Jack Sharkey In Fine Work Out To Meet Dempsey

New York, July 9.—(AP)—Jack Sharkey is off on his final training campaign for his fight with Jack Dempsey and already in fine physical condition, he intends to work up carefully to the peak.

Rocky Stone, Boston, was the only sparring partner on hand when the ex-gob swung into action yesterday. Sharkey said his wind was good and jogged five miles through Central Park just to prove it before he went to a gymnasium for a session with the punching bags and a few rounds of shadow boxing.

Radiating confidence Sharkey said he would have to take off only three pounds between now and the day of the fight when he intends to weigh 192 he will crowd more action into his workouts hereafter. Sharkey has been in fighting condition since last summer when he began the assault that led him toward the championship chance.

Wilson Loses To Richmond

Raleigh, July 9.—(AP)—Wilson Bugs suffered with some more of their "bug" luck and Richmond Colts, several years champions of the Virginia circuit, staged a ninth inning rally to win at home, 3-2 as Diel after doubling, scored on Hicks' bunt and Clark's blow. That tied matters, so Wafer hit to center to register Malone.

Tennis Stars On Strenuous Grind

Kansas City.—(AP)—Berkeley Bell, of Austin, Texas, 18 year old tennis star who was ranked sixteenth best player in the country last year and Warren F. Coen, Jr., of Kansas City, national big singles champion, have started a strenuous round of tournament play.

Bell is scheduled to display his chop stroke in 14 tournaments within the next two months, and Coen to work his drive in 10. Both will strive for further honors at the National Clay Court Championship in Detroit, July 18.

Bell has entered most of the doubles events with Jimmy Quick of Dallas, Texas, with whom he captured the national junior doubles title on the clay courts last season.

Coen is entered in the Missouri Valley championship at Omaha, July 11, and the Illinois State tournament in Chicago, July 25. He expects to play with Big Bill Tilden in the doubles at the Chicago meet. He was entered in the Central States tournament at St. Louis July 4.

Both Coen and Bell are in good form. Bell failed to capture a championship at the state tournament in Texas early in the season, but practice brought him back in condition. Coen practices every day at the Rockhill tennis Club here.

Danville, Va., July 9.—A wedding of much interest throughout Virginia and North Carolina was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Waverly H. Cousins, Avondale Drive, Danville, Virginia, today at high noon, when their sister, Miss Kathleen Guerrant Cousins, daughter of the late Waverly P. Cousins and Mrs. May Herndon Cousins, became the bride of Kenneth Ives Deans, son of Mrs. Mary E. Deans, of Portsmouth, Virginia.

The ring ceremony was performed by Dr. John B. Winn, pastor of Mount Vernon Methodist Episcopal church in the living room, which was festooned with smiles and lilies and before an improvised altar banked with palms and lilies and softly lighted by cathedral candles. Pink rosebuds and pink candles were used in decorating the other parts of the house.

Just prior to the ceremony, Mrs. Waverly H. Cousins sang, "Sweetest Story Ever Told," and Miss Bessie Brown, of Greenville, N. C., sang "All For You." The wedding music was played by Mrs. W. W. Ayres.

The bride entered with her brother, Waverly H. Cousins, by whom she was given in marriage. She wore a gown of sand georgette trimmed in blue, with hat and shoes to match and carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Burney S. Warren, of Greenville, N. C., attended her sister as matron of honor. She wore a peach georgette, trimmed with lace, a large pink picture hat and carried an arm bouquet of Columbia.

Miss Mary Cousins, another sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a pink satin with orchid ornaments, a large orchid picture hat and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The ring bearer was Master Burney S. Warren, Jr., a nephew of the bride. He wore a white suit and carried the ring in the heart of a lily.

Mr. Deans was attended by his brother, Robert Deans, of Portsmouth, as best man. The groomsmen were Randolph Anderson, of Norfolk and Burney S. Warren, of Greenville, N. C.

A two-course luncheon was served immediately after the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Deans left for a wedding trip to New York and Quebec.

The bride, a charming and popular young woman, has spent most of her life here, but for the past three years has been teaching in Greenville, N. C. She was educated at State Teachers' College, Farmville, Va., University of California, and Columbia University.

The bridegroom is the youngest son of Mrs. Mary E. Deans, of Portsmouth, Va., and is associated with the Charles A. Syer Co., of Norfolk, Va.

Among the out-of-town guests present at the marriage were: Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Deans, Miss Margaret Murrie, Mr. and Mrs. O. Murrie, Robert Deans, Portsmouth; Miss Agnes Walker, Randolph Anderson, Norfolk; Miss Bessie Brown, Miss Eva Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Burney S. Warren, James Warren, Burney S. Warren, Jr., Mrs. John R. Glenn, Miss Mary Cousins, of Greenville, N. C.; and Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Tuggle, Roanoke.

On Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Waverly H. Cousins entertained the wedding party and out-of-town guests at a dinner at the Country Club.

There are ticklish times in Indiana now that Stephen son, former Grand Dragon of the Ku Klux Klan, is known to be "talking" within the walls of the penitentiary. Politicians associated with him are reported as holding their breath in their suspense.

One wonders how the royal child of the Duke of York will be able to grapple with the "three tons of toys" which its doting parents are reported to have brought back from their tour of the British dominions.

One aviator is quoted as saying that this hero stuff is all bunk for "we are all scared stiff" when flying. Has he never heard of the theory that the bravest man is he who goes straight ahead in spite of his fear?

Margot Asquith, whose own forte is not beauty, complains that "women with neither backs nor tops to their heads, and faces as large as hams, appear at the King's drawingrooms with the nuke of their necks blue from shaving." Fortunately custom requires them to walk backward out of the presence of the King after making their bows.

Canarsie, N. Y., which is said to boast a greater mosquito density per cubic foot than any settlement east of the Hudson, is reported to have risen in rebellion against being rechristened "Lindport." Canarsie ought to be allowed to consult its own taste in names even if annually compelled to gratify the taste of the little fliers mentioned.

The announcement that Lindbergh wrote a book of 60,000 words in his own hand between his flight from New York and his triumphant return there has since been modified by the publishers of "We" as follows: "When we signed up for the book he turned over to us a large mass of manuscript, extensive notes in his own handwriting and a lot of notes which he dictated. We have done our best to unscramble all this for him and have copied it in smooth form." There is outside report that one of the "unscramblers" was Carlisle Macdonald of the New York Times.

Receptions of air heroes on the scale of the one given Lindbergh in New York are rather expensive even in unforseen ways. It seems that "it took seven men seven days to clean up the debris" in Central Park alone, the wreckage including "2000 plants, 75 shrubs and innumerable flowers" besides "308 trees which had been used as unofficial reviewing stands by enthusiastic citizens." At this rate a few more heroes with Lindy's drawing power would convert Central Park into a barren waste.

According to correspondence from Omaha, although the West is "flattered by the presence of the nation's chief," and the "strategy of personality is working well," the East would be wise "not to be too certain that McNary Haugenism is forgotten," for it remains to be seen "whether Western farmers will be willing to try a wiser economic scheme than the McNary Haugen bill or will insist on something even more unpalatable to the East and more destructive of Republican hopes."

NO QUESTION OF INTEGRITY

In contrast with the fine spirit evidenced in the willingness of the State Board of Equalization to review its distribution of the State Equalizing fund, it is unfortunate that some of the members of the body should have taken personally criticisms directed at the result of their work.

No public servant should claim for himself immunity from honest difference of opinion, or from the expression of that opinion, and surely these men charged with the responsibility of distributing more than three million dollars among the counties of the State for the use of the public schools are public servants.

Nobody has attacked the character of the members of the board or of any member of the board, so far as it can be learned. The methods adopted for the distribution of the fund in question led the body into some manifest discriminations which the majority of the board now appears to be in a mood to correct.

The good faith and the integrity of the members of the board are not in question.—News & Observer.

Turnage Talks About Value Of Pitt Co. Crops

A recent survey of the counties of Eastern North Carolina that are affiliated with the Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce with headquarters at Kinston, showed that Pitt County leads in the production of tobacco, with 29,674,197 pounds in 1925, the latest authentic Government report out. The average price of tobacco, according to Government figures for that year was 23 cents per pound, thus totalling for Pitt county $6,825,065.31 from her golden weed. "Not many people know that Pitt produces this much tobacco," President Raymond Turnage, of the Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce said. This is an average of 721 pounds per acre on 41,157 acres planted to tobacco. Figures this low down further, it represents 600 pounds of tobacco for every man, woman and child in Pitt county, or fifty pounds per month for the twelve months period.

The same year Pitt county also produced 28,654 bales of cotton which sold for the neat sum of $2,572,376.80 according to Government figures. This cotton figured in pounds, lint, is 13,696,720 pounds, or a little less than half the tonnage of tobacco. Pitt county is one of the leading cotton counties in the section.

Her third crop in value for 1925 was corn; having to her credit, 861,516 bushels at $1.10 per bushel government figures, making total value of $947,667.60. These three major crops brought into Pitt county in 1925, $10,345,109.71. "We can hardly conceive of this great mass of wealth being produced in one year in one county of Eastern North Carolina," President Turnage continued. Taking the above figures as an average for a period of 35 years which is considered one generation Pitt county produced in wealth from these three crops, alone more than one third of a billion dollars. A sum not to be despised according to financiers of Eastern North Carolina.

Robbers Have Hard Night At Salisbury N. C.

Salisbury, July 9--(AP)--Robbers last night forced an entrance into the wholesale fruit and provision house of the Saleeby Distributing Company, opposite the passenger station here, beat partly open the door of the safe with a sledge hammer and also used a crowbar. They failed to reach a safety deposit box in which there was between $500 and $800, being unable to get the door open sufficiently to get to this. Entrance was gained by way of a small window in the basement, the iron bars of which were also forced loose. Tracks indicated there was three people in the party, one believed to be a woman.

The grocery store of Ruffy and Lenabe on North Main Street, in the residential section was also entered last night, the lock on the front door being broken. The cash register was ransacked but so far as known the robbers failed to get anything.

NEW PREVOST COMEDY SCORES BIG SUCCESS

"Getting Gertie's Garter" Filled With Lausng Situations. Getting a lady's garter sounds rather risque, but it isn't always that, at least not in "Getting Gertie's Garter" which comes to White's Theatre Monday and Tuesday, with Marie Prevost in the stellar role.

But for laughs--frank, honest laughter--it would be hard to find a more effective medium than this rattling farce--come, of woman's wiles and man's gulle. It starts with a giggle and ends with a guffaw, and mischievous Marie and her mischief-making garter run rampant throughout the picture. The direction of E. Mason Hopper was excellent.

It is all about a young chap (Charles Ray) who buys what he believes to be a bracelet for his fiancée (Marie Prevost), but which proves to be a garter. On the dainty piece of milady's accoutrement is a photograph of the young man, and also a photograph of his intended. Then comes the break between the engaged couple, and the garter is metamorphosed into a Nemesis. For the girls becomes engaged to another man, who is extremely jealous, and her ex-fiance also becomes affianced to a girl of inquiring disposition. This complicates matters, and things get "thick" when Gertie tries to return the garter to her ex-sweetie. Jealous fiance and ex-fiance's "nosey" new "sweetie" always turn up at the psychological moment when Gertie is trying to return the filthy garter, and the result is, to say the least, a suspicious and embarrassing series of events.

Marie Prevost has the time of her life in this great farce. The role fits her life the proverbial ell-skin. In fact it is another "Up in Mabel's Room," in which she scored so heavily recently. Charles Ray as the fiance and ex-fiance proves as plendid foil to Miss Prevost. The supporting company is quite satisfactory.

TODAY

(Continued from page one) In order to ascertain the exact nature of these articles. As a result of this survey I confess that I am deeply mortified that this journal which is intended to be constructive and not destructive, has been made the medium for resurrecting exploded fiction, for giving currency to the so-called protocols of the wise men of Zion, which have been demonstrated, as I learn, to be gross forgeries, and for contending that the Jews have been engaged in a conspiracy to control the capital and the industries of the world, besides laying at their door many offenses against decency, public order and good morals. Had I appreciated even the general nature to say nothing of the details of these utterances I would have forbidden their circulation without a moment's hesitation, because I am fully aware of the virtues of the Jewish people as a whole, of what they and their ancestors have done for civilization and for mankind toward the development of commerce and industry, of their sobriety and diligence, their benevolence and their unselfish interest in the public welfare. Of course there are black sheep in every flock, as there are among men of all races, creeds and nationalities who are at times evil-doers. It is wrong, however, to judge a people by a few individuals, and I therefore join in condemning unreservedly all wholesale denunciations and attacks.

Those who know me can bear witness that it is not in my nature to inflict insult upon and to occasion pain to anybody and that I have been my effort to free myself from prejudice. Because of that I frankly confess that I have been greatly shocked as a result of my study and examination of the files of the Dearborn Independent and of the pamphlets entitled The International Jew. I deem it to be my duty as an honorable man to make awards for the wrong done to the Jews as fellowmen and brothers, by asking their forgiveness for the harm I have unintentionally committed, by retracting so far as lies within my power the offensive charges laid at their door by these publications, and by giving them the unqualified assurance that henceforth they may look to me for friendship and good will. Mr. Ford begins his declaration of regret with a statement that many of his friends can verify concerning the Dearborn Independent. In the multitude of my activities it has been impossible for me to devote personal attention to their management or to keep informed as to their contents. It has therefore inevitably followed that the conduct and policies of these publications had to be delegated to men whom I placed in charge of them and upon whom I relied implicitly. Mr. Ford concludes his statement: "Finally, let me add that this statement is made on my own initiative and wholly in the interest of right and justice and in accordance with what I regard as my solemn duty as a man and as a citizen."

SALE OF VALUABLE FARM PROPERTY

Under and by virtue of the authority conferred upon us in a deed of trust executed by D. S. Smith and wife, Ella Smith, on the 13th day of March, 1923, and recorded in book of mortgages U-14, page 309, Pitt County, we will on Saturday, the 2nd day of July, 1927, at 12 o'clock noon at the courthouse door in Greenville, sell at public auction for cash, to the highest bidder, the following land, to-wit: Beginning at a pine corner of Richard Gaskins, George Oakley, and Caleb Tripp heirs, running North 89 degrees and 40 minutes E 2710 feet to an iron stake, Jarvis Gaskins' corner on edge of Sutton road; thence N. 35 degrees and 15 minutes East 264 feet along edge of road, to a corner; thence North 12 degrees W. 1331 feet to J. B. Williams' corner; thence North 84 degrees and 30 minutes West 1900 feet to J. B. Williams' corner on road; thence South 31 degrees and 30 min. West 1218 feet along edge of road to a corner; thence South 26 degrees West 1035 feet to a corner, the point of beginning, containing 102.4 acres, and is the same tract or parcel of land conveyed to D. S. Smith by E. T. Arthur and wife Nellie E. Arthur, by deed recorded in Book V-11 at page 224 to the office of the Register of Deeds of Pitt County, North Carolina.

It is a great satisfaction to the writer to publish this statement as it will be to millions of others, Jews and non-Jews, to read the statement. This column has been sent through all news agencies to all newspapers. The writer, knowing the work that Jewish men and women have done for civilization, industry, commerce, prosperity and charity all over the world, is glad of the opportunity to publish Mr. Ford's generous retraction of anti-Jewish statements and accusations, not one of which was written by him. His work has made him one of the most useful men in the world, and for seven years past this writer has sought, as opportunity allowed, to impress upon him, the fact that others acting for him have offended a great body of good, useful and honorable American citizens. Mr. Ford's statement, all of which is published above, settles the question so far as he is concerned for all time, and will be accepted by those most interested in the spirit in which it is made. There could be no greater curse for this republic than race or religious hatred among those that should co-operate in building up national success and happiness. Henry Ford would be the last man, knowingly, to injure in any way the United States, to which he has rendered greater material service than any man since Lincoln. Some time ago this writer talked with Henry Ford at Dearborn, and Mr. Ford made it apparent at that time that he was not conscious of the effect of articles for which he had been made responsible, or of their true character. He said, most earnestly: "Nobody can accuse me of being hostile to the Jewish people as a race. I employ thousands of them. They include many of my ablest associates. This building, which I believe to be the finest of its kind in the world, was built for me by Albert Kahn, Jewish architect here in Detroit, a man in my opinion with no superior. You know about the Wayside Inn which I bought in New England to perpetuate its interesting memories. I wanted to have it refurbished with authentic furniture of the correct period, tried various dealers, not Jewish and could not get what I wanted. I then asked a Jewish dealer in Boston, Mr. Saks, to do the work for me and he has done it for me ever since, satisfactorily and honorably. I am hostile to concerns that seek to control others and make money hard to get, no matter what their race or religion, but I am not hostile to Jews." Later, on the same day, the writer had luncheon with Mr. Ford at the Dearborn plant in a room reserved for Mr. Ford and his principal employees. The first man that entered, Mr. Ford introduced as "one of the best men that has worked with me from the beginning." That man is a Jew. Mr. Ford then told the writer that he had frequently protested against articles in the Dearborn Independent dealing with Jewish criticism, and that it was his intention to forbid thereafter any articles that could be interpreted as reflecting race prejudice. The writer asked Mr. Ford if he would not make sure that his intention would be strictly carried out by selling the Dearborn Independent. This writer offered him $1,000,000 (one million) for the property on behalf of W. R. Hearst. "No," he said, "I won't sell it, but I am going to make it house organ and I am going to stop absolutely everything that could possibly cause complaint or hurt the feelings of anybody." Since that time the statement above quoted has been written. It heals a sore spot in our national life, and the whole country will rejoice at the news here published.

LETS GO TO CHURCH

The Church As A Community Asset

(By REV. R. J. BAMBER) What the church is to a community the people make it. It is no better and no worse than the people who constitute it. It is made up of human beings, not angels nor seraphs—just folks. It would be profitable exercise for every individual in a community to sit down and estimate the real value of the church to his own welfare. This would be a selfish view of the matter, but it might modify some people's appreciation of this divine institution. Such men as Roger Babson declare the church to be the greatest asset to any community. If this be true, does not the church in your community deserve better support, morally, loyalty, financially, heroically and in every other way? Some one has said, Christians are like pianos, upright, square, grand, and are not much good if not in tune. In these days of hurry and haste—the quick lunch, the telephone, the automobile, the airplane, the short story and the swift rush of business and social living, we need the "tuning" which the church can give. "We need," as Phillips Brooks once told the Harvard students, "to be sure of God! By simple loving worship, by purifying ourselves, even as He is pure, by continual moral obedience, creep close to Him, keep close to Him. Be sure of God, and in the end nothing can overthrow you." The church should claim first place in our hearts, the chiefest in our thoughts, the best in our service. Its peace and progress and usefulness concern not only our own life, but the good of the whole world here and hereafter. Let us remember if we neglect its services we weaken its power and usefulness, we injure its good name, we discourage its members, we imperil our own soul and we grieve the heart of Him who founded the church. All the churches in the city welcome you to their services tomorrow. Let your response be, "I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the House of the Lord."
