JONES SPEAKS AT OPEN AIR SERVICE HERE

Pastor of Memorial Baptist Church Delivers Fine Sermon On Crucifixion.

"It takes more courage to be a Christian than it did to be a soldier in the bloodiest war in the annals of history," declared Rev. H. Frederick Jones, pastor of the Memorial Baptist church of this city in delivering the sermon at the union services on the courthouse lawn last night.

The declaration came in the midst of one of the most forceful sermons of the summer series. Each part of the discourse fairly bristled with pertinent facts pertaining to the crucifixion of Christ, and was presented with such vigor that the large congregation was held spell-bound.

Probably one of the largest crowds of the entire series attended the services last night. As on a previous occasion when threatening clouds prevented much of an attendance, the crowd was not conspicuous for its paucity, but was notable for its size and interest displayed in the song service and other parts of the program.

Song services were led by John Clark, who succeeded in injecting considerable enthusiasm by the singing of several spirituals with which almost every one had been familiar for many, many years. Rev. L. B. Jones, pastor of Jarvis Memorial Methodist church had charge of the program.

One of the outstanding features in connection with the musical program was a solo by Mrs. Herbert Waldrop.

Mr. Jones took his text from the twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth verses of the nineteenth chapter of St. John in which that loyal follower of the cross so graphically portrayed the gathering around the cross of Jesus' mother and other faithful followers prior to His crucifixion. He used as his subject a theme almost as old as time itself, but which grows more significant to humankind with each retelling. "Standing by the Cross" is as important now as it was in the days when the followers of the cross were making history which their children and their children's children were to find as changeless as come itself.

The minister told of the huge crowd that gathered at the cross to witness the crucifixion of Christ. They represented the disinterested, careless and indifferent classes from all parts of the country. It was a cosmopolitan gathering, he declared, embracing men and women from surrounding cities and towns of the holy land. There were those who had only passing interest in the proceedings, and there were those who thirsted for the blood of the lowly Nazarene who had done so much that humanity might be saved.

The followers of Jesus who gathered around the cross in the final moments of the Saviour's life, he termed as the "inner circle." In other words, that circle of faithfuls who were ready to serve the Master in sunshine and in times of adversity. The same conditions exist today. The world still contains the careless and indifferent class of people who have only passing interest in the progress of Christianity. There are those who still would crucify Christianity upon a cross of gold and worldly ambition. They are found on the inside of the churches in many instances. They are the class who seek for personal aggrandizement and a high social position which the church gives them.

Yet, even as of old, there are those who comprise the "inner circle." They are the ones who are using their influence to advance the teachings of the Bible as the word of God. They may be found in the churches of all denominations—steadfast and true—always ready and willing to render some service that civilization may be saved from the manifold dangers confronting the unwary upon every hand.

He declared that John was the only chronicler of the "seven sayings" of Jesus. John was upon the scene and actually heard and witnessed proceedings connected with the final moments of Christ. In discussing the attitude of the people towards the church, Mr. Jones said many of them have nothing against the churches; others have no objection to activities of the kind. There can be no negative attitude. One must be positive in his

Safer in the Air. Crippling—Two Kinds. So Much Money. Science Stock Taking. (By Arthur Brisbane)

Copyright 1927, by Star Co.

Harry Guggenheim, whose father has arranged an organization to promote aviation, is the organizer and backer of Lindbergh's flight throughout the United States.

The younger Guggenheim, who flies his own planes, knows there is some risk about it, and has arranged life insurance for Lindbergh on the trip; also accidents, fire, and "damage to others," insurance for Lindbergh's air boat, "The Spirit of St. Louis."

Lindbergh, who feels safer in his airship than in an automobile, isn't bothered about insurance.

But insurance companies should make it easier than they do now to insure flying lives.

Twenty years ago they would have hesitated about insuring the driver of an automobile.

A hundred years hence they will make especially low prices for flying life insurance. It will be shown that men are safer in the air on a road 25,000 miles wide than they are down here.

The British Government has under way a bill that will "cripple union labor in Great Britain."

Here it's PROSPERITY, lots of work with high wages that cripples union labor to some extent.

COTTON CROP WILL BE SHORT THIS SEASON

Agriculture Dept. Reports Four and One Half Million Bales Below Last Season.

Washington, Aug. 8.—(AP)—A cotton crop of 13,492,000 equivalent 500 pound bales is indicated for this year, the department of agriculture announced today placing the condition of the crop on August 1st at 69.5 per cent of a normal.

The August 1st condition of the crop, which compares with 69.8 per cent a year ago; 65.8 in 1925, and 67.4 in 1924, indicated an approximate yield of 156.8 pounds per acre, compared with 181.9 pounds in 1925 and 155.7 pounds the average for the last five years. The total indicated production is based on the assumption that the area abandoned this season will be equal of a average of the last ten years, leaving from the 42,683,000 acres in cultivation July 1st, an area of 41,139,000 acres for harvest this year.

The final 600-bush of the crop, the department said, will depend upon whether the various influences affecting the crop during the remainder of the season are more or less favorable than usual. Last year's crop was 17,977,374 bales, that of 1924 was 16,103,679 bales and in 1923 it was 13,627,936 bales.

convictions, and being positive must realize that service and sacrifice in behalf of the cross is the only way by which the teaching of Christ may be fulfilled. He urged his hearers to have courage and faith that they might go about their work firm in the conviction that nothing great or good may be accomplished except in the name of the giver of life and all earthly possessions.

PRESENT LAST APPEALS FOR TWO ITALIANS

Plea For Sacco and Vanzetti Made Direct to President of United States.

Boston, Aug. 8.—(AP)—Justice Sanderson, of the State Supreme Court today denied petitions for counsel for Sacco and Vanzetti, for a writ of habeas corpus and a stay of execution. He also denied a petition for a writ of error.

Boston, Aug. 8.—(AP)—Court hearings on motions brought by counsel for Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti in an effort to obtain a new trial for the men sentenced to die this week for murder divided attention today with the outcome of an appeal to Governor Alvan T. Fuller to stay their execution.

Judge George A. Sanderson of the State Superior Court set 10 a. m. as the hour to hear a petition for a writ of habeas corpus and a stay of execution. Warden William Henry of the State prison, was summoned to attend this hearing but it was announced that the prisoners would not be taken from the death house at this time.

Two o'clock this afternoon was set as the time for a hearing at the Norfolk County courthouse in Dedham before Judge Webster Thayer of the Superior Court on a motion for a new trial and a stay of execution. It was in the same courthouse that Judge Thayer presided over the trial of the two men and sentenced them to death after the Supreme Court had upheld his previous refusal to grant them a new trial.

When the governor would announce his decision on the plea for a stay of execution directed to him was uncertain. The only word which had come from him at his summer home at Rye Beach, N. H., was a telephone call to his secretary Herman A. McDonald, to the effect that he would not act on the petition before today.

A desperate appeal directed to President Coolidge in behalf of Sacco and Vanzetti also has been made.

The telegram to the President at Rapid City, urged him to intercede with Governor Alvan T. Fuller, to halt the execution while the President might conduct an inquiry into the case.

The defense committee's telegram called upon President Coolidge "to consider this momentous situation most carefully." Referring to the files of the department of justice which the committee has contended would reveal collusion between the prosecution and the federal government, the committee declared these would explain the "consciousness of guilt," exhibited at the time of the prisoners' arrest was caused by fear of deportation for radical affiliation.

Despite further developments, attention today remained largely riveted on the sweeping opinion of Governor Fuller's advisory committee, summing up an investigation into the case which closely paralleled that of the Chief Executive was in full accord with the Governor's own decision not to grant clemency to the two men.

The opinion—running 6,500 words—held that the men had had a fair trial, that although Judge Thayer had been guilty of "a grave breach of official decorum," he had not been prejudiced during the trial, and that none of the ne evidences offered by the defense was of sufficient weight to warrant a new trial or to rouse reasonable doubt of the fairness of the conviction.

Two meetings yesterday at the Boston Commons were dispersed by the police after speakers had sought to address large crowds in behalf of the condemned men and to call for a "national march on Boston."

Another development of the day was police announcement that an apparent attempt had been made to enter the home at Cambridge of Justice George A. Sanderson of the State Superior Court who is to head one of the pending appeals for a writ of habeas corpus.

Demonstrations In Behalf Of Doomed Italians Gain Intensity Over Week-end

(By the Associated Press) Demonstrations in behalf of Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti heightened its intensity over the week-end in the United States, Europe and South America, and even wider efforts were planned.

Radical leaders in New York promised to draw 500,000 workers from their employment tomorrow in protest against sending the two men to the electric chair at Charlestown, Mass., next Thursday morning, and in other parts of the world sympathizers of the two internationally known radicals continued plans for further demonstrations up to the final hour.

Demonstrations were staged yesterday in Paris, London, Munich, Germany, and in Boston and other cities of the United States. No serious disorder occurred, although some arrests were made.

Increased police vigilance against disorder was established in the chief cities of the world. Public officials and public buildings in the United States were under special guard, while in other countries extra precautions were thrown about the United States representatives and American property.

In New York, Police Commissioner Warren, prohibited parades but said he would permit a mass meeting in Union Square, arranged for tomorrow by the Socialist party, the I. W. W. and the Sacco-Vanzetti emergency committee. Meanwhile, Commissioner Warren said the mobilization of fourteen thousand policemen on guard throughout the city and a large number of public buildings and in subway and elevated line stations would continue "until further notice" and that the hunt for those responsible for the explosion in two subway stations Friday night would go on with unabated vigor.

From six to ten thousand people milled excitedly about Boston when police revoked speaking permits on stands where Sacco-Vanzetti sympathizers substituted for speakers to whom permits had been issued. One man was arrested for refusing to obey police orders to cease talking.

Signora Lucia Vanzetti, sister of one of the condemned men, was the chief figure in a demonstration by 5,000 people in Paris.

Forbidden by authorities to stage any demonstrations within the city, the crowd marched through Bois de Vincennes, carrying red flags and banners. Some slogans were ordered destroyed because they were

KILLED WHEN RUN OVER BY TRUCK SUNDAY

Another Ayden Man Is Painfully Injured When Hit By the Same Truck.

Sylvester Pierce, 16, of Ayde, was killed when run over by automobile truck on the Greenville-Cox Mill road, a short distance from Cox's Mill, Sunday morning about five o'clock. Jasper Cannon, 20, also of Ayden, sustained a broken hip when hit by the same truck.

Charlie Harde, colored, is held in the county jail today without bond, awaiting outcome of the injuries of Cannon, and an investigation by coroner E. S. Williams which is expected to be completed some time this afternoon. Coroner Williams had empaneled a jury about eleven o'clock this morning, and general opinion prevailed among local officials that the inquiry would be completed about the middle of the afternoon.

Only meagre reports of the incident were obtainable this morning. Sheriff Whitehurst, who conducted an investigation shortly after the tragedy occurred, stated that the two men were lying along the side of the road asleep. The truck driver did not stop when he ran over the sleeping figures, but continued on his way. There were no witnesses, but men curing tobacco a short distance away, told the sheriff of seeing a car pass along the road at about the time the truck is supposed to run over the men.

The sheriff continued trailing the negro and late in the afternoon succeeded in landing him behind the bars in this city.

Neither Pierce nor Cannon are natives of Ayden, it was stated today. They have been temporarily located here since employment in the log woods of this section.

AIRPLANE RACE OVER ATLANTIC TO BEGIN SOON

Half Dozen Expeditions Ready to Begin As Soon As Weather Clears Up.

London, Aug. 8.—(AP)—Reports of improved weather conditions over the Atlantic had European transatlantic flight aspirants in buoyant mood today and the present week may see a veritable race for the honor of being the first to cross the Ocean westward to the American continent.

A half dozen expeditions—Three Germany, two French and a British—are ready or very nearly ready for the take-off when the weather man announces the exact condition for which they are waiting. There is also the Bellanca plane Columbia which Charles A. Levine, its owner, has been preparing for a return flight to New York.

Captain F. T. Courtney of Great Britain, was said to be thinking of starting Tuesday even if the experts could not set his radio set by that time.

Two Junker planes—The Europa and Bremen, which will represent Germany in the trans-Atlantic effort is reported in Berlin dispatch, to be undergoing slight technical alterations, which it is hoped will be completed by Thursday. The Europa, will be piloted by Cornelius Edzard and Johann Ristler, the two aviators who alternated in keeping aloft for the endurance of 52 hours 11 minutes. The "Bremen" will be in the hands of Herman Koehl and Frederick Loose.

Lt. Otto Koennecke, who will pilot the third German plane, a Casp. machine, has announced his intention of getting away before Wednesday. There will be a passenger on each of the German expeditions. Paris reports that the French are planning their hopes on the Farman plane "Blue Bird" and the Breguet of Dieudonne Coste and Captain Rignot. Coste had mechanics working throughout the night on the plane. As for the "Blue Bird" it was definitely announced last night that everything was ready for the take-off.

Leon Givon is to pilot the Blue Bird, with M. C. Du as navigator. The name of the navigator of the Breguet plane has not yet been announced.

TWO KILLED IN BATTLE WITH RUM RUNNERS

Four Others Injured On The High Seas Near Western Fringe Of The Bahamas.

Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Aug. 8.—(AP)—A thrilling pitched battle between coast guardsmen and alleged rum runners on the high seas, near the western fringe of the Bahamas, claimed the lives of two government men yesterday and sent four other participants to a hospital here, where the condition of three today was reported serious.

The case is being handled by the U. S. Coast Guard, 46, Atlanta, Georgia, and the U. S. Navy, 48, York, Va., coast guard cutter, which is about 40 miles east of Fort Lauderdale where the Bahamas were Webster had been sent to guard a secret assignment. The 30-foot motor boat Z-13897, heading toward Miami, a commandeer of coast guardmen to stop went unheeded and a shot across the craft's bow failed to halt the rumrunners whose engine stalled a few moments later.

Maneuvering into position with the forward gun trained on the captured boat, coast guardmen in their launch transferred Alderman, Weech and three other men found on the craft to the patrol boat. They were captured as prisoners of war. The rumrunners, while the coast guardmen, including Sanderlin, remained in the motor boat to transfer 100 cases of liquor reported found when Lamby seized the patrol boat's pilot house. Alderman seized a weapon and shot the inceptor's mate, other coast guardmen said. Alderman was said to have assumed command of the situation for the moment and ordered Weech to tear out the engine room piping. Webster rushed toward Lamby and was dropped in his tracks by Alderman, according to the guardsmen aboard the captured boat.

Alderman was said to have shot an instantly killed Sanderlin as the launch turned about and came across the narrow stretch of water separating the two boats. Boarding their own craft with difficulty, the guardsmen in a lively fray for all water soon overpowered their opponents. The wounded were brought here aboard a fast motor boat.

Attending physicians held little hope for Lamby and Hollingsworth. Alderman, shackled to a hospital cot under guard was in a serious condition from knife wounds. Weech was suffering from minor injuries.

Two Persons Die In Auto Wreck At High Point

High Point, N. C., Aug. 8.—(AP)—A double tragedy stalked a High Point yesterday as the result of two automobile accidents. Carl W. Jacobs, 25, was killed instantly when the automobile he was driving swerved on the Benbow M.V. bridge, and the end of the bridge killing struck him over the heart, and the life of a tiny girl, Mildred Virginia Howerton, aged two, was snuffed out when the car in which she was riding with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Howerton and a six months old baby of this city overturned.

Hal Baldwin, negro, who was with Jacobs when the Benbow accident occurred at 4:00 a. m., is reported to have said that they had been running 40 and 45 miles an hour just before reaching the bridge. The negro ran a mile in a flying motion and fell exhausted as he informed his employer of the accident.

The Howerton child lost her life in a collision at a crossing in High Point. She was thrown from the car and the car turned over on her side. Her parents and the baby escaped with only slight injuries.

TWO FATALLY HURT IN AIRPLANE CRASH

Polson, Mont., Aug. 8.—(AP)—Frank Mast and Miss Cora Simpson, both of Polson, were fatally injured here yesterday when an airplane piloted by Walter R. Brown of Moscow, fell into the flooded shortly after it struck a pole in taking off. Brown was uninjured.

CUBS TAKE A BIGGER LEAD IN NATIONAL

(By The Associated Press)
The Chicago Cubs were three and one-half games ahead of Pittsburgh today for leadership of the National League. While the Pirates were idle the Cubs won another of their usual victories over the Brooklyn Dodgers yesterday. The Windy City team had to struggle 11 innings to take the long end of a 6-5 score. Brooklyn has won only one game from the Cubs this season and Uncle Wilbert Robinson's team is one of the very best reasons why Chicago is out in front.

It was Chicago's eighth consecutive victory and Charlie Root's twentieth pitching triumph of the season. Hack Wilson's single scored Adams with the winning run.

Wattie Holm's homer in the eighth with one man on base enabled the St. Louis Cardinals to defeat the Boston Braves 6-4. Four-niner also hit for the circuit.

Two brilliant pitching performances gave the Cincinnati Reds a doubleheader from Philadelphia. Jackie May fanned 11 batters in the opener and won 6-1. Red Lucas let the Phillies down with six hits in the second game for a 2-1 victory. Sweetland, the Phil's recruit pitcher, made a battle of it.

The Yankees ripped the White Sox for a 4-3 victory at New York. Babe Ruth went hitless and Gehrig got only a single in three attempts. Erwin Ward, a former Yankee, pounded out a home run in the second. Meusel misjudged the ball and it bounded into the left field stands. Blankenship held New York to seven hits while the Chicagoans were tapping Shocker and Moore for 11 but a bad fourth inning, in which the Yankees scored all their runs, proved his undoing.

Irving Hadley held Cleveland safe while Washington was pounding Hadlin and Grant for a 12-3 win. Tate was the only player in the Washington line-up who failed to get at least one safe hit.

OUT OF KEELER'S GOLF BAG

A Confident Golfer Who Is Likely to Win

(By O. B. Keller)

There are a good many golfing fans who would not be at all displeased to see the ebullient spirit of young Harry Cooper chastened by that thing.

Harry, after several disappointing experiences in the national open championship, won a big golf competition in California and later gave Walter Hagan a tremendous race in 72-hole match and he went to Oakland with the announced intention of becoming the open golfing champion of the United States.

He very nearly did. It required a birdie 3 on a hole of 460 yards by Tommy Armour to tie Cooper's score of 301, and Tommy had to execute a further miracle next day off. So I should say that Galloping Harry was not much chastened at Oakland and that he will approach the next big tournament in no bashful and retiring frame of mind.

I really fancied Harry was somewhat chastened the previous year in the 1926 open championship at Scioto. Harry appeared at Scioto obviously not hating himself. He was coming in from a practice round when he met Tommy Armour and Bobby Jones also out for practice. They had noted the "spinach" that formed the deep rough about the course and it looked fairly severe to them.

"What do you think will win here," inquired Galloping Harry. "I think a score of 290 will stand up all right," said Armour. Galloping Harry laughed loudly. "Well, I expect to beat that, and I don't expect to win the tournament," he replied.

In the first round of the tournament, Harry came in with a score of 85 and in the next round he was on his way to a worse card when he decided that, after all, there would be other championships. I fancied this little experience might have a chastening effect. But it appears not much. As Harry stood at the last green the other day at Oakland, and watched Armour preparing to play the ten-foot putt which, if he sank it would put him into a tie with Galloping Harry, at a score of 301.

Harry said: "I hope he sinks it. I haven't played a good round yet in this tournament and I'd like to play one before I leave here. I hope there's a play-off."

There was. Harry, who had finished with a 77 in fourth round of the tournament, shot a 79, Armour who had finished with a 76 to tie him in the championship shot another 76.

But I do not expect to see Galloping Harry in a modest or subdued frame of mind at the P. G. A. championship, or anywhere else. That young man is likely to win a major championship before he is chastened. You can't help admiring him though he is extraordinarily cocky. He's a good loser, too.

You know, when a man never gets it into his head that he can be beaten, he frequently takes a great deal of beating without knowing it. Harry Cooper is an extremely formidable competitor in any tournament or match in which he engages. And after all, if a man does not think well of himself how can he expect others to think well of him?

GREENVILLE WINS FROM WILMINGTON

An excusable error with a double play in plain sight gave Greenville a 3 to 2 win yesterday over the Kitemen, in a game that was in many respects the prettiest of the season.

The Independents, with hit in teeth, rallied courageously in the eighth but fell one tally short of tying the count when Earl Boushee's clout to left center caught in the wire entanglements that adorn the wall and was thrown back into the field. It missed clearing the wire by only a few inches, and since the blow scored Bell and Griffith, would have knotted the count had it cleared.

The locals' loss broke their long string of consecutive wins, necessitating a new start in an effort to break the record established.

Although big Victor Gore allowed only four hits, sensational support, especially in the outfield, saved him on several occasions. This was particularly true as regards Alford, the flash snagging two a lot of bush league fielders would have watched sail on.

Forbes, who drew the pitching assignment for the enemy, had a world of stuff and a baffling change of pace. He yielded up eight safeties but was hit only once in the pinch—when Boushee doubled in the eighth with two down and two on, scoring the locals' only run of the day.

Only two innings saw blood drawn. The visitors were the first to tally, shoving three men around the circuit and across the platter through a combination of good playing, breaks and a pair of miscues. Carson, the sweetest shortstop to ever set spike in Bellamy field, Farley of Imp fame not excepted, singled to open the fourth, his second hit of the day. Brown hit to Boushee, who fielded a difficult chance beautifully, taking the hopper with face turned toward second. His throw caught Carson in the back of the head, the ball bounding off to the field and putting Carson on third, and B. Brown, who should have been the last half victim of a double killing on second, Harrington, a clean-up man, was purposely walked, filling the bases. With the infield pulled in for a play at the plate Currie, the best catcher Wilmington has watched work this year, looped one over Griffith's head, scoring Carson. Boswell nate in an effort to to cut off fielded and pegged perfectly to the B'n, but was unsuccessful when Ligen allowed the ball to get away from him. Harrington, who had walked, scored a moment later an infield out.

The Kitemen scored their two in the eighth. Bell opened with a fly to right, which Z. Brown lost in the sun. It was scored a base hit. Gore fanned. Griffith bunted down the third base line. Bell going to third and Griffith to second when the roller was fielded slowly. Epperson skied to left with no advance for the runners, but Boushee came through with an extra base clout that scored the men on. Hines retired the side, third to first.

The Kitemen showed an inclination to extend the rally into the ninth when Boswell opened with a beautiful base hit to right, but a fast double play nipped it in the bud.

Greenville offered two players for the approval of the crowd that literally set fans on fire. These were Shortstop Carson and Catcher Currie, the latter a midget in size but a whole brass band in noise. As a whole the Greenville outfit is one of the best balanced ball clubs that has visited Wilmington this season.

Twins and Cols Cross Bats For First Place

Raleigh, Aug. 8.—(AP)—The Winston-Salem Twins and the Salisbury Colonials fight it out for first place in the Piedmont League today while Rocky Mount engages Raleigh at Rocky Mount. The Durham Bulls and High Point boys bottom clubs, meet at High Point.

Winston-Salem, on top, Salisbury in second, Rocky Mount third, are in the race for second half honors with a close fight the remaining five weeks of play indicated. Raleigh's first half winner, is struggling along, apparently out of the second half race.

Rickard Makes Final Arrangements For Title Bout

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 8.—(AP)—The task of preparing for a $2,000,000 ticket sale occupied Tex Rickard today as he lingered in Chicago to go over the pressing details of the Tunney-Dempsey fight.

The promoter's first statement on arriving yesterday from New York was that applications for tickets already amounted to $1,000,000 more than the entire receipts of the recent Dempsey-Sharkey fight. "I am willing to get right now," Rickard added, "that there won't be a ticket left ten days before the fight."

Tex said he had ordered 150,000 tickets and was ready to begin printing them with a plate especially designed to prevent counterfeiting. The tickets will show likenesses of the fighters. He said that the scale definitely had been set for $40, $30, $25, $20, $15, $10 and $5.

Before he dashes back to New York tonight for the Delaney-Ussudun fight Thursday, Rickard will have gone over most of the arrangements for the actual staking of the fight.

He said he would need at least 2,500 ushers, that many more po-

Strictly
 a "one purpose" tobacco
 for pipes and nothing else

TOBACCOS which are made both for rolling cigarettes and for pipes are cut fine... you might say they are fine for cigarettes but too fine for pipes. For the finer the cut, the faster (and hotter) it burns.

Granger Tobacco, cut for pipes only, and mellowed by an old-time tobacco secret...

burns more slowly lasts longer and smokes cooler

A WORD ABOUT LOADING YOUR PIPE: Instead of pouring Granger in as you would a granulated cut, put in a third of a pipeful, press it down firmly, then another third; then heaping full. Light it around the edges as well as in the middle... and you're all set for a long, cool smoke...

Laughinghouse Aggrieved Over Missing Reunion

The youngest captain in the service of the Confederacy and the only surviving captain in active service the close of the war, Capt. J. J. Laughinghouse, of Greenville, was sorely grieved last week—he couldn't get to Raleigh for the twentieth reunion of the North Carolina division of United Confederate Veterans.

Captain Laughinghouse is now 80 years of age. He is the father of Dr. C. O'H. Laughinghouse, State health officer, and was formerly superintendent of State's prison.

"When the 17-year-old boys were ordered out in March, '64, I lacked six months of being old enough to go. I was at Horner's Military school—entered there April 1, 1863," related Captain Laughinghouse at his home in Greenville while 500 survivors of the Confederacy were enjoying the reunion at Raleigh.

"On April 1, 1864, President Davis issued a circular letter to all military schools in the South saying that all the boys well-drilled enough for drill-masters would be given a first lieutenant's commission and assigned to duty," Captain Laughinghouse continued.

"Cadmus Capart, Samuel Sibby and myself were chosen, given letters of introduction to the Secretary of War, and sent to Richmond, Virginia. I was sent to Beasley's Battalion Picklen, Bruce Sugg, Walter Jones, of 700 Junior Reserves. Beasley received me with open arms and gave me quarters in his own tent which made me feel very good. "I went down to hard work drilling those 700 boys, and after about three months of hard work, we were organized into a regiment. John H. Anderson was made Colonel, W. F. Beasley Lt. Col. and Nathaniel Gregory Major. About the last days of September, the Confederate government had our officers examined and 33 out of 44 were reduced to the ranks. Old army officers who had been shot to pieces and were assigned to light duty were substituted for them. The company I was connected with was from Pitt County and didn't have an officer.

"To my great surprise, my regimental officers recommended me for captain of Co. H, composed of boys from Pitt, Wilson and Johnston counties.

"When my commission came four days before I was 17 years old, there was written upon the back of it: 'This is the youngest Captain's commission issued during the war and would not be issued except on the strong recommendations of his field officers.'

"I was in the battle of Bell Field, 45,000 Yankees against 15,000 Confederates. We were then attached to Hoke's Division of Johnston's army and were in the battle six miles below Kinston and the Battle of Bentonville, my last fight of the war."

Capt. Laughinghouse, according to General A. W. Smith, State Commander of the U. C. V. is the only Confederate captain now living who held that rank at the surrender.

GRAIN PRICES BEGIN SOARING AGAIN TODAY

Chicago, Aug. 8.—(AP)—All grain prices went soaring today largely on account of reports of serious crop damage by frost in Canada. Approaching the close of business for the day, wheat quotations were up six cents a bushel and corn more than 4 cents with all deliveries of corn touching the highest level yet this season.

Rye and oats, as well as wheat and corn were affected by the sudden bulge in prices. At the top rye was up about four cents and oats 2 1-2 cents, oats scoring an all round high price record for the season. Sensational new jumps in the corn market were partly due to the action of wheat but were also largely the result of the abnormal backward condition of the corn crop in the principal producing states.

chance for intolerance in another?"

Many Democratic delegates seem to reason that even if their party can not win they can at least enjoy a good fight in the nominating convention. Senator Robinson does well to remind them, even though indirectly, that the claims of the more promising candidates are worthy of an open-minded hearing, whatever their "views" on questions provocative of battle, and that he only hope of winning depends on ability to frown on stubborn "factionalism" and to get together behind the man reasonably expected to poll the largest vote.

PLAN TO RECALL CITY COUNCILMEN IS WORKING FINE

Greensboro, N. C., Aug. 6.—(AP)—The movement to recall four of the city councilmen of Greensboro was progressing favorably today, it was reported by those handling the matter. About 1,500 names will be required on the recall petition before an election can be ordered, under the law, and it was said by John Michaux, local lawyer, leading the move that the signatures were rapidly being obtained.

Report on the matter will be made Monday morning, it was stated, at which time a definite statement will be given out as to the number of signatures obtained. Meanwhile, the four councilmen affected, headed by Mayor E. B. Jeffrees, have expressed themselves as not fearing the outcome.

Tomorrow is Dollar Day and the merchants of the city have joined together to make it a real bargain day. If you are not taking advantage of these semi-annual events sponsored by the Merchants Association you are missing a big opportunity to make your dollar do extra duty.

As it is figured that the sun is good for 150 billion years more, we may as well contentedly regard it as a permanent fixture.

Although Mont Blanc bestrides the Franco-Italian border line and its summit is wholly within French territory, the devoted Fascists are going to rechristen it "Monte Mussolini." That may "go" on their side of the line for some few years, but so far, as the rest of the world is concerned the highest peak in Europe will remain Mont Blanc.

The tariff should be let alone, the Democrats are told, but neither are the Republicans willing for it to stay put. They voted to make it flexible, and in response to clamor for higher duties the head of their party keeps on revising it up. The chief difference is that the Democrats would like to revise it down.

DEMOCRATS AND FACTIONALISM

Doubtless the wish rather than the expectation was the father of the thought causing Mr. Robinson of Arkansas, the Democratic leader of the Senate, to say that there "should be no 'factionalism' in the next national convention of his party. Mr. Robinson knows only too well what the tendency is likely to be in any large meeting of Democrats most of them determined that "the voice of the people," particularly in their local constituency, shall be heard. Mr. Robinson himself is of the prevailing free-spoken type and a straight-out hard-hitter at that. Democratic delegates are noticeably less willing than Republican delegates to bow to the will of the "leaders" as political experts whose previous decisions should be accepted. That is the chief reason why in Republican conventions the business is but through with almost lock-like regularity and in Democratic conventions it is apt to drag along a rocky, sail with much entertainingly fighting by the way. And what are the chances of eliminating "factionalism" from a party which at the present time is pointedly described as "Wet in the East and North, Dry in the West, and in the South, full of intolerance for tolerance in one section, and full of tol-

Two Are Held On Burglary Charge

Winston-Salem, N. C., Aug. 8.—(AP)—Ed Kirkman who claims to be a plasterer, Vick Edwards and J. C. Vann who told the officers they were shoemakers, all giving Greensboro as their homes, are being held in jail in default of $2,000 bonds each, pending an investigation of evidence indicating that they are professional burglars. The three men were arrested early Sunday morning in this city on charges of having burglar tools in their possession. The men were traveling in an auto and they were located in the rear of a filling station on west Fourth Street. A new type of tool found in their car, is of a triangle shape and about two inches thick. It is made of heavy steel and at each angle of the triangle there is a hole ready for a large bolt. In the center of the implement is a groove about an inch and a half long, with a circle at one end just large enough to fit over a safe combination. After the triangle has been fitted over the combination, the two upper bolts are screwed up as far as possible which in turn forces the combination out.

After the combination has been removed, the yeggman has an easy time for he has only to reach in through the hole left and trip the tumblers and the safe is open, according to statements made by officers.

In addition to the clamp or implement, the three men are alleged to have had in their possession a

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON
New York, Aug. 8.—(AP)—The unexpectedly low government crop and condition figures was followed by a jump of 2 cents a pound in the price of cotton here today on heavy general buying and covering. December contracts sold up from 17.22, the low price of the morning to 19.22, where the advance was stopped by the maximum fluctuation rule, but there were few sellers even at this price, apparently, and there appeared to be good many buying orders in the market. Prices held right up to the limits during the mid-afternoon, or 2 cents above the low levels of the morning and 1.83 to 1.87 points above the closing quotations of Saturday.

Futures closed strong 1.83 to 1.87 higher. Spot nominal; middling 19.45.

GRAIN
Chicago, Aug. 8.—(AP)—New high price records for the season were broken right and left today in the grain markets here. Wheat made the biggest rise, about six cents a bushel. Trading reached an immense volume in all the pits. Temperatures as low as 22 were reported in North Dakota, and indications pointed to further frost damage tonight.

Wheat closed unsettled 4 to 5 1/2 net higher; corn 2 1/2 to 3 7/8 up; oats showing 3/4 to 2 gain and provisions unchanged to a rise of 45 cents.

MOTOR PARTY REACHES HERE

Wilmington Goodwill Motorcade Entertained Here During The Mourning.

Advertising the "Feast of the Pirates," a motorcade composed of about seventy-five leading business and professional men and women of Wilmington arrived in Greenville today and were briefly entertained under the trees on the courthouse lawn. They were welcomed by E. G. Flanagan in a few well chosen words, after which a member of the delegation told of the carnival and regatta to be staged in Wilmington from August 10th to 12th.

The motorcade left Wilmington this morning, and after "jogging" along at a leisurely rate arrived in Greenville about eleven o'clock, an hour and a half behind schedule. But the late arrival detracted little from the spirit of the crowd which cheered lustily for Greenville and Pitt County following the presentation of facts regarding the Feast of the Pirates.

The speaker said the carnival was not for Wilmington alone, but every person in North Carolina. Wilmington has a wonderful historical background for an occasion of the kind, and much of pirate lore will be brought to play in the carnival. The carnival will open with the capture of Wilmington by the pirates. Three days of fun and frolic will follow.

At the conclusion of the exercises Mr. Flanagan invited the visitors to the Charles O. H. Home Drug Store where they were served refreshments.

The motorcade is making a good will tour of the State and as they go from town to town, they tell of the carnival and give a cordial invitation to the public.

FRUSTRATE ATTEMPT AT BLACKMAIL

Asheville, N. C., Aug. 8.—(AP)—A daring attempt to blackmail Wallace B. Davis, president of the Central Bank and Trust Company, was frustrated by Asheville police early this morning. W. W. Edwards 64, N. French Broad Avenue, was being held in the city prison on his own signed confession of the crime.

The attempt to blackmail the bank president was made at 4:20 Monday morning when he received a mysterious telephone call. The phone was answered by Mrs. Davis who awakened her husband after the voice over the phone demanded to speak with Mr. Davis at once.

As he took up the receiver, Mr. Davis was informed that a letter of great importance to his safety had been placed on the front porch of his home and that he was to read it at once.

Mr. Davis immediately phoned the police department which ordered out a squad of detectives to trace down the strange call. The bank president did not get the letter until he had been called twice more by the would-be blackmailer.

SPORTS SLANTS

By ALAN J. GOULD
Associated Press Sport Editor

New York, Aug. 8.—(AP)—If Babe Ruth is beaten by his walloping team-mate Lou Gehrig, in the 1927 race for homerun honors it will be the first time in nine years that the battering Bambino, in full health and strength and during a full season has bowed to any rival.

Ruth has been outslugged twice in eight previous seasons of homerun carnage, on both occasions by Rogers Hornsby, but the Babe had a good alibi each time.

In 1922, when Ruth, after his banner year, yielded homerun laurels to Hornsby, the Bambino spent the early part of the season on the sidelines, under suspension for defying Commissioner Landis in making barnstorming tour of the country.

Starting late, Ruth made a gallant effort to take Hornsby but fell seven homers short, their respective totals being 42 and 35.

Again in 1925 Hornsby got the advantage of an early start, while the Babe was out of action with his famous stomachache.

"Rajah" led the pummeling parade that season with 39 homers while the invalid Ruth blew his customary form even when he did return to the line-up, collected only 25.

The only other year, outside of the current campaign when Ruth's supremacy has been checked was in 1923 when the Yankee clouters was tied with Cy Williams of the Phillies at 41 homers apiece.

Here is a comparison of Ruth's total with those of his main rivals since 1919:

1919—Ruth 29, Cravath, Phillies 12.
1920—Ruth 54, Sisler, Browns 19.

1921—Ruth 59, Ken Williams, Browns and Bob Muesel, Yanks 24 each.
1922—Ruth 35, Hornsby, Cardinals 42; Williams 41, Ken Williams 29.
1923—Ruth 41, Cy Williams, Phillies 41; Ken Williams 29.
1924—Ruth 46, Hauser, Athletics and Fournier Brooklyn, 27.
1925—Ruth 25, Hornsby 39, Bob Muesel 33.
1926—Ruth 47, Wilson, Cubs 21, Goslin, Senators, and Ken Williams 17 each.

DEDICATE BIG BRIDGE OVER THE NIAGARA

Many Notables of England and U. S. Present at Opening of The Morning.

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 8.—(AP)—A span of stone and steel across the Niagara River stood today officially dedicated to the more than a century of peaceful relations between the United States and Great Britain.

Dedication ceremonies, attended by the Prince of Wales, his younger brother Prince George, Vice-President Charles G. Dawes, the prime ministers of Great Britain, Canada and the Province of Ontario, Secretary of State Frank B. Kellogg, Governor Alfred E. Smith and other officials, brought to a successful culmination seventeen years of effort to have the Niagara crossed at Buffalo by a vehicular bridge.

The common keynote of the speeches at the exercises took the form of mutual British and American pledges of friendship, despite the outward clash of interests at the recent Geneva meeting over the cruiser problem.

The official spokesman of the two governments, Premier Baldwin and Secretary Kellogg, touched very lightly on the Geneva failure but Vice-President Charles G. Dawes, who today was the guest of the Dominion of Canada in Toronto, seized the opportunity to declare that the instinct of self preservation bound the English speaking peoples together in a bond that "will never break."

Addressing himself directly to the Geneva failure, Mr. Dawes declared it was "unthinkable" that Great Britain and the United States, solemnly pledged to the principle of naval equality would enter on competitive building programs "because their experts temporarily disagree." The Vice-President asserted that "the conference will only result in the stronger demand of the world that the work of interpreting the principle of equality in respective ship programs be continued until a fair agreement is reached" and that "the foundation of the great peace structure which we dedicate today rests on the firm bedrock of the Niagara, and the peace of the English-speaking peoples is as firmly based upon common instincts and ideals."

The regret of President Coolidge at not being able to attend was voiced by Secretary Kellogg, who informed the British visitors that he had been commissioned by the President to welcome them to the soil of the United States for the first time during their present tour of Canada. The royal party had previously passed into United States territory on a cruise through the Thousand Islands but did not stop.

From the beginning the ceremony was colorful and carried out in ideal weather. The international boundary line at the center of the bridge was marked by a white ribbon extending from side to side and at a signal from the Canadian side, the British and American parties slowly approached each other on opposite sides of the ribbon. Mrs. Dawes and Mrs. W. D. Ross, wife of the Lieutenant Governor of Ontario, reached forward to sever the ribbon and through the gaps strode the members of the two groups, greeting each other in an informal way.

Wilmington, N. C., Aug. 8.—Citizens today recalled that Major General Leonard A. Wood, who died in a Boston hospital yesterday, was a visitor in Wilmington exactly 10 years prior to his death, when he was sent here to investigate the possibilities of cantonment for training troops for the World War.

General Wood arrived here August 6, 1917, and spent two days delivering a patriotic address at the auditorium at Harbor Island, Wrightsville Beach.

Just now it is Chiang-Kai-Shek's turn to be beaten by the north Chinese. He has had thousands killed and wounded in what is called a "decisive victory for north China."

Later there will be a decisive victory for south China, and thus it will go until China once more decides that it isn't worth while fighting when you can't settle anything. Then Europe will run China's business again while China works. The fact that people from north China cannot understand a word said by people from south China makes things difficult. But they can ALL understand bullets.

Fierce Sioux Indians of South Dakota, having adopted President Coolidge as a good Indian, made him a present of a war bonnet, buckskin band adorned with feathers, and beautifully embroidered with colored beads and half precious stones. When worn it jingles.

Mr. Robert H. Bean, of the American Acceptance Corporation, representing gentlemen that lend money, says money interest rates are pressed down by huge surplus supplies, vainly looking for somebody to borrow them. And so many would borrow SO willingly.

Traveling over the country, your room on the ship or little compartment on the Pullman has one glorious advantage over the box with the silver-plated handles. On the ship, as in the Pullman, you have leisure to review the past and regret shortcomings. And when you land you can atone! But once in the coffin, you can't get out, send a telegram or prove regret. The past is closed.

You are out of the world and still in it, still connected. Therefore, TRAVEL, if only for leisure to think over your shortcomings and form good resolutions.

Every business man takes stock, materially, at intervals. Every man should take stock, spiritually and remorsefully, on the train or ship at least twice a year.

Mrs. Martha F. Kunst thinks it is possible to be too moral and attacks the elders. She objects to the shirt ruling, and to chains hung across streets to prevent Sunday auto-boosting. Mrs. Kunst does not believe the Judge Zainaker, of Tampa, Fla., takes the United States Constitution seriously, and when he goes after "blind pigs" he means it. A "blind pig," sometimes called a "bootlegger's boudoir" or "speakeasy," is a place where they sell whiskey.

Judge Zainaker had a moving picture camera within range of the "blind pig" entrance, and will "run off" the films in court, showing eminent citizens visiting the "blind pig." Some husbands will have to think rapidly.

In Asbury Park, a highly moral resort, even rising real estate values haven't reduced the 100 per cent morality. There "elders," pure as the driven snow, tell icemen on ice wagons they must wear regular shirts with long sleeves, not vulgar shirts displaying arms and neck.

Paris.—As a pleasant little thought for summer, Charles Clerc, a Frenchman, suggests the formation of an Academy of Smokers. He points out that humorists, sportsmen, dancers and writers all have their own academies, and why not smokers, who are certainly more numerous and have a similar elite.

Another Frenchman in favor of the idea says that this academy would necessarily be an academy of philosophers which is very much desired in these strenuous days. He thinks that the artistic side of smoking should be emphasized and would be with an academy of this sort.

Rene Doumic says he will join if there is any prospect of getting better cigars for one's money.

Far from falling out of favor since the high rise in the prices of tobacco some time ago, smoking is on the increase in France, according to figures covering the first six months of this year. During this period the revenue from tobacco sales amounted to 1,740,000,000 francs, an increase of 445,000,000 francs over the corresponding period last year. June of this year was the most flourishing month for smokers.

The tobacco monopoly announces that two new brands of very light cigars will shortly be on sale in ornamental pockets of fifty cents and a dollar each. Magna cigars at fifteen cents and Mandarins at twenty will also be on sale soon.

Six hundred and twenty-five persons committed suicide in France last year. The majority of them, 197, used firearms to do it; the next largest number, 91, drowned themselves in some stream. Fifty-seven threw themselves from some high monument and fifty more were asphyxiated by gas. Only 21 took poison.

Bachelors commit suicide more often than married men, according to a recent study of 307 cases made by the French physician, Dr. Serin. He also finds that suicide is adopted as a way out of life's problems more frequently by men than women and more often by elderly ones than the mere adult.

Dr. Serin divides the causes of suicide into five classes: Insanity, alcoholism, grief, incurable diseases and poverty.

While hundreds of gay Parisians were boarding the famous "Blue Train" to take them to Davos, five hundred sick pilgrims took place in the "White Train" leaving for Lourdes, firm in the faith that in the celebrated Grotto of the Virgin miraculous cures will take place for the lame, the halt and the blind. Nothing is more impressive than the departure of this White Train every summer at this season. Many of the pilgrims afflicted with diseases that have warped and ravaged their bodies, but have failed to weaken the supreme hope that a miracle will be accomplished in the famous waters of the Grotto. This faith has cured many of them.

A young Rumanian girl, Mademoiselle Stephanie Maracleamu, has recently tried to demonstrate before the French Academy of Sciences that radioactivity is not a spontaneous property in itself, but that the action of the sun can modify it and even transmit it to certain bodies which do not possess this property.
