LONDON TRIP IS RESUMED AGAIN TODAY

Plane Sir John Carling Hopped of This Morning For Harbor Grace, N. F.

Caribou, Maine, Sept. 5.—(AP)—The London, Ont., to London, Eng., plane Sir John Carling hopped off at 9:49 a. m., Eastern Standard Time today from a field in Washburn, six miles from here for Harbor Grace, N. F.

Captain Terry Tully and Lieutenant James Medcalf made a perfect hop from the Wayfield where the plane was forced down by rain and fog last Thursday night. They had motored over from their hotel here six miles from Washburn, after a good night's sleep and a hearty breakfast.

They found that the plane had been carefully protected by State police and field artillery battalions from damage by the thousands of curious who inspected it yesterday and last night. The ground was a little soft where the plane lay, so it was rolled to the other end of the field.

The sky was clear and there was a brisk west wind. Without ceremony Tully and Medcalf jumped aboard and after a short run down the field the plane took the air easily and within a few minutes was out of sight across the New Brunswick border.

Motorcade Begins Trip Over Scenic Appalachian Road

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 5.—(AP)—More than a hundred people, including leaders in all phases of the South's activities, left Atlanta early today on the first leg of the Atlanta-Montreal-Quebec motorcade over the Appalachian scenic highway, sponsored by the Atlanta Journal. Thirty cars were in the procession that moved out of the city northward via Stone Mountain and by the time Canada is reached, the entourage will have grown to at least 250 persons in 75 automobiles, according to estimates made by the tour.

Car No. 1 in the gasoline caravan, was piloted by Bobby Jones, distinguished young Atlanta, who now holds the British open and American amateur golfing crowns. With Bobby in his car, were Mrs. Jones and a representative of the Journal, who has been Bobby's companion on all his triumphant journeys for new laurels for the links.

The tourists will spend tonight in Asheville, where the distinguished additions to the party will have during the trip to Adolph S. Ochs, publisher of the New York Times, who will enter his car when the motorcade reaches Binghamton, N. Y.

Congressman James O'Connor, representing the State of Louisiana, and Audre Lafarge, official representative of New York, arrived in Atlanta last night and were in the starting cars today.

Stops will be made during the trip to view the country's most noted scenic wonders, such as Stone Mountain, Natural Bridge, Va., Endless Caverns, Va., Ausubale Chasm, N. Y., and places of historical interest, including Lexington, Va., where Robert E. Lee and Stonewall Jackson are buried, Gettysburg, and Saratoga battlefields.

Persons have already signified their intention of joining the motorcade at Asheville, Johnson City, Tenn., Roanoke, Va., Hagerstown, Md., Gettysburg, Pa., Williamsport, Pa., Watkins Glenn, N. Y., Binghamton, Troy and Schenck Lake, N. Y.

The tourists plan to reach Montreal in nine days and Quebec one day later.

GOVERNOR MAKES TWO APPOINTMENTS

Raleigh, Sept. 5.—(AP)—Governor McLean today made two important appointments. He appointed Mrs. R. B. Boger, of Morganton, as director of the state school for the deaf at Morganton, in place of Mrs. F. H. Jeter, of Raleigh, resigned.

He appointed John H. Folger, of Mount Airy, as member of the State Board of Equalization, to succeed James K. Nordet, resigned.

HELPS POLICE

John D. Rockefeller's costly car was commandeered by Patrolman Leroy Sproul of Matawan in overhauling traffic violator. Sproul didn't know he was using oil king's machine till arrest was made. Rockefeller rewarded cop with five shiny dimes.

JUDGE BOWIE HAS RESIGNED

Governor McLean However, Attempts To Get Ashe County Man to Reconsider.

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 5.—(AP)—Governor McLean today received telegraphic word of the resignation of Tam C. Bowie, as emergency judge and immediately attempted to get Judge Bowie to reconsider.

Judge Bowie of Ashe County was to have opened court in Morganton today. The Governor upon receipt of the telegram immediately sought to get in touch with the Western Carolina judge, appointed following passage of the emergency judges' law in the last legislature.

Judge Bowie's name was mentioned among those in connection with the Governor's appointment last Saturday of Roy L. Deal, city attorney of Winston-Salem, as Superior Court judge from the 11th Judicial District, to succeed the late Judge Raymond G. Parker.

The Governor prepared to make a statement on the matter of Judge Bowie's resignation.

Emergency Judge Hoyle Sink of Lexington, whom the Governor dispatched to seek Judge Bowie's reconsideration, reported that he would not reconsider, and the Governor then issued his statement.

In answer to inquiry from the Associated Press representative as to whether the report that Judge Bowie had resigned was true or not, Governor McLean made the following statement shortly after noon today:

"About six o'clock yesterday (Sunday) evening I received a telegram from Judge T. C. Bowie at West Jefferson, tendering his resignation as special superior court judge, effective immediately. In a few minutes I received the following telegram from Mr. Samuel J. Ervin, Jr., county attorney of Burke county, Morganton:

"I am informed that Judge Bowie has resigned. We have two weeks of court scheduled and no judge to hold the same. Unless this court can be completed a great loss and inconvenience will be caused to the county and parties interested. Please assign a judge immediately to complete term and wire me collect when judge will arrive."

"I tried to get in touch with Judge Bowie over the long distance telephone, but was unable to get connection through to West Jefferson. I finally requested Judge Hoyle Sink to communicate with Judge Bowie and to express my regret at his resignation and also my desire that he reconsider. I have just had a telephone message from Judge Sink saying that Judge Bowie stated that he could not see his way clear to reconsider his resignation and expressing the desire that it be accepted.

"I regret very much that Judge Bowie has felt it necessary to resign. It gave me great pleasure to appoint him special superior court judge and I have been much gratified at the very satisfactory way in which he has discharged his duties. Upon further consideration, I trust he will yet reconsider."

END OF STRIKE AT HENDERSON IS SEEN TODAY

Twenty-Percent of Employees at Textile Mills Reported On Job this Morning

Henderson, N. C., Sept. 5.—(AP)—Labor Day in Henderson, scene of strike of 800 textile workers of the Harriett Cotton Mills since August 4th, saw about 20 per cent of the employes back at work, company officials estimated.

With the return of that number, the beginning of the end of the strike was seen by observers as it was the first definite break in the ranks of the striking operatives who have unsuccessfully sought a return of their prior to 1924 wage rate. In 1924 the company in a period of depression cut the wages 12-1-2 per cent.

Those returning went back to the No. 2 and 3 mills and there was no interference as the workers reported this Labor Day morning.

In view of the division among strikers themselves as to the course they should take and return of the workers this morning, business men of the city who have been concerned over the tie-up of capital the last month, believed the entire group would gradually trickle back at the foot of the vanguard returning today.

With no disturbances and no demonstrations, the strike period appeared about over. Mill workers maintained a consistent stand against considering any demand, compromise or plea. The workers, beginning with a demand of wage increase, wound up with a compromise agreement whereby they would be reimbursed for their idle time, which was refused, and since then wavered as to a uniform stand.

Solve Problem Turbid Rivers

Raleigh, Sept. 5.—(AP)—With natural conditions not as good as those enjoyed by North Carolina, Pennsylvania has apparently solved the problem of turbid rivers through reforestation, says assistant state forester, W. C. McCormick, who has just returned from a study of forest and game conditions in the Keystone State.

"One of the most noticeable features about the Pennsylvania rivers is that even those flowing through clayey districts and industrial communities are seemingly almost free of mud and silt," declared the assistant forester.

"I observed especially one of the rivers which drains a basin a great deal similar to the Yadkin, both from a standpoint of the number of industries and the nature of the soil. Instead of containing mud-colored water, its flow was so clear that you could readily see the bottom.

"The secret of this situation, it was told, was because of the fact that the watersheds have been reforested and are being zealously maintained in this condition. Pennsylvania has followed a comprehensive forestry program for years, and the results are strikingly obvious now. What that state has done North Carolina is able to do."

Residents of Pennsylvania, continued Mr. McCormick, are thoroughly sold on the forestry program. One of the most popular features of the Keystone state's forestry program is a system of campgrounds in each one. During camping seasons these places are always filled with recreationists, he declared.

A demonstration of private interest in forestry was furnished forester McCormick through the expenditure by one concern of more than $7,000 in the construction of a fire line of fire break for a length of approximately 600 miles.

CHARLES LEVINE MAY HOP OFF TOMORROW

London, Sept. 5.—(AP)—Charles A. Levine, first trans-Atlantic airplane passenger, may attempt a westward crossing to America tomorrow if weather conditions are favorable he said today.

"I may start the flight tomorrow provided the weather changes," he said.

Europe's Steelmakers United. No Need to Worry. Make Lightning Harmless. First to Invent and Fly. (By Arthur Brisbane) Copyright 1927, by Star Co.

Great steel companies of Europe, practically all but those of Great Britain, are united in a gigantic trust. They will keep their business secret and do what they can to get all the markets of the world. Now German, Dutch and Belgian manufacturers of wire and wire fencing invite the French to join them and form another gigantic trust.

This is not the time, dearly beloved, to talk about interfering with big business or with combinations that mean great industrial power.

Judge Gary, who died recently, said the European steel combination would not hurt this country. It won't, if we build up a tariff wall as we should and insist do, to protect ourselves, our workmen, industrialists and prosperity. The motto of the United States should be "The biggest kind of American big business to fight the big business of the rest of the world."

European scientists occasionally suggest that the American race is deteriorating. In Thomas Jefferson's time they said that the North American continent produced no very large mammals, so he sent them a moose. "Those who worry about 'the American type' ought to see Henry Behrens of Osage county, Kansas. He is six feet seven inches tall, big in proportion, and a 'dirt farmer'."

Big men are not rare in Kansas. George Scantlin, city commissioner of Pratt, was upset in a boat. He put the boat on his shoulders and waded to shore.

He is only six feet four inches high, but broader in proportion than usual.

A series of blasts in a government arsenal recently cost $100,000. Professor Michelson, of the University of Chicago, or some other great expert in physics, might find a way to protect arsenals and oil wells from lightning danger, if government of capitalists would devote to that purpose a much smaller sum than $100,000. Give the lightning a safe, easy path from cloud to earth, and it will be as harmless as high voltage on the right kind of wire.

While we praise the air work of other nations and deplore our own official shortcomings in the air, we can find comfort in the fact that we have flying men as good as any in the world, and a flying record better than any in the world.

The flying machine was invented and first flown in America. Americans were the first to fly across the Atlantic, the Pacific, and first to fly around the world. Those records are ours.

FORFEITS BOND IN LIQUOR CASE

Louis Robinson Failed To Appear For Trial In Criminal Court Saturday.

Louis Robinson, filling station operator on the Greenville-Bethel highway, a short distance from this city, failed to appear for trial on a whiskey charge at the final session of criminal court here Saturday afternoon and forfeited bond of $500. The charge resulted from a raid made on Robinson's filling station several weeks ago.

This was the last case called for trial Saturday afternoon, and immediately afterward Judge Harris ordered adjournment.

The morning session was consumed in final argument in the case of Frank Taylor, white man of this county, charged with second degree murder in connection with the killing of John Little, colored, in a gun battle at Red Banks sometime during the month of May.

After deliberating less than three hours the jury returned a verdict of guilty and Judge Harris sentenced Taylor to the penitentiary for not less than six nor more than twelve years.

PLANE BRINGS LOAD TOBACCO LOCAL MARKET

Bertie Farmer Sends 200 Pound Load For Opening Sales Here Tomorrow.

Tobacco soared higher here today than ever before when an airplane brought a 200-pound load of bright leaf from Bertie county to be sold on the opening of the Greenville market tomorrow.

The plane bearing the "golden leaf" cargo, was piloted by Jack Bellamy. After circling over the city, the birdman headed for the local landing field where a truck a short time later conveyed the tobacco to the floor of a local warehouse.

The tobacco, according to Bellamy, was the property of Ed Cowan, McKeel and Taylor. The trip of 83 miles was made in 65 minutes.

Mr. Bellamy said that a big crowd of farmers had gathered at the Cowan farm to see the plane landed for the first time in the kind in history of tobacco production in this part of the country.

Mr. Cowan, who lives near Coleman, is one of the largest tobacco producers in the section where he resides. Announcement of that his first load of the season would be sent to the market through the air, caused growers from miles around to gather at the farm to see aviation play its first part in the tobacco industry.

B. J. PULLEY PASSES AWAY

Funeral Services And Burial Will Be Conducted In This City Tomorrow.

A message was received in this city today conveying intelligence of the death last night of B. J. Pulley, 68, former resident of this city, who had been residing in Richmond, Va., the past three or four years.

Funeral services will be held in Greenville tomorrow though arrangements had not been completed today.

Mr. Pulley had been in ill health several years and was living with relatives in Richmond when the end came.

He is survived by a son, B. J. Pulley, Jr., of Norfolk, Va.

Mr. Pulley was in business in Greenville for a number of years. He was connected with the old firm of Pulley and Bowen. News of his death will be received with general regret by many friends throughout this section.

Two Ducked In Plane Somersault

Old Orchard, Me., Sept. 5.—(AP)—A pilot and a cameraman escaped with ducking when their Curtiss biplane overturned in the surf here today. The plane, which accompanied the Old Glory here from New York started to take the air while the Old Glory was preparing for a trial flight but the wheels due to the sand and the plane somersaulted in two and a half feet of water.

Photographer Mack of the International News Service and Pilot Hammond were able to crawl out from the cockpit under the wings and waded ashore unhurt except for a shaking up. One wing of the plane was damaged.

The accident caused great excitement among the crowd gathered to watch the Old Glory.

LEVINE PILOT

Capt. Walter R. C. Hinchcliff, veteran British pilot and war ace, will pilot Bellanca monoplane Columbia from England to New York on Charles A. Levine's return trip. (International Illustrated News)

CONTINUE TO PROBE DEATH OF J. PETTY

Daughter of Dead Man Confined in Jail Stoutly Denies That She Killed Father.

Reidsville, N. C., Sept. 5.—(AP)—County officials today continued their inquiry into the slaying of J. Smith Petty, former local cotton mill overseer, whose body was found Saturday buried in a cellar under a house once occupied by the Petty family.

Sheriff J. F. Smith today was silent as to whether or not anyone else was suspected in the case but it was known that until it was definitely determined whether or not more than one person was involved in the killing and burial of Petty months ago, the inquiry would be continued.

Mrs. Alma Petty Gatlin, bride of two months and daughter of the dead man, today sat in the county jail held on a charge of murder. She continued stoutly to deny any knowledge of the crime with which she is charged and to which the Rev. Thomas Pardee, testified at the coroner's inquest that she had confessed to him during a revival meeting at his church some months ago.

Petty's body was buried in a local cemetery yesterday.

The services were attended by a large crowd. All members of the family except Mrs. Gatlin were present.

Petty's body was found buried three feet under a pile of coal after deputy sheriffs had excavated for a day and a half.

The body was easily recognizable and medical examination disclosed that death had been caused by heavy blows on the head that crushed the skull. Rev. Pardee said that she told him she killed her father with an axe.

WILLIAM VANDEKILT AND MRS. WARBURTON ARE MARRIED TODAY

Paris, Sept. 5.—(AP)—William K. Vandekilt, Jr., and Mrs. Barclay H. Warburton, of Philadelphia, were married by civil ceremony at the mayor's office in the sixteenth ward this morning.

GUANI ELECTED HEAD OF LEAGUE OF NATIONS ASSEMBLY DURING TODAY

Geneva, Sept. 5.—(AP)—Alberto N. Guani, Uruguayan Minister to France, was elected President of the Assembly of the League of Nations today.

OLD GLORY FLIGHT POSTPONED UNTIL TUESDAY MORNING

Old Orchard, Me., Sept. 5.—(AP)—Phil Payne, representative of Wm. R. Hearst, backer of the Old Glory flight to Rome, announced at 1:10 p. m., Eastern Standard time, that the plane's take-off from here would be postponed until tomorrow.

EASTERN TOBACCO MARKETS IN READINESS FOR OPENING SALES TOMORROW MORNING

Leave Your Car At Home Tuesday. Urges The Mayor

In a statement issued this morning, Mayor J. C. Lanier urged Greenville people, who find it convenient to do so, to leave their cars at home tomorrow.

This request is made so that the city may be able to accommodate the thousands of visitors expected to be present at the opening of the tobacco market tomorrow.

Police officials were today making preparations for handling the hundreds of visiting cars, but Mayor Lanier stated this task would be made far more difficult by failure of the public to co-operate with them.

The streets will be terribly congested, the mayor said, "but the situation should be materially improved by people leaving their cars at home instead of parking them for long periods along our principal streets."

Tobacco From 27 Counties Pouring Into This City For Last Forty-Eight Hours.

The Greenville tobacco market will open for the 1927-28 season tomorrow morning promptly at nine o'clock. Preceding the opening sales addresses of welcome and prayers of thanksgiving will be made at the four warehouses slated for opening sales. This will be a most impressive feature, and when the silver notes of auctioneer's voice officially start things off, the thousands of visitors thronging the various warehouse floors will be in mood for the opening of one of Eastern North Carolina's greatest industries.

Tobacco has been pouring into Greenville for the last 48 hours, and indications today pointed to record-breaking sales. The offerings came from 27 counties.

Local tobaccoists, many of whom have been in Georgia and South Carolina markets, worked away feverishly today getting everything in readiness for the opening sales.

The program preceding the opening sales will begin promptly at 8:45. The Center Brick Warehouse, the address of welcome will be delivered by Hon. J. H. James, and the prayer of thanksgiving by Rev. L. H. O'Brien. Mayor J. C. Lanier will speak at Forbes & Martin's and the prayer will be made by Rev. F. Jones. Judge Dunn will speak at McGowan & Cannon's and Rev. W. S. Hardee will make the prayer. Hon. F. C. Harding and Rev. L. B. Jones will appear at Johnston's warehouse.

BLAST ROCKS BUILDINGS IN NEW YORK N. Y.

Walls Cracked and Windows Shattered In Supreme Court And Record Bldgs.

New York, Sept. 5.—(AP)—A bomb explosion that rocked the Brooklyn skyscraper district early today cracked the walls and shattered windows in the Brooklyn Supreme Court building and the hall of records. No one was injured.

In the block adjoining these two buildings are the new $2,000,000 municipal building, the Borough Hall, the Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute and the Brooklyn Eye and Ear Hospital. The Kings County courthouse is located two blocks away. None of these buildings were damaged.

The bomb exploded in an alleyway separating the Supreme Court building and the Hall of Records. Practically every window on the alleyway side of both structures was shattered.

Granite cornices were chipped and slight holes and cracks were blasted at the base of the two buildings, both three story granite structures.

Discovery of pieces of an iron pipe and a spring in the alleyways convinced authorities that the blast was caused by a time bomb. Policemen on patrol duty in the neighborhood saw no one loitering about the block previous to the explosion and no one was discovered fleeing from the area after the blast.

Police declined to place responsibility for the explosion.

The explosion was heard within a radius of three miles. The bomb was believed by police to have exploded directly under the window of the Chambers of Justices James C. Crosey and Edward M. Riegelman. Police said, however, they knew of no enemy against the two judges and no threats were known to have been received.

The neighborhood about the building rocked as a dull roar followed the crack of the bomb. James Fletcher, custodian of the Hall of Records and his wife were tossed from their bed on the third floor of the building and William Brown, watchman, was thrown from a chair. Residents in Brooklyn Heights, a high-class residential district a few blocks from the blast, were jarred from sleep.

Forty policemen and a score of detectives were on the scene, within ten minutes and riot lines were established for several blocks. Guards were placed about the area. The emergency guard established a month ago when explosions wrecked two subway stations in Manhattan prior to the execution of Sacco and Vanzetti has been maintained since that time.

This year's large crop caused no misgivings as to price, in contrast to the relatively large crop of 1926 was absorbed with avidity and at exceptionally good prices.

The fifty-eight warehouses in the Eastern North Carolina market last year saw sales totalling 212,000,000 pounds.

PENNANT RACE IN NATIONAL GETS CLOSER

(By The Associated Press) With Chicago's losing streak standing at seven games today and the victorious dash of the New York Giants have mounted to ten games in a row the National League pennant chase found the Cubs down in fourth place and the Giants more firmly entrenched in second position behind the Pirates.

Joe McCarthy's Cubs began a long home stand in Wrigley Park yesterday by losing a hard fought contest to the St. Louis Cardinals, 2-1. From the Chicago standpoint the contest was one of the lost opportunities. Poor base running told and the Cardinals snapped up a chance and converted it into a triple play. The Cardinals, humiliated Charlie Root, ace of McCarthy's pitching staff. Sherdel's southpaw slants had the Chicagoans guessing. The Giant's tenth game in a row and the third straight over Philadelphia was obtained by a score of 6-0. Burleigh Grimes splitter was unattractive. McGraw's infield infield was functioning machine. Rogers Hornsby was in charge of the team, McGraw being confined to his home by illness.

Pittsburgh kept its two game advantage in first place by downing Cincinnati 6-4. Waner's, Inc. baseball's most illustrious pair of brothers, blasted two home runs in the fifth. Lloyd hit the ball into the left field stands and Brother Paul followed suit.

Brooklyn and Boston divided a double header, both scores being 3-2.

Boston won the first and Dazzy Vance was the pitching victim. The Robins had to work thirteen innings to win the second. The teams were fighting for sixth place and the Braves held on by two percentage points.

Today's two homers gave the Boston Red Sox a 5-3 win over Washington in the American League's feature contest. This battle lasted eleven innings and Toti's second homer with Rogell on base supplied the winning margin.

The St. Louis Browns ran their winning record to five victories in six games when they whipped Detroit 4-3. Howley's club came from behind in the eighth with a two-run rally. McManus hit for the circuit in the fourth. The bases were empty.

Three White Sox errors contributed to the team's downfall before Cleveland 6-3. George Uhle held Chicago to seven hits and cut off a ninth inning rally. Until the eighth the Sox had made only two hits off Uhle.

The league leading Yankees played an exhibition game with Jersey City of the International League and took their second shut-out of the season, the Skeeters winning by a 1-0 count. Huggins club turned in a triple play.

World's Sculler Defends Title

VANCOUVER, B. C., (AP)—A sea battle between a colony and the Mother Country, with the world's championship sculling title at stake took place on the neutral waters of Burrard Inlet, near here, on Labor Day, September 5.
Major James Doodson, of Australia, world's champion, is defending his title against H. A. (Bert) Barry, undefeated English champion.
The match is for a wager of $5,000 and numerous side bets.
Although experts are puzzled to pick the winner, they are confident the record of 18 minutes, 15 seconds for the three-mile grind will

Tunney Back To Work Today

Lake Villa, Ill., Sept. 5.—After four days of leisure, Gen. Tunney elected to return to work on Labor Day when the rest of the nation declared a holiday.

Last Thursday Gene turned away from Speculator, N. Y., where for five months he had trapped the Adirondacks and loosed occasionally to fit himself for his battle with Jack Dempsey in Chicago Sept. 22nd. Since then he had whirled to Chicago, whisked through a reception in which a quarter of a million people participated and rested for two days at his new quarters on the shore of Lake Villa. The greeting accorded the titleholder and the pleasant quarters, flanked by rolling hills, lawns and shrubs, already have taken away much of the regret felt on leaving New York's mountains. Tunney thinks his new training place the finest and prettiest he has ever seen.

Three sparring partners, Chuck Wiggins, Billy Vidabeck and Frank Muskie, are quartered nearby, ready to bear the burden of conditioning the champion for his first title defense.

Two training rings, one for fair weather and another for the rainy kind, have been set up in a grove of oaks, a quarter of a mile from the Country Club.

Weighing about 192 pounds, after his lay off, Gene planned at least ten rounds of work today. One or two rounds of boxing are scheduled with each sparring partner, in addition to several rounds of ring exercise and bag punching.

Another setback was handed St. Louis Cards when their heavy-hitting outfielder, Ray Blades, had to retire with leg injury. He'll be out indefinitely. (IN)

To Play Final Game With Club At Wilmington

Baseball season for Battery E, local military unit, will be brought to a close in the game with Wilmington, at Wilmington, on the 10th of this month, according to an announcement made this morning by members of the club.

The club has had one of the best seasons its organization here. They have played virtually all amateur clubs in this part of the state and have a long string of victories to their credit.

As far as finances are concerned, the season has been a terrible failure. This is attributed to lack of attendance and to several bad breaks with the weather man. But even with all this, the players believe they have had a good season and are willing to stake their all on their ability to handle the last amateur organization in this part of the state.

With the closing of baseball season, the artilleryman will turn their attention to the gridiron. They hope to whip a formidable machine into shape by the latter part of the month and will be ready to go when the whistle blows for the opening contest.

The public is urged to support the boys in every way possible this fall and help them "bring home the bacon."

HOG CHOLERA STILL FEARED BY FARMERS OF MID-WEST STATES

(By International News Service) COLUMBUS, O.—The epidemic of hog cholera which swept through several mid-western states, reducing the herds of hundreds of breeders, and causing fluctuations in the hog market, has not been stamped out, according to agricultural experts here, and considerable cholera may be expected during the next few months.

Factories manufacturing hog cholera serum, of which there are only a few in the world, have for several months been making preparations to avoid a repetition of the situation which prevailed during the

Dempsey Takes On More Work As Fight Nears

Lincoln Field, Ill., Sept. 5.—(AP)—The baptism of new sparring partners with a knockout, a usual ceremony in Jack Dempsey's training camp, goes merrily along as the former king of heavyweight prepares for the struggle that will either place him again on the throne or relegate him to the order of ex-champions who have tried and failed.

When a new sparring partner arrives in camp, Dempsey does not bother to check fight records to determine the newcomer's ability to take and give punishment. Jack calls the elected into the ring and finds out for himself.

Yesterday's sacrifice, one from the stockyards arrived in camp just long enough to absorb two and a half minutes of clubbing. Angelo left shortly thereafter and probably will not be back. Johnny Link a 160-pounder from Indiana, who boxes for fun and not for gold, worked one round with Jack but was spared the discomfort of a knockout.

As the time shortened for Dempsey's effort to regain the heavy weight crown his workouts grow in length.

Yesterday Jack boxed five rounds instead of the usual four and worked five more on a punching bag.

Grid Training Season Gets Underway Today

Raleigh, Sept. 5.—(AP)—Labor Day was working day for North Carolina College gridrons, as upward of 300 aspiring youths, after a summer of odd jobs, gathered on their respective campuses to begin the annual grind of trying to "make the varsity eleven."

The dull thud of cleated toes booting pigskins was heard once more as coaches opened strenuous training programs to get teams of the big five conference in shape for what promises to be another glorious scramble for State honors.

Carolina and State College coaches not only had this in view, but with good material at hand started whipping their entries into shape for a run at honors in the Southern Conference.

Campus observers chronicled that prospects were good at Wake Forest, Carolina, State and Duke, with only Coaches Younger and Tilson issuing doleful statements as to their chances for the season. The Younger-Tilson faculty of football seemed pleased with backfield material more or less upset with inexperienced, yet heavy, line candidates.

Duke University's scries write in that Coach Dehart is not worrying over his outlook of eleven veterans and promising sophomores, in the lot of 40 Blue Devils reporting today.

Carolina coaches issued calls for 70 men to report this afternoon for workouts. Wake Forest went silently about its task of replacing veterans who have been graduated from the Deacon championship team of two years ago.

Coach Tebell at State, believing his squad numbers some of the best individual since the days of Red Johnson, had 35 men on the field opening drills.

The season cracks the last week in September with State-Elon; Duke-Furman; Davidson-Citadel, and Carolina-Wake Forest matched.

Piedmont Loop Leaders Clash

Raleigh, Sept. 5.—(AP)—Salisbury and Rocky Mount fought out this week for the second half Piedmont baseball league honors of 1927.

Portsmouth had won the Virginia circuit race, Greenville, S. C., the South Atlantic league affair and Salisbury or Rocky Mount will win the second half triumph, the winner to play Raleigh for the Piedmont league championship of the season.

Salisbury begins the week with a three game lead over Rocky Mount. Raleigh at Durham, Rocky Mount at Winston-Salem, and Salisbury at High Point, were today's offerings.

height of the cholera infection last year, when the demand for serum far exceeded the supply, and thousands of valuable animals died because there was no serum available to inoculate them.

In addition to the domestic demand, the American serum factories supply immense quantities of their remedy to foreign countries. Heavy shipments are sent to South America, Spain, France and to some Asiatic countries. About the only competition the American laboratories have in the foreign field is from some German laboratories, which are said to produce an excellent grade of serum.

SWAIN-CAMPBELL

Quiet Wedding in Christian Church.

A wedding of quiet simplicity was solemnized in the Eighth Street Christian church last Saturday morning at nine o'clock, when Miss Agnes Campbell was married to Mr. R. E. Swain, of Georgetown, S. C. Rev. R. J. Bamber, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in a brown crepe Elizabeth dress with slippers and hat to match and wore a corsage of sweet-heart roses.

Only members of the two families and a few intimate friends witnessed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Campbell. She is both pretty and attractive and her pleasing personality has won her a host of friends. The groom holds a position with the Highway Commission and is stationed in Georgetown, S. C. He held a similar position here some months ago and made a number of friends during his stay here.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Swain left for a trip to western North Carolina and upon their return will be at home in Georgetown, S. C.

Surprise Birthday Dinner

Mrs. A. H. Taft delightfully entertained at a barbecue dinner Friday at noon in honor of her mother, Mrs. M. C. Hoover, who celebrated her seventy-sixth birthday. A pink and white color scheme was carried out. The table was very attractive, the center piece being a birthday cake with seventy-six candles. Mrs. Hoover was remembered with a number of gifts.

In the afternoon the niece and nephews of Mrs. Hoover, called. Punch and sandwiches were served by Mrs. Bryce Sigmon and Mrs. H. W. Speight. The punch table was decorated with pink roses. Mrs. Hoover has been making her home with her daughter, Mrs. Taft, for the past several months, and has made a host of friends who wish her many happy birthdays.

Mrs. O. R. Brown, Misses Malissa and Annie Hoover Brown, Raleigh, and Mrs. Twisdale, of Middlebury, were among the out-of-town guests.

With the list of missing ocean fliers steadily growing, it is high time the government took a hand to prohibit ocean flights at present, except those made for scientific purposes and under government supervision. Until advantage has been taken of the scientific data already received from the first flights there is, as we see it, little more to be gained from the stunt flying. The cost of such flights is too great.

Lady Astor is said to love a fight, but she may get more than enough now that the Liberal and Labor parties have chosen candidates to oppose her re-election to Parliament and even one organization of her own Conservative party will put a candidate in the field against her.

In connection with the proposition of Hoover's nomination by the Republicans it is announced that he worked his way through Leland Stanford as a gatherer-in for the university laundry. This is hardly as romantic a recommendation as early rail-splitting, but it may be counted on to serve the purpose.

Referring to "the strange loss of interest by the nation (including the President) in the question of Mississippi flood control," the Detroit News laments that "not a single movement" in that direction has been made, and adds: "It becomes apparent that Congress should have been called into session months ago, and that now, as the country's inexplicable apathy increases, the reasons for such a session are every day more urgent."

Small wonder that the manufacturers of Sweden, Switzerland, France and Italy are "indignant" at the efforts of our Tariff Commission to find out the costs of production in those countries. Our own manufacturers are not even willing for the American government's agents to look into their books for information, and if the agents of foreign governments tried to do so, they would have some rather unpleasant experiences. Moreover, there is no waiting to learn foreign costs of production when an influential industrial interest wants the tariff revised upward.

We take this last opportunity to urge local motorists to leave their cars at home tomorrow morning unless it is absolutely necessary that they bring them out. Indications now are that thousands of visitors will be here for the opening of the tobacco market and the matter of parking space will be a problem. Nothing will disgust these visitors quicker than to arrive in this city and then have to spend a large part of their time hunting for a place to leave their cars. If the citizens will keep their cars indoors during the morning hours there will be sufficient parking space to take care of the visitors and their trip to this city will surely prove more enjoyable. It is "Our Greenville—Yours If You Come." Let's let them know tomorrow it is theirs by making it just as convenient as possible for them to find parking space for their cars.

About Town

"Money doesn't grow on trees around here," remarked G. V. Smith, well known tobacconist of this city, "but it results from the cultivation of golden leaves of tobacco in this great section of ours."

"Money will begin to flow into the pockets of the tobacco grower next Tuesday morning with the opening of the various tobacco markets of Eastern Carolina."

"Greenville paid out over fourteen million dollars—think of it, fourteen million bucks—to the farmers of this territory last season. This year is expected to surpass anything in the history of the market, and it is natural to suppose that the amount of money to be paid out will be greater than ever."

"Everybody should pull for the Greenville market this year, and prove to all the world that this is not only the best tobacco market in the State, but the best in the whole country."

"Justice was meted out quickly in the case of the negro man charged with cutting another negro to death at Ayden Tuesday morning" commented a regular court attendant this morning.

"The man committed the crime Tuesday, was captured Wednesday, had a true bill returned against him Thursday and sentenced to the penitentiary for twenty years Friday morning."

"Court officials ought to be highly commended for action of this kind. The wheels of justice should revolve as rapidly as possible all the times. No capital case ought to be allowed to hang over from one session to another without being definitely settled.

"Cases of this kind deserve immediate action. It is to be hoped the speedy work will continue from one term to another until we have a clear docket."

"Some people are always talking about the world being a hard place to live in," asserted K. T. Futrell, superintendent of the Welfare Department of Pitt County, "but they don't realize how wonderfully bright and sunny it is to many of us unless they go into the homes of the destitute population to be found in every county."

"People who think they are having a hard time ought to have the opportunity of coming in contact with some of the cases which the welfare department has to handle. They would soon become convinced that life is rosy compared with these unfortunates."

Mr. Futrell has a job that carries him into the homes where poverty and illiteracy have produced the most abject misery and despair. He is doing much to improve the situation, and should receive the co-operation of the public whenever possible.

Announcement of the $100,000 school bond election will be received with interest in various parts of the city.

This money is needed for the erection of a new high school building to replace the structure destroyed by fire during the spring, and also to make other improvements found necessary by the continued growth of city schools.

"The public will no doubt rally to this cause—a cause as holy as the cause of life itself—a public spirited citizen announced today.

"Schools are of the most vital consideration to every community, and Greenville is no exception."

"We advertise that we have the best schools in the State, and to live up to this assertion it is very imperative that we continue to improve our system whenever such becomes necessary."

"A hundred thousand dollars sounds like a lot of money. It is, too. But consider the benefits which the children of today—our men and women of tomorrow—will derive from it."

"They are due the very best in an educational way, and surely they will get it now and as long as we continue to be the great and prosperous community we are today."

Fox hunting is one of the best sports in the world.

At least, this is the opinion of Rev. H. F. Jones, pastor of the Memorial Baptist church of this city, who may be considered something of an authority in this branch of human diversion.

"A man gets lots of pleasure following a pack of hounds," said Mr. Jones a day or so ago.

"Dogs and foxes are somewhat like people. There are lots of folks who remind you of the fox, and there are others who remind you of dogs. Some are crafty and vulpine in their movements. They just don't seem to be able to look folks straight in the eye.

"Some fox dogs are unfaithful in the performance of their duty. Some run away from the pack and selfishly pursue the fox by themselves. People have the same characterization. We see them demonstrated every day of the year," but seldom notice them in the busy grind of life."

Mr. Jones had rather fox hunt than eat when he is hungry. Anybody doubtful about this should follow him and the pack one or two times and become convinced.

FARM NOTES

Wants

R. H. Bowling, of Farmville, is proud of his "Rocks." He stated while at the county agent's office last week that his 36 barred rock hens were taking care of him. My income from these 36 hens since January has amounted to $110.00, declared Mr. Bowling. Mr. Bowling further stated that during the big snow last winter that 21 of these hens continued to lay, which also indicates that Mr. Bowling is taking care of his "Rocks." He will care for double "flock" this fall and states that he is planning to house them better this winter. He had his birds on exhibit at the fair in Greenville, Wilego and Tarboro last year, taking away a number of blue ribbons from each of these fairs and plans to make the circuit again this year.

The interest in poultry is increasing in this county. Ten new houses have already been built or are under construction. Three of which have been built by club boys of the county. J. L. Corey has the concrete laid for his new modern house for 200 hens. Mrs. A. C. Caraway, of Farmville has the lumber on the yard for the building of a new, up-to-date laying house. J. C. Parker is planning an addition to his modern laying house for the crop of pullets he is adding to his flock of white leghorns. The extension program calls for 20 new laying houses this year and from the inquiries coming to this office for blue prints it appears that more than 20 houses will be constructed.

It is an inspiration to the writer to drop in on a farmer like Mr. J. Paul Davenport. He is proud of his Jersey cows and the interesting thing about it is Mr. Davenport produces his own cows. He doesn't buy them. He has several fine heifer calves he is developing. It was also interesting to note that he had a fine mule colt in pasture produced on his farm. Over on another pasture he had a herd of fine Hampshire hogs weighing from 100 to 200 pounds. fit to enter the show ring now and by the way, his boys will have some of them at the county fair this year. Hampshire hams are famous the world over for their quality but Mr. Davenport believes in the farmer having the best going consequently he keeps them off the market.

Farmers who desire to have a good fall pasture for their cows do so by selecting a good rich soil and seeding it to rape and oats early in September. A pasture of this kind is also fine for a laying flock of hens.

Abundant eye seed and plenty of wheat will also afford fine grazing for livestock and prove a good winter cover crop. It pays to have something green growing on the fields that produce the cash crops.

- Here are ten ways for a farmer to go broke: 1. Grow only one crop. 2. Keep no livestock. 3. Regard chickens and gardens as nuisances. 4. Take everything from the soil and return nothing. 5. Don't stop quillies or grow cover crops - let the top soil leach away. 6. Don't plan for operations. 7. Don't work thinking - trust to luck. 8. Regard your woodland as a coal mine - cut every tree sell the lumber and wear out the cleared land, exhausting it in the same crop year after year. 9. Hold fast to the idea that the methods of your grandfather used in farming as good enough for you. 10. Be independent - don't form with your neighbors in any form of co-operation.

CLEVELAND TO MAKE EARLY BID FOR G. O. P. CONVENTION

Cleveland (INS) - which the Republican National Committee names its sub-group to lead the 1928 presidential convention city Cleveland will be among the first cities to enter bids to entertain the gathering.

A sufficient amount of money to finance and entertain the Republican National Convention here in 1928 has already been raised, according to Cliff Carmel A. Thomson who heads the Cleveland group seeking the meeting. It is anticipated that $150,000 will see the convention through and that amount has been raised at this date, the Colonel's secretary states.

This amount is based on the expenditures of the 1925 National Convention which met here in the Public Auditorium. The city's municipal gathering place is being enlarged and will be even a greater attraction than it was four years ago.

The sub-committee to select the 1928 meeting place will be appointed sometime in September, according to Col. Thompson. Immediately after the group is named Cleveland delegation headed by Thompson will seek it out in Washington and urge that Cleveland be selected as the 1928 convention city.

It is also understood here that influential groups are seeking to bring the National Democratic Convention to Cleveland although no definite announcements have been forthcoming.

Gossip of Staff Correspondents at World Centers of Population

Brussels. — (INS) — After six months of ceremonial court life, the Duchess of Brabant, formerly Princess Astrid of Sweden, is leading the simple life she formerly enjoyed in her native Sweden.

The Duke and Duchess are spending the summer in the Royal Chateau at Ostend. They roam unaccompanied about the streets of Ostend and take frequent automobile trips to the sand dunes surrounding the resort.

On more than one occasion they have enjoyed open air picnics, with delicacies prepared by Princess Astrid herself. The future Queen of the Belgians is well versed in the domestic sciences, more so than in languages. She is not yet able to converse with her royal husband in his native tongue but is forced to study French two hours daily. In the meantime their conversation is in English.

Princess Astrid is in excellent health. She expects an heir in September or October. Her sisters, Princess Martha of Sweden and Princess Axel of Denmark visited her recently.

King Albert and Queen Elizabeth are spending their vacation in Switzerland, in a villa near Lucerne. King Albert, fond of outdoor exercise, spends much of his time in mountain climbing.

The vacation privilege he enjoys most however is that of witnessing movies. In Brussels he has to be content with occasional private showings in the Royal Palace. The protocol does not allow him to frequent public movie houses.

The King and Queen will return to Brussels about September first.

Princess Marie Jose, youngest member of the Royal Family—she is just 22—has just returned from a visit to Italy, and is installed in Ostend.

Her engagement to an Italian prince is not yet spoken of officially. It is expected, however, that the engagement will be announced shortly after the return of the King and Queen.

Prince Charles, second lieutenant in the English Naval Reserve and Cavalry Lieutenant in the Belgian army, is continuing his military studies. Although already an officer he is a regularly enrolled cadet in the Belgian Military School. Just now he is busy with his examinations at the end of his first year in the school.

Prince Charles inherits his father's democratic spirit. His older brother, Prince Leopold, heir to the throne, is reserved and bashful. Charles is just the opposite.

ords will stand forever. A thing can be done for the first time only once.

Patty Horn, a 19 year old girl preacher, with bobbed hair, says "Youth is as pure as ever." The ideals of young people in general were never loftier than they are today, says this preacher girl, a university student from De Moines. This sensible young woman well knows that shortness of the skirts or the hair means little, isn't going to be a preacher's ways. Just as soon as she meets the "right young man," she will drop the pulpit for a more important profession.

British Parliament says that Russia has 1,300,000 soldiers under arms.

Trotsky, boss of the army and the rest of Russia now says the army amounts to only half a million. That's a pretty good nucleus. Well armed and well fed, 500,000 men could hold off western Europe indefinitely. And Russia has ten million young men ready to add to the army at any moment.

Various European nations suggested a boycott on American goods. "Let us buy nothing from the United States. Let us use the money that we would have spent in the United States," they said.

If that idea develops to a serious extent the United States could retort courteously by refusing to issue any passports to any country boycotting this country's business. Our foreign friends would find that the money that Americans spend with them, real money, amounts to a good deal.

The French dressmakers—men a majority of them—are showing the new styles. The skirts continue short at the top. Hats are the which makes it possible to charge a bigger price.

Incidentally, the makers of taxable goods are working since women's clothing today, from the inside to the outside, requires in yards less than half the goods required formerly.

Five yards used to make a coat and skirt, according to a New York authority. Two and one-quarter yards do the work now.

Cotton mills worry also. A lady's nightgown used to start tight at the neck, the sleeves came down to her wrists, the gown came down to the floor. Now the nightgown is a joke, sleeveless, skitless, made of silk, and not cotton.

COMMERCIAL BANK NAMED RECEIVER BUILDING AND LOAN

Raleigh Sept. 5.—(AP)—The Commercial National Bank of Raleigh today was appointed permanent receiver for the Mutual Building and Loan Association which was closed late in August under order of the State Insurance Commission. Judge W. C. Harris fixed the receiver's bond at $50,000.

Miners' Courage Sustains Labor Chief Says in Labor Day Message

Indianapolis, Sept. 5.—(AP)—The United Mine Workers of America by their courage in the present and in past strikes, have helped prevent any "degradation" of American labor, John L. Lewis, international president, declared today in a Labor Day statement.

He asserted the miners will be victorious.

"They have never been defeated and they are not going to be defeated now," he said.

"There shall be no degradation of labor so long as the courage and the spirit and the determination of the United Mine Workers of America continue at today's high pitch.

"This union, like labor in general, is marching on and on, and it will continue to march on and on bringing fresh sunshine and happiness into the lives and homes of the toilers of America."

Mr. Lewis asserted that no class of labor has suffered greater hardship than the coal miners of the country who are members of the United Mine Workers of America.

"As we approach Labor Day this year, we do so with deeper appreciation than ever before of the significance of the occasion. It is a recognition of the justice of their great fundamental principles for the maintenance and defense of which countless thousands of good earnest true men and women have devoted their efforts, their intelligence and their lives.

"Organized labor would lift those who toil from their humble place and elevate them to that dignity which belongs to them by right. It would aid them to enjoy the better things of life. It seeks to bring them to a greater degree of happiness and prosperity, better homes, better education, greater opportunities. And it is proud that labor should pause on this one great day of each year and meditate this high ambition. On this day, the men and women of labor may well pause and think, and re-dedicate themselves and their lives to a continuation of the struggle.

"Men are not all alike. There are those who would brush aside and ignore the natural rights of others if by so doing they might advance their own personal gain. Unfortunately labor has to deal with some such men, and from the controversies that arise between these self ambitious men and labor there comes sacrifice, unhappiness and pain. But even in the face of such conditions, labor does not falter, but goes straight ahead toward the goal which it knows it will some day attain. Sacrifice does not weaken the determination of those who are convinced they are making the sacrifice in a righteous cause."

occupy the stand for several hours. During the past week, the defense introduced testimony to show that the woman's footprint, found in the garage of the slain officer, could have been made by two women, neighbors, who entered the garage. Testimony to establish Townsend's alibi, that he was at home throughout the evening and night of the shooting.

The state called 48 witnesses to the stand before resting, with testimony introduced to show that Mrs. Willis and Townsend had been seen together early in the evening before the shooting, and the woman's footprint found in the print of the sheriff's heavy automobile tire fitted a shoe of Mrs. Willis' snugly.

State witnesses also testified to seeing Mrs. Willis and Townsend together frequently.

Attorneys For Mrs. Willis To Attack Today

Greenville, S. C., Sept. 5.—(AP)—Refreshed from two days' recess, attorneys for Mrs. Ethel Willis and Townsend, charged with slaying the former's husband, Sheriff Sam D. Willis, launched a fresh attack today on the state's case of circumstantial evidence, when the tenth day of the trial opened.

Further testimony to establish an alibi for the defendants and to combat the state's claim of improper relations, was introduced. More than a score of defense witnesses had testified when court was recessed late Friday until today and between 25 and 30 others were to be called.

Whether the 31-year-old widow and her co-defendant, who was chief deputy and close friend of the officer, will take the stand in their own behalf, their attorneys decline to say, but in event they are, it is conceded that they will

Cupid Again Runs Wild in This Section

Dan Cupid, diminutive mythological god of Love, literally shot up Pitt County Saturday afternoon and Sunday and the office of the register of deeds today had issued five licenses to marry. Three of the applicants were colored and two white. They were: Edlie McLawhorn to Miss Ruby Evans of Chicco township, Glenn Wall to Miss Rosa Buck, both of the Swift Creek community. Clarence Rogers to Miss Eva B. Croom, of Rocky Mount. Colored—B. P. Carter to Bessie Smith, both of the Ayden community. Lee Muchinson to Annie Howard, of Greenville township.

Negro Arrested On Liquor Charge

R. W. Lock, colored, of the Bell Fork community, is under $500 bond today for his appearance at the next session of county court on a charge of having whiskey in his possession.

The charge grew out of a raid of county officers in which five gallons of whiskey and a similar amount of wine are alleged to have been found in the man's possession.
