MR. COOLIDGE MAKES SPEECH IN S. DAKOTA

President Dedicates Lincoln Memorial Library at S. Dakota State College.

Brookings, S. D., Sept. 10.—(AP)—Journeying toward Washington from the agricultural Northwest, President Coolidge stopped off in this city today to dedicate the Lincoln Memorial Library at the South Dakota State College with an address devoted almost wholly to education and a eulogy of the farm relief fight or any other controversial problem.

Politicians who had confidently predicted that Mr. Coolidge in speaking at an agricultural college ceremony would take the opportunity to outline the farm relief plan of the administration were disappointed, for the President swung the trend of his speech around toward the spiritual value of education and a eulogy of the part played by Abraham Lincoln in this direction.

"We have been excessively busy seeking for information that could be turned to practical advantage in the matter of dollars and cents, rather than for that wisdom which would guide us through education," Mr. Coolidge said. "Our higher educational institutions have turned their thoughts especially to the sciences, and our secondary schools to vocational training. How poor and weak and generally ineffective we should be without these advantages can be at once seen by the most casual observation of those nations among which they have been neglected."

"This is by no means all that is to be expected from American education and American institutions. I can not conceive that the object of Abraham Lincoln was merely to instruct men how to raise more corn, to feed more hogs, to get more money, to buy more land, and so on in the expanding circle, as the story goes. Of course, he wanted to teach men to raise more corn, but his main object must have been to raise better men. We come back to the query that is contained in the concentrated wisdom of the ages, 'What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?'"

"All of our science and all of our arts will never be the means for the true advancement of our nation, will never remove us from the sphere of the superficial and the cynical, will never give us a civilization and a culture of any worthy and lasting importance unless we are able to see in them the outward manifestation of a spiritual reality. Unless our halls of learning are real temples which are to be approached by our youth in an attitude of reverence, consecrated by worship of the truth, they will all end in a delusion. The information that is acquired in them will simply provide a greater capacity for evil. Our institutions of learning must be dedicated to a higher purpose. The life of our nation must rise to a higher realm."

"There is something more in learning and something more in life than a mere knowledge of science, a mere acquisition of wealth, a mere striving for place and power. Our college will fall in their duty to their students unless they are able to inspire them with a broader understanding of the spiritual meaning of science, of literature, and of the arts. Their graduates will go out into life poorly equipped to meet the problems of existence, to fall an easy prey to dissatisfaction and despair. Many of our older universities were founded for the express purpose of training men for the ministry to carry light to the people on the problems of life. Unless our college graduates are inspired with these ideals, our colleges have failed in their most important function and our people will be lacking in true culture. Abraham Lincoln, who was the most spiritual of our Presidents, had a true appreciation of this principle."

New Pastor To Be Installed Here Tomorrow

Rev. T. E. Beaman, of Morehead City, will be installed as pastor of the Free Will Baptist church of this city Sunday morning, September 11, at 11 o'clock. The installation sermon will be preached by Rev. R. F. Pittman, of Ayden. Special music, including quartet, duets, solos, will constitute a feature of the program. Leaders of the Christian organizations of the town will offer words of welcome to the new pastor. Rev. L. R. Ennis, who has supplied for the church during the past year, is being ably succeeded by Mr. Beaman, while the former leaves the county and the town of Ayden in which he has lived, for some added training at Duke University.

RALEIGH DEPOT ISSUE OPENED

Exception Says Action Of Corporation Commission Conflicts 14th Amendment.

Raleigh, Sept. 10.—(AP)—Allegation that the order of the State Corporation Commission directing three railroads to build a new union passenger depot at Raleigh is in conflict with the 14th amendment of the United States Constitution in that it orders the destruction of property without the due process of law is contained in the 31 exceptions to the order filed today with the Corporation Commission by the Southern Railroad Company.

Exceptions of the Seaboard Air Line and the Norfolk Southern railroads are expected to be filed shortly. The customary procedure is for the Corporation Commission to overrule the exceptions for the railroads to appeal to the state court, but exceptions taken by the Southern open the way for an appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court.

The exceptions of the Southern embody the points that have been the contentions of the railroads all along, namely that the present union passenger station at Raleigh can be remodeled to fit existing needs and that there is no present necessity for a new building.

Awarded $20,000 In Suit Against Chiropractors

Winston-Salem, N. C., Sept. 10.—(AP)—Finding that the plaintiff's right hip was dislocated as a result of negligence of the defendants in administering chiropractic treatments, a jury in Forsyth County Court awarded Dan H. Turner $20,000 in his suit against Doctors Robert M. Cox and Eugene L. Cox.

Notice of appeal to the Supreme Court was noted by the counsel for the defendants when Judge Oscar O. Efrid, presiding overruled all motions to set the verdict aside. Turner started the suit several weeks ago for $50,000 on the grounds and alleged that his right hip had been dislocated while taking treatment from the local chiropractors.

Curtis Perkins To Hold Formal Opening Tuesday

The formal opening of Curtis Perkins' new store on Evans street will be held Tuesday evening, September 13th, from 7:30 to 10:00 o'clock, according to announcement made this morning.

Friends and patrons of this progressive firm have been invited to attend. Refreshments will be served during the evening, and a delightful musical program will be rendered.

The new store is one of the most handsome structures in the city. The building was just completed. It is modeled after the stores in the larger cities, and has show windows that have attracted attention of the buying public.

The interior of the building is splendid in its appointment, and is in complete harmony with the new stock of men's furnishings which the firm just recently received.

Curtis Perkins owner of the store is the son of J. L. Perkins of Stokes. He has been engaged in business here for the last seven years, and has succeeded in building up one of the largest stores of its kind in the city.

J. L. McLAHWORN TO BE BURIED TOMORROW
Funeral services for John Lewis McLawhorn, of Winterville, who died Wednesday night as result of a stroke of paralysis, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at Winterville, interment to follow at the old home place two miles west of Winterville.

Progress and Sacrifice
Persistent Levine
Block B-ys the Bears
The Hop and's Eyes
(By Arthur Brisbane)
Copyright 1927, by Star Co.

There is deep anxiety concerning the fate of Yayne, Bertand and Hill, who began on Tuesday a flight to Rome. Hope has not been abandoned, however, and whatever may happen, the country will be proud of the fact that it possesses so many men of daring willing to risk life in a good cause.

No great thing is achieved without sacrifice. Those distressed by loss of life in flying may remember that the total number of deaths in trans-Atlantic flying is smaller than the number killed by automobiles on any fine Sunday. The thing is to keep on and conquer.

Detroit's around the world fliers, Brock and Schlee, landed at Rangoon, Burma, yesterday afternoon, flying from Calcutta, India, part of the way through a dangerous monsoon. Kipling would write a poem about that, and a good one, if he were thirty years younger, and the fliers were British.

Levine, again compelled to postpone his flight westward because of bad weather, is determined to make the flight. Advice cannot move him. On the train from London to Plymouth last Wednesday this writer advised Levine, then taking his wife to the steamship Isle De France, to give up the dangerous westward flight and turn his money and energy toward airplane development. Having bought the rights to a small low-priced airplane manufactured in France and made plans for a big "weather proof" air machine. Levine might do something more useful than risk his life on a return trip, especially after crossing the ocean once, but he is determined to make the flight, apparently because he said he would do so.

The British were amazed when Levine, who is not a pilot suddenly landed at Croydon from Paris, nearly killing himself as he came down. Lord Beaverbrook who owns the London Express told this writer in London last week that Levine, leaving Paris alone and landing in England without breaking his neck, had, in the opinion of British fliers, accomplished a most extraordinary feat of daring.

Paul Block who owns newspapers in many cities, including Pittsburgh, Toledo and Newark, has bought for $500,000 Newark's baseball club called "The Bears." Under Block's ownership those "Bears" will be real bears, Block being a conspicuous member of the "Bear" family.

Paul Block's theory is that baseball club profits are really a by-product of the newspaper business, and would drop if the newspapers dropped baseball. "Therefore," says practical Mr. Block, "since newspaper owners must create baseball profits, they should also be baseball club owners."

Sir Oliver Lodge made solemn members of the British scientific association "gasp" by describing the universe as a "space filled with a substantial entity, in a violent state of spinning, the seat of an immensity of energy such as never has been imagined."

A higher power guides the world, according to Lodge.

Long ago one scientist said, "I have swept the skies with my telescope and found no sign of a divine ruler."

A hoptoad might sweep an express train with its inquiring eye and find no sign of an engineer, to say nothing of a chairman of the board of directors, far away.

Near Tallahassee, Henry Ridley, sentenced to four years on the chain-gang, was sick "and given medical attention," so says the keeper, but Ridley didn't seem to work so they put him in the "sweat box," a narrow wooden box, just big enough to hold a convict standing upright.

Talking him out dead, they admitted that he was probably "sicker than we thought." There seems to be room for improvement there.

GOV. INDIANA IMPLICATED IN BRIBERY CASE

Grand Jury Returns Indictments Against Four Indiana Politicians.

Indianapolis, Sept. 10.—(AP)—From a prison cell where the quondam grand dragon of the Indiana Ku Klux Klan is serving a life sentence for murder the finger of political corruption has been pointed at Indiana's chief executive, the mayor of Indianapolis, and at two other prominent political figures of the State.

Indictment of Governor Ed Jackson, Mayor John L. Duval, George V. Coffin, chairman of the Marion County (Indianapolis) Republican committee and Robert L. Marsh, formerly a law partner of the Governor's was the culmination of an investigation started nearly a year ago by revelations of D. C. Stephenson, the former high clansman now in prison at Michigan City.

Under the indictments returned late yesterday by a Marion County Grand Jury Governor Jackson, Coffin and Marsh are charged with conspiracy to commit a felony and with attempted bribery. Mayor Duval was indicted under the corrupt practices act.

Governor Jackson is the second successive Indiana chief executive to face criminal charges. His predecessor, Warren T. McCray was paroled only a few days ago from federal prison where he was sent for conspiracy to use the mails to defraud.

McCray's name too figured prominently in the present charges. Governor Jackson, Marsh, Coffin and Stephenson are charged in the indictments with having offered the then Governor McCray $10,000 if he would name James E. McDonald prosecutor for Marion County. Jackson at the time was secretary of State and McCray was under indictment. The alleged bribe also was said to have included an offer of immunity from prosecution.

The Grand Jury in its report yesterday also charged efforts were made to bribe him.

Mystery in the form of "black boxes" alleged by Stephenson to contain documentary proof of his charges, the disappearance of star witnesses with subsequent country-wide searches, trips to the Indiana State prison to interview Stephenson and an investigation by the United States Senate's investigating committee, under Senator James Reed of Missouri, were among the high lights of the long probe.

One of the documents offered by Stephenson in support of his charges was a cancelled check for $3,200 from Stephenson to Governor Jackson, which Stephenson stated was the first one fourth payment on a $10,000 campaign contribution. The Governor claimed the check was in payment for a saddle horse Stephenson bought from him.

Faculty Of City Schools Entertained By Kiwanians

Members of the faculty of the public schools of Greenville were guests of the Kiwanis Club at the regular twice-a-month meeting of that organization held at the Rotary building last night. The occasion was one of the most enjoyable given by the club in months and numbers of teachers, representing every school of the city, were given ample opportunity of becoming acquainted with the spirit of Kiwanis.

The session was presided over by President W. H. Woolard, who extended the visitors a most cordial welcome, and assured them they would have the support of the organization in their future labors. The program was in charge of Professor Ralph Deal, member of the faculty of East Carolina Teachers College.

J. H. Rose, superintendent, and Miss Ernestine Forbes spoke in behalf of the city schools. W. E. Hooker, speaking in behalf of the board of trustees of the schools, extended a cordial welcome to the teachers. J. B. James made the closing speech in behalf of the club.

The outstanding features of the musical program of the evening were two solos by Miss Helen Higgs. Her instrumental accompanist was Mrs. Marvin Blount.

Dr. M. B. Massev, chairman of the program committee, announced that Constitution Week would be observed by the club during the week of Sept. 17th. A definite program has been outlined by Kiwanis International for observance of the week, and every club has been urged to take part. Marvin Blount will be chairman of the program.

Taylor Waives Examination Here Today

Frank Taylor, white man of this county, this morning waived examination on a charge of assault with intent to kill James Brown, colored, in preliminary hearing conducted before Magistrate John Ivey Smith. He was bound over to the next term of criminal court under bond of $1,000.

The charge against Taylor grew out of a shooting affair at a negro picnic at Red Banks some time last May. Brown suffered wounds said to have been inflicted with a gun in Taylor's hands.

John Little, also colored, was killed during the engagement, and Taylor was recently sentenced to not less than six nor more than twelve years in state penitentiary on a charge of second degree murder growing out of the case. He appealed to supreme court under bond of $10,000.

NEGRO KILLED IN FALL FROM MOVING TRAIN

Norfolk - Southern Breakman Killed at Pitt Street Crossing This Morning

John Harris, colored, was killed instantly this morning about eleven o'clock when he fell from the engine of Westbound Norfolk-Southern freight train No. 61 at the Pitt street crossing. He was about 45 years old.

It is presumed that Harris came to his death by the force of his fall from the engine. One of his hands fell over the track and was cut off. No other part of the body was injured by the train.

An investigation conducted by Coroner E. S. Williams a short time after the accident occurred resulted in a decision that the negro came to his death when he slipped off the engine and landed head foremost on the ground below.

Brown, who was employed as brakeman on the freight, is said to have hopped on the train immediately after it left a water tank on the outskirts of the city. He made his way to the engine to get a drink of water, and it was while in this act that in some unaccountable way he lost his footing and slipped off the moving train.

The body was shipped to relatives at Raleigh this afternoon, and burial will probably take place tomorrow.

CORRECTION IN AD OF JOHNSTON'S WAREHOUSE

In the advertisement of Johnston's warehouse, carried in the columns of this paper yesterday, it was stated that they would have second sale Thursday, Sept. 15, and first sale Friday, Sept. 16. This was an error which we gladly correct. It should have read first sale Thursday, Sept. 15, and second sale Friday, September 16.

AVERAGE OF $18.31 MADE THIS WEEK

Local Tobacco Market Sells Total of 4,007,772 Pounds For $733,968.35.

Averaging over a million pounds of tobacco daily, the Greenville tobacco market this week sold a total of 4,007,772 pounds at an average of $18.31, according to official figures made public this morning by K. W. Cobb, secretary of the Tobacco Board of Trade. The total amount paid out was $733,968.35. Sales for the opening week last season were 2,772,496 pounds. This shows a gain of over a million and a quarter pounds over the opening week last year.

The offerings this week came from 27 counties, the report of the secretary continued. Many farmers sold here for the first time. Offerings consisted largely of primings and lugs which did not show up well on account of weather conditions.

It is expected that the growers will be in offering their tips for sale next week.

Parent-Teachers Meet in Raleigh Again Next Year

Raleigh, Sept. 10.—(AP)—North Carolina school teachers will meet again in Raleigh next year. The State's capital city today was out in its fight with Greensboro and Winston-Salem to retain the annual meeting of the members of the North Carolina Education Association, composed of more than 10,000 teachers in the State.

Decision to hold the meeting again in Raleigh was reached by the executive committee of the Education Association after the committee had heard delegations from Raleigh and Greensboro. Winston-Salem made its offer in writing.

Date of the meeting, which will be set later by a committee to be named by T. Wingate Andrews, High Point, president of the association.

Fifteen Balloons Start in Gordon Bennett Classic

Detroit, Sept. 10.—(AP)—Variable winds whose shifting currents tended slightly in a southwesterly direction, offered the track over which 15 balloons of eight nations were to race today in the Gordon Bennett international classic.

The trend of the air currents toward the southeast was regarded as a favorable "break" for the balloonists. If it prevails during the hours the balloons remain aloft, a majority of the bags eventually will be carried through northern Ohio toward Florida, which should provide for approximately 2,000 miles of land flying. Should strong winds develop, this land distance would be cut down because of the comparative proximity of the Atlantic ocean.

Two Killed At Grade Crossing In Wake County

Raleigh, Sept. 10.—(AP)—Added to the list of grade crossing accidents victims today were the names of E. X. Altman, 62, and son E. D. Altman, 19, farmers of wake county. The two were killed instantly when their automobile was struck and completely demolished by a Southern passenger train at crossing near Garner last night. They were seeking medical aid for Mrs. E. E. Altman at the time. The car stalled on the crossing, witnesses said. Both men were badly mangled and thrown about 20 feet from the wreck to a nearby cotton patch.

REFUSES TO AUTHORIZE USE OF $2,000,000 RIVER AND HARBOR FUNDS

Washington, Sept. 10.—(AP)—Comptroller General McCarl today again refused to authorize the War Department to use $2,000,000 of the 1927 unexpended rivers and harbors appropriation for Mississippi flood work.

COTTON FUTURES BREAKS $4 BALE ON N. Y. MARKET

New York, Sept. 10.—(AP)—Cotton futures broke about $4 a bale on the New York Cotton Exchange today, practically wiping out the gains previously recorded on the publication of a reduced government crop report on Thursday.

Governor Rests On Appointment of Judge McRae

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 10.—(AP)—Governor McLean today rested on his appointment of Judge Cameron Parquhar MacRae of Asheville as special Superior Court judge for the Western District of the State, succeeding Judge Tam C. Bowie of Ashe County, who recently resigned.

The Governor said he had not determined whether there were any need for appointment of two additional special judges as permitted by the emergency judges' act of the last legislature and that he first would have to decide as to whether there were need for more judges before considering any qualifications of candidates. All hearings on the matter of candidates would be premature if not superfluous, he added.

OCCUPY NEW CHURCH SOON

Presbyterians Will Move to New Edifice During Next Week.

Sunday will be the last day of regular church services in the old Presbyterian church, corner Greene street and Dickinson avenue. The congregation will move to their new location, corner Pitt and Fifth streets, and for the present will worship in the basement.

The old church building is 52 years old. It will be soon torn down to give place to business houses. The church started with a membership of seven and now has about 230 on its roll. Dr. J. N. H. Sumner, of New Bern, was the first pastor, and under his leadership the lot was bought and the building erected. None of the charter members are now in town. Just a few have been members as long as 25 years. All, however, are rejoicing in the prospect of worshiping in the new and beautiful building which is nearing completion.

Mrs. Blackwell Passes Away At Atlantic City

Mrs. S. S. Blackwell, 74, died last night at Atlantic City, following illness of several weeks. Funeral services and interment will take place in New York Monday afternoon where she had lived for a number of years. She was a native of Wilson, N. C.

Mrs. Blackwell was a sister of Mrs. Vene Davis, of Greenville, and was well known here, where she had visited a number of times.

Mrs. W. I. Skinner, a niece of the deceased, was at the bedside at the time of her death.

Mrs. John Flanagan and Miss Willie Skinner, great-nieces of Mrs. Blackwell, will leave tonight to attend the funeral.

Means Will Not Be Prosecuted In Forgery Case

Washington, Sept. 10.—(AP)—Gaston B. Means, former department of justice agent, now serving a two year sentence in Atlanta federal penitentiary who was a witness before the senate committee investigating Attorney General Daugherty will not be prosecuted on a charge of forging the name of Senator Brookhart of Iowa, as federal district Attorney Gordon here had notified the case. Means was indicted in 1925 for the alleged forging of the Senator's name to a letter directing him to produce various records and reports before the committee. He is serving in the prison for a check mail fraud and the authorities here decided not to arrest him upon his expiration, as he already had served a previous two-year term for a liquor conspiracy.

New Hanover Still Leads Rural Schools

Raleigh, Sept. 10.—(AP)—New Hanover continues to lead the rural school system of the State with a general efficiency index of 85.4 per cent, according to "School Facts," State department of public instruction publication just off the press. The county has led the State for three years.

Currituck County's system remained in second place which was taken from Pamlico County in 1924; Pamlico is in third place and Durham County ranks fourth with 74.3. Four counties occupy the "A" ranking in the department's table as having general index of 70.0 or more.

Cherokee County is at the bottom of the list with 48.4.

ABANDON TWO MORE FLIGHTS OVER OCEAN

Navy Department Takes Action to Prevent Further Loss of Life in Oversea trips

Windsor, Ont., Sept. 10.—(AP)—The flight of the Royal Windsor to England, was definitely abandoned today and C. A. "Duke" Schiller, the pilot, wired the local flight committee from Harbor Grace, N. F., that he and Phil Wood, co-pilot, would return here "as soon as possible."

The telegram was in answer to a message sent to Schiller yesterday directing the return of the fliers. Schiller said he would hold the plane at Harbor Grace, today on the chance that he might be asked to start out in search for the missing Old Glory or the Sir John Carling.

His telegram expressed approval of the committee's plan to enter the Royal Windsor with him as pilot in the New York-Spokane run beginning September 21st.

New York, Sept. 10.—(AP)—An intensified storm of protest against trans-oceanic flying left in its wake today the virtual abandonment of at least two more projected overseas hops and prospects of a presidential investigation to make such adventures safer.

The Navy Department openly displayed its opposition to trans-oceanic flights at this time by withdrawing the leave of two officers planning a flight. President Coolidge voiced concern over the recent disasters and revealed he would have oceanic flying investigated; two cities withdrew $25,000 prize for trans-Atlantic victors and friends and relatives of three men planning long overseas hops, appealed to the fliers to abandon their intentions.

Meanwhile a fruitless search went on for the American monoplane Old Glory and the Canadian monoplane Sir John Carling, long missing in attempted flight eastward over the Atlantic. Abandonment of the projected Windsor to Windsor flight of the Canadian plane Royal Windsor and the Paris flight of Capt. René Fonck, appeared almost a certainty today. Captain Fonck in New York said his projected flight to Paris probably would be abandoned for this year, after the Navy Department revoked the leaves of absence granted Lt. Lawrence Curtin and Ensign Stephen V. Edwards, navigator and radio operator, respectively, on the proposed jump.

C. A. "Duke" Schiller and Phil Wood, pilots of the Royal Windsor, told their backers who had urged abandonment of the flight that they would "carry on at all costs" unless "we will not be accused of quitting."

The plane, meanwhile, was at Harbor Grace, New Foundland, awaiting favorable weather to join the coastal steamer Kyle in the North Atlantic search for Old Glory and Sir John Carling. The Kyle was chartered by the New York Daily Mirror, owned by William Randolph Hearst, publisher of the Old Glory flight. The American government has asked the Canadian government radio stations to have broadcast the position which the plane was last seen.

A request for ships to patrol the route mapped out from the Orient across the Pacific on their round-the-world flight in the Pride of Detroit, was refused by acting Navy Secretary Robinson, who said no ships were available.

If ships were available, he notified Harold E. Hartney, president of the General Airways Corporation of New York, who had asked for the protection. "I personally would oppose their disposal in the Pacific as I do not think the proposed flight should be attempted in a land plane even if ships were placed at various stations." The Detroit Board of Commerce called Brock and Schlee urging them to abandon their trans-oceanic plans.

President Coolidge at Rapid City, let it be known that while he intends to investigate trans-oceanic flying circumstances with the hope of establishing greater certainty for them, he can hardly see a government board being willing to take the responsibility for any trans-Atlantic flights.

PIRATES LEAD PENNANT RACE BY HALF GAME

(By the Associated Press)

National League pennant lines buzzed with tension today. With the clubs in the thickest combat it, years the Pirates had half a game ahead over the Giant stalwarts.

The bewildered Cubs, still dazed by the jolt that knocked them out of the peak, fell before the Giant yesterday by 7 to 2 thereby sliding down to the fourth rung of the slippery ladder while the Cards took third place.

The Giants sacked the game at Chicago in the second inning when Travis Jackson propelled a homer after Hornsby was given a pass. Then Harper lifted a three bagger and scores on Taylor's single. Rabid Cub rooters objected the way umpire Quigley gave Jackson a base on balls later and sent a shower of pop bottles onto the diamond.

Vic Aldridge delivered the Pirates safely through a narrow pass against the Phils by 3 to 2, the opposing moundman had one bad inning, the fourth, but that was all Pittsburgh needed to bunch five of eight hits.

Lester Bell dramatically ended the tussle with a home run with two on base and two out. Babe Herman hit two homers. The St. Louis club trails the Giants by two games and is half a game ahead of the Cubs.

Behind the steady twirling of Eppa Rixey the Reds easily disposed of the Braves by 8 to 1 in a three run assault on Greenfield in the fourth, putting the game on ice.

The Browns dutifully took another spanking from the Yankees, the 20th this season, 9 to 3.

St. Louis has two more games to try against a blanket shutout at the hands of the Hugmen.

Ted Lyons swabbed the Senators with a whitewash, allowing only three singles, while his White Sox mates made 12 safeties for an 8 to 0 victory.

Whitehill stopped the Athletics with four hits as the Bengals made off with a 5-2 triumph. At the present time New York needs but three victories out of 19 games to clinch the championship.

The Red Sox bowled over the Indians for the second time in the series 6 to 1. Slim Harris yielded only five hits. Farrell, rookie pitcher from Guilford, N. C., made his debut with Cleveland in the eighth inning.

ONE-ARMED POLO PLAYER

San Angelo, Texas—(AP)—Although handicapped by the loss of one arm Fred O. Bailes of San Angelo is one of the best polo players in the West and one of the best ropers and riders in West Texas.

BOY OF SISEN WINS GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

Portland, Me.—(AP)—A 16-year old boy, who entered his first real tournament as an unknown, and emerged as a state amateur golf champion, has fired the imaginations of Maine sports followers.

He is Isaac Lincoln Merrill. He first started the galleries by disposing of the medalist in the quarter final. Then he proceeded to show that it was not an accident by entering the final match, which he won from a veteran, twice state title holder, by the decisive score of 12 and 11.

COACH IS FIRST CASUALTY OF 1927 FOOTBALL SEASON

Raleigh, Sept. 10.—(AP)—Head coach Gus Tebell, of State College, while drilling the football squad suffered a broken bone in his ankle, as the first casualty was chalked up today in the Wolfpack training season.

League Leaders Lost Yesterday

Raleigh, Sept. 10.—(AP)—Salsbury, Piedmont League leaders, who have a second mortgage on the 1927 pennant, fell from grace yesterday losing to Rocky Mount 8-4, when the Buccaneers exhibited a time form and played good ball.

In spite of their option on the flag, the Bucs fought hard for the verdict. Hammack and Bartels gave up 16 hits.

High Point Pointers put the bee on Raleigh with a 11 to 5 count, the first half champions falling before the onslaught of a revamped and rejuvenated Boone outfit. Winston-Salem blanked the cellarite Durham Bulls with a 3-0 verdict.

DETROIT SPORTS ARENA TO HAVE GREAT BEACON

Detroit, (INS)—The largest beacon of its kind in the world will be erected on the roof of the new Olympic sports arena at Grand River and McGraw Avenue promoters of the arena have announced.

A large illuminated arrow pointing to the Ford Airport will guide night fliers. Flying at an altitude of 2,000 feet fliers will be able to distinguish the words Ford Airport and Olympic Arena.

Kinston Takes Four In Row From Wilson

Raleigh, Sept. 10.—(AP)—Kinston's Eagles scored their fourth straight win over the Wilson Bugs yesterday, taking a 4-3 verdict in an eleven inning Rose-Newberry pitcher's duel.

Ross had the better part of the argument practically all the way, but untimely boots by his mates let in a pair of runs that practically clinched the victory.

All other games in the Virginia loop were forfeited by Juke Pluvius.

JAPAN IS ONLY CIVILIZED COUNTRY WHERE JAZZ HAS NOT CONQUERED CLASSIC

Tokio.—(INS)—Japan is the only civilized country in the whole world where the common people still appreciate classical music, in the opinion of Robert Kitain, a Russian violinist now visiting Japan.

In America and Europe, jazz has conquered, he declares. He thinks Europe is even worse than America. But in Japan, he says the people still like good music better than jazz.

Spells of Nervousness Also Troubled This Lady Who Gives Cardui Credit for Helping Her Get Well.

Depew, Okla.—"For six years," says Mrs. Edd Burton, of this place, "I suffered as had as a woman can suffer and still keep going."

"I was good for nothing, was lifeless and pale, unable to eat anything. Nothing agreed with me. At times I had such bad pains in my sides and back I would have to go to bed. I had cramping spells and would faint if I stood on my feet any length of time. My nerves would become upset at the least little thing and I would have spells of crying that were so exhausting they left me prostrate."

"Several of my friends suggested that I take Cardui. They told me of their experiences with it, how much they have been helped. At last I decided to try it."

"In a few weeks, I could see that I was improving, so I kept on. I did not expect the troubles of years to disappear in a few days, nor did they, but in time I was much better. I kept up the Cardui treatment for several months and thanks to it I am a well woman now."

Gentlemen:—

A word of appreciation for your Lucky Strike cigarettes.

On May 29th last, I was operated upon for gastric ulcer and appendicitis. The day after I wanted a smoke real badly and asked my doctor. He advised strongly against it stating that even a slight cough would "rip me open" and cause additional pain, and if you've had the experience you know that to be so. However, I had a package of "Luckies" in my coat pocket and persuaded my nurse to get them. She did and I smoked eight that day. To make it short I smoked all the two weeks at the hospital with nary a cough or throat irritation or the least discomfort, and by the way, smoking was prohibited at the hospital but nurse kept my door closed and window open so I enjoyed my smokes to the full extent.

I am just a school teacher in a small town and not setting a good example to my pupils because I smoke, I suppose, but there is certainly "pep" in Lucky Strikes.

Sincerely yours,

J. A. McPherson

Dexter-Stokes

(Reported)

Of general interest will be the announcement of the surprise marriage of Mr. Earl T. Dexter, of Norfolk, Va., and Miss Pearl Stokes of this city, which took place in Norfolk, September 5th.

The bride was attired in a most becoming costume of Napoleon blue with grey accessories, and carried a corsage of sweetheart roses.

Only a few intimate friends witnessed the ceremony.

Mrs. Dexter is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Stokes. She is very pretty, of the blonde type and has a wide circle of friends. The groom holds a position in the Government offices in Norfolk.

After their wedding trip, they will be at home in Norfolk, Va.

TIME TO BLOW UP

With the total number of lost ocean fliers standing at twenty, not counting those whose lives were lost in preparation for ocean flights today's news indicates that even flight enthusiasts have realized the folly of further efforts at this time.

In addition to personal glory, no doubt each flier who contemplates one of hazardous flights feels that he will give to the world something that will aid in the future development of aviation.

Preservation of expert fliers is essential if flying is to continue along the lines of progress and public sentiment.

About Town

M. O. Blount, of Bethel, one of Pitt County's leading business men, was in Greenville yesterday, and the first thing he said upon seeing the writer of this column was "Hello, there, I haven't seen you since—"

The thing about that gathering which stands out most conspicuously is what G. W. B. Hadley did to say in responding to a toast delivered by Judson Blount, toastmaster of the day.

SCHOOL BOND ELECTION GREENVILLE GRADED SCHOOL DISTRICT

A special election will be held in Greenville Graded School District, between sunrise and sunset on Tuesday, October 11th, 1927, for the purpose of voting upon the following question: Shall $100,000 bonds of Greenville Graded School District be issued for the purpose of erecting and equipping school buildings and if necessary purchase sites there within and for said district, and a sufficient tax be levied upon all taxable property within said district for the payment of the interest and principal of said bonds?

The boundary lines of said district are as follows: Beginning on Tar River at the mouth of Smith's Run; thence southwardly up the various courses of said run to the bridge across the same near the residence of L. C. Arthur, thence westwardly with the various courses of Town Branch under the railroad trestle to the Kinston Road; thence northwardly along the Kinston Road to the old Plank Road; thence northwardly a straight course to the junction of the Stantonburg and Fair Grounds Roads; thence northwardly along Stantonburg Road to the River Road; thence northeastwardly along the River Road to the bridge across the ravine; thence down the ravine to Tar River, and thence down Tar River to the beginning.

A new registration of the qualified voters of the school district has been ordered. Registration heretofore made will not be sufficient, and no one will be permitted to vote who shall not hereafter register for said election. The registration book will be kept open for the registration of qualified voters in said district from Saturday morning, September 10th, 1927, to Saturday night, October 1st, 1927, except Sundays between nine a. m. and sunset. On the Saturdays during said period said registration book will remain open at the polling place, which is the county courthouse. The Registrar, in whose charge said registration book will remain open, is Mr. Dink James. The judges appointed for said election are Mrs. J. E. Winslow and Dr. R. L. Carr.

The ballots to be used in voting upon said question shall have printed or written thereon the words "For the Issuance of $100,000 School Bonds and the Levying of a Tax for the payment thereof," and "Against the issuance of $100,000 School Bonds and the levying of a tax for the payment thereof."

By order of the Board of Aldermen of the Town of Greenville. J. O. DUVAL, Town Clerk.

celebration was held, became so convulsed with laughter that they nearly fell overboard.

It went like this: One of Mr. Hadley's children decided he was just about the best man in the world, and went to Mrs. Hadley to see what she thought about it.

"Dad's a good man isn't he mother?"

"Yes, my dear."

"What is he good for, mother?"

"Nothing," absently answered Mrs. Hadley.

Now if Mr. Hadley had not told the story himself, we would be the last person in the world to intimate such a thing. But since he told it—and had the nerve to stand up at a banquet table and face an audience whose gastronomic feasts are indescribable, we feel certain Mrs. Hadley will protect us if her spouse takes up the tomahawk and starts out to get a scalp.

Yesterday this column had a little story about a man losing his false teeth. Today we shall get away from things of the mouth and deal exclusively with the ear.

Once upon a time, as all stories go, a certain Pitt County man went to the office of Dr. C. J. Ellen, local eye, nose and throat specialist, suffering excruciating pain in one of his ears. He sat in the reception room waiting to see Dr. Ellen when a lady from a surrounding rural community entered.

The lady, whose obesity was her most prominent feature, had no sooner deposited herself in a chair than she pulled out a snuff box and took a "dip."

A slight flurry of wind passed through a nearby window at this time, and the intended "dip" found its way into the nostrils of the gentleman with pains in the ear.

He began sneezing—the more he sneezed it seemed, the more he wanted to sneeze.

Suddenly he paused, and as he did so, out of the aching ear sprang a full grown thousand leg.

It was not recorded whether the gentleman did anything that would shatter gymnastic records, but it is presumed that, like all other good stories, he returned home to be happy, ever, ever afterwards.

You are, sure of their return.

COTTON
New York, Sept. 10.—(AP)—Renewal of heavy general liquidation in the cotton market today led to a severe break in prices.
December sold down to 22.70 and March 22.90, a net decline of 86 to 100 points and a break of more than two cents a pound from the high prices touched immediately after publication of the government crop report last Thursday.
There were late rallies of 15 to 20 points on covering, the market closing steady at net advances of 75 to 80 points.

STOCK MARKET
New York, Sept. 10.—(AP)—Speculators for the advance regained control of the price movement in today's stock market after an early period of irregularity. Buying orders for both accounts were distributed over a broad list, with the Standard Industrials again in the forefront of the advance.
Frequent efforts to unsettle the list by hammering supposedly weak issues made little headway and short covering was rather general in the late trading. While a good investment demand was reported for some of the seasoned dividends paying issues, pool activities were believed to be largely responsible for the rally. The close was strong. Sales approximated 800,000 shares.

Cook Writes About Return From England

S. S. Homerick,
Off New York City,
Sept. 7, 1927

Dear Mr. Editor:

Thursday, Friday and Saturday, August 25-27, we rested doing a little shopping in Bristol and taking in the Cinemas at night.

On Sunday, the 28, I preached in the pretty parish church at Pill, both morning and evening. We dined, after the evening service, which in England is held at 6.30 p. m., with the Vicar and his family in their beautiful home. Monday was given up to "farewells" and on Tuesday morning we journeyed to Southampton and made sure of our return accommodations.

We boarded the R. M. S. "Homerick" on Wednesday morning, and sailed from Southampton at noon. We passed Portsmouth, and the S.S. "Acquatic" of the Cunard line coming in. Several cruisers and submarines were also seen. Sight of the coast of France at 5 p. m. and anchored behind Cherbourg mole at 5.30 p. m. The weather was drizzly and cold.

We are really over-crowded on the homeward passage. There are 1,560 passengers on board, and the officers and crew number over 600, so there are over 2,100 people on the ship. The "Homerick" uses sprayed crude oil for fuel, and it takes about a ton of oil to drive her 1 mile. We shall consume over 3,000 tons of fuel oil before landing at New York.

We left Cherbourg at 8 p. m., having received the Continental mail and passengers, and, in a heavy rain, set out on the westward track.

On Thursday we passed the SS "Olympic" going to England; she looked a beautiful boat.

The steward brought me 2 copies of the "Daily Reflector" which had been forwarded from Swansea. After reading the home news with interest, I gave them to the printers on board our ship. The sea was rough with head winds. Friday was still wet and rough. Three Roman Catholic priests celebrated Mass in the lounge at 7.30 a. m.

I learned today the old English game of "Shove Halpenny." Will be glad to initiate you into its mysteries later on.

Saturday the sky was clear but the wind blew a gale. When I found that the boat was rolling and pitching wretchedly, I decided to stop in bed. My meals were sent down to me, and by lying down I avoided the unpleasantness of "MAL-DE-MER."

Mrs. Cook is the better sailor of the two of us, and stayed on deck all day.

Sunday, the 4th, opened up fiercer after the storm. There are 15 clergymen and ministers in the tourist section, and I was honored with the request of the purser and officers to take the Sunday service.

I did so, and we had a very good attendance. Monday and Tuesday there were Deck sports and the customary concert to while away the time.

Now we are in sight of New York. It has been a wonderful vacation for us, but we are glad to be near "Home" again.

I shall mail this as soon as we land. It is not quite certain when we shall reach Greenville, as I have to stop off in Baltimore, Md., but we shall be back in time for Sunday's services.

I continue to see you and all our friends in a very little while.

Yours sincerely,
JAMES E. W. COOK.

Richardson-Dawson
Greensboro, N. C., Sept. 8.—On Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, at the home of Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Dawson, a beautiful wedding was solemnized when their daughter, Pearl, became the bride of Mr. Graham Tull Richardson.
With the strains of "Lohengrin" wedding march, the first to enter was Rev. W. L. Dawson, who performed the ceremony. As maid of honor came Miss Maude Dawson, a sister of Miss Dawson, exquisitely gowned in orchid taffeta, wearing a corsage of opelia roses. Then followed the groom, Mr. Richardson, with his best man, Mr. Daniel Perry, of Nashville, N. C.
The attractive little ring bearer, were Dorothy Clegg Dawson, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Dawson, Jr., of Spring Hope, and A. K. Moore, Jr.
Mrs. W. L. Dawson gave her daughter in marriage. The bride a beauty of the brunette type, was seemingly attired in white georgette with trimmings of lace and roses. Her veil was trimmed with orange blossoms and French pearls, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and valley lilies. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, gift of the groom.
After the impressive double ring ceremony, a brilliant reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Moore at their home in Westerwood. Mrs. Richardson is a popular and accomplished young woman, and
