NOT TO PROBE MAN'S DEATH

No Request Made for Re-opening Investigation of Death of C. A. Moseley.

Columbia, S. C., Oct. 5.—(AP)—No request has been received by Governor Richards for a reopening of the investigation into the death of Carlos A. Moseley, Spartanburg insurance man, who was found dead at Cayce near here last March. It was said today at the office of the Governor.

Dispatches from Spartanburg last night said relatives of Moseley believe his death was not an accident. Moseley's body was found beneath a railway trestle and the theory advanced at the time was that he had fallen through the structure while making his way across to Columbia as a result of automobile trouble. His car was found in the highway. Mrs. Moseley was in the Governor's office last week to see the official reports on her husband's death filed by W. M. Rogers and Carlos A. Rector, who, as State constables, investigated the case. Both reports, it was said, indicated there was not enough evidence of foul play to warrant a conclusion that it was not a case of accidental death. No motive could be found, it was added, as the body had not been robbed.

The Spartanburg dispatches say the stains and mud were found on the coat and shirt of Moseley but his raincoat was practically free of such marks, leading relatives to believe that the insurance man was slain and that his raincoat was placed on the body after the death.

The first meeting of the Sans Souci club year was held at the home of Mrs. M. K. Blount Tuesday afternoon with a large attendance. The president, Mrs. Blount presided. The minutes were read and approved. Chairmen of the different committees made gratifying reports. The chairman of the program committee distributed the programs for the year.

The subject for the afternoon was "The Opera," "Madame Butterfly." Mrs. G. B. W. Hadley, assisted by Mrs. J. H. Waldrop, had charge of the program. Mrs. Hadley told of the life of Puccini, the composer, and his style of music, and gave the story of Madame Butterfly in a most interesting manner. Mrs. Waldrop sang several beautiful selections from the opera.

After the program, current events were called for, each member responding with something of interest. Mrs. Blount, assisted by Mesdames J. H. Blount and Corbett served a tempting salad course. The meeting adjourned to meet October 18th with Mrs. W. L. Hall.

WOMAN'S CLUB TO MEET THURSDAY

The Woman's Club of Greenville will hold its first meeting for the year 1927-28 on Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, in the auditorium of the Evans street school. This will be a very important meeting, as an amendment to the Constitution regarding raising the club dues, will be voted on, and other matters regarding the work of the club will come up. It is earnestly desired that the members of the club will start the year right, by coming to this meeting, and taking an active part in club work. There are many channels for women's club to work in, in a city like Greenville, which are covered by no other organization. The Literary clubs do not participate in civic work, to any great degree, but leave that to the Woman's Club to do, through its various committees and departments. We have literary department, civic health, home economics and garden club, besides committees for managing the public library, cemetery, etc. Every woman of Greenville, or Pitt county, is eligible to membership in the Woman's Club and the club needs the help and co-operation of these women. If you are not a member, Thursday will be a good time for you to come to the meeting, and identify yourself with club work. The officers are: Mrs. J. H. B. Moore, president; Mrs. H. L. Bagdale, first vice-president; Mrs. G. B. W. Hadley, second vice-president; Mrs. C. J. Ellen, treasurer; Mrs. K. T. Futrell, cor. secretary and Mrs. E. T. Forbes, sec. secretary.

AUXILIARY CELEBRATES THIRTEENTH ANNIVERSARY

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Paul's Episcopal church celebrated their thirteenth anniversary Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Lautares, on east Ninth street. The home was attractively decorated with fall flowers.

Dr. J. E. W. Cook opened the meeting with prayer. Miss Pearl Lautares entertained the guests with a piano solo. Mrs. Lizzie Griffin gave an interesting history of the Auxiliary. Miss Bessie Brown delighted the guests with two songs. She was accompanied by Miss Eva Hodges. Dr. Cook gave an interesting account of his recent trip to England. The hostess, assisted by Misses Eva Hodges, Hennie and Anna Long, Bessie Brown, Margaret Cook and Pearl Lautares, served tempting tea and sandwiches.

Woman's Federation to Meet

The Young Woman's Federation will meet Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. W. B. Butler, on Summit street. Mrs. Bessie McGowan will be leader.

John Robinson's Circus claims to have assembled for the 127 tour, a bunch of funny fellows that provide a riot of fun from the opening spectacle to the exciting races at the finish of the lengthy program. Silvers Johnson, whose official designation is "Ambassador of Fun and Prime Minister to Laughland," is the producing clown. He and his gang will show many new and novel comedy stunts when John Robinson's Circus comes here on Saturday, October 8.

Four of Johnson's chief funmakers are George Harmon, Denny Sullivan and the Simmons Twins, a quartette of midgets that put many laughable gags. These midgets, despite their size, cover more ground than the majority of adult clowns, and are constantly in and out of the rings, on the stages and all over the hippodrome track.

Hunting Licenses Are Disposed of Rapidly in Pitt

C. J. Moore, of Washington, district game commissioner, was in the city today, checking over records of the issuance of hunting licenses in the county. He stated that over $1,600 worth of licenses had been issued from the courthouse here alone. Licenses are also being issued in other parts of the county. The commissioner was unable to say how much money had been taken in.

State were complying rapidly with legislation enacted by the last legislature requiring all hunters to have licenses, and that over 100,000 licenses and badges had already been sold. He said Pitt County more than likely would dispose of $5,000 worth of licenses.

Ticket Scalpers Under Bond Today

Pittsburgh, Oct. 5.—(AP)—Ten men, charged with scalping world's series tickets, were under police court bonds today, for a hearing later. They were arrested last night and early today. Police confiscated 82 sets of tickets. These were to be sold by police officials at their face value.

The police went into action after Barney Drelus, owner of the Pirates, called on them to enforce a city ordinance which forbids the sale of tickets at more than the printed price.

Detectives and plainclothesmen were ordered to mingle with the baseball crowds at Forbes Field and to arrest any who attempted to sell tickets at a premium.

CELEBRATE MASS FOR MISSING PRINCESS

London, Oct. 5.—(AP)—At the same time today as Lily Dillens, Viennese actress, was speeding over the Bay of Biscay, as a passenger in the Junkers plane D-1230, a requiem mass was celebrated at Farm street church in London for the Princess Lowenstein-Wertheim who lost her life in the ill-fated trans-Atlantic attempt of the St. Raphael.

At the conclusion of the service, royal air force trumpets sounded taps.

About Town

The Rotary meeting held in Fountain Monday night ought to be a means of drawing the citizens of the two towns closer together...

"I am mighty glad the church was able to complete the religious census of the city last Sunday," said J. H. Boyd, president of the men's Bible class...

The census has been needed for a long time, and now that we have it the churches should be able to work far more intelligently than ever before...

Hereafter, we shall have a definite record of how many people do not attend church regularly, how many are not church members...

Greenville has certainly taken a forward step in disseminating the great truths of the Bible as the Word of God...

J. C. Gaskins, register of deeds of Pitt County, sees no race suicide for this part of the State as long as victims of Cupid's arrows continue to make applications for marriage licenses...

to be considerably more in the pit Standardization movement of the American College of Surgeons. Mr. Gaskins is optimistic concerning the future of Pitt County's sturdy race...

Again Greenville has forged to the front! This time the honor comes through Pitt County hospital which is credited with being one of twenty-eight fully approved hospitals in the State of North Carolina...

"Choosing a hospital is one of the most serious responsibilities confronting the public of the present day," said a prominent citizen today, and it is gratifying indeed to know that we have in our midst one of the best institutions of the kind to be found anywhere...

We have no personal feelings against the Brooks brothers, and do not desire to see them nor anybody else suffer unjustly, but when men are caught at a still, as was their case, it is but just to the community that they pay the penalty meted out to them at the hands of the court, unless the court finds that it was misinformed and misguided and requests that the Governor correct the error by freeing the men.

In the matter of the Governor's action in the Brooks case we feel that the citizens of Pitt county are entitled to some explanation. What they are asking today, is "WHY?"

REPUBLICANS ARE GUESTS OF PRESIDENT

National Committee-men to Name Convention City at Meeting December 6th.

Washington, Oct. 5.—(AP)—Selection of a city for the 1928 Republican national convention will be made at a meeting of the national committee here December 6.

The decision to make a selection December 6, was announced today by Chairman Butler after conferences with more than a score of members of the committee. He said the usual procedure of naming a subcommittee to consider the bids of various cities for the convention would be dispensed with. Instead Roy O. West, secretary of the committee will write to interested persons in the various cities inviting them to forward all the facts that will be necessary for consideration by the full committee in making its selection.

Discussions among committee-men indicate that San Francisco and Cleveland are far ahead in present consideration of any of the more than half a dozen cities seeking the party gathering, although Minneapolis and Detroit have their supporters among the party chieftains.

Several committee-men said that Cleveland, where the 1924 convention was held, was strongly favored because of its fine auditorium and the proximity of the hall to the principal hotels.

It was stated by some that the far distance to San Francisco and the accompanying expense of a trans-continental journey for the large delegations from the east and south were factors in the minds of some party officials as militating against selection of that city.

Washington, Oct. 5.—(AP)—A group of Republican national committee-men were breakfast guests today of President Coolidge at the White House, but those who were present said later that neither the President's statement that he does not choose to run for re-election next year nor any other political subject was discussed.

Previously the President had let it be known that no political significance was to be attached to the gathering and the guests reported that the time was passed only with informal conversation.

There had been predictions in some quarters that President Coolidge might take advantage of the opportunity to amplify his much discussed statement of August 2, although there have been no indications at the White House that he intends to do so.

The committee-men who went to the White House today for wheat cakes and sausages are in Washington for a series of informal conferences with Chairman William M. Butler of the national committee.

In addition to Chairman Butler, those who attended the breakfast were William V. Hodges, Colorado, treasurer of the committee; Roy A. West, Illinois, secretary; George Wharton Pepper, Pennsylvania; C. Bescom Slemm, Virginia; Edward F. Colladay, District of Columbia; John T. Adams, Iowa, former national chairman; David M. Mulvane, Kansas; Joseph B. Kealing, Indiana; Dr. E. B. Clements, Missouri; George W. Bean, Florida; Charles A. Rawson, Iowa; Joseph W. Tolbert, South Carolina; Richard T. Ernst, Kentucky; J. W. THREE WIVES AT TRIAL OF W. T. JORDAN

Minister Faces Bigamy Trial in Mecklenburg County Superior Court Today.

Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 5.—(AP)—Six children and three women stood in the office of the Rev. Willis T. Jordan faced a Mecklenburg County Superior Court today to answer charges of bigamy in which the legal status of all were at stake.

Mrs. Emma Langridge-Jordan, formerly of Washington, D. C., came here to appear against Jordan, whom she claims she married in Charlotte, August 19 and afterward moved with him to Columbus, Ga., from which city he disappeared soon after he obtained a pastor's title several weeks ago.

Mrs. Vasey Ware Jordan of Winding Gulf, West Virginia, whom the clerkman claims is his only "true wife" was expected hourly to testify if necessary that she wed Jordan several years ago and has a son by that marriage.

Solicitor John G. Carpenter yesterday received a telegram from Mrs. Laura Jordan, of Zips, Ill., whom he says stated she married the minister at Oswego, Kansas, September 5, 1924 and claims five living children by that union. She will not attend the trial, the solicitor declared, but added that he may use the information during the proceedings.

Court officials expressed the belief that the trial will continue for three days. The defense has outlined its case briefly announcing it will contend Jordan was a victim of amnesia and not responsible for his actions at times. Jordan has stated that he did not "knowingly" marry the two other women.

No effort was made by counsel to obtain the $10,000 bond set for Jordan, who was brought here Friday from Grand Rapids, Mich., where he was arrested upon advice from Columbus.

Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 5.—(AP)—Milder denunciation of W. T. Gloor, Columbus, Ga., private detective today marked the entry of the Rev. Willis T. Jordan into the Superior court room here for his trial on a charge of bigamy. The scene was precipitated when Gloor, who brought Mrs. Emma Langridge-Jordan, alleged bigamous wife of the minister, to Charlotte to testify against him, walked up to Jordan and shook hands.

"I understand you have said that I had 40 wives over the country," the accused minister told the detective.

"I did not say anything of the kind," the detective retorted. "Your predicament grew out of the search I was making to locate you after you were reported kidnapped."

"I understand you have three women here to testify in this trial; I understand that you have done a lot of letter writing and a lot of telegraphing and a lot of work," Jordan said. "I want to know who is furnishing the money. You are not doing this for your health."

"My fee is being paid by the good people of Columbus," Gloor replied, and to this Jordan answered:

"I consider you one of the bitterest and most vituperative enemies I have on the face of the earth."

At this point J. Cliff Newell, one of Jordan's attorneys, walked up and Gloor walked away. Jordan was brought into the courtroom at 11 o'clock but the State was busy with other matters and it was expected that the case would not be called until about noon. Mrs. Vasey Ware-Jordan, who has anticipated she will stand by the minister and who says she is his only "true wife" had not appeared at noon although she was reported to have started from Winding Gulf, W. Va., two days ago.

At 12 o'clock Solicitor John G. Carpenter announced that owing to other cases on the docket the Jordan bigamy case would not be reached until 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

It also developed during the morning that the presence of Mrs. Vasey Ware-Jordan, of Winding Gulf, W. Va., "true wife" of the defendant was doubtful. The solicitor announced that he had been in communication with her and she could not be here today. He said he intended to communicate with her again and ascertain when she could arrive. Mrs. Jordan in a letter to the accused man made public the day after he arrived here under arrest from Grand Rapids, Mich., said she would "stand by him," but despite this the solicitor plans to use her as a witness to establish the marriage, if she comes.

It also developed that certified copies of records showing the marriage of Jordan and Mrs. Ware-Jordan had not arrived. The solicitor, however, said that he expected to be able to establish the marriage from other sources if this record is not received in time.

"Honolulu Boy," the champion Liberty jumper, who clears the hurdles at nearly seven feet, is one of the famous equines with John Robinson's Circus, scheduled for two performances here on Saturday, October 8. "Honolulu Boy" was purchased at an early age by the Robinson management from a famous breeding farm in the East, and has been trained by Carlos Carreon, a well known horseman.

WORLD SERIES SIDELIGHTS

(By The Associated Press)
Pittsburgh, Oct. 5.—(AP)—This world's series battle won't be any tougher than a few that Joe Harris and John Miljus, two Pirates stars, have experienced. Joe and John were teammates in the A. E. F. They fought through the war with the 320th infantry, headquarters company, of the 80th (Blue Ridge) Division, seeing especially hot action during the Argonne offensive in September, 1918.

"One Eye" Connelly, self-styled "world's champion gate crasher," arrived with the prediction that the Pirates would win the first game but that the Yanks would capture the series.

Honus Wagner, who led the National League in hitting eight times, the first 27 years ago, spoke as one batsman to another when Babe Ruth "drove a ball out of the park in batting practice."

"That's hitting 'em Babe," was the great Wagner's tribute. "You are a good hitter yourself," said Ruth.

"Want to hit one?"
"No thanks," replied Wagner, who is on the shady side of 50. "I'm leaving the hitting now to you kids."

The former star Pittsburgh shortstop says "we" as he calls the Pirates, will win the series.

"The speed of 'Big Ben' Paschal, substitute Yankee outfielder amazed Pittsburgh fans who saw him chasing fly balls."
"Watch that big fellow run," said a close observer as the 190-pound Paschal dashes about. The outfielder stole 34 bases in one season with Atlanta in the Southern Association, before he became understudy to Babe Ruth.

Farmville Club Will Play Here Friday Afternoon

C. W. Porter, director of athletics of the Greenville High School, today announced that the next game to be played here would take place between Greenville and Farmville at the fair grounds Friday afternoon at four o'clock.

The team came through the game with Kinston last Friday without injury, and are in splendid condition for the game with Farmville.

Mr. Porter said that 500 patrons' tickets had been prepared for the present season. These will be offered for sale at $1.00 each and will be good for two games to be played on the local gridiron this season.

He urged parents to buy as many of these tickets as possible and encourage the boys in their efforts to put out one of the best teams of the season.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON
New York, Oct. 5.—(AP)—The cotton market opened steady today at an advance of two points to a decline of three points but weakened after the call under renewed liquidation, Southern and local selling.

December sold off to 20.85 1/2 and March to 21.15, about 3 points net lower but trade buying on scale down orders and covering checked the decline and caused rallies of a few points by the end of the first hour.

The weekly weather report was about a standoff but seemed to bring in a little buying at the decline.

Three private crop reports gave condition figures ranging from 31.7 to 53.8 and on the indicated crop from 12,655,000 up to 13,334,000 bales.

NO NECESSITY FOR SPECIAL JUDGE IN EASTERN DISTRICT
Raleigh, Oct. 5.—(AP)—Governor McLean, after appointing Judge John H. Harwood of Bryson City as special Superior Court Judge for the Western District, today reaffirmed that he saw no present necessity for appointment of a special judge in the Eastern division.

"It is entirely possible that no appointment will have to be made in that division," he said.

The Governor found that from May 2 to Sept. 26 it was necessary to order special terms of court aggregating 69 weeks in the west in part of the State beyond Asheville.

Judge Harwood takes office Saturday and is assigned to hold court in Wilkes County beginning Monday.

Los Angeles, Oct. 5.—(AP)—The first of resolutions to be brought before the American Federation of Labor now holding its annual convention here was before its committee today.

The passing of the final moment at which a resolution could be filed started the convention rolling on the actual business of organized labor after two days devoted to the routine of opening the sessions. A flood of resolutions had poured in since the opening of the sessions.

Secretary of Labor James J. Davis told the delegates that never before had American industry been so free from strife as today. He made a plea for co-operation of industry and labor.

NOVEL TREATS OF NEWSPAPERS AND MARRIAGE

NEW BEDFORD, Mass. (AP)—People ought to write about what they understand best believes Clara Sharpe Hough, newspaperwoman and newspaperman's wife, who in her novel "Not For Publication," dwells upon the tangled affairs of a newspaperman and his wife.

With five members of her family in newspaper work what better she asks, than to draw characters from the journalistic profession? With nine years of marriage and two husky sons to her credit what more reasonable than to involve her figures in a story of modern marriage?

This novelist has lived on two slopes of the continent. She grew up and took her first college degree on the Pacific coast. She won her second degree and her husband at Columbia University on the Atlantic seaboard.

Mrs. Hough is president of the alumni association of the Columbia University School of Journalism. In New Bedford, Mass., where she makes her home, she has been girl scout, councillor and public library trustee. She sold her first story while at Mills College in 1914. Her historical romance, "Leaf the Lucky," was published last summer.

Successful head, Mr. Green. The American Federation has 2,812,457 union men paying regularly. There are 106 national and international unions, and 29,394 local unions, including all kinds of workers, beginning with actors associated, and ending with wire weavers.

"Overalls and white collars" will soon be combined. The man with overalls now earns enough to wear a white collar in the evening. And soon, under the Ford five day week plan, he will wear overalls five days and a white collar, with swallow tail coat attached if he wants to over week-ends.

Let's hope he will use part of his leisure time reading and thinking. That's what Ford did—especially THINKING.

The Japanese race is taller, boys and girls. Erroneously attributed to gymnastic exercises, the greater height is due largely to the fact that many Japanese eat meat instead of rice. Japan was compelled to feed her soldiers meat to get western matching efficiency. A horse can't race on grass, or a man on rice.

The British for awhile stunted their children with labor in factories and mills, occasionally starving them to provide small "chimney sweeps."

The British have stopped that, but not this country. Plenty of child labor here.

You can't realize, dimly, this country's wealth. As you travel from the Atlantic to the Pacific. The stock ticker's story means only the guess of the speculators, plus definite statements of dividends, and a few secrets leaking from these that know.

One page of a newspaper here devoted to news of mines and oils: "New gold rush in Nevada." "Oil rush begun in New centre." "Strike of lead-zinc reported." "Discovery of the new oil pool," etc.

Wealth surrounds us in every direction, across the Mexican border, since 1901 the amount of oil taken out is 1,434,816,500 barrels. There is wealth even greater across the Canadian continent.

We are rich here in America. And we are frightfully wasteful and slow to repair waste. This city more than a million people has reached its limit of water supply. And nearby the Colorado river wastes every day, more than one hundred times the total amount of water that Los Angeles uses, pouring it into the Gulf of California.

London, criticizes the American "seron visit." "Too much America" is the complaint. There has been no allusion to "Too much American money."

The English are a wonderful people, but they change "complexes" rapidly. Before 1914 they had a superiority complex, thought themselves better than others. After having their "backs to the wall" awhile, they switched to an "inferiority complex" which now afflicts them. They will get over it, go back to their natural superiority complex and be happy again.

A million gathered to greet and cheer Von Hindenburg on his 80th birthday.

He has shown himself a loyal President of the German republic putting Kaiser and militarism behind him, and doing his duty.

But it was not the President of Germany's republic that the crowd cheered. It was the FIGHTER of former days. Men want peace, government, prosperity. But they long for GLORY. And that, they imagine, is what the fighter gives them.

EXECUTE MEN TAKING PART IN REBELLION

(Continued from Page One.) Instead of ballots. In similar fashion federal soldiers previously have decorated trees and telephone poles with the bodies of bandits and rebels.

Officials of the Mexican border city were informed that Serrano and his followers, many of them prominent in Mexican political and military life had gone to Morelos to enlist the support of General Juan Dominguez, Yaqui Indian leader and chief of military operations in that State. Dominguez was an old friend of Serrano but instead of joining him ordered the court-martial and execution of the four on charges of inciting a revolution.

Other fragments of news which speeded across the boundary line here included reports that trouble had broken out in the State of Sinaloa. There also were reports of

Chinese Troops Discouraged

London, Oct. 5.—(AP)—The Daily Mail's Shanghai correspondent bears that Marshal Chang Tso-Lin's Manchurian troops are beginning to drift into Peking in an "ominous state of discouragement" after their defeat by Yen Hsi-Shan's Shanxi province army.

Meanwhile Feng Yu-Hsiang, is understood to be ready to move northward against Peking in accordance with a plan to seize the capital said to have been prepared by Michael Borodin, Russian citizen, who was formerly adviser to the Hankow nationalist regime.

VARE CASE IS UNUSUAL

Senate Confronted by Unique Situation in Case of Senator-Elect From Penn.

Washington, Oct. 3.—(AP)—A unique if not unprecedented situation confronts the Senate in the case of William S. Vare, senator-elect from Pennsylvania.

Vare's right to a seat is disputed because of huge expenditures in his primary campaign and by his Democratic opponent in the general election, William B. Wilson, who charges general fraud in a number of counties.

The problem for the Senate, and more particularly for the Democratic leaders, is which of the two counts shall first be considered. If the former member of the House and Republican "boss" of Philadelphia is denied the oath of office, parliamentarians say the Wilson contest cannot be pressed as the Senate in effect, at least, will have declared the seat vacant.

As a result of disclosures already made, some Democrats believe there is a strong possibility that if the Wilson contest is pressed, sufficient irregularities will be uncovered to bring about the seating the former labor secretary. Others in the Democratic ranks doubt that Wilson could be seated and they favor denying the oath to Vare or otherwise he will be a member of the Senate for most if not all of the coming session as it will require months to count the more than one million ballots cast in Philadelphia.

The question of seating Vare and Frank W. Smith, of Illinois, will be the first to engage the Senate's attention. There is no formal contest in Smith's case, but he already has been denied the oath under appointment by Governor Small because officials of public utilities corporations contributed large sums to his campaign fund at a time when he was serving as chairman of the Illinois Commerce Commission.

Should both men be refused the oath, Pennsylvania and Illinois would have only half representation in the Senate, at least at the start of the session. Smith has made it known that he will knock at the door of each succeeding Senate until the six years' term for which he was elected has expired. Should he fail to do that course, Illinois would have only one Senator during the next six years.
