

NEW YORK VICTORIOUS IN THIRD GAME

HERB PENNOCK HURLS MATES TO 8 TO 1 VICTORY BEFORE GREATEST CROWD OF SERIES

Babe Ruth Furnishes Thrill of Game With Home Run in the Seventh Inning.

Yankee Stadium, N. Y., Oct. 7. (AP)—In a game featured by sensational pitching by Herb Pennock who won his fifth world's series game without a defeat, and a home run by Babe Ruth, the New York Yankees made it three straight from the Pittsburgh Pirates by winning today 8 to 1, before a crowd of over 60,000.

First Inning Pirates—Pennock warmed up in box; Meadows continued to work along the sidelines. There another delay as motion picture men filmed Judge Landis high commissioner of baseball in his box. L. Waner up; ball one, outside; strike one, called; Koenig threw out L. Waner at first; Rhyme up; ball one, inside; this was a swinging curve; strike one called; ball two, outside; Rhyme tied to Meusel; P. Waner up. The crowd gave P. Waner a big hand; Meusel came in for P. Waner's loss.

No runs, no hits, no errors. New York—Combs up; Meadows warmed up a bit; strike one, called; it was a fast ball; strike two, foul ball; ball one, high; foul ball, this was lined in the left field stand; Combs singles over second; Koenig gets a scratch hit, Combs stops at second; Ruth up; strike one, called; ball one, outside; Babe sent up a high one to right; Gehrig up; Combs and Koenig scores on Gehrig's three-bagger, but Gehrig was thrown out at the plate, stretching his three-bagger; Meusel up; strike one called; foul strike two; Meusel struck out.

Two runs, three hits, no errors. Second Inning Pirates—Wright up; foul, strike one; Combs took Wright's short fly; Traynor up; ball one, inside; strike one, called; this was a drop curve on the outside corner; strike two called; this curve cut the inside corner of the plate; foul; Lazzeri came over fast and took Traynor's grounder with his gloved hand and tossed him out. Barnhart up; strike one, called; Lazzeri smothered Barnhart's grounder and got him at first.

No runs, no hits, no errors. Third Inning Yankees—Lazzeri up; strike one, swung; strike two, swung; Lazzeri was going after wide hooks, ball one, outside; Lazzeri fanned, taking a third called strike. It was Meadows' second strike out. Dugan up; ball one, outside; strike one, swung; ball two, outside; Wright threw out Dugan at first; Wright's throw almost pulled Harris off the bag; Grabowski up; ball one, low; inside; strike one, called; Traynor up; strike one, called; Grabowski at first.

No runs, no hits, no errors. Pirates—Harris up; strike one, called; Harris sent out a fly to Combs. He Sells Chevrolets. The Coolidge's 22 Years. Fat Hens, Eggs Cheap. Mr. Gillette Buys. (By Arthur Brisbane) Copyright 1927, by Star Co.

This is written in California, after a day spent in rushing thru real estate. In a fast blue Chevrolet, driven by William Packer, sales manager for Los Angeles. Next stop will be at San Francisco, traveling on Paul Shoup's "Lark," the fast Southern Pacific night train.

Mr. Packer says: "Don't go by train. Let me drive you to San Francisco in this car and I'll guarantee to beat the 'Lark' by three hours."

When conservatism decides not to make the 500 and odd miles in nine hours of night riding, in the Chevrolet Blue Bird, Mr. Packer says: "All right, I'll take you to the train and leave you there and meet you at the San Francisco station tomorrow morning."

If you don't want to buy another car, keep away from William Packer of Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge celebrated yesterday the 22nd anniversary of their wedding, with all the peoples good wishes. This land means opportunity. Twenty-three years ago he was a young lawyer, she a very young school teacher. Now he is President of the United States and but for four words, "I do not choose," would remain in the White House four years from March 4th 1929, making a ten year term in all.

President Coolidge looks 22 year older than he did 22 years ago. Mrs. Coolidge looks not one year older as many friends of her girlhood will testify.

Two Floors Of Paper Factory Cave In Today

Appleton, Wis., Oct. 7.—(AP)—Two floors of the large Kimberly-Clark Paper Mill at Kimberly, near here, caved in today. Mill officials were unable to say how many persons were on the floors and whether any were injured or killed. The cave-in occurred without warning. At least twenty persons were injured when the floors collapsed and some members of a construction crew working on the first floor were believed to have been caught beneath the debris.

The Kimberly-Clark plant is the largest paper mill in the United States and the operations are housed in one immense building. The part of the building that collapsed is practically in the center of the plant.

Round-up Liquor Men at E. City

Elizabeth City, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Striking with lightning like suddenness five prohibition agents led by J. J. London in charge of federal liquor law enforcement in this section, this morning rounded up sixteen alleged prohibition law violators. Operating with five fast automobiles the agents began operations shortly after daybreak and within three hours had eleven white men and five negroes under arrest. The raids was an aftermath of Square Garden tonight against Tommy Loughran, of Philadelphia, over the fifteen round distance. The preliminary hearings were started shortly before noon.

Winterville Stages Best Community Fair in Years; Other Fairs Held Today

The first community fairs of Pitt county were held in Winterville and Bevoir townships yesterday. Numbers of people from all parts of both localities were in attendance throughout the day, and vied with one another in the presentation of prize products.

Fairs will be held today at Stokes and Fountain, and probably at Bethel, although this had not been confirmed this morning. These will be the only fairs to be held in the county this year. Miss Bertha Lee Ferguson, home demonstration agent of Pitt county said this morning, and every effort has been advanced to make them the best in history.

The fair at Winterville was presented under auspices of the Parents-Teachers Association. It was held in the mammoth automobile storage warehouse on the campus of the Winterville high school, which was well filled with township people all day long.

It was the second community fair ever held in Winterville but judging by the number and variety of exhibits a casual observer would have thought the fair had been an annual occurrence for many years. Virtually every department of the farm and home was represented, as were numbers of exhibits from the public school of the section.

The school exhibits embraced contributions from the first to the seventh grade. Of special interest in the department was a display dealing with the right and wrong way of living prepared by pupils of the primary department. The different things contributing to good health and had health were brought out in a comprehensive way, and provided an ideal lesson for students in all grades.

Greenville Sells 1,030,250 Pounds Tobacco Thursday

The Greenville Tobacco market yesterday sold 1,030,250 pounds of tobacco for $232,148.88, at an average of $22.53, according to official report issued today by K. W. Cobb, secretary of the Greenville Tobacco Board of Trade.

Rebel Forces Lined Up For Battle Today

Nogales, Sonora, Mexico, Oct. 7.—(AP)—The body of Alfonso De La Huerta, brother of Adolfo De La Huerta, former provisional president of Mexico, was brought into this border city at 5 a. m. this morning.

The body was brought in on a flat car by General Aguirre of the Mexican federal army who was sent with 100 men, to hunt for De La Huerta yesterday when the latter was seen at Imures, 60 miles from here.

General Aguirre reported that he came upon De La Huerta and nine companions, one of whom was General Baron Medina, several miles east of Imures. The other eight were Yaqui Indians. De La Huerta and his officer companion gave battle and were literally riddled with bullets, according to Aguirre. The eight Indians fled at the approach of the federals.

MINISTER IS FOUND GUILTY BIGAMY COUNT

Rev. W. T. Jordan Found Guilty by Jury, With Recommendation For Mercy.

Charlotte, Oct. 7.—(AP)—The jury finds Rev. Jordan guilty of bigamy with recommendation of mercy.

Charlotte, Oct. 7.—(AP)—The case of the Rev. Willis T. Jordan, Columbus, Ga., minister, went to the jury at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Solicitor John G. Carpenter who had been allotted two hours for his argument, used only about an hour, and after a brief charge by the judge, the jury took the case.

In the event of conviction the sentence can be anything from four months in jail to 10 years in the penitentiary.

The jury reached a verdict 18 minutes after taking the case but Judge Webb had gone to lunch and at 12:55 the jury was in the box awaiting the return of the judge before announcing their verdict.

Charlotte, Oct. 7.—(AP)—The Rev. Willis T. Jordan, Columbus, Ga., minister, will likely know this afternoon whether or not he is to go to prison on a charge of contracting a bigamous marriage with Mrs. Emma Landridge, of Washington, D. C.

This morning attorney Tom P. Jimison for the defense, pleaded with the jury to release the aged minister because they asserted that his mind is disordered and that he was drawn into this marriage by his whirlwind and marvelous courtship.

"This courtship was about the fastest thing I have ever heard of," the attorney told the jury.

"I know that old man Jordan is crazy," he said in his argument referring to the testimony of Dr. J. E. S. Davidson, alienist, who yesterday testified that the minister was suffering from a progressive mental disorder.

Solicitor John G. Carpenter began his final summing up of two hours at 11 o'clock, lauding Mrs. Emma Landridge-Jordan, the prosecuting witness and scoring Jordan.

SEN. GEORGE SPEAKER AT CELEBRATION

Georgia Politician Delivers Principal Address at King's Mountain Celebration.

Kings Mountain, N. C., Oct. 7.—(AP)—The true test of Americanism is loyalty to American ideals and institutions, Senator George, Democrat, Georgia, declared today in an address delivered at the 147th anniversary of the battle of Kings Mountain.

"This involves neither creed nor race, he said, but rests rather on fidelity to the Constitution and adherence to the philosophy on which the government of the United States was established.

"Our institutions are based upon the deep setting of human rights," he continued. "They are not founded upon force. Force actual or potential there must be to maintain order within the State and to provide for the common defense against outside attack.

"The central idea in our institutions is that the individual, the common man, was born free and equal, endowed by his Creator with certain inalienable rights and the central purpose in writing our constitution was to protect this common man in the enjoyment of the fullest measure of personal liberty.

CONGRESSMAN TO SPEAK IN CITY TONIGHT

Lindsay Warren to Address Kiwanians on Opening Tar River to Navigation.

Congressman Lindsay S. Warren, of Washington, will be the principal speaker at the regular bi-monthly meeting of the Greenville Kiwanis Club tonight. The topic of the evening will be, "Deepening Washington to Greenville. The program will be in charge of E. K. Flanagan, one of the best known promoters of water transportation in this section.

Among other principal speakers of the evening will be Major W. A. Snow, United States engineer, L. G. Hogsair, president of the Norfolk, Baltimore and Carolina boat line, and in all probability, representatives of large shippers affected.

President W. H. Woolard stated this morning that over twenty-five guests had been invited to this meeting.

Deepening Tar River so as to permit the operation of a boat line to Norfolk has been a matter of considerable discussion the last several years, but not until right recently did it receive sufficient impetus as to command concerted action by any organization. It is believed by many that water transportation would be a means of decreasing freight rates, and at the same time of bringing a greater volume of business to Greenville and Pitt County.

The races. These features alone Mr. Dall said, would be an improvement over all previous years.

Agricultural exhibits from many sections have already begun to arrive. Pitt county will have the largest number of exhibits in history. Many communities have promised to be represented, and competition is expected to be greater than ever.

NEW POTATO ASSOCIATION GETS UNDER WAY IN N. C.

Raleigh, Oct. 7.—(AP)—The new Potato Association for North Carolina got under way today when prospective buyers in the east and north were lined up, the state department of agriculture reported, with about 1,500 carloads of sweet potatoes shipped outside the state so far this season, compared with 1,300 last season.

Lisbon, Portugal, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Departure of the Junkers plane, D-1230 for the Azores, enroute to the United States, was postponed today because of a thick fog at sea.

CITY FATHERS APPROVE MORE STREET PAVING

Authorize Improvements in Connection With $125,000 Street Improvement Program.

The Board of Aldermen in regular monthly session here last night, authorized the paving of additional streets in connection with the street improvement program made possible sometime ago through the issuance of $125,000 worth of street improvement bonds. The board also listened to several petitions asking for other improvements in the business and industrial life of the community.

The session was presided over by Mayor J. C. Lanier, with virtually every member of the board being present.

Paving will begin within the next few days on the petitions receiving action last night, it was stated by members of the board today, and will be completed as early as possible.

Streets authorized to be paved were: Lawrence street, Ninth to Tenth; Eighth and Ninth Streets, from Charles street to East Carolina Teachers College property line; Holly Lane, from Fourth to Fifth Streets; Reade Street, from Eighth to Ninth.

Curbing and gutter were authorized on Thirteenth Street, from Evans street to Reade, a distance of two blocks; Reade Street, from Eighth to Ninth.

Julie Brown appeared before the board and asked for relief on inspection fees of slaughter houses. A committee was appointed to investigate and to report at the next meeting.

Haywood Dall, secretary of the Pitt County (S. C.) appeared before the board and asked for a donation of $100 to be used in decoration of the city during fair week. The request was granted.

F. V. Johnston asked for opening of Pine Street. A committee was appointed to investigate and report at the next meeting.

The matter of purchasing a new Stutz fire pump was referred to a committee with instructions to investigate.

Dr. Viola was offered the sum of $25.00 a month for a minimum of two inspections of city markets.

The town was authorized to borrow the sum of $50,000 for a period of twelve days, said money to be used in anticipation of money derived from the sale of street improvement bonds some time ago.

Other matters considered during the evening were of a routine nature, but of sufficient importance to hold the board in session until a late hour.

Freshman Cubs Beat 7th Grade

The "Cub" football team of the Greenville high school defeated the seventh grade boys yesterday afternoon in an exciting scrimmage. Both teams consisted of boys under 120 lbs., and the amount of football knowledge and skill they showed was surprising.

The game was thoroughly worth while in the opinion of all spectators, though both sides stuck to "straight" football and used few tricks or forward passes. None of the latter were successful. Whitehurst ran the Cubs well and made several slashing off-tackle gains. Dees contributed the feature plays of the day, reversing his direction behind the line of scrimmage twice for 25 or 30 yard gains, and carrying the ball around right end for 40 yards and the final score just before the final whistle. Dees did some spectacular open field running, generally turning up where he was least expected, and Whitehurst proved a dependable battering ram through the line.

On defense Brown proved a stock tower of strength, breaking through and smearing many plays. Splendid tackles were also contributed by Jones, Lee and James. For the seventh grade, David Hardee was the mainspring right thru until he withdrew and Taylor contained his team like a veteran. Taking the kick-off, seventh grade marched straight to the three-yard line, where the Cubs held for downs and regained the center before losing the ball on a fumble. The half ended with no score, but in the third quarter the Cubs tallied once. Captain Bullock counting Greenville's first point of the season. In the final period Dees scored twice on wide end runs and each time Bullock carried the ball through the line for an extra point, making the total 20 to 0.

CITY SUSTAINS $79,525.00 IN LOSS BY FIRE

Greenville sustained a property loss of $79,525.00 during the fiscal year ending July 1st, 1927, according to information given out this morning by George Clark, chief of the local fire department, in a statement calling on the people of Greenville to observe "National Fire Prevention Week," which begins next Monday.

"The majority of these fires resulted from carelessness," the fire chief declared, "and if the loss is to be decreased during the present year it is very necessary for the citizenship to use every precautionary measure possible."

The most destructive fire of the city occurred during the spring; when one of the high schools was destroyed at a loss of $57,000.00. Other losses ranging from a hundred dollars to three and four thousand dollars occurred from time to time.

"Over seventy-five percent of North Carolina's fire loss of life and property was caused by carelessness. There were burned to death in this state 286 people, while twice that number were injured. The state suffered a property loss of $6,649,839.00, and 2,436 buildings were affected by the fires, comprising 1,330 residences, 16 apartments, 60 garages, 26 school houses, 110 stores, 5 hospitals, 17 churches and 61 factories.

"Fires in many instances are caused by defective electric wiring and carelessness with electric irons and other appliances; defective flues, chimneys, stoves and furnaces; carelessness with matches; sparks on shingle and other quick burning roofs; starting fires with kerosene; cleaning with gasoline; hot ashes and coals; accumulation of trash and spontaneous combustion; rags; cigar and cigarette butts and incendiaries.

"Members of the fire department will appreciate wide co-operation in their effort to make the city safe from the destructive fire demon."

Here You Have it in The New Irene Castle CORTICELLI FASHIONS

The kind of simplicity that is cashing only in sport clothes has been the vogue from morning until night. So much so that fashions had become a little monotonous.

Now Paris dictates the return of individuality. This offers no problem to the woman who follows Irene Castle's exquisite taste in choosing her clothes.

Irene Castle has a genius for transmuted the elements of the mode into costumes of transcendent chic and becomingness.

Notice the graceful way in which she gives to one frock its uneven hemline; how in another she continues a surplice into a saucy bow; how cleverly she designs a one-sided neck, not for the front but the back.

She knows too that silk of lovely quality must combine with smartness of line and detail for true effectiveness. So she insists that all her gowns be made of beautiful rich lustrous Corticelli Silks. Her coats too must be lined with them.

MERL
A cleverly designed two-in-one dress of Corticelli Satin Tremaine displaying unique new skirt and simple slip-on jacket. The under-bodice is of accordion pleated silk chiffon, in contrasting light shade.

REGINA
This unusually effective model of Corticelli Satin Sa-on is distinguished by its new neck-line and the unique application of tiny ruffles at side. The daintiness of Almon lace collar and jabot imparts a refreshing smartness.

WERL
A decidedly smart creation of Corticelli Satin Sa-on, featuring straight lined back and circular tiers at front. The hem-stitched neckline and detachable belt with ornate buckle are unique notes.

JANEE
A strikingly effective sports coat developed in a rich downy wool fabric in new subtle shades to harmonize with the dominant color of the plaid lapels and lining. A beautiful raccoon collar imparts a sportive air of distinction.

Bite yourself an Alphabet

A Pretzeleer can bite in any station

You know how it is. The battery is all tired out. And static is sticky. And you can't tune the soprano out and the prize fight in. But why worry? Be a pretzeleer. Get yourself a plate of O-So-Gud and bite your own station. Like this:

N.B.C.

An expert tooth dialer can bite in any station from Maine to California—bite it in, and eat it out.

And any pretzeleer will be glad to broadcast this: O-So-Gud Pretzels are good to eat—crisp, crunchy, salty.

Eat them at any meal. They give zest to soup, zip to salad and both zip and zest to sweet desserts. You absolutely need them with the clinking glass of something cool to drink.

Children like pretzels between meals. That's good. Who says so? Doctors say so! O-So-Guds are very easy to digest.

O-So-Gud Pretzels are worth their weight in pretzels. Many folks think they're worth more. It's because they're made by the Uneda Bakers.

when a country attempts dumping or unfair discrimination against American trade. It is not a bargaining but a fighting tariff. Now, France has applied her maximum schedule of duties to American imports because we have no trade treaty with her, as Germany has, and our Government has taken the position that the giving of lower rates to Germany than to the United States is unfair discrimination. France has replied that we can get the same sort of favors given to Germany if we are willing to pay for them.

That is the nub of the controversy. Our tariff policy prevents our dealing with France on such terms. In principle our policy of equal treatment for all the world has much to commend it, but in practice it has put us in the position of demanding from each nation all the favors which it bestows on others while we offer no equivalent in return. That is our present attitude toward France. The whole trouble lies in the difference between a bargaining and a fighting tariff. Each country has a right to choose its own system, and there is no reason why either should feel keenly hurt if the other refuses to discard its preferred method.—N. Y. World.

Refrigerated Truck Defies Heat of Sacramento Valley

OPERATING between San Francisco and points in the Sacramento Valley is a refrigerated truck service—the first of its kind in the world. Heretofore only railroad express or refrigerated freight cars could be used to carry perishables through the heat of the valley. The truck and trailer is capable of carrying 21 tons of freight and operates on a 12 hour schedule. Refrigerated by Kelvinator electric refrigeration, a temperature of 34 degrees is maintained. Sustaining this temperature are 6-inch cork walls. This refrigerating system is operated independently of the truck power. Nine tons of beef or veal can be suspended from the roof of the truck and each animal hangs free allowing complete circulation of the chilled air. Especially designed trucks are used, with every provision for power, speed and durability. More Kelvinator trucks are to be put into operation soon, and the service is to be expanded to meet the growing demand for quick delivery of perishables.

About Town

The writer of this column has been talking about community fairs for the last several weeks, but until yesterday he didn't hardly know what one really looked like. Of course, we had some idea of what they might be, but we didn't begin to realize what one since the community is capable of doing with the co-operation of its people. Winterville is to be congratulated. We always knew the people of that community were capable of doing most anything they desired, but until we visited their fair yesterday with Hawwood Dail, secretary of the Pitt County Fair, did we gain an idea of their resourcefulness.

Each department of the fair has exhibits from many of the oldest and best known families of the community. These exhibits set forth virtually all of the most important industries of the section, and show the great possibilities and resources of this thriving and prosperous community. We wish there were more sections like Winterville. We wish there were more people like members of the Parent-Teachers Association in every community so that we might have the pleasure of seeing the efforts of the people launched in the cause of human development. And that's what the community fair means in the long run. It convinces the people of their own importance in the world and helps them to appreciate what the other fellow is doing to keep the wheels of these two branches of progress humming.

Miss Bertha Lee Ferguson, one of the best informed women in the county on what farm women are doing, believes the women of all communities will take an active part in giving their localities due recognition at the Pitt County Fair. Miss Ferguson is convinced that Pitt County women should be able to successfully compete with women of other localities in any line of endeavor. She realizes we not only have the possibilities, but that we also have the resources to make these possibilities become actualities. She is using every influence to help Pitt County women go forward in improvement of home life, and some of the progress she has made in this direction will be reflected in the exhibits to be seen at the Pitt County Fair this year. These exhibits will attest in a mute way the spirit of progress dominating the hearts of many women of our country, and should inspire others to try to perpetuate their noble examples.

Miss Ione Alverson, young women's divisional superintendent of the North Carolina Sunday School Association. "We hope to have big crowds present at each session. The public is cordially invited to attend." "The New York Yankees don't slow up a little and give Pittsburgh a look in, Pirate supporters might as well close their pocket books and go back to work," casually observed a devoted supporter of the losing National League champions as he watched the progress of the game at the Reflector machine yesterday afternoon.

Southern Dairies

Next week is the time set aside for National Fire Prevention Week, and is a time that every citizen should give attention to the study of fire prevention. Each year the tremendous loss of life and property in our nation from fire is astounding and statistics show that the majority of the fire are the result of carelessness. A careful study of fires, their causes and prevention followed by strict practice of prevention measures will do much toward cutting down our annual fire loss.

A CONFLICT OF TARIFF SYSTEMS

President Coolidge has indicated to Washington correspondents that he feels keenly hurt at the attitude of the French Government in the present tariff controversy. Of course, it would be agreeable to us if France were to accept our point of view and discard her tested tariff policies, and it would be equally agreeable to France if we were to see the situation as she does and take an attitude in conformity with her practices. The obstacle to an understanding lies in the wholly different tariff systems of the two countries.

France has a bargaining tariff, with two scales of duties—a maximum and a minimum. The maximum, or general, rates are imposed on the products of countries with which France has no reciprocal trade agreements. The minimum rates are granted in return for tariff favors by other countries. Thus, in the recent Franco-German reciprocity treaty France gave Germany the benefit of low rates on machinery, electrical supplies and chemicals, and Germany reciprocated by granting France special rates on wines, soaps, perfumes and textiles.

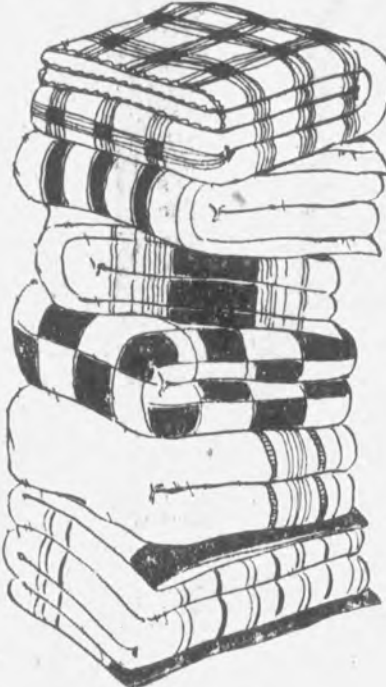

The present American Tariff Law makes no provision for such reciprocity. It sets up a uniform schedule of rates for all countries and prescribes penalties

11TH DISTRICT PYTHIANS HOLD MEETING HERE

Prominent Members of Organization Spoke at Splendid Session Last Night.

Under the direction of S. O. Worthington, District Deputy Grand Chancellor, the Pythians of the seventh district of the Grand Domain of North Carolina met here last night in one of the most successful district meetings ever held. Not only were the Pythians of the seventh district present, but numbers of them from all over the Eastern part of the State were present. Immediately upon calling the meeting to order Mr. Worthington read several telegrams and letters from Pythians in the State wishing success for the meeting.

At suggestion from the chair the visitors introduced themselves when it was learned that representatives were present from Elizabeth City, Wilmington, Weldon and Wilson. Richard Meares, Supreme Master of Exchequer, talked for a few minutes. He stressed the need of more work and reviewed some of the things being done by the Imperial Palace of D. O. K. K. through its $50,000 fund, particularly that of loaning money to boys who are unable to finish their education.

George E. Lovell, Grand Keeper of Records and Signs spoke for a while on the necessity of the institution of the Auxiliary of Pythian Sisters and the Princess of Syracuse. He explained that the Princess of Syracuse is a junior order of Pythians which has for its purpose the taking in of boys from 14 to 21 years of age and training them under the supervision of the local lodge, against the present evils and conditions that are leading the young boys to the commission of crime.

Grand Vice Chancellor C. F. Coward of Weldon, spoke on better attendance at lodge meetings and increase in membership. Several of the visitors from other towns gave short talks on activities in their own lodges. Particularly pleasing was the statement of the Elizabeth City fellows that they were having a D. O. K. K. ceremonial on the 12th of this month. They earnestly requested that every on-looker who is able to do so, assure us a good time.

D. M. Clark and J. E. W. Cook, of the local lodge, gave short talks, expressing a strong willingness to aid in the work of finishing a way and a means of doing something in an endeavor to reach the young boys of this day. Immediately preceding the closing of business light refreshments were served. The meeting was very successful and it is only regrettable that no representation was present from Ayden and so many of the local Pythians saw fit to stay at home.

Huge Safety Drive
Chicago. — Twenty-five thousand churches, 15,000 schools, 9,500 clubs and industrial concerns all over the country will participate in a new highway safety campaign launched by the American Road Builders Association. Charles M. Upham, director of the organization leads the movement.

Post-Bellum Relief
Chicago. — A group of Chicagoans, including a number of prominent business men, have organized a relief fund for the benefit of the former slaves. The fund will be used to purchase land for the former slaves and to provide them with the means of making a living. The fund is now open for contributions and the organizers are asking for a large amount of money.

Will Draft New Code

George W. Wickham, former attorney general of the United States, will draft new treaty for approval of international Hague conference in 1928.

FOOTBALL

Chapel Hill, Oct. 7. — (AP) — Coach Collins put the finishing touches on his Tar Heel varsity today which will be at home tomorrow to its ancient rival, Maryland.

Indications were Collins would probably follow the custom and announce the players a few minutes before game time. The old lineups were expected here tonight.

Davidson, Oct. 7. — (AP) — The Wildcats left today for Wofford College, Spartanburg, S. C., where they will engage the Tigers in annual gridiron combat.

The final workouts saw Coach's Younger and Tyson putting their men through light drills, bent on saving their energy for the game which they expect to be as hard, if not more strenuous than the Florida contest last week.

Duke University, Oct. 7. — (AP) — With indications that Henry Kissel, Charlotte youth and star end, would get into the game and with all other members of the Blue Devil varsity in fine mettle, Coach De Hart took his team to Lexington, Va., to battle Washington and Lee tomorrow.

State College, Oct. 7. — (AP) — Availability of Floyd tackle and Warren fullback who are injured, for playing a full game tomorrow for State against Clemson loomed up today.

Floyd has a "bun" shoulder while Warren also came out of the Parkman game with battle scars. Should these veterans not start it was pointed out that Lepo and Crum, dependable reserves, were ready to take their places.

Chapel Hill, Oct. 7. — (AP) — Duke University and Carolina Freshmen teams were here today to open the football season for first year teams this afternoon.

The probable Tar Heel lineup included Schneider and Tabb ends; Poinke and Dorch tackles; Hurston and White Guards; Lomb center; Wrick quarter; Nelson and Nash, halves; and Houst, fullback.

Williamsburg, Va., Oct. 7. — (AP) — The Fossil-Rhine mountaineers arrived here today from Hickory, N. C., and Coach Gurley declared his charges were fit and ready to battle the William and Mary Indians tomorrow night.

The game will be staged under floodlights on the local field, the visitors were expected to take their usual workout tonight under the lights.

Ran Labor For Soldiers
Tokyo. — Manual labor for soldiers, such as the making of shoes, clothing and rifles, is to be stopped by the ministry of war. Special men will be employed at regular wages for this work. The new arrangement will enable reduction of the term of military service from 20 to 18 months.

MARKETS

COTTON

New York, Oct. 7. — (AP) — The cotton market opened steady today at an advance of 27 to 28 points on early bid trade buying, influenced by relatively steady Liverpool and London reports on falls in the Southwest with prospects for low temperatures.

December sold up to 21.23 and March to 21.51, but these prices attracted more southern hedge selling, or pre-shipment liquidation and early bid reactions of 11 or 15 points in early trading.

The market eased later under renewed liquidation and Southern selling in part attributed to uncertainty over the probable showing of tomorrow's government crop report. A few stop orders were in effect, carrying December off to 21.02 or 20 points from the high level of today and within 2 points of yesterday's close. The market was quiet at close to this figure at midday.

this writer, for the hundredth time

A good housewife would be interested in these two signs.

"Fat hens 22 cents a pound." "Three dozen large fresh eggs, 77 cents."

The housekeeper's husband would want to know that King C. Gillette who makes razors and blades, has bought the northeast corner of 8th and Olive streets, Los Angeles, for one million four hundred and seventy thousand dollars.

J. L. Stack, who knows how to live, shooting ducks and wild geese on the edge of the Pacific, at the same time growing richer and richer from his business in Chicago, says, "Tell young men that this is the time to move west. You walk over a bridge after others have crossed, then you know it is safe."

In old New York days, when Vanderbilts were making their few dozen millions, and when Russell Sage his fifty millions, people thought, "These times can't last." Now Sage and Vanderbilts are interesting beginners. The Rockefellers, Bakers, Melons, are beginning to show how money can be made.

California real estate, stretching a thousand miles along the Pacific, is assessed at seven thousand five hundred million dollars, on a fifty per cent basis. The nominal value is over fifteen billions. But oil now under California ground is worth more than fifteen billions. The soil in the wonderful Sacramento Valley, north of San Francisco, and the Imperial Valley, south of Los Angeles and other California valleys and uplands is worth many times fifteen billions.

Americans have no more idea about the real value of their country than the Indians had when they owned it.

Spaniards, who turned California over to the Mexicans about a hundred years ago, and Mexicans that turned it over to us, will muse sadly reading these figures. But neither Spain nor Mexico would have created the California of today, or produced William Packer, a salesman, whose motto is not 'MANANA' but 'SIGN HERE.'

With the Pacific ocean pounding and grinding in front of you, at ocean in which the United States would be only a good sized island with California boosters, booming all around you, it is hard to realize that other parts of the world really matter.

Germans, at this moment, are flying the Atlantic ocean westward "making the trip uphill," as the sailors say, wisely taking the Azores route.

Mexicans are settling political differences permanently, by shooting the man with whom they do not agree.

The stock market seethes and boils far away on the edge of the Atlantic.

As you sit here, in the Ambassador dining room at noon, you hear the radio far out in the lobby delivering details of the big baseball game. It is three o'clock in Pittsburgh when it is only twelve o'clock here.

But even a national baseball championship or the score 5 to 4 for New York, seems unimportant here, where land you buy to plant oranges may turn into city corner lots while you think about it, or begin spouting oil if you dig a hole in it.

These United States are interesting, variegated lands.

You should buy them and know them. A little car, costing not much to buy, almost nothing to run, will take you anywhere and bring you back.

No excuse now to live in one place forever like a hoptoad sealed up in a vein of coal.

Wild and woolly Westerners, cowboys and cowgirls adept at spinning the lariat, ridding bucking bronchos, bulldozing and all other far West sports and pastimes, will be with us tomorrow. And these champions from the various rodeos and roundups will bring a tribe of Sioux Indians to lend color to Circus Day.

Tomorrow is John Robinson's Day in Greenville. Early in the morning the long steel trains will arrive in the city, via the Norfolk Southern railroad, from Wilson. The boys and girls that wear the five and ten-gallon hats, and incidentally the loud shirts and high-heeled boots will be much in evidence, as John Robinson claims to have a wild West contestant without an equal.

Carlos Carreon, champion of all the country below the Rio Grande, heads the assemblage of ropers and riders. Among the other noted Western representatives will be D. H. Biron, Ed Reece, Eita Carreon, Anna Butler and Dewey Butler. Chief American Horse heads the Sioux Indians.

The wild West division is but one part of John Robinson's Circus, and the management asserts that the 1927 performance is the best in history. The tents will be erected on the grounds at Higgs Bros. Field, while the City Ticket Office will be established in Hill Home drug store.

HOME TOWN BOY SENDS COLLECTION OF ANIMAL HEADS AS MEMORIAL

Belmont, N. Y. (INS) — As a monument to a home town boy who made good, this Genesee Valley town of some 1,200 inhabitants, the seat of Alleghany County, possess one of the finest collections of animals heads and horns in the entire world.

C. L. Casterline, who left Belmont many years ago to make good in the oil fields of Pennsylvania, presented this fine collection to the town, where it is prominently displayed in the town hall.

Stern and dignified the centerpiece and prize of the entire collection, is a head of the Ovis polii, denizen of the Himalayas, for which the Roosevelt Expedition endured great hardships. Another prized piece is a head of the sorrow or donkey deer of India now extinct.

GREAT JUBILEE DIAMOND IS OFFERED FOR SALE

London (INS) — The famous Jubilee Diamond, once the world's largest diamond and now the third in size is for sale to the highest bidder.

It lies in a London bank on behalf of a group of Indians, headed by Sir Dorah Tata, the Parsee Millionaire, and negotiations for its sale are in the hands of London diamond merchants.

One million dollars is being asked for the diamond, but it will be forthcoming as the gem is too large for utility and would not be worth such a sum if cut up.

The stone was found at the Jagersfontein mine in South Africa in 1895; 640 carats in the rough and 229 when cut.

Deck Tennis on Shore

London (AP) — Deck tennis ashore has become a favorite pastime since the Duchess of York took it up aboard the Renown. At many country houses it is played on lawns with rubber quoits instead of the usual rope quoits.

Nursing Record in Two Continents Hard to Equal

Nurse Waite of New Brighton writes "After fifty-five years of tireless labor nursing mankind, I am now retiring."

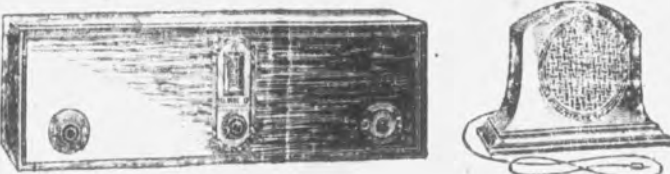

While nursing in New York, in my early twenties, I was poisoned by food, my sister nurse recommended your wonderful CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

The doctor told me that I would have died had I not taken the pills. I am never without them and have prescribed them for thousands of my patients who were suffering with indigestion, gas and sour stomach, biliousness, sick headache and constipation. These pills are indeed a wonderful laxative, being purely vegetable, small and easy to take, children, as well as older people can swallow them easily. CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS All druggists—25c and 75c red pack.
