MR. COOLIDGE IS EXPECTING FARM RELIEF

President Believes Congress Will Enact Some Measure at Its Next Sitting

Washington, Oct. 22.—(AP)—With the problem of agricultural relief already causing dissension among the recently organized bloc of independent Senators from the West, it has been made known that President Coolidge, while not ready to discuss a new farm relief, is hopeful that a measure the administration can approve may be enacted at the coming session of Congress.

The President went over the subject this week with Senator Borah of Idaho, a member of the western group, who said later that he felt certain Mr. Coolidge would leave the problem to Congress rather than employ his ideas in an administration bill.

The rock on which the westerners have split is the equalization fee proposed in the McNary-Haugen bill which caused much heated controversy in Congress last winter and later the veto of President Coolidge.

Senator Norris of Nebraska whom the group has proposed for the Presidency is in favor of the fee and in this he has the support of two other members, Nye and Frazier of North Dakota.

Borah, however, is determinedly opposed. Brookhart of Iowa is willing to go either way and has suggested a compromise under which the equalization fee would be replaced by direct governmental appropriation as a means of providing funds for the marketing of surplus crops.

A meeting of the bloc called for yesterday had to be postponed until Monday because some members were unable to attend.

To Appoint Fair Directors Soon

RALEIGH, October 22.—(AP)—Governor McLean, the State Agricultural Society, and the city of Raleigh today joined hands to facilitate the appointment of 1928 state fair directors for operation of the fair to be held here exactly a year from today.

As soon as the cash is turned over to the state, the appointments will be made.

The governor conferred with Albert Cox, attorney for the society, Dan Allen, society member and Movar Culbreth, this morning, reiterating his readiness to proceed with selection of the 300 new site here as soon as $200,000 had been paid into the hands of the state treasurer.

The site, by express provision of 1927 legislature act, to which the governor objected, will be on State Prison Farm land here. Building totaling $200,000 expenditure will be erected, the city to spend $75,000, the agricultural society $125,000.

The society recently announced ready with its $125,000, and the governor has been waiting on the city to sell its $75,000 bonds, voted in July.

A 15 percent payment on the notes held by the society against purchasers of the old fair grounds is due November 23.

Still Search for Missing Frenchman

Quebec, Oct. 22.—(AP)—A search for Count Jacques De Lesseps, veteran aviator, missing with his mechanic since Tuesday when they took off on a 75-mile aerial survey flight, was directed today along the heavily wooded shores of the lower St. Lawrence, after discovery of wreckage of their plane at Matane and Sandy Bay.

The finding of plane parts scattered on the beach served as some confirmation of the view that the aviator, unheard from after their take-off from Gaspe for Van Brulant, had been forced down by the storm that raged since their departure. A watch and stockings were found in the cockpit of the wrecked craft.

Both fliers carried life preservers, and it is believed possible that they had managed to reach shore at some point almost inaccessible of approach by the usual means of communication. On this assumption, search parties pointed for the region about Matane.

Airplanes, however, kept a wider lookout and both banks of the St. Lawrence were surveyed.

EARL CARROLL REACHES NEW YORK CITY

New York, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Earl Carroll, theatrical producer arrived in Pennsylvania station from Atlanta a few minutes before noon today, broke into tears when he stepped off the train and found a large gathering of his friends waiting to welcome him.

TODAY

Aboard the Train. Infantile Paralysis. The Real Killer. What Will America Be? (By Arthur Brisbane) Copyright 1927, by Star Co.)

This is written on "The Chief" one of the many splendidly equipped trains that carry passengers between the two oceans in perfect comfort.

How long will such trains carry the passengers? Railroad men that think would have asked themselves that question could they have seen Will Rogers, traveling as an air passenger, United States mail, roaring over and past the "fast" expresses, leaving them in the distance as the first locomotives left the old stage coaches.

Rogers paid $400 "postage" on himself from Los Angeles to New York. When the fast express had got well under way, and passengers had settled down for their four nights and a little more than four days coast to coast trip, Rogers was in Chicago. When they had gone through luncheon and dinner on their second day, Rogers was in New York. By the time they reached New York he was back in California and remember that he was flying slowly, less than 100 miles an hour. Planes already built 300 miles an hour. Men will soon make the trip from New York to San Francisco between breakfast and dinner time, as a matter of course.

When locomotives came, 36-41 dodos said, "Nothing will ever take the place of the steam coach for REAL, RELIABLE TRAVEL."

The first locomotives that made from 20 to 25 miles an hour killed the stage coach. What will the 500 mile an hour airplane do to long distance railroad passenger traffic?

Infantile paralysis appeared in the castle inhabited by five year old King Michael of Rumania. It is said that the King was carried away to the Carpathian mountains.

That unfortunately does not mean safety for the baby King. Nobody knows how infantile paralysis comes, what causes it, or how it is implanted in the blood of its victim.

Infantile paralysis should interest government, national state and municipal more than it seems to do. There are 4,000 cases in the United States now. Nobody knows how the disease starts and spreads. The disease brings out, nobody knows how or why, in dark city streets and in distant small beautiful places.

LET CONTRACT AT COLLEGE

Building Committee Signs Contracts for New Buildings and Equipment

The building committee which is a sub-committee of the board of trustees of East Carolina Teachers College met yesterday for the purpose of signing the contracts, which were let at the last meeting of the board, for the new building program which is now in progress.

In addition to the signing of these contracts they opened bids for laundry equipment, kitchen equipment and the refrigeration plant. The contract for the laundry equipment was let to the American Machinery Co. at $12,441.67; the contract for the refrigeration plant was let to the Frick Company at $16,789.00; the contract for kitchen equipment was let to the John Van Range Company at $13,186.36.

The bidding on all these contracts was very close, and the prices were satisfactory to the building committee.

All of the contracts let thus far in the new building program have been very satisfactory, and President Robert H. Wright in a recent interview stated that the committee was well within its appropriation, and that it would be able to finish and equip the buildings that it had hoped to erect out of the $400,000 appropriation made by the last General Assembly.

ROBBERS GET $1,000 AT WAKE COURT HOUSE

Raleigh, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Robbers broke into the Wake county court house and stole about $1,000 from the office of Wake county clerk Royster last night. A check was being made of the robbery today by Mr. Royster.

Police did not volunteer an explanation as to whether the robbery was an "outside" or an "inside" job.

COOLIDGE IS NOT WILLING TO RUN AGAIN

President Ready to Take Steps to Prevent Being Drafted as Candidate

Washington, Oct. 22.—(AP)—While there are some who believe that President Coolidge, by reprimanding Senator Fess, of Ohio, for predictions that he would be drafted for a third term in the White House, sought to remove the uncertainty that followed his "do not choose" statement of the Black Hills, others are of the opinion that the situation has not been materially changed.

In the minds of callers at the White House, this subject has been prominent, and while there has since been a disposition to talk, there has also been a marked reluctance to be quoted. Senator Fess, it seems, is not the only administration leader who has been told the President that he does not wish to be considered a candidate and these have said that the doubt occasioned by the Rapid City statement has been a source of much concern for Mr. Coolidge.

Clarence H. Howard, president of the Commonwealth Steel Company of St. Louis, and for some time a friend of the Chief Executive, said following a call at the White House that he believed Mr. Coolidge would "take steps to curb any movement to draft him if it gains headway." He might feel compelled to run, Mr. Howard declared if an insistent public demand should develop, but he believed the President would not permit this to come about. A difficult view was expressed by Walter J. G. Neun, president of the St. Louis board of aldermen, who considered the Fess scholding as having no bearings on bearing on the situation and voiced the belief that should he be drafted Mr. Coolidge would accept the nomination.

Given Authority to Excommunicate Catholic Members

PROVIDENCE, R. I., October 22.—(AP)—Authority to excommunicate members of the Roman Catholic church who have died him before the State Courts is conferred upon the Rt. Rev. William A. Hickey, D. D., Bishop of the Providence Diocese, in a cablegram from Cardinal Gasparri, papal secretary of state.

The authority was requested by Bishop Hickey as the result of the action of Elphage J. Daigault, of Woonsocket, and other member of 12 parishes of the state who took court action against the Bishop on the ground that he, as president of the parish corporations concerned, diverted parish funds to help pay for parochial high schools in other parts of the state to pay for unauthorized subscriptions to the Providence visitor, a Catholic paper, and to donate to the National Catholic welfare board.

CHICAGO MAYOR TO BURN PRO-BRITISH SCHOOL LITERATURE

Chicago, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Fire and fire-works, actual and figurative, lent light and repercussion to Mayor Thompson's crusade against British-tainted literature today.

The fire is in prospect, not yet accomplished but definitely promised. It is to be in the shores of Lake Michigan and the fuel will be public library books, which the Mayor frantically with anti-Americanism.

Fourth District Governor Addresses Local Kiwanians

"Kiwanis is a conscious driving power towards new and higher objectives," declared Clarence Pugh, of Elizabeth City, lieutenant-governor of the Fourth Kiwanis district, delivering the principal address at the regular twice-a-month meeting of the Greenville club last night.

"Kiwanis is composed of a group of men representing every branch of human life and activity, and they are serving the best interests of the various towns, cities and communities of the nation."

The lieutenant-governor was preceded by Rev. J. B. Turner, of Raleigh, pastor of the Hayes-Barton Baptist church, who is conducting a series of revival services at the Immanuel Baptist church here. He was the first president of the local Kiwanis club when it was organized back in 1921. He said he had always had an active interest in the welfare of the organization and was delighted to come back to a former field of service and see what had been accomplished.

The section last night was presided over by President W. H. Woodard. The program was in charge of J. B. James, who, in introducing the speakers of the occasion, paid glowing tribute to the part which they are playing in the interest of a better civilization.

The principal features in connection with the musical program were two solos by Mrs. Herbert Waldron. She was accompanied by the piano by Mrs. M. K. Blount. Three new members were received into the club, the words of introduction being delivered by J. B. James, pastor of the First Baptist church of Greenville. He stressed the fact of the organization and said that the 25,000 of dormant activities were organized in by the 1,000 Kiwanians that Greenville ranked next in Wilmington. He stressed the healthy growth was reflected in the last monthly report of the organization, and predicted continued development.

Official figures made public this morning by K. W. Cobb, secretary of the Greenville Tobacco Board of Trade, show that the local market for the present season has sold 33,101,094 pounds of tobacco for a total sum of $7,632,507.67, at an average of $23.24 per hundred pounds.

For the week just ended the market sold 4,736,198 pounds for $1,241,366.66, at an average of $26.23 per hundred pounds. Yesterday's sales were 819,404 pounds for $213,499.16, average $26.34 per hundred.

Johnston County Farmer Killed For His Money

Benson, N. C., Oct. 22.—(AP)—Friends of J. M. Royal, Johnston county, who was mysteriously killed near his home Friday, today went about his funeral arrangements.

Royal showed friends a purse of $1,200. A few hours later his body was found with a bullet wound in the breast, believed to have been fired from close range. All but $10.75 of the amount he had started home with was missing from his pockets.

Coroner J. H. Kirkman, investigating, ordered Claude Barber, Royal's neighbor, held, pending a further inquiry by the county jury at its session next Wednesday. Automobile tire tracks at the scene of the slaying were found to be somewhat identical police allowed to those made by tires on Barber's car. Royal's widow, mentally unbalanced, is in the care of State Hospital attendants.

MRS. CRAYSON AGAIN FAILS TO GET AWAY

Woman Aviatrix Forced to Land in Sea After Remaining in Air Few Minutes

Old Orchard, Me., Oct. 22.—(AP)—The amphibian monoplane Dawn took off from here at 6:16 a. m. today and after heading out to sea on a projected flight to Copenhagen, Denmark, turned about and landed safely in the water at 6:40 a. m. In the plane were Mrs. Frances Wilson Grayson with Wilmer Stultz, pilot, and Brice Goldsborough, navigator.

The plane floated a few hundred feet off shore while the raised-landing gear was lowered to permit a beaching.

The plane with its own power beached through the breakers and safely landed on the beach at 6:50 o'clock.

Mrs. Frances W. Grayson said on landing: "We just could not fly down what's all."

Both engine fuel tanks had been drained dropping 250 gallons of gasoline. Mrs. Grayson said the ship had reached a point two miles beyond Cape Elizabeth lighthouse when the return engine was made.

The plane had scarcely touched the beach when Mrs. Grayson leaped from the cabin window and ordered a fresh gasoline supply.

Describing the predicament which forced the return, she said: "We were not more than two feet from the water when pilot Stultz decided it was hopeless to continue. At that time we were making nearly 125 miles an hour which is altogether too fast to hit the waves with safety. Navigator Goldsborough pulled oil tank valve wires as he did on the previous attempt, and we gained altitude."

Old Orchard, Maine, Oct. 22.—Pilot Wilmer Stultz, with whom the final decision on the flight of the Sikorsky plane, the Dawn rests, this afternoon set early tomorrow morning as the earliest date for another attempt to get away on the ocean flight.

"If we went late this afternoon," he said, "we would not only have two night of flying, but for the first two hours mostly in the dark I would have to take the ship at almost as low altitude as I had today."

A destroyer of the coast guard which had stood off shore during the attempted flight followed the Dawn back in until the plane was ashore. Goldsborough climbed to the top wing and stowed the destroyer with semaphore flags that all was well.

Mrs. Grayson when asked if the next attempt would be made this afternoon at the next low tide, said: "Oh, I don't know, I don't like the idea of two nights of flying but we may do it."

Continue her discussion of this morning's flight she said: "It was a terrible beach to take off from this morning. Pilot Stultz had fairly to pull the plane into the air."

By the time the plane started its run down the beach at 6:15 the tide had crept in, leaving only a comparative narrow path on the upper sand which is softer than that uncovered a dead low tide.

The plane was forced to run much farther than on the previous attempt last Tuesday. It was fully a mile and a quarter and perhaps a mile and a half before the wheels left the ground for the last time.

Previous to the actual start the Dawn had started the long stretch of sand by speeding the length of the beach. Although it appeared like an attempt to take off in reality it was simply to test the balance of the machine.

WOMEN TAKE HAND IN STRIKE OF MINERS

Watsburg, Col., Oct. 22.—(AP)—Embattled women leading a group of male I. W. M. strike pickets, hurled stones and other missiles at miners of the Jewel mine of the Colorado Fuel & Iron Company here today.

The women taunted the miners to "start something" as they directed their volleys. The men pickets remained in automobiles while the women took the offense.

Ten of the women and thirty of the men were arrested and brought here.

WASHINGTON, October 22.—(AP)—After a call on President Coolidge today Senator Wills, of Ohio, issued a statement which covered so many of the present political issues that inquiries asked him if it was a declaration of his candidacy for the Republican Presidential nomination, to which the Senator replied that "the statement speaks for itself."

STATEMENTS OF SINCLAIR CONSIDERED

Justice Siddons Weighs Issue in Teapot Dome Hearing at Washington

WASHINGTON, October 22.—(AP)—With the court in recess until Monday, Justice Siddons, presiding at the conspiracy trial of Albert B. Fall and Harry F. Sinclair, today had under advisement the question admitting as evidence statements made by Sinclair before the Senate's Oil Investigating Committee.

Sinclair's celebrated visit to Fall, then secretary of the Interior, during the Christmas holidays of 1925, at three rivers, New Mexico, was involved. Before the Senate committee, Sinclair said this was made for the purpose of discussing a lease on the Teapot Dome Naval Oil Reserve, out of which grew the present court action. Since that time it has been asserted that the visit dealt entirely with other matters.

Government Counsel wished to place the Sinclair statements before the jury immediately, but the defense entered strenuous objection on the ground that testimony given before a Congressional Committee may not, under the law, be introduced as evidence in any subsequent court proceeding. To this the government replied that in order to take advantage of this provision, the witness must make declaration of such intention when appearing before the committee.

In the Fall-Doherty conspiracy case of nearly a year ago a Sinclair question was raised when the government sought to introduce statements made by Doherty before the Senate committee to the effect that he had "loaned" Fall $100,000 to be used in his ranching business in New Mexico. The court at that time decided in favor of the government.

The jury was excused at an early hour yesterday so that Counsel might argue the legal technicality unhampered. For two hours the attorneys battled and then taking the question under advisement, Justice Siddons adjourned court until Monday whether Fall executed the Teapot Dome lease through fear that the Navy might otherwise lose quantities of valuable oil by drainage, as the defense contends, occasioned much wrangling between the attorneys the prosecution called to the stand K. C. Hadd, a former government geologist, for questioning with respect to a report he made to Fall on this subject in 1921 in which it was said that at the time no such danger existed.

The written report was produced in court and offered as evidence with the statement from Owen J. Roberts of government counsel, that it was not intended as an accurate picture of drainage conditions at Teapot Dome but rather his purpose was merely to show that such a report had been given to Fall before he signed the Sinclair lease. Martin W. Littleton of defense counsel made an effort to show that the report was erroneous and that Fall gave it no credence when negotiating for the Teapot Dome lease.

In this, however, he was successful for Roberts objected and was sustained by Justice Siddons, who agreed with the attorney in his contention that the government need only show that such a report was made and that the burden then shifted to Fall to explain why he was not ousted by it in the transaction that followed.

Mobilize Guards for Patrol Duty in Strike Zone

Denver, Colo., Oct. 22.—(AP)—Mobilization of the Colorado National Guard for patrol duty in the State-wide coal strike called by industrial workers of the world, was advocated today by the Huerfano county commissioners.

The commissioners came here to present their plea for mobilization of the guard to Governor W. H. Adams, today after arrest of more than 100 men and women pickets failed to stop I. W. M. activities in southern Colorado where the strikers have concentrated their campaign for higher wages and shorter hours.

Opposition to the use of troops was voiced by George M. Taylor of the State industrial commission. He was supported by A. C. Walls, of Utah, representing coal distributors in the Walsenburg area where I. W. M. leaders established headquarters. Walls conferred with Governor Adams last night, but declined to comment pending a general conference to which the commissioners have been invited.

UNKNOWN OF EAST TO COME FORTH TODAY

New York, Oct. 22.—(AP)—The last of the East's football unknowns will be out in the open by tonight with their capabilities fully analyzed and officially recorded. Such teams as Princeton, Cornell, Army and Dartmouth, hitherto untested, are on the firing line today against major opposition.

After a lull of twenty years Princeton and Cornell started anew their football relationship, both teams are undefeated but Princeton's record appears to be a little more impressive. Cornell has an unseasoned line and upon the ability of those forwards to stand the Tiger charge rests a whole lot of the team's chances for victory.

The game at Ithaca has been roughly regarded as a test between the tackle-smashing tactics of Double and the versatile running and open style of Bill Roper.

The Yale-Army fixture has a thirty-year old background and this year's contest seems to be worthy of the tradition. Yale has been unable to forget the 33-0 beating it took from the Army mule last year. The teams appeared to be about evenly matched today.

Most critics believe Harvard has improved greatly since the defeat by Purdue a short two weeks ago and they looked for the crimson to give a good account of itself against Dartmouth.

The annual clash between Washington and Jefferson and Lafayette brings two undefeated teams together at Easton, Pa.

Penn State hoped to break the jinx that has prevented it from crossing the goal line of undefeated Syracuse. Among other games in the East are New York University vs. Rutgers; Williams vs. Columbia; Navy vs. Duke; Colgate vs. Wabash; West Virginia Wesleyan vs. Boston College; West Virginia vs. Georgetown and Holy Cross vs. Catholic University.

Gene Tunney Not Ready to Marry

Poland Springs, Mo., Oct. 22.—(AP)—Gene Tunney who expects to be champion five years more is married in just one way—to his profession. If there are any girls in the offing the world heavyweight champion insists he does not know it.

That's why he said when pressed for confirmation of the latest of three reported engagements since he beat Jack Dempsey out in Soldier's field, Chicago.

He did not elaborate on his five-years tenure of his crown but said considerable in denial of matrimonial intentions.

Gene was returning from a two weeks' vacation with his old friend Bert Fowler, Maine woodsman and guide, when apprised of the fact that rumors had gained currency that he was to wed Miss Parmelee Pryor of Greenville, Conn., girl and sister of Samuel F. Pryor, Jr., a friend.

"Any man who marries while he is champion makes a big mistake said Gene.

"I am engaged to no one. The girl in question is the sister of one of my dearest friends. Shortly after the last fight they had me engaged to a girl in California then to one in Illinois.

"Now it is a Connecticut young lady. I don't think it is fair to the girls. It must be embarrassing.

"I don't contemplate marrying while in the boxing profession. I hope the next time they pick out one, they will be generous enough to notify me. I should like to be in on it."

TWENTY-TWO NATIONS IN WINTER OLYMPICS

Saint Moritz, Switzerland.—(AP)—Twenty-two nations thus far have accepted Switzerland's invitation to participate in the 1928 Olympic Winter Games.

Norway, Sweden and Finland, the Scandinavian countries very much to the fore during the 1924 games at Chamonix, France, were the first to send in their entries.

France after hesitating for several weeks finally decided to send a team, and the Olympic Committee here now announces that it is a great pleasure that America will honor Switzerland by its presence.

Canada will send its famous hockey team and will delegate athletes for speed and artistic skating competitions.

Other countries entered are Great Britain, Poland, Italy, Spain, Czechoslovakia, Austria, Germany, Holland, Switzerland, Japan, Luxembourg, Yugoslavia, Rumania, Hungary, Latvia and Belgium.

FLYNN NO LONGER DEMPSEY'S MANAGER

New York, Oct. 21.—(AP)—In a letter to Ed Prayne, sporting editor of the New York American, printed today, Jack Dempsey indicates that his connections with Leo P. Flynn, who directed him through the fights with Jack Sharkey and Gene Tunney, are at an end.

The letter says: Leo P. Flynn is all right. However, I only employed him for two fights. He's not a lot of business of his own to look after without handling me."

Kansas Boy Flier

Kansas City, Kas.—(AP)—To demonstrate that aviation is "a youth's game" Murry B. Dilley, Jr., 17-year-old flier, will attempt a flight from San Francisco to New York, seeking a $1,000 prize offered by the American Society for the Promotion of Aviation to the first youth of 18 years or less to make a transcontinental flight.

The son of an army captain and a sailor in high school, young Dilley learned to fly at an aviation school here. He has had considerable experience in the air.

Dilley will fly a Swallow biplane, manufactured at Wichita, Kas. His cross-country trip will include stops at Sacramento, Reno, Elko, Salt Lake City, Rock Springs, Rawlins, Cheyenne, Denver, North Platte, Omaha, Kansas City, St. Louis, Chicago, Detroit, Toledo, Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and New York.

FOOD FOR FIVE WEEKS IN ONE OSTRICH EGG

Urbana, Ill.—(AP)—A single ostrich egg would keep the average family in that particular sort of food for five weeks, scientists at the Natural History Museum of the University of Illinois estimate.

One ancient ostrich egg in the museum is approximately 148 times the size of the ordinary hen's egg. They figured it would keep the average family in eggs for five weeks if the husband ate two each morning, and his wife used six eggs in a cake, deviled a dozen more for the family dinner and baked two cream tarts and pies each week.

NINE MAJOR CONTESTS IN SOUTH TODAY

Atlanta, Oct. 22.—(AP)—A crop of birds of victory flapped over Dixie today and made ready to perch on the banners of nine survivors in the day's Southern Conference football melees.

Eighteen Conference teams were embroiled in battle among themselves and strange enough exactly half the number have yet to suffer defeat with the "circle" of the organization.

Chief attention centered at Jackson, Miss., and Tampa, Fla., where four teams, all boasting unblemished escutcheons, were engaged in games that should leave two biting the dust by night.

Mike Donahue's powerful Louisiana State Bengals were at Jackson for a meeting with Mississippi A & M Maroons. Gus T. Bell's N. C. State Wolfpack looked at the Tampa stadium to get in the hide of the Florida Gators.

Three teams—Vanderbilt, Tennessee and Wake Forest and Iowa—had their mettle tested for the first time in the Conference—all faced the Commodore routed into Tulane's gymnasium, which beat at Dudley Field, Nashville.

Sewanee's Purple Tigers centered down from the hills onto Birmingham for a clash at Alabama. Washington and Lee Generals, Lynchburg, Kanawha, Wheeling and Lexington, Ky.

Georgia Tech had a contest as late as 11:30 p.m. Conference leadership in North Carolina went to Duke and Wake Forest, the former giving the tornado a leg in its record book.

Clemson and Auburn met for the first time at Columbia, with the Phoenician hoping for a break and a fighting spirit to halt the strong Bull Dogs.

Virginia was at home to Charlottesville to entertain Virginia Poly.

Sacrifices Title When "Gate" Fails

Bordeaux, France.—(AP)—Andre Routsis, featherweight champion of France, has abandoned his title rather than fight his challenger in private for a purse of a few francs.

Routsis, who is residing at his home after a hard 14 months campaign in the United States, where he met Joe Glick, Eddie Anderson and others, returned to France to find that the challenge of Gene Pothier had been accepted by the French Boxing federation and that he must meet Pothier or forfeit his title. No promoter appearing to stage the match, the federation ruled that Routsis must box behind closed doors.

"Nothing doing," said Routsis. "Fighting is my business, I make my living at it, I don't see why I should fight for a plate of beans. The federation can have the title."

Routsis intends to return to New York in November for three bouts in Madison Square Garden.

Watch for surprise announcement in Monday's paper.

AYDEN PLAYS WILSON TO A SCORELESS TIE

The Ayden High School Tornadoes and the Wilson High School played to a scoreless tie yesterday afternoon in one of the roughest and best high school games ever played in Eastern Carolina.

From the first whistle, it was a no-man's game, and stayed that way throughout the entire game. The ball was near the center of the field at the end of the half.

The Tornadoes held the Wilson team for four down on the four yard line. Bill Harrington, a Tornado, was the feature of the game, making several gains through the line. Cozart for Wilson also made some wonderful plays.

Both teams played wonderful football. It was said on the side line that both teams look like veterans. Neither Wilson or Ayden have been defeated this season. The Ayden Tornadoes will play New Bern High School in New Bern next Friday.

Coach Fouts has made a real football team for Ayden and they are planning for a much better team next year.

SEATS FOR WOMEN, PARIS PROPOSAL

Paris.—(AP)—Obligatory gallantry, in the form of an ordinance giving women prior rights to seats in street cars and buses, has been proposed to the city council.

Sit down, Madame," say critics of modern manners who are opposing the measure, is a phrase no longer heard in public conveyances.

We live nowadays," comments one component of the ordinance, "a la Americaine," pushing people aside in our rush to go nowhere."

LOCAL HIGHS DROP GAME TO NEW BERN

Greenville high school football team, journeyed over to New Bern yesterday afternoon and met defeat by the score of 12 to 6 at the hands of the high school team of that place.

Greenville started scoring in the first part of the second quarter when Roberson made their only touchdown of the game after the ball had been placed within four yards of the goal line.

New Bern scored twice in the same quarter, the first touchdown resulting from a line play. The second touchdown came in the form of a forward pass from the twenty yard line.

Roberson, Respass and Hostick featured for Greenville in the offensive, while Whedbee and Briley starred on the defense. The entire Greenville line played a remarkably fine brand of ball, and it was largely through their work that New Bern was prevented from piling up a greater score.

A fairly large crowd witnessed the contest. Quite a number of Greenville people were in attendance and roared wildly for the local organization.

The next game will be played at the fair grounds here with Kingston. Considerable interest is expected around this contest as the first game of the season was played in Kingston, resulting in a scoreless tie.

Green Houston, John Davis and Nora Davis, colored, are confined in the county jail today awaiting preliminary hearing on a charge of stealing tobacco from the farm of L. N. Stancill, of Tarboro.

Sheriff Whitehurst has been working on the case for a week, but was unable to land all members of the party until the arrest and subsequent confession of Nora Davis. She is said to have admitted complicity in the affair, and also gave the sheriff the names of the other members of the party.

The negroes are tenants on the Stancill farm, and had been conducting a systematic theft of tobacco for some time.

MURDER CHARGE BRINGS CLIMAX TO DRAMATIC CAREER OF REMUS

George Remus of Cincinnati (upper right), erstwhile "king of bootleggers," confronts a murder charge for shooting his wife, Imogene Holmes (upper left), after she sued him for divorce. Charles P. Taft II (lower left), son of W. H. Taft, will prosecute Remus on the murder charge. Romola Remus (center), daughter of Remus by a former marriage, is expected to testify for her father, and Ruth Remus (lower right), adopted daughter of the family, for the State.

Cincinnati, Ohio.—(AP)—A cost-ly mansion set deep in the lawns and groves of a suburban estate is the only physical monument to the fortune of George Remus reaped from his deals in contraband liquor. Only half a dozen years ago he bought it, after he had married Imogene Holmes in Chicago in 1920 and had left his law practice there to come to Cincinnati and pyramid into millions the $10,000 rest left with which he started. The old homestead on Price Hill, built from Civil War days, was virtually rebuilt by Remus in order that he might endow with a setting of splendor the wife with whom he wedded his wealth and ambition. Some three years ago Remus went away from the mansion to serve a term in federal prison for violation of prohibition law, and when he emerged he served another term in an Ohio jail on a similar conviction. His wife followed him to Atlanta, to live near him during his prison term—and then, shortly before his release, charged him with cruelty and sued for divorce. Remus countered with the allegation that she sought freedom to wed Franklin L. Dodge, Jr., then a prohibition agent active in gathering the evidence which sent Remus to prison. Now "Beautiful Imogene" is dead, and her husband, stripped of most of his fortune, is again in a jail cell—this time as the admitted murderer of his wife. He waited for her in a Cincinnati park October 6, and shot her as she journeyed to a divorce court to obtain her final separation. Prosecution of Remus in his murder trial will revolve upon Charles P. Taft, II, youngest son of William Howard Taft, who became Hamilton county attorney last January after graduation from a law course at Yale. To girls will be arraigned on either side of the case—Romola Remus, 23, daughter of George Remus by a former marriage, who has sided with her father, and Ruth Remus, 20, adopted daughter of the Remuses and a companion of her foster mother the morning of the slaying, who will testify for the State. Remus, the stocky son of German immigrants and himself a native of Germany, predicated his career as a trafficker in liquor upon the twin beliefs that immunity could be bought for a price and that bootlegging held a fortune for a man who went into it intelligently on a big scale. He estimated his wealth at $5,000,000 on the day he went to Atlanta in a private car to serve his sentence. Of this he put $1,000,000 in his wife's hands and "salted away" the rest, some with friends whom he later charged with cheating him. In all his dealings he never regarded himself as a criminal. "I am only a business man," he said, "and my business ethics are the best."

Shortly before his release from Atlanta he was sued for divorce. He fought the suit for two years, and when it was nearing termination he accosted the motor car in which his wife and daughter were going to court, followed Mrs. Remus as she leaped from the machine, and fired a bullet into her abdomen.

PREVENTION BEATS INSURANCE

It is often said, and yet seems to be worth continually repeating, fire destroys and causes losses far beyond the actual damage in dollars to property.

The loss of time to going concerns through fires, losses to employes through delay in rehabilitation; the discouragement that often is indicated after a serious fire; all these things are not figured in the estimate—but count materially in the advancement or recession of communities suffering from great fires.

From every standpoint, it is well to guard against fires; prevention is far ahead of the next best thing—adequate insurance.

VALUE OF NEWSPAPERS RECOGNIZED

A. A. Anderson, Secretary of the Pacific Coast Building-Loan Association, in an address at the Pacific States savings and loan conference, recommends newspaper advertising as the most effective and economical means of reaching the public. Further, he urged that the building-loan associations throughout the United States should have a fund of at least $1,000,000 for such a campaign.

As Mr. Anderson knows, it has been fully demonstrated that the newspaper stands by itself as a carrier of messages to the greatest possible number of people. It is the only medium that is sure to reach the citizens of a community and be read. This fact is being more fully appreciated every day.

The smaller city dailies and country weeklies are the great medium for reaching the masses of the people who represent the majority of the reading and buying power of this nation.

TIME FOR LAW TO BE ENFORCED

On highway number 11 last night one motorist reports that between the river bridge and the railroad crossing a short distance north, there were traveling the highway five unlighted wagons, one unlighted buggy, a bicycle and one automobile carrying only one light, while parked on the side of the highway not clear of the concrete were two automobiles with no lights at all displayed.

This large number of unlighted vehicles on one stretch of road little more than a mile in length shows clearly how flagrantly the vehicle light law is violated and shows how little some people care for their own safety and that of others. Since the advent of good roads and the increasing number of automobiles the unlighted vehicle on the road at night has become more and more a menace and realizing this fact, the last General Assembly enacted a law requiring all vehicles on the highways at night to display lights. With this necessary law being violated to the extent indicated above, it is high time authorities were taking a hand in the matter.

Persons who persist in driving unlighted vehicles on the highways after dark should be haled into court and dealt with as a menace to the safety of mankind. Too many lives have been lost as a result of unlighted vehicles and the sooner the drivers of such vehicles are made to pay for their disregard of the law the sooner we will be rid of the unlighted vehicle menace.

About Town

J. L. Starkey, one of the best known heurists in the business circles of this city for the last twenty or thirty years, never knew how to catch anything this season of the year about the hay fever.

But a night or so ago he was able to catch something else. This something else happened to be an opossum—one of the kind that used to give grandpa gastronomic convulsions.

Mr. Opossum strayed away from his haunts in Pitt County woodslands and sneak d his way into Mr. Starkey's garage.

That night when the gentleman went in to park his car, he was confronted by two fiery orbs, glittering at him from the darkest corner in the building.

Mr. Starkey has had the happy faculty of adjusting himself to unusual situations all his life, but right at this moment he found the process of adjustment rather difficult, and certainly most disconcerting. But he mustered all the surplus nerve at command and advanced upon the intruder.

Mr. Opossum, content with his environment, declined to retreat, and in a few moments found himself cozily reposing in a guano sack, soon to become a victim of Mr. Starkey's appetite for "caters and possums."

Dr. Charles E. Maddry, of Raleigh, who is to speak at the centennial celebration of the Memorial Baptist church here Sunday, is probably one of the best known members of the denomination in the South. Aside from being recording secretary of the Southern Baptist convention, he has the responsibility of directing the centennial campaign, which has as its object the raising of $1,500,000 with which to free the seven Baptist colleges in the State from debt and allow to provide needed equipment for them.

"I am greatly encouraged by the present outlook," he asserted in a letter to this column today. "Work of raising funds for the schools in the first district is progressing rapidly. It will be some days before a tabulation of figures will be available, but we believe at this time that they will reflect credit upon members of the denomination.

"We expect to complete work in the eastern section of the State by December 15th, and the campaign will then move to the western part of the State. The campaign will be completed in the central, or Raleigh district, October 25th, and will then be shifted to the northeastern and southeastern sections, including the following associations: Roanoke, West Chowan, Neuse-Atlantic, Eastern, Wilmington, Brunswick Cape Fear-Columbus, Bladen and Robeson."

Ralph D. al, member of the faculty of East Carolina Teachers College, was today hearty in his praise of the entertainments which the college has scheduled for the winter months.

"All of these entertainers are artists in their particular line, and Greenville people are assured of something well worth their time.

"The first of the entertainments was presented Thursday night. The auditorium was crowded and everyone went away fully satisfied with the splendid program presented by the "Punsters."

"The college is making an effort to provide a class of amusement everyone can appreciate, and we believe this year will see that ambition realized."

"Contracts have already been let for improvements and work will begin immediately," R. H. Wright, president of the East Carolina Teachers College, told the writer today.

"The last session of the General Assembly appropriated $400,000 for permanent improvements at the college. Out of this appropriation $10,000 is to be spent for library books. Between $3,000 and $5,000 of this amount has been spent already for books. A new model school to be erected on the extreme east of the campus has been planned. Only a section consisting of eight rooms will be built now, although the school will contain 20 rooms when complete."

"At a spot on the southeast of the campus, where the temporary power plant now stands, will be placed the new power house. The new laundry building, convenient and modern in every phase will be built in connection with the power plant. The present laundry site will be converted into a cloak and lounging room for the girls. This will serve as an excellent place for the girls to go just before meals on rainy days.

"A new unit will be built to the dining hall. This will take care of the 300 new students expected next year. The west wing of the east dormitory and all of the west dormitory will be made fireproof so that they can be occupied next year."

WEAK, NERVOUS

Georgia Lady Could Not Sleep Nights, But After Taking Cardui She Was "Like a Different Person."

Comer, Ga.—Mrs. C. H. Smith, of this place, related the following interesting experience:

"I was weak and nervous and run-down. I couldn't sleep at night. I felt tired and not in condition to do my work. I had Cardui recommended to me, but always thought I could out-do most sickness, but this was one time I needed help. I was so weak I could hardly lift my hand.

"I can't express how bad I felt. I know I improved after taking Cardui. I was like a different person. I was built up and was stronger and better than in a long time.

"I have a young daughter who had the 'flu' and after she got up she would once in a while have such severe cramping spells, just suffer terribly. I knew there was a weakness and, hoping Cardui would reach this trouble, I had her take it, and the first bottle helped her so much she was able to leave it off and does not have this trouble now."

Cardui has been in use for more than 50 years. Purely vegetable, mild, harmless. At all drug stores. NC-178

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON
New York, Oct. 22.—(AP)—The cotton market was comparatively quiet and narrow today, with fluctuations correspondingly sensitive to drifts either way.

Offerings increased slightly in the forenoon, with a little more Southern selling and liquidation and after having sold at 19.75 early, December contracts eased off to 19.51, and closed at 19.60. The general market closed steady 1/2 to 2 points lower to 3 points higher.

Futures closed steady, three lower to five higher. Spot quiet; middling 20.00.

STOCK MARKET
New York, Oct. 22.—(AP)—For the fourth consecutive session the main course of stock prices today was sharply downward. Feeble rallies developed now and then but the higher prices invariably invited a flood of offerings as weakened marginal accounts were thrown over and bear traders put out new short lines. The retreat with few exceptions was an orderly one. Houston which sustained a net loss of fourteen points yesterday broke eight more today. Case Trenching Machine collapsed nine and Baldwin easily seven.

Most of the leading railroad and industrial issues broke to new low levels on the current decline some of them selling twenty to forty points below the high levels established last month. The reaction like those which preceded it was regarded as a belated correction of a speculative speculative position.

Marine preferred sank to new low levels for the year on the decision of a New Jersey court upsetting the proposed recapitalization plan. Lackawanna, Lehigh Valley, Westinghouse Air Brake and American Railway all sank to new low levels for the year.

There were a few bright spots in the market. Dodge Brothers preferred which sold at 52 1/2 a few days ago on fears for the safety of the dividend sold today at 63 on officials' assurance that the regular payments would be sustained.

The closing was weak. Total sales approximated 1,300,000 shares.

GRAIN
Chicago, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Swiftly increasing country deliveries of wheat in Canada led to fresh over-throwing today in wheat low price record for the season. Contributing to wheat weakness were reports of general rains in Argentina, together with an official statement that the Argentine is 400,000 acres more than last year. Corn prices averaged higher today owing largely to announcement that 1,000,000 bushels of corn had been taken of late for export.

Wheat closed nervous 3/8 to 3/4 cent lower, corn quarter to 5/8 up, oats showing 1/8 to 5/8 gain and provisions varying from 3/8 decline to a rise of 1/8.

SUGAR
New York, Oct. 22.—(AP)—The raw sugar market was closed today and in absence of definite news from Cuba relative to the restriction of the new crop, trading in raw sugar futures was again in small proportions.

The undercurrent, however, was steady, probably influenced by the recent weakness of the spot market and the fact that prices were unchanged to 2 points higher on covering and a little trade support.

Approximate sales: 5,000 tons. December closed 2.92; January 2.95; March 2.80; May 2.67; July 2.86; Sept. 3.03.

LETS GO TO CHURCH

J. B. TURNER TALKS ABOUT THE VINEYARD

Raleigh Minister in Stirring Sermon at Revival Here Last Night

"Keeping One's Vineyard" was the subject of a sermon delivered by Rev. James B. Turner last night at the revival services at the Immanuel Baptist church. His text was taken from the sixth chapter of Proverbs, which reads: "Solomon had choice plants growing in his vineyard, but he neglected them and shipwreck resulted."

Dr. Turner will preach three times tomorrow. His first sermon will be at Sunday school, just after classes recess, at 11 o'clock services and at 7:30 in the evening.

In his sermon last night, Dr. Turner declared that a vineyard should be kept at home. He depicted the vineyard of the church as the church is God's depository for His plan of salvation. It is an unique institution, and there is no substitute for it. He described the vineyard of the soul. "What shall a man give in exchange for his soul?"

One of the outstanding features in connection with the musical program was a solo by Mrs. Herbert Walden.

Dr. Turner will preach on the subject, "Do You Know Achan?" tomorrow.

Asks Extradition Coast Guardsman

GREENVILLE, October 22—(AP)—The proceedings against the Miami Coast Guardsman involved in piracy proceedings against "Pop" Neale at Nassau, Bahamas, will be undertaken by the British Embassy here as Neale is arrested in the Bahamas.

The charges are understood to be piracy as the British Consul at Port Lauderdale to swear out before the Federal court an arrest warrant against Neale. Only after an extradition proceeding is begun.

The charges against Neale, who was arrested at Nassau, involve the alleged sale of liquor within British waters. Coast guard officials expressed the belief that Neale was a rum runner, who had been checked in their liquor trade in the operations of a patrol under Neale's command in the waters between Florida and the Bahamas.

"The Rum Runners would like to get him out of the way," declared Commander Yeandle, assistant to the Coast Guard Commandant. "Christiansen is an old timer with one of the best records in the service. The evidence has been produced to show piracy or larceny."

Jackie Coogan Real Millionaire

LOS ANGELES, October 22—(AP)—Jackie Coogan, the ragged forlorn little fellow of the movies, started up the road toward fabulous wealth, today with $1,500,000 worth of Southern California real estate as his vehicle.

Disclosure that the 13 year old screen star was more than a millionaire was made when his brother, James J. Donahue, announced the purchase of 14 lots in Los Angeles for $100,000, bringing the youth's land holdings to $1,500,000.

Mr. Donahue also revealed that the Coogan realty holdings were not the full measure of the boy's fortune, and Jackie had "plenty more" money looking for investment in real estate.

Watch for Surprise announcement in Monday's paper.

tiful valleys, more than thousands of miles from either ocean, and five thousand feet above them.

Such a mysterious disease among swine or cattle would be investigated and fought by the government energetically.

The Rockefeller Institution is doing admirable work, but a nation of 115,000,000 should not leave such a fight to the generosity of one man.

Young Wilfred Winters got drunk on moonshine whiskey, killed two young women, then killed himself. His grandmother says: "Before God it was not my grandson that did the killing, but the man that sold him the whiskey."

The murder of those girls and the young man's suicide were caused by bootleggers, of course, the chief assistant in the killing was a government too feeble to enforce prohibition, too cowardly to admit that it cannot enforce it.

Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, head of Columbia College, calls prohibition responsible for crime, immorality and drunkenness among children, and says Republicans and Democrats must take a definite stand on prohibition in 1928.

Senator Borah, old fashioned American, thinks prohibition ought to be enforced, and demands that Republicans and Democrats take a definite stand on prohibition in 1928.

But Republican and Democratic politicians believe in being elected, first, last and all the time, if possible. And they WILL NOT take a definite stand on prohibition in 1928.

What is America, as regards its people, what is it destined to be? Tedious were here first, Columbus came, then the Pilgrim Fathers determined to worship God as they pleased and to make everybody else worship Him as they pleased. They would not recognize any other religions. The city of Chicago contains 450,000 Germans, 400,000 Poles, 300,000 Jews, 300,000 Irish, 200,000 Italians, 200,000 Bohemians, and Czechs-Slovaks, 125,000 Swedes, 50,000 Norwegians, and 50,000 Danes. Not exactly what you would call "pure Nordic."

What type of civilization will come out of that mixture?

Send it to us.
