FAMOUS DETECTIVE ADMITS HE HAD BEEN RETAINED TO SHADOW JURY IN OIL CASE

William J. Burns Tells Grand Jury of Activities During Recent Hearing.

Washington, Nov. 7.—(AP)—William J. Burns confirmed that Sinclair official had retained his detectives to shadow the Fall-Sinclair jurors, and then countered with a charge of jury tampering on the part of the prosecution itself. The only actual approach to a juror that the Burns operatives had discovered, said the detective agency head, was made by a government investigator, Burns did not go into details but said he had filed a sworn complaint with Justice Siddons, the trial judge.

It was Henry Mason Day, one of Sinclair's confidential agents, Burns said who retained the services of the Burns detective agency to shadow the jurors—a proceeding which he defended as perfectly proper so long as the jurors themselves were not approached.

Day, who is vice president of the Sinclair Exploration Company, already has refused to testify before the same Grand Jury into whose presence Burns and his son, W. Sherman Burns, were summoned today for questioning.

As a result of the Burns charges, H. R. Lamb, an assistant attorney general was called before the Grand Jury which earlier in the day had heard Burns defend the activities of the Burns men who, he said, had been employed by a Sinclair official to watch but not to approach directly, the jury.

Burns' accusations against the prosecution, accompanied by affidavits was filed with Justice Siddons, the trial judge. The affidavits, made by Burns detectives, said that five days after the trial started one of the jurors, Norman Glascock, was in conversation with a man who had been driving a car registered in Lamb's name. The same car, one affidavit said, previously had trailed Glascock's car about Washington.

Even before Lamb went into the Grand Jury room, District Attorney Gordon had made a disclaimer of the new charge. He said that Lamb was in no sense an investigator for the prosecution in the oil trial, but was engaged in the prosecution of anti-trust cases.

Washington, Nov. 7.—(AP)—New vistas in the investigation of jury shadowing were opened today as the Grand Jury began the second week of its inquiry into the events which led to a declaration of a mistrial in the Fall-Sinclair oil conspiracy case.

Having been served with a subpoena requiring production of all office records relating to the activities of his operatives, William J. Burns, one time chief of department of justice secret agents, was called for sharp questioning by attacks of the district attorney's office and by the Grand Jury itself.

Upon first announcement of the activities of Burns men, the internationally known detective said in a public statement at New York that he had no personal knowledge that the detectives had been employed, but that when the inquiry was over it would be found that his men had agents desired to question him and do nothing improper.

In view of this statement, federal ticularly about the report of an operative known as M-20, stating that pursuant to instructions from "Principal, W. J. B." he proceeded from New York to Washington.

The "special report" submitted by M-20, and made the day after the jury was sworn in, follows:

"Washington, D. C., Wednesday, October 19, 1927.

"New York operator NX5023.

"New York investigator M-20 reports:

"Pursuant to instructions from Principal W. J. B., I left agency at 12 noon, packed bag and proceeded to Washington, D. C., to meet Manager C. G. R. Upon arriving I was given floor No. 10—Goucher, as my subject. I checked into the Washington Hotel and discontinued. Expenses $17.52. Time 1 day."

Burns told Burkinshaw that there was no disposition to deny this his operatives were employed

CONDITION OF FALL SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

Washington, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Albert B. Fall, who has been ill here of congestion of the lungs, continued to show improvement overnight. The former interior secretary breathed easier, and his physicians are planning a consultation for consideration of how soon he can be returned to his home in New Mexico.

SHATTER ALL SPEED RECORDS IN LAND PLANE

Alford J. Williams Claims to Have Attained Speed of 322.6 Miles an Hour.

New York, Nov. 7.—(AP)—All world's speed records for airplanes were shattered today by the claim of Lieut. Alford J. Williams, U. S. N., who said he flew 322.6 miles an hour in the first test of his new racing ship since its conversion from a sea to a land plane.

With a 40-mile gale at his back, Williams raced his blue and gold racer over the three kilometer course of Mitchell field at dusk yesterday to an estimated speed which is the fastest ever traveled by a human being.

It eclipsed by about seven miles an hour the mark disclosed Saturday to have been set in Italy by Major Mario de Bernardi, who attained a speed of 315.42 miles per hour in a hydroplane by official timing. The previous record had been 281.48 miles an hour, established in the recent Schneider cup competition by flight Lieut. S. N. Webster, of Great Britain.

Lieut. Williams, who made his own computations with a stop watch, announced after the trial that he would attempt later this week to set an official record that would stand. He also said he planned to replace his present 1,250 horsepower motor at some future date with a 1,400 horsepower motor that would give him even greater speed.

The Navy flier made his trial in the same twin stream-lined craft which he had hoped to enter in the Schneider cup races. Balked in that ambition by constant delays, he stripped the plane of its nonessentials, and the craft he piloted into the air for his amazing exhibition was 1,600 pounds lighter than his cup entry.

Dozen Injured When Elevated Trains Crash

Chicago, Nov. 7.—(AP)—A dozen persons were injured, one seriously, when two northbound elevated trains crashed during the morning rush hours at East Monroe Street and South Wabash Avenue today.

The passengers on the crowded trains were thrown into a panic by the crash. Traffic was delayed for 20 minutes. There was no danger at any time of the derailed cars falling to the street below because of protective platforms at the side. A northbound Englewood train bumped into the rear of the northbound Wilson Avenue train, smashing the front platform of the rear train and riddling some of the cars and splintering the station platform.

Joseph Guilford, motorman on the rear train, was the most seriously injured. His legs were crushed and he was possibly injured internally.

H. A. Johnson, general manager of the Chicago Rapid Transit Company, placed blame for the collision on Guilford.

New England's flood becomes more alarming in its extent, lives lost and damage done. The President immediately orders army fliers to cover the stricken district and report. Flying machines are now the eyes of the government, as they will be the reliance and defense of government in war.

Secretary Davis will have the War Department do everything possible in the way of supplies and men that may be needed, army headquarters in Boston supplying them.

Stocks went up Saturday. Steel, General Motors, many others. Wall Street learns that new financing this year amounts to more than six thousand million dollars, eclipsing 1926 by more than a billion and a half. All this new wealth is absorbed with ease, in a country with people that even every year ten billions more than it costs to live.

Larger deposits in southern banks are reported from Memphis through the central section. In that and the high quality of cotton adding to the value of the crop, there is good news for the whole country.

Conditions for harvesting the crop at low cost are ideal, and the bloom of a year ago turns to sunshine.

A seat on the San Francisco stock and bond exchange sold Saturday for $100,000 to George B. Robertson & Co. Inc. Eighteen months ago the price of a seat was $30,000. This reminds New York that San Francisco are worth six times as much away, is also a great financial centre. San Francisco stock exchange seats have increased in value more rapidly than New York seats. And in proportion to population, stock exchange seats in San Francisco are worth six times as much.

Frank Taylor Begins Term At Penitentiary

Deputy Sheriff Manly Sellers left this morning for Raleigh with Frank Taylor, white, and Edward Wilson, colored, who were last week sentenced to serve terms in the State penitentiary.

Taylor, charged with killing a negro at Red Banks last spring, was sentenced to serve not less than six nor more than twelve years.

Brown, convicted of killing a negro by the name of John Evans, at Ayden, some time during the summer, drew not less than five nor more than six years in the pen.

Sheriff Whitehurst stated that he had several prisoners to begin service in the county roads tomorrow. About fifteen were sent out to the convict camp Wednesday.

Mr. Whichard was in the yard in the rear of his home when stricken. He fell backwards into a bed of flowers from which he was picked up a few moments later. Death had been instant.

He suffered a slight stroke of apoplexy several years ago, and since that time had not been actively engaged in business. He was a native of Pitt county, and lived here all of his life.

He is survived by, besides his widow, Mrs. Elizabeth Steton Whichard, one son, and three daughters: Adian G. Whichard of Whaleyville, Va.; Mrs. G. C. Andrews, of Kingston; Mrs. James A. Thigpen, of Florence, S. C.; and Mrs. G. O. Britt, of Greenville.

Complete funeral arrangements had not been made this afternoon, but will be announced through the columns of this paper tomorrow.

Three Killed In Crossing Crash

Bristol, Va.—Tenn., Nov. 7.—(AP)—Two men, Bob Martin, 30, and David Childress, 20, both of Childress, Va., are dead, and a third man, J. L. Martin, 26, also of Childress, is in a serious condition at the Abingdon hospital, as a result of a grade crossing accident today at Meadwood, Va., 255 miles northeast of this city, when an automobile was struck by a Norfolk & Western passenger train. Bob Martin was killed instantly, while Childress died a few minutes later in the hospital to which he and the younger Martin were rushed immediately following the mishap.

AGED CITIZEN DIES SUDDENLY

Ashley Whichard Dropped Dead at Home on Pitt Street Today at 11 O'clock.

Ashley Whichard, 77, dropped dead today at eleven o'clock at his home on Pitt street. Apoplexy was given as the cause of death.

Funeral services will be conducted from his home tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by Rev. L. H. Denny, pastor of the local Primitive Baptist church, of which the deceased was a member. Interment will be made in Cherry Hill Cemetery.

Setting Features Kentucky Election

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 7.—(AP)—Kentucky's gubernatorial candidates and their political adherents had brought to a close today their active campaigning which for the past few weeks has been marked with optimism of the contenders.

Tomorrow the voters of the State will decide upon their next governor, other State officials, members of the General Assembly and in a number of districts, judicial officers.

J. C. W. Beckham, Democratic nominee for governor, has stressed during his campaign an unqualified opposition to the new-mutual law of the State which at present permits betting at all Kentucky race tracks. He has contended that the Kentucky Jacobus Club under this law, maintained a powerful lobby at the State capital and controlled State government.

Judge, Flen D. Sampson, of the appellate bench, the Republican candidate, has selected as his issues free text books for public schools, and has remained silent on the race track question.

Washington, Nov. 7.—(AP)—This is the latest Coolidge anecdote. The President, asked what he intended to do after his term expired, replied:

"I am going back to Vermont."

"What are you going to do in Vermont?"

"Well, for a year or two I am going to whittle."

Advance Guard Parent-Teachers At Charlotte

Charlotte, Nov. 7.—(AP)—The advance guard of delegates to the state convention of Parent-Teacher associations, begun gathering here today in preparation for the formal opening of the convention tomorrow morning.

Mrs. W. H. Swift, of Greensboro, state president; Mrs. Arthur Wald, of Greensboro, child welfare chairman; and Dr. C. O. Abernathy, of Raleigh legislative chairman were among the early arrivals.

The local committee in charge of arrangements was completing plans for the convention today.

OFFICERS GET WHISKEY STILL AND FIVE MEN

While idly watching an airplane soaring through the air at a terrific rate of speed, five distillers were suddenly surprised and captured late Saturday afternoon by a raiding party from the sheriff's office of this city. Fifteen gallons of whiskey, a copper still and 2,000 gallons of beer were also taken in the raid.

The distillers, Joe Briley, Moses Allen, Stancill Stocks, Spencer Joyner and Granville Pitt, the last two being colored, were brought to Greenville and released under bond of $500 each for their appearance at the regular weekly session of county court tomorrow.

The still was located in a dense stretch of woodland, about four miles from Greenville. Just about the time the officers were preparing to raid, an airplane passed overhead. The distillers are said to have become more than usually interested in the birdman. Two or three threw themselves upon the ground and followed the course of the plane as far as they could see.

It was at this propitious moment that the officers raided, and so complete was the surprise of the distillers that they offered no resistance whatever.

This was the sixth still sheriff's officers have taken within the last two weeks. Eleven men were taken with the outfit. Some of them have already been sentenced to the penitentiary, and others are awaiting final hearing.

RECOMMENDED FOR COMMERCE COMMISSION

Washington, Nov. 7.—(AP)—David J. Howell, of Cheyenne, a former State Attorney General, was recommended to President Coolidge today by Senator Kendrick of Wyoming, for membership of the Interstate Commerce Commission when a Democratic vacancy occurs.

NEGRO SHOT BY OFFICER

Moses Brown Probably Fatally Injured in Battle With Police Man Brewer Sunday

Moses Brown, colored, is confined to his home on First Street, today, suffering from probably fatal injuries sustained yesterday afternoon when he was shot by Policeman Brewer in a scuffle on First Street. Two bullets fired from a .32 caliber revolver penetrated the negro's body just below the heart and in the abdomen inflicting injuries which may result in his death.

The trouble occurred when the officer went to Brown's home to arrest him on a charge of disorderly conduct. The negro was relieved of a pistol in the search company the arrest, and it was while trying to recover the weapon that the shooting took place.

The scuffle took place on the sidewalk, and both officer and prisoner rolled down an embankment to the roadway. The negro is said to have gained possession of his pistol, and was attempting to bring it into use when the policeman pulled his gun and opened fire.

Warns Merchants Against Swindler

Raleigh, Nov. 7.—(AP)—With the close of the crop growing season in this section today with the first killing frosts and first freezing temperature, business interests moves indoors and general merchandise in North Carolina is accelerated. William L. Dowell, secretary of the North Carolina Merchants Association, said in interview.

The association's first step of the indoor season was to send out a "blast" to its members, through Mr. Dowell, warning against a swindler armed with false representation of affiliation with a nationwide industry.

"He will have little chance to cash a check in North Carolina now," Mr. Dowell said. The correspondence was confidential, calling upon local associations to issue bulletins.

Returning from a trip over the Eastern Carolina tobacco markets, Mr. Dowell found quality and turnover at the best of the season.

One of the reasons of markets occasioned the low prices at the start is his analysis.

NEW ENGLAND FLOOD AREAS THREATENED BY NEW PERILS AS RELIEF FORCES ARRIVE

RED CROSS ASSUMES CHARGE RELIEF WORK IN FLOOD DISTRICT

Washington, Nov. 7.—(AP)—An extensive reconstruction program will be conducted by the American Red Cross for the benefit of the New England flood victims.

The organization made plans today for rehabilitation work and it was said that as soon as the waivers had subsided to a point where permanent relief could be undertaken, the Red Cross would see that all the communities affected by the disaster were placed on their feet.

HEROIC DEEDS MARK FLOODS IN THE NORTH

Waterbury, Vermont, Nov. 7.—(AP)—The list of heroes in the Winooski valley flood district is a long one, but above all others looms the figure of Lloyd Squire, assistant editor of the Waterbury Record.

On the day of the flood came the Record machinery was put out of order and Squire, with others started to effect as many rescues as possible. The water was 15 feet deep in Main street and the only boat in town was one collapsible canvas canoe. Many persons had already been saved when Squire learned that his own mother was trapped on the upper story of a house on Main street.

The canoe was being used in another section but Squire could not wait. Making his way to a higher part of town, he hitched up a team of horses and drove them into the flood. The horses swam and Squire swam behind them, guiding them with the reins. Up to the house where his mother was trapped he drove his swimming team, and tethered them, floating to an upper-story window shutter.

Climbing through an upper window, Squire carried out his mother and placed her on one of the horse's backs. Then off he set again, swimming behind the horses and landed the elderly woman safely on high ground near the schoolhouse which had been turned over for the shelter of hundreds of refugees.

So well did the horses perform this rescue work that more were kept in service and a man from house to house almost continuously with only short rests, for 20 hours, their stamina undermined, they suddenly gave up the struggle while on another rescue mission and sank together.

By that time a flat bottomed boat had drifted down the roaring flood and was captured, so Squire carried on his rescue work with that and the canoe.

Today he was still at work swimming hand over hand across a steel cable over the Winooski River to succor the starving residents of Duxbury and North Duxbury, rowing across Little River to carry quinine to persons too weak to stand the rigorous journey to the hospital, helping trucks through town, working in the Red Cross headquarters.

And with all he carried a laughing face, a joke for the downhearted, encouragement for all.

Son Charged With Murdering Father

Raleigh, Nov. 7.—(AP)—His 72-year-old father dead as result of a reported quarrel during which the former received four bullets in his body, Ruben Harris, young Franklin County farmer, today denied he had anything to do with the death for which he was held in jail at Louisville.

Henry Harris, the father, died while his wounds were being examined at a Raleigh hospital. The son was arrested on a warrant charging murder. Ruben told deputy sheriffs he found his father wounded on his return home from work.

Ruben's young wife was also held without bond and William Penza and J. O. King were released on bail pending further investigation.

Despite the magnitude of the blow, however, Vermont and the other States were making valiant efforts to retrieve their losses without outside aid.

All troops from Fort Ethan Allen near Burlington, Vt., were ordered withdrawn by Major General Preston Brown, commanding the first corps area, who flew to the town to take personal charge of the situation and the relief measures directed by President Coolidge.

Previously soldiers had been directed to retrieve their losses without outside aid.

Freezing Weather, Food Shortage and Disease add to Seriousness of Disaster.

New England, with a death list of at least 150 was digging itself out today from the wreckage left by the floods of the last few days. The water was receding except in Connecticut.

Snow and freezing weather caused considerable suffering in many sections. There was a food shortage in some Vermont communities and efforts were being made to relieve the situation with supplies sent by airplanes. A plane landed goods and medical supplies in Montpelier.

Much attention was devoted today to the prevention of disease in the flooded areas. Basements were being cleared of mud and water-soaked rubbish, residents were warned to build their drinking water and premises were being disinfected.

Railroad service had been restored on some lines in Western Massachusetts and Southern and Central New Hampshire but was still badly disrupted because of the scores of bridges swept away and the innumerable washouts and landslides.

In Lowell, Mass., and other many mills were shut down of the high water which had flooded their power plants.

Refugees were cared for in the homes of neighbors and in public buildings.

Hartford and other Connecticut cities along the Connecticut valley were feeling the brunt of the flood as it worked its way south and east. Tales of heroism came from all the devastated areas.

St. Albans, Vt., Nov. 7.—(AP)—A number of the houses in the town of Cambridge, 20 miles east of here, were reported to be in flames at noon today by travelers arriving here at one o'clock. Cambridge was one of the hardest hit towns in the "Famille" River valley during the flood. Help is being sent from here.

Boston, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Snow squalls and freezing weather added today to the discomfort of the thousands in the New England flood area whose homes had been surrounded and cellars filled with water. Furnaces were useless in such places. In many of the rural districts, however, stoves are used for house heating and it was impossible in such districts to get warmth from wood fires.

To the dead in the flood are known to exceed 150. Relief workers here their efforts today toward the feeding and clothing of those driven from their homes and toward the prevention of the spread of disease.

While the waters in the Northern States continued to subside, the situation to the South remained acute with 6,000 persons reported routed from their dwellings in Springfield, Mass., where the full effects of the Connecticut River at flood stage were being experienced. The river's rise today was most serious at Hartford.

The work of relief went on unceasingly while from Vermont, scene of the most severe loss of life, came fresh reports of victims that threatened to boost the death list considerably.

On the face of incomplete information of the disaster which overtook residents of the Winooski valley where 80 persons are known to have perished it was feared that a complete check of the debris littered river course would reveal further bodies.

A report from the remote Lamoille river valley, the first to come from there, told of seven deaths and it was believed in Burlington that there would be many more.

Boston led all Vermont places with 32 fatalities in the town and vicinity.

Waterbury had 21, while Barre was next with seven known dead and a reported possibility that the floods might reach 30.

Duxbury and North Duxbury were said to have lost 12 persons each but reports from there were unauthenticated.

SCRAMBLE FOR GRID HONORS IN THE SOUTH

Atlanta, Nov. 7.—(AP)—The old home stretch of the football season that comes while the keenest tank of autumn is in the air, is bringing competition a plenty to teams in the vanguard of the Southern Conference race upsets have been arriving with alarming regularity throughout the country and are more vital than they would have been in late September, for the games now assume proportions of losses with the leaders and may be the means of deciding a championship.

Tennessee, for instance, faces its bitterest and most important struggle of the season Saturday in attempting to smudge its unmarred record past the heavy threat of Vanderbilt, whose only flaw is the deadlock with Georgia Tech. Clemson will afford ample exercise for the Georgia Bull Dogs who with Tennessee and North Carolina State enjoy the straight victory monopoly of the Southern loop.

L. S. U. in facing Georgia Tech. is expected to be a divided team from that which bowed to Ole Miss in an astonishing result of Saturday.

V. P. I. fresh from a rather easy victory over North Carolina probably will find Washington and Lee trying to forget, by new achievement, the loss they suffered at the hands of Virginia Saturday.

Alabama and Florida will provide another interesting engagement.

Auburn will attempt to produce its first conference victory out of the Mississippi Aggies after a tie with Tulane.

Ole Miss will take on Loyola of Chicago; North Carolina meets Davidson; South Carolina opposes Furman and North Carolina State clashes with Duke in other interesting games.

ON THE GRID

Raleigh, Nov. 7.—(AP)—With championship hopes of three big five Tar Heel elevens somewhat chilled by the cold blast of the two other contenders the race for honors today appeared narrowed down to the survivors of the fittest—Duke University and N. C. State College.

Charged with defeat at the hands of both Duke and State, Wake Forest seemed content to let others decide the outcome of the annual series over at Chapel Hill, a proud Tar Heel took a back seat in the arena to watch its conqueror, State's Wolf-pack progress or retreat.

Mohk Younger's Wildcats at Davidson also stepped out of the limelight after submitting to the slaughter of the same bunch of Wolves.

Armistice Day awaited by many followers of the nation's greatest fall sport for on that day State and Duke were slated to eliminate one or another from the top.

The same holiday was set for annual Davidson-Carolina conflict, this time at Chapel Hill.

New York, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Hot fights for conference honors and mythical sectional titles all over the country today left colleges football in the following situation.

East, Princeton only undefeated and untied major eleven in the section is out in front with Yale, beaten only by Georgia, close behind.

Washington and Jefferson, Pittsburgh and New York University have ties alone against them.

Western Conference, Illinois has a clean slate with three victories and no defeats in conference battles. Minnesota, tied by Indiana, ranks second.

Southern conference, Georgia and Aggies show the way with two wins and no defeats.

Southern conference, Georgia and Tennessee, neither defeated nor tied and both boasting four victories, lead the parade although North Carolina State challenges with three wins.

Pacific coast, Stanford has only a slight edge over Southern California in the far west sector, boasting three wins to two for Cardinals. Their one meeting was a tie.

Star Captain Southern Elevens

Three football captains who also are stars of their teams are Vernon Sharp (top), Vanderbilt; Austin H. Applewhite (lower left), Mississippi and B. E. Tipps (lower right), Washington and Lee.

Three Southern football stars of last season are captains of their teams this year.

Vernon Sharp, a general choice for All-Southern last year, is captain and center at Vanderbilt. The Sharp family seems intent on founding a line of centers, for Alf, a brother of Vernon, was a Vanderbilt center three years, and two other brothers play at the pivot position in Peabody school.

The man who last season gave Washington and Lee a tie with Princeton is captain of the Southern Elevens. He is B. E. "Horse" Tipps, of Kenedy, Texas, who plays either guard or quarterback and who demonstrated his speed when he recovered the Princeton fumble and raced 60 yards for a touchdown.

Mississippi is lead by Austin H. Applewhite, who plays at end position and is one of the most spectacular players since the days of the famous "Goat" Hale.

Checker Champion

SAMUEL COHEN

London.—(AP)—Samuel Cohen, a 20 year old shirt maker, is hailed as the new world's champion checker player because he played 104 games simultaneously, winning 71, losing 2 and drawing 31 games.

This is said to have beaten the previous record held by N. Banks, the American player by four games.

Cohen accomplished his feat in four hours, often moving 25 times a minute.

German Football Popular

Berlin.—(AP)—Football has established itself among millions of Germans. The German Football League reports that 11,840,275 persons, including players, coaches and officials, took part in 473,611 matches last season.

17 Teams Remain In Champ Series

Raleigh, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Raleigh and Durham ancient high school athletic rivals, today were carried to start the state elimination series for the week, the capital city lads going to the tobacco city for the clash on Thursday.

Seventeen teams remained in the race which is to decide the champion. Gastonia and Concord, after having played to a scoreless tie, today conferred about a play-off or draw to decide the question of which would stay in the series. The winner would meet Monroe at Monroe Friday.

Other games for Friday included Greenville at Washington; Sanford-Raeford at Chapel Hill; and Statesville at Lexington.

Saturday's battles: Wilmington-Duham at Warsaw; High Point at Greensboro; and Shelby at Asheville.

MUMBLEPEG CRAZE ON CAMPUS AT U. OF C.

Dotted over the green lawns of the campus is this entrancing sport heatedly vie with each other for mumblepeg supremacy. The intense interest in the game displayed by the cluster of students who act as spectators is topped only by the interest in football.

Contrary to the rougher pigskin sport, however, coeds, as well as men students may actively participate in mumblepeg.

SPORTS SLANTS

By ALAN J. GOULD

New York, Nov. 7.—(AP)—It will furnish one of the high spots of competition for the winter season if Bobby Jones can spare time from his law work to try conclusions again with Walter Hagen.

At least one offer, from Miami, already has been put forward for such a match, on a 72 hole basis, and undoubtedly several other winter resorts will provide lively bidding for a battle that would have all the significance of a world's championship, if brought about.

If there are two greater or more resourceful golfers in the royal and ancient realm than the redoubtable Bobby and the spectacular Hale, they aren't visible just at present. Jones possesses the British open and the American Amateur crowns, while Hagen has just clicked off some sensational golfing history by capturing the American professional championship for the fourth successive year.

On the way to his latest triumph Hagen trampled Tommy Armour holder of the American and Canadian open titles and only player who can rival either Walter or Bobby when it comes to championship holding laurels.

The Atlanta amateur star, if he can find enough time to keep in playing trim, undoubtedly will welcome a chance to meet Hagen and wipe out the memory of the crushing defeat he suffered from the beau Rummel of the links last winter. At St. Petersburg, Florida, last March, Hagen took Jones to the strident time of 12 and 11, in a 72 hole encounter.

It appears about time that agitation was renewed to do something about its games in college football. The prevalence of deadlocks in the latest Saturday of conflict emphasizes these unsatisfactory endings in the only outstanding sport that has no scheme to break them.

Scoreless ties have been especially conspicuous. Two of last Saturday's most important tilts ended without scoring, those involving Georgia Tech-Vanderbilt and Washington and Jefferson Pittsburgh. On the previous Saturday of the college New York U. and Columbia-Cornell games also resulted in a nothing-nothing deadlock.

Two of the biggest games so far, on which championship hopes have hinged, ended in ties, the 13-13 deadlock between Southern California and Stanford on the Pacific coast and the 7-7 duel between Minnesota and Notre Dame.

At various times suggestions have been put forward to help eliminate

FAMOUS JOCKEY FIGHTS EXPULSION

Earl Sande, perhaps the greatest jockey ever developed in America, will wage determined battle for reinstatement after being stripped of his badge at Pimlico, Md. Sande was ordered off track for alleged interference in Futurity. He is shown here on Osmand.

The tie game but none have gained widespread favor. One scheme advocated a few years ago by the veteran coach, John Heisman, was for each team to be given the ball for a specified number of plays with an extra point going to the team making the greatest advance.

Another was to have a five minute extra period of battle to see if either team could break through. Still a third suggestion not involving extra play, was to give an extra point to the eleven which had rolled up the biggest yardage during the regular period of play.

Hockey, baseball and basketball all provide extra innings or periods to break ties but football still sticks to the old fashioned way.

BOXING CARD AT RALEIGH TONIGHT

Raleigh, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Booked as the "Carolina championship," the Spike Webb, Charlotte-Willie Greb, Raleigh, 10 round bout stands out on tonight's city boxing commission card at the auditorium here.

Greb recently knocked out Lee Kid Johnson, of Durham, after the Durham bull had won the newspaper decision over Charlie Mangum, state prison champ.

A mixture of boxing and hard hitting was also slated for the semi-final bout between Spike's Charlotte stable mate, Terry Roberts, and Jack Lassiter, rapid fire local boy.

Tommie Fagan, N. C. State College champion, will do a little experimental research work with Irish Tom Gallagher and in the eye opener Lee Kid Johnson will try for a comeback against soldier Brumsett, flying Fort Bragg colors.

FORMER PITCHER NOW FIGHTS FIRES

Melrose, Mass.—(AP)—Joe Harris has realized two boyhood ambitions: he has been "up there" in the big leagues and now he drives a fire engine.

Baseball fans whose memories go back to 1905 may remember when Harry, pitching for the Red Sox, hurled a 24-inning game against Philadelphia, striking out 17 men and handling out two passes.

But when Harris turned from baseball, he remembered the thrill of the fire engine. He hasn't seen a game in 10 years, but he follows baseball through the newspapers.

SOLD LAST WEEK 868,514 POUNDS OF TOBACCO FOR $249,912.73, AVERAGE $28.78 PER HUNDRED POUNDS

Included in last week's sales was 20,000 pounds of commonest tobacco that we had bought and sold to a factory. Had this been out the average would have been much higher. Prices on all common, medium and cigarette types are as strong as at any time this season. Sales are beginning to lighten and we expect to see prices hold until Thanksgiving. We see no reason why the better barnes should not be sold as early as possible. There will be no sale Friday, Nov. 11 on account Armistice Day. We have First sale Thursday the 10th. We are very glad to announce that our friends are making it possible for us to increase our lead on the Greenville market daily and weekly and we assure them that we deeply appreciate same and will exert every effort to secure the highest possible price for every pile of tobacco put on our floor and guarantee that no warehouse in the state will get you more for your tobacco than

At the noon hour each one was invited on the lawn where many pictures were taken, after which a delicious old fashioned country dinner was served. Late in the afternoon, the guests departed, wishing Mrs. Eason many more such birthdays and assuring her each would be more than pleased to accept just such another invitation.

Need $4,000 For Salvation Army Activities Here

D. G. Cox, of Charlotte, campaign manager of the Salvation Army in North Carolina, was in the city today arranging for the subscription drive of the local organization November 14 to 19. The Greenville organization is asking for $4,000 with which to carry on its work for another year, Mr. Cox stated, and it is hoped this amount can be raised while the campaign is in progress.

A subscription drive was conducted by the Salvation Army last February, but the money derived from this source was needed to carry on work until this month.

W. L. Best is president of the Greenville Salvation Army. Mrs. Harvey is secretary and Herbert Waldrop is treasurer.

MERCURY DROPS TO 24 NEAR WILMINGTON

Wilmington, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Only once before in the history of the local weather bureau has colder weather visited this area at this period of the year. Paul Hess, in charge of the bureau, said this morning. The earlier occasion was about ten years ago when on Nov. 7 the mercury dropped to 30 degrees, four degrees lower than last night.

While the official figure was 30 degrees in the city, farmers of the county said their thermometer readings early this morning showed 24 degrees. Thin ice was reported in various sections of the county.

Fall truck, including beans, was said to have been sharply damaged.

Charged With Bigamy

Durham, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Helen Willis Johnson, 15 years old, today stands charged with bigamy following the arrest yesterday at the home of a relative of herself and her husband of a few hours. She married Willie Russell yesterday afternoon. The bridegroom is also in custody.

H. B. Garner, charged with swearing falsely to the girl's age and Willie Russell, second husband of the girl, were also arrested. James Willis, the girl's father, caused the arrest, which was witnessed by the first husband, Robert Johnson.

The charges are slated for airing in recorder's court.

JONES SPEAKS OF MINISTRY IN THIS CITY

Pastor Memorial Baptist Church Celebrates Second Anniversary With Fine Sermon.

Celebrating the second anniversary of his pastorate of the Memorial Baptist church of this city, Rev. H. Frederick Jones yesterday morning delivered a stirring sermon on the subject of "Folly of Sin." The message was heard by a capacity congregation and was generally conceded to have been one of the most effective discourses of the minister's two years of service.

Mr. Jones spoke feelingly of his associations here. He declared the two years had been the most pleasant of his life. "Greenville has the most noble men and women of any town in the nation," he declared, "and it has been a pleasure and joy to work with them."

He presented several pertinent facts in connection with growth of the church during his two years' ministry. He said they had collected from all sources the sum of $20,000. Over 103 new members have been added to the congregation. About 29 members have been removed by various causes, leaving a net increase in membership of 74.

He said he had made 1,379 calls, and had ministered to other causes whenever called upon.

Mr. Jones took his text from that part of the scriptures which graphically portrays Nehemiah's visit to the wrecked city of Jerusalem and his desire to re-build the city upon a firm foundation.

"Sin has its fruitage," Mr. Jones declared. "It resulted in the downfall of the city of Jerusalem, it has resulted in the downfall of cities and nations since. It will continue to bring death and destruction so long as humankind follows in the footsteps of Satan."

He told of Nehemiah's resolve to rebuild the new Jerusalem upon firmer foundations. Despite the threat of enemies of other lands, the city was rebuilt with its walls, homes and church well fortified against the attack of invaders.

So it must be founded upon a firm foundation. That foundation, he said, is to be found in the teachings of the Bible as enunciated by Jesus Christ.

"Sin is causing wrecked homes and lives today as it did in the days of old Jerusalem, because the people are forgetful of the Bible and its place in their lives. The home, the church and school must be built together in purpose and in spirit, and then alone will they be able to withstand the assaults of sin."

He told of the $1,500,000 educational campaign now being conducted by State Baptists. This money is being raised for the purpose of paying off debts of Baptist schools and providing equipment that will enable them to fight the battles of the church thru an enlightened citizenship.

"Christian men and women of today are faced by two tasks—educational and spiritual. The educational must walk hand in hand with the spiritual if the foundation of the future is to be indelible—free from the onslaughts of the material things of life."

RUSSIAN MUSICIANS TO APPEAR HERE AT THE COLLEGE

The beautiful new auditorium of East Carolina Teachers College, the campus, or social building will be used for the concert by the Russian musicians, the Cherniavsky trio, on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.

This is the building in which all of the social activities of the college will center. For the present, only those entertainments that are such as will draw an audience too large for the old auditorium will be given there, as the auditorium is used as a gymnasium and the seats have to be removed after each entertainment.

No dramatic performances requiring a curtain and stage equipment can be given in it, as no stage equipment has been installed. The senior class, this fall, therefore, will give the performance of "The Blue Bird," on successive evenings, Dec. 1st and 2nd, in the old auditorium so as to take care of all who wish to see this beautiful play.

Angry Man Pulls Gun On Cafe Crowd

Milwaukee, Wis. Nov. 7.—(AP)—For five minutes last night a man stood at a telephone in a restaurant, and five times to the amusement of onlookers, he got the wrong number.

Some watched his efforts smilingly, while others made remarks intended for humor.

Finally, in a rage the man hung up the receiver, whirled around and whipped out a pistol.

"I'll give you jokers something to laugh at," he shouted.

"If any of you move except to put up your hands, I'll drill you. Back up against the wall."

A dozen lined the wall.

"Down on your knees," he commanded and the dozen complied.

"Now, how do you like it? Laugh that off."

Keeping them covered with his pistol he backed out of the place. The gun-play was reported to police.

LEGION MAKES FINAL PLANS FOR NOV. 11

Praise Tobacco Board of Trade For Action in Suspending Sales Armistice Day.

At a call meeting of the local post of the American Legion Saturday night, final arrangements were made for November 11 celebration. The meeting was well attended and the reports of the various committees were approved and a vote of thanks extended them for the work they have done to make "Armistice Day" program one of much interest to everyone.

The entire membership praised the Tobacco Board of Trade for their decision to close. They were also happy to hear that there will be a general closing of the merchants, banks, and other business interests in Greenville. This will enable the boys to not only take part in the parade, but enjoy the entire day's program. In the minds of the ex-service men Armistice Day stands for the triumph of ideals of peace and good will. They feel that it should be made the occasion, not for lauding the glory of war or kindling the fires of hate, but for proclaiming the horrors of war and the very urgent need for cultivating the spirit of brotherhood and co-operation as the only possible basis for permanent peace and prosperity. These are no doubt the thoughts of the public generally and it is the honor of the boys that the entire citizenship of the world will join in the observance of this one of America's great holidays.

All ex-service men will assemble at the Coast Line depot by 10 a. m. You are urged to wear uniforms if possible. American Legion caps have been ordered by several. If you do not happen to have a cap see Wm. Dupree, he will have some extra ones and is anxious for all ex-service men to get one.

Cars will be provided for the veterans of the Spanish and Civil wars, and they are requested to be on hand in time for the parade. Members of the Auxiliary who have cars to be used in the parade, in which they will ride, will please notify Mrs. K. B. Pace or Mrs. C. A. Bowen. All others who were to be in the parade and have not made definite arrangements will please get in touch with D. L. Turnage or Capt. Lester Jones.

Don't forget to turn over your war trophies to the committee. They will be sure to return them to you.

The entire program will be announced in the paper within the next day or so. Watch for it and everybody who wants to help with the success of Armistice Day celebration will be governed accordingly.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

Six stills and eleven operators have been taken by Pitt County officers within the past two weeks. The capture of operators is one of the first necessary steps toward breaking up the whiskey traffic and the officers are to be congratulated for their good work. Now if the courts will mete out long road or prison sentences to convicted operators and the citizens insist that such sentences stand without interference from the outside, we will be progressing toward a cleaner and better county.

Through the co-operation of city schools, the County Board of Education and the State Health Department, school children in this county this week will have opportunity to be examined free of charge for tuberculosis. Again we urge that parents throughout the county see to it that their children are examined. In sections of the state where such examinations have already been held a large percentage of children have been found to have tuberculosis or to be infected with tubercular germs. In most cases the dread disease can be cured when found out in time and parents should not let their children take the chance on the future when the opportunity is at hand to find out definitely whether or not the child is infected and if so time to take steps to cure the child. We urge the parents to give their fullest co-operation in this effort to rid the future of the dread disease.

"TAKE OFF NIGHT-GOWNS"

Except when government has broken down or the judiciary is exhausted, there is no need for or justification of Vigilantes. In such times men may band together to protect the weak and uphold their rights. But wise men, as soon as orderly government is restored, gladly put an end to all Vigilante or Klan action. That is what the California pioneers did and what Colonel W. L. Saunders and his associates in the Klan did after Reconstruction.

In an address at the Alabama Methodist Conference last week Bishop Candler gave this wise counsel:

"Clergymen and others who belong to the Ku Klux Klan must take off their nightgowns and work in the open at the task of making the world better."

In the days when the K. K. was revived, and its leaders declared its purpose was to ferret out and punish violators of the prohibition law and immoral conduct, some preachers and other good people became members. Indeed, a few preachers became lecturers and urged Americanism and the suppression of crime. They have come to see the error of their ways. The need is to "work in the open at the task of making the world better." It cannot be done by disguise or by wearing nightgowns.

Let all good men follow the bishop's advice and "in the open" join hands in the task of making the world better."—News and Observer.

New Yorkers To Vote on Change Of Constitution

New York, Nov. 7.—(AP)—The fight of New York Democracy headed by Governor Alfred E. Smith against a Republican proposal to throw gubernatorial contests into presidential years will be decided at the polls tomorrow. Nine proposals to amend the State constitution will be before the voters who will elect 150 Assemblymen, a Congressman, one State Senator to fill vacancy, 10 supreme court justices and mayors of 51 cities.

The fact that Governor Smith has taken an active part in the Democratic fight against the amendment affecting gubernatorial elections has led observers to believe that the fate of this proposal will in a measure indicate what he may expect from New York as a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination in 1928. He has charged that the movement to extend the governor's term from two years to four years and hold elections in presidential years would result in national issues pushing the governorship into the background.

Of the eight other amendments only one has become a matter of controversy. By its adoption New York city would be enabled to borrow $300,000,000 for the completion of new subways.

MANILA HIGH COURT DOUBLES SENTENCES IN MURDER CASE APPEALS

Manila.—(INS)—Seven men of Pangasinan province were sentenced to 12 years each for murder, by the local court of first instance. They decided to appeal, and the supreme court doubled their sentences.

Each must now serve 34 years. The high court, overwhelmed by the large number of baseless appeals, has been forced to adopt a policy of strict interpretation of the criminal law, and in a number of recent cases has increased the sentences of convicted persons from two to three times their original prison allotment.

FIRST FAR EAST SUBWAY SOON OPENING IN JAPAN

Tokyo.—(INS)—The first subway in the Far East, a standard gauge line running almost two miles through the heart of Tokyo, is opening in November. Modern all-steel cars manufactured in Japan are ready for service. The line will serve travellers between Asakusa and Uyeno, about 100,000 of whom now travel daily on surface and elevated lines. The subway will cover the distance in five minutes which now requires twelve.

AMERICA TO STAY DRY SAYS BRITISH OBSERVER

London.—(INS)—"America will remain dry. It is impossible for her to go back, and difficult or not, she will go forward." So declares Professor Gilbert Murray, of Oxford University.

During his recent visit to America, he stated that he stayed at places in America where prohibition was accepted as a matter of course, and where no one thought of offering him a glass of whiskey. He had stayed at other places where the bootlegger called regularly for orders, almost like a milkman. But he could not find anyone to deny that the dry areas were cleaner, sweeter, more decent, and more prosperous.

Russians Storm Soviet Consulate

Shanghai, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Two persons were believed to have been killed and five wounded during a riot late today when a body of 200 white Russians stormed the Soviet consulate in the international settlement as an outgrowth of the tenth anniversary of the Soviet revolution, now being celebrated.

The White Russians, who have been exiled from their native land ever since the Soviet regime came into power, gathered outside of the Soviet consulate, hurling bricks and breaking windows and attempting to break in the barred door.

Thereupon the Russians inside the consulate opened fire upon the attacking force. Two persons, one woman, are reported to have been killed with five wounded.

Chamberlain Says League Made War More Difficult

London.—(INS)—Defending the League of Nations against recent criticisms regarding its failure to bring about any solution of world problems during its last session, Sir Austen Chamberlain, Britain's foreign minister and Europe's "dove of peace," admits that it has made war already much more difficult.

"There is no nation today, be it a member of the League or not, which can conduct its foreign policy as if the league were not in existence.

"We have our ups and down, we have our successes and our disappointments," declared Sir Austen, "but you cannot judge the growth of a great institution by the events of today, or of yesterday, or of tomorrow. You must take a far wider vision. "I say, however, be of good cheer; the League is justifying itself, and with the good will of the nations it will preserve the peace of the world."

Why The Anchor Hot Blast Saves Fuel

When you purchase a stove or heater for your home, you want heat first—dependable heat that will keep your home warm all winter regardless of zero weather outside. But you also want this heat at a fair price. You want a heater which will give you the greatest possible amount of heat from your fuel, assuring a cozy, comfortable home.

The Anchor Hot Blast saves one-third or more in fuel over any lower-draft or oak air-tight type of heater of the same size. It holds fire 36 hours, and will save 25 percent in fuel over any other hot-blast stove on the market. A life-time of service is guaranteed by the sectional inner linings and the air space, which insures uniform radiation from top to bottom of the stove body.

Coal burned in the ordinary low draft heater burns at the bottom and all of the gases escaping from the coal on top are lost up the chimney. So when you see smoke pouring out of your chimney it means that fuel is being wasted.

By permitting the right amount of pre-heated air to enter the Anchor Hot Blast fire-box through the hot-blast tube, all these gases which otherwise would be lost are completely burned, thereby insuring the fullest heating result.

By a simple regulation of the main draft damper in the ash-door, the hot-blast slide damper at top, and the check damper located in the reversible smoke collar, the fire is instantly controlled to give just the amount of heat desired.

Study this hot-blast system of combustion and design and construction of the Anchor Hot Blast and you will see why it is superior to any other heating stove on the market.

The Anchor Hot Blast is made in both Front Door and Top Door types, and in five sizes to meet every home-heating need. Your dealer will gladly show you the Anchor line of Hot Blast Heaters and the price will prove a pleasant surprise to you. In point of looks, service and economy, the Anchor Hot Blast represents the most in value for the least in price.

Market Report

Cotton-Stocks-Grain

COTTON
New York, Nov. 7.—(AP)—The cotton market was quiet today with the opening advances followed by rather irregular fluctuations. Some hedge selling was reported on the futures but there was little trade buying on the declines and business otherwise supposed to be almost entirely restricted by the proximity of the local holiday and the official crop report. The mid-afternoon market was about 6 to 12 points net higher.

PLEDGE HELP TO THOMPSON

First Americans go on Warpath in Text Book Fight in City of Chicago Ill.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—(AP)—The first Americans have gone on the warpath for "America First."

A committee of Indians, in war paint and regalia, will call on Mayor Thompson when he returns from Washington, pledge support to his efforts to make history texts 100 per cent American, and ask that the red man be given a proper representation in the books.

The Grand Council Fire of American Indians met yesterday and adopted resolutions naming the delegation to visit the Mayor and present the Indians' side. Their action followed announcement that $10,000 prize will be awarded for the writing of a new "All-American" history text to be used in the Chicago public schools. Christian D. Aschen, treasurer of the newly formed America First Foundation, sponsored by Mayor Thompson, is donor of the prize.

Indians named several members of their race who they believe are active in American history texts. Chief Joseph, Pocahontas, Chief Jocko, and Tecumseh were mentioned.

Chief Joseph, a Chinaman Indian, was named as the Grand Council member of the list of names that the Indians presented to the school children.

The Indians believed that much of the present history texts are based on accounts of progress, reflecting upon the Indian, whereas Indian history is a record of the white man's cause have been slighted or overlooked entirely.

Thompson's scheme of American history truly is one of the greatest that has occurred in recent years. "I think this is the one to start real Americanism. In our Indian history we have had many great commanders, statesmen, warriors, lawyers. These men should be presented to the school children."

NEW ENGLAND FLOOD AREAS THREATENED BY NEW PERALS AS RELIEF FORCES ARRIVE

recered sent to Montpelier to cooperate with authorities there.

An army base has been established at Concord, N. H., and from there two airplanes succeeded in reaching Montpelier with typhoid fever serum, medicine and yeast.

A flock of army and privately commissioned planes circled ceaselessly over both Vermont and New Hampshire and brought back the first definite pictures of what happened in many places.

The aviators told of an unending panorama of inundated landscapes, barns, houses, automobile and even an occasional freight car grotesquely picked up by the swirling water and sent down in the alien surroundings, of wrecked bridges and uprooted railroad tracks, of burst dams and desolate farms.

Everywhere relief agencies, the Red Cross, army officers, the Salvation Army and others were working to succor those most sorely afflicted, while medical authorities sound warnings against drinking of unboiled water where there had been any possibility of pollution.

In a number of places, inoculation against typhus and other ravages was being urged as a precautionary measure.

Railroad communication was being gradually restored. In Vermont little could be done but in New Hampshire and Massachusetts the various companies passed with vigor their efforts to patch together the intricate network of lines which the storm turned topsy turvy.

to do just what they did do obtain reports on the jurors, adding that there was nothing improper in this procedure.

He also said there was no necessity for federal agents to carry out the raid on the headquarters of his men; that Charles G. Ruddy, the operative in charge, would have gladly handed over the reports of any other information, had he been asked for them.

Burns was at the courthouse on time to the minute. He wore his usual black derby and a gray topcoat. His son, W. Sherman Burns, to whom a number of operatives wrote direct reports, accompanied him. The younger Burns previously had been reported ill.

The two detectives were shown immediately to the office of Neil Burkinshaw, assistant district attorney, who is directing the Grand Jury investigation. Not only the doors, but even the transoms of the office were closed immediately.

Burkinshaw sent for the file of papers which were seized by federal agents in the raid on the headquarters of the Burns men at the Wardman Park Hotel ten days ago. Among them was the "special report" from operative M-20, saying that he had gone to Washington on instructions from W. J. B. Burns and Burkinshaw were closed for 15 minutes. The detective said he had no statement to make at this time but that after he left the Grand Jury room he would "have plenty to say." He did say, however, that Douglas Catchim, former assistant manager of the Burns Washington Bureau, had had no connection with his agency for six weeks.

Catchim is the man reported to have said he would be fixed for life if he could get away for a while. After interviewing Burns, Burkinshaw called in Catchim, who entered in the Marine Corps on October 28 and who was served with a subpoena at the Hampton Roads Naval Base last week. Catchim was in full uniform and was accompanied by a marine sergeant.

John Dowling, the sergeant accompanying Catchim, said the young marine was under guard and was instructed to talk to no one except the district attorney and the Grand Jury.

"If he opens his mouth to anybody else I'll put him under arrest," Dowling told newspapermen.

Francisco are worth six times as much as on the New York exchange. There is still a chance for young men, to go west.

A Japanese fishing boat drifted ashore on the state of Washington coast and every man on board was dead. A diary was found, written at first by Utekiro Izawa, and when he died, carried on by Genosuke Matsumoto. Pitiful prayers were addressed to Kompira, God of Japanese sailors, and threats as well as prayers, "O, Kompira, have pity on us, or we shall throw away thy charms."

He did not have pity, all died. Many Gods like Kompira, with no real experience, have had men's prayers since the beginning of time. A real or unreal, all Gods have been a great comfort to those that believed in them. Their worshippers have alternately coaxed and threatened them, often overturning their images in anger.

Everybody remembers how the heathen Gods fell in estimation, when the Jewish God's prophet was able to bring down fire from heaven to light his bonfire, although he had soaked it with water. Men could not live without religion; even a false one is better than none. Voltaire truly said, "If there had been no God, it would have been necessary to invent one."

In Hungary, two students, violently anti-semitic, were surprised when challenged to duels with sabres by two Jewish students. They were more surprised when the two Jews, first class swordsmen carved them up.

Now eight other young Jews have challenged eight other anti-semitic students to fight with sabres. In course of time that should make anti-semitic students thoughtful. To fight with sabres is no joke, not at all like the rapier comic duelling in German universities.

When men fight with sabres they are stripped to the waist, nothing to protect jugular vein or anything else. And a heavy sabre is no child's toy. Many a man has been killed in such "affairs of honor" among German officers.

At Naples Saturday a tall, handsome girl, called Princess Anne, of France, daughter of the Duke de Guise, "rightful king of France," married Prince Amedeo of Savoy, son of the Duke of Aosta, a cousin of Italy's king.

The kings of Italy and Spain witnessed the marriage, with dozens of Princes, Dukes, etc., present.

The most interesting witness was Benito Mussolini, an ardent Socialist, locked up in various prisons not long ago, now ruling Italy and determined if he can to get part of Alfonso's lands in Africa.

The world's speed record is broken again by an Italian ace. Major Bernardi flew a speed exceeding 315 miles an hour, more than five miles a minute. How long will it take men to fly as the sun seems to fly, around the earth at the rate of 1,000 miles an hour?
