BEGIN DRIVE FOR LOWDEN IN INDIANA

Friends of Former Governor Boost For Republican Presidential Nomination.

Indianapolis, Nov. 19.—(AP)—A late-wide campaign in an effort to gain the Indiana preferential vote for former Governor Frank O. Lowden, of Illinois, in the state primary next may will be conducted by Lowden supporters in Indiana. It was announced last night by State Senator Alonzo H. Lindley.

Senator Lindley said he was authorized by Illinois friends of Lowden to announce that the former governor will be a candidate in the Indiana primary next May for the Republican presidential preference vote of the state.

"I am authorized to make this statement after consultation with the (Lowden's) Illinois friends who are looking after political matters in his interest," Senator Lindley said. "These friends, under the leadership of Clarence F. Buck are preparing to carry on a vigorous campaign in behalf of Governor Lowden." Mr. Buck is a former state Senator of Illinois.

A conference of Indiana Lowden supporters will be held in Indianapolis during the week of Nov. 28 and 29.

The Lowden announcement is the first move to gain the presidential preference in Indiana. Senator James E. Watson of Indiana has been campaigning for an unrestricted delegation to the next Republican national convention but friends of the Senator when informed of the Lowden movement, said that Senator Watson will probably file for the state presidential vote. It was indicated this might be done in order to gain a delegation to the national convention that would be friends to Watson.

Recently Senator Watson has declared himself in favor of Charles E. Dwyer, vice-president for the Republican nomination for President, but the vice-president has made it plain that he will not enter the state primaries.

Last June Lindley, a farmer, headed a delegation of Hoosiers to Lowden's home at Oregon, Ill., and asked the former Governor to become a presidential candidate. Lindley did not commit himself but repeated his famous assertion that "No man ever ran away from his responsibility."

Lowden, advocate of legislative relief for the farmers made a bid for the presidential vote of Indiana in the 1920 primary along with Major General Leonard Wood, Hiram Johnson of California and President Warren G. Harding. The vote was contested between Wood and Johnson with Lowden third and Harding fourth.

Pay Tribute To Heroe's of '60's

Charleston, S. C., Nov. 19.—(AP)—Memorial services for the thirty men of the Confederate torpedoeer service who died in the Sixty-first, in defense of Charleston harbor, marked the high spot in the day today of the United States of the Confederacy's annual convention.

A boat ride over the harbor, as a feature of the entertainment program had been planned by the convention committee as offering this opportunity to strew wreaths in the waters in tribute to the sailors of the Gray. Rev. S. Cary Smith, rector of St. Philip's Episcopal church, was selected to conduct the impressive ceremonies.

First formal rites of the day greeted Mrs. W. C. N. Merchant, of Chatham, Va., to the office of President General, as successor to Mrs. J. Allison Lawton, of Charleston. The election was held Thursday and the installation was deferred for the session today.

McQueen, County Recorder, who disappeared November 3 when cotton drafts he held totalling $82,000 were dishonored simultaneously with the closing of the Carolina Bank and Trust Company at Red Springs, was back on the scene today. ### Growers to Get Million Bucks

Raleigh, Nov. 19.—(AP)—Farmers who held membership in the defunct Tobacco Growers Association will probably have at least one million dollars to divide among themselves, was the opinion today of United States Judge I. M. Meekins, who decreed the organization's receivership in June 1926.

Report of the receivers reveals that indebtedness of the association has been reduced from over eight to about three million dollars.

TODAY

One Second of History.
Alas, Poor Bears!
Now How Big, But WHAT?
Big Texas, Big Wells.
(By Arthur Brisbane)
Copyright 1927, by Star Co.

The earth turns around once, that's another second in history, and the newspaper Schopenhauer's "second hand of history," reports as follows:

A Vienna surgeon restores speech to John Emerson, husband of Anita Loos, after twenty-nine doctors in three American cities had failed. The same doctor cured Miss Loos' headaches.

Three hundred thousand dollars is bid for a New York stock exchange seat. The price moved up $130,000 this year, only a beginning.

Stock exchange seats go up with stock prices. The public is always a bull.

Poor Wall Street bears!

Virel Jordan, chief economist of the National Industrial Conference Board, tells the Railway Express Association:

"A great industrial boom is coming that will make 1925 and 1926 look like a depression."

"Business expansion in 1928 and later will strain our transportation facilities and credit resources to the limit, and put the powers of the Federal Reserve to a real test."

The average citizen will say: "Amen, let the expansion expand!"

Now how big are you but WHAT are you, is the question, as proved by Napoleon Bonaparte.

In Belgium yesterday Prime Ministers, French Senators and Deputy-Generals accompanied to the University of Lille a 6 foot 4 French grenadier carrying a burden weighing one fourth of an ounce. It was a little glass tube.

PLAN TO PROBE SMUGGLING OF ARMS IN U. S.

Department of Justice To Determine if Nation-Wide Smuggling Body Exists.

San Francisco, Nov. 19.—(AP)—An investigation by the Department of Justice to determine whether there exists a nation-wide organization of arms and ammunition smugglers in and prospect today as the result of developments which followed the seizure of machine guns, revolvers and cartridges in a raid on the home of John Mannerstam, president of the Pacific Arms Co., at Albany, Cal.

United States District Attorney George J. Hatfield, said he would request an investigation of Mannerstam's activities.

Meanwhile, the San Francisco Examiner announced it had located Mannerstam in a hotel here and that he had promised to surrender to the police today. He maintained innocence of any wrongdoing. A warrant was issued after the raid charging him with illegal possession of machine guns but he could not be found by the officers.

Mannerstam denied to Examiner reporters that he had sold guns and ammunition to Mexican revolutionaries or to gangsters, and he maintained that his business as a dealer in arms gave him the right to have guns and ammunition in his home.

Although no evidence appeared here to indicate the alleged arms selling activities were nation-wide, the investigators interested themselves in news from New Orleans that government operators had raided two vessels there and seized ammunition stores.

Search was under way for Guillermo Rojas, Jr., who with Mannerstam already is under indictment in connection with alleged arms smuggling efforts in behalf of Mexican revolutionaries. Among the articles seized in the Albany raid was a carbon copy of a letter addressed to Rojas at New Orleans which talked of deals in arms and ammunition. Last reports were that Rojas was somewhere in Texas.

REMUS PLANS DEFENSE FOR HIS HEARING

Much Speculating as To Trend of Wife-Slayer's Delineation of His Case.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Nov. 19.—(AP)—George Remus sat in his jail cell today and planned the opening statement of his defense.

With the jury of two women and ten men and an extra juror for a possible emergency chosen late yesterday, court was in adjournment until Monday.

Wide latitude customarily is permitted to counsel outlining cases and there was much speculation as to the possible trend of the wife-slayer's delineation of his defense against the first degree murder indictment after his angry outburst of yesterday, which veterans of the Cincinnati fair said, surpassed any courtroom scene ever witnessed in Hamilton county.

Charles P. Taft, II, county prosecutor and son of William Howard Taft, the former president, who now is chief justice of the United States Supreme Court, was the special target for Remus' barbed shafts of ridicule, and denunciation.

For fifteen minutes the man who quit the law to become the dry nation's most spectacular exponent of violation of the Volstead Act stamped the courtroom shouting, gesturing, crying and hurling maledictions.

At the height of his frenzy he spread wide his powerful arms toward young Taft, a six foot, 150 pounder still in physical condition as excellent as when he played football for Yale and literally screamed:

"Man, if I had you in the corridor I could wreck you physically."

The young lawyer prosecuting his greatest case merely stood unflinchingly.

The outburst came without warning. Remus, for the third time since selection of the jury was begun last Monday, was interrogating a venireman. He repeated a question he had asked several times, whether the fact he was disgraced as an attorney because of violation of the prohibition law, would cause the venireman, if he became a juror, to be prejudiced.

Carl E. Basler, assistant prosecutor, objected to the phrasing of the questioning, insisting Remus had been disgraced because of other things as well. Remus denied the assertion, and Judge Chester R. Shook denied the prosecution had not substantiated its statement.

In his tirade Remus turned upon Basler and accused him of being a drinker of whiskey by the pint and not the ounce.

Romeo Padgett Has Surrendered

Charlotte, Nov. 19.—(AP)—Romeo Padgett, who with five other prisoners escaped from the Mecklenburg county jail last night, surrendered today. Padgett had been held in jail several days since he was discharged from a hospital where he was taken after he had been wounded by a battle with rural policemen.

Padgett is charged with shooting and gravely wounding rural policeman Henry Moseley.

Padgett, after surrendering, told newspapermen that he would have surrendered during the night but was afraid officers would shoot him on sight.

H. L. Strickland, attorney for Padgett, went to a house on the Concord road shortly after nine o'clock this morning in response to a mysterious telephone message. There Padgett met him and Strickland brought him to the city and surrendered Padgett to Sergeant Gardner of the Charlotte police force.

Lendel Sherrill, John McKay, R. E. Orr, Pearl Carpenter and Turner Sinclair, who escaped with Padgett, were still at large this morning.

Plans to Keep Legislature Out Of Fair Issue

Raleigh, Nov. 19.—(AP)—Agitation for a special session of the General Assembly to clear the muddled State Fair culminated yesterday with the announcement of Governor McLeary's decision to keep the Legislature out of the question.

In a statement replying to Fred W. Mabler, chairman of the Raleigh Merchants' Association committee to handle their interests in the fair proposal, the Governor expressed the belief that he would not be justified, under the circumstances in calling the Assembly to consider changing the site of the fair or modifying the terms of the act.

GOVERNMENT TAKES BONDS IN OIL CASE

$100,000 in Bonds Belonging to Missing Witness Seized By Marshal Snyder.

Washington, Nov. 19.—(AP)—One hundred thousand dollars in Liberty bonds deposited in the name of W. H. Blackmer, missing Testator, were seized today on orders of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia.

The seizure was made by United States Marshal Snyder under the same order which cited the Western oil man to show cause why he should not be held in contempt of court for his refusal to return from Paris to testify in the case against Albert B. Fall in the case against the Liberty bonds Fall was accused of having received from Sinclair after the leasing of the naval oil reserve.

Fall's attorneys will contest in court that the law prohibits the seizure which was ordered by Senator Walsh of Montana, the majority of the Senate oil investigation is inconclusive and will attempt to retrieve the securities.

The bonds were deposited with the National Savings and Trust Company under an agreement between Blackmer and government counsel. After attaching them, marshal Snyder had them listed and placed in a box which was sealed with a government stamp.

Captain Giles Returns To San Francisco after Encountering White Fog.

The flier who abandoned sextant, goggles and helmet and took off in the face of a weather bureau warning declaring flying condition to Honolulu were not good, kept his promise to return in case he found conditions inauspicious.

Giles said he had tried to climb over the fog but his heavy load prevented him. He dumped 288 of his 300 gallons of gasoline when he turned back.

Later, however, Captain Giles definitely announced that the flight was "off" for today. He had his plane towed into the hangar where some adjustments were to be made.

TEACHERS TO RETURN HERE NEXT YEAR

M. L. Wright, of Greenville, Elected President Educational Association.

The North Eastern District of the North Carolina Education Association closed its annual session in Greenville today. The out of State speakers at this meeting were Supt. Willis A. Sutton of the Atlanta Ga., schools and Dr. Maxia A. Woodring of Teachers College, Columbia University. Mr. Sutton is one of the outstanding figures in American public school education, having done a piece of constructive work in his own State that has attracted nationwide attention. His message was one of inspiration dealing with the problem of education for initiative. Dr. Woodring is considered one of America's authorities on secondary education.

This is one of the best attended meetings that has ever been held in the district. There are some two thousand white teachers in the district. It is estimated that about thirteen or fourteen hundred attended the meeting.

Greenville opened up its heart and its homes to the teachers and took care of the convention in a masterful fashion. The Merchants Association gave a barbecue supper last night in the Campus building to all teachers and visitors. This supper which was under the management of the home economics department of the college was served in splendid style. The Merchants Association also found homes and placed all of the visiting teachers.

Some very lively bidding was done at the business session this morning when Elizabeth City, Rocky Mount, Kinston and Greenville all bid for the convention for next year. After several series of ballots Greenville finally won out by eight votes. So the meeting place of the convention will not be changed. The meetings in this district have been held in Greenville every year with the exception of one. In 1925 it went to Washington, N. C.

The new officers for the incoming year are as follows: M. L. Wright, Greenville, N. C., president; G. R. Wheeler, Farmville, N. C., vice president; Miss Mary R. Bridges, secretary.

Y., the recognized title holder of the National Boxing Association.

Today's Games To Decide Honors West Conference

Chicago, Nov. 19.—(AP)—On the outcome of games at Columbus Ohio and Ann Arbor, Michigan, today hangs the championship of the Western Conference's 32nd football season.

At Ann Arbor, Minnesota and Michigan each had a chance at a title tie, in case of victory, Minnesota has not been beaten but has been tied. Michigan lost to Illinois but won all her other conference games.

Illinois has four big ten victories in a row and brilliant prospects for a fifth unless one of the unforeseen breaks of football roosts on the banners of Ohio State. Ohio needs this victory to brighten a very distressing season.

Title hopes at Ann Arbor, also depend upon the humbling of Illinois. Minnesota, like Illinois, has not been beaten this fall, but Indiana held the Gophers to a 12-11 tie, and it will take a victory over Michigan to give the Minnesotans any chance to claim any.

LIGHT CARD ON GRIDIRON IN SOUTH TODAY

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 19.—(AP)—An even score of football games, most of them regional, interest only, marked Dixie football's leanest Saturday today.

The Vanderbilt-Maryland game at Nashville, drew the greatest attendance, however.

Kentucky met Centre at Danville both teams drawing near their season climaxes with a showing far from favorable.

The card for next week reads: Raleigh vs. Wilmington at Goldsboro and Greensboro at Asheville both on Friday.

Outstanding Stars Are Native Sons

Chicago, Nov. 19.—(AP)—Nearly every outstanding star on a Western conference football team today is, for the first time in many seasons, a genuine native son, rightfully wearing the colors of his own State's big university.

Herb Joesting of Minnesota, Oosterbaan and Gilbert, of Michigan, Bennett, of Indiana, Wilcox of Purdue, Reitsch, of Illinois, Gustafson, and Lewis of Northwestern, Crofoot, of Wisconsin, Nelson, of Iowa, Grim and Huston, of Ohio, and Rouse, of Chicago, all live in the State they represent on the football field in contrast with stars of other years, who went far afield seeking gridiron glory.

Cosch Baldwin announced the Deacon lineup would find Burroughs and Clayton at ends; Phelps and Zimmerman, tackles; H. Weir and Denton guards; Phifer, center; James, quarter; Voxo and Stallings halfbacks and Connelly, fullback.

Yale-Harvard Clash Today

Easton, Nov. 19.—(AP)—Thousands of Yale men, confident of a successful termination of the season for the best eleven Yale has had in recent years, today turned their attention to the Harvard stadium and the 46th football game with an ancient foe.

Yale was a four to one favorite and little Harvard cash was in sight. Yale, conqueror of the Army Dartmouth and Princeton had only lost to Georgia. Harvard has won every other game.

Extra stands sent the horseshoe's capacity up to 53,000.

Scores of extra trains brought thousands here.

The game starts at 2 p. m.

LOCAL HIGHS DEFEATED BY WILMINGTON

The Greenville High School football team was halted in its victorious march toward the Eastern championship by the strong Hanover High Team of Wilmington yesterday by the score of 34 to 0.

Opening the game with a strong offense, the opponents scored 20 points before the first half ended. The Green and White opened the second half determined to penetrate the opponent's line, however, but were again turned back without a score. The game ended with Greenville opening up a wonderful aerial attack. Several long passes from Respass to Bostic and Hicks placed the ball on the opponent's 20-yard line as the game closed. Could the smooth passing game have been successful earlier in the game the score would probably have been very different.

Although unable to score, the local lads put up a game fight and played hard until the last whistle blew.

This eliminates the local from championship play, but this team has gone farther in the series already than any other Greenville High team.

The line-up follows:

Greenville	Pos	Wilmington
Forbes	R E	Farmer
Anthony	R T	Jewell
Ferguson	R G	Robinson
Whitbee	C	Jarmin
Mills	L G	Snipes
Bailey	L T	May
Tucker	L E	Beale

NO CAUSE FOR ALARM IN ANTHRAX OUTBREAK

Raleigh, Nov. 19—(AP)—No cause for alarm over the reported outbreak of Anthrax among a shipment of mules at Jacksonville is seen by Dr. H. A. Taylor, state epidemiologist who returned yesterday from an investigation of the matter. Examination of two mules that died did not necessarily point to the fact that death was due to Anthrax germs, he said.

Artic Explorer To Lecture Here On December 12th

The great Arctic explorer, Steffansson, will visit Greenville and give an illustrated lecture at East Carolina Teachers College on the evening of December 12.

He takes the place of Amundsen, whose sudden cancellation of lecture engagements and departure for Norway left a vacancy in the fall series of entertainments at the college. Steps were immediately taken to secure a man of equal reputation whose personality and record of achievement would have popular appeal.

Steffansson was first choice as his record of achievement as an Arctic explorer and his attractive personality make him one of the most popular men before the public today. He is now on a lecture tour in the West and comes here immediately after the completion of this tour, just as he returns East for a brief rest and holiday.

"He is a rapid fire speaker carrying his audiences with him through his adventures" is the comment of one in Greenville who has heard him. He is considered the most entertaining of all the Arctic explorers, a man of charming personality, and one who sprinkles anecdotes and humor throughout his lectures. He uses pictures he has taken, and uses them in such a way that they are literally illustrations of his lecture.

His coming to Greenville should be heralded as an event of great importance to the town.

Movie Director

ELIZABETH PICKETT

Chicago — (AP) — Elizabeth Pickett, formerly of Oak Park, Chicago suburb, has invaded another field formerly ruled by men.

She is a movie director, one of the few women in Hollywood who wield the megaphone.

Miss Pickett's greatest success has been directing animal pictures. As a child she loved animals of all sorts, but there was no thought of when she attended high school in a career on the Hollywood film lots Oak Park and Wellesley College. She specialized in English and drifted into movie directing by way of film editing and scenario writing, which she still does.

She wrote "Wolf Fangs" and "Wing of the Storm." Some of the films she directed include "The Salmon Run," "Under Colorado Skies," and "My Old Kentucky Home."

done around the school and of course we have to have boys to help do these things. They have just put out lots of shrubs and trees brought from the woods near by. They also build the fires and get in the coal and lightwood. We have some very smart boys in our school and we appreciate the work they are doing.

Some Experiences With My Garden
My garden is about one-fourth acre of good land. I plant collards, turnips, cabbages, tomatoes, pepper and all kinds of vegetables. But the best of all is collards.

The way to plant them is to sow fertilizer and have the ground soft and moist, then sow the seed and they will sprout. Then thin them out and set out about twelve inches apart. They will grow and be fine collards. These fine collards will be good when the frost strikes them and of course, there is nothing as good as bacon and collards—unless it is collards and bacon.

Princess Victoria Marries Dishwasher

Bonn, Germany, Nov. 19.—(AP)—In the simplest of civil settings, the ex-Kaisers' widowed sister, the Princess Victoria Schaumburg-Lippe today became the wife of a young Russian emigre, Alexander Subkoff, despite chorus of disapproval from her family.

Thus the once powerful German Emperor acquired a new brother-in-law—a youth reputedly of good family, but of recent years a dishwasher in hotels, a professional dancer and motion picture "super."

No member of the Hohenzollern family was present. The only witnesses were the bride's chamberlain, Baron Von Solemacher and Professor Rutneff of Berlin.

FRENCH AUTOMOBILE TELLS ITS OWN STORY

Paris—(AP)—An automobile that talks is the latest Boulevard sensation. Strollers admiring a chassis in the show rooms of one of France's most popular makers were started to hear a hollow, grating voice coming from the entrails of the machine.

"Before you, you have the famous B14 1928 model," it said and proceeded to reel off a fine line of selling talk.

The management claims that the phonographic salesman is bringing more business than any two living experts. It has the additional advantage of costing nothing, for the makers of the phonograph are only too glad to provide it free for the sake of the publicity.

OFFERS SONS CAREERS IN STONE QUARRIES

Knottingley, England —(AP)— searching about for a business opportunity for her four sons, Mrs. Anne Greaves, who has invented a new stone for building, is now in the sand quarrying business, employing 30 men. She travels 600 miles a week selling the products of her quarries.

Mrs. Greave's husband is a shipowner, but she did not believe there was a future in shipping for her four sons. She decided to try quarrying on some land she owned at Hensall.

"The firsts and I produced" Mrs. Greaves said, "was moulder's sand used in iron foundries. I traveled round the foundries in the West Riding selling the sand. I must have been the first woman seen in the foundries. Since then I have opened three more quarries and two river wharfs.

STATUE RATES NAME AFTER TWO CENTURIES

London — (AP) — For 250 years King Charles I. has sat on his great bronze charger at Charing Cross gazing down Whitehall at the spot where he lost his head, and unidentified so far as inscriptions are concerned.

But at last, on initiative of the Royal Martyr Society, the office of works has consented to the fixing of a tablet, with name and dates officially approved. This was agreed upon chiefly for the benefit of the increased number of tourists, from the provinces and abroad, who pass the statue every day and who, from their guide books or otherwise, may not be able to identify the unhappy monarch as he sits majestically with bared head.

Charles' statue was cast in 1663, but the civil war broke out before it had been erected. By order of the Cromwellian parliament it was disposed of as "junk" and stood in a shopkeepers garden in Holborn until the Restoration when Charles II ordered its erection near the site of the old Charing Cross in Trafalgar Square where it stands today at the head of the famous thoroughfare flanked by the principal buildings of the government.

ADDED YEARS FOR DIVA BRING SHARP PROTEST

Berlin — (AP) — Pistols for two and coffee for one may be the outcome of a breeze in the Berlin theatrical world owing to critic's slip-up over the age of Fritz Masaryk, popular operetta diva, who is also well known in the United States. The critic wrote of her recent performance as "a very creditable one for an elderly lady who is understood to be 56."

Now Fritz's husband, Max Pallenberg, Germany's leading comedian, writes an indignant letter to the papers saying his wife is not a day older than 43, and that he regards the critic's utterance as malicious slander for which its author will please consider his face slapped twice.

BOBS HAIR AT 99

Fort Worth, Texas—(AP)—Abigail Sadler, a Texas pioneer, had her hair bobbed two days before her 99th birthday.

"I am going to curl it, just like the flappers do," she said. "Grandma" Sadler hopes to ride in an airplane before she is 100. "If frivolities of young people seem more conspicuous nowadays," she says, defending modern youth, "it's because there are more young folks."

CHURCH DIRECTORY

"Wilmington Wildcats clawed us to pieces," said C. W. Porter, athletic director of Greenville High School, commenting on the Greenville-Wilmington championship elimination contest at Warsaw yesterday afternoon.

"Our boys made a remarkably fine showing, and if they could recall those first few minutes of play we would be telling an entirely different story this morning. Wilmington had a much heavier lineup than Greenville, and this weight combined with the furious offensive in early stages of the game, was largely responsible for our defeat."

"We are out of the championship race now, but there will be other championship games next year, and we expect to have a longer look-in than we had this season. The boys are not disheartened by yesterday's defeat. They are sustained by that bitter cold philosophy, "Failure is a stepping stone to success," and are prepared to apply it in the future."

"Where did all those good looking 'wimmin' come from?" queried an aged citizen today, as he gazed at a hoary head and continued gazing at a bevy of young women mingling with the crowd on Evans Street.

"Why, they are here attending the annual conference of the North-eastern district of the North Carolina Educational Association, which opened at the Teachers College yesterday."

Apparently satisfied with the brief explanation, the old gentleman hobbled off, saying "Durn good looking crowd, if you'll take it from grandpa."

Greenville now has seven towns receiving electric current from her municipally operated power plant. Ayden was hooked up yesterday, and like the remainder of the towns, now has a surplus of electric current for industrial purposes.

"We are making improvements at the plant most all the time," Martin Swartz, manager of the Water and Light Commission said this morning. We have sufficient power for almost any purpose at this time and our rates are cheaper than any town in the State. It is our intention to give neighboring towns an opportunity of enjoying the advantages to be derived from connecting with the local plant. The towns that have already been connected are deriving great benefit from the experiment.

"Development of Eastern Carolina at this time depends largely upon electric power. Greenville is going to do her part in providing for the march of industry of the locality."

"The Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce is planning to increase the scope of its activities," members of the organization here stated today.

"Right at this time the organization is raising funds through mem-

TRUTH, ITS UNFAILING STRENGTH

The press of America is not infallible as to fast or invulnerable as to bias; but it is overwhelmingly honest in its intent and comment. There was a Judas among the Master's Twelve; there was an Arnold in the Revolution; there was a Nero in imperial Rome; there have been traitors masquerading as editors, just as there have been fraudulent bankers and shoemakers and road-builders and men from every rank of life. But, generally speaking, what one reads is usually more true than what one hears.

The press is inherently truthful; that is its unflinching strength.

FIGHTING INFERNO ON EARTH

A minister at Dallas, Oregon, invited the whole town to a special sermon on "Fire Prevention." He might have likened it to the fire-and-brimstone of Calvinism; but he didn't—he told it just as it is, with the fire loss of life running to 15,000 or more a year, mostly women and children and hospital inmates. It's almost as bad in America as the World War; and infinitely less defensible, for there is in the fire loss no plea of national honor, no protest against outside assault, but only personal greed and carelessness and bravado. It is a moral and spiritual question that the church might well take up and handle without gloves.

We are open for business.

FOR CONSTIPATION

Mississippi Man Says He Has Found Black-Draught So Satisfactory, He Has No Need to Change.

Wiggins, Miss.—Mr. A. L. Cone, a well known Wiggins resident, says: "I have used Theford's Black-Draught for constipation. I have never had to take a great deal of medicine, but for fully 30 years I have, by using it, known Black-Draught to be a great medicine, and when I found it so satisfactory, I haven't seen any need to change."

"When I get constipated, I feel all out of sorts and tired and sluggish and I take a few doses of Black-Draught. It regulates my bowels and I get all right. My wife takes more Black-Draught than I do. She is a great believer in it too, so we keep it in the house. It will cleanse the system and help you, if you use it as we have."

Constipation leads to a great deal of sickness among those who do not understand its dangers, and who neglect to treat it without delay. Black-Draught, with the natural, prompt action of its purely vegetable ingredients, quickly relieves constipation and helps to drive the poisons so as to leave organs in a state of healthy activity. # Market Report

Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON
 New York, Nov. 19—(AP)—The cotton market opened steady today a decline of 3 to 8 points in response to relatively easy Liverpool cables but offerings were comparatively light and prices steadied on week end covering coupled with a little trade buying.

Liquidation of December contracts continued but spot houses again buyers of near months without much change in the differences as compared with later deliveries, January sold up from 19.42 to 19.53 and May from 19.79 to 19.89 before the end of the first hour, or about 5 to 6 points net higher.

The amount of cotton on shipboard awaiting clearance at the end of the week was estimated at 122,000 bales against 192,000 at the same time last year.

Private cables attributed the decline in Liverpool to hedge selling and liquidation promoted by weakness in the market for Egyptian cotton and expected bearish ginning returns.

Prices closed barely steady, six to eleven points lower. Spot steady Middling 19.80.

GRAIN
 Chicago, Nov. 19—(AP)—Unexpected higher prices at Liverpool led to an early upturn today in the wheat market here. The Liverpool advance was ascribed to speculative buying and to scarcity of selling. Opening 1-8 to 1-2 higher Chicago reacted a little but then hardened again. Corn, oats and provisions were also firmer. Corn started unchanged to 1-2c up and later held near to initial figures.

SUGAR
 New York, Nov. 19—(AP)—Raw sugar was easy today at a decline of 1-16 of a cent with spot Cuban now quoted at 4.65 duty paid. Sales of about 50,000 bags of Cuban were confirmed for November shipment at 4.65, with additional offerings at the same level.

Firmer advices from London, which included a better refined demand there, were responsible for a little covering and European buying at the opening of raw futures and prices for some deliveries showed gains of 1 point. Demand was soon supplied, however, and under renewed December liquidation and selling by houses with trade and Cuban connections, prices turned easier and closed net unchanged to 2 points lower. The late sell back apparently reflected the earlier tone in the spot market, approximately sales 45,600 tons. Dec closed 2.94; Jan 2.88; Mar 2.83; May 2.96; July 3.04; Sept 2.12.

Refined was unchanged at 5.70 to 5.80 for the granulated.

RUTH CALLS CLOTHES SECONDARY BUT SHE ADORES RUE DE LA PAIX

New York. (AP)—Ruth Elmer, who arrived in Paris with only a toothbrush, came home with a Paris wardrobe that would turn a Hollywood star bright green with envy.

"Just a few necessary things," she explained apologetically in reply to rumors of reckless buying that had preceded her from the Rue de la Paix. The "few things" include seven complete costumes from Jean Patou alone, and the total number of articles, hats, shoes, lingerie and accessories purchased in Paris made the customs men scratch their heads.

Ruth insists that her clothes are only minor interests and her real passion is the sky and flying.

"It was a great pleasure to buy clothes in Paris," she said several times. There can be no doubt that she had a good time.

The Paris wardrobe—as presented to the customs officials—indicates that Ruth's tastes are girlish without being simple. Among her purchases are two very feminine evening dresses, children, fluffy dresses in striking contrast to the dirty plaid and boyish sweater she wore on her trans-Atlantic attempt.

One evening dress is of American beauty color, with the skirt made in four circular tiers each tier inst many times with tiny knots. The work of many patient hands. The other evening dress is of bird-like white with subtle, brilliant. It is made of soft, Grecian lines with pleated points hanging down on the skirt in front and back.

The place of honor in Ruth's wardrobe still belongs to the old-fashioned pair of blue flannel and old pull-over trousers of her great adventure. There is also a red-wool cap, the gift of the captain of the rescue ship Barendrecht. On these things Ruth paid no duty. And she will keep them, she says long after the Paris clothes are mere memories.

CAUSE OF SLAYING
 Raleigh, Nov. 18—(AP)—Pardon Commissioner E. H. Hodges today ordered to investigate the case of Hester Graham, negro, scheduled to die in state prison electric chair on December 9.

Graham will get a final hearing next Tuesday. He was recently convicted and sentenced to death for slaying Capt. Paul Johnson, a prominent Hoke county resident.

Big Shipment of Fowls
 Raleigh, Nov. 19—(AP)—More than $15,000 worth of mountain turkeys and other Thanksgiving turkeys have been shipped out of North Carolina up to today, with more going out Monday, the State Department of Agriculture reports.

Two solid carloads of Thanksgiving turkeys moved out of Toe Camp in Mitchell county, this week, netting the producing farmers $7,000. The sales were made in co-operation with the marketing experts of the Department of Agriculture.

The 2,500 head of turkeys weighed 2,000 pounds and brought an average of 20 cents a pound at the cadet.

They were sent East some of them from of Massachusetts for consumption by descendants of the Pilgrim Fathers.

CONTRACTOR VICTIM OF UNKNOWN ROBBERS
 Jonesboro, Nov. 18—(AP)—His skull fractured and neck broken, John Hunter, Lee county contractor, was today in a local hospital believed to be recovering from an attack by unknown robbers.

He reported the robbers snatched nothing as his purse was empty.

Flashes of Life

(By The Associated Press)
 New York—There is to be another American Princess. Mrs. Lucy Marsh Leggett, widow of Dr. Noel Leggett, is to marry Prince Vladimir Koudacheff, Russian emigre, now a bond salesman here. He is 35 years old. Mrs. Leggett has a son at Princeton. The Prince, who has been divorced twice, was an officer in the Czarina's Imperial Guards and was wounded several times during the World War. He is an excellent horseman and fencer. Several of his uncles were ambassadors under the czars.

New York—Girls, beware bootleggers. The American Fair Trade Association says they are damaging the American complexion as much as bootleg liquor is damaging the American stomach and nerves. Women's expenditure of $1,225,000,000 a year for beautifiers is causing bootleggers to steal trade marks of reputable firms.

New York—Exercise for the muscles of the soul is urged by Otto H. Kahn, banker and patron of the opera. Advocating co-operation between shrill cmv cmb vb vbgjq (green the church and the stage, he said: "There are many cures for the ills of the world but one of the most feign is art. Everyone must give the soul an airing once in a while. There must be an outlet for the emotions. A person must exercise the muscles of his soul as well as his body."

New York—Bear Admiral Magruder has cancelled a debate on big navies with Bertrand Russell, English pacifist. Instead Mr. Russell is to lecture on companionate marriage. The Admiral's telegram explains the cancellation is due to circumstances beyond his control. Richard Rohman, director of the American Public Forum, which arranged the debate, says that Secretary Wilbur cannot stand criticism and had Magruder gagged as a result.

GORMAN'S MARKET REPORT

November 19, 1927.

The State report gives Greenville's October average as $25.19. Gorman's average for October was $26.64. We made this average although we sell such a large percent of common tobacco. IT PAYS TO SELL IN GREENVILLE AND AT GORMAN'S. Gorman's has First Sale Monday Second Sale Tuesday and First Sale Wednesday. No sale Thursday or Friday as we close Wednesday night for Thanksgiving and will reopen the following Monday.

The rains on Wednesday and Thursday (two of our first sales) cut our receipts this week, however, Gorman's sold 820,368 pounds for $224,479.72 and averaged $27.36 for all we sold. Friday's sale was one of the largest sales of the season, (the larger part came in after seven o'clock A. M.) With third second sale and a house over half filled we sold all but three rows. Had we been able to sell this the market would have cleaned up. Prices (considering the order of the tobacco) have held up well all the week and the grades from 29c up showed more strength Thursday and Friday, they were not as high as ten days or two weeks ago, but better than they were the first of the week. So many have finished selling we look for lighter sales after Monday and see no reason for prices to get any lower. Greenville will continue the four sales until Christmas. There will be no reduction in the number of Buyers after Thanksgiving. Send your tobacco to Gorman's and you will get the top of the market for every lot in your load.

Says N. C. Will Become Leading Business Center

Durham, Nov. 19.—(AP)—North Carolina is destined to become one of the two or three leading industrial states in America within the next 25 years, in the opinion of Governor McLean. And the advance will be hastened by the working partnership of education and industry, the Governor believes.

These statements were made last night at the citizens banquet here at which the Governor was the guest of honor. "From industrial insignificance we have risen to a point of economic prominence among all states of the nation," he said. "Our manufactured products today are worth more than a billion and a quarter annually." One of the principal reasons for the state's present position, he said, is that the state government, backed by public sentiment, has pursued a helpful policy toward capital. Disputatious labor disputes are unknown here, he declared. This is our great asset without boasting that our educational institutions have been phenomenal during the past quarter of a century and especially during the past decade. In 1901 we were spending only about a million dollars a year on all public education. Today we are spending about thirty million dollars annually, an increase with ten million as late as 1920."

New Hanover Jury Probes Gas Prices

Wilmington, Nov. 19.—(AP)—Investigation of the price of gasoline is being made by the New Hanover county grand jury. This became known late yesterday when the grand jury reported its plan to Judge Devine. The report claimed that the agreement between the attorney general and the oil companies doing business in the state had been violated in that instead of the three cent freight rate from Wilmington to all parts of the state was being ignored. It was claimed that a rate of 29 cents a hundred pounds (20 gallons) was charged to Charlotte; 22 cents to Goldsboro and 14 cents to Asheville.

"The greater part of the state is charged three cents a gallon," the report says, "whereas there is a materially less than three cents a gallon freight rate actually in evidence. Therefore all of the people of the state east of a line that is west of Asheville must be paying more for gasoline than conditions actually warrant."

The attorney general is asked in the report to continue investigation of the possibility of a wrongful combine as to the setting of the price of gasoline throughout the state, especially in cities where several oil companies operate in large capacity.
