STATE STILL HAMMERS ON MURDER CASE

More Than Half of 100 Witnesses Examined in Lillendahl Case in N. J.

Mays Landing, N. J., Dec. 1.—(AP)—With more than half its 100 witnesses on record, the state today had yet to destroy the smiling confidence of Mrs. Margaret Lillendahl and Willis Beach, on trial for the murder of the woman's aged husband.

Jersey Justice, moving with traditional speed, in three days, has heard 52 men and women contribute testimony intended to show that Beach and the widow plotted the death of Dr. William Lillendahl, slain near Hammonton, September 15. The State's witnesses surprised Prosecutor Hinkley yesterday by their failure positively to identify Beach.

Confidence of the accused pair was strengthened yesterday by the failure of the State's star witness to support the prosecution's expectations.

These witnesses failed to remember that Beach was the man they had been running away from the scene of the crime. They did not recall that Beach has asked his friends to "remember" that he had been somewhere else at the time of the killing took place.

They were not sure if Beach, or another man, faintly resembling him, was the one who had emerged onto the lonely road near Hammonton, N. J., shortly before the hysterical Mrs. Lillendahl stopped passersby with the story that two negroes had attacked and robbed her and the aged physician whom they had shot and killed. They could not positively identify Beach as the man they had seen in alleged clandestine meetings with Mrs. Lillendahl.

However, Prosecutor Hinkley who confessed himself taken aback by the difference in their testimony from what they had told the grand jury, searched for legal means to make them conform to their original stories.

He testified to talking with Beach in Baltimore last September. "I told him I saw by the papers he was wanted and he said not very bad," he testified. "He and a man named Thompson asked me for $500, but I said I was no bank. They said they wanted the money to buy some jewelry out of soak in Philadelphia."

"Thompson told Beach it looked like he was in an awful fix and Beach said he could be. "Then I asked him just how he got in this fix and Beach said he'd got in a racket with the old man and shot him."

"Who did he mean by the old man?"

"Dr. Lillendahl. We were talking about the murder. Beach told me the old man had been having some trouble about money or dope or something."

Bark said that Beach told him the killing was staged at the isolated spot off the Atison road, "because we had to fix it for a get-away."

"Beach told me he met the old man, shot him in the head and ran back to his car. When he got there he said he shouted 'Yoo hoo!' to Mrs. Lillendahl to let her know he was safely away and then spread the alarm."

Under cross-examination Bark classed himself as a "trick roper" in traveling shows.

Robert McCarter, counsel for Mrs. Lillendahl, asked Bark if he could write and then had him inscribe his signature, which was marked for identification.

Bark said he had known Beach for about a year, having been introduced in Philadelphia by Clyde Thompson, the mutual friend who was present at the alleged confession.

Beach sat calmly at ease in his chair while Bark related the encounter in Baltimore. Mrs. Lillendahl, her back turned to the spectators, remained rigid.

J. Sherwood Thompson, brother of the widow, made hasty notes, while next to him little Alfred Lillendahl worked industriously on his latest drawing of a house in the woods. Back in the spectators' seats, Mrs. Amanda Beach, wife of Mrs. Lillendahl's co-defendant, craned her neck anxiously for a few moments, staring at the witness. Then she resumed her old posture of bent head and closed eyes and seemed to pay no heed to the accusation of the State's star witness against her husband.

A Trillion in Gold
When Ford Advertises
One Pint, Life
Comes Monkhtar Bey
(By Arthur Brisbane)
Copyright 1927, by Star Co.

Interest on "time money" with which Wall Street gentlemen speculate, dropped from 4-1/2 to 4 per cent yesterday and stock went gaily upward.

If John Bracken, Prime Minister of Manitoba, is right, the northern part of his country contains treasures that would shake finance the world over, make our national gold supply a pitiful joke and disrupt the world's credit if it could be produced suddenly.

According to Mr. Bracken, the Flon Mining region in northern Manitoba contains 80,000,000 tons of copper, as much zinc, 32,000,000 TONS OF GOLD and 16,000,000 tons of silver. The gold alone would be worth more than a trillion dollars and "trillion" is a word that even Wall Street hasn't dealt with yet, although it will come.

When Henry Ford builds automobiles, he builds automobiles, when he advertises, he advertises. Publishers are interested in advertising that starts the new Ford car on its way, five full pages on five successive days, in two thousand daily newspapers.

Henry Ford understands advertising. He spends time, money effort and thought, producing what the people want, then lets the people know he HAS IT.

Mr. Ford starts his new task as enthusiastically as he began more than twenty-five years ago and every word he says, every detail about his new car, is important news to 115,000,000 people.

The good thing about the new Ford car is it will not disturb any other efficient automobile manufacturer or organization.

Ford will continue inducing people to drive automobiles, encouraging good roads, and his work will increase the sale, as it always has done, of bigger, more expensive cars.

Those that buy stocks evidently think Henry Ford has a good new car. His United States stock is not for sale, he owns it all, but stock in his company in Canada went $105 a share in two days, passing $700 a share. Last May, Henry Ford advised a few of his friends to buy it around $300 a share. It was good advice.

STORM SWEEPS THREE STATES

New York, Penn., and Maryland Report Damage From Rain, Wind and Flood.

New York, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Storm swept districts of New York state Pennsylvania and Maryland in cold weather today took stock of the damage of high winds, rains and floods. After a warm ending to November December started cold throughout the eastern states.

Wind and rain storms of almost hurricane force swept Williamsport, Pa., and Cumberland, Md., late yesterday. At Williamsport the storm was followed by a thirty degree drop in temperature.

No lives were lost, so far as was known.

Hornell, N. Y., in the western part of the state was under four to five feet of water this morning and 300 families were marooned in their homes. Other points in the Canisteo River valley were imperiled as the river, swollen by twenty four hours of rain, was out of its banks. Damage ran into thousands of dollars. Railroad service was curtailed.

At Rochester, N. Y., a water-main burst, flooding five city blocks and pouring into a new subway, which has just been completed.

A landslide and washout near Geneva, N. Y., crippled the Pennsylvania division of the New York Central railroad.

In Cumberland, Md., wind reached a velocity of seventy miles an hour and did severe damage to a large glass factory and injured two men.

RUSSIA GIVES PROPOSAL FOR DISARMAMENT

Tells League Members World War was Outcome of Capitalistic Competition.

Geneva, Dec. 1.—(AP)—The world war was the "inevitable outcome of competition among the great capitalist states," the Russian statistical annex to their proposal for complete disarmament declares.

The annex, which was made public today, begins by saying that it is needless to go into the question of the responsibility of any particular government "which was concerned in the imperialistic war of 1914. Discussion, more or less barren, are still continuing on the subject."

The annex continued, however, that to the Soviet government "which is estranged from the former belligerents in that war," the general reason which led to the great cataclysm are perfectly clear—"The world war was the utterly inevitable outcome of competition among the great capitalist states."

The statement says that economic competition was the real cause of the world war and that pacifism played a sad part of declaring that it was a war to end war.

Reviewing the statistics of the world war showing the great drain on the life and finances of the fighting nations, the annex says that the result of all this loss has not been any lessening of the chances of war as more men were under arms in 1925 in the victorious countries than before the war by a total of 1,183,000.

This statement also says the military budgets of the principal countries, excepting Russia and Germany exceed pre-war figures while the expenditures of the five principal maritime powers for 1925 exceeded the 1913 expenditures by $120,300,000.

In spite of the Washington convention of 1922, the annex declared that a great frenzy for construction continues especially for smaller crafts and seaplanes. This year the Russians said, great Britain, the United States, France, Italy and Japan are constructing 37 different vessels and have decided to construct 181 others. Russia, the annex declares is not constructing any vessels, but is merely repairing her existing ships.

The same feverish desire for expansion also is shown in air fleet figures, while the United States and France are declared to have increased the number of machines guns to a division of infantry to 247 as against 24 at the beginning of the war, and also to have increased the number of guns with the artillery and lengthened their range, making them more deadly.

In spite of public hostility to chemical and bacteriological warfare and the declarations of certain governments that such warfare must be renounced, the statement declared that labor in chemical laboratories is increasing and that great sums are being spent by governments which are undoubtedly producing positive results.

Washington, Dec. 1.—(AP)—The Washington government will decline the invitation extended in Geneva yesterday to send an observer to the security conference. This decision today after a communication from minister Hugh Wilson transmitting the invitation had been received.

At the same time the department said that American participation in the work of the preparatory commission on disarmament now in session in Geneva would continue and that the Washington government would attend an international conference for limitation of armaments which might be the outgrowth of the work of the preparatory commission.

It was emphasized that the Washington administration feels it would be useless to participate in the security discussions because no commitments on the part of the United States to enforce security agreements was possible.

BANK OF AYDEN FAILS TO OPEN THIS MORNING

Institution Voluntarily Closes to Protect Interest of its Depositors.

The Bank of Ayden failed to open its doors this morning following a meeting of the directors last night. The bank was voluntarily closed in order to protect the interest of the depositors.

President J. R. Smith notified John Mitchell, chief bank examiner of the action of the directors this morning. Mr. Mitchell will doubtless be here within the next few days to take over the affairs of the bank and liquidate sums to the best interest of the depositors and the idea of saving the depositors their money.

The directors had given the matter very careful consideration before coming to this decision and only reached this conclusion in a meeting held in the bank last night.

In an interview some of the directors of the bank this morning stated that in their opinion the depositors will be taken care of.

From information at hand the bank owns considerable real estate, both farm and town property, which was purchased in order to protect the bank on loans and it is pointed out that if this property is sold consistently rather than by a forced sale, that the bank will realize more on same, hence the voluntary receivership will prove to be an advantage than if the bank had been involuntarily closed.

The director of the Bank of Ayden are men of high integrity and good business judgment and the affairs of the bank will be handled in a business-like way with the idea of protecting the depositors to the fullest extent.

German Republic And Austria on Verge of Break

Berlin, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Relations between the German republic and its greatest state Prussia, are threatened by a dispute between minister of the interior Von Kuendell and the Prussian cabinet. University students being the unwitting cause.

Students throughout Prussia are voting these days on a new set of regulations on student self-government formulated by the Prussian minister of education, Dr. Becker. On Sunday night, Dr. Von Kuendell sent a telegram to anti-Becker students demonstration pleading his solidarity with their attitude.

This was regarded as an affront by the Prussian cabinet which supports Dr. Becker's regulations. The Prussian cabinet has written to Chancellor Marx asking him to prevent Dr. Von Kuendell from publicly opposing a responsibility official of the Prussian government.

"Otherwise," says the message, "the Prussian government will regretfully be compelled to cease all relations with the federal minister, Dr. Von Kuendell."

This is the first time that a federal state in Germany has threatened to sever relations with a federal minister.

Tobacco Market Has Sold 55,225,000 Lbs. Leaf This Season

The Greenville tobacco market yesterday sold 465,812 pounds of tobacco for $115,494.37, at an average of $25.22 per hundred pounds, according to official figures made public this morning by K. W. Cobb, secretary of the Tobacco Board of Trade.

The total amount sold on the market this season was given as 55,225,000 pounds, including sales yesterday.

It was said that there was about 400,000 pounds on the various warehouse floors today and that sales in all probability would be completed by the noon hour.

PROHIBITION STIRS G. O. P. IN NEW YORK

Anti-Saloon Attack On Republican Candidates Brings about Counter-Attack.

New York, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Republicans in New York State today were stirred over the prohibition question.

While the New York Anti-Saloon League virtually declared war upon former Senator James W. Wadsworth, Jr., who seeks to be a delegate at large to the national convention next year, the Republican members of the New York congressional delegation unannouncedly recommended the naming of Bertrand H. Snell of St. Lawrence county, in the northern part of the State, as a delegate at large to the national session. Snell is generally regarded as a dry.

The Anti-Saloon League's attack on Senator Wadsworth, was made after he had announced his candidacy as a delegate with the statement that he would fight to have an anti-prohibition plank placed in the national platform.

Dr. S. E. Nicholson, associate superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, said the former senator "is striking a disastrous blow at party welfare and party success."

Greensboro Man And Girl Jailed At Oakland, Cal.

Oakland, Calif., Dec. 1.—(AP)—E. C. Lindbergy, Greensboro, N. C., contractor, and a 16-year-old Greensboro girl whose name was withheld, arrested here last night were today awaiting a hearing on charges preferred against them. Lindbergy, held for embezzlement, was said to have admitted evading financial obligations involving $1,200.

Officers said the girl, who posed as Lindbergy's wife, would probably be sent to a detention home.

Lindbergy, according to the officers, admitted that he had a wife and two children in Greensboro.

AMERICAN NOVELIST AT MOSCOW, RUSSIA

Moscow, Russia, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Sinclair Lewis, American novelist, has arrived in Moscow intending to spend a fortnight in soviet Russia.

He was met at the station by representatives of the soviet society for cultural relations and a number of Russian writers.

The American colony gave Lewis a dinner at the Grand Hotel last night.

REPUBLICANS UPSET OVER ORGANIZING

Western Members Find Cause For Objection in Officers For Next Senate.

Washington, Dec. 1.—(AP)—The group of independent republican senators decided definitely today to go before the party caucus tomorrow with a program of its own.

Washington, Dec. 1.—(AP)—With only a few votes needed to upset republican plans for retention of control in the organization of the senate members of the western independent republican group have found cause for objection in the state officers proposed for the coming session by party leaders.

The bloc, however, is not unanimous in its opposition and as yet there has been no indication of whether those who are dissatisfied will vote adversely when the time comes for settling the organization question. Their objection is said to be raised principally against the reelection of senator Moses, of New Hampshire, as president pro-tempore of the body and to be based on the part Moses played in the successful filibuster against the Reed slush fund committee resolution at the close of the last session.

Following a meeting of the western group it was reported, too, that some members were not in favor of the reelection of David S. Barry as secretary of the senate.

Opposition to Barry was based on his refusal to follow the directions of the Reed committee during the congressional recess without funds from the senate treasury.

The meeting was attended by LaFollette and Blaine of Wisconsin, Nye and Frazier of North Dakota, Norris of Nebraska, all republicans, and Shipstead, of Minnesota, farmer-labor.

A meeting of the house committee was called today to consider what apparently is the only organization controversy in the lower branch involving the proposed naming of representative Nelson, republican, independent of Wisconsin, as chairman of the pensions committee and of representative elect Estep as a member of the ways and means committee.

There are some who believe that an older member of the house should be given the committee seat and others base their objections on Pennsylvania's already large representation on important committees.

The flood now threatens the neighboring department of Algiers.

J. B. CARROLL SLAYS BABY GIRL AT AYDEN AND THEN SHOOT HIMSELF TO DEATH

REBUS WILL TAKE STAND ON FRIDAY

Examination of Three Witnesses Was Defense's Plan at Court Opening Today.

Cincinnati, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Three more witnesses and then George Remus himself was the defense's plan today in the trial of the former Chicago lawyer who killed his wife, Imogene. There was little hope Remus would be reached before tomorrow, however.

The prosecution tried to regain ground today by showing that John B. Marshall, of Juneau, Alaska, former government official in the territory and at St. Louis, had been maintained here at Remus's expense for more than a month. He was an important defense witness.

Marshall, a special government attorney in the Jack Daniels whiskey warehouse case at Indianapolis in which Remus testified for the government yesterday added his opinion that Remus was insane.

Today he admitted that he left Juneau three days after Remus had shot and killed his wife in Eden Park here. He left, he said, even before a request came from Remus and made a nine-day trip direct to Cincinnati.

He went first to a hotel where he registered as from Atlanta, Ga.

There, the prosecution sought to show, his bill was paid by Blanche Watson, Remus's secretary. Marshall admitted he remained there only a few days and then went to Remus's $750,000 mansion here.

For the last month he has been back down town at another hotel where his expenses have been paid by others.

He has been active, he admitted, in behalf of Remus. Six times he has conferred with Charles H. Eiston, co-counsel with Remus, and many times he has visited Remus in jail.

Marshall admitted that once O'Neal described in his testimony yesterday as having been pointed out to him as a gunman by Remus actually had been a defendant in the Jack Daniels case. He admitted O'Neal was convicted upon Remus's testimony and sent to the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan., while Remus himself got immunity.

The re-appearance of Rogers upon the witness stand today created intense interest. From many quarters expressions of belief were heard that the state's case suffered much from his testimony yesterday and today.

Today many balmy days with all windows open an overnight change in temperature brought colds to several of the jurors.

Much of today's opening session was given over to whispered conferences at the judge's bench.

COAL MINERS BACK AT WORK

National Guardsmen, However Still Patrol Mines in Colorado Area.

Denver, Dec. 1.—(AP)—National guardsmen patrolled northern Colorado coal properties today were operators generally planned to resume mining for the first time since the state-wide strike was called by industrial workers of the world, October 18.

In the first test of the plan to resume in the north field, more than 200 miners have returned to the Columbine workings where production ceased last week following a skirmish with state police in which five alleged strike sympathizers were killed and a score wounded.

Reports from the southern field, where I. W. W. leaders concentrated their forces for more than a month, showed production was about 75 per cent of normal. The larger companies in that section announced employes were following their policy of avoiding demonstrations and that scores of miners were returning to work daily.

Suffering From Mental Derangement, Winterville Farmer, Dashed Child To Death Against Pavement Last Night and Committed Suicide At Winterville Home

Said to have been suffering from mental derangement, J. B. Carroll, Jr., 32, farmer, of the Winterville community, late last night murdered his five months' old baby girl, Martha Jane Carroll, at his Winterville home by shooting himself with an automatic shotgun, according to information received at the sheriff's office in this city today.

The maddened man killed the child by dashing her skull against the sidewalk. She died a short time later in a hospital here, where she was rushed immediately after the crime was committed.

Carroll, member of one of the oldest and most prominent families of Winterville, last night at 8 o'clock went to Ayden where Mrs. Carroll, with baby daughter, was visiting a brother. He called his wife to the front door and requested to see the baby.

The mother placed the child in her father's arms. "Oh, what beautiful blue eyes you have," Carroll is said to have remarked as he fondled the baby in his arms.

He left the porch and walked out to the street behind an automobile in which he had made the trip from Winterville, to Ayden. Still holding the child lovingly, he remarked that she was the most wonderful baby in the world.

Suddenly the crazed man threw the child to the pavement. "Oh, look what I have done," he cried in a distressed tone of voice, advancing toward the porch where Mrs. Carroll was standing.

Horror-stricken by the awful crime enacted before her eyes, Mrs. Carroll, is said to have cried out to her husband to go away that she would carry the child to the hospital.

Picking up the child, its tiny head crushed by the impact with the pavement, the mother rushed it to a hospital in Greenville where it died a short time later.

In the meantime, Carroll had jumped into his automobile and started in the direction of Winterville, uttering threats against one of his brothers. Sheriff Whitehurst was notified of the tragedy, and in company with members of his department, went to Carroll's home near Winterville.

The lifeless body of Carroll was found lying in the front yard. At his side lay an automatic shotgun with which he had taken his own life. A coroner's jury under the direction of County Coroner E. S. Williams, viewed the dead body a short time later, and declared that Carroll came to his death by a shotgun in his own hands.

Little was known of the double tragedy until this morning when the entire section was electrified by the tragic story. Carroll, it was stated here today, had been in a deranged state of mind for years, but right recently had shown considerable improvement.

He is survived by his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Carroll, of Winterville, and two brothers and two sisters. Funeral arrangements had not been completed this morning.

Dawes Says He Is Not Out For The Presidency

Washington, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Vice President Dawes repeated today at the White House that he was not a candidate for the Presidency and said he favored the nomination of Frank O. Lowden of Illinois.

The Vice President's indorsement of Mr. Lowden was based on the assumption that Mr. Coolidge would decline renomination. He declined to go into details of the political situation, declaring that "anything that I might say on such questions would only have interest as a possible interpretation of my personal and political motives."

General Dawes reiterated his stand in favor of changing the senate rules to render impossible filibustering.

Georgia Faces Crucial Test In Battle With Georgia Tech

One of the stiffest battles on Southern football fields this season, bringing together two of the brightest luminaries in the South, Stumpy Thomason (left) of Georgia Tech and Herdis McCrary (right) of Georgia, is anticipated when the two teams clash in their annual feature December 3.

By HORACE RENEGAR (Associated Press Sports Editor) Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 1.—(AP)—Two of the South's greatest football teams—Georgia and Georgia Tech—will meet here December 3 in a game that will decide the Dixie gridiron supremacy and make or break the Bulldogs' chances for the national collegiate title.

Riding high on the crest of victories over all opponents, including Yale, Virginia, Florida, Tulane and Alabama, Georgia faces the hardest test of the year many predict, because of the traditional light which always marks Bulldog-Tornado games.

In addition, the Bulldogs will go on against a Tornado eleven that has had but two touchdowns scored upon it in the South this season—a team that has bowed only to Notre Dame.

To analyze backfield strength of the two squads shows Georgia Tech has two of the most versatile sophomore backfield men in Dixie—Warner Mizell and Stumpy Thomason, halfbacks. Both kick, run and pass.

Georgia has Herdis McCrary, "the red spectre" of the Southern gridiron, who is leading the Southern Conference in points scored in conference games. Plus this great player, it has the so-called "thousand backs" who have doled out misery to all opponents so far. This pseudonym was applied to the Georgia secondary because of the many backs, each apparently the equal of the other.

As for the lines, both teams have a veteran forward wall. Georgia boasts Chick Shiver and Tom Nash as two of the outstanding ends of the country. Gene Smith, guard, is touted as one of the greatest in that position that Dixie has had in its gridiron history. In addition to these, it has Lautzenhiser, Morris and Boland, all experiencing a good year.

Hood, Drennon, Crowley and Martin, experienced men of previous years, have proved of prime importance in the victories turned in by Georgia Tech.

The game will attract the largest sports gathering in the South this year, some 35,000 tickets—all available—having been sold.

Since athletic relations were resumed two years ago between the two institutions, each has won one game. The Golden Tornado won in 1925, 3 to 0. Georgia won last season, 14 to 13. If Tech should defeat the Bull dogs it would have a good claim to the Southern Conference title.

HORSES TO RISK?

London.—(AP)—The prince of Wales would like to try an automobile race with his royal brothers, to judge from remarks made and questions asked by him after opening the Glasgow motor show. Rivalry is generally known to exist between Wales and his brothers in such matters as golf, dancing and hunting and the heir to the British throne has to do considerable practicing to keep up.

Big Crowds See Grid Contests In Southland

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 1.—(AP)—Here are the approximate figures on some of the largest crowds seeing football games in the South in 1927:

- South Carolina-Clemson, Columbia, 13,000; N. C.-Virginia, Chapel Hill, 26,000; Alabama-Ga. Tech, Atlanta, 22,500; Alabama-Georgia, Birmingham, 25,000; La. State-Tulane, Baton Rouge, 22,500; Birmingham-Southern-Howard, Birmingham, 17,500; Vanderbilt-Sewanee, Nashville, 17,000; Vanderbilt-Tenn, Knoxville, 15,000; North Carolina-N. C. State, Raleigh, 15,000; La. State-Arkansas, Shreveport, 15,000; Georgia-Florida, Jacksonville, 15,000; Duke-N. C. State, Durham, 12,000; Virginia W. & L., Lexington, 14,000; Georgia Tech-Auburn, Atlanta, 15,000; Ga. Tech-Vanderbilt, Nashville, 14,000; Ole Miss-Miss. A. & M., Oxford, 11,000.

Wolfpack All Set For Michigan Now

Raleigh, Dec. 1.—(AP)—While the State Wolfpack put in another day of secret workouts here, its intersectional opponent, Michigan State, was enroute today from East Lansing for the post season encounter on Riddick field Saturday.

The visitors, 22 strong, are expected here early tomorrow and not in a final drill in the afternoon for the contest which, home officials said, would be witnessed by a large crowd.

Coaches Tribe and Slaughter of the West Raleigh eleven indicated their lineup would be about the same as that which successfully turned back South Carolina on Thanksgiving day. None of the first eleven have suffered serious injuries and State is expected to present a strong combination.

The Michigan State outfit, held its only practice once this year, a fifty-fifty break in its games so far and a win over the Wolfpack would give it something to crow about.

P. R. Slaughter, assistant to Tribell, is a classmate of Harry Kipke, Michigan's new mentor. Both starred at Michigan University.

Philadelphia—Jack Gross, Salem N. J., scored a technical knockout over Homer Smith, Kalamazoo Mich. (5). Harry Martone, Jersey City, N. J., won by a technical knockout over Frank Monahan Butte, Mont. (5).

Touchback Play Still Discussed In Grid Circles

Los Angeles, Dec. 1.—(AP)—The controversy over the disputed touchback play in the Notre Dame-University of Southern California football game at Chicago Saturday continued here today with Jack (Pinky) Griffith, field judge, denying he had agreed on the decision.

Griffith, who lives at Pasadena, Calif., declared that John Schommer, umpire in the contest which resulted in a 7 to 6 victory for Notre Dame, was the only man who ruled the play. Griffith said that had he been asked for an opinion he would have called it a safety, which would have brought victory to California by a 8 to 7 score.

"I have read a statement credited to Schommer in which he declared that he ruled on the play as a result of a decision by me as to possession and control of the ball by Riley, the Notre Dame safety man," Griffith said. That apple sauce, Schommer is the only man who ruled in the play. If I had been asked for an opinion I would have called the play a safety.

"I swallowed my protest and said nothing. George Varnell (the referee) and Walter Rekersal (the head linesman) also were silent although Rekersal was in a position to see the play.

"When the ball was caught Riley was faced toward the Notre Dame goal and he turned and made a circle to the left, running parallel to Schommer and directly toward Rekersal. It looked to me as if Riley caught the ball over his head and brought it down directly in front of me. I saw the play from the rear. Riley's back was toward me."

The play occurred when Charley Riley, Notre Dame quarterback, intercepted a pass on his own three yard line. He was tackled hard and the ball fell across the goal line where California recovered it. The dispute arose as to whether Riley had possession and control of the ball at the time of the tackle. If he did the play would have been a safety. If he did not it was a touchback.

The Carolina-Duke game has been changed from the Saturday preceding Thanksgiving day to the following Saturday and will be played next season at Chapel Hill.

Sport Jots

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 1.—(AP)—Dixie football will lose 40% of its outstanding ends with Saturday's games, that number appearing in "saw song" exhibitions in two games.

Chick Shiver, captain of the University of Georgia Bull Dogs, and Tom Nash, the other flankman of the Athens team, will be playing their final game in the south when they meet Georgia Tech at Atlanta. The Golden Tornado will also present Captain Crowley for the last time while Vanderbilt will send Creson on the field against Alabama at Birmingham in his last appearance in a commodore uniform.

All of these players have been tentatively named for the senior all-star team to go to Los Angeles for a charity game.

Shiver and Nash of the Georgia team, have been named on practically all of the mythical sectional elevens advanced so far while Creson and Crowley have been placed on a majority of the second teams.

The last of Alabama's famous backfield squad of 1925, Tolbert (Red) Brown will also be playing his last game for the Crimson tide this week-end. His brother, John Mack, Pooley Hubert, Herschel Caldwell, Emil (Red) Barnes, Grant Gilis and others having passed from the picture either with the close of the 1925 season or last year. While Tolbert was not a regular back on the 1925 team he was a mainstay of the eleven last season that won the Dixie championship and tied Stanford at Pasadena.

The opening season on making up 1928 schedules for the gridiron and naming captains for another year is on in the south now. Soon the announcement of new head coaches for several of the institutions is expected. Among those to be succeeded is George Woodruff, coach at Georgia, who announced at the opening of the campaign that this was his last year, business at the opening of the campaign in other fields demanding his entire attention.

Meadville Pa.—Johnny Ran, Boston, defeated Freddie Vincent, Toronto, Can. (10). Danny McAleer, Erie, Pa., won from Guy Ferrell, Cleveland (6).

San Francisco—Johnny Preston, Honolulu, knocked out Billy Adams, New Orleans (6). Pablo Dano, Minn., defeated Frankie Murry, Philadelphia (8).

Head Coach Now

Ann Arbor, Mich.—(AP)—Harry Kipke, one of the greatest athletes ever turned out at the University of Michigan will be "going home" when he takes up his new duties next fall as head football coach at Michigan State College.

Kipke's home was at Lansing, five miles from the State College campus and he first became prominent as an athlete at the Lansing high school.

The former all-American football star and peerless booter has been an assistant coach for the last three years. He won nine athletic letters at Michigan.

Bantamweight Fight Tonight

New York, Dec. 1.—(AP)—There can be no interludes on the part of Tony Canzoneri, New York's challenger, for the Bantamweight title, and Ignacio Fernandez, Filipino flash, when they meet tonight in a ten round bout at Madison Square Garden.

In the "wings" of the arena, 300 carpenters will be grouped for a concerted dash on the ring the moment the bout is over. Between midnight and three P. M. Saturday 400,000 feet of lumber and a ton of nails will have joined to make a ten lap to a mile saucer on which 15 teams will pedal to nowhere in a six day bicycle race that opens Sunday night.

CUBAN TO FIGHT CHUCK BURNS TONIGHT

Chicago, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Rolaux Saguro, 24 year old Cuban light heavyweight, who tossed aside his boxing pants for lure of the ring, will engage Chuck Burns of San Antonio, Texas, in a ten round bout tonight.

Saguro, a one-time chef in Havana, has engaged in 49 fights, winning 39 by knockouts. His three Chicago engagements have ended in quick knockout victories over Art Weigand, Earl (Little Boy) Buté, and Benny Ross.

- (1) Responsibility
- (2) Trustworthiness

If this institution should be appointed as executor of your estate, it would put into its work, the judgment and skill of many men.

It would not suggest an investment or make a business move, without having fully determined the wisdom of it.

As an organization, it would be impartial; it would not sicken or die—because it has too many officers and employees to do that. It is perpetual, strong, and has bonded, able and discerning officers.

All these characteristics make this institution RESPONSIBLE AND TRUSTWORTHY; more so than it would be possible for any individual to be, regardless of his learning or relationship to your family.

Draws 20 Years In Pen. Newport News, Va., Dec. 1.—(AP)—Conley Donaldson, 18-year old youth of this city charged with being an accessory before the fact of the murder of S. A. Rudd, aged grain dealer here last August, last night received the verdict of a jury in corporation court, under which he was sentenced to 20 years in the State penitentiary. Arthur Peterson, convicted of stabbing Rudd to death, recently drew a sentence of 40 years in the State penitentiary.

Robbery was the motive given in court for their entering the store of Rudd, the killing of the grain dealer resulting, according to the testimony, when he discovered them there.

10-Year-Old Frisco Boy Is Sensation of Paris

YEHUDI MENUHIN (International Illustrated News)

A boy has captured Paris. Musical circles in the French metropolis are agog over the sensation created by 10-year-old Yehudi Menuhin of San Francisco, following his debut as a violinist.

Conservative critics are unanimous in prophesying that this youthful American will rank with the greatest of his profession before many years have passed.

Yehudi was born in Frisco and started his instruction in that city. He went to Europe and practiced under the supervision of Enesco and Saye. Then came his debut as solo violinist with the Marmoreux Symphony Orchestra.

Yehudi is soon to make his first American appearance. He will be soloist with the New York Symphony in the near future.

The closing of the Bank Ayden should not bring despair to citizens of our county, nor should they permit it to shake their faith in the soundness of the county's banking institutions. While reports of a bank closing usually bring more or less depression, a study of the underlying motives behind the closing of the Ayden bank reveal that the action of the board of directors was such as to strengthen faith in banking institutions rather than to lessen it.

THE NEW FORD With information regarding the new Ford handed out in piecemeal fashion for the past few days, followed today with first pictures and prices, the first official showing of the new car tomorrow will bring to a culmination probably one of the greatest events in the automobile industry.

Whether intended or not, the new Ford has received more free publicity than it ever could have received otherwise than through the long delay and the piecemeal information.

The announcement today of prices on the new models no higher than the former prices, despite the fact that the new car carries all extra equipment as well as being a greatly improved automobile, will be greeted by enthusiasm on the part of those who for months have eagerly awaited definite facts as to the new Ford.

Get complete details

TOMORROW

at Ford salesrooms

FOR several years we have been working on the new Ford car. For weeks and months you have been hearing rumors about it. For the past few days you have been reading some of the details of it in the newspapers.

Whatever you do tomorrow, take at least fifteen minutes to get the full story of this new automobile.

You will realize then that it is an entirely new and different Ford car, designed and created to meet modern conditions—a car that brings you more beauty, speed, quiet, comfort, safety, economy and stamina than you ever thought possible in a low-price car.

Automobile history will be made tomorrow, for the new Ford is not only new in appearance and performance . . . it is new in mechanical design. Many features of it are exclusive Ford developments. Some are wholly new in automobile practice. Its low price is a reflection of manufacturing improvements and economies that are as epoch-making as the car itself.

Nineteen years of experience in building 15,000,000 automobiles are behind the new Ford car and have counted in its making. Resources unmatched in the motor car industry are its heritage and its birthright.

The Ford policy of owning the source of raw materials, of making virtually every part, of doing business at a small profit per car, has cut many dollars off the price you would ordinarily have to pay for a car like this.

So we say to you—learn about this new Ford car tomorrow. Compare it with any other car in the light-car field for beauty of line—for comfort—for speed—for quick acceleration—for flexibility in traffic . . . for steadiness at all speeds . . . for power on the hills . . .

for economy and low cost of up-keep for its sturdy ability to stand up under countless thousands of miles of service.

Then you will know why tomorrow will be remembered as one of the greatest days in the entire history of the automobile industry. . . . Then you will know why the new Ford car will be your car.

COLD WAVE HITS EAST

Snow Stretched From Rocky Mountains to Mississippi Valley States Today.

Kansas City, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Snow stretched from the Rocky mountains to the upper Mississippi valley states today to support winter's threatened invasion of the east.

Originating in the Canadian Rockies over the week-end, the storm swept through Montana and Wyoming to close mountain passes in Colorado and then turned eastward to blanket the middle west and southwest with from one to nearly five inches of snow.

Moving along a six-state front yesterday, snow flurries from the Canadian line to the Texas panhandle sent thermometers to sub-zero marks in the Dakotas and Minnesota. The mercury slumped to the upper twenties in the southwest to nip flowers enticed from winter beds by temperatures well above seventy.

While as much as seven inches of snow fell in the northwest, central Missouri points led the southwest with four and a half inches, the heaviest snowfall in that section since 1906. Kansas, planning to hunt frogs drawn from ponds by balmy weather, awoke to find more than an inch of snow.

A north wind continued in Texas today, bringing the first snow of the season to Amarillo, where thermometers stood at 29.

Snow changed to sleet as the disturbance crossed the Mississippi in its advance on the Atlantic seaboard where storm warnings were broadcast.

PLAN TO BLOCK ELECTION OF SINCLAIR AND DOHNEY

New York, Dec. 1.—(AP)—The New York Times today says that an effort to block the re-election of Harry F. Sinclair and E. L. Dohney as directors of the American Petroleum Institute because of their connection with the government oil lease scandals will come to a head at the organization's annual meeting in Chicago, beginning Tuesday.

Prominent members of the Petroleum Institute have been circulating from New York by a group that is opposing the re-election of Sinclair and Dohney.

The Petroleum Institute included in its membership virtually all of the important factors in the industry. It is the industry's official agency such as the American Iron and Steel Institute represents the steel industry.

RUSSIAN PROPOSAL AROUSES CONTEMPT IN BRITISH CIRCLES

London, Dec. 1.—(AP)—The Russian proposal at Geneva for the complete abolition of armament aroused anger and contempt in the London press today.

Papers of all political coloring damned the Soviet scheme with vituperative adjectives.

It was declared, among other things, "a cynical joke"; "a grotesque mockery"; "stupid intrigue"; "clumsy farce"; "an impudent redomontade" and "theatrical buffoonery, put forward with the tongue in the cheek."

WORKED 42 YEARS FOR ONE CONCERN, BRITISHER DIES AT AGE OF 91

West Bromwich, Eng.—(INS)—Believed to have been Britain's oldest worker, John Hughes, works manager at Messrs. George Salter and Sons factory here, has just died at the age of 91.

As an errand boy Hughes went to Salter's at the age of nine, and was in continuous employment there for 42 years until September last. He went through every department in the works, and patented several inventions applicable to the Salter business.

Hughes had one simple remedy for long life, a contented mind, steady habits, regular hours and interest in one's tasks.

Nurse Waite of New Brighton writes "After fifty-five years of tireless labor nursing mankind, I am now retiring. While nursing in New York, in my early twenties, I was poisoned by food, my sister nurse recommended your wonderful CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

The doctor told me that I would have died had I not taken the pills. I am never without them and have prescribed them for thousands of my patients who were suffering with indigestion, gas and sour stomach, biliousness, sick headache and constipation. These pills are indeed a wonderful laxative, being purely vegetable, small and easy to take, children, as well as older people can swallow them easily."

Virginia Will Not Countenance The Lynch Law

Richmond, Va., Dec. 1.—(AP)—Governor Harry F. Byrd, has given warning that lynch law will not be countenanced in Virginia.

Describing a recent lynching near the Virginia-Kentucky border as a "dastardly and cold-blooded crime" Governor Byrd declared in a statement issued last night that "it is full time for Virginia to make an example of those committing the crime of lynching and to punish the guilty as other murderers are punished."

The support of Virginia was pledged to Kentucky in running down those responsible for the recent incident. "This crime," the Governor said, "should arouse people of Virginia to the necessity of drastic punishment so that an example will be made of those who commit murder in the mobs as well as those who commit murder as individuals."

The lynching in question occurred after a mob had broken into the Whitesburg, Ky., jail and seized a negro charged with the slaying of a white man.

High School Grid Finals Tomorrow At Chapel Hill

Raleigh, Dec. 1.—(AP)—A hitherto uncrowned champion will emerge from the high school championship game at Chapel Hill Saturday.

Since the inauguration of the series 1913, neither Wilmington, the eastern champions, nor Greensboro, western champions, have participated in the finals. Greensboro, several times has been in the running, last year advancing to the western finals while Wilmington has annually been one of the last to fall in the east.

Saturday's game marks the climax of an elimination series in which forty-four high schools entered, Greensboro defeating Asheville 20 to 9 for the western championship and Wilmington trouncing Raleigh 6 to 9 in the eastern sector.

LABOR TAFT SCULPTURE TYPIFIES ALMA MATER

Chicago.—(AP)—When Lorado Taft, world famous sculptor, was graduated from the University of Illinois more than 40 years ago, he dreamed of creating some day a group of figures in classic proportions that would typify his ideal of his alma mater.

Through the years he planned the memorial, and now it is slowly taking form in his Chicago studio. It will be a group of three figures in bronze and will be placed on the University of Illinois campus at Champaign. In the center is Alma Mater, a woman dressed in collegiate robes and wearing the bay leaves of achievement, flanked by two figures typifying Learning and Labor. Learning is dressed in the toga of the Roman, and Labor in the garb of a workman.

A plaster cast of the group was placed before students and alumni of the university, and the alumni association undertook to direct the raising of a $40,000 fund necessary for casting the group in bronze and mounting it.

POTATO PRICES RISE

Washington.—(AP)—Price trends of potatoes have been generally upward since early October, the Department of Agriculture says in current reports, with markets for eastern stocks showing greater firmness than those for north central and western produce. Many growers in the west are holding for higher prices. Nearly four-fifths of all the late potatoes are grown in the northeastern and north central states, where high prices prevail.

GANG WARFARE CLAIMS ANOTHER IN ST. LOUIS

St. Louis, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Gang warfare today claimed its second victim within a week and the thirteenth within four months, when the body of an unidentified man, about 40 years old, was found just south of the city limits. There were four bullet wounds.

The man apparently had been "taken for a ride," and the body thrown from an automobile.

SCHOOL HEAD IN CHICAGO IS GIVEN TRIAL

Agencies of Pro-British Literature Raked Over Coals in Hearing.

Chicago, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Agencies for "the dissemination of the spirit of friendliness toward England," and individuals who fostered them were raked over the coals in the school board trial yesterday of William McAndrew, superintendent of schools.

McAndrew, who walked out of a previous session of the trial saying he was tired of listening to lectures in no way pertinent to the charges against him, was absent, but the hearing went forward anyway.

The late Andrew Carnegie was described as a fountain head of pro-British propaganda in schools and libraries by the day's witness Charles Grant Miller, New York writer. Agencies for dissemination of "the spirit of friendliness toward England" were traced by Miller to the "dream web of the steel king" for the reunion of the United States with England.

Rupert Hughes, the novelist, who has written books on George Washington which have aroused comment, was called by Miller one of the "new method school of literary smart alecks, whose little bag of tricks is limited to drinkings and cursings and illicit loving, and who could not comprehend the real Washington if diagramed to him."

"I read somewhere in Rupert Hughes' writings," said Miller, "that 'Mount Vernon in Washington's time, with its constant round of entertaining, drinking, card playing and betting was comparable to a present day roadhouse.'"

"I wondered who could have inspired such a nasty sneer as that, and found that Hughes is an official of the Sulgrave Institute, with headquarters in England, the purpose of which is to establish Sulgrave mansions in England as the true Washington shrine—and Mount Vernon be damned!"

SIXTEEN INDICTED IN WAKE FLOGGING

Raleigh, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Indictments growing out of a flogging case in Wake county were returned today by the grand jury which charges 16 citizens, including a former official of the Ku Klux Klan and ex-deputy sheriff, with having secretly assaulted two boys of Holly Springs nearly four years ago.

The indictments followed the filing of presentments yesterday by the grand jury.

The former Klan official under indictment is H. G. Guerard, who as an organization official of the Klan took an important part in forming the local klans in North Carolina.

Other citizens listed as defendants in two bills, charging secret assault and conspiracy, are A. W. Thompson, prohibition raider and criminal deputy during the Harrison regime; M. T. Meyers, F. G. Adams, R. C. Stephens, D. A. Baker, C. P. Vance, Scott, Almond Holloman, Clarence Steward, G. Jones, Lee Harcher, Joe Denison, J. F. Jones, L. C. Mann and Percy Adams.

The defendants are charged in the indictments with having flogged and seriously injured Ernie Fowler and Joe Wood, both of Holly Springs, the night of December 2, 1923. The alleged flogging took place in an unoccupied house about two miles from Holly Springs, it is charged.

State Automobile License Tags On Sale Here Today

State automobile license went on sale here today at Exide Battery Service Co., Cotanch St. It was announced this morning by Miss Ward Moore, manager of the local office of the Carolina Motor Club which distributes the tags throughout North Carolina.

"Shop early" should apply to license plates just as to other holiday purchases in order to avoid the rush that inevitably comes the last week or so before the law requires plates to be placed on cars which is January 1. R. A. Daughton, motor vehicle commissioner, this year refused to sanction extension of time to procure plates, thereby sweeping aside a custom that had been in vogue several years and advice from headquarters of the Carolina Motor Club state that Governor Doughton will grant no extension this time.

Plates must be placed on automobiles January 1 or after, according to the law passed by the last legislature placing the license system on a calendar instead of a fiscal year basis. It is unlawful to use January 1 plates prior to January 1.

The white registration card used for the past two years as an application card for license and familiar to most car owners has been mailed from Raleigh and car owners are urged to preserve this card and present it early as possible after licenses go on sale. This card, however, is not absolutely necessary to procure license, Miss Moore says provided the applicant can produce clear title to the car. A form is then filled in and license issued immediately.

In addition to license service complete touring and road information will be available at the local office of the Carolina Motor Club. Touring information, maps and tour books are gratis to members of the club while non-members may secure the service upon payment of a nominal charge.

Negro Acquitted Assault Charge

Raleigh, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Acquitted of a charge of criminal attack yesterday in superior court when Judge N. A. Sinclair held that evidence of the state did not justify a verdict, Weldon Bryant, Franklin county Negro, last night was a voluntary inmate of the Wake county jail.

Twice sought by mobs at Louisville where Bryant was alleged to have attacked a married woman last September, officers believe he was saved from mob violence when he was brought to the state prison for safekeeping.

Judge A. M. Stack had moved the case from Franklin to Wake county because feeling ran high against the Negro. When acquitted today Bryant declined to return to Louisville.

BLUE BIRD TO BE GIVEN AT THE COLLEGE TONIGHT

Everything is in readiness for the first performance of the "Blue Bird" the senior play to be given at eight o'clock this evening at East Carolina Teachers College, in the old Auditorium in the Administration Building.

It is necessary to use the old auditorium because of the elaborate stage scenery, as the new auditorium is not equipped with a curtain and other stage equipment. The two performances are given because of the size of the auditorium. The students alone almost fill it when all come at once. Half the students will come the first night and half the second so as to leave room for the public.

The choice seats for the evening have been left for the public and each person buying a ticket buys a definite seat therefore all seats are reserved.

Tickets are on sale down town in the afternoons and at the door in the evening.

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

Another pathetic detail, Alekhine will not be ready to play again until 1929 and will play for a stake of only $10,000. That would amuse Jack Dempsey and Mr. Gene Tunney. They would not look at a chess board or squared ring for as little as $10,000.
