Windstorm Does Heavy Damage Throughout South

FOUR CHILDREN ARE KILLED IN TENNESSEE WHEN RURAL SCHOOL HOUSE BLOWN DOWN

New York State and Rhode Island Also Suffer Heavily from Storm and Falling Temperatures.

By the Associated Press. A wind storm that spread wreckage across eastern and southern states continued without abatement today and the weather bureau warned that a disturbance of great intensity centering over Maine would cause west and northwest gales.

In Tennessee a rural schoolhouse was blown over and four children were killed. In several counties trees were uprooted and houses unroofed.

Wind reaching a 70-mile velocity swept across Maryland and Delaware and in Delmar, a town straddling the border of the two states damage to houses was severe. Electric lights were cut off and for a time communication with the outer world was destroyed.

From Rhode Island came the report of a schooner being borne toward rocks from which nothing could save it, despite all efforts of the coast guard.

New York state felt the full force of the gale, with a wind that approached 70 miles an hour. In the Coney Island section of New York city a two-story untenanted house was torn from its foundation and rolled along the street until it fell apart.

The storm began with rain in most sections but today the temperature was falling and in some places the rain had turned to snow. The weather bureau said that the drop in temperature would be considerable but severe cold was not indicated.

Two small airplanes figured in the storm. Harry C. Brooks on an attempted non-stop flight from Detroit to Miami in a Ford biplane, was forced down by the storm at Asheville, N. C., but in spite of the high wind Clarence Chamberlain took off in his tiny rebuilt Sperry messenger plane from Harrisburg, Pa., to fly to Altoona.

The storm was felt in Winston-Salem where a heavy rainfall was accompanied by a high wind. No damage was reported there.

Heavy Windstorm Causes Damage in This Community

Disruption of telephone service and the blowing down of several tobacco barns and trees resulted from a heavy wind storm that passed over this section last night. Although damage in this particular locality is considered slight, it was stated that Ayden and Grifton communities suffered most severely.

Travelers reaching this city today from Tarboro and Rocky Mount reported a windstorm of great intensity. An airplane hangar at Rocky Mount was blown from its foundation and two or three airplanes were partly wrecked.

EIGHT CASES HEARD HERE

With the wheels of justice grinding away at a moderate rate of speed the criminal term of Pitt County Superior court yesterday disposed of eight cases, involving charges all the way from attempt to steal a cow to store robbery.

Henry Nobles, colored, charged with breaking in a store in the Ayden community, was sentenced to 12 months on the county roads.

Elijah Taft, colored, charged with breaking in stables with supposed intention of stealing a cow, drew six months service on the roads.

T. G. Piferren, charged with assault upon his wife, entered a plea for mercy, and was given a three years suspended sentence upon payment of cost and good behavior.

Charlie Graham, colored, convicted of taking three dollars from a negro cripple, was given a two year suspended sentence and ordered to repay the three dollars to the cripple.

Found guilty of possessing and transporting liquor, John Patrick Ayden negro, was sentenced to 18 months on the roads.

Sam Drake, colored, charged with driving an automobile while drunk, was given two years suspended sentence to the roads upon payment of costs and good behavior.

Leroy Perkins, colored, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, drew six months on the county roads.

Tom Parker, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, was ordered to pay the sum of $10 per month for a period of 25 months to the wife of Will House, negro, who came to his death some time ago as result of being accidentally shot by the defendant.

Rocky Mount, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Rocky Mount was checking up the loss and patching transportation and power breaks today following a severe wind and rain storm which struck this section early last night.

BEGIN TRIAL OF SLAYER OF LITTLE GIRL

Edward Hickman Sanity Trial Opened at Los Angeles, California Early Today.

Los Angeles, Jan. 25.—(AP)—The trial of William Edward Hickman, kidnaper-killer of little Marian Parker after being opened at 9:30 o'clock today and being in session forty minutes, was adjourned to 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Hickman was brought into court just as time to start the trial arrived. Superior Judge Carlos Hardy previously had rapped for order in the capacity-filled courtroom.

Hickman took a seat between the deputy and his chief counsel, Jerome Walsh of Kansas City, at the counsel table.

Defense attorneys announced the arrival of their two chief witnesses, former Chief of Police Charles Edwards of Kansas City and Dr. H. P. Routh of Tulsa, Okla.

While Hickman was a ward of the juvenile court last summer, he was paroled in Captain Edwards' charge after leaving Los Angeles for Kansas City. Dr. Routh was family physician to the Hickmans for a number of years. Defense counsel declared both men were ready to testify Hickman is insane.

The district attorney gave the opinion the document failed to establish the asserted bias and prejudice, that it was not an affidavit of fact and that it should be overruled.

Judge Hardy, in announcing the adjournment, declared the court was not biased nor prejudice but delayed ruling on the exception.

After the attorneys had read the document, it was returned to Judge Hardy, who commented it purported to be signed by Hickman. The court declared the document faulty in part and submitted it to the defense attorney for amendment.

Hickman then stood and raised his right hand, swearing he had signed the document.

Los Angeles, Calif., Jan. 25.—(AP)—William Edward Hickman, confessed kidnaper and killer of little Marian Parker, was brought into superior court at 9:33 today for the opening of his sanity trial.

He was in custody of a deputy sheriff and a jailer. Superior Judge Carlos Hardy previously had rapped for order in the capacity-filled courtroom.

Hickman took a seat between the deputy and his chief counsel, Jerome Walsh of Kansas City, at the counsel table.

Defense attorneys announced the arrival of their two chief witnesses former chief of police Charles Edwards of Kansas City, and Dr. H. P. Routh of Tulsa, Okla.

SWEETHEART KILLED ON DOOR-STEP

Israel Slotsky (left), was found with his skull crushed in by a crowbar a few minutes after he had left the home of his fiancée, Margaret Ohs, aged 19, of Washington, Pa. Police are acting on the theory that a jealous suitor committed the murder.

TODAY Dead 30 Minutes. Don't Start Too Soon. Birds Sing On Sunday. The Little Man. (By Arthur Brisbane) Copyright 1927, by Star Co.

Michael J. Hinch, eighteen years old, touched a live wire carrying 5,000 volts and, according to doctors, was "dead for half an hour." Quick action by firemen brought the boy back to life.

At first his mind wandered. Then he recognized friends, knew his own name, who he was and what he had been doing in the previous eighteen years.

The question arises, "does the same thing happen to all of us, after we have been dead a long time, perhaps, as one earnest clergyman suggests, as long as a billion years, waiting for the world to end and Gabriel to summon us?"

Young gentlemen of Yale vote overwhelmingly for Secretary Hoover for president in 1928. The young men reflect without knowing it, opinions of their fathers and other older men.

Among democrats, Governor Smith, of New York, is the favorite, by a big majority. Friends of Secretary Hoover should not start their race too early. Many a man has won three-quarters of a race with ease, but not the last quarter.

Pittsburgh judge decides that Pittsburgh's symphony society may give concerts on Sunday, although the Allegheny county Sabbath Association calls the concerts wicked.

What about the birds that sing on Sunday, and could not sing if the Lord did not approve? Are they wicked?

Banking gentlemen tell the little man not to invest in stocks or bonds, but put his money in savings banks.

That reminds you of the little boy who didn't want his sister to kill the big bluebottle fly. He wanted to kill it.

If bonds and stocks, industrial and others, yield profits good for big concerns, why not give the little man a chance?

How many millions have Frederick H. Ecker, of the Metropolitan Life Company; President Mitchell, of the National City Bank; President Giannini, of the Bank of Italy and Bancitaly Corporation, and dozens of others made for their stockholders by wise bond and stock investments?

MIAMI FLIER FORCED DOWN AT ASHEVILLE

Harry Brooks Flying From Detroit to Florida Forced to Land by High Winds

Asheville, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Harry J. Brooks, who landed his flier plane here late yesterday, when high winds prevented continuance of his flight from Detroit to Miami, was unable to get the plane into the air from the small field, and it was taken to Biltmore where there was a larger field. He plans to stop at Greensboro and Washington enroute back to Detroit.

Brooks had abandoned his plan to make a non-stop flight back to Detroit in preparation for resumption in an effort to fly the plane, which has a 20-foot wing spread and a two-cylinder motor, from Detroit to Miami in one hop.

He said he would take off with only 15 gallons of gasoline and would stop at the air mail field at Greensboro to replenish his supply and then would go on to Washington. It had been planned to make the trip with one stop at the national capital.

New British Law To Regulate Hours For Liquor Drinking

London. (INS)—The government is to introduce, when Parliament meets next month, a short bill to make drinking hours uniform throughout Britain. Clubs will probably be included in the measure.

This intention has been mainly forced by 3,000,000 club voters who for several years, have been insisting that restrictions imposed in wartime should be taken off.

The first clause of what would be a very short act, would rid London of the anomaly of saloons on one side of the street being compelled to close at 10 p. m., and those on the other side being allowed to remain open an hour longer.

The vagaries of licensing justices, who are responsible for this state of affairs, would be swept away and all saloons would open and close at the same time.

Curtis Asks For Enforcement of Prohibition Law

Washington, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Senator Curtis, of Kansas, candidate for Republican presidential nomination, declared today for a plank in the next party platform pledging strict enforcement of the prohibition laws. He also opposed permitting states to decide the alcoholic content. Senator Curtis wrote a letter to Senator Borah to this effect.

DETECTIVE TESTIFIES IN OIL CASE

William McMullin Tells of His Activities During Contempt Hearing.

Washington, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Further testimony was heard in court here today to support the government charge that the Burns detective manager in charge of shadowing the Fall-Sinclair oil conspiracy jury directed that false reports be made out as to the movements of one of the jurors.

The testimony was given by William J. McMullin, one of the Burns men assigned to watch the trial jury. The story of his activities as previously told the district attorney was related by McMullin on the witness stand in the hearing of Harry F. Sinclair, William J. Burns and others on a contempt charge.

On October 22, McMullin said, he made a report saying he followed juror Norman J. Glascock, and saw him talking to a man driving a car owned by H. R. Lamb, a special assistant to the attorney general.

"Was that statement true or false?" asked district attorney Gordon.

"False," replied the witness. "Who made the suggestion you prepare the false report?"

"Mr. Ruddy."

Charles G. Ruddy, Philadelphia manager for Burns, was in charge of the jury surveillance.

The witness also quoted Ruddy as having said on one occasion "that Sinclair was going to spend as much money as possible to get out of this," and on another "that the government has $100,000 to spend on the jury and Sinclair will spend $200,000."

McMullin testified he returned to Philadelphia November 3rd and came back to Washington November 8, and was met on his arrival by Burns and son.

W. J. Burns, the witness said told him he was glad he was going before the grand jury and "stick to your story" and added "we've got the government running around in circles." Burns also told him, he said, that he "would be well taken care of if you stick to your story."

Three Favored Sons In Nebraska Primary

Lincoln, Neb.—(AP)—Three "favorite sons" probably will be among the candidates from whom Nebraska voters may choose at the spring preferential primary for presidential nominations.

Properly signed petitions from the state's six congressional districts have been put in the hands of the secretary of state asking that the names of Gilbert M. Hitchcock, former United States Senator and Charles W. Bryan, former governor and vice presidential nominee be placed on the ballot as candidates for the democratic nomination.

Several petitions also are filed entering George W. Norris, United States senator, as a republican candidate, and sponsors of the Norris boom say there is no question but that he will have a place on the ballot.

Unless some of the petitions are withdrawn or some of the proposed candidates refuse to enter the race, their names will be put before the voters. Hitchcock lives in Omaha, Bryan in Lincoln and Norris at McCook, Neb.

BRANCH OF PHILADELPHIA PLUSH MANUFACTURING CO. TO BE ESTABLISHED HERE

Chinese General and Four Officers Are Put to Death

Peking, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Execution of General Chen Shu-Chiang, chief inspector of the Peking gendarmes, and four of his officers, was announced officially today.

Chen was arrested recently on charges of blackmailing wealthy citizens by arresting them on false charges and offering to release them on payment of large sums.

He and his four subordinates were executed Sunday.

BUDGET DRIVE BEGINS HERE JANUARY 30TH

Salvation Army Plans to Raise $3,500 to Carry on Work in This City.

Beginning Monday, January 30, the people of Greenville will be extended the opportunity of helping the local corps of the Salvation Army in their beneficent work for the coming year.

The budget for the entire year, as approved by the advisory board, is $3,500.00 which includes everything used in carrying on the religious and charitable phases of the work from the little Sunday school books to the rental of the hall and compensation of the officers.

This great organization is so widely known and loved for its broad spirit of tolerance and sympathetic understanding that it seems hardly necessary to make any explanatory comment.

The officers of the Salvation Army are as self effacing as were the friars of old, ever seeking the wayward, the weak, the misguided, and the meek and lowly, that they may be comforted and reclaimed.

Ever going about doing good, by their unobtrusive acts of charity and loving kindness accompanying the message of the gospel of our Lord and Master, they have brought many an outcast back into the sphere of respectability and useful citizenship.

In an era of transition from an agricultural to an industrial state personal charity cannot begin to relieve even the most stark cases of want and suffering. The Salvation Army, together with similar and allied religious and eleemosynary institutions, represent to a very great extent, the civic conscience.

YOUNG WIDOW HELD IN SHOOTING AFFAIR

Brevard, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Mrs. Laura Robinson, pretty young widow of Uie Robinson, was ordered held for trial with her father, Joe Revis, in connection with the fatal shooting of her husband, after a lengthy coroner's inquest today.

Robinson was shot on the night of January 17 in a row in front of his home in hog back township. He died several days later in a local hospital.

Revis was charged with the murder and his daughter with aiding and abetting.

WAYNE BANKER HURT IN AUTOMOBILE WRECK

Greenville, Jan. 25.—(AP)—The condition of F. K. Borden, president of the Wayne National Bank, who was seriously injured here last night when he was struck and knocked down by an automobile was reported as somewhat improved today.

Committee Today Raising $60,000 Worth of Preferred Stock to Make Establishment of Local Branch Possible.

Plans looking to the establishment of a $150,000 Plush Manufacturing Plant in Greenville were discussed by local business men at a dinner given at the Rotary Club last night by the advertising committee of the local Merchants Association.

Considerable enthusiasm was manifested in the proposition submitted by a representative of the Plush Plush Co., of Philadelphia and indications were that worth of stock required for the establishment of a branch plant of the concern would be raised within a short time. A soliciting committee began work this morning and at the noon hour today it was reported that considerable progress had been made in preferred stock subscriptions.

The proposition as submitted by the representative of the concern here last night provides for the erection of a $150,000 plant here as soon as the required stock is raised. The plant is to begin operation immediately upon completion. Following announcement of the proposition, a representative of the Greenville Cotton Mills stated that they would install $50,000 worth of new equipment to take care of the needs of the new enterprise should it be brought to this city.

Local bankers and business men, speaking at the dinner last night said that the financial condition of the Philadelphia concern had been thoroughly investigated and had been found to be in thriving condition. They expressed opinion that investment in the stock to be offered for sale would be absolutely safe. The plant in Philadelphia, it was stated, had a splendid credit rating and had created a surplus four times as large as its capital stock.

Speaking from the standpoint of Greenville's dream of becoming a great manufacturing center as well as one of the greatest agricultural communities in the country, prominent business men urged that the proposition be given the consideration of which it is so deserving. It not only means the establishment of a new enterprise but will mean development in other industries, they declared.

With other cities in numbers of states making inducive offerings for acquisition of the plant, members of the Merchants Association today urged local citizens to get busy and do everything possible to make establishment of the new industry here an actuality. Numbers expressed considerable optimism over the outlook and said they believed the stock would be subscribed within a short time.

The Philadelphia concern manufactures plush used in the upholstery of automobiles, furniture, etc. It is said to be one of the most thriving industries of its kind in the country, and a branch plant such as proposed for this city, would not only mean an expansion of its activities, but would result in increased development of other forms of business.

Woods Will Case On At Goldsboro

Goldsboro, Jan. 25.—(AP)—An agreement by opposing counsel to submit the Woods will case to the jury without argument today led to the belief that the case would probably reach the jury this afternoon.

Attorneys for relatives seeking to break the will in which the late J. M. Wood left an estate of $100,000 to his widow announced their decision not to argue the case after W. A. Finch defending the will, had indicated a willingness to do likewise.

MEEKINS NOMINATED FOR WASHINGTON POSTMASTER

LOCAL CAGE TEAM WINS FAST GAME

The Greenville high school basketball team went over to Roanoke Rapids last night and won one of the most exciting games of the season by the score of 8 to 7. The contest was featured by the close guarding of both teams, the first quarter ending with a blank for both sides. The half ended with the score standing 5 to 0 in favor of Roanoke Rapids.

In the last three minutes of play with the score standing 7 to 3 in their favor, Roanoke Rapids started stalling for time, but Bostick shot a foul and field goal, making the score 7 to 6. With ten seconds to play, Bostick sank the ball from the middle of the court to win the game for Greenville.

The floor work of both teams was the outstanding feature of the game. Bostick was high scorer for Greenville with 6 points to his credit and Goodman with four points; was high scorer for Roanoke Rapids.

The next game will be played in this city at Gorman's warehouse Friday night with New Bern at 8 o'clock. This will be the sixth game to be played under supervision of the Northeastern Athletic Conference, Greenville having won four and lost one.

The lineup follows:
Roanoke Rapids:
 Bostick (6) (2) Matthews
 Right Forward
 Hicks (2) (1) Jones
 Left Forward
 Hearne (4) (4) Goodman
 Center
 Roberson (4) (4) Cobb
 Right Guard
 Eason (4) (4) Allgood
 Left Guard
 Referee: Manning.

Huggins' Rainy Day Buying Gives Yanks Mortgage on Success

(By Davis J. Walsh)

Nothing succeeds like success, and the gent who knows that a wisecrack covers a multitude of misstatements, John McGraw, if interviewed directly after 1913 and since 1924, would have admitted that he had had intervals of moderate success, first with three consecutive pennants winners and then with four. But on each occasion success, first with three consecutive rather abruptly, at that.

Frank Chance could have told you the same thing any time during the season of 1911 and, for the asking, or quite without it, Mr. Mack will so tell you today.

Mack's pennant winners of 1910, 1911, 1913 and 1914 never were repeated and neither was Chance able to come back with another winner after his Cubs of 1906, 1907, 1908 and 1901 were no more.

Shining Examples
 So, with these shining examples before him, it is apparent today that Miller Huggins, manager of a club that just has reeled off five victories in 1921, 1922, 1923, 1924 and 1927, wants no part of the same mistake. He is an outfit that won the American League pennant last season by a small margin of nineteen games and is a comparative youthful one, with possibly some of its best years before it. But the good Miller is the type who wouldn't bet you that tomorrow is the next day.

He wants a mortgage on success. No other explanation would seem to account plausibly for the fact that he was the only manager in the major leagues who was willing to take Lyn Lary and Jimmy Reese from Oakland for 1929 delivery True, the Yankees didn't actually need the pair this year with Lazzeri and Koenig going so well at second base and shortstop, but that isn't the point. The Yankees actually don't figure to need them at all, at least, not for so long that their usefulness would be questionable. Both Lazzeri and Koenig are young men, just coming to their best.

Rainy Day Buying
 Echoes of the Oakland deal had barely abated when it was announced that the Yanks had purchased John Prudhomme, a right hand pitcher from Toronto. They paid their money for the gent and all details were closed, except one. That will not be completed until Prudhomme reports to the club probably in 1930. The Yanks didn't buy him because they need him, only because they think they might need him one day.

Offhand, this system of rainy-day buying might seem to be a commendable one if it wasn't for the fact that the Yanks hold too many of the cards now for the good of the league. They won off by themselves last year, they have been out of the world's series only twice since 1920 and their financial resources almost unlimited, are growing with each season.

And if they continue looking ahead to the day when young men will be old, some one will have to call in the Interstate Commerce Commission in order to finish second in the American League standing.

AYDEN GIRLS VICTORS

OVER G. H. S. SOPHOMORES

The girls' basketball team of the Ayden high school defeated the sophomore of the Greenville high school in a game played on the Ayden court last evening. The score was 21 to 14. While the game was reported as good and closer played than the score would indicate, it was described as without any exceptional feature plays. The sophs took their defeat well and declare that it will not have any effect upon the future games. They urge that the citizens give them support by attending the next game which is to be held here early in February.

ANNOUNCES RELEASE OF TRIS SPEAKER

Tampa, Fla., Jan. 25.—(AP)—Clerk Griffith, president of the Washington Americans, today announced the unconditional release of Tris Speaker, effective February first.

Jones and Gunn To Give Series Of Golf Matches

Atlanta, Jan. 23.—(AP)—Bobby Jones, British open golf champion, and Watts Gunn, national intercollegiate title holder also of Atlanta, will play a series of exhibition golf matches in the Southwest during the month of May for the benefit of the American Olympic team fund. It was announced today by A. A. Dorton, Southeastern representative of the amateur athletic union.

FOUR GOVERNORS HELP ENTERTAIN REPUBLICANS

Kansas City, (AP)—Missouri and Kansas each will have one present and one former governor at the republican national convention which opens June 12 in Kansas City, on the border between the two states. A former chief executive of each state lives in Kansas City, and therefore will be resident host, while the present governors of the sister commonwealths will appear as official hosts. Gov. Sam A. Baker of Missouri will help his immediate predecessor, Arthur M. Hyde, extend hospitality to the delegates, while Gov. Ben S. Paulen of Kansas will join W. J. Bailey, who was chief executive of the Sunflower state more than two decades ago.

GRETTA GREEN SMITHY HOLDS 100 WEDDINGS IN SPITE OF NEW LAW

By International News Service. Gretna Green, Scotland.—Over one hundred marriages were celebrated last year at the famous Gretna Green Smithy. Although the smithy is no longer the haven of eloping couples as in days gone by, it is still the home of romance. The law has been altered since the old days, when couples could be married simply by paying the smithy, and 21 days prior residence in Scotland is now necessary before a marriage can be legally performed.

May Be Yale Coach

MARVIN STEVENS

New Haven, Conn., (AP)—Marvin Stevens, who is slated to succeed Ted Jones as coach of Yale football if Jones persists in his determination to relinquish the reins, would be one of the youngest major college coaches in the country. He is 23.

For four years Stevens, as assistant coach, has been Jones' right-hand man. He was largely responsible for developing Bruce Caldwell, sensation of the last season. Stevens then called "The Kansas Cyclone," played but one year—1924—at Yale, but made a great name as a running back. At Washburn College, Kansas, which he attended first, he won ten letters.

Promotion of Stevens to the place held by Jones for the last eight years would give both Harvard and Yale coaches of the "younger generation," as Argold Horween of the Crimson also was graduated since the war.

Sewell Out to Shatter World's Endurance Record

Joe Sewell of Cleveland (upper left), has played in 876 consecutive ball games and has a chance to push past the continuous service record hung up by Everett Scott (upper right), who has 1,347 to his credit. The former record was held by Fred Luderus (below), with 822 contests.

Can Joe Sewell, shortstop of the Cleveland club, hang on long enough to break a record that fans and experts not long ago solemnly agreed would never be exceeded? In other words, can Sewell keep a goin' long enough to drive past the mark of 1,307 consecutive ball games played in by Everett Scott, while a member of the Red Sox and Yankees? Sewell would have to stay right on the job three years, without injury or illness, to better that remarkable figure, but there's just a chance that he can make the grade if he's lucky.

The Indian infielder has been in 876 games in a row, and inasmuch as he's a husky little fellow, and not frail as Scott was, the percentage goes even a bit more in his favor.

Iron men in baseball are few and far between, especially in the infield. Still, both Scott and Sewell are inner garden men, and the former record which was broken by Scott, was held by another inner defense man, Fred Luderus of the Phillies, who hung up 533 consecutive games from 1916 to 1919.

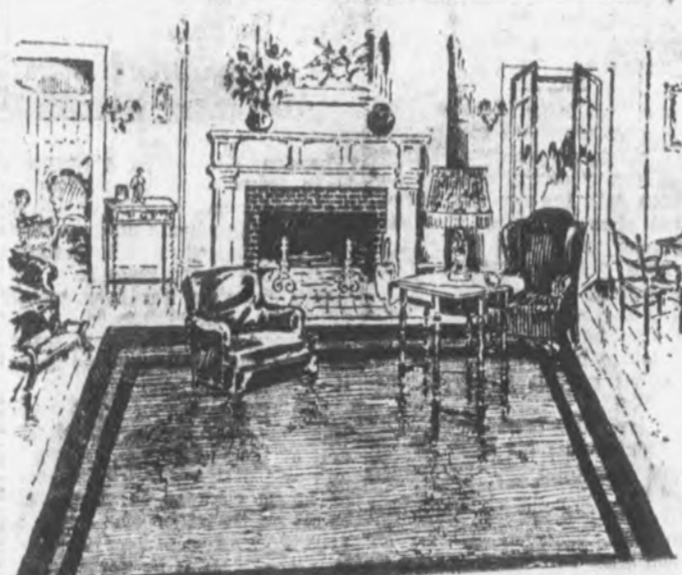

Sewell not only manages to get in there and do his work every day, but he possesses another claim to fame, having the record of striking out the fewest times in a season. Joey spanked the breezes but four times during 155 games in 1925.

JUSTICE HALTS TRIAL, HOLDS CHURCH IN COURT

Savannah, Tenn., (AP)—J. V. Mitchell, veteran justice of the peace, believes everyone should go to church. Holding court on a Sunday afternoon to hear evidence in the case of two men caught in a liquor raid, he learned that many of the operators had not attended church in years. He continued the cases, declared that anyone leaving the courtroom would be in contempt and ordered Henry Blount, known as the "raider paragon," to preach a sermon.

Sans Souci Book Club Meets
A delightful meeting of the Sans Souci Book Club was held at the home of Mrs. H. S. Bagdale, on Ward street, Tuesday afternoon. Open arrival, the guests were invited into the dining room where hot tea and sandwiches were served by Mrs. T. T. Hollingsworth and the hostess.

The meeting was called to order by the president Mrs. M. K. Blount. After roll call, to which almost every member responded, and the disposal of business, Mrs. H. L. Rivers, who had charge of the program for the afternoon, gave a splendid paper on the beautiful island of Ceylon, which is situated off the coast of India.

For a half hour or more each member was charmed by the word pictures which she drew of the lovely, colorful land. The gay dress of its natives, the magnificence of its gems, rubies, sapphires, emeralds and many lesser stones are found in the river bed of the island. Tea, rice, rubber and coconuts are some of the products, besides the palm that is put to so many uses by the natives.

A New Year's celebration was vividly described. And the shrine to Buddha's tooth (which is worshipped) clearly depicted in all of its magnificence and glory. Portuguese explorers spoke of Ceylon as a place of gold and silver, pearls, gems, ebony, pepper, elephants, monkeys, parrots, peacocks and innumerable other things, and Mrs. Rivers proved that they were indeed true.

Current events were in order after the program, and as usual, were varied and enlightening. At the conclusion of the meeting the hostess served a most enjoyable frozen salad course. —Reported.

Miss Ada James Entertains Club.
Mrs. Ada James entertained her club members at her home on Fifth street. Potted plants were used for decorations. Miss Anna Long was awarded silk hose for high club score. A rhinestone bracelet was won by Miss Ernestine Forbes for high visitor score. The table prizes, blooming plants, went to Mrs. Francis Bowen, Mrs. Lee Hannah, Misses Ernestine Forbes and Iva Sheburn. Mrs. Coleman was remembered with a shoulder corsage. At the conclusion a number of interesting progressives, a tempting salad course was served.

IMPERIAL QUARTET AT COLLEGE THURSDAY EVENING
Treat yourself tomorrow evening to East Carolina Teachers College to hear the Imperial Male Quartet sing. Get away from your radio long enough to look the singers in the face, then go back to your radio the next evening and enjoy the music on the air. The concert will be in the campus building at eight o'clock. Hear the quartet sing some of the songs they have sung for Victor records, then your records will be worth far more to you. Several of these songs will be on their program.

Tobacco Board of Trade TO HOLD ANNUAL MEETING TOMORROW AFTERNOON

Clarence Cannon to Ethel Stocks, Aven.
G. D. Williams to Esie Lee Cox, Swift Creek.
Andrew Speight to Annie Taylor, Greenville.
Bennie Green to Lizzie E. Taylor, Pitt county.

IMPERIAL MALE QUARTET HERE THURSDAY NIGHT
All the world loves a good male quartet. The program of the Imperial Male Quartet concert which is to be given at East Carolina Teachers College on Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock, in the campus building, is a masterpiece of program making. It has numbers for each kind of person in the audience—musicians, those who are merely music lovers, and for people who just like to hear good singing. Most of the program is made up of quartet numbers, for those who go to hear a quartet wish to get quartet singing and not a series of solos.

The season tickets for the winter and spring series of entertainments will be on sale at the door on Thursday evening. The ticket will be good for the six attractions between now and June. The Mary Lewis concert alone, for the single ticket, is half the price of the season ticket.

SEVERAL DEEDS FILED HERE SINCE MONDAY
The following deeds of transfer have been filed in the office of the register of deeds for registration since the report of Monday afternoon:

Judge Winston's Wife to Direct Great Pageant

Mrs. Francis D. Winston, wife of Judge Winston, of Windsor, N. C., has been employed to direct the big pageant to be staged during the Eastern Carolina Exposition in Goldsboro, the week of April 9, according to an announcement made by secretary N. G. Bartlett Monday morning after returning from Windsor where the matter was taken up with Mrs. Winston.

"This pageant will be different from anything of its kind ever held in this section," secretary Bartlett said. It will be entitled "Eastern North Carolina in the Making," dealing with the present and future for the most part. More than a score of entirely different episodes will be worked out by Mrs. Winston and assigned to the various towns within a reasonable radius of Goldsboro. The cast will run up to more than 1,000. Mrs. Winston states. The pageant will be divided into two sections; one division will be put on in the afternoon of the opening day, Monday, April 9, and the second will come Monday night. This is done to break the tiring sitting for four hours to watch it through.

A motion picture will be made of the pageant, which will be used for advertising purposes after the exposition is over. This will be the first motion picture of a local pageant ever made in this section. Three thousand feet of pictures will be made which will be sufficient to cover the pageant more or less in detail. In addition to putting the pageant in pictures, the parade and the "Queens" will also be photographed for future showing. The mere fact that picture will be made of the whole event will prove a great incentive to the towns and counties to get in and show their "products." An outline of the pageant will be given by Mrs. Winston just as soon as she gets on the field and assigns the various episodes. Mrs. Winston will report to Kinston, January 30, for her first visits to the towns in the section.

"LAST OUTLAW" FOR ALL FANS

Gary Cooper's New Film Holds Appeal for Entire Family.
Every kid in Greenville should love "The Last Outlaw" Gary Cooper's Paramount starring picture which opens at the New Theatre Thursday and Friday. And what's more, every father will want to take every kid to see it. And every mother ought to go along, not to mention any daughters there might be in the family. Why? "The Last Outlaw" is said to be the kind of picture the whole family will enjoy.

But the kids, especially, should get the biggest kick out of it. In the first place, there's the hero, G. Cooper, whom Paramount raised to stardom in his last picture, "Arizona Bound." He's the kind of a person that will win the hero-worship of every boy who sees him. Tall, lithe and rangy, he has but to flash his quick smile in a closeup and he's made a new audience of friends. That goes for women as well as boys.

And then there's Billy Butts, that marvelous seven-year-old trapper who's a better actor than many players four times his age. Billy enacts a homeless little bum in "The Last Outlaw" who is picked up by Cooper and made into a full-fledged cowboy with big hat, traps, pony and everything. Billy has a lot to do, and he even rides Cooper's magnificent horse, Flash.

Green oysters are perfectly wholesome. The greenish color is due to little green plants the oyster eats.

Sage Tea Turns Gray Hair Dark
By SHIRLEY BLAKE

That beautiful, even shade of dark glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture. You can get this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, for only 75 cents, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Every body uses "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" now because it deters so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous.

OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS

For sometime past the realization that Greenville needed manufacturing industries has been foremost in the minds of business men of the city, and now that the opportunity to get some manufacturing industries is at hand, it is up to the citizens to come forward and give the matter their heartiest support.

The offer of the Wissahickon Plush Company to establish a manufacturing plant here, provided local citizens would subscribe to $60,000 preferred stock, is indeed a liberal offer on the part of the company, and a great opportunity for Greenville when it is taken into consideration what the coming of the new industry would mean to our city.

First, bankers and business men of this city have investigated the company and find that the Philadelphia company, of which the factory here would be a part, shows a good credit rating, is making money, and has created a surplus four times as large as the amount of its capital stock. On this information, the proposition is declared to be a safe investment, as investments go, to those citizens here who take stock.

Second, the subscribing of $60,000 worth of stock here means that the company will erect a $150,000 plant here and begin operations immediately.

In addition to this, the Greenville Cotton Mills has announced that should the new concern come to this city, the cotton mills will install $50,000 worth of new equipment in order to take care of the needs of the new manufacturing industry in the way of furnishing cotton in the form that is used in the manufacture of the plush.

In brief, the investment of $60,000 by citizens of Greenville means that we will not only bring a new industry here and make an old industry more thriving, but we will immediately place on our tax books approximately a quarter million dollars worth of taxable property.

Third, but by no means the least, is the fact that the coming of this new industry will be but the beginning, and no doubt others will follow, with the result that Greenville's dream of becoming a manufacturing center may in a few years be realized.

As stated above, Greenville's opportunity is at hand. We have long needed and long wanted manufacturing enterprises. We are now confronted with a business proposition that apparently is sound in every respect. It is up to us. Will we grasp our opportunity, or will we let it pass and let the manufacturing plant be established in some other city?

If you take stock in this company you will not only be making a safe financial investment for yourself, but you will be investing in a future bigger and better Greenville. What will your answer be when the soliciting committee calls upon you to do your part?

OPEN FORUM

Who's Business Is It, Anyway?
Who's business is it of the great state of North Carolina in its nation renowned record for good roads takes upon itself to jeopardize the lives of 300 of Pitt county's school children by not considering them and their needs in the construction of the bridge at Greenville, N. C.

Who's business is it if the State Highway Commission does promise to include this walkway on the bridge and then, without any notice whatever, decides not to do it. Who's business is it that the State Highway Commission of North Carolina should let the sum of $15,000.00 stand in the way of safety of children and pedestrians of a part of Pitt county for years to come?

It ought to be everybody's business but all that is done is a little talking on the streets and drug stores and wondering why someone doesn't do something about it. This talking and wondering will be all that will be done until after it is too late and then someone will awaken to the fact that it is too late.

Surely it is up to the officers of the town of Greenville, the Merchants Association, the School Board or someone to be interested in these matters that so vitally affect the future of our city. If we sit idly by and say it's a shame, or it might not be allowed and then allow it—Who's to blame?

It is time that someone in Greenville consider this matter seriously for while we are talking this great North Carolina State Highway Commission is rushing to completion their plans so that they can say to you YOU ARE TOO LATE. This ought to have been done a month ago.

ABOUT TOWN

"About the most important thing the sport-loving populace of this city has before them today is the selection of a name for the Greenville baseball club," an interested participant in the contest to name the team remarked this morning.

"The contest committee no doubt will have to go through hundreds of names before the contest closes, but in my opinion, none of them could possibly be any better than the one word—Tobaccoists."

Situated in the greatest tobacco producing county in the world, it is but natural that our baseball team should be representative of the great district it is supposed to serve.

"I am going to send this name to the committee. They are welcome to it if they want it—that is if they do not forget to remember me with the season ticket."

"Did my husband come in and subscribe to the Reflector again?" inquired a woman from the lower part of the county who was in the city yesterday, attending the criminal term of Pitt county superior court now in progress in this city.

Upon being assured that the husband had not forgotten, the visitor declared she simply could not get along without the Reflector.

"I had just as soon miss my evening meal as to fail to get the Reflector. It is a part of the day's program every day of the year, and when we fail to get it, everybody goes to bed feeling like the day didn't end right."

"The greatest friend of prohibition today is the bootlegger," declared a reader of this column today.

"We looked at him questioningly. He smiled. 'Sounds peculiar, doesn't it. But it's the truth. 'Do away with prohibition and the bootlegger would starve to death. 'I do not mean that I do not believe in prohibition, because I do. I believe it would be the greatest thing in the world if properly enforced. But with so much corruption existing among officials in all sections of the country is almost impossible to bring about complete law enforcement of any kind. 'You will always notice that the most vigorous opponents of a wet candidate are not prohibitionists, but anti-prohibitionists, men who know that legitimate sale of wines or liquors would mean disruption of a traffic that is doing more to undermine this great nation than any other one thing."

"If you have a wife, bring her to the Kiwanis meeting Friday night," Frank Harrington, recently elected president of the Kiwanians, said this morning.

"If you haven't a wife, bring someone to take the place of her. 'We hope to make this ladies' night program the greatest thing in recent years. We have secured the services of Jean Brazil, one of the best known comedians in the country, and he will do his part."

towards making the evening pass off pleasantly and profitably for everyone.

"Bring your wives and sweethearts—if you haven't either—go to the register of deeds and get hitched up on this occasion."

"Justice is being meted out swiftly at this session of criminal court" an attendant remarked this afternoon.

"Judge Grady has a knack of keeping the court machinery moving every minute of the day, and this has resulted in the disposition of numbers of cases.

"The docket for the term is congested, but with the wheels of justice revolving like they did Monday and Tuesday inaugurations went to a clean slate by the end of the week."

"This is the last week the Greenville tobacco market will be open this season," members of the Tobacco Board of Trade, said today.

"We are closing down with sales Friday and hope by that time all of the growers will have disposed of the remainder of their crop.

"If you have any tobacco left on hand, get busy and market it while you have the opportunity.

"The Greenville market has readily passed its goal of sixty million pounds for the season, and it looks now as if the sales will end with the total standing somewhere near the sixty-two million mark.

CHAMBERLIN IS FORCED DOWN IN PENNSYLVANIA

Altoona, Pa., Jan. 25.—(AP)—Clarence Chamberlin, trans-Atlantic flyer, who defied the elements in an attempted hop from Middletown, Pa., to Altoona, today, was forced down at Millintown, fifty miles from his goal. The wing of his plane was damaged when he made the forced landing on a baseball diamond. He was not hurt and took a train to Altoona.

Peruvian Ship Collides With Submarine R-1

Colon, Panama, Jan. 25.—(AP)—The commander of the Peruvian cruiser Almirante Grau, reports by wireless that his ship had been damaged with the Peruvian submarine R-1 off Balboa.

The commandant of the Fifteenth Naval District reports that the wrecking tug Corgona was immediately dispatched to the assistance of the Almirante Grau, and that other craft have been ordered to proceed with all speed.

No details have been received as to damage or possible loss of life. The Peruvian naval vessels are said to have been engaged in maneuvers at the time of the collision.

Ballard's X Road News

The lengthening days and bright sunshine remind us that gardening time is here. A garden: what a thrill the very word imparts. Would that I had the power to convey to your readers the indescribable ecstasy awakened in my youthful heart by the dewy fragrance of an old garden.

Several of our people attended the fiddlers' convention at Arthur. They report a most enjoyable evening with much high-grade music.

Miss Mary Emma Joyner has a position in Greenville.
Mr. and Mrs. Mack Smith, of Arthur, were visiting at Mr. Eibert Tyson's one evening last week.
Mrs. Gilma Nichols and Mrs. McArthur attended the dinner given by the auxiliary of the Presbyterian church of Farmville Thursday.
Mrs. J. E. Tye, of Farmville, is visiting friends in this vicinity.
Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Crawford spent a few hours in the Lizzie section Sunday.

We are sorry to note that Mr. G. T. Tyson, Jr., has been confined to the house for the last few days.
Mr. Tyson has lately purchased a cable by which he can easily and swiftly skid logs of any size out of the long inaccessible low grounds of Contentnea Creek.
Mr. J. S. Elks is giving us a good example by getting pecan trees for beauty and shade.
Mr. Clifton Jones, who lives a little way beyond the bridge, is enlarging his dwelling.

BE SLENDER and Fashionable

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

NEW YORK COTTON

New York, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Trading in the cotton market in mid-afternoon, was comparatively quiet at about yesterday's closing quotations. An early opening of 6 or 7 points attracted trade buying and covering, but demand tapered off on rallies of 9 or 12 points above yesterday's closing quotations.

After selling up from 18.06 to 18.23 for March, prices eased off again.

Features closed barely steady, 2 to 6 points lower. Spot quiet; middling 18.52.

GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Sympathizing with weakness of the New York stockmarket and with unexpected wheat prices declines at Liverpool, grain values here underwent a general setback today numerous standing orders to sell out and stop losses in wheat were caught on the break.

Wheat closed unsuccessfully, half a 5-8 to 1c net lower, corn 1c to 1-2c down, oats 3-4 to 1c off, and provisions varying from 10c decline to a rise of 7 cents.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Jan. 25.—(AP)—The stock market experienced a sharp reaction today as a result of the heavy liquidation inspired by the unexpected increase in the Chicago Federal Reserve Bank rediscount rate. Prices broke 2 to 7 points at the opening, rallied moderately, sagged again before mid-day and turned upward in the early afternoon when heavy buying developed in public utilities, several of which advanced to new high records. Trading started off at a terrific pace but slowed up on the rallies.

The market, having advanced rather steadily for five consecutive days, was in a vulnerable position for selling attacks. Several "puffs" which had been operating in the specialties, hastily withdrew their support, but others resumed aggressive operations as soon as the first outbreak of selling had spent its force.

Gold dust, for instance, sold down 2 points to 88 and then rallied to a new high at 95 1-2. Federal Light & Traction, Consolidated Gas and Laclede Gas also established new high records, the last-named soaring nearly 16 points above last night's closing quotation.

Renewed call money at 3 1-2 per cent tended to keep liquidation within bounds although the subsequent easing of about $20,000,000 in bank loans aroused misgivings in some speculative quarters.

The closing was weak. Total sales approximated 2,850,000 shares.

COMING STARS of the MOVIES

Kenneth Thompson

JUST keep your eye on Kenneth Thompson. That's the tip being passed out by the "sharpshooters" around Hollywood, who have been closely watching the screen work of this comparatively new leading man.

Thompson is generally regarded as one of the prize "finds" of the season. He deserted Broadway where there was a brilliant future in store for him, having chafed up smashing personal successes in "The Rivals" and in "Hush Money."

Thompson is just a youngster, but with a world of speaking stage education as his background. He broke in through the medium of stock, and graduated to Broadway stardom in his first role. He screens well, knows the tricks of the trade, and plays with a quiet tempo that registers strongly with every move.

PRINCIPALS IN CENSUS SCANDAL

Mrs. Florence Knapp (left), former secretary of New York State, has disappeared following a probe of her census records made by Commissioner R. H. LeBoeuf (right), who indicates that he will recommend formal action to be taken against her for grand larceny, false audits and removal of public records.

—and the Worst is Yet to Come

Pitt County Farm News

Some 400 head of hogs will go on feed this week for the Richmond market in March and April. Some of these hogs have already been weighed and started on a fattening ration of shelled corn and fish meal. Six bushels of corn and 30 pounds of fish meal will give a gain of 100 pounds. The following are planning to feed hogs for the March and April market, R. L. Dudley, J. C. Galloway, R. L. Little, J. Paul Davenport, Ernest Dudley, J. C. Galloway, R. L. Little, J. Paul Davenport, Ernest Dudley, Haywood Dall, D. L. House, B. D. Moore, Henry Shepherd, W. C. Purser, C. E. Case, S. L. Corbett, W. M. Taylor, Ned McLawhorn, Brown Hodges, J. S. Pittman, and a number of other farmers are considering taking on this project. Beaufort county farmers received $100,000 last spring for 67 carloads of hogs. Why not Pitt county farmers?

Tobacco Seed Cleaner Kept Busy. More than 200 different farmers have re-cleaned 214 pounds of seed or enough to sow 10,272 acres which requires 1,027,000 yards of seed bed. Which means that enough seed has been re-cleaned to take care of 3,424 barns. The farm program calls for at least 90 per cent of the tobacco growers to put re-cleaning and treating seed into permanent practice within five years. We will pass the 50 per cent mark this year with three more years to go.

C. E. Case is offering 700 pounds of honey to the buying public at 20c per pound. Pitt county bees harvested this honey. It is fine. Let's encourage this kind of work on the part of farmers by driving out and getting a few pounds of the purest sweet that can be had.

War On Rats. The sixth and seventh of February will be given to demonstrations on how to war on rats successfully. I will have a government specialist to put on these demonstrations. With the papers for dates and all places and if you bothered with rats be on hand at one of these meetings.

NOTICE OF SALE. Under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in that certain deed of trust executed by Samuel Hardy and Francis Hardy, dated May 23, 1925, of record in book V-15, page 417, default having been made in the payment of the notes secured thereby, the undersigned trustee will offer for sale to the highest bidder for cash, before the Courthouse door in Greenville, N. C. Friday, February 24th, 1928, at 12:00 O'clock Noon all of the following land: First Tract: Lying and being in Pitt County and State of North Carolina and described as follows: On the North side of Tar River and being a portion of the Henry Brown land, known as the Jolly tract, adjoining Elihu Briley, the Henry Brown Home Farm, J. ### REMNISCENSES OF PITT COUNTY

(By A. J. MOYE)

We have now arrived at Alfred Moyer. The noblest Roman of them all. I remember his taking me and his granddaughter, Lizzie Lang, up over a store in Marlboro and having a daughter of the three of us made. Soon afterwards one afternoon he walked about a mile to see how the carpenters were progressing on Corinth Church to which he had contributed a considerable sum in the building. About midnight he was stricken with paralysis, which kept him bed-ridden for the remainder of his life. He was the most patient paralytic I ever saw. I do remember that he never spoke a cross word to me. He was entirely master of himself. His memory of things past was remarkable but he could not remember what transpired after his sickness. He had been an admirer and supporter of J. M. Morehead when he ran for governor of North Carolina. Governor Morehead having occasion to come to Pitt county to buy fat hogs for his cotton factory in Alamance county, came to see grandpa and spent the night with him. As there were no banks in those days, the governor brought money along with him to pay for the hogs. One morning he counted out his money in our dining room. I went in there and he had the bed which always was in that large dining room—covered all over with Confederate money. That was a sight to me, and to be ever afterwards remembered.

He believed in being hospitable, so all travelers were welcomed. Inasmuch that his neighbors imposed upon him by sending people to him who applied for lodging, I never knew him to refuse to take anyone. It was against an unwritten law to receive pay for a night's lodging with supper and breakfast thrown in. If ever there was a public spirited citizen he was one. He was a friend moreover in building the plank road from Wilson to Greenville and was its first president. He was for a number of years chairman of the magistrates who composed the county. He, with his neighbors, maintained a very good country school and mostly boarded the teachers. He erected a gin house and ginned cotton for his neighbors who were not able to build gin houses and erect screws for baling the cotton.

There was a small log house in the yard near the "great house" as the dwelling was called. I was curious to know about it and was told that at one time grandpa had ventured in the silk industry and that this house was to house the silk worms.

He was one of the stockholders and a director of the Pitt County Female Institute. These directors built what is now Horton apartment house. They ran a boarding school for girls for about a year, which was broken up by the war.

He was a rabid unionist and never was a believer in the Confederate states. He firmly believed that South Carolina ought to have been made to behave herself. He believed the Confederacy would fail and that the negroes would be freed without the south receiving any pay for them.

Mrs. Susan Atkinson, a wealthy woman, who then lived on the north side of Tar River, around the Steeple place in Greene county, passed our house once in every two weeks, going to her place. I thought she had the finest pair of carriage horses in the world. As she had no small children and was driven over by a negro man. She dressed up, oh—so fine—two negro children and took them in the carriage with her. Cousin Susan, as we always called her, loved dearly to talk when excited, stopped in to see grandpa and expiated upon "the war. She was an enthusiastic secessionist.

She wanted every able-bodied man to volunteer for the war. Grandpa listened very patiently for some time. When Cousin Susan had run down, he said, "War is a terrible thing."

When her son, Peyton, volunteered Cousin Susan was happy, but when he shortly afterwards died of typhoid fever away from home, she was converted. She saw a great light, and ever afterwards she was a Unionist. She stopped to tell grandpa how much she detested war.

I forgot to mention in its proper place that when the Sons of Temperance came to Pitt county he and his boys joined them and that ever afterwards he was an enemy of strong drink. I used to see several troughs about his premises with both ends open. I was told that prior to the advent of the Sons, that these troughs were used to grind cider in. In his mature age he joined the disciples and was a true disciple to the day of his death.

CONGRESS WRANGLES OVER BIG ISSUES

Washington, Jan. 25.—(AP)—The big navy and Nicaraguan controversies came back to congress today together with another wrangle over the S-4 disaster.

Politics also furnished a controversy for the republican presidential questionaire from Borah of Idaho, saying he favored a strict dry enforcement plank in the platform to be formulated at Kansas City.

While the house was wrestling with a batch of bills to amend the judicial code, and the senate pitched and tossed over whether the S-4 sinking should be investigated by a civilian or congressional commission, Rear Admiral McVay told the house naval committee that the $240,000,000 warship construction program was the most important task before congress.

The foreign relations committee discussed Nicaragua for a while but reached no decision as to recommending an inquiry into administration policy.

General Jadin, chief of army engineers, was excused from a flood control hearing until the chairman said, he was prepared to answer questions in more detail.

New Champion

Miss Eleanor Sears of Greenwich, Conn., and the trophy which she holds after winning Women's Open Squash tournament at the Round Hill club of Greenwich. She defeated a large field from all sections of the country.

Flying Grandma

Mrs. D. M. Wheeler of San Diego, Cal., a grandmother, is the first to fly across the Arctic Circle. She operates a gold mine in Alaska, and uses an airplane to fly from Fairbanks to her property.

Radio As Sentinel Of U. S. Patrol Aids In Rum Boat Chase

Radio has become a big adjunct in the campaign of the Coast Guard to drive rum runners from the seas bordering the Florida coast. Messages transmitted and received by the radio headquarters (above) at Ft. Lauderdale aid in directing watching patrol boats in the chase of a fleeing rum ship, one of which, the Nassau, is pictured below.

Fort Lauderdale, Fla. (AP)—Radio is the swift, unseen sentinel that strikes fear into liquor runners now battling to outwit the coast guard of the Florida coast. Their speedy craft able to outdistance the slower patrol boats, the runners have been leaving their feet behind, often to land contraband cargoes. But now they are learning to expect further encounters before traveling far.

For with the sighting of the rum vessel, the patrol boat promptly radios the base here a description, speed and apparent course. Immediately watching boats, dotting the water passages between Florida and the Bahamas, pick up the message and "most nearest" the course dart out to intercept the runner.

In addition, the coast guard also uses two seaplanes equipped with radio to aid in the location of rum runners.

Seldom does the patrol boat first to sight the runner get within distance to use its guns, but the runner soon is given a signal to halt by an intercepting vessel. If this is disregarded, a shot from a one pounder is sent across the bow. This usually brings the runner to a standstill, but if fight as wanted the guardsmen are ready.

There is the recent battle in which three guardsmen were killed. The coast guard boat had captured a runner and was transferring the cargo when without warning liquor smugglers began firing. The radio operator at his key was the first to fall, but enough of his message reached the base here to send Commander B. Gordon and rescue force 30 miles in 40 minutes aboard his special speedboat.

On the east shore of Florida alone, where most of the rum traffic moves, there are more than 400 miles of coast and inlets to which smugglers dash. In some places, the islands serving as liquor bases are no more than 60 miles distant. It is virtually impossible to patrol the entire coast with men and the guard boats could not cope, without wireless, with the fast and smaller liquor vessels.

So the case here, with its central radio station, has as many eyes as it has boats stationed off the lanes of travel, alert and ready to move in any direction the commander may direct to intercept runners reported by radio.

Elizabeth City, Jan. 25.—(AP)—

Wind attaining the velocity of a gale during a sharp thunderstorm last night caused several thousand dollars damage in this section. Barns, trees and sign boards were blown down and highways leading into the city were strewn with debris this morning. Telephone lines in all directions were damaged but service had been restored this morning.

Early reports indicated that the severest damage was wrought along the George Washington highway leading north out of the city. Barns and farm outhouses were reported blown down along this route.

In Elizabeth City, windows were blown out and much relatively minor damage was done.
