LINDY BEGINS HIS 400 MILE HOP BOGOTA

American Flying Ace Took off From Cartagena Field at Nine O'clock.

Cartagena, Colombia, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, off for his 400-mile hop to Bogota, the capital of Colombia, took off from the Boca Grande flying field here shortly before 9 o'clock this morning.

The American flier, who has resumed his good will flight which will carry him to Havana for the Pan-American conference, spent only 19 hours here, having arrived at Cartagena from Panama yesterday at 2 o'clock.

The weather was excellent, although over the mountains hung the customary curtain of fog which was expected to disappear about noon.

The famous Spirit of St. Louis, which received such an enthusiastic greeting from the inhabitants of this port yesterday, was accompanied by a plane from the Andean National Company which will act as an escort for part of the journey.

Before taking off, Colonel Lindbergh told the correspondent that he expected to reach Bogota early this afternoon.

The trail of the Lone Eagle today led inland from the sea over the mountains of Colombia, the mountains and fogs which rise around their rugged peaks made the journey doubly dangerous.

Four hundred miles of flying lay before Col. Charles A. Lindbergh before he reached the secluded mountain capital of Bogota. Bogota, nestled in the shadows of Monserrate and Guadalupe has never entertained a renowned flier, for it had been feared that to invite any one to fly through the banks of clouds which encircle the mountains would be inviting the flier to court disaster. It took Lindbergh four hours and a half to fly to Cartagena from Colon, Panama, yesterday.

He estimated the distance at 400 miles. The weather during the flight was ideal, he said, and a wind at his back helped him make good time.

The greatest crowds ever seen in this city gathered at the flying field. Lindbergh circled it several times and then landed in front of the box of the governor of Bolivar.

Bogota, Colombia, Jan. 27.—Seven hundred soldiers and police today were detailed to Madrid field, 20 miles from here, to await the coming of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh from Cartagena. The large force was turned out in anticipation of a crowd exceeding 25,000.

Early this morning special trains to the field were comfortably filled.

His mother, Mrs. Frederick Lothrop Ames, said today she had talked with him by telephone and that he and his bride would fly back to this city in the same airplane in which he took off last December on a tour of the United States.

The wedding was Wednesday at 4 p. m. in Arizona.

WAKE FOREST PROFESSOR DIED EARLY TODAY

Wake Forest, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Dr. William Bailey Royall, for sixty years professor of Greek in Wake Forest College and for more than a half century a vital and beloved figure in the life of the College, died at five thirty o'clock this morning at his home here.

Dr. Royall, in his eighty-fourth year, has not been active as a teacher of Greek for the past two years, being confined to his room since December 1925. His health has declined rapidly in late months, but to the last he retained his mental vigor and clearness of mind. The immediate cause of his death was cerebral hemorrhage of which he had several during the past year.

The funeral services will take place in the Wake Forest Baptist church Sunday afternoon at three o'clock, it was announced.

M'MULLIN ON STAND TODAY AT OIL TRIAL

Government's Star Witness Examined by Defense Attorneys at Washington.

Washington, Jan. 27.—(AP)—William J. McMillin, the government's star witness in the criminal contempt proceedings against Harry E. Sinclair, William J. Burns and their four associates, underwent examination into his past life today as defense attorneys continued their efforts to discredit his testimony.

McMillin, working as a Burns detective, told the government that Burns agents, employed by Sinclair were shadowing the Fall-Sinclair conspiracy jury. Testifying as a government witness, he has said that Burns officials instructed him to make a false affidavit against Norman J. Glasscock, a member of the oil panel.

Martin W. Littleton, counsel for Sinclair, said an effort would be made to show that McMillin faked all of his reports, to get his salary without working and did it only at his own volition. He said McMillin's charge that Charles G. Ruddy, Burns' manager, directed the making of false reports were untrue, but was composed at Ruddy's suggestion. The false part of his report was that McMillin had followed Glasscock on a long automobile ride for which the witness collected $13 for mileage expenses for a trip he never made.

McMillin added that he reported that he had followed Glasscock to a beach near Baltimore and returned on October 23 and said Ruddy told him to put him (Glasscock) out on a "long sleaz" ride that day.

He said he had made up this false report after looking up maps. He got $20 expenses that day and $18 on October 22 and $15 on October 24 for trips reported, but not made.

"You recall this expense money?" asked counsel for Burns. "Yes." "Did you divide it with Ruddy?" "No. Ruddy paid it to me." "And you kept it all?" "Yes."

WOULD MAKE PAN CONFAB CONCILIATOR

Whether Union Should Function as Non-Political Organ Occupied Attention Today.

Havana, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Whether the Pan-American Union should continue its present non-political function or should assume the added role of conciliator was before the Pan-American conference today.

Detailed articles of incorporation as proposed by the Union itself and widely varying amendments of member nations were up for discussion by the commission charged with preparing an organic basis for reorganization of the Union.

The amendments included those proposing in one form or another that the Union become a conciliator. These came from delegations of Cuba, Salvador and Colombia. The Colombian project envisaged the establishment of a court, somewhat similar to that of the Hague, for the settlement of disputes in this hemisphere.

Another proposal was that advanced by Argentina that the Union concentrate its efforts on a plan of action aimed at the removal of all discriminatory tariff and quarantine barriers to trade between the Americas.

The Argentines thought their leader, Honorio Pueyrredon, ambassador to Washington, announced that they would refuse to accept any plan for organizing the Union which fails to take cognizance of their proposals.

A Mexican proposal for reorganization of the Union, implied criticism of the present organization, the chief Mexican suggestion is alphabetical rotation of the chairmanship of the governing board, a post traditionally held by the Secretary of State of the United States. The same principle of rotation would apply to the office of Director General, now held by a permanent official, Dr. Leo S. Rowe, a United States delegate to the conference.

Efforts of the conference to reach an accord on frontier police and pursuit of criminals across international boundaries failed when it was voted to leave all questions of pursuit up to officials of the adjoining states. This vote in the commission on public international law followed statements by Charles Evans Hughes, chief of the United States delegation, and Gonzales Roa of Mexico, as to the successful cooperation between the United States and Mexico in the policing of the international border. They both opposed taking the matter out of the hands of local authorities and being governed by the conference's decisions.

Mr. Hughes also announced that the United States would refuse to recognize the right of asylum as a principle of international law. It was understood the United States would not become a party to any convention defining the rights of asylum.

Two Men Hanged In Wales Today

Cardiff, Wales, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Two men were hanged today in the heavily guarded Cardiff jail after strenuous efforts for reprieve had failed.

Daniel Driscoll and Edward Rowlands were executed for the murder of David Lewis, a football player. Barriers were erected about the prison. All witnesses and others concerned in the trial were warned to keep off the streets for safety.

T. P. O'Connor, veteran of the British Parliament, led the futile movement for reprieve.

Hickman Says He Is Going To Take The Stand

Los Angeles, Jan. 27.—(AP)—William Edward Hickman upset the plans of his defense attorneys today, defied them to keep him off the witness stand and declared that in the face of their opposition he would tell the jury his story of the killing of Marian Parker.

Discussing with his lawyers the program for the third day of the hearing on his plea of "not guilty by reason of insanity," the youth who has confessed the kidnaping and killing of the 12-year old girl, announced his own plan which his counsel, Jerome Walsh and Richard Cantillon said would seriously hamper the defense.

"We do not want Hickman to take the witness stand in view of his insanity defense and we have told him so," said Walsh. "Of course, if he is determined to talk we cannot stop him, but such a move would seriously injure defense plans."

Other Officers Re-elected at Annual Meeting of Board of Trade Yesterday.

James S. Ficklen was re-elected president of the Greenville Tobacco Board of Trade at the annual meeting of the organization held at Johnston's Warehouse yesterday afternoon at two o'clock. G. V. Smith was re-elected vice-president and K. W. Cobb, secretary and treasurer.

President Ficklen made a brief talk dealing with achievements of the market the past season and offered valuable suggestions for continued growth and expansion.

The Board went on record as favoring August 21st for the opening date of Eastern Carolina markets.

The Board also set seventy million pounds as the goal for the Greenville market next season. This season's goal was sixty million pounds and this has already been exceeded by a million and half pounds.

Aside from the appointment of committees and disposition of regular business, this constituted the high lights of the session.

Last Known Stronghold of General Sandino Is Destroyed By Marines

Managua, Nicaragua, Jan. 27.—(AP)—American marines today were on the peak of El Chipote and the last traces of the rebel General Sandino's occupation of this, his last known stronghold, had been destroyed.

From the crest of El Chipote, a mountain 5,000 feet high, Major Archibald Young, who led the marines in their advance, signalled all was well with them.

Sandino's followers were understood to have been scattered when the marines gained another objective in their campaign to drive the rebels into isolated districts, cut off from food and ammunition. Sandino, who boasted that he would never be driven from El Chipote, was believed to have been wounded in the aerial bombardment which signalled the beginning of the attack on the mountain almost two weeks ago. Aviators who made the attack said 40 rebels were killed in the bombardment.

Vultures, indicating that the rebels had fled in haste leaving their dead unburied, were the only signs of life seen by marines who flew over the district later.

All that has been heard of Sandino since then was a report, never confirmed, that he was slain and later and more definite advices that he was wounded.

Doubting Thomas—Wall St. New Kind of Baby, Not Rum, Money, Not Jail, Europe. (By Arthur Brisbane) Copyright 1927, by Star Co.

Wall Street's doubting Thomases were frightened yesterday, ran away from stocks, let the prices fall. Later they came back and put prices up again.

Fear seized them when Chicago's Federal Reserve Bank raised the rediscount rates to 4 per cent "to curb speculation."

Speculation, polite name for stock gambling, should be curbed. But intelligent financiers might find a better way than making money dear for those engaged in regular business and frightening legitimate investors.

High finance bitterly opposed the Federal Reserve system that has since proved its salvation, and does not know everything.

The dollar has dropped from 100 cents to 60 cents of real value. Wages have gone up, the country's wealth has increased enormously. Regardless of discount rates, sound values will rise, as water does, and find new values and the new dollar find their level.

Cyrus H. K. Curtis' eminently respectable newspaper says "crowds gathered to stare at the home of the eugenic baby."

The interesting little story is not new. A widow lady, unmarried, with no children, decided not to spend a childless old age, and the so-called "eugenic baby" is hers.

Hot Europa was not married, nor Danae, mother of Perseus, temporary bride of the golden rain. The mother of William the Conqueror was unmarried at his birth. The mother of Leonardo never married his father.

In early pagan days, says Mr. Curtis' editor calls "an eugenic baby mother," would have said, "a god visited me," and would have put on his accordingly.

Now she says more simply, "I was determined to have a real interest in life." Morally, religiously and fundamentally it is wrong, for

Trousers Burn; Damage $3,500

Memphis, Tenn. Jan. 27.—(AP)—A negro porter's trousers caught on fire and an estimate today placed the damage at $3,500.

William H. Hulsey, a member of the Hulsey-White Cotton Company was preparing to leave the office yesterday afternoon and the porter brushed his clothes. The negro was standing with his back to a stove a spark from which was believed to have ignited his trousers.

Unaware for the instant that he was on fire, the porter walked into the sample room and while standing near a pile of samples set them ablaze.

The trousers were damaged only slightly.

COMMITTEE BUSY WITH STOCK SALE

Campaign to Get Philadelphia Plush Concern Branch Making Much Progress.

The committee in charge of the solicitation of stock in connection with bringing to the city a branch of a Philadelphia plush manufacturing concern today reported that considerable progress had been made, although the necessary $50,000 worth of stock to make the plant possible had not been subscribed. It was stated, however, that indications pointed to success within a few days and that soliciting would be continued with unabated zeal until this objective had been reached.

Announcement of the proposal of the Philadelphia concern to establish a branch plant in Greenville has been received with more than passing interest by men and women in all walks of life, members of the soliciting committee said. Everybody seems to realize the real and pressing need for additional industries of this kind, and are showing a disposition to put the movement over despite any kind of obstacle.

Both bankers and business men today uttered words of encouragement to those interested in the purchase of the 7 per cent cumulative preferred stock which the committee is offering, and declared it to be an investment not only in a single industry but in the city's future.

If the soliciting committee has not yet reached you be prepared to see them within the next few hours. With other cities anxious to put in bids for the enterprise, it is highly necessary for Greenville to act and act quickly, members of the committee said. It is an assured fact that other industries will be interested in establishing here as soon as this first project is put across, it was argued.

THREE HANG IN LOUISIANA

Three Men to Pay Supreme Penalty Between Noon and Three O'clock Today

Lake Charles, La., Jan. 27.—(AP)—Louisiana had three hangings on its legal calendar today—between noon and three o'clock.

Joe Genna and Molton Brasseur, convicted of the murder of J. J. Erevette, taxicab driver, in Aug. 1926 in Beauregard Parish, where yesterday denied any further stay of execution by Governor Simpson, as was Byron Dunn, sentenced to death for slaying deputy sheriff Sam Duhon, near Slarks, in Calcasieu Parish, in March 1925.

The execution scene for Genna and Brasseur was Deridder, that for Dunn in the Calcasieu Parish at Lake Charles.

"The law must take its course" was the final edict from governor Simpson when relatives of the condemned men made eleventh hour appeals for more respite.

Brevette's body was found in a mill pond near Deridder after he had been stabbed and beaten to death. The state contended that robbery was the motive and Genna and Brasseur lost their plea of insanity before the court.

Byron and Robert Dunn, brothers, were convicted of Duhon's murder after his body and that of W. E. Collins, prohibition agent, were found in the deputy sheriff's automobile near a cemetery. The state at the Dunn residence when they went armed with a warrant to search for whiskey. Robert Dunn's death sentence was commuted to life imprisonment.

POLICE FAIL TO GET CLUE MISSING GIRL

Writer of Ransom Letter Fails to Claim Money For Release Of Miss Smith.

Northampton, Mass., Jan. 27.—(AP)—A ransom letter writer who demanded $12,000 to restore the missing Miss Frances St. John Smith to her grieving parents was at large today, having escaped a police trap.

Despite faithful adherence to the directions contained in a letter to representatives of the Smith family in New York, a package appearing to contain the money went unclaimed.

Had those in the plot sought to snatch it from the designated spot at the foot of a flight of stairs behind a Springfield department store, they would have been surrounded by a squad of policemen.

The supposed money had been placed there by a messenger who left New York on a train which arrived in Springfield at 2:51 p. m. yesterday afternoon, in accordance with instructions from the ransom writer.

He deposited the packet and then registered at a designated hotel to await word which would tell him Miss Smith's whereabouts.

In the meantime the state police took up positions where they could watch without being observed. Their long vigil was unrewarded and late last night the hope that the plotters would appear was abandoned.

Police said the letter had been penned by an educated person.

Various other clues about the New York broker's daughter, missing from Smith college, were run to earth without result. Detectives withheld final decision on the possibilities contained in news from officers of the Savannah line's City of Atlanta that a girl resembling Miss Smith took passage aboard the ship on the night of January 13, several hours after she left the college.

Mrs. St. John Smith is certain that her daughter is alive, she told newspapermen in her first public statement.

"She was a delicate and sensitive soul," said the mother. "I believe she ran away because she felt certain she would fail in her mid-year examinations. I am sure she is hiding somewhere and that we will hear from her."

The girl's uncle James H. Smith, Jr., said that family had not been in touch with anything resembling a gang.

The services of Dr. Lydard H. Horton, of Boston, a psychoanalyst, were engaged by Major Stanley Washburn, spokesman for the girl's family in New York.

Dr. Horton has been asked to piece together the mental state of the missing girl at the time she dropped from sight.

In Olive Hill, Ky., a youth and a girl, hikers, were held when authorities noticed the girl's likeness to that of the Smith college freshman. The girl proved to be Martha Mitchell, daughter of a New York hotel worker.

New York, (AP)—The indoor track and field carnival of the Millrose Athletic Association, annually one of the most colorful fixtures of the winter season, will bring together a galaxy of internationally prominent stars on February 2 at Madison Square Garden.

The meet is virtually an advance showing of Olympic talent, for scores of veterans as well as youngsters hopeful of making the trip to Amsterdam in July are among the entrants. National and college champions study the list of participants, with the West as well as the East well represented.

The unexpected filing of an entry by Dr. Otto Feltzer of Germany gave heightened interest in the meet although his participation was conditional upon action of the Amateur Athletic Union.

Further international flavor is given by the entry of two German walkers in the heel and toe feature. Canada's colors will be carried by several stars, among them Wallace Graham, the Canadian intercollegiate two-mile champion. Lloyd Hahn, king pin of American milers, will meet old rivals in the Rodman Wanamaker Mile, among them Jimmy Connolly of the New York A. C. and Joe Sivak of the Illinois A. C. Ray Comer, former Iowa star, is another entry.

The sprinters will bring together such stars as Fred Alderman, captain of last year's Michigan State team and intercollegiate quarter-mile champion; Karl Wildernuth, the Georgetown sophomore sensation; Folwell Scull, Pennsylvania football star; Frank Hussey, who is attempting a come-back; Al Miller, 200 pound Harvard speed merchant; and Robert Greenwald, the "dark horse" from Silver City, New Mexico.

Herman Phillips of the Illinois A. C., national 440-yard champion, is an entry in the classic Millrose "600" while his team-mate Leo Larrivie, former Holy Cross miler, is a contender for honors in the 1,600 yard event, where he will meet an old foe in McCloskey of the Boston A. A.

Harold Osborn, another veteran and Olympic champion, will meet such seasoned high jumpers as Charlie Major, Anton Burg and Rovert Juday.

Canham, star of the Iowa State two-mile relay team entered in the meet, also will seek individual honors in the half-mile race against "Punkie" Sober of New York and others.

The two-mile field, besides two Canadians in Graham and Keay, numbers Johnny Romig, Jimmy Loucks, Leo Lammard and Ed Kirby among its entries.

SPEAKER MAY GO TO BRAVES

New York, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Baseball tide which shifted Tris Speaker to various major league ports appeared in a position today to carry him back to his first love on the Fenway of Boston.

He has been released from the Senators and there are reports that he is being sought by the Red Sox and Giants.

The Boston setting would bring Tris back to the club where he made his start to fame on the big circuits and with Bill Carrigan at the helm he would be under the orders of his old boss during the pennant days of 1915.

If Carrigan should acquire Speaker to assist the fence busting Ken Williams in providing inspiration for his promising band of youngsters, there is little doubt that the combination would supply a menace of substantial proportions to the other American league clubs.

Speaker was purchased from the Houston club of the Texas league by the Red Sox for $400 in 1907. He played only seven games that season and in 1908 he began with Little Rock of the Southern Association. The current sweep him back to Boston, however, late in that campaign, the Red Sox paying $500 for his re-purchase.

By 1909 he had become a regular outfielder and forthwith started his climb to fame as one of the greatest players in the majors.

TEXAS FOOTBALL STAR AS GOOD IN SCHOLARSHIP

Austin, Tex.—(AP)—The two co-captains of the St. Edwards University football team for next fall rank high in scholarship.

Although football took much of their time in the first semester of the present school year, Sam Dyer, all-Texas conference halfback, made an average grade of 88, and Al Sarafiny averaged 93 while making a record as one of the most dependable centers in the conference.

Both are majors. Dyer is specializing in business administration and Sarafiny in mathematics.

"The Cream of the Tobacco Crop"

"When I am selling tobacco, I average over six sales a minute. This, of course, is a terrible strain on my throat. To protect that, I smoke LUCKY STRIKES. I also know from what I have seen with my own eyes that The American Tobacco Company buyers are interested only in 'The Cream of the Tobacco Crop.'"

"The Russian lady—ah, how she delights in the puff of a fragrant cigarette! As a Russian I have tried them all—the cigarettes of Cairo, Paris, London, Madrid—but here in my adopted country, America, I have found my favorite cigarette 'The Lucky Strike.' In addition to its lovely fragrance and wonderful flavor it has no bad effect upon my voice—so even when I go abroad I carry with me my little trunk of Luckies—and enjoy a puff from America."

GREENVILLE HIGH HOME ECONOMICS 1-A ENJOYS PICNIC

It is winter; the weather cold, but it did not keep one of the Home Economics classes of the Greenville high school from hiking through the woods and spending a very pleasant hour at lunch Thursday.
 The class met at the usual hour and ended the course on the preparation of school lunches by preparing a delightful picnic lunch composed of prune and orange sandwiches, cheese and nut sandwiches, baked caramel custards, hot chocolate and fruit.
 At 12:30 the class, seventeen in number, adjourned to a log cabin in the grove adjoining the Teachers College, where music and stunts were enjoyed. After this the class enjoyed the lunch and returned to school in grand spirits.
 Miss Clarke, Miss Banks and Miss Dear of the college, were our honored guests.

Arabian Serenaders On the Program of East Car Exposition

The Arabian Serenaders, America's foremost entertaining and dance orchestra consisting of eleven pieces, has been booked to play for the Eastern Carolina Exposition and Automobile Show to be held in Goldsboro April 9-13, according to an announcement made by the management recently. This orchestra puts on a program not only of straight out music, but comedy skits, quartette singing, duets, special dances, etc. "In fact they put on a whole show themselves," Secretary Bartlett said. They have never played in eastern Carolina. They will come direct from Chicago for this engagement only. The music lovers of eastern Carolina will have an opportunity to see and hear one of the most versatile organizations perform ever to appear in this section. All of the men in this organization are recording artists of wide reputation. The orchestra will give two concerts daily, afternoon and night.

Fine Hogs Raised in Green County

Weight Average 330 Pounds in Six Months and Fifteen Days.

R. T. Croom, Route 2, Snow Hill, N. C., killed six hogs on January 2nd that totaled 1980 pounds on foot. They dressed 1599 pounds, or an average of 266 5/8 each.
 The pigs were farrowed June 17 and made an average daily gain over the entire feeding period of 1 1/2 pounds. On October 14 they weighed 738 pounds; November 19 their weight was 1145; December 17 they scaled 1645; December 31 the total was 1945. The last two days they put on 15 pounds more. For the last five weeks they made an average daily gain of about 3 pounds each.

Mr. Croom fed a ration of two bushels of whole corn, one hundred pounds corn meal and one hundred pounds of Pig Chow. The cost of producing the pork was nearly nine cents a pound by charging $1.00 per bushel for his home grown corn, instead of the market price, which was considerably lower.
 Mr. Croom used a self feeder made by the boys studying Vocational Agriculture in Snow Hill high school, and the hogs were weighed by E. J. Morgan, teacher of agriculture in the Snow Hill high school.
 This demonstration has created quite an interest throughout the county in better methods of hog raising, especially the marketing of corn through hogs at a better market price.

WRECKED BUILDING CAUSES CAR ACCIDENT

A building which was blown down across the road Tuesday night, was the cause of an accident which is nothing short of a miracle, although not resulting in anything serious.
 The car was driven by A. C. Williams, accompanied by his father, E. C. Williams, with several colored hired hands. The party were on the way to Fountain where they were working, and encountered the trouble near Bruce, on what is known as the Southwood farm. The building was lighted up but the position of the light failed to warn traffic of any danger until it was too late to turn back. When the car struck the building, it turned completely around and made a perfect somersault, without damaging the car or breaking a glass. The car was a closed sedan.
 The occupants suffered only minor injuries and were soon able to continue their journey.

BEST ASKS PUBLIC AID

Head of Salvation Army Advisory Board Here Wants Organization in Better Shape.

W. E. Best, a leading merchant of Greenville, and president of the local advisory board of the Salvation Army, appeals to the public to cooperate in putting over the campaign next week for the support of the Army for 1928. His statement in full follows.
 "It is easy to sell the Army to those who know the less fortunate of our community because they know the closely confined worker generally does not spend his Sunday in church-going, and they know that prayer meeting Wednesday night is largely run without help of the average laboring man. They know the Salvation Army touches this great portion of our community life in many ways and is a directing force toward the churches, and a more useful life in the workers leisure hours.
 "Selling the Army to the man blessed with little contact with the seamy side of life is a harder job because of his very blessings.
 "Ignorance of sadness and sorrow make the work of the Army hard to believe, makes it hard to see the necessity for this work, makes it hard to feel thrice to give money needed to carry on the work here.

"I would like to say on behalf of the finances of the local post that every known old account will be paid out of this campaign, and that there are no past due accounts of recent date. That is in spite of the fact that it has taken more to run the local work than has been taken in here.
 "Let's put a worthy cause in better shape to do its work by relieving it of the worry that is always with the hungry man.
 "With Mr. Sam T. Carson as Chairman of this Campaign and his corps of helpers whom he will surround himself with, we should be able to raise the desired amount asked for of $3,500.00 in a very short time."

YOUR DUTY, DO IT NOW

Almost a week has passed since it was brought to the attention of local citizens that the new bridge over Tar River here is to be built without a walkway under present plans of the State Highway Commission, despite the fact the Commission had formerly advised the Pitt County Highway Commission that a walkway and lighting standards were being included in the bridge plans, yet, so far as we know, the citizens here have done nothing definite about the matter, and the Highway Commission is moving forward with its plans for the bridge minus the walkway and lighting standards.

With the number of pedestrians including hundreds of school children, who use the bridge daily, it is a crime for the State Highway Commission to build a new bridge here without making provision to provide safety for these pedestrians, and it is an equal crime for citizens of our town and county to do nothing but talk a little and not raise a hand to have the situation remedied before the building of the bridge goes further.

In reporting the matter to County Highway Engineer W. H. Rogers, early this week, one of the assistants of the State Highway Commission stated that Commission Frank Page had ordered the walkway and lighting standards eliminated from the plans and that speedy action on the part of citizens to have Mr. Page rescind his action was absolutely necessary if these two items were to be replaced in the plans. The informant, in urging prompt action, stated that specifications for the steel for the new bridge would be sent to the manufacturers within ten days or two weeks and that once these were in, there would be no chance of having the plans changed. Already a week of this time has passed by, and we urge that our citizens give the matters definite attention without further delay. Procrastination on the part of our citizens at this crucial moment means failure in a solemn duty to provide safety for our citizens in the future, and together with the Highway Commission we will be equally responsible for any deaths or serious accidents that occur in the future as the result of no walkway or no lighting facilities on the new bridge. Now is the time to act. Delay may prove fatal.

MAKE OUR DREAMS COME TRUE

Just two days ago, in urging citizens of our city to grasp the opportunity to obtain a manufacturing plant here by subscribing to the stock being offered in the new plush mill, we ventured the statement that once we started along the line of getting industries here, other concerns would soon follow, and ere long Greenville would realize its dream of being the manufacturing center of the east.

At the time of our statement we had no idea that our prophecy would so soon come to pass, but already it has happened, and this should spur our efforts toward rushing to completion our plans laid this week to bring the plush mill to Greenville. The announcement that Greenville was really out after manufacturing enterprises has brought quick results, and today a telegram has been received from another large manufacturing concern that its representatives will be here next Monday to look over our city with a view of locating a manufacturing plant here.

Each new manufacturing plant brought here will not only bring more citizens to our town, but will cause a general increase in all lines and we should lose no opportunity to get these plants here, not that they are willing to come, provided we show in a concrete way that we really want them. The success of the committee now soliciting stock subscriptions for the plush mill will be a clear indication as to whether or not we really want industries here, and the success of the first venture, we are sure, will have much weight with the representatives of the other concern when they visit us next week, and with other who follow the first and second.

We reiterate, Greenville now has an opportunity to make a reality of that of which heretofore we have only dreamed. Opportunity is knocking at our door. Will we awake to our opportunity and open the door, or will we let opportunity pass while we continue our dream?

ABOUT TOWN

"Prominent members of the State Board of Health will be principal speakers at a meeting in the courthouse in this city next Tuesday night to discuss the need of a hospital for indigent colored people of the county." K. T. Furell, superintendent of Public Welfare in Pitt county informed the writer of this column yesterday.

"These addresses should be of especial interest to our people because the situation among the colored population in many parts of the county really is serious. Philanthropic organizations of the nation are perfectly willing to assist in relieving this situation providing our people are sufficiently interested to assist in making the hospital possible."

"Disease can never be cured until medical science is able to penetrate into remote sections where many of these poor people reside. Hospitalization would not only mean relief for the suffering but, would also be a means of furthering health work and increasing longevity."

"What we need in Greenville is more industries with weekly payrolls," emphatically declared John L. Horne, well known business man, discussing the possibilities of Greenville with the writer of this column this morning.

"Right at this time the city has an opportunity of landing an industry of this kind in the proposition of the Philadelphia Plush concern to erect a branch plant in this city."

"It is necessary to raise stock for

Looking Backward

Items Taken From The Reflector Of Twenty and Thirty Years Ago

January 27, 1898.

Jim Starkey doesn't take stock in mules any more, but is now learning to ride a bicycle. Exhibition free every hour.

The whistle of a locomotive can be heard 3,200 yards, the noise of a train 3,800 yards, the report of a musket and the bark of a dog 1,800 yards, the roll of a drum 1,600 yards, the croak of a frog 900 yards, a cricket chirp 800 yards, a dinner bell two miles and a call to get up in the morning three feet seven inches.

Life is neither a tragedy nor a comedy; it is a chore which we can accomplish better by whistling than by weeping.

January 27, 1908.

Quite a number of people were at the Norfolk-Southern depot this morning to see the first passenger train that came through on the new schedule between Raleigh and Norfolk. The train was due at 9:50 but arrived 20 minutes late which was not considered bad for the first trip

Among the locals: Jesse Speight, E. H. Shelburn, W. H. Kilpatrick and Carlos Harris went to Grimesland this morning on the new train. Mrs. Nana Brown returned Sunday evening from Philadelphia where she has been for treatment in a hospital. Hon. L. I. Moore went to New Bern Sunday night. Jesse Smith went to Kinston Sunday evening. Miss Elsie Vincent left on the new train this morning for Simpson, where she has charge of a school. Dr. M. I. Flemming came in Sunday from Hamilton.

Quite a number of people were at the Norfolk-Southern depot this morning to see the first passenger train venture, but from all investigations conducted by our bankers, it is worth the price.

"With more industries every month of the year would be seasons of prosperity for our people. We have very little of the depression felt by other sections even now and with additional money making organizations in operation day in and day out we would never know what it is to feel the hand of old man hard times."

"It is the most gratifying thing in the world to note that various courts of the state are dealing drastically with persons convicted of charges of larceny," a member of the local bar said today.

"This form of crime can never be dealt with successfully until thieves are impressed with the fact that the public is not going to stand for further activities. The courts in enforcing legislation are only giving expression to public opinion, for what are laws but the outcome of a desire of the people to improve their condition."

"Greenville has been a victim of a band of thieves for the last several months. Many of them have been arrested, convicted and sent to the roads, but there yet remains a number who have been able to evade the toll of the law. Justice, although slow at times, awaits them. It is inescapable as fate itself."

"Have you submitted a name for the Greenville baseball club?" A reader inquired of the writer today. We told him we had not but intended to do so before the campaign comes to a close.

Similar questions have been propounded among the streets of the city ever since announcement of the contest to provide a name for the club was given publicity. And the same question will continue to be asked until the name has actually been decided upon.

"I hope the committee will be careful and pick a good cognomen," our reader continued. "We want something snappy so it may be shouted hurriedly without requiring any strain to the vocal organ. A long name would mean that hundreds of our people would suffer from hoarseness the whole season and might probably result in impairment of voice. So for the sake of the people, let's have something short—even a monosyllable would do."

"We want a big crowd out to the double-header basketball game tonight," members of the athletic committee of the high school declared today.

"My Skin Is Hopeless"

You won't say that if you will use the skin corrective that works two ways at once! Your skin must be both cleared and healed. Sulphur is a remarkable skin clarifier, while nothing is better for healing than menthol. The two make a COMPLETE skin corrective, something you have not had before. While the sulphur clears up the pimples, blackheads and eczema blotches, the menthol heals the broken and sore tissue. It's wonderful how this combination works. Long-standing cases of skin troubles are cleared up, often in two or three days' time. Rowles' Menthol Sulphur is inexpensive and all drugists supply it in jars ready to use. Be sure it's Rowles'.

Have you bought your "Mascot Lime" for Tobacco yet? The Tobacco Station at Oxford got an average annual increase of $68.88 per acre for five years. You can get it too by using Mascot. your Mascot Dealer.

What Mr. S. E. Harrington, Ayden wrote us in January 1926

"Last spring several lime agents came to see me and each one thought his lime the best, so in order to find out which was the best I bought some of three different kinds, Mascot, another ground lime, and Burnt Lime. The results were overwhelmingly in favor of Mascot and I do not intend to use anything else but Mascot in the future."

"I used Mascot under a part of a field of tobacco and left the balance unlimed and the part limed with Mascot averaged $558.00 per acre, whereas the other averaged only $358.00 per acre. These figures prove to you why I believe Mascot Lime is the best to be had for tobacco."

"I have ordered lime sower and will use Mascot under all my tobacco crop this year."

Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET.

New York, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Renewed weakness developed in the cotton market today near months touching new low ground for the ground for the movement in mid-afternoon trading and the general list showing new declines of 30 to 39 points.

Demand was less active after yesterday's rally and prices declined under liquidation and local and southern selling, promoted by unfavorable trade advices from Lancashire and talk of further mill curtailment in this country and Japan.

Futures closed easy, 24 to 36 lower; spot quiet; middling 18.40.

GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Broadening of corn export demand with European purchases today estimated at 650,000 to 750,000 bushels gave notable strength at times today to the corn market.

On the other hand, predictions were for very large receipts of corn in Chicago on Monday.

Corn closed firm, 1-2 to 5-8@3-4 cent net higher, wheat 1-8 to 1-2 cent up, oats unchanged to 1-2 cent off and provisions varying from 2 cents decline to a rise of seven cents.

STOCK MARKET.

New York, Jan. 27.—(AP)—The recovery in stock prices continued with increased vigor today as pools resumed operations in a wide assortment of industrials and specialties. Early gains in many instances ran from 1 to nearly 12 points, with more than a score of issues lifted to a new high level since 1920, or longer.

Trading showed a substantial increase in volume.

With news of an increase in the New York Federal Reserve Bank discount rate allayed, at least for another week, and the increase in brokers' loans relatively insignificant, speculators for the advance resumed their operations with confidence. The money market, however, showed a slightly firmer undertone. Call money renewed unchanged at 4 per cent, but banks called about $30,000,000 in loans, presumably for out of town accounts. Time money and commercial paper were slightly higher.

Montana Power was again the individual feature, soaring 11 1-2 points to 145 1-2. A. M. Byers, Hudson Motors, Bon Ami, Vanda-dium Steel, Savage Arms, Moustion Oil and a few others all moved up 4 to 7 points, most of them to record high levels. U. S. Steel common and General Motors, which had been rather sluggish in the morning, developed a sudden outburst of strength in the afternoon but met heavy offerings on the rally and eased off again.

There were only a few soft spots. Adams Express broke 8 points. United Drug 4, and Sterling Products nearly 3. Pathe A sold down to 14, a new low record, in further reflection of the recent commission of the dividend.

The closing was strong. Total sales approximated 2,800,000 shares.

GRAND JURY REPORTS TO COURT HERE

Only Minor Recommendations Contained in Report to Judge Grady Yesterday.

Recommending that some person capable of administering medicine and caring for the sick be placed at the disposal of the superintendent of the county home, the grand jury in this term of Pitt county criminal superior court yesterday presented Judge Henry A. Grady with a report of their investigation of county offices. W. O. GRIMES is the grand jury foreman.

The report contained recommendations only of a minor nature, providing for certain improvements in one or two of the county offices at the court house. The county convict camp was found to be in excellent condition and Superintendent Fancher was highly praised for his work in this connection. It was stated that some competent person was needed at the county home to care for the needs of sick inmates who, from time to time, are confined to their beds, and hence the expression of need for someone to assist the superintendent. The detailed report follows:

"We, the grand jurors of the January term, 1928, of the Superior court of Pitt county, do hereby submit the following report:

"We have passed on all bills that have come before us and made recommendations in all cases that we deemed it just and proper to do. We have visited the various offices and institutions of the county as required by law, to-wit: County home, convict camp, jail, the office of the sheriff, clerk of court, register of deeds, auditor of deeds, auditor, board of education, treasurer, and the welfare officer. All of these with the exception of a few things are in excellent condition and most efficiently managed.

"We have examined the records in the office of the register of deeds, and we find that the system used for the indexing of deeds, mortgages and other instruments is inadequate and obsolete, and that it is highly important to the interests of the property owners of this county that this situation be remedied. In order to do this, we believe that a new index system should be installed in order to meet the growing needs of our county, which we think would relieve the congestion now in the office of the register of deeds. We therefore, recommend that this system now used be supplanted by a new and modern up-to-date index system.

"We further recommend that the ceiling on all of the offices on the bottom floor of the courthouse building be repaired, as was recommended by the grand jury of the August term, 1927, and of the November term, 1927, grand jury of this county. We have visited the county home, and found the conditions here to be very good, and we wish to take this opportunity to commend Mr. Corbett, the superintendent of the county home, for the manner in which the same has been managed and the care which he has given to its inmates. Upon examination by the members of this grand jury it has been ascertained that there is a very great need at the county home for the services of some competent person to administer to the wants and requirements of those inmates, who are from time to time taken ill and confined to their beds, and we recommend that the services of some person who is competent to administer medicine and care for the sick be placed at the disposal of the superintendent.

"We have visited the convict camp, and found that the prisoners have been well cared for, and that the stock and supplies entrusted to the care of Mr. Fancher, the superintendent, were in good condition, and the grand jury wishes also to commend Mr. Fancher for his diligent services in his capacity as superintendent.

"We further recommend that a steel cabinet be purchased and placed in the sheriff's office for the purpose of taking care of the receipt books, and other valuable books which are now placed upon wooden racks in the office of the sheriff, and for which no proper protection has been provided.

"We further recommend that Miss Julia Wingate be re-imposed for expenditure on her part, for an awning which is being used upon the courthouse window in the register of deeds office. We wish to express our appreciation to all of the court officers for the cooperation that they have given to us in the performance of our duties as grand jurors. This the 25th day of January, 1928. W. O. GRIMES, Foreman of the Grand Jury.

Male Quartet Pleases Large Audience Here

The concert by the Imperial male quartet of Chicago, at East Carolina Teachers College last evening, was a brilliant success. The large audience of representative people of the town and of the entire college community, got exactly what they hoped for, great quartet singing, four-part singlet.

The quartet made good their claim, so far as the people here have been able to judge, as one of "America's foremost male quartets." It is a tribute to Greenville that the members of the quartet were pleased with their reception, and it is easily understood why they are active in their return engagements. This is their first visit to this part of the south. They came here from St. Augustine, and tonight give a concert in Raleigh. On this tour they will be absent from Chicago one month, returning to their home city for important engagements.

The program last night was a remarkable combination of songs calling forth various responses from the audience. They seemed to play on the audience as if it were an orchestra, stirring it as they pleased. From the first tones of the Indian love lyric, "Pale Moon," by Logan, with which the program opened, to the last notes of the final encore, an evening hymn, there was appreciation that seemed to bring out the best in the singers.

The imitative numbers were perhaps the most popular. "The Wind in the Chimney," a Bret-Harte poem with musical setting by Parks, "The Church Organ," by Ernest, and some of the encores, especially Eugene Field's "Little Bass Drum." The Boston version of "Old Kentucky Home" brought the house down.

Rarely is a southern audience pleased with northern interpretation of negro spirituals, but the Imperials were more than satisfactory in their singing of these favorites: "Swing Low Sweet Chariot," and "Steal Away Jesus," and with the negro love song, "My Lady Chloe," which, by the way is Victor record number. The old English hunting song "John Peel," arranged by Mark Andrews, was striking. Many liked best the two familiar sentimental numbers, "Somewhere a Voice is Calling," by Tate, and "I Dreamt I Dwell in Marble Halls," from the "Bohemian Girl."

The poets and musicians present perhaps enjoyed most Mendelssohn's setting of Burns' poem, "O Wert Thou in the Cauld Blast," or "Sylvia," by Speaks, or the "Evening Song," by Franz Abt. The solo by Mr. Shipp, the second tenor in the quartet, which was "Calm as the Night," by Carl Bohm, made the audience realize the solo work of these singers could be as good as the ensemble work. Some expressed the wish to hear the first tenor, Mr. Haynes, sing alone, and all marveled at the rich deep tones of the bass, Mr. Johnson, and recognized the excellent leadership of the baritone, Mr. Tufts.

The piano was not used for the quartet except for one number and for one encore, thus giving the ones alone a chance for shading and tones that the instrument often throws.

In the lobby of the campus building were posters and photographs of the stars who will be here within the next month. On one side was an exhibit featuring "The Hastening," with photographs of Charles Rann Kennedy and Edith Wynne Mathison a picture of Mr. Kennedy as "The Carpenter," and a beautiful madonna-like picture of Edith Wynne Mathison as the mother and Margaret Gage as the son, their relationship in the play. This will be at the campus building on the evening of February 8. The large poster of Mary Lewis and the lovely photographs made people feel she was worth coming far to see as well as to hear.

MOLLY O'DAY AND JOHN BOLES HEAD NEW FLEM CAST

A new romantic combination comes to the screen in First National Pictures' big screen version of Harold Bell Wright's classic, "The Shepherd of the Hills."

In the picture, which is to head the bill at White's Theatre next Monday and Tuesday, the lovers are Molly O'Day and John Boles. Miss O'Day recently played opposite Richard Barthelmess in "The Patent Leather Kid" and opposite Milton Sills in "Hard-Boiled Haggerty." Boles was leading man in Gloria Swanson's "The Loves of Guinevere." He is a recruit from musical comedy.

They make a striking pair of lovers and their appearance together in "The Shepherd of the Hills" may lead to other pictures in which they carry the burden of romance. With them in the cast of the picture are such notable players as Alice B. Francis, Matthew Betz, Romaine Fielding, Otis Harlan, Joseph Bennett, Maurice Murphy and Carl Stockdale.

Another pleasing love affair that figures in the dramatic plot of the picture is enacted between another pair of newcomers, Marion Douglas and John Westwood. Miss Douglas is a strikingly beautiful blonde and Westwood, tall, athletic and handsome, was a Princeton youth selected by screen test in a complete canvass of the universities for actors, conducted by First National Pictures.

LAST KNOWN STRONGHOLD OF GENERAL SANDINO IS DESTROYED BY MARINES

(Continued From Page One) able, were destroyed, deserted rebel camps wiped out and the crest gained. The landing of supplies for the marines has struck a snag at the port of Corinto. Stevedores were again on strike after a committee appointed to investigate their grievances reported that none existed. The belief prevails in official quarters that the dock workers are taking advantage of the present political situation in the interior and that the strikers will return to work when labor is sent to Corinto to handle the situation. The steamer Salvador is now in port with a cargo to be unloaded. The United States ship Salinas is also there with supplies for the marines. Naval authorities say that the railway from Corinto to the interior, over which marine supplies move, will be kept open and they will permit no disorder at the port. A bitter battle is being fought by the liberal and conservative press of Managua in regard to the political situation. A suggestion that former President Chamorro should be deported as a disturbing element was made by the Liberal newspapers. The Conservative papers' reply was that General Jose Moncada, former Liberal commander-in-chief, should be deported. They said he was secretly aiding Sandino and that a son of his was a captain in the Sandino forces. General Moncada denied this.

every child is entitled to the concentrated attention of a FATHER AND A MOTHER.

A famous, beautiful dancer decided to be a mother. Without the formality of marriage, and wrote to George Bernard Shaw, whom she never saw. "I have great admiration for your intellect. What a wonderful thing it would be if a child could inherit my beauty and your brain." Shaw, a cynic, but virtuous, is supposed to have replied, "Yes, but suppose the child inherited your brain and my beauty. What a calamity that would be."

Dr. Butler, of Columbia, says "Rain will be the issue in 1928." But it won't. PROSPERITY, the thing that interests wet and dries, will be the issue in 1928. Mechanics getting from $10 to $18 a day want to continue at that rate. Big business men, getting from $10,000 to $18,000 a day, want to continue at THAT rate. Besides, prohibition is here, and is going to stay. And so is bootlegging.

A son-in-law of a United States Cabinet officer, testifies that after his father-in-law handed government oil reserves to a big oil man, that gentleman gave the father-in-law $269,000. Do you think anybody will go to jail in connection with this incident? If you do, you are innocent. He who steals a suit of clothes goes to jail. He who steals a hundred million, goes to Europe.

A tornado "turns over a country school and kills four children," near Nashville, Tenn.

Such a wind would do no damage in a city with houses of steel, brick or concrete.

If some genius would concentrate on "quantity production of houses" as manufacturing genius has done with automobiles, houses would be safe and cheaper than they are now, from skyscrapers to country schoolhouses.

Pilot Brooks, who guided Mrs. Lindbergh through the air to Mexico City in a three-engine Ford plane, didn't quite make the "trip" in one day from Detroit to Miami. But he did fly 790 miles on 20 gallons of gasoline. On the last lap of the trip, going over the Blue Ridge mountains, ice, formed on the tiny "flying flivver," compelled Brooks to turn back. He will start again and succeed.

Those figures, 790 MILES ON 20 GALLONS OF GAS, are amazing, with flying in its infancy.
