HICKMAN IN DEMAND OF TWO COURTS

Sanity Hearing Delayed While Slayer Appears for Murder in Another Court.

Los Angeles, Feb. 1.—(AP)—Trial of William Edward Hickman, and his 16-year old accomplice, Welby Hunt, for the killing of C. Ivy Thomas, in drug store holdup, was continued today until February 15.

The continuance was given by Superior Judge Charles Hardy before the two were scheduled to go to trial.

Bernice K. Walsh, defense attorney, suggested to the court that the present trial of Hickman for the kidnaping and killing of Marian Parker might be completed in ten days.

Los Angeles, Feb. 1.—(AP)—On his twentieth birthday today two Los Angeles courts, in each of which he is accused of a separate murder, demanding the presence of William Edward Hickman.

Opening of today's session of his sanity trial to determine his punishment for the kidnaping and slaying of little Marian Parker was ordered delayed that the youth might appear before Judge Carlos Hardy or the scheduled beginning of his trial for the murder of C. Ivy Thomas, a druggist killed during an attempt of holdup.

Hickman's appearance in the Thomas case in which he is jointly accused with Welby Hunt, his 16 year old confessed accomplice, was declared to be a mere formality. Attorneys previously had agreed to a continuance of the case until after the close of the sanity trial in the Marian Parker charge.

Fifteen defense depositions of witnesses on the peculiarities and "queerness" of Hickman and members of his family have been read into the records in the insanity hearing. A dozen more from other employers, schoolmates and friends of the young slayer remained to be presented.

Sandwiched between these last depositions, his attorney disclosed that of James Parker, Kansas City butcher, who testified that the youth who calmly confessed to the murder of Marian Parker, quit his job in the butcher shop after refusing to kill a chicken for a customer.

One of the first witnesses in support of the youth's insanity plea, his attorneys said, would be his mother, Mrs. W. Hickman of Kansas City. Defense counsel said she would take the stand probably late today, and tell of her mental condition just before Hickman was born, twenty years ago today.

Hickman's father, William Thomas Hickman of El Paso, according to defense plans also will take the witness stand. The attorneys for his son said the elder Hickman accused in some of the depositions of "chasing around with waitresses" would tell about the events of his early married life.

A confession made by Hickman shortly after his capture in Orpan and his return here resulted in his indictment with Welby Hunt for the murder of the druggist.

Thomas was shot and fatally wounded when the youths, both of whom have confessed to staging the holdup, engaged in a gun battle with a police officer. Although Hunt has denied that he fired a shot, the bullet which caused Thomas' death has been identified as the same caliber as the pistol carried by Hunt. Under California law each would be equally guilty regardless of who fired the fatal shot.

Will Ask For Dismissal Of Contempt Case

Washington, Feb. 1.—(AP)—A motion to dismiss the criminal contempt charges against Harry F. Sinclair, William J. Burns and their four associates growing out of the shadowing of the Fall-Sinclair oil conspiracy jury, will be made by the defense either today or tomorrow.

Martin W. Littleton, counsel for Sinclair said today that the move would be made as soon as the defense completes its motions to strike out portions of the government's evidence.

Justice Frederick L. Siddons did not rule today on the motion to strike out the testimony of Charles Burr that part of the report made by William J. McMullin, the government's star witness, while in the employ of the Burns defense agency there false. He said he would rule on Burr's testimony when he ruled on McMullin's.

George P. Hoover, counsel for Sinclair, immediately moved to strike out all of the testimony of McMullin regarding sections of this report which he testified were false and prepared at the direction of Burns officials. This testimony was considered the heart of the government's case.

Someone, Not Trotsky. Dempsey's Two Eyes. Ibanez Sees Four Horsemen. Why Poison Any? (By Arthur Brisbane) Copyright 1927, by Star Co.

Trotsky is supposed to be raising an army of his sympathizers to fight against Bolshevist Bosses that exiled him and other of Lenin's associates.

A fight for supremacy will come some day in Russia, Trotsky probably will not lead it. He is a consumptive, in weak health, and it would take a man with terrific force, mental and physical, the type of Peter the Great or Ivan the terrible to terrorize and organize 200,000 Russian villages into a fighting army.

"The night hath a thousand eyes, the day but one," says an old song. The heavens have a thousand eyes, and Jack Dempsey only two but, millions in the United States as Mr. Rickard will testify, are more interested in Mr. Dempsey's two eyes than in all the eyes that shine above.

Therefore, news that Dempsey is going blind is much more important than the falling of many stars would be.

Financially speaking Mr. Dempsey's eyes are worth more than a million dollars apiece, whereas there is actually no financial value in two "eyes" that shine in the belt or in. Later news, you may be glad to hear, says Mr. Dempsey's trouble is temporary, and will not interfere with his fights as planned.

ISLAND FOLK DO HONOR TO LONE EAGLE

St. Thomas Population Declares Holiday in Honor American Flyer.

St. Thomas, Virgin Islands, Feb. 1.—(AP)—The American Island today celebrated a public holiday in honor of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, who flew here from Maracaibo, Venezuela, over islands and water which have figured large in the history of exploration.

Swinging along a crescent of 1,050 miles, over the coast of Venezuela and the lesser Antilles, Lindbergh made his way with clock-like precision. He passed over dozens of islands, large and small, which became inscribed on the maps of the world with the voyage of Columbus. The flight was accomplished in ten hours and 15 minutes.

Lindbergh flew high. He encountered slight headwinds and a little rain. He said the air was slightly rough, but not enough to hamper his progress.

The chain of the West Indies over which he flew appeared to be very beautiful, he said. He saw no obstacle to aviation along the trail he blazed.

A presidential salute of 21 guns announced Lindbergh's arrival, after the firing of two cannon and the ringing of church bells had heralded his approach.

But even as he appeared there was a short period of suspense as it was feared that he might find the field prepared for his landing unsuitable. Bunkers and other hazards on a golf course three miles west of the city had been leveled to prepare the field. A commercial aviator from Porto Rico made a test flight recently to try it out but refused to risk landing.

Lindbergh, however did not keep the crowd of 2,000 in suspense long. He swooped down upon the golf course and made an excellent landing. From 2,000 throats arose a cheer as the cannon boomed and the whistles of the ships in the harbor shrilled their greetings.

One of the island belles gave Lindbergh a bouquet of flowers as he stepped from the plane. He was welcomed by Captain Walds Evans, U. S. N., retired, governor of the island.

Lindbergh will hop off about 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon for San Juan, Porto Rico, 75 miles away.

San Juan will present Lindbergh with a parchment scroll proclaiming him "A magnificent citizen and guest of honor of the city of San Juan." The city is decorated with flags in his honor. From San Juan he will go to Santo Domingo and then to Haiti.

A mahogany paper weight loaded with metal from the anchor ring of Columbus' flagship, the Santa Maria, will be presented to Lindbergh at Haiti by the Union Sportive Des Societes Haitiennes.

He was given similar sentences in two other worthless check charges, each sentence to run concurrently with the first. The total amount of checks involved was estimated at about $150. BOOST HOOVER AS PRESIDENT

Lowden Campaign Forces Also get Busy in the Political Arena of Nation.

Washington, Feb. 1.—(AP)—The movements in behalf of Secretary Hoover and Frank O. Lowden for the republican presidential nomination were well advanced along parallel courses today by overnight development in the political arena.

The Lowden candidacy was definitely out in the open with the announcement that nomination papers would be filed Saturday in Illinois, where Lowden was once governor. The announcement was made by Clarence F. Buck, of Monmouth, Ill., who signed himself as "manager of the Lowden campaign."

Not long after this development the ten republican members of the house from California met and gave their endorsement for president to Secretary Hoover. The decision of the conference was announced by Representative Curry, dean of the delegation, who said that the states' two senators had not been invited to the caucus. One of them, Hiram Johnson, has in the past been a presidential contender himself.

Submarine Safe After Being Lost Three Days

A close-up and a "long shot" view of the Submarine S-3, which yesterday was reported safe after having been lost since Saturday. The submarine became separated from its convoy off Cape Hatteras, while enroute to Cuba, and was not again heard from until early yesterday morning when it was located off the coast of Florida. These pictures were taken of the submersible at the time she was standing by, ready to aid in salvaging her sister-submarine, the S-4.

IMPRISON TWO SUSPECTS IN BANK ROBBERY

Grady Pugh and Mrs. Nettie Jackson taken to Chatham Jail From Wentworth.

Pittsboro, Feb. 1.—(AP)—Sheriff G. W. Blair of Chatham county today had Grady Pugh and Mrs. Nettie Jackson, locked in county jail after bringing the two prisoners from Wentworth jail, suspects in the holdup of the Bank of Bennett recently.

The two were held in jail following the robbery of a Reidsville jewelry store last week. Police said Bennett bank officials have identified Pugh and that Elton Cizek, had also identified him as participating in the holdup of the Bank of Elton college three weeks ago.

Pugh and the Jackson woman will be taken back to Wentworth on February 13 for a hearing in connection with the Reidsville jewelry robbery and later will be taken to Graham, Alamance county, for hearing in connection with the Elton college bank holdup.

Pittsboro police discounted reports that members of a gang, operating in southern states this winter, would try to free the Jackson woman. The police, however, were seeking to link up probability of one organized gang committing bank, postoffice, jewelry, and automobile holdup, burglary, robbery, and thefts in North Carolina recently.

Ben Pressnell, who shot away the right side of Albert Culler's face recently, is in local jail in default of $10,000 bond, as are his two brothers, charged with larceny. About a dozen indictments recently charged larceny of over 100 automobiles, robbery of stores and several bank holdups. Culler, also in custody, for auto stealing, made several disclosures, when he thought he was fatally wounded, that led local, state, and federal officers to conduct a closer investigation of the terrorizers.

Wentworth, Feb. 1.—(AP)—Will Retney, held in local jail, today, is suspected of having been one of three who held up the Bank of Bennett employees recently, and may be taken to Pittsboro where Grady Pugh and Mrs. Nettie Jackson are held for the same crime. Bank officials will be asked to identify him.

PROGRESS CLAIMS LAST WHITE HOUSE CAB

Washington, Feb. 1.—(AP)—Progress finally has claimed the last of the white house horse-drawn cabs.

The coach which once conveyed distinguished visitors of the President and more recently was used by White House housekeepers, has been ordered to the army stables along with the faithful mare which hauled the cab. In their place is a late model automobile.

Tom, the old negro coachman, who ceremoniously guided the cab, had laid away his larch silk hat to engage in other duties.

Submarine S-3 Reports to Navy

Washington, Feb. 1.—(AP)—The submarine S-3, which was cut off communication with other vessels from last Saturday until Monday night, reported to the navy department last night that she was proceeding through crooked island passage and expected to arrive in Guantanamo bay today.

The message, made public today, said that the craft encountered severe storms enroute down the coast but gave no further details.

Crooked island passage is about 200 miles north of Guantanamo Bay.

ROAD WORK TO BE COMPLETED DURING YEAR

State Highway Commission Says This Will be Last Year of Extensive Road work

Raleigh, Feb. 1.—(AP)—State Highway Commission officials today reiterated their statement, made last week at the last road letting that this year probably will be the last one to see road building in the state on an extensive scale.

Proceeds from the 30 million dollar bond issue voted by the last legislature probably will be exhausted during the present year.

Assistant state highway chairman Witherspoon today said, however, that a maintenance plan was in process of formation whereby the maintenance department would keep building roads under a finance program of obtaining resources from the gasoline fund.

The state highway commission stood indignant today after resolving to abstain from requesting any additional bond issue for construction of the state highway system.

Since the road building program was started, 115 million dollars have been appropriated by the legislature in 1925, 20 million in 1926, and last season, 1927, an additional 20 million dollars.

An eight million dollar surplus was available to the commission last year for construction after all other charges upon current revenue of the commission had been paid and more is expected this year, to go into the maintenance road building plan.

The next road letting probably will be in March when bids on the Cape Fear and northeast river at Wilmington probably will be called for, Mr. Witherspoon said.

One Killed In Gun Fight

Anderson, S. C., Feb. 1.—(AP)—L. L. McAllister, 46, is dead and Gus Mitchell, who is alleged to have fatally wounded McAllister by striking him with a fist, is in a local hospital as a result of a disagreement between trustees of bishop's branch school north of here.

DEATH COST IS HIGH IN NEW JERSEY

Jersey, Most Expensive State in Which to Die and N. C. Least Expensive.

New York, Feb. 1.—(AP)—The most expensive state in which to die in New Jersey and the least expensive is North Carolina, says a report of the advisory committee on burial survey, made after a two-year investigation.

The report gives Newark, N. J., as the city in which funerals are the most expensive, the average cost there being $493.

The costs in the United States have risen until now they absorb a major part of the small estates, says the report; in some instances 62.1 per cent of the monies left by the deceased being used for funeral expenses.

The survey lays the responsibility for this situation on excessive emotionalism of the bereaved family and the "disorganized and wasteful" condition of the funeral industry. The solution it suggests is elimination within the industry of its weaker and more inefficient members, and cooperation of the clergy and agencies dealing with the bereaved families in educating people of limited income to keep funeral expenditures down.

Figures for funeral costs in other cities were given as: Philadelphia, $483; New York City, $452; Cleveland, $403; Detroit, $392; Chicago, $381; St. Louis, $351; Baltimore, $349; Louisville, Ky., $238; and Nashville, Tenn., $233.

These figures and the conclusions of the report are drawn from an examination of 15,100 funeral bills obtained from 2,870 decedents' estates in New York, Brooklyn, Chicago and Pittsburgh, 8,328 industrial policy holders from various sections of the country, 2,123 claims for burial expense filed with the United States veterans bureau and 319 widows applying for pensions to the New York board of child welfare.

Funeral expenses are relatively higher among low-income groups than the well-to-do, says the report, and are higher in the north and east than in the midwest and south and higher in the cities than in the small towns.

The survey was financed by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, and carried on by an amendment board of 40 clergymen, physicians, lawyers, social workers, journalists and funeral directors under the direction of Lawson Purdy, secretary and general director of the charity organization society of New York.

Revised by Pulmotor. Winston-Salem, Feb. 1.—(AP)—The efficient use of a Pulmotor today has credited with saving the life of Mrs. E. A. Tucker as the local woman at a Winston-Salem hospital recovered from the effects of deadly gas fumes. Mrs. Tucker, after she had been overcome by fumes from a tube detached from a gas heater was revived in about 30 minutes. She was taken to a hospital for treatment.

LONDON PAYS LAST TRIBUTE TO GEN. HAIG

Thousands File Past Body of Military Leader at St. Columbia's Church Today.

London, Feb. 1.—(AP)—Within the brick walls of St. Columbia's church, Belgravia, into which the whirl of London's traffic came only as a faint hum, the body of Earl Haig, leader of Britain's armies in the world war, lay in solemn state today.

All day thousands of his countrymen and women filed reverently by the bier with quiet footsteps in silent tribute to their dead.

A motionless figure in the uniform of the royal horse guards stood with head bent over sword at each corner of the coffin as the line of mourners made its way past. The body of the field marshal. In the sorrowful procession were former service men, some of whom limped painfully, women who came almost automatically to the gesture of salute and others who bowed their heads as if in prayer.

At the head of the coffin lay the field marshal's baton and helmet and from its side hung his jeweled and embroidered sword belt. Atop the bier were two massive wreaths of Flanders poppies. They were laid there just before the doors of St. Columbia's were opened to the public and the hands that placed them were those of Lady Haig who brought them to the church in her arms and then remained alone with him for a few moments in silent grief.

Men in the waiting queue which stretched for a long distance outside the church raised their hats as she drove away.

Crimson poppies of Flanders today surrounded the body of Field Marshal Earl Haig. They were the tribute from the world to the general, who led the British forces to victory over the blood-stained fields of France.

It was Lady Haig's wish that all wreaths and floral tributes should consist of Flanders poppies. The sale of these poppies which are made by wounded former service men, swells the funds of the soldier organizations. This even in death, Earl Haig continued his work begun after the war of aiding the men who fought under him.

London had opportunity today to pay tribute to the field marshal at St. Columbia's church, where until tomorrow his body will lie in state. At this church, with which he was long connected, a private requiem will be held for Earl Haig's family and friends Friday morning.

After the private services Great Britain will pay final honors to the great war leader in Westminster abbey. A military funeral will be held, the cortege passing Constitution Hill, the Mall, Horseguard's Arch and Whitehall, all places associated in centuries with the national life of Britain.

The Prince of Wales, Marshals Foch and Petain of France and representatives of the nation and the army will attend the funeral in the abbey. From the abbey, the field marshal will be taken to Edinburgh, Scotland. The body will lie in state at St. Giles Cathedral until Monday night. Later he will be buried as he desired, at his estate at Bernersyde, bought for him by a grateful country after the war.

Gun Shipment Causes Stir In Hungary

Geneva, Feb. 1.—(AP)—Investigation of the mysterious arrival of 2,000 machine guns on the Hungarian-Austrian frontier alleged to have been destined for Hungary, discovery of which has caused much commotion of political circles in Europe appears scheduled to come before the League of Nations.

It was announced today that the machine gun incident will be the subject of notes from the little entente powers to the League since shipment of arms into Hungary is in violation of the treaty of Trianon by which peace was established between Hungary and the allied powers.

BIG OIL DEAL UNCOVERED BY SENATE BODY

Investigating Committee Brings Out Facts About big Deal Made by Sinclair.

Washington, Feb. 1.—(AP)—A deal by which the Sinclair Crude Oil purchasing Company bought from the Continental Trading Company for $400,000 a contract which saved it $2,000,000 was disclosed today before the Senate committee investigating the disposal of the profits of the hastily formed and now dead Continental concern.

The Continental whose guarantors included Harry F. Sinclair and Robert W. Stewart, chairman of the board of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, had contracted to sell oil to the Sinclair Company for $1.75 per barrel. It had paid $1.50.

A. L. Carlson, secretary and treasurer of the Sinclair crude, who was placed under severe fire by Senator Walsh, democrat, Montana, the committee prosecutor, finally testified to the $400,000 contract, but told the committee in answer to a question as to its origin, that "he did not make it."

Part of the profits of the Continental Company, the government officials, found their way to Albert B. Fall after he leased Teapot Dome to Harry F. Sinclair.

Washington, Feb. 1.—(AP)—Senator Walsh of Montana, the Teapot Dome prosecutor, opened fire again today on A. L. Carlson, secretary and treasurer of the Sinclair Oil Purchasing Company, at Senate hearings to determine the disposition of the profits of the extinct Continental Trading Company, Ltd. of Omaha.

This company is said to have made millions out of oil deals and the government has contended that part of the funds found their way to Albert B. Fall after the lease of Teapot Dome to Harry F. Sinclair, one of the guarantors of the Continental's contracts.

After the Continental had purchased oil in the United States for $1.50 a barrel, it has been testified, it contracted to sell it back to the Sinclair Company at $1.75, on the same day, and Carlson held this was proper.

"When you signed the contract with the Continental Trading Company what did you know about its financial affairs?" the Montana Senator said.

"Nothing," Carlson replied. "If I should walk into your office and ask you to sign a fifty million dollar contract with a Montana company, would you do it without investigation?"

"You will note that it was guaranteed by our principal directors." "Who are they?"

"Mr. Sinclair and Mr. Stewart," Robert W. Stewart, chairman of the board of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana.

"Now we have some kind of a reasonable explanation," Walsh observed. "Had you ever heard of the Continental Trading Company before?"

"No sir." "What did you know about the contracts made of May 26, 1923, by which the Sinclair Crude and the Prairie Oil and Gas acquired the Continental Trading Company?"

"I knew nothing of it until it was presented to us for purchase." "At that time what amount of the thirty-three million barrels of oil had been delivered?"

"3,971,711 barrels" previous testimony showed that 33,333,333 barrels of oil was contracted for by the Continental from the Humphreys interests in Denver.

"That was your part?" "Yes." "And the Prairie Oil and Gas?" "I don't know but they took more than we did."

As the democratic prosecutor fired away at him, Carlson leaned back in the witness chair, answering in a low voice.

HUGH JENNINGS PASSES AWAY

Former Ball Player And Lawyer Died Early Today After Valiant Fight for life

Scranton, Pa., Feb. 1.—(AP)—Hugh Jennings is dead. After 35 picturesque years on the diamond and career as a lawyer, followed by a long battle for health, the end came at 1:15 o'clock this morning in the city where he was once a breaker boy in the Anthracite mines. He was 57 years old.

Captain of the famous old Baltimore Orioles, Hugh Ambrose Jennings later for 14 years was manager of the Detroit American league club which secured its only pennants, three during his regime. He led the Tigers to championships in 1907, 1908 and 1909 and his "ee-yah" and pulling grass on the coaching lines delighted fans.

At the close of the 1920 season, Jennings turned over the Detroit helm to Ty Cobb and became assistant manager of the New York Giants under John J. McGraw. Jennings came in for a big share of the praise for the success of the Giants during the succeeding campaigns. When the Giants annex the National league championship in 1924, it was the seventh World series for Jennings. In his playing days he was first a shortstop, then a first baseman.

In 1925, Hughes' health failed and in the following spring he entered a sanitarium at Asheville, N. C., for treatment for tuberculosis. After a bout three months at the sanitarium he returned to his home in Scranton. Illness had obliged him to give up his duties as McGraw's assistant.

His last illness took a serious turn on Friday when he was stricken with meningitis. He became unconscious and except for a brief intervals remained in a state of coma until he died.

Members of his family were with him when he died. Jennings came to Scranton from the Pocono mountains Friday to attend a meeting of the traders bank, of which he was a director. He had not missed a meeting of the board for 36 consecutive weeks, on reaching his home, however, he complained of being ill.

Jennings had always taken an active interest in the civic, social, and business life of the community. He was affiliated with the Knights of Columbus, the Elks, the Kiwanis club and the Fox Hill Country Club. He was a member of the Congregation of St. Peter's Cathedral and of the Holy Name Society. He also was a member of the Phi Delta Theta Fraternity.

SPORTS SLANTS

By ALAN J. GOULD

By ALAN J. GOULD

Associated Press Sports Editor. New York, Feb. 1.—(AP)—If Mary K. Browne has as she says, adapted a watchful waiting policy so far as her reinstatement as a golf amateur is concerned, she will be length of the usual three-year good conduct period prescribed by the United States Golf Association.

Miss Browne has been quoted as saying she won't ask for reinstatement but the United States Golf Association made it clear today that no action is possible on her status without a formal application to lift the ban imposed last April after the former tennis champion toured the country with Suzanne Lenglen and the rest of the C. C. Pyc professional troupe.

This is how Miss Browne set forth her case recently in the Cleveland News:

"They said I was ineligible and it's up to them to make me eligible. I have never been a professional in golf no matter what they said I have never considered myself as a golf professional. Of course, I'm anxious to be allowed to play in all these tournaments but it's up to them. Under the circumstance I do not care to go begging before the U. S. A. I have seen reports that I have asked or would ask for reinstatement but I do not intend to ask for it."

The association's point of view, as expressed by H. H. Ramsey, new vice president and chairman last year of the committee that ruled Miss Browne out of the amateur competition, is this:

"We cannot consider the status of Miss Browne or of any other ineligible player without actual application for reinstatement. Obviously the U. S. G. A. cannot go about the country calling the roll of ineligible players, asking whether they wish to be considered for reinstatement, especially if the usual three year good conduct period has not yet elapsed. If an exception to this rule were to be made in Miss Browne's case, and I do not know that it would, it could not be considered without an application from her. We have no controversy with Miss Browne. We have had no word from her since our action last spring. I went over the case thoroughly with her then and I think she understands our position."

So it would seem that unless Mary changes her expressed position there is no prospect of her returning to the amateur golf fold this year, or, possibly until 1930.

The prospective debut of Dr. Otto Peltzer in the Millrose track and field carnival tomorrow night will be in sharp contrast with the first American indoor appearance of that other famous European runner, Paavo Nurmi, in 1925.

The German star's schedule calls for an 800 meter run against competition that is not likely to give him more than a good warmup. Paavo not only tackled two races on the same night at distances of one mile and 5,000 meters but met the best this country could produce and won both events in record breaking times.

The picture of Nurmi's finish in the mile on that occasion three years ago in the old Madison Square Garden is one of the most vivid in track and field history. Joe Ray, Lloyd Hahn, Jimmy Connolly and other stars are well out to "get" the flying Finn. They alternated in setting a killing pace designed to upset Nurmi's customary clock-like performance but this strategy failed. Instead of killing off the Finn, the Americans killed off themselves. When the final lap came, Nurmi ran circles around his opponents and finished, as the hushmen say, going away. Ray, open-mouthed and gasping, staggered home in second place.

Peltzer has not had so much time as Nurmi to equip himself for indoor racing but the German star, by running a half mile last week in Los Angeles, in 1:56 4-10, demonstrated he has kept himself in good form.

Joe Ray, contemplating a comeback this year, apparently hopes to shake off the Olympic jinx that has upset the little Chicago veteran. Joe was a member of the 1920 and 1924 Olympic teams but injuries and illness kept him each time from showing anything like his form at home. His last Olympic trip was sandwiched between two or Ray's greatest seasons, 1923, when he swept everything before him at home, and 1925, when he was spurred on by Nurmi's invasion to run a mile in 4:12, the fastest any American has ever turned in.

To Enlarge Yankee Stadium.

New York, Feb. 1.—(AP)—Already the largest baseball park in the country in point of seating capacity the Yankee Stadium will undergo extensive alterations this spring to provide accommodations for a total of 75,000 more or less dyed in the wool fans.

Construction of a $350,000 addition to the present stands will begin tomorrow, Yankee officials announced today, thus increasing the present seating capacity of 65,000 by 7,000, standing seats will bring the total capacity to around 75,000. The additional seats will be provided by extending the mezzanine floor and upper two tiers of the present left field stand.

To Pick "First Five" Ranking Tennis Players

George Lott (upper left) of Chicago and John Hennessey (upper right) of Indianapolis may be ranked in the exclusive "first five" when the annual rating of American players is announced February 11. "Big Bill" Tilden (center) is sure to head the list for the eighth straight time, with Manuel Alonso (lower left) and Francis T. Hunter (lower right) rivals for the runner-up position.

By F. G. YONBURGH

Feature Service Sports Editor. New York, (AP)—Two young middle-westerners who downed French opponents in 1927 and may be called upon to do it again this year are sure to figure high in the ranking of American players to be announced by the United States Lawn Tennis Association in Chicago February 11.

Certain of making the first ten, George Lott, Chicago youth of 21, and John Hennessey of Indianapolis are even conceded a chance of breaking into the first five, a class usually occupied by seasoned veterans. While young, however, neither Lott nor Hennessey is a newcomer to big-time tennis. Hennessey ranked seventh in the country and Lott ninth in 1924, while the Chicago player was No. 9 again last year.

On the basis of their sensational work last season, marked by a victory for Lott over the great Rene Lacoste, present king of them all, and for Hennessey over Henri Cochet, Lacoste's competitor, these youthful stars probably will be rated at least a notch or two higher than ever before.

In A. Wallis Myers' "World's First Ten" Bill Tilden, who is sure to be first for the eighth successive time, topped the Americans, with Manuel Alonso second, Francis T. Hunter third, Lott fourth and Hennessey fifth. It is hard to see how the U. S. L. T. A. can alter this lineup of the first five.

The next five is not so easy to predict, especially if the tennis governing body sees fit to include such players as Bill Johnson and A. H. Chapin, Jr., who played so little tournament tennis, there is little basis for ranking them.

Besides Johnson and Chapin three other members of last year's first ten—Takeuchi Harada, Edward G. Chandler and Brian I. C. Norton—practically have forfeited their chance for ranking because of inactivity.

For the last five places in the new first ten there is red-hot competition between such young stars as Lewis N. White, John Doe, John Van Ryn, Arnold Jones, William Allison, Fritz Mercier and Frank Shields.

White, the handsome Texan, who was sixth last year, probably will hold that rating having beaten out the young Californian, Doe, for the place by defeating him twice during the last season.

In similar fashion Manuel Alonso has re-asserted a right to his old place as runner-up to Tilden, at the top of the list. Francis T. Hunter, who hadn't made the first ten since 1923 and ranked but twelfth last year, was coming fast and appeared sure to be rated second to Tilden, his doubles partner and close friend, until the Philadelphia Spaniard defeated him at Newport late in the season. Even yet he might be accorded second place on the basis of a truly remarkable triumph at home and abroad.

There is a story in the reappearance of John Hennessey among the top ranking stars. In 1924 when he ranked in the first ten he was handicapped by a somewhat frail physique, but with the aid of plenty of tennis he developed a ruggedness of frame and a stamina which enabled him to down the tenacious Henri Cochet in the national championships in a long-drawn five-set match.

This feat ranked second only to Lott's victory over Lacoste at Southampton, N. Y., and over Tilden early in the year in Florida, among the major upsets of the year.

In addition, both Hennessey and Lott were victorious over members of the French Davis Cup team in doubles.

TRACK STARS GATHERING IN N. Y. TODAY

New York Feb. 1.—(AP)—The influx of track luminaries for the annual games of the Millrose A. A. in Madison Square Garden tomorrow night, was on in full blast today. Sharing the interest caused by the arrival of athletics was the conference of the Foreign Relations committee on the amateur athletic union with Dr. Otto Peltzer to rule on the petition of the German runner to participate in the Millrose carnival and two other track meets in this country.

In the event of a favorable attitude on Dr. Peltzer's request, the invading middle distance star will compete in the special 800 meter race along with Johnny Holden, of New York, A. C. Chester McKean, of the Boston A. A. Johnny Thebold, of the New York A. C. and Carl Lefebre, of the Millrose A. A. Lefebre raced against Peltzer in Germany.

Lloyd Hahn, sensational flyer of the Boston A. A., is ready for the mile event which will bring him up against such track notables as W. C. Spencer, of the 1924 Olympic team; Ray Conner, National mile champion, and Joe Sivak, of Chicago.

Anton Burg, of the University of Chicago, and All-American selection, will compete in the high jump. In addition to racing in the Millrose meet, Dr. Peltzer seeks entry to the Illinois A. C. meet in Chicago February 16, and the Knights of Columbus games here February 29.

Shows Greenville Hub of Eastern North Carolina

A map recently prepared by H. L. Rivers, local engineer, for the Merchants Association shows conclusively that Greenville is the hub of eastern North Carolina and situated in the center of a population of approximately a million persons. The map shows Greenville as the center of the east and gives the distances to all other cities in the section. A check up of the population of the counties included in the territory within a fifty mile radius and a hundred mile radius reveals that within the fifty mile radius of Greenville there are over 400,000 persons while within the hundred mile radius there are approximately a million. With seven hard surfaced roads leading to and from Greenville in all directions business houses here believe that Greenville will continue to grow as the shopping and distributing center of eastern North Carolina. The newly made map is to be used by the advertising committee of the Merchants Association for the purpose of advertising Greenville while reproductions will be used by the individual business houses on all their correspondence with outside concerns.

In that the map graphically portrays Greenville's great advantage from the standpoint of location, it is believed by the association advertising committee that the above outlined scheme will do much to attract attention and interest to Greenville, "The Hub of Eastern Carolina."

ABOUT

"Several new cases of smallpox were reported in Pitt county this month, and if you haven't been vaccinated you should be at once," declared Dr. W. E. Putrell, director of the Pitt County Department of health this morning.

"Vaccination is the only practical and safe way to immunize yourself against contagion from this dread infection. Several hundred persons have taken advantage of vaccinations give by the Board of Health the past two months and a big percent of these no doubt were saved from the disease.

"If you were vaccinated and didn't get a take you should try it again.
It is in this way alone that you will be able to feel perfectly safe and secure."

"The coming to this city April 6th of Walter Johnson and his crew of Newark baseball players has attracted more than general interest in this part of the state," numbers of the local baseball club of the Eastern Carolina league said today and indications point to one of the greatest crowds ever attending a ball game in this city.

"Johnson will be the big drawing card himself. He is truly one of the greatest idols of present day baseball. Outside of Ruth and Gehrig his position is more eminent than any other ball player in the world.

"Johnson will come to this city prepared to give New Haven the fight of their lives. He has been in baseball long enough to know what it takes to make a successful ball club and if he doesn't give the New Jersey City the best team it has ever had, then it will be no fault of his.

"This exhibition contest will be a fitting beginning of baseball activities in this part of the state.
A few days afterward the Eastern Carolina league will open and everybody will be infected with baseball fever. Then, to members of the local club will be on the field by April 6th and will have an opportunity of seeing class AA circuit in action."

"I don't know what the average business man thinks of the proposal of the Philadelphia Plush concern to establish a branch factory in this city, but I believe it to be a proposition that would do much for the ultimate expansion of Greenville," E. B. Higgs, pioneer business man and landowner told members of the Greenville Rotary club in session here Monday evening.

Mr. Higgs is probably one of the best known men in this part of the state having been closely affiliated with business interests of this city for numbers of years. He is well informed upon subjects pertaining to industry and an expression from him upon any matter is always greeted with interest locally.

He believes northern capitalists have their eyes turned southward today and that they are ready to invest in communities offering the greatest possibilities. Greenville for a long time has been desirous of attracting manufacturing enterprises, and now the opportunity for the acquisition of one is at hand, nothing should be left undone until success has been absolutely assured.

Mr. Higgs is right as he always is.
We need this enterprise and our business men should not rest until it has been made an actuality.

"Speakers at the public health meeting held in the court house in this city last night graphically portrayed conditions as they affect the indigent colored man in North Carolina," a local citizen remarked today.

"These men have investigated the situation and know there is nee of hospitalization for those unable to provide for themselves. They say philanthropic organizations up north are willing to do their part by each community providing those communities are desirous of helping themselves."

"Greenville gave liberally to the Salvation army drive for $3,500 with which to complete this year's budget," Samuel Carson, director of the soliciting campaign said today.

"The work that is being done by this organization is appreciated by Greenville people. The majority of us know the army workers penetrated sections where other organizations are unable to reach. This has been the case for numbers of years and it is the same today.

"The record of the Salvation army during the world war is enough to cause any liberal minded man and woman to give freely to them when ever they ask for aid.

"The local post is doing commendable work among the poor of this city and with funds made possible through their campaign there is every reason to believe activities will be more extensive than ever before."

SICKLY BOY, 7, GAINS
15 LBS.—FARTHER HAPPY

"My boy 7, would not eat. I gave him Vinol and the way he eats and plays now makes me happy. He gained 15 pounds."—J. P. Andrews.
Vinol is a delicious compound of cod liver peptone, iron, etc. The very FIRST bottle often adds several pounds weight to thin children or adults. Neverous, easily tired, anemic people are surprised how Vinol gives new pep, sound sleep and BIG appetite. Tastes delicious.

Looking Backward

Items Taken From The Reflector Of Twenty and Thirty Years Ago

February 1, 1898.
FOUR YOUNG MEN OFF
FOR BUSINESS COLLEGE

Isaac A. SURE Jr., son of Col. I. A. Sugg, Edward Flanagan, son of Mr. John Flanagan, Ashley Thigpen, son of County Treasurer J. A. Thigpen, all of Greenville, and Staton Peal, of Martin County left today for Macon, Ga., to enter business college to prepare for business in life. These young men are of good material and The Reflector extends to them best wishes for success.

Didn't Need A Gun
H. F. Keel tells us that a few days ago two hunters were shooting partridges in the field near his house. They flushed and fired into a covey when the birds flew directly to his house, three of them landed on the front porch, where his children went out and picked them up. He says that the hunters were so ugly they actually scared the birds nearly to death, making it easy to catch them. The story was told at the expense of two local sportsmen. It is a fact, though, about the birds flying into his porch and his children picking them up.

remained open until four o'clock in the afternoon.
The standing of the three high constants in the voting contest for the most popular school teacher in the county was as follows:
Miss May Brooks 602
Miss Lillie Bennett 395
Miss Verda Waldrop 387
The contest was being staged by the Acolian Band and a gold handled umbrella was to be awarded to the teacher with the most votes at the end of the contest.

Among the Winterville items was the following:
E. F. Tucker, one of our rural free delivery carriers, is detained at his home on account of lagrippe.

The management of White's Theater announces the showing of the first showing south of John Gilbert and Gretna Garbo's latest co-starring picture, "Love" taken from the story Anna Karenina by Lyof N. Tolstol.

"By far the most talked of picture in Boston is 'Love,' which is showing at Lowes Orpheum. Despite a general dullness for the week at other theaters Lowes smashed all records in its showing of 'Love'.

The picture has taken Boston by storm and will be shown again in some of the first run houses before the season is over."

Gilbert-Garbo admirers, and there are many of them are still clamoring to pay 50c to $1 to see "Love" at the Embassy, New York City.

"Love" is immensely popular at the million dollar theatre in Los Angeles. There is a steady line of ticket buyers at the box office during the afternoon and evening.

"Love" comes to White's for two days showing on Monday and Tuesday, February 6 and 7.

PUBLIC HEALTH EXPERT SPEAKS IN GREENVILLE

Dr. W. T. Byerly Addressed Public Meeting at Court House Here Last Night.

Dr. W. T. Byerly, of Raleigh, representing the North Carolina Extension Department of the State Board of Health, was the principal speaker at a public meeting held in the court house in this city last night to discuss public health problems as they relate to the indigent negro population of the state. He gave considerable information regarding the fight waged against tuberculosis, and urged that more attention be given to such cases existing among colored people.

The meeting was attended by a fairly good crowd and considerable interest prevailed in a report of the negro hospital at London presented by Professor Reed, head of the institution. The speaker said sixty per cent of negroes of the state were not able to pay for hospital attention; thirty-five per cent are able to pay for two weeks of treatment and only five per cent are able to defray all of their expenses. The hospital was established about fifteen years ago, and since the time has done much work in behalf of the indigent class of negro. Debt, however, has been incurred and the public has been called on to render all financial assistance possible.

Other speakers of the evening were Mrs. T. A. Person and K. W. Cobb. They expressed need of hospitalization for the colored man said the Wilson institution should be supported.

Speaking of tubercular health work at the State Sanatorium, Dr. Byerly said figures showing the present condition of patients remaining at the Sanatorium varying lengths of time and discharged previous to January, 1927, speak eloquently of the need of an early diagnosis.

"Of 863 early stage cases of tuberculosis 92 per cent are living and 86 per cent are working; of 1,241 moderately advanced cases 58 per cent are living and 44 per cent are working; of 1,018 far advanced cases 27 per cent are living and 13 per cent are working. Of the early stage cases which remained in the Sanatorium long enough for their disease to become arrested all are living and working with the exception of two who met accidental death. If all cases of tuberculosis could be found in the early stage and if all would take the proper rest treatment, practically all patients could be cured before they became a source of danger to others.

"The purpose of the extension department of the North Carolina Sanatorium is to educate people of the state in regard to the prevention, early discovery and cure of tuberculosis. Two full time clinic physicians held diagnostic clinics throughout the State and the services of these two physicians are available at any point in the State.

"You have had clinics in this community and you must realize they have been a success. A clinic is conducted at the Sanatorium practically every morning in the year except Sunday. Any physician in the state can send any doubtful case of tuberculosis for further examination on and diagnosis free of charge to this clinic. It is necessary to write for an appointment.

War Leader Dies

Earl Haig (above), commander-in-chief of the British armies in France during the World War, passed away at his home in London after a heart attack. Haig's military career was sensational after he had attracted the attention of Lord Kitchener in the Sudan. He succeeded General Sir John French as chief of the British Field Forces in the late war.

Salvation Army Gets About Half Of Budget Fund

The Salvation Army home service appeal has received a little over half the amount asked for up to Tuesday night. The workers are still in the field to reach goal.

Mr. Coy advises that our people are responding generously to the appeal for funds, to carry on the Salvation Army program in Greenville.

However, it is almost impossible to personally call on all the friends and supporters of this great work during the few days allotted for the local campaign.

The advisory board is very desirous of extending to everyone in Greenville the opportunity of having a part in this work. Small contributions are received with the same grateful spirit as the larger donations.

Every contributor may rest assured that his money will be expended economically and advantageously for the propagation of the gospel and the relief of suffering.

Let's all chip-in and help! For the convenience of those who have not been solicited the following memorandum which may be filled in with pencil and mailed to Mr. J. H. Waldrop, the local treasurer, is inserted:

WAKE FOREST INVADES RICHMOND VIRGINIA

Richmond, Feb. 1—(AP)—Minus the service of two veterans who were detained on the home campus by studies, Wake Forest College Deacons invaded Richmond today to play the fast Richmond Y. M. C. A. outfit in basketball.

Bon Owen, Guard, and George Paschal, forward, did not make the trip, coach Baldwin said, because they could not spare the time from studies.

The Deacons lost a hard fought affair to Hampton Sidney last night. They play William and Mary, George Washington and Richmond Artillery on this trip.

Mary Lewis at Teachers College.

Let Greenville play royal host to the great prima donna, Mary Lewis, and entertain people from every part of eastern Carolina in her honor on February 23, when she makes her appearance in concert at East Carolina Teachers College.

The college is calling on the town to help fill the new auditorium to overflowing. She should draw a crowd from a radius of from fifty to seventy-five miles, especially from the East and North.

Those who are traveling from one town to another can spread the news, giving the date and price of the ticket. Members of the Clubs can write their friends to tell their fellow club members in other towns. Those who are planning to have guests soon, can entertain on that date.

The Duco Paint Demonstration at John Planagan Buggy Company 216 Paint Store on Fourth Street will continue through Thursday and Friday. Miss Shelton will remain here throughout the demonstration and will be glad to paint free of charge any small articles brought in by the ladies of this community. Be sure and visit this demonstration tomorrow or Friday.

In fairness to the navy department, it should be remembered that among all nations submarines losses have been heavy even in times of peace. That would be a reason for finding ways of establishing greater safety, especially in peace and in this country with its unlimited financial resources and inventive genius.

It has been suggested that no prayer is necessary except, "Lord, be merciful to me, a sinner."

Even that is almost unnecessary, for it is hard to imagine that the Lord would NOT be merciful to feeble creatures born of his own power. However about such subjects laymen know nothing.

New comfort and deep sleep tonight... new joy in living tomorrow!

MEASURE your sleep by depth, not length. If you sleep deeply and dreamlessly, completely relaxed, you don't have to sleep so long to be completely rested.

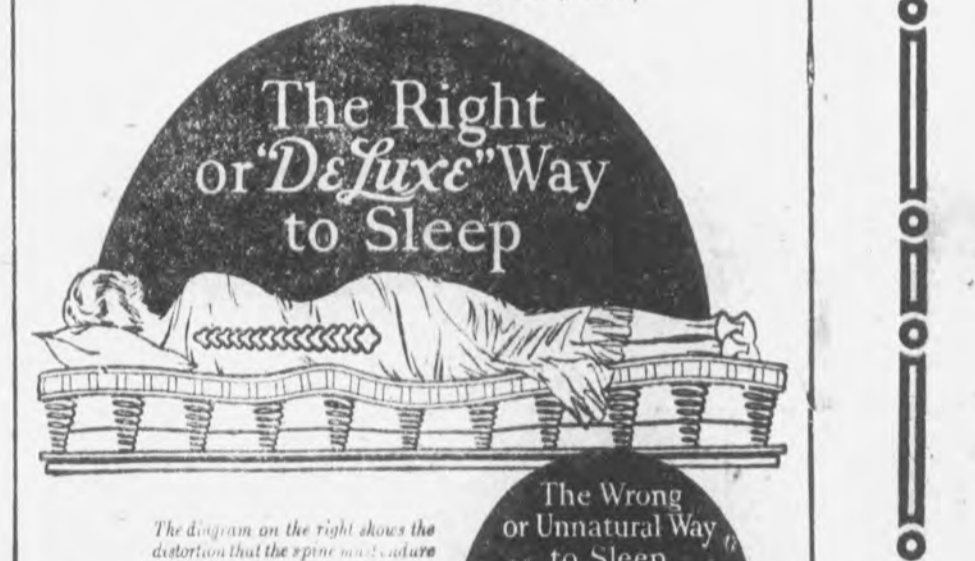

Deep sleep comes easily on the luxurious De Luxe bedspring. For a De Luxe spring molds itself to meet your body—you don't have to make your body fit the bed. Tired muscles and nerves gratefully relax into its yielding depths... you drop gently off into deep, sound sleep that quickly renews mental and physical energy.

Sideways is impossible with a De Luxe spring. It is perfectly noiseless, too; never creaks, squeaks or groans just when you're in the borderland between wakefulness and sleep. And it doesn't tip you towards the middle of the bed, either; two persons, no matter how different their weights, can sleep together in complete comfort without disturbing each other.

If you have never slept on a De Luxe spring a delightful experience awaits you.

Arrange at once with your furniture or department store for a trial. But be sure the spring is a De Luxe, for the downright comfort and lifetime wear of a De Luxe spring is found only in bedsprings that bear the De Luxe label.

The ROMEO Company INC.

Below is a general view showing the shape and design of "the bedspring luxurious." A hinged tie across connects the coils. It relieves tension on the spirals and permits perfect freedom of action on the part of every individual coil.

Your guarantee of getting all the quality points that only the De Luxe bedspring has, is the De Luxe label stamped on the side rail. Look for it and be sure!
