WRIGHT TELLS YOUNG WOMEN OF MARRIAGE

Local College President Scores Advocates of Companionate Marriage Plan.

President Robert H. Wright addressed the pupils of East Carolina Teachers College today on the subject of companionate marriage and other new doctrines now being preached throughout the country. He spoke as follows:

There are some intelligent and prominent men and at least one prominent woman who are going about over the United States telling the young people of this country that divorce and trial marriages and companionate marriages are all right. There are a number of people going throughout America trying to give to the young people of this country ideals that are contrary to the teachings of the Master and contrary to the belief of the majority of the people in this country. As I see it, it is a subtle influence that may undermine the very foundation of our homes and, therefore, of our government. It is not a new question. It was a problem of the people at the time Jesus was here. It was a problem of the people before that time, and it has constantly been a problem from that time to this hour.

The law of marriage is not a man-made law; it is not a thing that men and women can change. It is a part of God's creation. I cannot grasp the reason why people are going throughout the countries of the world trying to train others to live lives contrary to the foundation upon which civilization is built. Yet these people are advocating companionate marriage, trial marriage, all kinds of variations from the great fundamental principle that underlies all human civilization. It has been tried out. Nations have done this kind of thing and they have disappeared from the face of the earth. God in his infinite wisdom formed the human family, and he established the great principle upon which the human species shall be continuously replenished.

It is for you to set the standards of living that the boy and the girl of the future are to follow; it is for you to so conduct yourselves that you will command the respect of men and women everywhere. There are lots of right minded men that will help you, but they are not all right minded. Unfortunately all women are not either, but the great majority of women are right minded and it is not true with the great majority of men. It is for you to fix these standards, and I want to beg you this morning to fix them in keeping with the great fundamental laws of God. Keep your minds and spirits, as well as your bodies, clean in the sight of God. It pays, and that is the lowest basis upon which a person can put it; it pays from every angle.

Do not be persuaded by the false teachings of a man who has for a number of years headed a Juvenile Court in our country and gained for himself a national reputation and who has gone off at a tangent on this subject. Do not be persuaded by people who call us Puritanical. Our forefathers came to this country from Europe with the idea of making the home the unit of our civilization and of making it a home in keeping with the fundamental laws of God, and that is the reason America has prospered. They had the right ideals for the foundation of our republic. Our forefathers were building upon the rock that is fundamental so far as civilization is concerned, and I do not want the college boys and girls of today to be led away from the solid foundation upon which all civilization must rest if it is to be permanent and worth while.

FIVE MEN MAROONED IN ICE FIELDS

Port Dover, Ont., March 29.—(AP)—Five men were marooned on the tug Altawandron in the ice fields off long point today apparently they had little fuel and no food. They had been there since Friday. Tugs failed in efforts to break through the ice to carry food to the men.

"Highland Pines" Is Name of New Subdivision Here

Mrs. H. L. Rivers was today awarded $25 in gold for naming the new subdivision known as the F. V. Johnston property. The name submitted by Mrs. Rivers was "Highland Pines."

Approximately six hundred names were submitted to H. A. White & Sons, who are selling the new development. The contest closed last night at 8 o'clock and announcement of the winner was made this morning.

Stars and Stocks Split.
A Happy Moment.
Learning to Live.

From South Africa astronomers send word the great star Nova Pictoris has split in two.

We are excited on this little earth ball when a big stock "split" for one. If we were a few billion miles nearer Nova Pictoris, we should have a meaning for "split." How safely we live in our little corner of space with fearful cataclysms around us. We should be grateful.

The bears had a happy moment yesterday while Wall Street bought and sold 4,875,000 shares of stock, breaking all records since the beginning of time, and General Motors dropped nearly twenty points. They were not so happy when it climbed back again above 190. As Mayor Thompson, of Chicago, would say, any advice not to sell the stock short "goes double" for General Motors.

Some poor bears celebrated by selling "Radio" short. Bulls were ready to buy a quarter of a million shares of that stock. The bears' paws were burned. Radio rose $12.

Paste this in your hat. INVEST DON'T GAMBLE. DON'T SELL SHORT.

American business men are learning to prolong life. John D. Rockefeller, one of the hardest workers, who has given away half a billion, is well on his way to ninety. George F. Baker, one of the world's three richest men, celebrated his 88th birthday yesterday and will soon come back from Georgia to New York, tired of being away from business.

In the old days of Jay Gould fighting business men did not live long. They had not learned how to eat or when to exercise.

President Obregon thinks Mexico needs prohibition. Alcohol, says he, "is the enemy of the republic." If he will put on a bullet-proof suit and inspect some of our better bootleg districts, he will find

BORAH URGES PROHIBITION IN PLATFORM

Senator Says Both Parties Must Have Dry Plank in Convention Platforms.

Washington, March 29.—(AP)—Republicans and Democrats alike were under fresh warning today by Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, that unless they write prohibition enforcement planks in their convention platforms there will come into being an administration indifferent to the law and therefore helpful to the constitutional "nullificationists."

In a radio address last night, the Idaho Senator declared that "at a time when the constitution is openly assailed and persistently defied, nothing could be more discouraging or demoralizing than for the dominant political parties to remain silent and thereby connive with those whose open and announced purpose is to break down and nullify the constitution."

Borah read his address through station WFFF, operated here by the Fellowship Forum, a fraternal magazine. Transmitted to Columbus, Ohio, it was re-broadcast for a women's conference on law enforcement which the Senator had been unable to attend in person.

Frequent reference was made to the oil cases, although no specific mention was given to the Idahoan "reputation" drive for funds to repay Harry F. Sinclair, lessee of Teapot Dome, the $160,000 in Continental Trading Company bonds he donated to the Republican party in 1923 to help extinguish the 1920 campaign deficit. Sinclair, he said, would be at the coming Republican convention.

"The party may still be under obligations to him for having paid its debt," he declared, "but he himself will not likely be present."

SAY WINNINGS ON EXCHANGE EXAGGERATED

New York Times says Winnings Have Been Big, But Losses Are Big, Too.

New York, March 29.—(AP)—Tales of tremendous winnings and losses in the unprecedented stock speculation of the last few weeks aroused some doubts today.

The New York Times said: "A few of these stories are true. Big winnings have been made and big losses, too, but more of them are exaggerated with the retelling."

The New York Herald-Tribune quoted George Briggs Buchanan, a member of the New York stock exchange since 1905, as expressing the belief that 300 millionaires had been made in the west during the record-breaking trading.

"Many of the seasoned operators have not made money in the present market," said Mr. Buchanan, "because it was beyond their ideas that any market could go so far. Men like Replogle and Durant are still active, but others like Livermore have preferred to get out. The westerners, on the other hand came in early and rode up with it."

Among the biggest winners and the safest one, too, are the members of the exchange. The individual houses have never done so much business and the commission of the big dealers are gigantic.

One big house is credited with handling 840,000 shares in one day, although it refused to either confirm or deny the report. If true, its commissions would be somewhere between $126,000—the lowest estimate—and $410,000, the highest. The difference in these figures is explained by the varying commissions. On 100 shares of stock the commissions vary from $15 to $50 according to its selling price. With the active traders during the last few big days estimated 765, their average commissions would be around $2,000 on a $4,000,000 share market.

Some harassed traders, looking for relief from the strain of the overwhelming markets, have started a movement to limit trading on the exchange to five days.

AUSTRALIANS BEGIN DRIVE TO BAR NEGRO

"White Australia" is Battle Cry of Faction Opposed to Immigration.

Sydney, Australia, March 29.—(AP)—"White Australia" was the rallying cry today behind a widespread movement, fostered by William Hughes, former premier, to bar negroes and Italians from the commonwealth and to stem the rising tide of immigration to this continent.

The exclusion movement took concrete form when the house of representatives of New South Wales ordered the deportation of an American negro jazz band known as "Sonny Clay's Plantation Orchestra." The action was taken after the Melbourne police had raided flats occupied by the American negroes and had charged them with disorderly conduct.

Announcement of the deportation order by the New South Wales minister of home territories was greeted with cheers in the provincial legislature. The negroes were ordered placed aboard the liner Sierra, which sails for San Francisco next Saturday.

The deportation move left an issue before the authorities, who now are considering barring negro artists and boxers from Australia.

Immigration policies were attacked by Hughes with sharp words in demanding "a British white Australia."

"Italians are coming into this country at the rate of 300 monthly," he said. "To whom does this country belong? To us or to Mussolini? I say nothing against any nation but this bit of earth belongs to us. It is for us to say how many shall come in. Apparently all Mussolini has to do is to rattle a sword and we must all be grandmothers, grandaunts and other relatives down to the 33rd cousins of Italians here to enter."

"We colonized this country, and it is for us to develop it along our own lines, without dictation from anybody overseas."

WEATHER HOLDING BACK OCEAN FLIGHT

Above is pictured the Junkers plane, Bremen, which is waiting at Baldonnel, Ireland, airbase, for weather favorable for an east to west flight over the Atlantic, with New York as its destination. The fliers reached Ireland late Monday after a successful flight from Germany. The inset at the upper left is Baron von Huenefeld, while that at the left is pilot Koehl. The longest and most hazardous stage of the flight will be from Ireland to Newfoundland.

Josephus Daniels Is Charged With Oil Scandal Part

Senator Robinson says North Carolinian Assisted in Making Reserve Leases Possible.

Washington, March 29.—(AP)—Again bringing the oil scandals to the senate floor today Senator Robinson, republican, Indiana, declared that the "conspiracy" to get control of the naval oil reserves was not formed in Chicago during the republican convention of 1920 but in the city of Washington during the democratic administration of President Wilson.

Revealing what he described as some of the salient facts regarding oil leases, Robinson first centered his attack on Josephus Daniels, naval secretary in the Wilson cabinet. He claimed it was known that "when the oil scandals first broke, Secretary Daniels, along with others of the former Wilson cabinet, were running for cover and issuing feeble denials of their complicity in leasing the oil reserves of the United States."

The Indian said that no sooner had President Wilson approved the leasing act of February 25, 1920, than Daniels suggested to congress that the law be amended "so as to give him absolute power, to be used in his discretion, over all the naval oil reserves existing then or which should be created later."

"No one can claim that this proposition was in the interest of conserving the oil that was in the ground," Robinson shouted.

"No sooner was the amendment which he wrote, and which the democratic senators in this body supported, operative than he began to permit the navy's oil to be taken out of the reserves by private oil corporations."

"He did this without advertising for or permitting competitive bids. He did it merely by holding private conferences with representatives of private corporations, just as he admitted his source and defamed it, instead of assuming the role of injured honor and righteous indignation and proclaiming that he had fought every proposition to permit the oil in the naval reserve to be taken out by any body."

"So far as the official record shows," Robinson continued, "Francis K. Lane, secretary of the interior in the democratic administration was the originator of the proposal to lease naval reserve oil land to private interests to be exploited by them."

"The record shows that on August 1, 1927, Secretary Lane communicated with other members of the cabinet, namely, Secretary of Navy Daniels, Secretary of War Baker, Secretary of Labor Wilson, Secretary of Commerce Redfield and Secretary of Agriculture Houston, to the effect that naval reserve number 2 was being drained by private oil wells located just outside its borders, and as an offset territory within the reserve ought to be leased at once to private corporations. This communication was in the form of a formal letter which exists

OCEAN FLIERS STILL MARKING TIME IN DUBLIN

German Fliers Forced To Defer Take-off Again on Account of Weather Conditions.

Dublin, March 29.—(AP)—Three Germans eager to be the first to fly the Atlantic from East to West today settled down to wait for favorable weather. Disappointing reports of Atlantic weather again delayed the start of the Junkers monoplane Bremen which had been provisionally set for dawn today and the hop was postponed until tomorrow morning at the earliest.

The machine stood at Baldonnel airbase completely ready to take off on the shortest notice. The fliers despite their eagerness have not weakened on their decision to wait until they believe the hop to New York can be made with every reasonable chance of success and they reconciled themselves to a new test of their patience.

Baron Ehrenfried Gunther von Huenefeld, backer of the flight, paced nervously back and forth between the hangar and the runway with a monocle screwed in his right eye. He wore a navy blue yachting suit which he said he did not intend to take off until he reaches Mitchell field.

"The result rests in the hands of God," Baron von Huenefeld said in a farewell greeting telegraphed to the Oberschlesische Volkstimme of Gletwitz, Germany. Superstitious of the ordinary sailor, his pockets were filled with trinkets, omens of good luck and pieces of all kinds.

In contrast to the nervous cast of the Baron, Captain Herman Koehl chief pilot, chunky, quiet and steady, watched almost disinterestedly. To him, flying is not luck but science and nerves. Baron von Huenefeld says he has the best pilot in the world in this broad shouldered man who is the most famous night flyer in Germany. Captain Koehl expresses complete confidence in Arthur Spindler, the third man of the crew, who will aid him at the controls in three-hour shifts.

A long wooden runway, stretching in the direction of Galway and America, was completely to the take-off. Baron von Huenefeld paid an Irish farmer $500 to tear down a stone wall at the far end of the field so that the plane will have a mile and a quarter straight away for lighting its big weight of three men and 2,500 litres of fuel into the air.

The wings of the plane were oiled to prevent ice forming when the fliers reach the area of fogs and mists or rain and cold winds. Ice, they consider, their greatest enemy and to avoid this they may head west for New York, if necessary turning south whenever cold winds or rain are encountered. Thus the plane may miss Newfoundland altogether—the first time any such trans-Atlantic flight has been so attempted.

Mrs. Coolidge's Mother Improves

Northampton, Mass., March 29.—(AP)—Continued improvement in the condition of Mrs. Lemira Goodhue, 78-year-old mother of Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, cheered the wife of the President today. Mrs. Goodhue, who has been at the Dickinson hospital since she suffered an attack of influenza last December and who experienced a relapse last Sunday, spent her best day in a week yesterday.

HOUSE MAKES REPORT FOR FLOOD BILL

Stands Squarely in Favor of Government Bearing Expenses of Mississippi Control.

Washington, March 29.—(AP)—Standing squarely on the policy that the government should bear all cost for guarding citizens of the Mississippi river valley against floods, the house flood control committee today made a formal report on the $473,000,000 Reid bill which was approved a month ago.

The report on the proposal for a gigantic flood control project came into the house along with the $225,000,000 Jones bill, also providing flood control funds from the federal treasury, which was passed yesterday by the senate.

The majority report, approved by eleven members of the committee presented a voluminous argument of nearly 400 pages in support of the Reid bill, sponsored by Representative Reid, republican, of Illinois, and of the establishment of a new Mississippi river commission to carry out the work.

The views of those members of the committee who disapproved the Reid bill were presented simultaneously in a minority report signed by six republicans headed by Representative Kopp of Iowa. This report forth the contention that the valley states should contribute some of the cost of control work.

One of the leading features of the minority report was the criticism leveled at Major Edgar Jadwin, chief of the army engineers, who was charged with having usurped the duties of the Mississippi river commission in preparing the administration's flood control plan.

The army engineer was upheld, however, by the minority report set out that under the law by which the government undertakes flood control works, a policy of "no pay, no protection" is presented. It added that the national defense, national welfare, the maintenance of the mails and interstate commerce and navigation were sufficient justification for the federal government to assume the entire cost and responsibility.

FLIERS STILL IN THE CLOUDS

Haldeman and Stinson Continue to Pilot Plane for New Endurance Record.

Jacksonville Beach, Fla., March 29.—(AP)—Aloft thirty hours at 1:37 o'clock this afternoon and well beyond the half-way mark of their projected 55-hour world's record endurance flight, Captain George Haldeman and Eddie Stinson flew easily over their thirty-mile beach course today.

Jacksonville Beach, Fla., March 29.—(AP)—Up and down a thirty mile stretch of coast, apparently unassailed by troubles of any sort, Eddie Stinson and George Haldeman today continued to pilot their monoplane toward a new world's endurance flight record.

Since 7:37 yesterday morning the two pilots have "spelled" each other at the controls of the big Stinson-Detroit plane, driving it through perfect weather toward their estimated goal of 55 hours in the air—a sustained flight which would more than shatter the record now held in Germany. Fifty two hours and 23 minutes is the present mark but it must be exceeded by at least an hour to be officially supplanted.

Pilots and mechanics who went up this morning to fly alongside the Haldeman-Stinson plane and observe its behavior, stated that it seemed in perfect fettle, that the motor was humming smoothly and that no difficulties were apparent. Notes dropped by the pilots confirmed these observations and word from them at the 24-hour mark was highly optimistic.

Four whole fried chickens were taken aloft by the pair to provide pieces of resistance for meals in the air. Other edibles included six lemons, six oranges, a dozen sandwiches for casual munching and a thermos bottle of soup. Coffee, water and three quarts of milk were the portable rations.

PHILADELPHIA IS WINNER IN FIRE CONTEST

Greensboro and Durham Included among Winners in Waste Prevention Race.

Washington, March 29.—(AP)—The city of Philadelphia today was awarded the grand prize in the 1927 fire waste prevention contest conducted by the chamber of commerce of the United States and the National Fire Waste Council.

Other prize winners included Grand Rapids, Mich.; Greensboro, N. C.; Durham, N. C.; and Fremont, Mich.

Divided into five population groups for the contest, the winners showed the best fire prevention records in their classes, with Philadelphia having the best record of all. Reports were received from 329 cities.

Those reporting showed marked progress in fire elimination, 62.2 per cent of the contestants representing a population of more than 25,000,000 having reduced their property losses, while in 1926 this was true of only 60.8 per cent.

On a per capita basis based on figures of the contestants, the fire loss in 1927 was $2.70 compared with $3.07 in 1926 and $3.77 in 1925. On a percentage basis this per capita loss dropped 14.96 per cent in 1928 and 23.2 per cent in 1927.

A gain in fire department efficiency and improvement in building construction and housekeeping methods were indicated by a 14.35 per cent reduction in the number of fires in which the damage exceeded $1,000, compared with the average of the preceding five years. In 1926 this percentage was 1.06.

A decrease in the number of deaths by fire was also shown. 81.3 per cent of the contestants reported either no deaths by fire or a reduction in fatalities. A year ago the percentage so reported was 79.7. The percentage decrease in the number of persons killed as compared with the preceding five year average was 12.6.

The following tabulation gives the 1927 winners, and other cities given honorable mention because of excellent records:

- Class 1, population 500,000 or more:
Winner, Philadelphia, honor cities in order, Detroit, Mich., Milwaukee, Wis.; Pittsburgh, Pa.

Paul Berlenbach Granted Divorce

Mexico City, March 29.—(AP)—A Universal today said that Paul Berlenbach, former light heavyweight boxing champion, had obtained a divorce through the courts at Cuernavaca, state of Morelos.

The divorce suit was filed there sometime ago by an American named H. E. Grace, Mexico City resident, who has assisted in obtaining divorces for many foreigners. The fighter's signature was required for the final petition. Berlenbach came here Tuesday night and left Wednesday after signing the papers and the divorce was granted.

Berlenbach, whose home is in New York, married Rose Anne Riley in Los Angeles last April. Suit for separation was started in January, but the couple were reconciled in the office of the boxer's attorney in New York and sailed for Havana on a record honeymoon on January 31. Berlenbach suddenly appeared in New York on February 8 and his wife went to Los Angeles. He announced that the second honeymoon had been cut short by the illness of Mrs. Berlenbach's mother.

FORTY CAGE TEAMS WILL PLAY SOON

Chicago, March 29.—(AP)—Forty of the country's best basketball teams, survivors of some 20,000 that started the season, will be in the tenth annual University of Chicago National Intercollegiate basketball tournament starting next Tuesday and continuing until Saturday night. Morton High School of Cicero, Ill., won the title last year. Thirty-five teams, representing thirty-one states already are entered. Thirty are state champions; three are runners-up and two hold local titles.

Among the quints with unusually fine records is Austin, Texas state title holders, which won the championship from a field of 800 schools. Vienna, Ga., state champions, and winners of the cotton states tournament for the second year, is another strong team. The Georgians were in the Chicago tournament last year, being beaten by Morton in a wild game 27 to 28.

Spitball Pitchers Becoming Extinct

New York, March 29.—(AP)—Another famous tribe—the spitball pitchers of baseball—is rapidly becoming extinct.

Now that Urban Shocker has made up his mind to moisten bank notes in his St. Louis radio shop in preference to wetting the old spheroid the ranks of this great galaxy to visvoys had dwindled to a mere half dozen.

Only eight years ago the major leagues decided by concurrent action to ban freak deliveries and agreed that seventeen tonafied spitball spheroid.

Of that number the national had eight, namely, Bill Doak, Shuffling Phil Douglas, Dan Fillingim, Ray Fisher, Marvin Goodwin, Burlingame Grimes, Clarence Mitchell and Dick Rudolph. Today, only Doak of the Robins, Mitchell of the Phillies and Grimes of the Pirates survive.

With the passing of Shocker of the Yanks, three of the mostball flingers are left in the American league, Stanley Coveleskie, Urban Faber, and Jack Quinn.

Golf Tournament Opens at Pinehurst

Pinehurst, March 28.—(AP)—Bobby Cruickshank, Bill Mehlhorn, Tommy Armour, Johnny Farrell and a host of other professional golfers of the same tested mettle today began the 28th annual north and south open golf tournament.

Shooting 36 holes today and a like number tomorrow, a field of some sixty golfers will compete.

A number of veterans, including MacDonald Smith, of Great Neck, N. Y., local favorite, were unable to get here. Smith, who has been playing steady and winning golf all winter, was unable to complete because of illness in his family.

It will be a tournament of champions, however, a number of the contestants holding titles. Cruickshank is defending titleholder; Armour, national open champion; Mehlhorn, winner of the Texas open; Henry Cuiel, of New York Florida open champion; Farrell, winner of the $15,000 Miami Beach open, and Al Espinosa, holder of the Florida west coast open title.

The tournament, to be played over the number two championship course here, offers a course record of 84, held by Joe Turnesa, of Elmford, N. Y. Par for the course is 72. Going out in proper figures calls for 36 and coming in for the same numerals.

FAR WEST CREWS, EVENLY MATCHED, ROW FIRST RACE OF OLYMPIC YEAR

They don't come much more closely matched than these strong Pacific Coast eights which open the college and pre-Olympic rowing sea on April 6 at Seattle. The "tall pines" of the University of Washington (shown above all set for a racing start) have an edge of more than two inches per man in height, but the Californians (below) even it up with a slight advantage in weight. Inset above is 25-year-old Al Ulbricksen, Washington coach, who is Ky Ebricht, coach of California which won last year's event, appears below at left.

Seattle, Wash. (AP)—Opening the 1928 intercollegiate rowing season, California and Washington meet here April 6 to match strokes for Coast supremacy. In the background, Poughkeepsie and Olympic games competition looms.

This year's dual race will round out a quarter of a century of lively rivalry between the two universities and the meeting brings together opposing crews evenly balanced as to weight, size and experience.

California averages 175 1-2 pounds to the man; Washington 175. The southerners average 6 feet in height; the northern oarsmen, 6 feet, 2 1-8 inches. The majority in both shells have had varsity experience.

Beaten by two boat lengths on the Oakland estuary last year, Washington carried the sting of it easy and in the Poughkeepsie regatta left California far behind to finish second to Columbia. The Washington Huskies have won 16 times and lost six to the Golden Bears. On three occasions since 1923 the dual event was not held. Three times Washington has won at Poughkeepsie whereas California has yet to win the big contest of the east.

Until the men are seated in their shells, the definite personnel of neither crew will be known. In building up his varsity this year, Coach Ky Ebricht has shunted ed Carrol Wressler, who rowed with both preceding varsities, back to the second boat. Four other men including Don Blessing, varsity coxswain, have alternated between the "jayvee" and the first shell.

Washington's shakeup has been equally confusing. Hal Philbrick, last year's jayvee stroke oar, was expected to unseat Ellis MacDonald at the pace setting position, but wrenched his back in practice and Coach Al Ulbricksen decided Philbrick should rest until after the race with California. Consequently the Husky mentor was obliged to revise his personnel, using three freshmen from last year's aggregation that defeated California's freshmen.

Washington's line-up probably will be: MacDonald, stroke; Warren Davis, No. 7; Stanley Valentine, No. 6; Ronald Wailes, No. 5; George

Reigh Count Faces Four Big Derbies In Thirty Days

Louisville, Ky. (AP)—Reigh Count, Mrs. John D. Hertz's Kentucky Derby favorite, is in preparation this year for one of the most extensive and exhaustive campaigns ever arranged for a colt his age.

His Derby engagements alone will amount to more than $130,000 and will be decided in a space of 30 days.

On May 19 he is entered in the Kentucky classic of all races, the purse being $50,000, while on June 2 he will be called upon to strive for the Fairmount Derby, at Collinsville, Ill. This fixture carries an added value of $25,000.

Seven days later, Reigh Count will be seen in the American Derby at Arlington Park, Chicago, which has a purse of $25,000. From Chicago he will return to Kentucky for the Latonia Derby, which has an added value of $25,000, about June 23. The winner of this race, if also the victor of the Kentucky Derby, receives a $5,000 additional purse.

While Reigh Count's activities begin later than those of the sensational Black Gold in 1924, when the great colt won the Kentucky Derby, Louisiana Derby, Ohio Derby and Chicago Derby, the chestnut horse of Mrs. Hertz will be more extensively occupied.

The horse's condition is all the Hertz stable desires, so the trainers say, and should he perform up to his owner's expectations he has an opportunity eventually to eclipse the achievements of the mighty Man of War before his racing days are ended.

Uncle of Koehl Sure He Will Win

New York, March 29.—(AP)—A Jacob Koehl, uncle of the German flier, Captain Herman Koehl, is confident his nephew will be successful in his proposed westward flight across the Atlantic.

"I have got a notion that Captain Koehl and Baron von Huenfeld will make it," said Mr. Koehl, who is an instructor in music here. "They have studied the thing carefully and they are not going to start until they believe the weather is friendly."

Many Americans To See Barton In Steeplechase

Liverpool, Eng., March 29.—(AP)—Liverpool, Eng., March 29.—(AP)—Hope spelled with capitals might be the middle name of several hundred Americans who came 3,000 miles to see the crack Yankee steeplechaser, Billy Barton, perform tomorrow in what is unquestionably the world's biggest gamble in racing—the grand national steeplechase.

Billy Barton, owned by Howard Bruce, of Baltimore, and Burroughs, owned by Benjamin L. Behr of Chicago, are the American bred horses entered in the most grueling contest for horse flesh ever conceived by man.

More than 300 reserved seats have been added to the Aintree grandstand on account of the rush of United States sportsmen who began clamoring for seats weeks ago. Most of these reservations were made by cable and some by trans-Atlantic telephone.

The race, which this year is attracting large crowds, had a novel beginning. It was conceived by a racing enthusiast and publican, Jack Lynn, 91 years ago. He hit upon the idea of a long distance struggle with the view of attracting trade to his bar in the Waterloo Hotel at Aintree, which had been in the doldrums for years. The scheme worked, the race being a crowd winner from the beginning. Lynn died a very rich man because of this.

The best horse does not always win. There are thirty obstacles in the four and a half mile course, and in the first mile alone in the scurry and scramble of getting a good start each horse is in imminent danger of being toppled over by the herd of indifferent jumpers whose jockeys are riding with all their might and main with a single aim.

Mrs. W. E. Hooker Entertains.
Of all the pre-Easter social affairs, none has been more beautiful in all its appointments than the daffodil tea on Wednesday afternoon at which Mrs. W. E. Hooker was hostess to numbers of her friends at her lovely home on 5th street.

Always inviting and hospitable, the home was made more attractive by a profusion of yellow daffodils and other spring flowers.

The guests were welcomed at the front door by Mrs. C. S. Forbes and Mrs. Judson Blount and introduced to Mrs. Andrew Moore and Mrs. J. B. James, who in turn presented them to the hostess, Mrs. Hooker received her guests in the music room which was charming and spring-like with many gay tulips and branches of lovely pear blossoms. Receiving with her own honor guest, Mrs. H. R. Brown of Greenville, Tenn.; Mrs. F. G. James, Mrs. J. L. Wooten, Mrs. H. L. Coward, Mrs. E. J. Flanagan, Miss Sallie Joyner Davis and Mrs. T. E. Hooker. Mrs. Marvin Blount and Mrs. H. A. White then greeted the guests and presented them to Mrs. J. B. Kittrell and Mrs. W. L. Best, who directed them to the punch table which had been most attractively arranged on the stair landing. Here Mrs. C. B. W. Hadley and Mrs. J. L. Little served, assisted by Mrs. Knott Proctor, Mrs. Karl Pace and Miss Dora Coates. On the stair balcony Miss Annie Lee Hooker furnished Virolta music during the afternoon. In the dining room, Mrs. J. L. Kilgo and Mrs. F. J. Forbes presided, serving ices tinted in green and yellow from large silver platters. The dining table was perfect in detail and exquisite in the simplicity of its spring time decorations. Clear green glass and silver with daffodils and yellow snapdragons made a charming picture arranged on the lovely lace cloth. Mints and rolled wafers tied with daffodils and yellow ribbon were passed by Mrs. Person Nicholson, Mrs. Walter Harrington, Misses Cotten Skinner, Helen White and Louisa Hooker.

Leaving the dining room the guests passed through the rear hall where they were greeted by Mrs. H. L. Hodges, Mrs. L. H. Bowling, Mrs. C. M. Warren and Mrs. J. K. Brown, and into the library where they were invited by Mrs. H. J. Austin and Mrs. J. W. Higgs to register. This room, too, was lovely in its harmonious decorations of yellow daffodils, yellow tapers and forsythia. Seated at the table under the softly shaded lights, Mrs. S. T. White and Mrs. H. L. Rivers poured coffee. Mrs. Frank Wilson, Mrs. Herbert Waldrop and Mrs. Charles Dodson assisted in serving and passed cheese straws.

At the door to the west terrace Mrs. R. H. Wright and Mrs. Hortense Moye said good-bye to the departing guests who lingered on the lawn enjoying the lovely daffodils, dogwood and azaleas which made a scene of beauty long to be remembered.

Mrs. Blount Entertains Sans Souci Club.
(Reported)

The Sans Souci Book Club held one of the most delightful meetings of the year with Mrs. J. H. Blount on Tuesday afternoon with a splendid attendance of members. Mrs. King of Charlotte and Miss Lelia Higgs were guests for the afternoon.

This being the date for election of officers the nominating committees presented the following date which was unanimously accepted. Mrs. P. Wooten, president; Mrs. J. B. Kittrell, vice president; Mrs. J. H. Blount, secretary; Mrs. Frank Wilson, treasurer, and Mrs. F. J. Forbes, librarian.

Following the business session the books were passed and for the program Miss Lelia Higgs gave a most interesting talk on the history and romance of fabrics illustrating with many examples of charming color schemes. Current events completed the program, after which the hostess served a delicious frozen salad course.

Round Table Club Meets.
Mesdames E. W. Harvey and J. H. Rose were joint hostesses to the Round Table Club on the afternoon of March 27th. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Rose, on Student street.

The atmosphere of the home was fragrant with the perfume of spring flowers. Beautiful baskets filled with pear and peach blossoms added a note of charm suggestive of the arrival of spring.

Mrs. C. W. Vincent presided over the business session. Many matters of interest were discussed. Miss Denny was re-appointed custodian of the club records.

Mrs. Austin, chairman of the program committee, read a tentative arrangement of the program which was heartily approved by all.

The subject of the literary feature of the program was "Indian Songs and Folklore." Mrs. Wiley Brown gave a carefully prepared paper delineating many characteristics of the American Indian. Beginning with the modern Indian flapper, as seen in some of our large cities, she traced the many primitive instincts yet prevalent among the race.

Combined with their many warlike traits, we find a strong tendency toward medical science as expressed in their Medicine Man—a tendency toward the supernatural as portrayed in their religious belief. As a race they are both romantic and musical. Their history is preserved by means of the story teller, a profession honored and revered.

Mrs. Brown proved a splendid teller of Indian stories and she closed her discussion by reading several Indian folklore tales.

Miss Bessie Brown accompanied by Miss Bertollet, sang "Indian Summer" and "Ghost Pipes." These appropriate songs so sweetly rendered, made a fitting close to one of our most enjoyable programs.

Mesdames Rose and Harvey assisted by Mrs. J. B. Kittrell, served most tempting refreshments, a frozen salad course with hot coffee.

The guests for the afternoon were Mrs. J. B. Kittrell, Miss Bessie Brown and Miss Bertollet. One of the most pleasing features of the afternoon was the presentation of little Ruby June Rose, the wee little daughter of the hostess.

The spark of humor which pervaded the entire play kept the audience roaring with laughter. All performers were stars and well suited to their parts, especially the Spigot family who so well represented the ancient Egyptians Pharaohs.

The High School orchestra and Boys Glee Club furnished delightful entertainment before and between the first and second acts while between the second and third acts Mary Shaw Roberson gave a Spanish Dance which met with a storm of applause.

The play was a financial success and the proceeds will be used toward a gift which the seniors will present to the school, a commencement time and also for memory book for the seniors.

The appearance of several baseball players in uniform on the streets this morning gave a thrill to those fans who for the past few years have been compelled to go elsewhere during the summer afternoons to see a ball game. Now that the boys are beginning to sport for duty let's get that diamond in shape so they can get in some real practice and be in tip top form when the season opens. It has been a long time since we had baseball out even now it must be good baseball to get the support of the fans.

The German fliers are waiting for favorable weather to begin their flight westward across the Atlantic, and we sincerely hope that they will continue to wait until reports indicate that favorable conditions prevail over the entire path of their flight. Already too many lives have been lost
as a result of enthusiasm overruling sound judgment.
The flight is a hazardous one and should not be undertaken with the fliers depending entirely on luck for success. The great loss avertion has suffered through the loss of daring expert fliers is greater than any gain that can come from further flights at present.

The weather man is not helping much in the local
"Clean-up Week" campaign.
The weather has considerably held back the work but at that the end of the week will find premises and streets much more presentable than at the beginning of the week. While it is hoped that every one will get their premises cleaned up this week, if you do not get the opportunity to do so, see to it that you get it done early next week at the latest. Clean premises mean better health and less danger of fires. Let's have a cleaner, healthier, safe, and more beautiful city.

DO PEOPLE READ "ADS"?

Why not blow our own horn, sometimes, especially when by so doing we can impart information that will prove of benefit to our citizens? The Reflector was informed this morning by H. A. White & Sons that the recent advertisements appearing in The Reflector offering $25.00 for the best name for a new residential sub-division brought in six hundred answers. In the face of this statement will the skeptic who professes not to believe in newspaper advertising, still insist that nobody reads the ads? The daily newspaper not only keeps the world informed, but is the messenger of the business man into the very heart of the home. If you are not taking advantage of this opportunity to get your message across you are a back-number hiding your light under a bushel.

ABOUT TOWN

"Announcement of the establishment in this city of a branch of the Philadelphia plush concern will be received with more than general satisfaction by people in all walks of life, and especially those who are interested in the raising of stock to make the industry possible for this city," a prominent business man said this morning.

"I honestly believe this will be the beginning of a great industrial era for Greenville and Pitt county. The new enterprise will give numbers of persons employment and put a considerable sum of money in circulation."

"Greenville has needed industries for a number of years, and now development in this direction has started. It is to be hoped our business men will not relinquish their efforts until more have been established."

"Baseball players are arriving every day now and by April 1st everything will be in readiness for training season to open," Guy Smith, president of the local club of the Eastern Carolina league told the writer of this column today.

"Five members of the club arrived yesterday and we expect more today. They are a fine looking lot of boys, and should be able to give Greenville a real ball club."

"Work on the park at the fair grounds is progressing nicely. We will have one of the best diamonds in the league, one which local people no doubt will feel proud of all the season."

"What we want to see now is more enthusiasm. It's bound to come if the club is a success. It is necessary to make attendance what it should be, and after all, big crowds are what make baseball teams anyway.
Let a set of men know you are behind them in any undertaking and rest assured of success."

"With numbers of residential developments receiving attention at this time, the 'Own your home movement' will receive additional impetus during the next few months," a local realtor observed today.

"Greenville has needed more houses for months and the time for building was never better than the present. As many homes as possible should be constructed during the summer months so the city will be able to care for the influx of people who come here during tobacco season."

"The shortage of homes was pronounced last fall and winter. This condition should not be permitted to continue. It gives visitors and home seekers a bad impression and causes them to go to other towns with the wrong kind of taste in their mouths.
If you have any idle money, Mr.
Citizen, let me urge you to invest in homes. This is one of the safest and sanest investments it is possible to have at the time."

"The survey of Tar river recently ordered by the government for the purpose of determining the advisability of opening the stream to navigation has attracted the attention of numbers of large concerns doing business in this part of the country," a member of the Merchants association said today.

"They are interested in the project because it will mean the saving of thousands of dollars annually through freight rates. The opening of the river to navigation would not only mean a saving in freight rates but would also increase the volume of goods going and coming to this community. Then too, numbers of large industries would no doubt locate here. The reason they have not done this a long time ago was because of the lack of water transportation."

"Indiscriminate freight rates have increased the cost of products much too long already and the entire population would fall with gladness the inauguration of the first boat line between this city and other points."

"The Garden Club is to be congratulated upon their splendid efforts to beautify prominent places in various sections of the city," a citizen remarked to the writer of this column.

"Nothing adds to the beauty of a town more than flowers and shrubbery planted in public places. Greenville has numbers of such locations and it is to be hoped the club will be able to decorate all of them in town more than flowers and shrubbery."

"Fever will be prevalent in this community this summer, and everybody is urged to catch it—baseball fever," members of the Greenville baseball club of the Eastern Carolina league told the writer today.

LINDY FLIES IN SILENCE AGAIN TODAY

Noted Flyer Enjoys Short Soujourn in Kentucky Before Taking Off For West

Lexington, Ky., March 29—(AP)—Charles A. Lindbergh who arrived here yesterday from Washington hopped off at 10:20 a. m. today. His destination was said to be Cincinnati.

Lexington, Ky., March 29—(AP)—Where does he go from here? Unanswered in other cities where Charles A. Lindbergh, private citizen, has sojourned of late, that question remained unanswered today. The only ray of information to break through the cloud of mystery that has concealed the movements of the famous flying colonel nowadays was a statement that he would head westward when he takes to wing again today.

His arrival here yesterday was announced and his departure was for parts known only to himself.

Lindbergh enjoyed, it is said, the fine grass of Kentucky, one of the most restful nights he has known since initiating a new era in aviation by spanning the Atlantic, from New York to Paris, in a single hop.

Having left Washington ostensibly for New York, Lindbergh is a ship similar to his famous Spirit of St. Louis, Colonel Lindbergh literally dropped in the afternoon with a party of four friends. The purpose of the visit was not disclosed except that it was said to be the final step in the Colonel's effort to retire from the spotlight. That statement was made by Colonel Henry Breckenridge, personal attorney of the aviator, and a member of the Lindbergh party.

Others who flew from Washington with Lindbergh were Major Thomas Lamphier, commander of the pursuit squadron, Selfridge field; Captain E. S. Land, assistant chief of the naval bureau of aeronautics who is a cousin of Lindbergh's, and O. R. Root, Jr., 14 year old stepson of Colonel Breckenridge.

Unannounced as it was, Lindbergh's plane caused no unusual interest in Lexington until after it had landed and identity of its occupants had been learned. A crowd then quickly gathered but was too late. Lindbergh and his party already had left the flying field for the home of Dr. Scott D. Breckenridge, brother of Colonel Breckenridge.

Wearing his new title with less grace or ease than he has borne many more ostentatious appellations, Lindbergh was the guest of honor at a very informal reception last evening at the Breckenridge home where he spent the night. His welcome here was not the less warm because of its quietness.

All efforts of newspapermen to interview the colonel were fruitless. There was nothing of importance that Lindbergh cared to discuss, and very little of anything else.

Favorite Son Pledge Or Free Delegation? Nebraska G. O. P. Issue

Nebraska has two favorite sons in its presidential primary April 10—Sen. George W. Norris (upper left), republican, and former Sen. Gilbert Hitchcock (upper right), democrat. The republicans, however, must choose between a Norris slate of delegates, pledged secondarily to Lowden and supported by Gov. Adam McMullen (lower left), and an unattached delegation sought by former Gov. Samuel R. McKelvie (lower right).

Lincoln, Neb. (AP)—Nebraska, send them to the convention as free relief bill and its ramifications. There will be no tug of war over have divided voting sentiment like the 16 democratic delegates. They a corn cutter sweeping through a will be pledged to former Senator field, must decide at the pres-Gilbert M. Hitchcock of Omaha, a general preferential primary on favorite son. No other candidates April 10 whether to pledge its 19 qualified republican delegates to candidates. Two slates of republican delegates of McNary-Haugen persuasion or will be voted upon, split on the rock

Spending to Save

Most people buy according to a certain rule, which they have followed for years and years.

The rule is formed into a question. "How much does it cost?" That's the reason so many articles of cheap or inferior quality happen to be sold. Take plumbing and heating goods, for instance. These products are to be found in ninety-nine out of a hundred up-to-date homes.

The average family spends $1,200 a year. If the average family knew how to buy, think of the dollars which would be saved.

Take your bathroom and the things in it. You can fit up a bathroom cheaply, yet it will look almost as fine as one which is fitted up at a greater cost. But the difference between a cheap bathroom and one which costs slightly more is the difference of an investment which will last many years instead of a few.

Inferior piping throughout the house may not make itself bothersome for some time. Then, one day, the piping will go wrong. New parts will have to be bought; walls will have to be cut open and fixed up; there will be new papering and cleaning. All of which costs money. And all of which is due to the rule, "How much does it cost?"

Don't buy things because they are cheap.

Cheap things are seldom the best. They may seem to be equally as good as things which cost more. But in the long run they will not stand the test of service.

You'll always have to pay more for what you want and need than for something you hope will take its place. And this is never more true than in buying those things which go into the making of a substantial home.

Teach your children and yourself that the cheapest is not always the best. Drive home the fact that it's what you get, not what you pay, that counts.

Quality Service Satisfaction S. T. HICKS Plumbing Heating Oil Burners Phone 60

of McNary-Haugenism. The Norris-Lowden ticket has pledged to support Senator George W. Norris of Nebraska as long as he has a chance. Then its support, if it is sent to the convention, will be flung to Frank O. Lowden of Illinois, and if he cannot win it will go to Vice President Charles G. Dawes. Wherever it goes in event of a deadlock, it will be cast only for "a middle western man in sympathy with agricultural equity."

An "administrative" delegate slate stands for an unattached delegation. The ticket is headed by former Governor Samuel R. McKelvie, a wholehearted supporter of President Coolidge and his stand on farm relief.

Gov. Adam McMullen, who has publicly asserted that a farm party will be born if McNary-Haugen principles are not incorporated in legislation by congress, is a candidate for delegate on the Norris-Lowden ticket. Governor McMullen has carried on a fiery fight for farm relief, predicated on such lines, and has given every indication that he will continue the fight from the floor of the republican national convention if he is selected as one of his state's delegates.

The only division within the democratic ranks is over national committeeman from Nebraska, William Ritchie, Jr., of Omaha, a cousin of Gov. Albert Ritchie of Maryland, is waging a strong campaign against Arthur Mullen of Omaha, incumbent.

Junior 4-H Club Girls to Gather In Meeting Here

A meeting will be held in the court house Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock for all junior "4-H" club officers and leaders. A Girls 4-H council will be organized and after a short business program three groups will be formed. Miss Pauline Smith of Washington, will speak to all the presidents and vice president. Miss Myrtle Brogden, rural school supervisor, will speak to the secretaries and Mr. H. B. Utley will talk to the reporters about what newspapers want from the reporters.

Improve Grounds For Attractive Homes

Beautifuling the home grounds is not a hard task, nor does it need to be an expensive undertaking. Therefore even if one is living on a rented farm there is no need to have unattractive surroundings.

The first thing for any woman to do in starting to improve her home grounds is to look at the place as though he had never been there before and criticize it as though it belonged to someone else.

She will see that there is a lot of rubbish such as old boards, cans, boxes, etc., that should be gathered up and disposed of. The next thing is to have broken planks in the fence and rotten posts replaced with good ones, or if a wire fence is used, have sagging wires straightened.

If the man of the house has a habit of leaving the farm wagon or machinery in the door yard, he should be persuaded that some other place affords a better parking place and have the offending articles removed.

If the chicken coops must remain in the yard, and this is often the case, the next step in improving the appearance of the grounds is to group all coops in the back yard. Then since nothing so quickly changes the appearance of a depressing looking farmstead as the use of whitewash, all coops, unpainted outbuildings in the yard, and plank fences surrounding should each be treated to a good coat of whitewash.

If there are bare spots on the lawn a few pounds of grass seed, if sown and given a chance, will care for these. A mixture of blue grass and white clover should be sown after the soil in the bare spots has been pulverized. If the ground is not too hard the seed may be sown and sand sprinkled over the bare spots. A still day should be chosen to sow seed lest they be blown away from where they are needed.

Flower beds scattered over the yard should give way to green grass, and shrubs dotted here and there should be changed so as not to interfere with the clear open sweep of the lawn in front of the dwelling. The shrubs should be placed at side of the yard, around the foundation, and in corners, but never where they obstruct the view.

How with the rubbish all cleared away, farming implements removed from the yard, grass growing on the bare spots, ugly flower bed discarded, the whitewash applied where needed, the doorway will have been so greatly improved that the housewife may think her task complete. But her picture is just about as far along as is that of the artist when he has assembled his canvas and colors and settled down to begin work. The next step is how and what and when to plant.

Young Woman Dead After 56 Operations

Memphis, Tenn., March 29—(AP)—Death today had finally overtaken Miss Alameda Cahill, 19, who underwent fifty-six operations after entering a hospital here four years ago for removal of her appendix.

Following Miss Cahill's first operation, the wound steadily refused to heal and surgeons from all sections of the United States had confessed themselves unable to diagnose the disease which balked all efforts to cure her, and finally resulted in her death last night.

Southern Pines Woman Elected D. A. R. Leader

Raleigh, N. C., March 29—(AP)—Mrs. Charles R. Whitaker of Southern Pines, was elected State Regent of the North Carolina Daughters of the American Revolution at the concluding session this afternoon at Sir Walter Hotel. She succeeded Mrs. Edwin C. Gregory of Salisbury.

Mrs. Ralph Van Ledingham, of Charlotte, was elected State vice-regent, and Mrs. James B. Sweet, Southern Pines, corresponding secretary.

The report of a the-nominating committee was accepted, there being no nominations from the floor. The convention was closed with a memorial service to members who died since the last meeting.

MORE DENIALS PRESENTED IN COTTON PROBE

Testimony of Arthur Marsh Brings Batch of Inquiries From Cotton Firms.

Washington, March 29.—(AP)—Another batch of telegraphic denials reached the Senate cotton (sub) investigating committee today.

The Valley Gin Company, San Benito, Texas, and Williams-Selman Company of Atlanta, offering to testify under oath that they have not now and never had any connection with the Marsh-Clayton & Company, of Houston, Texas.

Arthur R. Marsh, New York cotton broker, who charges the Houston house with wholesale market rigging, named the Atlanta and San Benito concerns as possibly associated with the Clayton company in the alleged manipulations.

Representative Rankin of Mississippi, who is sitting with the Senate sub-committee, raised the issue today as to whether the reclassifying of cotton stored in New York by committee representatives were being properly done. He had a telegram from Lewis K. Osmond, of New York, alleging that its three departments of agriculture cotton experts making the test were doing so in secret.

"There is so much secrecy about this that it intensifies my suspicion," Rankin said.

The Mississippi member declared that the reclassifying of cotton samples done in the committee room by the trio of government experts a week or two ago was "the most colossal farce I ever witnessed."

"I have submitted those samples to other cotton men and every one of them pronounced it buzz-fuzz except these three government men," Rankin said.

He demanded that Osmond or other cotton experts be permitted to witness the sampling by the department of agriculture grades. Senator Smith, South Carolina, the committee chairman, said, however, that he would get the committee together to see what should be done.

Senator Ransdell, Louisiana, said the committee had no reason to permit "interested parties" in the Marsh-Clayton controversy to participate in the sampling of the cotton.

to write a faithful drama of the section.

The atmosphere of his story is highly colorful and his two leading characters are strongly etched against the degrading influences about them.

Miss De Putti is a cabaret dancer with all the tremendous longing for night life which creeps insidiously into the blood while Kenneth Harlan is a yegg who reforms and works to bring the girl out of the slough.

The story was written under the title "Backwash" and both the treatment and the script were done by Alexander.

James Young directed "Midnight Rose," adding to it many deft touches from the depths of his vast experience.

The supporting cast contains exceptional strength with such players as Henry Kolker, Lorimer Johnston, George Larkin, Gunboat Smith, Wendell Franklin and Frank Brownlee.

The program of Frederick Gunster the noted tenor, who will give a concert at East Carolina Teachers College tomorrow evening in the Campus building, at 8 o'clock, is made up for the most part of English songs which are beautiful songs, lyric and not arias and heavy numbers.

Mr. Gunster is a lyric tenor and the kind of songs that he sings are those that sing their way into the hearts and minds of people. Almost every one will find some favorite and several familiar songs on this program especially if he has been listening to the radio or is familiar with records.

One group is made up of dialect and folksongs, among which are negro spirituals and the Russian folksong, "Volga Boatmen's Song." In one group "Thou Art Like a Flower" and "A Swan" appear. Another group has modern English songs, "Tallyho," "Blue Are Her Eyes," "Pleading," and other beautiful numbers. The opening group has old English songs, with one sweet, soft Italian number and one number from the opera "Xerxes," the "Largo."

The program is not heavy, yet will be satisfying to lovers of music, and will be enjoyable to those who are not musicians.

NERVOUS HEADACHE

Kentuckian Tells How Taking Black-Draught Relieved His Pains and How Well He Feels Now.

Waynesburg, Ky.—How a few doses of Theford's Black-Draught brought relief to a man who had been suffering from frequent spells of severe headache, is told below in the statement of Mr. Charles E. Todd, of Estesburg, near this place.

"I was suffering with nervous headaches. About once a week I would have these headaches, and have to quit work, and go to bed for about twenty-four hours. I would have pains in my neck, and right behind my right ear.

"A merchant at Estesburg saw me one day when I was suffering, and told me to try taking Black-Draught, which I did.

"I took a package home that night, and took a few doses. It relieved me. From that time on, I would take Black-Draught as soon as I felt like I was going to have one of those headaches—and they wouldn't come on.

"Every few weeks, I take three or four doses of Black-Draught, and I feel so well, and do my work, and don't lose any more time with headache.

"I haven't had a headache in six months."

NEW YORK COTTON
New York, March 29.—(AP)—A slight early advance on eastern belt shower prospects and steady cables was followed by sagging prices in the cotton market today under local selling and near-month liquidation, influenced by rumors of somewhat freer spot offerings in the south.

Prices worked three or four points below yesterday's closing quotation with the mid-afternoon market net unchanged to 4 points lower.

Futures closed steady, unchanged to 7 points lower. Spot quiet; 19.85.

STOCK MARKET
New York, March 29.—(AP)—Confused price movements characterized today's stock market, but the advantage rested on the side of those working for higher prices. Stiffening money rates and the prospect of a large increase in the Federal Reserve brokers' loans after the close of the market led to extensive profit-taking and bear selling in some of the recent favorites, but new leaders were brought forward in the electric, public utility, tobacco and copper groups. Trading showed a further slowing up in volume.

There was little in the day's news to influence the price movement. Operators for the rise found encouragement in Secretary Mellon's statement that the gold export movement was not likely to disturb credit conditions. Time money was advanced to a flat 4 3-4 per cent basis today instead of 4 5-8 to 4 3-4 in reflection of the heavy month-end demand for funds.

Consolidated Gas and Brooklyn Edison started the upswing in public utilities, soaring 5 1-8 and 7 1/2 points respectively, to new high records. General Electric moved up more than 3 points to a new top and Westinghouse Electric followed in its wake. Copper shares responded to reports of expanding sales and stiffening red metal prices. Greene Cananea jumping five points and Anaconda two. Dunhill International, Bayuk Cigars, Davison Chemical and International Telephone also recorded good gains.

Radio rallied from a low of 168 to 173 1-2 and then slipped back to around 171. General Motors, after falling down to 182 1-2, rallied to around 185. U. S. Steel was heavy on predictions of a drop in March unfilled orders.

Western rails pointed upward in the afternoon trading with Union Pacific, Chicago Northwestern and Great Northern preferred in brisk demand. Some heaviness had developed earlier in New York Central, Chesapeake and Ohio and Texas and Pacific.

The close was strong. Total sales approximated 3,000,000 shares.

MACK NOT PLEASED WITH THE ATHLETICS

Philadelphia, March 29.—(AP)—Word drifted up from the south today that Manager Mack is far from pleased with the showing of the Athletics to date. Mack and some of the squad are en route to Philadelphia, while Captain Eddie Collins, with the main group in tow, will stop in Greensboro, N. C., for an exhibition game tomorrow. All hands are expected here by Saturday in time for the opening of the city series with the Phillies, who are also homeward bound.

Sports writers who have been with the athletics sent out the word today that he has too many good reserves to tolerate so-called stars who won't do their best. The writers indicated that Haas, a recruit, might start the season in the outfield, although the club has five veteran gardeners.

an from Dayton, Ohio, will make his bid for light heavyweight recognition against Leo Lomski, of Aberdeen, Washington, in Madison Square Garden tomorrow night after only a year of fighting. That handicap alone has forced the betting odds to eight to five against his chances of beating the tough veteran who twice floored champion Tommy Loughran.

London, March 29.—(AP)—Lord Cace, who recently underwent a serious operation and since resigned as Lord Chancellor, was unconscious and slowly sinking today. He is 72 years old and has been Lord Chancellor since November, 1924.

About Coats and Frocks for Women, Juniors and Children

We Believe in A Woman's Right To Be Beautiful

Long ago Puritan America decreed that beauty must be largely a cultivation of the inner virtues. Feminine faces, except for a dab of talcum powder, were as Nature made them. If Nature had been unkind—or forgetful—one's only hope lay in "good works" and an early demise.

Today all is changed. Lipsticks and the rouge pots are part of the modern women's rebellion against household drudgery. Once she had to bend over a hot cookstove, or a steaming wash tub six days a week. Today she presses a button and has plenty of time left over to make herself attractive.

We always smile rather happily when we pass our Cosmetic Department. It is more than just a counter where one may buy excellent toilet preparations for a modest sum. It is a visible symbol that Beauty once more has resumed her rightful place—that feminine charm and allurements are not to be banished utterly from the face of the earth.

JOSEPHUS DANIELS IS CHARGED WITH OIL SCANDAL PART

In the files of all of these departments.

The late Senator LaFollette made the charge that the leasing act, of which the Senator from Montana was the leading advocate, was a measure in the interest of the Standard Oil and other private oil corporations.

"It was in an attempted answer to this direct and serious charge of the late Senator LaFollette that the senator from Montana, Walsh, divulged the fact, offered in defense of his attitude at that time, that the whole scheme of turning public oil lands over to private corporations was fathered by the leaders of the democratic party, with Secretary Lane as the head of the movement," Robinson continued.

Robinson read from a former speech of Senator Walsh of Montana, on the senate floor, and said that President Wilson had demanded the resignation of Secretary Lane, who is now dead, as a result of a controversy over leases in naval oil reserve number 3 in California.

"Turning his fire on John Barton Payne, who succeeded Lane as interior secretary, the Indianan declared that immediately after enactment of the Daniels leasing act, Payne began making leases to private corporations to drill oil wells on public lands just outside the naval oil reserve."

While Payne was in the cabinet for less than a year, Robinson said he had granted 100 leases to private oil interests on lands immediately adjacent to Teapot Dome, embracing an area 5,000 acres greater than the Wyoming reserve itself.

"We have this vicious circle of exploiting the navy's oil completed by the action of the democratic cabinet officials," Robinson said. "One leasing land just outside the naval reserve by which the naval reserves are drained and the other simultaneously leasing land within the naval reserves to offset the drainage of the wells just outside the reserve."

Thus the record shows that the conspiracy of private oil interests to grab the oil within the naval reserves of the nation was entered into and consummated long before the republican national convention of 1920-entered into and consummated with the active aid and assistance of democratic cabinet officers and democratic leaders in both branches of congress.

Raleigh, March 29.—(AP)—Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy in the Wilson Administration today took issue with Senator Robinson of Indiana, in the Teapot Dome controversy.

"There is not a word of truth in the statement made by Senator Robinson, Republican, Indiana, that the Wilson Administration ever contemplated leasing or did lease a single acre of the naval oil reserve except a few acres which experts reported must be leased or operated to prevent serious loss or drainage," he said today.

"The few acres leased by the Secretary of the Interior were all for the protection of the big naval reserve, as a statement of Judge Barton Payne, the secretary abundantly proved, when the Fall scandal became a stench in the nostrils of the nation.

"If the Wilson Administration had suggested legislation," his statement concluded, "in order to lease Teapot Dome, as the Indiana Senator falsely charges, it would have leased them. The fact that it did not lease them declined to consider any applications to do so, is complete repudiation of the wild and absurd statement of the Indiana Senator."
