

SINCLAIR IN COURT AGAIN IN OIL CASE

Already Under Two Jail Sentences, Oil Operator Faces Other Conspiracy Charges.

Washington, April 9.—(AP)—Still expressing confidence of an acquittal, Harry F. Sinclair came jauntily to the District of Columbia Supreme court today to face once more the charge that he conspired with Albert B. Fall to defraud the government in the Teapot Dome lease.

Sinclair, who was accompanied to court by his wife and mother, faced trial alone this time, the case against Fall having been postponed because of the former interior secretary's ill health? His attorneys, however, will draw heavily on the deposition given by Fall recently at El Paso in an effort to free their client.

The first move was a motion by the defense to be permitted to question the veniremen instead of having the court do it under the plan recently adopted in this jurisdiction. The first twelve prospective jurors ordered in the box for examination included two women, Mrs. Anna C. Dehart, and Miss Margaret Shockey, were among them.

Edward Tilton, John B. Ulrich and Delbert F. Bailey said they had read about the case. Tilton said he had formed an opinion and did not believe he could lay it aside. Ulrich said he had formed an opinion. Tilton and Ulrich then were challenged for cause and excused.

C. Wendell Shoemaker, bank cashier, said he had formed an opinion and was challenged for cause and excused; Hoover objected to the court examining the panel and the court overruled him, but Justice Taft permitted him to state his ground for the objection.

Washington, April 9.—(AP)—Already under two jail sentences growing out of his lease of Teapot Dome, Harry F. Sinclair went to court today for trial on charges of criminal conspiracy in connection with the same transaction.

The oil operator's two previous convictions, which resulted in a sentence of three months in jail and a $500 fine for contempt of the Senate and six months in jail for jury shadowing at his first conspiracy trial with Albert B. Fall, declared voided, have been appealed. Today, he faced trial alone, the case having been severed because of Fall's inability, due to ill health, to make the trip here from the southwest.

A panel of 26 persons, three of whom are women, two of them married, were summoned to the District of Columbia Supreme Court for jury duty examination.

Little delay had been anticipated in view of the practice adopted by the court last January of the trial justice, instead of opposing attorneys, questioning the veniremen. Justice Jennings Bailey was expected to follow this Texas plan of selecting a jury, although Geo. P. Hoover, of Sinclair's legal staff, was prepared to note an exception.

Considering the first trial's developments and those which followed, a decrease in the number starting today, the jury probably will have to deal principally with the $23,000 in Liberty bond, turned over to Fall by Sinclair shortly after the lease of the Wyoming oil field.

Sinclair, it had been indicated, would admit to transmitting this amount to Fall, but would claim, as has Fall, that it was for a legitimate one-third interest in the former cabinet officer's New Mexico ranch. The government, on the other hand, will contend that this was given in return for the lease.

Government counsel expected their case would be completed in a week or ten days, while defense attorneys will probably require three weeks, depending on the prosecution method of attack.

BAD WEATHER STILL HOLDS GERMAN ACES

Squalls - and Hail storms Prevent Take off of Bremen on Trip to America.

Dublin, April 9.—(AP)—A brief period of favorable flying weather gave place today to squalls and hailstorms over the Atlantic and the German plane Bremen waited at Baldonnell airbase.

The monoplane's prospective flight to Mitchell field, New York, resolved itself into a battle between the weather and the wits of Captain Hermann Koell and Colonel James Fitzmaurice, pilots.

Baron von Huenefeld, sponsor of the flight, three sciences to the winds and announced he was ready to start despite rain, hail, ice or any other element. In the office mess at Baldonnell last night he said dramatically:

"It would be better to fly and perish than to appear afraid to start."

"We shall wait until we get good weather," Captain Koell responded quietly. Colonel Fitzmaurice took the same view.

The latest weather reports were far from encouraging. There was a low pressure area off Iceland, roughly extending to mid-Atlantic and slowly moving eastward. It may pass within 48 hours but there was another low pressure area following it from near Newfoundland.

WINSTON HOST TO THOUSANDS

Winston-Salem, N. C., April 9.—(AP)—The Twin City today went about its business as usual after entertaining probably the largest crowd in its history for the Moravian sunrise Easter service held yesterday for the 150th time.

A vast throng of men, women and children witnessed the beautiful ceremonial just at sunrise yesterday despite a biting cold wind that swept through the streets near old Salem church and across the Moravian graveyard.

The venerable Bishop Edward Roundthaler read the Litany for the 52nd time and the Moravian band of 300 pieces played its famous antiphonal Easter music.

Despite the fact that the service has been unchanged since its inception on Easter morning in 1772, yesterday's ceremonial was as modern as it well could be. Amalgams placed in front of the quaint old home church of the Moravian faith carried the words of the Bishop throughout the throng as he announced from the steps of the building that "Christ is risen." In the cemetery the same type of equipment carried the words of the service to the very outskirts of the thousands gathered in long lines between the rows of flat white gravestones.

STILL SEARCH FOR SLAYER OF DRESS MAKER

Inquiry into Death of Mrs. Annie Terry Ends up Where it Started.

Pittsboro, April 9.—(AP)—The search for the slayers of Mrs. Annie Terry, Durham dressmaker, whose body was found in the Cape Fear river near Aventa Ferry a week ago, today was right back where it was when the body was found.

Clues that Sheriff Walker Blair has been following for ten days resulted in clearing the name of H. L. Haskins, Greenville, S. C. traveling man, and T. J. Bigby, of Greer, S. C. of suspicion. Haskins came from Atlanta voluntarily, the sheriff said, to show that he could not have been involved in the killing. He proved that he was registered and at a hotel in Durham throughout the night on which Mrs. Terry disappeared.

It was at first reported that Haskins had been arrested but Sheriff Blair said last night that this was in error. Haskins was never under arrest.

Bigby whose name had been mentioned in connection with the case, proved that he was in Greer the night in question, the sheriff said, and did not come to North Carolina.

The sheriff, since a trip to Rock Hill, S. C., following a clue, has refused to tell any of his plans. He was as reticent today as ever and nothing is known as to his intentions.

KIDNAP RING IS BROKEN AT CHICAGO, ILL.

Seven Arrested as Police Continue Search For Leader of Band in Northern Illinois.

Chicago, April 9.—(AP)—"Million dollar kidnap ring" which police say fattened on ransoms in Chicago, Detroit, Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, has been broken. Seven are under arrest on kidnaping charges, and detective squads, armed with machine guns and tear gas, are searching northern Illinois for another leader.

Thomas Gaynor, automobile dealer and part owner of the New McCormick hotel, whose abduction led to the seven arrests Saturday, spent a happy an Easter as one could say yesterday, following a week's imprisonment while his abductors were seeking to collect $10,000 ransom for his release.

Despite the arrest of the seven and the release of Gaynor, police said they would not be satisfied until they had arrested Harold Conliffe, the man they say plotted the kidnaping, and his two heavily armed companions. Conliffe, police were told, was prepared to make a desperate fight against arrest, and this led searching squads to take every precaution as they toured last night and today from one northern Illinois resort to another.

Confessions police said they had obtained from the seven, told of plans for several more Chicago kidnapings, with demands for ransom totaling $1,000,000. All were to be executed in the next few months.

Gaynor was kidnaped Palm Sunday from his automobile, blindfolded with adhesive tape, and kept prisoner for a week in a summer cottage at Crystal Lake.

Harold Levy, assistant state's attorney, said the death penalty will be asked for the principals in the plot. "Kidnaping for ransom is punishable by death in Illinois under a statute enacted in 1901," he declared. "This case certainly is one to merit the extreme penalty."

The seven held, who are suspected of implication in recent Detroit abductions, are William "Big Bill" Lewis, Frank Carson, Harry Burns, Otto Schoen, James O'Brien, Herman Harris, and Arthur Brown.

FIFTEEN HURT IN BUS WRECK

Fifteen school children received minor injuries this morning when school bus turned over while enroute from the Caraway section to the Farmville public school building. There were thirty-five children on the bus at the time of the accident but all escaped with exception of the fifteen who received injuries which were declared to be of a minor nature.

The accident was caused by a self running front end a building directly in front of the bus. The impact caused the large machine to leave the road and turn over before the driver could regain control.

Members of the school board conducted an investigation into the wreck a short time afterwards and declared it to have been unavoidable.

McLEAN OPENS BIG EXPOSITION AT GOLDSBORO

Goldsboro, April 9.—(AP)—Highways of North Carolina Virginia and Maryland have so developed that local fruits and vegetables could be marketed within 12 or 15 hours in centers of consumption like Baltimore, Washington, Richmond and Norfolk, said Governor Angus W. McLean in an address here today, opening of the four day Eastern Carolina Exposition.

The North Carolina executive took up the problems to be met in the marketing of agricultural produce, the providing of substitutes for the oversupply of cotton, the keeping of farm records systems similar to those in use in the business world, and the extension of livestock raising in the state with the thought of increasing the milk and butter supply.

"The principal trouble," the Governor said, "is that produce merchants and housewives have not been able to depend upon state resources for their vegetables and truck supplies" but it is found "necessary to ship the produce needed daily from Florida and other southern states."

A prominent livestock expert of the middle west, Governor McLean said, made the unqualified statement that he had never seen a section that lends itself so admirably to cattle and hog raising as the coastal section of North Carolina. He is moving here.

"I have no doubt," said the Governor, "that our own farmers will within the next ten years so increase their cattle raising and dairying activities as to increase manifold daily returns from such operations at the present time."

The chief executive said he was convinced that we are "fritting away valuable time and efforts" in not realizing how great are the opportunities, present for a good industry of livestock and poultry raising.

WRANGLE AT HEARING OF COTTON MAN

Washington, April 9.—(AP)—Demands of J. H. Gilbert, counsel for Arthur R. Marsh, who has made sweeping charges of cotton market manipulation against the Houston, Texas, firm of Anderson Clayton & Co. that the daily "position sheets" of the firm over a period of years be produced first the senate's investigating sub-committee into a wrangle today that had not been settled when the session ended.

Gilbert drew a statement from William L. Clayton, head of the firm, that the sheets had been preserved and showed a daily record of transactions in all world markets in a summarized form. The Houston merchant declined to produce the mass of documentary evidence Gilbert asked, however, unless directed to do so by the committee.

As a compromise he proposed that Senator Smith, of South Carolina, committee chairman, select a certified public accountant without any suggestion from Marsh or his supporters as to who this should be and send him to Houston to check up on figures already given by Clayton as to his firm's operations on particular dates, in categorical denial of Marsh's charges.

Whether this would be done or whether certain of the position sheets covering the specific dates of manipulative operations charged by Marsh would be examined by the committee in executive session was not finally settled. Clayton protested against Gilbert's request on the ground that it was merely a "fishing expedition" he had answered specifically and voluntarily thirty different charges made against him by Marsh, he said.

RIVER BRIDGE COLLAPSES AT WASHINGTON

One Man Injured and Truck Submerged When Two Ten Yard Spans Give Away.

Two ten yard spans of the river bridge at Washington collapsed this morning resulting in the injury of one man and the submerging of two trailers attached to a large truck of the Rapid Transit Company when they were plunged into fifteen feet of water below. The truck did not go clean through the bridge, but remained suspended in a perilous position. A truck belonging to a Washington baking concern is also said to have crashed into the river.

The truck, carrying the two heavily loaded trailers was bound from Washington to Wilson when the bridge suddenly gave away beneath the heavy load. The injured man was a driver of one of the trucks.

Traffic from Washington today was being routed on the north side of the river, crossing at Grimesland or Greenville. While every effort was being made to repair the wrecked spans, indications today were that the bridge would not be opened to traffic before tomorrow.

MAN SHOT BY DISTILLERS

Floyd Barnwell Tells On Distillers and is Shot and Severely Cut up.

Hendersonville, April 9.—(AP)—Two hours after he had reported a still to officers Sunday, Floyd Barnwell, of the Clear Creek-Bear Valley section of this county, was brought to a Hendersonville hospital, bearing serious rifle wounds. He had several cuts about the body and one hand was almost severed, a nail was at the hospital.

The incident resulted in the arrest of Claude Lyda and Roy Barnwell, of the same section, charged with an assault with a deadly weapon.

Lyda also was cut, but not seriously. Floyd Barnwell claims that the still was the property of Lyda and Claude Barnwell, and that they attacked him after officers, acting on his "tip," had destroyed the still. Lyda says the still belong to Floyd Barnwell, and that the latter attacked him without reason.

Officers, investigating the case, today were finding it difficult to make any progress, due to the fact that families in the section were definitely lining up on one side or the other and giving contradictory information, the officers said.

PAY HOMAGE TO R. E. LEE AT ATLANTA

Atlanta, April 9.—(AP)—Those who fought him and those who followed him gripped hands across the years today in homage to Robert E. Lee.

Sixty-three years after Appomattox, ranks of gray and blue-garbed veterans, in wading numbers, were stimulated to this fresh expression of felicity by unveiling of the huge equestrian figure of the southern armies' commander in chief, the first unit in the colossal memorial to the Confederacy being graven on a stupendous scale by bas-relief on the sheer granite side of Stone Mountain.

Here to participate in the impressive ceremonies attendant on formal dedication of the gigantic monument—the largest in written history of man—were civil and military dignitaries from north and south, including a party of leading Congressional figures from Washington, the governors of three states and official representatives of twenty more.

To Mayor James J. Walker of New York, fell the honor of accepting the monument on behalf of the nation; Marcus W. Beck, Justice of the Georgia Supreme Court, performed a similar function for the south.

In the tiny hands of five year old Robert Edward Lee IV, grandson of the gray leader, was the responsibility of loosening the folds of fabric that hung about the gargantuan sculpture.

Notable among the eastern military units taking part in the ritual were the Governor's Foot Guards of New York, acting as escort for Mayor Walker; and details from the Annapolis Veterans of Petersburg, N. H., and the fifty Maryland Regiment of Baltimore.

Rev. Giles B. Cook, of Matthews, Va., last survivor of General Lee's staff, had been expected to deliver the benediction, but could not attend and his place was taken by Rev. Wallace Rogers of Atlanta.

In the Congressional party were Senators Harris and George of Georgia; Sackett, of Kentucky; Keyes, of New Hampshire, and Smoot of Utah; Congressmen Bell and Crisp, of Georgia; Tilton of Connecticut; McPadden of Pennsylvania; Ramsseyer of Iowa; Robinson of Kentucky; Faust of Missouri; Lea of California; O'Connor of New York; and Arnold of Illinois.

The Governors attending were G. G. Hardman of Georgia; Bibb Graves of Alabama and John G. Richards of South Carolina.

Stone Mountain, Ga., April 9.—(AP)—The equestrian figure of General Robert E. Lee, on the mountain side here is the first of a central group which will form the largest carving in history.

Standing out in bas-relief on the sheer precipice which is more than 400 feet high, the Lee carving from the top of the General's head to the base of "Traveler," his horse, measures 130 feet. From the tip of the horse's ears to the end of its tail the distance is 175 feet. The carving virtually would cover the side of a building, a city block in length and nine stories high.

Those who have made comparisons between the figure and other famous works of art, have estimated that the Sphinx of Egypt could be placed on Traveler's neck and that the Lion of Lucerne in Switzerland would not be visible from the ground with the naked eye should it be placed in the crotch of the general's elbow.

It is necessary to climb a slanting stairway up the mountain side and stand about the carving to appreciate its size. Although the figure is not yet completed, ten workmen were able to escape a rainstorm by taking refuge under the heel and stirrup. Stone cutters estimate that the granite sword would weigh sixty tons if detached.

With the stars of rank on the General's collar as wide as a man's body, workmen easily stood upon the top of the General's head to the base of "Traveler," his horse, between the shoulder and elbow. In order to place this gigantic bas-relief on the mountain side, it was necessary to construct special scaffolding of steel rods imbedded into the solid granite of the precipice. A long stairway was constructed from the ground while special lowering devices were installed from above. Stone cutters literally flitted with death in placing the machinery on the mountain. Shops and engines have been installed on different levels with small shafts for shelter and sleeping quarters when necessary.

LOCALS LOSE TO RICHMOND MEDICAL MEN

Greenville Tobaccoists played the first game of the season with the Medical College of Virginia this morning, the score ending 9 to 4 in favor of the visitors. The game was witnessed by a crowd estimated at between six and eight hundred people despite the overcast skies and chill wind sweeping across the diamond. The game was a long drawn out affair by reason of the numbers of men used by the local club and the terrific amount of slugging at different frames.

Hansborough hurled a remarkably steady game for his teammates and at no time found himself in hot water. The features of the game was the hitting of Spencer for the medical men, with three singles and a double out of four trips to the plate and a beautiful running shoe-string catch of Potts, for the local club.

The Tobaccoists used three moundsmen in an effort to curb the willow attacks by the Medicos. Steele, Pittman and Claude pitched three innings each, exhibiting good form.

Preceding the game Rev. H. F. Jones presented Manager Joliff with a beautiful basket of flowers on behalf of the citizens of Greenville. The gift was donated by the Greenville Floral Company.

First Choices Matched For Opening Games

New York, April 9.—(AP)—The start of the major league campaign will find the first two popular choices on each circuit lined up as opponents.

In the American, the Yankees engage with the Athletics while in the National the Pirates hook up with the Cards.

With the exception of the Senators and the Red Sox, all the clubs begin hostilities on Wednesday, Washington and Boston go into action tomorrow.

Indications are that Benton will be the mound for the Giants against his former clubmates, the Braves, who probably will use Greenfield, graduate of the McGraw school, on the peak.

Probable opening day pitching selections:

- American League
 - Boston at Washington, MacPadden vs. Marberry.
 - New York at Philadelphia; Grove vs. Moore.
 - Cleveland at Chicago; Hudlin vs. Lyons.
 - St. Louis at Detroit; Gray vs. Whitehill.
- National League
 - Pittsburgh at St. Louis; Kremer vs. Haines.
 - Boston at New York; Greenfield vs. Benton.
 - Philadelphia at Brooklyn; Ring vs. Petty.
 - Chicago at Cincinnati; Root vs. Luque.

LOOKS LIKE HUGGINS IS BOSS AGAIN

Chicago, April 9.—(AP)—The experts have had their say, the hot stove league season is over and the seven underdogs of the American league, fortified with new help, are ready to show them they are all wrong.

For almost to a man, these critics of the national pastime have agreed that not a club exists in the junior circuit big or powerful enough to stop Miller Huggins and his rampart Yankees from again making a one ring circus out of the 29th annual season which opens officially on Wednesday.

This season more than ever it will be the Yankees against the field. It will be the same New York team, too, as no important changes have been made in its lineup since last season when it ran away with the leading by a margin of 19 games.

While the Yankees have not demonstrated their punch in the training, exhibition games, they are confident they will act differently when they cross bats with the Philadelphia Athletics Wednesday.

Determined to end the Yankee supremacy the rest of the clubs have been busy recruiting during the past six months. Many veterans will play side by side for the first time in their long careers, the usual crop of rookies will make their first appearance in big time and new captains and one new manager will be at the helm.

In Philadelphia the fans are optimistic. Connie Mack has added two veterans, Tris Speaker and Ding Miller, to his outfield and along with Ty Cobb believes he has an outfield that can't be rivaled in the league. The Athletics believe their big advantage over the Yankees rests with their pitching staff, Grove, Walberg, Quinn and Orwoll.

Washington will open its season tomorrow there against Boston so President Coolidge can toss the first ball. The acquisition of George Sisler from St. Louis is expected to bolster the Senators.

The success or failure of Detroit is believed to rest on its pitching staff. The infield has been improved by the return of Jackie Tavener at shortstop and a heavy hitting outfield, bolstered by Harry Rice, recruited from the St. Louis Browns, the Tigers open their season at home against St. Louis.

Fourth place is the ambition of the Chicago White Sox, who open their season against Cleveland here. The White Sox will have the same pitching staff, led by Ted Lyons and Tammy Thomas. The infield is believed to be strengthened by the acquisition of the $123,000 "peach," Bill Cisell.

Much of Cleveland's success rests upon the showing of Pitcher George Uhl, who had a comparatively poor season last year. Roger Peckinpaugh will get his first start as manager of the Indians and much is expected of him.

Boston gained at least one star in the winter trading. He was Ken Williams. But with the season just about to start rumors were afloat

SEVEN CLUBS HAVE EYES ON 1928 PENNANT

By BRIAN BELL, Associated Press Sports Writer.

New York, April 9.—(AP)—National league pennant hopes, rising like sap in the spring, cover more territory this year than has been the case in recent seasons. Seven clubs sit up and evince interest at the mere mention of the championship.

Only 13 points separated the first and third place clubs last year and the training period has left no suggestion that the race this year will be any less contested.

The first division clubs of last season, Pittsburgh, St. Louis, New York and Chicago have undergone striking changes during the idle baseball months. The Pirates and Cubs added strength through the signing of talent. The Cards expect to be more formidable on account of improved physical condition of several stars and the Giants have replaced one of the game's greatest hitters with a youngster, who will play second base where Rogers Hornsby worked in 1927.

The addition of Hazen Cuyler to Chicago's outfield has converted Joe McCarthy's cutter trio into one of the strongest in the game and at the same time "Sparky" Adams is credited with having "made" the Pittsburgh infield. St. Louis sees O'Farrell, Thevenow, Blades and Rheim in much better shape to give their best efforts.

The Giants present a problem. Hornsby has gone to Boston and Grimes to Pittsburgh. Andy Cohen has been given the second base assignment and must sink or swim around it. The other assets are Frank Hogan, a promising young catcher, Frank O'Doul, a hard hitting outfielder, and several brilliant young pitchers, Bill Walker, a Denver left hander, leading the list.

Three clubs which were in the second division hope for better things and even vision a pennant at the end of the season. Cincinnati has lost Pete Donohue, an able pitcher, but a return to winning form of Adolpho Luque, the Cuban star, has encouraged Jack Hendricks and his aides. The Reds think George Kelly, much improved in health, will do some fancy basing and hitting.

Boston's Braves, bolstered by Hornsby at second and Lester Blei at third, expect to display more punch. The Braves have picked up Eddie Baundt, a left handed pitcher who seems to have the goods.

Brooklyn has drawn on Boston for Dave Bancroft, who can still play shortstop and hit, and Cincinnati has continued Rube Bressler to the outfield, Hendrick and Herman, former first basemen, have been converted into outfielders and the minor leagues have sent Bissonette Riconda and Freigau to lend a hand in the infield with Tyson to help outfield.

The Phillies must undergo a period reconstruction before they can challenge their fellows. A good start was made in getting Bill Kelley for first base, Arthur Whitney, at third, and Bill Detrick, an infielder-outfielder.

Champions in Each Loop Open Against Chief Rivals

PIRATES vs. CARDS and YANKEES vs. ATHLETICS

The Yanks and Pirates, last year's pennant winners, open the 1928 campaign against their respective runners-up—the Athletics and the Cardinals, which are rated as the leading rivals again this season. Above are Pie Traynor and Frankie Friesch, captains of the Pirates and Cards, which open at St. Louis April 11, while below are Babe Ruth, Tris Speaker and Ty Cobb, who will figure in the Yankee-Athletics set-to the same day.

New York, (AP)—Pennant races for 1928 in both the American and National leagues will get off to a flying start the opening day. The luck of the draw makes a slogan of "up and at 'em" operative for the 1927 champions and runners-up in both circuits.

The New York Yankees will ring up the curtain at Philadelphia against the Athletics, according to the advance billing the sternest opposition the title holders have to face.

Across the way in the National league, Pittsburgh goes to St. Louis to play the Cardinals, who are given preferential rating as active pennant contenders from the jump.

The boys who made the pace last season are set to start the ball rolling with gusto again and will put their best foot forward without delay. Connie Mack has Lefty Grove loaded with fast balls and Waite Hoyt's sharp breaking curve is ready to speak a word for Miller Huggins.

The Cards and Pirates have a wide range of pitching choices and McKechnie and Bush can almost draw a name out of a hat for the opening pitching assignment.

RUTH PICKS CARDINALS, HORNSBY LIKES PIRATES

New York, (AP)—Here's how the highest paid playing stars of the two major leagues, Babe Ruth of the Yankees and Rogers Hornsby of the Braves, dope the first four clubs in each circuit in the coming pennant races:

NATIONAL	RUTH	HORNSBY
Pirates	Cardinals	Pirates
Cardinals	Pirates	Giants
Giants	Yankees	Braves
Braves	Yankees	Athletics

Plenty College Baseball Today

Raleigh April 9.—(AP)—There was plenty of college baseball offered North Carolina today Easter Monday, as big five and little five teams swung into action either with one another or against outsiders.

Salisbury drew the attention of the Western and Piedmont section of the state with its annual fight on between Davidson and the University of North Carolina. The Tar Heels, with several heavy hitting veterans, were looked upon as holding an edge over Monk Hourng's Wildcats who, however, have been enjoying a healthy start this year.

The central and eastern residents of the state split, with both Durham and Raleigh offering attractions. At Durham Duke University put on an extra money's worth by staging a double header with Princeton and University of Pennsylvania. The Capital City turned its attention to the annual Wake Forest-N. C. State scrap.

At Hickory, Lenoir-Rhyne entertained Guilford in a game having the earmarks of importance upon the outcome of the little five race. Greensboro memorial stadium held the Elon-High Point contest, another important engagement of the smaller clubs.

Atlantic Christian met an outsider Virginia Medical College.

MANY NET REGISTERED FOR PLAY

Pinehurst, April 9.—(AP)—Start today of the tenth annual north and south tennis tournament found many leading net stars of the nation registered for play.

Notable among those in the events scheduled for both sexes were George Lot, Chicago, number three in the national ranking; Tamio Abe, the Japanese singles champion, and a considerable figure in southern spring competition; Frank Childs, New York, national junior champion; W. Howard Vesell, New York; Ralph Bagers, New York; Mrs. Marlon Zinderstein, Jessup, Wilmington, Del.; Mrs. Stokes Weaves, and Mrs. de Forest Candee, both of New York.

SPORTS SLANTS

By ALAN J. GOULD

Associated Press Sports Editor.
 New York, April 9.—(AP)—Lloyd Hahn, ace of American middle distance runners, not only will go to Europe in advance of the main olympic contingent but will be accompanied by his coach, Jack Ryder, and given full leeway in conditioning himself for the international games at Amsterdam.

No official decision has yet been reached on Hahn's plan. None will be until ruler and Layson Robertson, the olympic head coach, get together in Philadelphia later this month, but it can be said with authority that Hahn will have the full support of the olympic organization in any special plan of olympic preparation.

The probability is that the great Nebraska and his coach will be advised to go to France where the climate is more nearly like that of America, instead of to either England or Holland for advance training. They probably will embark at least two or three weeks before the main body of athletes sails on July 12.

Some opposition has been voiced to showing any favoritism or granting any special dispensation to Hahn but the idea of those guiding the olympic argosy is expressed in this fashion by one in authority:

"Why shouldn't Hahn have every advantage we can give him? He is far and away the greatest American middle distance star since Mel Sheppard or Ted Meredith. For the first time in 20 years Hahn gives America a chance to come through in the 800 and 1,500 metres runs at Amsterdam. He will be up against probably the greatest field that has ever been assembled for these events.

"Lloyd will be up against Peltzer, Nurmi, Wide, Martin of France, Douglas Lowe and other stars, all of whom will have the advantage of preparation at home, with only a short jump to Amsterdam for the big tests.

Under these circumstances it seems only ordinary fairness to permit Hahn to make his own arrangements, go over as early as he likes and get himself in shape under the direction of his own coach."

Thus Ryder will shoulder a one man job, the first time any olympic coach has been handed such an unusual responsibility.

MUSICAL COMEDY COMES TO SCREEN!

"The Gingham Girl" which is now showing at the New Theatre is one of the finest comedies seen around here for some time. It is an adaptation of the musical play by Daniel Kusell and stars Lois Wilson and George K. Arthur.

The picture had its world premiere at the Capitol Theatre in New York and was very well received. The story moves along very swiftly and the gags are very well worked into the actual story. The sets are very good and the scenes taken in Greenwich Village are real as well as being interesting. The story which deals with the adventures of a small town boy and girl in New York is helped by an excellent cast which includes beside the stars, Jed Prouty, Betty Francisco, Charles B. Crockett, Jerry Miley and Hazel Keener. Every member is good in their role and the direction of David Kirkland leaves little to be desired.

Lois Wilson, who plays the part of Mary Thompson, the little country girl in love with Johnny Cousins, gives one of the best performances of her career and is ably aided and abetted by George Arthur as Johnny Arthur is slated to become a great comedian even if he is not already that, for few artists could cram more laughs into smaller space than the star of "Rookies" and "Bardley's Magnificent."

WILBUR'S DAUGHTER HAS THRILLING TIME WHEN TRAPPED ON CLIFF. Lindsay, Cal., April 9.—(AP)—Rescued by forest rangers from a narrow ledge 2,000 feet high where darkness had trapped her and her girl companion during a trip through Yosemite valley, Miss Edna May Wilbur, daughter of Secretary of the Navy Curtis D. Wilbur, was home here today none the worse for her thrilling experience.

Miss Wilbur went to the park with a party of friends. She and Miss Ora E. Ring attempted late Saturday to descend the snow covered trail for Glacier Point to the floor of the valley. Caught by darkness, they lost the trail and presently found themselves on the narrow ledge, whence they feared to attempt further progress.

With a biting mountain wind tugging at their clothing, the girls huddled against the face of the cliff and called for help. Tourists in the valley, 2,000 feet below heard their cries, and notified the forest rangers.

Five men reached the girls shortly before midnight, and after strenuous efforts succeeded in hauling them up to the trail with ropes. Once back on the trail, they guided them down to safety, and left for home after resting. Both girls are school teachers here.

Easter Observed By Churches of City Yesterday

Easter was fittingly celebrated in Greenville yesterday with appropriate services in each of the churches. Easter sermons and special musical programs constituted the main part of the services both morning and evening, except at the Methodist church where a cantata was rendered last night.

Large crowds were present at virtually all services during the day, and especially by the Methodist church where a capacity audience greeted the choir in the rendition of a particularly striking cantata.

A special floral decorations were noticeable in the pulpits and choir lofts of each of the churches, this feature alone adding greatly to the inspiration of the services.

With banks and numbers of business houses closed Easter Monday took on a gala day aspect today, with numbers of citizens attending the East Carolina exposition at Goldsboro. The main feature of the day's activities here was an exhibition ball game at the fair grounds during the morning hours.

ABOUT TOWN

"With the victories and one defeat marked up against them, the Greenville high school basketball team is confident of doing the season with the team two to one showing in their favor, C. W. Porter, director of athletics of the local high school remarked to the writer of this column today.

"The boys are making a remarkably fine showing right on the start this season, and if they continue to play the rest of the schedule as they have the first three games, then the year will be one of their most brilliant.

"The public should come out and lend their moral support to the lads in their effort to put out the best club in history."

"Yesterday was an ideal Easter day and Greenville people did not fail to ponder the significance which the occasion has for civilization," a regular church attendant remarked to the writer this morning.

"Virtually all of the churches celebrated the resurrection of Christ with appropriate musical programs. Choirs put in extra work for more than two weeks in order that this part of the services might be in keeping with the profound importance of the day on which Christ robbed the grave of its victory, and gave to human kind the first concrete promise of immortality.

"May the American people always celebrate Easter in a fitting way. May they never become too busy or too wholly engrossed in the pursuit of the material things of life that they will forget the fulfillment of the promise of the lowly Nazarene."

"Greenville people had an opportunity of actually seeing the Tobaccoists in action today against the Medical college of Virginia. In a few days they will get another chance of seeing the boys clash with teams representing the Piedmont league. This will give everyone an opportunity of forming some opinion of what the boys will be capable of doing after the league opens and the ball begins to roll in all earnestness.

"It will be sometime of course before Manager Joliff will be able to pick his first string men, but the first game will be virtually all players in action and should give the public an idea of the type of playing we may anticipate the first of the season."

"If I had all of the money spent for gas in North Carolina yesterday, I would be one of the wealthiest men in the state," a reader asserted to the writer today.

"We agreed he might be correct because we had an opportunity of standing on the corner of a business street where traffic is heavy at all times, and it seemed to us like every car in the whole country passed there in hour's time. But we knew better. We knew that only a few of the cars in Pitt county were represented in those passing the corner where we were standing, and also that traffic on thousands of other corners in hundreds of towns in North Carolina was just like it was on our corner.

"It was a wonderful day for riding, and if our people spent several thousands dollars for gas and oil they got value received in relief from the daily grind of life and communion with the beauty and glory of nature, made possible by automobiles.

"While I would like mighty well to have all the money spent on cars during the day, I am glad it was so distributed that thousands enjoyed it and no one man reaped all the benefits from it."

"This section of the state is going to have a special replanting cotton day at the Upper Coastal Plain Test Farm, Cokey Road, Route 5, Rocky Mount, N. C., April 12th." E. F. Arnold, director of the department of agriculture of Pitt county informed the writer yesterday.

"Numbers of men familiar with cotton situations in all parts of the country will take part in the tests and should be able to offer many valuable suggestions to the planters of this district.

"Latest methods in boll weevil control will be discussed by Dr. E. W. Dunning, entomologist, U. S. Department of Agriculture, D. R. Y. Winters, director of the North Carolina Experiment station, will tell of the varieties of cotton which will fill North Carolina mill demands. Fertilizers and cultural methods of cotton will be discussed by R. E. Curran, Jr., assistant director in charge of the experiment station.

"There will be a number of open discussions and demonstrations in which every cotton growing farmer should be interested. Every body is urged to attend and take advantage of this opportunity to gain first hand knowledge of late developments in the cotton industry."

CHECK UP ON REBELS IN NICARAGUAN AREA
Managua, Nicaragua, April 9-(AP)—Marine headquarters today had what was considered valuable information of the disposition of the Rebel forces and advices were received telling of the sacking of a village 250 miles from the center of recent insurgent activities.
Letters which had passed between leaders of General Augustino Sandino's rebel army found in a house in the mountains. Headquarters attached importance to these as indicating the positions of the insurgents and their strength.

Search For Lost Ship
Honolulu, April 9-(AP)—A third naval vessel, the mine sweeper Whippoorwill, was sent out from Pearl Harbor yesterday to look for the steamer Asiatic Prince, a British ship overdue a week at Yokohama. The mine sweeper Ludlow and Burns left Pearl Harbor Saturday to search a wide area north of the Hawaiian Islands. The naval authorities said yesterday neither ship had found trace of the missing vessel after travelling 700 miles northwest of Honolulu. They were instructed to continue the search.

COLD WEATHER CHECKS NEW YORK FLOODS
New York, April 9-(AP)—Cold weather today checked Easter floods in northern New York, Vermont, New Hampshire, and the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec.
High temperatures, which had melted snow and started the ice down the rivers, and heavy rains over the week end had sent many streams out of their banks, disrupting rail traffic and communication systems.

Formidable Fleet Gathers In Pacific

Eighty United States naval vessels of every type, manned by 35,000 men, will gather in mid-April at San Francisco to begin two months of maneuvers that will take them clear to Hawaii. Admiral Henry A. Wiley (left) commands and Admiral Louis R. de Steiguer (right) is next in rank. The scenes show part of the battle fleet at sea (above); gun rehearsal (lower left) on the flagship California, and the Pennsylvania (lower right) firing a broadside.

San Francisco, (AP)—A monstrous procession of battleships, destroyers, cruisers, aircraft carriers, submarines and airplanes will sweep across the Pacific to Hawaii early in April in a gigantic game of war.
Eighty ships and approximately 35,000 men of the United States fleet will engage in tactical maneuvers, gunnery exercises and war problems until the middle of June. The assemblage will be the most formidable brought together this year by the navy department.
Three battleship divisions, a destroyer squadron, four submarine divisions and a light cruiser division of the scouting fleet will leave the San Diego-San Pedro area on April 9 for San Francisco. Arriving here April 17, the group will proceed the next day toward Hawaii, working out various war problems on the way.
Admiral Henry A. Wiley, commander in chief of the United States fleet, will be in personal command aboard the flagship Texas. Next in rank will be Admiral Louis R. de Steiguer, commander of the battle fleet.
Major General Fox O'Conner, commanding the Hawaiian depart-

April 29. It will remain there for two weeks for overhaul and refueling. The crews will be given shore leave and liberty before beginning further maneuvers and fleet problems off the islands. While alternate periods in port and at sea, the fleet will remain in this area until June 13, when the vessels will sail for home ports.
The impressive, although routine maneuvers will provide valuable training for the entire personnel.
No concentration of the entire fleet is planned this year. Next year the whole United States fleet will gather in January off the coast of Panama and engage in extensive maneuvers for two months.

$15,000 FIRE AT ROCKY MOUNT. Rocky Mount, April 9.—(AP)—Damage estimated at $15,000 was caused by a fire which yesterday for a time threatened the village of Red Oak near here. A cotton gin, saw mill and grist mill owned by J. T. Jones and Son were destroyed. There was no insurance.

Several dwellings, the Red Oak farm, high school and the Baptist church also caught during the progress of the fire. A hastily formed bucket brigade and trucks from Nashville and Rocky Mount quelled the flames.

Owners of the destroyed property expressed the belief that the fire was started by several small boys who were smoking around the building. An investigation was being made today.

ATTEMPTS TO WRECK TRAIN

Greenville, April 9—(AP)—Charged with train wrecking, Hanson Grogan, 18 years old, of near Flat Rock, was lodged in jail here Sunday night. The charge grew out of the derailment near Flat Rock Saturday morning of Southern passenger train No. 4, on the Asheville-Spartanburg division of the road.

No one was injured in the derailment and no serious damage was done.

Grogan placed a large rock on the track, it is charged. A woman witness, whose name was withheld, will swear to having seen the youth place the rock on the track, officers say. The preliminary hearing was set for 4:30 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Grogan declined to talk when he was in jail, but proceeded to smash all the windows in the cell in which he was placed and had to be removed to the "dungeon" of the jail, officers said.

When the train jumped the track Saturday, it was delayed about an hour. It ran along the cross ties for about 200 feet and passengers were somewhat shaken up. It was believed at the time to have been an ordinary derailment, but investigation by officers resulted in the youth's arrest.

Officers were at a loss to account for a motive for the alleged crime.

What our century lacks in simple faith we make up for with megaphones.

Governor Smith uses his veto with common sense.

Kind hearted people passed a law forbidding the clipping of dogs' ears. "Governor Smith won't veto that kind law," said they, but he did veto it.

Dogs fight, ears clipped or unclipped. Clipping fighting dogs' ears save them trouble and pain. If you were a dog, you would have the sensitive outer part of your ears clipped once for all, rather than have them bitten a hundred times?

Newburg and all Germany celebrates with enthusiasm the 50th anniversary of Albrecht Duerer's death.

Duerer never painted "a nude lady descending a staircase," looking like a corkscrew. But his art will outlive the trash of this and the last century. He worked quickly, as this usually does. He went out to the emperor, approaching his city, took one look at his face, hurried back, and had an excellent portrait finished when the emperor arrived.

Omaha, with telegraph and telephone wires down, would have been cut off from the world, but for the radio. No storm can blow down the ether, or whatever medium it is that radio uses in its travels.

Henry Keenan, of Jersey City, deals in horses, is ninety-seven years old and says: "To live 100 years, drink a little, smoke a little and don't sit down to much." A simple remedy, but in these bootleg days, one item must be eliminated. No man using bootleg liquor habitually will live to be 100.

Dashboard Course Finder Radio's Gift To Aviation

A direction finder which keeps an airplane on its course by radio has been developed in the Bureau of Standards. This latest radio device is shown in the hands of William P. McCracken Jr., assistant secretary of commerce, while below is an enlarged view.

Washington, (AP)—Available for commercial as well as government aircraft, the course indicators developed by radio engineers of the Bureau of Standards can be utilized at comparatively small cost.

Regarded by William P. McCracken, Jr., assistant secretary of commerce for aeronautics, as one of the greatest contributions to the safety of aviation, radio beacon stations which operate the indicators are to be established by the Department of Commerce along the civil air routes throughout the country.

To utilize the beacon and the aircraft radio telephone operating companies will be required to provide only a moderate amount of engine ignition shielding and to install a very simple radio receiving set on their planes.

Special receiving sets and antennas for use with the beacons have been developed. Bureau of Standards radio men say the sets are much simpler than those which have been in use on planes heretofore. The familiar trailing wire with its possible dangers and its directive effect introducing apparent variation of the course, is eliminated. It is replaced by a short vertical metal rod. The use of this improved antenna is made possible by a receiving set which is highly sensitive, light in weight and shielded from engine ignition interference.

Planes on the New York-Atlanta air line are being equipped with this receiving set and will start operating on the radio beacon system May 1. It is expected that airplanes of the New York-Cleveland line will begin use of the service about the same time from the Bureau's beacon station at Bellefonte, Pa.

Bureau of Standards engineers are considering two possible solutions of the problem of radio fading which causes shifts of the indicated course at night, especially in mountainous regions. One is placing the beacon stations close together, probably less than 100 miles apart. Another is that the fading may be greatly reduced by use of the new short antenna.

Brussels, April 9—(AP)—Alexander Subkoff, youthful husband of the Princess Victoria of Schaumburg-Lippe, who was on the way to becoming a man without a country, has gone to Roumania. An emigre from Russia, expelled from Germany, asked to leave Belgium, he was convinced that this was the only European country ready to receive him with open arms.

Exiled Russian Goes to Rumania

It was understood that he came to this decision after a conference with his wife, his mother, and one of the Princess' ladies in waiting at Tulje.

MAN AND DAUGHTER GO ON TRIAL AT BREVARD

Brevard, April 9—(AP)—The trial of Joe Revis and his daughter, Mrs. Laura Robinson, charged with the murder of Mrs. Robinson, the woman's husband, opened in Transylvania superior court here this morning. The selection of the jury was still underway shortly before noon.

Robinson was shot at his lonely mountain home in Hopback town, Pa. last January. He died in a Brevard hospital a few days after. He was shot by Revis in self defense, and in defense of Mrs. Robinson, the woman said at the preliminary hearing shortly after Robinson's death.

Both Revis and his daughter were held by the coroner's jury. Mrs. Robinson was later released at the preliminary hearing, but Tuesday the grand jury returned true bills against both.

Lindsay Warren For Re-Election

Raleigh, April 9—(AP)—Three of North Carolina's representatives in Congress were re-elected today. Lindsay Warren, Washington, Democrat, was re-elected in the first district, elected to the sixty-ninth session and re-elected to the seventieth without Republican opposition, though his hat in the ring.

Charles I. Abernathy, New Bern, Democrat, was re-elected from the sixty-seventh to the seventieth Congress, while once more to represent the third district.

Edward W. Fox, Smithfield, who has been in Washington since the fifty-eighth Congress, will run again for the fourth district.

Cox Case Dismissed

New York, April 9—(AP)—James M. Cox, Jr., college student, son of the former Democratic candidate for president, was discharged in court today when a laborer whom he was charged with running down in his car was unable to identify him.

Children Enjoy Big Egg Rolling At White House

Washington, April 9—(AP)—Despite a chilly, overcast day, Washington children began early today to take advantage of the hospitality always offered them on Easter Monday for the annual egg rolling on the White House lawn.

From the number of children which entered the executive grounds as soon as the gates were open and the rate at which their numbers increased as the morning wore on, White House attaches indeed that the traditional festivity had lost none of its ascension.

Much of the charm of the occasion was lost this year by the absence of Mrs. Coolidge. The wife of her mother at Northampton, Mass., was responsible for her absence, and the children who on previous occasions had been accustomed to being fondled by the first lady of the land were disappointed. President Coolidge came to his desk early with a long list of visitors on his engagement list.

VANGUARD OF REPUBLICANS ARRIVE AT RALEIGH

Raleigh, April 9—(AP)—Heading a vanguard of Republican delegates to the state convention to be held here Wednesday, a. m. McWhirter, Hendersonville, secretary for the state republican executive committee, arrived today to prepare for the conference in the city auditorium at 10 o'clock Wednesday.

Theodore E. Bliton, Ohio congressman, keynote speaker at the republican national convention in Cleveland 1924, will speak before representatives of the G. O. P. in North Carolina at 11 o'clock, Mr. McWhirter said.

In the ninth and tenth districts, there may be a struggle over the republican cause, he continued, saying that the fight might possibly be one of considerable intensity. It is in these two districts of North Carolina that the vote is the closest and it may be necessary to work hard to swing them over to the republican standard taken by the republicans and the rest of the state, he noted.

Catholic Priest Is Executed With Two Companions

Mexico City, April 9—(AP)—Dispatches from Guadalajara today said that a Catholic priest, Albino Cardenas, and two unnamed companions who had been held as prisoners at the military barracks in Sauyla for some time, have been court-martialed and executed.

General Avila Comacho reported to the military commandant that a group of insurgents attacked Sauyla Saturday and Cardenas and his two companions escaped during the fighting. They were later recaptured and the court-martial sentenced them to death.

TWO LEAD FOR MEDALIST HONORS

Pinehurst, April 9—(AP)—Geo. Vought, Washington, and Eugene Homans, youthful Englewood, N. J., star today shared leadership in the quest for medalist honors in the north and south amateur golf tournament as the second 18 holes of qualifying play got under way.

Homans and Vought registered 73 last Friday to take the lead in the field of 210 entrants and the second round, originally carded for Saturday, was delayed until today by drenching rains that made local courses unplayable.

Because of the postponement, two rounds of match play will be completed Tuesday, instead of the one per day procedure at first outlined.

AUTO RACER HOPES TO GET OFF TODAY

Daytona Beach, Fla., April 9—(AP)—A smooth beach, free from sand ripples, today was the gift which Ray Keech sought from the wind and the waves, so that he might assail the world's speed record of 206.9 miles per hour.

In the gigantic Triplex Special driven by three twelve cylinder motors, owned by J. M. White, of Philadelphia, Keech twice thundered over the mile stretch here yesterday in preliminary tests. He reported, however, that the beach was too rough for a formal try at the record set on the same beach several weeks ago by Major Malcolm Campbell, of England, in his Napier Blue Bird Special.

Keech stated last night that he hoped for favorable conditions today at low tide at 4:30 this afternoon.

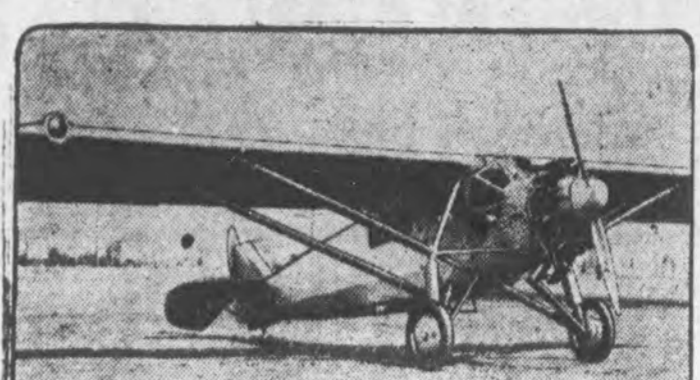

WOULD QUESTION GOVERNOR FISHER

Harrisburg, Pa., April 9—(AP)—The Senate coal investigation committee wishes to question Governor Fisher regarding "the state coal and iron police force and their methods of operation in Pennsylvania." The Governor was advised today in a communication received from the committee.

At present, it is not contemplated to call any other Governor before the inquiry, the letter said.

Hedlights in Wings Show Way By Night To New Lindbergh Plane

Col. Charles A. Lindbergh will fly in luxury when he rides his new monoplane, which he has gone to San Diego, Cal., to accept and test. The ship, with room for five persons, is equipped with every improvement, including headlamps set into the wings, which give 500,000 candlepower light for landing at night.

San Diego, Cal., (AP)—The shades of night will mean nothing to Col. Charles Lindbergh when he rears the air lines in his new air yacht, just been completed by the factory which created the famous Spirit of St. Louis.

Not only is the new ship equipped with parachute flares which when dropped will illuminate the ground for an area of 10 square miles.

It also has two huge headlamps, innovations in aircraft construction, streamlined into the front of the plane's wings. They are 40 feet apart, and each lamp is capable of developing 250,000 candlepower. So the air ace may land in the full glare of the parachute flares, supplemented by half a million candlepower of light from his own headlamps.

Powerful lenses in the lamps concentrate the lights, which get their power from batteries carried by the Spirit of St. Louis. This is slightly greater than that of the biplane type, of which the Spirit was an adaptation. The greater wingspread was desired to obtain the carrying capacity Lindbergh desired.

With a gasoline tankage of 161 gallons, the cruising capacity will be 1,000 miles. At Lindbergh's express order the latest navigational instruments are a part of the plane's equipment.

There are no special markings on the plane to distinguish it from the regular biplane type, but the "eyes" in the wings and wide sweep of the monoplane marks it as different.

The flyer is ready to do some of the testing himself. First tests were made by one of the manufacturing company's pilots.

THIS cramped standing position is immediately tiring. A sagging bed curves the spine the same way—prevents restful comfort.

When you sleep on a Rome DeLuxe bed the spine is straight and natural; the body is fully relaxed.

MOST people sleep with the spine curved, never realizing the harmful results of the unnatural position they have become accustomed to.

This strained position is impossible when you sleep on a De Luxe spring. Every coil in a De Luxe moves independently of all other coils, yielding to the pressure of hips and shoulders yet being to relieve all strain on the vital organs between. The spine lies naturally, straight and free from strain. Nerves and muscles are fully relaxed... refreshing sleep comes quickly.

Enjoy this new deep sleep right now. We will gladly bring a Rome De Luxe bed to your home for a trial. Phone us today for details, and let us give you a copy of Dr. Royal S. Copeland's interesting booklet, "How Better Sleep Builds Better Health."
