

BILLY SUNDAY HAS BUSY DAY OF REST HERE

Evangelist Kept on go Yesterday by Baseball Celebration and Revival Work.

After a day of rest yesterday Billy Sunday and party today began the second week of the evangelistic campaign in Greenville. The evangelist will preach at the tabernacle at Smith & Sugg's warehouse this afternoon and tonight.

The subject of tonight's sermon, as announced this afternoon will be, "The Mercies of God." It is a graphic portrayal of God's love for humankind and his disposition to forgive those deserving of forgiveness.

Although yesterday was supposed to have been rest day for Mr. Sunday, he was probably one of the busiest men in town preparing for the formal ceremonies attending the opening game of the Eastern Carolina league at the fair grounds in the afternoon. It was announced several days ago that the former National league ball player would toss over the first ball in the opening game here, but inclement weather interfered and he didn't get an opportunity of appearing in the pitcher's box until yesterday.

The ball diamond scene will not be soon forgotten by the large number of fans in attendance. Mr. Sunday, wearing a $100 straw hat given him by admirers during an evangelistic campaign in Florida some time ago, took his position on the firing line and hurled the ball at Mayor J. C. Lanier just like he meant business. And when the mayor received the sphere he actually thought the hurler meant business, too.

Smiling in a happy, carefree sort of way, the evangelist passed through the ceremonies of the afternoon and then went into the grandstand where he sat through most of the game. He seemed to enjoy himself, especially when Greenville took the lead and seemed to be on the road to victory. But soon the tide of victory changed, and with a crestfallen expression, Mr. Sunday sat and waited and hoped—but hoped in vain—as Goldsboro took the lead and held it.

Encouraged by tremendous crowds Sunday afternoon and evening, the evangelist entered the second week of the campaign today greatly encouraged over the outlook. It was the first day since opening of the services that the mammoth warehouse building had been crowded to capacity. Previous to that time congregations had numbered from three to four thousand daily. From now on however, it is expected the building will be crowded nightly, and only standing room will be available in many instances.

Home Hammond, choir director, has his part in the services well in hand and this week promises some of the best singing of the series. He had every one of the three hundred seats in the choir filled Sunday afternoon and night and the song service was one of the prominent features of the day.

Mr. Sunday will preach in several Eastern Carolina cities during his stay here, but this will not conflict with afternoon and evening engagements at the tabernacle here. He has his stride and from now on the Billy Sunday preacher and actor, instead of Rev. William A. Sunday, minister and conservative, will fill the pulpit daily.

Air Mail Service From New York-New Orleans Become Effective Today

Atlanta, May 1.—(AP)—The south and the nation's capital today were woven into the network of winged progress—America's airmail transport—as a New York-Atlanta-New Orleans link of the growing web was attached to the trans-continental and New-England lines.

Elaborate ceremonies had been arranged by every city along the line with Postmaster General Harry S. New cast in the role of "postman" to deliver the first consignment of mail to the planes at Washington as the city became a link in through air mail service for the first time.

Inauguration of the 1,246 mile daily relay, however, was the privilege of the southernmost point, New Orleans, and the first plane scheduled to "take the gun" at 11 p. m. central time arriving in Atlanta at 6:30 p. m. after stops in Mobile and Birmingham.

The exclusive night service on the New York-Atlanta leg was to be inaugurated under the glare of searchlights at ten mile intervals. The first plane was scheduled to hop off at Atlanta at 7 p. m. (C. T.) after ceremonies dominated by an aerial stream at Candler field, and the relay was to be completed at 6:15 a. m. (E. T.) in New York. Meanwhile the northern end was to be opened at New York at 8 p. m. (E. T.) with a take off at Hadley field, New Jersey, at 9:40 and arrivals in Atlanta at 5:17 a. m. (C. T.) and New Orleans at 11 a. m. the following morning.

The 1,400 mile through connection between Boston and New Orleans places those two cities less than 24 air mail hours apart, ordinarily a three day railway journey. Similarly, points on the new air plane will be brought within three days aerial mail service from the Pacific coast with a correspondingly great saving.

Simultaneously with inauguration of the new service, announcement was made of the opening of bids for a Chicago-Atlanta air mail route. With an Atlanta-Miami previously under contract but not yet begun, cross line air trunks within the near future were assured.

The daily schedule of the New York-Atlanta-New Orleans service calls for departure at New York at 8 p. m., Hadley field, New Jersey, 9:40; Philadelphia 10:24; Washington 11:45; and Richmond, Va., 1:02 a. m.

THREE PEOPLE KILLED ON MAY DAY IN POLAND

Arrests Are Reported From Other Parts of the World In Radical Demonstrations.

Warsaw, Poland, May 1.—(AP)—May Day began here with the killing of three persons and the wounding of 12 when Communists tried to join the Socialist parade. Shots were exchanged when the Socialists refused to permit the Communists to march with them.

Tokyo, May 1.—(AP)—Arrest from the arrest of 36 persons for disorderly conduct May Day passed off quietly in Japan. This lack of trouble is considered largely due to the recent rounding up of extremists by the police.

New York, May 1.—(AP)—The entire New York police force, some 21,000 uniformed men and several hundred detectives, were on active and reserve duty today to guard against possible May Day disorders.

Police said no disorders were expected but that inspections of the meeting places of radicals and Communist printing plants indicated an unusual amount of revolutionary literature recently had been circulated.

The Socialist Action Committee in a letter to Police Commissioner Warren demanded he rescind orders instructing the police to arrest all persons responsible for distribution of illegal literature. The letter called the order an "incitation to disorder."

Brussels, Belgium, May 1.—(AP)—Communist appeals inviting the soldiers to join the Russian revolutionaries and fraternize with strikers were posted on the barricade walls and in the proximity of the camps on the occasion of May Day.

Officials were on the alert in the industrial centers all over the country, and although a mass demonstration in the labor unions was planned to be held in Brussels late today, police headquarters expressed confidence that the day would pass without serious incident.

Berlin, May 1.—(AP)—May Day passed off quietly in the Berlin and provincial industrial centers. The usual open air meetings were addressed by trade union leaders, and closing with the singing of the Internationale. They were well attended.

Paris, May 1.—(AP)—May Day morning passed tranquilly in Paris despite threats made by the extremists to demonstrate, and about the only unusual thing was the absence of taxicabs from the streets, it being a holiday by tradition for the drivers.

There were numerous strikes in industrial establishments, especially in the "Red Belt" and in the suburb, but no trouble was reported.

Prague, Czechoslovakia, May 1.—(AP)—All three Socialist parties celebrated May Day with parades and mass meetings in which over 100,000 persons participated. The parades took more than four hours to pass a given point. Fifty bands provided music.

The parades carried banners denouncing capitalism and demanding division of the church from state and school, while the Communists demanded the immediate release of Bela Kun, the Hungarian Communist, from jail in Vienna.

The parades were comparatively orderly, as adequate protective measures had been taken by the police. Mass meetings were held in the medieval old town square where Socialists and Communist deputies and Senators made talks.

A feature of the Communist march was the participation of thousands of school children.

Albany, N. Y., May 1.—(AP)—The trial of Mrs. Florence E. S. Knapp, former secretary of state, on a charge of grand larceny in connection with the 1925 state census was suddenly disrupted after convening of the court today, when it was announced that the prosecution's chief witness, Clara Blanche Knapp, wife of the defendant, would not be present, notwithstanding the state's subpoena.

After a conference court adjourned until tomorrow.

GERMANY IS WILLING TO OUTLAW WAR

Washington, May 1.—(AP)—With a declaration that "this new guarantee for the maintenance of peace must give a real impulse to the efforts for carrying out of general disarmament," Germany has agreed to the American proposal for a treaty among the world powers renouncing war.

Her answer, made without reservation or qualification, was given in a note to the United States under date of April 27 and made public last night by the State Department.

The promptness with which the German government replied to the American suggestion, which went forward only two weeks before the former's complete acceptance of the draft treaty came along, pleased Secretary Kellogg and other officials.

They were particularly gratified with the reply in view of the fact that Germany had before fier that the time the proposal of M. Briand embodying France's ideas for a renunciation of war treaty.

Except to say that the German note spoke itself, Secretary Kellogg refused to comment.

Declaring Germany "welcomes most warmly the opening of negotiations for the conclusion of an international pact for the outlawry of war," the note said that while that country's league of nations and Locarno treaty obligations must remain inviolable nothing was seen in these pledges "which could in any way conflict with the obligations provided in the draft treaty of the United States."

"On the contrary," it added "it believes that the binding obligation not to use war as an instrument of national policy could only serve to strengthen the fundamental idea of the covenant of the league of nations and the Rhine pact."

Big railroad combinations are good for everybody.

The Pennsylvania, having swallowed Mr. Loeve's railroad lines, giving him a profit of about $23,000,000, will now establish a direct line from New York to Detroit.

It is probable, also, that General Atterbury, head of the Pennsylvania system, will before long, run flying machines from New York to Detroit, and a combination rail and air line from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

Big combinations make big enterprises possible, and the law should encourage them.

MIAMI CLOSES FOR SHRINERS

Glittering Pageant Features 5th Annual Imperial Council Meeting.

Miami, Fla., May 1.—(AP)—Miami shut up shop today for the Shriners parade.

The glittering procession, including all of the several score uniformed bodies here for the 54th annual imperial council meeting of the ancient Arabic Order, nobles of the Mystic Shrine, was the first regularly set event of the convention, though on Sunday and yesterday the gathering hosts of the faithful staged shows of their own.

A business meeting of Temple representatives, to be presided over by Clarence M. Dunbar, Imperial Potentate, was set for 11:30 a. m., following the parade but little more than delivery of greetings was expected to be accomplished.

The program called for assembly of the units to march in the parade by 6:30 a. m., with marching orders at 8.

Traffic was barred from the Bay Front Park section during the hours of the parade and other parking restrictions were extended.

The parade formation point indicating the length of the procession was 23 blocks from the "Garden of Allah" and the Imperial Potentate's reviewing stand.

Lulu Temple of Philadelphia, held a featured place on the day's program with his band, oldest of the Shrine musical organizations, listed for the afternoon's principal concert.

Some scheduled activities covered all hours of the day until the beginning of the Imperial Potentate's ball at 10:30 p. m., after that the time until reveille at six a. m. Tomorrow was covered in succinct instructions on the printed program "Ask Your Guide." Each Temple was assigned guides from the membership of Masi, host Temple.

The Temples had ready today their tricks to add to the merry-making, and to their political machines were oiled up for the convention and for providing an outer guard who ultimately would be Imperial Potentate.

Salisbury, May 1.—(AP)—Ralph Taylor, 33, brakeman and extra conductor employed in the Salisbury yards by the Southern railway, died in a hospital here at 5:30 o'clock this morning from injuries received in the railway yard three hours earlier. The trainman fell from a freight car and one or more cars passed over him, cutting off his left leg and otherwise injuring him.

Members of the train crew did not know of the accident and his brother-in-law, the Rev. Max Brandon, who lives near the yard, was attracted by Taylor's cries for help.

HARRY SINCLAIR DIVULGES AMOUNT OF MONEY RECEIVED IN CONTINENTAL OIL DEAL

Oil Magnate Tells Senate Teapot Dome Committee He Was Paid $757,000 in Liberty Bonds as His Share of Transaction.

Washington, May 1.—(AP)—Harry F. Sinclair's own story, today told to the Senate Teapot Dome committee, was that he received $757,000 after the famous Continental oil deal, but that his interest in the deal was to protect the rights of his company.

Breaking a silence which he has maintained throughout his trials for criminal conspiracy in the Teapot Dome lease and the long Senate investigation, the oil man said he had turned over to the Sinclair Crude Purchasing Company $757,000 in securities and $142,000 in interest after his acquittal here in his recent trial.

Sinclair, detailing his conception of the Continental deal whereby the Standard and the Sinclair companies paid a profit of 25 cents a barrel to the Continental Trading Company, said that H. H. Blackmer, one of the organizers of the transaction, gave him the bonds.

He had stipulated that his company should share in the commission, he said.

"I got it in the form of Liberty bonds," he said. "They were sent to me over a period of two years." "Beginning in 1922 and extending to when?"

"I think it was in the fall of 1923."

"From whom did you get the bonds?"

"From Mr. Blackmer. Some were sent by a messenger, whose identity I do not know. Whether they were given me by Mr. Odey, I do not know."

"This reference was to H. S. Odey, president of the Continental Company," Sinclair said he kept a record of the deliveries but did not have the record now.

Sinclair did not say whether the bonds he turned over to his company were the same as those he received.

"What did you do with them as you received them?" he was asked. "I may have put them in my vault or in the Empire Trust Company."

"The witness said he did not personally turn the bonds over to his company; that he left them to his attorney, G. T. Stanford, general counsel for the Sinclair Consolidated Oil Company."

"Did you inform the board of directors previously about that?" asked Walsh.

"No, sir."

"What instrument did you execute to the company to show its interest in the matter?"

"None."

Senator Walsh asked about the $233,000 payment Sinclair made to M. T. Everhart, of Pueblo, son-in-law of Albert B. Fall.

"I made that payment for a third interest in Secretary Fall's ranch property," Sinclair said. "I paid $138,000 in Washington and $35,000 later in New York."

Asked where he got the $35,000, Sinclair said it came from his vault, but he could not remember which one.

Sinclair called the witness' attention to his testimony on Oct. 29, 1923 that he had not purchased any property in New Mexico prior to that time.

"What have you to say about that?"

"The testimony speaks for itself, does it not?" Sinclair replied.

"But you now tell us that you bought the property in May, 1922."

"Senator Walsh, I thought that at that time you were talking about purchasing land. I bought shares in the Tres Ritos Land and Cattle Company but I did not regard that as purchasing land."

"You don't care to say any more about that?"

Sinclair conferred with Martin W. Littleton, his counsel.

"I didn't think you ought to ask Col. Littleton what answer to make," Walsh said.

"I didn't ask him that," Sinclair replied.

"Do you care to make any further explanation about the purchase of the stock of the Tres Ritos Land and Cattle Company?"

"No, sir."

"Do you think you gave a frank answer to that question in 1923?"

"When I made it I thought it frank and fair."

POSTPONE MAY DAY EXERCISES AT COLLEGE

May day exercises which were to have been held at the East Carolina Teachers College this afternoon have been postponed until the first fair day, it was announced this afternoon.

Revenue Receipts Register Decrease In North Carolina

Raleigh, May 1.—(AP)—The State Revenue Department receipts exclusive of automobile and gasoline taxes during April decreased as compared with receipts for the same month last year, but receipts for the ten months of the fiscal year to date have amounted to more than one million dollars in excess of collections for the entire fiscal year ending June 30, 1927.

Uncover Plot To Kill Communist

Bratislava, Czechoslovakia, May 1.—(AP)—The newspaper Slovensky Renik today said a daring plot had been set afoot by a group of Magyars to send agents to Vienna to seize Ben Kun, Hungarian Communist imprisoned there. He would be taken to Budapest to expiate his crime during the Bolshevik dictatorship in Hungary.

If necessary he would be killed, it was feared that the Vienna authorities would not surrender their prisoner.

KNAPP TRIAL IS DEFERRED

The Woman Charged With Grand Larceny In New York to Face Judge Tomorrow.

Albany, N. Y., May 1.—(AP)—The trial of Mrs. Florence E. S. Knapp, former secretary of state, on a charge of grand larceny in connection with the 1925 state census was suddenly disrupted after convening of the court today, when it was announced that the prosecution's chief witness, Clara Blanche Knapp, wife of the defendant, would not be present, notwithstanding the state's subpoena.

After a conference court adjourned until tomorrow.

Justice Stephens Callaghan asked Mrs. Knapp's counsel if they had known the witness' plan.

They shook their heads.

Then looking straight at Mrs. Knapp, the judge continued:

"I hope the defendant has had nothing to do with this. We shall take such steps as are necessary to inquire into the reasons why this woman is not here and who has advised here not to appear."

MYSTERY SURROUNDS DEATH OF AMERICAN WOMAN IN FRANCE

Ville Franche, France, May 1.—(AP)—Mystery shrouds the death of an American woman Mrs. William Sutherland Hogg, 42, whose body was found floating in the bay. In the absence of passports and other papers the authorities have been unable to locate her American address, nor do they give any cause for the woman's death.

FIVE SENATORS NAMED FOR CAMPAIGN EXPENDITURE

Washington, May 1.—(AP)—A committee of five senators was named Vice President Dawes today to conduct the senate's investigation into campaign expenditures of presidential candidates.

Those named to the committee were Senators Steiwer, Oregon; Dale, Vermont; McMaster, South Dakota; Republicans, and Ertton, New Mexico, and Barkley, Kentucky, Democrats.

SAYS SMITH WILL NOT BE NOMINATED

Senator Heflin Tells Winston Salem Audience N. Y. Governor has not a show.

Winston-Salem, May 1.—(AP)—Renewing his attack on Tammany and what he termed "the Catholic party," Senator Thomas J. Heflin, of Alabama, told a large Winston-Salem audience last night that Governor Alfred E. Smith would never be the Democratic nominee for President.

At the same time, he predicted that Gov. Smith would not receive more than 550 votes at the Houston convention. "He may get that but he'll not get any more," the Senator declared. "But what if he does, McAdoo did, Champ Clark did and many others have but they were not nominated. And Al Smith will never be nominated."

The Alabamian directed particular fire at the Tammany chieftains for having "deserted the party" three times and then asserting that they will carry the south. "Such skull-duggery out to be repudiated by the people of North Carolina," he said.

The senator again charged that he had been misrepresented by the press who had called him a "bigot, an intolerant," because he had endeavored to do his duty by his God and country.

"This country is in danger of being controlled by the subsidized press," he said. "Four fifths of the press of the United States beholden to the money power and foreign hierarchy."

Would Prevent Rebel Raids In Nicaraguan Zone

Puerto Cabezas, Nicaragua, May 1.—(AP)—Determination by American authorities to prevent any raid by rebels upon the east coast of Nicaragua was seen today in the arrival of the cruisers Cleveland and Galveston with detachments of marines.

The Cleveland and Portland later proceeded north while the Galveston and Denver remained. This, it was assumed those who have been fearful that General Augustino Sandino would suddenly descend upon Puerto Cabezas.

Conductor Dies of Injuries At Salisbury Today

Salisbury, May 1.—(AP)—Ralph Taylor, 33, brakeman and extra conductor employed in the Salisbury yards by the Southern railway, died in a hospital here at 5:30 o'clock this morning from injuries received in the railway yard three hours earlier. The trainman fell from a freight car and one or more cars passed over him, cutting off his left leg and otherwise injuring him.

Members of the train crew did not know of the accident and his brother-in-law, the Rev. Max Brandon, who lives near the yard, was attracted by Taylor's cries for help.

He is survived by six sisters and two brothers. One of the latter, Ed of Charlotte, lost a leg in a railroad accident at Hopewell, Va., several years ago and another brother, George, was killed on the Atlantic Coast Line near Hamlet, N. C., about 14 years ago.

Funeral services and interment will take place here Wednesday.

Aged Asheville Man Passes Away

Asheville, May 1.—(AP)—Sound in mind, and happy until the end, Noah Howington succumbed Friday night to the burden of years. In October the grizzled old veteran would have celebrated his 90th birthday.

Mr. Howington died at the home of his son, James Howington, 43 West Haywood street. For several weeks his strength had been ebbing away. Death came at 8 o'clock in the evening while four of his seven children stood at his bedside.

For a long time, Mr. Howington had been regarded as Asheville's oldest man. But to him, his 98 year was nothing remarkable. One of his brothers reached 114 years, his father and mother lived far into the nineties, and his wife, who died just two years ago, was 96.

He is survived by three sons and four daughters; Columbus, of Tennessee; James, of Asheville; Robert, of Durham; Mrs. Ollie Earth, of Blowing Rock; Mrs. Lucy Cartee, Mrs. Jennie Howington, and Mrs. Maggie Stewart, all of Asheville.

GOLDSBORO WINS OVER LOCAL CLUB

Greenville lost the fourth straight game of the season to Goldsboro yesterday afternoon at the local grounds here by the score of 10 to 7. The game was preceded by a celebration set for last Friday, but which was deferred on account of inclement weather.

Rev. William A. Sunday, noted evangelist, conducting a series of revival services in this city, tossed the first ball of the game, and Mayor J. C. Lanier did the reeving.

Prior to this the ball club had paraded the main section of the city headed by the Greenville high school band. A majority of the stores of the city closed at three o'clock in order to give their employees an opportunity of witnessing the formal opening of the league here.

Before tossing over the first ball Mr. Sunday displayed a huge silver loving cup which the Tolar Jewelry Company will give the player on the local club leading in batting honors for the first twenty-five games.

Two home runs featured the game for Goldsboro. These came off the ever-ready bats of Teague and Nichols. Other extra base hits were also recorded. Loyd did the sensational work in the field for Greenville.

With Goldsboro playing here again this afternoon, members of the local club were confident of routing the jinx that has followed them with such persistence the past few days.

The box score follows:

PHILLIES OFF ON RUN TO TOP WIN COLUMN

By the Associated Press. Carried along on the crest of a six game winning streak Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics were entrenched in third place in the American league today.

After a disastrous start that saw them lose their first four games they found themselves bowled over by the New York Yanks in two games, Washington in three and Boston in the opening game of the series at the Hub yesterday.

During this string the Athletics scored 40 runs on 61 hits, made but one error and allowed the enemy only ten tallies.

Rube Walbert, one half of the great left handed team of Grove and Walbers, held the Red Sox to six hits and fanned a half dozen in the Athletics 4 to 1 victory yesterday.

The Yanks retained their hold on first place by giving the Senators their seventh straight defeat at Washington 3 to 4.

Buckeye and Brown were pounded for 14 hits as the St. Louis Browns trounced the Indians at Cleveland, 10 to 3. Blabholder shut out the Indians until the ninth.

Detroit suffered a 10 to 6 beating as Chicago's White Sox hammered four Tiger pitchers for 14 hits. Red Faber made his first mound start of the year.

Brooklyn found its grip on first place in the National League shaved to half a game as the Giants buried the Robins under a 14 to 4 score at the Polo grounds.

Seven Cardinal errors enabled the Cincinnati Reds to beat St. Louis 6 to 4 at the mound city.

Sparky Adams singled in the eighth gave the Pittsburgh Pirates one run and an eight to seven verdict over the Chicago Cubs at Forbes field. Adams drove in three runs.

The Boston Braves scored in every inning but the fifth in trouncing the Quakers at Philadelphia, 13 to 6. Boston's nine hits included four home runs.

COLUMBIA CREW OF 'BOY VETERANS' TO OPEN AGAINST PENN AND YALE

Seven members of the "kid crew" of sophomores who won the intercollegiate rowing championship for Columbia last June are back in the varsity shell for the 1928 campaign which opens May 5 against Pennsylvania and Yale at Philadelphia. These veteran crew men who average only 19 years of age, are, left to right above, Eric Lambert, stroke and 1927 captain; Captain Alastair MacRae, No. 2; below, Horace Davenport, 7; Bill Lightbourne, 5; Tom Kerrigan, 4; Sam Walker, bow; and Bob Berman, coxswain. Stroke and coxswain are the other two men in this year's varsity, shown boated above.

New York, (AP)—Six of the eight oarsmen who rowed Columbia's Blue and White to the intercollegiate championship at Poughkeepsie last June are manning the shell this year.

Furthermore, the crew has the same coxswain and the two oarsmen who have been picked as replacements proved their stuff as stroke oars of Columbia's junior varsity and freshman crews last season.

When Columbia's great varsity astounded the experts by winning the Hudson classic a year ago the crew was acclaimed as the youngest ever to win at Poughkeepsie. Its members are a year older now, but this prize collection of city-bred rowing talent still is not out of its teens.

Not counting the coxswain, who is only 17 the age average is a fraction over 19 years, but what they lack in verenerability these products of Young Dick Glendon's coaching make up in height and weight. Every man is more than six feet tall and the average is over 6 feet 2 and just under 180 pounds.

This crew looks great on paper — where it has done all its racing thus far this season — and if there is a favorite, at this early date, to win at Poughkeepsie and in the Olympic trials it is none other than this Columbia eight.

Just how good a claim it has to such a ruling can be told in part before very long, as Columbia is to open its season May 5 on the Schuylkill at Philadelphia in the Backwell Cup race against Pennsylvania and Yale, two of its most formidable rivals. Instead of the usual two miles the distance will be a mile and a half, which is nearer to the Olympic distance.

This is to be the first general engagement of the college rowing season. The only previous races have been dual regattas such as those in which California beat Washington and the Navy beat Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Incidentally, both victories were won by a mere half-length, lending force to various coaches' predictions of a warm year on the water.

In the long grind of spring training bad luck has struck again and again at the Columbia crew, but at this writing the jinx appears to have been pretty well outdistanced. First Eric Lambert, met scholastic difficulties and it looked for a time as though this great stroke oar might be lost to the crew. Then Horace Davenport, husky No. 7, was stricken with appendicitis, but he has now confounded physicians by returning to his oar only five weeks after undergoing an operation and apparently is sure to start the season at his old post.

Columbia has not been so fortunate with Gordon Percy, No. 4 in last year's boat, who suffered a recurrence of a severe foot ailment and appears to be definitely out of it this season. He and George French, No. 3, who was graduated, are the two veterans of 1927 not available this year.

To fill these vacancies Coach Glendon picked Art Douglas, last year's junior varsity stroke, and Bill Blesse, who set the pace in the freshman shell. In physical endowments these two measure well up to their predecessors and are undoubtedly seasoned by the experience gained in their responsible stroke oar jobs last season.

Here's how the Columbia champions look as they prepare to start

Salisbury Still Holding Out in Piedmont League

(By The Associated Press)
Although Salisbury was forced to use three pitchers in the game yesterday with Durham, the Colonials finally nosed out the bulls by a score of 12 to 8 and thereby continued its league leadership for another day. Having won three and lost none, The Salisbury pitchers gave up 16 hits during the fray, but their team-mates did a little better, garnering 17 safeties of the offerings of the Bull moundsmen. Home runs were hit by "Cowboy" Jones for Salisbury and Whitnell for Durham.

Eastern Carolina League Hurlers Had Hectic Day

(By The Associated Press)
Pitchers in the Eastern Carolina league had an awful day yesterday, the six clubs of the circuit piling up a total of 56 runs in the three games played. It was a field day for the batters.

Probably the feature of the day's play was a home run by manager Hal Weaver in the Wilmington Pirates in the ninth inning which sent two men home ahead of him and enabled Wilmington to come from behind and defeat Rocky Mount 8 to 6.

Notwithstanding the fact that the Greenville Tobacconists used four hurlers, they were unable to stop the Goldsboro club, the latter winning 10 to 7. Greenville had not been able to break into the win column in four starts.

Extremely liberality on the part of pitchers on both clubs resulted in a score of 16 to 8 in favor of Fayetteville in the game between the Highlanders and Kinston. Twenty bases on balls were distributed by the two hurling corps in this fracas.

Today's play will see Goldsboro at Greenville; Kinston at Fayetteville; Rocky Mount at Wilmington.

JACK SHARKEY LICKS DELANEY AT NEW YORK

By EDWARD J. NEIL, Associated Press Sports Writer. New York, May 1.—(AP)—The storm of the old Jack Sharkey, Turin's youngster who once smashed the heavy door of the very door of the heavyweight throne room, has swept again through Madison Square Garden.

Like a tornado in human form, the garrulous gob swept out of his corner last night and crushed Jack Delaney as if the Bridgeport warrior himself a disappointed title contender, epitomized all the humiliation and heartbreak of defeats that had come to Charkey since Jack Dempsey knocked him out last summer.

Only one minute and 13 seconds of the first round was the dulled ripper of the north able to last before Sharkey's crushing drive. Almost before the echoes of the opening gong had died, a volley of short hooks to the head dropped Delaney, badly hurt, to one knee.

Sharkey leaped into his wobbly foe, felling him with a looping right to the head. Then as Delaney writhed on the canvas, pulled himself to his knees and swayed finally to his feet, Sharkey waited, right hand poised.

Full on the chin, with power sufficient to fell an ox, the rampaging snail ripped his right uppercut flush into Delaney's twisted features as the trembling French-Canadian, eyes closed, head buried in his chest, stumbled forward.

Down in the resin dust, blood trickling from his mouth and ear, Delaney toppled and was counted out.

Sharkey pitched good ball and deserved a victory. Asheville won from Charlotte 10 to 5. Moore holding the Hornets in check after relieving McRae. The big right hander allowed his opponents only three hits in the six innings that he worked. Cooke, tourist outfielder, hit a home run.

Cebula pitched Columbia to a 3-1 victory over Greenville, allowing the Spinners only three hits. The Comers played brilliant defensive ball behind their pitcher and came through with timely hitting.

Knoxville came out of the cellar by defeating Augusta 9 to 3 and sending the Tigers down to the lowest rung.

Street, Smokie catcher, secured four hits in as many trips to the plate. Milner of the Tygers, obtained three for four.

Twenty-four hits were registered during the seven innings, the game being called because of darkness.

ASHEVILLE AGAIN TAKES FIRST PLACE

By the Associated Press. Asheville is back in a position it has held most of this season, first place in the South Atlantic Association.

Macon, usurpers of the leadership for a short time, were back into second place or at least was shoved back by Spartanburg, who dropped the Peaches in both games of a double header yesterday by scores of 13 to 8 and 2 to 1.

The Spartans pulled one often read about in winning the first game. With the Peaches leading by a five run margin the South Carolinians cut loose on Spencer, Macon hurler, and tied the score in the seventh inning.

Five more counters were added in the eighth of Moore, Spencer's relief, and Macon was unable to do any more scoring.

Lopez and Lucky, rival catchers, his for the circuit in this game.

In the nightcap Spartanburg made two hits and two errors by Bader, Peach shortfielder, good for a brace of runs while the Peaches were pushing across their solitary marker.

Rauseh pitched good ball and deserved a victory. Asheville won from Charlotte 10 to 5. Moore holding the Hornets in check after relieving McRae. The big right hander allowed his opponents only three hits in the six innings that he worked. Cooke, tourist outfielder, hit a home run.

GUARDS TAKEN AWAY FROM HARDING TOMB Marion, Ohio, May 1.—(AP)—Nearly five years of vigil at the tomb of President and Mrs. Warren G. Harding was at an end today for the guard detachment of the tenth United States infantry. Never for a moment had the temporary Harding tomb in the Marion cemetery and later the large memorial shrine been left unguarded until today, when members of the detachment were ordered to report to various army posts. Since the post was established August 9, 1923, it is estimated that more than 1,000,000 visitors have seen the tomb.

High Price Eggs Predicted. According to J. C. Whiteford, who is field service man for the Purina Mills, the figures he has compiled from various government bulletins and reports causes the following prediction: That eggs will be higher this fall and winter than they have been in some time, prices ranging from 75c to $1.00 a dozen.

The government report for March 30, 1928, shows a total of 132,909 cases of eggs in storage at the 10 principal markets, against 424,140 cases on hand the same date last year. This is a decrease of 70 per cent, or, in other words, only 30 per cent as many eggs in storage so far this year.

For a period from January 1 to January 20, this year, receipts of dressed poultry at the four principal markets were 6,000,000 pounds more than for the corresponding period of last year. This means stock is being slaughtered or shipped to the large markets, and there will be a shortage of chickens as well as eggs. The larger poultry owners realize this and are going to cash in on this condition to make big profits. Mr. M. Johnson, who is the proprietor of the largest poultry ranch in the world, believing this expected shortage so strong he is planning to keep 30,000 pullets to produce market eggs next fall and winter.

It is not too late to hatch and raise baby chicks and when they are properly cared for they should make a profitable side line for our farmers.

RIVER ROAD ITEMS

Miss Jennie Anderson has returned home after visiting her brother Z. C. Anderson, of Ballard's Cross Roads.

Mrs. H. R. Anderson spent Saturday night with her father, James Case.

Edd Harrison, F. J. Anderson, and Besharley Anderson motored over to Washington Sunday.

Bud Elks was out car riding Sunday afternoon. He looked very lonely, wonder where his girl was.

Roge Everett was the guest of Miss Jennie Anderson Saturday night.

Mrs. Cottie I. Anderson has returned home from spending the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Nancy Waters, of Beaufort county.

The many friends of Bill Elks, of Ballard's Cross Roads, will regret to learn that he is very ill.

State Bland will hold prayer

When the University of North Carolina Glee Club appears here in one concert on May 7, it will present a program made up largely of American music.

In other years the club's program consisted mostly of international folk songs, but since the successful tour of Europe last summer of the foreign numbers have been eliminated.

Negro spirituals and work songs—that part of the program that was so popular in England and France—will be featured again on the present tour. Classical music will also find a place on the program, thus giving variety to the selections.

With the view to giving proper emphasis to American music Prof. Paul John Weaver, the club's director, has been seeking interesting tunes from all kinds of sources. Among those already on the program are Carolina mountain ballads, cowboy songs, American Indian songs, and some tunes of the early frontier days. Professor Weaver has arranged special harmonization for these. None of them have been used by male choruses before.

In an effort to Americanize the club's program, Professor Weaver is constantly searching for compositions by American composers and is anxious to use any good choral music written by them.

Feel Miserable This Spring?

To Be Well Your Kidneys Must Function Properly.

SPRING find you tired, nervous and depressed? Are you stiff and achy, subject to nagging backache, drowsy headaches and dizzy spells? Are kidney excretions too frequent, scanty or burning in passage? Too often this indicates sluggish kidneys and shouldn't be neglected.

Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, increase the secretion of the kidneys and thus aid in the elimination of waste impurities. Doan's are endorsed everywhere. Ask your neighbor!

WELCOME TO NEW YORK

Ten years ago today troops of the A. E. F. were reaching the front in France in increasing numbers, and myriads more behind the lines were preparing for participation in the first great war of the United States on European soil. The German offensive in the west which a month later was to come so near success was already in preparation. The armistice was months away; the peace at Versailles more than a year—and no man could guess its time or terms.

Today two veterans of the German arms in that war are to be formally welcomed in the American metropolis in recognition of a peace-time feat of skill and courage no less than war demands. Of the warmth of that welcome they have already received evidence even to embarrassment. The gay trappings that flutter in the wind symbolize truly and appropriately a general sharing of good wishes which may have even gained some added emphasis from the fact that two of the three men whom we are to greet were enemies in arms so few years ago. Now they will find none who are not friends, and none friendlier than our own veterans.

Capt. Hermann Koehl, Major James C. Fitzmaurice and Freiherr Gunther von Huenefeld have performed a signal service to humanity in bringing one step closer that neighborhood of nations which should teach the folly of wars. For in a day when men in airplanes may pass in forty hours over a sea that a sailing ship in the old days might take forty days to traverse, when men's messages are flashed under the ocean at lightning pace and even their voices may be heard across the barrier, it is idle for nations to suppose that they can ever again live to themselves as they did in the old days. If that lesson is not being conned in our capitals, then statesmen are less competent for their job than the flying men who risk their necks to bring us closer to gether.

The general instinct that these three adventurers have done a great and serviceable thing is not at fault. The first westward crossing of the North Atlantic in a heavier-than-air machine is a notable achievement—the number of those who have sacrificed valiant lives in the vain attempt to accomplish it sufficiently establishes its rank. Prevailing westerly winds in that region, which ordinarily but slightly impede steamships, may make a difference of many miles an hour between the speed of airplanes bound in opposite directions. Fogs make difficulties; and swinging far south to dodge them would add greatly to the distance.

That the Bremen was hundreds of miles off her course when she happily reached Greenly Island is nothing to the discredit of the navigators. Mechanical equipment must be perfected and there must be a better service of weather news for flying men before the Atlantic passage in air can compare even remotely in safety with passage on the ocean surface. The way has been traced. The need has been shown. Keen brains are being devoted to working out the problems of practical ocean aviation. Where we have already come so far and so swiftly it is not visionary to expect continuing progress toward success.

At any rate, the three guests of New York have notably done their share in demonstrating the problem and the possibilities. And unless the North Atlantic weather that has already caused them some discomfort again assails them in New York today they will not be allowed to doubt the public appreciation of their deed.—N. Y. World.

ABOUT TOWN

"It was appropriate indeed that the Spirit of St. Louis should have been placed in the Smithsonian Institution at Washington, as it will perpetuate for all time Lindbergh's achievement in crossing the Atlantic ocean," a reader of this column remarked to the writer this morning.

"The other part of 'we' will forever live in the minds of the American public for its notable trip over the treacherous Atlantic. It was the first of its kind to accomplish the venture, and opened up the way for greater aviation development."

"It is true numbers of lives have been sacrificed since that time attempting to cross from the east to the west. But it is the way of all great developments. Human life must always pay the price before success is achieved."

"Lindbergh will live for all time as the greatest flyer of the age, and in the years to come when giant airships carry on regular commerce between this and the other side of the world, this young American—this trail blazer—will get the credit for being the first to defy the terrors of an unexplored uncharted ocean course."

"After a long time Greenville at last had the opportunity of staging her celebration in connection with the opening of the Eastern Carolina league at the fair grounds yesterday," a fan said today.

"The occasion was a memorable one in the life of the community and will not soon be forgotten."

"Preceded by a parade of the high school band and ball club, the same opened with Billy Sunday, a nationally known evangelist, speaking over the first ball."

"As advertised two or three days ago, Mr. Sunday wore a $100 straw hat given him sometime ago by admirers in Florida. The wearing of the straw might not have meant anything to a casual observer, but to the hundreds of local people it meant the ushering in of 'straw hat season' for Greenville."

"The hat was to have adorned the classic brow of the evangelist Saturday, but the weather man was not at all choice in his offerings and overcasts and felt hats were more reasonable than anything else."

"But we have come into our own now, both in hats and baseball, and now on this is going to be the end of summertime and baseball—be season and sport craved by all hearts."

"Billy Sunday evidently doesn't are very much for machine politicians," observed a reader of this paper, referring briefly to the sermon Sunday evening in which Mr. Sunday went clean back to the day of plate to find argument for his trade against this type of politician.

"There are numbers who will agree with the champion of the Bible in his instance. We all know the machine man either surrenders himself to those behind him, or linds himself without their support. It has always been the case and it will continue to be the case as long as the world stands. "There is mighty little difference in the politician of today than the days of the persecutor of Jesus. Life has become more complex, but the same narrowed perspective, the same selfish ambitions, dominate today as always. Selfishness, bigotry and lack of vision will always play an important part in the world, and time will bring about little change except in the physical makeup of the individual himself. There will always be politicians, and Pilates will be found among them to weld their influence against the weak and defenseless and unresisting."

"The membership drive of the Greenville Merchants association will be finished sometime this week," C. B. Rowlett, secretary of the organization said this morning. "Merchants who have not yet joined the association should give the membership careful consideration. Joining this body will afford broader opportunities for service in many fields not open to non-members. "The association has accomplished much in behalf of the progress of Greenville and Pitt county and the future bids fair to be as great if not greater than the past. "Get lined up with the progressives by joining the organization while the drive is in progress this week."

"If you have faith in the future development of Greenville, then get busy and boost," someone told the writer today. "Nothing means more to the progress of a town or city than constant boosting, and Greenville and Pitt county offer ample opportunity in the future. "Look around you and see what wonderful resources the section offers the investor and speculator, and then use your influence in telling the outside world of the things going on."

Smith, Reed, Walsh Vie For Oregon Delegates; G. O. P. Vote Is Hoover's

Herbert Hoover is unopposed for the Oregon Republican delegation at the May 18 primaries, but Democrats may vote for Smith, Reed or Walsh, John C. Veatch (left) is the Smith manager, while the most vigorous foe of Smith's candidacy is former Gov. Oswald West (upper right). Rep. Hamilton Fish of New York (below) has filed for the Republican vice-presidential preference.

Portland, Ore. (AP)—The presidential primary on May 18 will be Herbert Hoover day for Oregon Republicans.

The secretary of commerce is unopposed on their ballot, so the opportunity provided is limited to polling an endorsement of the candidacy of one who spent his boyhood days in this state and left it as, a somewhat serious, small-town youth, short of funds, but long on ambition to work his way through a university education.

Ranking their candidate as a "favorite son," Secretary Hoover's supporters have confined their campaign to a plea for a large vote to make the state's endorsement of him impressive.

On the Democratic side there is a lively three-cornered fight for convention delegates.

Gov. Alfred E. Smith of New York, sponsored by the Oregon Smith-for-President club, headed by John C. Veatch, Portland attorney, entered the primary campaign early. His candidacy found an outspoken antagonist in Oswald West, former Governor of Oregon, who enlisted the campaign by attacking the New York executive and his Oregon backers.

West filed declarations of candidacy for both of Smith's opponents—Senator James A. Reed of Missouri and Thomas J. Walsh of Montana—but was not identified with the campaign organizations of either.

Harvey W. Starkweather, Portland attorney and long active in Democratic circles, became manager of the Walsh organization. The Reed campaign moved along without any directing head.

Fred E. Kiddle, a state Senator, took charge of the Hoover headquarters and directed such preparatory work as was done for the secretary of commerce.

A fourth Democratic candidacy is that of Rev. Alonzo Workman of Joplin, Mo.

Three candidates filed for vice-President on the Republican ticket—Congressman Hamilton Fish, of New York, William B. Webster of Eucyrus, Ohio, and John H. Hall of Portland.

Milton A. Miller, of Portland, filed for vice-President on the Democratic ticket. Oregon does not elect a Governor this year, but is to select an attorney general, secretary of state, treasurer and two supreme court justices. Contests for these offices were confined to the Republican side.

SPOTS BEFORE EYES

Miner Had Dark Spots Before Eyes. Felt Dull, Tired, Achy. Doesn't Get Down Any More.

Somerset, Ky.—Telling how he had known of the merit of Theodor's Black-Draught since he was a boy, Mr. Albert Garland, of this city, recently said:

"I used to work in the mines, but lost quite a bit of time on account of the sick spells I had. I would get to having a bad taste in my mouth, and a very dull, tired feeling and ache. I would have dark spots in front of my eyes, and I would be so dizzy I would stagger like I was drunk. "I took medicine, but didn't seem to get any better. "My mother told me to try Black-Draught, which I did, and after a few doses I felt much better. Now I take it as soon as I feel the least bad, and I don't get down. I certainly can say that it has done more for me than any other medicine I have ever taken. "I never get without Black-Draught. If I go on a visit, I take a package along in my suit-case. My health is better now than it has been in years, and I believe it is the use of Black-Draught that did it."

"Black-Draught is prepared from medicinal roots and herbs, of highest quality. Try it. AC-195

TO UNVEIL MEMORIAL TO WRIGHTS AT KITTY HAWK

Elizabeth City, May 1.—(AP)—Hundreds of people are expected to make a pilgrimage tomorrow to a national shrine—the occasion being the unveiling of a modest Obelisk at Kittyhawk, on the Carolina coast, the spot where Orville and Wilbur Wright assembled their first glider in experiments that led to the development of the airplane. The glider was assembled September 17, 1900.

Exercises in connection with the unveiling are to begin about noon, the hour to be determined by the arrival of the visitors who must be transported three miles across Currituck sound by means of ferry boats and a flotilla of small craft. Officials of the navy and commerce departments have promised to come to Kittyhawk by airplane if the weather is favorable. The ceremonies are not to be elaborate but will consist of songs by the student literary societies of Kittyhawk high school, reminiscences by Captain W. J. Tate, with whom the Wrights lodged during their experiments, and informal addresses by prominent visitors. DUNN MAN BURNED TO DEATH IN CAR WRECK Dunn, May 1.—(AP)—Charles Hodges, 28, was burned to death and William Bass, 20, suffered fatal injuries when their automobile collided at a late hour Sunday night with another car parked on the highway near Smith field. Both victims were from Dunn. The parked car belonged to a negro and when the accident occurred he made his escape but was later apprehended and is now in the Johnston county jail. Mrs. Hilton is said to have been in failing health for some time and relatives ascribe her rash act to this cause.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

NEW YORK COTTON
New York, May 1.—(AP)—A further advance a great deal of realizing in the cotton market today which was absorbed on comparatively moderate reactions; prices making new high ground for the movement in early afternoon. May sold above the 22 cent level, or more than 5 cents a pound above the low price touched early last February, active months generally showing net advances of 45 to 49 points.

The volume of business tapered off somewhat at this advance which attracted a renewal of realizing, but the mid-afternoon market was steady when prices showed reactions of 15 to 20 points from the best.

CHICAGO GRAIN
Chicago, May 1.—(AP)—With the United States winter wheat production this season forecast unofficially today as 122,000,000 bushels less than was indicated a year ago, wheat prices went sensationally downward instead of up. The nature of the forecasts had been generally anticipated, and a rush of profit taking sales ensued.

Wheat closed greatly unsettled 3-4 to 4-1/2 net lower; corn 1 5-8 to 2-1/4 off; oats 1 1-8 to 2 5-8 down, and provisions varying from 15 decline to a rise of 2.

STOCK MARKET
New York, May 1.—(AP)—The stock market resumed its march to higher ground today with the rails again in the forefront of the advance. Extreme gains in the active issues ranged from 1 to 12 1-4 points, with a few soft spots developing in the tobacco, copper and oil. Trading was not quite so heavy as yesterday, although the 2,000,000 share mark was crossed before the end of third hour.

Despite the growing fears of a credit stringency, speculators for the rise conducted their operations with confidence, and succeeded in attracting a large public following. The west and south were again heavy buyers of stocks, and in some quarters this was interpreted as an indication of increased purchasing power through the recent advance in wheat and cotton prices. Lowering of the call money rate from 6 to 5 1-2 per cent reflected the passing of month-end demand for funds, and the return of interest and dividend checks to the banks.

Southern and southwestern rails were in brisk demand. New peak prices for the year or longer were registered by Missouri Pacific common and preferred, Chicago and Alton common and preferred, Southern Railway and Reading second preferred, the gains in which ran as high as 3 1-2 points. Lackawanna, and Atchafalaya sold 2 to 3 points higher.

A wave of profit taking swept through the market around mid-day, but was checked by the lowering of the call money rate. The Standard of New York sold down a point but quickly recovered its loss.

Closing was strong. Total sales approximated 4,000,000 shares.

OLD SPEEDWAY CIRCLES MINNEAPOLIS AIRPORT Minneapolis — (AP) — Standing out on the landscape as a mammoth concrete-fringed saucer, Minneapolis' new municipal airport is easily identified from the sky, aviators say.

The flying field, which comprises 325 acres, is surrounded by the old Minneapolis hard-surfaced speedway which was abandoned long ago as an expensive venture.

Acquired at a cost of $190,000, the new field will be equipped as a Class A airport and operated on a 24-hour a day basis.

SIX PERSONS DROWNED NEAR UNIONTOWN, PENN. Uniontown, Pa., May 1.—(AP)—Six persons were drowned early today when a small boat overturned in the Monongahela River between Masontown and Greensboro. A float ing log crashed into the boat and capsized it. The accident happened before daylight and it was several hours before reports of the drownings were received.

Bodyguard of Chinese Leader Leaves Canton

Canton, May 1.—(AP)—Morris Cohen, adventurer from Canada who served the late Dr. Sun Yat-Sen as body guard for the last three years of the revolutionary leader's life, has left Canton for an unnamed destination.

Of the Polyplot Coterie of foreigners who assembled about Dr. Sun's person in Canton—Red Russians, Americans, Germans—it is believed to have been the last of any prominence remaining in China.

Cohen turned up here six years ago with a letter of recommendation from Revolutionary Chinese in Edmonton, Canada, whence he hailed. After he had given a display of his marksmanship, the job of bodyguard and chauffeur to Dr. Sun was his.

When the Huomintang leader died in 1925 his will stipulated that Cohen should have a life job in the Canton government's Central Bank. This he held, acting also as messenger and purchasing agent in the Red uprising of last December.

The upset was his purchase of a one-way ticket from the scene of this six-year phase of his adventurer's career.

Duke University Mourns Death of Dr. W. H. Pegram

Durham, May 1.—(AP)—Duke University faculty and students today were mourning the death of Dr. William Howell Pegram, 82-year-old faculty member who died yesterday after more than half a century service to the university as a teacher.

Funeral services for the beloved professor will be held tomorrow morning at Trinity Methodist Church where he was a member and burial will be made in Trinity in Randolph county. Pall bearers are expected to be selected from the faculty and trustees of Trinity Church.

The body will be carried to the university at 5 o'clock this afternoon; and there will lie in state in East Duke building until the hour of the funeral. A guard of honor chosen from among the students at the University will stand watch at the bier.

Among his survivors are the following sons and daughters: Miss Annie M. Pegram, faculty member at Greensboro college; R. George B. Pegram, dean of the school of engineering at Columbia University, New York; John E. Pegram, of Durham; William H. Pegram, Jr., of San Antonio, Texas, and Miss Irene Pegram, of Durham.

SAYS MOVIES CAUSE OF MORAL DECAY Pinehurst, N. C., May 1.—(AP)—The movies were accused of contributing "more than any other agency to the degradation of the moral character of the people" in an address delivered here last night by Dr. W. A. McPhaul, Charlotte City health officer.

Dr. McPhaul's address was delivered at the annual meeting of the North Carolina public health officers association.

The Charlotte man blamed existing conditions on a combination of circumstances which he denominated "desire and opportunity" saying that themovies created the desire to transgress moral laws.

WITHDRAWAL OF NEAL TO LEAVE CLEAR FIELD Asheville, N. C., May 1.—(AP)—The expected withdrawal of Will W. Neal from the congressional race in the 10th district for the sake of party harmony, will leave the field clear for Congressman Zebulon Weaver, it was felt here today.

In a statement to the Asheville Citizen yesterday, Mr. Neal announced that he would notify the state board of elections today of his withdrawal.

Mr. Neal entered the race April 20 as an avowed supporter of Gov. Smith after congressman Weaver had declared against the New York governor.

PLAN TO END ILLITERACY NEAR GOAL

Commission to Investigate Adult Ignorance and Report to Governor. Raleigh, May 1.—(AP)—Governor McLean's plans to eliminate adult illiteracy in North Carolina today neared the goal.

A commission headed by Mrs. Elizabeth C. Morris of Asheville, recognized leader in high school work in mountain counties will study the adult illiteracy situation in the state, collect data, determine the needs in this field and report later to the Governor.

The state conducted adult illiteracy work from 1917 until 1921 through the department of education. "Moon light schools" taught many but when the state-wide property tax was abolished the bureau headed by Miss Elizabeth Kelly of Franklin, was closed, lacking specific appropriation.

The personnel of the commission, composing prominent educators and women's federation and parent teachers leaders, follows:

Mrs. Morris; Mrs. Claude S. Morris, Salisbury, director demonstration, district state federation of clubs; Mrs. Thomas O'Berry, Goldsboro, president state federation Women's clubs; Mrs. Frank Castleberry, Raleigh state president P. T. A.; Mrs. Lillian B. Griggs, director, state library commission; Mrs. E. L. McKee, Sylva, former president state federation women's clubs; Mrs. Howard G. Etheridge, Asheville, secretary illiteracy committee state federation of women's clubs; Miss Ruth Burke, LaGrange, member illiteracy committee state federation women's clubs; Mrs. T. E. Browne, Raleigh; A. T. Allen, Raleigh, Supt public instruction; Dr. Howard W. Gum, N. N. S.; George B. Elliott, Wilmington; E. W. Boshart, state college. Dr. W. H. Livars, college for women; S. L. Davis High Point; E. D. Broadhurst, Greensboro; Dr. J. Y. Joyner, Raleigh and R. E. Sentelle, Wadesville.

A Lasting Good Impression
Esso is still comparatively new—but it has already been widely accepted by motorists. It has won its place, because ESSO combines the best features of an all-around quick-starting, powerful gasoline with anti-knock qualities that are best appreciated when your motor is hard pressed.

Esso is sold everywhere from silver-colored ESSO pumps. Its price is a few cents more a gallon than regular gasoline, but it usually gives so much more mileage that its cost is actually less.

Feel for yourself the increased pleasure of driving with ESSO. For a few cents you can make your own tests.

Smoot Informs Senate Members Of Tax Measure

Washington, May 1.—(AP)—The $212,000,000 surplus in sight for next year represents the maximum reduction possible in taxes at this session, Chairman Smoot reported today in laying before the senate the committee $203,000,000 measure on behalf of the Republican members of the senate finance committee.

"Yes, this amount," Senator Smoot said in his report, "must be reduced by additional expenditures called for during the fiscal year '29 by new legislation."

The committee chairman gave notice he would ask the senate to take up the measure on Thursday and although a sharp fight is in prospect with Democrats prepared to ask for $325,000,000 reduction program, leaders expect to dispose of the measure by the end of the next week.

Senator Simmons, of North Carolina, ranking democrat on the committee announced today he would file no minority report because "the fight between the Democrats and Republicans on tax reduction is so subtle that no explanation is necessary." He said he would present the Democrats' $325,000,000 plan on the floor.

The main difference between that and the Republican scheme is for a greater cut in the corporation rate which the Democrats would slash to eleven per cent.

Baptists Of South To Report Progress At Annual Meeting

Leaders in the Southern Baptist convention which meets in Chattanooga, Tenn., May 16-20, include the president and corresponding secretary of the Woman's Missionary Union, Mrs. W. J. Cox (left), of Memphis, and Miss Kathleen Mallory, Birmingham, and the president of the convention, Dr. George W. Truett, Dallas.

Chattanooga, Tenn., (AP)—Members of the Southern Baptist church are to hear from officials a story of remarkable progress, covering a period of seven years, at their annual convention here May 16-20.

Gains of 1,495,529 new church members and 854,469 in Sunday school enrollment have been recorded. One thousand, seven hundred and sixty-six new Sunday schools have been added and the value of local church property has increased $98,150,384. Annual contributions to local church expenses advanced $11,270,000, while a gain of $6,131,876 in annual contributions to all objects was made.

Prominent among the important matters before the convention will be means for taking care of the financial obligations of the several missionary, educational and benevolent enterprises of the church, recommendations of a special committee for more correlation of the activities of general boards and other agencies of the body, and the establishment of a special stewardship program for 1929.

Meeting in conjunction with the convention will be the Women's Missionary Union, which is planning to celebrate its fortieth anniversary this year by raising $4,000,000 for the church cooperative program. The union's sessions will begin May 14.

Indications are that there will be little opposition to the re-election of present officers of the convention and union. Dr. George W. Truett, of Dallas, Tex., is just completing his first year as president and will be re-elected without opposition if he permits his name to be presented again, leaders say. Dr. Hugh C. Moore, Nashville, Tenn., and J. Henry Burnett, Murfreesboro, Tenn., have been recording secretaries for many years.

Mrs. W. J. Cox, Memphis, Tenn., is president of the union, having held the office three years. Miss Kathleen Mallory, Birmingham, Ala., for a number of years has been corresponding secretary.

Today Senator Borah warns Republicans that "corruption is the big issue in this national election."

"The Republican party must prove that it belongs neither to crooks nor cowards."

Perhaps corruption OUGHT to be the big issue, but it is not. Millions of farmers want better prices for wheat, pork, cotton, corn. Millions of investors want continued high prices and paper profits. Millions of workers want continued high wages.

Those are the issues that will influence votes.

Stealing a few tens of millions from the government will not influence many, especially as the nominated will have had nothing to do with the stealing.

If the people are not intelligent enough to watch a few big concerns they would not be able to watch a lot of little concerns.

Wall Street is supposed to oppose Hoover's nomination, but does not show sentiment to influence betting.

Al Smith would be better than ten to one for the Democratic nomination, but no one wants to bet against him. His friends believe he will be nominated on the first ballot.
