

BILLY SUNDAY TELLS OF LIFE AFTER DEATH

Evangelist Delivered Sermon on Immortality of The Soul Last Night.

The immortality of the soul was discussed in an interesting way by Billy Sunday at the tabernacle last night.

As usual, Mr. Sunday's phraseology was matchless, each expression couched in color words which instantly conveyed his meaning.

This afternoon has been designated as "Mother's Day" at the tabernacle and Mr. Sunday delivered a sermon on the subject, "Mother."

Tonight members of the Greenville Kiwanis club will attend the services in a body.

Mr. Sunday has accepted an invitation of the Durham Ministerial Association to speak Thursday morning, May 21st.

The desire for immortality has been inculcated in the breasts of men since Adam.

Man has three distinctive qualities that differentiate him from the brute animal.

In his barking argument he enumerated the various chemical combinations and compounds of the human body.

"Oh, I tell you, lack of belief in immortality is nonsense and would mean the murder of civilization."

Probably inspired by the lecture of Count Keyserling, Billy Sunday took another fling at the intelligentsia.

"Yes, sir, to jail with them for the damnable immortality and rot they are vomiting on the world."

He then proceeded to give an acted skit of a girl reading a popular fiction book.

Enacts Modern Novel. "Ah, here comes our fair-haired hero! Sunday was the hero, galloping across the platform."

The prisoner remained under guard at her home today, refusing to discuss the shooting at all.

There were no eye-witnesses, but Mrs. Woodie Parker, daughter-in-law of Mrs. Parker, said she was standing just outside the door when Mrs. Parker entered the house.

Indications were the case would go before the Supreme Court in due time to test the validity of the 1927 county government act.

Japanese Clear Tsinan of The Chinese Nationalists; Tense Feeling at Shanghai

Geneva, May 11.—(AP)—Cheng Loh, Chinese member of the council on the League of Nations, declared to the Associated Press correspondent this afternoon: "I believe there is every hope of direct negotiations between the Chinese and Japanese governments."

He made this statement when asked for his views on the Nanking government's protest to the league that Japan violated China's integrity and independence.

Speaking over the telephone, Chang Loh, who is also minister representing the Peking government at Paris, said he had received no official instructions from Peking and therefore could not say whether his government would support the Nanking appeal.

Shanghai, May 11.—(AP)—Tsinan has been cleared of Nationalists by the Japanese after a week of bloodshed, but anti-Japanese feeling today was smoldering in Shanghai.

It was considered extremely risky for foreigners to venture into native territory. Japanese troops patrolled the Japanese section of the foreign city.

Japanese residents of Canton were evacuated to Shamen, the foreign settlement and Hongkong. A run on the Taiwan bank, a Japanese institution in Canton by Chinese depositors because of the Tsinan clash resulted in foreign banks especially American ones gaining accounts.

A strong anti-Japanese boycott was under way in Canton. The city was placarded with anti-Japanese posters.

T. P. A. Annual Convention Opens At Winston-Salem. Winston-Salem, May 11.—(AP)—More than 200 delegates were on hand today for the 32nd annual convention of the North Carolina division Travelers Protective Association which began last night.

The principal business session today will see the annual reports of officers and committee chairmen delivered. National Director, C. W. Murchison, of Raleigh, also is expected to deliver an address.

Sick Woman Kills Her Step-Mother. Townville, S. C., May 11.—(AP)—A desperately ill farmer's wife today is accused of killing her stepmother with a gun she had concealed in her bed.

A coroner's jury found that Mrs. Mary Richardson yesterday fired on Mrs. Elizabeth Parker after threatening to commit the deed if the stepmother did not stay on her "side of the hill."

The prisoner remained under guard at her home today, refusing to discuss the shooting at all, and too ill for removal to the county jail.

There were no eye-witnesses, but Mrs. Woodie Parker, daughter-in-law of Mrs. Parker, said she was standing just outside the door when Mrs. Parker entered the house.

BIG DIRIGIBLE OFF ON FLIGHT TO NORTHLAND

Noble Expedition Begins Penetration of Polar Region From King's Bay.

Copyright by the Associated Press, 1928. Kings Bay, Spitzbergen, May 11.—(AP)—The dirigible Italia, which left Kings Bay this morning for a 40-hour flight over the polar regions, returned after seven hours because of bad weather conditions.

Kings Bay, Spitzbergen, May 11.—(AP)—The dirigible Italia, ready for a flight to the north pole, started her first trip into the polar regions early this morning and was expected back at Kings Bay in about forty hours.

The huge dirigible, under command of General Umberto Nobile, who already has made one dirigible flight to the north pole, took a northward course the same as that taken by the Norge in 1926.

It made about 35 miles an hour in a northwest wind, and in half an hour was out of sight of those watching at Kings Bay.

It was believed that General Nobile intended to explore the surroundings of the north pole first and return about midnight Saturday night.

The crew of the ship met at the starting place at six o'clock this morning and boarded the dirigible in the hangar to try out the motors. At 7:25 a. m., 200 Italian helpers took the ship from the hangar and General Nobile, in the uniform of his rank in the Italian air service, came out of his headquarters and greeted his friends heartily, kissing and embracing them.

The two forward motors were started while General Nobile posed for the cameramen and the airship at 7:45 moved into the air as the ground crew left to the restraining rope.

Attaining a height of about 700 feet, with her three motors working, the Italia started into the dimly lit sky to the accompaniment of "Sweet shouts of 'E lai, E lai.'"

Preparations for the start were begun last evening when the crew brought provisions aboard. These included corned beef, biscuits, eggs and fruit. At four o'clock in the morning the crew put in the flying kit and rifles. Norwegian skis and sledges and also snowed away enough benzene for a 6,000 kilometer flight.

The start was delayed for a short time because the weather was too warm. The meteorologist wanted a lower temperature, so that the airship would lose a certain amount in capacity. Eventually the start was made under favorable conditions and the weather seemed fine to the eastward.

The Italia goes first to Nicolai Island. It will proceed to the ice edge and follow the 80th northern degree, then eastward, exploring the northern part of Nicolai Land, which has been explored very little. The Italia is expected to return either late Saturday night or early Sunday morning and will receive weather reports from Citta di Milano. This supply ship will keep in communication with the dirigible throughout the trip.

Those aboard the Italia with General Nobile include campaigner Mariano Lieut. Vigler and Arnoldo, Motorchief Cecioni; Professor Pontremoli; Engineer Troiani; Radioman Beati; Motorman Caratti; Pomella, Ciocca and Anselotti; Assistants Alessandrini and B-occhi; meteorologist Malmgren; seven of these men made the polar flight with Amundsen-Norge in 1926.

Raleigh, May 11.—(AP)—Should a move be made to secure commutation for John Clyburn, negro, condemned to die on May 25 for slaying Cyrus Fink, Charlotte, private prosecution in the case would recommend clemency.

This was learned today from Pardons Commissioner Bridges, just back from Charlotte. Mr. Bridges quoted Jake Newell, who helped prosecute Clyburn in Mecklenburg superior court, as saying he believed Clyburn was a tool of Dave Devlin, another negro convicted of Fink's death. Devlin recently paid his life for slaying a Rowan county deputy.

Mr. Bridges, however, said that unless new evidence was developed, there was little hope for Clyburn gaining commutation.

Washington, May 11.—(AP)—William Putterworth, of Moline, Ill., was elected president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States today, and Joseph H. Deeres of Chicago, was elected chairman of the board of directors.

ANTI-SMITH CROWD LEADS IN ALABAMA

Sweeping Majorities Reported for Delegates at Large to Houston Convention.

Birmingham, May 11.—(AP)—Sweeping majorities piled up by three anti-Smith candidates for Houston delegates-at-large in last Tuesday's primary appeared today to have determined definitely the favor of most of Alabama's famous 21 votes in the convention next month.

With 1161 precincts out of 1323 tabulated and 54 of the state's 67 counties complete, A. H. Carmichael, Borden Burr and Harry H. Ayers, were assured of places on the delegation-at-large, while T. S. Faulk, another anti-Smith man, was in position for the fourth seat with 7000 votes margin.

Anti-Smith delegates definitely had been elected on the face of the unofficial returns from three congressional districts, while the tabulated vote indicated the ticket had carried in the majority.

Quarterly Meeting of Merchants Assn. Next Monday Night. The regular meeting of the Greenville Merchants Association will be held Monday evening at 7 o'clock in the basement of the Christian church. It was announced from association headquarters today.

This has been one of the most successful years in the history of the organization and all members are urged to be present.

Chicago Provides Night Life Curfew. Chicago, May 11.—(AP)—Commissioner of Police Hughes has decreed a curfew on the city's night life at 1 A. M.

Since his return Wednesday from a vacation in Missouri, "Go-Get-'em Mike" Hughes has issued ultimatums and orders with rattling gun rapidity.

His first was to clean up gambling and vice conditions. Then followed instructions to clamp the lid on night life.

Unless his orders were obeyed, he told deputy commissioners, they would face charges before the Police trial board.

"There will be no buck passing to the captains or subordinates it is up to you to see that these orders are followed if they aren't you'll go before the board." That was his comment.

Reports that commissioner Hughes would resign have been denied repeatedly.

Organized Labor To Take Active Part In Politics. Durham, May 11.—(AP)—Organized labor will take an active part in state politics prior to the June 2 primary, labor leaders here today said upon the heels of the endorsement last night by the Durham Central Labor Union of M. L. Shipman as a candidate for Commissioner of Labor.

Plans for opening political headquarters in several cities probably Raleigh, Charlotte, Greensboro, Asheville, and Winston-Salem, were disclosed by Alfred Hoffman, southern organizer for the hosiery workers, who led the meeting last night. Campaign forces will work actively for certain candidates, Hoffman said, if it appears to labor's interest to have them successful. Meetings will be held shortly in other cities, it was stated.

Among candidates given endorsement by the union were S. C. Bravley, of the Senate, and J. F. Pleasant, now a member of city council, and Victor Young, attorney, for the House of Representatives.

COMMISSION CONSIDERS PETITION TO REMOVE TRAINS. Raleigh, May 11.—(AP)—State Corporation Commission today heard arguments of counsel of the railroad and communities it serves on the proposal of the Seaboard Air Line to discontinue two passenger trains running between Wilmington and Hamlet.

The railway proposed to remove trains numbers 19 and 20 on account of unprofitable business. The city of Wilmington and towns along the route strongly objected to such a move which it made, they said, would cut the communities off from the west and south.

PLANE LANDS ABOARD SHIP IN MID OCEAN

Non-Dirigible TC-5 Demonstrates Feasibility of Shore to Ship Service.

New York, May 11.—(AP)—The first landing of an airship on the deck of a moving steamer, accomplished off Ambrose light-ship, was hailed by shipping men today as demonstrating the feasibility of a shore-to-ship service to speed transatlantic travel.

The army non-rigid dirigible TC-5 effected the landing yesterday on a specially constructed platform on the United States Shipping Board liner American Trader, while the ship proceeded on its way to Plymouth and London at a speed of six knots an hour.

The dirigible remained on the steamer's deck three minutes, while letters were delivered and a passenger picked up, and then cast off again and returned to her hangar at Lakehurst, N. J. The test was conducted by the Army and the Shipping Board.

T. V. Connor, chairman of the Shipping Board, was elated. "The landing of the TC-5 on the American Trader," he said, "marks a further step in the co-ordination of the air and water transportation in the development of the American merchant marine. This experiment has demonstrated beyond doubt that under normal weather conditions it is possible for a lighter-than-air craft to rest on the deck of an ocean steamer, exchange passengers and mail and proceed without having interfered with the progress of the ship."

The American Trader left her Manhattan dock at 4 p. m., while the TC-5 took off at the same time from the aviation field at Lakehurst, N. J., piloted by Lieut. Starkey of Langley Field, assisted by Lieut. U. G. Ent.

As the American Trader neared the rendezvous three miles off the lightship the 200 foot dirigible, her silver sides shining in the late afternoon sun, nosed slowly up behind the steamer and dropped lines to the deck.

The lines were grabbed by a landing crew of 22 soldiers from Governor's Island and the blimp was pulled down to the platform which had been erected on the poop deck of the steamer. A wind of 18 knots an hour was blowing but did not interfere with the landing to any extent.

The feat of the TC-5 was not the first time an airship had been landed on a ship as the Los Angeles made a successful landing on the deck of the aircraft carrier Saratoga on January 27.

SHIP REFOLOATED. Panama, May 11.—(AP)—Radio messages received here today said the steamship Mexico of the American Hawaiian line had gone aground and been refloated on a reef off Bird Rock, one mile north of Crooked Island of the Bahama group. The ship's port side was damaged as well as its double bottom and seven tanks.

The ship sailed from New York on May 3. Details of the accident were not clear.

Faces Trial Again

Mrs. Florence E. S. Knapp faces retrial at Albany, N. Y., on May 21 for alleged larceny of census funds as New York secretary of state. A jury disagreed at her first trial.

Spanish Flier Crashes During Endurance Trip. Seville, Spain, May 11.—(AP)—Attempting to take off on a flight to break duration and distance records, the airplane Jesus Del Gran Poder crashed into an automobile this morning. The lower right wing was considerably damaged making a flight impossible.

The plane started down the runway with Captains Ignacio Jimenez and Francisco Iglesias for an unannounced destination at 6:15 a. m. The airframe was crowded with people and cheered the flier.

Suddenly the plane plunged into a military automobile in its path preventing the flight.

Carol May Return To Home in France. London, May 11.—(AP)—Chills and fever were understood to be keeping former Crown Prince Carol of Rumania in bed today as the British government watched to see how soon he would obey the command to leave England. It was generally thought that France where he lived quietly for two years, would be Carol's next haven or refuge.

In circles close to the French Government it was held that there would be no objections to another return by Carol to that country. His activities never amounted to what might be interpreted as abusive of French hospitality. He seldom talked for publication, his only two interviews being carefully worded and non-committal.

GRANT'S $5,000 PENSION TO WOOD'S WIDOW. Washington, May 11.—(AP)—Without debate the Senate last night passed a bill to grant an annual pension of $5,000 to the widow of Major General Leonard Wood. The annuity would be in lieu of the smaller pension the widow of the former governor general of the Philippines receives from the War Department. As a mark of recognition for the services of General Wood rendered Cuba after the Spanish war, the government of that island has awarded Mrs. Wood an annual pension of $6,000.

Those contributing $1,000 were H. L. Bowles, congressman from Massachusetts; Gist E. of Washington; George E. Bronneman, of New York; B. H. Numan, New York merchant; Laure B. Baker, New York City; George Rolph, San Francisco business man; Selah H. Chamberlain, of San Francisco; Fred W. Van Sicken, San Francisco; P. W. Bradley, San Francisco; W. W. Crocker, San Francisco; J. D. Grant, San Francisco; James H. Post, New York; Palmer Fuller, San Francisco; Robert M. Undergraff, Scarsdale, New York; Senator Edge, New Jersey, and John H. Barrett, assistant postmaster general.

There was a burst of laughter in the committee room when Good remarked that, considering Hoover's widespread organization, expenditures in his behalf were "modest."

His contention that the money expended was less than in other campaigns with which he was familiar, brought from Chairman Steiwer an inquiry as to what other campaign he was referring to.

Good recalled that in 1924 he was associated in the management of President Coolidge's presidential campaign. He insisted that he had his co-workers were seeking to avoid stigmatizing any of the other candidates for the presidential nomination and that that end in view had conducted a "pro-Hoover" campaign, not one in opposition to anyone else.

TELLS SENATE ABOUT HOOVER CONTRIBUTION

James Good Says Hoover Received Over $50,000 and Spent Most of it.

Washington, May 11.—(AP)—James W. Good, directing head of the Hoover organization, told the senate campaign funds committee today that the Washington headquarters of the commerce secretary had received contribution totaling $50,150 and had spent $42,032.16.

The amount received Good said $1,000 had come in currency in an unmarked envelope. This sum had been deposited in a bank and would not be expended until the donor had been established.

Good listed expenditures as follows: Telephone and telegraph $1,926.25; advance to Kansas City headquarters $3,948.13; postage, printing, lithographing and mailing $5,417.79; headquarters expenses including rent and office supplies $13,422.94; salaries $4,472; traveling expenses $5,676.82; speakers' bureau $2,250; stenographic service $2,432.25; primary filing fee $270; clipping bureau and newspaper subscriptions $28.75; editorial research $1,787.50.

He said that in his opinion the aggregate expenditures of the various state Hoover clubs which he mentioned would be less than $250,000. Considering the scope of the campaign and the issues involved, he said, the expenditure was "very modest indeed," being "less than any similar campaign expenditures with which I am familiar."

He read into the record reports from various state campaign managers which showed $7,900 had been expended in Michigan; $6,000 in Minnesota; about $600 in Arkansas; not to exceed $27,000 in California; $25,125.54 in Oregon; about $1,200 in Colorado; $3,261.90 in Texas; $4,833 in Washington state; not exceeding $36 in Rhode Island; $338 in Maryland; $1,297.95 in Oklahoma; $9,192.20 in New Jersey, and $9,287 in Massachusetts.

The witness was unable to give detailed information regarding some charges, but said his information was that $25,000 of $40,000 had been expended in Indiana; that approximately $40,000 was spent in one Ohio primary campaign, and that the New York Hoover committee had expenses of around $35,000. Detailed reports, he told the committee, were being awaited from Florida, Indiana, Maine, Missouri, New Hampshire, New York and Ohio.

Good testified that the receipts included $5,000 from Edsel Ford; $3,500 from Julius Rosenberg; Chicago merchant; $2,500 from Franklin Fort, representative from New Jersey; $2,500 from Paul Guenther, a retired business man of Dover, New Jersey; $2,500 from H. L. Moses, a New York lawyer, and $5,000 from Walter E. Hope, a New York lawyer.

Those contributing $1,000 were H. L. Bowles, congressman from Massachusetts; Gist E. of Washington; George E. Bronneman, of New York; B. H. Numan, New York merchant; Laure B. Baker, New York City; George Rolph, San Francisco business man; Selah H. Chamberlain, of San Francisco; Fred W. Van Sicken, San Francisco; P. W. Bradley, San Francisco; W. W. Crocker, San Francisco; J. D. Grant, San Francisco; James H. Post, New York; Palmer Fuller, San Francisco; Robert M. Undergraff, Scarsdale, New York; Senator Edge, New Jersey, and John H. Barrett, assistant postmaster general.

LOOKS LIKE REAL DUEL IN THE AMERICAN

(By The Associated Press.)
Sensational winning streaks by the New York Yankees and Philadelphia Athletics threaten to turn the American league pennant struggle into a duel instead of a free for all.

The Athletics, after losing their first four games, have won 12 of their last 13. The Yanks have lost two of their last 13.

George Herman Ruth propelled his seventh homer of the season into the left field bleachers at the Yankee Stadium yesterday, scoring behind two teammates and giving the Yankees a 4 to 2 win over Cleveland.

The Athletics hammered out an 11 to 1 verdict over the St. Louis Browns at Philadelphia. Joe Hauser hit his sixth homer of the campaign. Big Miller also kicked in with one. Each of these came with two on the paths. While the Mackmen were collecting 19 hits, old Jack Quinn held the Browns to six.

Bob Fothergill led the Detroit Tigers to a 10 inning victory over the Senators at Washington, 6 to 5. He got three hits, two of them doubles, scored one run and drove in three more.

The Boston Red Sox returned to the league cellar by dropping a 9 to 2 battle to the Chicago White Sox. The New York Giants tightened their hold on first place in the National league by downing Ray Krimmer and the Pirates at Pittsburgh, 5 to 4. The Giants shelled Krimmer for nine hits and all their runs in 3 1-3 innings. Fred Russell, a south paw was a great puzzle thereafter. Fred Flinnimus was fairly liberal with hits but had enough to keep the Pirates from tying the score.

The St. Louis Cardinals advanced into third place by sinking the hapless Phillies again 5 to 4. A wild tenth inning saw the Boston Braves beat the Red at Cincinnati, 7 to 6. With the score tied three all, the Braves reached Carl Mays for four hits and four runs.

Spartanburg After Lead In The Sally

Atlanta, May 11—(AP)—Spartanburg by playing heads up baseball and hitting at will, is fast becoming a serious menace to Asheville, leading flag racer in the South Atlantic league.

The Spartans loosed a terrific attack on Augusta pitchers yesterday, obtaining 14 hits and combining these with seven Tiger errors for 18 to 1 verdict. Every man on the Spartanburg club connected safely at least once.

Asheville held to four hits by Mahaffey, went down before Columbia 5 to 1. Four doubles and a triple were included in the Comers' 13 bingles.

The Columbia hurler struck out seven tourists during the fray. In a free hitting game Charlotte defeated Greenville 10 to 8. The Hornets secured 15 hits while the Spinners were accumulating 13.

Spiers and C Walker of Greenville and Lemox of Charlotte, hit homers.

Macon used its seven hits to better advantage than Knoxville did its ten and won from the Smokies 6 to 3. The Peaches scored five of their runs in the first two innings.

Gallagher, Smoke outfielded, had a perfect day at bat with three bingles in as many attempts. Osborn secured three one of his blows going for a home run.

HAGAN WINS BRITISH OPEN

Sandwich, Eng., May 11—(AP)—Walter Hagan won the British open golf championship today with a score of 292 for 72 holes. Hagan scored a pair of 72's in the final rounds to win. It was Hagan's third victory in the British title event. He won in 1922 and 1924.

Sarazen finished with a score of 73 for his last round and a total of 294, establishing him in the position of runner-up to Hagan. Archie Compston took 73 on his final round for a total of 295, three strokes back of Hagan's mark.

Twins Leading In The Piedmont

(By The Associated Press.)
Continuing their climb over the Salisbury Colonials whom they tied Wednesday for the league leadership, the Winston-Salem twins advanced to the top rung of the ladder yesterday by a 6 to 2 win over the Whiteman tribe. The thumping twins pounded two Colonial pitches for 13 hits. Four other teams however found the going more equal and it was not until the eleventh innings that High Point was able to forge ahead of Raleigh for a 7 to 6 win. Three pitchers were used to hold the Caps in check while D. Boone and Hur-bert were collecting three circuit clouts between them to win the game. The Bulls found their heavy stickwork unavailing in two games against the Patriots and Greensboro came off the winner 11 to 8 and 3 to 2.

Greenville and Fayetteville battled for twelve innings in Fayetteville yesterday afternoon, the Tobaccoists winning out by the score of 5 to 4. It was one of the most thrilling games of the season and contained many sensational features.

The two clubs went out early in the afternoon intending to play a double header to make up for some of the games postponed in favor of the weather man, but the initial clash continued so long that it was impossible to give another contest consideration. Greenville gained a definite lead in the fifth and sixth innings but Fayetteville managed to put four runners over the rubber in the seventh frame by a terrific batting rally off Cherry's delivery. The Greenville hurler had pitched superb ball up to that moment when he became wild and ineffective and Deacon Joliffe took the mound and for the remainder of the game held the Highlanders scoreless.

The twelfth provided the one run that resulted in victory for the Tobaccoists after they had tied up the score in the eighth. Greenville moves over to Goldsboro this afternoon for a two game series.

STAY THROUGH THE ENTIRE SERVICE

We have been attending "Billy" Sunday services and, of course, we have enjoyed them, but what gets our goat is that just as soon as Mr. Sunday finishes his prayer and begins to give an invitation, there is a general stampede for the door and before he finally closes the service about half a congregation has gone out the other half has been able to hear above the roof beats of those hurrying away.

When you get up and leave the tabernacle before the services are over you are not only making it hard for those who desire to remain to hear, but you are attracting the attention of those about you from that the evangelist is saying, and in many instances one word or sentence that might bring someone to Jesus Christ, is lost to that person because he or she is following your example and leaving before the service is over.

When you go to hear Mr. Sunday, and you should go often as possible, see to it that you stay throughout the services. It is unfair to Mr. Sunday as well as to others who attend the meeting to do anything that will detract from the services.

ABOUT TOWN

The first quarterly meeting of the entire membership of the Greenville Merchants Association will be held in the basement of the Christian church next Monday night at 7 o'clock, according to bulletins issued from the office of the secretary of the organization today.

This has been one of the most successful years in the history of the association, the bulletin said, and every member should make it a point to attend and contribute his share in furthering the interests of the mercantile interests of the city.

Members of the Kiwanis Club are going to attend the Billy Sunday evangelists meeting tonight, a member of the club said to the writer of this column today.

sermons. "If you haven't been out to hear him, make it a point to do so now and lend your support to a cause of inestimable value to the city."

"We are more than gratified at the splendid way Greenville people observed Southern Memorial Day yesterday," someone told us today.

The celebration was possibly one of the most complete in years, and while there were only ten of the fourteen members of Bryan Grimes camp here to take part, the day passed off pleasantly for everyone and gave us a chance of reconsecrating ourselves to the ideals made extant by one of the most sturdy of people on earth.

"The cause of the Confederacy was lost, but not in vain. The valor—the spirit that caused a fallen people to rebuild their desolated land to what it is today, has commanded the admiration of the world."

"May the spirit of these old men live forever, for it is in them and through them that we may hope to make the dreams of our young men light the future with human possibility."

Denies Neglect of Bible. "That's the kind of bunk they read and let the Bible lie idle on the table, only picking it up to dust when they see the minister coming, or to keep the family records straight."

"There are people who tell you they would join the church but they can't, because there are so many hypocrites in the church."

The average man will talk sense about his business; he will talk sense about politics, but talk to him about religion and he immediately talks nonsense, declared Sunday with manifest disgust.

"I suppose as long as the United States mints stamp coins and make them worth 100 cents on the dollar, there will be found men who will counterfeit them. But that does not destroy the value of the genuine. You think all the more of it."

"You find as long as God's cause is going along you will find men that will counterfeit it. I went to Washington one time years ago and I met my friend John Wilkey, he used to be a reporter on the Chicago Tribune when I was playing ball. We became fast friends. I went to his room one time to see him and he showed me thousands of dollars made by counterfeiters. I had a good dollar in my pocket and I wasn't fool enough to throw it away on the White House commons. That one good dollar would buy more than all the hundreds of counterfeiters that I had looked at. It made me think more of it because we only counterfeit good things nowadays."

Jesus Foretold This. "Now Jesus Christ foretold all this in His prophecy about the kingdom of heaven being like a grain of mustard seed and the birds shall build their nests in the branches."

"That prophecy has been fulfilled so today in most of the churches and you can find anything from a hungry bird to a turkey buzzard. "In a town one time out in Illinois something was said in the sermon that made a young fellow mad. He went out cursing and damning and said he did not believe in the Bible or God. That young fellow was a Mason. So they had a session called at the lodge. "The next day a friend of mine met an officer of the lodge and said, 'I understand you had an all-night session, laboring for an erring brother.' "That young fellow didn't believe in God or Christ, or anybody else. That young fellow was a Knight Templar. He can come to a thirty-third degree and believe in God, but when a man wears that white flag and blue uniform, he has got to believe in Jesus Christ and the New Testament."

"Well," he said, "the Bible says and years. Don't blame God then if you wake up in the mouth of hell. But you will go home tonight, disrobe, jump into bed and reach up and grab a novel and begin to read."

Adam and Eve had other children besides Cain and Abel, no matter whether the first pair came by generation, creation or evolution or by accident. They were produced by a protoplasm.

"You are trying to pin your hope of heaven on where Cain got his wife. That cuts no ice with me at all. Why do you ask that silly, ridiculous question? Is it because you are trying to take a side against the Bible—discredit the Bible? Is it because you are trying to find some excuse that will justify you in being a devil and rejecting Jesus Christ and living in sin?"

"When the papers and the people on the other side of the political faith could find no fault in Benjamin Harrison, one of the highest types of American manhood that has ever sat in the White House—none of them had anything on Benjamin Harrison—so then they began to sneer about his grandfather's hat, and Benjamin Harrison had more gray matter in his brain than the whole dirty bunch put together; they tried to make people believe that Benjamin Harrison was not fit to sit in the White House."

"So, therefore, listen! Darwin, the infidel, quotes Matthew, who in turn quotes Euler, the infidel, in which he says that population will double in twenty-five years. If you studied your scriptural chronology carefully you will find that when Cain went out to court his wife he was a hut youth 125 years old."

"Some people pay no heed to the Bible. They will gulp down the novels as they are taken from the press each day. Some of you have not looked into the Bible for months

"A fellow says to me, 'Will follow my conscience.' You are like the farmer that follows the hind wheel when he comes into town. It is the first thing that comes into town and the last thing that goes out of town.

"A fellow said to me, 'Didn't your God make conscience as a guide?' 'Maybe he did.'

"When He created Adam and Eve He gave them a conscience. But Adam and Eve ate the forbidden fruit and sin came to the world through disobedience. Their conscience and faith and moral faculties went down in the fall.

"And, therefore, God Almighty stepped in and inspired men and women with the Holy Ghost to write His word, and there is the only infallible rule of faith and prayer for any being on earth—God's word.

"Your conscience is a good guide if it has been regenerated, but if it has not, it will take you to hell. There are men and women following their conscience and they are so close to hell they can look into the pit now.

Story of the Pearl.
"I read the other day of a man who had vast estates and he saved and after nearly sixty years of work and toil he was going to sunny Italy, there to build an old vine-clad castle, and there spend the last years of his life in comfort; and he sold all his estates and bought a pearl of fabulous price. To guard against anything happening to it he had a rosewood jeweled case made inside of which he placed his pearl, and he locked that case with a gold lock and a gold key.

"Still dissatisfied with the provision for its safety he had a stronger box made inside of which he placed the former and he locked that with a silver lock and a silver key.

"Still dissatisfied with that he had another made and he placed the case inside of this box and locked that with an iron lock and iron key. And to pass away the time of the wearisome journey, he walked on the deck of the ship and seeing a boy selling apples from a basket, he borrowed one—two—three, up to nine, and these he tossed into the air and because of his skill the passengers applauded him. He flattered by their words returned the apples to the boy. Bowing low, he said, 'Thank you. This to the ladies: if you will wait a few minutes I truly will show you my skill. This is no test.'

"He hurried into the cabin and put the iron key in the iron lock, the silver key in the silver lock, the golden key in the golden lock and, reaching into the rosewood caske, he took the pearl from its velvety nest. He pressed it to his lips. He said:

"Captain, this pearl represents the toil, the sweat and hardships and the savings of a lifetime, and I am going to exchange it for a castle and a life of ease and for the turquoise skies of Italy."

"The captain said: 'Don't lose it.'"

"'Ha, ha, ha,' replied he. 'You don't need to have any fear.'"

"Returning to the deck he passed to the ladies. They were charmed by its beauty. They handed it back to him and he stepped to the gunwale of the ship. Leaning over, he tossed it into the air. Watching it, he caught it as it descended, saying, 'There it is!'

"Leaning farther over still, he tossed it again and caught it again."

"A lady screamed and seized an apple from the little boy, said, 'Here! take this, and if there is any further evidence of your skill needed, use the apple! Give me the pearl!'

"He laughed her to scorn and said, 'My eyes are as keen as an eagle's, my nerve, as true as the compass magnetic needle.'

"Leaning far over, he threw it high into the air, watching it as it descended—when suddenly the ship gave a lurch and down into the fathomless depths went his pearl! The ship sped on. He smote himself upon his breast crying:

"'Fool, fool that I was to risk my all, with nothing for pay but the plaudits of a passing crowd!'

"And in that respect the lives of some people are like him. You give up your lives for the applause of the people, for the privilege of sitting with your feet under their table, for the privilege of having them call you a dead game sport!"

"Some day you will toss it for the last time. You will toss it too far. Some day that oil frail bark will give a lurch and down into the fathomless depths of hell you will go and you will be lost forever because you wouldn't do God's will."

COTTON MARKET.

New York, May 11.—(AP)—Nervousness over the new crop start appeared to be increased by apprehensions of unfavorable weather developments over the week-end, and opening declines in the cotton market were followed by advances today. After selling off to 21.11, early July rallied to about the 21 1-2 level, and the mid afternoon market showed net advances of approximately 17 to 18 points.

Futures closed barley steady, 7-13 points higher; spot steady; middling 22.05.

GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, May 11.—(AP)—With dry weather northwest adverse for spring wheat and with Liverpool quotations showing relative strength the wheat market here tended upward today. Beside, wheat export demand showed improvement. European purchases today from North America were estimated at 1,000,000 bushels. Selling 1,000,000 bushels of wheat into store here had little apparent opposite effect.

Wheat closed unsettled, 1-4 to 1-1/4 net higher, corn varying from 1-4c decline to 3-8c advance, oats 3-8 to 1-1/8c up and provisions unchanged to a rise of 7-10c.

STOCK MARKET.

New York, May 11.—(AP)—Sensational advances in the airplane stocks featured the resumption of a broad upward movement of prices in today's stock market. Wright Aeronautical soared 18 1-2 points to a new high record at 193 1-2 and Curtiss Aeroplane advanced nearly 10 points to a new peak at 145 7-8. Scores of other industrials moved up 1 to 8 points while the gains in the active rails ranged from 1 to 6 points. Trading which had been restricted earlier in the week by stiffening money rates, showed a marked expansion in volume, total sales in the first three hours running over 2,300,000 shares.

Retention of the 4 per cent discount rate by the New York Federal Reserve Bank, a lowering of the call money renewal rate from 6 to 5 1-2 per cent and Secretary Mellon's prediction of easier money rates later in the year all helped to create bullish confidence in the market.

Pools resumed operations on a broad scale in a wide assortment of coppers, motors, public utilities and merchandising issues.

The so-called "merger rally" which attracted a large public following. New peak price for the year, or longer, were registered by Missouri Pacific common and preferred, Wabash, Nickel Plate and St. Louis Southwestern. Pottsburgh & West Virginia ran up 6 points in the face of official intimations that it might be necessary to reduce the dividend before the end of the year.

Oil and alcohol shares moved up smartly on the announcement of higher commodity prices. Houston Oil ran up nearly 7 points in the
