BILLY SUNDAY TELLS OF HOW TO BE SAVED

Delivered Powerful Sermon Last Night To About Three Thousand People.

"It is not the prayer that saves, but Jesus in the prayer," Rev. W. A. Sunday, evangelist, told about three thousand people at the tabernacle here last night.

"It is not baptism that saves, but Jesus in baptism; it's not the confession or conviction that saves, but Jesus in them."

The sermon was heard by members of the local order of Patient Circle of Kings Daughters, business women and members of the 1130th Field Artillery, North Carolina National Guards.

Each organization was recognized by Homer Hammond, song leader, who extended a cordial welcome. Each body was asked to join in the singing, which, as usual, was one of the outstanding features of the services.

"Billy Sunday has covered every phase of science and invention in the numbers of sermons preached during his three and a half week's stay in this city, but last night he departed from the scientific and dealt entirely with the personal question as embraced in his text, 'What Shall I Do to Be Saved?'"

It was one of the most masterfully and highly illustrated sermons of the series and drew a striking contrast between emotional religion and commonsense religion. He showed conclusively that the cool headed business man who displays little emotion when converted is just as much saved as the man that gets down and wallows on the floor. He declared some people were demonstrative and some were not. This, he attributed to their physical makeup.

The decent Christian who thinks he can go to heaven without joining a church drew considerable fire.

"You say you can go to heaven without joining a church, do you? You can get to Europe without taking a ship. The swimming is good, all right, but there are plenty of sharks, lean and hungry, that will play tag with you."

"If the church was not necessary Christ wouldn't have established it. Don't get up and say God established something the world doesn't need. The only divinely organized society in the world—you might as well say you don't need the sun, the water and the air."

Two son numbers were rendered by members of a quartet from Eureka Free Will Baptist College at Ayden. Opening prayer was led by Rev. W. H. Oliver, of Ayden, principal of schools of that place.

Tonight Mr. Sunday will speak on the subject, "Think on These Things." Saturday night he will deliver a sermon to women only. Registered nurses of Greenville and Pitt county will attend these services in a body.

Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock all churches of the city will assemble at the tabernacle for the first morning service since the campaign of the city. It was announced last Sunday that all churches would abandon morning worship so that their membership might attend the Sunday services.

Sunday afternoon the evangelist will deliver the third sermon of the campaign to men only. The tabernacle has been crowded to capacity at previous services and it is expected this Sunday will be no exception.

A delegation from Raleigh reached Greenville last night with an invitation to the evangelist to preach in the Capital City. It was announced this morning that the invitation had been accepted and that Mr. Sunday would speak there next Monday morning at ten o'clock while on his way to Durham.

He will address an audience at Farnville high school building tomorrow morning.

Perpetual Revival.

The sixteenth chapter of Acts, the thirteenth verse—"What must I do to be saved?"

The apostle Paul seemed to live in a perpetual state of revival. He had only come into Philippi the chief city of Macedonia, and sit by the river bank and we are told that Lydia, the seller of purple, believed and was baptized.

There was so much power and conviction about him that he had only to walk the street and a girl possessed with the spirit of divination, or, as we say, "had the devil in her," walked after Paul and with derision said, "These are the servants of the Most High God, that show unto us the way of salvation."

As if there was anything these men could impart which, by doing, would benefit our position—the audacity of these men that they come to us and talk to us about the improvements in our conduct in the manner of living!

"These are the servants of the Most High God, that show unto us the way of salvation."

Greenville Wins Relay Race From Washington High

Greenville high school won the annual relay race from Washington high this afternoon, Roberson finishing the last lap for Greenville corner East and Third streets. Time of the race was one hour and thirty-nine minutes, eight minutes better than last year's time.

A great crowd of high school students from both Washington and Greenville met the runners on the final lap, and Greenville cheered vociferously as Roberson came in at least one lap ahead of the Washington runner.

Ninety runners took part in the contest for each school, relays taking place at the expiration of every 400 yards. The runners were followed by a procession of enthusiasts in automobiles from the starting point at Washington, and when the local boys took the lead a short distance out from Grimesland, numbers came on to Greenville to bring intelligence of the progress of the race.

Greenville won last year's event, but there was some dispute as result of a runner being used twice.

NATIONALIST FORCES DRAW NEAR PEKING

Northerners Believed to Be Preparing to Retire From Vicinity of the City.

Shanghai, May 18.—(AP)—The Nationalists were approaching ever nearer Peking today.

Members of the foreign community at Shanghai believed that the northerners were preparing to retire from the capital into Manchuria.

(A Reuter dispatch from Tokyo said that indications there were that Japan was prepared to act on a moment's notice to prevent the civil war from spreading into Manchuria.)

The Nationalists were believed to be advancing along the line of the Peking on the railway. The latest Nationalist reports claimed that they had reached Paoingfu, about 80 miles south of Peking on the railway. The Nationalist news agency said that the vanguard of Shansi troops, which are allied with the Nationalists, had reached Changchientien, about seven miles southwest of Peking.

Indications of danger to Peking were seen in attempts of Marshal Chang Tso-Lin, northern dictator to hearten his own troops and discredit the Nationalist generals. He issued a proclamation accusing General Feng Yu-Hsiang, Nationalist ally of cooperating with the communists and attempting to foment anti-foreign demonstrations. This last charge was regarded as an attempt to involve the Nationalists with the Japanese.

The Japanese formally notified the Chinese authorities at Tsinan, where Nationalists and Japanese clashed, that Major General Saito had been appointed garrison commander there to assist the chamber of commerce in maintaining order.

Mayor And Other Officers Indicted on Liquor Charge At Jacksonville, Florida

South Jacksonville, Fla., May 18.—(AP)—The mayor, chief of police, fire chief and 16 others including several city officials and employees, a county official and prominent citizens of this Florida city stood indicted in federal court today on liquor law charges. Some of the accused men were free on bonds today. Others had not been arrested.

Details of the evidence on which the indictments were returned were not included in the presentments, or made public by Francis L. Poor, assistant U. S. attorney when he announced the action of the federal grand jury.

One of the indictments mentions seven 5-gallon jugs of liquor seized last June, charges conspiracy and names Mayor William T. Harris; Charles E. Steinhauser, police chief; J. J. Jones, police lieutenant; Asa B. Sands, discharged member of the police department; Abbott Simmons, automobile salesman; Dwight W. Carpenter, assistant fire chief; and J. M. Lorimer, Jr., former policeman. Illegal transportation, possession, furnishing and delivery of whiskey for beverage purposes is alleged in two counts in the indictment.

Another indictment charges conspiracy to violate the prohibition act and the third alleges illegal possession of liquor. Others indicted include: William P. Belote, county commissioner and former mayor; Paul C. Marion, president of city council; J. M. Lorimer, and J. M. Gray, members of city council; Rutledge Smith, fire chief and Kamel Zahara, merchant. All gave bonds ranging from $250 to $2,500. Others named in the indictments were not made public pending their apprehension.

Mayor Harris, saying he spoke for the majority of those indicted, issued a blanket denial of the charges which he said would be repudiated "by the good people of South Jacksonville at the polls. I am glad the matter has been made public to quiet rumors which have been circulating in South Jacksonville for the past two or three weeks."

Chief Steinhauser, Lieutenant Jones and Sands were the only men named in all three of the indictments.

Lowden On Stand

Frank O. Lowden told the senate investigating committee that campaign expenditures on behalf of his residential candidacy had been less than $60,000.

Stokes Visited By $2,000 Fire

J. L. Perkins and Company, Stokes, suffered a $2,000 fire loss about 4:30 yesterday afternoon when one of its warehouses in which was stored merchandise and fertilizer was destroyed. The origin of the fire is not known. The loss was partially covered by insurance.

BOMB HOME IN NEW YORK

Executioner of Sacco-Vanzetti Is Unhurt When Thrown From Bed By Explosion.

New York, May 18.—(AP)—The home of Robert Elliott, official executioner for five states and the man who pulled the death switch on Sacco and Vanzetti, was bombed early this morning.

Elliott, his wife and two children, were thrown from the beds by the explosion but were uninjured, the house, located in Queensborough, Long-Island, was damaged considerably. The front porch was torn away, the front door blown down and every window shattered.

Thrills were received by Elliott prior to the Sacco-Vanzetti execution and for a long while a police guard was maintained about his house. After the guard was removed the policeman on that beat had instructions to keep a special watch over the home.

Elliott expressed the belief that the bombing was done by sympathizers of Sacco and Vanzetti, radicals executed at Boston for the slaying of a paymaster. A new police guard was ordered around the home.

Elliott and his wife were asleep in the rear room on the second floor of two-story house when the bomb exploded. Their daughter, Gertrude, 17, was in an adjoining room while a son, Robert, Jr., 27, and a cousin, Thomas Lang, were in the room immediately over the porch. They were all thrown out of their beds, but suffered only minor bruises.

Narrating the defendant's alibi, Blair quoted Lawrence as saying he had gone to bed at home about 9 o'clock the night of the crime, after having written a letter to his fiancée. The state is attempting to prove that Mrs. Terry was tossed screaming into the river about 11 o'clock.

The $100 check sent to Atlanta was returned by Mrs. Terry. Lawrence was quoted by the sheriff as saying:

Asked by Solicitor Williams if Lawrence had ever denied his guilt, Sheriff Blair replied in the negative, saying that most the contractor had ever said that if the case were followed out it would lead to someone else.

On the Hillsboro-Chapel Hill trip, the defendant was quoted as saying they were back home by 10:30 o'clock.

Sheriff Blair referred to bloody finger prints found on the railing of the bridge, but the state did not immediately attempt to identify the marks.

H. E. Holland, agent for the Texas Oil Company, in Raleigh, testified to seeing a man in a coupe on the Apex-Oxford highway about two hours after the supposed time of the crime, and in response to a question, declared he resembled Lawrence.

Holland was the man who found a blood-stained felt hat about one o'clock Sunday morning about a mile and a half out of Apex on the same highway. The hat, identified by children of Mrs. Terry as the one she wore when they last saw her, was introduced in evidence today.

SHERIFF BLAIR TESTIFIES AT TERRY TRIAL

Stains That Looked Like Blood Found In Car of Alleged Killer of Dressmaker.

Pittsboro, May 18.—(AP)—Stains that looked like blood spots were found in the automobile of W. Herbert Lawrence, Sheriff Walker Blair of Onamth county, testified today at the trial of the wealthy Durham contractor on a charge of having murdered Mrs. Annie B. Terry, dressmaker of Durham, whose body was found in the Cape Fear river.

Alleged contradictory statements by the defendant were related by the officer, whose testimony was regarded as the first of the trump cards held by Solicitor Clawson Williams. Lawrence, Sheriff Blair swore, admitted having sent Mrs. Terry a check for $100 to Atlanta, and also to having made at least two automobile trips with her, one to Winston-Salem and the other to Hillsboro and Chapel Hill, after first denying that he had ever been out with the woman and that she had ever been in his automobile.

By consent of the court and attorneys, the sheriff was permitted to keep a pledge he said he made Lawrence not to reveal the name of the defendant's fiancée unless forced to do so. She figured in the testimony as Blair told of Lawrence's claimed alibi when first called upon to account for his movements on the night of March 24 when the state charges Mrs. Terry was slugged and thrown, still living, from the Avents Ferry bridge in lower Chatham county, to die by drowning.

The marks at both ends of the ridge were clearly distinguishable, the Chatham officer said, and to the best of his observation, they corresponded with the tires on Lawrence's car, a green roadster with wire wheels.

The witness was careful to explain that he could not be positive the spots found on the car were blood, but he insisted they appeared to be. Lawrence, he said, explained that one of his employees had left a package of meat in the automobile when, asked to account for the marks, also said something about having cut his hand.

In answer to a question Sheriff Blair said he did not recall Lawrence having said anything about having cut himself in shaving by way of explaining the stains. There were about seven or eight of the spots on the top of the right seat, the officer said, and a similar stain was noted on one of the fenders.

Lawrence at first said he knew Mrs. Terry only slightly, according to the witness, and had never been out with her, but later admitted having been acquainted with her about eight years. The defendant claimed that the last time he had been out with her was in November, Sheriff Blair testified, when Lawrence, Mrs. Terry, and the latter's niece, Mrs. Chloe Andrews, of Charlotte, motored to Winston-Salem and spent a night, but when asked if he and the Durham woman had not made a trip to Chapel Hill, the officer said, Lawrence told him that they had driven to Hillsboro and Chapel Hill about six weeks prior to the tragedy on the night of March 24.

In the Democratic field, Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York stood out as the only candidate who had waged a campaign in Oregon. Senator James A. Reed of Missouri, while a candidate in Oregon, made no campaign, and no delegates pledged themselves to his cause.

Defer Hearing On Plan to Regulate Cotton Futures

Washington, May 18.—(AP)—Hearings on the bill by Senator Smith, Democrat, South Carolina, to regulate trading in the cotton futures market were postponed today in order to enable the South Carolina senator to confer with Representative Vinson of Georgia.

An effort to iron out differences between the senate bill and the one introduced in the house by Vinson, with an agreement reached on the two measures, it is hoped that hearings will be curtailed with the view of reaching action on the floor of both houses at this session of Congress.

Washington Star Editor Dead. Washington, May 18.—(AP)—Sheldon Scott Cline, 53, managing editor of the Washington Star, died today in Lanekau hospital, Philadelphia, where he had gone for an operation. He came to Washington in 1900 and was associated with the Washington Post before joining the Star staff. He is survived by his widow, two sons and six daughters.

Mrs. Sunday Sprains Ankle While Leaving Auto Early Today

The many friends of Mrs. W. A. Sunday, wife of the evangelist, will regret to learn that she suffered the misfortune of a sprained ankle while leaving an automobile at the side entrance of the Proctor Hotel this morning.

The accident occurred following the return of Rev. and Mrs. Sunday from breakfast at the home of W. H. Woolard, on Cotacach street.

Mrs. Sunday's foot slipped as she stepped from the car to the wet pavement, inflicting what physicians later described as painful but not necessarily serious injury.

ARCTIC PLANE BACK AT BASE ON KINGS BAY

Italia Makes Successful Trip to Lenin Land Over Course of 2,000 Miles

Kings Bay, Spitzbergen, May 18.—(AP)—The dirigible Italia returned to her base here at 9:15 a. m. today from an exploring trip to Lenin land. The weather was fine.

The dirigible had been in flight for almost sixty-eight hours over a course of some 2,000 miles, having left Kings Bay 1:30 p. m. Tuesday.

The long flight was the second that the Italia has made over the arctic regions since her arrival at Kings Bay. The first flight was made on May 11 and lasted only about eight hours although it had been hoped that the ship would make a 40-hour cruise. Fog and a heavy snowstorm compelled General Noble to turn back after covering about 300 miles.

General Noble sailed over Lenin land for four hours. The view was so forbidding, however, that he abandoned his plan to land men on the unexplored region to make various scientific investigations. Conditions were found entirely unsuited. It was explained, for such explorations since the most favorable time passed with the first half of May.

After flying over Lenin Land, the dirigible turned and headed its blunt nose toward Kings Bay. It was estimated that it had taken about 29 hours to make the trip some 1,000 miles from Kings Bay to Lenin Land. This rate of speed should have brought the airship back to its base shortly before midnight last night, but the country winds held her back and progress westward was slow.

Hoover Favorite Of Oregon Voters

Portland, Ore., May 18.—(AP)—Unopposed for the Republican endorsement for President, Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce, was virtually assured the support of at least twelve of Oregon's thirteen delegates to the Republican national convention when the voters of this state went to the polls in the presidential primary today.

With exception of one candidate pledged to the support of Frank O. Lowden of Illinois, all other Republican candidates for delegates were pledged to Secretary Hoover.

In the Democratic field, Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York stood out as the only candidate who had waged a campaign in Oregon. Senator James A. Reed of Missouri, while a candidate in Oregon, made no campaign, and no delegates pledged themselves to his cause.

Danville Man Elected Head Of the Cotton Men

Richmond, Va., May 18.—(AP)—H. R. Fitzgerald, of Danville, was elected president of the American Cotton Manufacturers' Association shortly before the 32nd annual convention of the organization was adjourned today. Mr. Fitzgerald succeeded George H. Harris, of Atlanta, Ga.

V. M. Montgomery, of Spartanburg, S. C. was elected to membership in the national council and other officers elected were as follows:

A. M. Dixon, Gastonia, N. C., first vice president; B. E. Greer, Greenville, S. C., second vice president; W. M. McLaughlin, Charlotte, N. C., secretary and treasurer.

The new board of government elected was as follows:

A. Bahnon, Winston-Salem, N. C.; Robert Lassiter, Charlotte, N. C.; A. M. Farley, Laurinburg, N. C.; George M. Wright, Great Falls, S. C.; Thomas M. Marchant, Greenville, S. C.; W. D. Anderson, Macon, Ga.; E. M. Swift, Columbus, Ga.

No decision was made as to whether next year's convention would be held.

CONVENTION SPEAKERS IN DEMAND NOW

Presidential Candidates Getting Line on Introductions at Kansas City and Houston

Washington, May 18.—(AP)—All the nice things that can be said about a presidential candidate usually are summed up in the nominating speech at the National conventions, and one of the problems of the various aspirants for the presidency is to determine who should propose their name to the delegates at Kansas City and Houston next month.

Some candidates have made a decision; others have not. It is a certainty however, that the honors will fall to members of the home state delegations. That is a custom, rarely if ever disregarded.

Of the Republicans, Hoover looks to John McNab a San Francisco lawyer, to place his nomination, although for personal reasons, McNab may stand aside for some other member of the California delegation.

Lowden has not shown his hand. The convention will be called on to name Curtis by the massive "Poly" Tincher, once a picturesque member of congress from Kansas. To Will Wood, the veteran Representative from Indiana, probably will fall the honor of proposing Watson. Just who will eulogize other candidates, including several "favorite sons" has not been decided.

As to the Democrats, there is some talk that John L. Davis, party standard bearer in 1924 and this year a delegate at large to the Houston convention from New York, might present Smith's name. "Jimmie" Walker, New York's dapper Mayor, also has been mentioned, but indications now are that Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic Vice Presidential nominee in 1920, will be the Smith's spokesman. He placed him in nomination at the historic Madison Square Garden convention four years ago.

Hull, of Tennessee, expects to ask Colonel Harvey H. Hannah, of Olive Springs, Tenn., to call for his nomination while George of Georgia Reed of Missouri, and others who will go into the Democratic convention with delegates support have not indicated who will speak for them.

Four years ago at Cleveland, when Coolidge had no opposition for the Republican presidential nomination, his name was proposed by the late Dr. Marion L. Burton, then president of the University of Michigan. When the time came for vice Presidential nominations, Lowden, who was first named and then rejected to run, was placed in nomination by J. P. Boyle, a delegate from Arizona. Dawes who finally was selected, was brought before the convention by former Representative Jeffers of Nebraska. Curtis' name was suggested by Tincher and Watson's by Emmet F. Branch of Indiana. Hoover never was formally placed in nomination, although he polled 234 1-2 votes on the final ballot.

In the bitterly fought and drawn out Democratic convention at New York, before Roosevelt proposed Smith's nomination, the name of his political foe, William G. McAdoo, was brought forward by former Senator Phelan, of California who will go the Houston convention this year as a Smith delegate. It is customary to stage demonstrations after every nominating speech but those for McAdoo, and Smith were unusually lengthy, with bands, noise making devices of all kinds and marching delegates contributing to confusion.

Bad Weather Again Holds Up Army Flier Bound for Bremen

St. George's, Newfoundland, Aug. 18.—(AP)—Bad weather today again prevented the take-off of two United States Army planes en route to remove the Junkers monoplane Bremen from the mainland near Greenly island.

Wind with rain and fog has prevailed since the planes arrived yesterday.

Fashions In Greetings. Berlin.—Germany has compared the congratulatory messages sent the Bremen crew by the former kaiser and the former king of Saxony. Wilhelm said: "The emperor and myself extend congratulations. The other humbly signed, 'Friedrich August, former reigning king of Saxony.'"

Baron Giichi Tanaka, premier of Japan, is directing Japan's negotiations with China resulting from Tainan fighting in which Japanese soldiers were killed.

SHOALS BILL CAUSES WORRY

Congressional Leaders Apprehensive That Measure Will Not Get Attention.

Washington, May 18.—(AP)—With time of adjournment drawing close, Congressional leaders were apprehensive today of the prospects of getting final action on the Muscle Shoals bill which has passed both the Senate and House, but which required considerable attention to adjust differences between the two bodies.

Senator McNary, Republican of Oregon, chairman of the agriculture committee, and manager of the conference, is preparing an early meeting of conference representatives with a view to working out a bill acceptable to both the Senate and House.

However it is unlikely that he will be able to get started before tomorrow or early next week and even then some time is expected to be consumed in getting an agreement.

Leaders are now striving to get an adjournment by a week from tomorrow and with this program on the boards, proponents of the Muscle Shoals legislation realizes it would be possible for the opposition to prevent final action if it determined to use a filibuster.

Should final action be blocked at this session the legislation would stand over the recess and upon convening of Congress next December the bill would be considered again as in conference between the Senate and House.

Filling Station Owners Told To Appear in Court

Greensboro, May 18.—(AP)—Orders directing operators of 16 filling stations in points adjacent to Salisbury in Rowan, Stanley, Cabarrus, Davie and Davidson counties to appear in the middle district federal court on June 1 to show cause why their business should not be padlocked were signed yesterday by Judge Johnson J. Hayes, of this district. Complaint was made as the result of recent charges that liquor was being handled at these stations.

Those named in the orders include: Arthur and J. F. Dennis, L. M. Barnhardt, Bob Hayes, Arthur Morton, Paul Phillips, Marvin Swain, Linwood Miller, Adam Lyte, Thomas Pink, Elmer Rogers, Robert (Antroy) Welborn, Council Graham, Young Rex, F. M. Meisler, Robert Parker and H. M. Davis, and Jim Swain, S. G. Swain, John Kerns and Clyde Kearns.

The document was dated April 23 at the mine and addressed to Amplett. It stated that Sandino was there personally to carry out the destruction as a tangible evidence of his protest against the warlike invasion by the United States "without any more right than that of brute force."

ONE MARINE KILLED IN NICARAGUA

Five Rebels Wounded in Most Severe Combat Since Month of February.

Managua, Nic., May 18.—(AP)—Faced with a direct Rebel threat against "all that is North American", American marines were pushing their way through the northern jungles of Nicaragua today in pursuit of a rebel force that killed one marine and wounded two others in a fight northeast of Jinotega.

The threat was issued over the signature of Augusto Sandino, rebel chieftain and was found at La Luz mine by H. W. Amplett, manager of the mine who returned there after the place had been captured and destroyed by rebel forces several weeks ago. Mr. Amplett, a British subject, reached Puerto Cabezas last night.

The letter, bearing the date April 29, protested against the "warlike invasion of the United States government", and declared that President Coolidge was responsible "for the horrible and disastrous situation through which Nicaragua is passing at the present."

"All that is North American that falls into our hands has arrived at its end", said the letter which added that the most honorable course for the United States to pursue is to get out of Nicaragua.

Managua, Nicaragua, May 18.—(AP)—Pushing their way through the jungles of the north, American marines today were tracking down the rebel slayers of a comrade in arms.

In the most severe combat since February 27, one marine and one Nicaraguan National Guardsman were killed and the commanding officer of the patrol, Captain Robert S. Hunter, of Kansas, and another marine were wounded.

Sixty to 75 insurgents and 25 marines and ten guardsmen took part in the clash which occurred near Paso Real, 45 miles northeast of Jinotega and across the Ocuca river.

Fighting against odds, the marines killed five rebels and wounded five. The insurgents were under Jose Leon Diaz, who has had previous revolutionary experience and is reputed to be a Honduran who has joined the cause of General Augustino Sandino.

The marine patrol was isolated. Medical and surgical supplies were dropped to them by an airplane squadron under Captain Robert A. Archibald. The names of the enlisted men who were casualties were not learned.

Two relief columns were rushed from Jinotega toward the region which is thickly forested and has been little explored. These marines, under Major Keller E. Rocky of Indiana, were to assist the wounded and take up the pursuit of the rebels. The wounded will be sent to Quilali and then evacuated to Managua by airplane. Brigade headquarters stated that they believed Captain Hunter's patrol was not in a serious predicament.

Until word of the clash reached Managua, it was not generally known it had pushed so far eastward from Jinotega. These patrols have been chasing armed and organized outlaws into practically unexplored regions. Brigade headquarters believed that General Sandino was retired to the capital part of the department of Jinotega, a region nearly inaccessible.

Diaz is known as a daring leader. Last October he attacked a government garrison of thirty men with 15 followers. Recent reports said he had 200 men under his command. Constant pressure by marines broke up this band, but they were believed to have worked their way back to Jinotega in small groups and formed again.

Since the clash on February 27, when a supply train was attacked and five marines killed, marine patrols have made 25 contacts with the rebels. In these there was one casualty, Captain Francis E. Pierce who was shot through the foot while acting as an observer in a airplane which was fired upon by rebels.

H. W. Amplett, manager of La Luz Mine in northeastern Nicaragua, which was recently destroyed by insurgents, returned to Puerto Cabezas, with copies of a defiance signed by General Sandino.

A pamphlet said this had been posted on the property by the insurgents and promised destruction of all American owned property that fell into his hands.

The document was dated April 23 at the mine and addressed to Amplett. It stated that Sandino was there personally to carry out the destruction as a tangible evidence of his protest against the warlike invasion by the United States "without any more right than that of brute force."

LOCALS DROP ANOTHER TO THE PIRATES

The Wilmington Pirates made it two straight from Greenville by taking yesterday afternoon's contest at the fair grounds here by the score of 8 to 3.

The Pirates garnered a total of fifteen hits off Allen's delivery, most of which came at opportune moments. Allen, a recent acquisition of the local club pitched the first two innings in perfect form, but the Pirates became bloodthirsty in the third and sent three runners racing across the rubber. With blood still in their eyes, rallies were added from the sixth inning to the end of the game, the final two runs coming in the ninth frame.

Powell hurled masterful ball for the Pirates and it was only in the second and sixth innings that the Tobaccoists were able to circle the diamond for markers. Powell not only prevented hitting when hits would have resulted in runs, but led his teammates with three hits from his own ready bat.

The umpiring of Ledbetter and Knowles again proved to be a matter of considerable criticism from members of the both clubs. This dissatisfaction started in the first game of the series the day before and was greatly intensified by decisions yesterday.

Greenville left today for Rocky Mount where they will open a two game series with the Railroaders this afternoon.

With three out of four games this week checked up against them in the loss column, Deacon Joliff and his cellar-bound followers went to Rocky Mount today, determined to recover their equilibrium and win a ball game or so. The outcome of these two games is watched with more than passing interest.

The box score of yesterday's game follows:

Extinguishes Small Blaze. The fire department was called to First and Reade streets late yesterday afternoon to extinguish a blaze at the home of a negro, caused by the explosion of an oil stove. Damage was said to have been small.

STANDARD OIL EMPLOYEES TENDERED BANQUET HERE The Standard Oil Company, of New Jersey, last night held a very interesting meeting at their new plant here. Employees of the concern from Tyrrell, Washington, Martin, Beaufort and Pitt counties were present. There were forty in all.

A delightful banquet was served at Mr. Parkerson's dining room, which was appropriately decorated for the occasion.

F. A. Jones, district manager of the above counties, was in charge of the meeting and held attention of his hearers with short talks dealing with development of the organization. Orders were called on for expressions.

Paul E. Capelle, general salesman, welcomed the guests and talked interestingly on the subject of co-operation.

E. R. Buck, of Washington, also spoke. A general meeting was held at the new plant following the banquet.

Fresh vegetables, chickens, eggs, etc., at Gurb Market in Forbes and Morton Warehouse Saturday morning.

Mayor's Court

Bunyon Taft, colored, vagrancy, not guilty. Hubert Evans, white, driving auto drunk; bound over to county court. Mack Harris, colored, assault; $15.00 and cost.

4-H Club of Grifton Meets. The 4-H Club of Grifton met at the school building on Tuesday evening, May 15, at 2:30. As the president was not present the vice president called the meeting to order. Then the secretary called the roll and read the minutes of the last meeting. Miss Nice made a very interesting talk about "Girls' Short Course" and also about going to camp. After this she, with the help of two girls, made some brown muffins; while these were baking we practiced several songs. After every one had been served the meeting adjourned.

Attention Nurses. All nurses, married and single, are asked to meet at the Christian church between seven and seven fifteen Saturday evening, and attend the Billy Sunday service in a body.

DOITED VELVET PRINT NEW FALL FABRIC Paris—(AP)—Brown velvet printed with light blue polka dots are featured by one of Paris' important dressmakers in his collection of models for early fall. He uses the printed velvet for coats, and in one instance for a blouse for wear with a brown silk suit and short tailored jacket. There are other indications that Paris is using much printed velvet for fall and winter clothes.

Small black flower prints and geometrical all-over patterns in rich subdued colors are the offering of one house. Combinations of rich brown and shades of tan and beige are being shown. Pansy purple, with much blue in it, and deep turquoise, as well as mottled blue, are shades on which there is speculation.

A good face powder today must do more than merely remove shine—it should stay on longer, prevent the pores from getting larger, spread smoothly and leave a peachy look on the complexion. A new French Press Powder called MELLO-GLO does these things. MELLO-GLO is truly wonderful. You will simply love it.

UNION PLAN HIGH LIGHT OF ASSEMBLY

Standing Committees at Presbyterian Conference at Atlanta to Whip Plan in Shape.

Atlanta, Ga., May 18—(AP)—With presentation of a tentative plan for union with the United America, the high light of a crowded docket, the 88th general assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States (Southern Presbyterians) had before it today the business of referring its work to the standing committees which will whip it into shape for final consideration.

Ready for reference to one of these committees was the plan for union which was drafted last September by joint committees from the churches involved. The plan is recommended for favorable consideration by the general assembly of the two churches, but not for immediate adoption. It calls for submission to the constitutions of the churches before being presented for final action.

In submitting the basis for union, the joint committee declared that common standing ground had been found in the following statements:

1. The doctrinal standards held in common by the two churches shall be the doctrinal standards of the united church. This includes the confessional statement of the United Presbyterian Church.

2. The standards shall be interpreted in their natural and obvious meaning, and no one shall be authorized to teach or preach in the united church who cannot give an unqualified assent to the doctrinal system contained in these standards.

3. The united church would bear testimony to the evangelistic mission of the church; the exclusively spiritual character of the church's mission; the exclusively spiritual character of the mission of the church does not imply that the church owes no duty to civil society.

4. In the ordinance of praise it is agreed that the Psalms of the Bible are accredited for permanent use, other songs or hymns true to the spirit and teaching of scripture are properly employed. Each church in the united body shall be allowed the same liberty it now enjoys in the matter of congregational singing.

5. The supreme judicatory of the united church shall be a general assembly.

6. The general assemblies of the two churches at the time of union shall convene separately in the same city. After completion of all business of the year they shall convene for the year.

7. Recommendation E made that all executive bodies remain as at present and that congregations shall continue to contribute through the same channels. Amalgamation of the various boards and agencies shall not take place until recommended to the assembly by the boards and agencies concerned and they are to operate and advise before consolidation is effected.

8. Careful study with advice of attorneys will be taken to safeguard all property rights affected by the union.

WHEN THE FIRE ALARM SOUNDS—STOP!

There is a law on our city books that requires every automobile and other vehicle to draw up to the curb and stand for five minutes after a fire alarm sounds in order that the streets might remain clear for the fast moving fire fighting apparatus, but apparently we have numbers of persons who think that it is their duty to beat the trucks to the scene of the fire or if they are not interested in the fire that there is no reason for them to be inconvenienced by stopping at the curb.

Yesterday afternoon when the fire alarm sounded automobiles continued to move over our streets, and not until the trucks have into sight and came close up did some of the motorists pull over to the curb. The best way to keep a small fire from being a large and disastrous one is for the firemen and the fire fighting apparatus to get to the scene quick, but if they have to await the convenience of motorists in clearing the streets there is considerable delay. Not only do the moving automobiles cause a delay, but they increase the dangers that ever surround the fast moving fire trucks. In view of the fact that there is a law providing for clear streets for the fire trucks and warnings to that effect have been issued, the drivers of the trucks have reason to believe that when they round a corner they will find a clear right of way and when they do not find the expected right of way, they are forced to do unnecessary maneuvering and some quick thinking to avoid a crash. Fortunately indeed we have had that no serious accidents from this cause have occurred here, but if such conditions as prevailed yesterday continue, we cannot hope always to play in the good luck to escape.

"It can't be said how rapidly the city is growing but we do know that this growth is steady and healthy and bids fair to place Greenville among the largest cities in Eastern North Carolina within the next several years."

"Another old ball game in the lost column," denounced a fan this morning, commenting on the loss of Greenville to Wilmington yesterday afternoon.

"This is the third loss of the week. It stands three to one against us now. We are bound to get busy and see what can be done about this losing streak. We lost the jinx one time and we want to keep the darned thing off of our track in the future."

"If we can manage to keep out of the cellar, one thing is sure—we will have the consolation of knowing we are not at the bottom of the column and have lots of company."

their advertising results are the biggest, and their advertising rates are the smallest in the country. They are read through from end to end. Every copy of circulation means an entire family, not a family that lives in one room with a can opener, but a family that owns its own home and land around it, at least ninety times out of a hundred; a family that buys everything from the roof on the house, to the cement cellar floor; from the hat on mother's head to the shoes on the boys' feet. The service that their publishers render to the public is, in my opinion, the most important service rendered by any class of citizens in the United States. The country editors are distributors of information; they reach the minds of the boys that leave the farms, and they are the nation's mental police force," says Arthur Brisbane.

ABOUT TOWN

"The annual convention of the North Carolina Merchants Association will be held in Elizabeth City, May 22 and 23, and Greenville is expected to send about fifteen delegates," a member of the local association told the writer of this column today.

"The program committee has spared neither time, effort, nor expense in providing a program replete with unusual features, both from a business and entertainment standpoint. The keynote address will be delivered by Dr. D. S. Freeman, who is considered one of the greatest inspirational speakers in this country."

Hundreds of merchants representing practically every city in the state will be in attendance and we are hopeful of making the session the greatest in history."

"Is It Well With Thee?" was the subject of Rev. Billy Sunday's sermon at the tabernacle Wednesday night.

As usual, it was one of those timely utterances for which the famous evangelist is noted and through which he is doing so much to save this country from the downward grade.

Mr. Sunday is deeply concerned over the question, whether or not it is well with the individual American, and with this end in view is doing great work for his salvation.

With more preachers of this type, it is easily presumed that this nation would soon become a beacon light to the world, guiding the faltering footsteps of other nations spiritually, even as it is doing in a financial way.

Greenville should feel highly honored by the visit of this noted worker of the Bible and do everything possible to make the campaign the great success it should be.

"Houses for rent are constantly in demand by Greenville people," a real estate dealer told us today.

"We have inquiries about houses to rent almost every day, but it is impossible for us to meet the demand because there are no homes vacant."

"This is the best indication in the world of the constant growth of the city. With new homes under construction all through the year, it may be easily seen that they could not possibly be occupied without increased population."

"It can't be said how rapidly the city is growing but we do know that this growth is steady and healthy and bids fair to place Greenville among the largest cities in Eastern North Carolina within the next several years."

BILLY SUNDAY IS SPEAKER AT KIWANIS CLUB

Evangelist Stressed Truth and Honesty in Business at Luncheon Today.

Billy Sunday was the principal speaker at a luncheon given in honor of members of his party by the Greenville Kiwanis Club at the noon hour today.

The program was one of the best enjoyed by the Kiwanians in some time, being featured by the usual song service, interspersed with two vocal numbers by Homer Hammonds, Bob Matthews and Mr. Peterson, members of the evangelist's party. Singing was conducted under direction of Rev. L. R. O'Brian, with Mrs. O'Brian at the piano.

Mr. Sunday was introduced by Senator M. K. Blount, who declared the evangelist really needed no introduction to the club members, not the members to Mr. Sunday. He said numbers of club members were using their influence for the success of the revival and had come in close personal contact with the evangelist and his party every day the campaign has been in progress.

He declared the evangelist was a God-send to the community, and that the city, county and state should be much better off as a result of his stay here. Men of the calibre of the evangelist are appreciated in all parts of the world, and Greenville and Pitt county, he declared, feel highly honored in having him in their midst.

Mr. Sunday's address was delivered in real "Billy" Sunday style. When he drove up to the club in a big Lincoln limousine he acted with the dignity and reserve of the Rev. W. A. Sunday, but no sooner had he been introduced than he lost himself in the spirit of the theme and became simply "Billy"—the master evangelist of the age.

Truth and honesty were the cardinal virtues which Mr. Sunday declared should dominate the lives of business men of today. Honesty, he declared, should be a part of commerce if success would be realized. It is worth one hundred cents all the year around, it matters not how fluctuation of stocks may go. Other things may change, but honesty will remain the same always.

Trying to deal with your fellowman without truth is like skating on thin ice, he said. "Truth is absolutely essential to the ultimate success in dealings of humankind, it matters not what field we may be in."

Defeat and victory are a part of every man's life. Success depends upon how many times we are able to overcome failure. Man's character, he said, is not determined by how many times he has been knocked down, but how many times he is able to rise again.

With machine gun rapidity, Mr. Sunday gave his hearers interesting narratives illustrating some point which he wished to send home with more than usual force. He was vigorous of gesture, but the violence of the pulpit was lacking. Yet, he drove his points in a way that carried conviction and the hundred business men were fed a brand of philosophy and psychology they are not often accustomed to.

Railroad Company offices for a search of all box cars on its system. The missing boy, according to Brun, had been locked in a car which later was hauled away by a freight train.

Then Bruno said John had been buried in a sand slide at a gravel yard where they were playing. Acting on this tip scores of men and two steam shovels worked all day yesterday moving 10,000 tons of sand, only to find their efforts wasted.

"Well, I guess John didn't get buried in the sand after all," said Brun, who had watched the steam shovels attack the pile all day long. "I think he fell in the river."

They took Bruno to the river, and he pointed to "the exact spot" where he said his playmate "sank out of sight." Police made plans to start dragging the river today. Today they were to play their last card. Bruno's mother was to take him to see Mrs. Pyrek, he was to be shown the missing boy's play-things and clothes. Through two mother's eyes it was hoped Bruno would tell what really happened—where his little playmate is—and whether he lives, or is dead.

NEWS of the DAY in PICTURES

IMPORTED SILVER WEDDING PARTY

Sixty-three guests were transported across the Atlantic to Paris with all expenses paid to help Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. May of Pittsburgh celebrate their silver wedding anniversary. May is shown seated at the right at the anniversary dinner.

DIRIGIBLE DEMONSTRATES SHORE-TO-SHIP SERVICE

Feasibility of picking up or landing passengers and mail on ships far at sea from dirigibles was demonstrated when the non-rigid army dirigible TC-5 landed on a platform built on the deck of the American Trader. The TC-5 is shown approaching the vessel as it stemmed down the bay near Ambrose light.

She's Commander

Dorothy Stone has been elected commander of the reserve officers training corps at the University of Kansas. She will be the superior officer at parades and drills and will be queen of the annual military ball.

RAQUEL COMING BACK TO U. S.

Raquel Meller, famous Spanish actress, is coming to America as soon as she completes an engagement in Paris. She is shown taking a stroll in the Champs Elysees with her two pet dogs, Raquel II and Raquel III.

BRAZIL HAS PAJAMA DANCE CHAMP

The marathon dancing fad has struck Brazil. It started when Charles Nicholas danced 224 hours in Rio De Janeiro clad in pajamas because of the heat which was above 90 degrees.

SCHOOL GIRL WEDS YOUNG PALMER

Eleanor Goldsmith, 16-year-old daughter of a Sarasota, Fla., water company employe, eloped after a week's courtship to wed Potter D'Orsay Palmer, 23, scion of the wealthy and socially prominent Palmers of Chicago. The family tried in vain to halt their marriage at Fort Meade, Fla.

HOOVER TESTIFIES ON EXPENSES

Called before the senate campaign fund investigating committee, Secretary Hoover declared his personal expenses had been less than $200. Left to right: Senators Steiwer and Bratton and Sec. Hoover.

SCHWAB WINS MEDAL IN LONDON

Charles M. Schwab, president of the American Steel corporation, was awarded the Bessemer gold medal at the meeting of the Iron and Steel Institute in London. The medal, highest award of the industry, was presented by B. Talbot, president of the institute.

ILLINOISIAN HEADS U. S. CHAMBER

SMITH BEFORE FUND COMMITTEE

CHICAGO CROWDS GREET FLYERS

The trans-Atlantic comrades of the German plane Bremen were given another riotous welcome when they visited Chicago on their Fitzmaurice and Baron von Huenefeld at municipal airport while the crowd roared.

SEEKS MATE, FINDS FOSTER-FATHER

Bernice Albert, 19-year-old Wisconsin farm girl, offered to wed the man who would give her parents $6,000. W. W. Goynes, postmaster of the National Soldiers Home, offered to adopt her and care for her parents. The girl is considering.

To Try Hollywood LORD MAKES A PURCHASE AFTER ONE DEMONSTRATION

Lily Damita, France's most popular moving picture star, is going to try her luck in Hollywood. She arrives in America on the Baren-garia and will be Ronald Colman's leading lady.

Henry Ford, returned from England, took a ride in a horsecar which started service with the Brooklyn City Railroad company in 1868 and promptly bought it for his museum at Dearborn, Mich., showing the evolution of transportation.

SHE HOPES TO BRAY FOR BUDDIES

Mademoiselle Verdun, mule mascot of the Second division in France, may join her buddies at their convention in St. Louis May 31. Officials have asked permission to bring Mile Verdun to St. Louis from Fort Sam Houston. She was born while the division was under fire at Verdun and was fed with a nursing bottle.

VICTORIAN WINS RICH PREAKNESS

Harry Payne Whitney's three-year-old colt, Victorian, won the Preakness at Pimlico, Md., beating Toro to the wire in the last 80 yards under a brilliant ride by Sonny Workman. Horse and jockey are shown after the race.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

NEW YORK COTTON

New York, May 18.—(AP)—Early advances were followed by declines in the cotton market today on a more favorable impression of the weather outlook and rather better private crop reports from the southwest. Reports of rains in Oklahoma caused moderate rallies during mid-day, but they were not maintained. After showing net losses of about ten to 17 points the mid-afternoon market was quiet within six or seven points of the lowest.

Futures closed easy 17 to 27 points lower; spot quiet; middling, 21.70.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, May 18.—(AP)—Export business in what estimated as high as 3,000,000 bushels carried wheat values upward today with a rush. Rye purchases for Europe were also large, 400,000 bushels. Word of cold weather in western Europe and of unfavorable crop conditions prevailing especially in Poland, were given considerable notice.

Wheat closed unsettled, 1 3/4 to 2 3/8 net higher, corn 1-4 to 1-2c off, oats 1-8 to 5-8c up, and provisions varying from 10c decline to an equal advance.

STOCK MARKET

New York, May 18.—(AP)—The stock market, which has been moving upward for several months in seeming disregard of outside news developments, finally yielded today to general selling pressure inspired by the market tightening of credit facilities. Speculators for the advance did not give up without a struggle, however, marking up about a dozen issues to record high levels after the first batch of overnight selling orders had been absorbed. A few of the gains ranging from 5 to nearly 21 points.

Raising of the New York Federal Reserve Bank rediscount rate from 4 to 4 1/2 per cent yesterday was followed today by the marking up of the call money renewal rate from 5 1/2 to 6 per cent and the strengthening of time money and bankers' acceptance rates. Bankers called about $15,000,000 in loans to strengthen their position, but there appeared to be a plentiful supply of call money.

Airplane stocks again furnished the wildest gyrations. Curtiss which closed yesterday at 159 3/4, opened at 159 1/2, ran up to 160 3/4 and then broke to 158 1/4 by early afternoon. Wright tumbled from 221 to 198 and General Motors showed a net loss of 7 points at 191 and U. S. Steel common 3, at 143 3/4.

Selling of motors and steel created more speculative uneasiness than the decline in the airplane issues. American International, Radio, Air Reduction, Ludlum Steel, Greene Cannanea Copper and Victor Talking Machine sold down 5 to 8 points.

Rails yielded with the industrials but the losses were not as large. New York Central, Canadian Pacific, Chicago Northwestern and Missouri Pacific were the hardest hit, yielding 3 to 4 points.

Outside of the credit situation, the day's news was generally favorable, the most important item being a further increase of 1-8 of a cent a pound in the price of export copper.

Brooks Selected Keynote Speaker

Raleigh, May 18.—(AP)—Apparently having harmony within the party ranks close at hand, Attorney General Dennis G. Brummett, chairman of the Democratic party in North Carolina, has picked Aubrey L. Brooks, Greensboro attorney, to keynote the state convention Raleigh on June 12.

Mr. Brooks, active in party circles for some time and once an unsuccessful candidate for the senate against Senator Overman, is classified by his friends as a supporter of Governor Smith for the presidential nomination, and also a close friend of Governor McLean. He is not considered, however, as active in the Smith race.

MAN KILLED BY BLOWS FROM HAMMER

Lufkin, Tex., May 18.—(AP)—Carpenters who came to work on a vacant house here today found one man dead, his wife and a daughter probably fatally injured, and a son in a serious condition from blows struck with a hammer.

The dead man was John Laing, 38, of Houston, Tex., who had obtained a contract to re-paper the house. His wife was 35 and his children were 6 or 10 years old.

WOMAN NOT GUILTY OF ASSAULTING HUSBAND

Greensboro, May 18.—(AP)—Mrs. Ella Wright, estranged wife of D. C. Wright, Greensboro clothier, was found not guilty of the charge of assaulting her husband in municipal court here yesterday. Under a separation agreement, Mrs. Wright was to remain away from the Wright home in this city. The assault charge came about as the result of a visit she paid one night more than a week ago.

She testified that she went on invitation of her husband, who abused her during her stay. She declared that she secured an unloaded pistol from his bed when he threatened her.

BILLY SUNDAY TELLS OF HOW TO BE SAVED

(Continued from Page 1) Most High God who came to teach us the way of salvation. Paul was grieved because of evidences of the devil within her and he said, "I command you, in the name of Jesus, come out of her."

Paul said, "Hold on! Hold on! Hold on! Do yourself no harm, we are all here. We're all here."

"I'm from Missouri." The jailer came with a light and said, "I'm from Missouri. Show me."

He couldn't imagine why anybody would be there when he had a chance to escape, and when he discovered that Paul was right, he cried out in the words of my text, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

"You've got something I haven't got. How did you get it? I want it. Tell me what you did and I am willing to do whatever you tell me to do. Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

And Paul replied, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved."

If there had been any other way Paul would have told him. There is none and never will be any, so I bring you the words as they well from the lips of Paul in the old Philippian jail in response to the heart-rending cry of the jailer, whose sword Paul stayed from committing suicide.

Now, what does it mean to be saved? The New Testament speaks of salvation from sickness. "Go thy way, thy faith had made thee whole," and it speaks of the prodigal son and his return from his prodigality. It speaks about the apostles drowning and rescued from the watery grave. It speaks about the crucified Christ hanging on the cross. Thus we see that salvation means to take a man or woman out of a condition that is not favorable for their welfare and put them into a condition that is.

The salvation of the sick would be their health. The salvation of the apostles about to drown would have been their rescue from a watery grave. The salvation of the crucified Christ would have meant for Him to come down from the cross. Thus, it means to take a man or woman out of a condition that is not favorable to their welfare or happiness and put them into a condition that is favorable to their welfare or happiness.

Sin a Law Violation. But the salvation that my text speaks of is salvation from sin. Well, what is sin? Sin is the transgression of the law and every sinner is liable in accordance with the law which he transgresses, to punishment. But punishment brings pain. Men shrink from the electric chair, from the jail, from the death house, from the stone walls. Why? It isn't favorable there to their welfare.

Now to be rescued means to be saved from the punishment you've brought on yourself by violating the law, and while you escape the punishment that doesn't abrogate the law, the law stands, and when a sinner pleads to God for salvation he is pleading that God Almighty will set aside the penalty which that sinner has brought on himself, or herself, because they violated God's law.

Therefore, when I say, "What must I do to be saved from the punishment, from hell?" that's what salvation means. The party who has the right and the power to inflict the punishment has the right and the power to state the condition upon which you can escape it. The sovereign power of the state has the right and the power to elect, to put you behind bars if you violate a law. She has the right and power to state the condition upon which you can escape. She is the only power that can. The same power that can inflict the punishment is the same power that can let you escape that punishment, my friends.

The governor can turn that key and let every man out of state's prison if he wants to. Why? He is the sovereign power of the state and has the power to do that. He is the only man that has that power.

Therefore, when we violate God's law, He has the power and right to inflict the punishment, to state the condition upon which you can escape it. He has stated it to humanity. It is by faith in Jesus Christ. I say to you, it is Jesus Christ, and nothing else, for every man or woman on God's earth.

"What must I do to be saved from the punishment?" Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ. Trust His willingness. Trust His power and you will be saved.

Mortgaged to God. We were all mortgaged to God, and the note was due. We had nothing to pay and inflexible justice seized upon us and put us in the prison of condemnation, but 1900 years ago God invited the world to the gospel feast and in the crucifixion agonies of the cross of Jesus Christ He held your sins and mine until the very last vestige was consumed. And God extends to all salvation on the ground that we will accept Jesus as our substitute, our security, our bondsman. He died in our stead. He took the penalty that we deserve and by my faith in Christ I will be saved.

I don't care what your sin is, grace won't keep you out of hell, if you don't repent. Some men don't go to hell because they are sinners; they go to hell because they reject Jesus Christ, for God says, "Whosoever will may come and whosoever will not will be cast out" so that's the reason—not because they are sinners, but because they won't come and be saved.

To Know More. I know something about sin tonight. I expect if God lets me live, a year from now I will know more about it than now. I know more about it now than a year ago, but there are some things about low stays here and preaches that doctrine, people won't buy these little silver gods we're making for Diana of the Ephesians. If they remain, we are ruined."

And every bum and every bartender and every brewer and every distiller yells: "Rights! Rights! Rights!" as a great tidal wave of temperance sweeps over our land. "Why, if Christianity comes, then we've got to go." And wherever religion interferes with a man's business he's in a dirty, rotten business—I don't care whether he's a rum seller, crap shooter or a multimillionaire. If religion cuts off your revenue, you are a moral pauper.

"If they stay here, we'll have to go." The world must learn this lesson and learn it quick, too. You can imprison the messenger but you cannot lock up his message. You can sharpen your jack-knife but you can't cut off a sunbeam. Stopping your ears and shutting your eyes won't put the fire out when the alarm sounds. You will go to hell anyway whether you believe there is a hell or not. That won't keep you out.

Paul Jailed. And so they delivered Paul and Silar to the jailer and he thrust them in the inner prison and locked their hands and feet in the stock, but doubtless they found as one of our modern poets has described it: "Stone walls do not a prison make, Nor iron bars a cage." For I read that at midnight they sang and prayed unto God.

What strange sounds it must have been for that old Philippian jailer when he'd heard nothing but oaths and blasphemy! Now he heard men singing and praying and in response to their faith as expressed in their prayers and songs, the hand of God fell and that old jail staggered and reeled like a drunken man down the street, and the walls cracked and the prison doors swung open and the jailer, thinking all the prisoners had escaped, leaped in with drawn sword and was about to commit suicide, for the Roman law was that if an officer allowed a prisoner to escape through his negligence, he'd have to forfeit his own life to pay for it.

This Roman officer knew how inexorable was the Roman law, so he thought he'd take the matter into his own hands and kill himself for he supposed, of course, that the whole gang had beat it when the doors swung open. So he jumped in with drawn sword and was about to kill himself when Paul said: "Hold on! Hold on! Hold on! Do yourself no harm, we are all here. We're all here."

"I'm from Missouri." The jailer came with a light and said, "I'm from Missouri. Show me."

He couldn't imagine why anybody would be there when he had a chance to escape, and when he discovered that Paul was right, he cried out in the words of my text, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

"You've got something I haven't got. How did you get it? I want it. Tell me what you did and I am willing to do whatever you tell me to do. Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

And Paul replied, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved."

If there had been any other way Paul would have told him. There is none and never will be any, so I bring you the words as they well from the lips of Paul in the old Philippian jail in response to the heart-rending cry of the jailer, whose sword Paul stayed from committing suicide.

Now, what does it mean to be saved? The New Testament speaks of salvation from sickness. "Go thy way, thy faith had made thee whole," and it speaks of the prodigal son and his return from his prodigality. It speaks about the apostles drowning and rescued from the watery grave. for Him to come down from the cross. Thus, it means to take a man or woman out of a condition that is not favorable to their welfare or happiness and put them into a condition that is favorable to their welfare or happiness.

He was convicted, he came trembling. He said, "I believe you are all right. I know I am wrong. I want to get out of what I am into what you are; how did you do it? Tell me and I will do it."

Nobody can be saved without first of all real true conviction, but in different individuals conviction shows itself in different ways. First there is the evidence of great need. You display your ignorance as the chief of Nicodemus that he was the ruler of the people. He was an honored member of the Sanhedrin and a much respected man and yet with all that, there was something that he didn't have so he sneaked around one night to ask Jesus Christ what he must do to be saved.

Afraid of Sneers. He was afraid to walk down the streets openly for fear the gang would give him the horse laugh, so he waited until dark and then went around to see Jesus to ask Him what he had to do to be saved.

There is the evidence of great need. And I want to tell you when you realize you are lost, there is nothing in this world will satisfy you until you find peace with God—no music, no merriment, no revelry, no joy, no intoxication, nothing on earth until you are saved by faith in Jesus Christ. If there is a feeling in your heart that the world isn't satisfying and you have a sense of your need of something that you do not possess, that your wealth and culture and learning cannot give it to you, I say to you come to Jesus Christ and He will satisfy you.

So, come as you are and God will satisfy you and supply your need. Sometimes you get a feeling of unworthiness, like the publican. That's a very hopeful sign. I hate to see a man or woman who feels as though God owned them something and that salvation was a sort of reward of merit. I like to see a man or woman who is like that get what is coming to them—they get hell here and when they are through here!

God doesn't owe you anything. God doesn't owe you salvation. He owes you the opportunity to accept but He doesn't owe it to you if you don't want it. But He offers it to you full, free, perfect and eternal, if you will come God's way—if you won't do that, let it alone. You can't have it on any other grounds at all.

I don't care what your sin is, grace won't keep you out of hell, if you don't repent. Some men don't go to hell because they are sinners; they go to hell because they reject Jesus Christ, for God says, "Whosoever will may come and whosoever will not will be cast out" so that's the reason—not because they are sinners, but because they won't come and be saved.

To Know More. I know something about sin tonight. I expect if God lets me live, a year from now I will know more about it than now. I know more about it now than a year ago, but there are some things about and if you turn your back on Jesus you will go to hell. "What must I do to be saved?" He was convicted, he came trembling. He said, "I believe you are all right. I know I am wrong. I want to get out of what I am into what you are; how did you do it? Tell me and I will do it."

There is the evidence of great need. And I want to tell you when you realize you are lost, there is nothing in this world will satisfy you until you find peace with God—no music, no merriment, no revelry, no joy, no intoxication, nothing on earth until you are saved by faith in Jesus Christ. If there is a feeling in your heart that the world isn't satisfying and you have a sense of your need of something that you do not possess, that your wealth and culture and learning cannot give it to you, I say to you come to Jesus Christ and He will satisfy you.

So, come as you are and God will satisfy you and supply your need. Sometimes you get a feeling of unworthiness, like the publican. That's a very hopeful sign. I hate to see a man or woman who feels as though God owned them something and that salvation was a sort of reward of merit. I like to see a man or woman who is like that get what is coming to them—they get hell here and when they are through here!

God doesn't owe you anything. God doesn't owe you salvation. He owes you the opportunity to accept but He doesn't owe it to you if you don't want it. But He offers it to you full, free, perfect and eternal, if you will come God's way—if you won't do that, let it alone. You can't have it on any other grounds at all.

I don't care what your sin is, grace won't keep you out of hell, if you don't repent. Some men don't go to hell because they are sinners; they go to hell because they reject Jesus Christ, for God says, "Whosoever will may come and whosoever will not will be cast out" so that's the reason—not because they are sinners, but because they won't come and be saved.

To Know More. I know something about sin tonight. I expect if God lets me live, a year from now I will know more about it than now. I know more about it now than a year ago, but there are some things about and if you turn your back on Jesus you will go to hell. "What must I do to be saved?" He was convicted, he came trembling. He said, "I believe you are all right. I know I am wrong. I want to get out of what I am into what you are; how did you do it? Tell me and I will do it."

Nobody can be saved without first of all real true conviction, but in different individuals conviction shows itself in different ways. First there is the evidence of great need. You display your ignorance as the chief of Nicodemus that he was the ruler of the people. He was an honored member of the Sanhedrin and a much respected man and yet with all that, there was something that he didn't have so he sneaked around one night to ask Jesus Christ what he must do to be saved.

Afraid of Sneers. He was afraid to walk down the streets openly for fear the gang would give him the horse laugh, so he waited until dark and then went around to see Jesus to ask Him what he had to do to be saved.
