

BILLY SUNDAY CAMPAIGN TO CLOSE IN GREENVILLE WITH SERVICES TOMORROW

Eastern North Carolina Masons to be Guests at 1:15 Services; Four Services Scheduled For the Day.

Billy Sunday will close his five weeks evangelistic campaign in this city tomorrow. His farewell sermon will be delivered at the usual service tomorrow night. It will be one of the most touching discourses of the series, and will contain an impassioned plea for acceptance of salvation through Christ.

Tomorrow will be one of the most strenuous days of the campaign for the distinguished evangelist. Beginning tomorrow morning at 10:30 he will preach at a union service of all churches. At 1:15 he will deliver the fourth sermon to a congregation composed exclusively of men. In this assemblage will be hundreds of Masons from all sections of Eastern Carolina, who were recently extended a cordial invitation by Mr. Sunday and the deputy grand master of the fifth Masonic district.

At three o'clock the evangelist will speak to a congregation composed of the general public. At 7:30 he will conduct the final services of the campaign.

All of these services, it was stated today by members of the local campaign committee, will be the most inspirational of the entire series. Always clothing the old time religion with new thought, Mr. Sunday is expected to be at his best in the presentation of the four subjects chosen for the day.

At the final service he will be preceded with a "free will" offering which a special committee has been raising since the beginning of the week. The public has been urged to give as liberally as possible to this fund out of appreciation for the splendid services which the evangelist and his party have rendered the community. No definite amount has been set as a goal by the committee, but it is expected the final count will show that the public has lived up to expectations.

Services last night were largely attended despite overhanging clouds that promised a torrential downpour of rain almost any minute. The deluge, however, did not come until sometime after the services had ended and people who came from a great distance had time to reach home before nature's sluice gates swung wide open and released an untold volume of rain.

It fell to Herbert Waldrop, cashier of the Greenville Banking and Trust Company, to make the announcement in connection with the "free will offering" to be presented Mr. Sunday. He urged liberality in this gift, enumerating some of the great advantages which the community had derived from the stay of the evangelistic party.

While the choir loft was not filled to overflowing by any means, there were sufficient singers present to enable Homer Hammond to put across one of the best songs of the week. The versatile song leader asked the audience how they liked his choir. The applause that greeted the query was almost deafening and attested how greatly this part of the preliminary services was appreciated.

Mr. Sunday spoke on the subject of "Atonement." It was one of those highly colored, gripping appeals for which Mr. Sunday has distinguished himself during his stay here. His illustrations again proved outstanding, and did much toward driving home the plain points of the discourse.

"God Almighty never undertook to give to this world a view of the plan of redemption in one picture, but in an endless series of views from the day that Adam and Eve ate of the forbidden fruit and were driven from the Garden of Eden, on down until Jesus Christ hung bleeding on the cross.

TRY TO PROVE ALIBI IN CASE OF LAWRENCE

Defense Attempts to Show It Was Not Contractor That Killed Mrs. Terry.

Pittsboro, May 26.—(AP)—The defense in the case of W. Herbert Lawrence today offered more testimony in its effort to prove that it was not the Durham contractor who slugged Mrs. Annie Terry and threw her into the Cape Fear River on the night of March 24, as the state charges.

E. K. Williams, of Merry Oaks, testified he saw a man, who did not resemble the portly defendant, and a woman who might have been Mrs. Terry in a green coupe which stopped at a filling station in Merry Oaks, about 10 miles from Avents ferry bridge, between 10 and 11 o'clock the night of the slaying, and ask the direction to Corinth.

The man, Williams said, asked him the direction. As the coupe pulled off, the witness said he turned a flashlight on it and saw that it bore a Virginia license.

Solicitor Clawson Williams, who is seeking to prove that Mrs. Terry was slugged and thrown from Lawrence's green coupe, asked the witness when he had first told any one of seeing this couple.

"Yesterday," replied Williams. Although he admitted knowing of the Avents ferry bridge murder, and of the fact that officers were seeking a man driving a green automobile, the witness could give no reason for keeping his information to himself until yesterday.

Several additional character witnesses were called by the defense today to testify that the defendant had a good reputation. It was indicated that the defense probably would not rest its case before next week.

Japan Approves U. S. Proposal To End Warfare

Washington, May 26.—(AP)—Japan has expressed warm sympathy with Secretary Kellogg's proposal for a treaty renouncing war as an instrument of national policy and has notified the American government that she will be glad to cooperate cordially toward the attainment of that end.

Open Road To Europe.

Paris, (AP)—Auto buses are running from Paris to Amsterdam and Cologne, each carrying 20 passengers.

Slayers Of Two Bankers At Lamar Kill Physician

Denver, Colo., May 26.—(AP)—A running gun fight here early today in which a patrolman was forced to abandon pursuit of men in an automobile similar to that used by four desperadoes who killed two bankers at Lamar, Colo., and a Kansas physician, has extended the man hunt on the theory the robbers have been evaded hundreds of possmen in western Kansas.

While the skirmish in the streets of Denver led police to believe the robbers were attempting to hide in or near this city, posses aided by airplanes continued to comb the rough country in western Kansas where Dr. W. W. Wineinger was slain yesterday.

The fight was started when the detective attempted to examine the car as it passed a park. When it put on speed he shot at it, and immediately drew a heavy fire. Several bullets struck the officer's malar bone and he was forced out of the chase when bits of glass from the shattered windshield of his car temporarily blinded him. The men sped on toward the southern part of the city. No further trace of them was found.

Local Voters Four To One Favor Of Hull

Cordell Hull is Greenville township's favorite for the Democratic nomination of President.

This fact was brought out here this afternoon when approximately three hundred voters met at the court house here to select delegates to the county convention here June 5. The precinct will send forty delegates to the county convention instructed to vote as follows: Hull 30; Smith 9; Reed 1. A large number of women attended the meeting today and convinced more than usual interest in selection of the delegates. The total vote follows: Hull, 205; Smith, 58; Reed, 4.

LOCAL WOMAN PASSES AWAY

Mrs. Sarah Ann Coffield, 83, died suddenly at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. R. Smith, Ninth street last night at eleven o'clock.

Funeral services will be conducted from Spring Green Primitive church near Robersonville, Monday afternoon at three o'clock by Elder Hassell. Burial will take place in the churchyard.

Rev. L. R. O'Brien, pastor of the Emmanuel Baptist church, and Rev. W. S. Harden, pastor of the Presbyterian church, this city, will conduct a short service from the home here at 1:15 o'clock Monday afternoon after which the funeral party will proceed to the Spring Green church.

Mrs. Coffield is survived by three daughters, Mrs. W. R. Smith and Mrs. Annie Pittman, of Greenville; Mrs. W. A. Pope, of Enfield; two sons, J. H. Coffield, of Detroit; and J. A. Coffield, of Robersonville.

She was the oldest member of the Spring Green Baptist church and was held in high esteem by a host of friends here and elsewhere. She was a consecrated Christian character and took an active interest in church work as long as her health permitted.

Active pallbearers will be: Dave Moore, Leon Tucker, S. E. Williams, W. H. Ward, Fred Whitehurst and Marcellus Fleming.

Honorary: S. J. Everett, Joe Jordan, Troy Burnett, J. J. Gilbert, John Clark, R. J. Slay, W. H. Woodard, E. G. Flanagan, C. W. Wilburt, F. C. Harding, A. W. Haskins, H. C. Edwards, Wiley Brown, P. L. Humber, L. A. Stroud, C. H. Forbes, D. W. Hardee, E. L. Baker, Jim Evans, Leon Reeves, J. C. Gaskins, J. W. Perkins.

WEATHER OUTLOOK FOR NEXT WEEK

South Atlantic and East Gulf States: Mostly fair first half of the week and some probability of local thundershowers the latter part. Temperature below normal at beginning of the week and near normal thereafter.

MAIL PILOT LOSES LIFE IN ACCIDENT

New York - Atlanta Flier Killed When Plane Crashes in Fog Near Richmond.

Richmond, Va., May 26.—(AP)—James Reid, a reserve air mail pilot, was almost instantly killed early today when his plane crashed in a field eleven miles north of Richmond, apparently in an attempt to make a forced landing.

The plane rolled over a ten-foot embankment at the end of the field and was badly damaged. The pilot's body was found in the twisted wreckage.

Motor trouble was apparently the cause of the crash, J. L. Tyler, who lives near the scene, said today. Mr. Tyler and Danny Hughes, a farmer were among the first persons to reach the scene of the wreckage.

"The motor seemed to be missing badly," Tyler said. "It would spin for a while, then stop almost together. This kept up for a long time." It seemed almost half an hour to me. Finally I heard it stop and a few seconds later I heard a crash. With several other persons I went in the direction where I heard the last noise. When we reached the plane Danny Hughes and a few others were there and we decided to call Dr. Cravatt, a doctor living near here.

By the light of flashlights and lanterns were examined the wreck and saw the pilot's body in the wreckage. There seemed nothing that we could do so we just waited around until a city ambulance arrived. The doctor in charge said the man was dead and the body was removed from the wreckage and the Hanover county coroner called.

Those who visited the scene said the pilot probably would have been able to land if he had been able to see the lay of the ground. The fact that he landed just in front of a deep little ravine was taken by residents as evidence that he could not see the ground.

The spot where the accident occurred is on the farm of Robert Martin, about a half mile off the Mechanicsville turnpike. It was pointed out that had the pilot experienced difficulties other than motor trouble he could have returned to the airport.

A statement given out by the Pitcairn Company said:

"Pilot Verne E. Treat was forced to remain at Washington on his southbound trip from New York last night, because of fog, but by the time the northbound mail arrived from Atlanta at Richmond, the weather had cleared, and Reid asked to be permitted to take it through to Washington so that treat could resume his regular run."

"Reid was told he could make the attempt but was instructed to turn back in case he encountered fog."

"Reid took off for Washington on the scheduled time, but for some reason, Pitcairn officials believe that it may have been motor trouble, for there was no fog, Reid was forced to land."

"He dropped two flares but too low for them to light and he was forced to come down with only his landing lights to guide him. He therefore did not see an embankment at the end of the field, and rolled over it while still traveling at high speed."

The pilot's body was not mangled but there was a bad cut over one eye and the skull was probably fractured, the Hanover county coroner, Dr. B. Gravatt, said after his examination. He said that the pilot might have suffered a broken neck but that he could not say without further examination.

Smith Lead At Raleigh

Raleigh, May 26.—(AP)—Reports from ten out of 17 precincts in Raleigh this afternoon gave Governor Smith 94 delegates in the county conventions to 45 for his opponents. The tabulation was made by the Raleigh Times.

Newspaperman Found Dead

Aiken, S. C., May 26.—(AP)—James Edwin Kerr, well known in South Carolina as a poet and veteran newspaperman, was found dead in bed at his home here today. He was 80 years old.

Stewart Shot to Death

Memphis, Tenn., May 26.—(AP)—Joseph G. Stewart, 43, former president of the Dixie Margarine Company, was shot to death in bed early today. His wife, Ruby, 41, told deputy sheriffs, they said, that she shot him after he had threatened her life because she would not consent to divorce him.

CONGRESS ON FINAL LAP OF THIS SESSION

Several Issues Faced Today After Strenuous Session Yesterday.

Washington, May 26.—(AP)—After one of the most strenuous days in legislative history, Congress today was well on the road to adjournment next Tuesday.

Except for the threat of a filibuster in the Senate on the Boulder Dam bill which the House passed yesterday without a record vote and hints of an attempt to get Senate action on the $274,000,000 naval building program, also approved by the House, leaders saw nothing in the offing that might hold up passage of the House adjournment resolution.

This might be brought out by the Senate appropriations committee today or Monday.

Meanwhile, the Senate had only two conference reports to approve today before resuming debate on Boulder Canyon. They were on the $148,000,000 second deficiency and postal rate revision measures. Conferees agreed to both yesterday and the House adopted the report of the former. It has yet to act on the postal bill report.

In the House today only the adoption of the conference compromise $22,495,000 tax reduction bill stood in the way of a clean sweep of its important bill calendar. Quick action was expected on the report which the Senate approved yesterday without a roll call vote.

The last deficiency measures of the session are noted trouble makers, especially in the Senate where filibusters at the last minute have killed them on two previous occasions, and for this reason leaders were hopeful today to get the $146,000,000 measure out of the way, not only to enhance adjournment chances but to avoid the embarrassment to many federal agencies dependent on urgent appropriations.

The Boulder Dam bill was only a small part of the legislative menu which the Senate and House nounced upon with unusual voracity yesterday. While action on this was only half completed, the day saw adoption by both Houses of the conference report on the Norris-Moran government operation Mauch Shoen bill, that in the Senate approved after a filibuster last night and well into the day. Other activity embraced the following:

Senate sustained President Coolidge's veto of the McNary-Haugen farm relief bill, 50 to 31, or four votes shy of the required two-thirds, killing the measure for this session.

Senate adopted without a record vote the conference report on the tax reduction bill, after rejecting the publicity income tax clause, 57 to 23.

Senate passed several minor bills confirmed a batch of nominations, and adopted House amendments to five year fish cultural program, sending measure to President.

Senate and House conferees agreed on a compromise postal rate revision bill providing for a reduction to the 1920 schedule of second class rates in the first four zones and a saving, chiefly to publishers, estimated at $6,310,000 annually.

In disposing of individuals against the government in its three hour session last night, the House established a record.

More Loot of Evergreen Park Robbery Found

Chicago, May 26.—(AP)—More of the $133,000 loot obtained in the Evergreen Park robbery of a Grand Trunk mail train several months ago was reported recovered today.

It was found at the home of a young woman of 150 bills dealing with the robbery. The woman's name was withheld.

No exact figures have ever been made public as to the amount of money recovered during the course of the investigation, but it has been estimated at nearly $100,000. Only two members of a group of nine held responsible for the robbery remain at large.

GERMAN EDUCATORS VISIT RALEIGH SCHOOLS

Raleigh, May 26.—(AP)—A visit to North Carolina state college and to Raleigh public schools with an inspection of the state department of education, today occupied three German educators who are here on a tour of the United States to study American educational methods. The tour is under the auspices of the Zentralinstitut of Berlin and the International Institute of Teachers College, Columbia University, New York.

Protests Closing Congress Tuesday

Washington, May 26.—(AP)—Another emphatic protest against the proposed adjournment of Congress, next Tuesday was made in the Senate today by Senator Johnson, Republican, California, who demanded that the Senate remain in session until votes had been taken on his Boulder Canyon Dam bill and other important legislation.

Farm Relief Bill Killed By Senate Action Today

Washington, May 26.—(AP)—A change of votes by three Republicans, one a presidential candidate, and a lone Democrat, prevented the Senate from overruling White House disapproval of the McNary-Haugen farm relief bill last night.

In sustaining President Coolidge's veto of the measure yesterday, 31 to 50, the Senate lacked just four votes to obtain the required two-thirds majority for re-passage. Had the four Senators who voted for the bill when the Senate passed it a month ago, 53 to 23, not switched to uphold the veto it would have been overridden.

But this assistance was not forthcoming and farm relief legislation thus was killed for the present session.

Senator Curtis, Republican, Kansas, a candidate for the Kansas City nomination, was one of the four former supporters of the bill to go over to the President's side. He explained afterward that he felt it was his duty, as Republican leader of the Senate, to uphold the executive, "much as I sympathize with the farmers, and much as I favor legislative relief for them."

Senator Curtis was the author of two farm relief measures long before Congress until the McNary-Haugen bill was approved. The other three Senators who formerly voted for passage and helped sustain the veto were Sack-

GIANT DIRIGIBLE ITALIA LOSES HER WAY IN STORM ON RETURN FROM POLE

LIVE NEGRO TAKEN FROM MATHER MINE

Coal Loader United With Wife After Being Entombed More Than Six Days.

Mather, Pa., May 26.—(AP)—Entombed for more than six days in the ruins of Mather mine, after an explosion there last Saturday afternoon, Joan Wade, 38, a negro coal loader, today was reunited with his wife and three children after having been mourned as dead.

He was found sitting in Butt 24, North Working, about two miles back in the mine, by rescue teams seeking the remaining dead, early last night. Butt 24 is practically half a mile from the right face rooms where the explosion took place.

Seemingly none the worse for his experience, he was taken to an emergency hospital. Physicians said that barring danger of pneumonia, he was physically sound. He said he had wandered about the workings and had lived on contents of miner's food, buckets he found in various sections of the mine.

How he escaped the deadly after-damp that swept the explosion torn mine was a mystery. Officials in charge of rescue crews use of the opinion Wade luckily followed air currents.

He had been underground 140 hours. The disaster took a known toll of 174 lives with several workers unaccounted for.

Senate Approves Deficiency Bill

Washington, May 26.—(AP)—Congressional action on the $146,000,000 second deficiency appropriations bill was completed today with Senate approval of the conference report reconciling differences with the House.

The measure now goes to the White House. It is the last of the annual supply bills and carries funds for many projects authorized this session, including $14,000,000 for beginning Mississippi River flood control work. With this out of the way, Congress was in a position for adjournment and Senator Curtis, of Kansas, the Republican leader, was ready to ask for early action on that subject.

Tiger Market Bearish. Canton, China, (AP)—A farmer boy walked the streets four days trying to sell a tiger cub for $4, but found no buyers. Tigers are almost as numerous in south China as in India.

Thirty-Six Hours Pass Without Word From General Nobile and Crew; Italian Government Promises Aid; Amundsen May Head Relief Expedition.

By the Associated Press. Out of Spitzbergen more than 30 hours, the dirigible Italia at 5 p. m. Spitzbergen time, 11 a. m. eastern standard time was lost in the icy polar regions, with fears for her safety increasing hourly.

Quick to respond to an Italian request for assistance, the Norwegian government promised every aid. Roald Amundsen, famous Norwegian explorer, was reported in conference with government officials to head a relief expedition.

Last word directly from the Italia, received at Spitzbergen more than 36 hours ago told of the ship fighting fog and adverse winds, her speed being cut seriously, today the wind had veered and was blowing from the south.

Spitzbergen advices indicated the Italia would run out of fuel tonight, but Oslo dispatches estimated the fuel would have been exhausted at 4 o'clock this morning.

King's Bay, Spitzbergen, May 26.—(AP)—Eleven a. m.—Fearful for the safety of the dirigible Italia, now out of Spitzbergen on her north pole flight more than 78 hours, the crew of the base ship Citta Di Milano, bunkered coal all morning in preparation for sailing in search of the missing ship.

The dirigible Italia, which was built by General Nobile who is an expert in dirigible construction, is a sister ship of the Norge which Nobile flew over the north pole in 26 weeks with Roald Amundsen, the Norwegian explorer, and Lincoln Ellsworth, the American explorer.

In some ways the Italia is an even more efficient ship as some changes were made in the design suggested by the experience gained in the Norge flight aiming specially at the avoidance of incrustation due to ice.

The main dimensions of the Norge were:

Capacity 672,000 cubic feet. Length 348 feet. Maximum height 85 feet, four inches. Maximum width 64 feet. Maximum speed 62 miles an hour. Useful cargo capacity approximately eight tons.

The dirigible was built of steel tubing about three quarters of an inch in diameter fastened firmly by rivets and welds into the steel keel above. The wheel for steering is just like any other ship.

The Italia has three motors, two side by side amidships, and one below the keel aft.

One suggestion advanced was that the airship might have collided with a high mountain in northern Spitzbergen during her flight southward through the fog. One of these mountains is 1,800 meters high.

The base ship Citta Di Milano was ready to sail and had coal enough aboard for a cruise of ten days. It was expected that she would start for the north in search of the missing ship this afternoon.

Radio operators on the motor ship Citta Di Milano listened with taunt nerves for some message from General Nobile. For hours they had sat at their posts, trying to reach the ship since they last contact with it at 4 p. m. yesterday. Almost 13 hours before that time, the Italia was believed to have reached a point 100 miles north of Moffen Island, one of the northernmost points of the Spitzbergen Archipelago and is about 75 miles from Kings Bay.

It was estimated that the dirigible carried enough fuel to remain in flight from 85 to 90 hours and that the last drop would be exhausted at 10:40 o'clock tonight. The airship left here at 4:40 a. m. Wednesday and reached the north pole, which is about 750 miles from Kings Bay, at 12:20 a. m. Thursday. Two hours later she began the hazardous return trip against a strong adverse wind which steadily cut down her speed. Fog added to the difficulties of the flyers.

As hours passed and no answer came to the Citta Di Milano's repeated calls to the Italia, the base crew began to discuss other possible landing places for the airship.

It was thought that the airship might make for Vadsoe, Norway or the Siberian coast. There is a mooring mast at Vadsoe to which the Italia was attached after buffeting storms on her voyage across Europe from Italy on her way to Spitzbergen. The prevailing winds might turn to Novaya Zemlya, an island of 12 to Novaya Zemlya, an island of the Siberian coast past which General Nobile flew on his return trip from the vicinity of Lenin Land.

GREENVILLE LOSES GAME TO KINSTON

Greenville dropped their third straight game of the week to Kinston yesterday afternoon at Kinston to the tune of 8 to 5.

Allen and Cherry started out to do the firing line work for the locals but were knocked off the mound in the first two frames.

Duke Joliff put himself in the box in an endeavor to stop the onslaught of the Stemmers, and while he slowed them up to some extent, he was not able to prevent frequent use of the willow. The game was on ice, however, before he took the mound.

Sullivan pitched the first three innings for Kinston but was forced to retire on account of an injury received while running bases. Newberry, who succeeded him, allowed Greenville to put only one more runner over the rubber.

Wilson's homer counted for two Greenville runs. Walters also hit for the circuit for Kinston with nobody on.

Greenville and Kinston concluded the series this afternoon. Monday will find Wilmington playing on the local field.

In Balloon Race

William Bennett of Dayton, Ohio, will pilot the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph entry in the National elimination balloon race when the bags take the air at Pittsburgh May 26.

GRANTHAM AT BATTING PEAK

New York, May 26.—(AP)—The familiar figure of George Grantham and Sheriff Frederick Blake once more are marching in the van of their National League fellows, according to averages made public today. The figures, including games of Wednesday, show Grantham at the top of the batting heap, still clinging to a .400 average after six weeks of play. The Chicago moundsman leads the pitchers with four victories and no defeats. Grantham's exact figure for 34 games is .402, computed from 34 singles, ten doubles, two triples and three homers. Out of New York and Callaghan of Cincinnati are bunched in a tie two points below the Pittsburgh pounder, and are the only other .400 hitters in the league. Other National League swatsmiths still moving above .350 are: Grimes, Pittsburgh, .375; Hornsby, Boston, .368; Rostiger, St. Louis, .368; Douthett, St. Louis, .367; P. Waner, Pittsburgh, .366; and Wright, Pittsburgh, .356. Hack Wilson, the home run king of the league, tops his field with nine, but is closely pressed by Bismette of Brooklyn and Bottomley of St. Louis, tied with seven each. Wilson is batting .346. Pittsburgh dropped to .305 in club batting last week, but remained well ahead of the second-place Cardinals, who showed an average of .285. Cincinnati, which is winning many games by smart fielding, was tied with Chicago for top honors in the club fielding column. Each had an average of .972.

Greensboro Still Holding to Lead

By the Associated Press. Although the Winston-Salem Twins took a well earned 2 to 1 victory over the Raleigh Capitals yesterday, they were unable to overtake the flying Patriots and Greensboro with a 9 to 2 win over Salisbury retained the league leadership in the Piedmont loop. Buck Taylor's triple in the eighth with one on base proved the decisive blow for the Twins yesterday and broke up a pretty duel that had traveled six scoreless innings. Manager Heath of the Twins, and Smith, Raleigh right hander, provided the mound fireworks. Greensboro had little difficulty in winning from the Colonials but Durham found a 7 to 6 victory over High Point more difficult.

ANDY PAYNE IS FIRST IN BUNION RACE

Passaic, N. J., May 25.—(AP)—With the dust of 3,400 miles on their shoes but their faces of whippers several weeks old, C. C. Pyle's footsore and dog-tired bunion derbyists shuffled their way for Passaic to New York this evening and end their trans-continental foot race with a 20 mile job in Madison Square Garden tonight.

Of the original company of 200 who started from Los Angeles on March 4 only 35 remain. Somewhere along the 3,000 miles of road lie the wrecked hopes of the rest.

Nothing short of a serious accident can prevent Andy Payne, Claremore, Oklahoma, youth from carrying off first prize of $25,000.

With something less than forty miles to go Payne leads his nearest competitor, John Salo, Passaic, N. J., by more than 16 hours. Salo cut deeply into the Oklahoman's lead in yesterday's 24.7 mile lap from Suffern to Passaic, whose residents turned out en masse to greet their fellow townsman. Salo leading the field, covered the distance in 2:49:26. Payne, finishing in a tie for fifteenth place, required four hours, three minutes, fifty seven seconds. The elapsed time of the two leaders for the 3,390.1 miles from Los Angeles were: Payne 568:36:33; Salo 548:54:08.

Although all question of a strike in the ranks appears to have been dispelled, many of the pavement pounders were somewhat uneasy as to whether Pyle would be able to pay them the $48,500 in prizes he had offered. Pyle himself declared that this sum was on deposit at a New York bank. His associates admitted, however, that the promoter has lost about $60,000 on the venture and that control of the race to control of F. F. Gunn, Chicago contractor.

BUSHY GRAHAM WINS BANTAM TITLE

The bantamweight championship, ownerless for 16 months, goes to Bushy Graham, Utica, N. Y., phantom, who defeated Corporal Izzy Schwartz, of New York, in a 15-round match at Ebbets Field, Brooklyn. Schwartz is shown down for the count of nine in the fourteenth round.

WHY YANKEES ARE LEADING FOR PENNANT

Chicago, May 26.—(AP)—Baseball averages tell why and how the ramp ant New York Yankees are leading the American league parade to Pennantville at the end of the sixth week's campaign.

Five of the ten leading hitters are a Yankee; the leading pitcher, George Pipgras, is a Yankee; the best run getters are the Yankees, and as usual the most prolific fence buster is Babe Ruth. About the only major department, the Hugenon do not lead in is in the field, but they are approaching the crest.

"Goose" Goslin of Washington retains his leadership in the race for individual batting honors with an average of .415 or 7 points better than last week, unofficial averages for games up to and including those of Wednesday show. His teammate, Barnes, is second, .35 points behind.

The ten leading hitters, including only those who have batted 45 times or more, and the averages: Goslin, Washington .415; Barnes, Washington .400; Kress, St. Louis .383; Dourchee, New York .376; Gehrig, New York, .371; Reeves, Washington .370; Foseca, Cleveland .356; Ruth, New York .351; Dugan, New York .349; Lazzeri, New York .349.

Pipgras added another victory to his string during the sixth week to increase his hurling leadership. He has won seven games and lost none, pitching 70 innings and allowing 66 hits, 21 runs and 28 base on balls. He has struck out 36. Penneck of the Yankees, and Walburg and Grove of Philadelphia have won six games and lost one each.

Philadelphia retained its leadership in fielding with a percentage of .980 although it dropped three points during the week. Boston was second with .979 and the Yankees third with .972.

With an average of .319 New York, New York clung to its lead in team batting, 22 points ahead of the second place Athletics. Other leaders: Double plays, Cleveland 43; fewest opponents' runs Philadelphia 95; fewest errors, Philadelphia, 23; stolen bases, barrett of Chicago and McNeely of St. Louis 6 each; most runs, Ruth, New York 38.

Cleveland is the only team to turn in a triple play this season. The play was made Wednesday in a contest with the White Sox.

YANKEES WIN AGAIN FROM ATHLETICS

It appears that the team that can stop the New York Yankees has not yet been assembled.

The Philadelphia Athletics, widely heralded as the only team in the American league capable of giving Huggins murderous hitters a run for their money, fell twice before the champions' bats at Philadelphia yesterday. The Yankees now hold a three to one edge in the first four engagements of a six game "crucial" series.

Lou Gehrig's eighth homer of the season with two on the paths in the sixth enabled the champions to turn back Howard Ehmke and the Athletics in the opened, 4 to 2. Herb Penneck, southpaw ace, held the tribe of McGillicuddy to seven scattered hits.

The nightcap was a rout for the Philadelphiaans, who suffered a 9 to 2 beating. Babe Ruth hit his 15th and 16th homers of the season while "Jumping Joe" Dugan also smashed out two. Rube Walberg, Eddie Rommel and Daney were pounded for 15 hits while Waite Hoyt turned in a neat eight hit performance for the champions. Forty thousand saw the double bill.

Ruffing was supreme in the pinches when the Red Sox blanked the Washington Senators at Boston 5-0. Phil Todd smacked out a home run off Lisencep.

Four runs in the eighth inning gave the Cleveland Indians an eight to four victory over the St. Louis Browns. George Burns pinch home run in the 7th tied the score.

Urban Faber was in form and the Chicago White Sox blanked Detroit, 1-0.

The Cincinnati Reds clung to their hold on first place in the National league race by beating the St. Louis Cardinals 2 to 0. Kelly's homer in the first and doubles by Pritch and Ford counted.

The Chicago Cubs came out of their four game losing streak by pounding out a 10 to 3 verdict over the Pirates at Pittsburgh.

Circuit drives by Harvey Hendrick and Rube Bressler gave the Brooklyn Dodgers a decision over the Boston Braves 4 to 1.

Russell Miller and Vic Aldridge tangled in a hurling duel at the Polo grounds as the New York Giants eked out a 4 to 3 win over the lowly Phillies.

Folkes Steps Out For Another Win In South Atlantic

"Hi" Fowlkes, who stepped into prominence a few days ago by hurling a ten inning, one hit game in the South Atlantic Association, has won his seventh consecutive victory. The Knoxville hurler cannot point to any particular brilliance in his mound work yesterday, however, heavy hitting by his team mates having been largely responsible for the 18 to 13 defeat handed Greenville.

Nineteen times Smoke bats rang with the noise of base hits, including Storm Davis' 11th and 12th homers of the season as well as a double and a single by the same player. Tillie Walker of the Spinners, also hit a couple of four baggers to lead his team's attack of 14 bingles.

Spartanburg went 10 innings to administer a 4 to 3 licking to the league leading Asheville club, doing all its scoring in the last three periods.

Five runs in the eighth enabled Charlotte to win over Macon, Heinie Grch starting the rally when he appeared as a pinch hitter and came through with a single. The score was 7 to 4.

Strain of Augusta, was another manager whose pinch hit gave his team the decision. The Tiger boss singled to score Clark in the seventh inning and drive across the only run of the game with Columbia.

Cheba allowed the Tigers only five hits.

Greenville and Kinston Vieing For the Cellar

Hal Weaver's rampant Pirates chose the league leading Goldbugs for their victims yesterday and scored one run in the ninth inning that proved the margin of victory. Wilmington defeating Goldsboro 4 to 3. The game was close with McKay and Gates yielding 8 and 7 hits respectively. The contest proved to be the dethronement of the Goldbugs and for the second time this week the Pirates grabbed the leadership.

Fayetteville and Rocky Mount in third and fourth positions were unable to come to an agreement in their feud and darkness halted the game in the ninth inning with the score standing 3 and 8. Kinston and Greenville, hovering around the cellar positions, started their contest by hammering rival pitchers all over the lot but the Stemmers pounded the hardest and came off with an 8 to 5 victory. Greenville used three moundsmen and Kinston two.

Angled to score Clark in the seventh inning and drive across the only run of the game with Columbia.

Cheba allowed the Tigers only five hits.

To the People of Pitt County:

I greatly appreciated the vote given me for Judge of the County Court four years ago, and I shall again be a candidate in the Democratic Primary on Saturday, June 2, 1928.

I am not a politician and I do not represent any faction. I do not ask for this office for personal profit, but in order to render service for the public good. To help make Pitt County a better place in which to live is my ambition.

If I am nominated and elected to this office, it shall be my purpose to give everyone a square deal and to administer justice with equality, fairness and impartiality to all according to law and the dictates of an honest conscience.

Assuring you that your support would be most sincerely appreciated, I am,

Yours to serve,

TERRIBLY ILL
Kentucky Lady's Health Was Very Bad. Had Severe Pains and Could Not Sleep.

Lexington, Ky.—Mrs. J. H. Nichols, who lives at 513 Elm Tree Lane, this city, says that Cardui has been of valuable assistance to her on two occasions, which she tells about below:

"Some few years ago, my health was bad. I had very severe pains in my sides. My nerves were in a terrible condition. I could not rest.

"The lower part of my body was very sore. I could hardly stoop over to lace my shoes. I would have to put my foot on a chair. I did not feel like eating, and did not sleep well at all at nights.

"A friend of mine recommended Cardui. I began taking it and saw quite an improvement in my condition. I kept it up until I felt strong and well."

About a year ago, Mrs. Nichols says, she found herself in a nervous, run-down condition. "I took Cardui again," she adds, "and it helped me wonderfully. It is a splendid tonic."

Thousands of women have written to tell how Cardui helped them to get rid of pain and suffering. Cardui is a mild, medicinal tonic, made from purely vegetable ingredients. At all drug stores. NC-190

CROSS COUNTRY HIKE TO DONATE PROCEEDS OF DAY'S WORK TO SUNDAY CAMPAIGN
H. W. Henning, New Jersey to Los Angeles hiker, who stopped over in Greenville several days ago to obtain employment before going on to some other point, announced today that he would give the entire proceeds of today's work to the Billy Sunday campaign.

Henning has been quite active at the tabernacle during his stay here. He sings in the choir every night, and is also active in missionary work.

Henning has no set date for reaching the California city. The conditions of the hike are left entirely in his hands, when he reaches California he will receive a wage of $2,000 and lifetime employment with a corporation in his home state.

The news from Washington causes fear of a veto. If so, the power trust, having failed in Congress, would win by the White House veto.—News and Observer.

ABOUT TOWN

"Babe Ruth is certainly maintaining his stride in the home run kingdom," a reader declared today after perusing an account of the game between the Yankees and Athletics yesterday in which the Bambino obtained his fifteenth circuit drive of the season.

"There are wisacres which predict that Ruth will lose his wallop, but there isn't any indication of it at this time. They have been taking such pessimistic views for the past few years, but the Babe is swatting just as hard and consistently as ever.

"A physical giant in stature, Ruth will be good for many more home runs in the years to come, and whether he has reached the apex of his ability cannot be determined at this time. If indications at present count for anything, however, he is even better than he has ever been before.

"Today and tomorrow will wind up Billy Sunday's campaign in Greenville," a member of the local campaign committee remarked rather sadly today.

"Everybody will regret to see the series of services come to a close. Mr. Sunday has afforded more than usual entertainment and spiritual uplift during the five weeks the campaign has been in progress, and those who have attended the services daily will miss him to no little extent.

"That Greenville and Eastern North Carolina have derived great benefit from the visit of this noted champion of the Bible cannot be questioned. He has unfolded great truths. His style of presentation of old biblical stories is new and up to the minute.

"Billy Sunday may go wherever he will, but Greenville people who have been uplifted and inspired by his sermons will not soon forget him. And they hope he will not forget them."

"It is rumored that Greenville has some heavy hitters on the road for use in ball games next week," one of the local fans happily asserted today.

"They say one of these men has a regular Babe Ruth wallop, and is capable of delivering the goods when hits are actually in demand. If this is the case we have hopes of seeing the boys begin mounting the standing of clubs column, and the sooner they do so the better everybody is going to like it.

"Inability to hit opportunely has resulted in the loss of many a good ball game for the Tobaccoists. When this weakness is strengthened it is reasonable to suppose things will begin to pick up in the camp of Deacon Joliff's followers."

"The recent inspection of city school children by members of the dental profession brought out the fact that teeth are in far better condition than when the last inspection was made," it was stated today.

row" members of the Ministerial Association urged today. "These will be the final services of the Billy Sunday campaign. Mr. Sunday has great messages in store for the thousands that will assemble tomorrow morning, afternoon and night. "Hundred who have not reconsecrated themselves to the great cause of christianity are expected to take the trail at these services. It will be a great day in the history of Greenville and Pitt county and those who fail to attend will miss the most inspirational services of the campaign. GENERAL COX OUT FOR NATIONAL COMMANDER Raleigh, May 26.—(AP)—General Albert L. Cox, state commander of the American Legion, today stood out as a candidate for the post of national commander. His candidacy was put forward at the fourth district legion banquet held here last night when 85 veterans unanimously endorsed him as a successor to Commander Edward Spafford.

Beggars Outwitted Nanking—To keep beggars from disguising themselves as wounded Nationalist soldiers and extorting money from civilians, authorities have ordered all aid-seekers turned over to government custody.

CHICAGO GRAIN Chicago, May 26--(AP)--Wheat prices underwent a reaction today toward the last, influenced by an official forecast that suggested general unsettled weather the coming week. Earlier today the wheat market averaged higher, no rain of consequence being shown in spring wheat territory, and high temperatures prevailing there again. Mention was also made of moisture being needed in Kansas. Wheat closed heavy 7-8 c to 1-7-8 c lower; corn 1-8 to 2-1-8 off; oats varying from 3-8 decline to advance and provisions unchanged to 10 down.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET CLOSED TODAY New York, May 26--(AP)--The New York stock exchange and the New York curb market were closed today, the sixth Saturday holiday this year, to give member firms a further opportunity to catch up with the congestion of work created by the recent series of big markets. The commodities markets will remain open as usual. All securities and commodities markets will be closed next Wednesday, memorial day. Full five hour trading sessions will be restored next week after a week's experiment with the 2 p. m. closing.

WEEKLY COTON GOODS New York, May 26--(AP)--Cotton goods markets have ruled quiet in the primary division and sales have been less this week than the curtailed production. Prices have been earlier on print cloths and some of the sheetings. There has been a lack of the normal volume of business on finished lines especially in sheer wash fabrics for summer use. Weather conditions have held back the demand over a wide area. New prices were named on gingham for fall on a basis 2c a yard under that prevailing for the spring season. The reduction was promoted by the desire of reinstating gingham through a substantial price commission. A moderate business has come forward to date.

Trade on wide sheetings, sheets and pillow cases, 4-4 bleached cottons, and colored goods has been quieter than last week. Although production in many staples lines has been curtailed sharply there have been some accumulations of stock. The prolonged curtailment of production in fine and fancy goods amounted to 50 per cent of the capacity output and due largely to the strike in New Bedford mills has not yet stimulated new orders to any large extent. Some prices are from 1-2 c to 1c a yard higher than when the strike began six weeks ago and stocks of staple goods are being consistently reduced. But to date new contracts have not been offered as freely as is usually the case at this period of the year. The fabric production continues large with the demand lighter. Cotton duck is firmer due largely to the substantial contraction in the volume of output but new business is not being offered in as large way. There has been more trading in towers, and New Bedford lines are being shown for fall. Prices current in primary markets are: Print cloths, 28 in. 64x60's, 6c 27 in. 64x60's 5-3-4c; 38 1-3 in. 64x60's 7-5-8c; Brown sheetings, southern standards, 12 3-4c; Denims, 2.20's indigo, 19c; Tickings, 8 oz. 21 1-2c and 23c; Prints, 9c; Staple gingham 10 1-2c dress gingham 12 1-2c to 15c.

HIGH FIGHT FOR CHAMPIONSHIP TODAY Chapel Hill, May 26--(AP)--Baseball fans of eastern and western North Carolina will face each other on the sidelines of Emerson field here today to watch Whiteville and Forest City, respective champions of these sections, battle for the state high school title. The game is to be called at 3 o'clock. Both teams were reported today as in excellent form and optimistic as to the outcome.

BILLY SUNDAY CAMPAIGN TO CLOSE IN GREENVILLE WITH SERVICES TOMORROW

(Continued From Page One) returns in faith in the shed blood of Jesus Christ. The sermon follows: In Hebrews, the 9th chapter and the 12th and 13th verses. "Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by His own blood He entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh. Paul argued if God was satisfied with the Mosaic law and when they shed His blood, if He was satisfied with that for an atonement for sin, if the blood of bulls and goats and the ashes of an heifer sanctified the purifying of the flesh, how much more shall the blood of Christ who through the eternal spirit offers Himself without spot to God. Purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God.

That's a lesson instead of a text, for my sermon tonight is topical, instead of textual, and the subject is: "The Atonement of Jesus Christ," that central doctrine of Christian religion. More battles, logical and illogical and theological and nonsensical and idiotic have been fought, over the Atonement than all other doctrines in the Christian religion.

Now and then, when some man reads the Bible and gets a little inkling of the truth he runs out and builds a church and starts another denomination, by and by through which to propagate his idea. By the thirteenth amendment he has a right to do that, but he doesn't stop there, he makes war upon all other denominations that do not interpret or believe as he does. But I can count on the fingers of my two hands all the denominations that hold up the bleeding form of Jesus Christ as God's ultimatum for sin, so with one sweep of the sword I have eliminated ninety per cent of them today and thrown them on the ecclesiastical scrap heap where they belong.

And as I have read it over I am reminded of this little fancy sketch: A man goes to England and he advertises that he is a stereopticon lecturer on Atlantic coast scenery. He flashes up on the canvas pictures that show rocky promontories, impenetrable inlets and great forests, of spruce and birch, dilates upon its beauty, and a man in the audience arises and says: "I denounce that man as an imposter and a fraud. I challenge his statements. I was born in America and I never looked upon such scenes, and if you will return tomorrow night I will show it to you as I know it to be for I was born in America and have seen for myself."

The two men almost came to blows, but the audience couldn't determine who was right or wrong so they reassembled the next night to test the veracity of the two men. The challenger flashes upon the canvas long coast lines, innumerable inlets and the tropical and the semi-tropical vegetables, orange groves, lemon groves, and the banana and grape fruit and great realms and lowlands. The man challenged him as a fraud and imposter. They are both right and both wrong. They are both right as far as they went, neither man went all the way. The first man gave the Atlantic coast from Maine to Cape Hatteras, the other from Cape Hatteras to Yucatan.

God Almighty never undertook to give to this world a view of the plan of redemption in one picture, but in an endless series of views from the day that Adam and Eve ate the forbidden fruit and were driven from the Garden of Eden, on down until Jesus Christ hung bleeding on the cross. When I see the ten plagues sweep over the land, when I see them start out under the leadership of Moses, when I see the waters of the Red Sea beating back, when I see the waters bubble from the rock in the wilderness and the great flocks of quail come up and the lowering herds and the long, razor-like knife in the hand of the high priest, down until Jesus cried on the cross, "It is finished," God was preparing my friends, for the consummation of His plan of salvation in the gift of His only begotten Son, Jesus Christ.

The atonement is the state or quality or the plan perfected whereby a sinner may be made one again with God. A sinner has no standing with God. A sinner is an alien, he is in his attitude toward God what an alien is in his attitude. An alien can claim none of the protection of this government, he is not a citizen. A sinner is not a citizen of heaven, he is not an alien with God and God will not deal in mercy with that sinner until he returns through faith in the shed blood of Jesus Christ, then he can claim all the protection and friendship of heaven. An alien can not claim the protection of this government until that man becomes naturalized, then he can stand between the Stars and Stripes for the same protection that is accorded you and me.

So a sinner is an alien and he must come. And so the atonement is the state or quality or the plan perfected whereby a sinner might be made one again with God, as we have laws whereby an alien can become an American citizen, entitled to our laws and protection. So I have sometimes imagined that when God said, "For in the day thou eatest thereof, thou shalt surely die," the reason I think, is the fact that they had never seen anyone die. They had never seen a man or woman from whom the breath of life had gone, therefore, I imagine they might have thought it separation. For the Bible says:

"Your sins have separated between you and your God." Let a man violate the laws and the violation of that law separates him, puts him in jail. Sin separates him from God and he can't return only thru Jesus Christ. But no sooner did they find themselves sinners and naked than they made garments of the foliage of the tree with which to hide it and from that day to this, whenever a man finds himself exposed to the wrath of a just and righteous God, he has sought and is seeking through philosophy and culture and education, through science and all her postulates, woven into her frail plans to justify himself, but God looked down thru their fig leaves, through their man-made garments. God looks through your philosophy and science and culture.

God walked out into the fields and slew the beasts. He took the skins from their dead bodies and wrapped them around Adam and Eve and from that minute until tonight, wherever a sinner has been screened and shielded and protected from the wrath of a just God, it has been by and through faith in the blood unto the Mosaic law. You had to bring to, a high priest a turtle dove or a heifer or bullock or ram, and when Jesus Christ died on the cross, the plan of salvation switched from a bullock and heifer and ram to Jesus Christ, and it is His blood that comes between God and the sinner, and there is no way to ever get back to God except through Jesus Christ.

I say it is the rule of life that the innocent suffer with and for and even more than the guilty. Look at that old mother. She weeps and prays for the coming footsteps of him whom she brought into the world in pain and suffering. She builded high her hopes; he has proved himself an iconoclast to her prayers and tears and when at last he staggers and reels and vomits and spews and mutters and sputters and pukes into her arms and presence, to damn her for her just rebuke of his infamy, and then he reels and staggers to his bed and he is snoring in his drunken stupor, filthy in his excrement, she worries all night long and wets her pillow with tears of anguish, wrung from a broken heart, while he snores in his drunken stupor. Who suffers the most? That drunken, bloated loafer, sleeping off a drunk or that innocent broken hearted mother praying for a drunken boy?

You only have to be unfortunate enough to be the mother of a drunken wretch like that to know who suffers the most, the guilty or the innocent. So don't you charge it upon God to be a piece of foolishness to have His son suffer for us reprobates, the sinners. Look at that young wife. She prays and waits and longs and hopes until the small hours of the morning, waiting for the coming footsteps of him whose name she bears, whose image is woven into the fibers of her heart, who swore to love, honor, cherish and obey as long as the sky was blue, and when at last he comes into her presence stamped with the foul stench of his unfaithfulness and his sin, look at her eyes go blood-shot, look at her lips become ashen, look at her cheeks become anaemic, look at her form totter and reel.

Who suffers the most, that innocent, virtuous, pure wife, who has been true to the man she swore to honor at the wedding, or that infamous, God-forsaken, white-livered, weasel-eyed, black-hearted, rapacious, mendacious buffoon? Who suffers the most, the innocent or the guilty?

Salvation to anyone who rejects Jesus Christ is impossible. Out of Christ there is no mercy and there could be none, and if there were mercy out of Christ, then Jesus Christ died in vain on the cross. If salvation could have been attained otherwise than by the death of Jesus then all He went through was useless. If I could save myself by my culture and morality and my philanthropy, Jesus Christ needn't to have come into the world to die. It was perfectly needless. If I can save myself and if salvation is to be gotten by some other way than through the faith in Jesus Christ; it was useless for Him to come and suffer. There is no salvation in any other way.

According to the Bible, men are saved because they accept Jesus Christ, and men are lost not because they are worse than others, but because they reject Jesus Christ. And our sins, to be forgiven, must be conveyed somewhere and God laid on Jesus Christ, our iniquity, so I accept the one who bears my guilt, and that lets me escape. And if the world would be firmly convinced that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, then and accept Him, sin would instantly cease.

And if I were the only man in the world who believed in Jesus Christ as the Son of God, that belief would be all the evidence I needed for myself, it wouldn't make any difference what you believed. So overwhelming is the evidence on the side of Christ, that it is impossible for anybody to deny that Jesus is the Christ without committing intellectual and moral suicide.

I said, "You Godless old reprobate!" I said, "If your carcass is ever kept out of hell it will be by repentance and faith in what you sneeringly term this laughable house religion. There has never been a sinner that has ever been saved in any other way and never will be."

I don't blame the people half as much as I blame a lot of mutts who call themselves preachers. Redemption means to buy back. Jesus paid the price. Don't be a fool. Give Him what belongs to Him. We are redeemed, not with corruptible things such as silver and gold but by the precious blood of Jesus Christ. It stands for God's hatred of sins. So, here, I say, if I hadn't have been under the instruction of men who believed and knew and guided my thought, I might be preaching infidelity instead of Christianity. But to the day I die, I'll never cease to praise God for the man who believed in Jesus Christ as the Son of God and thank God before my eyes ever fell upon Bob Inerrott and I read everything he ever wrote and I'd take it and lay it down by the side of the Bible and say: "Either Bob perverted that through ignorance or desire, but couldn't conceive of a man with the gigantic intelligence he possessed being such a fool."

When the Standard Oil Company was trying to refine petroleum, they had a black, thick, odiferous substance left they could not dispose of. They tried to burn it, they tried to bury it. It accumulated faster than the company could dig its grave. In their desperation, not knowing what to do, they offered a vast sum to anyone who could dispose of it.

The chemists took it and forged to eat and sleep. They worked and labored for days and months. One day a man, tired, weary, trembling from the loss of food and sleep walked into the office of John D. Rockefeller, laid on his desk a substance as white as snow called paraffine.

You can take this black humanity, cursed and damned by sin, faith in Jesus Christ will make it as white as snow. So the only power to cleanse is through faith in Jesus. You who reject Jesus, what are you building your hope on? It will go down. He that despised Moses' laws, died without mercy. What are you going to do if you despise the blood of Christ? If a man wouldn't bring his sacrifice to the high priest he couldn't escape punishment under the Mosaic law. If you don't come through faith in Jesus Christ you can't escape today.

Tonight, Jesus Christ stands between God Almighty and the human race—our mediator. With one hand He holds the sword of inflexible justice in the scabbard. He has had it there for nineteen hundred and twenty-seven years. With the other He offers mercy. He will unsheathe the perfect and eternal to all who will accept His sacrifice and the sword. At last He will withdraw that offer, when I don't know, but, folks, it is still being held out, and in the name of Christianity do it. Some day He will withdraw that offer of mercy. He will unsheathe the sword. He will make His way to this world. God pity you if you are not under the blood, and there is no other way whereby we can be saved. We are not redeemed with corruptible things such as silver and gold, but by the precious blood of Jesus Christ.

Card of Thanks. We wish to express our sincere thanks to each of our friends for their many kindnesses and expressions of sympathy during the sickness and death of our dear little baby, Windell Holme.

Your kindnesses and prayers help us much in these dark hours. Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Teel, Bethel, N. C.

Collegians in Gray. Fredericksburg, Va. (AP)—The trend to color has won another victory. The Virginia State Teachers' College graduating class has discarded black caps and gowns and will receive diplomas in blue-gray drapes.

Treasure Hunters. Potsdam, (AP)—Gold diggers are out the city beach near here. Every year shortly before the season opens, hundreds of youths spade up the sand, hunting rings, coins and trinkets lost or washed ashore since the year before.

Fortify Yourself Against Colds! Charlotte, N. C.—"I do not think there are any medicines to compare with those put up by Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y. The 'Golden Medical Discovery' is as good a medicine as one can take. I developed a severe cough which I just could not get rid of—I got so weak I could hardly get around. I would have severe coughing spells during the day and I would cough nearly all night long. But by the time I had taken five bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery I was well, my cough disappeared and I have scarcely had a cold since."—Mrs. J. A. Morton, 1236 N.
