

DOUBT REPORT OF LANDING OF DIRIGIBLE ITALIA ON ISLAND IN SPITZBERGEN

Norwegian Government Continues Plan For Relief Expedition Today.

Oslo, Norway, May 29.—(AP)—Although reports, wholly unconfirmed, had been received in Oslo today that the dirigible Italia was down at Amsterdam Island, North Spitzbergen, the Norwegian government was going steadily ahead with its plans to send out a great relief expedition to search for the missing dirigible.

Captain Riser-Larsen, authority on flying on the north and one of the leaders in the preparations for the relief expedition, was highly doubtful of the report and went ahead with his plans for an air reconnaissance over northern Spitzbergen soon to be made by Lieut. Luetzow Holm, crack Norwegian flier.

Lieut. Holm arrived at Tromsø with his naval hydro-airplane this morning and immediately began the work of loading his plane aboard the sealer Hobby, which will carry it to Spitzbergen as quickly as possible. Capt. Riser-Larsen hoped that the Hobby would be able to leave for Spitzbergen within a few hours and that she would reach Kings Bay toward the end of the week.

The captain is of the opinion that the dirigible probably came down somewhere on the ice north of Spitzbergen and that a survey by air of the region offers the best hope of finding the ship.

The Italian legation at Oslo has been in close wireless contact with the base ship Citta Di Milano now off northern Spitzbergen, but has received no information from her indicating that the Italia had been found.

Oslo, Norway, May 29.—(AP)—Lieutenant Luetzow Holm, Norwegian flier, arrived at Tromsø at eleven o'clock this morning enroute to Spitzbergen where he will conduct an air search for the missing dirigible Italia in a Norwegian naval plane.

Lieut. Holm will embark with his plane aboard the sealer Hobby immediately and will leave for Kings Bay this evening. The sturdy little ship will then make as swift a run as possible to Spitzbergen in order that the first search by air for the Italia may get under way. It probably will be toward the end of the week that the Hobby can arrive at Kings Bay.

Acting under the instructions of Captain Riser-Larsen, leader of the large scale relief expedition which the Norwegian government is preparing, Lieut. Holm will fly over the north and northeastern coasts of Spitzbergen in the hope of finding some trace of the dirigible.

Oslo, Norway, May 29.—(AP)—Men experienced in penetrating the bleak Arctic today placed their reliance on large airplanes for use in search of the dirigible Italia, missing with eighteen men. The planes were used as bases.

Search by ship alone was regarded as futile, especially in view of the Italia's bases here, the Citta Di Milano becoming ice bound.

The Swedish steamship Brogan, however, today was enroute for service. The Italian government extensive plans, one recent expedition got under way hoping to reach Kings Bay late this week. Lieutenant Luetzow Holm flew in a seaplane from Horten to join the sealer Hobby at Tromsø. Using the Hobby as a base he will explore the north and northeast coasts of Spitzbergen.

Captain Riser-Larsen, who will probably lead the main Norwegian relief expedition, believes that the Italia came down on the ice somewhere north of Spitzbergen. He thinks that an air survey of this district offers the best prospects of finding the dirigible since every meteorological condition seems to point to the Italia's being north of her base.

Capt. George Wilkins and Lieut. Carl B. Eielson, who flew from Alaska to Spitzbergen, volunteered their services in the search to Premier Mussolini of Italy. They also participated in conferences planning expeditions as did other men with knowledge of the inhospitable polar regions, such as Roald Amundsen and Captain Otto Sverdrup.

Captain Riser-Larsen was the right hand man of Amundsen and Alsworth in the Norge expedition across the pole in 1926. He has much experience in flying in Arctic regions and is a dirigible expert as well.

Captain Wilkins said his airplane which is at Bergen, was built for landing on and starting from the ice and therefore was less suitable for the purposes of the Italia search than plans constructed for landing on water. If his services are required, he will fly to Spitzbergen (Continued On Page Six)

PRESIDENT SIGNS TAX REDUCTION

Measure Providing For Annual Cut of $222,495,000 Gets Favorable Action.

Washington, May 29.—(AP)—The tax reduction bill was signed today by President Coolidge.

The measure, which now is law, provides for an estimated annual reduction in tax payments of $222,495,000.

However, the cut in government revenue under the act is estimated at only $155,000,000 for the next fiscal year beginning July 1, the full force force of the reduction not being felt until the following fiscal year.

Corpses are the chief beneficiaries under the new act which makes virtually no changes in the present individual income tax rates.

The law provides:

Reduction of the corporation tax from 13 1/2 to 12 per cent loss in revenue $123,450,000.

Increase in exemption allowed corporations from $2,000 to $3,000. Loss 12,000,000.

Repeat of the 3 per cent automobile tax. Loss $66,000,000.

Increase in exemptions in admissions tax from 75 cents to $3. Loss $17,000,000.

Increase exemption from 10 per cent tax on club dues from $10 to $25. Loss $1,000,000.

Increase from $20,000 to $30,000 on maximum exemption for earned income credit. Loss $400,000.

Reduction tax on wines to pre-war level. Loss $1,000,000. Repeat tax on cereal beverages. Loss $185,000.

Reduction in fees on druggists dealing in narcotics $6 to $5. Loss $150,000.

Increase in tax on prize for tickets of $5 and over from 10 per cent to 25 per cent. Increase $750,000.

Withholding tax at source in cases of non-residence, increase $2,000,000.

Revision of tax on foreign built yachts (customs). Increase $50,000.

Total reductions amount to $225,295,000. A part of this is off set by increases totaling $2,800,000. This gives a net reduction of $222,495,000.

While the act makes numerous changes in the administrative provisions with a view to simplification no change is provided in the present law prohibiting publicity for income tax returns.

Government Operation To Cost $4,642,293,897

Washington, May 29.—(AP)—The cost of federal government has gotten back to a better than a four and a half billion dollar basis, the seventy-first Congress having appropriated the staggering total of $4,642,293,897 to carry on affairs in the next fiscal year. This exceeded the appropriations for this year by $627,304,961.71.

Of the grand total, $1,388,753,735.53 will go to cover annual fixed charges, such as interest on the public debt, leaving $3,253,540,162.04 for carrying on the active departments and agencies of the government. Of this sum, however, $200,936,668.02 represent deficiencies which occurred this year, the urgent deficiency bill having failed in the filibuster which marked the close of the last session of the sixty-ninth Congress.

Despite this increase in expenditures, Congress has slashed federal taxes $222,495,000 for next year, with corporations getting the bulk of the reduction. This sum is slightly in excess of what Secretary Mellon said was a safe reduction based on present estimates of revenue, plus the added costs that must come with the working out of the Mississippi river flood control program, extending naval construction and other added government activities.

The appropriations by departments made during this session in the regular supply measures were: Agriculture, $130,138,793.88. District of Columbia, $37,625,208. Executive and independent offices, $527,593,111.00. Interior, $272,656,039.00. Legislative, $17,746,893.26. Navy, $362,445,812.00. Legislative, $17,746,893.26. State, justice, commerce and labor, $489,820,597.60. Treasury and postoffice, $1,061,342,060.00. War, $398,517,221.50. First deficiency, $200,936,668.02. Second deficiency, $146,017,757.74. Total, $3,253,540,162.04.

LOCAL ROTES TO VISIT 4-H CLUB MEMBERS

Invitation Accepted to Camp Leach Encampment at Regular Meeting Last Night.

The regular weekly meeting of the Rotary club was held last night with President Bill Rogers presiding. Numbers of guests were present. The usual supper and song service were enjoyed, after which interesting talks were made by members of the club and visitors.

C. B. Rowlett, secretary of the local Merchants Association, appeared before the club and urged members of the Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce to attend the meeting of the organization to be held in Kinston tonight. He said important matters would be discussed during the session and it was necessary for the majority of the membership to be present and take part.

Rotarian Colin Stokes, of Ayden, made a short talk.

B. B. Sugg, member of the local finance committee of the Billy Sunday campaign which was brought to a conclusion last Sunday night, told of the great good which the community derived from the visit of the noted evangelist. He said it was impossible to estimate the benefits which the future would derive from the great sermons which Mr. Sunday delivered during his five weeks' stay in Greenville.

He thanked the Rotary club for their co-operation in the success of the services. He said the entire section rallied behind the meeting in splendid shape and that this was accountable for the great results obtained.

The club was extended an invitation to be guests of the 4-H club boys and girls of Pitt county, who left for annual encampment at Camp Leach early this morning. The invitation was extended by E. F. Arnold, director of the department of agriculture. Numbers of members signified their intention to attend. They will leave Greenville at six o'clock Thursday evening.

Modern apartment houses, one in each ward, are proposed in Paris to house the city's 6,000 police.

RECOMMEND CHANGE IN N. C. COURTS

Nine Changes Presented Today by R. O. Everett, of The State Bar Asso.

Durham, May 29.—(AP)—Nine recommendations as to changes in the court system of North Carolina were today announced by R. O. Everett, chairman of the subcommittee to the State Bar Association for court reform, to be presented this committee at a special meeting in Chapel Hill on May 31. The members of the state committee are G. V. Cowper, of Kinston, chairman; R. O. Everett, of Durham; John A. McRae, of Charlotte; A. A. Hicks, of Oxford; and S. M. Gattis, of Hillsboro. Members of the sub-committee are Messrs. Everett, Hicks and Gattis.

Following are the recommendations:

"1. We favor the adoption of the present proposed constitutional amendment providing for 24 judicial districts to be increased or decreased by the General Assembly according to the needs of the state."

"2. We recommend for the consideration of the constitution an amendment to the constitution providing for the creation of judicial districts in conformity with the solicitor districts for the trial exclusively of criminal actions, and for judges to be selected in such districts to preside exclusively over the courts for the trial of criminal actions."

"3. We favor regular terms of court sufficient to take care of the needs of the county with emergency judges if need be, rather than special terms of court with regular judges."

"4. We recommend that in counties having more than 45 weeks of court for the trial of cases that there be two divisions of superior court in such counties, first a criminal division, and secondly, a civil division, with records being kept of two branches of court, and that contemporaneous terms of two divisions be provided if necessary."

"5. We recommend that solicitor districts be created so that each solicitor shall not have in excess of 40 weeks of court each year; that each judge shall not have an excess of 44 weeks each year; that in a district embracing only one county requiring more than 45 weeks for the trial of cases in which there is a division of civil and criminal branches of the superior court of said county and district, that the terms in excess of 45 weeks not held by the resident judge or the judge holding the courts of said county and district be presided over by regular judges from other districts be assigned to the county and district for the purpose by the Governor."

"6. We believe that the expeditions and sound administration of justice in the different counties of the state depend upon a healthy local atmosphere; that the courts are the servants of the people, and respond to the demands of the local communities, and can in no sense advance beyond the standards of the community. With that in mind, we desire to have it understood that the responsibility for administration of justice rests upon the local bars of the several communities."

"7. We favor the time honored system of the rotation of judges. Our judicial system is so constructed that there is one superior court for each county in the state, with general jurisdiction over all questions of law and fact, with the right to appeal to the supreme court for errors of law, or legal inference."

"8. We unqualifiedly recommend that in the re-arrangement of our judicial system that the rotation of justices be retained."

"9. We recommend that the constitution be so amended that were it necessary, judicial districts may have more than one resident judge."

"Respectfully submitted, R. O. Everett, S. M. Gattis, A. A. Hicks."

Seek Slayer At Pineville, N. C.

Charlotte, May 26.—(AP)—Officers today were seeking Walter Williams, 21, alleged slayer of John Connor, 22, whom he is said to have shot in an altercation near Pineville yesterday.

The shooting took place at the home of Mrs. Hattie Kimball, Williams grandmother after the men had a heated argument. The argument arose, witnesses said, when Connor accused Williams of having made insulting remarks about Connor's young wife.

Williams ran into his grandmother's house and Connor followed. Williams secured shotgun and meeting Connor at the door emptied the lead into his abdomen. Connor died almost instantly.

BOULDER DAM BILL STILL IN INDECISION

Washington, May 29.—(AP)—An hour's executive session failed to settle today the question of the status of the Boulder Canyon Dam legislation at the next session of Congress, and Senator Johnson, Republican of California, prepared to hold it before the Senate until adjournment. If need be, to insure its place in the winter session.

FRIEND KILLS TOLEDO CHILD AND ESCAPES

Seven-Year Old Child Attacked and Slain by Unknown Man Last Night.

Toledo, O., May 29.—(AP)—A man early today entered the home of Alex Sielagowski, here and took Dorothy, aged seven, from the bed where she was sleeping with her three sisters, carried her to his automobile, attacked and killed her and then 20 minutes later threw the body on the porch of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Dobrzanski, a few doors from the child's home.

Police started search for a "small man in a black suit," whom Sielagowski said he saw drive away from in front of the Dobrzanski home, after the disappearance of Dorothy. Sielagowski said he also saw a small covered auto truck stop in front of the home.

The child's father and two brothers were asleep in a front bedroom. Police said the slayers apparently were acquainted with the home. The children awakened and cried "They're taking Dorothy away." The father awoke in time to look out of his bedroom window and see the automobile drive away. The father said that about 20 minutes after the child was abducted he saw two automobiles drive up in front of the Dobrzanski home.

He immediately left for police headquarters. Returning with officers he noticed a huddled figure on the Dobrzanski porch and investigating found the body of his child.

The coroner rendered a verdict of death by strangulation. The coroner said the child had been attacked. The father is employed in a factory.

TO DECORATE GRAVES HERE

Profusion of Flowers To Be Placed On Graves Former Service Men Tomorrow

Tomorrow is National Memorial Day and the graves of former service men will be covered with a profusion of flowers by members of the American Legion and Woman's Auxiliary.

A similar program will be followed in Greenville, according to information given out this morning by J. H. Kittrell, commander of the Pitt county Post of the Legion and Mrs. K. B. Pace, president of the Auxiliary.

In order to make the floral tribute as extensive as possible citizens of the city with flowers they would like to contribute to this cause are urged to notify officers of the Legion and Auxiliary immediately.

This is the only time of the year that the men who sacrificed their all in the name of humanity are remembered in a national way, and it is hoped to make the occasion as impressive and inspirational as possible.

Numbers of executive men will take part in the decoration of the graves of their former "buddies," and as they bend over the graves they will reconsecrate themselves to the great cause for which the blood of the flower of American manhood was shed.

Lindy Off On Flight To The Pacific Coast

Columbus, Ohio, May 29.—(AP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh landed at Norton field here at 9:57 this morning on the first leg of a flight to the Pacific coast in his new capacity as chairman of the Transcontinental Air Transport, Inc. He took off from Curtis field, New York at 8:25 a. m., eastern daylight time.

Col. Lindbergh refused to make any statement prior to the take-off. He was accompanied on the flight by three companions, all of whom declined to reveal their names. One of them, however, was recognized as Col. Henry Breckinridge, Lindbergh's attorney.

U. S. Congress At Last Finds Way To Go Home

Washington, May 29.—(AP)—Congress definitely decided to quit work at 5:30 p. m. today, with the House and Senate approving a resolution setting that time as the adjournment hour. The House vote was 155 to 9.

Washington, May 29.—(AP)—Senate leaders decided today to seek adoption of a new adjournment resolution calling for the get-away of Congress at 5:30 this afternoon. House action also would be required.

With many Senators weary after an all night filibuster on the Boulder Canyon Dam bill, the leaders believed this resolution would be approved promptly. They were assured that favorable action would be taken by the House, some leaders of which have threatened to start in with three-day recesses, unless the Senate acts for adjournment.

Dawn found Senate leaders shaking out the blankets in which they picked up a few hours' rest in the cloak rooms during the night and determined to renew the attempt to push through the house resolution fixing 5 P. M. today as the closing hour for this session.

And there is where the rule book came in for attention. Defeat of the resolution yesterday on a tie vote which Vice-President Daves broke by lining up against adjournment left the parliamentarians guessing and Congress without any limit of its session.

It was the view of leaders after considerable consultation during the night with the book of rules that the house resolution could be brought up for reconsideration today. This motion, however, has to be made by one of those who voted in the majority yesterday against adjournment.

If such a Senator is not available, it is the intention to advance a new resolution, and it is believed that this would demand an immediate vote.

Jubilant over his success in defeating the adjournment motion Senator Johnson, Republican of California, co-author of the Boulder measure, pressed it with all his force throughout the day and night in a final drive to secure passage.

Ashurst and Hayden, Democrats, Arizona, leaped to the attack and with bitter words they fought the battle against time during the night. A quorum call at midnight suggested by Senator Bingham Republican, Connecticut, gave Ashurst, who had been talking then for two hours, an opportunity to rest. Only 41 Senators answered this quorum call and a search for the seven others necessary to permit the Senate to proceed was then begun.

Putting aside the wand which he had waved freely toward the huge map of the Colorado river basin basing in the rear of the chamber Ashurst joined the sleepy few who sat by while the sergeant-at-arms was walking up the absentees.

Johnson grew more and more impatient first he moved that sergeant at arms "request" the attendance of absentees. When an hour's effort brought out only three more, he suggestfully moved at 1:35 A. M. that the sergeant-at-arms be directed to "compel" the attendance of absentees. Every now and then, Bess, Democrat, of South Carolina moved in adjournment, but Johnson forces overwhelmingly defeated these moves.

In his first report on the absentees, David S. Barry, the sergeant-at-

CONGRESS AT END OF LONG ROAD TODAY

Senate in Throes of Filibuster as 7th Session Draws To a Close.

Washington, May 29.—(AP)—Leaving behind a legislative record unparalleled in more than a decade, the seventieth Congress approached the end of its first session today with the senate in the throes of the customary last days' filibuster, but with the house working smoothly and harmoniously.

Getting away to a rather slow start, Congress speeded up its machinery with the national political conventions in the offing and dumped down upon President Coolidge a flood of bills, some of the highest importance, but the great majority of lesser consequence.

The closing days of the session were enlivened by a spirited disagreement between the chief executive and the two houses on such important matters as farm relief, federal construction of roads on government reservations in eleven western states, and other subjects.

So far were the executive and legislative bodies apart that Mr. Coolidge vetoed more than a dozen measures during the session. Of this number three were enacted into law over his veto, while on the final showdown Congress sustained his position on three others.

The major measures which came through the legislative mill were: The $325,000,000 Mississippi river flood control bill. The $222,495,000 tax reduction bill. The McNary-Hangen farm relief measure, which, after passage by both houses, was vetoed and then failed of repassage in the senate.

The merchant marine bill with its $10,000,000 new construction loan fund. The Muscle Shoals resolution providing for government operation of the great-war-time plant on the Tennessee river.

The alien property settlement act. Besides enacting these measures, Congress put through the nine annual supply bills and two deficiency bills, carrying a total of $4,642,293,897.53, or the largest amount appropriated for the conduct of affairs of the government since the great outlays for the war began to diminish early in the Harding administration.

The regular appropriations for the current activities of the various branches of the government totaled $3,253,540,162.04, while those for fixed charges, including interest on the public debt, reached $1,388,753,735.53.

Major problems which failed of solutions at this session were the smallest number at any time since Congress began dealing with domestic issues in many ways traceable to war-time expansion of federal activities. The most important were the Boulder Canyon dam bill, railroad consolidation and general coal legislation.

Other measures which failed of enactment are the $274,000,000 naval construction program, contemplating fifteen new cruisers and an aircraft carrier, the $14,000,000 naval shore construction bill, and the army bill on the army promotion measure. They are still pending for action at the next session.

While President Coolidge and Congress differed on many pieces of legislation, the chief executive had less difficulty than usual with the senate in getting through his nominations.

None of importance, except that of John J. Egan, of Wisconsin, to be continued on the interstate commerce commission, was rejected. But one other, that of Orestes H. Caldwell, to be a member of the federal radio commission got through by only a single vote.

As usual congressional committees, and more particularly those of the senate, were busy with investigations of many subjects ranging from the Continental Trading Company oil deal to pre-convention campaign expenditures on behalf of the various candidates for the Republican and Democratic Presidential nominations neither is yet finally closed.

Woman Relents, Negro Prisoner Freed in S. C.

Columbia, S. C., May 29.—(AP)—Conscience and justice have set Ben Bess, Florence county negro, free—after the woman whose testimony sent the negro to prison on charges of assault for a 30-year term has filed an affidavit, part of which reads:

"Since I have not much longer to live, I hereby desire as much as possible to undo the great wrong I have done this negro, Ben Bess, and I hereby declare by testimony upon the trial of this case to be untrue."

Justice acted when Governor Richards gave Bess a full pardon. When Bess went to the penitentiary he had some property. He lost this and when he was given his freedom he was destitute. Governor Richards sought to have financial aid given the man from the state contingent fund, but was told that no legal means of doing so existed. The governor then expressed the hope that the South Carolina legislature at its next session would take steps to right the grave injustice done this negro.

A Columbia newspaper has started a fund for Bess and this has reached $364. The woman who caused Bess to be sent to prison and who is white, failed to give any reason for her false testimony in her affidavit.

Steamer Damaged By Flames Today

Elizabeth City, May 29.—(AP)—The steamer Commodore Bartlett, owned by the Moon Engineering Company, of Norfolk, was badly damaged by fire today. The vessel was at the docks of the Marine plant of the Elizabeth City Iron Works for an overhauling. The loss is estimated at $10,000.

Refuse to Admit Women. Kansas City, May 29.—(AP)—The general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church at its final session here today refused by an almost two to one vote to admit women to annual conferences of the church which would give them full membership in the ministry.

PIRATES FALL BEFORE BATS OF GREENVILLE

The Wilmington Pirates, who have been having their way about everything in the Eastern Carolina league the last several days, met opposition at the fair ground here yesterday afternoon that resulted in their defeat by the score of 5 to 4. Snapping out of a state of lethargy that had gripped them since opening of the season, the Tobacconists almost routed the Pirates in the fourth inning of a game, which, up to the moment had been going in the visitor's favor.

Allen showed up to better advantage than any other game of the season. He held Wilmington to seven hits, while his teammates were garnering a total of ten off Bailey and Powell.

Greenville's ability to wield the willow at opportune moments also figured largely in the success of the day.

The features of the game were two home runs by Roscoe for Wilmington. These were responsible for three of the four runs the Pirates had checked up to their credit.

Land, Allen and Abbott led Greenville with the stick, while the fielding of both the infield and outfield for the locals was of a sensational character.

Wilmington will finish the series here this afternoon. Rocky Mount comes tomorrow for four games, the first game of the series to be played in Rocky Mount tomorrow morning, the teams returning to Greenville for the afternoon game. Both games Thursday will be played here. The box score of yesterday's game follows:

Greenville Stops Pirate's Advance

Hal Weaver's rejuvenated Wilmington Pirates found themselves temporarily halted in their headlong rush over the Eastern Carolina loop yesterday when Greenville's stick-work handed them a 5 to 4 defeat, but failed to topple them from the league pinnacle. A disastrous inning for the Pirates when the Tobacconists forced Bailey from the rubber in the fourth and pounded Powell, his successor for four runs, proved the downfall of the league leaders.

YANKS PUT ROLLERS TO ATHLETICS

(By The Associated Press) The American League's first, and possibly last crucial series of the season, proved serious only in so far as it concerned Connie Mack's Athletics.

Before the tremendous hitting power of the New York Yanks, the Philadelphians could make no head way and snared only one victory in the six game series that ended yesterday. Consequently the Yanks were leading the procession today; eight full games in advance of the second place Athletics.

The last engagement saw the champions steam roller the Mackmen into submission, 11 to 4. For the second time in the series, the famed speed of Lelley Grove failed to stop Babe Ruth and company. Grove was meat for the champion; it was no different yesterday. After his teammates had given him a four to two lead in the third inning when Al Simmons hit a home run with two on base Grove was pounded for five runs in the fifth. Tony Lazzeri crashed one into the grandstands. Orwoll and Powers finished the game. Henry Johnson and Archie Campbell, recruits, held the Athletics to eight hits.

Of all the sharpshooters Mack sent against the Yanks during the series only Ozzie Orwoll was successful. He pitched the Philadelphia's to a 5-2 victory in the second game of Tuesday's double header. During the six games the Yanks pounded out 66 hits on which they scored 42 runs, an average of 7 runs and 11 1-3 hits a game.

Ed Morris, big right hander of the Boston Red Sox, saw a promising winning streak snapped when Tom Zachary and the Washington Senators beat him, 2 to 0.

Walter Beck, former Western League pitcher, struck out nine men and allowed two hits as the St. Louis Browns nosed out Chicago 2 to 1.

Only one game was on the National League schedule but that saw the Cincinnati Reds strengthen their hold on first place by besting their nearest opposition, the Chicago Cubs, 2 to 1.

High Point Halts League Leaders

(By The Associated Press) Refreshed by the week-end rest, the second division Piedmont clubs began a determined drive yesterday to overhaul the leaders. Elth Point, behind the masterful mound work of Conklin, held the league leading Patriots scoreless while his mates pounded out a 7 to 0 win. Not content with keeping his three hits scattered over nine frames, the pitching ace connected twice in three trips to the plate for his share of the scoring honors.

Augusta Proves Mystery Team of South Atlantic

(By The Associated Press) Augusta is still the mystery team of the South Atlantic Association, looking like world champions one day and itself, cellar holders in the loop, the next.

The Tigers had one of their unusually good days yesterday, and pounded the proverbial to all corners of the lot to defeat the league leading Asheville club 17 to 4.

Ten of the Bengal runs came in the initial inning, leaving badly dazed tourist team to finish the game. Dean allowed the Skylanders only seven hits.

Macon had a picnic with Greenville, they not being able to bunt their 11 bingles while the Peaches were taking full advantage of their 14 to win 12 to 2. McCorne and Raush hit homers for the central city club.

Although outhit 19 to 13, Knoxville managed to eke a 6 to 5 victory over Charlotte in 11 innings. Cussen, smoke infelder, securing two four baggers, a triple and a double in five trips to the plate. Heinie Groh led his team at bat with five hits in as many efforts.

Spartanburg hit in the pinches to win from Columbia 6 and 2. Craft, with two triples and a double, was the batting star of the game. Luckey, Spartan receiver, connected for the circuit. Buvd pitched fire ball, holding the Comers to half a dozen blows.

DAWSON TO MANAGE RALEIGH CLUB NOW

Raleigh, May 29.—(AP)—With the resignation of Jimmy Viox as manager of the Raleigh club of the Piedmont League announced last night, came information that four new players have been secured by the club. H. P. Dawson, manager of the club, explained that he will manage the club himself for the present.

Olin Perritt, utility man, joined the club yesterday and played third base. Marty Shay, veteran Eastern League infelder, is expected to arrive today in time to participate in the game this afternoon.

Adams, former New York-Pennsylvania League pitcher, and Seachtler, semi-pro hurler, both annexed from Walter Johnson's Newark club of the International League, are due to arrive sometime tonight.

In the deal that brought Perritt to the Raleigh club, Kermitt Smith, hurler, went to Richmond of the Virginia League.

Cleveland: Mickey Walker, world's middleweight champion, defeated Tony Marullo, New Orleans, (10). Maurice Hollzer, France, knocked out Harry Crips, Cleveland, (6).

HORSE CAUSE OF SARZEN'S FINE SHOWING

(Associated Press Sports Writer) New York, May 29.—(AP)—Gene Sarazen has never offered his golf handicap for a horse because it has not been necessary. He has the horse, unidentified by name, but resident of a little town in Florida.

"To that single factor, if any, do you attribute your return to winning form in your golf play this summer and spring?" Gene was asked.

"A horse down in Newport Richy, Fla., was the reply. "The former open and PGA champion explained: "I feel right this year for the first time since I have been playing serious competitive golf. There are several reasons, but I played the horse first.

"All winter I rode horseback all the time I wasn't playing golf, or eating or sleeping. I have never been really well. My health has been back off and on, mostly off, for a long time and I know that if I did not get myself in shape, I wouldn't win any more championships.

"Right behind the horse I place my old friend Artie McGovern, who did a lot for Babe Ruth's baseball and Johnny Farrell's golf. Artie fixed me up with a diet list and a prescription for drinking a lot of hot water and I worked in his gym until I went south for the winter.

"Then the horse took up where Artie left off and between them they did the work. I am in fine shape now and I can care all I have to do is to watch my diet and keep up my exercises. Of course I can't take the horse out on the golf course with me and as that is where I am spending all my time now, I will forego my riding exercises until next winter. But that old horse will be waiting for me."

"I look like I'm in the pink of condition all the time but I am not as good as I look in health. I have a lot of operations and doctoring and I never felt fully recovered from them until this spring and winter. I played wonderful golf all winter and in the British open I never felt better. I tell you, I never missed a shot in the tournament. I hit the ball all right but I guessed wrong on what I needed to get there with."

"At that I feel fine over the result of the British tournament. I was wrong. Just two strokes behind Walter Hagen and that's a good deal better than a lot of my friends thought I would do. "I think this is my year and I expect to be right up among the leaders at Olympia fields in the open. I am just a bit heavy but that will come off and I will be down to weight."

If he does much better than he did in 1927 the man who wins will have to beat him, for he was third in the open last year.

Gene's big golf year was 1922, when a 20 year old pro, lately graduated from the caddy ranks, he won the open championship of the United States with a score of 288 and followed with a victory in the professional golfers association championship.

Two other points the good natured pro would like to clear up while he has the floor.

"Not that it makes much difference," he said, "but I am unusually credited or charged with a year more in age than I am entitled to. I am only 26. I was born at Harrison, N. Y., February 27, 1902.

"The other point is where I work—there is little confusion about that. I have been the pro for about four years at the Fresh Meadow country club at Flushing. I like the job and if its all right I would like to have that emphasized."

Adolphe Menjou's Secret Disclosed; Starred in "Gentleman of Paris". Some people work hard to achieve reputations. Others have reputations thrust upon them. In gaining the reputation of "the best dressed man on the screen" the processes were combined in the case of Adolphe Menjou, the debonair Paramount screen star, whose latest picture "A Gentleman of Paris" will be shown at White's Theatre Wednesday and Thursday. Although Menjou worked hard to achieve the sartorial excellence that is so peculiarly his own, he never wooed the reputation of "the best dressed man."

It was not until his admirers united in acclaim for his taste in dressing that it became known just what pains and infinite care Menjou took in his wardrobe. In private life Menjou is not a fop, nor is he unusually vain. To appreciate his psychology in dressing, from a masculine standpoint, one must go back to the beginning of Menjou's screen career—from his start in pictures he had in mind the creation of a new and unique type of screen hero. Precedent had to be reversed. All screen heroes up to Menjou's time were clean-shaven, muscular young men, who were given to displays of physical violence and nearly always disposed of the villain by a sock on the jaw.

WISCONSIN TO PLAY NOTRE DAME OCT. 19. Madison, Wis., May 29.—(AP)—The University of Wisconsin football team will play Notre Dame at South Bend, Ind., October 19, 1929, in the game which will dedicate the new stadium there, the athletic department announced today.

Club Girls Go to Camp on Pamlico. Farm Club Boys of Pitt County Also go to Camp Leach Today for Encampment. Forty or more 4-H club girls and sixteen farm club boys left this morning for Camp Leach where they will spend the remainder of the week in annual encampment. They left the court house about 9 o'clock this morning after considerable time had been given over to the packing of foodstuffs and the arrangement of paraphernalia necessary to their comfort while in camp. The annual encampment periods of these young men and girls from the various homes and farms of the county command greater attention now than ever before, and Miss Ethel Nice, home demonstration agent of Pitt county, who has charge of the club girls, stated this year would be filled with more intense activity. She said a great part of each day would be given over to a study of problems affecting the clubs and that great benefit should be derived by the girls. The sixteen boys, representing the only three farm clubs of the county, are under direction of E. F. Arnold, director of the Pitt County Department of Agriculture. The same number attended the encampment last year and contributed largely to the success of the gathering. Members of the Greenville Rotary Club have been invited to visit the encampment Thursday evening. Last-year members of the Kiwanis Club spent two or three hours with the boys and girls and were given one of the finest suppers they ever tasted. The Rotarians are expecting equally good treatment and go to Camp Leach with appetites whetted by glowing reports of the Kiwanis reception last year. Before the French Council of State 11,000 cases are pending, many more than 10 years old.

LINCOLN AND COOLIDGE PICTURES AT G. O. P. MEET. Washington, (AP)—Pictures of the first and the most recent standard bearers of the Republican party, Lincoln and Coolidge, will serve as the only decorations of the convention hall in Kansas City. "There is no political significance in use of President Coolidge's picture being used on the platform," said Mrs. Alvin T. Hirt, chairman of the committee on decorations. "He is the leader of the party until somebody else is named to take his place." Both pictures will be eight or ten feet high, and will be placed on either side of the back of the platform, Bunting and a few American flags will serve as the only other decorations, both to be so placed as not to obstruct the view of spectators in the gallery.

COWS LUNCHED ONCE ON WILKINS' PLANE. Hatton, N. D.—(AP)—When Carl Ben Eielson and Capt. George Wilkins flew across the top of the world they missed one hazard which beset Eielson in his early flying days here. It was Eielson's habit to land his plane in a pasture near his father's home. Villagers recall with a chuckle how he was delayed for several days on one occasion when a group of cows ate the canvas from the wings of the machine.

WISCONSIN TO PLAY NOTRE DAME OCT. 19. Madison, Wis., May 29.—(AP)—The University of Wisconsin football team will play Notre Dame at South Bend, Ind., October 19, 1929, in the game which will dedicate the new stadium there, the athletic department announced today.

Club Girls Go to Camp on Pamlico. Farm Club Boys of Pitt County Also go to Camp Leach Today for Encampment. Forty or more 4-H club girls and sixteen farm club boys left this morning for Camp Leach where they will spend the remainder of the week in annual encampment.

They left the court house about 9 o'clock this morning after considerable time had been given over to the packing of foodstuffs and the arrangement of paraphernalia necessary to their comfort while in camp. The annual encampment periods of these young men and girls from the various homes and farms of the county command greater attention now than ever before, and Miss Ethel Nice, home demonstration agent of Pitt county, who has charge of the club girls, stated this year would be filled with more intense activity.

She said a great part of each day would be given over to a study of problems affecting the clubs and that great benefit should be derived by the girls. The sixteen boys, representing the only three farm clubs of the county, are under direction of E. F. Arnold, director of the Pitt County Department of Agriculture.

The same number attended the encampment last year and contributed largely to the success of the gathering. Members of the Greenville Rotary Club have been invited to visit the encampment Thursday evening.

Last-year members of the Kiwanis Club spent two or three hours with the boys and girls and were given one of the finest suppers they ever tasted. The Rotarians are expecting equally good treatment and go to Camp Leach with appetites whetted by glowing reports of the Kiwanis reception last year.

Before the French Council of State 11,000 cases are pending, many more than 10 years old.

LINCOLN AND COOLIDGE PICTURES AT G. O. P. MEET. Washington, (AP)—Pictures of the first and the most recent standard bearers of the Republican party, Lincoln and Coolidge, will serve as the only decorations of the convention hall in Kansas City.

"There is no political significance in use of President Coolidge's picture being used on the platform," said Mrs. Alvin T. Hirt, chairman of the committee on decorations. "He is the leader of the party until somebody else is named to take his place." Both pictures will be eight or ten feet high, and will be placed on either side of the back of the platform, Bunting and a few American flags will serve as the only other decorations, both to be so placed as not to obstruct the view of spectators in the gallery.

MEMORIAL DAY

Tomorrow the nation will pay mournful tribute to her soldier dead. In a hundred thousand of America's Holy places the leaders of the living will again invoke the peace of righteousness upon the slumber of those who lie so still, and muffled drums will beat and guns long silent will echo forth salute.

Let everyone pause tomorrow to pay tribute to the memory of the patriots upon whose sacrifice the greatness and security of our nation is built.

If some fell in one conflict and others in another, we need but remember that all shed their blood for love of country. In their willingness to lay down their lives for their homeland, patriotism found its highest expression. In silent graves throughout the earth today they sleep as the heroes of their own common country, the memory of their glorious deeds the heritage of our great nation.

It is but fitting that tomorrow we consecrate the way to these fallen heroes in deed, in devotion, and in decoration of their graves.

FARMERS' MARCHING CLUBS

The people of the country do not appreciate the deep feeling of the farmers. They think the demand for a square deal by the man with the hoe is confined to small territory and has no sound basis. A special from Chicago says, "Help Us or We Bolt" is the warning of the corn belt to the Republican party. The Republican Governor of Nebraska calls on the farmers to march on Kansas City one hundred thousand strong and demand action. Ex-Governor Fifer, of Illinois, urges the farmers, "Go to Kansas City. If you are turned down again, call a convention of farmers and consider what you will do." A convention of Republican farmers at Galesburg declared that "Herbert Hoover has not only evinced supreme ignorance of the problems of agriculture, but has refused to admit there is an agricultural problem. We will not accept any candidate standing for the policies of the present administration."

There's going to be a hot one at Kansas City and afterward. — News and Observer.

OUR FOUND GUILTY ON MURDER CHARGE

Sacramento, Cal., May 28—(AP)—Six convicts, charged with the murder of George Baker, a fellow prisoner, during the Thanksgiving Day riot at Folsom prison, late last night were found guilty, the verdict bringing the death penalty for all.

CHINESE DIFFERENCES SURVIVE IN PARIS

Paris, (AP)—Chinese from Canton do not mingle with the Chinese of Peking, even over the dinner table in Paris. It is a difference in taste as much as in politics that keeps them apart, an almond-eyed, restaurant owner the Latin quarter divulges. Upstairs the Cantonese eat the cuisine being that of southern China. Downstairs the dishes of Peking are served and it is seldom that a southern Chinese descends to taste them. Japanese clients patronize both sections of the restaurant, according to their tastes.

JAPAN AND AMERICA WILL FIGHT IT OUT

New York, May 29—(AP)—Japan and the United States will fight it out for the right to meet winners of the European zone Davis Cup competition. The Japanese gained the final bracket in the American zone yesterday by eliminating Canada, 3 to 1, at Montreal, 24 hours after the United States had beaten China in the other semi-final 5 to 0.

ABOUT TOWN

The financial success of the Billy Sunday campaign was made possible to a great extent by the splendid co-operation of people who attended services from other parts of Eastern North Carolina. Bruce Sugg, member of the local financial committee told the writer of this column today. "These people from the surrounding communities contributed liberally to this great cause," Mr. Sugg declared. "They realized what Greenville was up against in raising the necessary amount to make the services possible and the way they gave was very commendable. It will be years before this section of the country will have a revival campaign of such importance, but the influence of Billy Sunday will not be lost. The great truths of Bible which he presented in such clear-cut, forceful language will live in the hearts and lives of our people as long as memory continues. "Billy Sunday is one of America's immortals. He will go down in history as the greatest preacher of his age and Greenville and Eastern North Carolina in years to come will feel the presence of his spirit through the wonderful truths of his teachings made extant while here."

"I shall never forget Greenville and Pitt County people." These were the parting words of Homer Hammond, choir leader of the Billy Sunday party as he stood on the platform Sunday night and bade farewell to the three hundred members of his choir. Some of these singers had been in intimate touch with the former school teacher and educator of the state of New Jersey, and they did everything to make his stay here as pleasant as possible. "The little kindnesses shown me upon every hand when I first came to Greenville caused me to love and admire your people. They were always doing something for our pleasure and comfort and these attentions did not decrease during the final days of our campaign. "The prayers of the Billy Sunday party will always be with people of this wonderful locality just like we hope their prayers will be with and for us."

"Members of the Senate of the United States were right when they declined to adjourn today," a reader of the Reflector told the writer of this column today. "With numbers of issues yet to receive attention it would have been inadvisable to close down without giving them the consideration which they so surely deserve. "It is true the members of Congress are exhausted after their long labors, but they should not let this stand in the way of duty as it pertains to the disposition of business vitally affecting the different sections of the nation. "It is gratifying to note that the various issues are to receive the attention they deserve and that a desire to end their labors did not stand in the way of duty."

"Watch the Greenville baseball club." This is the challenge hurled at the other towns of the league as the Tobaccoists go about patching up weak places in their line-up preparatory to taking one of the most violent offensives of the season. "With several new players in camp it is natural to presume something out of the ordinary may be expected. One of these boys—a dapper, light haired youth—is credited with unusual efficiency with the willow—and fans are depending on him to come a cross with an untold number of trips around the circuit. "With proper support the locals should be able to pull out from that perch near the bottom of the standing of clubs column and give the public something worthy of attention and admiration."

"You have one of the best and fastest growing towns in this section of the state," a visitor informed the writer today. "With your resources you should be able to take your place with the larger cities of Eastern Carolina. "I do not know of any locality with a better trade territory to draw from. Then, too, you have many things to offer the home-seeker in the way of schools, churches, amusements and climate. "I repeat I can see no reason on earth why you should not soon take your rightful place among the thriving, populous cities of the state."

"Grow more hogs and poultry and increase your next year's earnings," is the advice sent out by the various boards of agriculture of the state at this time. "Hog raising has proven very profitable to hundreds of farmers throughout different parts of the country and there is no reason on earth why it should not prove equally as profitable to Pitt county growers. "The poultry industry has been gaining ground in this section for the past two or three years. We expect to see it increase more than ever during the next few years as farmers awaken to the importance of the extra money to be derived from this source."

QUALIFY FOR RACES AT INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA
Indianapolis, May 29—(AP)—Belated drivers had a last chance today to qualify their cars for the sixteenth annual 500-mile race which will be run tomorrow at the Indianapolis motor speedway. Two hours were set aside to permit five pilots to make the effort. One, however, Wilbur Shaw, who will drive Peter De Paolo's car, will be given until the morning of the race, if necessary. The machine was badly battered when De Paolo lost control and turned over last Saturday. De Paolo suffered bruises which will prevent his racing.

Other Presidential Campaigns

(By The Associated Press)

(This is the second of a series of sketches of presidential campaigns since 1856.)

The Republican convention of 1860 was held in Chicago May 16-18. Abraham Lincoln of Illinois was nominated for President and Hannibal Hamlin of Maine, for vice-President.

The Democratic convention in Baltimore June 18-23, nominated Stephen A. Douglas of Illinois for President and Herschel V. Johnson of Georgia for vice-President. In a stormy campaign marked by the participation of minority parties, the Republicans won. Three months later 11 southern states sent delegates to a convention at Montgomery, Ala., on Feb. 4, 1861, seceding from the Union and naming Jefferson Davis of Mississippi President, and Alexander H. Stephens of Georgia for vice-President. These officers served the Confederacy until its downfall.

CONGRESS TO PLAY CAROLINA CLAIMS

Raleigh, May 29—(AP)—By unanimous consent, Congress yesterday enacted into law the bill providing for the settlement of three claims involving more than $400,000 between the state of North Carolina and the United States government by which the Tar Heel state will receive a balance of about $118,000. This announcement was received yesterday by Governor McLean from members of the North Carolina delegation in Congress. The senate already approved the bill and hence on the signature of the President is necessary to make it become operative.

COTTON MARKET.

New York, May 29.—(AP)—Trading in the cotton market today was distributed largely to the evening-up of accounts for over the memorial day adjournment and fluctuations were comparatively restricted. After opening lower, prices rallied on apprehensions of showery weather in the south, but the advance was checked by realizing or liquidation and prices sagged off again later. The mid-afternoon market was dull, at net advances of about 1 to 5 points.

Futures closed steady, unchanged to three points lower; spot quiet, middling 21.05.

CHICAGO GRAIN

Chicago, May 29.—(AP)—Selling on the part of houses with eastern connections brought about a decided setback to wheat values today. Impetus to the selling was added to a forecast of unsettled weather in the Dakotas and of showers in Canada, as well as of weakness of export demand today for wheat from North America.

COTTON MARKET.

New York, May 28.—(AP)—Heavy buying of the motor shares, based in part on expectation of favorable second quarter earnings statements, turned the course of stock prices upward today after an early period of irregularity. Early declines of 1 to 5 points in many issues were cut down, or wiped out, and more than two-score issues were marked up 1 to nearly 15 points. Trading was fairly heavy for a pre-holiday session, sales crossing the 2,000,000 share mark before the end of the third hour.

Wall Street apparently had recovered from the shock of a 6 1-2 per cent call money rate yesterday, the highest in seven years. Call loans renewed today at 6 per cent and there appeared to be a plentiful supply of funds available at that figure. There was no calling of loans during the morning, indicating that the banks were in a position to meet the heavy holiday and month-end demand for funds.

The day's business news was rather mixed in character. Signing of the tax bill by President Coolidge was widely commented upon as a bullish factor, although the cut in the corporation tax was not as large as many had hoped for earlier in the year. The weekly steel trade reviews reported a further slackening in demand and output, but prices held fairly steady.

Dodge Bros., preferred, which has been yielding nearly 10 per cent at recent levels, ran up 13 1-4 points to a new peak at 83, while the common advanced about 3 points. Talk of a large increase in sales and huge merger rumors involving Ford and others.

Other companies accompanied the advance. Chrysler extended its gain seven points by touching a new peak at 87 5-8. Studebaker General Motors, Hudson, Hupp and Pack Trucks advanced 2 1-2 to 1-2 points.

The closing was firm. Total sales approximated 3,300,000 shares.

PEEPING GALLERY IN HOUSTON HALL

Houston, (AP)—Every person who can climb two flights of stairs may get a glimpse of the Democratic national convention.

An observation gallery will be built at the front of the building. Visitors will be permitted to file up the stairs to the gallery and to stand on the little platform a moment or two. After a hurried look over the auditorium spectators must file down another stairway and leave the hall.

Those who wish to listen to the speeches may go to the "hospitality house," a wooden structure opposite the auditorium, whither loud speakers will carry the proceedings. The hospitality house will accommodate 3,000 persons.

WALTER HAGEN SEVERELY CRITICIZED IN IRELAND

Newcastle, Northern Ireland, May 29.—(AP)—Walter Hagen, who was criticized by the British press two years ago for what was regarded as unsportsmanlike conduct, was the center of a similar storm in Ireland today.

He suddenly withdrew from the Irish open golf championship, starting today. He explained that he was too tired because of his continental tour to compete. Some golfers, seeing an outstanding competitor eliminated, rejoiced, but the golfing union of Ireland fumed.

Alan Kidd, secretary of the union charged that Hagen had broken faith and violation agreement to play in the Irish open provided an exhibition match was arranged for him in Dublin last Saturday. The exhibition match was arranged and Hagen playing with I. Quinn, Dublin professional, lost to two Irish professionals, W. Nolan and W. Healey.

Hagen, in telegraphing his withdrawal, proposed to contribute his share of the proceeds to the match to any Irish charity the committee might name. The committee, however, decided not to accept Hagen's money because it considered his action unsportsmanlike.

VOL. 1 May 29, 1928 NO. 2

Published in the interest of better homes in Greenville and vicinity, by Electric Service & Supply Co., J. E. Kirkpatrick, Editor.

June is here with the usual crop of college graduates.

A traveling De Luxe electric iron would make an appropriate gift for the June graduate.

College education never hurts a fellow if he has sense enough to go ahead and learn something after he graduates.

Several out of town ladies during the Billy Sunday meetings, found time to call in and see the General Electric Refrigerators.

How did your son get on in College? Must have done pretty well in languages. The bills for this term were $10 for Latin, $10 for Greek and $100 for Scotch.

Mrs. W. E. Woolard says, "I am very proud of my G. E. Refrigerator, and I always have an abundant supply of ice now."

J. J. PERKINS

To the People of Pitt County.

I greatly appreciated the vote given me for Judge of the County Court four years ago, and I shall again be a candidate in the Democratic Primary on Saturday, June 2, 1928.

I am not a politician and I do not represent any faction. I do not ask for this office for personal profit, but in order to render service for the public good. To help make Pitt County a better place in which to live is my ambition.

If I am nominated and elected to this office, it shall be my purpose to give everyone a square deal, and to administer justice with equality,

SENATE BODY SCORES DEAL OF OIL MEN

Investigating Committee Files Report Denouncing Sinclair And Others.

Washington, May 29.—(AP)—Bristling with pungent terms of denunciation of the naval oil leases and the Continental Trading Company deal, a report supplemental to that approved yesterday by the Teapot Dome committee was filed today by Senator Nye, Republican, North Dakota, chairman of this Senate investigating group.

It went into the record along with the report of Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana, who prosecuted the oil investigation and whose findings characterized Robert W. Stewart, Harry F. Sinclair, H. M. Blackmen and James E. O'Neill as "conspirators" and denounced the entire deal as a "contemptible private steal."

"Never has the world known a case involving a degree of fraud, quite evident bribery, theft, conspiracy and corruption to compare with what has come to be known as the Teapot Dome-Elk Hills-Continental Trading Company case," the Nye report said.

"The leases involved in the case are estimated to have been worth not less than $600,000,000, and were consummated to use the language of the Supreme Court of the United States, 'by conspiracy, corruption and fraud.'"

"The investigation has uncovered the slimmest of slimy trails beaten by privilege. The investigation has shown, let us hope, privilege at its worst. The trial is one of dishonesty, greed, violation of law, secrecy, concealment, evasion, falsehood and cunning."

"It is a trail of betrayals by trusted and presumably honorable men—betrayals of a government, of certain business interests and the people who trusted and honored them; it is a trail showing a flagrant degree of the exercise of political power and influence, and the power and influence of great wealth upon individuals and political parties; it is a trail of despoilers and schemers far more dangerous to the well being of our nation and our democracy than all those who have been deported from our shores in all time as undesirable citizens. And in the end the story is one of the crushing of brilliant careers when finally the light was played upon those who schemed those unhealthy schemes born in darkness."

"The acquittal verdicts in the fall-Doheny and the Fall-Sinclair trial have been considered most deplorable failures of justice on every side, excepting only the side of privilege. These failures have been of such nature as to prove the need for such changes in court procedure that will make advantage no more easily available to the criminal of great means than to the offender who comes out of the most lowly classes."

"Justice has been proven not a thing to be applied to and enjoyed by all alike, but, instead, a commodity to be bought and otherwise influenced by wealth, and able lawyers in the Congress and out would contribute mightily to the cause of our democracy if they would devote themselves to such legislation as would make justice reach out to one and all alike."

Senator Nye said there was a prospect for "a general house cleaning in the oil industry." He held also that the investigation was bound "to bring some measure of political reforms."

Oklahoma Lady Gives Interesting Account of Long Use of Black-Draught in Her Home.

Sageyah, Okla.—"I have taken Black-Draught ever since I was a child, and can recommend it as a splendid medicine for family use," says Mrs. Cora Maberry, of this place. "My mother used it, in bringing up her family, and after I had a home of my own, I continued to use it, as I thought it was especially good to give the children."

"My children did not mind taking Black-Draught, and so when they got upset with stomach spells, or were constipated, I gave them Black-Draught tea."

"If I found that they were taking cold, I was quick to start giving them Black-Draught, as it helped them to throw off the impurities which caused the trouble."

"My children are all grown now and have homes of their own, but I still keep Black-Draught in the house and use it myself when I wake up in the morning feeling dull and 'headache', and have a bad taste in my mouth."

"Black-Draught is a simple remedy for constipation, and I prefer it to others because it is purely vegetable. I always feel better after I have taken a course of it."

West Virginia Voters Go To Polls Today

Charleston, W. Va., May 29.—(AP)—Voters in this state went to the polls today to designate their choice for national and state executives.

Senator Guy D. Goff, Republican, sought endorsement for the presidential nomination as a favorite son. Arranged against him was Herbert Hoover.

In the Democratic scuffle for national convention delegates, Gov. Alfred E. Smith of New York and Senator James A. Reed of Missouri were involved.

The Democratic fight was a direct Smith and anti-Smith affairs with no delegates actively supporting the Missourian. A complete slate of Smith delegates was placed in the field by C. W. Osenton, Democratic national committeeman for West Virginia and an anti-Smith slate also made its appearance, pledged to go to Houston uninducted, regardless of the preferential result.

J. H. Pou Defends Lawrence Today

Pittsboro, May 29.—(AP)—James H. Pou, who spoke more than six hours yesterday in arguing to a Chatham county jury that his client, W. Herbert Lawrence, Durham contractor, was not guilty of the murder of Mrs. Annie Terry, as charged, was prepared to speak at least two hours more today as court convened for the twelfth day of the trial.

Following a two-hour address by W. F. Horton for the State, Pou began his talk to the jury at 11:10 o'clock, and with the exception of a limited mid-day recess, he spoke continuously until 6:15 o'clock. At that time, he indicated he was ready to go to supper, if Judge Romulus A. Nunn had no objection, whereupon the judge adjourned court until this morning. Mr. Pou was apparently fresh and in as good voice when he paused as he was at the beginning.

With six additional arguments scheduled, four for the defense and two for the State, it appeared today that the case would probably not reach the jury before late tomorrow or possibly early Thursday.

TWO KILLED BY BOLT OF LIGHTNING

Wilson, May 29.—(AP)—Will Coley and Jarvis Minshew, farmers, were killed last night, and Carrie Saul, 20 year old girl, was injured when lightning struck the Coley home near Eureka.

Miss Saul's face was burned but her injuries were not thought to be serious.

The bolt struck the front part of Coley's home and killed Minshew, who was standing on the front porch. Coley was standing on the back porch, Miss Saul inside the house. It was said that the bolt seared her face as it flashed by.

The house was rocked, chimneys were tumbled and weatherboards were splintered by the lightning.

Woman's Status Before Clubs At San Antonio, Tex.

San Antonio, Tex., May 29.—(AP)—A contest for leadership of the General Federation of Women's Clubs drawn largely on the issue of a "home-woman against a professional woman, loomed here today at the biennial convention of the organization.

Mrs. Edward Franklin White of Indianapolis, a lawyer, clerk of the supreme court of Indiana, at present first vice-president of the federation and for eight years legal adviser of the organization, is the candidate of those who favor placing a professional woman at the helm for at least one term.

Advocates of a "home-woman" for President are rallying to the banner of Mrs. John F. Sippel of Baltimore. Since she entered federation work she has headed her own local club and acted as chairman of the resolutions committee for the federation. At present she is chairman of finance for the general federation.

EQUALIZATION FUND TO COME UP IN JUNE

Raleigh, May 29.—(AP)—Counties of North Carolina will likely be notified June 1 as to extent to which they will participate in the $3,350,000 school equalization fund, members of the state board of equalization announced last night after holding a session yesterday.

No announcement until the work of the board is completed. Property valuation and school costs, determined by the state board of education, are factors determining the amount a county is to get.

TWO YOUNG WOMEN KILLED WHEN TRAIN HITS AUTOMOBILE

DOUBT REPORT OF LANDING OF DIRIGIBLE ITALIA ON THE ISLAND IN SPITZBERGEN

search its east coast and then go on to north east land where he thinks that General Noble and his party landed.

Tass, the official Soviet news agency, has explained that messages from Siberia reporting the Italia in distress which were picked up in California, were broadcast in response to a wireless message sent to all Siberian stations by the Soviet Aviation Commission.

Prof. Golovostnikoff of the Far Eastern University at Vladivostok presumably was ordered by President Chukalev of Khabarovsk to broadcast a message in five languages instructing all Siberian authorities to rush aid to the Italia in event she were located.

Every radio station in Norway and Russia, particularly in Siberia, tried to catch some radio message from the Italia but nothing was heard.

A message indicating that the Citta Di Milano, which was blocked by ice in an attempt to search for the Italia, was fighting a snow storm was intercepted. It was addressed to "Marina Roma" and was in Italian. The naval radio station at Cordova, Alaska, furnished this translation of the message: "We are north of Point Barren about 80 latitude north. We are trying to find a passage toward the east. We have met a violent storm and ice and blizzards of snow."

In Rome, Genoa, Florence and Leshorn, Italy, 12,000 new telephones have been installed in three years, making the total 49,144.
