

FORMER VICE CONSUL LAID TO REST HERE

Funeral Services for Walter Wilson Conducted Here This Afternoon.

Funeral services for Walter B. Wilson, Jr., American Vice Consul at Shanghai, China, who was drowned in Whangpoo River, near Shanghai, May 1, were held at Cherry Hill cemetery at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon. The services, conducted by Rev. L. B. Jones, pastor of Jarvis Memorial Methodist church, were attended by a large number of sorrowing friends and an elaborate floral tribute attested to the high esteem in which the deceased was held in this city and section.

Walter B. Wilson, Jr., who was the son of Mr. B. W. Wilson, was born in this city, October 15, 1884. Until he entered government service during the world war, Consul Wilson had always made his home in this city and enjoyed a great host of friends throughout this section. He received his first education at Horner Military School and the University of North Carolina, after which he took a business course at Poughkeepsie, N. Y. Following completion of the latter Mr. Wilson returned to Greenville and was associated with his father in the brokerage business here and for eight years was assistant treasurer of Pitt county under his father. He was a member of St. Paul's Episcopal church, and in addition was active in civic, fraternal and social circles.

With five brothers already serving as commissioned officers in the United States army, Mr. Wilson volunteered his services immediately after America entered the world war and received an appointment as assistant paymaster of the merchant marine. At the close of hostilities he was made foreign representative of the Shipping Board and his duties carried him to several South American and European countries. While on a trip around the world in behalf of the Shipping Board, Mr. Wilson received an appointment to the consulate in Shanghai. Shortly after assuming his duties at the consulate, he was promoted to the position of Vice Consul, which he held until the time of his death.

The deceased is survived by his father and his step-mother, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wilson, of this city; five brothers: Col. Durwood S. Wilson, Fort Benning, Ga.; Majors Frank W. and Bascom L. Wilson, Washington, D. C.; Captain William R. Wilson, Los Angeles, Cal.; Captain Carl B. Wilson, Honolulu, Hawaii, and two half-brothers, Francis Q. and James B. Wilson, of this city. In addition to his immediate family he is survived by a large number of close relatives.

Corinth Again Shaken By Quake

Athens, Greece, June 7.—(AP)—The city of Corinth, struggling to repair the damage caused in several recent disastrous earthquakes again was shaken this afternoon. Many houses collapsed and clouds of smoke overhung the town, terrifying the populace. A volcano eruption was believed responsible for the quake.

Lindy Off Again

Buffalo, N. Y., June 7.—(AP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, who landed at the Buffalo airport yesterday and remained here overnight because of inclement weather, took off this afternoon for an unannounced destination. Major Thomas G. Lanphier and Col. Henry Breckinridge were with him.

Child Drowns In Ditch Near City

Lester Earle, fifteen-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fountain Stocks, who live on the Stantonsburg road about five miles from Greenville, was drowned in a ditch near the Stocks' home Tuesday. Funeral services were conducted at Reedy Branch church near Winterville yesterday at 12 o'clock by Rev. John Little. Burial was made in the church yard. The body was found by a searching party in a two foot ditch, containing eight inches of water, four hours after the child was missed. Mrs. Stocks had taken the little boy to a corn patch where she was working. While she was busy, he strayed off. She discovered his absence a short time later and search began immediately. The ditch where the body was found was used for drainage purposes and was concealed by a dense growth of vegetation.

AMERICANS STILL STAY AT PEKING

Legation Has No Intention Sending Nationals to Different Points for Safety.

Peking, June 7.—(AP)—With travel impracticable Americans remained in Peking today and the legation had no intention of evacuating them to other points which some might consider safer. Nationalist flags were flying, signaling the change of the regime from the dictatorship of Marshal Chang Tso-Lin to the Kiangtong. There was no disorder and evacuation of Americans was regarded as unnecessary. Peking was isolated by railway, no trains were running to Tientsin and no mails from the outside, to exclude foreigners from the Chinese armies all the city gates, except one, were closed. The automobile route to Tientsin was regarded as risky since non-descript soldiers were roaming the countryside without leaders. If Japanese reports from Mukden were to be relied upon Chang Tso-Lin, injured in a bomb outrage when he fled there, was alive and improving.

PLAN HOP-OFF FOR BRISBANE EARLY FRIDAY

Delay in Filling Gas Tanks of Southern Cross Causes Slight Deferment.

Suva, Fiji, June 7.—(AP)—Owing to delay in filling the fuel tanks of the Southern Cross the plane was made safe for the night at Nasel Beach late today and the fliers announced they anticipated taking off for Australia about 2 p. m. Friday (6 p. m. Thursday, Pacific Coast time).

The plane with its fuel and oil tanks fully loaded, was hauled above the high water mark and made fast for the night. The monoplane's resting place was 16 miles from Suva. Its pilots, Captain Charles Kingsford-Smith and Charles Ulm, Australians, returned to Suva with the announcement that everything was certain to be ready for a take off at 2 p. m. tomorrow. The plane was to have hopped off at 3 p. m. today, Suva time, but when the steamer Pioneer, loaned by the government of Fiji, arrived at Nasel Beach with 800 gallons of gasoline in drums the work of transferring the fuel to shore was made tediously slow by a heavy surf. By the time the fuel had been landed and the plane's tanks filled, it was too dark and the tide too high to permit the take off. This is the first time the Southern Cross has been unable to move on the approximate scheduled hour set for it since it started from Oakland, California, for Sydney, Australia.

Captain Kingsford-Smith has estimated that once in the air the Southern Cross should be able to cover the 1,762 miles between Suva and Brisbane in about twenty hours. The Southern Cross left Suva for Nasel at 11:04 a. m. yesterday amid an enthusiastic send-off by Europeans and natives.

FUEL PLANE FOR FLIGHT OVER OCEAN

Monoplane Friendship May Get Off From New Foundland Today.

Therapsey, June 7.—(AP)—The monoplane Friendship made three unsuccessful attempts this forenoon to take off from the harbor here for its projected flight across the Atlantic. The plane was apparently too heavily laden and the wind too light to enable it to rise. The plane, bearing Miss Amelia Earhart, Boston social worker, as passenger, and Wilmer Stultz pilot, and Lou Gordon, mechanic, was loosened from its moorings again at 10:30 a. m. eastern standard time, and preparations were made for a fourth attempt. Carrying a full load of gasoline the Friendship rested heavily on the water as it was towed out for the first attempts this morning. The wind was light and shifting and contributed little buoyant force as the motors pulled the heavy craft over the surface. After the third futile attempt to rise it was decided to wait a little in the hope that the breeze would freshen during the day.

Trepassey, N. F., June 7.—(AP)—The work of completing the fueling of the trans-Atlantic destined Kokker monoplane Friendship, was stated at 7:30 o'clock (local time) this morning.

The wind which had held the fliers here since early in the week had shifted to a light and favoring northeast breeze, although the sky was cloudy and water smooth. Despite advice of unfavorable weather near Europe, it seemed possible that the fliers might get away to an early start.

Despite weather reports indicating unfavorable conditions for the last part of their flight, Wilmer Stultz, co-pilot, and Lou Gordon, mechanic, would take off today.

The night was clear and favorable weather was forecast for today. The westerly winds which for two days made a take-off impossible had shifted into the north making it possible for the plane to get the long run through the narrow harbor necessary to lift it off the water.

The eagerness with which Stultz and Miss Earhart received all news of the projected flight to Europe of Miss Mabel Boll in Charles Levine's Columbia indicated that her plans for an immediate hop-off had influenced their decision for a start today. Miss Boll had announced her intention of trying to beat them across the water. Stultz, who at one time was reported as signed to pilot Miss Boll on her projected ocean hop, seemed eager to learn who the Columbia's pilot would be. He said that the Bellanca plane was faster than the Friendship.

The Friendship's crew yesterday again surveyed the harbor, studying the wind direction and plotting the course they must follow through the bay to get the big pontoon equipped plane off the water. They also tested the two radio sets they are taking along, and found both sending and receiving set in perfect condition. Stultz is chief pilot, navigator and radio operator but he said either Miss Earhart or Gordon was competent to relieve him at the controls when it was necessary to send messages or consult his charts.

The attack is alleged to have occurred Saturday on a farm in Newland township, 14 miles from here. The negro was a tenant on the farm of the woman who is a widow.

WHERE BIRDMEN SIGHTED FIJI

This stretch of coast, Benga Harbor in the Fiji Islands, met the view of the Southern Cross, Australlambound from the United States, near the end of its 3,200-mile flight from Honolulu, the longest over-water jump on record. It was directly on the route to Suva.

Two New Chapters Of Chicago Crime Report Given Publicity Today

Chicago, June 7.—(AP)—Two new chapters of a sensational report on Chicago crime were made public today by the Illinois Association for Criminal Justice. They charged the growth of a gambling syndicate which at one time reached into many other cities; and they recited in detail going back to the early '90s "the rule of the underworld and the rise of its overlords."

The association's survey, which has been financed in part by the Carnegie foundation, points to three major conclusions at the end of this rapid survey of organized gambling. "The first fact," the report said, "is the community and persistency of a form of social life organized around personalities who play an important role, because the relationships in the underworld of gambling, vice and crime are personal and feudal, rather than formal and institutional."

The second fact is that every change in political administration (from 1907 to date) effected a change often amounting to a revolution in the existing order in the gambling world.

The third fact is that gambling, in resisting attacks of reformers and in meeting new situations created by changes in administration, seems to have become more solidified in organization, and more flexible in adaptations to new situations, and more concealed in its operations. In other words, it is the ineffective efforts of the community to defend itself against vice and gambling that gives it its organized character.

Practically, reform in the past has amounted to little more than a re-statement. New tactics need to be worked out in order to take into account the complexity of the situation.

Climaxing the present part of the report, the recent bombings of homes of certain city officials were described under a section headed "Thompson and the wide-open town." The report said that it circles close to Al Capone, it was known he had contributed substantially to the Thompson mayoralty campaign and that after Thompson's election he moved his headquarters from the suburb of Cicero to the Metropole Hotel on Michigan Boulevard.

Announce Plans For Third Aerial Trip To Antarctic

New York, June 7.—(AP)—A busy summer in the antarctic was promised today with announcement of plans for a third aerial expedition to explore that region. Douglas George Jeffrey, retired British naval commander and veteran of one of the South Polar expeditions of the late Sir Ernest Shackleton announced he would head an expedition of about 25 men and two planes, leaving for the antarctic in September and after exploring the south-polar summer in exploration returning in May.

Commander Jeffrey said his expedition would in no way conflict with the expeditions of Commander Richard E. Byrd and Captain George Wilkins but would complement them. The expedition is being financed by Americans whose names are withheld. The commander has been in this country since March.

He expects to number among his party four other members of the Shackleton expedition. The four are Captain Arthur Argles, navigator for Mabel Boll's projected flight to Europe; George Vibert Douglas, of McGill University, Toronto, a geologist; Dr. A. H. Macklin, of Dundee, Scotland, a surgeon, and J. W. S. Marr, of Aberdeen, Scotland, a biologist.

Stewart Case Is Continued At Washington

Washington, June 7.—(AP)—Arguments on the government's motion to strike out defense testimony intended to show that the Senate air investigating committee which questioned Robert W. Stewart was not composed of a quorum, were continued today in the oil man's trial for refusing to answer questions asked by the committee. District Attorney Leo A. Rover sought to eliminate the testimony of Edward J. Bullock, vice-president of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, that only three Senators were present when Stewart refused to answer. The defense contended the lack of a quorum deprived the examination of its legality. Before the arguments started Ingham Mack, assistant clerk of the Senate committee, testified over Rover's objection that he did not know how many Senators were present when Stewart refused to answer questions.

ROSENWALD CONTRIBUTES TO NEGRO COLLEGE

Salisbury, June 7.—(AP)—A contribution of $10,000 toward the $100,000 campaign of Livingstone College, local negro institution, will be made by Julius Rosenwald, of Chicago, it was announced at the closing of the school last night. The gift is contingent upon the raising of the remainder by friends and alumni, it was said.

PRESIDENTIAL RACE IN N. C. IS UNCERTAIN

Prophecies of Strength of Smith and Hull Seemed Utterly Futile Today.

Raleigh, June 7.—(AP)—The democratic county conventions of Saturday held first place in political speculation today, but reports from various parts of the state indicated that any preconvention prophecies might well prove futile. While Hull and Smith headquarters were appealing to Democrats to oppose and support the candidacy of the New York governor in statements handed the press and through advertisements, a belief was apparently growing that North Carolina's stand will not be definitely determined until the state convention meets here Tuesday.

Zeb Vance Turlington, state manager for Representative Cordell Hull and considered a spokesman for anti-Smith forces, has called upon anti-Smith Democrats in every county to demand that their conventions take a direct vote upon the candidacy of Smith. In a statement published today, he quoted Senator Simmons as saying Smith's strength was waning in other parts of the country.

Page advertisements, signed by the Smith committee, W. B. Jones, Raleigh lawyer, as chairman, have been published in several of the principal newspapers, to reply to attacks made by political opponents of the governor.

One county, Clay, reported holding its convention on Saturday, the day of the primary, and the naming of a Smith. In the other 99 counties of the state, the meetings are called for Saturday, most of them for 11 a. m. A. W. Brooks, of Greensboro, who has been selected as the keynote of the state convention, was in Raleigh last night, the guest of Governor McLean.

MUCH DAMAGE REPORTED IN FLOOD AREA

Six Dead Counted in Southern Coastal Plain Section Today.

Montgomery, Ala., June 7.—(AP)—Inhabitants of the southern coastal plain waited patiently today for the retreat of flood waters that temporarily have deprived many of their homes and wreaked uncounted damage for the second time within two months.

The burden of murky torrents that for two days paralyzed transportation systems and communication lines in parts of four states was slowly emptying itself into the gulf, revealing extensive crop damage, destruction of scores of bridges, many of them concrete, and a good sized refugee problem in Crenshaw county, Alabama.

Their national guardsmen were on emergency duty over two small tent cities built in the wake of tornadoes at Sweetwater and Gravel Hill, where some thirty dwellings were demolished although none was killed. Clothing had been sent to LuVerne, nearby.

Six dead were counted in a period of two days through the affected zone, which extended from middle Georgia into Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana but clearing skies indicates that immediate relief was in sight.

Plan Non-Stop Flight to N. Y. From San Diego

San Diego, Cal., June 7.—(AP)—Another attempt to take-off on a 2,250-mile non-stop flight to New York was planned here today by Lee Schoenhair and Harry Tucker, provided weather conditions were favorable.

They postponed an effort to break the trans-continental non-stop flight record yesterday because of adverse weather reported in the east.

Shot By Clergyman

Bishop William A. Guerry of the Episcopal diocese of South Carolina, was shot and seriously wounded at Charleston by the Rev. J. H. Woodward of Brunswick, Ga., believed to have been mentally deranged, who then killed himself.

BOLL PLANE FORCED BACK BY HEAVY FOG

Monoplane Columbia Fails in First Attempt to Reach Orchard Beach Today.

Curtis Field, N. Y., June 7.—(AP)—After six hours in the air during part of which time it was lost in the fog, the monoplane Columbia returned to Curtis field today, having been unable to find its way to Old Orchard, Me., on the first leg of its trans-Atlantic flight.

Miss Mabel Boll, sponsor of the flight, expressed disappointment that the first short leg of the long journey should have been unsuccessful, but said that this would have no effect on her determination to go through with the ocean flight. She said that if weather conditions improved another take-off would be made this afternoon for Old Orchard.

The Columbia, loaned to Miss Boll for her trans-Atlantic flight by Charles A. Levine, who flew in it to Germany with Clarence Chamberlin last summer, hopped off from Roosevelt field at 6:14 o'clock, daylight time, this morning. When it failed to arrive at Old Orchard, anxiety began to be felt. Almost exactly six hours after the take-off the silver monoplane suddenly appeared once more over the Long Island field and dropped out of the sky to a graceful landing.

Miss Boll, who hopes to be the first woman to fly across the ocean, was accompanied on today's flight by Oliver L. Boutillier and Arthur Argles, who will be co-pilots on the ocean flight, and Andrew Surin, a mechanic.

TWO TRAINMEN DIE IN WRECK

Several Passengers Injured When Train Runs Through Open Switch.

Norfolk, Va., June 7.—(AP)—Engineer Henry T. Morgan of Portsmouth and his negro fireman were killed early last night when Atlantic Coast Line train No. 41, southbound from Portsmouth, crashed into an open switch near Whaley, Va., one member of the crew and several passengers were injured. They are: Elmer T. Rowe, Portsmouth, flagman, severely bruised about the body and legs, taken to a Suffolk hospital.

Miss Lucian Baker, Fairmont, N. C., internal injuries and severe shock, taken to a Rocky Mount, N. C., hospital. Mrs. J. F. Burroughs, St. Cloud, Fla., one shoulder injured and her sister-in-law, Miss Lydia Burroughs, also of St. Cloud, shock and bruises.

Miss Hettie Lee Winchester, Tarboro, N. C., shock and bruises. Conductor E. S. St. George, in Suffolk last night, declined to discuss the wreck, but information from persons at the scene was that the train had traveled about two hundred yards after splitting the switch. The engine and tender turned on their side, it was said, virtually burying the engineer and fireman under an avalanche of coal. The coaches remained upright after they had been derailed.

P. & N. STILL NOT CERTAIN ABOUT ACTION

Petition of the Steam Lines for Joint Defense With Commission Not Examined.

Charlotte, June 7.—(AP)—Attorneys for the Piedmont and Northern railway have not yet decided what action they will take on the petition of steam railways for intervention in the electric line's suit for an injunction against the interstate commerce commission. It was stated here today.

W. F. O'B. Robinson attorney for the Piedmont and Northern, said today that he had not yet seen the petition of steam lines that he made joint defendants with the commission. Until that time, he said, he could not say whether or not the petition would be fought. "It will either be fought hard or not at all," he said.

The petition was filed by the Southern Railway, principal opponent of the P. & N., the Seaboard Air Line, Charleston and Western Carolina, Atlantic Coast Line, Louisville and Nashville, Carolina, Clinchfield and Ohio, and Clinchfield Northern.

The steam lines yesterday filed in federal district court at Greenville, S. C., application for authority to intervene in the P. & N.'s suit to compel the interstate commerce commission to grant them the right to build certain extensions.

The principal contention of the petitioning steam lines is that vital interests of theirs are directly or indirectly affected.

A special court of three judges of the federal district court, will sit for the hearing on the two principal issues raised in the plaintiff's complaint. At that hearing, the attorney general of the United States and the interstate commerce commission will be joint defendants, and, if granted permission, the petitioning steam lines also will be joint defendants. Regardless of the nature of the statutory court's decision, the United States Supreme Court will be appealed to directly for an ultimate decision, attorneys for both sides announced.

The P. & N. contends in its complaint that the commission lacks jurisdiction over this railroad, because it is declared to be an electrically operated interurban line rendering a distinctive service different from that rendered by steam railways, and also because of the character of the construction project, which is declared to be work incidental to carrying out a major project definitely planned and partially completed before enactment of the transportation act. This set gives the commission authority over new construction of railway mileage.

Mrs. M. A. Rouse Died This Morning

Mrs. M. A. Rouse 81, died this morning at 7:45 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. T. Nelson, on Dickinson avenue. She was taken sick yesterday morning.

The total amount so far contributed is $44.50. The sum of $115.00 is necessary to insure the attendance of all children of the city between the ages of six and ten years. It is hoped the total sum may be raised during the remainder of the present week.

LOCALS TAKE ELECTIC AFFAIR FROM KINSTON

Greenville won the first game of the series from Kinston at the fair grounds yesterday in one of the most electric contests seen on the local lot this season. After eleven innings, Greenville managed to send a runner over the rubber in the twelfth, cinch the game, 11 to 10.

Kinston started out like wildfire, stringing two runs in the first frame, and in the third, three in the fifth, and in the seventh and three in the eighth. Greenville trailed with one run until the fifth inning when they tied four more.

Kinston came back strong in the seventh when Parks hit for the circuit, increasing their lead to two runs. Greenville, however, managed to knot the count in the same inning. Both clubs added three more tallies each in the eleventh, double by Finlator and singles by Williams and Jones in the twelfth finished Greenville with the necessary run to cinch the victory.

Both clubs used a majority of the members of their pitching staff, all being hit freely and with greater gusto than any other game seen here this season. The locals secured a grand total of 18 hits against Kinston.

Kinston will conclude the series here this afternoon after which manager Joliff and his followers will go to Wilmington to wind up the week's activities.

With Wilmington occupying the top berth with Goldsboro, the outcome of today's contest will be watched with more than passing interest.

TIGHT RACE IN NATIONAL IS PROMISED

(By the Associated Press) The National League race was a bit tighter today as the result of a let-up in inclement weather. Brooklyn enjoyed a fine batting afternoon against Ray Kolp. Carl Mays and Jim Edwards as Douglas McWeeny turned back Cincinnati's forces monotonously for seven innings. Something cracked in McWeeny's service at this point and the Reds piled up five purely decorative runs in two innings as Rube Ehrhardt rushed to the rescue. The damage already had been done, however, and the Robins were able to stand on their eight runs.

Brooklyn's winning margin was furnished by Del Bissonette's tenth homer of the season off Edwards in the seventh with two on base. Bissonette went into the league lead ahead of Hack Wilson and Jim Bottomley. The score was 8 to 5.

The fighting Cardinals are thankful for whatever success they are able to take only slight comfort from their 11 to 6 victory over the Giants at the Polo grounds yesterday. McKechnie's men rallied gamely to win but this howing of Grover Alexander in the first two innings convinced the baseball saps that the veteran right hander will be useless to the St. Louis club for a few weeks more at least.

The Cubs improved their position somewhat by defeating the Philadelphia 5 to 3 but Joe McCarthy, in panic as the home team began to hit the seventh, used up Malone, Dush and Jones in turning the victory.

The first game of the Pittsburgh-Boston series was rained out as were two American League fixtures, Washington at Chicago and Boston at Detroit.

Herb Penneck obtained revenge against the Indians for the game they won from him at the Yankee stadium last month. He clicked off his ninth victory of the season 8 to 3.

Howard Ebanke and Eddie Rommel of the Athletics failed to halt the young sluggers of Dan Howley who won 5 to 2.

Pirates Crawl Into Top Berath With Goldbugs

(By the Associated Press) By bunching hits in the ninth, Wilmington overcame a two run lead, defeated Goldsboro, 5 to 4, and crawled into the top berth of the Eastern Carolina league with their rivals. In terest is today focused on the teams, in that they are to take the field in an attempt to dislodge each other from the hammock.

While these clubs struggled for first position, Fayetteville strengthened their hold on third place in the presentage column with a win over Rocky Mount, 4 to 2.

Twelve innings were necessary for Greenville to eke out a 11 to 10 victory over Kinston. Heavy snot work on the part of both camps kept fans on their toes as margins were made and quickly covered throughout the tilt. Three pitchers were pressed into service by both teams in a desperate effort to prevent the winning score from being pushed over the rubber.

Smith Campaign Leader Denies Recent Charges

Raleigh, June 7.—(AP)—Charges that campaign propaganda was being sent out under the Congressional rank of Senator F. M. Simmons and that the Hull organization has paid workers operating in North Carolina were made by W. B. Jones, chairman of the Smith Presidential campaign committee, today in a statement which denied that any worker for the New York governor had received pay.

Every penny of the money expended in the campaign, the state said, "has been expended for legitimate purposes, principally newspaper advertising made necessary in order to present to the people of North Carolina the truth about Governor Smith."

Mr. Jones charged that Zeb Vance Turlington, manager for Cordell Hull, and Frank Hampton, Senator Simmons' secretary have paid workers all over the state who are fighting Smith and advocating first Hull and then anyone to suit the fancy of the victim; that Senator Simmons, through Frank Hampton, is prostituting the high office of United States Senator, which belong to Twenty-three bands and drum corps will march in the Blumebau parade Monday night, replacing in a measure any blare that may have been lost when wild west stage coach holdups were banned for psychological reasons.

Flags, streamers and welcome signs constitute an added burden for trolley polls and cables. Flowers bloom in window boxes throughout the business district. Pedestrians will have the right-of-way in the convention hall area.

The home of a Democratic presidential candidate will be the scene of several social events. Senator and Mrs. James A. Reed have arranged house parties, informal luncheons, teas and dinners for Republican and Democratic visitors. The Reeds have not decided whether they will go to Houston.

A claim for consideration as the party's most consistent convention-er is being made by E. S. Richardson, of Marshallville, Ga., negro delegate from the third Congressional district. Now 66 years old, Richardson has attended every Republican convention except one since 1884. He is for Hoover.

Miner Had Dark Spots Before Eyes. Felt Dull, Tired, Achy. Doesn't Get Down Any More.

Somerset, Ky.—Telling how he had known of the merit of Theodor's Black-Draught since he was a boy, Mr. Albert Garland, of this city, recently said:

"I used to work in the mines, but lost quite a bit of time on account of the sick spells I had. I would get to having a bad taste in my mouth, and a very dull, tired feeling and ache. I would have dark spots in front of my eyes, and I would be so dizzy I would stagger like I was drunk.

"I took medicine, but didn't seem to get any better.

"My mother told me to try Black-Draught, which I did, and after a few doses I felt much better. Now I take it as soon as I feel the least bad, and I don't get down. I certainly can say that it has done more for me than any other medicine I have ever taken.

"I never get without Black-Draught. If I go on a visit, I take a package along in my suit-case. My health is better now than it has been in years, and I believe it is the use of Black-Draught that did it."

Republican Convention City Briefs

Kansas City, June 7.—(AP)—Among the scores ready to serve as a doorkeeper, or perhaps as an assistant sergeant-at-arms—just to get inside the convention hall—was Jones Parker, St. Louis millionaire. But only 40 odd doors have been discovered.

The "Ask Me" force of 5,000 Kansas citizens will go on duty Sunday, wearing buttons bearing the legend "Ask Me G. O. P., I Live Here."

Twenty-three bands and drum corps will march in the Blumebau parade Monday night, replacing in a measure any blare that may have been lost when wild west stage coach holdups were banned for psychological reasons.

Flags, streamers and welcome signs constitute an added burden for trolley polls and cables. Flowers bloom in window boxes throughout the business district. Pedestrians will have the right-of-way in the convention hall area.

The home of a Democratic presidential candidate will be the scene of several social events. Senator and Mrs. James A. Reed have arranged house parties, informal luncheons, teas and dinners for Republican and Democratic visitors. The Reeds have not decided whether they will go to Houston.

Smith Campaign Leader Denies Recent Charges

Raleigh, June 7.—(AP)—Charges that campaign propaganda was being sent out under the Congressional rank of Senator F. M. Simmons and that the Hull organization has paid workers operating in North Carolina were made by W. B. Jones, chairman of the Smith Presidential campaign committee, today in a statement which denied that any worker for the New York governor had received pay.

Every penny of the money expended in the campaign, the state said, "has been expended for legitimate purposes, principally newspaper advertising made necessary in order to present to the people of North Carolina the truth about Governor Smith."

Mr. Jones charged that Zeb Vance Turlington, manager for Cordell Hull, and Frank Hampton, Senator Simmons' secretary have paid workers all over the state who are fighting Smith and advocating first Hull and then anyone to suit the fancy of the victim; that Senator Simmons, through Frank Hampton, is prostituting the high office of United States Senator, which belong to

"The largest graduating class of any town in this section of the state is the record claimed by the Greenville high school this year," mentioned a reader today, after attending the exercises in connection with commencement of local schools.

"This is a record everybody is proud of. It is suggestive of growth that people have been looking forward to for many years. It is indicative of unusual efficiency on part of the faculty who are striving to put the school on the same plane with the best in the country.

"With the right kind of encouragement there is no reason on earth why next session should not be equally as successful as that just closed. With everybody pulling together the ambition will be realized."

"No ball club can win all the time," is the philosophical view of a ardent supporter of the Greenville Club.

He was speaking about the two games the locals dropped to Goldsboro after winning eight out of nine played last week.

"Every club has its off days. When we start winning again, who knows but we may go just as strong as we did last week. Our players are just as good as any in the league and there is no reason on earth why they should not put us at the head of the win column before the season grows much older.

"Stand behind the boys and help them climb the standing of clubs column until they reach the top."

"The opening of the Greenville tobacco market this season will witness many changes," a local business man mentioned to the writer today.

"With two big warehouses under construction and improvements to stemmies in progress, the song of the auctioneers will find this market in better position to handle to-

"The Greenville tobacco market is destined to be what it is—one of the greatest marts in the world. This continued expansion such as that under way will soon put it in position to make greater claims in this field of endeavor.

"Boost the Greenville market and rest assured that every time you do so you boost the city of Greenville."

"It looks like the dirigible Italia is lost," declared a reader of the Reflector today, as he perused the columns of the paper confined to narration of the airship lost in the great northland.

"The toll of life in the field of aviation has been great the last year or so. While there is nothing to take the place of human life, these pioneers who sacrificed their all in behalf of the great cause, have blazed a way future generations will find it much easier to follow.

"It has always been the case with great ventures. Advancement costs life. We must pay the price in the interest of a greater civilization. Without these intrepid trail blazers science would know little more now than it did hundreds of years ago.

"Instead of being the mighty nation it is today, America would be nothing more than a great open space, her people living along the same line as did our forefathers generations ago.

"The fate of the dirigible has not yet been determined, but the world is hopeful the scientists who raised their all to further scientific investigation of the polar regions have not paid the supreme sacrifice as others have done."

"Greenville business men are working for the upbuilding of Greenville."

"This is the consensus of opinion of the citizenship of this city who have been watching with great interest the many plans which members of the Merchants Associations and other organizations have been perfecting to further development.

"It is this spirit of self-sacrifice on the part of the business interests that has resulted in the rapid expansion of the city the last five years.

"Other cities have their business men just like we do, but it is safe to say not a single one can boast of such a great number of progressive men as Greenville. We are always on our toes for public improvement and when opportunity presents itself, it is not often she got by unnoticed.

"This is one of the great reasons why we rank among the progressive cities of North Carolina."

WONDERFUL RECORD

In the list of honors for Greenville City Schools the public at commencement exercises, Miss Oleva Whiser, one of the graduates, was shown not to have missed a single day at school during the entire seven years. Another member of the student body who has a perfect record is Miss Frances Harvey, member of ninth grade, who has missed a single day during her nine years in school. To be present on time, every time, apparently has been the motto of these two young ladies and following is a motto throughout life not but spell success. We congratulate them both on their wonderful records they have made and urge others earnestly endeavor to do likewise.

LET CONVENTIONS CALL THE ROLL

Many precincts took a vote between Smith and Hull and appointed delegates in proportion. As to these are in clear sailing. Some precincts took a vote, but did not elect delegates in proportion to the vote and permit supporters each to name the number of delegates to which the precinct showed they were entitled. In such cases the County Conventions should elect that wrong. They will do so in every county in order to be fair and just.

As to the delegates in the County Conventions where a vote for presidential candidates were taken, such a vote should be taken in every County Convention and delegates to the State Convention selected in proportion to the vote so cast.

From the beginning some of the Smith leaders have relished to prevent any direct ball. They secured the removal of the presidential primary, aided by people who are against all primaries, gain, aiding those opposing primaries, they turned down the request made to the State Democratic Executive Committee. And now some of them, under the camouflage of "harmony" talk, will oppose taking a vote in the County Conventions because they think they can do more by indication than by direction.

Let every Democrat who has a right to vote or speak in the County Conventions be certain to attend, to demand a vote and see to that delegates are elected to the State Convention by the supporters of Hull and Smith in proportion to the vote cast.

Vigilance and attendance in the County Conventions

Where great performance is Master Indeed!

Its performance has centered on Hudson the most dramatic public interest ever extended any car. Thousands, riding daily, are carrying the story world-wide.

They tell us that they travel faster in city traffic, because of flashing getaway, swift, smooth acceleration and instantaneous control that easy steering and four-wheel braking give.

This extra range and activity of Hudson power, as everyone knows, are advantages exclusive to the Super-Six principle and to its companion invention on which patents recently were granted.

In every phase of performance there is effortless ease, from its smooth, swift getaway, to sustained high speed, and back to the soft instantaneous stopping action of its four-wheel brakes. Power is so smoothly delivered in all ranges of performance that you are scarcely conscious of it.

With the development and increased capacity of the Super-Six principle came also the creation of a chassis engineered in every detail to provide safely, continuously and economically for the speed, power and safety of the motor.

A thrill, never to be forgotten, is in store for you when you take your first ride in the new Hudson Super-Six.

Chicago, June 7.—(AP)—When Tex Rickard successfully promoted the Tunney-Dempsey fight here last fall, his Chicago rival, Jim Mullen, didn't say much but he did mull the value of ballyhoo.

Today Mullen was set to show Rickard really how to ballyhoo a championship fight. He had two big bands, several city officials, scores of newsmen, pugilistic lights and hundreds of fans out to greet Mickey Walker upon his arrival for training for his middleweight championship mix with Ace Hickins, the Nebraska Wildcat, at Comiskey Park two weeks from tonight.

Asheville and Macon Battle For The Top

(By the Associated Press) Once again Asheville and Macon are battling for the leadership of the South Atlantic Association—the two teams starting a four game series today in the mountain resort.

The Tourists still hanging onto the first place have been troubled by the Peaches all season and the present engagement promises to be no exception.

Yesterday's 8 to 2 victory gave the Skylanders a clean sweep of the Augusta series and strengthened their wobbly grip on first position. Fifteen hits proved too much for the Tigers to hold back.

Macon trotted in ahead of Greenville 11 to 2, making 18 hits count for five Spinner errors. Johnson and Good led the Peach attack, each coming through with four safe blows.

Spartanburg and Columbia broke even in a double header, the Spartans hitting in the pinches to win the first game 3 to 1, and the Comers retaliating with a 7 to 6 decision over Charlotte in the nightcap of a twin attraction. Heavy hitting behind Hunter had given the Smokies an 8 to 5 verdict in the opener.

MICKEY WALKER GETS ROUSING WELCOME

Chicago, June 7.—(AP)—When Tex Rickard successfully promoted the Tunney-Dempsey fight here last fall, his Chicago rival, Jim Mullen, didn't say much but he did mull the value of ballyhoo.

Today Mullen was set to show Rickard really how to ballyhoo a championship fight. He had two big bands, several city officials, scores of newsmen, pugilistic lights and hundreds of fans out to greet Mickey Walker upon his arrival for training for his middleweight championship mix with Ace Hickins, the Nebraska Wildcat, at Comiskey Park two weeks from tonight.

All Set and Going Good.

We opened up with a record breaking crowd Saturday and Sunday and still going good. Fishing at Pamlico cannot be beat. Everybody says it's the best since Heck was a pup. Come on down, we will see that you enjoy your stay at Pamlico Beach Hotel.

Quality! That Is Why We Have Waste-Baskets

The trash-bin is always larger than the strong-box. The waste-basket is usually twice the size of the letter-tray. Quality, or the lack of it, is what determines the importance of everything in life, whether it is shoes or sermons, poetry or pigs.

Some people claim that price is the most important consideration in our stores. They are wrong. No article ever crosses our counters that hasn't a backbone of Quality. Seconds, job lots, articles that won't wear well are too expensive in the long run for us to offer our customers.

Quality—always a saving. This is more than a slogan with us. It is the foundation on which we built a successful business.

NOMINATION OF HOOVER INEVITABLE

Political Opposition Settles Down to Serious Thinking and Gets Busy.

Kansas City, June 7.—(AP)—The opposition to Herbert Hoover settled down to serious thinking today in the belief that unless the drift toward him can be stemmed his nomination is inevitable.

Having lost all hope of checking the commerce secretary's rapid accumulation of delegates in contests before the national committee—where Hoover supporters numbering more than 60 won seats over unopposed and hostile delegations—the cabinet member's foes began counting up their combined strength. They hoped to find a block sufficiently large to prevent Hoover from amassing the necessary 545 to win the nomination.

With that end in view, Lowden supporters met with those of Senator Watson, the Indiana favorite son, in Watson's hotel room last night in a long parley. The usual political meeting secrecy hedged the gathering and if any decisions were reached they were kept in confidence.

Similarly, two Hoover strategy meetings were held during the night and because they concerned strategy nothing was divulged. Quietly confident after checking over Hoover's delegate strength, his managers are reserving their fire until the balloting begins.

The opponents of Hoover look to Watson, Curtis and other favorite son delegations with the hope of adding their votes to those of Lowden who will enter the convention with about 250 certain votes. How long they will remain with him appears problematical, but Lowden's boosters pin their hopes on cementing his strength early and holding it intact to frustrate Hoover.

The Lowden forces look also to the many delegates yet to arrive—including the powerful and doubtful Pennsylvania contingent—in the hope that new alignments may be created in favor of their candidate. The Hoover opposition likewise is convinced that President Coolidge will receive a considerable acknowledgment on the first ballot which might contribute to holding Hoover off.

Many conflicting factors enter into the discussion at this stage, one of them is the "draft Coolidge" movement which refuses to die even though there exists a general state of mind among the delegates that such a plan is futile. Another is the fact that while the Hoover forces seem to be solid, there appears to be no similar cohesion among the combined opposition.

Another issue of conflict concerns candidates themselves. There are as many opinions as to who could beat Hoover to the nomination as there are candidates and so far no single dominant personality has been able to weld all the anti-Hoover delegates into a manageable weapon.

Two Women Hurt In Wreck.
Raleigh, June 8.—(AP)—Mrs. Rena Pope suffered serious injuries and Miss Bertha Pollard, both of Princeton, N. C., received bruises and cuts when an automobile in which they were riding hit another machine near Raleigh last night. A warrant charging Tim Mankum, Raleigh, with reckless driving was issued later. Mankum operated the other car figuring in the crash.

Favorite Son

Senator Joseph T. Robinson, Arkansas, mentioned for the post of permanent chairman of the Democratic national convention, also is a favorite son of his state for presidential nomination.

Wins Coronation Cup.

Epsom, England, June 7.—(AP)—The coronation cup, a sweep-stake over the derby course, about a mile and a half, was won today by R. McCreery's five-year-old colt Apple, by a short head from Mrs. C. Rich's Silverstead. Lord Astor's Book Law was third, two lengths back. Four horses ran.

SMITH TRAILS FLORIDA RACE

Senator Park Trammell Again Returned To Congress by Overwhelming Vote.

Jacksonville, Fla., June 7.—(AP)—The voice of Florida's Democratic electorate was beginning to be heard in no uncertain terms today as more than three-fourths of the vote cast in Tuesday's primary election began to show definitely how the various candidates from United States Senator to constable would stack up in the final analysis.

On the face of returns tabulated from every section of the state it appeared certain that Senator Park Trammell again had been returned to the nation's highest law-making body over Governor John W. Martin, good roads exponent, and aggressive campaigner.

The race for Governor was not so certain, though many already had conceded to Doyle E. Carlton, Tampa attorney, the first position in a warmly contested five cornered race. It also was generally conceded that the final result of the close race could not be determined until after the second choice votes had been accounted for, as Sidney J. Catts, ex-Governor from DeFuniak Springs, and Dr. Pons A. Hathaway, chairman of the state road department, vied with each other to see who would have a share of the second choice votes with Carlton. The returns from 844 of the state's 1,200 precincts showed this result: for Governor: Carlton 49,838; Catts 43,468; Hathaway 41,936; Taylor 22,292 and Carson 1,996.

In nearly 800 of the state's precincts Senator Trammell had accumulated a lead of 20,000 votes over Governor John W. Martin. The results of the balloting up to that point showed Trammell with 82,547 and Martin with 61,857.

In the scattering returns available it appeared that the Smith proponents for delegates to the Democratic convention were sadly in the minority while the only one of the candidates definitely to announce himself against Smith, G. B. Stockton, of Jacksonville, led the field of delegates in the early returns.

Chief among the three Congressional contests, out of the four districts in the state, was in the 4th district, where Ruth Bryan Owen, daughter of the late William Jennings Bryan, was leading by a comfortable majority, the incumbent, W. J. Sears, by almost 9,000 votes.

COMPSTON TO GET TEST IN AMERICA

course with Jock Hutchison and Alfred Hackbarth. The contest is to be played on Sunday, June 17, four days before the national open starts at Olympia fields.
