SOUTHERN CROSS ARRIVES AT BRISBANE, AUSTRALIA AMIDST JOYOUS WELCOME

Four Fliers Complete Third and Most Dangerous Hop From Suva in Less Than 21 Hours; Showered With Gifts, Including $25,000 From Australian Government.

Brisbane, June 9.—(AP)—The wildest enthusiasm marked a reception this afternoon to the four members of the Southern Cross crew which flew from Oakland, Cal., to this city over the Pacific ocean.

Captain Charles Kingsford-Smith, flight commander of the Southern Cross, wore as a mascot a scarlet monkey fashioned of silk. Captain Charles Ulm, co-pilot, still carried his goggles and helmet. The two Americans, Navigator Harry Lyon and Radioman James Warner, were dressed in their ordinary street attire.

When a telegram from Prime Minister Bruce was read, announcing the commonwealth's intention of granting $5,000 ($23,000) to Kingsford-Smith and his companions, the enthusiasm ran riot.

The Queensland governor said the aviators had successfully completed a flight which had been watched with breathless interest by the whole world. He said it was more than a personal triumph, marking the commencement of a new era in aerial navigation that would remain throughout all future periods as a great event in history.

The aviators were congratulated as four brave men who had concluding one of the most amazing feats in history.

"Without flattery to the honored guests here," the governor said, "the flight was the greatest of all flights, four men worked so closely together, each bringing for the common good some extraordinary ability for the success of the venture."

The Americans, Lyon and Warner, were welcomed in behalf of the Queensland government, with the declaration that "we have much in common with Americans living on the opposite sides of the Pacific. The flight has done something very material to bring closer the English speaking peoples."

The prime minister of Australia telegraphed congratulations on "the accomplishment of the seemingly impossible, and are gratified at the association with two citizens of our great sister democracy beyond the Pacific."

Captain Kingsford-Smith, replying, said: "This big moment is the fulfillment of my life's greatest ambition. I am very much overcome at the magnificent reception and the magnificent donation given by the government."

"I am particularly honored to have our Yankee friends with us," Kingsford-Smith reiterated that it had been proposed originally to leave the two Americans at Suva, but he had thought it only fair to bring them to Australia.

He said one of the greatest scientific values of the trip had been the radio messages. The captain said the flight was not an individual thing, but a magnificent cooperation of four persons.

LET CONTRACT FOR ERECTION NEGRO SCHOOL

Board of Trustees Award Contract to Goldsboro Concern At $13,310.00.

At a meeting of the board of trustees of the Greenville city schools held yesterday, the contract was awarded to Jones Bros. Construction Company, of Goldsboro, for the erection of the new negro school. The contract price for the building was $13,310.00.

The building will be erected on the five acre site purchased by the school board some time ago. The site is located on the right hand side of the Falkland road going out of town.

R. T. Hicks was awarded the heating contract for $1,400.00. The plumbing contract was awarded to J. L. Powers of Bennettsville, S. C. for $1,250.00, which includes the installation of a septic tank.

Erection of this building was made necessary because of the fact there has been such a large increase in the enrollment of the negro children in the city school. The net enrollment is increasing at the rate of more than 100 each year. At the present time there are 1,100 children enrolled, therefore, the present building is entirely inadequate to take care of the situation.

During the school year just passed there were four rooms in the present negro school building with more than one hundred children in each room each day.

The new building will be ready for occupancy by the first of October.

FIRE RAGES IN ALASKAN TOWN

Ships Speeding to Village Following Receipt of S. O. S. Calls.

Seattle, June 9.—(AP)—A frantic S. O. S. telling of the threatened destruction by fire of an Alaskan village was picked out of the air last night by the naval radio station at Cordova, Alaska, and relayed to the station at Bremerton, Wash.

The message said: "S. O. S.—whole village on island of Killisnoo afloat. Cannot last very much longer. Please rush all possible assistance."

Killisnoo is an island opposite Peril Strait, in Chatham Strait, Alexander Archipelago, near latitude 57° 28'. The village of Killisnoo is on the island. Its population is native for the most part. A post-office was established there in July, 1894.

After the first message was received, there was silence for a time. Then the feeble splutter of the low power set was heard again.

GOV. SMITH'S DAUGHTER WEDS

Catherine Smith, younger daughter of Governor and Mrs. Alfred E. Smith of New York, and Francis J. Quillan, found time to be photographed amid the preparations for their wedding which took place in the executive mansion at Albany this morning.

Gov. Smith's Daughter Weds New York Lawyer

Albany, N. Y., June 9.—(AP)—Catherine Alice Smith, younger daughter of Governor and Mrs. Alfred E. Smith, today was married to Francis Joseph Quillan, of Troy, a lawyer.

The ceremony was performed in the cathedral of the Immaculate Conception by Cardinal Hayes. There were more than 1,500 guests, many of them figures of prominence in the social, industrial and political circles of the country.

Miss Smith's sister, Emily Josephine Smith, was married to Major John Adams Warner, superintendent of state police, two years ago at the cathedral by Cardinal Hayes. Miss Smith's two brothers, Alfred, Jr., and Arthur, have been married for several years. Walter, the youngest child, is in school.

George Quillan was best man for his brother, Governor Smith gave the bride away. Miss Julia Manning of New York City, childhood friend of the bride, was maid of honor.

The bridal gown was of ivory moire taffeta, fashioned with a long light bodice and a full skirt. The gown had a patch of rose point lace and there was a band of lace around the cotton of the skirt which was finished with wide scallops. The long lace mitts were also of rose point.

Descending from the back of the joliet cap of rosepoint was a six yard double tulle veil, forming the train. The bride's slippers were ivory moire taffeta, trimmed with rose point lace rosettes.

The bride carried lilies of the valley and white orchid sprays. A display of military pomp greeted the bridal party as it came to the portal of the cathedral.

The bridal couple passed under an arch of crossed blades held by members of the governor's staff, colors were dipped in salute to Governor and Mrs. Smith as they came down the steps and buglers gave the executive the four flourishes due him as commander.

At the executive mansion there was a reception for the hundreds of guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Quillan will attend the Democratic national convention at Houston. With the exception of the governor and three grand-children, the Smith family will journey to Houston in the private car of a friend.

Mr. and Mrs. Quillan will live in New York City. Mr. Quillan is a deputy attorney general connected with the New York office of the state attorney general.

DELEGATES TO KANSAS CITY AT ASHEVILLE

N. C. Party Members Prepare For Sojourn to National Convention Today.

(By J. H. Jenkins) Staff Correspondent Associated Press Asheville, June 9.—(AP)—While the North Carolina Democrats were struggling among themselves over whether or not their delegation to Houston would be for Smith, Hull or whomever they might wish to vote for, Republican delegates to the Kansas City convention began gathering here.

The hegira to the Kansas City will be on full blast at midnight tonight when a horde of delegates, alternates and their friends leave Raleigh. Another car will be added to their train here and the last of the delegation will be under way.

National committeeman Charles A. Jones, Mrs. I. Lindsay Patterson, national committeewoman, and David H. Blair of Winston-Salem, United States commissioner of internal revenue already are in Kansas City. Mr. Jones and Mrs. Patterson went to the scene of the first act of the 1928 presidential campaign the first of the week for the national committee meeting. They have been busy a week getting ready for the coming of their fellow Republicans.

The delegation that will join together here tomorrow is headed by Brownlow Jackson of Hendersonville, United States marshal for the Western District of North Carolina and state chairman Enroute to Kansas City it is probable that some sort of a delegation organization will be formed with a chairman and other necessary officials.

Just when the Tar Heels will caucus has not been determined, but there is some prospect that they will be no formal get together until after the first ballot has demonstrated the strength of Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce, and Frank O. Lowden of Illinois.

Ten of the North Carolina delegates stand definitely committed to Lowden and seven to Hoover. The other three are apparently on the fence although there have been claims by both sides.

The unit rule does not appear likely at this time to cut any figure in the calculation of the North Carolinians. They were named separately in district conventions and before state convention and some were instructed for Hoover, some for Lowden and some unstructured. An effort to poll the delegation by wire resulted in three delegates declining to state their preference.

That President Coolidge would be a great favorite with many of the delegates is an open secret.

Wilson, June 9.—(AP)—Wilson county Democrats split wide open at the county convention today and two conventions were held. At one convention 18 Hull men were elected, but Smith men, who withdrew from the convention, are contesting five of the delegates.

Charlotte, June 9.—(AP)—Mecklenburg county will send 45 delegates to the State Democratic convention instructed for Hull and 15 for Smith, it was decided today.

Goldsboro, June 9.—(AP)—Wayne county Democrats in convention today instructed seven delegates for Smith and 18 for Hull. Senator Simmons was endorsed for national committeeman.

Henderson, June 9.—(AP)—Vance county's 15 delegates to the state convention today were instructed to vote in the following proportion—Smiths 84-91; Hull 7-91. R. S. McCain and W. E. Jones were endorsed for district delegates to the national convention.

Wilmington, June 9.—(AP)—Senator Cordell Hull of Tennessee today received 31 of New Hanover county's delegates to the Democratic state convention to be held in Raleigh June 12, while Al Smith obtained 4. The vote was—Hull 228 3-4; Smith 26; George 21 1-4; Reed 3.

HULL LEADING OPPONENTS IN THE STATE

Returns From County Conventions Show Hull Preference For President.

Raleigh, June 9.—(AP)—Cordell Hull, Tennessee's favorite son and standard-bearer for anti-Smith forces in North Carolina, piled up a lead over the New York Governor in the number of instructed delegates chosen at county conventions today to attend the state Democratic convention here Tuesday, as the face of returns compiled this afternoon by the Associated Press, but the large number of delegations sent unstructured indicated that the winner of the state's 24 delegates to the Houston convention assembly will not be definitely determined until the state convention acts.

With 859 of the 1,953 delegates accounted for, Hull was credited with 337; Smith 150; and Reed 4, fractions in the totals being disregarded. Unstructured delegates numbered 323, while 9 were reported instructed against Smith and 36 for a "dry."

Buncombe's delegation of 72, the largest in the state, was among those sent unstructured. Mecklenburg gave Hull 45 and Smith 15, while Forsyth, with 52 also gave the Tennesseean the big end, with 44 1-2 to 7 1-3 for the New York Governor.

Gastonia's 45 were sent without instructions. In Rowan 38, the Democrats voted to instruct their delegation to vote against any wet candidate and for support of the eighteenth amendment, at the same time rejecting a resolution by Walter Murphy, state manager for Senator Red, to the effect that all Democrats are morally bound to vote for the candidate nominated at Houston.

Wilson, June 9.—(AP)—Wilson county Democrats split wide open at the county convention today and two conventions were held. At one convention 18 Hull men were elected, but Smith men, who withdrew from the convention, are contesting five of the delegates.

Charlotte, June 9.—(AP)—Mecklenburg county will send 45 delegates to the State Democratic convention instructed for Hull and 15 for Smith, it was decided today.

Statesville, June 9.—(AP)—No presidential preference vote was taken in today's session to select delegates to the state convention.

Martin County—65 for Hull; 65 for Smith.

Beaufort County—115 for Hull; 115 for Smith.

Chowan County—33 for Smith; 17 for Hull.

SEARCHING PARTIES BEGIN TRIP TO FROZEN NORTH TO RESCUE NOBLE EXPEDITION

BAD WEATHER AGAIN HALTS OCEAN FLIGHT

Friendship Fliers Plan To Take Off From Trepassey Sometime Tomorrow.

Trepassey, N. F., June 9.—(AP)—The take-off of the monoplane Friendship for Europe was definitely postponed today until tomorrow because of reports received by the fliers of unfavorable weather conditions on the course over the Atlantic. The early morning clouds here disappeared after a few hours and by mid-forenoon the weather was clear with the wind from the northeast.

Balked for three days by adverse winds and leaks in the gas tanks of their plane, the fliers yesterday saw a wall of fog and rain come between them and the ocean flight they are impatient to make.

Miss Amelia Earhart, who hopes to be the first woman to fly the Atlantic and her two companions, Wilmer Stultz, pilot, and Lou Gordon, mechanic, were disappointed.

As start under adverse conditions, with unfavorable weather reported over mid-ocean, would have seemed foolhardy, they indicated Stultz announced no take-off would be made until the weather was favorable. He hoped conditions would improve to permit a start Sunday morning.

Pitt County Delegates Eighty Per Cent Strong For Hull, Of Tennessee

Eighty per cent of Pitt county's delegation to the State convention at Raleigh next Tuesday were today instructed to vote for Cordell Hull, presidential candidate from Tennessee, at the county convention held in the courthouse in this city this morning. The convention was one of the most spirited held in Pitt county in many years.

Hisses and cat-calls occurred quite frequently as a delegation of three from Pactolus township engaged in a protracted controversy as to which side had the most votes. This friction, however, was settled when the convention voted that the township strength be split fifty-fifty between Hull and Smith.

Out of the twenty-two delegates from Pitt county, 17 3-3 votes are for Hull and 4 2-5 for Smith, presidential candidate from New York.

Several motions and resolutions were presented for instruction of the delegates to the state convention, but it was left to J. W. Holmes of Farmville, to finally provide the proper way out. As result, the vote of the various townships as compiled at the recent township conventions was taken and figured on the percentage basis, giving Cordell Hull the eighty per cent preference.

The session this morning was presided over by W. E. Hooks, of Ayden, chairman of the County Democratic Executive Committee, who was later re-elected to the same office.

Dr. W. W. Dawson was the keynote speaker of the morning. He presented Col. F. G. James, as permanent chairman, and C. B. Rowlett, secretary.

Base Ship, Citta Di Milano Picks up SOS Signals Of Great Dirigible Believed To Be Down Near North East Land; Dog Teams To Be Used In Search.

Kings Bay, June 9.—(AP)—It is reported at Kings Bay that it has been established that all aboard the dirigible Italia are alive.

Kings Bay, Spitzbergen, June 9.—(AP)—The dirigible Italia was estimated today to be down near North East Land on the popular ice cap to the north.

The base ship Citta Di Milano has picked up signals from the airship which has been missing since May 25. The men at the base were very optimistic today that the airship's crew of 17 and their Commander General Umberto Nobile would be rescued.

The base ship heard the Italia's signals yesterday afternoon and after the airship a number of questions.

The base ship received no answers but heard several more signals which Captain Manoyva of this ship was unable to understand.

The Citta Di Milano told the crew of the Italia about the numerous expeditions being undertaken to rescue them. These included the flying expeditions of Captain Rigg-Larsen and Lieutenant Lestrov Holm, the expeditions toward the sealing ship Hobby and the ice breaker Brighante and several searching parties making their way across the snow and ice of Spitzbergen.

The base ship was being made ready today to sail as good as possible to the rescue if this were thought advisable.

The messages received by the Citta Di Milano were calculated to have come from a point within latitude 80 to 81 north and longitude 25 to 30 east. As soon as the signals began to come in all stations in the vicinity were asked to be quiet.

Although the authorities were not yet quite willing to exclude the theory that the message picked up (Continued On Page Six)

BOLD PIRATES SNATCH GAME FROM LOCALS

In a game featured by numbers of golden opportunities that were not accepted, Greenville dropped the opening game of the series to Wilmington, at Wilmington yesterday afternoon by the score of 5 to 4. The pirates held the visitors scoreless until the eighth inning when Finlator started the fireworks with a home run without anybody on the path. This was followed by a series of hits and free passes to first that netted the Tobaccoists the only four runs of the game. Although they threw a scare into the Pirate camp with two men on in the ninth frame.

Smith pitched remarkably fine ball for Wilmington. The home run about in the eighth frame, however, seemed to unnerve him and he issued two free passes that figured largely in the scoring. He was relieved in the ninth inning by McCay, a recent acquisition, who returned the Tobaccoist without further scoring.

Wood, Roscoe and Finlator were credited with circuit clouts. Both clubs fielded in splendid style, although they had two errors each chalked up against them at the end of the contest.

Deacon Joff and his teammates go to Rocky Mount, for two games Monday and Tuesday of next week. The Fayetteville Highlanders come here Wednesday and Thursday.

Patriots Still Hitting Stride

(By the Associated Press.) Pitching Dan Boone's fighting Patriots aside yesterday by a score of 8 to 4, the Greensboro Patriots continued their march for the Piedmont pennant. The game was however, on the protested list, manager Boone announcing his claim that umpire Taylor failed to see Franxon advance a base after manager Carroll called time out to substitute himself in bat for Munn in the third inning.

Bunn Hear's Twins' bread was buttered at the expense of the Durham Bulls, they taking the first game of the series 8 to 5.

Salsbury had little difficulty in chalking up an 8 to 1 victory over Raleigh and climbing further on this club's shoulders in the second division.

William T. Tilden, captain and veteran of eight years of Davis Cup play and his three young companions, Wilbur F. "Junior" Coen, of Kansas City, John Hennessey, of Indianapolis, and George Lott of Chicago, left on the line Le De France. Francis T. Hunter, fifth member of the squad, of New Rochelle, N. Critz Earns Raise; Helps Ford Star Praising star fielders in baseball when the pitchers are going great is like trying to ballyhoo a good lineman in football when the backfield is running wild. But here is a case where the fielders crashed through. With all due credit to Red Lucas & Co. Cincy owes its splendid showing this year to second baseman Hughey Critz and shortstop Horace Ford, probably the best infield combination in present day baseball.

By RAY E. VESSELS (Feature Service Sports Editor)

New York (AP)—Hughey Critz has done a good job of proving to the Cincinnati ball club that he was worth the extra pay he held out for last year.

Hughey has kept up the sterling brand of play that long ago made him one of the best second basemen in the game. Yet the noteworthy part of his work is the wonders he has done with shortstop Horace Ford.

Helping Ford from obscurity in stardom Critz has cemented a shortstop-second base combination that comprises the very backbone of the flying Reds.

Cinz's flashy start this year was attributed to good pitching. The pitching appeared good because the middle-diamond watchdogs turned drives labeled as hits into double-plays, giving the team the league lead in that department.

Critz and Ford both came from Minneapolis of the American Association. Critz in 1924 and Ford in 1927. Ford spent one season in the minors, having gone with six other players to the Millers from Brooklyn in exchange for Johnny Butler, now with the Cubs.

Ford was waived out of the National League as just another ordinary ball player. This season, among other things, he played errorless ball for two weeks, accepting more than 100 consecutive chances without an error. Jack Henricks says he is worth $50,000. But, with the Reds burning up the league, try to buy him at that figure.

Three Expeditions Leave For Interior Of Africa Wilds

New York, June 9.—(AP)—Three expeditions to interior Africa left for Europe today. Two of which will make camera safaris, the other will collect live and dead specimens of animals.

Aboard the Ile De France were Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson and the three boy scouts, selected from thousands who participated in a nation-wide elimination contest. They are to make six weeks camera safari through the big game country of Africa this summer. The three boys, all Eagle Scouts, are Robert Douglas, Jr., of Greensboro, N. C.; David R. Martin, Jr., of Austin, Minn.; and Douglas L. Oliver of Atlanta, Ga.

After a few days in Paris the scouts are to sail June 21 from Marseilles for Mombasa, Africa, where they will meet the Johnsons, who are to proceed them to complete plans for the trip. They are scheduled to return to the United States in September.

Two expeditions, the "arctic-equatorial" party of Carvelth wells and that of the Milwaukee museum of natural history headed by Dr. C. A. Barrett, were aboard the Olympic.

FREE MOVIE ADMISSION ENDS STUDENT ROUGHING

Ann Arbor, Mich. (AP)—Ann Arbor theatre managers finally have devised a plan to eliminate student rushes through their movie houses after each important Michigan athletic victory.

Last year when the Wolverine athletes scored one victory after another, the students made rush after rush through the movie theatres. Finally the situation became serious, and to arbitrate the theatre managers offered free admission each time Michigan won a major championship. The offer was accepted.

Since then Michigan has won but one major championship. That was in baseball.

FRENCH WAR DERELICT IS STILL UNIDENTIFIED

He was turned back by Germany after the armistice with nothing to identify him. He was named "Anthelme Mangin" for convenience. HITTING FALLS OFF SLIGHTLY IN THE MAJORS

Chicago, June 9.—(AP)—Hot weather, a necessary condition for most pitching arms, is still absent, but the unusual assault on batting averages is already effectively underway in the American League.

Unofficial averages including yesterday's games reveal every team, even the rampant Yankees, dropped in team batting during the eighth week of play. The Yankees dropped only one point last week, but since May 16, their average has declined 9 points. During this week Washington's team hitting average dropped seven points; St. Louis and Cleveland's four each, Philadelphia's and Chicago's three each, Detroit's two and Boston's one.

The Yankees, however, are still in the lead in team hitting with an average of .313 or 25 points more than Cleveland, which is in second place.

"Gosce" Goslin, Washington's veteran outfielder, still leads the individual hitters with an average of .426, while Ralph Kress of St. Louis, with an average of .370 took second.

Bob Fothergill of Detroit climbed from a tie for 14th position to third during the week. The leading hitters and their averages:

Goslin, Washington, .426; Kress, St. Louis, .370; Pothergill, Detroit, .363; Reeves, Washington, .358; Gehrig, New York, .352; Dugan, New York, .351; Lazzeri, New York, .343; Ruth, New York, .342; Fonseca, Cleveland, .342; and Barnes, Washington, .342.

Herb Pennock of the Yankees, won two more games during this week and went into a tie for pitching leadership in the circuit with his teammate, George Hipgras, who won only one. Each has won nine and lost one.

Boston retained its lead in team fielding with an average of .977, while Philadelphia clung to second with a .975 mark.

Other leaders: Team runs, New York, 291; fewest opponents' runs, Philadelphia, 163; double plays, Cleveland, 57; sacrifice hits, Summa, Cleveland, 14.

DON'TS FOR LOVELOORN GIVE TIPS TO JAPANESE

Tokyo, (AP)—"Don'ts" to be observed by Japanese young men and women in choosing their mates have been published by the Hochi Shimbun, Tokyo newspaper.

Girls are cautioned: Don't marry a man who is fond of gambling.

Don't marry a man of whom your parents do not approve. According to court statistics 65 per cent of such marriages end in divorce.

Don't marry a man who neglects children.

Don't marry a man who drinks in secret.

Don't marry men who ridicule aged persons.

These are the rules for would-be husbands:

Don't marry girls whose hands are soft and clean, but whose mothers have coarse hands.

Don't marry girls who think of nothing but dresses.

Don't marry girls who are fond of wearing dresses of clever and original designs. A girl of this kind will often put her husband to shame in public. She will become an irregular and untidy woman.

Don't marry girls who have a crane for the movies and theater.

Don't marry girls who do not love children.

Macon Peaches Lick Tourists

(By the Associated Press.) Dick Ielhus has pitched Macon to within reaching distance of the South Atlantic Association leadership, now resting none too securely upon the shoulders of the Asheville team.

In yesterday's 3 to 1 victory for the Peaches over the Tourists, the veteran curve baller gave up only five hits and struck out six opposing batters.

The second placers were more successful in their efforts with the stick getting next to Shaney for 13 singles but four double plays headed off scores until the final frame when the winning runs were scored.

Yeagin had the number of Augusta batters, fanning eleven of them, nine strike-outs coming with men on base, and Greenville won from the Tigers 7 to 1. F. Walker, Spinner outfielder, had a perfect day at bat with four hits, in as many attempts.

Knoxville made an uphill struggle and finally downed Columbia 5 to 4. Williams of the Smokies, connected for a four bagger. Brillheart held the Comers to half a dozen hits.

Spartanburg hit heavily to defeat Charlotte 11 to 4, a homer by Kely climaxing a four run spree in the fifth inning. Griffin, Spartan second sacker, had three hits in four times at bat.

New York.—Phil McGraw, De-fended Bobby Burns, Brooklyn, (10). Chicago—Younie Jack Thompson, San Francisco, beat Billy Light, St. Paul (8).

Pie, Pa.—Chick Suggs, New Bedford, Mass., defeated Johnny Ryan, Erie (10).

PHILLIES WIN TWO STRAIGHT FROM CHICAGO

(By the Associated Press.) Deep down in the National League cellar, Hurt Shotton's Phillies had something to crow over today—their longest winning streak of the season, when the Quakers subdued the Chicago Cubs 6 to 5 at Philadelphia yesterday they walked off the field with a winning streak of two in a row.

It was the first time this season that the Phillies—sometimes referred to as the Futtie Phils—had won twice in succession. All told Shotton's men have staved off defeat in only nine of their 43 games. They beat Brooklyn in the opening game of the season and then found victory elusive at best.

A triple and home run by Curly Walker enabled the Cincinnati Reds to beat Brooklyn, 5 to 3, in 11 innings, and strengthen their hold on first place.

The St. Louis Cards went back into second place in the standing by virtue of an easy 8 to 3 triumph over the Giants at the Polo grounds. Wee Willie Sherdel baffled McGraw's sluggers until the 6th when Mell Ott hit his seventh homer of the year.

The Braves pounded three Pirate pitchers for 17 hits and into a 9 to 5 defeat at Boston. Pete Scott, Pirate's utility first baseman, hit two homers in the last two days.

Barnhart and Hornsby also hit for the circuit, this being the latter's tenth of the season, placing him in a tie for the league lead with Bissonette of Brooklyn and Hack Wilson of Chicago.

In the only American League battle the Philadelphia Athletics beat the Browns at St. Louis 10 to 8 in a game featured by the hitting of five home runs in the ninth inning.

Ben Fox, Chased By Creditors, Again Ascends Lofty Perch At Chicago.

Chicago, June 9.—(AP)—Ben Fox, the human fly, has been having his ups and downs. Yesterday it was downs. Today, he promised it would be ups.

Fox's dander was aroused yesterday by comment that followed his unexplained disappearance from the Masonic Temple flagpole where he had been sitting since May 19. It wasn't so bad that he should be named in the same breath with an unpaid hospital bill. Nor was it worthy of notice, the report that a group of creditors had congregated at the base of the flagpole to beset him.

The thing that made Fox peevish was the slander that his appetite, running strongly to strawberries as he swayed in the invigorating breezes, that blow around flagpoles, had cost his promoters $55 a week. That, he thought, was carrying the criticism too far.

In view of these charges Fox re-appeared yesterday and denied everything. His descent from the flagpole was not, he asserted due to any desire to evade creditors but rather to be in a position to defend himself. Besides, he already had oversat the best previous flagpole sitting record by 48 hours.

POINTERS for PARENTS

If your child seems lazy have a physician examine him to be sure there is no physical reason for his laziness. Slight changes in diet, in exercise, sleeping time or eye-glasses may be all that is needed.

When a child's interests run to outdoor things, fascinating collections can be made of natural objects. The study of geology is called a "richly absorbing one" by "Children, the Magazine for Parents." A child can begin such a study by gathering the rocks of his home neighborhood, and reading at home or in the local library to see what has made the earth formations in his part of the country. Every trip away from home will add its quota of specimens and knowledge.

The minimum amount of sleep necessary to a child of six is eleven hours.

The amount of butter eaten by a child should be rather scanty instead of the thick smearing so often allowed children in the mistaken notion that the way to fatten an underweight child or to increase his appetite is to give him lots of butter, cream and rich milk. One of the quickest and surest ways to decrease a child's appetite, with consequent loss of weight, is to feed him large quantities of butter. It is not to be inferred from this, however, that if too much butter is bad none at all is best. On the contrary, butter is an indispensable article of diet.

Literature is not a thing apart from life, though young people often get the idea that it is. Put them in touch with books that relate to their own interests, their own enthusiasm, and see how quickly they lose their prejudices against reading.

Fine Attractions At The College During Summer

The entertainment program at East Carolina Teachers College scheduled for the summer series includes some of the finest attractions available. Among these are some that it is difficult to secure except in the summer months. A good, high class, theatrical company presenting good plays will go to a college during the dull season, whereas it is impossible to get them in the winter season. Such a company is the one appearing here in June.

The Coffey-Miller Players will be here for two evenings, June 25, 26 presenting two plays, "She Stoops to Conquer" and "A Marriage of Convenience," two prime favorite comedies. This company appeared here several years ago, in the summer, and made a splendid impression.

The Marmec Dancers, the three famous sisters who have presented their dramatic, interpretative dances in the largest cities, and who rarely go "into the provinces," will open the season, June 22.

The International Singers will give a concert on July 3.

A famous violinist, Bernard Ocko, will give a concert on July 11.

A noted baritone, Martino-Rossi, will give a concert on July 17.

Dr. A. M. Harding, a distinguished astronomer, who charmed the college audience last summer with his popular and delightful illustrated lecture on the heavens, will give another one about the middle of the summer.

The Hampton Singers, the famous negro singers from Hampton Institute, who are in great demand for concerts, will appear early in the summer.

Other attractions may be announced from time to time. Season tickets will be placed on sale soon after the opening of the summer school.

Cotillion Club To Give Dance Friday Evening

The Cotillion Club will give its dance June 15, instead of Thursday 14th, as previously announced. The change of date results in the inability of the club to engage an orchestra for the 14th.

The dance will be informal. It will be held at Gorman's warehouse and is expected to draw a great crowd.

Are You "Climbing" Or Just "Gliding"?

A very lucid illustration of the operation or promotion of modern business is found in a comparison with the operation of a heavy than air flying machine.

The machine may be equipped with all the modern appliances and the Pilot may, by practical experience and training, be thoroughly qualified to successfully manipulate its intricate mechanism and safely conduct it to its intended destination.

Yet in spite of all these advantages and qualifications there is just one thing he is always absolutely dependent on for flight and that is the Propeller. Without it he can never rise from the ground. It is the fundamental principle of progress.

It is only when the Propeller is running with smoothness and regularity that he is able to climb upward, avoiding danger and disaster, and continues to climb only as the Propeller continues to function without intermission.

What would you say of an Aviator who started out to make a record for altitude and after climbing to a certain height decided that as everything seemed to be running smoothly he could dispense with the expense of operating the Propeller and still continue to climb?

But that is the very thing that many Retail Merchants are trying to do today. They use the Advertising Propeller to start with and after getting a good start feel secure enough to neglect its use.

Do they continue to climb? Do they maintain the same altitude? Do they affect a saving? They do not. At that very moment they start to "glide"—not a sudden fall to the ground but a gentle easy descent—for there is no such thing as remaining stationary.

When you stop the Propeller you start to "glide"; when you start the Propeller you commence to "climb."

ARE YOU "CLIMBING" OR JUST "GLIDING"?

ABOUT TOWN

The one hundred counties of North Carolina today named their delegates to the Democratic state convention to be held in Raleigh next Tuesday, mentioned a local politician today.
Pitt county, like the rest of them selected their delegates and instructed them to support the great cause of the Democratic party.

These conventions are beginning to hold more than usual interest for the public today than ever before. People are beginning to realize that if they have any say-so in the selection of a presidential candidate they must let their voices be heard in the township precinct meetings preceding the county conventions.

It is at these sessions everybody gets a chance of public expression and it is too late after delegates to the county and state conventions are chosen. They are supposed to represent the sentiment of the masses and what they say goes in a national way.

Pitt county voters expressed a preference for Cordell Hull in the preliminary skirmish and the delegates to the state convention will carry out this desire of the people. The delegates to the national convention to be chosen at Raleigh Tuesday will carry out the desires of the one hundred counties of the state.

So it is seen that the sentiment which results in the choosing of a presidential candidate has its beginning in the township primaries. Don't forget the importance of these precinct gatherings next time. They are beginning to have more weight and influence in the life of the nation and it is your duty to let your voice be heard at them.

It is the desire of the Reflector to give as much local news as possible. The realization of this desire, however, is impossible without the co-operation of those in charge of the sources of news. We invariably receive the best of co-operation from those who have their fingers on the public pulse, but at times it is not as good as it might be.

Only a day or so ago a prominent business man approached the writer and asked why didn't you people carry a story about so-and-so happening over here in the other part of the county? We told him we had not had any information about it, that usually this kind of news came through a certain source which we endeavored to keep in close contact.

He looked surprised. He simply wouldn't understand why the person in charge of this department had been derelict in his duty of not keeping the public informed of so what had been accomplished. We were not surprised at the gentleman's amazement. But had we told him the real reason why the news had not been given out, he would have been distinctly more surprised than he was.

The person in charge of the news source in question actually had not lived up to what the public demanded of him. He might have given out a splendid description of something everybody is interested in, yet he withheld it because he thought he knew more about the business of the people than the people know themselves.

This is a deplorable state of affairs. The sooner the public becomes more exacting in its demands of those who represent them, the sooner they will get all of the information desired. The newspapers do their best to render service, but when they do not receive the assistance of those who are in position to furnish news, then it becomes the duty of the public to demand their servants to keep them informed concerning all things connected with their departments.

It is an awfully hard job to fill this column from day to day, Mr. Reader. So if you happen to know of anything you think is interesting why not call the "About Town" writer and tell him about it. It is not often we find things so dull, but right at this time there seems to be a distinct shortage of topics of local interest, and nobody seems to care much.

When you read this, run your fingers through your hair scratch your head, and when the gray matter is functioning properly, devise some ways and means of helping us out of a dilemma. Probably you know some amusing story about your neighbor. Maybe you've heard of some development of public interest or something else in which our several hundred readers would be interested.

If this should be the case don't wait to ask yourself if it is what we want. Get in touch with us and we will be able to tell you right off the bat whether it constitutes news. If everybody would give us a hint every now and then this would be one of the best columns around here. Try it. Then watch how intensely interesting the paper will become to you from day to day.

SEAPLANE PONTOONS CAN BE CUT IN SIZE
Langley Field, Va., (AP)—Seaplanes of the future need not be so cumbersome as those of the past. This has been established by experts of the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics in a minute examination of the work actually done by a seaplane's pontoons, which enable it to alight on water, but cut down its speed in the air.

PRAISE, PRICE, PRIZE CALL TO THOSE WHO SEEK SUCCESS

(By A. E. Winship)
Boston—(AP)—The success of a young man industrially, commercially or professionally is a personal achievement more than it was even six years ago. much larger proportion of those who are to be day laborers will be skilled laborers, and a much larger percentage of those who choose a professional career will be in the upper tenth of their class in high school or college. Whoever achieves success must win appreciation, must establish confidence, must attain personal distinction. Three words represent these accomplishments. They have come from a common origin. They are Praise, Price and Prize. Whoever wins praise has won the appreciation as an asset in dealing with human nature. A dog knows when he wags his tail he will have a different reception than when he snarls. Smiles have a different value than a frown. Any talent that can establish its price is a success. A nation is in an entirely different class when its money is on a gold basis than when it is at a discount. No one is a success in any line of business who has failed to establish a credit in his market. One must have demonstrated both ability and reliability. That is the price of success. Above all else high success requires one to have won a valuable prize by some personal achievement. All America went wild over the achievement of the Germans and Irishman who made the first westward flight across the Atlantic No American remembered how he felt about a German ten years ago, and there was no possible trace of prejudice against an Irishman anywhere. Prize winning eliminates hatred and prejudice as does nothing else. There is no appreciation like that created by prize winning, and no prize is so great in demonstrating appreciation of prize winning. The graduate of an elementary school high school or college should register a vow to win Praise, Price and Prize, individually, commercially or professionally.

A. E. WINSHIP

How To Be Happy.

Other Presidential Campaigns 1876

(By The Associated Press)
(This is the sixth of a series of sketches of presidential campaigns since 1856.
The Republican national convention of 1876, meeting at Cincinnati, June 14-16, nominated Rutherford B. Hayes of Ohio for President, and William A. Wheeler, of New York, for Vice-President.
The Democrats met at St. Louis, June 27-29. Samuel J. Tilden, of New York, was nominated for President and Thomas A. Hendricks of Indiana, for Vice-President. The platform dwelt largely upon "The mistakes of Grant's administration."
Tilden, Democratic nominee, won the majority of the popular vote at the end of a spirited campaign. Republicans alleged fraud in certain Southern States, and Congress had to appoint a commission to decide which candidate was elected. On the day before the inauguration date the commission, by a single vote, decided in Hayes' favor. The controversy created more bitterness between the election and the inauguration of Hayes than was engendered during the campaign.

Word that the dirigible has been located and that all the members of its crew are safe is indeed good news to those who for days have anxiously awaited word from these lost explorers. The knowledge that these pioneers have gained on their flight over the frozen northland will no doubt prove of great value to the world.

THE BEST WAY OUT

The move set in motion by the Democratic County convention here today for the support of the public schools as well as state supervision is one that would have the support of the farmers of not only this county but every county in the state. Already the tax burden has reached the stage that it will mean financial disaster to the farmer unless he can get some relief and an equalization fund that really equalizes is apparently the best way out of a bad situation. The convention was wise in urging and instructing legislators from this county to work toward such an end and it is to be hoped that other counties took like action.

REAL TAX REDUCTION

It is being generally said that the new Tax Law does nothing for the little fellow, but we beg to dissent. It took the tariff off foreign-built yachts, and if that isn't bursting bread into hungry mouths we are puzzled to know what it.

The tax on foreign-built yachts has been a great hardship to the poor. It was in our opinion comparable to the famous tax on bread.

PRELIMINARY PUNISHMENT

We suppose the wages of a convict are still death, in the long run, and there's some satisfaction in that; but many cases fall under our observation that make us think a few years in the penitentiary ought to come first. — Ohio State Journal.

SPEED NECESSARY

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

NEW YORK COTTON

New York, June 9.—(AP)—The market reacted from an early advance today on reports of rains in the Memphis district and predictions of showers for ever Sunday, uncertainty over weather conditions and profit-taking attributed partly to unfavorable trade accounts and a decline in the stock market the volume of business was small and when the selling appeared prices declined fourteen to twenty points from the highest, but rain rallied partially on covering. The close was barely steady, net unchanged to 5 points higher.

Futures closed steady, unchanged 5 higher; spot quiet; middling 10.

STOCK MARKET

New York, June 9.—(AP)—Stock prices continued to yield to heavy liquidation for both accounts in today's brief session of the market. Rallies were feeble in character. Extreme declines in the active issues ranged from 1 to 8 points, with U. S. Steel, General Motors and other recent leaders sagging to the lowest levels of the week.

There was nothing in the day's trade news to influence the price movement. Weekly mercantile reviews reported further irregularity in business. Call money was not a factor as Friday's rate always carries over the week-end. Uncertainty over political considerations was more pronounced.

Selling pressure was most effective against the high priced specialties. Radio ran up 3 points to 198 1/4 and then dipped to 192 3/4. American Bank Note, International Telephone, U. S. Cast Iron Pipe, Russia Insurance and American Republics sold down 4 to nearly 6 points. General Motors, American Telephone, Wright, Curtiss, Reading, Southern Pacific and Delaware & Hudson were among the many issues to decline 2 points or more. The close was heavy. Total sales approximated 1,400,000 shares.

FRANCE EASES TAXES ON EXPENSIVE TRUFFLES

Paris, (AP)—Truffles, once the luxury of the rich man's table, are coming more democratic. They are still high in price, as truffles are and flavor, but the relatively poor man has moved up getting standards until even he gets a whiff of them once in a while. The government has just recognized his right to that expensive gift.

Formerly everything that had in a few ground truffle peelings it, was taxed 12 per cent by the government. Now the ministry of finance has changed its tune and the truffle assumes the character of the thing it scents or flavors. On nutty and fine pates there is a de luxe tax whether they are truffled or not. If the humble pigst and have been dolled up a little.

Truffles themselves, however, are truffles of de luxe, costing about $3 a pound.

Indicate Wheat Production Today

Washington, June 9.—(AP)—They indicated wheat production in the principal producing southern states announced today by the department of agriculture follows:

ALL PLAYER ACCORDED UNWELCOME PUBLICITY

Boston, (AP)—One guest at a curious Boston night club registered anything but pleasure when the master of ceremonies, proud of celebrities present, turned the spotlight on them, one after another.

This one he presented as "one of the greatest baseball players of all time." Too late the speaker learned that this eminent performer was playing one of his own.

WOULD DISBAR JUDGE LINDSEY

Colorado Supreme Court Asked For Disbarment of Famous Juvenile Jurist.

Denver, Colo., June 9.—(AP)—The Colorado supreme court had before it today a petition filed by the state bar association asking the disbarment of Judge Ben E. Lindsey, nationally known former juvenile court judge here, on charges of "professional misconduct as a member of the bar."

Lindsey was charged specifically with having accepted more than $40,000 for representing Mrs. Helen Elwood Stokes in the successful contest of the will of her husband, W. E. D. Stokes, New York millionaire who disinherited his two Denver children.

The bar association contended that Lindsey, who had earlier granted Mrs. Stokes custody of her two minor children in a suit against her husband, had no right to be retained by her. The children at the time the will was contested, were wards of the Denver juvenile court, under the ruling which awarded them to Mrs. Stokes.

The petition stated that a $37,500 fee alleged to have been paid Lindsey by Mrs. Stokes consisted of shares of stock gained for the children in the fight on the will.

It is also charged Lindsey had received an additional $10,000 from Samuel Undermyer, New York attorney, who was likewise retained by Mrs. Stokes in the contest of the will.

Lindsey, in Los Angeles, apprised of the petition asking his disbarment, characterized it as "pure malice on the part of political enemies."

NEWS NOTES OF G. O. P. MEET

Sixteen Trains To Reach Kansas City With Hundreds of Delegates.

Kansas City, June 9.—(AP)—They're coming—was the word spread today as reception committees, reinforced by brass bands, mobilized to meet the first of the special trains bearing delegates to the Republican national convention. While many delegates, committeemen, and observers already are on the ground, arrival of a special train from California this morning marks the opening of an invasion destined to bring thousands here before the opening session Tuesday.

Sixteen trains will arrive Monday bringing delegations from Arkansas, Alabama, Arizona, Washington, Colorado, Kentucky, Maine, Delaware, Maryland, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Minnesota, The Dakotas, Indiana, New Hampshire, New Jersey and other states.

Two presidential candidates were on the list of arrivals today. Senator D. Goff of West Virginia, had a one hour edge over Frank C. Lowden on the morning's slate. Mrs. Lowden and Miss Florence Lowden are included in the party of the former Illinois Governor.

A 6,000 pound national emblem, showing an eagle with a wing spread of about 20 feet, was in place today at the main entrance to Convention Hall. It is set entirely with Nova gem jewelry, imported from Australia. Glistening by day in the sun it will reflect the light of huge beacons at night.

Equipment to carry the proceedings, music and "atmosphere" of the convention to the ears of a nation next week is nearly installed in Convention Hall. A chain of seventy stations of the National Broadcasting Company, the Columbia Chain and the Chicago Tribune station the radio net work. Graham McNamee, for the National Broadcasting Company, Major Andrew White for Columbia and Quinn Ryan, for the Chicago Tribune, are the announcers who are to draw pictures of the events, the color and the crowds at the hall.

TROOPS CLOSE IN ON PEKING

Uncounted Thousands Of Both Factious Advance Upon City Today.

Peking, June 9.—(AP)—Uncounted thousands of troops of two factions of the Nationalist army, those from Shansi Province and those commanded by General Feng Yuxiang, were close to Peking on three sides today.

It was believed, however, that there was no danger of a clash at present as Feng was expected to turn his attention to Tientsin and try to drive out the northern forces there.

Although 6,000 Shansi troops have now entered Peking the situation in the city continued quiet today. The commander of these forces issued a proclamation assuring foreigners that they would be safe. He demanded that any northerners remaining there surrender their arms to avoid trouble.

Telegraphic communication between Peking and the rest of the world continued interrupted and wireless was being used to keep up contact. There has been no travel into Peking since last Sunday and no mail has been received.

Tientsin, China, June 9.—(AP)—Two Japanese steamships bringing passengers and mail from Taku on the Gulf of Chihli and escorted by the Japanese destroyer Makii, were fired upon by northerners today. The destroyer returned the fire and silenced the attacking party. The ships arrived safely at Tientsin.

Tokyo, June 9.—(AP)—In view of some special dispatches from Tientsin published in Tokyo intimating strained relations between the American and Japanese garrisons, the war office stated today that it had received official reports from Tientsin declaring that the friendliest relations existed.

It is said that the rumors of disension grew out of a Japanese American agreement that when a Japanese airplane found it necessary to fly over the American aviation grounds, an American plane would go up for the purpose of informing the Japanese they were over the American section.

SEARCHING PARTIES BEGIN TRIP TO FROZEN NORTH TO RESCUE NOBILITE EXPEDITION

by the Citta Di Milano might have been the work of some fiendish practical joker sending in the Italia's name, hope became almost certitude today in Rome. It was believed that the rescue of General Nobile and his companions was in sight.

The authorities pointed out that the messages were obviously from a trained wireless operator, presumably either radio operator Blagi of the Italia or General Nobile himself. Also the messages were sent in "Italian style," every nation having a special way of transmitting. They were in perfect Italian.

That the Citta Di Milano was taking no chances of being led off on a false scent was shown by an intercepted message in which the base ship asked Giuseppe Blagi, the radio operator of the Italia, to transmit his identification serial number in the Italian navy.

The messages which the Citta Di Milano has picked up would indicate that the Italia's position was 80.30 north latitude and 28 east longitude.

This would place the Italia just off Cape Leigh Smith in the neighborhood of Foyu Island which is about 20 miles from the coast of northeast land.

There was doubt at Kings Bay as to the condition of ice north of northeast land at the present time. This region is just along the border of the approximate limit of open water—and ice conditions consequently are not stable. The Braganza was at North Cape of North East Land for a few days but was stopped by pack ice.

There was great excitement aboard the Citta Di Milano today, groups of the base crew discussing the chances of rescuing their 18 comrades of the expedition.

The men clustered around the radio cabin on the deck of the ship peering through the windows and trying to hear the signals.

Every effort was centered today upon possible means of rescuing the Italia's crew. The ice breaker Pasvik probably can make its way north and Russian icebreakers can be of great assistance.

A dog team at Green Harbor may be sent with the leaders Varming and Van Dongen to go around Icefjord and to cut across west Spitzbergen to Hinlopen Strait and thence over the ice to Northeast Land.

It is also possible that the dog team now aboard the Hobby can be sent over to Northeast Land in the Braganza which could make the dogs as close as possible to Cape Leigh Smith. It is estimated that it would be three or four days before the dogs could reach the east coast of Northeast Land after being started.

Among the theories held in Kings Bay is that the Italia's crew had built a house on the ice using materials obtained from the Italia's cabin.

oceanic flight from Suva, Fiji Islands, a distance of 1,762 miles. The flight was made in less than 21 hours at an average speed of 86 miles an hour.

Flowers with gifts, including $25,000 in gold from the Australian government for the unprecedented record breaking flight from Oakland, Calif., to Brisbane, Captain Kingsford-Smith gave credit for the success of the 7,300 mile aerial voyage to his three associates Capt. C. T. Ulm, co-pilot, a fellow Australian, and two Americans, Harry Lyon, his navigator and James Warner, radio operator.

Enormous crowds were up at dawn to welcome the fliers to Australia. Every road leading to the eagle farm landing field was blocked hours before the plane was sighted. Captain Kingsford-Smith brought the plane through a storm which tested the ability of the crew throughout the night. Land was first struck at Ballina, 150 miles north of here. This was due to the fierce winter storm which threw the plane slightly off its course. But the navigator recovered bearings and headed south for the landing field here.

Despite the hectic night of flying, the Southern Cross crew experienced no ill effects. The populace of Brisbane greeted the fliers of the Pacific with open arms. After the first round of cheering and speeches of welcome, members of the crew were escorted to the city from the landing field where joyous crowds lined the pathway of the airmen, cheering them with wild enthusiasm.

In Brisbane, Captain Kingsford-Smith found a message from President Coolidge awaiting him, expressing "heartly congratulations to you and your companions on your successful flight from Oakland to Australia. Your brilliant courageous pioneering has advanced the cause of aviation and strengthened the bonds between your commonwealth and our country."

From Los Angeles, G. A. Hancock millionnaire sportsman who backed the flight, when all other sources failed, sent word that as a token of friendship and tribute to Kingsford-Smith and Ulm, he would make them a gift of the Southern Cross and cancel all indebtedness.

After the round of receptions and welcomes here, the Southern Cross will make the final hop of the flight, an overland hop of 500 miles from Brisbane to Sydney, a distance surrounded by none of the perils of previous legs of the adventurous trans-oceanic flight.

Under the plan announced before the plane left Suva, the Americans, Lyon and Warner, will leave the Southern Cross here. Their original contract called for a flight from Oakland to Suva, but they consented to remain with the expedition on the hop to Brisbane, upon the request of Captain Kingsford-Smith.

The fliers left Oakland airport Thursday, May 21. They landed at Wheeler field, near Honolulu, a distance of 2,400 miles, less than 28 hours later. On June 3, the Southern Cross left Kaula and was off for Suva. Kaula, in the Hawaiian group, provided the harking sands runway for a successful take-off. After a storm dodging flight over a 3,138 mile course at 91 miles an hour, the plane landed at Suva. From that point the final over-water jump was made to Brisbane, 1,762 miles distant. In all, the Southern Cross covered 7,300 miles in approximately 82 1-2 hours.

plane, replying to the welcoming committee, said that the flight was only an experimental one and added: "We hoped to do it in seven days and we apologize for being a day late."

Captain Charles Kingsford-Smith, pilot of the plane had praise for the work of the two Americans in the crew, Harry Lyon, navigator, and James Warner, radio operator.

"Today is a big moment in our lives; the fulfillment of a life-long ambition of Mr. Ulm, my co-equal in the enterprise and myself," he told the committee. "We had a rotten time for several hours last night. I desire to pay tribute to the skill, co-operation and pluck of my Yankee comrades."

Brisbane, Australia, June 9.—(AP)—One of the first things that the crew of the monoplane Southern Cross did on their arrival in Brisbane after their epoch-making flight across the Pacific was to apologize for being a day late.

Iowa Qualifies Ten Men

Chicago, June 9.—(AP)—An unlooked for big ten challenge had arisen today to Stanford University's hopes of winning the team title at the national collegiate outdoor championships being decided at Soldier field.

Iowa, runner up at the western conference meet, qualified ten men, the same number as Stanford. The Pacific coasters, however, held an advantage because the Iowa qualifiers were in events where competition in today's finals promised to be the keenest.

Illinois, winner of the big ten meet, qualified only five men but her strength lay in events in which no preliminaries were held—the pole vault, the high jump and the two-mile.

NEW HIGH COMPRESSION ENGINE

Mrs. R chooses a new car

"My husband is buying me a car," said Mrs. R., "and he has left the choice to me. She looked over the new Oldsmobile in the salesroom floor, examining the upholstery, the fittings, the finish—and then stood off a little way from the car. "Frankly," she said, "I had almost decided on one of three higher-priced cars. I had no idea that a car of this price could even compare with them. But you have exactly the same appointments and equipment; the upholstery and finish are every bit as good, and I really think your lines are better."

Then Mrs. R. drove the new Oldsmobile—throttling down to a walking pace in high where the traffic was thick, then swiftly taking the lead when openings appeared. When we returned to the showroom Mrs. R. asked what gave Oldsmobile such handling ease and such performance—and showed keen interest when the new features of Oldsmobile design were explained.

know why its brilliant performance has won thousands of buyers—why it is being enthusiastically proclaimed all over America as the Fine Car of Low Price.

High compression performance without the use of special fuels! Power generated in a smooth constant flow that has been compared to the steady, stageless pickup of an electric motor! Sparkling acceleration—power—speed for every emergency—high-speed steadiness—marked economy! These are the performance qualities that distinguish the new Oldsmobile.

This great new power plant represents years of work and over a million miles of testing on the part of Oldsmobile engineers. They introduced a cylinder head of special General Motors Research design that permits high compression without ordinary fuels. They ribbed the crankcase and cylinder block both horizontally and vertically to prevent distortion and maintain accurate, permanent bearing alignment.

They added those features of advanced engineering in a combination which automotive critics and engineers have pronounced fully two years ahead—such features as crankcase ventilation, controlled cooling, pressure lubrication, oil filter, air cleaner, fuel pump, full automatic spark and thermostatic charging control.

Then, to provide fine car performance to an even more marked degree, they devised a new method of rubber mounting for the engine—new methods of silencing the chassis and the interiors of the smart new Fisher bodies. Drive the new Oldsmobile once—and you will know why its brilliant performance has won thousands of buyers—why it is being enthusiastically proclaimed all over America as the Fine Car of Low Price.
