

ITALIA CREW DECLARED IN PERIL TODAY

Sixteen Members of Nobile Expedition Adrift on Ice Floes of Northland.

Kings Bay, Spitzbergen, June 11.—(AP)—Safe after a perilous landing on the Arctic Sea in the partially wrecked dirigible Italia, the crew of the Nobile north pole airship was still in gravest danger today as expeditions by land, air and sea set under way to bring them out of the frozen wastes north of Spitzbergen as speedily as possible.

Speed was the watchword of the rescuers, for every moment lost meant an increase in the danger that the eighteen men of the dirigible adrift on breaking ice floes, might be carried into more inaccessible regions or into the open sea.

Divided into two parties and carrying two of their number who were injured when the airship came down upon the ice after the condola had snapped off, the men of the Italia today were slowly seeking to reach Northeast Land, the nearest body of land to the point at which the dirigible came down after her brilliant voyage to the north pole more than two weeks ago.

Inasmuch as the Italia carried food provisions for at least six weeks, the base crew has no fears for the present regarding the food question, but definitely fears that the drifting ice floes upon which the men are stranded will drift into the open sea. The point at which the Italia came down is off Cape Leigh, on the eastern extremity of northeast Land and it is feared that the current will send the ice southward between Northeast Land and Franz Josef Land.

In that case, if the rescue parties do not arrive immediately, the ice will be carried toward the King George Island south of Northeast Land and men will be carried into the open sea which is now again barren. Sea ice within the pack ice area, but at the present season is open.

Since Friday the Italia's crew has drifted about a mile and a half to the east, being reported at 23.4 east longitude. This would place the crew just off the tip of Cape Leigh Smith.

Fear for the party which is without radio and which is sometimes carried out of sight of the other group, is particularly strong as it would be exceedingly difficult to locate it should they become definitely separated from the group with the wireless.

Kings Bay, Spitzbergen, June 11.—(AP)—Adrift on ice floes of the polar seas the crew of the dirigible Italia was in peril today. Radio messages from the crew to the base ship Citta Di Milano stressed the necessity of a speedy rescue.

For days that seemed to them endless, sixteen men of the crew have been making their way slowly forward carrying two others who were injured when the airship came down upon the ice. The eighteen men divided into two parties to make their way to safety.

Open water leads among the floes and the danger of the floes breaking up made their trek slowly and dangerous. The wind or sea currents at times drifted the floes to the east or south carrying the men out of their way. At times the drift has been to the west bringing the men nearer to Northeast Land.

Powerful ice breakers were needed to rescue them. None was available here and Captain Romanga of the Citta Di Milano asked the Italian minister at Norway to request the Russian government to aid since it possesses vessels regarded as the best for battling their way through to General Umberto Nobile and his companions.

A dispatch from Moscow said that the Soviet rescue commission ordered what was regarded as the most powerful ice cutter afloat, the Malagin, held in readiness, pending definite orders.

The sealing ship Hobby today was locked in the ice off Verlegen Hook about 140 miles from Foye island in which region the crew of the Italia was adrift. Aboard the vessel were two Norwegian fliers, Captain Riser-Larsen and Lieutenant Lutwog Holm, each provided with a seaplane. It was doubtful whether they would be of much assistance to the marooned explorers at present. Captain Riser-Larsen said that the planes did not have space enough to carry food for eighteen men. He and Lieutenant Holm intended to try and get in touch with the Italia's crew but the ice packed around the Hobby prevented them from taking off. Apparently the 18 men were in no immediate danger since they have provisions enough for six weeks.

The ice breaker Braganza which had been searching for the explorers when word of their plight reached Kings Bay was ordered to return (Continued On Page Six)

One of the more prominent leaders in the farm "movement" is A. J. Tobin of Vinton, Iowa, who at Kansas City is among those fighting Hoover's nomination and working for Lowden.

TAKE OFF OF MONOPLANE IS STILL HELD UP

Weather Conditions Cause Miss Boll to Cancel Flight Over Atlantic Today.

Curtis Field, N. Y., June 11.—(AP)—Charles A. Levine, owner of the monoplane Columbia, in which Mabel Boll hopes to fly to Europe, announced that plans for a take-off this morning had been cancelled because of unfavorable weather conditions.

Postponement of the take-off came shortly before the hour set by Miss Boll last night in an announcement that a start would be made today. She had said that the Bellanca plane would leave the runway at Curtis Field at 5 a. m., but would not say whether it was planned to head the plane directly for Europe or make an intermediate stop at Old Orchard, Maine.

Levine said that weather reports had been received from steamers at sea indicating there was a storm along the coast mapped out for the plane. He disclosed that it had been the intention of Miss Boll and the two men who are to accompany her on the flight to head directly for Europe, had the plane taken off this morning.

Republican Convention Watches Mellon Crowd

Kansas City, June 11.—(AP)—In the increasing confusion of the pre-convention din the Hoover legions worked unceasingly today to press their advantage to a quick victory, while a united opposition hoped and waited for Mellon and his Pennsylvanians.

Pressed close about by the supporters of Hoover, whose managers now seek a first ballot, band wagon nomination by the Republican convention opening tomorrow, the opposition coalition sees in the 79 Pennsylvania votes their last remaining source of success.

The Pennsylvania delegates, coming to the convention city on three special trains, are to arrive late today and will caucus Tuesday morning. As he traveled westward Mr. Mellon kept his long silence, telling newspapermen he was not yet prepared to disclose to whom he would throw his support. He did say that he carried no "message" from President Coolidge; but the party leaders already gathered here are so certain of Mr. Mellon's close relations with the White House that they will be inclined to accept his action as message enough.

In the Hoover camp there was a new note of confidence as the Pennsylvania specials sped westward. The word was passed about quietly that all was well; that advice of sufficient authenticity had preceded Mr. Mellon to Kansas City, and that the fight for Hoover was definitely won. Among many of the Hooverites there appeared a complete belief that Mellon in some way had become committed to Hoover—a report which the Lowden-Curtis-Watson-Goff coalition steadfastly refused to accept.

It also was whispered in the Hoover ranks that the activities of the past 24 hours had netted enough gains in other quarters to make Pennsylvania's support no

WORK UNDER WAY ON NEW WAREHOUSE

Work on the new Joyner Tobacco Warehouse, located between Pitt and Green streets, is now progressing very rapidly.

Excavations for the basement are expected to be completed within the next few days. Work on the main part of the structure is being pushed to completion as rapidly as possible.

This warehouse will contain 56,000 square feet of floor space. The building is being constructed, steel, brick and concrete. The house will be modern in every way, with a large basement to care for the teams, with camp and rest rooms for men on main floor.

The warehouse is being built by R. E. Harris, one of Greenville's business men and one of the largest farmers of the county. The house will be operated by O. L. Joyner & Sons, who are veterans on the Greenville Tobacco Market. Mr. O. L. Joyner, Sr. is one of the pioneer warehousemen of Eastern North Carolina. He was a large factor in establishment of the Greenville tobacco market, and from the opening of the first warehouse here has taken an active interest in development of the industry.

Mr. Joyner is also largely interested in farming. He will be assisted in the operation of the new warehouse by his son, O. L. Joyner, Jr., who has eight years service in both the leaf and warehouse end of the tobacco business.

When the warehouse is completed it will give the Greenville market ten acres of floor space for the sale of tobacco at auction. This is one of the nine mammoth brick warehouses that will be operated here this season.

The Greenville tobacco market last year sold 61,000,000 pounds of tobacco for the farmers of Eastern North Carolina for over $14,000,000. Preparations are being made to handle from seventy to seventy-five million pounds of tobacco on the local market this season.

COOLIDGE'S SECRETARY REACHES KANSAS CITY

Kansas City, June 11.—(AP)—Everett Sanders, secretary to President Coolidge and possible bearer of word from the White House to a convention, arrived here today as silent on the possibility of Coolidge making another statement about his availability as the President himself.

longer absolutely essential to Hoover's nomination. Furthermore, the Hoover manager, James W. Good, assuming a boldness which has characterized none of his previous utterances, announced publicly that the Hoover strength would be held for Hoover, and would not be thrown to President Coolidge in case Pennsylvania or anyone else started a stampede for a renomination.

Among the allies who oppose Hoover there was much talk today of a compromise candidate. Senator Curtis, of Kansas, the last of the Lowden-Curtis-Watson-Goff quartette of candidates to reach Kansas City, steadfastly maintained that the logical man on whom a compromise should center was none other than Curtis himself. Former Governor Lowden's smilingly dismissed a question whether he still hoped to be the nominee; Senator Watson, of Indiana, quoted from the lore of Uncle Joe Cannon to say that so far as his chances were concerned, the party might go farther and do worse, and probably would; Senator Goff said he had not abandoned hope.

Even the arrival late yesterday of the big delegation from New York, whose titular leaders are holding out against the Hoover candidacy, did not appear to dampen the optimism of the Hoover managers.

The New Yorkers did bring to town the makings of a possible platform rumpus over prohibition, for Nicholas Murray Butler and others insisted they would not take without a fight the law enforcement plank said to have been drafted by Senator Borah, with the approval of the Hoover leaders.

Like the farm relief fight, any discussion over a prohibition plank seems likely to proceed on the quiet for a day or two. Both will get in to the open by the middle of the week, however,

Increase Age Limit For Baseball Fund

The age limit of the children's baseball fund was today raised to include children of eleven and twelve years of age. The limit was at first fixed at six to ten years, but the committee in charge of the raising of the fund found it advisable to effect the change in order to take in the great numbers of children two years older.

Instead of raising the sum of $115.00, as first planned, the change in the age limit has made it necessary to raise an additional $100.00 to make it possible to provide the extra number of season tickets.

Along with these changes came the announcement that the old grandstand at the park would be turned over for exclusive use of the youngsters.

Members of the soliciting committee hope to be able to complete the fund this week. Previously reported $50.50 Paul Hill 5.00

MEXICAN FLIER ON GOOD WILL TRIP TO U. S.

Capt. Carranza Took Off From Valbuena Flying Field This Morning 8 O'clock.

Mexico City, June 11.—(AP)—Captain Emilio Carranza, known as Mexico's Lindbergh, hopped off from the Valbuena flying field for Washington at 8:10 a. m. today to return Colonel Lindbergh's good will flight of several months ago.

The aviator plans to fly to Washington by way of Tampico and New Orleans, crossing the Gulf of Mexico.

Carranza's non-stop flight from San Diego, Cal., to Mexico City made him a national hero. It was the greatest flight a Mexican had ever made. The other outstanding Mexican aviation achievement up to that time also had been made by Carranza. This was a non-stop flight from Mexico City to Jaurez, opposite El Paso, Texas, last September.

During the Mexico City-Jaurez flight, made in a Mexican-built army plane, one of the wings caught fire. Carranza saw a storm ahead and ran his plane into a rain cloud. The rain extinguished the blaze and he successfully completed his flight.

Carranza's San Diego-Mexico City flight was preparatory to his non-stop flight from the Mexican capital to Washington to return Lindbergh's flight from Washington to Mexico. The Mexico City newspaper, Excelsior, originated the idea, conducted a campaign for popular subscriptions to buy a plane, and selected Carranza as the "Mexican Lone Eagle."

Carranza was born Dec. 9, 1905, in the little town of Ramos Arizpe, state of Coahuila. His family moved to Texas while he was a child and lived short periods in San Antonio and El Paso. They returned to Mexico, but later young Carranza went to San Antonio again and studied there in a private school. Then coming back to his homeland he entered the air service.

In the summer of 1926 Carranza attempted to fly with stops from Chicago to Mexico City, using a small plane. He had bad luck. A forced landing in a storm near Oklahoma damaged the plane and put him in a hospital for about six weeks. Recovered and the plane repaired, he continued to Mexico but was forced down again near Monterey with the plane so damaged that he had to abandon the flight.

Carranza was married in Sonora about three months ago. The plane, called the "Mexico-Excelsior" was built in San Diego by the builders of the famous "Spirit of Saint Louis" and was flown by Carranza from San Diego to Mexico City on May 25.

Carranza wanted to hop off with in a day or two for Washington, but it was necessary to postpone the hop-off until a special runway could be built since Mexico City's high altitude made an immediate take off with the necessary heavy gasoline supply inadvisable.

GETS APPOINTMENT TO FARM LOAN BOARD

Washington, June 11.—(AP)—John H. Guill was given a recess appointment by President Coolidge today to be a member of the farm loan board. Similar appointments were given to Abraham F. Myers of Iowa, to be a federal trade commissioner, and Sherman J. Lowell, to the tariff commission. All are re-appointments.

NEW TRIAL OF NEGRO SLAYER OPENS TODAY

Goldsboro Negro goes on Trial at Pittsboro; National Guards on Duty.

Pittsboro, June 11.—(AP)—After indicating they would plead insanity, counsel for Larry Newsome, negro, on trial in superior court here for a charge of murder, today withdrew their motion asking Judge R. A. Nunn to rule on the defendant's mental capacity. The trial then proceeded rapidly, completion of the jury taking place about noon.

National guards troops remained on hand to preserve order.

The first of 15 state witnesses to testify this afternoon was Cora Reid, negroess. She told of a visit by the farm tenant's daughter, whose body was found, brutally cut, between the witness's home and the farm home, in Wayne county early on the night of last December 8. Cora Reid related the girl's visit to her for a jar of syrup.

It was while the girl was returning the short distance to her home with the syrup that the state contended Newsome met her. George Reid, husband of Cora, followed to the stand with about the same story.

The jury hearing the case is made up of: J. B. Harris, Sam Griffin, W. E. Hancock, R. E. Harris, J. J. Hackney, L. J. Riddle, J. I. Ray, L. B. Thompson, G. F. Carr, Simon Burke, J. H. Love and R. H. Jones. Jones was the 46th man called to the box.

Pittsboro, June 11.—(AP)—The second superior court trial for Larry Newsome, 24, Wayne county negro charged with murder, opened today as three national guard companies stood in and outside the court room here to prevent disturbance.

Very few spectators gathered for the opening of court by Judge R. A. Nunn, of New Bern. This was considered unusual by court attaches who also said they believed not a Wayne county resident had arrived. It was near Goldsboro last December that the negro under way trial on a Sunday, just one day after the body of a 15 year old girl was found.

The trial today came about after the State Supreme Court had held Judge Henry A. Grady had erred in the first one in charging the jury as to what verdicts it might find.

Troops, under command of Col. Don E. Scott, of Graham, stationed three machine guns at the three courthouse doors this morning. The negro was brought from state prison at Raleigh by a squad of machine gunners. Troops also had charge of the ground outside the building. Another detachment lined up within the bar and still another behind Judge Nunn's bench.

The three companies, two from Burlington and one from Durham, were ordered here by Governor McLean as a precautionary measure. Captains Abraham Carroll, Wilson Williamson and L. H. Barbour, and Lieut. C. F. Smith and J. B. Cole attended them.

Captain Barbour, Durham, a veteran in the national guard, told the Associated Press staff man that this trial was his 14th one of its kind in the state in his several years of enlistment.

At the Goldsboro trial, the judge and the sheriff had to resort to firearms when the negro's life was threatened while a state witness was upon the stand. Relatives of the girl had grabbed him. Shouts of "Get him!" came from the spectators. Judge Grady used a pistol and the sheriff fired his pistol several times to prevent further trouble.

The negro today occupied a chair within the bar, handcuffed.

PLAN TO TAKE OFF ACROSS THE ATLANTIC TUESDAY MORNING

Trepassay, N. F., June 11.—(AP)—Plans to take-off for Europe in the monoplane Friendship between 9 and 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, local time (5:30 to 6:30 Central time), if the weather is favorable, were announced today by Wilmer Stultz, Louis Gordon and Miss Amelia Earhart.

The fog and rain which prevented a start this morning gave way to clearing weather later in the day and reports of conditions over the Atlantic indicated an improvement which they hoped would make a hop-off tomorrow possible.

MEXICO REPAYS LINDBERGH CALL

Reversing the route followed by Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh on the first and longest leg of his good-will flight to Latin-America, Captain Emilio Carranza, Mexican flyer, this morning hopped off on a non-stop flight from Mexico City to Washington City. He hopes to complete his capital-to-capital flight in 25 hours.

Unit Rule Draws Fire; Both Hull and Smith Forces Claim Victory

Raleigh, June 11.—(AP)—With Congressman Cordell Hull of Tennessee, leading Governor Al Smith of New York, by approximately 311 instructed votes, to be cast in the state Democratic convention here Tuesday, Hull and Smith forces today were arguing for and against the unit rule.

Zeb B. Turlington, manager for Hull and Frank Hampton, secretary to F. M. Simmons, who is supporting Hull, issued statements favoring the unit rule. J. Crawford Biggs, prominent Smith supporter, issued a statement in which he said:

"They demanded a minority representation from precinct meetings to county conventions and from county conventions to the state convention. Now, if the Smith forces are in the minority how can they (the Hull forces) hold that minority strength shouldn't be represented in the vote at the Houston convention?"

"If they don't allow it, there's going to be the biggest row you ever heard of."

Hampton replied that relation of county to state convention is entirely different from state to national and that it is the clan of the party organization for states to vote as a unit in the national convention as states vote as a unit in the electoral college.

"The national convention will not recognize the county conventions which are mere units of the party in this state," Hampton said.

MAIL ROBBER BREAKS JAIL LOCAL FIRM HAS INCREASE

Chicago, June 11.—(AP)—A 54-year-old, red-haired man with a limp, held for trial as leader of the Evergreen Park mail robbers, led a sensational and apparently unpremeditated break from the Dupage county jail at Wheaton, a suburb, yesterday. Four prisoners followed him to freedom, while 15 others who witnessed the break refused to leave their cells.

"Lumpy Charlie" Cleaver was to have appeared in federal court tomorrow to answer the charge of robbing a mail train at Evergreen Park last winter of $133,000. He is understood to have confessed his part in the robbery. Yesterday morning, as the jailer was about to serve the prisoners' breakfast, Cleaver and four others, not involved in the mail holdup, saw their chance and took it.

With a home-made black jack—a can of condensed milk inside a sock—they slugged the jailer into submission as he appeared at the door of the "bullpen." Taking his keys, they unlocked the door, ran to the jail office, seized a sub-machine gun and three shotguns, and then ran into the ward where they piled into the jailer's own car.

Sheriff Lawrence Hattendorf ran after the escaped prisoners just after they got the car started and fired several revolver shots as they drove away. When the car was found, abandoned last night, there was a bullet hole in the body, which gave rise to the belief that one of the men may have been struck.

WOMEN BEGIN ACTIVITIES AT KANSAS CITY

Organizations With Planks Galore Throng Headquarters G.O.P. Members

By MARY BAINBRIDGE HAYDEN, Associated Press Staff Writer. Kansas City, June 11.—(AP)—The bright bunting in the canyons of Kansas City's downtown streets were put to shame today by the bright wardrobes of women delegates, women spectators and women hostesses, as they swung into action on the last lap of their preparations for the opening of the convention tomorrow.

As if in an effort to make up for their decrease in official representation, women have thronged the national committee headquarters and the headquarters of both the leading candidates, while women's organizations, with planks to push are grooming ten or a dozen speakers for the resolutions committee tomorrow, and women's organizations without planks have representatives backing those they approve.

Senator Borah's name is being played as a trump card in the women's fight for a prohibition plank. He had been invited by Mrs. Henry W. Peschbody as the Juncheon guest of honor today at the women's national league for law enforcement. Other guests at the luncheon, which took the place of a militant meeting in the league's five day campaign, were Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, assistant attorney general and Miss Bertha Lindsey, Seattle's woman mayor.

The law enforcement plank has been dubbed absurd by women of the national women's volunteer committee of the association against the prohibition amendment.

"It is as absurd to have a prohibition enforcement plank as it would be to have planks for the enforcement of every law in the land," said Mrs. William K. Dupont, national committee woman and delegate at large from Delaware.

"I am strongly in favor of temperance, and I wanted to see prohibition given a fair trial," she added, "but it has been determined that this type of prohibition is a failure, and has not brought temperance. What we need is a workable system of strict local legislation. I favor repeal of the prohibition amendment."

Representative of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, including Mrs. John D. Schramm, former president; Mrs. Robert Burdette, of California, vice-president; and Mrs. George White Spool, new national committee woman from the district of Columbia, have arrived, but will take no official action for the federation in favor of any planks, although they approve of the adoption of any enforcement plan.

Senator Borah's name also is mentioned at the League of Women Voters headquarters, in connection with his proposed plank favoring a multi treaty denouncing war. This it is argued, is in line with the league's international cooperation plank.

"Hoover women," encouraged by the arrival of Alice Longworth, regarded as a Hooverite, were as busy today as the men, under the volunteer leadership of Mrs. James F. Curtis, of New York and Washington, Merriam of Minnesota, Mrs. Willebrandt, Mrs. W. Reginald Baker, national committee woman from New Jersey, and Mrs. Louis Dodson of Washington.

"Lowden women," also were active under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick, candidate for Congress woman from Illinois, who is directing the publicity for the former governor.

Mrs. Arcadie Barnes Died Sunday Night

Mrs. Arcadie Barnes, 73, died Sunday night at 11 o'clock following an illness of about two weeks at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. J. B. Baker, who resides on the corner of 11th and Reade streets.

Funeral services will be conducted at the home this afternoon at four o'clock by Rev. Thomas E. Beaman and Rev. J. W. Nobles. Burial will follow in Cherry Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Barnes was born in Beaufort county and has made her home in Greenville with her children for the past several years.

She was a member of the Greenville Free Will Baptist church and was a lovely Christian character. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. J. B. Baker, Greenville; two sons, J. N. Barnes, Greenville and J. D. Barnes of Black Jack. Pall bearers will be R. W. Tsine, E. R. Rymun, E. D. Griffin, S. B. Hardee, W. A. Hinson, A. G. Walters, J. T. Wilson, D. A. Windham.

Once In A Blue Moon. Haverhill, Mass.—Twin sons of Mayon McGregor not only were married on the same day, but both married girls named Adams. The brides, however, were unrelated.

PIRATES TAKE SLUGFEST OFF JOLIFF OUTFIT

Wilmington, June 9.—Wilmington and Greenville engaged in a slugfest here today with the Pirates emerging the victor by a 12 to 6 count.

Wilmington, taking a liking to Pitcher Wilson's offerings, took a comfortable lead in the early innings and was never overtaken by the visitors who fought bitterly throughout.

Paul Bennett, hurling for the Pirates, was rocked often and hard, but he succeeded in pulling through every Greenville rally with the Pirates still leading. The combined hits reached 31, with Wilmington gathering 16 and Greenville 15. Home runs, triples and doubles were not uncommon.

McCarry's running catch of a long fly was the outstanding feature. It was one of the prettiest catches ever seen here.

Reaction Hits Asheville Club

The invariable reaction, which usually follows long winning habits, has struck the Asheville Tourists and left them a scant half game lead over Macon in the South Atlantic Association.

For the first time this season, the league leaders have finished a week of play with a losing percentage. Saturday's double defeat at the hands of Macon not only gave the Peaches a clear sweep of the four game series but left the Skylanders with a record of three games won against four lost, all of their victories coming at the expense of the cellar Augusta Club.

The Peaches were busy in other fields too, taking two out of three games from Greenville for a total of six games won against one lost.

In acquiring its record, Macon led the league in hits with 78, made only four errors and allowed opponents only 24 runs. Augusta was more or less true to form, having just the reverse of Macon's result for the week.

FIFTEEN LEADING GOLFERS ENTER RACE

Atlanta, Ga., June 11.—(AP)—The 1928 American open golf crown beckoned to 15 of the leading golfers of the southeast here today as they gathered for the sectional trials in an effort to win the right to compete at Olympia fields, Chicago, late this month.

The low scorers will become eligible for the open. Watts Gun, national intercollegiate champion, and Walker cup player, announced Saturday that he would not compete because of his decision to play in the southern amateur tournament at Dallas around the same date.

Bobby Jones is already qualified by dint of his finish among the leaders last year.

Among those here are T. W. (Tubby) Palmer, Miami; Charles Black, Frank Ball, W. Livingston and Howard Beckett, Atlanta; Henry Johnston, Alabama; Ga. Frank Clarke, Asheville; Fred Hyatt, Charlotte; R. H. Booker and A. C. Ulmer, Jacksonville; Bill Goebel, Charlotte; Alex. Milne, LaGrange; Ga. Gene McCarty, Memphis; H. A. Furston, Augusta; George Ayton, Baltimore, N. C.; and Jimmy Thomason, Knoxville.

Runners Must Travel 480 Miles in 10 Days To Get $10,000 Award

Contestants in the second annual Redwood Highway Indian Marathon may make a non-stop run of the 480 miles from San Francisco to Grants Pass, Oregon, if they choose. But they have to cover the distance in 10 days to qualify for prize money totalling $10,000. First place will be worth $5,000. Mad Bull, 1927 winner is favored to repeat.

San Francisco.—(AP)—Stripped of most of its hippodrome features through the imposition of strict rules, the second annual Redwood Highway Indian Marathon will find Mad Bull, the 1927 winner, pitted against a class of field.

This is intended to be a straight foot race with such things as elapsed time and control stations, creations of the late and unlamented transcontinental contest, eliminated.

The starting pistol will crack at 10 a. m. June 14 and the runners, all of whom must have at least part Indian ancestry, will have to cover the 480 mile route in ten days to qualify for prize money totalling $10,000.

Another factor automatically barring many of the pseudo marathons who toed the starting mark last year is the $100 entrance fee. Only the better class of Indian athletes will compete, making the contest more of a sporting event.

The contestants may run as long as they choose—all day and all night if they so elect—but they must adhere to the official route and must travel afoot. Institutions growing out of the recent cross country crawl that Indians cannot stand the pace of long distance running have stimulated interest in the event among the tribesmen.

The route is virtually the same as before—from San Francisco to Grants Pass Oregon. Whoever hopes into Oregon terminus first will draw down $5,000. Second money is $2,500; third, $1,000; fourth $750; fifth, $500, and sixth $250.

Because of his game showing a year ago Mad Bull is favored to repeat. Flying Cloud, runner up in 1927, is entered again.

SPORTS SLANTS

By Alan J. Gould

Associated Press Sports Editor.
New York, June 11.—(AP)—Hornsby's big hit is busy knocking over the theory that individual playing prowess is cramped by the responsibilities and worries of managing a ball club.

If there is one factor more than any other responsible for the comeback of the Braves it is the terrific hitting of the new Boston manager who has been on his biggest rampage of the plate since he finished out a six year run at the top of the National League batting heavy three years ago.

Hornsby's bat, when it is in tune and coupled with the unquestionable magnetic force of his leadership, is by long odds the most potent individual factor any club in the National League possess or any club in the American with the exception of the Yankees and Babe Ruth.

When Rogers first took over the leadership of the St. Louis Cardinals in 1925 his batting eye lost none of its sharpness through the added burden of responsibility. The slump was due more to illness and a trained back than to the burdens of management. The worries of captaining the Giants last year were negligible enough for the rajah to put his way up to .361.

This year, if he continues the 400 pace he has been hitting up to date, riority will be the first batsman in major league history to go over that mark four times. He shares now with Jess Burkett and Ty Cobb the distinction of being the only catchers with three averages of .400 or better to their credit.

The circumstances of Hornsby's shift to the managerial role at Boston are nearly identical with those at St. Louis in 1925, when the rajah succeeded Branch Rickey at the helm of the wobbling Cardinals.

The same thing that prevented the Cardinals that year from becoming actual pennant contenders also is operating against the chances of the Braves to climb this year—poor pitching.

Three years ago Hornsby drove the Cardinals forward with characteristic individual zeal, just as he is inspiring the Braves now. The club finished fourth but with improved pitching won the pennant the following year.

Hornsby has no particular batting system—nor any weakness that pitchers have been able to discover.

ATLANTA CIVIL WAR BATTLEFIELD BECOMES BOBBY JONES GOLF LINKS

Historic Peachtree Creek, in the hills north of Atlanta, where Sherman's march to the sea was opposed by determined Confederate troops and where 8,000 men were slain in battle, is to be converted by the Georgia city into a municipal golf course named for Robert T. Jones, shown in the foreground. Above is a view of the rolling grounds; below, Peachtree Creek, winding through the center of the projected links.

Atlanta, (AP)—The hills to the north and south fell in the battle of Peachtree Creek. The creek which gave the historic battle its name winds through the verdant grounds of the memorial park in which the golf course is laid out.

The Bobby Jones golf course will be a municipal link, the city having accepted the project for which residents of Atlanta donated the land. Nationally known golfing architects planned the course and it is expected to be ready for play around the first of the year.

Near the spot where the clubhouse is to be erected, Benjamin Harrison later President of the United States was breveted for gallantry in battle. He was serving as a colonel in an Indiana regiment.

On these same grounds Walter Gresham of Indiana later a cabinet member, was wounded in the leg and left with a limp which he carried through life.

The trapped fairways will cover a valley where the crest of the opposing forces met to leave their dead strewn thickly over the fields. The course, aside from its great natural beauty, will be one to offer even Jones a golfing test. Its designers have planned it for championship play as well as for the recreation of the average golfer. It

MAYES IS BIG MAN ON RED SQUAD TODAY

(By the Associated Press)
Eastern skeptics, waiting for the Cincinnati Reds to fall with a dull thud, are learning rapidly that it is more than luck that keeps Jack Hendricks' crew at the top of the National League standing.

Superlative pitching by Jackie Mays, rotund southpaw of Hendricks' mound staff, gave the Reds a 3 to 0 victory over the New York Giants before 40,000 persons who packed the Polo grounds yesterday. The defeat cost the Giants second place for it was coupled with Brooklyn's defeat by the St. Louis Cardinals.

Del Bissone's 11th homer of the year was the only bright spot for Wilbert Robinson in the Dodgers' crushing 15 to 7 defeat by the Cards.

The American League program was featured by the ninth defeat of the season of the New York Yankees. The White Sox turned the trick at Chicago, 8 to 6, despite Babe Ruth's 21st and 22nd home runs of the season. Forty thousand saw the game.

Kross' single scored McNeely with the run that allowed St. Louis to defeat the Boston Red Sox 2 to 1, in 12 innings.

The Athletics failed to diminish the 10 and one-half games that separate them from the Yankees, for they were soundly trounced 9 to 3, by the Detroit Tigers.

Jamleson's error in the ninth, coupled with singles by Goslin and Judge, enabled Washington to nose out Cleveland 6 to 5, for the Senators' fourth straight win.

ALONG LIFE'S WAY

(A tribute to Col. Chas. A. Lindbergh)

He lived his life in such a way. Clean—spotless—pure, day after day.

That when fame turned the spotlight on

So that the world might see his son.

He stood erect—with naught to hide; No part to mar his mother's pride; Unspotted by Fate's swift changing tide;

For scandal's tongue—no food for prey

Along life's way.

We cannot tell—perhaps in our Lives Fames, some day, will turn the power

On some deed that we humbly do. Painting our name in rosy hue. Will we be fit—if comes that hour: Along life's way?

—Edward Warren Hearne

MISS DIXON ENTERTAINS AT DINNER

On Saturday evening at the Rotary club, Miss Betty Dixon charmingly entertained at dinner, complimenting Miss Dolores Crozier and Harold Lashley, of Raleigh, who will be married this month.

A pink and white color scheme was carried out. Dorothy Perkins roses and sweet peas were profusely used in the reception room and dining room.

The dining table was placed under a canopy of wedding bells and sweet peas, which was fastened at the corners by silver candle holders with lighted candles, and showers of sweet peas and roses. The table was centered with a basket of sweet peas flanked by four silver candle holders with lighted candles.

An elaborate five-course dinner was served. Before entering the dining room, little Miss Gay Deans Dupree presented Miss Crozier with an attractive trossau gift from the hostess. Later in the evening Mr. Lashley was presented a musical cigarette box. Miss Dixon remembered her guests with attractive favors. Covers were laid for nineteen.

Those present were: Miss Dixon, the hostess, Miss Dolores Crozier, Miss Frances Barbee, Miss Frances Gibson, Raleigh, Miss Susie Jones, Rocky Mount, Miss Katherine Gutherie, Durham, Miss Elizabeth Bost, Miss Frances Taft, Mr. and Mrs. Person Nicholson, Messrs. Harold Lashley, Jimmie McMillan, Sherwood Jones, Raleigh, Ed Meekins, Washington, Perk M. Gee, Rocky Mount, Charlie Smith, D. S. Smith, Marvin Sugg and Fred Forbes, Jr.

LOCAL BOYS HAVE THRILLING EXPERIENCE ON TRIP TO CUBA

Messrs. Howard King, Sidney Skinner, Jake Hadley, Claude Gaskins and R. C. Flanagan returned last night from a trip to Cuba. They made the trip as far as Miami, Florida, in Mr. King's Dodge touring car. They reported a splendid time, intermixed with several adventures of a hair-raising variety.

Probably the most interesting experience of the young travelers occurred in Georgia when they were stopped by a speed cop for violating traffic laws. They managed to talk themselves out of arrest, however, and found that the traffic officer in his hasty departure, dropped his pocketbook containing several dollars.

Frantic attempts were made to catch the departing officer and restore the money, but he vanished like the wind and efforts to establish his identity proved futile.

Dutchess Finishes First Leg of Long Journey to India

London, June 11.—(AP)—Word was received today that the Duchess of Bedford, 62 years old, who was near disaster at the start of her round trip flight to India yesterday, had completed the first part of her journey.

The Daily Express stated that a telegram had been received from Captain C. D. Barnhard, pilot for the Duchess, saying that they had arrived safely at Sofia, 1,300 miles distant, in their plane, the Princess Xenia.

The fact that the flyers narrowly escaped a crash at the start in a high wind and that they had long been unreported caused some worry for their safety.

Price of Education Doubles.

Washington, June 11.—(AP)—The price of educating a public school pupil has more than doubled in the past 15 years, as shown by figures compiled by the federal bureau of education. In 1913 the cost was $38.31 and the present figure is $102.50.

Expenditures for public school buildings have almost doubled since 1920, with the peak being reached in 1925 when $433,000,000 was spent for new buildings. In 1926, however, the annual expenditure for public school buildings decreased $22,000,000, indicating, the bureau said, that construction had overtaken the shortage caused by the world war.

The bureau attributed the increase in school expenditures to the decreased purchasing power of the dollar and the general improved school facilities.

HOOPER ASSUMES ACTIVE INTEREST IN CAMPAIGN

Washington, June 11.—(AP)—Herbert Hoover, Secretary of Commerce, has assumed active interest in his fight for the presidential nomination from the Republican national convention. He is in direct and constant touch with his forces through a leased telephone wire from his deck here to the Hoover Kansas City headquarters.

Sued by Sister.

New York.—It is averred in litigation that Lottie Moore Schoemmel, who perfected the grease swimming suit, has "acted like a temperamental opera star." She is being sued for $800 by her sister, Grace Moore Shaw, on a Iowa. The plaintiff charges that on a cross country trip for a swim Lottie "suddenly became the lady," saying such things as fresh cut flowers in her train drawing room "went with her high station as a swimmer."

Three Scalded to Death at Norfolk

Norfolk, Va., June 11.—(AP)—Three civilian employees of the Norfolk Navy Yard, at work early today in the number one boiler room of the destroyer Bruce, which is undergoing repairs here, were scalded to death when a gasket on a main steam line blew.

The dead are: E. H. Munden, machinist, Norfolk; Charles H. Bryan, machinist, Norfolk; Joe Joyce, machinist's helper, Portsmouth.

Two members of the destroyer's crew were scalded while making an attempt to save the men trapped in the inferno of steam, but their injuries were not sufficiently severe to require hospital treatment.

Yard officials began an inquiry into the cause of the tragedy early this morning and promised an official statement during the forenoon.

GENERAL ALLEN CONSENTS TO BE PRESIDENTIAL TIMBER

Washington, June 11.—(AP)—Major General Henry T. Allen, who was commander of the army of occupation on the Rhine, announced today that he had given permission to his friends to present his name to the national democratic convention at Houston for Presidential nomination.

General Allen, who hails from Kentucky, said a committee of his friends would be informed today to advance his campaign. Announcement prepared by a group of the officer's associates it was set forth that he had been a life long advocate of temperance and believes in strict enforcement of the 18th amendment.

ABOUT TOWN

"Another ball game lost to the league leading Wilmington Pirates," mourned an ardent supporter of the local club, "commenting on the final game Saturday.

"We never will get to the top of the standing of clubs column by dropping two or three and winning one. The best send off we have had since the opening of the season was week before last when we managed to cop eight out of nine games.

"If we could only keep up that pace we would soon occupy the place which the Pirates are clinging to with such tenacity.

"The season has a long way to go yet, and who knows but that the Tobaccoists may be perching at the top when the final games are played."

"Pitt county is undeniably in favor of Cordell Hull for the presidential nomination if sentiment of the county convention held here Saturday means anything," a supporter of the Tennesseean, remarked to the writer today.

"With eighty percent of the delegates in his favor, Hull will receive quite a little support from this section at the state convention in Raleigh tomorrow.

"The vote of these delegates represents the sentiment of the county in no uncertain terms. Pitt county people believe in Democracy and believe prohibition is one of the fundamental issues which the party should support at all times.

"Anybody opposed to prohibition will never receive favor of that uncounted number of Democrats with the foundation of the great government at heart.

"This probably is one of the reasons why Cordell Hull received such pronounced favor in the selection of delegates to the convention."

"The entire world has been saddened by the finding of the members of the missing Italia," a reader of the Reflector told us today.

"General Noble and his followers were engaged in one of the greatest scientific investigations when they were forced to land in the frozen northland. Had it not been for their splendid radio equipment it is possible the civilized world never would have heard from them again.

"This brings us to the great part which this method of communication is playing in the life of the world. The greatest venture of the age may be followed almost minutely by use of the radio. It has proven of inestimable value in the advancement of science, and that it will become of greater worth as the world advances, we have not the slightest doubt.

"The crew of the Italia no doubt will give the world one of the most thrilling stories of adventure in years. Their experience in the isolated regions of the Northland will be among the most interesting of scientific ventures.

"General Noble has won distinction as an explorer in past years, but this single stroke of fate will give him far greater prominence in the life of the world."

"Hoover seems to be holding his own in the race for the Republican presidential nomination to be decided by party members in national convention at Kansas City," reflected a local politician today.

"Just how he is going to pan out in the final vote of the convention is problematical but it is a dead clinch he is the landing candidate at this time.

THREE TAUGHT SCHOOL TOGETHER FOR 30 YEARS
Westfield, Mass. (AP)—The last of an unusual trio of school teachers who passed three decades together, instructing the students in Westfield high school, will soon retire from service.

Miss Elizabeth F. Atwood, now the only living member of the group, has offered her resignation after being for 32 years a member of the faculty. Dennis M. Cole, for 32 years school instructor at the high school, died four years ago. Herbert W. Kittredge, for 38 years principal of the school, died a month ago after a short illness.

AWARD GOLD MEDAL TO HEROIC SAILOR
Washington, June 11.—(AP)—A posthumous award of a gold medal to W. H. News concerning the erection of a new school for the colored people of Greenville will be received with general interest among those interested in the education of this race," we were told by one who for years has used his efforts in improving the condition of the North Carolina colored man.

"The rapid growth in enrollment of the negro schools shows to what extent the population of the city is increasing. Not so many years ago the attendance at this school was negligible. Today, thanks to the untiring service of Principal C. M. Epps, one of the best known negro educators in this section, it has increased until erection of an additional building could no longer be avoided.

"Epps has done a wonderful work among his people and is to be congratulated upon the progress the schools have made."

OPEN FORUM

REPLIES TO BILLY SUNDAY SERMON ON ISMS AND CISMS

To the Editor:
Your issue of May 25, carried an account of a sermon delivered by a well known evangelist, in which he referred to the teachings of Christian Science, in a misleading way, so I shall thank you for the space to make a correction.

Christian Science is not an "ism" nor "cism." It is primitive Christianity restored, in the purity and simplicity of the teachings and works of its founder, Christ Jesus, with the signs following as in the early centuries of its history. Did not Jesus say, "these signs shall follow them that believe." "They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick and they shall recover." Again he said "all things are possible to him that believeth." One of the definitions of the word believe, is to "think." Then did he not intend to convey the idea that the same works were possible to those who THOUGHT as he did, about God and man? This is what Christian Science unfolds, and so reveals man to be one in thought and action with the infinite divine Principle, God, healing all beliefs of cisms.

In the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, Mrs. Eddy gives the following as the first tenet of the Christian Science Church: "As adherents of Truth, we take the inspired Word of the Bible as our sufficient guide to eternal life." (p. 497).

Other Presidential Campaigns 1880

(By The Associated Press)
(This is the seventh of a series of sketches of presidential campaigns since 1856.)

The Republican party feared that it was losing its hold on the electorate, when it met in national convention in 1880 at Chicago, June 2-8, and it deliberated carefully in selection of a nominee. As a compromise between James G. Blaine, John Sherman and other seekers of the nomination, none of whom could muster a majority of votes, the convention selected James A. Garfield, of Ohio, for President. Chester A. Arthur, of New York, was named for Vice-President.

The Democratic convention met at Cincinnati, June 22-24, and nominated for President General Winfield Scott Hancock, of Pennsylvania, who had served with distinction in the Union Army. William H. English, of Indiana, was nominated for Vice-President. The platform condemned the method of deciding the previous election.

In the Republican convention General Grant had a formidable array of delegates, but popular as he was, opposition to a third term was too strong to permit his nomination. Blaine was cost the nomination by a feud with Senators Roscoe Conkling and Platt, which was to contribute to his defeat when he won the nomination four years later.

Garfield and Arthur were elected, the latter to become President upon Garfield's assassination at Washington, July 2, 1881.

"ADS" IN THE REFLECTOR PAY

Are You "Climbing" Or Just "Gliding"?
A very lucid illustration of the operation or promotion of modern business is found in a comparison with the operation of a heavier than air flying machine.
The machine may be equipped with all the modern appliances and the Pilot may, by practical experience and training, be thoroughly qualified to successfully manipulate its intricate mechanism and safely conduct it to its intended destination.
Yet in spite of all these advantages and qualifications there is just one thing he is always absolutely dependent on for flight and that is the Propeller. Without it he can never rise from the ground. It is the fundamental principle of progress.
It is only when the Propeller is running with smoothness and regularity that he is able to climb upward, avoiding danger and disaster, and continues to climb only as the Propeller continues to function without intermission.
What would you say of an Aviator who started out to make a record for altitude and after climbing to a certain height decided that as everything seemed to be running smoothly he could dispense with the expense of operating the Propeller and still continue to climb?
But that is the very thing that many Retail Merchants are trying to do today. They use the Advertising Propeller to start with and after getting a good start feel secure enough to neglect its use.
Do they continue to climb? Do they maintain the same altitude? Do they affect a saving? They do not. At that very moment they start to "glide"—not a sudden fall to the ground but a gentle easy descent—for there is no such thing as remaining stationary.
When you stop the Propeller you start to "glide"; when you start the Propeller you commence to "climb."

Old Stamp Does Duty

Portland, Me. (AP)—A postage stamp printed 38 years ago was used to send a letter from Brunswick, Me., to Portland recently. It was a two cent stamp of the Columbian issue of 1892, commemorating the 400th anniversary of the landing of Columbus. The stamps, which have not been printed since that year, are of a purplish hue and depict the landing of the explorer.

Market Report

NEW YORK COTTON

New York, June 11.—(AP)—The cotton market was generally quiet today and prices fluctuated within a comparatively narrow range. Some early buying on reports of rains in the south over Sunday and prospects for further showers was supplied by realizing and later price movements were irregular, active months ruling about net unchanged during mid-afternoon. Futures closed easy 12 1/2 points lower; spot quiet; middling 20.95. Cotton futures closed:

CHICAGO GRAIN

Chicago, June 11.—(AP)—Better crop reports from the spring wheat belt did much to ease prices down in the wheat market today. Besides, Liverpool quotations were weak, and export demand for wheat from North America was limited. Wheat closed unsettled 7-8 to 1-3-8 net lower; corn at 1-8 to 3-4 advance; oats varying from 1-2 off to 1-8 up and, provisions at 12 decline to a gain of 2.

STOCK MARKET

New York, June 11.—(AP)—Increased resistance to selling pressure developed in today's stock market. Extreme declines of 2 to 10 points developed in a number of high priced specialties, but bounds developed in several cases an about a score issues, led by radio, showed independent strength. Numerically, losses again exceeded gains. Trading showed a further falling off in volume, total sales in the first three hours running well below 2,000,000 shares.

The unexpectedly large decline in the unfilled orders of the United States steel corporation last month, made public after the close of the market on Saturday, and the announcement of price cuts on automobile tires, furnished speculators for the decline plenty of ammunition in their campaign for lower prices. However, the severity of last week's reaction, coupled with the expansion in the short interest, led to expectations of at least a technical rally in many stocks.

Credit conditions showed little change. Call loans renewed at 5 1/2 per cent and a slightly easier undertone was apparent in time money market. The heavy over-subscription of the Reel government financing was widely regarded as a hopeful sign, although the coupon rate of 3 7/8 and 4 per cent compares with 3 1/4 in March and 3 1/8 last November. Political uncertainties continued.

To have a bearish effect on speculative sentiment.

Among the various industrial groups, coppers showed the best relative power while public utilities yielded most readily to selling pressure.

Radio ran up 7 points to 201 and then dipped below 200 on realizing. Baldwin broke 10 points to a new 1928 low at 235 and snapped back to 214. Delaware and Hudson climbed 4 1/2 points, but most of the other rails were heavy. Southern Railway, Union Pacific and Lackawanna losing 2 points or more. Greene Cananea, with a 3 point gain, led the rally in coppers. International Telephone, Aetna, Power, Western Union, Brooklyn Edison, Detroit Edison and American Telephone each lost 2 points or more.

Among the many issues to sink into new low ground for the year were American Hosiery and Leather, preferred, American Seating, Dodge Bros. "A," Great Northern Ore and Kansas City Southern common.

The closing was weak. Total sales approximated 3,100,000 shares.

ROTARY CONVENTION WILL PLAN EXTENSION INTO NEW COUNTRIES

Minneapolis.—(AP)—Rotary International, which came into being when the butcher, the baker and the candlestick maker of America gathered for a fraternal luncheon, will take stock of its growth and make plans for a great extension into the countries of the world at the annual convention in Minneapolis June 13-22.

Rotary clubs have been organized in five countries, and one of the principal issues before the gathering will be to lay the groundwork to extend the organization to others.

Among the 10,000 delegates expected will be representatives from 44 countries. Dr. Wilhelm Cuno, former chancellor of the German republic, will respond to the address of welcome to new Rotarians by Arthur H. Sapp of Huntington, Ind., international president.

Sir Donald Maclean, former deputy chairman of the British house of commons; Dr. Edouard Williams, noted Belgian educator; Dr. Eduardo Moore of Santiago, Chile, and Dr. R. C. McPhee, Melbourne, Australia, physician, are among other speakers from foreign countries.

Nearly 2,900 communities throughout the world will be represented in the gathering in the new Minneapolis auditorium. Many special assemblies for the discussion and development of social and civic opportunities for service will bring out the coming year's program of activity to be carried into every corner of the globe.

As an instance of the spread of Rotary, the Spanish and Portuguese speaking dinner at the convention will be nearly equal in size to the annual British Empire dinner, which brings together Rotarians from all the countries where Englishmen have settled and declared allegiance to their mother country.

Balloting for international officers will be held on June 21, with nominations being made the preceding day.

Arthur H. Sapp (above), president of Rotary International, and Dr. Wilhelm Cuno, former German Chancellor and speaker at Rotary convention in Minneapolis June 13-22.

Prize Winning Letter

Below the letter written by Mrs. Burt Burnett on "Why I send my Clothes to the Eureka Laundry."

I know I should send my laundry to the Eureka Laundry, because we live on a farm. There is always so much work to do. We keep busy all the time. We are always rushed with our work. We cannot afford a cook and there is always farm hands to cook for. We have cows to tend to, work our garden, raise lots of chickens, always something about the farm to look after or some farm work where an extra hand is needed for.

By sending my laundry to Eureka Laundry I could have time to help with all the work. It would save so much time and money also.

It is much cheaper to send out my laundry than to have to hire so many other things done. It always takes one day for washing and one day for ironing. By sending it to Eureka laundry I have two whole days for something else.

It is no trouble at all when you send laundry to the Eureka, for they come get them off your porch, and bring them back all laundered and folded so nice, right ready for use. No worry about the laundry and they do it at such a reasonable price. It is much cheaper than I could hire my washing alone done on the lot.

By sending it to Eureka Laundry I could have time to raise pretty flowers, make my home attractive, visit my neighbors, entertain my friends. I could spend my time doing pleasant things I like to do, instead of drudgery. And save money.

FORM PLANS FOR AROUND WORLD TRIP

Fliers of Southern Cross to Continue to Melbourne While Arranging Plans.

Sidney, Australia, June 11.—(AP)—Desire to continue around the world today gripped the two Australian pilots of the monoplane Southern Cross as they rested with their two American companions after their flight from Oakland, Cal.

However, the ship that proved so worthy on the treacherous 7,800 mile course will not remain idle pending formulation of the world flight plans, as the crew will take off Wednesday for Melbourne. The Melbourne trip, about 600 miles, was announced today by Captain Charles Kingsford-Smith and Charles Ulm, the Australian pilots, after they made known their hopes for a world tour.

With the praise of Australians at Brisbane and Sidney still fresh in their memories, the Americans, Harry W. Lyon, navigator, and James W. Warner, radio operator, also were to gain their share of the honors in the Southern Cross. Lyon expects to fly back to Sydney on Thursday and sail for the United States. Warner has not made known exactly what he plans to do after arriving at Melbourne.

Sidney forgot work yesterday and spent the day with the four fliers. A civic reception as held at the City Hall. Hundreds of persons who were unable to gain admittance to the hall enthusiastically cheered the airmen on their arrival at the place.

Captain Kingsford-Smith announced that he and Ulm intended to fly the Southern Cross around the world and that the start would be made from Sydney in a few days. They have not made it clear whether they intend proceeding on this journey from Melbourne or return to Sydney.

Washington, June 11.—(AP)—President Coolidge today received a cablegram from the Australian pilots of the Southern Cross, Capt. Kingsford-Smith and C. T. Ulm, saying that the flight of the plane from Oakland, Calif., to Australia "could not have been successful without our American colleagues' valuable assistance."

The message read: "Thank you, sir, for your congratulatory cablegram. We could not have been successful without our American colleagues' valuable assistance. Please also thank Lindbergh and other Americans who kindly honored us. We can never forget wonderful American friendship and hospitality."

Los Angeles, June 11.—(AP)—G. Allen Hancock, Los Angeles multimillionaire, and financial backer of Charles Kingsford-Smith and Chas. Ulm, who presented the airplane, Southern Cross, to the two aviators after their successful Pacific flight, today included the two Americans of the plane's crew in another gift.

To the Americans, Harry Lyon, navigator, and James Warner, radio operator, the wealthy sportsman has given a half interest in the profits of motion pictures of the flight. The other half of the profits will go to Kingsford-Smith and Ulm, the pilots.

The motion pictures were taken originally for Hancock's personal library and with no thought of public showing.

Word was sent to Milan to urge the flying boat Savoia-55, bearing an Italian rescue mission, to come north as speedily as possible. The plane headed for Zurich, but was prevented by heavy clouds from crossing the Alps. Taking a round-about route by way of Marseilles the plane was forced down on the Rhone river near Lyons, France.

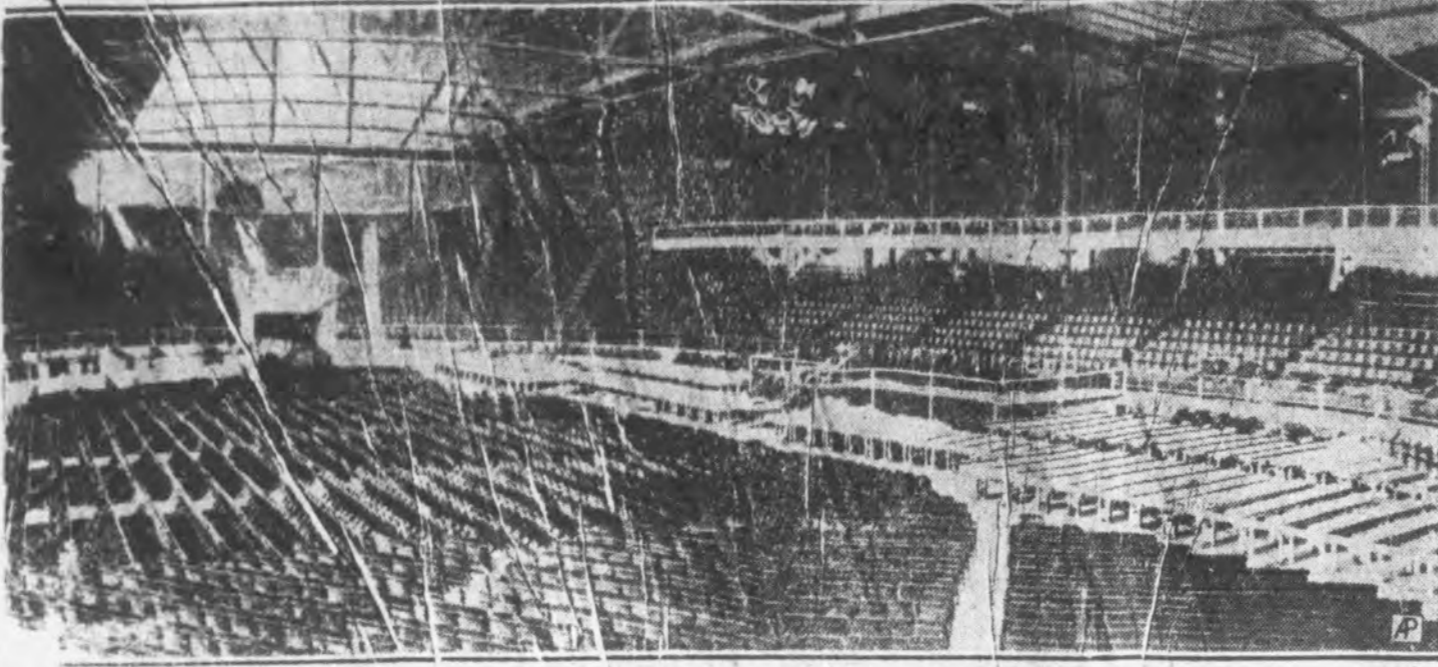

DEPEW IS MISSED BY REPUBLICANS

Kansas City, (AP)—The Republicans will miss Chauncey M. Depew. The old master of fun and finance has been elected a delegate to every Republican convention since 1864, when he helped nominate Abraham Lincoln. However, he was unable to attend in 1890 and 1924. He was made a delegate again this year, to represent the first congressional district of New York, but death in April removed him forever from the ranks of the party shortly before the ninety-fourth anniversary of his birth.

In 1888, Mr. Depew received 99 votes for the Presidential nomination, but withdrew to end a deadlock.

DENIES MOTION OF NOT GUILTY FOR SINCLAIR

Justice Siddons Declines to Close the Charge of Misdemeanor.

Washington, June 11.—(AP)—The motion of defense attorneys for a directed verdict of not guilty in the trial of Robert W. Stewart, charged with a misdemeanor for refusing to answer questions put by a senate committee was denied today by Justice Siddons in the District of Columbia supreme court.

The jury was excused until tomorrow morning when Frank Hogan, chief of defense counsel, and Leo A. Rover, district attorney, said they would require the balance of the day for argument on motions for instruction.

Hogan noted exceptions when the court refused to direct a verdict for Stewart. He also moved for reconsideration of the ruling striking out defense testimony to show which members of the senate public lands committee were actually present when Stewart was called before it.

King's Lands Yield Millions to Britain

Windsor, Eng., (AP)—One of the biggest landlords in England is King George V.

He has lands comprising 276,000 acres, of which 108,000 are agricultural. The rest are house, store and manufacturing property.

Not only is the king one of the largest, but he is also one of the most efficient owners of land in the kingdom. From his lands the nation derived during the last fiscal year the record sum of $5,500,000, which is exactly double the yield of 1915.

The most profitable of the king's property is a large section of Regent street, London. Before the street was rebuilt several years ago the income was $220,000. It is now $1,500,000.

It is the nation, however, and not the king, which has benefited through these increases. The king received a fixed allowance of $2,350,000 a year. When this amount was determined, however, the royal domain income was only $2,400,000.

The king's lands are daily being developed. A little woodland city of 1,200 acres is rising in the midst of Windsor Great Park. If this proves a success, another 2,800 acres will be used in the same way. Great care is being taken to make the little city a thing of beauty. Every house will have at least an acre of ground. For every tree destroyed another must be planted. Two golf courses are being constructed.

When a British monarch comes to the throne it is his usual practice to surrender the income from his lands in return for a fixed allowance from the state. He is not forced to make this agreement, however, and it would be his constitutional right to resume possession of his lands if he preferred.

When King George came to the throne he had a revenue from his

Yeggs Fail To Make Haul At Efland Bank

Efland, June 11.—(AP)—The vault door of the Bank of Efland, Orange county, was blown open by unknown robbers at a late hour last night. No money was taken, bank officials said as the time lock prevented further entrance into the vault.

The discovery was made as employees reported for work this morning. Police of Durham and other cities were requested to investigate.

Pioneer Woman Educator Dead

Charlotte, June 11.—(AP)—Miss Sallie Bethune, teacher for half a century in Charlotte schools and one of North Carolina's pioneer educational figures, died here last night at the age of 77 years.

She had been ill since last September. For some time she had undergone treatment at the Charlotte sanatorium, but continued in failing health.

Funeral services will be held at the First Methodist this afternoon.

SLY MOUSE IS GHOST OF YELLOWSTONE HOTEL

Yellowstone Park, (AP)—At six o'clock of every cold, raw winter evening a bell in room 203 of the old Fountain Hotel would ring.

Every night at six o'clock a frightened, but conscientious caretaker made his cautious way to room 203, only to find it empty.

Finally even the caretaker's earnestness could not stand the spectral twilight calls, and he fled the hotel in the company of a park photographer.

The old hotel was remodeled the next spring, and the workers found that a mouse had made its nest in the wall of room 203 over the wire leading to the bell. It had nibbled off the insulation so that every time it touched it the bell rang. The regularity of the ghostly rings testify to the excellent character of the rodent.

Even this explanation has not entirely put down the evil reputation of the hotel, and natives, park rangers and general park employees have held for 20 years to their belief in the "haunt." Demolition of the building this spring, however, is expected to lay the ghost forever.

PEKING AREA IS IN STATE OF ISOLATION

Foreign Diplomats Charge Nationalists With Bad Faith in Evacuation of City.

Peking, June 11.—(AP)—With Peking all but isolated, refugees were thronging the legation area today. A note of the foreign diplomats to the Nationalists charging bad faith in carrying out an agreement for the peaceful occupation was unanswered.

Troops of one of the military allies of the Nationalist cause were in the city, but their commander-in-chief, Governor Yen Hsi-Shan of Shansi, had decided it was not prudent to come to Peking at present. There were indications that another military ally of the Nationalists, Feng Yu-Hsiang, would himself take over control. Peking today was practically surrounded by his troops. They outnumbered the Shansi forces two to one.

Fighting was in progress to the north of Tientsin and it was thought probable that Feng would not arrive in Peking until he had occupied Tientsin.

Shanghai, June 11.—(AP)—It was thought here that the diplomats' protest regarding the Nationalist failure to grant safe conduct to Mukden troops evacuating from Peking would receive safe conduct to Mukden troops evacuating from Peking would receive scant attention.

General Chiang Kai-Shek has resigned as commander-in-chief of the Nationalist armies and chairman of the Nationalist military council. Feng Yu-Hsiang, the action of whose forces brought the protest, was today regarded as the dominating figure in China. This morning C. T. Wang, was expected to become Nationalist foreign minister. Wang stated that he would pursue a "strong attitude" toward foreigners and in view of this it was predicted that little attention would be paid to the note.

Following the address Governor McLean presented diplomas to 346 graduates.

Dr. Chase urged the graduates to beware of pitfalls of prejudice and passion and to think questions through before arriving at conclusions.

The only way to arrive at truth is through the clash of honest opinions, he declared, and "it follows, therefore, that we must be tolerant toward each other and listen without prejudice, that we may learn."
