HULL FORCES CONTROL STATE CONVENTION

Nomination Of Herbert Hoover Seems Certain Today

BAILEY CONCEDES TWELVE OF TWENTY DELEGATES TO DEMOCRAT FROM TENNESSEE

Real Fight For Delegates To Houston Convention Expected To Get Under Way Late This Afternoon; Max Gardner Given Big Ovation.

Raleigh, June 12.—(AP)—Conceding 12 of the 20 district delegates to Cordell Hull, Josiah William Bailey, floor leader for Smith in the state Democratic convention, claimed the remaining eight for the New York governor in a statement issued at 2 o'clock this afternoon, when the convention took a recess until 3 o'clock.

The keynote address of Aubrey L. Brooks, Greensboro, and an address by O. Max Gardner, the party's nominee for the governorship, consumed practically all of the early afternoon.

Failure of the credentials committee to report when it was expected caused Chairman Brooks to adjourn for an hour. Announcement that the committee on party platform would hold a session about mid-afternoon was taken to mean that the real fight for delegates to Houston would hardly get under way before four o'clock.

O. Max Gardner, party nominee for governor, was given an ovation when he was introduced to the convention by Mrs. Lily Morehead Meeklenburg of Spray.

Calling for harmony and urging the delegates to remember that November was far greater in importance to the party than was June, the Shelby farmer-lawyer asked every Democrat to fight fairly and honorably for his convictions.

"Let me urge you," said Mr. Gardner, "as we clash in the heat of these preliminary skirmishes, not to forget that the big drive for democracy, the supreme test of our political devotion comes in November and not in June."

Former Governor Cameron Morrison, Mecklenburg, was named to the platform committee by the caucus of delegates from the ninth district.

W. H. Wood, Mecklenburg, was elected chairman, Mrs. S. A. Robinson, Gaston, vice chairman, and T. L. Kirkpatrick, Mecklenburg, secretary.

The fifth district caucus selected B. S. Womble, Forsythe, for the platform committee, and B. W. Parham, Oxford, for the committee on credentials.

By the sixth district H. R. McKinnon, Robeson, was chosen on the platform committee, and Terry A. Lyon, Cumberland, on the credentials committee.

The tenth district until shortly before noon, argued mostly over election of its executive committee. Hot contests marked Rutherford county and Henderson county selections. Mrs. J. E. Shipman, Henderson, was named on the committee. The table for the time being, Rutherford delegation, 33 to 2, sought to put Committeeman C. O. Ridings out of that position.

Coolidge's Trip To Summer Home Postponed Today

Washington, June 12.—(AP)—The time for President Coolidge's departure for the 1928 summer White House depends today upon the condition of Mrs. Coolidge, who has been stricken, although not seriously, with a recurrence of her recent illness.

With preparations completed for leaving last night after the President's address to the government business organization, it was announced in view of Mrs. Coolidge's indisposition. The journey had been temporarily postponed. The White House physician, Colonel James F. Couple and Lieutenant Commander Joel Boone, were of the opinion that while Mrs. Coolidge had improved considerably during the day, the trip to Wisconsin would subject the first lady to undue and inadvisable hardships.

Meanwhile, the preparations already made were kept intact so that the trip might be begun as soon as Mrs. Coolidge's condition warranted it.

WOMAN FLIER HOPS OFF FOR HARBOR GRACE

Mabel Boll Winging Way to New Foundland On First Leg of Trans-Atlantic Hop.

Roosevelt Field, N. Y., June 12.—(AP)—Miss Mabel Boll who would like to be the first woman to cross the Atlantic by air, took off at 7:20 o'clock this morning (daylight saving) in the monoplane Columbia, for Harbor Grace, N. F., on her second attempt to essay the trans-Atlantic crossing.

The monoplane, veteran of an ocean flight to Germany, was piloted by Captains Oliver LeBoutillier and Arthur Argles, Americans, veterans of the British Royal Air Force. Aboard the plane also was Andrew Surrin, chief mechanic for Charles A. Levine, the plane's owner.

The take-off, after numerous delays due to unfavorable weather, was made under rather inauspicious circumstances.

The gay group of night club patrons that had gathered at the field last Thursday when Miss Boll made her previous take-off was missing. At that time she was forced back by fog after six hours in the air. Only a few friends of the "Queen of Diamonds" were on hand. Among these, however, was her mother, Mrs. Josephine Boll, of Rochester, N. Y., who kissed her good-bye as she stepped into her plane.

New York, June 12.—(AP)—Dr. James H. Kimball of the weather bureau, unofficial starter of trans-Atlantic flights, said reports indicated that weather conditions would be favorable today for an ocean hop. There is a storm southwest of the British Isles, but that is rapidly moving out of the path.

Harbor Grace, N. F., June 12.—(AP)—Conditions here were excellent today for the expected arrival of the plane Columbia from New York. The air field was in good shape and the sky was clear, with an increasing westerly wind.

A supply of fuel for the Columbia arrived here last Saturday.

Hoover Stock Reaches New High Level Today

By PAUL F. HAUPERT, Associated Press Staff Writer.

Kansas City, June 12.—(AP)—The word has gone down the line heras the Republican convention gets under way that President Coolidge would not accept the nomination, and the effect has been to boost Hoover stock to new high levels.

Confident that their man can't be headed off now, the commerce secretary's managers flatly predicted today his nomination on the first ballot Thursday. His foes, a determined lot, clung to the hope, however, that a deadlock would develop to throw the convention out of kilter and bring about the selection of a dark horse.

With the opening of the convention only a few hours away, the "draft Coolidge" talk, which had been causing the Hoover adherents some concern, was hushed when party leaders got their heads together for the usual night-before-conferences. Those in a position to know gave assurance that the President was not available, and with him eliminated from consideration, a Hoover victory seemed in the offing.

Friend and foe of the cabinet officer agreed that only one thing was needed to clinch things for him definitely—the support of the unstructured delegation from Pennsylvania. And the Hoover boosters confidently predicted that their candidate would have that, although Mellon had not publicly shown his hand.

The treasury secretary, who heads the delegates from the keystone state, arrived here late yesterday. He declined to be drawn out as to his views on the Presidency, explaining that he would have nothing to say

Storm Brews Today As Republican Platform Builders Begin Activity

Kansas City, June 12.—(AP)—Literally buried under an avalanche of suggestions and proposals, Republican platform makers go to work today—putting together the declaration upon which the party will ask a new grant of power from the American people in the November election.

Second in importance to the selection of the standard-bearer the platform this time presents an unusual number of perplexities for the leaders from over the country who will work out the draft form for the consideration of the convention probably next Thursday.

Whether all of the problems can be solved within the closely guarded committee room in Eagles' Hall, hard by the convention auditorium remains a matter of conjecture with the possibilities that the two most controverted subjects—farm relief and prohibition enforcement—will find their way to the convention floor.

Should these two subjects be thrown open for a finish fight by the delegates themselves, the Grand Old Party may furnish the most spectacular convention it has held in more than a decade. But the leaders will bend every effort to prevent a floor fight by settling all controversies within the resolutions committee, composed of one member from each of the states.

Administration forces and farm leaders still are far apart on the agricultural relief plank and it may require a couple of days to iron out those differences if they can be settled without a vote of the convention itself.

An endorsement of President Coolidge's veto of the McNary-Haugen bill with its equalization fee is insisted upon by the administration group with a new declaration for a reasonable relief plan and for a raising of the tariff schedules so as to place agriculture on a parity with industry.

Rumblings of a battle of sizeable proportions were heard as the delegates prepared to take their places for the opening session of the convention. A fight on the plank contained in the tentative administration draft completed yesterday by Senators Smoot, of Utah, and Moses, of New Hampshire, and others, was forecast yesterday with the action of the New York delegation, in declining to place Ogden Mills, under-secretary of the treasury, on the resolutions committee.

Senator Borah, of Idaho, who drew a dry plank, is insistent that this plank name the 13th amendment and he has threatened to take his fight to the floor of the convention if the resolutions committee fails to meet his views. This controversy promises to be one to tax the diplomatic capacity of the party conciliators of most of the leaders who want to avoid any display of bitterness which would attend a convention floor fight on the wet and dry question.

After the resolutions committee is duly commissioned by the convention, it will meet under the leadership of Smoot and appoint several sub-committees to give hearings to the many groups here

CARRANZA IS FORCED DOWN BY DENSE FOG

Mexican "Lone Eagle" Descends at Mooresville, 3:30 This Morning.

Mooresville, June 12.—(AP)—Capt. Emilio Carranza, young Mexican aviator who was forced down by fog here today on an attempted non-stop hop from Mexico City to Washington, resumed his good will flight at 1:50 o'clock this afternoon.

Taking off from the field where he landed at 3:30 o'clock this morning, the young pilot headed his Ryan monoplane northwest to pick up the Atlanta-New York air route which he will follow to Washington. He expects to arrive about 5 o'clock.

Mooresville, N. C., June 12.—(AP)—Forced down here shortly before dawn this morning on an attempted non-stop flight from Mexico City to Washington, Captain Emilio Carranza, young Mexican "Lone Eagle," today awaited the lifting of the fog before resuming his good-will flight to the capital of the United States.

"But I guess the people in Washington won't be so glad to see me now," he told the Associated Press "and my countrymen won't be so proud of me now."

The 23 year old Latin flier appeared to take his forced landing very hard. He was unable to say what his immediate plans were expected to be.

HULL FORCES BUSY NAMING DELEGATIONS

Raleigh, June 12.—(AP)—Four delegates with half a vote each were named by the Hull forces in the sixth district caucus today for certification to the state convention. They were H. H. Clarke, Elizabethtown; J. C. Thompson, Lillington; W. S. Britt, Lumberton, and J. A. Brown, Whiteville. Col. J. B. Bellamy, Wilmington, a Smith supporter, was defeated.

Delegates named by the second district caucus were: J. Waldo Whitaker, Enfield; D. M. Costello, Bertie; Ernest Deans, Wilson, and B. L. Shelton, Edgecombe. Thomas D. Warren, New Bern, B. C. Fiske, Warren, B. C. Humphrey, Wayne, and C. S. Wallace, Morehead City, were the delegates selected by the third district.

The seventh district named J. C. M. Vann, Monroe, and S. W. Finch, Lexington, described as Smith supporters, and L. D. Robinson, Wadesboro, and U. L. Spence, Carthage, reputed Hull adherents, as delegates.

In the eighth district, R. L. Smith, Jr., Albemarle; George W. Allen, Cabarrus; Walter Woodson, Rowan, and Luther Hartsell, Cabarrus, were designated delegates. Hartsell was said to favor Smith while the others were listed as Hull supporters.

The fourth district named R. S. McCain, Bance; J. R. Weatherspoon, Wake; J. O. Gravelly, Nash, and F. H. Brooks, Johnston. Among those defeated in this district was W. B. Deans, Wake, chairman of the Smith campaign committee. J. A. Bell, Mecklenburg, and Mr. Lattimore, of Cleveland county, were named delegates by the ninth district, with C. W. Tillet, Mecklenburg, and Miss Beatrice Cobb, Burke, as alternates.

Delegates named from the tenth district were C. N. Malone, Buncombe, and J. Q. Gully, McDowell. The first district elected W. O. Saunders, Elizabeth City, and E. G. Flanagan, Pitt county, as Smith delegates, and John W. Holmes, Pitt, and Roy Parker, Hertford, as Hull delegates.

PENNSYLVANIA DELEGATION LINES UP SOLIDLY BEHIND THE COMMERCE SECRETARY

Picked To Win

HERBERT HOOVER

With the final fading of President Coolidge from the picture as a presidential nominee for another term and the announcement that Pennsylvania's 79 votes will go for Herbert Hoover, members of the Hoover camp today declared that their candidate will likely receive the nomination just as soon as balloting begins at Thursday's session of the Republican National Convention.

Convention Hall, Kansas City, June 12.—(AP)—Convinced that Coolidge won't run again, the Republican national convention assembled today in convention hall ready to nominate Hoover and go home as quickly as the formalities will permit.

On the final completion of a few platform planks, and the decision who will be the nominee for the vice-presidency—a decision to be made largely by Hoover himself—remained in dispute when Chairman Butler of the Republican national committee, rapped for order at three minutes after eleven o'clock.

Out in front from the start the movement for Hoover had become a real band-wagon-parade in the last few moments before the convention began. In turn Pennsylvania, Idaho and Vermont and such individual holdouts as Secretary Mellon and Chairman Butler himself, went over into the swelling camp of the majority. There remains no doubt of a nomination on the first ballot barring only a bombshell explosion of a most unprecedented proportion.

It will be Thursday before the balloting can begin, but the Hoover men who are handling the levers of the party organization expect to be on their way home by Thursday night.

Today the convention only went through the motions of getting itself organized, hearing the keynote speech by Senator Fess of Ohio, appointing the committees, which are to draw up a platform and smooth out details of the convention organization, and joining with Mme. Schumann-Heink in singing the national anthem. There will be no afternoon session.

Convention Hall, Kansas City, June 12.—(AP)—In a plain and business like convention arena minus many of the customary frills and decorated in a subdued and almost somber color scheme, the Grand Old Party assembled today for what seemed certain to be a plain and business-like national convention.

Helped by a tremendous last-minute boost from Secretary Mellon and the Pennsylvania delegation, the tide for Hoover moved on without a moment of abatement, and as the delegates came together all of Mr. Hoover's managers and some of his enemies predicted a quick nomination when the first roll call starts on Thursday.

Not only the Hoover men and women, but the whole convention personnel seemed anxious to get on as rapidly as possible with the big show. More than an hour before the time set for the opening there was a sprinkling of delegates on the floor, and as soon as the doors were opened at 10 o'clock to spectators, the sloping sides of the convention immediately began to fill rapidly.

Chairman Butler, the friend of President Coolidge and one of those who had hoped almost until the last that the President would run again, was on the convention platform an hour and a quarter before the opening hour. On his way to the convention hall he had informed his colleagues of the Massachusetts delegation that so far as he was concerned the fight was over, and he would vote for Hoover.

The first delegate to take his place in the section of hard-boiled theatre chairs placed on the convention floor was Lemuel Mitch of South Vienna, Ohio. For a long time he had the whole convention to himself. The two women of the Maine delegation took front row seats in the section reserved for their state directly in front of the convention chairman.

Theodore Burton, of Ohio, a veteran of many years, came soon after 10 o'clock and posed in the aisle for a group of photographers. Soon after "Poly" Tinsler, of Kansas (Continued on page six)

Action Of Pennsylvania Causes Other States To Throw Their Weight To Hoover And Convention Becomes Regular Band Wagon Parade.

N. C. FORCES ORGANIZE AT KANSAS CITY

By J. H. JENKINS, Associated Press Staff Writer.

Kansas City, June 12.—(AP)—Expressing determination to take every possible advantage of the situation within the state the North Carolina delegation to the Republican National Convention today had organized with the Lowden forces in control but with all sides expressing satisfaction with the situation.

State Chairman Brownlow Jackson of Hendersonville had announced a meeting of the delegation for this morning, after a brief conference between rival leaders, however, it was decided to call the delegation together late last night and get the organization details out of the way.

W. G. Bramham of Durham was chosen spokesman for the delegation on the convention floor and to him was left the arrangement of a slate covering the other officers with the proviso that he confer with Hoover proponents among the stage party leaders.

After a short conference with Charles A. Jonas, national committeeman and Brownlow Jackson, state chairman, Mr. Bramham announced the appointment of the following:

Resolutions committee: W. H. Fisher, Clinton, Lowden supporter. Credentials committee: Willis G. Briggs, Raleigh, Lowden supporter. Rules committee: Brownlow Jackson, Hendersonville, Hoover supporter.

Organization: Charles A. Jonas, Lincolnton, Hoover supporter. The appointment of a member of the committee to notify the nominees for President and vice-president was postponed until after the nominations have been made.

The organization of the delegation by the Lowden men did not come as any particular surprise as a poll of the delegation days ago had shown that Lowden had ten votes, Hoover seven and that three were doubtful but claimed for Lowden. There was no direct test of (Continued on page six)

Airplane Carrier Sets New Record

Washington, June 12.—(AP)—The airplane carrier Lexington in the second 24 hours of her voyage from San Pedro Cal., to Honolulu established another new record by making a run of 742 miles, she informed the navy department today. The carrier made 700 miles the first 24 hours out to exceed by ten miles all previous ship speed records.

Hoover Cheerful Over Outlook for His Nomination

Washington, June 12.—(AP)—It was a cheerful and genial secretary Hoover who attended today's cabinet meeting at the White House.

Secretary Hoover was one of the first persons in Washington to read the Associated Press dispatch which announced that his nomination as Republican candidate for President seemed to be virtually certain at Kansas City because of the adhesion of the Pennsylvania delegation to his cause. He held to the unbreakable silence, however, that has marked his conduct since the convention approached.

COMES BY AIR TO BOOST HOOVER, AVIATION

Kansas City, (AP)—Harry H. Culver of Los Angeles, Hoover-for-President leader, dropped in on the Republican convention in his "flying business office" and began boosting Hoover and aviation.

Mr. Culver is a real estate dealer of national reputation and an aviation enthusiast. He flies a Stinson Detroiter monoplane.

Three friends accompanied Mr. Culver to Kansas City, the trip requiring 18 hours of flying from Los Angeles.

TIENTSIN UNDER NATIONAL FLAG

Washington, June 12.—(AP)—Word received here indicated that Tientsin, Peking's outlet to the sea, today came under the Nationalist flag. Dispatches said that the city had been taken over by Shansi troops.

Friendship Fails To Get Away Today

Trepassey, N. F., June 12.—(AP)—The monoplane Friendship, made three unsuccessful attempts to rise from the water of Trepassey harbor today and take off for Europe. Weather conditions were favorable with a strong west wind, and it appeared that the six-ton load was too heavy to be lifted.

TOBACCONISTS DROP ONE TO ROCKY MOUNT

Rocky Mount, June 11.—Rocky Mount's Buccaneers played baseball this afternoon after the same fashion they did early in the season, hitting frequently and hard to score seven runs in five innings and load the bases in the sixth when the game was called on account of rain. The final count was 7-1.

Sammie Fayonky led the batting with a triple and a double in two times at the plate. Brandes, Witry, and Haley also accounted for two safeties each.

Two double plays, one in the third and one in the fourth, deprived the Greensies of any real chance to score after Finlator had scored when he tripled and Haley allowed Mattox a single in the third, the only remaining visiting hit in the contest.

Pickup, former Wilmington outfielder, played right field for the Buc today. Brandes and Byrd played spectacular ball in the infield to feature the Buc fielding while Finlator's one-handed catch of Brandes' long fly featured the fielding for the Greensies.

Ed Mackie, former Carolina star, is expected to get back in the closing game with the Greensies tomorrow.

The silver trophy emblematic of the British open golf championship came back to the United States with Walter Hagen when the title winner landed on the Maurctania.

YANKS STRIKE SECOND SLUMP OF THE SEASON

The New York Yankees have struck their second "slump" of the season. They've lost two ball games in a row; their defeats have at last reached double figures and their won and lost percentage has slipped below .500. There appears little reason to believe, however, that Miller Huggins has started to go in for any worrying on an intensive scale.

Oddly enough it was none other than the lowly Chicago White Sox who reached it up from the American League cellar to smite the Yankees for their tenth setback yesterday, just as defeat number nine for the champions had come from the game team the day before.

Reversal number 10 can be attributed to airtight pitching by Ted Blankenship who held murderer, Sox to 1000 hits and would have had a 6 to 0 shutout but for Johnny Mostil's error in the 7th inning when the Yankees scored their one run.

Successive home runs by Al Simmons and Fox in the eighth enabled the Athletics to down Detroit 4 to 2, and cut the Yankees lead to a mere nine and a half games.

The St. Louis Browns consolidated their place just back of the Athletics in the standing by turning back the Boston Red Sox 2 to 1.

The Cleveland Indians took it on the chin again, Washington walking off with a 7 to 6 victory in ten innings.

Cincinnati Reds their second victory over the New York Giants, 7 to 5. Val Pleinich hit two homers.

St. Louis clung to the Reds' pace-making heels with an easy victory over the Boston Braves, 3 to 1.

Grover Cleveland Alexander showing surprising return to form.

Guy Bush outpitched McWeeny and Earhardt and the Chicago Cubs took the first game of the series with Brooklyn 3 to 1.

The Pittsburgh Pirates patched up lineup was so full of holes that the Phillies drove through to win 6 to 4, scoring four of their runs in the 7th inning.

Asheville Clings To Top in Sally

(By the Associated Press)
 Asheville's title to first place in the South Atlantic Association is safe for another day at least—thanks to Charlotte.

The Hornets proved too much of an obstacle for Macon to overcome and when the game had been called at the end of the tenth because of darkness the score was knotted at two all.

Lennox' home run in the fifth enabled Charlotte to tie the score. The Tourists had a tough day, losing their game to Spartanburg 2 and 1, in another extra inning affair.

August bunched his nine hits to defeat Columbia 6 to 1, all the scoring being done in two innings. Although hitting on even terms with Knoxville, 13 each Greenville had 16 men left on bases and lost to the Snokies, 10 to 7.

Winston-Salem Gets Into First Piedmont Berth

By clinching the first game of a double-header two to one and tying the Greensboro Patriots in the nightcap, the Winston-Salem Tams scrambled into the first berth of the Piedmont League yesterday. Darkness halted the second game at the end of eight innings.

The Raleigh Caps twisted the Durham Bulls' latters by the score of 11 to 5 in a rather listless game, leaving the club in the cellar with a new low percentage.

The High Point-Salisbury game was rained out.

Pirates Still Mounting Ladder In East Carolina

(By the Associated Press.)
 The Wilmington Pirates yesterday took a seven inning exhibition from Fayetteville by the count of 4 to 3 to increase their leadership in the Eastern Carolina League. The second game of the scheduled double header was rained out. Fayetteville continued to hold their position but by a dangerously narrow margin.

After hitting opportunely to win the first game 8 to 4, Kinston failed to break the 2 to 2 tie in the seven innings of the second game with Goldsboro.

Rocky Mount battered two Greenville pitchers for nine, safeties in five and one-half inning and won with ease, 7 to 1.

A SAD THOUGHT.

"Billy" Sunday is gone and we are all sad. Except the devil's followers they are all glad. In the days to come when all hope is gone.

They'll think of invitations that they let pass on. He preached the plain gospel with such vehemence force. You would think he'd grow weary, but he only gets hoarse. He pulled off his coat, his collar and tie. And told them the consequences if the truth they deny.

If by his argument you were not touched.

You've been coerced by the devil entirely too much.

The time is coming soon, yea, it may be at hand.

When you'll be called in Judgment, a nanswer He'll demand.

Remember time and tide never waits for any man.

To join in the choir of the High King's band.

But if you are willing, eager and longing to sing.

You will hear the chiming bells in Paradise ring.

IN MEMORIAM

(In memory of our Mother, Bette A. Simons, who died June 2, 1928)

In the graveyard softly sleeping, Where the flowers quietly wave, Lies the one we love so dearly, In her lonely, silent grave.

Thou art gone but not forgotten, In this great world of strife, Thou shall always be remembered, As long as God gives us life.

More and more each day we miss you, Friends may think the wound is healed.

But they little know the sorrow That lies in our hearts concealed.

The midnight stars are beaming, Upon her lonely grave, Where sleepeth without dreaming The one we could not save.

Sleep on, dear loving Mother, And take thou peaceful rest, God called you home to dwell, He thought it for the best.

Dear Mother, thou has left us And gone to heaven above, Where there is no pain or sorrow, Happy in Jesus' love. Daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Nelson.

Larry Newsome Convicted of Murder For Second Time at Pittsboro Last Night.

Pittsboro, June 12.—(AP)—Tried in a circle of bristling bayonets, and protected by three machine guns commanding all approaches to the Chatham county courthouse, Larry Newsome, young Wayne county negro, was convicted a second time for the murder of Beulah Tedder, 14-year-old Wayne girl, and sentenced at 10 o'clock last night to die in the electric chair on Friday, July 3. An appeal was entered immediately by his attorneys, which will postpone the date of execution.

The trial moved along with almost monotonous precision in contrast with the first trial of the negro at Goldsboro last December, when relatives of the slain girl caused a commotion in the courtroom by attempting to seize the defendant and Judge Henry A. Grady flashed a pistol from the bench. Newsome was convicted at that time but the supreme court granted him a new trial.

Offering no testimony, attorney for the negro admitted he had confessed the crime but pleaded with the jury to return a verdict of second degree murder, carrying a maximum punishment of 30 years imprisonment. Solicitor Clawson Williams rejected an offer to enter a second degree plea. Judge R. A. Nunn, presiding, expressed his thanks to Col. Don E. Scott, 120 infantry, N. C. N. G., for the presence of the troops. Newsome was taken back to Raleigh under guard of a detachment from the Durham machine gun company last night.

Now that Coolidge is definitely out of the race and Mellon has spoken, there seems to be little doubt that Hoover will be the Republican standard-bearer. We are wondering what kind of trick he will turn to get back into the good graces of the Western farmer.

The Australian Ballot as urged by O. Max Gardner is surely one reform that should be put into effect in this state. More especially since women entered politics, it is necessary to have a voting system whereby one may cast his or her vote privately and according to his or her own desires without having to push through a mob of petty politicians that now surround our polling places endeavoring to pass out marked tickets to all those who approach.

MORE!

For skill in using two opposite sets of facts to support the same argument the Republican League of Philadelphia should be awarded the brass button. It has already launched a drive at Kansas City for the insertion in the Republican platform of a plank calling for an upward revision of the tariff rates. It says that when the present tariff was enacted in 1922 Europe was prostrate, and that higher schedules are now needed to meet the competition of a Europe restored.

All this is very enlightening to those whose memories go back to the tariff agitation of 1921-22. At that time these same folk were calling for higher rates because Europe was prostrate. Its rapidly depreciating currencies, we were told, had given our foreign competitors an overwhelming advantage which could be contracted only by a drastic upward revision of the tariff rates. Now now that these currencies have been stabilized we are told that the duties must be made still higher because Europe is on its feet again. No matter what happens, at home or abroad, on land or at sea, the country can be saved by a higher tariff.—New York World.

ABOUT TOWN

"I saw in the Reflector yesterday where another new tobacco warehouse was under construction in Greenville," one of our readers said to the writer today.

"This gives us nine houses of this kind with a total floor space of over ten acres. This is something to be proud of. We have always claimed to be the best market in the state, but if we continue to build houses and increase our facilities it will not be so very long before we will claim the honor of being the largest market in the world.

"There is no reason in the world why we should not realize this ambition. Situated in the largest bright leaf tobacco producing country in the whole country it ought to be an easy matter to convince the farmers that this is the logical place to sell his offerings. We ought to be able to draw more farmers from adjoining counties—those who for many years have been carrying their products to other centers without realizing the splendid prices paid here.

"With the increase in warehouse and factories this year Greenville should be able not only to reach her goal of seventy million pounds, but to go beyond it."

"All we will get over the wires the next few days will be news of the Republican national convention in progress at Kansas City," remarked a politician today, as he read an article dealing with the probability of Hoover's nomination by the grand old party.

"This is the kind of news the general run of people want, however. If it were not the newspapers would not have a great staff of workers on the scene, writing overtime to keep the world informed of what the convention is doing in the way of providing one of the leading presidential candidates.

"There has been some talk of drafting Mr. Coolidge at the last moment. But this is hardly likely after his emphatic declaration, 'I do not choose to run,' and subsequent warning of politicians of the dangers of such action.

"Mr. Coolidge unquestionably is the biggest man the party has at this time. He would pull more votes than any other man they could put out. But his disinclination to accept further honors places him beyond reach of that mass of enthusiastic supporters who would renominate him despite his reluctance.

"Herbert Hoover is the next best bet of the party. It is an honor the former food administrator has been after for years, and the grand old party could not please him better than conferring this high honor upon him.

"The outcome of the convention will be watched interestedly from every nook and corner of the country and folks will then have something to keep their tongues wagging until next November when they will have an opportunity of determining who will sit at the helm of government for the next four years."

"That darned jinx has us again," complained an enthusiastic supporter of the Greenville baseball club as he cast a furtive glance at the score board in front of the Reflector office and read, 'Rocky Mount 7 Greenville 1.'

"Why in the dickens he can't let us alone until we can get to the top of the win column is more than I can understand. We lost him completely week before last and won eight out of nine games. We thought we were preparing to enjoy a regular season of victories, but the jinx—inexorable as fate itself continued to pursue us until our losses outnumbered the victories of one solid week."

"This situation can't be permitted to continue much longer. Something must be done to improve the situation. If somebody has a suggestion, we wish they would pass it to the club owners and let them try it out. Of course, the moguls think they have had enough advice from the public, but if they can't lose the jinx they ought not to mind somebody else helping them solve the situation."

"Another concern of national reputation has located one of its branches in Greenville," the writer was informed by a business man today.

"This is another argument in behalf of the expansion of Greenville as a business and industrial city."

"Nearly every month some new industry locates here. In the course of the next two or three years we ought to be numbered among the leading cities of the state.

"The coming of these enterprises brings new people to the city. These people have to have places to live. If they don't find any place to rent they are compelled to board.

"And right here is where our argument about apartment houses and more homes to rent comes in so good advantage. Mr. Business man, take my advice and invest your money in new homes. With the present growth as an index to the future, you would not be able to find a safer or surer investment if you went to the largest city in the nation and invested your cash.

"Greenville is destined to become the leading city of Eastern North Carolina. Help this ambition materialize quickly by putting your money in the venture."

"North Carolina is essentially a dry state and the man that receives her support in the election for president will be bound to support the

News Men Have Hectic Time At Kansas City Kansas City, June 12.—(AP)—Sardines in a box were nothing compared with the score upon score of newspapermen who milled around in the hallway outside Secretary Mellon's room for 45 minutes last night, only to hear that the treasury secretary had nothing to say about the Pennsylvania vote outlook.

When Senator Reed finally appeared with the cryptic pen-written statement from his fellow Pennsylvanian. It took him some minutes to attract any attention. He stood tiptoed on the outer rim of the closely bunched correspondents, and shouted for moments without being heard.

Once, the hullabaloo quieted somewhat, with the correspondents congregated in the dimly lighted space between the elevators, while one of their number read the pro-Hoover statement of Senator-Elect William S. Vare.

Before the reading of Vare's statement was completed, another alarm sent the correspondents helter-skelter toward the Mellon reception

SHANSI WAR LORD TAKES OVER PEKING

Japanese War Office Today Advised of the Death of Chang Tao-Lin.

Peking, June 12.—(AP)—Marshall Yen Hsi-Shan, model governor of Shansi province, was in control of Peking today. He announced that he would preserve peace and disperse all enemy troops in the northern area.

Special instructions, he said, had been issued regarding protection of foreign lives and property. Reliable troops were sent to all important points of the district. Distribution of incendiary literature was forbidden and public meetings or demonstrations prohibited.

Marshal Yen asserted the Nationalist allies would cooperate under direction of the Nankin government in the disposal of all enemy troops from the northern area. The Nanking government will arrange for handling civil affairs.

Tokyo, June 12.—(AP)—The Japanese war office today received word of the death of Chang Tsolin, Manchurian war lord and former northern dictator, who was the victim of a bomb at Mukden after he abdicated.

The bomb outrage occurred as the trains bearing Chang and members of his staff from Peking entered the suburbs of Mukden on June 4. Several members of his staff were killed including Wu Chun-Sheng, military governor of the province of Heilungkiang.

Keynote Speaker Pays Tribute To Pres. Coolidge By BYRON PRICE, Associated Press Staff Writer.

Convention Hall, Kansas City, June 12.—(AP)—Although the majority already had made up its mind not to draft Coolidge but to nominate Hoover, the Republican national convention began today with a tribute to its retiring leader which will live as a milestone in party history.

The name with which the Republican leaders have conjured through months of perplexity was thrown into the opening hours of the convention by the temporary chairman and keynote, Senator Fess of Ohio.

His keynote speech described the President as "the greatest personal and political force in the world today."

"After five years and seven months of leadership in our nation," said the Ohio senator, "he leaves office by his own fiat, which appears to be final and is so interpreted by many of his friends in spite of the fact that his nomination and election would be a foregone conclusion did he not forbid."

In these words, the Senator stated a conclusion as to the positive nature of Mr. Coolidge's renunciation already adopted by such other leaders as Secretary Mellon and Chairman Butler of the national committee, both of whom had joined the swelling Hoover chorus but a few hours before.

EX-GOVERNORS TALK POLITICS

Finally, those in the hallway heeded him, and he was imperturbed with shouts of "read it, read it." No sooner had he started, pinned to the wall by the crush, before "louder," "stand on a chair" and other directors were heard.

Reed began again, only to find it impossible to lift the paper to read because of the onrush of those in the reception room. He beat a retreat to the elevator stage, chased by the perspiring correspondents.

Are You "Climbing" Or Just "Gliding"? A very lucid illustration of the operation or promotion of modern business is found in a comparison with the operation of a heavier than air flying machine. The machine may be equipped with all the modern appliances and the Pilot may, by practical experience and training, be thoroughly qualified to successfully manipulate its intricate mechanism and safely conduct it to its intended destination. Yet in spite of all these advantages and qualifications there is just one thing he is always absolutely dependent on for flight and that is the Propeller. Without it he can never rise from the ground. It is the fundamental principle of progress. It is only when the Propeller is running with smoothness and regularity that he is able to climb upward, avoiding danger and disaster, and continues to climb only as the Propeller continues to function without intermission. What would you say of an Aviator who started out to make a record for altitude and after climbing to a certain height decided that as everything seemed to be running smoothly he could dispense with the expense of operating the Propeller and still continue to climb? But that is the very thing that many Retail Merchants are trying to do today. They use the Advertising Propeller to start with and after getting a good start feel secure enough to neglect its use. Do they continue to climb? Do they maintain the same altitude? Do they affect a saving? They do not. At that very moment they start to "glide"—not a sudden fall to the ground but a gentle easy descent—for there is no such thing as remaining stationary. When you stop the Propeller you start to "glide"; when you start the Propeller you commence to "climb."

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

COTTON MARKET.

New York, June 12.—(AP)—Failure of unfavorable features in weather and crop advices to create any general buying interest, together with the unsettled tone of the stock market, seemed responsible for further liquidation and rather more active selling in the cotton market today. Opening declines were followed by rallies which carried prices slightly above yesterday's closing quotations, but the market broke into new low ground later, when prices showed net declines of about $2 a bale. Trading was less active and the market a shade steadier at rallies of several points from the lowest in mid-afternoon. Futures closed steady 30¢-32 points lower. Spot quiet; middling 20.65.

Cotton futures closed:

CHICAGO GRAIN

Chicago, June 12.—(AP)—Persistent selling that resulted from good rains in the American northwest carried wheat prices down today to the lowest point since March 28. The Canadian government crop report as to wheat was generally construed as bearish. An additional incentive to sell was the fact that the first car of new domestic wheat to arrive at any terminal market this season was reported from Fort Worth, Texas.

Wheat closed unsettled 1 7-8 to 2 3-4 net lower; corn 1-1/2 off to 3-8 up; oats 1-8 to 1 3-8 down and provisions varying from 10 decline to 7 advance.

STOCK MARKET.

New York, June 12.—(AP)—The stock market plunged downward again today after an early rally staged by professional traders failed to attract outside buying power. Early gains of 1 to 6 points, were wiped out, and a number of high priced specialties broke 5 to 15 points below yesterday's final quotations. Trading showed a marked expansion in volume, the 2,000,000-share mark being crossed before the end of the third hour.

Another violent break of more than 35 points in Bank of Italy Corporation common stock on the New York curb market started the selling movement. There was little in the day's business news to influence the price movement. Call money held firm at 6 per cent but a slightly easier undertone was apparent in the time money market. Many brokers continued to blame the decline on "political uncertainties."

Radio was the hardest hit, breaking from an early high of 196 1-2 to 176, or 48 points below the year's high. General Motors slumped from 183 1-8 to 178 1-8, as compared with a recent high of 210. Wright aeronautical, selling "ex-right," dropped from 109 to 102 1-4 and American International from 102 3-4 to 93. Russia Insurance, Case Threshing, American Bank Note and Abraham & Straus sold down 4 to 6 points.

New 10 records for the year, or longer, were registered by Baltimore, Tenn., Pennsylvania, Kansas City Southern, Chesapeake Corporation, Crucible Steel, Republic Steel, Ay Department Stores, Liggett & Myers B and Western Union.

The closing was weak. Total sales approximated 4,000,000 shares.

NERVOUS HEADACHE

Kentuckian Tells How Taking Black-Draught Relieved His Pains and How Well He Feels Now.

Waynesburg, Ky.—How a few doses of Theford's Black-Draught brought relief to a man who had been suffering from frequent spells of severe headache, is told below in the statement of Mr. Charles F. Todd, of Estaburg, near this place. "I was suffering with nervous headaches. About once a week I would have these headaches, and have to quit work, and go to bed for about twenty-four hours. I would have pains in my neck, and right behind my right ear. "A merchant at Estaburg saw me one day when I was suffering, and told me to try taking Black-Draught, which I did. "I took a package home that night, and took a few doses. It relieved me. From that time on, I would take Black-Draught as soon as I felt like I was going to have one of those headaches—and they wouldn't come on. "Every few weeks, I take three or four doses of Black-Draught, and I feel so well, and do my work, and don't lose any more time with headache. "I haven't had a headache in six months." Costs only one cent a dose. Get a package today. NC-189

BROOKS MAKES FINE PLEA FOR UNITED PARTY

Greensboro Man Delivers Keynote Address at Democratic Convention Raleigh

Raleigh, June 12.—(AP)—A plea for a united party, working to "restore to a long-suffering people a free and righteous government," was sounded today by Aubrey L. Brooks, of Greensboro, in his keynote speech to the Democratic State Convention here.

Declaring corruption in government the paramount issue, the Greensboro speaker admonished the nearly 2,000 delegates gathered to pick the party's representation at the national convention that "November is more important than June. Tolerance is one of the hallmarks of democracy. Embrace her. United we stand, divided we fall."

Throughout his address, Brooks painted a picture of the Democratic party as the machinery for putting into operation the principles of Thomas Jefferson for protecting the welfare of the common man while the Republican party was branded as the organization of privilege, of greed, and of corruption.

"The corruption, the scandal and crime which has followed in the wake of the Republican rule in both state and nation is not the result of mere accident," he said. "It is the inevitable product of false ideals; the fruits of a false philosophy. A political system supported and kept in power by the malefactors of great wealth must of necessity place men in position who recognize their master's voice. The Republican party by its shameful conduct has made corruption in government the paramount issue. There is but one alternative: drive out the unfaithful servants and restore to a long-suffering people a free and righteous government."

In the history of North Carolina, the speaker pointed to the progress of education, the expansion of highways, the creation of the primary, and the enactment of anti-trust legislation as achievements of the Democratic party since it returned to power at the beginning of the century. In contrast, he declared, the Republican party had left a record that proved itself "totally ineffectual."

Governor McLean, the speaker said, has maintained the high standard of statehood and devotion to the public weal, sustained by an unbroken line of governors—Aycock, Glenn, Kitchin, Craig, Bickett, Morrison, and McLean—and had by his wise leadership, "reduced the expenses of government, increased efficiency, and placed the credit of the state beyond reproach."

After reciting the results of the oil scandals, involving some of the cabinet officials of the Republican administration, and mentioning the charges against and trials of Republican governors in Illinois and Indiana, Brooks said:

"A highly organized Republican machine, controlled and financed by evil-minded millionaires and operated in the interests of high finance and low morals, has commercialized the government, put big business in the saddle, and the farmers in the ditch. One of the most wretched chapters in Republican misrule is the cruel indifference to and contempt for the appeals of the American farmer."

Of President Coolidge and the oil scandals, the speaker went on: "We do not imply that the President was involved in these scandals. They tell us he did not know of it or even suspect it. We concede it, but the Democratic hosts of American cry 'Give us a President in Washington who will have sufficient alertness to recognize a crowd of crooks in his official family and sufficient voice to cry—'Stop, Thief!'"

Republican leaders, he said, have sought to evade the real issue by throwing down a smoke screen and crying in a loud voice "Coolidge and prosperity."

"Where is this prosperity," he asked. "Go to the farmers of North Carolina and the nation. Go ask the textile manufacturers and the manufacturers of furniture. Go ask the tradesmen and the merchants. Go ask the million laborers now seeking employment. They all reply that this Coolidge and Mellon prosperity is only to be found in Wall street."

PENNSYLVANIA DELEGATION LINES UP SOLIDLY BEHIND FORMER COMMERCE LEADER

(Continued from page one) asst, who is to make the nominating speech for Senator Curtis, strolled into the Kansas section. He told inquirers he would not give up the ship, and that so far as he was concerned, Senator Curtis' name would be placed before the convention regardless of the slide for Hoover.

Occupying the place of honor at the convention delegates assembled was a specially made microphone stand, silver plated, and looking like a big music rack. It stood at the front speaker's platform and carried on a shining double bar the height of a man's head eight teamed-up microphones.

state delegations on the floor were high and smaller than ordinary. They stood more than ten feet, bearing flimsy cardboard state labels, black on white, with supporting poles so slender that it looked as though any tumult among the delegates would snap them into silvers.

The hall decorations were almost severely plain. High among the rafters and the great iron cross ties that spanned the open space above the heads of delegates and spectators there was some show of red, white and blue bunting, but only a little to relieve the background of grey paint on iron work.

Kansas City, June 12.—(AP)—A motion by Secretary Mellon to support Herbert Hoover on the first ballot was approved today by the Pennsylvania delegation.

The announcement of Mellon and Pennsylvania's support was made soon after the treasury secretary read a statement to the state delegation at a morning caucus endorsing Hoover.

The vote was unanimous for Hoover and the nomination of the commerce secretary on the first ballot was virtually assured as a result.

The delegation voted after Secretary Mellon had read a statement declaring that "it now becomes clear that Coolidge will not be a candidate."

The statement said that when the delegation had caucused in Philadelphia the President's position still was uncertain but that now it was clear that he was not a candidate "my suggestion to the delegation is that we vote for Hoover on the first ballot."

The declaration was followed by a wild demonstration of several minutes after which the roll was called. On the vote even those delegates who had held out for Coolidge even up to the minute of the meeting, voted "Aye" for endorsement of Hoover's candidacy.

Senator-elect William S. Vare, in endorsing Mellon's statement to the delegation said he was very happy that the treasury secretary had made such an endorsement of Hoover that he was convinced Hoover would be the next President.

The news of the swing of Pennsylvania's delegates to Hoover was not unexpected, least of all among the allied coalition candidates who have been fighting the commerce secretary.

Senator Curtis was the only one who would make a prompt comment. He said only: "Well, the fight is on."

The Kansan then returned to a conference with his backers, Senators Goff and Watson, two others of the coalition, declined to comment, but Watson says he would make a statement later.

Butler To Vote For Hoover. Kansas City, June 12.—(AP)—William M. Butler of Massachusetts, intimate friend of President Coolidge and chairman of the Republican national committee, informed the Massachusetts delegation today that his vote was for Secretary Hoover.

Butler warned Hoover that this decision was not to be interpreted as an indication of the views of President Coolidge in relation to the Republican presidential race.

"I have not desired to do anything that might preclude and foreclose the possibility of continuing the President in office," Butler declared. "Up to the present, therefore, I have made no declaration. As I cannot be present at all the future meetings of the delegation I now desire to ask my alternate to vote in my place and to have recorded as my choice for President, the Honorable Herbert Hoover."

"I am satisfied that such a course meets not only with the approval of the people of Massachusetts but meets with the approval of our President. I don't believe any inference to be drawn from this statement in anyone's mind that the President has any choice among the candidates. But I do leave the impression that I am satisfied that it is satisfactory to the President for the good people of Massachusetts not to vote for him."

Mr. Butler made his announcement at the opening of the caucus today of the Massachusetts delegation which is now expected to vote almost solidly for Hoover on the first ballot.

New Jersey For Hoover. Kansas City, June 12.—(AP)—

New Jersey added its 31 votes to the Hoover column by a decision of the delegation caucus this morning. Hoover people had claimed 25 of the votes.

Senator Edge of New Jersey was put forward by the delegation for Vice-President. The vote was unanimous.

Lowden Fight Goes On.

Kansas City, June 12.—(AP)—Although convinced that the decision of the Pennsylvania delegation to go to Hoover on the first ballot means the nomination of the Cabinet member, Clarence F. Buck, the Lowden manager, announced today that the fight for his man would go on.

"We know this seems to mean the nomination of Hoover but our fight is one for equality in agriculture and we will redouble our efforts to have the party declare in favor of the principles of the McNary-Haugen bill," Buck said.

Lowden himself had no comment to make except that the Pennsylvania decision would not make any change in his position.

CARRANZA IS FORCED DOWN BY DENSE FOG

"I ran into some head winds over the Gulf of Mexico but had little trouble until I reached Spartanburg, S. C.," he said. He was flying low and very fast over the Atlanta-New York air mail route as he passed Spartanburg.

A short distance north of that place he ran into fog and became lost. "Every now and then I had to swing around to locate myself," he said.

When he became hopelessly lost he decided to land and was approximately 30 miles east of his route when he saw the lights of Mooresville. He did not know where he was until he landed.

As he stepped out of his ship, a Ryan monoplane, similar to Col. Lindbergh's "Spirit of St. Louis," the young aviator said he was "not very tired" but "awfully hungry."

The only food aboard the plane was a sandwich a thoughtful friend had placed in the baggage carrier in Mexico City yesterday morning, but he couldn't get to that. It was stored in the after-end of the plane and he couldn't reach it from the cockpit. He had plenty of water at hand, however.

Although he received his early education in this country the aviator spoke in broken English. He was dressed in high top boots, a shirt open at the neck and carried an overcoat in the plane. This was the only clothing he brought, he said.

He circled the city for nearly an hour, he said, before he was able to land. He was hopelessly lost and would not have been able to come down had not the automobile lights been turned on, he declared.

He was wearing a small gold piece attached to a gold chain around his neck. He said that this was given him by his mother and was his "good luck" piece.

Ambassador Teller of Mexico called him on the phone here this morning and urged him to come to Washington this afternoon.

Mexico City was trying to get him on the phone but he would not talk, saying that the roar of his motor had made him temporarily deaf.

This is the first time that the beacons on the landing field here have been out. The electric circuit went bad just before he reached here.

After viewing the field, however, Capt. Carranza said if the weather continued to clear up he might hop off for Washington about 1 o'clock.

Soon after leaving Mexico City he said that he ran into fog and he did not see land again until he reached Tampico. From Tampico to Galveston the visibility was good. From Galveston he did not see land again until he reached Montgomery, Ala., where he saw the beacon light at the aviation field. After passing over Montgomery he ran into a rainstorm and did not sight land again until he came to the revolving beacon at Candler Field, Atlanta, Ga.

He flew at about 2,000 feet altitude as a rule, he said, but sometimes fog caused him to come down so low that he nearly hit the tops of houses.

Washington, June 12.—(AP)—Word that the attempted non-stop flight of Captain Emilio Carranza from Mexico City to Washington had ended at Mooresville, North Carolina, was received here with disappointment today.

More than a hundred people had gathered at Bolling field to welcome the flier to Washington, including Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Aviation, William P. McCracken, Assistant Secretary Warner of the Navy, and Porter Adams, President of the National Aeronautic Association.

All expressed disappointment that Carranza had been obliged to give up the flight when comparatively near his goal, but were relieved that he had landed safely as there had been considerable anxiety, due to the precarious flying conditions south of Richmond.

Ambassador Teller of Mexico and Robert E. Old, Under-Secretary of State, also were at the field, but all left shortly after six o'clock, to return when Carranza continues his flight from Mooresville.

ington. His landing in the darkness here was an exhibition of skill, residents said. More than a score of automobiles provided the landing lights after residents had been awakened by the roar of his motor as he circled the city skimming the house tops in an effort to get his bearings.

Neither motion got very far. Bramham pleaded for a harmonious meeting. He asserted that the Lowden men could organize the delegation if they wished but that he wanted it understood that no matter who was nominated here he intended to go back home and work for him.

The harmony plea of the Durham baseball czar was seconded by national committeeman Jonas who told the delegates that he did not think it made any great difference what North Carolina did. "In my opinion," he said, "the matter has already been settled and there is no use getting fussy about things that are already been settled."

The Jonas and Bramham motions both were withdrawn and a motion naming Bramham as chairman was made and passed unanimously.

Mr. Bramham then told how he had planned to name the remainder of the organization after a conference with the other leaders. He asserted that he wanted to keep the party representatives in harmony for, he added, "we have the most wonderful chance we have ever had in North Carolina. If Smith is nominated by the Democrats that party in the state will be split wide open and if he is not nominated I do not see how they can heal the sores that have been caused."

"The best thing that could happen for North Carolina is for the delegation to be divided. We have a fifty white party in the state and to come divided shows that the old assertion that has been made in the past that southern delegates are brought to national conventions and delivered to a certain candidate are not true insofar as North Carolina is concerned."

The delegation then ratified the selection of Mr. Jonas as national committeeman and of Mrs. Bass McKennon as national committee woman.

RUSH RELIEF TO THE STRANDED ITALIA CREW

Two men arrived at Mossel Bay early this morning with gasoline for Lieut. Holm who was stranded at that place after a five day reconnaissance during most of which time he had been forced to wait idly because of fog and unfavorable ice conditions.

Fine flying weather prevailed and the two pilots, who have had much experience in northern waters, planned to fly eastward as soon as possible searching the pack ice for the Italia's parties. If the men should be found, the aviators will drop messages and provisions.

Two Italian planes with thirty-hour cruising ability are expected late this week to assist the Norwegians in dashes over the ice fields. The Italian plane, starting from Kings Bay, will fly up the west coast and will then go directly east to the spot where the Italia was wrecked.

It is feared that at least some of the Italia's crew may soon face starvation if the rescuers do not reach them quickly. It is now the third week for the stranded exploring party on the treacherous pack ice and their provisions are reduced despite careful rationing.

In addition to the problem of conserving their food supply, the Italia's men must take care of their two companions whose legs were broken when the gondola of the ship was broken off on May 25 when the Italia tried to land.

The injured men were with the party of six which is being personally led by General Umberto Nobile.

The group of three men who became separated from the Italia trying to reach land, undoubtedly is facing tremendous difficulties. In crossing the pack ice, they must go over a zig-zag route at a very slow pace and the distance gained by hard work one day may be lost on the next day by movement of the ice.

They also may encounter stretches of open water and have to seek a circuitous route toward land.

If these men should be close to land in the vicinity of Rips Bay or Dover Bay, they may be able to get ashore, for the terrain is flat at these points.
