NOBLE GIVES PORTRAYAL OF ITALIA WRECK

Head of Missing Expedition Sends News Agency Thrilling Account of Tragedy.

Home, June 13.—(AP)—General Umberto Nobile's own story of the wrecking of the dirigible Italia in the Arctic was received today by the Stefani News Agency.

It was summarized as follows: "At 10:30 a. m. on May 25, while the Italia was flying normally at a height of 500 meters, suddenly the weight increased (apparently by snow and ice forming on the bag). The airship began a rapid plunge which it was impossible to halt and in two minutes it crashed near the polar ice pack.

The cabin and part of the upper hull were torn away while the airship was carried by the wind in an easterly direction.

Among the debris on the ice all the occupants of the cabin were found miraculously to be alive. Scattered on the ice around them was almost all the material which formed the cabin.

"Only a minute after the plunge Nobile and his companions cried passionately: 'Viva Italia!'

"On the evening of May 30 about 12 kilometers northeast of Foye Island, Captain A. Mariano and Captain Filippo Zappi and the Swedish scientist, Dr. Finn Malmgren, started with provisions for North Cape. They intended to cover 10 kilometers a day.

"There were left with Nobile, the Czech-Slovak scientist, Professor F. Dehouek, Lieutenant A. Vigliani, Sergeant Troiani, Motor Chief Natale Deccioni and Giuseppe Biagi radio operator.

"The others members of the crew remained with the drifting dirigible. They will have food enough for three months and are supplied with complete equipment.

"In the camp with General Nobile there is already convalescent. One of the other, suffering from a leg injured below the knee, will recover eventually.

General Nobile said the ice had broken up a little and openings were showing between the floes. He gave his position last night as 80 degrees 38 minutes north, 26 degrees 55 minutes east.

Radio communication between the base ship Citta Di Milano, which was difficult last night, was good today.

Rockefeller Gives $5,000,000 to Old City in Virginia

Williamsburg, Va., June 13.—(AP)—This town where Washington and Lafayette planned the defeat of Lord Cornwallis found itself some $5,000,000 richer today, all because of a chance visit of John D. Rockefeller a year or so ago.

But his huge gift, which had been rumored for some time, will go for the noblest undertaking yet attempted by the town fathers and residents—restoration of its colonial setting as a shrine to liberty and the men who made it possible.

Dr. W. A. R. Goodwin, secretary of a corporation entrusted with the gigantic task, which already has been going on for some time through purchase of many historical buildings and properties, told a town meeting last night that completion of the project was assured.

Mr. Rockefeller's presence in Williamsburg for a Phi Beta Kappa fraternity convention a year ago gave the citizens an opportunity to tell him of the dream they had conceived twenty-five years previously, and he immediately commended the project.

More than $1,600,000 of Rockefeller money already has been spent, and more will be forthcoming as the local corporation pursues the task of weeding out non-historical buildings to insure absolute faith to history.

Two Cases Heard In County Court

Two cases of outstanding importance were disposed of in a brief session of Pitt county court yesterday.

Judgment was suspended for two years in the case of Clifton and J. E. Evans, charged with violation of prohibition laws. They were ordered to discontinue the operation of a filling station and to pay one half of costs, each. Roy Evans, held in connection with the case, was adjudged not guilty.

Henry Green, colored, was sentenced to six months on the roads on a charge of larceny. Sentence was ordered stricken out upon payment of $13.75.

Farm Group Protests Against Nomination Of Herbert Hoover

Kansas City, June 13.—(AP)—A throng of farmers, protesting the nomination of Herbert Hoover and gathering numbers as it proceeded, stormed the Republican convention hall today and were prevented from carrying their cries to the delegates only by the threatening clubs of policemen.

The throng which numbered perhaps between 1,500 and 2,000, were led to the very doors of the auditorium by Edgar Bush, formerly Lieutenant Governor of Indiana, and now the Republican candidate for that office. The on-rolling column of protesters swarmed right up to the front door of the auditorium and were half way through the run which borders the hall proper, when several squads of policemen rushed up and by strenuous efforts forced them back outside the door.

Having been repulsed in their first attempt the farmers stood outside and shouted "once more the farmers get kicked out" and "anybody but Hoover."

Evidences were that the police would be able to hold the crowd in check although the volume of the anti-Hoover people around the convention doors was gaining steadily and the leaders were still insistent upon getting inside the convention for a monster demonstration.

Kansas City, June 13.—(AP)—Further demonstrations from the farm group protesting the nomination of Herbert Hoover was expected today after the convention city had resounded well into the night with cries of "thirty million farmers won't vote for Hoover."

The demonstration was participated in by upwards of 300 men, most of whom looked like they had come right off the farms of the Middle West. They let their protesting shouts ring through the streets, convention headquarters, and even within several Hoover mass meetings.

Finally broken up through clever efforts of Representative Wyant, a Hoover worker from Pennsylvania, and a corps of Hoover lieutenants who rushed to the scene, the farm leaders averred they would continue their demonstrations until the balloting commences in an effort to "show the east just what we think of Hoover."

The demonstration received its impetus at a farmers' meeting which was addressed by a number of the leaders advocating a plank in the party platform favoring farm relief along the line of the vetoed McNary-Haugen bill.

The Hoover leaders, seeking to stop the continuous shouts of "We don't want Hoover," "Anybody but Hoover," and "Thirty million farmers won't vote for Hoover," ordered the band to strike up with the Star Spangled Banner. Momentarily disconcerted, the shouts were suddenly broken off, but the farmers soon regained their presence of mind and joined in the singing.

Fired by the commands of two or three self-appointed leaders, the throng jostled its way toward the Baltimore Hotel, carrying aloft banners demanding farm relief and condemning the veto of the McNary-Haugen bill and other inscriptions anything but complimentary to the commerce secretary. When they reached the Baltimore, however, the farmers met a clever ruse staged under the direction of Representative Wyant and the unity of the demonstration was soon broken up into numerous groups who argued the merits of farm legislation pro and con.

Wyant called on the farmers as they entered the hotel to "Think of the Republican party."
"I am a real dirt farmer," he shouted over the cat-calls and the heckling that at first greeted him.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION BREAKS AWAY FROM MAIN ISSUES AT SESSION TODAY

Not Ready to Bring Its Troubles Into Open, Party Members Content Themselves With Plenty of Plain Speech-Making.

Convention Hall, Kansas City, June 13.—(AP)—Ringed about with the tightening grip of the farm relief issue, but still unready to bring its troubles into the open, the Republican national convention occupied itself with other things today at a quiet and almost colorless second session.

While a delegation of McNary-Haugen demonstrators marched about the doors of the convention hall, venting their displeasure with Herbert Hoover by shouting predictions of his defeat for the presidency, and making a noisy demand for a satisfactory farm relief plank in party platform, proceedings in the hall itself concerned themselves quietly and almost sleepily with other things.

With the platform deadlocked over the farm relief plank and not ready to report, the convention turned to the consideration of a delegate contest or two, the adoption of routine from other sources and plain speechmaking.

Convention Hall, Kansas City, June 13.—(AP)—A sleepy-eyed Republican convention, showing plainly the wear and tear of over-night worries about farm relief, prohibition and delegate contests, assembled today in convention hall, hoping to get on somehow with its decisions but uncertain whether much could be done until late in the day.

The biggest of the party troubles centering about farm relief, still was holding the platform committee in session after an all night dispute while a group of farm demonstrators marching about the entrances of the convention hall shouting against Hoover, further harried the nerves of tired delegates and convention officers.

There was a prospect that the platform might not be ready for convention consideration until late in the day. The credentials committee, however, in session through the night hearing the pleas of contesting delegations, was ready and after that and other formalities had been completed the tentative plan was to recess until tonight.

When Senator George Moses, the permanent chairman reached the platform less than half an hour before the time set for convening, he surveyed an almost empty convention floor.

At 10:15, fifteen minutes before the gavel was to fall, the convention band, hidden away against the rafters, unable to see anything or hear much but their own music, cut loose with a rollicking air that soured rather out of harmony with the drab and weary monotone of conversation among the delegates far down below.

ROBERT STEWART CASE GOES TO JURY TODAY

Washington, June 13.—(AP)—The case of Robert W. Stewart, wealthy Chicago oil man, charged with having refused to answer questions asked by the senate oil committee was given to the jury at 1:05 this afternoon. Closing arguments and Justice Siddons' charge were brief.

However, no word was forthcoming from Mr. Hoover or from the Hoover camp.

Nor had definite word been received from Mr. Dawes as to his availability.

Here is a list of the candidates in the field, either by their consent or by activity of friends; Senator Curtis, of Kansas; Watson, of Indiana; Moses, of New Hampshire; Fess of Ohio; Nye, of North Dakota; Edge, of New Jersey, and Deneen, of Illinois; Representatives Tilson, of Connecticut, and Fish of New York; Everett Sanders, secretary to President Coolidge; Hanford MacNider, of Iowa; Sam R. McKelvie, former governor of Nebraska; General John J. Pershing, Governor Fisher, of Pennsylvania; Governor Fuller of Massachusetts; Henry J. Allen, former governor of Kansas; Governor Baker of Missouri; Henry W. Anderson, of Virginia; William J. Donovan, of New York; assistant to the attorney general; Theodore Roosevelt, Jr.; John MacKenzie, former representative from Illinois; and Louis Emmerson, candidate for governor of Illinois.

Friends of Secretary Hoover were among those who were anxiously looking over the situation. There is no doubt but they want a man if possible from the middle west and a personality who will appeal to the farm element which has voiced noisy protest against Mr. Hoover.

The name of Senator Capper of Kansas was mentioned today among farm leaders, including M. J. Taber, master of the National Grange.

Lexington Smashes All Speed Records On Honolulu Trip

Washington, June 13.—(AP)—The navy department was advised today that the Giant airplane carrier Lexington had completed the fastest run ever made by a ship between the Pacific Coast and Honolulu and had smashed all existing speed records for ships by making 770 miles in the last 24 hours.

Arriving at Honolulu at 11:08 Honolulu time yesterday the big ship rounded out a run in which a number of ship speed records fell. She traveled 2,228 nautical miles from San Pedro to Honolulu in 72 hours, 34 minutes to break the record held since 1923 by the light cruiser Omaha which made the 2,090 mile run from San Francisco to Honolulu in 75 hours, 40 minutes and 40 seconds.

In the last 24 hours of her fast journey, the Lexington traveled 770 nautical miles, exceeding two previous day records of 700 to 742 miles, respectively, on her 3-day trip.

In the last 24 hours and 34 minutes required to complete the trip, she actually traveled 786 nautical miles, her commander reported to the department. The average speed for the trip was 30.7 nautical miles an hour, the fastest sustained speed ever made by an ocean going vessel.

WOMEN PLAY BIG ROLE AT KANSAS CITY

They Look Pretty and Lend Their Colorful Clothing to Convention Picture.

By MARTHA DALRMPLE.
Kansas City, June 13.—(AP)—A weary lot they turned in, but, woman-like they all planned an early start today to see it all from the beginning of the second order of business.

The women Republicans of the country have so far played a creditable part in this quadrennial convention. They looked pretty and lent their colorful summer clothes to the convention hall picture on the opening day, and then took themselves to the little rooms where the four committees on credentials, resolutions, rules and order of business, and permanent organizations met in the afternoon.

Feminine noses never once became glossy as masculine coats were doffed in deference to the sultriness that blanketed the building.

Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, assistant United States attorney general, was selected as the permanent chairman of the important credentials committee, the only woman in the convention so far to hold the chairmanship of a committee.

She also holds the honor of being the first woman to address the convention from the platform. Temporary Chairman Fess called upon her to place the motion for the appointment of members for the credentials committee shortly after committee motions were in order during the morning.

Calmly defying the heat, the excess of manhood and the questioning political glances that filled the tiny committee room, Mrs. Willebrandt called the credentials group to order and with precision disposed of the roll call and the calling of the first case. In a loud, clear voice, long used in prosecuting federal prohibition cases, she ordered the room cleared of all but members of the committee, the contestants, and newspapermen. And forthwith the room was cleared.

Of the other committees that met during the first afternoon, the rules and order of business committee boasted the largest representation of women, five women delegates being appointed to help conduct the business.

The committee on permanent organization contained one woman. The two other committees whose members have been designated by delegation chairman, but whose duties will not begin until the purpose of the convention has been achieved, are those to notify the President and the vice president of their respective nominations. Three women have been selected to be among those to tell the Presidential candidate the good news while seven women will make the vice presidential announcement.

Ship Batters Way Through Ice In Attempt To Reach Crew Of Stranded Italia

Oslo, Norway, June 13.—(AP)—Newspaper dispatches from Spitzbergen today said the sealing ship Hobby was battering her way through ice floes in an attempt to reach the stranded crew of the Italia. The vessel was trying to reach North Cape on Northeast Land.

(Copyrighted, 1928, by Associated Press).
Kings Bay, Spitzbergen, June 13.—(AP)—Captain Riber-Laarsen and Lieutenant Luettow Holm, Norwegian fliers, were ready to start today on a determined attempt to bring help to the stranded crew of the Italia now in desperate straits on drifting pack ice.

The sealer Hobby, after battering its way through open leads, was in open water today and the Norwegian fliers were planning to take off as soon as conditions were favorable in an effort to find the Italia's radio party, of which General Umberto Nobile is head, somewhere near Foyn Island off the coast of Northeast Land.

Two favorable circumstances were present today. A blizzard, which had been sweeping the Archipelago, spent itself and the weather conditions at Spitzbergen were improved. The second favorable condition was that the Nobile party had drifted at least a mile and a quarter to the west, bringing them closer to their would-be rescuers by that much margin and carrying them further from the danger of being swept out to the open sea between the eastern tip of Northeast Land and Franz Josef Land.

The ice breaker Braganza, which has been in northern waters with the Hobby for the past week, arrived back at Kings Bay this morning and immediately began taking on gasoline, provisions and dog teams for a quick run back to northern Spitzbergen.

In addition to the dog teams, the Braganza loaded on two sledges, supplies of rifles and 2,000 rounds of ammunition so that seals and reindeer can be hunted both for its crew and the castaway men.

CAPITAL CITY HONORS YOUNG MEXICAN FLIER

Captain Carranza Is Highly Praised By the Leading Aviation Supporters In U. S.

Washington, June 13.—(AP)—A non-stop flight from New York city to Mexico City will be attempted by Captain Emilio Carranza, Mexican army aviator, as soon as he completes a visit to New York, he announced here today.

With its anxieties for the safety of Captain Emilio Carranza quieted and his preliminary reception out of the way, Washington turned today to a round of entertainments for the Mexican good-will aviator who returned his country's compliments for the visit of Colonel Lindbergh to Mexico City in December.

Sophisticated by its long contact with noted fliers, the capital nevertheless, had a joyous welcome for the dapper 22-year-old pilot from the sister republic to the south who fought his way through fog and storm and made a forced landing in North Carolina, 320 miles away, under perilous circumstances.

After a long sleep Carranza was fit and ready for the program arranged in his honor including the laying of a wreath on the tomb of the unknown soldier at Arlington National Cemetery and, accompanied by Ambassador Tellez, a visit with President Coolidge.

Noted aviators, including Lieut. Lester Maitland, who flew to Hawaii, vied with each other last night in extolling the flying skill and cool judgment of the young flier in landing his plane at Mooresville, N. C., after a heavy fog had turned back even the seasoned air mail pilots who were well acquainted with the route.

President Coolidge and the chiefs of aviation in the army and navy and other government departments were alike warm in their praise of Carranza's feat.

HULL EMERGES WITH VICTORY IN THIS STATE

Presidential Candidate from Tennessee Got Lions' Share of Delegates.

Raleigh, June 13.—(AP)—Governor Smith will get some of North Carolina's 24 votes in the Houston convention. Anti-Smith forces, rallying to the standard of Cordell Hull, emerged with the lion's share of the spoils from the turbulent, at times almost riotous, state convention of Democrats held here yesterday but they conceded that the New Yorker would get 4 1-2 votes. Smith leaders asserted, however, they would have 7 1-2 and possibly eight votes on the first ballot, with more on later ballots.

The Hull ticket for delegates at large, eight nominees headed by Senator F. M. Simmons, won out over the Smith slate by an average vote of 1,073 to 569 in the only test of strength taken in the convention. Each delegate will have half a vote. The Smith strength, to be shown at Houston, was acquired in the 16th district caucuses preceding the convention at which 20 district delegates were named.

Entering the gathering with an announced intention to demand that the delegation be bound by the unit rule, Hull leaders abandoned their plan as the struggle grew more intense and apparently more bitter. It was regarded as doubtful, after the roll call on the delegates at large, if a sufficient vote could be mustered to adopt the unit rule.

Clyde R. Hoey, Shelby, former congressman from the ninth district, made the only speech on the subject, taking advantage of a lull in the proceedings to declare his opposition to the proposal and to plead for harmony in the ranks of the party.

While the delegates will go to Houston unbound, Zeb Vance, Turlington, manager for Hull, said that a majority of them were definitely pledged to vote for the Tennesseean.

Former Governor Cameron Morrison of Charlotte played the leading role in one of the convention's most dramatic and uproarious scenes. Named by Josiah William Bailey as head of the Smith ticket, the former governor tossed a bombshell into the gathering when after the vote of perhaps a fourth of the counties had been taken, he arose to a point of personal privilege, declared he would not go to Houston if elected and announced himself "for Simmons."

After the roll call, Morrison obtained the floor and began to deliver a speech urging party harmony and tolerance. Some of his remarks apparently offended a large part of the convention and he was howled down without being permitted to finish his speech. There were cries for Senator Simmons but the veteran leader did not appear on the scene. Some of the delegates carried Morrison around the hall on their shoulders.

A general hubbub broke out with the announcement of the election of T. D. Warren, New Bern, as permanent chairman. Voicing a protest, Smith delegates hooted and yelled for a quarter of an hour during which several futile efforts were made to restore order. The tumult was quieted after Bailey was recognized and managed to make himself heard in a plea for order.

Just before final adjournment at 8:40 o'clock last night the convention adopted without debate the report of the platform committee which contained a strong indorsement of prohibition, denounced the Republican party for alleged corruption in government, advocated American adherence to the world court, and paid high tribute to Governor MacLean and his administration.

DISMISSES $2,394,438.48 SUIT AGAINST AIRCRAFT CONCERN

New York, June 13.—(AP)—United States District Judge Thomas B. Thacher today dismissed the federal suit in equity against the Standard Aircraft Corporation to recover $2,394,438.48, which it is alleged, had been illegally paid in settlement of war air contracts. A counter claim of the defendant for an additional payment of $142,000 was also dismissed.

Captain Courtney made an unsuccessful attempt to fly to New York from Plymouth, England, last September in a seaplane. After having made several attempts to hop off during which his plane failed to rise from the water, he started on September 8. He came down at afternoon near Coruna off the coast of Spain. After being delayed there for sometime by bad weather he abandoned the flight on orders from the British air ministry after his backers had released him.

Unable to move without the wheel chair from which he fired the shots that killed his wife, Campbell was carried into the courtroom on the shoulders of two deputies. He could not rise to hear the sentence imposed by Judge A. J. Rose.

SPORTS SLANTS

By ALAN J. GOULD

Associated Press Sports Editor. New York, June 13.—(AP)—In spite of dwindling gate receipts a reflection of the waning interest in fist affairs, and the proximity of a heavier tax burden on tickets, Metropolitan matchmakers do not seem discouraged.

While Chicago is concentrating on the Walker-Hudkins middleweight championship bout June 21, New York fans will be asked within the next few weeks to perk up interest in a half dozen battles, most of them specializing in light heavyweights but with a sprinkling of heavies and lightweights.

The financial flop attending most, if not all the outdoor affairs here so far has prompted Tex Rickard to select Madison Square Garden for everything but his biggest shots.

Although Ebbets field was a jinx for Harry Wills, predecessor as the heavyweight "black menace" George Godfrey will tackle the rough and rugged Johnny Risko there next Wednesday under Signor Fugazy's auspices.

Godfrey won a close and disputed decision over Paulino at Los Angeles some time ago, but he probably will find Risko, the ring's crossword puzzle, more difficult to solve.

PITCHERS FARE BADLY IN THE BIG LEAGUES

(By the Associated Press)

Subjected to one of the heaviest bombardments of the current season major league moundsmen cautiously peered from their hideouts today to see whether the bombardment was over.

Eight big league battles saw 31 pitchers pounder for 183 hits on which 198 runs were scored. Sixty of the hits were for extra bases—39 doubles, 11 triples and 16 home runs.

Only six pitchers went the route. Wise Kremer, Larry Benton, Jim Elliott, Ed Morris, Sad Sam Jones and Owen Carroll.

The heaviest shelling of the day was in the Philadelphia sector of the National League. Here the Pittsburgh Pirates cracked out 25 hits to beat the Phils 15 to 4.

Behind Benton's strong pitching, the New York Giants batted out 16 hits to crush the league-leading Cincinnati Reds 10 to 1.

The St. Louis Cardinals moved to within one game of the Reds by taking over the Braves at Boston, 9 to 6, in a wild game that saw 28 shut hits made.

Shut out for five innings by Charley Root, the Brooklyn Dodgers suddenly came to life and battered out a 13 to 1 decision over the Chicago Cubs.

In the American League the Yankees home runned their way to a 15 to 7 triumph over the Chicago White Sox. Babe Ruth hit his 23rd homer; Lou Gehrig hit his 14th and 15th and there were contributions of one each from Pat Collins and Earle Combs.

Pitchers came into their own in the other three games. Ed Morris, big Red Sox rookie right hander, beat the St. Louis Browns 5 to 2. The Washington Senators made it three in a row over the Cleveland Indians, 3 to 2, and Jimmy Fox's single in the eighth scored Cochrane with the run that enabled the Philadelphia Athletics to beat Detroit 3 to 2.

Fleming, when she entertained at the Benvenue country club in compliment to Miss Elizabeth Howard, of Whitakers, whose marriage to Jack Simmons Brown will take place tonight at Whitakers, and members of her bridal party.

A RETROSPECTION

I think it's great to have many true friends
Who'll stick with you thru thick and thin
And know their approbation you will always have My great admiration they win.

I know when you can rely on a pal
You'll be courageous and bold.
For when you need help they will always be there
To get the other side told.

If I'm sick with the gout or whatever it may be,
They'll come right on when I call,
And show by their great sympathy and love
That real friendship doesn't turn into gall.

As long as we prosper and have plenty of cash
To pay for their treats every day
And to alleviate their want at any old cost,
Our friends are numerous and gay.

If we live to be three score years and ten,
And look away back in the past
We can count on our fingers those who are true,
Our burdens on them we can cast.

I think when I get thru the Pearly Gates
My sweetest memory will be,
Of all dear friends who have gone on before
Twill help make Heaven for me.

MOTHER!

I've seen the lights of old Broadway
Send their gleam to the skies;
But that can't compare with the light so rare
That shines in a Mother's eyes.

I've seen the waters of Niagara
Dash from the rocks above;
But that powerful feat cannot compete
With a power of a Mother's love.

I've crossed the ocean's mighty span
Its depth cannot be told;
But it can't hold sway in any way
With the depth of a Mother's soul.

SUMMER TERM OPENS TODAY

First Classes Held at East Carolina Teachers College This Morning.

Classes began at East Carolina Teachers College Summer School today for the eighteenth summer session. To date the enrollment is 841. The total enrollment will be around 900.

The new dining room is not yet in readiness for the summer term and in order to accommodate this number Dr. Meadows, the director of the summer school, has arranged for an extra shift in the dining room serving two breakfasts, two dinners and two suppers.

This is the largest number of students the college has been able to accommodate, this being made possible by the use of some of the rooms in the dormitories that have recently been rebuilt as a part of the expansion program.

At the beginning of the fall term the new dining room and Jarvis hall will be open to students. The new dining hall will accommodate an additional 500 students.

If you have property to sell consult with us. It will pay you well. H. A. White & Sons, Realtors, General Insurance. Phone 49.

Coolidges Plan To Get Away On Vacation Tonight

Washington, June 13.—(AP)—Following a second consultation this morning between Col. James E. Coupal and Lieut-Commander Joel T. Boone, White House physicians, the condition of Mrs. Coolidge was considered sufficiently improved to allow the departure tonight of President and Mrs. Coolidge for the summer White House in Wisconsin.

Improvement in Mrs. Coolidge's condition had continued during the morning to a point which, in the opinion of the physicians, removed any danger in undertaking the journey to Brule. Rise in temperature beyond along the whole route to Wisconsin removed danger that Mrs. Coolidge might catch cold on the way.

Since the arrangements which have been made for departure on Monday night have not been disturbed, everything is in readiness for leaving Washington tonight.

MORE DIGGING THE NEED

On the street the other day this conversation was overhead:
"How's business?"
"Rotten."
"I suppose you've considerably reduced your city
sales force since the slump came?"

"On the contrary, we have just put two more men on,
and are going to take on three more the first of the month."

"Rather queer time to branch out."

"Not at all. When we have to dig for business, there's only one thing to do —put more diggers on the job. What would you do—fire your salesmen and wait for the trade to bring in the orders to you? Nothing to it—we have to go out and get 'em."

"If you agree with that,
you cannot logically dodge the proposition that when business is not all that might be desired, and increased selling effort is called for, increased advertising effort is naturally indicated."

This does not necessarily mean larger advertisements or more frequent insertions, though they are desirable.
It may mean only the wiser use of the advertising appropriation in the matter of mediums and copy.

There never was a better
time to cultivate assiduously
the field covered by The Reflector.

WHY NOT DO IT NOW?

Since reports yesterday that the Mexican "Lone Eagle" had been forced down at Mooresville, we have been wondering in our mind just what a predicament
the flier would have been in had he come this way and been forced to seek a landing place in or around Greenville. There is no question that the flying age is here and soon the city that has not made provision to take care of the travelers
by air will be out of date and behind time. Already other cities about us have realized just this. Goldsboro and Rocky Mount have air ports and reports from Wilson are to the effect that arrangements are being made to procure 100 acres for use as an up-to-date airport for that city. Will Greenville continue to be without an airport until the lack of the same makes our city in a class by itself, or will we realize our need and be up and doing?

Greenville is in almost a direct air line between Langley Field, Va., and Pope Field, near Fayetteville, and were there a suitable airport here there is little doubt that the flying between these two army fields would be routed this way. This alone would prove a great asset and a good advertisement for Greenville in addition to the other fliers that would be attracted to this city by a modern airport. The time has come for Greenville to again take a step forward if it desires to continue to be considered Eastern Carolina's most progressive city.

A referendum on long summer vacations would bring out a record vote.

Despite the temperature
here, no exodus to the North Pole has been reported.

Statistics showing that men eat more candy than women are probably merely statistics of purchasers.

It may be that dark-haired women marry first. But light-headed ones marry oftenest.

ABOUT
TOWN

The nomination of Herbert Hoover as the Republican presidential candidate seems virtually assured at this time, a member of the grand old party declared today.

"Action of the delegation from Pennsylvania swung the pendulum
in favor of the candidate from California."
"Herbert Hoover has been in the limelight of the nation for a number of years, and his achievements in different capacities have commanded more than passing interest of members of his party."

"Naturally, the majority of party members preferred Calvin Coolidge.
But his declination contained in the statement, 'I do not choose to run,' removed him from the picture."
"Next to the president himself, it is possible that Hoover is the best bet the party has and they will do well to let him remain the leading figure."

"North Carolina's delegation to the national Democratic convention at Houston will vote unreservedly for Cordell Hull, as result of the State convention in Raleigh yesterday," said one of the old readers of the Reflector to the writer of this column this morning.

"The director of the Smith campaign, conceded the majority of the State's delegates to the Tennesseean shortly after the convention opened.
The public didn't expect this right off the bat, but it was thought it would come later on during the day."

"If the North Carolina vote could be taken as an index to the opinion of other states, it would look like Hull will have easy sailing when the convention opens. But since it can not, we will have to wait until the party members actually assemble at Houston and see how they are going to cast their votes."

"Party harmony was stressed by Aubrey Brooks of Greensboro, in delivering the keynote address before the Democratic convention at Raleigh yesterday," an admirer of this well known political leader mentioned today.

"This should be discussed more frequently by leaders of both the dominant parties of the country.
The time has come to do away with as much strife as possible in the ranks of politics, and it rests upon those who mould sentiment in this field to use their influence in this direction."

"To much discontent and inharmony has existed in past years;
there has been too much criticism—too much mud-slinging, and the sooner this is eliminated, the sooner
the political atmosphere of the nation will become purified."
"It is to be hoped our keynote speakers will do like Mr. Brooks.
They should stress harmony until it finds its rightful place in the minds and hearts of all people."

"It is to be regretted that the good-will flyer from Mexico had to land before finishing his trip to the capital city," an aviation enthusiast said this morning, as he perused an account of the forced landing made at Mooresville, N. C.
"Captain Carranza planned to make a non-stop trip to Washington. But misfortune overtook him in the shape of a heavy fog and he was forced to land under inauspicious circumstances on a North Carolina flying field."

"Fortunately for the flyer, citizens of Mooresville rushed out to the landing field and three of their automobile lights on the field so that he might land. The beams had gone out a short time before his arrival and there was nothing to indicate the position of the field.
Had it not been for the thoughtfulness
of the automobilists, Captain

Carranza might have been killed in a forced landing at some other point.
"He comes to America to return the good-will tour of Lindbergh, the greatest flyer of all times. That he will receive a cordial welcome at the capital is certain. It is not like America to let a courtesy to one of her fellowmen pass without acknowledgment."

"Greenville business houses closed at twelve o'clock today in observance of the half Wednesday holiday closing program adopted by a majority of the stores during the summer season," stated one of the merchants today after closing his doors for the afternoon.

"Like the rest of the merchants,
I am going to take my family to some nearby resort and spend the afternoon. We expect to have a great time. There will be numbers of employees of our firm there and they will have a vacation just like we will.

"These holidays are looked forward to with more than general interest every week, and the good which the working people will derive from them will compensate the merchants through increased efficiency during the fall and winter months."

A Non-Advertising
Merchant Helps
Promote Mail-
Order Sales

The man who does a successful business is the man who lets the public know what he is doing it with.

There is not a business on earth that will not respond to and be benefitted by advertising—except possibly counterfeiting.

Mail-order buying is growing stronger each year simply because of the persistent advertising used in describing the merchandise offered.

If the merchandise you carry is of the high quality you claim for it, advertise that fact to the people of your community and stop them from sending to mail-order houses for the very things you have to sell.

The more publicity you give your store the more sales your store will make; the more sales your store makes—even at a lower per cent profit—the more money you make, and the greater the reputation of your store as a good place to trade.

Square dealing will always pay dividends. If you are square and your business conduct and your goods and prices are RIGHT, don't fail to tell the people of it every day of the year through your home newspaper.

Give the greatest possible number of folks of your community an opportunity to profit by your merchandise offerings and by the prompt and efficient service your store renders the community.

To increase your sales and build up your business you must secure new customers, and to get these customers you must tell the public what you have to offer. This can be accomplished in only one way and that is by regular use of your home newspaper.

Thrift is a by-word today in most every household. The people read the catalogs and newspapers at every opportunity. Is your offering of merchandise values where the prospective purchaser can benefit by it or is the space you should have taken occupied by a more enterprising out-of-town concern?

If the home merchant fails to make full use of the local newspaper in presenting his merchandise offerings to the people of his community, can he blame the home folks for making full use of the big mail-order catalogues in buying their goods—or for driving over to some neighboring city or town to purchase them?

The day a merchant leaves his store-news announcement out of the home newspaper is the very day he loses the greatest opportunity for gaining new patrons for his store, and is the very day that he helps promote mail-order sales in his own trade territory.

NEW YORK COTTON
New York, June 13.—(AP)—The cotton market recovered today with offerings lighter and prices advancing on covering or rebuying by recent sellers. There also seemed to be some trade and commission house demand prompted by the firmer technical position, a better tone in the stock market and unfavorable features in weather and crop advices. October sold back to about the 20 1-2 cent level, but prices were a few points off from the best during the middle of the afternoon under realizing.

GRAIN MARKET.
Chicago, June 13.—(AP)—With an outbreak of liquidating sales in progress, wheat and corn both underwent material setbacks in value today. Corn for September and December delivery fell to a new low price record for the season. Favorable weather conditions for wheat were reported in the northwest and southwest as well, and the field outlook for corn was also regarded as auspicious.

Wheat closed heavy, 1 5/8c to 2 1-8c net lower, corn 7-8c to 3 1-8c down, oats 1-4c to 1c off, and provisions unchanged to 12c decline.

STOCK MARKET.
New York, June 13.—(AP)—Responding to the placing of large supporting orders and the buying of "bargain hunters," stock prices made a brisk recovery today after the disastrous break of yesterday. A few soft spots cropped out here and there, but the general trend was upward. Standard Industrials and rails rallied 1 to 5 points and several of the specialties were marked up 6 to nearly 10 points.

Trading which crossed the $500,000 share mark yesterday for the first time in stock exchange history, was only moderate in volume today. Call money renewed at 6 per cent with a fair supply available in view of the heavy mid-month demand for funds.

While the morning rally helped to revive confidence, considerable uncertainty was still apparent with a rather widespread tendency on the part of many traders to tighten holdings on the rallies. R. H. Macy and National Tea, which did not sell yesterday, changed hands today at prices 9 and 22 points respectively, below their previous quotations.

Russia insurance broke 15 points to 145, but made up its loss by early afternoon. Radio opened 5 points higher at 176, but encountered rather stiff resistance around that level and was pushed back several points.

The recovery was stimulated, however, by two bullish news developments; confirmation of reports that negotiations were pending for a merger of the Pierce-Arrow and Studebaker automobiles companies and an advance in Pennsylvania crude prices, the first since December, 1927. Weekly steel trade reviews report a further falling off in production with new business light in volume.

High priced specialties led the rally. Case Threshing Machine ran up 9 points, Curtiss Aeroplane 7, Pierce-Arrow preferred 6 1-2, International Telephone and Wright aeronautical 6 each, and American Express, Allied Chemical, Adams Express, American Linseed, American Telephone and National Biscuit 5 points or more. Among the many issues to sell 3 to 4 points higher were General Motors, Montgomery Ward, Sears Roebuck, American International, New York Central, Union Pacific and Consolidated Gas.

The closing was strong. Total sales approximated 4,000,000 shares.

ACQUITTED OF MURDER OF COUSIN
Charlotte, June 13.—(AP)—Walter Williams, 22, of Gastonia, was acquitted in superior court here today of the charge of murdering his cousin, John Connor, of Pineville, on May 28. He pleaded self-defense.

Connor was killed with a shot gun at the home of Williams' grandmother. Williams testified yesterday that Connor had pursued him into his grandmother's home threatening to hit him with a rock. When he was unable to escape he shot in self defense, he testified.

High Percy, state fire warden at Brule, Wis., will act as President Coolidge's guide during the executive's vacation at Cedar Island Lodge.

BILLIONS LOST ON NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

Sensational Decline of Values Yesterday Of Unusual Proportion.

New York, June 13.—(AP)—Losses of paper profits in stocks in yesterday's sensational market were reckoned in billions of dollars today. The decline in the market value of General Motors from the high point of the year alone was $50,000,000.

For the first time in the history of the exchange a 5,000,000 share session was recorded, the count of shares traded in being 5,193,600.

Many reasons, political and financial, were furnished in the street for the collapse of the great bull market.

Some observers held it to be the failure of the "draft Coolidge" movement at Kansas City. In other quarters, however, the decline was regarded as a natural correction of the speculative excesses of the past few months, which have been conducted in the main on borrowed capital.

The general market decline, which began Monday, was touched off by the sensational drop in the Bank of Italy stocks on the curb exchange. Since April 30 the Giannini stocks have had a paper loss of $473,200,000.

Other factors influencing the decline were the increase in call money rates from 5 1-2 to 6 per cent, the calling of $15,000,000 in loans by New York banks, presumably to meet the heavy demand for funds in connection with income tax payments Friday, and the fears of a further increase in the Federal Reserve Bank discount rate.

REPUBLICANS TRIM TIMBER TO PLATFORM

N. C. Delegation at Kansas City Interested in Planks And Not Presidents.

By J. J. JENKINS, Associated Press Staff Writer. Kansas City, Mo., June 13.—(AP)—Kansas City is a city of bands, bratery, band wagons and speeches this week and the nomination of a candidate for President appears more or less incidental in the life of the North Carolina delegation to the Republican national convention. The chief thing now is what kind of lumber will be used in the platform on which the nominee will stand, when he goes to the voters this fall to ask their endorsement and four years in the White House. There also is the matter of disposition of a number of contests but that was taken care of last night.

W. H. Fisher, of Clinton, is helping Senator Borah, Senator Reed, Smoot and a group of notables try to thrash out the farm relief question. The prohibition problem and a dozen or more things like declarations on hours of labor, wages, unemployment and what not. At the same time Willis G. Briggs, of Raleigh, listened to a few speeches as efforts were made by delegations from various sections of the country to gain seats in the convention at the expense of other delegations. Oratory flowers on all sides at the committee meetings and Fisher asserted when he returned to Bray Hotel after midnight mapping the preparation of a humid Kansas City June from his brow that he had never heard so many speeches in his life.

"I have never heard as many speeches in my life as we have had to listen to this afternoon and tonight," he asserted. "Some of the most able men in the United States came and made talks but with the exception of one or two they made no impression on any moment."

The situation insofar as the remaining North Carolinians are concerned appears to have developed into one of "watchful waiting"—watching parades and waiting for Thursday to come when the balloting for President and Vice Presidential candidates are due.

The roll of delegates should be made permanent today and the platform laid before the convention for its inspection and approval. After that the way will be made clear for nomination of a candidate for President and other things that go with naming a party candidate although there were former parades with the slogans "we want an American for President" and similar placards and a march of "the unemployed" interest in the Democratic state convention at Raleigh yesterday was at high pitch all day.

When Associated Press dispatches telling of the actions of the Tar Heel Democrats was taken to the Bray Hotel all activities were suspended in the lobby while members of the Indiana delegation joined with the North Carolinians in talking North Carolina politics.

There is much similarity between Hoosier and Tar Heel politics in many ways and this mutuality of interests was marked as prospects for Smith and Hull came in for expanded discussion.

Another point in common between the Republicans of the two states is the fact that Mrs. Bess Kennon, North Carolina's new national committee woman is a native of Indiana. She came to Davis county ten years ago from Indianapolis.

Siler Siler City, grand treasurer; Mrs. Moffitte Henderson, Hickory, associated grand matron; J. A. The officers were luncheon guests today at the governor's mansion.

Hoover Receives Complete Story Of Convention

Washington, June 13.—(AP)—Secretary Hoover got his first complete and personal report on the Kansas City situation today, when George E. Akerson, his private secretary, returned from the convention scene. He was taken straight to the secretary's private office from his train and with George Barr Baker went into an informal staff meeting for intimate discussion of the two of three decisions immediately awaiting the secretary's word.

Tilted back in his big office chair, the secretary and the little group of his aides talked over the situation at length. It was known that his leaders at Kansas City had told him that his opinion would be gladly accepted by the convention majority on every disputed point. How far he would use the new power and what direction it would take were the topics of the early conference.

The long distance telephone from Kansas City, over which Secretary of the Interior, Work and manager Good of his campaign forces, keep the commerce secretary informed was in frequent use.

WOMAN FLIER BREAKS WITH HER BACKERS

SAYS PARTY TO STAND BY AGRICULTURE

Senator Moses Tells Republicans They Must Live Up to Responsibilities.

Kansas City, June 13.—(AP)—Declaring the Republican party would not shirk its responsibility toward agriculture, Senator Moses of New Hampshire, as permanent chairman of the national convention, told the assembly today that the party would enter the campaign "in no posture of defense."

"We come up on the field aggressively militant," he said. "We intend to carry this fight to the enemy. And we challenge them to bring forth their strongest champion."

"We come now to the central and most important tasks for which we are assembled. First, we are to formulate a declaration of principles which will embody the essentials of Republicans and with which we shall submit our cause to the people."

"Inevitably, in a party thoroughly national in its vision and contact as ours is, there will from time to time arise differences of opinion. Heretofore, we have succeeded always in settling our difficulties within our own ranks through that wise spirit of accommodation which most characterize a great and far flung organization like ours, upon which depends so much for the advance and prosperity of our country. So it will be now."

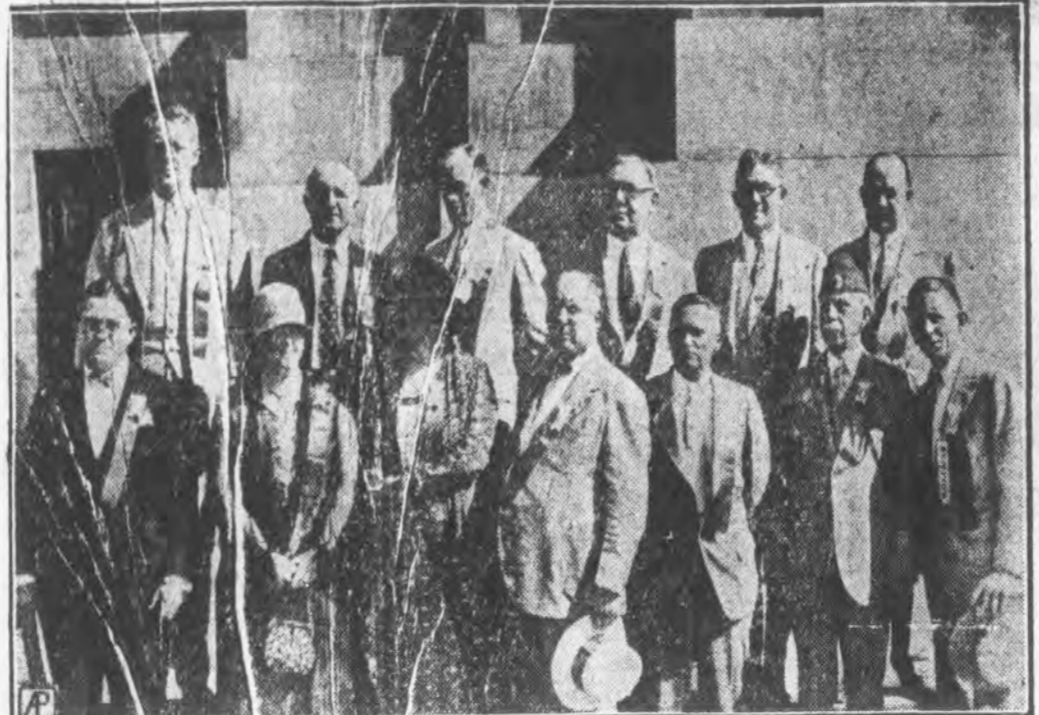

"Upon the platform which we shall thus reconstruct, we shall place a candidate whose personality fits our principles and the nation's present necessities. We are not barren of choice may fall, we know it will rest in unworthy hands and that the leadership we shall here set up will assure to the country a Republican ascendancy which will endure for at least eight years more."

"There are at least five million reasons why this must be so—because there are at least five million more Republicans than there are Democrats in this country. These millions united, as we know they will be when this convention has concluded its task, and joined by millions more to whom our candidates and our principles will appeal, will sweep on to an overwhelming victory at the polls."

"We enter this campaign in no posture of defense. We come to the enemy. And we challenge them to bring forth their strongest champion."

"And we care not whether his name be Brown, Jones, Robinson, or Smith."

FLORIDA HOOVER BACKERS ARRIVE

Glenn B. Skipper's Florida delegation to the Republican convention, victorious in a contest suit instituted against them by George W. Bean, who headed an uninstruced delegation, were snapped by the photographer immediately after their arrival in the convention city. The Skipper delegates are pledged to support Herbert Hoover.

American Airmen Decline to Share In Flight Money

Sydney, Australia, June 13.—(AP)—The two American airmen, who flew on the Southern Cross's trans-Pacific flight as navigator and radio operator, Captain Harry W. Lyon and James W. Warner, have declined a share of the money granted the crew of the plane. They declared themselves satisfied with their salaries of 100 pounds ($500) for each flying day.

The Australian Parliament granted Captain Charles Kingsford-Smith, commander of the plane, 5,000 pounds, and a gift of 5,000 pounds was also made to Kingsford-Smith and Lieut. Charles Ulm.
