ANTI-SMITH FORCES THREATEN BOLT

THREAT WILDLY CHEERED AT MASS GATHERING OF DRY DELEGATION TODAY

Leader Tells Hearers Women Will Not Vote For Wet Candidate And Will Bolt If Smith Is Nominated.

By FRANCIS M. STEPHENSON (Associated Press Staff Writer.)
Houston, Tex., June 28.—(AP)—Threats of a bolt of the party if Al Smith is nominated were wildly cheered at a mass meeting of "dry delegates" to the Democratic convention held in the Baptist church here today on the eve of the impending row over a dry plank in the party's platform.

Mrs. Jesse Nicholson a leader in the national women's committee for law enforcement, told the meeting that the women "will never vote for a wet candidate and will bolt if Smith is nominated." This and similar expressions by Senator Harris of Georgia, were cheered as the delegates turned to march on the convention hall.

Unaware of the exact text of the dry plank adopted by the sub-committee of the resolutions committee the mass meeting was making plans for a determined fight on the floor for a "bone dry" plank when the platform is reported out by committee. How acceptable the tentative draft will be to the drys is problematical.

Former Governor Sweet of Colorado, presided over the meeting today and with Daniel Roper of South Carolina, led the march of the delegates to the convention hall.

The following resolution presented by J. A. Hartness of North Carolina was adopted:
At a mass meeting of more than 1,000 people, including delegates from many states attending the Democratic convention it is resolved that there shall be no change in the 18th amendment and the Volstead act and that the platform committee is instructed to endorse both and to declare for strict enforcement of both.

However, virtually all of the speakers seemed to take it for granted that Smith would be the party's nominee and their attention was centered on the fight for a "dry" plank.

Senator Harris declared that if Smith ran on a wet platform he would lose Georgia by 50,000. William D. Upshaw, dry crusader from Georgia, also declared that the "Tammany tiger will never get in the White House." Other speakers included Cone Johnson of Texas and Clifford Walker of Georgia.

Carolina Banner Again Taken By Smith Paraders
Houston, June 28.—(AP)—As the Smith parade wended its way about the convention hall last night, the North Carolina delegation, out of the demonstration by a vote of 24 to 7, seemed a trifle bored in its front row position.

MOVING FLOES DELAY RESCUE NOBLE PARTY

Airmen and Vessels Face Overwhelming Odds as Ice Mountains Begin to Move.

(Copyright, 1928, by the Associated Press.)
Kings Bay, Spitzbergen, June 28.—(AP)—Fog and shifting ice floes added to the peril and difficulty of rescue operations going on today in the effort to relieve the six men now stranded off Northeast Land and to find Captain Roald Amundsen and his five companions who have been swallowed in the mystery of the arctic since June 18.

Neither the Swedish, Finnish nor Italian airplanes which have been awaiting an opportunity to return to the radio party near Foyne Island to take off the five men of the Italia and Lieutenant E. Lundborg, the stranded Swedish flier, were able to take the rescue because of the thick fog.

The steamer Braganza, which has been acting as base ship for the Italian fliers is fast in the ice at North Cape. She has forty men aboard.

While the Italia relief expeditions were held impotent by the weather conditions, the search for Amundsen continued fruitlessly. The Svalbard, the boat used by the governor of Spitzbergen, returned after a search for three days and nights along the west coast of the Archipelago without finding any trace of the explorer's French plane.

Kings Bay, Spitzbergen, June 28.—(AP)—Airmen and vessels attempting to rescue five survivors of the dirigible Italia and the Swedish flier, Lieutenant Lundborg, faced overwhelming odds today.

Dangerous ice floes added to the peril of rescue operations. The steamship Quest, used as a base by Swedish airmen, encountered a movement of ice from the east across Hinlopen strait and the crew was compelled to leave Wahlenberg Bay and seek refuge on the north coast of North East Land.

The moving ice also interfered with rescue work by causing a day to day shift in the position of the marooned men.

It was decided that no landings on the ice by large planes would be attempted. A Finnish seaplane was fitted with skis and given a test at Virgo Bay in making a landing on a small area. The plane made a perfect landing on a snow field and stopped after a run of less than 100 yards.

Weather conditions which had delayed rescue operations were improving today. The west wind, which had been strong for three days, was dying down. A thick fog continued, however.

FORMER NAVY SECRETARY LEADS DELEGATES

Eastern Tobacco Markets To Open On August 28th

Eastern North Carolina tobacco markets will open August 28th.
This decision was reached today at the annual convention of the United States Tobacco Association, in session at Old Point Comfort, Virginia. The opening date is one week earlier than last year. The association was asked for an opening date not later than August 21. Action of the association resulted from a petition presented by the Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce, and representative business men and growers in this part of the state.

FIVE SHIPS SEARCH FOR LOST FLIERS

Oslo, Norway June 28.—(AP)—Five ships were searching Barents Sea between Norway and Spitzbergen today for traces of the missing French seaplane carrying Roald Amundsen and five companions.

Capt. Courtney leaves Lisbon This Morning; First Stop at the Azores.

Lisbon, Portugal, June 28.—(AP)—Captain Frank T. Courtney, British aviator, who hopped off from Lisbon this morning for this place enroute to the United States, sent a wireless message to the Associated Press this afternoon reading:
"Still going strong, except arrive about four o'clock."

State Lawyers At Asheville

Asheville, June 28.—(AP)—Lawyers from all over North Carolina were pouring into Asheville today for the annual convention of the North Carolina Bar Association starting tonight.

O. Max Gardner, Democratic nominee for governor, could not attend because of the death of his sister in Charlotte, and his place on the program tonight will be filled by Federal Judge E. Yates Webb.

DRY PLANK IS APPROVED AT HOUSTON

Democratic Sub-Committee Declares For Enforcement of 18th Amendment.

By JAMES L. WEST, Associated Press Staff Writer.
Houston, June 28.—(AP)—A prohibition plank declaring for enforcement of the eighteenth amendment was approved today by the Democratic convention's resolutions sub-committee in winding up the drafting of the platform upon which the party will seek a grant of power in November.

Several wet and dry proposals were submitted to the sub-committee but they were eliminated one by one until there remained only the original plank as drawn by Senator Pittman and other leaders last week and a similar one offered by Senator Carter Glass of Virginia, a dry leader. After an agreement as to precise language, the committee finally approved the Pittman draft.

Governor Dan Moody of Texas presented the prohibition declaration adopted by the Texas state convention and endorsing the eighteenth amendment, but this was rejected along with propositions for the modification of the prohibition laws so as to permit the states to decide whether they would be wet or dry.

The Texas governor would make no statement after the sub-committee would up its work at 6:30 a. m. today after meeting continuously since 9 o'clock last night, but he told his colleagues on the committee that he might take the fight to the floor. However, the consensus among the twelve platform builders appeared to be that there would be no prohibition fight in the convention.

Josephus Daniels, North Carolina publisher and former naval secretary, who has been demanding a vicious enforcement plank, was not a member of the sub-committee. He will have opportunity to restate his views when the sub-committee reports to the full committee which still has to endorse the party platform.

Chairman Pittman was of the opinion that it would not require more than an hour for the entire committee to pass upon the platform and he expected the convention to hold a special session in mid-afternoon to receive and approve the committee report.

Give Poincare Vote Confidence.
Paris, June 28.—(AP)—The chamber of deputies gave a vote of confidence to the Poincare government today, 420 to 150.

Earhart Party Sail For Home

Southampton, Eng., June 28.—(AP)—Miss Amelia Earhart, Wilmer Stultz and Louis Gordon, fresh from the cordial welcome given them in Great Britain after their flight across the Atlantic from Newfoundland, sailed for home today.

The group of American fliers was given a hearty greeting by the passengers lining the rails of the steamship, President Roosevelt, as their tender came alongside.

Miss Earhart was guest of honor at a private dinner given last night by Mrs. Hubert Scott Payne, of the imperial airways, and slipped away from her hotel quietly this morning to board the liner without any official function.

MANY KILLED WHEN TRAIN HITS ENGINE

Carlington, Durham, England, June 28.—(AP)—Death cut a wide swath in the party of nearly one thousand excursionists returning from a holiday at Scarborough when their train collided almost head on late last night with an engine shunting freight cars in the yard here.

When the tangled debris resulting from the terrific crash and the telescoping of two crowded coaches had been searched it was found that 22 persons, many of them women and children, had been killed and 47 injured, of whom 28 still are in the local hospital, some in a serious condition.

A large percentage of the 22 victims were women and children. Comparatively few men were in the mid-week excursion party.

So badly mutilated were many of those killed that it was not possible this afternoon to identify all of them.

Rescue parties worked all night under the everchanging light of flares and the railwaymen who struggled desperately to take those injured from the wreckage said that they had never known a crash that presented more difficult or harrowing rescue efforts.

In one compartment six living and six dead were found, the living and the dead tumbled together in the crash.

Needleman Case Is Compromised
Washington, N. C., June 28.—(AP)—The pending $100,000 civil suit brought by Joseph H. Needleman of Philadelphia, Pa., against A. W. Griffin and 30 others who were convicted of mutilating him some time ago, has been compromised and will not be called for trial here next month, according to J. B. Bessap, deputy clerk of federal court.

What amount the case was settled for could not be learned, the clerk said.

ROBINSON OF ARKANSAS STANDS OUT AS RUNNING MATE FOR N. Y. GOVERNOR

THREE WOMEN BOOST STOCK OF AL SMITH

Nellie Tayloe Ross One of Those Seconding Nomination N. Y. Governor.

Houston, June 28.—(AP)—The lull in feminine oratory that marked the opening sessions of the democratic convention has been followed by the proverbial storm, women walking away with the honors in seconding the nomination of Governor Smith.

Three of the gayly-clad sex broke loose the floodgates during the second evening session last night. Nellie Tayloe Ross, one time governor of Wyoming, was the first woman to appear before the speakers' table and microphones.

In a white lace sleeveless frock, she presented the perfect picture of proper summer costume.

Her eulogies of the New York governor were cut short by the shouts from the floor of "time's up." With a gracious bow to Chairman Robinson she relinquished her place and returned to her seat.

Mrs. Emma Guffey Miller, resplendent in black lace evening dress under which gleamed a pink satin slip, launched into her subject, Smith's nomination, in a business-like manner.

Her draped shoulders waved an accompaniment to her forceful words and the black lace floated about her arms in straggling contrast to the deep voice that was booming over the hall.

Mrs. Stella Hamlin, newly elected national committeewoman from Louisiana, upheld the honor of her sex and gave the women the last word. Her second to Smith's nomination concluded the evening's performance and she retired from the platform amid congratulations that boasted no small part of relief that the long session was at an end.

Interest was centered in Mrs. Hamlin's first public appearance in view of the fact that she is considered a possible successor to Mrs. Emily Newell Blair, retiring committeewoman from Missouri, as vice chairman of the national committee.

She wore a heavy, coffee-colored lace gown and a small tan braid hat of the cloche variety.

Lace seemed to be the keynote of the evening's fashions, for everywhere curious eyes turned to see the gowns of the famous they saw lace in some shape or form.

Mrs. Smith, whose self-imposed seclusion in Houston was shattered when hundreds of yelling and singing Smith supporters besieged her box after the nominating speech, wore an all-over blue lace dress, with a large straw hat to match.

They applauded his dancing and he acknowledged their hand-clapping with a bow, his flushed face breaking into a grin of evident pleasure at the way affairs were progressing.

Smith Gets Kick Out Of Nominating Speech

Albany, N. Y., June 28.—(AP)—Governor Smith was up until well into the early hours this morning listening over the radio to the demonstration staged at the Democratic convention when his name was placed in nomination for the presidency, and he made no attempt to conceal his satisfaction.

He tuned in as soon as the evening session began and did not miss a word or a shout or a blast of music. As the demonstration broke out at the close of Franklin D. Roosevelt's speech offering him as the party's standard bearer in the presidential race, the governor grinned. Raising one hand he twirled it above his head as though he, too, were on the convention floor and swinging a cackler in celebration.

When the radio reproduced the music of a band playing "The Sidewalks of New York," he could no longer restrain himself and rising he danced slowly several times about a circle of family and friends who had been listening to the convention doings with him.

After his name had been placed in nomination the governor was asked for a statement but stood by his determination not to say anything of political import until after the balloting. He finally said that he had listened attentively to the Roosevelt speech and to the ensuing demonstration "and enjoyed them both." But beyond that he would not go.

Convention Plans To Finish Business Tonight and Tomorrow And Will Adjourn During the Afternoon Hours.

By BYRON PRICE, Associated Press Staff Writer.
San Houston Hall, Houston, Tex., June 28.—(AP)—With the prohibition tangle straightening itself out in committee, the Democratic national convention neared its end today with scarcely a threat of trouble left on its horizon.

By early afternoon tomorrow, at the latest, the convention fully expected to adjourn finally and go home, after having put before the country a ticket composed of Smith of New York and Robinson of Arkansas and a platform promising among other things, strict enforcement of the dry laws and a comprehensive program of farm relief.

Today's opening session was given to a continuation of a long interlude of nominating speeches begun last night. It was the tentative plan to adopt the platform during the afternoon and to cast tonight the ballot now considered certain to result in the nomination of Smith.

An overnight adjournment is expected before the selection of Smith's running-mate and the windup.

The whole performance today had about it an air of anti-climax. There still was a lingering possibility of a floor fight over the platform but most of the leaders were confident none would develop. The oratorical part of the day's program, consisting of putting the names of half dozen favorite sons formally in nomination was a somewhat tedious formality in the sweltering heat of the big convention hall. Everybody conceded that the men for whom the speeches were made had no remaining chance of nomination, but the delegates and convention officials were willing to let delegates and convention officials were willing to let them have their hour of glory and joined good-naturedly, for the most part in the applause "that greeted all of them."

The session began at 10:35 a. m. five minutes after the hour set. Senator Robinson, the permanent chairman and leading candidate for the vice presidency apparently was anxious to get on with the convention business. When he called for order, only about half the delegates had arrived and there were still great empty spaces in the spectators' bleachers along the sides and rear of the hall.

The chairman did not wait for order but while the hall still was unsmiling conversation he presented the Rev. A. Frank Smith, of Houston, the first Methodist Church, of Houston, who pronounced the invocation. The crowd stood and grew more silent.

Governor Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland, his state's favorite son, who withdrew just a few days ago in favor of Smith made the first speech of the day, seconding the nomination of the New Yorker. He was given a fine ovation, as he nounced the platform. Many of the delegates stood and cheered as two convention bands joined in "Maryland, My Maryland."

The candidate whose cause he espoused was described by Governor Ritchie as a man possessing all of the qualities of a great President.

"Fate decreed for Governor Smith beginnings which were humble," he said. "She moulded him in the fashion of a man and he was destined to realize to their fullest, and their richest degree the possibilities of America as the land of opportunity."

"Grover Cleveland said the whole art of government is simply applied common sense and common honesty, with reason, justice and tolerance as handmaids, and as he said, 'Governor Smith possesses all those qualities. He is living proof that American democracy can produce leaders simple and yet great. I believe that if every voter in the land could see him and hear him, and come under the spell of his personality there would be few who would not vote for him. This will be no less true in the north and east and west than in the south, where the spirit of Democracy has never wavered and whose sons and daughters have never faltered in their allegiance to the Democratic party.'"

DAILY HITS FOR CIRCUIT GREENIES WIN

Goldboro, June 27.—Manager Deacon Joliff and Stanley Johnson, pitching axes for the Greenies and the Goldbugs, locked horns here today in a mound struggle, the Deacon getting a 5 to 4 decision over his opponent.

Bailey's clout over right field fence with one on proved the winning hit. That solid bluff came in the eighth, giving the Tobaccos a two-run rally lead. The Bugs came back in their half of the inning and began pasting Mr. Joliff all over the lot, scoring a couple of markers to knot the count. That knot didn't prove so strong, however, for the Greenies got to Johnson for two hits and a run in the first of the ninth and the Deacon shut the Bugs out in short order.

In addition to his circuit clout, Bailey lifted out a single, and a two-bagger. Benton, his mate at short stop, co-starred with him at the bat, getting a single and a double out of three times at the plate. For the Bugs, Smith and Daugherty carried a big load, each getting a couple of bingles, both of Smith's going for extra bases.

The mound work of the twirlers stood out even although they were touched heavily in spots. A damp day and a muddy field probably accounted for some of their troublesome moments.

Rain Spoiled East Carolina Ball Activity

By the Associated Press. Rain spoiled the fun for four clubs in the Eastern Carolina league yesterday, only Greenville and Goldboro finding the atmosphere such that they could lock horns.

In a mound struggle that covered every stanza, the Greenies bested the Goldbugs, 5 to 4. "Deacon" Joliff gave up but nine hits while Stanley Johnson allowed an even 10. The only error of the exhibition was credited to the Goldbugs Goldboro's league leadership was not endangered by the defeat.

WOMEN'S PAINS

They Were Relieved by Cardui Which This Georgia Lady Took on Her Mother's Advice.

Columbus, Ga.—"I don't see why women will drag around, in a half-hearted way, never feeling well, barely able to drag, when Cardui might help put them on their feet, as it did me," says Mrs. Geo. S. Hunter, of this city.

"I suffered with dreadful pains in my sides. I had to go to bed and stay sometimes two weeks at a time. I could not work, and just dragged around the house.

"I got very thin. I went from a hundred and twenty-six pounds down to less than a hundred.

"My mother had long been a user of Cardui, and she knew what a good medicine it was for this trouble. So she told me to get some and take it.

"I sent to the store for Cardui, and before I had taken the first bottle I began to improve. My side hurt less, and I began to mend in health. I took the second bottle, and felt much better. I followed this by two more bottles.

"Cardui acted as a fine tonic. I do not feel like the same person. I am well now, and still gaining. My sides do not trouble me at all." For sale by druggists, everywhere. Give it a trial.

Bulls Blank The Colonial Outfit

(By The Associated Press) The Durham Bulls, tenants of the Piedmont league cellar, shook themselves yesterday and blanked the Salisbury Colonials, 6 to 0, the tight hurling of Hershaw Jones accounted in large measure for the victory, as did the heavy stick work of his mates who pounded out 14 hits. Only 31 Colonial batters faced Jones during the melee. The Winston-Salem twins divided a double header with High Point, the Twins dropping the opener 6 to 0 but taking the nightcap 5 to 2. Acosta, Cuban hurler, kept the hits so scattered that the Pointers found themselves unable to complete the circuit. Only the hard hitting rally by the Twins in the fifth and sixth inning of the nightcap prevented the Pointers from claiming both contests. However, Winston-Salem remained in league leadership by a comfortable length. The Patriots had little difficulty in taking the game from the Caps by the score of 6 to 2.

RISKO BEATS BLACK MENACE IN N. Y. SCRAP

New York, June 28.—(AP)—Once more that Puiggy Cleveland spoiler of heavyweight favorites, Doughty Johnny Risko, may not hold a grudge against his old mates but anyway he has been smiting them with a vengeance this season.

The Skylanders won their tenth game in 12 starts from the Queens City team yesterday. The score was 11 to 1. Its results had a greater bearing than a mere victory over Charlotte for it served to keep Ray's men in second place, some half a game behind Macon.

Macon also was winning, the Peaches romping over Spartanburg 7 to 0. Knoxville and Augusta split a twin bill in the latter city. The first game went to Gabby Street's forces, 5 to 1, and the Tigers grabbed off the next, 6 to 3.

Columbia lost, 5 to 4, to Greenville, in the Spinner City. The affair at Asheville was the most decisive of the day, the Tourists hitting Brown safely 15 times while Harris gave up but five hits.

Philadelphia's Harry Biltman, Philadelphia, beat Tony Canzoneri, New York, 10 to 1. (Title not at stake.) Johnny Erickson, New York, beat Pinkey May, Savannah, 10 to 0.

William Kinchloe Ordained Minister Of Baptist Church

William Kinchloe, of Rocky Mount, was ordained as a minister of the Baptist church at services held in the First Baptist church in Rocky Mount this afternoon at five o'clock. The young man passed examination at a Presbytery at Rocky Mount yesterday. The examination was conducted by Rev. H. F. Jones, of Greenville, and Pastors Yearby Hill and Corey, of Tarboro.

Mr. Kinchloe is the son of Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Kinchloe, of Rocky Mount. He is a graduate of the University of Richmond. He is to take his B. A. degree at the University of North Carolina this fall, and after that will pursue studies at the Southern Baptist Seminary at Louisville.

Mr. Jones preached the sermon at the ordination service today. Rev. H. W. Kinchloe delivered the charge. A Bible was presented to the young minister by Rev. Mr. Corey.

Roma Airplane Off On Test Flight Today

Roosevelt Field, N. Y., June 28.—(AP)—The Ballanc Sesqui plane Roma in which Cesare Sabelli hopes to make a no-stop flight to Rome in the near future, took off from Curtiss field at 3:20 A. M. today for a 24 hour test flight with the plane fully loaded. With Sabelli were Roger Q. Williams, pilot, Piero Bonelli, navigator, and Dr. Leon M. Pisculli.

The ship carried a load of slightly more than five tons which included 800 gallons of gasoline. Williams at the controls, lifted the ship from the ground after traveling only 1,200 feet of the runway, which considering the heavy load, came as a surprise.

They plan to remain in the air until tomorrow morning, providing the weather remains clear. In the event of rain they probably will return to the field.

STATE LEGION BREAKS MEMBERSHIP RECORDS

Raleigh, June 28.—(AP)—Having attained in 1928 the largest membership in its history, the North Carolina department of the American Legion will go to the national Legion convention at San Antonio, Texas, this fall to take its place as one of the nine state departments that broke all previous membership records, headquarters here was informed today by national officials.

As a result of a membership drive the North Carolina department's membership totals 10,499, or 90.33 per cent of its quota.

North Carolina, challenged by Tennessee in a membership race, had 990 more members at the campaign than the volunteer state. Virginia had a total of 5,179 members; South Carolina 5,123; and Georgia erance, if the truth be known, had very much to do with the scrapping. The United Press correspondent's story of the affair probably comes pretty close to the truth. The North Carolina Anti-Smith delegation was not fighting because it hated Smith, because it is opposed to religious tolerance, but because W. O. Saunders, a rip-snorting Smithite, knocked a chip off its shoulder when he tried to join the Smith parade with the State's banner.

Nothing serious about it particularly. No harm done. Just a little convention episode. Maybe there'll be more before it's over. Otherwise the delegates will feel they've been cheated out of a real convention."

ABOUT TOWN

"It was a hot time in old Houston yesterday when Democrats started scrapping over their banners," commented a Reflector visitor today, as he gazed thoughtfully at news coming in over the leased wire.

"This is the first time such an occurrence has happened in a convention hall in many a day. Naturally, it attracted nation-wide attention and caused considerable amusement among those who realized how excited the delegates became at times.

"The Democrats are certainly giving the country something to talk about. While all of the comment may not be of a commendable nature, the majority will laugh it off as one of those things that occur in the midst of party heat.

"Jupiter Pluvius stepped in and marred the half holiday of local business houses yesterday, but numbers enjoyed themselves just the same," emphatically declared a member of a local concern today.

"It will take something more than opening of nature's sluice gates to stop Greenville when they step out for a holiday. And yesterday was real proof of the assertion.

"Kiwanians went down to Bayview, had supper, enjoyed a dance and returned home late in the evening just as if nothing in the world had happened to detract from their pleasure. Others who were not Kiwanians went out of town also, and they report an excellent time.

"These half holidays mean much to the working people and no doubt will result in increased efficiency when the fall and winter business rush gets under way."

"Much interest has been aroused in the city league, composed of members of the various Sunday schools, as a part of the summer playground movement," said a prominent business man today.

"These youngsters are playing a good brand of ball. Before the week is over all churches of the city will have had their turn on the diamond and interest will be more pronounced than at the present time.

"The playground movement ought to receive the support of men and women in all walks of life. It opens up a way of keeping boys off the streets and away from associations that mean little good to them.

"Mr. Julius H. Rose, superintendent of city schools, who is directing the movement, no doubt will receive the hearty support of those who realize the benefits to be derived from it. At least, it is to be hoped so."

"Kinston comes over for a two-game series with the Tobaccoists Friday and Saturday," a follower of Deacon Jolliff's organization stated today.

"These two clubs have been hanging around the cellar position all of the season. We want to see them brace up and start a concerted attack on the top position.

"Greenville has already done this and Kinston is doing her best. Next week should see them do something more definite towards realizing the ambition.

"Both clubs have good players—just as good as the teams at the top of the standing of clubs column. The only thing standing in their way is hard luck. If they should be able to cast this aside, then nothing in the world but more hard luck can hold them back.

"It's terribly hard luck that doesn't change locations once every few days. So, be prepared for the change. Mr. Baseball Lover, and help boost the boys up the ladder."

"The Old Gray Mare Ain't What She Used To Be," according to the tune played by the band at the Democratic national convention now in progress at Houston.

But this makes little difference with the delegates in attendance. They went down to the Texas town to talk about things that "used to be" but to realize some of the things that "are."

For instance, they have to nominate a candidate for the presidency of the United States, and when they get through with the job they will return home and wait until November to elect him.

National election time has always been an important occasion in the minds of American people. It is no less important today. There are principles involved that must be settled, and they only way they can settle them is through convention platforms and the men they elect to put them into effect.

Prohibition seems to be the chief issue of controversy of both dominant parties for November and it is likely the faction showing the most wind minus the liquor-stained breath will come out with the crown of victory resting on their brows.

Anyway, it is going to be a "hot time in old America" when the votes begin moving, and sons of the present generation will have something to hand down to posterity, whether they will be proud of it or not.

The Greenville baseball club will conclude the series with Goldsboro this afternoon and return home for a two-game series with Kinston tomorrow and Saturday.

If you haven't seen the club in action the last few days, why not turn out and see the improvement in the way the boys are handling the old apple. Give them encouragement of your attendance, and rest assured they will feel more like turning in more scores.

We are at the turning point now—preparing to cause an evacuation of the top of the standing of clubs column. Help up apply the steam roller. This can be done by your support. There is no better way, so be at the game tomorrow.

Jupiter Pluvius Interferes With Playground Swim

The first exception to the universally kind and favorable treatment which so far has been the lot of the Greenville Civic Playgrounds movement occurred yesterday when the boys had planned an outing to Riverside Park for swimming purposes. Old Jupiter Pluvius, the bane of baseball magnates and schedule makers, was the one who frowned upon them, and his frown was a positive scowl. If the amount of rain he sent down can be taken as an indication.

After a morning of April temperament, it cleared off at noon enough to let everyone get away with but two raincoats in the crowd. Earl Bamber was the thoughtful boy (or was it his mother?), and Sergeant Ross, who piloted the battery's big truck, had his stowed beneath the seat. Exactly forty boys, who made a capacity crowd for the truck were there to benefit by the kindness of Capt. Jones in allowing the use of the car, and several more went in their own cars. Just outside of Grimesland a cloudburst fell upon them, and by the time they stopped to put on bathing suits all were acquainted with the feeling of water. Three miles further, they passed a long stretch where no rain had fallen.

Shortly after arriving at public landing, another similar cloudburst deluged the vicinity, making the river "practically superfluous," as someone said. The boys enjoyed their swim, but naturally their spirits were somewhat dampened, and they were willing to return at 5:45. A little more rain fell on the way home but by that time all had become accustomed to it, and they arrived home at seven, none the worse for the experience. Unfortunately it had been impossible to do much in the way of the life saving work which was one of the objectives of the trip, but next time we will consult the weather man first, and expect a more favorable day.

All Greenville boys who come to the playgrounds program are eligible to go on these trips, which are planned to be weekly, or possibly twice a week during vacation.

Local Kiwanians Have Big Time At Bayview

Despite rainfall of cloudburst proportions, members of the Greenville Kiwanis Club went down to Bayview yesterday and enjoyed their annual outing.

The outing was in the form of a plunge in the rippling waters of Pamlico bay, dinner at the Bayview Hotel last night and an old fashioned "square dance" given at the pavilion at end of the long pier stretching far out into the bay.

In the word of President Frank Harrington, C. B. Rowlett, and other prominent members of the organization, "the affair was a huge success." "The only thing we regretted," said R. G. Ritzgerald, district superintendent of Pitt county schools who might easily qualify as a long distance swimmer were it not for his eloquence as an orator, "was the onslaught by Jupiter Juvius. Had it not been for the activities of this scourge of fair weather lovers all of us would have been permitted to take annual baths without putting forth too much effort."

Gathered around the festive board at the dinner hour, the Kiwanians, many of them carried their wives—struck a stride in oratory that would have done credit to the National Democratic convention at Houston, John Bragaw, of Washington, did honors for his city, but not for his city alone, as he took time to commend the progress made by the Greenville club.

It was at this part of the program that "Bob" Fitzgerald, who, in educational circles is more profoundly designated as "R. O." came into his own. He didn't rise to oratorical heights owing to a slight disinclination which not even his closest friend was able to determine. But he talked plain commonsense about Kiwanis that proved very fitting.

A couple of vocal selections were rendered by a guest of the hotel, Mr. Fry of Greensboro. A program of entertainment was presented by Mr. Vaughan, member of the faculty of Eastern Carolina Teachers College.

George Woodward was in the charge of the evening's program. He has been preparing programs of various kinds for many years and the after dinner square dance met with the approval of every member of the club except C. B. Rowlett, club secretary and also secretary of the Merchants association, who desired more modern forms of the dance. Still, it was noticeable that "C. B." didn't miss much of the hop and looked like an old-timer in action.

There were others who scored largely at the dance, but their wives were not present, and for the sake of discretion, the correspondent is omitting any more names. It is sufficient to say everybody had a big time, and returned home without showing any visible signs of physical exhaustion.

It was the first time the club had ever held a meeting at Bayview, and numbers expressed themselves as being favorably impressed with the thing possible to make the day a big auspicious advent of the ruler of nature's sluice gate the celebration most certainly would have been the greatest in the history of Kiwanis. But, even then everybody is satisfied and it is hoped old "Jup" also.

German Girl Flier has Mishap in Take off For Test Flight At Quebec.

Cape de la Madeleine, Que., June 28.—(AP)—Miss Thea Rasche, German girl flier who hopes to make a non-stop flight to Berlin, and her crew escaped uninjured when her monoplane North Star crashed through some bushes on an attempted take-off for a test flight today. Ulrich Koenemann, pilot and mechanic Zebora were in the plane with Miss Rasche. The latter was at the controls. The ship was not seriously damaged.

Owing to the softness of the field the plane refused to leave the ground and taxied to the end of the field where it ploughed through some bushes. A full load of 400 gallons of gasoline was carried but was dumped by Koenemann when the plane approached the end of the field.

Hoover Plans To Resign From Cabinet Soon

Washington, June 28.—(AP)—Although reluctant to abandon his seasonal attachments and daily contacts as secretary of commerce, Herbert Hoover is to resign from the Cabinet in the near future in order to devote his full attention to the presidential campaign.

By mid-July he hopes to leave Washington for the west, stop over at Brule, Wisconsin, to present his resignation to President Coolidge in person, and then proceed to his home at Palo Alto, California. There he plans to receive, during the first week in August, the official word of his nomination by the Republican party and deliver his address of acceptance.

Determining a question that has caused a wide division of opinion among his advisors, Secretary Hoover's decision was made public late yesterday in a commerce department statement.

Would Prevent Women Fooling With Husband

New York, June 28.—(AP)—The state supreme court had before it today a wife's request that a feminine acquaintance of her husband be prohibited from associating with him.

Mrs. Lalla M. G. Barr, wife of James Cummings Barr, steel manufacturer and prominent socially in New York, Boston and Washington, filed suit for an injunction against Mrs. Margaret C. Dana.

In her petition Mrs. Barr charges Mrs. Dana with exercising a "dominating influence" over her husband since the two first met in 1926. She alleges she has been injured by the acts of Mrs. Dana, particularly because of the notoriety and publicity that has resulted.

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

NEW YORK COTTON

New York, June 28.—(AP)—Advances followed opening declines in the cotton market today carrying prices into new high ground for the movement. Extensive realizing was absorbed on early declines of 11 to 18 points and offerings later were comparatively light, active months selling sharply during the afternoon. Buying may have been influenced by the first of the expected private end month reports placing the condition of the crop at 67.6 compared with 68.9 a month ago.

Prices were steady in mid-afternoon at net advances of about 27 to 30 points.

Futures closed steady 31 to 37 points higher; spot steady; middling 23.00.

GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, June 28.—(AP)—With new wheat beginning to arrive here and with 155 cars received at two Kansas points today wheat prices advanced failed to get very far. Further unwelcome rains in the wheat harvest region southwest were reported but the market effect was largely offset by lower quotations at Liverpool and by favorable crop reports from Canada. In corn, speculative buying was a feature.

STOCK MARKET.

New York, June 28.—(AP)—Price movements uniformly in today's stock market, but the general trend continued upward. Maintenance of relatively stiff call money rates tended to restrict trading and stimulated profit taking in a few of the recent strong spots.

The call money renewal rate of 7-1/2 per cent was the highest since June, 1921. Banks called $20,000,000 in loans during the morning with funds reported to be scarcer than they had been at any time since the "money panics" years ago. The New York federal reserve bank announced the receipt of $8,000,000 in gold from Canada. Little hope is held out in banking quarters for any easing of money until around the middle of July with present indications of a six per cent minimum for the rest of the summer.

Case Threshing soared twelve points to 320 and then fell back to 275. Warren Bros. climbed 11-1/2 points and American encaustic tilted. Brooklyn Edison, DuPont, American Express and Radio sold four to nearly six points higher. The closing was strong. Total sales approximated 1,000,000 shares.

Hearing on Proposed Line Extension Commences at Asheville This Morning.

Asheville, June 28.—(AP)—Preliminary hearing on the suit of the Piedmont & Northern Railway against the United States to set aside the recent ruling of the interstate commerce commission refusing the electric line permission to extend its operations from Gasconia to Spartanburg was started in Asheville federal building this morning before district judge, Morris A. Soper, of Baltimore.

Judge Soper is hearing the preliminary motions here following self-disqualifications of Judge H. H. Watkins of the western district of South Carolina at Greenville, where the suit was filed.

Three questions are to be decided by Judge Soper.

1. Whether or not the Southern Railway, the Seaboard Air Line, the Atlantic Coast Line, the Louisville & Nashville, and the Clinchfield lines, shall be allowed to intervene in the suit.

2. Whether or not the suit shall be tried before three judges.

3. Where the suit shall be tried.

Attorneys for the P. & N., the steam railways, and the government were on hand when the hearing opened. Indications were that the dozen or more attorneys would try to compromise all the three questions.

NEGRO MISSIONARY DIES AT RALEIGH

Raleigh, June 28.—(AP)—The Rev. L. T. Christmas, negro, former missionary for the negro state convention and member of N. C. general assembly from Warren county, died here yesterday at the age of 72.

ROBINSON OF ARKANSAS STANDS OUT AS RUNNING MATE FOR N. Y. GOVERNOR

The Smith procession was continued with a seconding speech by Andrew Nelson of Duluth, Minn., who said the people of Minnesota were determined that "the reign of graft and greed and privilege at Washington should end."

The disorder became so great that Chairman Robinson interrupted the speech to plead with the delegates to be quiet, but a moment later the hall again was so noisy that when Howell said that Reed always had "preached against religious intolerance in its broadest sense," the mention of the religious issue passed unnoticed and got no response even from the Missouri cowbells.

But the bells pealed out again with the concluding words of the nominating speech and the cheering Missouri delegates started a parade around the hall. They carried lithographs of their candidate and a big banner reading:

"Win With Reed." The official convention band played the Missouri waltz. The standard of Oklahoma, whose delegates had decided to go to Reed after wavering for a and carried into the parade. It was followed by the standard of time between him and Smith, joined that of Missouri, in the line of parade. Florida who still support Senator George, but many of those delegates look on Reed as their second choice, likewise let her name card go into the procession.

An extra crash of cheering bulged out amid the noise of cheering, cowbell ringing and band music, when some of the Reed supporters raised a banner saying:

"Turn the rascals out." The secondary standard of Nebraska, pledged to former Senator Hitchcock was brought from the alternate section in the rear of the hall the little group of delegates from the Philippine Islands, all of whom are counted for Smith.

The Kansas standard likewise got into the parade but not until it had been battered badly in a wrestling match among the Kansas delegates who are pledged to Representative Ayres. The skirmish took place in the Kansas' alternate section, in the rear and was quieted after several officers had appeared on the scene.

Finally Ed Hawes, an alternate from Larned, captured that part of the broken standard bearing the name of the state and took it along in the shouting stream that was paying a tribute of loyalty to a candidate who had kept his word to stand by his guns until the end.

It developed that both the Nebraska and Philippine standards had been captured by Reed enthusiasts as they marched by Mrs. Otto J. Bauman, of Omaha, wife of a delegate, sought out two policemen and with their aid retrieved the Nebraska signpost, which was put back in its place. Eddie Tait of Manila, recaptured the Philippine banner without much trouble and it went back to its home station.

The Reed parade was not so strong in numbers perhaps, but it had noise to spare, including the eternal clatter of cowbells. The band over in the north bleachers started a dance of its own. It also had the aid of all three bands and the row was terrific.

It looked very good but nobody possibly could tell what the tune was. There was too much general noise.

Twenty minutes after the Reed demonstration started, and when the tired voices of the sweating, steaming Reed boosters were beginning to fall, Senator Robinson reached for his bung-starter gavel and let go a mighty bang for order. The bands signed off promptly but the Reed folks on the floor kept going just the same. The cowbells never paused.

Robinson waited a while then began shouting for order with no evidence that anybody heard him.

Convention officials and Houston cops succeeded in getting the main floor section quiet, but the Reed paraders just moved back into the aisles and kept going.

Mississippi passed on the roll call of the states without putting formally into nomination her favorite son, Senator Pat Harrison, who is to receive a complimentary ballot.

When the clerk then called the name of Missouri, the "Jim" Reed delegates of that state stood up and cheered. They raised a picture of their candidate at the end of a long pole and jingled cowbells and waved small flags to emphasize to the convention that they were standing pat despite the majority against them. Kansas helped out a little and the Florida state standard was jingled up and down as the demonstration continued for a space of two or three minutes. Then Charles M. Howell of Kansas City took the platform and formally presented the name of the fighting Missouri Senator for the presidential nomination.

It was quite clear that the convention as a whole was growing tired of the massed oratory to which it was subjected all last night and today. There were columns of folks coming and going in the aisles and conversation reached almost roar proportions. William Woodburn of Reno, Nevada, took the platform and seconded the nomination of Smith. He said the New York governor was loved and admired in the west for many reasons.

With one or two of the nominating speeches still to be heard the convention recessed until 3 p. m. The motion was made by John E. McCooey of Brooklyn, and Chairman Robinson ruled it carried with a bang of his big gavel, despite a chorus of protest from the delegates, most of whom apparently had hoped to get the nomination all over with at the morning session.
