CARRANZA OFF ON FLIGHT TO MEXICO CITY

Good Will Flyer Hopped Off From New York Last Night at 7:18 O'clock

Atlanta, July 13.—(AP)—Captain Emilio Carranza doubtless encountered moderately unsettled conditions over the first stages of his intended non-stop flight from New York to Mexico City last night and early today, but once over the Mississippi valley he should have found excellent flying weather, the local weather bureau said today.

Although light local showers fell throughout the night in most sections of the Atlantic coastal region they were not accompanied by any severe disturbances and were not considered by C. F. Con Hermann, meteorologist here, to have been sufficient to make flying hazardous, or to interfere greatly with the progress of an airplane.

His charts showed that in no area along a general course from Washington through the southland there were low hanging clouds and thus he pointed out, visibility should have been good despite occasional showers.

Fairly clear weather overspread most of the Mississippi valley early today, the forecaster said, presaging almost perfect flying conditions for the young Mexican flyer.

New York, July 13.—(AP)—Heading southward towards a city which eagerly awaited him as its favorite son, Capt. Emilio Carranza, Mexico's "good will" flyer, presumably saw well on his way today on his 2,400 mile non-stop flight from New York to Mexico City.

The captain arrived in the United States nearly a month ago on an attempted non-stop flight from the Mexican capital to Washington in return for Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh's flight to that country. Captain Carranza, however, was forced down in North Carolina.

His take-off from Roosevelt field at 7:18 daylight time last night was made between thunder showers that had left the field somewhat soggy. It was a secret start, and only three mechanics were on the field when he left. Only a short time before the start he had announced he would postpone his flight until the weather cleared.

But just before he climbed into the plane he said the postponement had been only a matter of precaution to clear the field of spectators who might have wandered into the path of his machine as it started down the runway.

His ship took the air easily with 390 gallons of fuel aboard, circled the field once or twice and headed south. He said he would fly to Washington and steer a compass course from there to his destination.

He expected to complete the flight in 27 hours, which would bring him to Mexico City after nightfall, but he had no fear of night flying over Mexico since the territory is familiar to him.

Dispatches from the Mexican capital said the populace there greeted the news of his start with joyful demonstrations and that preparations were begun immediately for an elaborate reception.

Atlanta, Ga., July 13.—(AP)—At 9 m. central time today neither Chandler field here nor Armstrong field at Memphis, had any word of the progress of Captain Emilio Carranza, Mexico's "good will" flyer, who took off for a projected non-stop New York to Mexico City flight last night.

Airmail officials here said a compass course between Washington and Mexico, as planned by the captain, would take him over the south somewhere between these two "24 hour fields" but that neither would be likely to hear of his progress unless he came directly over.

It was probable that he struck for the Mississippi somewhere between Memphis and St. Louis as did Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh on a similar flight several months ago. They said there was not the slightest cause for alarm.

POSTOFFICE PROBE BODY IN RECESS

Hearing on Federal Patronage Held up Pending Word from General New.

Washington, July 13.—(AP)—After extensive hearings in the south and a single session in this city, the senate post office patronage subcommittee was in recess today, awaiting requested information from postmaster General New the nature of which was carefully guarded.

Appearing before the subcommittee at its hearing here last yesterday, Mr. New declared that every effort had been taken by his department to prevent the sale of office appointments. Since he took charge of the department, he said, sixty-two per cent of the appointments in Georgia have been made after consultations with the senators and representatives from that state.

He told the senators he had no doubt that some Georgia postmasters had been forced to make contributions to the Republican party, but expressed at the same time the belief that the Democrats exacted similar payments when they were in power.

In support of this assertion, Mr. New submitted a letter from W. D. Jamison, formerly connected with the Georgia democratic state organization, asking William F. Boone, postmaster at Baxley, Georgia, to contribute $75 to the party as quickly as possible.

Battleship Hits Obstruction
London, July 13.—(AP)—The admiralty announced today that the battleship Warspite had struck an uncharted obstruction near Island Light off the Island of Skiathos in the Aegean sea. The damage was described as slight.

Three double bottomed compartments were flooded.
The vessel probably will have to return to Malta for docking.

Returned in N. C.
Raleigh, July 13.—(AP)—Two hundred of the 273 automobiles stolen in North Carolina during June have been recovered to date, according to announcement of Leonard S. Harris, director of the thift bureau of the state department of revenue.

Miss Lena Madson Phillips, New York lawyer, was to be elected president for her third successive term, and Atlantic City was slated for the next meeting place. Miss Phillips was unopposed for the presidency. Contests for some of the other offices were to be decided by the convention.

The trophy for the greatest increase in membership from January 1 to February 28 went to Owenboro, Ky., after the trophy for the best work accomplished by a state in the advancement of health was awarded to Alabama.

Other trophies awarded were: Largest number of clubs represented at the convention, Louisiana; greatest percentage of gain considering the number of clubs last year and the population of the state, New Hampshire; club receiving best publicity, Portland, Maine; most artistic scrap book, Parsons, Kansas; most dignified piece of publicity, Jacksonville, largest delegation east of Mississippi, Pennsylvania; largest delegation west of Mississippi, Arkansas.

There was a fist fight in the midst of the proceedings. (The Rev. A. D. Lindsay, of Birton, Okla., going to the defense of an old man, he said was being annoyed by a youth.

TREATY FOR ENDING WAR ACCEPTABLE

Germany Sends Favorable Reply to State Department on Kellogg's Revision.

Washington, July 13.—(AP)—Secretary Kellogg's revised treaty for outlawing war is entirely acceptable to Germany and a favorable reply from France is expected within a few days.

A note signed by Acting Foreign Minister Schubert at Berlin, detailing his country's attitude was made public at the state department last night, while Ambassador Claudel called upon Mr. Kellogg to tell him of the forthcoming French reply.

This will probably be handed to Ambassador Herrick at Paris tomorrow, he said, on the great French holiday celebrating the fall of the Bastille. The reply he described as an acceptance of the explanations of the proposed pact as outlined by Mr. Kellogg in his note of June 23.

Germany's acceptance was sweeping and unqualified, and the note declared that the Berlin government was ready to sign the treaty at once in the form in which it was submitted.

A draft of the proposed pact was sent simultaneously to fourteen nations, including in addition to France and Germany, Great Britain, Japan and Italy. Germany was the first to reply.

Under the proposed treaty, the signatory nations would "condemn recourse to war," and "renounce it as an instrument of national policy." Further, they would agree to use only Pacific means in seeking a settlement of whatever disputes or conflicts might arise between them, regardless of their nature or origin.

The preamble sets forth that any signatory nation resorting to war in violation of the pact would automatically be denied its benefits, and that at the same time, the other members of the compact would be freed of their obligations under the treaty to the offending state. While the treaty itself makes no mention of self defense, Secretary Kellogg explained in his note accompanying the drafts, that the United States considers this a principle inherent in every sovereign state and implicit in every treaty.

Washington, July 13.—(AP)—The Peruvian note approving Secretary Kellogg's proposal for restoration of diplomatic relations between Peru and Chile reached the state department today, virtually concluding the long drawn out negotiations.

The plan for resumption of full diplomatic relations between the two countries is a new step toward the solution of the Tacna-Arica territorial dispute which caused a break in relations more than two decades ago. Secretary Kellogg hopes that with the restoration of these relations, Chile and Peru between themselves will be able to work out a satisfactory formula as to the ultimate sovereignty of Tacna-Arica.

From the south came the word that Josephus Daniels, secretary of the navy under Wilson, had taken issue with Raskob on his emphasis of the prohibition question as a campaign issue.

Daniels, through his newspaper at Raleigh, North Carolina, praised the new national committee chairman but denied his right to stress issues "not settled in the platform of the party."

From the Republican sector came the declaration of William Allen White, Emporia, Kans., editor, that while he admired Smith's personal courage "his election would menace the nation."

Members of the national committee from states lying between the Alleghenies and the Rockies have been asked to attend the Chicago meeting. Chairman Work, who at that time will be on his way to California to be present at Mr. Hoover's notification, will preside. Under present plans two days will be devoted to a discussion of the middle western situation.

From Palo Alto, where the notification ceremony is to take place on August 11, Mr. Work will go to San Francisco to meet the committeemen of the Pacific Coast. In announcing the two conferences, Mr. Hoover's headquarters said simply that they would be held for the purpose of planning the campaign for the states of those sections.

Mr. Hoover has been informed that 95 per cent of the so-called German vote will support him at the polls in November. A statement was given out late yesterday at the office of Chairman Work declaring that representatives of German-American societies had called and given assurance that they would rally behind the commerce secretary. The visitors were described as a delegation from a general conference of German-American publishers and societies held recently in New York.

Arrangements are now practically complete for Mr. Hoover's western trip, which is to begin tomorrow night.

DEMOCRATS TO GET LAY OF THE LAND

State By State Canvass to be Made Before Campaign Actually gets Under way.

New York, July 13.—(AP)—A state by state canvass to determine the political lay of the land is to be made before the Democratic presidential campaign gets into full swing.

Conditions locally are to be sized up by members of the Democratic national committee, who were on their way home today after a series of conferences here which brought about a national campaign organization which John J. Raskob, financial chairman of General Motors, is at its head.

The committeemen, keyed up by words of encouragement from Gov. Smith, the standard bearer, are to report as soon as possible to Senator Gerry of Rhode Island, chairman of the campaign advisory committee. Until they have done so, the full scope of the Democratic national campaign will not be determined.

Plainly showing the effects of an almost endless round of conferences during the last 48 hours, Governor Smith planned, today, to return before nightfall to Albany. His future plans are indefinite, as the date for his official notification at the capital has not been fixed.

Raskob, his close friend, who will be the campaign general was at his summer home in Maryland, shutting aside until next week the problems of campaign. Even Herbert Lehman, New York investment banker who will handle campaign finances, decided to take a week-end off to visit a son in a military camp.

In a final conference yesterday at which views were freely exchanged in the presence of Gov. Smith, who from time to time also offered his suggestions, members of the national committee discussed the campaign outlook. No decisions were reached except that all should return home and get affairs in their own state ship-shape.

Gov. Smith told the party workers that he was ready to press his campaign for the presidency to the limit, but that he doubted the wisdom of undertaking too many speeches so early on a stumping tour around labor day.

While campaign plans of the Democrats were being shaped up here without any open show of dissension a rift appeared elsewhere as Mrs. Frank Mann, former national committeewoman for West Virginia, announced that she would not support Smith because of his stand on prohibition.

From the south came the word that Josephus Daniels, secretary of the navy under Wilson, had taken issue with Raskob on his emphasis of the prohibition question as a campaign issue.

NORRIS GIVES REASONS FOR NOT RUNNING

Nebraskan Not at all Satisfied With Platforms of Two Dominant Parties.

Washington, July 13.—(AP)—The Farmer-Labor party has chosen a candidate who "does not choose to run."

Senator Norris, Republican, Nebraska, selected as the standard bearer of that party, declined the nomination late yesterday, but in a statement accompanying his refusal said that his action was not prompted by satisfaction with the two major political parties, or their platforms.

"For reasons that I have several times publicly expressed, I cannot accept the nomination for President tendered me yesterday in Chicago," he said. "This does not mean that I am not in full sympathy with those who are opposed to the platforms and the Presidential nominees of the major political parties."

Senator Norris declared that the present system of choosing a President is "antiquated and illogical" and added that "it is a practical impossibility for the people to select anyone who had not first been nominated by one of the dominant political parties. . . . This system must continue to grow even worse until the people become sufficiently aroused to demand that they have a direct voice and vote in the election of a chief magistrate."

The Nebraska senator devoted only the opening paragraphs of his statement to a discussion of the electoral college, and then referring to "electrical power," he declared "that in this campaign we are confronted with a practical demonstration of the power of monopoly."

He said that the power interests were strong enough to cause the major political parties in their platforms to remain silent on the issue, which he termed "the most important question before the American people."

With seven of the sixteen men of the Italia safely aboard, the Krassin immediately turned his attention to picking up several rescue groups which have become stranded themselves and kept a sharp lookout for the missing group of Captain Roald Amundsen in the hope that the great drama of the Arctic which has been in progress for the past seven weeks might reach its climax in one great swoop.

The Krassin resumed all five survivors of the Italia who were on the ice near Foy Island including Natalae Cecconi, motor chief of the Italia, survivors of whose death have often been denied.

The other men rescued were: Lieut. Alfredo Vigliani, navigator and commander of the group; Prof. E. Behounek, the Czecho-Slovak meteorologist; Giuseppe Biagi, radio operator; and Filippo Troani, engineer.

For more than a month the eyes of the world had been centered upon the little party off Foy Island. Day after day Biagi, the Italia's radio operator, kept in touch with civilization and directed rescue efforts by means of his wireless equipment. It was he who first guided the rescuing airplanes to the camping place and kept the world informed of the party's position until the Krassin could pound its way through the ice to reach them.

A full report of the rescue of the Vigliani group was received in Moscow today from Prof. Samoilovitch, leader of the Russian expedition. His report follows:

"Within three miles from the Vigliani group, the Krassin sighted the remnants of an airplane, the abandoned machine of the Swedish flier, Lieut. Lundborg, and the rest of the Italia from which was coming smoke signals in response to the deafening siren blasts continually sounded from the Krassin."

The Krassin then drew up close alongside of the ice field which was harboring the victims. I climbed down a trip ladder which was lowered from the boat and found myself in the outstretched arms of the rescued men who embraced and kissed me as they wept tears of joy. ### SMITH MEETS HIS RUNNING MATE

Five More Members of Ill-Fated Italia Crew Rescued By The Krassin

Moscow, July 13.—(AP)—Spurring on relentlessly in what now appears to be a winning fight against the Arctic, the powerful Russian ice breaker Krassin, has rescued five more of the crew of the ill-fated dirigible Italia and was pounding on today to make further rescues.

Just a few hours after the brilliant rescue of Captains Alberto Mariano and Filippo Zappi, members of the Italia's walking party, the Krassin crashed through the ice floes to reach the Vigliani group which for 48 days had been stranded near Foy Island off Northeast Land.

With seven of the sixteen men of the Italia safely aboard, the Krassin immediately turned his attention to picking up several rescue groups which have become stranded themselves and kept a sharp lookout for the missing group of Captain Roald Amundsen in the hope that the great drama of the Arctic which has been in progress for the past seven weeks might reach its climax in one great swoop.

SEVEN KILLERS DIE IN CHAIR IN KENTUCKY

Four White Men and Three Negroes Pay Supreme Penalty at Eddyville.

Eddyville, Ky., July 13.—(AP)—Seven men, convicted murderers all were electrocuted between midnight and 1:30 o'clock this morning at the state penitentiary here.

Seven wooden coffins later today were placed on resles near the prison gates awaiting disposition of relatives of the executed ones whose bodies in death house garments, rested within the uncushioned boxes.

Four white men, three of them very young, and three negroes made up the seven whose deaths in the electric chair set a record for Kentucky. Sullen, defiant and prayerful by turns and during their stay in the death house, the condemned men were reduced by fear to a condition bordering upon collapse as midnight approached.

Although there was no clock going to sound the hour, the prisoners sensed the time and all talk died away long before the death march started at 12:15. With head supported in cupped hands, they sat silent, their bodies shaken by chills despite the intense heat in the squat stone house that had been their home in the prison. In plain view was the execution chamber and the chair.

There was no sombre darkness in the place, instead, there was brilliant light and shadow and polished steel.

The white men went to the chair first, Milford "Red" Lawson 35, Corbin, Ky., leading the way. He said he "was ready to forgive everybody" and was strapped in quickly. He was dead three minutes later. The murder of a neighbor in his mountain county had brought him there.

Courno Seymour, 31, Louisville, was the second. A dramatic attempt to obtain a stay off him last night had failed and he met his fate apparently in a daze. He confessed the murder of a Louisville merchant in the chair.

Hascue Dockery, 21, Harlan, Ky., followed. Originally he had been selected to die first, but just as the hum of the death chair dynamo filled the cell block, he asked for a priest, explaining that he wished to become a Roman Catholic. He was received into the church.

He was charged with slaying two women and a man.

Charles Paul Miltra, 23, St. Louis Mo., was the fourth. Convicted of the murder of a grocer in Louisville in an attempted hold up, he had been rather disdainful in his attitude toward the guards since the confinement here. He died in three minutes without making any statement.

The negroes, apparently depressed earlier in the night by the nearness and certainty of death, recovered their spirits to a greater degree than the white men before the time came for them to pass down the corridor of steel and stone that connects the death house with the chair room.

Four Killed When Plane Crashes—Croydon, Eng., July 13.—(AP)—Four persons were feared to have been killed in the crash of a plane at Purley which came down in flames during a test flight today.

The plane, a single engine machine used for carrying baggage between London and the continent, had recently been reconditioned.

In addition to the pilot, the plane carried two women and three men attached to the aerodrome staff.

Kidnapped Boy Found at Miami

Miami, Fla., July 13.—(AP)—Billy McAllister, 4, kidnapped Miami boy was found unhurt in a Coral Gables vacant house at 11 a. m. this morning. He was found by Mr. and Mrs. Layt Gallagher of 1024 Milan Avenue, living next door to the house who heard his pouncing with a bottle on the door of the closet in which he was locked. The boy said his kidnapers were a "fat man and a woman."

NOBLES DOG UNAFFECTED BY POLAR HARDSHIPS
Kings Bay, July 13.—(AP)—One survivor of the Italia disaster apparently is unaffected by the hardships suffered in the arctic awaiting rescue.

Titina, General Umberto Nobles' small dog is frolicking all over the base ship Citta Di Milano while his master lies below deck slowly recovering from injuries suffered in the crash. Titina made the trip over the pole in the Norge with Nobles in 1926 and also was on the Italia when it came down on May 24 returning from the pole. The dog was rescued by Lieutenant Einar-Paul Lundborg, when the Swedish airman brought Nobles off the ice north of North East Land on June 24.

HERB HOOVER TO FISH WITH MR. COOLIDGE

Competition on Brule River to Be Keen When Nominee Vists President.

Superior, Wis., July 13.—(AP)—Old Mountain, dean of Brule Trout might do well to keep in the shades of rocks and watch his food next week, for two prominent citizens will be on the river.

President Coolidge will have competition of merit when Secretary Hoover arrives at Cedar Island Hoover for a two-day visit. The Republican arrives at an experienced angler, and knows the streams and rivers of this section. He also has done a good deal of sea fishing.

The question interesting members of the Presidential party is whether the President or his guest will catch the largest trout. Old Mountain, reputed to weigh 20 pounds, lurks in the rapids of the Brule south of Cedar Island lodge, and here the Indian Guide John Larock will take them.

Many are the tales told of Sherman tell of the huge trout and battles with him. Old Mountain, in his tiffs with anglers, has lost an eye, but it has to be a cleverly hidden hook to fool him. The fight always ends with a disappointed fisherman and a broken line or pole.

The thoughts of Superior were in the meantime, turning more and more upon the reception which Secretary Hoover will be given upon his arrival here next Monday. The local Hoover club and other civic organizations had called further meetings today for the purpose of crystallizing plans and arrangements.

Up to last night lack of definite information as to Mr. Hoover's wishes regarding activities here had delayed formulation of exact plans.

Borglum Seeks Young Artist With "A Soul"

Charlotte, July 13.—(AP)—Gutzon Borglum, sculptor and artist, is in this section on a strong quest, a search for a ragged young artist who "has a soul."

Borglum does not know his name, or what he does, or where he lives, only that if he is somewhere in North Carolina. But he terms the boy a genius and determined to find him. That is why he left his studio in San Antonio, Texas.

Some time ago the youth walked into Borglum's studio. He had come all the way from North Carolina to watch the sculptor at work. He brought with him a few poems, a sketch and a small model, or two. He wanted Borglum to pass upon them.

The sculptor was busy. The boy sat all day watching him. At nightfall he left, saying there was a job in North Carolina that he had to get back to.

Three, or four, days passed before Borglum paid any attention to the poems, the sketch and the small models. Then his search began.

"That boy has a soul," Borglum said. "That boy has a soul and I don't even remember his name. I call him a genius. There was life in what he did."

"I want to find that boy. I want to tell him that whatever others think of him, I believe he is a genius. I want to help him too, if I can."

Dean Wannamaker of Duke University has suggested that Judy Rayford of Mobile, Ala., one of his students, may be the boy Borglum is seeking. The dean said Rayford told him he intended to "bum" his way to Texas and make an effort to talk with Borglum. He described the youth as a "peculiar chap" with a "bent for art."

From Raleigh, the sculptor went to Richmond, where he spent the night.

Mobile, Ala., July 13.—(AP)—Judy Rayford, artist, who it is thought Gutzon Borglum, the noted sculptor, is searching for, is a native and resident of Mobile, living with his mother, Mrs. J. Rayford, 300 South Warren street. Rayford is 19 years of age and was educated in the public schools of Mobile and later went to the Duke University.

The Mobile youth, according to his mother, would tell little about his wanderings and begged her not to say anything about his visit to the great sculptor at San Antonio.

NEW YORK TO SEND ITS OWN OLYMPIC TEAM

New York, July 13.—(AP)—The New York State Athletic Club has decided to send an Olympic team of its own to Europe as a protest against the decisions of the American Olympic selections committee. Five members of the winged foot organization who failed for various reasons to qualify for the team will be sent aboard at the expense of the club in an effort to have them included in the team.

The five men are Roland Locke, former University of Nebraska sprint star, Weems Baskin, crack hurdler from Alabama Poly, Matt McGrath, veteran hammer thrower, Pat Elkins, Indian DeCathlon star, who was injured during tryouts at Philadelphia and was unable to complete the ten events and Norton wrestler.

Demonstrates Possibilities Of Television

Dallas, Tex., July 13.—(AP)—The names of Texas Democratic candidates for state offices who have refused to work for the election of Governor Alfred E. Smith, today were barred from primary ballots in three counties pending the outcome of a test case.

The third reversal for Democratic party bolters came yesterday when the Galveston county executive committee refused to place the name of Thomas B. Love and other anti-Smith Democratic national committeemen and a leader of the ultra right faction of the party in Texas, is a candidate for Lieutenant governor.

Prior to the action of the Galveston county committee, Love's name was barred from ballots in Cameron county when a district court judge denied an application for a writ of mandamus to compel the committee to recognize his candidacy. His appeal from this decision is pending before the civil court of appeals at San Antonio.

The Galveston committee said it refused to recognize the bolters "because they are openly and notoriously violating their party obligations and pledge, and the integrity of the party demands that their names not be printed on the ballot."

A state supreme court decree upholding the Galveston county committee in a similar case in 1921, was cited by the committee.

Meanwhile plans for an alliance of Democrats opposed to Governor Smith with the state Republican organization, were advised at San Antonio. At a meeting of the Republican state executive committee there, a steering committee was appointed to confer with anti-Smith Democrats, R. B. Creager.

National committeeman said the steering committee would confer with the Democrats opposed to the New York governor on a proposal to substitute a ticket of anti-Smith electors for the Republican electors already selected.

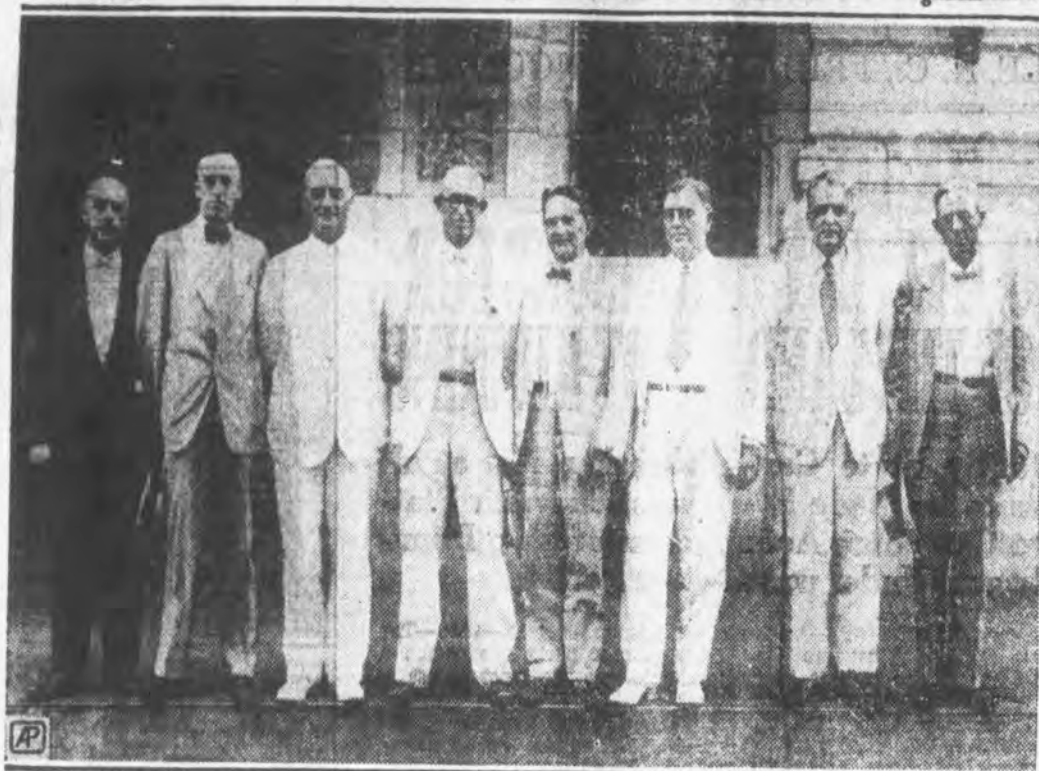

Templeton Released
Raleigh, N. C., July 13.—(AP)—After placing bond of $1,000 for appearance in Superior court on charge of misappropriating $30,000 funds of the town of Cary while he served as attorney two years, J. M. Templeton, Jr., of Raleigh and Cary was released yesterday from custody.

The town commissioners allege in the warrant issued against Templeton that he loaned himself the money. Mortgages and endorsements cover the amount alleged to have been borrowed by the attorney it is understood here.

Jerome Moore Dies At Atlanta.
Atlanta, July 13.—(AP)—Funeral services for Jerome Moore, 43, who died last night will be held late today and the body will be taken to Columbia, S. C., for interment. COLORED ODD FELLOWS TO MEET HERE AUG. 14

(Reported)
The Grand Lodge of the Grand U. O. of Odd Fellows will convene in its next annual session August 14, in this city.

At its session in the city of Greensboro C. M. Eppes, representing one of the city lodges, asked that its next session be held here, giving assurance that the racial relations are such as to warrant the coming. The leaders were a little doubtful about coming to this city. But as soon as Eppes told about the attitude of our white citizens to the negro, Greenville was selected upon the withdrawal of Wilson and Tarboro.

And The Reflector learns through Eppes that the main body will convene in the high school auditorium. The past grand masters council, patriarchy and ladies auxiliary will convene in Sycamore Hill Baptist church. The grand master is Dr. C. S. Brown, Winton, N. C., D. G. M. J. H. Blum, Grand secretary, Prof. J. H. Johnson, Salisbury; grand endowment secretary, P. A. Richardson, Nashville; grand treasurer, Y. D. Garrett, Tarboro. ALEXANDER PEACOCK DIES IN NEW YORK steel king led to fortune in the twenties, is dead. Pneumonia proved fatal at St. Vincent's hospital yesterday, he was 66 years old.

The rapidity with which Peacock, Charles M. Schwab and other early associates of Carnegie made their millions caused many legends to spring up about them. Stories about Peacock painted him as probably the most eccentric of the early Pittsburgh millionaires, but his associates say most of these stories are untrue.

FIVE MORE MEMBERS OF ILL-FATED ITALIA CREW RESCUE BY THE KRASSIN

Krassin will continue back to the group of the Russian flier, Chumkhovsky, who with four members of his crew is stranded along North-east Land. After Chumkhovsky is picked up the Krassin will proceed to Virgo Bay, where the pilot will establish a base for further flights in order to seek trace of Roald Amundsen and the six men who were carried off in the bag of the Italia when the gondola was torn loose.

Announcement

We wish to announce to THE TOBACCO FARMERS OF EASTERN NORTH CAROLINA the construction in Greenville of one of the LARGEST, BEST ARRANGED AND BEST LOCATED tobacco warehouses in North Carolina. An inspection of this warehouse, THE NEW JOYNER'S, will convince anyone of the truth of the above statement. While the Greenville tobacco market for the past several years been recognized as THE BEST TOBACCO MARKET IN THE STATE, this statement is supported by government statistics from every market in the state on the sworn statement of the warehousemen.

Likewise and in keeping with the superiority of the Greenville market we have endeavored to associate with us in the management and operation of The NEW JOYNER WAREHOUSE a class of men capable and qualified in every particular to give the most complete service of any warehouse in North Carolina.

WE KNOW TOBACCO AND KNOW HOW TO SELL IT

Our Mr. O. L. Joyner has been identified with the tobacco warehouse business since the first warehouse was built in Greenville, and is well known throughout the entire tobacco belt. Mr. O. L. Joyner, Jr., before engaging in the warehouse business, was employed by some of the largest buyers of our tobacco and acquired a knowledge of grades that can be secured in no other way. These two will be in active charge of the sale at THE NEW JOYNER'S and supporting them in addition to the regular warehouse and office force we have associated with us a number of well known and active business men of this section, among them Mr. N. O. Warren, Mr. L. W. Tucker and Mr. J. R. Turnage. These gentlemen have not heretofore had practical experience in the warehouse business but they possess every other qualification and will easily and quickly learn. Mr. Warren is a popular former cashier of the Greenville Banking and Trust Co., and Sheriff Tucker for many years one of the most efficient and popular officers Pitt County ever had and a large and successful farmer, are both well known throughout this entire section. Mr. Turnage is President of the First National Bank of Ayden and of the Turnage Bros., Inc. He is a leading merchant of that progressive town and an active and aggressive business man and extensive farmer.

In making up our new warehouse organization we have endeavored to place men in charge of every department of the business ESPECIALLY QUALIFIED TO GIVE OUR CUSTOMERS ONE HUNDRED PERCENT SERVICE, and we have employed no one to fill a responsible position who is not in full sympathy with us in our purpose to establish and maintain THE BEST ALL 'ROUND TOBACCO WAREHOUSE SELLING FORCE IN THE STATE.

We cordally invite you to visit us at our new warehouse and allow us the opportunity of proving all we have said in the foregoing statement.

Yours truly,

ABOUT TOWN

Yesterday we wrote about "blind tigers" that see. Today we are going to expiate on another kind of animals. It is the "road hog."

This varmint is known only to those who frequent the highways of the nation and come in contact with the hog at many places, despite every effort possible to avoid him. He is the fellow that prides himself upon his ability to get the most of the road at all times. He cares little for the feelings of other people. He does not consider the lives of others. He has only one object while at the wheel and that is to get where he is going regardless of how he gets there—just so he doesn't go there via the undertaker.

We have come in contact with lots of animals in our day, but it is possible the "road hog" is the most repulsive creature known to present day civilization. He may look good from a physical standpoint. But behind the good looks there is the stench of the hog-pen, the filth of character that causes him to jeopardize human life in his desperate attempt to take all of the road and leave none for other people.

This road-hogging business is something of a disease. Once a person gets in the habit of it, he simply can't resist the temptation of keeping it up. He eventually becomes hoggish in his desires and is soon branded by that cognomen, hog, which should be detestable to every man, woman and child of the whole country.

Next time you start out on the highway, Mr. Automoblist, be sure you give other cars their part of the road. Let no one say you are a hog—a common, ordinary "road hog"—of the species that makes life miserable for the thousands who traverse our highways every day of the year.

"Think it's going to rain?" inquired a well-known local man as he came downtown this morning to open his place of business for the day's activities.

"Looks kind of threatening," we responded. Our friend squinted hard at the overcast clouds, glanced down at the ground that had been soaked by a torrential downpour the night before, and said, "This weather is just as fickle as a woman. It rains one minute, and the sun shines the next. Who in the world knows what to do under such conditions?"

"Why not bring along your raincoat, umbrella and overboots and insure yourself against a real old Baptist bath," we advised.

His eyes became astutely analytical. Then he smiled. "I don't mind sprinkling, but I would prefer leaving the umbrella and things home if the Baptist bath can be left off the program."

"That ninth inning spurt that gave Kinston victory over Greenville Wednesday goes to show how uncertain ball games are," declared a fan today.

"We had the old game on ice and Kinston started a rally that netted them four runs and the honor of the afternoon.

"We have seen lots of games won and lost but this was the hardest loss we have ever taken. Just imagine the old team breezing along for nine innings with the score twice as large of the opposing side and then a series of hits that netted the other side enough runs to lick us.

Declare War On Gambling Houses In New Orleans

New Orleans, July 12.—(AP)—Guns of the association of commerce trained on gambling houses in New Orleans and adjacent parishes echoed today in the announcement of Thomas A. Healy, superintendent of police, that an investigation would be made into charges that gambling houses and bookmakers operated under the "protection" of constituted authorities.

While Mr. Healy denied that police protection existed, he stated that if in his investigation evidence of bribes was disclosed against any member of the police force, such officer would be prosecuted "to the full extent of the law."

Members of the association of commerce, in conference with the commission council, charged in effect that illegal gambling was eating at the very vitals of business in New Orleans and flourishing wide open with the police "bound to have knowledge of it."

Charles H. Hamilton, president of the trade body, urged the council to issue orders with teeth to compel the police to act to rid the city of gambling. Though the charges made by the association leaders were largely general, several members charged that "at Canal and St. Charles Street" one of the biggest gambling houses in the country has

Chicago Wins Another Game

By HERBERT W. BARKER
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
There's mathematical proof that the New York Yankees have yet to clinch the American League pennant. But alleged contenders in that circuit are coming day by day to the realization that it will take a miracle to head off Babe Ruth and Company from their third successive appearance in the world's series.

The Athletics lost a chance yesterday to cut deeply into the leader's lead when they split even with the Chicago White Sox while Detroit was nosing out the Yanks at New York.

The Browns bunched hits off MacFayden in the sixth inning to defeat the Boston Red Sox 3 to 1. Alvin Crowder chalking up victory number ten against one defeat.

Burns' single in the tenth sent the Washington Senators down to a 2 to 1 defeat at the hands of the Cleveland Indians.

In the National League, the St. Louis Cards increased their lead to five and a half games by trimming the New York Giants, 11 to 1, in a five and one half inning engagement halted by rain.

Warren Quits Tunney's Camp
Specular, N. Y. July 13.—(AP)—Add Warren, has quit Gene Tunney's camp, because of a ruling of the state boxing commission which forbids boxers to be engaged in the preliminaries of the Tunney-Heeney fight to act as sparring partners for the principals in the encounter.

Heeney Depending On His Southpaw Punching Machine

Fair Haven, N. J., July 13.—(AP)—Most of Tom Heeney's preparations for his "shot at the heavyweight title" on July 26 are based on the development of his southpaw punching apparatus. His right hand, Heeney is pretty well satisfied with. He has used it effectively for years shooting jolting straight punches under the heart.

Now he's developing his left hand so that it won't feel slighted when he takes it along with his right into the Yankee stadium ring in two weeks. Heeney has used this left hand to a great extent, of course, in all of his fights in this country, but there's been little or no dynamic in it. Persistent practice in sparring matches here are beginning to show results. The challenger now has a left hook that calls for some respect from the critics as well as his sparring mates.

DAVIS CUP TEAM TO BE CHOSEN FROM FOUR PLAYERS

Paris, July 13.—(AP)—The American Davis cup tennis team which meets the winner of the Italy-Czechoslovak match in the interzone final here a week from today for the right to challenge the French will be chosen from John Hennessey, Francis T. Hunter, George Lott and William T. Tilden. Big Bill himself was authority for this statement today but the American captain was unprepared to say whether he and Hunter would play doubles or what player will share the singles burden with him.

"This simply means that Junior Coens Davis Cup year has not yet arrived," Tilden was asked.

"Yes, but I miss my guess if he has to wait much longer," he replied. Coen, 16-year-old Kansas City boy who is the youngest player ever to win a place on a United States Davis cup team, has been getting valuable experience in international competition abroad.

The American team, in perfect condition, is practicing two or three hours daily at the Roland Garros stadium where the interzone final and challenge round will be played. Hunter and Lott engaged in three full sets today with the thermometer above 90 in the shade.

Tilden will consult Joseph Warr and Samuel Colton of the United States Davis cup committee, who were expected from New York on the liner Paris this evening, before announcing the exact lineup of the team.

NEW PLAYERS APPEAR WITH LOCALS TODAY

With new players in the lineup, the Greenville baseball club left this morning for Wilmington where they will take on the Pirates for a double header this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The series will continue through tomorrow.

Jupiter Pluvius interrupted the final games of the series with Kingston yesterday afternoon in the first inning. The score stood 1 to 0 in favor of the Kingstonians, but, according to the Tobaccoists, this slight lead didn't mean a thing in the way the affair would have ended.

Tommy Abbott, newly elected captain of the Tobaccoists, went to Wilmington today confident of taking at least two out of three from the Pirates. With several weak positions showing signs of greater strength, Abbott felt certain the club would be able to show pronounced signs of rejuvenation.

The names of the new members of the club were not available this morning, owing to the early hour the team pulled out for the Pirate stronghold. But they will be seen in the lineup of the club appearing in tomorrow's writeups. Some of the men are said to be products of the Eastern Shore circuit which recently disbanded.

Abbott said a few days ago there were a number of likely sort of fellows in the Eastern Shore he intended getting in touch with and it was later reported that he had secured the services of some of the big "guns."

Greenville has had a fairly strong club in the field this season, but for some unaccountable reason they hit a losing streak and couldn't break it only for short intervals at a time. The new manager and the public generally believe that the changes to be put into effect in the double bill at Wilmington today will bring about a visible improvement in the club's position in the standing of clubs column.

It is expected the club will be completely organized by the opening game of the series here next week and that local people will have the opportunity of seeing the Tobaccoists recover some of the ground they have lost during the past month.

Although it may look like a long jump from the cellar position to the top of the win column, Tommy Abbott and his followers believe the feat may be accomplished by two weeks of consistent playing. They are going to start out against the Rocky Mount club here Monday with the idea in view, and with proper support of the sport-loving public, something is going to be started—and the Tobaccoists mean to finish it in their favor.

Greenville people were today urged to turn out in large numbers Monday and Tuesday and give Tommy Abbott and Company a rousing send-off and then watch them get results.

GENE TUNNEY RESTS TODAY IN NEW YORK

Speculator, N. Y., July 13.—(AP)—Friday the thirteenth was a holiday in Speculator where Gene Tunney is training to defend his heavyweight title against Tom Heeny, the rugged New Zealander, on July 26 at the Yankee stadium.

The day's rest, Tunney's handlers believe, will keep the champion, who now weighs 196 1-2, almost his fighting weight, from reaching the peak of condition too early. The day of idleness, it was alleged, would put about five pounds on him, a margin he will find useful during the 13 days which are yet to come before he defends his crown.

Tunney postponed his ten-round recision with sparring partners and punching bags until tomorrow. The champion has agreed to take a brisk workout on Sunday while Tex Rickard is here to witness the signing of the New York boxing commission contract for the coming battle. The occasion will be Rickard's first visit to this resort, which the champion considers one of the country's most beautiful spots.

Tunney has yet to work out on the Sabbath during the present training campaign but like a gracious host, he is willing to go any extreme to entertain Rickard, his guest.

Addison Warren, the former University of North Carolina student, who has been on Tunney's staff of sparring partners, quit the camp with Jimmy Bronson, his manager, when they learned that the New York boxing commission had ruled that no sparring partners would be permitted on the Tunney Heeny card.

Warren has not worked out with Tunney but he was due to go three rounds with the champion tomorrow. He reluctantly denied himself this thrill for the chance to show his fistic wares before the crowd which Rickard expects at the championship bout.

Walker's Home Run Helps Spinners Win

(By The Associated Press)
Willie Walker's home runs are becoming almost an institution in the South Atlantic Association—the Greenville slugger hitting them far and high on numerous occasions.

Number twenty-two, bounded off Tillie's bat yesterday and enabled the Spinners to win from Knoxville 5 to 3. Phil Sawyer pitched nice ball for the winners in spite of eight smoke hits.

Charlotte defeated Macon 6 to 5 when Smith connected for a four-bagger in the ninth inning to give a Frank Merriwell finish to an exciting contest. Dick Niehaus started for five hits to be counted off him before Manager Good was able to warm up Bob Lowthian.

The ex-Tamper hurler gave up only five hits for the remainder of the game with one run. Smith's homer, but was credited as the losing pitcher.

Asheville went wild in the fifth stanza to score five times and assure a 6 to 4 victory over Spartanburg. The Tourists used their seven hits to every possible advantage, a triple by Chapman emptying heavily populated hosoocks.

Augusta and Columbia were rained out.

NEW YORK COTTON

New York, July 13.—(AP)—The cotton market was lower again today under continued realizing or liquidation, promoted by easier Liverpool cables, talk of improving crop conditions in the south and failure of bullish features to stimulate demand. After selling about 20 to 25 points net lower the market steadied on reports that west Texas rains had been inadequate. The mid-afternoon market showed net declines of 27 to 32 points. Futures closed barely steady, 24 to 28, points lower; spot quiet; middling 21.95.

STOCK MARKET

New York, July 13.—(AP)—The stock market displayed a complete reversal of form today, selling off sharply at the opening on the raising of the New York Federal Reserve rediscount rate, and then rallying briskly in response to a lowering of call money rates. Trading showed a market reduction in volume, total sales in the first three hours running around 1 1/4 million shares.

Call money renewed at 7 1/2 per cent and then dropped to 7 as a plentiful supply of funds flowed in from all sections of the country. So great was the supply of loanable funds in the afternoon that loans were arranged in the "outside market" as low as 5 1/2 per cent, and the official rate was lowered to that figure. Time money and commercial paper rates held firm.

The day's trade news was largely favorable. Reports of lower steel prices from the Chicago district were offset by an increase in a 4-inch pipe price. Directors of the Allis Chalmers Company raised the annual dividend from $5 to $7. U. S. Rubber common, was heavily bought on rumors of a merger with Goodrich, but these were denied by officials of the latter company. Crude rubber consumption in June broke all records.

DuPont broke 5 points to 363 in the early trading and then rallied to 372. Wright dropped 4 1/2 points to 136 and snapped back to 143 1/4. Radio fell 4 to 162 1/2 and rebounded to 168 7/8. General Motors rallied from an early low of 181 5/8 to 187 1/2 and Curtiss Aeroplane from 97 1/4 to 102 3/4.

The closing was strong. Total sales approximated 1,900,000 shares.

Smith Opponents Barred in Texas

New York, July 13.—(AP)—New demonstration of television was regarded today as a step forward toward the time when it will be possible for one to sit at home and witness great sporting events or other spectacles.

Television has come out of the laboratory and into the sunlight. On the roof of the Bell Telephone Company building in West street a man served a tennis ball, boxed with a companion, drove a golf ball, and went through other motions, while three floors below a little group sat in a darkened room and saw the action in every detail on a screen about two inches by three.

It marked the first time that more than the head and shoulders of a subject were transmitted. One of the engineers said the apparatus could be taken to the Yale bowl or the Yankee stadium and the scene picked up for broadcasting.

"This does not mean the television will be ready for use in every home equipped with a radio set tomorrow," he said, "it is merely a step forward. The equipment is too elaborate for home use. It requires experts to operate the instruments although part of the receiving station is an ordinary radio receiving set."

An improved photo-electric cell, far more sensitive than those used heretofore in television work, makes possible the use of sunlight in previous public tests, so strong that it was uncomfortable for the subjects, had to be used to make the image register.
