GEN. OBREGON IS SLAIN NEAR MEXICO CITY

President-Elect of Nation Killed by Religious Fanatic Yesterday Afternoon.

Mexico City, July 18.—(AP)—Headed by President Calles an impressive cortege today escorted from the National Palace to the railroad station the body of General Alvaro Obregon, president-elect, who was assassinated yesterday afternoon by a man posing as a cartoonist.

The body had rested in state at the national palace all night, watched over by a special guard of army officers and viewed until a late hour by long lines of mourners of every rank.

The crowds began gathering near the palace before dawn today and stood patiently behind lines of troops waiting for the funeral procession to pass to the funeral station.

The highest dignitaries of the government and a large military escort prepared to board the special train which was routed to Guadalajara and then up the Southern Pacific to Sonora, the home both of Obregon and Calles.

The funeral train this was retracing the route followed by the President elect only a few days ago when he came from his home to receive the adulations of great crowds along the railroad and of the huge gathering which greeted him upon his arrival here on Sunday.

Then the crowds were vociferous. Now they are silent in respectful grief or in their deep indignation in the crime by which general Obregon's career was ended.

Mexico City, July 18.—(AP)—Assassination of President-elect Alvaro Obregon caused stringent measure today to curb disorder.

Censorship was in force. Police and soldiers patrolled the city, the capital and the roads of the surrounding countryside. The army was prepared for an emergency, all troops being ordered out and held in readiness in case of disorder.

The War Department today issued an official communique saying that the army would guarantee the public peace.

President Calles was surrounded by a strong guard. All saloons were closed as were theatres and other places of amusement.

Many of those known to be opposed to Obregon fled from Mexico City before the fury of his friends and supporters which was kept in bounds only by police precautions. The headquarters of Luis Morones, Secretary of Labor and Obregon's greatest political opponent, were surrounded by a guard at the instance of President Calles, who feared that there might be some attempts at violence.

General Obregon's body rested today in state in the great salon of the national palace which he had expected to occupy for a second time in December. It was surrounded by a guard of honor composed of members of the Cabinet and the highest officers of the army and navy.

The one-armed warrior, President-elect was slain yesterday afternoon at a banquet in his honor by a man who approached under the guise of showing Obregon some cartoons he had drawn of the general. He fired six bullets into the general from a gun concealed among the sketches. The assassin was mobbed by maddened friends of the slain general. He was rescued by police and rushed to jail. There he confessed the crime although his motive was not made known.

President Calles made a futile attempt to learn the motive of the crime from the assassin.

"It is useless," the slayer said, "for you to attempt to force me to tell anything. If I was resolute enough to kill Obregon in the presence of several hundred of his supporters, knowing full well that I meant my death, I am resolute enough to say nothing."

Newspapers had an unconfirmed report today which attributed this statement to the assassin.

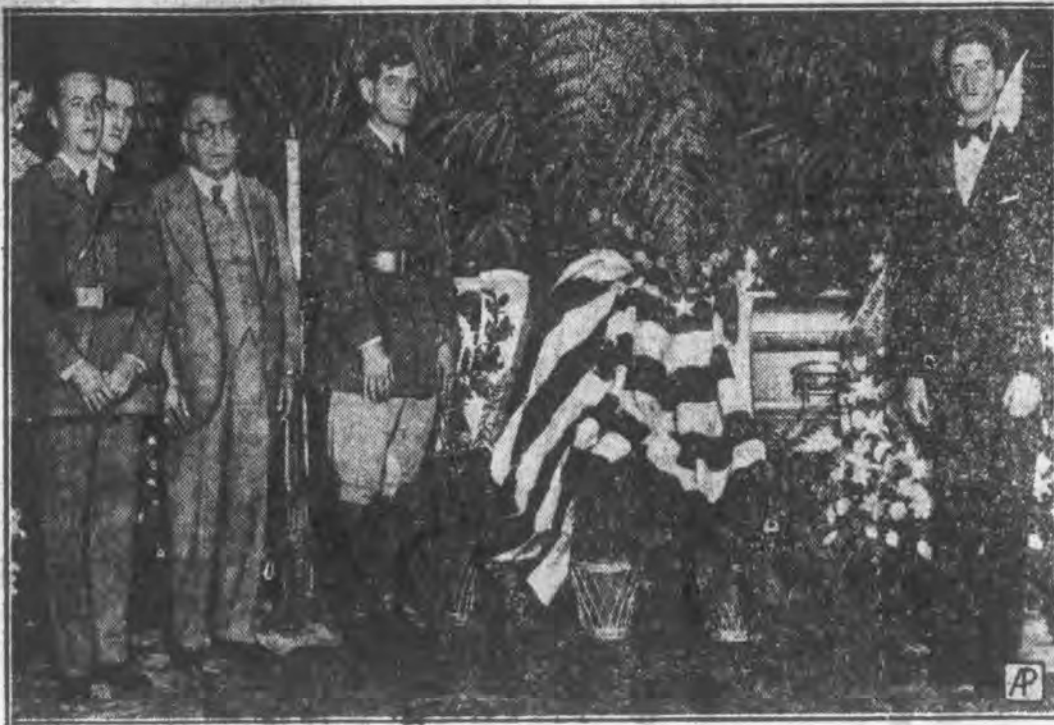

"I killed Obregon because I wanted Christ the King to reign completely and not partially." The assassin gave only the name of Juan. In rumors that spread about the capital he was referred to as Juan Escapulario, "Escapulario" or Juan Escapulario, a religious emblem, is a term of derision used by anti-Catholics in Mexico.

Police said the slayer's shirt had the initials: "J. J. G." They were investigating the theory that the assassin might be Juan Jose Gonzales, alleged to have been the driver of the automobile from which bombs were thrown last year in an attempt to kill Obregon.

Detective Alvaro Basal, who investigated this attempt on Obregon's life, declared that the man had been among the previous plotters.

CARRANZA'S BODY LIES IN STATE IN NEW YORK

Democrats Prepare For Vigorous Fight In N. C.

Raleigh, July 18.—(AP)—The Democratic party campaign in North Carolina was formally opened when party leaders, headed by O. Max Gardner of Shelby, nominee for governor, and Odus M. Mull, Shelby, new chairman, conferred here today to discuss plans.

The session, called by Mr. Gardner, was attended by several state officers, congressmen, legislators and executive committee members who came to the city last night for a meeting of the later.

Tentative plans were made for a full coverage of the state by party speakers, for raising campaign expenses and opening of a North Carolina headquarters office, probably in Raleigh, with Chairman Mull in charge.

It was the opinion of those present that the party should strive to elect every nominee from constable to President; to uphold the party platform as adopted at the Houston convention, and to secure the active participation of the Democratic women of the state in the coming election.

Raleigh, July 18.—(AP)—Democratic leaders today prepared for a vigorous campaign in North Carolina.

O. Max Gardner, nominee for governor, the ten candidates for Congress and all state ticket candidates assembled for a council of war about mid-day with the purpose of mapping out details of the aggressive drive which was heralded by Odus M. Mull, Shelby, following his unanimous election as state chairman last night.

Mulling no words in his speech of acceptance, Mull, the choice of Gardner as a successor to the retiring chairman, Dennis G. Brummitt, declared for a fighting campaign in behalf of the entire ticket from President to township constable. He announced he would begin at once the work of getting active cooperation on the part of the entire party organization, from the township and precinct chairmen up.

A rather spirited debate took place in the committee when Congressman Lindsay Warren introduced a resolution calling for support of the entire Democratic ticket. Charles S. Wallace of Morehead City and W. H. Knight, of Halifax, who announced they were present as proxies for their wives, opposed the resolution, saying their wives were against Governor Smith. Dr. John B. Wright of Raleigh declared Governor Smith had bolted the platform by his prohibition statements, while a similar view was expressed by J. H. Matthews, of Bertie.

Cameron Morrison, Charlotte, former governor, declared the executive committee was the official machinery of the democratic party, created for nothing except to win victory for the party, and was entitled to the loyalty of its members.

Attorney General Brummitt took up the challenge. M. Wright and Matthews, declaring Governor Smith had not bolted the platform by his stand for modification of the dry laws because the platform prohibition plank merely calls for enforcement. He gave it as his opinion that a voter who participates in the primaries and conventions of a party is morally bound to support that party's nominees, but asserted there was no process by which a Democrat can be "read out of the party" for failing to support the ticket.

Mr. Coolidge, in fact, was said to have told Mr. Hoover as much. The old campaigner was shown as giving the novice in politics the benefit of his advice as to the necessity of keeping always fresh and trim as to the paramount importance of keeping in the best of health.

HIGH FEELING EXISTS OVER POLAR FLIGHT

Oslo Greatly Wrought Up Over Tragic Trip Of Nobile to the North Pole.

Oslo, July 18.—(AP)—Investigation of General Umberto Nobile's flight to the north pole is being urged. Feeling against the commander of the Italia is making itself felt in Oslo.

Several Danish explorers proposed that Dr. Fridtjof Nansen, Arctic explorer, head a court of honor to investigate Nobile's leadership. Nansen declined. He said, however, that several events in the expedition needed closer investigation.

The newspaper Aften Posten, was forced to remove a picture of Nobile from a show case when threats were made that the window would be broken and the picture destroyed.

On the anniversary of Roald Amundsen's birthday, Monday, Dagbladet, organ of the present Cabinet, published without comment an article by Nobile belittling Lincoln Ellsworth and Amundsen as Arctic explorers. Nobile told of the work of himself and his Italian crew in comparison with the Norwegians of the polar expedition in the dirigible Norge, in 1926.

Moscow, July 18.—(AP)—Lieut. Alfredo Vigliani today was quoted as criticizing Dr. Finn Malmgren's heroic attempt to reach land to send aid to the survivors of the Italia.

Vigliani was one of a group of five men rescued from an ice floe by the Russian ice-breaker Krassin. Dr. Malmgren, Swedish scientist, aboard the airship, was left alone dying on the ice as he urged his two companions to continue on to land in an effort to send rescuers to the group of which Vigliani was a member.

The correspondent of Tass, the Soviet news agency, aboard the Russian rescue ship Krassin, quoted Vigliani as saying:

"Personally, I regard Malmgren's plan to reach North Cape as a wise, believing we all should have remained on the ice and tried to establish radio contact and at the first opportunity move for the shore in the collapsible boats in our possession.

Malmgren insisted he could reach the shore in 17 days, he took provisions for 25 days. The group was hungry at thirteen days, probably because of the greater consumption of food at the beginning.

Vigliani said the loss of gas caused by the pressure of ice formed on the airship was the immediate cause of the crash. Recounting the experiences of the party of survivors, he continued:

"We knew of all rescue projects by radio and marked their progress on our map, pinning all hope on the ice-breaker. Lately, thanks to the aid from planes, we lived better. We built comfortable quarters with Lieut. Lundborg's plane.

"While building a tent floor with parts of that plane we slept on the melting ice and were always wet."

DRY FORCES OPEN CONFAB AT ASHEVILLE

Reticence Regarding Plan of Attack Marked Opening Activities Today.

Asheville, July 18.—(AP)—Reticence regarding their plans marked activities of leaders of the group of dry southern Democrats as they went into executive conference here this afternoon to attempt to formulate plans for fighting the announced stand of Gov. Alfred E. Smith of New York, Democratic candidate for President, and John J. Rankin, chairman of the national committee on the prohibition question.

Bishop James E. Cannon, Jr., of Richmond, of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, and Dr. A. J. Barton, Atlanta, Baptist leader, who called the meeting, reiterated the statement that there would be no third party movement. As for plans for the executive meeting this afternoon and future open sessions all parties to the conference either said they knew of no definite plans or were silent.

Men and women coming in on the morning trains to attend the meetings generally expressed lack of details of the meeting. They said they would await the executive session before discussing the subject, although virtually all expressed sentiments similar to those of Bishop Cannon's public statements, that while there would be no third party movement they wanted to elect a dry Congress and defeat "wet Tammany candidates."

Bishop Cannon acting as spokesman was in conference with a number of Methodist church dignitaries including Bishop Edwin D. Mouzon of Charlotte; Bishop H. M. DuBose of Nashville; Dr. J. W. Perry of Nashville and others. What went on in the conferences however was not made public, participants stating that "there is nothing to be made public at this time."

Indications prior to the opening of the session were that not more than fifty of those invited would be present. The list of guests at the Battery Park Hotel, where the conferences are being held showed men and women from all sections of the south.

No northern Democrats and no Republicans were present. The call Bishop Cannon said was only to Southern dry Democrats.

Denial also was made that the religious issue was in any way involved in the meeting.

C. D. HENRY DIES TODAY

Father-in-Law of Herbert Hoover Passes Away at Placerville California.

Placerville, Calif., July 18.—(AP)—Charles D. Henry, father-in-law of Herbert Hoover, the Republican candidate for President, died here this morning.

Mr. Henry died without having realized his last wish—that he might live to see Mrs. Hoover, his daughter, once more. The end came at 5:30 a. m. while the special train bearing the Republican standard bearer and his wife toward California and home, was racing westward across Iowa. Arrangements to speed up the schedule of the train so Mrs. Hoover might reach Placerville to see her father alive were made yesterday. But at best they could not reach the west coast before Friday morning.

At the bedside were Mrs. Guthrie Large of Georgetown, Calif., another daughter and Allan Henry Hoover, son of the Presidential candidate.

Mr. Henry, who was 84 years old, suffered a paralytic stroke on July 4 while on a camping trip with Mrs. Large. Physicians said he would have died almost at once except for his remarkable vitality.

FALLS AGAINST CAR AND BREAKS NECK

Greensboro, July 18.—(AP)—Mrs. W. A. Branson met a strange death today on her 77th birthday, when she fell against her husband's automobile and broke her neck at her home a few miles north of Kernersville on the Stokesdale road.

Her body was found by her husband as he came out of the house to get in the automobile. No inquest was held. Funeral services will be held Friday at Stokesdale.

Typhoon Claims Fifty Lives in French Indo-China

Hanoi, French Indo-China July 18.—(AP)—At least fifty persons are known to have perished in a typhoon which swept the coast of French Indo-China last night.

Thirty persons were drowned when the French steamer Cap lay foundered after a boiler explosion at the mouth of the Songthabac river. More than 200 passengers were rescued before the ship was dashed on the rocks.

Twenty Annamite natives were drowned when a launch sank in the Haiphong river. Dozens of Junk and sampans were sunk at Hanoi and Haiphong. And much material damage was done in the neighborhood.

MOTORCADE WILL VISIT GREENVILLE

Fifty Cars From Wilmington Scheduled to Reach Here at 2:40 Tomorrow.

A motorcade from Wilmington, N. C., will visit Greenville tomorrow Thursday, July 19th, according to information received today by Mayor J. C. Lanier from W. H. Blair, mayor of the city of Wilmington.

The motorcade, consisting of about fifty automobiles, is scheduled to reach here at 2:40 o'clock. They will remain thirty minutes during which time a speaker will talk on the object of the good-will tour of the city's business men.

Mayor Lanier said this morning that parking space would be provided for the visiting cars in close proximity to the courthouse where the crowd has been asked to assemble.

A reception committee will meet the visitors at the city limits and escort them to the courthouse lawn where everything will be ready for the entertainment.

The motorcade visited here last year and much good feeling was created by the exchange of short talks of appreciation by representative business men.

Policemen Held For Extortion At Knoxville

Knoxville Tenn., July 18.—(AP)—Seven patrolmen of the Knoxville police department were under bond today, awaiting trial in federal district court on charges of extortion preferred by Bill Lundy an admitted bootlegger.

The men were arrested yesterday by United States marshal I. C. King and his assistants. City safety director Carv F. Spence immediately suspended them, and filed the ranks of the department by increasing the duty of service officers and recalling those on vacation leave.

Lundy in his charges, declared that he had paid them "huge sums" for protection, and gave as his reason for seeking their arrest their alleged effort to "raise the price" of protection.

The officers are Rex Hatton, Eli Mincey, Ernest A. Carr, A. E. McLin, Beed Fowler, P. S. Decker and Robert Sexton.

Borglum Finds Genius

Judy Rayford, 19-year-old art student of Mobile, Ala., is declared by Jutzon Borglum, sculptor, to show artistic genius. Rayford bumped his way to Borglum's Texas studio and, unable to get an interview, departed leaving some of his sketches and verse. After seeing the sketches Borglum set out to find the youth.

LEVINE PLANE IN CRASH AT LONG ISLAND

Big Monoplane Columbia Badly Smashed But Flyer and Companion Unhurt.

New York, July 18.—(AP)—Glas A. Levine's famous trans-Atlantic monoplane Columbia, was a wreck today, and its owner had another spectacular landing to add to his flying record.

Levine crashed at Curtis Field, Long Island, last night in his fourth attempt to make a landing after a twenty minute flight. The landing gear, the propeller, the right wing and the left wing tip were smashed, but neither Levine nor his passenger, Major A. L. Fleming was injured.

The landing recalled a similar one Levine made in the same plane at Croydon, England, last fall, when on his first solo flight he flew over the English Channel from Le Bourget Field, near Paris. At that time after four attempts, he succeeded in bringing the plane to a safe but somewhat bumpy landing.

Shortly after Levine had taken off last night he ran into difficulties when the right wing dipped again. He then headed back for the hangar but flew so low he missed other hangars by inches. He circled about for another attempt but overran the field. The third time he narrowly missed some telegraph wires.

On the fourth attempt he again misjudged his distance and fell short of his mark. The plane landed on its nose. Levine and Fleming crawled from beneath the wreckage unscathed.

"It was my plucking," said Levine apologetically. "My take-off was bad, but my landing was worse."

He said the plane in which he and Clarence D. Chamberlain flew to Germany, would be rebuilt "as good as new." The plane had been rebuilt once before a crash in Italy.

Dallas, Tex., July 18.—(AP)—Attempts to split major party organizations in Texas today found Democratic bolters organizing for a state-wide anti-Smith campaign, while some Republican insurgents continued their efforts to obtain votes for the New York governor.

Opposition to the candidacy of Governor Smith took on more definite form at a meeting of Democratic bolters here yesterday attended by upwards of 500 persons. Following addresses by a half dozen party leaders, ministers and prohibition workers, the assembly approved plans to place anti-Smith organizations in every county. Resolutions were adopted scoring Governor Smith for advocating modification of the prohibition laws.

Avin S. Moody of Houston, a leader in Texas politics for many years, was chosen chairman of the organization committee and manager of the campaign. Authorization was given for a state campaign committee of 31 men and 31 women, who are to be chosen from the 31 senatorial districts of the state. The committee will appoint officers and lay plans for statewide organization.

Action on presidential electors was left to the committee after speaking told the assembly that it was likely the Republican organization would divide places on its electoral slate with anti-Smith Democrats. R. B. Creager, Republican national committeeman, who was in Dallas but did not attend the meeting, stated that in the event of vacancies on the Republican electoral ticket he would "welcome recommendations from the anti-Al Smith Democrats for appointment of representatives who would support Mr. Hoover for President."

Resolutions declared the purpose of the organization which took the name of anti-Smith Democrats of Texas, shall be "to defeat Governor Alfred E. Smith and to wrest democracy from the grip of Tammany Hall and to resist the efforts of the French minister, Aristide Briand, out of whose offer of a similar bi-lateral treaty between France and the United States Secretary Kellogg developed the idea of a multi-lateral treaty. Another suggestion has been made that November 11, armistice day, be selected as the date of signature.

No decision thus far have been made by Secretary Kellogg as to just where or when the signatures shall be attached.

BRITAIN FOR PROPOSAL TO OUTLAW WAR

Poland and Belgium Also Announces Approval of Plan to Abolish Warfare.

London, July 18.—(AP)—Sir Austen Chamberlain announced in the house of commons today that British acceptance of the Kellogg proposal for the outlawry of war has been delivered to the American charge d'affaires.

Replying to a question, the foreign secretary said: "I handed this morning to the United States charge d'affaires the reply of the government of Great Britain, the commonwealth of Australia, New Zealand and the Union of South America and the reply of the government of India accepting the proposals of the United States government for a multi-lateral treaty for the renunciation of war.

"As regards the signature of the treaty, his majesty's government will be happy to sign it at such time and place as may be agreeable to the United States government."

The announcement was greeted with cheers.

When asked if there were any reservations in the reply, Sir Austen said that the text would be published Friday morning and that he could not make any statement regarding the contents until the time for publication.

He said that the Irish free state and Canada, now having representatives at Washington, would deliver their own replies. Asked if these replies were identical with those of the other dominions, Sir Austen answered: "Their replies are in a favorable sense. They are not replies in identical terms."

Warsaw, July 18.—(AP)—A note accepting the text of the Kellogg treaty for the outlawry of war has been delivered by the Polish government to John D. Stetson, Jr., American minister to Poland.

Washington, July 18.—(AP)—Belgium, the fifth of the fourteen nations invited by the United States to participate in the conclusion of a multilateral treaty for the renunciation of war has informed Secretary Kellogg that the treaty text as submitted meets its "full approval."

In a note, which has caused much satisfaction to Secretary Kellogg and American government officials, the Belgian government said it had examined "with lively sympathy" the invitation of June 23 in which that country was asked to participate as an original signatory to the anti-war treaty.

"Belgium is deeply attached to peace," said the communication, dated July 17 and made public by the state department today. "She has always worked actively for the realization of movements tending to consolidate peace. She is therefore happy to pay her tribute to the idea inspiring the draft treaty.

Germany, France, and Irish free state and Italy, in addition to Belgium, now have given their unqualified acceptance to the text of the treaty in its revised form as submitted by Secretary Kellogg. The acceptance of Great Britain also is expected to be received today and within the next week or ten days it is thought the nine other nations will make known their attitude toward the new pact.

Arrangements as to the place and date of signature of the treaty will not be determined until all replies have been received. Paris has been suggested as a suitable place for signing the treaty in compliance to the French minister, Aristide Briand, out of whose offer of a similar bi-lateral treaty between France and the United States Secretary Kellogg developed the idea of a multi-lateral treaty. Another suggestion has been made that November 11, armistice day, be selected as the date of signature.

No decision thus far have been made by Secretary Kellogg as to just where or when the signatures shall be attached.

Editors Gather At Greensboro

Greensboro, July 18.—(AP)—Newspaper editors and publishers from Cherokee to Currituck were arriving here today by train and motor for the opening session of the North Carolina Press Association to be held at 8 o'clock tonight at the Sedgefield Inn. Representatives from more than 100 of the leading daily and weekly newspapers of the state are expected for the 56th annual gathering which will close Friday afternoon. Mayor E. B. Jeffress will make the address of welcome and the response will be made by Dan Tompkins, editor of the Jackson County Journal, at Bryn. Committees will be appointed tonight and the field secretary will make his report.

At the bedside were Mrs. Guthrie Large of Georgetown, Calif., another daughter and Allan Henry Hoover, son of the Presidential candidate.

Mr. Henry, who was 84 years old, suffered a paralytic stroke on July 4 while on a camping trip with Mrs. Large. Physicians said he would have died almost at once except for his remarkable vitality.

DEATH CAUSES BIG SHOCK AT CAPITAL CITY

Assassination of Gen. Obregon Causes Profound Sorrow at Washington.

Washington, July 18.—(AP)—Looking forward to constantly improving relations with Mexico under the administration of General Alvaro Obregon, official Washington was deeply shocked to learn of his death at the hand of an assassin.

Dismay and sorrow attended the rapidly spreading word of the tragedy. It reached Secretary Kellogg as he was about to leave the State Department for the night and he immediately put through a telephone call to Ambassador Morrow at Mexico City and later dispatched a telegram of condolence to Acting Foreign Minister Estrada.

Ambassador Telles refused at first to believe that Obregon was dead. He, too, called the Mexican capital by telephone.

General Obregon's death came at a time when the American-Mexican relations were more cordial than they had been in years. Through the efforts of Ambassador Morrow and with the co-operation of President Calles major points of difference had been effectually settled and an era of further improvement in the relationship of the two republics was in prospect.

From Ambassador Morrow, Mr. Kellogg learned that he already had called upon President Calles and Minister Estrada to express the sympathy of the government and his own regret.

Secretary Kellogg's message to Estrada termed the tragedy a "dastardly attack" and said that the United States had learned of General Obregon's death with "profound sorrow."

Ambassador Telles declared that the assassination would result in a unification of sentiment against "the forces of reaction and revolution."

Dr. J. M. Alvarez Del Castillo, who served as foreign minister in the revolutionary cabinet of De La Huerta in 1923 and was sent to Washington as the representative of the Provisional government, spoke from a different point of view, expressing the opinion that "General Obregon induced his own death because of the many acts of violence done by his order in the past few years." He has been in exile here since the failure of the De La Huerta revolution.

New York Pays Final Tribute To Dead Flyer

New York, July 18.—(AP)—New York today pays final tribute to Mexico's good will flyer whose visit to this country ended in a lonely death Thursday in New Jersey woods.

The body of Captain Emilio Carranza will be taken from a funeral church on upper Broadway at 3 o'clock this afternoon and escorted to the Pennsylvania station by 10,000 troops marching to the beat of muffled drums. Twenty-one military planes will fly overhead.

As the body is lifted from the gun Calson to the observation car of the special train three volleys will be fired outside the station and a bugler will sound taps.

Five officers and sixteen enlisted men of the United States army will accompany the body to Laredo, Texas, where at the center of the international bridge on Saturday morning it will be turned over to the Mexican government.

The train, which consists of a baggage car, two sleepers, a diner and an observation car will be routed over the Pennsylvania system to St. Louis. Arriving there at 6 p. m. tomorrow, it will proceed over the Missouri Pacific line to Texarkana, Ark. and from there to Laredo via San Antonio.

Revokes Pardon Granted Negro During Last May

Columbia, S. C., July 18.—(AP)—Governor Richards has revoked the pardon he gave Ben Bess on May 12 and the negro is to be taken back to the penitentiary.

The action sets a precedent in South Carolina but the executive said he had been informed that similar action had been taken in other states.

Bess sentenced to 30 years in prison on a charge of attacking a white woman, had served 13 years of his sentence when Gov. Richards received an affidavit, signed by the negro's accuser in which she stated that she had sworn falsely against Bess at his trial. The man was immediately paroled, was later pardoned and the governor recommended that the legislature take some action to compensate Bess for the years he spent in the penitentiary. A newspaper started a fund for the negro.

The woman, however, later declared that Bess was guilty of the charge against him. She said she had signed her name to what she was led to believe was a statement forgiving him the wrong he had done her.

GEN. OBREGON IS SLAIN NEAR MEXICO CITY

Basil, who was arrested some months ago on a charge of blackmailing Catholics, was looking out from behind the bars of his cell as the slayer was brought into the jail. He exclaimed:

"I recognize that face. I have his picture among my collection of plotters against Obregon!"

President Calles issued an emergency order removing the heads of the Mexico City police department and putting in charge new officials who have been among Obregon's closest supporters. Apparently his purpose was to give the general's staunchest friends absolute control in handling developments following the assassination of their leader.

General Roberto Cruz was appointed as chief of police by General Antonio Rios Zertuche, one of Obregon's closest friends. Arturo R. Ornel, another Obregon adherent, became secretary general of the police headquarters.

Calles also issued preemptions orders that the police and army officials co-operate immediately in an investigation of the assassination in an effort to determine whether it was an irresponsible act or the result of a deep political plot.

Police said the assassination was one of a series planned by which a number of statesmen were to have been removed. Evidence that the crime was premeditated was found in a paper discovered in the pocket of the slayer. It was addressed: "To My Family," and said:

"Knowing that I will die in carrying out my principle, I bid you farewell." It was signed simply "Juan."

Another slip of paper contained the names, "Romero, Topete, Robinson," and it was assumed that these names were of men also singled out for death. Thomas Robinson, young American mining engineer, recently married Ernestina Calles, daughter of President Calles. There are a number of Romeros prominent in Obregon ranks. Ricardo Topete is the leader of the Obregon forces in Congress.

The slaying came unexpectedly. Obregon was sitting at a banquet given him by political supporters at the little town of San Angel, near Mexico City. While he chatted with his hosts, a hand played directly into the President-elect's body.

Suddenly the cartoonist rose and approached General Aaron Saenz, governor of Nueva Leon, who was seated on Obregon's left. He asked permission to show the cartoons to the guest of honor.

The man turned to Obregon, pretended to show him the sketches at the little town of San Angel, near Mexico City. While he chatted with his hosts, a hand played directly into the President-elect's body.

Obregon slumped back into his chair moaning. There was a dash for the slayer and guns and knives were pulled. He was in imminent danger but General Cruz jumped in front of him and held off the men who thirsted for his blood.

President Calles, who was in the streets to the palace.

Obregon's body was taken to the national palace about midnight. It was received personally by President Calles. Cabinet officials and high officers of the army and navy carried the casket on their shoulders to its resting place in the hall of ambassadors. A military escort accompanied the body through the streets to the palace.

Give Swimming Party.

Winterville, July 18.—Mrs. Chas. McLawhorn and daughters, Myrtle, Mary Ida, and Leckie, entertained a few friends at a delightful swimming party and picnic supper last Thursday at Public Landing honoring Mrs. C. J. Jenkins, Charlie and Janie Jenkins and Finnacle Sutton of Georgia, house guests of Mrs. D. T. McLawhorn. The guests arrived about five o'clock and enjoyed a delightful swim after which a delicious supper was served.

Entertains at Bridge.

On Monday afternoon at her home on West Fourth street, Miss Mary Elizabeth Ferguson delightfully entertained three tables of bridge.

Quantities of summer flowers were effectively used as decorations. Attractive beads went to Miss Mary James Lipscomb for high score. Low score prize, a fan, was won by Miss Pearl Lautares. Miss Elizabeth Skinner assisted the hostess in serving delicious iced chocolate and sandwiches.

FAMOUS ASTRONOMER TO LECTURE TONIGHT AT TEACHERS COLLEGE

The free illustrated lecture at East Carolina Teachers College by Dr. A. M. Harding, the famous astronomer who has popularized the study of the heavenly bodies and their relation to mankind, will be in the old auditorium, in the Administration Building, this evening at 8:30 o'clock.

His "Celestial Travelogues" are simple, non-technical, and full of life and detail, and are intended for those who are not specialists in science. While he is a man of authority, with the doctor's degree, and is an author of note on scientific subjects, he believes the average person is interested in science when it is presented in such a way that he can understand it. Dr. Harding has become the interpreter of the heavenly bodies to the public taking his audiences on attractive, sight-seeing tours through the upper universe. The public is invited to share the profit and pleasure of the evening with the college students.

Mrs. Galloway Entertains.

Mrs. Scott Galloway was hostess at bridge Tuesday evening, honoring Mrs. A. S. Jordan of Plymouth, who is the guest of Mrs. J. S. Willard.

A pink and white color scheme was carried out in various flowers. There were two tables of players.

For high score Mrs. A. S. Jordan was awarded an attractive powder jar. A hand-painted jar went to Mrs. J. S. Willard for low score. Mrs. Jordan was also given dainty handkerchiefs.

Mrs. W. E. Tucker assisted Mrs. Galloway in serving a tempting ice course.

It's No Use.

You simply cannot get away from the news this summer! The political pot boiling over with a Presidential campaign—aviatrices flying back and forth across the Atlantic—an Antarctic air expedition outfitting—Wall Street scenting 10,000,000-share days—another "flight of the century" impending—perhaps some one else (a grandmother—who knows?) may swim the Channel—baseball—racing—a thousand-and-one interests cry out from the printed page daily. Local Legion Holds Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Pitt county post of the American Legion was held at the Rotary building last night. The session was featured by a report of committees and naming of delegates to the state convention to be held in the city of Charlotte in August.

The delegates were: J. B. Kittrell, J. H. Waldrop, C. W. Williams and Dr. K. B. Pace. Alternates: W. H. Rogers, S. L. Bridges, J. C. Lanier and L. J. Smith.

The post also decided to send to the State convention a quartette composed of Bill Lee, Ed Williams, Manly Sellars and E. F. Storey. They will compete for a prize of $50.00 offered for the best organization of the kind.

The post heard a report dealing with the boys' movement from Mr. Ten of the city schools. He reported splendid progress was being made in their field of endeavor and that the boys were deriving great benefit from the many entertaining features offered them from time to time.

Malmgren, which was found with them. Next, it was reported that they had stood no heroic vigil at all but had abandoned Malmgren alive and had then had been unable to travel more than a few hundred yards from where he lay. Next, it was reported that Nobile, before he departed in Lundborg's plane, had proposed to abandon the two men of his party who were injured and make his way with the others over the ice to land.

Well, after all these stories, who can wonder that a clamor goes up everywhere for the truth? It is possible that some of these stories have been hatched by correspondents who do not like Italians and who are anxious to cast reflections on Italian gallantry. But the point is that the stories have been put out and that they are doubtless believed by many. It would clear the air if responsible investigators were assigned to find out what the facts really are.—New York World.

ABOUT TOWN

"I see in the papers where scientists are attempting to gather some definite information about the 'dawn man', remarked one of our readers today.

"This is a very commendable undertaking, especially since they are carried to the remote parts of the earth in quest of the data.

"There are lots of descendants of the 'dawn man' in Pitt county. One would think so judging by the early hour some of them rise in the morning. It takes a long time to live down old characteristic. The passing of countless years has had very little effect on us in this respect."

"Baseball," said one of the supporters of the local club of the Eastern Carolina league, "has done much toward making the hot summer months pass off pleasantly for Greenville people.

"This is the first time we have had professional ball in a number of years and the majority of people seem to be deriving keen pleasure from it. It is true the club has been playing in terribly hard luck since the opening of the season but indications seem to point to better times ahead.

"Tommy Abbot, newly elected manager, seems determined to give us a winning team. He has picked material from two or three leagues rated for good players, and it is only natural to anticipate future success.

"Fans who have been staying away from the games because of the protracted losing streak may rest assured of getting their money's worth the next time they attend."

The producer of the first watermelon in Pitt county will get deserving mention in the column of this paper this year, provided, of course he should bring the specimen to this office for sampling.

The writer of this column is particularly fond of the luscious kind of melon produced in this part of the country, and has already advocated the growing of larger and better crops.

Wheeler Piles Up Three to one Lead Montana Primary
Helena, Montana, July 18.—(AP)—Scattered returns from primary election balloting in Montana yesterday gave Senator Burton K. Wheeler a lead of nearly three to one in the three-cornered race for the Democratic senatorial nomination.

Reports from 103 of the 1,490 precincts in the state, gave Senator Wheeler 2,726 votes, while former Governor Samuel V. Stewart had 954 and Sam Teagarden, Denton publisher, 155.

In the contest for the Republican senatorial nomination, Joseph M. Dixon, former United States senator and governor, and leader in the Roosevelt campaign in 1912 was leading his two opponents, Dixon had 3,249; Charles H. Williams, Deer Lodge Rancher, 1,845 and Charles F. Juttner, Butte, 119.

ASHEVILLE GETS DETECTIVE BULLETIN, INC. Raleigh, July 18.—(AP)—The detective Bulletin, Inc., of Asheville,

OLD HICKORY DIVISION TO FIGHT AGAIN

Famous World-War Unit to Stage Mock Battle at Camp Jackson Tomorrow.

Columbia, S. C., July 18.—(AP)—Not so large nor as terrific as the rattles in the great war of a decade ago, and yet complete and realistic enough will be the battle waged tomorrow morning between the army of the Carolinas, the "Blues," and the enemy, the "Reds." The battle ground will be Camp Jackson and the fighters will be the national guard troops from North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, and Tennessee, which form the split Thirtieth Division, encamped for the third time in its entirety.

A division is the smallest tactical unit capable of maintaining itself alone in the field, and in the exercises tomorrow every auxiliary will take part. The two infantry brigades, artillery, aviation squadron, engineers, tank corps, medical and transport regiments will take part and a portion of the gas regiment will assist the infantry in putting on a gas demonstration.

Major General E. J. Williams, commanding the Thirtieth Division today outlined the general plans of the practice. The attack proper, he said, will be by a battalion assisted by all arms and will be part of a corps attack intended to straighten out the lines preparatory to a general advance.

The attack will be preceded by necessary preparations, mines set off and concentration of artillery and machine gun fire placed on the objective. At the same time the artillery will counter on the enemy's batteries and blind observation posts by smoke. Planes will bomb the enemy's position, and these planes will be protected by little pursuit planes.

Preceding the actual movement forward by the infantry, every position will be blinded by a smoke screen dropped from the airplanes. The attack will be assisted by one pounders and tanks, and when the objective is gained, the attacking line will be covered with smoke while the position is being organized.

Observation planes constantly will be reporting information about the enemy and taking staff officers to the front for reconnaissance of enemy positions.

By means of amplifiers, those not actually in the attack will have every detail of the exercise explained to them.

Lieut. Col. Roy E. Reeves of the 115th artillery regiment, Tennessee national guard, will command the composite battalion of artillery which will be composed of batteries F and E of the 118th, and battery A of the 115th regiment, which will fire the barrage to start the movement.

Captain W. Walter Houseal of headquarters company, 113th artillery, will be executive officer and Captain Bedford of the 115th will be operations officer. Captain Cassidy of the 115th will be operations officer and Lieut. J. A. Green will be reconnaissance officer, battery F will be commanded by Captain Sowers, and Captain Peterson will be in command of battery E of the 118th.

Brig. General H. D. Russell, former adjutant general of Georgia, will other detail from the division's medical regiment will participate in the maneuver, as will a detachment from the signal corps battalion. Col. T. H. McHatton of Athens Ga., will command the portion of the 301st gas regiment taking part in the attack.

Together they're building up a Cash Reserve, useful in a thousand ways. Regularity is the secret of successful saving.

ROCKY MOUNT BREAKS EVEN WITH LOCALS

Rocky Mount broke even with Greenville by taking yesterday afternoon's game by the score of 7 to 4.

The victory came in the ninth inning when the visitors succeeded in breaking a four to four tie by a terrific batting rally.

Wilson started out to do the mound work for the locals, but was relieved in the first inning by Dudley, who was also hit freely. He yielded nine safeties and issued five passes to first during the eight and two-third innings. Cherry was called to the mound in the ninth to stop the batting rally.

James breezed along in top form for Rocky Mount until the fifth stanza when the locals found him for a total of five singles, one of which was a home run by Finlator with one on. He was relieved by Allsbrook who kept the six hits well scattered.

Manager McMillan featured with the stick for Lils club, getting a total of three doubles and two singles for a perfect day. Allsbrook also hit for a perfect percentage.

The box score follows:

Rocky Mount:	AB	R	H	PO	A	E

Colonials Trim Pointers Twice

By the Associated Press. Ninth inning rallies accounted for the two victories scored yesterday by the Colonials over High Point in the Piedmont circuit yesterday. In the first game, Dyer cracked a home run over left field fence and chalked up the 5 to 3 win credited to the Colonials while the aggregation took the nightcap. Branch's sacrifice fly and Kahdot's infield out scored the two runs needed to cap that mixup.

It was the rookie right fielder of the Greensboro Patriots who distinguished himself by knocking out two homers in as many times at the bat and counted largely for the 7 to 1 win over the Winston-Salem Twins. Sally Barnes turned in his 13th victory of the season against four defeats for the club.

The cellar-tenning Bulls blanked Raleigh 2 to 0 in the nightcap fater the Caps had won the opened 8 to 1. Raley battled page on close terms but bunched hits in the third inning brought the decision.

Goldsboro Still Clings To Top

By the Associated Press. The Goldbugs got the best of a mound argument yesterday and defeated the Kinston Eagles 2 to 1, for another climb in the percentage column of the Eastern Carolina League. Harrison's two-base clout with one on in the last half of the 9th decided the final score and gave Goldsboro credit for two out of three games.

Bunching hits in the ninth inning Rocky Mount evened the series with Greenville by winning, 7 to 4. Pilot Abbott whistled Al Cheery into the mound to relieve Dudley in an effort to stop the onslaught, which he was successful in doing. The Tobaccoists outthrew their opponents by one point and only one of those visiting the rubber failed to connect safely during the game.

Rain caused the game scheduled between Fayetteville and the Pirate gang at Wilmington to be postponed.

TUNNEY HAS FULL DAY OF REST TODAY

Spectaculator, N. Y., July 18—(AP)—If Gene Tunney is visited today by Commander Richard E. Byrd, trans-Atlantic and polar flyer the heavyweight champion, will take a workup to fit himself for the defense of his title against Tom Heeneey, otherwise it will be a day of rest in the Tunney camp.

Gene is now down to 180 1-2 pounds, almost the weight he will carry into the ring against the New Zealander. Therefore he cannot afford to take off any more poundage in the training ring but he is willing to risk this loss to entertain Commander Byrd, one of his intimate friends.

The noted flyer was expected to arrive here in an amphibian plane piloted by Bob Moore, a world war aviator, sometime in the late afternoon.

Another guest expected today was James J. Cobbett, former heavyweight champion.

Tunney today was dangerously near the fighting edge and his handiers intend to give him just enough work to keep him from going stale. He is stronger than he has ever been in his career and his punching, according to his sparring partners, has been speedier and more vicious than ever before. Both Harold Mays and Billy Vidabeck, who swap blows with the champion during the training bouts, have worked with him ever since he became prominent in the heavyweight ranks.

Tunney was greatly annoyed by a report, accredited to Tex Rickard, promoter of the titular bout, that he intended to retire from the ring after his fight with Heeneey.

"I have never discussed that subject with Rickard," Tunney said. "It is ridiculous, why the worst two years of my championship career are behind me and from now on it will be all pie and cake. The public is now accustomed to me and where else could I earn as much money?"

PIRATES AND CUBS SPICE UP NATIONAL

By HERBERT W. BARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer. Sensational spurts by the Cubs and Pirates have added spice to the National League pennant race just when it began to appear as though the St. Louis Cardinals were going to make it a one club affair somewhat similar to the situation in the American league where the New York Yankees have distanced the field.

The Cubs and the Pirates recorded their eighth successive victory yesterday. The Phils and the Boston Braves were their victims.

Joe McCarthy's Chicago hopefuls upset the Phils 4 to 3, only because Clyde Beck, usually weak with the stick, Clubbed a home run with the bases filled in the fifth.

The victory boosted the Cubs into second place in the standing and marked the Quaker's tenth successive defeat.

The Pirates needed to be on their toes the whole way against the Braves before they eked out a 7 to 6 decision. It was the Braves' ninth straight defeat and their 32nd in the last forty games.

Meanwhile the Cardinals gained an even break with the Brooklyn Dodgers by taking the last game of a four game series 7 to 1. Southpaw Bill Walker was knocked out of the box in the first inning as the Cincinnati Reds salvaged one game out of the series with the New York Giants 5 to 4.

The Boston Red Sox came out of a slump that carried them into the American league cellar by stopping the Chicago White Sox streak, 9 to 6.

Detroit fell into the last place post by bowing before the fast ball prowess of Bob Grove. Athletics southpaw ace who turned in an easy 6 to 2 triumph.

Al Shealy pitched the New York Yanks to their fifth straight victory over the Cleveland Indians 4 to 2 and contributed a home run to his own cause.

St. Louis Browns swept the series with Washington when Stewart held the Senators to five hits and turned in a shutout, 5 to 0.

Lightweights To Tie up Tonight

New York, July 18.—(AP)—For the seventh time, Tod Morgan, Seattle junior lightweight champion, and Cannon Ball Eddie Martin of New York, tonight will attempt to stage their 130-pound titular battle of 15 rounds at Ebbet's Field.

Humbert Fogazy, the promoter, is holding his fingers crossed in the hope of averting the rain that has interfered with the Morgan-Martin affair ever since it first was scheduled for June 28. Successively the battle was fixed for July 4, 5, 13, 14 and for tonight.

Morgan rates a slight favorite. Troy N. Y.—George Levine, California, defeated Irish Fagan, Newark, N. J. (12).

HEENEY OUT TO DEVELOP MORE SPEED

Fair Haven, N. J., July 18.—(AP)—With new sparring mates in camp and others on the way, the process of developing Tom Heeneey's speed started today. From now on Heeneey's trainers plan to send him against lighter, faster boxers, ranging from welterweights to light heavies.

Mickey Walker, world's middle-weight titleholder, lives in the neighborhood of Rumson and his promise to aid the challenger in return for the courtesy "Squire" John Mortimer displayed to him while he was in England for his fight with Tommy Milligan.

Heeneey starts his intensive training period showing traces of nervousness and irritability, signs accepted by the old timers as unfailing evidence that he is getting on edge. Little things are beginning to upset him. Before starting work yesterday, he was besieged by photographers and while responding to their demands for poses he displayed evidences of crankiness that gave much satisfaction to his trainer, Jimmy Hennessy.

The next seven days will be extraordinarily tough for Heeneey because they have taken away his ale. He is one of the old school fighters who believe that a couple of bottles

Market Report Cotton--Stocks--Grain

NEW YORK COTTON
New York, July 18.—(AP)—The cotton market closed firm today at an advance of 23 to 29 points in response to relatively firm sales and continuation of the covering movement which developed late yesterday.

The opening bulge met extensive realizing or liquidation, probably promoted by expectations of a fairly favorable weekly weather bureau report, but offerings were absorbed and active months sold 23 to 28 points higher by the end of the first hour, October advancing to 21.44.

Futures closed steady 23 to 29 points higher; spot steady; mid-ling 21.70.

GRAIN MARKET
Chicago, July 18.—Calm weakness of the Winnipeg wheat market accompanied by estimates that Western Canada will raise 500,000,000 bushels this season, had a decided bearish effect on the market today on advice of large arrivals of wheat in the southwest. Besides, export purchases of North American wheat today before price breaks totaled but 500,000 bushels.

Wheat closed unsettled 1 3/4 to 2 1/2 net lower; corn 1 1/8 off to 1 1/8 up; oats 1-2 to 1 1/4 down and provisions unchanged to a rise of 57 cents.

STOCK MARKET
New York, July 18.—(AP)—The stock market, which has been foundering around within a narrow trading area for the last week, turned briskly upward today on a resumption of broad scale buying operations. Prices of active issues rallied 1 to 5 points, while a number of specialties were marked up 6 to nearly 15 points.

Lowering of the call money rate from 6 to 5 1/2 per cent, the optimistic tenor of the week's steel trade review, publication of several favorable earnings statements and special dividend declarations all helped to revive bullish enthusiasm. The advance in prices was stimulated by heavy short covering on the part of traders, who had sold stocks on the theory that a further tightening of money rates was in prospect.

Burroughs Adding Machine, directors of which declared a stock dividend of 25 per cent, ran up 14 points to a new high record at 175. Texas & Pacific soared 10 points to 170. McCrory Stores A, American Express, Midland Steel Products preferred, R. H. Macy Radio and National Tea sold 5 to 12 points higher.

General Motors was again in heavy demand on buying influenced by expectations of a substantial extra dividend at the August meeting of the directors, running up more than 3 points to around 190. Chrysler also advanced 3 points in reflection of a stock increase paying the way for the merger with Dodge Bros., Wright, Curtiss, Montgomery Ward, Houston Oil, Greene Cananea Copper, Johns Mansville Allied Chemical and a number of other industrial favorites climbed 3 points or more.

The closing was strong. Total sales approximated 1,600,000 shares.

Weekly Crop Report.
Washington, July 18.—(AP)—The weekly crop and weather summary of the department of agriculture says that a fairly good growing week was experienced in the cotton belt, with the temperature averaging near normal and mostly scattered showers except for general and rather heavy rains in the eastern and northwestern portions.

In the Carolinas and Georgia growth of cotton was mostly good, but it has been too wet for cultivation.

Augusta Drops Two to Tourists
By the Associated Press.
Just to prove that the world loves a fighter and determines to put a stop to Asheville's furious march to a pennant in the South Atlantic Association, Augusta was prepared this afternoon to avenge two straight defeats at the hands of the league leaders.

The Tygers failed to take advantage of scoring opportunities yesterday and after nine innings of a listless game had been played, the Tourists were winners by a seven to four count.

Charlotte furnished plenty of action for Knoxville fans which they dropped a double header to the Smokies by scores of 11 to 10 and 12 to 2. The first contest required ten innings before a decision could be reached and was enlivened by homers from the bats of the two Smith boys, one on each team, Kearns and Williams.

The Horne Smith added his second four bagger of the day in the nightcap while Williams, of Knoxville, did the same.

The new Spartan receiver's stick work accounted for a pair of the winning markers.

HOOVER GIVES FARM PROBLEM SOME THOUGHT

Aboard Hoover Train, Omaha, Neb., July 18.—(AP)—A prediction that Herbert Hoover will offer a plan of farm relief more practical and intelligent than any heretofore advanced, was made by Governor John Hammill of Iowa after a conference with the Republican presidential candidate aboard the special train.

The first news to reach the party of the death of Mrs. Hoover's father was given to an aide of the Presidential candidate by Fred Carey, a reporter. The word was then sent to Mr. Hoover.

It was made known that Mrs. Hoover would not be told of her father's death until the train was well out of Omaha.

Aboard of the Hoover Train, St. Paul, July 18.—(AP)—Herbert Hoover while passing through the corn belt today, considered the farm question which he intended to discuss with the governors of two states—Iowa and Nebraska—and party leaders from other sections.

John H. Hammill, governor of Iowa, who called the first agricultural conference, gave his views to the Republican Presidential candidate over the breakfast table in the Hoover private car, having boarded the train at Missouri Valley early today.

Gov. Adam McMullen of Nebraska, who was a supporter of Frank O. Lowden in the pre-convention campaign, was to talk with Mr. Hoover later in the day, the schedule calling for him to board the train at Fremont, west of Omaha, for a ride across the state.

Others with whom the rominee held conferences during the night and early morning included Arthur Nelson, former mayor of St. Paul and Republican nominee for Senator from Minnesota opposing Henrik Shipstead, renominated by the Farmer-Labor party to succeed himself, as state leaders in Nebraska.

Admittedly the farm relief problem is one of the major issues with which Mr. Hoover will have to deal during his campaign and since he will discuss it fully in his speech of acceptance at Leland Stanford University, August 11, he welcomed the opportunity to confer with leaders in the movement in the northwest.

Thus far in his journey westward, Mr. Hoover has been assured by leaders in the states where he has stopped—Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin and Minnesota—that those states would return substantial majorities for him in November.

Miami, Fla.—Frankie Garcia, Memphis, knocked out Frankie Horan, New Orleans (3).
