REPORT SEEKS COORDINATION OF ALL ROADS

Recommends Closer Action Between the Railroads and Highways of Nation.

Washington, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Steps looking to coordination of highway and railroad transportation were recommended in a proposed report written by Examiner Leo J. Flynn and handed today to the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The report of 131 mimeographed pages, plus extensive appendices, contained 50 conclusions. These included:

"The national transportation machine cannot function with progressive efficiency part regulated, part unregulated; coordination of transportation agencies cannot reach its economic possibilities under this anomalous condition.

"Railroads no longer have a virtual monopoly of transportation and regulatory laws based on that theory should be revised in the light of changed conditions affecting transportation and distribution since 1920.

"Carriers subject to the Interstate Commerce act should be specifically authorized by law to engage in interstate commerce by motor vehicles on the public highways and such motor vehicle operations should be subject to the provisions of the interstate commerce act.

"Railways and water lines should supplement their transportation services by using motor vehicle transportation in coordination with their rail or water services wherever this will result in economies of operation or betterment of service or both.

"Control of motor vehicle operations by carriers now subject to the act through subsidiary or affiliated or holding companies or in any other manner should be brought under the supervision of the commission.

"To the extent that a certificate of public convenience and necessity is an antecedent to the operation of independently operated motor vehicles, carriers subject to the act should be required to obtain a certificate of public convenience before engaging in the motor vehicle operations.

"Modification of the Clayton anti-trust act to the extent that carriers, now subject to that act, be permitted to acquire motor vehicle lines already in operation wherever such action is in the interest of economy and efficiency of operation and not adverse to the public interest should be provided for in any legislation for the regulation of motor vehicles engaged in interstate commerce.

Democratic Tax Plans May Include Sales Tax

Washington, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Rep. Rainey, House majority leader, said today the Democratic tax program in budget day will contain some sales taxes.

This was one of the most direct hints yet as to just what tax course the Democrats will take. They were

ROTES HEAR THREE TALKS

Two New Members Admitted at Regular Weekly Session of Club Last Night.

Three talks and introduction of two new members occupied attention at the regular meeting of the Rotary club last night.

Talks dealing with classification were made by Dr. K. B. Pace and J. H. Waldrop. Each speaker discussed different phases of classification and urged their hearers to adhere strictly to club rules in this important matter.

Rev. H. Frederick Jones, of Baltimore, pastor of Brantley Street Baptist church, and a former pastor of Memorial Baptist church of this city, was a guest of the club and spoke briefly. He said he always looked forward with great pleasure to a visit to Greenville and expected to derive great joy from this visit.

The new members admitted were N. O. Van Nortwick and E. H. Dixon, Jr.

Howard McGinnis presided over the session and the program was in charge of the classification committee. The usual supper and song program were enjoyed.

Youths Confess Burning Eight Persons to Death

Gallipolis, O., Jan. 5.—(AP)—Sheriff Charles Swanson announced today that two inmates of the Boy's Industrial School at Lancaster confessed they made a funeral pyre last spring out of a Gallia county log cabin, burning eight persons to death.

Revenge was the motive, Swanson said, adding that the boys confessed because of "chicken consciences."

The boys were Albert Reymor of Gallipolis and Elsworth Mowser of Bucyrus. The cabin was occupied by James White, 40. He and seven of his children died in the flames.

Before setting fire to the cabin, the youths said, they nailed up the doors and windows so there would be no escape for the victims.

GANDHI ASKS FOR MORE AID

Attempts to Enlist Millions of People in His Fight Against British Government.

Bombay, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Mahatma Gandhi sought today to enlist the Christian of India in his fight against the British government, calling it a Christian "struggle for peace."

In the meantime the battle was well begun with Nationalists and their followers pressing a strict boycott on British and foreign goods and the government retaliating with more group arrests.

COLLEGE HEAD PASSES AWAY

Dr. R. A. McLeod, President of Presbyterian College, to Be Buried Tomorrow.

Maxton, N. C., Jan. 25.—(AP)—Dr. R. A. McLeod, 52, president of Presbyterian Junior College here, died suddenly early today.

Death came about 6 a. m. from a heart attack at his home here.

Dr. McLeod had been slightly ill since Friday when he suffered an attack of acute indigestion but yesterday his condition was regarded as improved. Early today he took a turn for the worse and death followed shortly.

A native of Moore county, Dr. McLeod had been president of the college since its establishment three years ago. He had served many years as pastor of the Galatian Presbyterian church near Fayetteville and came here from the Elise high school near Carthage, where he was principal.

Dr. McLeod was a graduate of Davidson college and the Union Theological Seminary of Richmond, Va.

Surviving are his widow and four children, three boys and one girl. Mrs. was Miss Lucy Worth Curri before her marriage.

Funeral arrangements had not been completed today but tentative arrangements called for burial tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at Aberdeen.

Special Venire For Smith Case

Southport, Jan. 5.—(AP)—A special venire from New Hanover county was ordered to appear here today for the trial of E. H. Smith, former Brunswick county attorney, charged with embezzlement.

Judge Walter L. Small ordered the venire for a special term of Brunswick superior court called to try Smith and two other former county officials, John Jennette, former chairman of the board of county commissioners, and A. T. McKeithan, former superior court clerk, who are also charged with embezzlement.

Smith is charged with embezzling more than $50,000 of public funds while acting as county treasurer for R. F. Inman in 1925.

SENDS NOTE OF REGRET

Ambassador Debuchi of Japan Expresses to Secretary Stimson the Japanese Government's "Sincere Regret" Over "Unfortunate Incident at Mukden; Stimson Fails to Comment.

Washington, Jan. 5.—(AP)—The American government today withheld formal acceptance of Japan's apology for the attack on American Consul Culver B. Chamberlain, Ambassador Debuchi of Japan, expressed to Secretary Stimson, on instructions of his government, Japan's "sincere regrets" over the incident, but Secretary Stimson informed the ambassador he would communicate with him further when reports of the incident are received.

He expressed gratification to the ambassador for having acted so promptly, but said when further reports were received he would again talk with him. (Continued on Page Six)

JAPS BEGIN FINAL DRIVE

Troops Prepare To Launch Big Cleanup Movement Against Chinese Bandits.

Mukden, Manchuria, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Japanese troops today began a cleanup drive against bandits in the Hsianmin district following two severe clashes last night in which at least four Japanese were killed and six wounded, while the fleeing Chinese left 30 or 40 dead behind.

According to a headquarters communique the first battle began at 7:30 p. m. when 500 Chinese swooped down on Hsianmin and were repulsed by a comparatively small Japanese garrison. The Japanese losses in this encounter were one gendarme and three civilian residents killed and four soldiers and two civilians wounded. It is believed, the communique said, that the 30 or 40 bodies of Chinese dead found represent only a portion of the Chinese casualties.

The Japanese command anticipates a good deal of fighting of this character throughout the winter, it was said, because the complete evacuation of the regulars from Chinchow is not considered to have solved the problem of the Chinese casus belli. (Continued on Page Six)

Democrats Expect Fight Over Prohibition Issue

Washington, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Democratic leaders converging here showed a certainty today that prohibition discussion will be injected into the national committee, conferences over the week-end, despite determined efforts to avoid it.

Running a close second to that question is speculation on the possibility of an out-and-out Ritchie for President headquarters during the meeting.

Howard Bruce, of Baltimore, supporter of the Maryland governor for the Presidential nomination, has preserved ten rooms at the Marlborough hotel for Friday and Saturday.

The reservation was made in name of the "Maryland delegation" and the big suite, which has a number of large reception rooms, will be occupied Friday morning.

On Thursday night Bruce will be one of the hosts at a big dinner for Ritchie in Baltimore. Democratic leaders are watching this dinner with great interest as it may be the scene of the official launching of the Ritchie campaign.

PARTY GUILTY OF CORRUPTION

Democrats, However, Cannot Be Punished for Violation in the 1928 Campaign.

New York, Jan. 5.—(AP)—United States Attorney George Z. Medalle today said that the Federal Corrupt Practices act had been violated in the filing of the Democratic National Committee's annual report for 1928, which was signed by James W. Gerard, as treasurer.

Prosecution, however, Medalle said, is barred by the three year statute of limitations, the three-year period prescribed by law having ended January 3, one day after Jacob J. Rosenblum, assistant U. S. Attorney, confirmed reports that proper returns had not been made.

Medalle said, however, that the statute had not run against quarterly and annual reports made since the report of January 3rd, 1929, which covered the expenses of the national campaign of 1928.

He added that Rosenblum will return to Washington at a date not yet determined, to look into reports of both Democratic and Republican national committees beginning with the end of March, 1929, also any other reports which may fall under the provisions of the corrupt practices act. Medalle did not criticize Gerard.

"There is no doubt," said Medalle, "that the penal provisions of the corrupt practices act were violated in the filing of the annual report of 1928. The violation of the law consisted in the failure to enumerate the items of disbursements in excess of $10 each by giving the name, address, amount and purpose in each instance.

"The failure to file a report that contains this is a violation of the law. The filing of a report that omits such details is a violation of the law."

Pres. Hoover Prepares To Oppose Salary Cuts

Washington, Jan. 5.—(AP)—President Hoover today looked toward Capitol Hill, prepared to take a definite stand against any general federal wage cut—should proposals for such a move there reach the stage of congressional action.

This was assumed today in authoritative quarters.

The President has made no public statement as to the various proposals in both the Senate and the House that would slash federal salaries from 10 to 20 per cent in almost all classes, but the word (Continued on Page Six)

PROBE FRAUD IN ELECTION

Many Witnesses to Be Examined in Contest Against Bankhead in Alabama.

Birmingham, Ala., Jan. 5.—(AP)—Tales of ballots bearing names of men, misconduct by election officials and attempted coercion of employees have been laid before the Senate sub-committee's commission hearing former Senator Hefflin's contest of the election of Senator Bankhead of Alabama.

More than 200 additional witnesses remained to be questioned at the start of the second day of the hearing today. Commissioner A. W. Brazelton heard charges of various irregularities in the 1930 general election in Alabama from more than 30 witnesses at the opening of the hearing yesterday.

The name of Rep. William B. Bankhead, brother of Alabama's junior senator, was brought into the hearing when the Rev. B. G. Dodd, a precinct watcher, testified a man who was permitted to vote under an assumed name was arrested but later released on a bond signed by Congressman Bankhead and others.

Other witnesses dwelt at length on testimony dealing with charges election officials stuffed the ballot, that watchers for Hefflin were not permitted to challenge votes, and that numerous absentee ballots cast for Hefflin were changed to read the straight Democratic ticket.

Hefflin's contest is based on charges of fraud in the 1930 election in which he was defeated by Bankhead by more than 50,000 votes.

Tobacco Market Reopens Here

The Greenville tobacco market re-opened this morning following observance of the Christmas holidays.

Resumption of business was greeted by light offerings, but prices were described as a shade higher than when the market closed for the holidays.

Sales were expected to be light the remainder of the season in view of the fact that the bulk of the crop was sold before Christmas.

READY TO GIVE WHEAT TO POOR

Red Cross Chairman Says Organization Will Distribute Government Supply.

Washington, Jan. 5.—(AP)—John Barton Payne, national chairman of the Red Cross, told a House committee today that if Congress makes available government owned wheat the Red Cross will undertake its distribution to the needy.

Payne was testifying before the agriculture committee which is considering measures similar to that passed by the Senate yesterday to release 40,000,000 bushels of farm board wheat for relief.

"I do not think," Payne said, "it is my province to speak as to whether Congress should enact such legislation. That is for Congress to decide. I assume you want to know whether we will accept it.

The Red Cross will accept that responsibility," Payne said emphatically.

Adams Favors A Larger Navy

Washington, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Secretary Adams, speaking for himself and the Navy department as a whole, gave his approval today to a bill calling for a ten year naval program which would bring the navy up to the London treaty limitations.

Testifying before the House Naval committee, Adams said: "Personally I think we should build a navy that meets the requirements of the London treaty."

He added that the Navy department as a whole felt the same way.

Adams said a ten year program was more acceptable from a practical viewpoint than a one-year authorization.

"I think there are advantages in knowing about where you are going," the navy secretary said.

BROTHER DIES FROM INJURIES

Jennings and Harry Young, Charged with Slaying of Six Peace Officers at Springfield, Mo., on Last Saturday, Shoot Themselves Rather Than be Taken Alive When Trapped in Houston House; Officers Use Tear Gas Bombs.

Houston, Texas, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Jennings and Harry Young, Missouri slayers of six officers, accepted their mother's advice and shot themselves fatally here today rather than submit to capture by officers who surrounded their place of refuge.

Jennings Young was dead when officers broke into the house in the Houston east end and Harry, his younger brother, with two bullet wounds, died at 11:10 a. m. in a hospital to which he had been taken.

Both probably had been wounded in a gun fight with the officers before they turned their weapons on themselves.

The police received a tip early today that the Youngs would be found in the house, where they rented a room, after they had been trailed across Texas from Springfield, Mo.

Nine officers went to the place, Claude Beverly, police lieutenant, advanced with a shotgun. He was fired on and returned the fire.

"We're dead, come and get us," one of the men called out.

Gas bombs had been used and after an interval Percy Heard, chief of police, donned a mask and entered the house. He identified the body of Jennings Young, lying on the floor with two big pistols under his head, and Harry Young, whom he ordered removed to the hospital.

In their final act the Missouri desperados followed the advice of their mother, Mrs. J. D. Young, which was printed in the Houston morning paper, Mrs. Young at Springfield, Mo., said yesterday she hoped they would end their lives rather than submit to arrest.

A picture in a local paper of Harry Young, recognized by J. P. Tomlinson, who had rented the room to the brothers, led to their being trapped. He saw the picture last night and took his family away to spend the night elsewhere and reported his suspicions this morning.

The entire neighborhood was in an uproar shortly after the officers arrived, and many persons had hurriedly departed from the area, fearing a prolonged shooting engagement.

The search turned to Houston yesterday when police learned that a man answering the description of Harry Young had visited the home of his mother-in-law to see his wife. Young took a bus to the Suburban Ship Channel after being informed that his wife was not at the house.

Police combed the Houston underworld and all hideouts in the vicinity of the ship channel without being able to apprehend either of the Young brothers. It was feared they had stowed away on a ship and slipped through the drug net.

The fugitives' trail was picked up Sunday at Streeman, Texas, when the overturned automobile in which they had fled from Springfield, Mo., was found beside a highway. In it were a rifle and shotgun.

Two men who crawled from the wreck accepted a farmer's offer to right their car, but while he was going for a team of mules, they deserted the car and continued on their flight south.

Before leaving they took the Missouri license plates from the car and buried them into a field.

Officers learned that the fugitives were picked up by the driver of a roadster. The car passed the men as they stood by the road, then turned back and after a brief conversation, the men boarded the car and were driven away.

The officers believed the hunted men had skulked into a cottage, (Continued on Page Six)

GREENVILLE PEOPLE WED IN ASHEVILLE

Mrs. Alonzo Lee Potter announces the marriage of her daughter Betty Mae to Mr. Walter Herman Nobles on Sunday, the twenty-seventh of December.

Nineteen hundred and thirty-one First Christian Church Asheville, North Carolina

Will be At Home after the first of January Greenville, North Carolina

A wedding of beauty and simplicity was solemnized in the First Christian Church of Asheville, North Carolina, Sunday morning at nine o'clock, when Miss Betty Mae Potter, the second daughter of Mrs. Alonzo L. Potter and the late Mr. Potter, of Greenville, became the bride of Mr. Walter Herman Nobles, the youngest son of Rev. and Mrs. Walter B. Nobles, of Winterville.

Dr. J. Watson Shockley, pastor of the church, performed the impressive ring ceremony in the presence of relatives and a few close friends.

The church was effectively decorated with evergreens and baskets of gladioli, carnations, forced branches of spirea and pussywillows. The bride wore an attractive navy blue crepe dress with hat, veil, and other accessories of navy blue to match. Her shoulder corsage was of white roses and sweet peas.

Miss Evelyn Paul played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, for the entrance of the wedding party and Mendelssohn's Wedding March as they left the church. "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms" was softly rendered during the ceremony.

The bride entered with her older sister, Mrs. W. P. Blanks, matron-of-honor, and was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Clyde Bullock.

Mrs. Blanks and Miss Paul wore tailored blue dresses with blue hats and other accessories of black, and wore shoulder corsages of pink and white sweet peas and roses.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Nobles will make their home in Greenville, where Mr. Nobles is manager of a D. Pender store.

Mrs. Lawrence Sprunt, of Wilmington, Mrs. Albert Pike, of Washington, D. C., Mrs. Spencer Bass and Mrs. Hyman Phillips, of Tarboro, and Mrs. Sam Nash, of New York, are guests of Mrs. E. B. Ficklen.

Bible Study Course

An introductory Bible Study course will be offered to the Christian men of the city. This course is designed for beginners in such work, and also suited to the needs of persons who lack the time for a more extensive study of this Book of Books. It is intended to enable one to grasp the basic truths of our faith, and to aid one in using the Bible in all Christian work. Sunday School teachers will find it particularly helpful to them and they are invited to give the offer consideration.

Rev. A. W. Fleischmann, pastor, Memorial Baptist church, will act as teacher.

A preliminary meeting in which arrangements will be made to carry on such a work is to be held Monday evening next, January 11, at 8:00 o'clock, at the home of Mr. Fleischmann, 309 Green street. A general outline of the proposed course of study will be presented.

Every Christian man, of any church affiliation, will be welcome, and you are urged to accept this opportunity. Let us make 1932 a year in which we search God's word, build up our moral foundation and strengthen our faith, hope and courage to face our present life with full Christian fortitude.

Mr. Louis Edward Paul announces the marriage of his daughter Evelyn Mae to Mr. Clyde Bullock on Sunday, the twenty-seventh of December.

Nineteen hundred and thirty-one Asheville, North Carolina

Will be At Home after the first of January, Fourteenth Street Greenville, North Carolina

No cards issued in town.

Four hungry picaninies, arrested by police for stealing milk from porches of residences on Ninth street, have been returned to their mother, Sarah McCauley, with their little stomachs literally bulging with food and happy in their escape from the toils of the law.

The children, three boys and a girl, all between six and nine years of age, were arrested last Saturday with about six bottles of milk which they had taken from the porches of homes in the Ninth street district.

Instead of being landed in jail, the baby prisoners were taken to the police station, liberally fed and returned to their mother.

Police said they found the mother to be in poor circumstances with insufficient food to care for her family. Temporary provisions were made for the woman after she had been instructed to prevent the children from meddling with other people's milk bottles.

Fatally Injured

Marin-Gray Gibbs, 40, was fatally injured here when struck by an automobile driven by Mrs. Anna Bell Maurey, of Maiden, who was released under bond pending an investigation.

Dies From Fall

Durham—Mrs. Marian Woodall, 35, wife of J. A. Woodall, sporting goods dealer here, was fatally injured when she stumbled and fell to the street after getting out of her husband's car.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Blanks entertained at tea Sunday afternoon at their home in Morningside, Asheville, to honor Mr. and Mrs. Herman Nobles and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bullock, brides and grooms. Mrs. Nobles, the former Miss Betty Mae Potter, is a sister of Mrs. Blanks.

The host and hostess greeted the callers at the door and introduced them to the honor guests.

Upon arrival, Miss Grace Beacham asked each guest to register in the two brides' books. Tiny bags of rice were distributed among the guests, and it was showered upon the brides and grooms, carrying out the old tradition to wish them prosperity and to avert evil as well.

The living room was gay with arrangements of red Christmas berries, evergreens and lighted red candles, and a beautiful Christmas tree with twinkling lights was placed in the sun room.

A white and green color note predominated in the dining room where tall green lighted tapers on the buffet and on the four corners of the table made a lovely scene. A silver basket of white cut flowers graced the buffet.

The tea table, which was covered with an imported embroidered linen cloth, held as its centerpiece a three-tier wedding cake surrounded by sprays of blooming spirea, mistletoe and small glowing candles, and surmounted by two tiny brides and grooms. Mrs. Nobles and Mrs. Bullock cut the cake.

Mrs. Edward P. Corey poured tea, and Mrs. Loy E. Ballard and Mrs. O. H. Tilson assisted in serving the wedding cake, salted nuts, dainty green and white heart-shaped sandwiches and green mints in heart shapes.

LENZ GAINS MORE POINTS

Adds 3,385 Units in Bridge Match With Ely Culbertson at New York.

New York, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Ely Culbertson's side was 16,835 points ahead in the great contract bridge match today, with only 21 rubbers remaining before the fight ends.

Sidney S. Lenz, Culbertson's chief opponent in a test of bidding systems which began December 7, and which will end next Friday, said he still had a bare chance to win. Neutral experts regarded it as virtually impossible.

Lenz and Com. Winfield Liggett, Jr., gained 3,385 points in the seventeenth session ending early today. They won six of nine rubbers making the series stand 71 for Culbertson and 58 for Lenz. The points became 112,050 and 95,215.

Mrs. Culbertson completed her stipulated quota of the match—75 rubbers, last night but intends to resume her place opposite her husband at the final session Friday night. Tonight Michael Gottlieb will be Culbertson's partner and Howard Schenken Thursday night. There will be no session tomorrow night.

Lenz and Liggett held the tickets at the seventeenth session and their gain was increased by Culbertson's doubling. In one rubber there was a double in every one of the six hands. Lenz and Liggett each made one doubled contract and each was set one. Each of the Culbertsons was set when doubled.

In another rubber Lenz when vulnerable, was doubled at five diamonds and fulfilled his contract. Mrs. Culbertson failed once at a little slam. Lenz once took all the tricks on his system's opening bid of three no trump, which was unopposed. A grand slam needed two fineses, but Culbertson said that under his system, bidding a suit first of no trump, a successful little slam at no trump would have been contracted.

Light Docket in County Court

The weekly session of County court was in progress here today with the lightest docket in years. The docket has been decreasing noticeably the last several weeks and with only six or seven cases to be considered today court officials believed they would complete work during the early afternoon.

The bulk of the cases consisted of charges of larceny and violation of traffic laws.

Sheriff Settles Tax Collections

Final settlement with Sheriff Sam Whitehurst featured the regular meeting of the Board of County Commissioners here yesterday.

Along with the settlement all tax collections were transferred to the tax collection department created last summer. No other matter of any importance was considered by the board, attention being confined almost exclusively to the paying of bills and reading of reports.

Negro Residence Damaged by Fire

The home of Annie Brady, colored, on Long street, was damaged by fire of undetermined origin last night about 9 o'clock.

Originating in a closet, the flames had spread to three rooms before being brought under control by the fire department.

The loss was estimated at $1,200 and was partly covered by insurance.

Mr. and Mrs. Winslow's Guests Leave

Lieut. and Mrs. D. R. Taylor, of Fort McPherson, Ga.; Miss Louise Winslow, who attends Agnes Scott College in Atlanta, Ga.; Miss Elizabeth Winslow, in Durham, and Miss Florence Winslow, of Kansas City, who is taking library work at the University of North Carolina, in Chapel Hill, have returned after spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Winslow.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Blanks, matron-of-honor, and was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Clyde Bullock.

Mrs. Blanks and Miss Paul wore tailored blue dresses with blue hats and other accessories of black, and wore shoulder corsages of pink and white sweet peas and roses.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Nobles will make their home in Greenville, where Mr. Nobles is manager of a D. Pender store.

Mr. Louis Edward Paul announces the marriage of his daughter Evelyn Mae to Mr. Clyde Bullock on Sunday, the twenty-seventh of December.

No cards issued in town.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Blanks entertained at tea Sunday afternoon at their home in Morningside, Asheville, to honor Mr. and Mrs. Herman Nobles and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bullock, brides and grooms. Mrs. Nobles, the former Miss Betty Mae Potter, is a sister of Mrs. Blanks.

The host and hostess greeted the callers at the door and introduced them to the honor guests.

Upon arrival, Miss Grace Beacham asked each guest to register in the two brides' books. Tiny bags of rice were distributed among the guests, and it was showered upon the brides and grooms, carrying out the old tradition to wish them prosperity and to avert evil as well.

The living room was gay with arrangements of red Christmas berries, evergreens and lighted red candles, and a beautiful Christmas tree with twinkling lights was placed in the sun room.

A white and green color note predominated in the dining room where tall green lighted tapers on the buffet and on the four corners of the table made a lovely scene. A silver basket of white cut flowers graced the buffet.

The tea table, which was covered with an imported embroidered linen

cloth, held as its centerpiece a three-tier wedding cake surrounded by sprays of blooming spirea, mistletoe and small glowing candles, and surmounted by two tiny brides and grooms. Mrs. Nobles and Mrs. Bullock cut the cake.

Mrs. Edward P. Corey poured tea, and Mrs. Loy E. Ballard and Mrs. O. H. Tilson assisted in serving the wedding cake, salted nuts, dainty green and white heart-shaped sandwiches and green mints in heart shapes.

FROWNS GREET TARIFF BILL

New Measure Being Rushed Thru House Despite Displeasure of Administration.

Washington, Jan. 5.—(AP)—The administration frowned today on the new Democratic tariff bill but the House continued rushing it to quick passage.

A veto was forecast if the Republican Senate fails to stop the bill's progress. Administration leaders in Congress ascertained that President Hoover felt the tariff issue should not be brought up now at all.

To some extent the Democrats have already shown they anticipated this. The bill is freely characterized as a declaration of party policy, an indication of what might be expected by the country with the Democrats in power.

Approved by the potent joint democratic congressional policy committee, the measure came before the House Ways and Means committee for hearing today. Its approval by that group, consisting of 15 Democrats and ten Republicans, is certain.

Democratic leaders said its passage was "certain by not later than Thursday."

The measure does not touch the rate structure in the Smoot-Hawley bill, the policy committee assuming that with the Republicans

ABOUT TOWN

The action of the Senate authorizing the disposition of 45,000,000 bushels of wheat to American unemployed will receive public approbation in all parts of the country.

It is much better to use the wheat for relieving hunger than throwing it into the ocean as at one time proposed.

Such a proposal was nothing more than foolhardy with thousands of hungry people roaming the streets in quest of jobs and the Senate has taken a course that should do much toward amelioration of suffering during the winter.

Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania is greatly wrought up over President Hoover's plan for the relief of unemployment.

Testifying before a congressional committee yesterday, the governor declared the plan was vicious, inimical to the welfare of the "little man" and favorable to the "big man."

He meant that Mr. Hoover planned to take money out of the pockets of the average citizen and put it into the pockets of the moneyed interests.

For once in his life the governor is unnecessarily aroused.

The little an long ago had his pockets cleaned to the bottom, and the Hoover plan will accomplish little in this direction.

A president, judging by opinion aired freely in all parts of the nation the last two years, must have more qualifications than a leopard has spots if he is to meet the favor of everybody.

Only yesterday Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick in an editorial pointed out that President Hoover "is not a popular leader," and called on the Republican party to repudiate him in the forthcoming election.

Almost simultaneously Bishop Cannon said that if the Democrats did not put out a candidate as fast-footed on his dry issue as President Hoover he would not receive the support of the dregs, of which the stormy bishop for years has been one of the most indomitable leaders.

In addition, millions of others want a president with a greater prosperity perspective, in spite of the fact that he Republicans four years ago set Mr. Hoover up as one of the greatest exponents of good times of the age.

The Democrats have not as yet had an opportunity to meet the requirements, but with all the opinions to the fore, it is hoped they will nominate a man combining as many of the requisites as they are able to do and then see what happens.

The Greenville tobacco market re-opened for business today following observance of the holidays.

The opening found buyers of all the principal buying interests in place ready to purchase the remainder of the crop of the greatest bright leaf producing section of the country.

Greenville has attracted attention of all parts of the country in past years, but especially this season when it forged to the front as the leading market of the belt.

Farmers are always confident of getting the best in the way of service and prices when selling on this market and this is one of the reasons why the market has taken such an elevated position in the bright leaf industry.

Persons who are forever cocking their ears for slightest indications of trouble saw great possibilities in the attack of three Japanese soldiers on the American vice-consul in Manchuria, but the fact that Japan poloziged immediately dissipate any chance of hostilities between these two countries.

It is true the Japanese have defied this government and all powers represented in the League of Nations by continuing her attack on the Chinese, but she is not ready to incur the open displeasure of this country.

America, on the other hand, with a deficit away over a billion dol-

ELECTION ON IN HAMPSHIRE

Balloting for Congressional Post Being Watched by Both Parties.

Washington, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Unusual national political interest attached today to an obscure, special election in the first New Hampshire congressional district.

Leaders in both major parties are hoping for victory, but expect the outcome to be close. The Democrats want the seat to swell their House membership to 220 and for the political effect in the presidential election. The Republicans are anxious to stem the invasion into their normal territory which has turned the House over to Democratic control.

Both candidates in the district are strong in their respective parties. John H. Bartlett, the Republican nominee, is a member of the International Boundary commission, formerly was an assistant postmaster general and chairman of the Civil Service Commission. Senator Moses, leading New Hampshire Republican, is backing Bartlett.

William N. Rogers, the Democratic candidate, served previously in the House from New Hampshire, retiring in 1924. Jouett Shouse, chairman of the Democratic national executive committee, and other leading party members have gone up there to speak for him.

Rogers favors repeal of the 18th amendment, while Bartlett expressed himself as willing to vote for a referendum on prohibition.

Death of Representative Fletcher Hale, a Republican, who served six years, caused the vacancy.

Two Killed As 3 Cars Wreck

Fredericksburg, Va., Jan. 5.—(AP)—Circumstances under which three cars collided on the Richmond-Washington highway seven miles south of here, taking the lives of two persons and injuring five others are under investigation by state motor vehicle officers.

Jack Huntly, 20, of Salisbury, N. C., and Earl Tuttle, 24, of Massaponax, Va. were killed in the crash last night. Everett Trexler 19; Robert Hannsell, 20; and his father, R. C. Hannsell, 40, all of Salisbury; David L. Sherrill, 20, of Columbia, S. C., a marine stationed at Quantico, and Charles Clark, 24, of Massaponax, were brought to a hospital here suffering with injuries varying in seriousness.

Mrs. H. O. Clary of Portsmouth, who was riding alone and was the only one to be identified as a driver of one of the three cars, escaped unhurt.

It was said last night that the North Carolina car and the one operated by Mrs. Clary were proceeding in opposite directions and side-swiped each other. The third car piled into the resulting wreckage.

NOTICE OF PARDON

Notice is hereby given that on or after January 2, 1932, I will apply to the Governor of North Carolina for a pardon for abandonment, for a term of two years, on the Roads of Pitt County, and all parties having any objection to it are hereby notified to file such objections with His Excellency.

DODGERS WILL BE DIFFERENT CLUB IN 1932

New York, Jan. 5.—(AP)—You'll scarcely recognize the Brooklyn Dodgers, erstwhile "happiness boys of baseball," when the 1932 season rolls around.

Max Carey is authority for the statement it will be a different looking ball club.

Although the club owners have provided Carey with twelve "new" players, the inn keeper at Clearwater will require few introductions when the squad reaches the training camp. Of the eleven men recalled from Hartford, Dodger farm, all but one were with the parent team at one time or another in 1931.

The only bonafide new Dodger is Arthur Jones, a pitcher from Kershaw, S. C.

The outstanding prospects among the Hartford contingent are four young pitchers, Phil Gallivan, Van Mungo, John Krider and Earl Mattingly. They fairly burned down the Eastern league last season, between them winning 60 games and losing 18.

Frank O'Doul, Floyd (Babe) Herman and Johnny Frederick are to return to the outfield, with Ray Bressler filling in now and then.

Del Bissone, who recently underwent a successful operation on his throwing arm, faces no real competition at first and Walter Gilbert will return to his post at third.

Captain Glenn Wright, whose ankles failed him last season, has announced he'll be in shape again and expects to reclaim his job at shortstop. Presco Thompson, ailing much of last season, may lose out to young Mickey Finn at second.

Though his fast one isn't what it used to be, Dazzy Vance is expected to head the pitching staff. Watson Clark, Ray Phelps, Adolfo Luque, Lefty Heimach, Clyde Day, Austin Moore, Hollis Thurston, Joe Shaute and John Quinn are other veteran hurlers at Carey's disposal.

Al Lopez and Ernest Lombardi will be back to divide the catching, with Val Picinich in reserve.

SPORTS SLANTS

Big, good-natured Barney Berlinger would be among the last to want any more medals pinned on his broad chest. Nevertheless he will have to stand still while the Amateur Athletic Union pins the James E. Sullivan Memorial Medal on him for being the "outstanding amateur athlete of 1931."

Bobby Jones won this award in 1930, the first year it was introduced as a recognition of conspicuous activity, sportsmanship and character.

Chivalry almost prevailed in the past year's contest, for Helene Madison the world's greatest woman swimmer, was within two points of tying Berlinger and Helen Willis Moody, the world's greatest woman tennis player, placed third on a list of 10 figuring in the A. A. U.'s final ballot.

I may be wrong in presuming that a number of my friends of the A. A. U. felt like keeping the award "in the family," but the results of the balloting with Berlinger, Madison and Moody at the top, come as a distinct surprise.

I find much mention of Berlinger's activities in South Africa during the year but what about this all-around activities, sportsmanship example furnished right at home by Harvard's Barry Wood?

For sheer competitive achievement, what amateur athlete could compare with Ellsworth Vines over the year's course? For come-back glamour and the old fighting spirit, where was there an accomplishment to surpass that of Francis Ouimet?

Protest

Of course we picked Outmet, Wood and Vines as our trio of nominations in the James E. Sullivan Memorial contest. This carries with it the privilege of making a squawk.

What we can't figure out is just how these three can finish so far behind the parade in a nationally representative poll. Ouimet tying with Clarence DeMar for fourth place, Wood placing sixth and Vines eighth.

Clarence DeMar is a grand old man, plodding along in his forties just for the joy of marathon running, but I can't understand where he got all those votes unless it was on a mileage basis.

In the Associated Press national poll among sports experts as to the outstanding individual achievement of the year, the three leading amateurs were Vines, Ouimet and Madison.

Maybe Dan Ferris can shed some light on the hysterics of the A. A. U. poll. I'll ask him.

MAXIE READY FOR RING TILT

New York, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Max Schmeling is back again to undertake a fistie program he hopes will earn him $1,000,000 in the next nine months.

It's a far cry to that day, late in 1928, when Schmeling, then an unknown German box fighter, first arrived in New York. Since then he has won the world's heavyweight championship and successfully defended it against Young Stribling. He already has made a fortune.

Der Maxie has three title defenses in mind for this season, against Mickey Walker, Jack Dempsey and Jack Sharkey but the chances are he will find the game will not be able to support more than two in the style to which heavyweight championships have been accustomed.

Schmeling's first defense will be against Walker at Miami, Fla., late in February, probably Feb. 26.

Believing he will have no special trouble in disposing of Walker, he is looking ahead toward a possible meeting with Dempsey in June, probably in the Yankee Stadium here.

If Dempsey is ready to attempt a comeback at that time, then Max in the event of a victory over the old Manassa mauler, would be ready to give Sharkey a "shot" at the title.

But if Dempsey would rather wait until September then Schmeling will wait for him. There will be no match in June and Sharkey will have to wait another year for a chance at the title he handed Max by hitting him mellow in their famous fourth round bout in the Yankee Stadium in June, 1930.

Associated Press Staff Writer
Cincinnati, O., Jan. 4.—(AP)—The Cincinnati Reds have brought campaign.

The outfield still is weak offensively and half the infield is uncertain. There is nothing much wrong with the pitching staff, on the other hand, and the catching department appears to have been bolstered by Clyde Manion, drafted from Milwaukee.

Neither owner, Sidney Weil nor Manager Dan Howley, is satisfied but they are living in the hope that several newcomers will blossom into big league stars. Howley serving the last of a three-year term, has had little luck since he left the St. Louis Browns for the local post.

Prospects are the outfield will consist of Esqul Crabtree, Taylor Douthitt and Walter Roettger, a trio of fine fielders but not so powerful at bat. Roettger, traded to the Cardinals last summer, was re-purchased from the champions this winter. Several clubs have been after the youngster, Crabtree, but Weil refused to let him go.

In addition, Howley will have CHIT Heatcote, erstwhile Cub, the veteran Ed Roush and Gene Moore, a bright prospect recalled from the American Association.

Mickey Heath is the lad counted upon to bare the infield. He made a great start at first base last year only to be forced out by a broken wrist. If he comes through as expected he will crowd the heavy-hitting but aging Harvey Hendrick off the initial cushion.

Tony Cucinello and Joe Tripp are fixtures at second and third but Leo Durocher will have to out-step Joe Morrissey, purchased from St. Paul, if he is to remain at shortstop.

And High, the game little fellow who stepped in at third base and helped the Cardinals win the last world series, was purchased as a utility infielder. Otto Bluege, a promising shortstop, was called from Peoria.

Although six young pitchers will report to Howley at Tampa, there is only one sure-fire prospect. He is Olive Eckert, bought from Quincy where he won 11 and lost five last year. The others are John Fonger and John John Smith from Davenport, Walter Hiltcher and Elmer Jennings from Peoria and Dale Mills from Bartlesville.

Red Lucas, Benny Frey, Larry Benton and St. Johnson again will do the bulk of the pitching with Kolph, Wyszog, Ogden and Carroll also back from last year. The reduction of the major league player limit to 27 marks the passing of Eppa Rixey, dean of the hurling staff.

The Reds passed up the great one, Arthur Shires, to get Manion in the draft. The veteran backstop hit 353 last season. Clyde Skeeforth and Bob Asbjornson will be in reserve.

Well Enough!
Indiana Harbor, Ind.—What's in a name? Plenty! Steve Balas, invited to be best man at a namesake's wedding just for the novelty of it, found a third Steve Balas there and the two battled for the honor of escorting the bridegroom. One wound up in the hospital, the other in jail.

WINTER SPORTS ENTHUSIASTS

BIG FIVE CAGE TEAMS START ACTION AGAIN

Charlotte, Jan. 4.—(AP)—Idle for two weeks of Christmas holidays, the Big Five basketball teams return to action this week with the invasion of William and Mary for games with N. C. State and Duke, a high spot on the week's schedule.

The Virginians take on the Red Terrors Friday night and Saturday clash with the Blue Devils.

Gulford and the University of North Carolina will open the renewed quilt activity at Chapel Hill Wednesday. It will be the first game of the season for the Tar Heels and, incidentally, their first under a new coach, Bo Shephard, who replaced James Ashmore.

The race for the Big Five title begins Friday with Duke and Wake Forest playing at Durham.

Wake Forest trimmed Atlantic Christian College in its only game before the holidays while the Blue Devils lost two games on a three-game northern trip. Baltimore University and Georgetown turned back the Duke crew, but Catholic University was beaten.

North Carolina State whipped Atlantic Christian in its only game before the holidays.

Both Gulford and Appalachian will be in action Saturday night. The Quakers take on the Winston-Salem Y team while the Mountaineers meet Union.

$150,000 Fire at Windy City

Boston, Jan. 4.—(AP)—Fire early today destroyed the Odd Fellows Building, a large five story stone building in the south end with loss estimated by Fire Chief Henry Fox at $150,000. Several firemen were injured and two hundred guests were driven from their rooms in the adjoining hotel Clarendon.

The block housed more than 60 lodges and social organizations, a number of professional offices and, on the ground floor, several small business establishments.

The cause of the blaze was not determined.

Breaks Resolution and Lands in Jail

Winston Salem, Jan. 4.—(AP)—John Wallace, 62, started off the new year by breaking a five-year resolution—one he has broken 77 times in 24 years—and landed in jail.

On December 6, 1925, Wallace, a painter, swore off drinking before Judge Tom Watson and he kept his word for five years. Each New Year's he renewed his resolution. Then came 1932 and Wallace

Market Report

Cotton--Stocks--Grain

N. Y. COTTON

New York, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady today, one point off to two points up, with orders equally divided. March sold at 62.

Liverpool was a moderate seller here, however, and prices sagged off a point or two by the end of the first half hour in a comparatively quiet and narrow market. March reacted to 62 1/2 with the general list ruling about net un. changed to three points lower. The smaller offerings from the south were attributed partly to wet weather which is delaying the movement. Liverpool cables reported hedging with London and Bombay selling in that market and said there was only a small business in cotton cloths.

GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Highest prices on wheat were scored in the late dealings today, notwithstanding reports of a foot of snow in parts of the southwest region that for months has lacked sufficient sub-soil moisture. Corn price advances were stimulated by word of a blizzard in sections of Kansas and Nebraska.

Wheat closed firm at the day's top level, 1-2 to 1-1/8 higher than yesterday's finish, corn 3-8 to 5-8 up, oats 1-4 to 3-8 advanced, and provisions varying from 2 cents decline to a rise of 5 cents.

STOCK MARKET

New York, Jan. 5.—(AP)—The familiar bogey of dividend shrinkage once more reared its head in the stock market today.

Despite the fact that recent prices have generally been regarded as discounting further dividend cuts, reductions by such companies as American Smelting and Santa Fe Railroad brought fresh recessions. Suspension of Gurnett & Co., a prominent New England brokerage house, had little effect on the market, save in a few issues in which the firm was interested.

Santa Fe dropped more than 4 points, and American Smelting more than 3. On the whole, however, selling was in moderate volume, and many of the leaders sagged only fractionally. Among the few issues losing 2 to 3 points were American Telephone, Coca Cola, Union Pacific, First National Stores, and Electric Automobile. Waldorf System, in which the New England firm was said to have been particularly interested, broke about 6 points, then recovered slightly. Ludlum Steel also dropped rather sharply.

The progress of the bill in Congress creating the Reconstruction Finance Corp. is being watched with keen interest in Wall Street, where the measure is much favored. It is felt that this corporation would prove much more effective in restoring public confidence than the National Credit Corp.

PRES. HOOVER PREPARES

TO OPPOSE SALARY CUTS

was passed among administration leaders at the capitol that he is ready to take an adamant stand. Should proposals to cut wages receive widespread support, it was said definitely he will declare for maintenance of government wages. He feels definitely not only that the government must maintain its wage scale to retain capable officials in responsible offices but also that the government would set the country a bad example by any general wage reduction.

Senator Borah, Republican of Idaho, yesterday introduced several measures that would lower the salaries of the Vice-President, the speaker, and all cabinet members from $15,000 to $12,000, slash congressional wages from $10,000 to $8,000, and members of the Farm Board from $12,000 to $9,000.

Simultaneously Representative McGugin, Republican, Kansas, suggested an emergency reduction ranging from ten per cent on incomes in the lower brackets to 20 per cent on salaries over $5,000.

It was learned the Young brothers were in the bathroom when the officers came. Heard and Beverly fired about 12 pistol shots through the closed door.

Then three shots were heard from within before officers heard the call: "We are dead." Come and get us." A pause and then there were three more shots.

After a frantic search the girl was found in a Providence hotel room several days after she disappeared in Philadelphia en route home from a Swarthmore, Pa., girl's school. She was dazed when found and overstudied was believed by her father to have contributed to her condition.

he said that "close to $300,000,000 will have to be raised through sales taxes."

The Illinois Representative made it clear that the sales taxes would not be general, suggesting that levies be made on gasoline, automobiles, radio and stamp sales.

"We will have to touch many things to raise the revenue needed to balance the budget," he said.

He suggested that the maximum income tax would be 40 per cent, which is 20 per cent less than the war-time maximum tax on big incomes.

affiliated with the Nationalist Congress in Calcutta and its suburbs were declared unlawful by the government.

In his appeal to Christians Gandhi said: "I have full trust that in the present struggle you will tender your loyalty to one whom you call the Prince of Peace; will not be behind any other community in a struggle which is essentially based on peace."

He urged Christians to adopt the spinning wheel and handloom garments and to renounce drink.

In a farewell telegram to Lord Linlithgow, former viceroy with whom he concluded the Delhi pact last year, bringing temporary peace in the conflict, he said: "Pray believe me, I tried my best, but failed. Nevertheless, I do not lose hope and, God willing, I shall retain the same spirit you believe actuated me during that eventful week in Delhi. I shall not bicker your certainties."

Madeline Glade, his faithful disciple, went today with Mrs. Gandhi and David Gandhi to the Mahatma's shrine of brotherhood and love at Ahmedabad to pray for his release and India's emancipation. They expected to be arrested afterward on charges of having joined the army of civil resistance.

JAPANESE APOLOGIZE TO U. S.

FOR ATTACK ON CONSUL

Acting on instructions of his government, Ambassador Debutchi of Japan expressed to Secretary Stimson at the State Department the Japanese government's "sincere regret" over the "unfortunate incident at Mukden."

After calling on the secretary, the ambassador declined to say whether Secretary Stimson had expressed himself as "satisfied" with the apology.

The ambassador's only statement was: "On telegraphic instructions of my government I have come to the State Department to express the sincere regret of Japan over the recent unfortunate incident at Mukden."

TWO FAVETTEVILLE BANKS

FAIL TO OPEN TODAY

Fayetteville, Jan. 5.—(AP)—The Cumberland National Bank and the Carolina Savings and Trust Company, allied concerns, did not open for business here today.

The Cumberland had deposits at the time of its last statement Sept. 29, of $763,719.48, and the Carolina had $193,751.68.

Frank H. Stedman was president of both institutions. Albert Stewart was cashier of the Cumberland and Paul Stewart of the Carolina.

The boards of directors announced last heavy withdrawals within the past two days had made the action necessary so that the depositors might share alike.

The local institution of the Branch Banking & Trust Company, which operates 18 banks in Eastern Carolina, was the only remaining bank in operation here today.

QUICK RELIEF FROM HEADACHE

If you suffer from headache or pain from functional menstruation, toothache, neuritis, fever or from muscle ache, bone ache or nervousness, take Stanback Headache Powders and get relief quickly and pleasantly. 10c.

But be sure and ask for Stanback Headache Powders by name. Look for the name Stanback Headache Powders on the blue and yellow packages. Refuse the unfair offer of "something just as good" which may be made out of impure, poorly blended coal tar extracts that might hurt your heart and poison your blood. Stanback Headache Powders are not made out of opium, morphine, cocaine or alcohol and form no habit. Therefore, ask for Stanback Headache Powders by name and get what you ask for.
